PREFACE

The list of publications appearing at the back of the inner title indicates the arrangement followed for presenting the data on different topics collected during the 1961-census. The core of the material, it will be noticed, lies in the Parts I, II and III. Part I comprises the General Report and Subsidiary Tables. The Part II has three sub-parts. Part II-A contains Tables relating to area, houses and population; variations in population during 1901-1961; grouping of villages and towns according to the 1961 population; and the Primary Census Abstract showing the number of 'workers' distributed under nine industrial categories, and 'non-workers'. II-B has Economic Tables relating to individuals: distribution of workers and non-workers according to age and education, and their industrial and occupational classification. II-C presents Tables on social topics, such as composition of households, age, marital status, education, mother-tongue and religion. Information is also given about non-Indian nationals, place of birth, and extent and direction of migration. The Part III has economic Tables relating to households. For the households engaged in cultivation, their relationship to land and size of holdings has been shown. Figures are given also for the households engaged in different types of household industries.

The Part II-B (the present publication) has nine Tables which have been bound in two separate books for the sake of convenient handling. The subject matter of these Tables and their distribution between the two books is shown below.

INTRODUCTION

With each succeeding census the spread of economic topics widened. The concepts also underwent change though efforts were made at maintaining continuity to the extent possible. A big departure was, however, made in the 1961-census in the concept of work, linking it with the work put in rather than the income derived from it. Thus the basis of economic classification changed from gainful occupation to productive work. This change is significant in relation to those who get income without having to work and those who work without getting direct income.

Concept of Work.—In the 1881-census, no distinction was made between earners or dependents, workers or non-workers. The occupation of every male who was of age to work, and the chief source of income in case a person did not have any occupation, were recorded. Boys attending school, girls, small children and women who did no regular work, were excluded. In 1891, a distinction was made between dependents and non-dependents. Any person who got income by work or other means, was classified as a non-dependent, and all others were treated as dependents. In 1901 actual workers were distinguished from mere dependents, and among actual workers a distinction was made of those who were partly agriculturists. Only the absolute idle were classed as dependents. In 1911 and 1921 censuses, no change was made in the definition of workers and dependents. However, in the 1921-census, women and children were also treated as workers if they did any work to augment family income. In the 1931-census, a classification was made for the first time into earners and dependents. An earner was defined as one who had distinct individual means or partial means of livelihood. An intermediate category of working dependents was also introduced, defining them as persons who contributed anything in cash or kind towards supporting themselves or the family, the contribution being not adequate to be self-supporting. All those who did not have distinct individual means or partial means of livelihood were classed as dependents. In 1941, the term 'earner' was omitted and was replaced by 'fully dependent' and 'partly dependent'. In 1951, the concepts 'self-supporting persons' and 'partly dependents' were introduced, applying the former term to those who earned sufficient income to maintain themselves, and the latter to those whose earnings were not sufficient, and the family workers were also categorised on the same basis.

While considering the concept of terms and coverage of topics for the 1961-census, it was felt that income or economic dependence was not a suitable criterion for measuring the economy of the country since it tends to suppress those who work in family economic activities without actually earning an income, like men other than the head of household, and women and children of the family working at cultivation or cottage industries of the household, and at the same time, it brings into labour force such persons as make income without having to work. It was, therefore, decided for the 1961-census that all people who work including family workers who are not in receipt of income, or working children who do not earn enough for their maintenance, be included as workers, and the receivers of income without doing work be excluded from the list of workers. A bilateral classification of population was, therefore, adopted consisting of workers and non-workers, doing away with the element of earning. The term 'worker' in the 1961-census thus embraced the following persons:–

(1) In the case of seasonal work, a person having some regular work of more than one hour a day during the greater part of the working season;

(2) among other occupations, a person employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the date of enumeration;

(3) a regularly working person absent from work even for more than fifteen days preceding the date of enumeration if that was due to illness or other circumstances. Undertrial prisoners were also treated as workers;

(4) a person under training as apprentice with or without stipend or wages;

(5) a woman who in addition to household duties is engaged in such work as rice-pounding, domestic service, collecting grass and firewood, making cow-dung cakes, etc., when such work is done for sale or wages; and

(6) a public or social service worker engaged in public service actively, or a political worker actively engaged in furthering the political activity of his party.

All persons who did not conform to the definition of 'worker', as explained above, were classed as 'non-workers'. The term 'work' includes not only actual manual labour but also effective supervision or direction.

Questions on economic topics.—The economic questions included in the questionnaires of various censuses from 1881 to 1961 are reproduced as Annexure I at the end of this note. It will be seen that the questionnaires of 1881 and 1891-censuses had only one question. In 1881 particulars of occupation were collected for persons having independent means. In 1891 particulars of occupation or means of subsistence were collected for all persons. Non-working women and children were distinguished by writing "Dependent" after recording the occupation or means of subsistence of the supporter. In 1901, 1911 and 1921-censuses, three economic questions were asked, relating to the principal and subsidiary occupations of actual workers, and for dependents the principal occupation or means of subsistence of the actual worker supporting them.

In 1911 and 1921, statistics relating to organised industries were collected separately by a special Industrial census on returns filled in by the managers of establishments engaging 20 and 10 operatives respectively. In 1931, this information was obtained directly by including a question in the census schedule to be asked from organised employees, on the industry in which they were employed. In this census a question was also put to every person whether he/she was an earner or a dependent; if the former, the principal and/or subsidiary occupation, and if the latter, any subsidiary occupation. These questions imported the concept of semi-economic dependence, and some precision by deleting 'means of livelihood' and retaining only the 'occupation'.

In the questionnaire for the 1941-census, the term 'means of livelihood' was again brought in clear terms, and 'occupation' was discarded. Every person was asked to state whether he/she was economically independent, partly dependent, or wholly dependent. A probe was made into the conditions under which means of livelihood were pursued by inquiring whether one employed paid assistants, or worked along with the household members, or was himself an employee. From the unemployed person it was asked whether he was in search of employment, to differentiate between the non-worker and the unemployed. Information was also collected about the regularity of employment among the semi-dependents, and duration of subsidiary occupation in the case of earners. The questionnaire seems to have been oriented to the conditions of prolonged depression during the late thirties'. The 1941-census questionnaire had eight economic questions.

In the 1951-census questionnaire, the economic questions were reduced to three : economic status with respect to dependency and employment; principal means of livelihood; and secondary means of livelihood. Three categories were made in respect of dependency: self-supporting, earning dependent and non-earning dependent. In respect of employment also, three categories were made: employer, employee and independent worker. A person was recorded as self-supporting if his income in cash or kind and received either by work or other means was sufficient at least for his own maintenance, and those among the dependents who secured income insufficient to support them were classed as earning dependents. In the case of earning dependents the work of the person on whom they depended was recorded as the principal means of livelihood, and the work from which earning dependent derived income was recorded as secondary means of livelihood.

In the 1961-census, five economic questions were asked, four relating to workers and one relating to non-workers. Those working as cultivators (owners and tenants) were recorded separately from those working as agricultural labourers. If working at some household industry, particulars were recorded about the nature of work, the nature of household industry and whether working as an employee in the industry of another household. For those engaged in other spheres the particulars recorded were (a) nature of work, (b) nature of industry, (c) class of worker (employer, employee, single-worker or family-worker), and (d) name of establishment. The non-workers were classified under eight categories according to the nature of their activities.

For a clear grasp of the questions the reader is referred to the Instructions to Enumerators reproduced as Annexure II at the end of this note.

Economic classification.—In the 1901-census, the population was divided into the following eight classes of occupations or means of livelihood:—

(A) Government; (B) Pasture and Agriculture; (C) Personal services; (D) Preparation and supply of material substances; (E) Commerce, Transport and Storage; (F) Profession; (G) Unskilled labour, not agriculture; and (H) Means of subsistence independent of occupation. These classes were further distributed into 24 orders, 79 sub-orders and 520 groups. Number of actual workers and dependents was given separately under each occupational group. The number of persons who were partly agriculturists in addition to their main occupation, was also given.

In the 1911 and 1921-censuses, the means of livehood were distributed among four classes: (A) Production of raw material; (B) Preparation and supply of material substances; (C) Public administration and Liberal arts; and (D) Miscellaneous. These classes were further divided into 12 sub-classes. The number of orders was 55 in 1911, and 56 in 1921. The number of groups was increased from 169 in 1911 to 191 in 1921. Separate figures for actual workers and dependents under each occupation group were given in these censuses also.

In the 1931-census the occupations were divided into 4 classes, 12 sub-classes, 55 orders and 195 groups. The pattern was the same as in 1921, except that then there were 56 orders and 191 groups. Population was also divided into working dependents and non-working dependents under each occupational group. In addition to this, the number of earners with subsidiary occupations was also given under each group.

In the 1941-census detailed classification was not done on account of the War, though economic characteristics of population were ascertained on the census schedules.

In the 1951-census, the economic classification was done according to the Indian Census Economic Classification Scheme, 1951. The population was divided into two broad categories: Agricultural and Non-agricultural, further classified into the following eight livelihood classes:

Agricultural:

1. Cultivators of land wholly or mainly owned;
2. Cultivators of land wholly or mainly unowned;
3. Cultivating labourers;
4. Non-cultivating owners of land: agricultural rent receivers.

Non-Agricultural:

5. Production other than cultivation;
6. Commerce;
7. Transport;
8. Other services and miscellaneous sources.

Figures for (1) self-supporting persons, (2) non-earning dependents; and (3) earning dependents were given separately under each livelihood class. Thus all economically active and inactive persons were lumped under each livelihood class on which they were mainly dependent. The self-supporting persons among the four non-agricultural classes were distributed into 10 divisions, 88 sub-divisions and 163 groups of the industries and services.

In 1961, the workers have been classified into nine Industrial Categories, briefly described below.

I. As Cultivator.—This category includes persons engaged in cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land, owned or held in any other capacity. Cultivation includes ploughing, sowing and harvesting but not fruit and vegetable farming, or plantations like tea, coffee and rubber. Non-cultivating owners have not been placed in this category.

II. As Agricultural labourer.—This includes persons who labour on the land belonging to others without exercising any supervision or direction in cultivation, but for wages in cash or kind.

III. In Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied Activities.—Persons employed in mines, quarries, in rearing and keeping of livestock and poultry, in forestry and fishing, growing fruits and vegetables, fall under this category, which corresponds to Divisions 0 and 1 of the Indian Industrial Classification.*

IV. At Household Industry.—A three-fold test was prescribed for determining a Household Industry:

1. It should relate to the production, processing, servicing, repairing, or making and selling of goods;
2. It should be on the household scale where participation of the head or other members of the family is easy and the role of the hired workers is secondary one. The industry should not be of the size of a registered factory; and
3. In rural areas, the industry should be located within the village, but in urban areas confined to home or adjoining the home where participation of members of the family is easy.

This category covers the Divisions 0, 1, and 2 & 3 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

V. In manufacturing other than Household Industry.—Persons engaged in processing, manufacturing and repairing, which are not included in category IV above, have been taken in this category. This corresponds to the Divisions 2 & 3 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

VI. In Construction.—This includes persons engaged in the construction and maintenance of buildings roads, railways, telegraph and telephone lines, waterways and water-reservoirs, and corresponds to Division 4 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

VII. In Trade and Commerce.—Persons employed in retail and wholesale trade of all kinds and other commercial activities such as banking, auctioneering, insurance and money-lending, have been included in this category, which corresponds to Division 6 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

*Pages 146 to 154.

VIII. In Transport, Storage & Communications.—This category includes persons employed in any form of transport, in storage and warehousing activities and communications. This corresponds to Division 7 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

IX. In other Services.—Persons engaged in services like generation and supply of electricity, water supply and sanitary services, public services, educational services, medical services, legal services, business services, recreational and personal services, have been grouped under this category. It extends also to general labourers on other miscellaneous jobs. This includes Divisions 5, 8 and 9 of the Indian Standard Industrial Classification.*

Persons not included under any of the above mentioned nine categories were classed as non-workers and placed under category X. In 1951, they were classified along with the workers on whom they were dependent.

In addition to the classification in nine broad categories mentioned above, the 1961-census has classified workers other than cultivators and agricultural labourers according to the Indain Standard Industrial Classification* into 9 Divisions, 45 Major Groups and 343 Minor Groups in Table B-IV. This scheme is closely related to international usage recommended by the International Labour Organisation.

Yet another classification of workers has been made in regard to personal occupation, irrespective of the industry in which engaged.

'Industry' has been defined as the sector of economic activity in which a worker is engaged. On the other hand, the 'occupation' of a worker is the function which he/she performs by engaging himself/herself in any economic branch of activity. This classification has been made in Table B-V wherein the diverse occupations have been classed under 11 Divisions, 75 Groups and 331 Families, according to the National Classification of Occupations.†

A careful study of the economic classification made in the 1951-census would show that it was neither a purely industrial nor occupational classification of the population but was a combination of both. The two-fold classification made in 1961 is a distinct mprovement and is a unique feature.

The changes in the concept of the term 'worker' and the classification of workers adopted in the various censuses stand in the way of making a clear-cut comparison in the various economic activities of the people over the past decades. Such comparison can be made if the figures are reduced in terms of a common denominator. With this end in view, a statement is placed as Annexure III, showing the Groups and Sub-Divisions adopted in the previous censuses as corresponding to the ten broad categories now adopted. A Table is also appended to that Annexure showing the 1951 population categorised into the Livelihood Categories as adopted in 1961. This Table has been prepared in the office of the Registrar General, India.

Principal and Subsidiary Occupations.—In conformity with the basis of classification being the earnings and not the work in previous censuses, the principal occupation or means of livelihood was taken as the one from which a person derived most part of the earnings. The subsidiary occupation or means of livelihood was that which provided income next to the principal work. In the 1961-census the subsidiary occupations have been shown in Table B-VII. The principal work this time has been defined as the occupation in which a person spent most of his working time, and the main classification of workers has been done in this Table on the basis of the principal work. A person may be having more than one subsidiary occupation but only one subsidiary occupation was taken into account for a person if he at all had any, and that related to the time devoted next to the principal work.

New Features

The new features and improvements in the presentation of economic data over the previous censuses are mentioned below.

(1) In the previous censuses income or economic independence was the criterion for measuring the economy of the country. The application of this criterion unduly suppressed the number of workers by excluding those working in family economic activities without receiving income and those whose work did not bring individual income for their maintenance. To remove this defect a shift was made in the 1961-census from 'income' to 'work', so that all people who worked (including family workers or working children) were classed among workers. The population has thus been divided among workers and non-workers, and the workers have been further sub-classified into nine industrial categories.

(2) In previous censuses, economic classification was neither purely industrial nor occupational, but a combination of both. This time a two-fold

*Pages 146 to 154.
†Reproduced in Book (ii) of this report.

classification has been made; according to the nature of industry, based on the Indian Standard Industrial Classification,* and according to the nature of work done by individual workers, based on the National Classification of Occupations.‡

(3) The non-workers have been classified in eight categories based on the recommendations of the United Nations. Such a classification has been attempted for the first time in the history of census.

(4) In 1951, age groups were worked out for eight livelihood classes from sampled slips. This time the age classification was done on full count, and separately for nine industrial categories of workers and non-workers. The four broad age groups correspond to different stages of life: 0-14 (children); 15-34 (young persons); 35-59 (middle-aged), and 60+(old persons). The information has been presented for the total, rural and urban areas of each District and for each town. This is besides the single age year returns for the entire population which is presented in Part II-C(i).

(5) In 1951, the literate and educated persons were classified into 'agricultural' and 'non-agricultural' classification without further distribution among eight livelihood classes. This time literacy and educational levels have been shown for each of the nine industrial categories of workers and for non-workers. Educational qualifications have been divided into several levels, quite elaborate as compared with the previous censuses.

(6) Another new feature is that unemployed persons have been classified according to literacy and educational levels, further cross-tabulated into various age groups.

(7) A cross tabulation of literate persons in different Occupational Divisions for urban areas has also been made according to age groups and educational levels.

Q. 8 Working as Cultivator—For a person working as cultivator write 'C'. For a person not working as cultivator and for a person not working at all, put 'X'.

For purposes of the census a person is working as cultivator if he or she is engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in (a) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land owned or held from Government and (b) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share.

Cultivation involves ploughing, sowing and harvesting and does not include fruit growing or keeping orchards or groves or working for plantations like tea, coffee, rubber, cinchona and other medicinal plantations. Persons engaged in fruit growing or orchardry or plantations like tea, coffee, rubber, cinchona and other medicinal plantations should be entered in Q. 10 or Q. 11, as the case may be.

Some examples of 'Cultivation' and 'Other field produce and Plantation Crops' to be classified under Questions 8 and 11, respectively, are given below.

Under Q. 8

1. Production of cereal crops (including Bengal gram), such as rice, wheat, jowar, bajra, maize, roots and tubers like potato, yam, beet, and sugarcane etc.;
2. Production of pulses, such as arhar, moong, masur, urd, khesari, and other gram;
3. Production of raw jute and kindred fibre crops;
4. Production of raw cotton and kindred fibre crops.

Under Q. 11

A. Other Field Produce

1. Production of other crops including vegetables not covered in Q. 8;
2. Production of fruits and nuts in plantations, vines and orchards (like coconut, arecanut etc.);
3. Production of wood, bamboo, cane reeds, thatching grass, etc.;

B. Plantation Crops

1. Production of tea in plantation;
2. Production of coffee in plantation;
3. Production of rubber in plantation;
4. Production of tobacco in plantation (does not include tobacco which is cultivated in rotation with other cereal crops, in which case it would go under cultivation);
5. Production of ganja, cinchona, opium, poppy, saffron, etc.; and
6. Production of other plantation crops not covered above.

A person who has given out his land to another person or persons for cultivation for money, kind or share of crop and who does not even supervise or direct cultivation of land, will not be treated as working as cultivator.

Similarly a person working in another person's land only as a labourer and has no right or lease or contract on land on which he works, nor is responsible for taking decisions as to which crops to sow and when, or taking the risks of cultivation and is paid for wages in cash, kind or share of the produce (agricultural labourer) will not be treated as cultivator in this question.

Q. 9 Working as Agricultural Labourer—Write AL for a person working as agricultural labourer, i.e., a person who works in another person's land only as a labourer without exercising any supervision or direction in cultivation for wages in cash, kind or share such as share of produce. For others put 'X'. The labourer should have no right or lease or contract on land on which he works nor should he be responsible for taking decisions as to which crops to sow and when, or taking the risks of cultivation. A share of the produce goes to him only as wages. He should have been working as agricultural labourer in the last or current cultivating season.

Qs. 10 (a) & 10 (b) Household Industry—If a person is working in a Household Industry write (1) the nature of work done by him in the Household Industry against question 10 (a) and (2) the nature of the Household Industry against Question 10 (b). Otherwise put 'X' against both Questions 10 (a) and 10 (b). A Household Industry is defined as an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself and/or mainly members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. The industry should not be run on the scale of a registered factory. Thus the main criterion for a Household

Industry is the participation of one or more members of a household in rural areas. In the urban areas the industry should be confined to the house. You should carefully keep in mind the definition of Household Industry in the rural area if you are enumerating a rural area and the definition in the urban area if you are enumerating an urban area.

A Household Industry should relate to production, processing, servicing, repairing or making and selling of goods. It does not include professions such as pleader or doctor or barber or waterman or astrologer.

A person though he may not be working in his own Household Industry may be working as a paid employee in another Household Industry. You should, therefore, enquire whether the person who is not working in his own Household Industry is working in any other Household Industry and if so, write the nature of the work done by him against Question 10 (a) and the nature of the Household Industry against 10 (b).

*Q.*10 (c) If Employee in Household Industry—This question will be filled up only for a person who is working as a paid employee in another person's Household Industry. In his or her case write 'E.E.' For all others put 'X'.

The following examples will illustrate how Q. 10 (a), 10 (b) and 10 (c) should be filled up for persons working at Household Industry :—

Q. 10—Working at Household Industry

(a) Nature of work	(b) Nature of Household Industry	(c) If employee
1. Spinning yarn	Spinning yarn on Ambar Charkha	X
2. Dying and pirning yarn	Handloom weaving	X
3. Threshing and cleaning grain	Flour making by chakki	X
4. Labourer employed for crushing oil	Oil ghani	E.E.
5. Tempering and polishing implements	Blacksmithy, making agricultural implements	X
6. Labourer employed for making and firing kiln	Earthenware pottery	E.E.
7. Making wooden doors and windows	Carpentry	X
8. Filling gold ornaments with lac	Goldsmithy	X
9. Labourer working hosiery machine	Hosiery	E.E.
10. Labourer employed for putting iron hoops on cartwheels	Cartwheelwright	E.E.
11. Bee Keeping	Production of honey	X

Q. 11 Doing Work other than 8, 9 or 10—If a worker is not working as a cultivator or as an agricultural labourer or at any Household Industry write the actual work he is doing. If a person is working as a cultivator or as an agricultural labourer or at Household Industry and also does some other work (including dairying or livestock raising, orchard or plantation etc., as distinct from cultivation of crops) which does not relate to any of the above categories, write the other work he does in this question. If he is engaged in more than one work and neither of them relates to any of the three categories mentioned above write here the work on which he devotes more time.

Q. 11 (a) Nature of Work—In the case of persons not working or who work only as cultivator or as agricultural labourer or at Household Industry, put 'X'.

Describe fully the nature of the work done by the person himself. Full and precise information as to the nature of work done by the person, should be given either in the vernacular or in English or in vernacular transliteration of English. At previous censuses much trouble was caused by inadequate answers, and if you do not succeed in obtaining satisfactory information on the individual slips, you will be required to make a further visit for that purpose.

Q. 11 (b) Industry, Business, Trade, Profession or Service—In the case of a person who is working and the nature of whose own work has been recorded in Question 11 (a), you should write here the nature of industry, business, trade, profession or service in which the person works.

As in the case of Question 11(a), you should describe in detail the nature of industry, business, trade, profession or service in which the person works. Vague answers should be avoided. In the case of industries, the articles which are produced or serviced or repaired, should be given. If more than one article is produced the chief article produced or serviced or repaired should be given. In the case of business or trade the principal article of trade should be described. In the case of service describe the nature of the service to which the person's work belongs. The description should be such that it would be possible to classify the establishment in which the person is working for purposes of industrial classification of the population. The description should be either in the vernacular or in English or in vernacular transliteration of English.

In the case of a person for whom an 'X' is put in Question 11 (a), put an 'X' in this question also.

Important points to remember in Questions 11 (a) and 11 (b).

1. Women or children who help with work, such as rice-pounding or doing domestic service for wages or minding cattle or selling firewood or making and selling cow-dung cakes, grass, etc., should be described fully even if they work part-time. In the case of married or grown-up women who do any of the works mentioned above in addition to the usual household duties such work should be fully described and 'HW' written in brackets after the full description.

2. If a person makes the articles he sells, he should be entered as maker and seller of them.

3. Wherever convenient, for complete description, the work should be expressed by the vernacular name by which it is known.

4. The following are too vague and must not be used by themselves:

Scientist, technician, civil servant, clerk, engineer, inspector, checker, foreman, overseer supervisor, labourer, machinist, assistant, contractor, polisher.

5. Labourers—For an unskilled labourer usually employed on one sort of work alone, give also the sort of work done, e.g., railway porter, market or bazar porter, labourer employed on road digging, bricklayer's labourer. If accustomed to work on various jobs, write general labourer.

6. Machine Operators—Always state the kind of machine giving its recognized name, if any.

7. Shop-keepers, Retail Dealers, Shop Assistants—If wholly or mainly engaged in selling, write, 'Dealer' (if principal) or, 'Shop Assistant' or 'Salesman' (if assisting) and state whether the business is wholesale or retail or both. For shop assistants and salesmen in stores with several departments, state the particular department in which engaged (e.g., Ship and Railway Parts, Fans and Sewing Machines, Grocers and Confectioners).

8. Transport Workers—Describe fully the nature of the transport, e.g., air transport, rail transport, transport by motor car or motor cycle, or vehicles drawn by horse, etc.

9. Services—For a person engaged in the Defence Services write 'Service of Central Government'.

10. If the job is known in the trade or industry by a special name use that name. Manager, Foreman, etc., should be given the department/branch wherever applicable e.g., Sales Manager, or Manager of Hardware Department, Machine Shop Foreman or Boiler Room Foreman, etc. The following terms are insufficient by themselves:—

Manufacturer, merchant, agent, broker, refractor, dealer, engineer and iron worker, etc.

11. Domestic services—In the case of any private servant e.g., a cook or domestic servant, write only 'private cook' or 'domestic servant'. There is no industry in his case but in the case of persons employed in hostels, restaurants, boarding houses, institutions, etc., the words hotel, restaurant, etc., should be added.

For persons in the employ of Firms carrying on two or more businesses, if the businesses are carried on in separate premises then the business carried on at the premises in which the person is employed should be given. If the businesses are carried on in the same premises but each has a separate organisation (i.e., they have separate records of employment, production, etc.) then the appropriate business should be quoted. If, however, the two activities are carried on side by side then the major activity of the firm or establishment should be given.

12. Commerce—Special care should be taken to see that the distinction between retail and wholesale business is clear. As in industries, the goods handled should be clearly indicated.

Q. 11 (c) Class of Worker—For a person who is:

1. an Employer, that is, who hires one or more persons in his work described in Q. 11 (a)	write	MR
2. an Employee, that is, who does his work described in Q. 11(a) under others for wages or salary in cash or kind	write	EE
3. a Single Worker, that is, who is doing his work described in Q. 11(a) without employing others except casually, and without the help of other members of the family except casually. This will include workers working as members of co-operatives ..	write	SW
4. a Family worker, that is, who is doing his work described in Q. 11(a) in own family without wages or salary in cash or kind	write	FW

For a person for whom an 'X' is put in Qs. 11(a) and 11(b) put an 'X' in this question also.

Explanation:—

(i) An Employer is a person who has to employ other persons in order to perform the work entered in Q. 11(a). That is to say, such a person is not only responsible for his own personal work but also for giving work to others in the business mentioned in Q. 11(a). But a person who employs domestic servants for household duties or has subordinates under him in an office where he is employed by others, is not an employer, even if he has the power to employ another person in his office on behalf of his own employer or employers.

(ii) An Employee is a person who usually works under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind. There may be persons who are employed as managers, superintendents, agents, etc., and in that capacity employ or control other workers on behalf of their own employers. Such persons are only employees, as explained above, and should not be regarded as employers.

(iii) A Single Worker for the purpose of Q. 11(c) is a person who works by himself but not as Head of household in a Household Industry. He is not employed by any one else and in his trun does not employ any body else not even members of his household except casually. This difinition of a Single Worker will include a person who works in joint partnership with one or several persons hiring no employees, and also a member of a producers' co-operative. Each one of the partners or members of such producers' co-operatives should be recorded as 'Single Worker'.

(iv) A Family Worker is a member who works, without receiving wages in cash or kind, in an industry, business or trade conducted mainly by members of the family and ordinarily does at least one hour of work every day during the working season. For the purpose of the entire Q. 11, such an industry should be on a scale larger than what has been covered in 'Household Industry' in Q. 10 whether run at home or away from home in town or village and even away from village in rural area and should ordinarily be in the nature of recognised partnership, joint stock company or registered factory. For the purpose of this definition members of a family may be drawn from beyond the limits of the household by ties of blood or marriage. The family worker may not be entitled to a share of the profits in the work of the business carried on either by the person or Head of the household or other relative.

Members of the household who help solely in household duties should not be treated as family workers.

Q. 11(d) Name of Establishment—Describe in detail the name of the factory, workshop, business house, company, shop, etc. If a person has no fixed place of work, write 'No fixed place of work'.

For a person for whom an 'X' is put in Qs. 11(a), 11(b), and 11(c) put an 'X' in this question also.

The following examples will illustrate how Qs. 11 (a) to 11 (d) should be filled up for person doing work other than 8, 9 or 10.

TABLE B-I

WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS CLASSIFIED
BY SEX AND BROAD AGE GROUPS

TABLE B-I

WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND BROAD AGE GROUPS

This is the basic Economic Table, summarising the Primary Census Abstract which appears in Part II-A. It shows separately for total, rural and urban population, the number of males and females working in nine Industrial Categories of Workers, and Non-workers. Information is presented for the State and each Commissioner's Division and District.

The various terms used in the Table have been explained in the Introduction.

Each category of workers, and non workers has been classified into four broad age groups: 0-14, 15-34, 35-59, and 60 and above. These age groups correspond to various stages of life which have special significance with reference to capacity to work viz., children, young persons, middle aged persons and elderly persons.

The non-workers have been further categorised in Table B-IX.

This Table corresponds to Table B-I of 1951 Census Report. It is possible to establish a comparison between the 1951-census economic data and that of the 1961-census; the self-supporting persons plus the earning dependents of the 1951-census are equal to the total of workers and persons who are in receipt of income without work at the 1961-census. The latter group comprise retired persons not employed again, rentiers, persons living on agricultural and non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend or other persons of independent means, shown in Table B-IX.

TABLE B-II

WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS IN CITIES, TOWN GROUPS AND TOWNS ARRANGED TERRITORIALLY, CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND BROAD AGE GROUPS

This Table displays the same data as is contained in Table B-I, for each city, town group and town, arranged territorially. For town groups figures are given also for the towns constituting the town groups.

The towns taken as such for the first time in the 1951-census which continue as towns in 1961-census also, are shown with an asterisk (*) on their left. The towns treated as such for the first time in the 1961-census are printed in italics.

The following abbreviations have been used to denote the status of towns:—

M.C.	..	Municipal Committee
C.B.	..	Cantonment Board
N.A.C.	..	Notified Area Committee

This Table will be of particular interest to local bodies, as it furnishes data on employment in different age groups.

TABLE B-II

PART B : INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS BY EDUCATIONAL LEVELS IN RURAL AREAS ONLY

TABLE B-III

INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS BY EDUCATIONAL LEVELS

This Table has been prepared in two parts: Part A for urban areas; and Part B for rural areas, and corresponds to Table D-VII of 1951-census.

In 1951, the literate and educated persons were classified only into Agricultural and Non-agricultural classes and their further distribution into eight livelihood classes was not done. Illiterate population was not included in this Table.

In the 1961-census, the total population has been classified in all the nine Industrial Categories of workers and non-workers, and further cross-tabulated by literacy and educational levels. Separate distribution of the technical personnel into degree or diploma holders has also been done.

In 1961-census, the test adopted for literacy was the ability to read and write a simple letter. A person who fulfilled this test was taken as 'literate'. In case he had attained an educational standard, the highest examination passed was recorded.

The qualifications, thus recorded, have been divided into six educational levels in the case of urban areas. The sixth level (Technical Degree or Diploma equal to Degree or Post-Graduate Degree) has been further divided into seven sub-groups. The statement given below shows the classification of qualifications into various educational levels.

There are 18 males with Degree in Engineering appearing under category VII (Trade & Commerce) in Table B-III Part A, but there is no person with occupation as Engineer in the corresponding category in the Table B-V. Reference to their individual slips revealed that these persons were engaged in business and not employed as Engineers. Similarly, 7 males with Degree in Engineering appear in category I (Cultivator) in Table B-III Part A, without finding any place in a similar category in Table B-V. Most of them were superannuated persons who had taken to the supervision of their farms.

Likewise some persons with Degree in Medicine appear in categories IV and VII in Table B-III Part A, while there is none in these categories in Table B-V. These persons were engaged in the Household Industry such as preparation of medicines, and in business.

The difference in figures appearing in Table B-III Part A (377 males) under Degree in Agriculture, with those under occupation 023 (Agricultural Scientists and Agronomists) in Table B-V (172 males) is due to a number among them being engaged in general teaching, in research institutions, or lecturing in Community Development Blocks. They have been shown under respective professions in Table B-V.

The high figures of Engineers, Doctors, Teachers, Veterinarians, in Table B-V vis-a-vis the number of Degree holders shown in Table B-III Part A are due to the fact that non-degree holders are also employed in these professions.

The high figure (344 males) of Degree holders in Engineering in Hoshiarpur District was because of the construction of Bhakra Dam, located in that District.

The part B of the Table relates to rural areas, and in it the educational levels are confined only to Primary or Junior Basic, and Matriculation & above.

This Table is useful in so far as it gives a clear assessment of educational qualifications of the available man-power.

TABLE B-IV

PART A : INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION, BY SEX AND CLASS OF WORKER, OF PERSONS AT WORK AT HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY

PART B : INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION, BY SEX AND CLASS OF WORKER, OF PERSONS AT WORK IN NON-HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY, TRADE, BUSINESS, PROFESSION OR SERVICE

PART C : INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION, BY SEX AND DIVISIONS, MAJOR GROUPS AND MINOR GROUPS, OF PERSONS AT WORK OTHER THAN CULTIVATION

TABLE B-IV

INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK OTHER THAN CULTIVATION BY SEX AND CLASS OF WORKER

This Table shows the employment in sectors of economy other than agriculture. It has been prepared in three parts.

Part A: In this Part, persons engaged in household industries have been classified according to the Divisions and Major Groups as adopted in the "Indian Standard Industrial Classification", which has been reproduced on pages 146 to 154. Figures have also been given of persons working as employees in the industries of others.

Part B: This deals with persons engaged at work in non-household industries, trade, business, profession or service. To economise space, figures are given for the total and urban population: figures for the rural population can be derived by substracting urban figures from the totals. Industries indicated by code Nos. in col. 1 are based on the "Indian Standard Industrial Classification", reproduced at pages 146 to 154. Workers in each Division and Major Group have been further distributed into four classes: employer; employee; single worker; and family worker. These terms have been explained at length in the Introduction.

Part C: This Part shows the distribution of all workers other than those engaged in cultivation into 9 Industrial Divisions, 45 Major Groups and 342 Minor Groups of the "Indian Standard Industrial Classification", reproduced at pages 146 to 154. The workers under each group have been further distributed into workers at household industry and workers in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service, and by total and urban. The number of rural workers can be derived from the totals by subtracting the urban figures.

Minor Groups having less than one per cent of the workers of the respective Division (less than 0.5 per cent in case of Division 2 & 3) have been omitted from the Table but have been shown in the Appendix to this Table, at page 353. The Divisions thus affected have been marked with an asterisk (*) on their left.

Lines with nil entries have been omitted from all the three Tables.

TABLE B-VIII

PART B : PERSONS UNEMPLOYED AGED 15 AND ABOVE BY SEX AND EDUCATIONAL LEVELS IN RURAL AREAS ONLY

TABLE B-VIII

PERSONS UNEMPLOYED AGED 15 AND ABOVE, BY SEX AND EDUCATIONAL LEVELS

This Table has been prepared for the State, each Administrative Division and District. It deals with persons seeking employment for the first time, and those who were once employed, but were unemployed at the time of enumeration, and were in search of work. Such persons have been shown in cols. 19 to 22 in the Table B-IX. Logically, this Table should have appeared after Table B-IX, but the prescribed order has not been disturbed.

The Table deals with the unemployed persons aged 15 years or more. Persons below the age of 15 years in this group are comparatively few, and at any rate they should be excluded in a study of unemployment.

The unemployed persons are studied separately according as they reside in urban and rural areas, in Parts A and B, respectively.

Part A : In this part persons (i) seeking employment for the first time and (ii) those employed before but now out of employment and seeking work in urban areas, have been cross-tabulated according to (a) sex, (b) age, and (c) literacy. For persons seeking employment for the first time the age groups are 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-34 and 35+. For those who were employed before but were out of work at the time of enumeration and were seeking work the age-blocks have been stretched to a longer range : 15-19; 20-24; 25-34; 35-44; 45-59; and 60+.

The educational levels are same as described in the flyleaf to Table B-III.

In Part B the unemployed persons of both the types, residing in rural areas, have been processed together into four categories : (1) Illiterate; (2) Literate; (3) Primary or Junior Basic; and (4) Matriculation and above.

This Table is very useful for the purposes of planning and assessing unutilised labour force.

TABLE B-IX

PERSONS NOT AT WORK CLASSIFIED BY SEX, BROAD AGE GROUPS AND TYPE OF ACTIVITY

TABLE B-IX

PERSONS NOT AT WORK CLASSIFIED BY SEX, BROAD AGE GROUPS AND TYPE OF ACTIVITY

The Table gives figures for the State, each Administrative Division and District, and separately for total, rural and urban areas. The non-workers have been classified among the following categories according to their activities:—

1. Full time students who do no other work;
2. Unpaid household duties and no other work;
3. Dependents, infants and permanently disabled;
4. Retired, rentiers or with independent means without having to work;
5. Beggars, vagrants, etc.;
6. Inmates of penal, mental and charitable institutions;
7. Persons seeking employment for the first time; and
8. Persons employed before, but now out of employment and seeking work.

Persons in each of the above mentioned categories have been classified further according to sex and age groups 0-14, 15-34, 35-59, and 60+.

The kind of information given in this Table has never been attempted before, nor were questions asked in previous censuses on the activities of non-workers. The eight categories are based on the recommendations of the United Nations.

The second category (Household duties) is the normal purview of women. But 5,316 males were also registered in this category. Two typical cases may be cited. A household consisting of an illiterate widower in late forties with two sons, one working as a clerk and the other a student. The father cooks the meals and does other household work. Second, a household consisting of a widower cultivator with a son of 12 years. The man works in the field and the boy cooks the meals and takes them to the field as the wife did when she was alive.

Table C-III appearing in Part II-C(i) of the census reports series classifies the literates into various age groups. The number of students given against the age group 0-14 in this Table (B-IX) need not necessarily tally with the number of literates in the same age-spell in Table C-III. This may be due to the school-going children below the age of 5 years not having been treated as literate, or where schooling was given up after attaining literacy.
