From the Venerable W. WESTON ELWES, M.A., Archdeacon of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 28th February 1894, No. 1733.

I have the honour to forward, enclosed, certain papers supplied to me by the Acting Garrison Chaplain, Fort St. George, with reference to G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98, Ecclesiastical, paragraph 2.

(1) List of persons buried in St. Mary's Church.
(2) Do. to whose memories tablets have been erected in St. Mary's Church.
(3) List of monuments of interest in St. Mary's Cemetery.

2. The Chaplain points out that in addition to the above there are round the exterior of St. Mary's Church upwards of 100 very old tomb-stones, which were placed there in 1760 when the old tombs outside the Fort were demolished. As, however, His Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, when Governor of Madras, caused fac-similies of all these old tomb-stones to be published in a book, copies of which he believes are with Government, the Chaplain has not enumerated these.

ENCLOSURE.

List of persons buried in St. Mary's Church, Fort St. George, as required by G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98.

..	..	"In memoriam."—A granite slab with a cross and the inscription "in memoriam" was placed by order of the Government of Madras, over a grave and lead encased coffin which were discovered while digging the grave for the late Lord Hobart in the Church. It is supposed to be the coffin with the mortal remains of the late Lord Pigot, Governor of Madras, who died while a prisoner in the hands of his Council. As no plate or any inscription was found on the coffin, the slab referred to was placed to mark the spot.

1818 ..	14th Mar.	Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Major T. F. de Havilland, of Engineers, and daughter of T. de Saumarez of Guernsey, Esq., Attorney-General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind was an ornament to society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of events bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the inscrutable ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.
1824 ..	24th May.	Catherine, wife of Lieut.-Col. Miles of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, C.B., K.T.S., daughter and co-heiress of the Ven. Dr. Falconer, Dean of Litchfield, aged 44 years.
1822 ..	10th Aug.	Henry Harris, M.D., First Member of the Medical Board, who was taken from this life in the 54th year of his age. His superior abilities, his almost unequalled skill, and extreme kindness and humanity in his professional capacity are too well known to need any eulogium here. This humble tribute is erected by his afflicted wife who can never cease to lament the irreparable loss herself and children have sustained or to remember his many virtues and good qualities and whose greatest consolation is the hope of being re-united in another and better world.
1828 ..	29th Sept.	Harriet, wife of J. Dalmahoy, Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie, Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tombstone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body reposes here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.
1852 ..	24th July	Leonard Cooper, Esq., Solicitor and late Sheriff of Madras, aged 46 years 4 months and 14 days. "Blessed are the pure in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." This tomb is erected as a tribute of deep affection by his afflicted widow and children.
1835 ..	15th May	Sir Andrew McDowell, K.C.B., late Major-General in the Honorable Company's Service on the Madras Establishment, aged 72 years.
1844 ..	26th Sept.	Thomas Moore Lane, Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to Honorable East India Company on the Medical establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawaub and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale, K.T. and C.B., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honorable labours. Aged 47 years. This tomb is erected as a memorial of affection by his disconsolate widow and children.
1839 ..	20th July.	Ashmead William Pruen, Esq., late Coroner of Madras, aged 24 years. He was destined for the medical profession, but his health gave way under the prosecution of his studies in London and Paris and compelled him to seek a warmer climate. The change, however, was ineffectual and he expired about two years after. His arrival in this country in which he had lived long enough gained the good will, esteem and affection of all who knew him.

1833 ..	10th Oct.	John Monckton Coombs, Lieutenant-Colonel, of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who after an honorable career of 33 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, but on the general staff and confidentially under General McDowell, Commander-in-Chief, and the Honorable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales Island, was mortally wounded at the cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from Ball practice with his brigade by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal.
1884 ..	13th Aug.	John Franklin Gell, M.A., aged 33. Erected by his affectionate pupils, the minor Zemindars of Ramnad and Guntamanayakanur in grateful remembrance of his devotion to their welfare. "I will raise him up at the last day." Where I am there shall also my servant be."
1884 ..	25th Jan.	George Warlow, Priest, Archdeacon of Madras, aged 47. "Faithful unto death." Erected by his wife and son.

1859 ..	5th Mar.	The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry, D.D., of St. Catharine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years first as Chaplain in the H.E.C.S and Archdeacon of Calcutta, and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work, in the 66th year of his age, and the twelfth of his Episcopate. "Preaching Peace by Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all."—Acts x., 36.
1839 ..	2nd Mar.	James Henry Frith, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Madras Artillery and Companion of the Order of the Bath, aged 52 years. This monument is erected by his only child and her husband in grateful and affectionate regard to his memory and many virtues.
1827 ..	16th July.	Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble, C.B., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.
1859 ..	7th June.	Sarah, the much loved wife of Lieutenant-Colonel W. G. Woods, 6th Light Cavalry, Adjutant-General of the Army. "Alive unto God, through Jesus Christ." She fell asleep in Him at Madras. Aged 42.

Kings iii., 6. "In thy presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore"—Ps. xvi., 11.
		Tablets in St. George's Cathedral.
1837 ..	5th Feb.	Sacred to the memory of Right Reverend Daniel Corrie, LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. God forbid that I should glory save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honorable East India Company and from them he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See—By the Grace of the Holy Ghost, his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of Salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten to kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.
1843 ..	20th Sept.	This marble tablet is dedicated by his eldest son to the memory of the Honorable Sir John David Norton, Kt., who was appointed Her Majesty's Puisne Justice at Madras, 1841, and who died and was buried at sea on the—in the 56th year of his age, after having won universal respect and esteem during his brief tenure of office. He was a man exemplary in every relation of life, a lover of all that is good and beautiful and true. His last words were witness to the purity of his whole life—"God's will be done, I have nothing to fear."

1855 ..	9th Sept.	Also to the memory of Lieut. W. T. Cardale, 25th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, who died at Madras on—of fever contracted on the Arrakan Hills. The officers of the corps, to evince their sincere regret and sorrow for the loss of their brother officers, have erected this tablet.

Year.		Name, parentage and age.
1824 ..	18th July	Sacred to the memory of Charles Harwood Higginson, Esq., Senior Judge of the Court of Appeal and Circuit for the Southern Division of this Presidency, who departed this life at Trichinopoly on—. Aged 40 years. Impressed with a deep sense of duty to his Creator, he discharged it in the true spirit of Christianity with meekness and humility. A pious and dutiful son, an attached and affectionate husband, a kind and generous master, a warm and sincere friend;—these were his virtues in private life; in the discharge of his public duties, he evinced a sound judgment, diligent and unwearied attention, a just but merciful consideration of the merits and demerits of those whom it was his duty to judge, pure and incorruptible integrity. His surviving friends have raised this monument in testimony of their love, esteem and respect for one of the best of men.
1845 ..	9th Feb.	Sacred to the memory of William Griffith, Esq., F.L.S., Madras Medical Service, born at Ilam in the county of Surrey, March 1810. He had attained to the highest eminence in the scientific world and was one of the most distinguished Botanists of the age. He acquired his knowledge by personal investigation in the different provinces of British India, and in the neighbouring kingdoms from the banks of the Helmund and Oxus to the Straits of Malacca, where in the capacity of Civil Assistant Surgeon he died in the 35th year of his age and the 13th year of his public service in India. His early death is deeply deplored by numerous private friends, and his loss to the cause of science elicited a public and emphatic expression of regret from the Governor-General of India. This tablet is erected as an humble tribute to his memory by a few of his medical brethren of the Medical Service.

1845 ..	21st Dec.	Sacred to the memory of Major George Broadfoot, C.B., 34th Madras Light Infantry, of Kirkwall in the Orkneys, and of London. His valour, foresight and science mainly contributed to the success of the glorious defence of Jellalabad, and in the ensuing Affghan Campaign, he with his brave Corps of Mountain Sappers acquired enduring renown. His diplomatic and military services as Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces and as Governor-General's Agent on the North-West Frontier at a most important crisis of our Indian Empire called forth the eloquent eulogy of Sir H. Hardinge, that he was as brave "as he was able and second to none in all the great qualities of an accomplished officer." He fell at the battle of Feroseshahar in his 39th year, acting as Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General. "Though severely wounded, he continued heroically to lead and animate the troops in the assault until mortally wounded in the Sikh camp at the moment of victory," the last of three brothers who died for their country on the battle-fields of Asia —Raised by public subscription throughout the Presidency of Madras.

He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honorable labours on — aged 47 years. This tablet is erected as a memorial of affection and respect for a beloved friend, who being dead yet speaketh both in the example of his life and the blessed testimony he has left of the ground of his faith and hope:— "I desire on this solemn occasion to record my hopes of a joyful resurrection through faith in the atoning blood of my dear Redeemer being justified by faith, I have peace with God, before whom I shall stand on the judgment day not in my own righteousness, which is indeed as filthy rags; but in the perfect and imputed righteousness of Christ Jesus, my Lord and my God. This is the anchor of my soul. "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith." Heb. 12, 1-2.
1856 ..	4th July.	To the memory of Ralph Horsley, of the Madras Civil Service, who was cut off by the hand of an unknown assassin at Bellary, on the night of — in the 26th year of his age. This tablet has been erected by several of his college friends.

1836 ..	2nd Sep. and 2nd Oct.	This simple tablet recordeth the names of an affectionate husband and of a dutiful son, Lieutenant-Colonel William Garrard and Lieutenant William Garrard, late of the Madras Engineers, who died at the Neilgherry Hills, the former on — aged 56, the latter on — aged 26. Colonel Garrard, through a course of 40 years, gallantly, zealously and with fidelity served his king and country and rose to the honorable station of Chief Engineer, but while thus discharging the duties thereof, the Almighty Ruler of events was pleased to change his earthly abode for a better mansion. His virtuous son was emulating the father's bright example as a faithful servant when his days were likewise numbered. The afflicted widowed mother finds relief in this brief record.

1832 ..	12th Sep.	Sacred to the memory of James Stephen Lushington, Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, who died at the early age of 28 years, second son of the Right Honorable S. R. Lushington, M.P., late Governor of Madras, and of Anne Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Lord George Harris, late Governor of Madras. Distinguished on his first arrival in India by superior talents and acquirements and passing with rapid success through his studies in the College of Fort William, he gave early promise of that intellectual and moral worth which is recorded with admiring friendship by the pious and accomplished Heber and which his short but brilliant career in this Presidency developed and matured as the Private Secretary of the Governor. He acquired by his impartial courtesy the esteem of every branch of the public service, while his many virtues and endearing qualities secured the approbation and realized the hopes of his affectionate and bereaved father. This monument is erected by the society which he adorned as a just tribute to his departed excellence.
1858 ..	20th Apr.	In memory of Clarence Harry, only son of Lieutenant-Colonel H. Colbeck, Senior Magistrate of Police. He was a Lieutenant in Her Majesty's 3rd Madras European Regiment, was mortally wounded in action at Banda, and died on — aged 22 years. Also of Emma, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel H. Colbeck and mother of the above. She was born on the 31st May 1806 and died at Bangalore on 16th July 1859. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

From the Revd. W. F. ARCHIBALD, Senior Chaplian, Church of Scotland, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Secunderabad, 6th March 1894.

I have the honour to forward, in accordance with G.O., 29th November 1893, No. 98, Ecclesiastical, a list of tombs in St. Andrew's Cemetry, Madras.

1824 ..	5th Dec.	Lieutenant-Colonel James Walker, 3rd Regiment, Madras Light Infantry, who was killed when leading a column of Madras Troops to the storm of the Burmese intrenched lines near Rangoon. Thus fell in the moment of victory at the age of forty-two, a man whose name is recorded in the annals of his country as "One of India's best and bravest soldiers." Erected by the officers of the regiment and a few other military friends.
1852 ..	11th July.	George Adams, Esq., late Physician-General, Madras Establishment, who died in England on the 11th July 1852, aged 71 years, and whose mortal remains were deposited in the Chapel of the Kensal Green Cemetery. Read—endorsement of the Revenue Department, dated 27th November 1893, No. 4204, transferring to the Ecclesiastical Department Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 13th October 1893, Mis. No. 5854, regarding the preparation of a list of old tombs and monuments of interest for the new edition of the Manual of the Madras District.

The Government is anxious to obtain a complete list of all tombs and monuments of interest in the district of Madras for inclusion in the Manual which is under preparation. A copy of this order will be forwarded to all officials and others who are in charge of cemeteries with the request that they will kindly prepare such lists in the form attached and forward them to the Chief Secretary to Government at an early date.

2. The President of the Municipality will be requested to furnish particulars in regard to scattered tombs in the district and the Garrison Chaplain will prepare a list of the tomb-stones in and round St. Mary's Church. Lists of interesting tablets in churches should also be furnished. There must be many especially in St. George's Cathedral and St. Mary's Church.

The Hon
the Chief Secretary

Sir,

I have the honor to forward enclosed certain papers supplied to me by the Acting Garrison Chaplain, Fort St George with reference to G.O. 25th Nov 1893 No 908 Ecclesiastical

1 List of persons buried in St Marys Church
2 " " to whose memories tablets have been erected in St Marys Church.
3 List of monuments of interest in St Marys Cemetery

2. The Chaplain points out that in addition to the above there are round the exterior of St Marys Church upwards of 100 very old Tombstones which were placed there in 1760 when the old tombs outside the Fort were demolished. As however His Grace the Duke of Buckingham & Chandos then Governor of Madras caused facsimiles of all these old Tombstones to be published in a book copies of which he believes are still Government. The Chaplain has not enumerated these.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
W. Weston Elwes.
Archdeacon of Madras.

Theophilus Jr.
Vicar General
Archdiocese of Madras.

From The Venerable W. WESTON ELWES, M.A., Archdeacon of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 23th February 1894, No. 1732.

With reference to G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98, Ecclesiastical, paragraph 2, I have the honour to forward enclosed a list of monuments of interest in—

(1) St. George's Cathedral cemetery.
(2) St. George's Cathedral.

2. I have also had a complete list made of all inscriptions both in the Cathedral and the Cathedral cemetery, so that, if necessary, a copy can be supplied at any time.

Monuments in St. George's Cathedral Cemetery.

Year.	Name, parentage and age.
1874	Helen Roza, wife of Boyd Horsbrugh, Esq., of the Madras Civil Service, and youngest daughter of James Dorward, Esq., of the Madras ~~Medical~~ Service, born at Ootacamund, 13th July 1848, died at Madras, 30th August 1874.
	And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.
1866 .. 8th June.	Mary Helen Simpson, born 19th June 1817, daughter of the late George Meikle, Superintending Surgeon, H.S. Force, and for 30 years the beloved wife of Colonel G. W. A. Simpson, R.A.
	The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. This tablet is erected by a loving husband and daughter.
1879 .. 19th April.	I.H.S.—I believe in the Communion of Saints; in loving memory of my dear husband George Hardinge, M.A., M.I.C.E., Resident Engineer of the Madras Railway Company, born in Dublin, 20th January 1831. Amavimus, Amamus, Amabimus.
1884 .. 12th June.	T. K. Rogers, M.B., F.R.C.S, Surgeon, Madras Medical Service, Chemical Examiner to Government and Professor of Chemistry, Madras Medical College, aged 33 years and 8 months—erected by some of his brother officers.
	"Thy will be done."
1883 .. 12th July.	William Scott Drever, C.S.I., Colonel, Madras Staff Corps, who for 16 years held the office of Commissioner of Police, Madras, born 22nd July 1830. This monument was erected by his brother officers and friends.
1885 .. 22nd Mar.	Sir Vere Henry Levinge, Bart., of Knock Drin Co., Westmeath, Ireland and Pambar House, Kodaikanal, aged 66.
1884 .. 5th Feb.	M. J. M. (From records, Margaret) Jolliffe Milligan, Merchant, aged 20 years and 2 months.
~~1868~~ .. ~~2nd Sept.~~	~~I tried to do my duty.~~ (~~From records, John George.~~)
1863 .. 3rd Feb.	John Athole William Duff, aged 1 year 11 months 17 days; also
1849 .. 7th Aug.	Mary Louisa Duff, who died at Hoonsoor, aged 1 year 4 months and 13 days; also

1862 .. 19th April.	Louisa Stewart Murray Duff, who died at Edinburgh, aged 7 years 7 months and 24 days.
1837 .. 1st Nov.	Major Henry ~~Roach~~, Keighly, Idlicot, in Warwickshire, Judge Advocate-General of the Madras Army, aged 45 years.
1877 .. 18th April.	J.S.R. (From records, Joseph Samuel Roberts.)

1878 ..	15th Oct.	The Rev. David Fenn, M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, son of the late Rev. Joseph Fenn, Minister of Blackheath Park Church, England, born at Cottayam, 29th June 1826. For 26 years a Missionary of the Church Missionary Society, 17 years itinerant in North Tinnevelly, in Ceylon and around Madras, and the last 9, Secretary of the Madras Corresponding Committee. His self-forgetful love, his all embracing sympathy, his constant joyfulness, his devotions to his master's service, gained for him the high esteem and warm affection of his European and Native brethren. "Into Thine hands I commit my spirit, Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of Truth," One family we dwell in Him, One church, above, beneath, though now divided by the stream—the narrow stream of death.
1835 ..	21st May.	Major Henry White of the 7th Regiment, Native Infantry, and Deputy Military Secretary to Government, aged 45 years.
1835 ..	6th Oct.	M.R Ry. S. David Pillay, Secretary to His Highness the Maharajah of Tanjore, aged 51 years. "Why seek ye the living among the dead. He is not here"—erected by his youngest son, Samuel David.
1841 ..	2nd Feb.	Kenneth Macaulay, Esq., First Member of the Madras Medical Board, who, after nearly 40 years' service in India, departed this life, aged 61.
1841 ..	17th Dec.	James Cuddy, Esq., First Member of the Medical Board, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by few of his more intimate friends in testimony of the high estimation in which his public character as a Medical officer and his private worth as a member of society, were held during a protracted service of nearly 37 years in India.
1836 ..	21st Dec.	Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Corrie, First Bishop of Madras; she was married to him while Chaplain at Agra, 16th November 1812; she departed in the Lord on ——————. Aged 47 years. "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in their death they were not divided."
1830 ..	9th Oct.	Henry Byrne, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Master of the Supreme Court at Madras.
1828 ..	2nd July.	Ebenezer Brown, M.D., Inspector of Hospitals and Principal Medical Officer of the King's Troops on the Madras Presidency—erected by the officers of the Department.
1827 ..	21st Aug.	Lieutenant-Colonel William Read, Deputy Quartermaster-General of the King's Troops, Madras, aged 45 years. Here also are deposited the mortal remains of his daughter Elizabeth Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of Brigadier-General S. W. Steel, C.B., Commanding the Ceded Districts Division of the Madras Army, who died of spasmodic cholera at Palsamoodrum on the route to Bellary on 15th February 1849, aged 41. Her remains having been brought to Madras were buried in this her father's grave on 10th April 1849. Truly amiable and affectionate in all the relations of life, she was a thorough Christian in faith and practice, admired and respected by all to whom she was known, and adored by her dependents. She was the pride of her devoted husband's heart, the ornament of his home, and the light of his life. "O Lord Omnipotent — All Beneficent—All Wise Inscrutable—Thy will be done."
1821 ..	19th Nov.	Sir Samuel Toller, Kt., late Advocate-General of this Presidency, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by his disconsolate family with many tears.

1818 ..	14th Mar.	Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Major T. F. de Havilland, of Engineers, and daughter of T. de ~~Sansemarez~~ of Guernsey, Esq., Attorney-General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind was an ornament to ~~the~~ society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of ~~Events~~ bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the ~~inscribable~~ ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.
1824 ..	24th May.	Catherine, wife of Lieut-Col. Miles of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, C.B., K.T.S., daughter and co-heiress of the Ven. Dr. Falconer, Dean of Litchfield, aged 44 years.
1822 ..	10th Aug.	Henry Harris, M.D., First Member of the Medical Board, who was taken from this life in the 54th year of his age. His superior abilities ~~&~~ almost ~~unequal~~ skill, and extreme kindness and humanity in his professional capacity are too well known to need any eulogium here. This humble tribute is erected by his afflicted wife who can never cease to lament the irreparable loss herself and children have sustained or to remember his many virtues and good qualities and whose greatest consolation is the hope of being re-united in another ~~above~~ world.
1828 ..	29th Sept.	Harriet, wife of J. Dalmahoy, Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie, Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tombstone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body reposes here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.
1852 ..	24th July	Leonard Cooper, Esq., Solicitor and late Sheriff of Madras, aged 46 years 4 months and 14 days. "Blessed are the pure in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." This tomb is erected as a tribute of deep affection by his afflicted widow and children.
1835 ..	15th May	Sir Andrew McDowell, ~~K.C.~~, late Major-General in the Honorable Company's Service on the Madras Establishment, aged 72 years.
1844 ..	26th Sept.	Thomas Moore Lane, Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to Honorable East India Company on the Medical establishment, Physician to ~~Her~~ Highness the Nawaub and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale, K.T., and ~~ex~~, Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honorable labours. Aged 47 years. This tomb is erected as a memorial of affection by his disconsolate widow and children.
1839 ..	20th July.	Ashmead William Pruen, Esq., late Coroner of Madras, aged 24 years. He was destined for the medical profession, but his health gave way under the prosecution of his studies in London and Paris and compelled him to seek a warmer climate. The change, however, was ineffectual and he expired about two years after. His arrival in this country in which he had lived long enough gained the good will, esteem and affection of all who knew him.

Year.			Name, Parentage and Age.
1852	..	19th Nov.	Francisco Marquis DeSouza Lisboa, second son of the Chevalier Joze Marques Lisboa, ex-Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil to Her Brittanic Majesty and of Dona Johanna Marques DeSouza Lisboa. He was born at Brussels on 21st September 1834. Belonged to the Imperial Navy of Brazil and was admitted as a Midshipman into the Royal Navy of England where he served with honour and distinction from the 1st June 1848 until his death.
1833	..	10th Oct.	John Monckton Coombs, Lieutenant-Colonel, of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who after an honorable career of 33 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, but on the general staff and confidentially under General McDowell, Commander-in-Chief, and the Honorable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales Island, was mortally wounded at the cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from Ball practice with his brigade by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assasin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer ~~of~~ Government which he served with fidelity and zeal.
1884	..	13th Aug.	John Franklin Gell, M.A., aged 33. Erected by his affectionate pupils, the minor Zemindars of Ramnad and Guntamanayakanur in grateful remembrance of his devotion to their welfare. "I will raise him up at the last day." Where I am there shall also my servant be."
1884	..	25th Jan.	George Warlow, Priest, Archdeacon of Madras, aged 47. "Faithful unto death." Erected by his wife and son.
1847	..	26th Apl.	Thomas Green, Esq, A.B., late of Catherine Hall, Cambridge, and Headmaster of the Native Education Society School, Madras, aged 31 years. "O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."
1836	..	3rd Dec.	Major-General Sir George Elder, K.C.B., who after a long career of distinguished service as a soldier in various parts of the world, lost his life by accident at Madras, aged 57 years.
1859	..	5th Mar.	The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry, D.D., of St. Catharine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years first as Chaplain in the H.E.C.S and Archdeacon of Calcutta, and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work, in the 66th year of his age, and the twelfth of his Episcopate. "Preaching Peace by Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all."—Acts 36.
1839	..	2nd Mar.	James Henry Frith, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Madras Artillery and Companion of the Order of the Bath, aged 52 years. This monument is erected by his only child and her husband in grateful and affectionate regard to his memory and many virtues.
1827	..	16th July.	Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble, C.B., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ~~arder~~ ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.

1859 ..	7th June.	Sarah, the much loved wife of Lieutenant-Colonel W. G. Woods, 6th Light Cavalry, Adjutant-General of the Army. "Alive unto God, through Jesus Christ." She fell asleep in Him at Madras. Aged 42.
1820 ..	8th Oct.	Richard Yeldham, Esq., late Treasurer and Secretary to the Government Bank, aged 68 years. This monument was erected by his friends in India as a last tribute of their affectionate regard.
1891 ..	23rd June.	Norman Robert Pogson, C.I.E., F.R.A.S., Government Astronomer at Madras, from January 1861 to June 1891. Born 23rd March 1829. "He walked ..... in uprightness with thee"—I. Kings iii., 6. "In thy presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand, there are pleasures for evermore"—Ps. xvi., 11.
1837 ..	5th Feb.	Sacred to the memory of Right Reverend Daniel Corrie, LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. God forbid that I should glory save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honorable East India Company and from them he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See—By the Grace of the Holy Ghost, his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of Salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten to kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.
1843 ..	20th Sept. From the Venerable W. WESTON ELWES, M.A., Archdeacon of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 28th February 1894, No. 1733.

I have the honour to forward, enclosed, certain papers supplied to me by the Acting Garrison Chaplain, Fort St. George, with reference to G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98, Ecclesiastical, paragraph 2.

(1) List of persons buried in St. Mary's Church.
(2) Do. to whose memories tablets have been erected in St. Mary's Church.
(3) List of monuments of interest in St. Mary's Cemetery.

2. The Chaplain points out that in addition to the above there are round the exterior of St. Mary's Church upwards of 100 very old tomb-stones, which were placed there in 1760 when the old tombs outside the Fort were demolished. As, however, His Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, when Governor of Madras, caused fac-similies of all these old tomb-stones to be published in a book, copies of which he believes are with Government, the Chaplain has not enumerated these.

ENCLOSURE.

LIST of persons buried in St. Mary's Church, Fort St. George, as required by G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98.

Year.		Name, parentage and age.
..	..	"In memoriam."—A granite slab with a cross and the inscription "in memoriam" was placed by order of the Government of Madras, over a grave and lead encased coffin which were discovered while digging the grave for the late Lord Hobart in the Church. It is supposed to be the coffin with the mortal remains of the late Lord Pigot, Governor of Madras, who died while a prisoner in the hands of his Council. As no plate or any inscription was found on the coffin, the slab referred to was placed to mark the spot.

From the Venerable W. WESTON ELWES, M.A., Archdeacon of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 28th February 1894, No. 1733.

I have the honour to forward, enclosed, certain papers supplied to me by the Acting Garrison Chaplain, Fort St. George, with reference to G.O., dated 29th November 1893, No. 98, Ecclesiastical, paragraph 2.

(1) List of persons buried in St. Mary's Church.
(2) Do. to whose memories tablets have been erected in St. Mary's Church.
(3) List of monuments of interest in St. Mary's Cemetery.

2. The Chaplain points out that in addition to the above there are round the exterior of St. Mary's Church upwards of 100 very old tomb-stones, which were placed there in 1760 when the old tombs outside the Fort were demolished. As, however, His Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, when Governor of Madras, caused fac-similies of all these old tomb-stones to be published in a book, copies of which he believes are with Government, the Chaplain has not enumerated these.

Year.		Name, parentage and age.
1878 ..	15th Oct.	The Rev. David Fenn, M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, son of the late Rev. Joseph Fenn, Minister of Blackheath Park Church, England, born at Cottayam, 29th June 1826. For 26 years a Missionary of the Church Missionary Society, 17 years itinerant in North Tinnevelly, in Ceylon and around Madras, and the last 9, Secretary of the Madras Corresponding Committee. His self-forgetful love, his all embracing sympathy, his constant joyfulness, his devotions to his master's service, gained for him the high esteem and warm affection of his European and Native brethren. "Into Thine hands I commit my spirit, Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of Truth," One family we dwell in Him, One church, above, beneath, though now divided by the stream—the narrow stream of death.
1835 ..	21st May.	Major Henry White of the 7th Regiment, Native Infantry, and Deputy Military Secretary to Government, aged 45 years.
1835 ..	6th Oct.	M.R Ry. S. David Pillay, Secretary to His Highness the Maharajah of Tanjore, aged 51 years. "Why seek ye the living among the dead. He is not here"—erected by his youngest son, Samuel David.
1841 ..	2nd Feb.	Kenneth Mataulay, Esq., First Member of the Madras Medical Board, who, after nearly 40 years' service in India, departed this life, aged 61.
1841 ..	17th Dec.	James Cuddy, Esq., First Member of the Medical Board, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by few of his more intimate friends in testimony of the high estimation in which his public character as a Medical officer and his private worth as a member of society, were held during a protracted service of nearly 37 years in India.
1837 ..	5th Feb.	The Right Reverend Father in Christ, Daniel Corrie, LL.D., First Bishop of Madras, formerly Archdeacon of Calcutta and Chaplain on the Bengal establishment. He entered on the work of the ministry in India, 21st September 1806, on his Episcopal duties in this Diocese, 28th October 1835, and followed his beloved wife to his eternal rest. Aged 59 years. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, yea saith the spirit that they may rest from their labours and their works do follow them."
1836 ..	21st Dec.	Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Corrie, First Bishop of Madras; she was married to him while Chaplain at Agra, 16th November 1812; she departed in the Lord on ————. Aged 47 years. "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in their death they were not divided."
1830 ..	9th Oct.	Henry Byrne, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Master of the Supreme Court at Madras.
1828 ..	2nd July.	Ebenezer Brown, M.D., Inspector of Hospitals and Principal Medical Officer of the King's Troops in the Madras Presidency—erected by the officers of the Department.
1827 ..	21st Aug.	Lieutenant-Colonel William Read, Deputy Quartermaster-General of the King's Troops, Madras, aged 45 years. Here also are deposited the mortal remains of his daughter Elizabeth Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of Brigadier-General S. W. Steel, C.B., Commanding the Ceded Districts Division of the Madras Army, who died of spasmodic cholera at Palsamoodrum on the route to Bellary on 15th February 1849, aged 41. Her remains having been brought to Madras were buried in this her father's grave on 10th April 1849. Truly amiable and affectionate in all the relations of life, she was a thorough Christian in faith and practice, admired and respected by all to whom she was known, and adored by her dependents. She was the pride of her devoted husband's heart, the ornament of his home, and the light of his life. "O Lord Omnipotent — All Beneficent—All Wise Inscrutable—Thy will be done."
1821 ..	19th Nov.	Sir Samuel Toller, Kt., late Advocate-General of this Presidency, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by his disconsolate family with many tears.

1818 ..	14th Mar.	Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Major T. F. de Havilland, of Engineers' and daughter of T. de Saumarez of Guernsey, Esq., Attorney-General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind was an ornament to society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of events bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the inscrutable ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.
1824 ..	24th May.	Catherine, wife of Lieut.-Col. Miles of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, C.B., K.T.S., daughter and co-heiress of the Ven. Dr. Falconer, Dean of Litchfield, aged 44 years.
1822 ..	10th Aug.	Henry Harris, M.D., First Member of the Medical Board, who was taken from this life in the 54th year of his age. His superior abilities, his almost unequalled skill, and extreme kindness and humanity in his professional capacity are too well known to need any eulogium here. This humble tribute is erected by his afflicted wife who can never cease to lament the irreparable loss herself and children have sustained or to remember his many virtues and good qualities and whose greatest consolation is the hope of being re-united in another and better world.
1828 ..	29th Sept.	Harriet, wife of J. Dalmahoy, Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie, Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tombstone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body reposes here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.
1852 ..	24th July.	Leonard Cooper, Esq., Solicitor and late Sheriff of Madras, aged 46 years 4 months and 14 days. "Blessed are the pure in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." This tomb is erected as a tribute of deep affection by his afflicted widow and children.
1835 ..	15th May	Sir Andrew McDowell, K.C.B., late Major-General in the Honorable Company's Service on the Madras Establishment, aged 72 years.
1844 ..	26th Sept.	Thomas Moore Lane, Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to Honorable East India Company on the Medical establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawaub and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale, K.T. and C.B., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honorable labours. Aged 47 years. This tomb is erected as a memorial of affection by his disconsolate widow and children.
1839 ..	20th July.	Ashmead William Pruen, Esq., late Coroner of Madras, aged 24 years. He was destined for the medical profession, but his health gave way under the prosecution of his studies in London and Paris and compelled him to seek a warmer climate. The change, however, was ineffectual and he expired about two years after. His arrival in this country in which he had lived long enough gained the good will, esteem and affection of all who knew him.

Year.		Name, parentage and age.
1852 ..	19th Nov.	Francisco Marques DeSouza Lisboa, second son of the Chevalier Joze Marques Lisboa, ex Envoy-Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil to Her Brittanic Majesty and of Dona Johanna Marques DeSouza Lisboa. He was born at Brussels on 21st September 1834. Belonged to the Imperial Navy of Brazil and was admitted as a Midshipman into the Royal Navy of England where he served with honour and distinction from the 1st June 1848 until his death.
1869 ..	8th Nov.	Filidœ Carissimœ Sophie Ashe King Nate, 25th January 1867. Hune Lapidem Parentis Miserruni Posuimas Parum Stetit Apud Nos.
1833 ..	10th Oct.	John Monckton Coombs, Lieutenant-Colonel, of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who after an honorable career of 33 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, but on the general staff and confidentially under General McDowell, Commander-in-Chief, and the Honorable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales Island, was mortally wounded at the cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from Ball practice with his brigade by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal.
1884 ..	13th Aug.	John Franklin Gell, M.A., aged 33. Erected by his affectionate pupils, the minor Zemindars of Ramnad and Guntamanayakanur in grateful remembrance of his devotion to their welfare. "I will raise him up at the last day." Where I am there shall also my servant be."
1884 ..	25th Jan.	George Warlow, Priest, Archdeacon of Madras, aged 47. "Faithful unto death." Erected by his wife and son.
1847 ..	26th Apl.	Thomas Green, Esq., A.B., late of Catherine Hall, Cambridge, and Headmaster of the Native Education Society School, Madras, aged 31 years. "O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."
1836 ..	3rd Dec.	Major-General Sir George Elder, K.C.B., who after a long career of distinguished service as a soldier in various parts of the world, lost his life by accident at Madras, aged 57 years.
1859 ..	5th Mar.	The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry, D.D., of St. Catharine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years first as Chaplain in the H E.C.S and Archdeacon of Calcutta, and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work, in the 66th year of his age, and the twelfth of his Episcopate. "Preaching Peace by Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all."—Acts x., 36.
1839 ..	2nd Mar.	James Henry Frith, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Madras Artillery and Companion of the Order of the Bath, aged 52 years. This monument is erected by his only child and her husband in grateful and affectionate regard to his memory and many virtues.
1827 ..	16th July.	Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble, C B., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.
1859 ..	7th June.	Sarah, the much loved wife of Lieutenant-Colonel W. G. Woods, 6th Light Cavalry, Adjutant-General of the Army. "Alive unto God, through Jesus Christ." She fell asleep in Him at Madras. Aged 42.

Year.		Name, parentage and age.

Kings iii., 6. "In thy presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore"—Ps. xvi., 11.
		Tablets in St. George's Cathedral.
1837 ..	5th Feb.	Sacred to the memory of Right Reverend Daniel Corrie, LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. God forbid that I should glory save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honorable East India Company and from them he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See—By the Grace of the Holy Ghost, his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of Salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten to kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.
1843 ..	20th Sept.	This marble tablet is dedicated by his eldest son to the memory of the Honorable Sir John David Norton, Kt., who was appointed Her Majesty's Puisne Justice at Madras, 1841, and who died and was buried at sea on the—in the 56th year of his age, after having won universal respect and esteem during his brief tenure of office. He was a man exemplary in every relation of life, a lover of all that is good and beautiful and true. His last words were witness to the purity of his whole life—"God's will be done, I have nothing to fear."
