INTRODUCTION

The 1961 Population Census was the 10th of the Indian Census Series starting from 1872 and the Second of the Indian Republic, the time and date of reference being the sunrise on March 1, 1961.

The Census count was held between February 10 and March 5, 1961. The 1961 Census outstripped the previous Censuses in scope and utility. It was a national stock-taking of households and individuals geared to the needs of the Third Five Year Plan.

Pre-tests of Census Schedules

Great attention is paid at every Census to the drafting of schedules and questionnaires suited to the occasion. Census Schedules for the 1961 Census, viz., the Houselist, the Household Schedule and the Individual Slip were initially drafted in 1958 by the Registrar General and subjected to a pre-test early in 1959 through the agency of the State Directors of Statistics. They were redrafted and put to another pre-test in July-August, 1959 -- this time through the agency which was to do actual enumeration. This pre-test covered about 6,000 households in five districts, namely, Shahjahanpur, Sitapur, Unnao, Rae Bareli and Bara Banki. The results of the pre-test were discussed at the First Conference held in September, 1959.

Census Schedules

Proformas of the Houselist, the Household Schedule and the Individual Slip were finalized at the aforesaid Conference, important changes in the forms and instructions having been introduced in the light of the experience gained at the pre-tests. The Census Schedules and instructions as adopted at the Conference are given in the appendices mentioned below :—

Appendix A—Houselist and Instructions

Appendix B—Household Schedule and Instructions

Appendix C—Individual Slip and Instructions

Printing of Schedules

The various Census Schedules for this State were printed in English and Hindi at the Government of India Forms Press, Aligarh. Instructions and other forms were got printed at the New Government Press, Aishbagh, Lucknow. Last minute requirements were met unhesitatingly by these presses.

Six Stages of the Census

(1) Boundary Changes in the State and Districts and Formation of Census Divisions—No transfer of territory from or to Uttar Pradesh took place between 1951 and 1961. Inter-State boundary marked by the deep stream of rivers, however, altered at some places as the rivers changed their course. Three new districts, namely, Uttar Kashi, Chamoli and Pithoragarh were carved out from the old districts of Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora, respectively in 1960. Boundary changes in 37 districts occurred on account of inter-district transfers. Intra-district transfers took place in 8 districts. Kanpur, Lucknow, Agra, Varanasi and Allahabad Municipalities were converted into Nagar Mahapalikas (Corporations) with considerable addition to their area. Many other local bodies underwent changes in area. All these were duly accounted for in the formation of Census Divisions.

The first step was to separate urban areas completely from the rural. Then each district was divided into Charges. The whole rural area of a tahsil was treated as one Charge. Notified Areas, Town Areas of less than 10,000 population and towns having no local status were, however, included in the Tahsil Charge. The forest area of a tahsil outside revenue mauzas was treated a separate Charge, provided that it was large enough for the purpose. Corporations, Municipalities, Cantonments (excluding strictly military areas) and other towns of population exceeding 10,000 were treated as Urban Charges. Strictly military areas, large railway colonies and other special areas were treated Special Charges.

After charges had been delimited, they were divided into compact Enumeration Blocks. For a rural Enumeration Block a population of about 750 was prescribed which could in special cases vary between 550 and 950. The average rural Block, however, had a lower population of 732. A Census village of a convenient size was treated as one Block. For urban areas Enumeration Blocks of about 600 population were laid down, but in actual practice an average urban Block had a population of 713.

About half-a-dozen Enumeration Blocks were grouped together to form a Supervisor Circle.

The total number of Enumeration Blocks was 101,060 (rural 87,758 and urban 13,302) and of Supervisor Circles 16,824 (rural 14,152 and urban 2,672).

In cities and towns of 50,000 and over population Blocks carved out by the National Sample Survey were adopted. Where such a Block was too large, it was broken into two or more convenient Enumeration Blocks. Where boundaries of Blocks carved out by the N. S. S. cut across the boundaries of municipal wards/mohallas, special instructions were issued to avoid confusion.

(2) Census Hierarchy in Districts—The District Officer was responsible for the conduct of Census operations in his district. He nominated one of his gazetted officers for this work, who was designated as the District Census Officer. Under the District Census Officer were appointed a number of Charge Officers (formerly designated as Charge Superintendents).

Tahsildars were placed in control of Tahsil Charges. Up Nagar Adhikaris, Executive Officers or Secretaries, acted as Charge Officers for Corporations, Municipal Boards, Cantonments (excluding strictly military areas), Notified Areas, Town Areas and other towns (not included in the Tahsil Charge). Forest Charges and Special Charges, such as strictly military areas, Defence establishments, large Railway colonies, project areas, etc., were placed under the control of the respective departmental officers.

For each Supervisor Circle a Supervisor and for each Enumeration Block an Enumerator was appointed. All the Census Officers performed their Census duties in addition to their normal work. For the first time in Indian Census history a small honorarium was paid to Supervisors and Enumerators to cover their out-of-pocket expenses.

(3) Housenumbering and Houselisting—Training in Housenumbering and Houselisting was given to Charge Officers who in turn trained their subordinate staff. In urban and special areas Housenumbering was done by the local bodies or the departmental staff, and in rural areas by Enumerators. The unprecedented rains and floods of October, 1960 upset the Housenumbering programme in various districts. The material used for painting temporary house-numbers was mostly geru mixed with oil.

Houselisting was done in November, 1960 by Enumerators both in rural and in urban areas on the completion of Housenumbering. Training in Houselisting in rural and urban areas was given at different times and not simultaneously. The prescribed three weeks' period of Houselisting was extended in the case of flood-affected districts.

(4) Training of Census Agency—Success of enumeration largely depends on the quality of training imparted to those responsible for field work. First of all, Charge Officers and Addl./Asst. Charge Officers were trained by the District Census Officer. This training was given in two instalments. Then a programme of training was drawn up by each Charge Officer showing training centres and dates of training. Training to field staff including reserve strength was imparted by Charge Officers and Addl./Asst. Charge Officers in batches at the notified centres.

This training was also imparted in two instalments. A period of eight weeks from December 1, 1960 to January 27, 1961 was devoted to this work, the dates and places of training were so arranged as not to come in conflict with Panchayat elections in that area. For practice each trainee was given ten Household Schedules and 50 Individual Slips some of which were filled up in the course of training and the remaining between the two instalments of training. The training thus had both theoretical and practical aspects.

(5) Census Count—The Census count started on the morning of the 10th February 1961 and continued upto the 28th. The convasser method was employed for enumeration, i.e., the Enumerator visited each and every household and enumerated all persons who resided there even if they were absent at the time of visit, provided that they had left after the 10th February, 1961 or were likely to return before the 1st March, 1961. Visitors and guests who remained away from their homes throughout this period were counted at their places of temporary stay. They were, however, asked not to get themselves enumerated again, if they happened to return home or went elsewhere.

(6) The Revisional Round and Reporting of Figures—From the 1st to the 5th March, 1961 the Enumerator made a revisional round in order to ensure that the records corresponded to the date of reference, i.e., the sunrise of the 1st March, 1961. Two of these five days were taken up by the Holi festival. If during this revisional round an Enumerator found that since the last day of his visit a birth or death had occurred before the sunrise of the 1st March, he prepared a new slip or cancelled the prepared slip. If he found a visitor who had not been enumerated elsewhere, he prepared a slip for him. Thus the entire Cenus count was made to synchronise with the date of reference.

Reporting of figures at various levels were undertaken between the 6th and 8th March, 1961. Enumerators were required to submit Block Summaries of total population and literate population by sex to Supervisors by the forenoon of the 6th March, 1961. The Supervisors in their turn were required to prepare provisional totals for the Circle and submit them to the Charge Officer by the forenoon of the 7th March, 1961, and the Charge Officer to submit provisional totals to the District Census Officers by the forenoon of the 8th March, 1961. The District Census Officers had to consolidate district totals and communicate them to the Registrar General and the Superintendent, Census Operations, the same day or the next day, by telegram. Provisional totals for the whole State were consolidated on the 14th March, 1961.

Non-Synchronous Areas

There is a section of population in the hills which leaves its permanent abode in winters and returns after the season is over. Some 21 villages in tahsil Dharchula of Pithoragarh district were reported by the District Officer as getting snow-bound and becoming inaccessible in the months of February and March. Arrangements were accordingly made for early enumeration of these areas in October, 1960 with the 21st of October, 1960 as the date of reference. Enumerated persons were given a slip or token to avoid double enumeration, and were warned not to misplace them. Check-posts were established with the help of the local staff at main places of entrance. A person entering such areas after enumeration was enumerated at these check-posts, if he was going to stay in till February-March, 1961. They also countersigned slips of all those who had been enumerated in these villages and were migrating to other areas. The Census calendar adopted for these 21 villages was as follows :—

Appointment of Field Staff	31.8.1960
Training of Field Staff	20.9.1960
Housenumbering	5.10.1960
Houselisting	10.10.1960
Enumeration	12.10.1960 to 20.10.1960
Revisional Round	21.10.1960

The population of these villages was reported on 2nd November, 1960 as 6,001 persons (3,140 males and 2,861 females).

Special Areas

Fairs and Melas—Special Enumerators were appointed for enumeration of persons in melas who had been away from their homes throughout the period of Census count. Special arrangements were also made in riverine tracts covering population living in boats, majhis, mallahs and boatmen.

Houseless Population—For those portions of cities which had considerable houseless population, Special Enumerators were appointed, and special enumeration blocks having an estimated population of not more than 100 houseless persons were carved out. Ordinary Enumerators did not enumerate such houseless population ; but in other areas this job was done by ordinary Enumertors. Where there was concentration of such population, enumeration commenced on the night of the 26th February and ended on the night of the February 28, 1961, but where the population was small the work was taken up on the night of 28th February, 1961 and finished the same night. It was enjoined that a person found sleeping outside his house or an individual living in a hut or hovel or some one else's kothari, verandah, etc., was not treated as houseless. Persons without a house living with someone else and vigorously in search of one were not treated as houseless, though virtually they were without a house. Police and other organisations were contacted to obtain advance knowledge about places where such people congregated at night ; but their help was not sought for enumeration.

Storage of Houselists, Block Maps and Household Schedules

Houselists and Block Maps were got bound in suitable volumes for preservation.

Household Schedules were not got bound.

Houselists, Block Maps and Household Schedules are stored in the Census Records Offices at Rampur and Lucknow.

Unique Features of the 1961 Census

(i) Block Maps, Notional Maps of Cities and Towns and Tahsil Maps—Sketch-maps of villages and hamlets and well-defined portions of urban areas were prepared in duplicate at the stage of Houselisting by Enumerators for their Blocks to show the sequence of Housenumbering (indicating where it began and where it ended) and house-numbers of buildings situated at corners or turnings of lanes. These are the maps referred to in the preceding Section.

Notional maps for cities and towns were also prepared showing broad layout of roads, streets, lanes, and important landmarks. In the case of cities and towns with a population 20,000 and above these maps also indicated prosperous areas and the direction in which extension was taking place. The quality of some of these maps was fairly good, but of the majority just average.

Tahsil maps in the scale of 1"=1 mile (1 cm= 634 metres) were obtained from the Superintendent, Printing and Stationery, U.P. Where they were not available they were prepared. They were brought up-to-date and Census Divisions were marked thereon.

(ii) Uniform Houselists and Housing Tables—It has been customary to prepare Houselists at each Census alongwith or immediately after Housenumbering. But this time a uniform and detailed Houselist was adopted for the whole country. The Houselist, besides recording dwelling numbers and the number of inmates, recorded information relating to material of walls and roofs, number of rooms in a household, whether the household lived in his own or rented house, and the use to which each Census house was put. It further recorded for each establishment, workshop or factory the names of products, repairs or service undertaken, average number of persons daily employed and kind of fuel or power used. The preparation of the Houselist in the present form was a laborious task. Taking into account the total amount of work involved, the incidence of mistakes was quite low and the work was remarkably well done.

From these Houselists 5 Housing Tables and 11 Subsidiary Tables have been prepared. They were analysed and a separate Report on Housing and Establishment has been published (Parts IV-A and IV-B of 1961 Census publications).

(iii) Household Schedule and Census Population Record—The Household Schedule in the present form was a new feature of this Census. At the earlier Censuses prior to 1941 there used to be a Household Schedule for special population but was different. It was filled up for every household to collect information about cultivation, household industry and workers engaged in them. The Household Schedule furnished useful data on ranges of cultivated land, months of the year during which household industry conducted and the number of family and hired workers engaged in cultivation, household industry or both.

The Census Population Record on the back of Household Schedule was in the place of the National Register of Citizens prepared at the 1951 Census. The Census Population Record gave information regarding the name, sex, relationship to the head, age, marital status and details of work in the case of every individual worker of the household.

(iv) Household Economic Tables—In this Census, besides the General Economic Tables, Household Economic Tables based on data of Household Schedules have been prepared on 20 % sample basis (Part III of 1961 Census Publication). These Tables furnish important data not so far available. Such data relate to cultivation ranges, nature of household industry, period of woking of household industry and the number of persons employed either as family workers or hired workers.

(v) Industrial and Occupational Classifications as distinct from Classification of Livelihoods—The Indian Census Economic Classification adopted at 1951 Census was neither a purely industrial nor occupational classification, but was a combination of both. There were only 10 Divisions and 88 sub-divisions of industries and services. At the 1961 Census the National Classification of Occupations and the Standard Industrial Classifications were adopted. All Individual Slips of workers except those engaged in cultivation and agriculture were coded, both for occupation and for industry.

At the 1951 Census the population was divided into 8 livelihood classes and in each livelihood class self-supporting persons and their dependants were included. The 8 livelihood classes were framed with reference to means of livelihood returned at that Census. At this Census the concept of livelihood has been abandoned and replaced by the concept of work.

(vi) Special Migration Tables—With two additional questions on migration, the aspect of movement of population has been studied in greater detail. Tables relating to (1) migrants classified by place of birth and duration of residence, (2) migrants to cities classified by sex, broad age-groups, educational levels and occupations (3) migrants to cities from other places and (4) industrial categories of workers and non-workers in cities by place of birth have been prepared. The Table on place of birth cross-classified by duration of residence shows annual and decennial volumes of immigration as well as trends of migration from different places of birth.

(vii) Tables for Scheduled Castes—At the 1951 Census there was no special Table for Scheduled Castes except the one giving the total number of persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and their distribution according to the 8 livelihood classes. In order to know the improvement in the conditions of these communities through welfare schemes, Special Tables have been prepared giving the population of each Scheduled Caste classified by industrial categories, age, marital status and educational levels. Table on household cultivation classified by the size of holdings has also been prepared and in addition a Table for non-workers classified by educational levels (Part VA of 1961 Census publications).

(viii) Age Classification—Five year age-groups have been adopted for Age Tables as recommended by the United Nations. All Age Tables including the single year return have been prepared on full count and not on a sample basis as in 1951.

(ix) Classification by Educational Levels—A person who could neither read nor write, or a person who could read but not write, was treated as illiterate. Only one who could both read and write was considered as literate. The classification of literates for rural and urban areas was laid down as under :—

Rural Areas

1. Literate (without educational levels)
2. Primary or Junior Basic
3. Matriculation and above

Urban Areas

1. Literate (without education level)
2. Primary or Junior Basic
3. Matriculation or Higher Secondary
4. Technical Diploma not equal to degree
5. Non-technical diploma not equal to degree
6. University degree or post-graduate degree other than technical degree
7. Technical degree or diploma equal to degree or post-graduate degree
8. Engineering
9. Medicine
10. Agriculture
11. Veterinary and dairying
12. Technology
13. Teaching
14. Others

(x) Classification of Non-workers—At the 1951 Census non-earning dependants of the 8 livelihood classes were given separately under each category, but this time dependants have been included among non-workers. Non-workers have been further subdivided into 8 classes as follows :—

(i) full time students or children attending schools who do no other work,

(ii) housewives and persons engaged in unpaid home duties,

(iii) infants and other dependants including permanently disabled and old persons,

(iv) retired persons, rentiers and others who are in receipt of income without doing any work ;

(v) beggars, vagrants, and others of unspecified source of existence,

(vi) convicts in jail or inmates of penal, mental or charitable institutions,

(vii) persons not employed before but seeking work for the first time, and

(viii) persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking employment.

For the first time an attempt has been made to gather information about the activities of non-workers.

INSTRUCTIONS

Column 1—Line Number

Only the unit digits have been printed. Other digits will be filled in by hand.

Column 2—Building Number (Municipal or Local Authority or Census Number, if any)

Write the building number given by the local authority, if such a number exists. If no number has been given by the local authority, then the Census building number should be written here. If a building has a distinctive name that name should also be entered in this column

Column 3—Building Number with sub-numbers for each Census House

Census building number with sub-numbers for each Census House, if any, should be written

Column 4—Purpose for which Census House used, e.g., dwelling, shop, shop-cum-dwelling, business, factory, workshop, school or other institution, jail, hostel, hotel etc.

The actual use to which a Census House is put should be written. In the case of a factory or workshop "factory" should be written if registered, and "workshop" if unregistered. A workshop is a place where some kind of production, repair or servicing is undertaken. A shop is a place where articles are sold. Rooms on apartments where professional consultations are held by doctors, lawyers, etc. should be discribed as professional consultation rooms. If in addition medicines are prepared and sold. the place should be described as a dispensary. If it is a place of worship it will be recorded as such and if it is unoccupied it will be recorded as vacant. Where a Census house is a shop, business house, bank, etc., but not a factory or a workshop, the name of the proprietor, manager or director will be entered in column 18.

Column 5 to 8—If the Census house is used as an establishment, workshop or factory (General Heading)

These columns apply only in cases where the Census house is a factory or a workshop. If it is not used for such purposes write "×" in each of these columns.

Column 5—Name of establishment or proprietor

Write the name of establishment in case of factories. Write the name of proprietor in the case of small workshops and establishments where no distinct name has been given, e.g., Halwai shop.

Column 6—Name of product (s), repair or servicing undertaken

Enter the actual work that is being done, e.g., paper-making, shoemaking, cycle repairing, motor servicing, etc.

Column 7—Average number of perons employed daily last week (including proprietor, or household members, if working)

Write the average number of persons working during last week including the proprietor and his family, if working. In the case of more than one product it is not necessary to give the breakdown for each product.

Column 8—Kind of fuel or power, if machinery is used

If machinery is used, write the name of fuel or power consumed, e g., Kerosene, soft coke, electricity water mill, etc. for running the machinery.

Column 9 and 10—Description of Census house (General Heading)

Column 9—Material of wall

Write the name of material out of which most of the walls of the house are made, e.g. grass, leaves, reeds, bamboo, mud, unburnt brick, burnt bricks, stone, concrete, timber etc. Where the walls of a house are made of different materials then the material out of which walls of main bed rooms are made is to be recorded.

Column 10—Material of roof

Write the material out of which most of the roofs (not ceilings) are made, e.g., mud, tiles, thatch, corrugated iron, zinc or asbestos cement sheets, concrete etc.

In the case of multi-storeyed building the intermediate floors will be deemed to be independent roofs for the Census house concerned.

Column 11—Sub-number of each Census Household with Census house number (Column 3).

Write the building number with sub-numbers, if any, for Census House or Census Household in full.

Column 12—Name of Head of Household

Write the name of the head of the household commonly acknowledged as such. In messes, boarding houses etc., the person who by common consent is regarded as head should be recorded.

If the Census house is used as a sitting place, cattle shed etc., write the use to which it is put adding the name of the owner in bracket.

Column 13—Number of rooms in Census household

Write the number of rooms occupied by each household. A room should have four walls, with a door and a roof and should be at least 6 ft. long. Unenclosed varandah, kitchen, garage, cattle shed and bathroom etc. which are not used for living or sleeping are not be treated as rooms. Where two households share rooms in such a way that it is not possible to tell the number of rooms occupied by each, the number of rooms should be given together within brackets as common to both households.

Column 14—Does the household live in own or rented house ?

If the household lives in its own house write "0" in English and "नि" in Hindi. If the household lives in a rented house write "R" in English and "कि" in Hindi. In the case of a public building or place of worship write "X"

Columns 15 to 17—Number of persons residing in Census household on day of visit

Write the number of males in Column 15, the number of females in column 16 and the total in column 17. A person who is temporarily absent for a few hours should be treated as residing in the household. Similarly a person who arrived in the household for a few hours should not be treated as residing in it.

Column 18—Remarks

If the Census house is a shop write the name of proprietor. If it is vacant and is likely to be occupied before enumeration write "likely to be occupied shortly."

Write the name of the Scheduled Caste if the household belongs to a Scheduled Caste. If a Scheduled Caste is known by a synonym or a generic name, write the name as returned with the standard name in brackets. The list of standard names with synonyms is printed in the booklet.

INSTRUCTIONS

PART I—HOUSEHOLD SCHEDULE

Location Code—Full Location Code of the Household will be recorded here as in the Individual Slips.

Full Name of Head of Household—Full name should be written of the person recorded as head in the first Individual Slip of the household.

Is this an institution?—If the household is an institution, e.g., jail, hospital, mental hospital, ashram, dharamshala, hotel, hostel, charitable institution, etc., the kind of institution will be recorded in the rectangle provided. If the household is not an institution "X" will be put.

S.C./S. T.—In the parallelogram provided the name of the Scheduled Castes as in the Individual Slip of the head of household will be recorded.

A. Cultivation—This sub-part will be filled in only where the household cultivates land (land includes all land normally used for cultivation including temporary fallow). The area cultivated by that household in the village itself and other places will be recorded in this sub-part.

1. Land under cultivation by Household—

(i) owned or held from Government—Owned land includes occupancy tenancy. The local name of right on land owned or held from Government will be recorded against this item in Column 1 and the area in acres (or in pucca bighas or nalis, but this should be mentioned specifically) in Column 2. In Zamindari Abolition areas bhumidhari and sirdari are examples of land owned or held from Government.

(ii) held from private persons or institutions for payment of money—In Zamindari Abolition areas asami is an example of such tenure. The right on land will be recorded in Column 1 and area in acres (or pucca bighas or nalis) in Column 2.

(iii) Total of item (i) and (ii)—Total of areas will be recorded in column 2.

2. Land given to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind of share—The tenure of the household on the land given to others and its area in acres (or pucca bighas or nalis) are to be written in Columns 1 and 2. There is likely to be concealment in respect of such land, which requires to be guarded against.

If the areas are recorded in acres, they should be given to the first two places of decimal. If they are recorded in bighas, they should be to the nearest biswa. The unit of area should be uniform throughout the district. If the household has no cultivation 'X' will be put in all columns and a big "×" in sub-part A. If the household has a share in a co-operative farm, only that area will be recorded which belonged to it before. For right on land in such cases 'co-operative farm' will be recorded.

B. Household Industry—Definition is given in the form itself.

If more than two household industries are being carried on, the two most important industries are to be recorded in Column 1. Col. 2 is to be left blank for putting the code number later on—The number of months in a year during which the household industry is conducted should be recorded in Column 3. If the industry is conducted throughout the year, the entry should be '12'.

If the household is not engaged in any household industry, 'X' will be put in all columns and a big '×' in this sub-part.

C. Worker at Cultivating or Household Industry—Definition is given in the form itself.

1. Household Cultivation only—If the household is engaged in household cultivation only, the number of workers engaged will be recorded against this item and '×' will be put in all columns against items 2 and 3. The breakdown of members of family into head, other males and other females is to be given in Column 1, 2 and 3 and the total in Column 4. The number of hired workers is to be given in Column 5. Only that person will be deemed to be a worker who works or is engaged in active supervision or direction.

2. Household Industry only—If the household is engaged in household industry only, the number of workers engaged will be recorded against this item and 'X' will be put in all columns against items 1 and 3.

3. Both in Household Cultivation and Household Industry—If the household is engaged both in household cultivation and household industry, the number of workers will be recorded against this item and '×' will be put in all columns against items 1 and 2.

If a member is absent during the entire enumeration period, i.e., February 10 to 28, 1961, his Individual Slip will not be filled up in that Household, but he will be included among workers in the Household Schedule, if he is a worker in cultivation or household industry.

If there is no household cultivation or household industry '×' will be put in all columns and a big '×' in this subpart.

PART II—CENSUES POPULATION RECORD

This will be filled up with the help of the Individual Slips by the enumerator at his leisure.

Column 1:—Name—Names as recorded against Question 1 (a) of Individual Slips will be entered here.

They will be recorded in the same serial order as they occur in the Individual Slips of this household.

Columns 2 and 3: Sex—Sex of the person will be recorded in Column 2 if male (M), and in Column 3 if females (F).

Column 4 : Relationship to Head—Relationship to head as noted against Question 1 (b) of the Individual Slip will be recorded.

Column 5: Age—Age as recorded against Question 2 of the Individual Slip will be entered.

Column 6 : Marital Status—Marital Status as recorded against Question 3 of the Individual Slip will be entered.

Column 7 : Description of work in the case of worker—Give a brief description of work in the case of worker with the help of answers to Questions 8, 9, 10 (a) and 11 (a) of the Individual Slip using abbreviations in the cases of Agriculture and Agricultural Labour.

At the bottom the total number of persons, males and females should be given under Columns 1, 2, and 3.

INSTRUCTIONS

Location Code—

This has to be written in each case. In rural areas the first element will be the District Code No., the second will be the Tahsil Code No., the third will be the Village Code No. (with sub-numbers, if any, for hamlets to be written in brackets) and the fourth will be the composite Household Code No. (Building No. with sub-numbers of Census House and Census Households, if any). The following is an example :—

38/3/112(3)/24(1A)

In urban areas the first element will be the District Code No. and the second will be the City/Town Code no. (with sub-number of constituents, if any). Where house numbering is wardwise the third element will be Ward Code No. and where it is mohallawise it will be Mohalla Code No. The fourth element will be the composite Household Code No. The following is an example :—

38/I-1-14/24 (IA)

In cities and towns where block demarcation has been done by the National Sample Survey and their blocks cut across the boundaries of wards and mohallas the third element will be the Census Ward Code No. followed by the serial No. of the Block within the Ward. Where housenumbering is wardwise the fourth element will be the Municipal Ward No. followed by composite Household Code No. and where it is mohalla wise it will be the Municipal Mohalla No. followed by the composite Household Code No. The following is an example :—

38/I-1/14-17/42-24 (1A)

For population not living in houses or portions thereof, or huts, tents, etc. '×' will be put for Household Code No. in the fourth element of the location code.

Enumeration is to be done in the following order:—

Head, his wife, married sons and their families, if any, unmarried sons and daughters, married daughters and their families, if living in the household, other relatives and unrelated persons.

1(a) Name—

Name is to be written in full. In the case of a female whose name cannot be ascertained, describe her as the mother, wife or daughter of so and so. In the case of babies who have not yet been named, baby of so and so should be written.

1(b) Relationship to Head—

For the Head himself 'Head' should be written. Relationship should be specific and not in vague terms, such as nephew or niece. The head of a household can be a female ; in that case all relationships should be with reference to her. If the recorded head dies before March 1, another person will be recorded as head and all relationships are to be described with reference to him or her. In the case of unrelated persons 'unrelated' is to be entered.

In the case of messes, boarding houses, etc., de facto manager should be recorded as 'head' and other members as 'unrelated'.

2. Age last birthday—

Completed years should be recorded omitting months. For children below one year write '0', where a person is unable to tell his age the Enumerator should help him in making an estimate. Age is to be recorded within the rectangle provided.

3. Marital Status—

For bachelors and maidens 'NM' is to be written. For married persons 'M' should be written, for widows and widowers 'W', and for separated or divorced persons 'S'.

4(a) Birth-place—

If born at the place of enumeration 'PL' should be written, if born elsewhere in the district 'D', if born in another district of Uttar Pradesh the name of the district, if elsewhere in India the name of the district and the name of the State, and if born outside India, e.g., Pakistan, United Kingdom, etc., only the name of the country.

4(b) Born R/U—

If born in a place which is now rural write 'R'. If born in a place which is now urban write 'U'. Entry is to be made within the circle provided.

4(c) Duration of residence, if born elsewhere—

If born at the place of enumeration 'X' should be written. If born elsewhere completed number of years omitting months should be entered. '0' should be written if the period is less than one year. Entry should be made within the dotted rectangle provided.

5(a) Nationality—

For Indians 'I' should be written. For others, full nationality is to be recorded.

5(b) Religion—

For Hindus 'H', for Muslims 'M' for Christians 'C', for Jains 'J', for Buddhists 'B' and for Sikhs 'S' should be written. For others religion should be recorded in full.

5(c) S. C./S. T.—

The name of the Scheduled Caste as returned by the person should be recorded. If he gives a generic name or synonym that name should be recorded followed by the standard name in brackets (there are no Scheduled Tribes in Uttar Pradesh, but some communities have been selected for special study in this State). Scheduled Castes can exist only among Hindus and Sikhs. If the person to be enumerated does not belong to any caste or tribe 'X' will be put.

6. Literacy & Education—

For those who cannot read or write '0' will be written. For those who can read as well as write but have not passed a written examination, equivalent to or higher than Lower Primary 'L' will be written. For those who have passed some examination(s) the highest examination passed should be recorded.

7 (a) Mother-Tongue—

This is the language spoken by a person in his early childhood. The actual name of the language returned should be recorded and every effort should be made to steer clear of linguistic controversies.

7(b) Any other language(s)—

If a person does not know any language other than his mother-tongue, '×' will be put. If he knows some other language (s), then the names of such language (s) not exceeding two in number should be recorded. The other language(s) should be different from the mother-tongue and should not be dialect(s) thereof.

8. Working as cultivator—

For a person working as cultivator 'C' is to be written and for all others 'X'. Cultivation includes effective direction or supervision. It does not include horticulture, orchards, groves and plantations which will be recorded against Question 11. If a person has let out his land to others and does not even supervise his cultivation, he will not be deemed to be a cultivator.

9. Working as Agricultural labourer—

For a person working in someone else's cultivation on wages in cash or kind 'AL' will be recorded and for all others '×'.

10. Working at Household Industry—

Industry means production, fabrication, processing, repairs or servicing (of machines). Household industry is one which is not on the scale of a registered factory and is conducted by one or more members of the household with or without hired labour. In rural areas it can be located anywhere in the village in which the household lives, but in urban areas it must be located at home. A person might be working in the household industry of another household. He has also to be treated as a worker in household industry.

(a) Nature of work—

If a person is engaged in a household industry, the actual work performed by him is to be written here. If he is not engaged 'X' will be put.

(b) Nature of Household Industry—

The name of the household industry in detail has to be recorded here, mentioning the articles produced, fabricated, processed, repaired or services. If the person is not engaged in a household industry '×' will be put.

(c) If Employee—

If the person concerned is an employee in household industry of another household 'EE' will be recorded within the triangle provided, otherwise 'X'.

11. Doing work other than 8, 9 or 10—

If not doing any such work '×' will be recorded against subquestions (a), (b), (c) and (d). Industry (other than household industry), profession, trade, service, raising of cattle, planting of orchards, groves and other plantations are included in this question. If a person is doing more than one thing which can be recorded here that thing alone should be recorded on which he spends most time.

(a) Nature of work—

The actual work performed by a person is to be recorded here in detail. If sufficient details have not been recorded, the enumerator will have to make a second visit.

(b) Nature of Industry, Profession, Trade or Service—

Sufficient details of industry, profession, trade or service should be recorded to enable correct classification. The names of articles produced/processed, services, repaired in case of industry ; the name of calling in case of profession ; names of articles bought and sold in case of trade ; the department or kind of establishment in case of service should be recorded here. Vague terms should be avoided.

(c) Class of worker—

For an employer 'MR' is to be written, for an employee 'EE', for a single worker 'SW' and for a family worker 'F.W'. The entry is to be made within the inverted triangle provided.

A private doctor employing a compounder is an employer. A doctor in service is an employee. An officer or a manager who has the power to employ on behalf of Government or the proprietor on the Board of Directors is an employee and not an employer. A carpenter who works alone in his own shop is a single worker. If he is employed regularly anywhere he is an employee. A single worker does his own work and is neither employed by anyone nor does he employ anyone except casually. A partner in a firm or a member of a co-operative society should be deemed to be a single worker. A family worker is a member of the family (not necessarily confined to the household) who works with one or more members in industry (not household industry), business, trade, etc., without receiving wages in cash or kind.

(d) Name of Establishment—

The name of factory, workshop, shop, office, etc., together with the name of the place where located should be recorded here.

Important—If in respect of any person there are entries against more than one question out of Questions 8 to 11, he has to be asked as to which one of these is his principal work. Principal is that in which he spends most time. The serial number of the question against which his principal work is recorded should be encircled, e.g. (10)

If there are entries against more than two questions he has further to be asked as to which one is his next important work on which he spends most time. The serial number of the question against which this work is recorded should be ticked, e.g. 8✓.

12. Activity, if Not-working

Entry will be made against this question in the parallelogram provided, only when 'X's (crosses) have been put against questions 8, 9, 10 (a), (b), (c) and 11 (a), (b), (c) and (d), otherwise 'X' will be put here.

If a person is not doing any kind of work contemplated in Questions 8, 9, 10 and 11, he will be recorded as follows :—

(1) a whole-time student not doing any other work as 'ST',

(2) a house worker not engaged in any remunerative work as 'HW',

(3) a dependant including infant or child not attending school or an old or disabled person (not in receipt of income and not seeking employment) not doing any work as 'D',

(4) a retired person (not re-employed) rentier, royalty or divident holder not doing any work as 'R',

(5) a beggar, vagrant or a person with undisclosed source of income as 'B',

(6) a convict or inmate of penal, mental or charitable institution as 'I' (An undertrial will be recorded as a worker against the relevant question if he was working before his arrest),

(7) a person in search of employment for the first time as 'NE', and

(8) a person having worked before and in search of further employment as 'UN',

13. Sex—

For females 'F' will be recorded and others 'M' in the bottom right hand corner.

For filling up the Individual Slips in Hindi the prescribed Hindi equivalents of English abbreviations should be used.

TABLE A-I

AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

FLYLEAF TO UNION TABLE A-I

Brief account of changes in area of State and Districts 1901 to 1961

Statement 1 gives area figures for the State and districts from 1901 to 1961. An analysis of the figures in the light of Census reports of decades 1901 to 1961 is given below :

1901—1911 : The area figure reported in 1911 for the State was more than that reported in 1901 by 103 sq. miles. Out of this 75 Sq. miles was due to the inclusion of certain Jagirs in district Jalaun which were in an anomalous position of semi-independence in 1901 and had not been accounted for. The difference of the remaining area of 28 sq. miles was due to remeasurement and fluvial action near the boundaries of the State.

1911-1921 : The details of changes in area are as indicated in the table below :

District	Area added to Province (Sq. miles)	Area substracted from Province (Sq. miles)	Cause of transfer
Muzaffarnagar	..	20	Changes in deep stream of the Yamuna
Meerut	..	46	Transferred to form new Delhi Province
Ballia	7	28	Changes in deep stream of the Ganga
Districts not known	..	15	Other minor changes

The net loss was, in all, 102 Sq. miles by which the total area of 1921 fell short of that in 1911. Apart from this, 870 Sq. miles were transferred from Mirzapur and Benares (Varanasi) districts to form Benares State which, however, was a part of British India and is shown below district Varanasi in which this princely state subsequently merged in 1949, in Statement 1.

1921-1931 : There was again a decrease of 53 Sq. miles which was due to the following reasons :

(i) 1 Sq. mile was transferred from district Meerut to Delhi Province during fixation of the boundary between them ;

(ii) 1 Sq. mile was transferred to the Province of Bihar and Orissa as a result of diluvion by the Ganga from district Ballia ; and

(iii) 6 Sq. miles of Oudh reserved forest were transferred to Nepal Government in connection with Sarda Kitcha Project.

These resulted in 8 Sq. miles of extra-provincial transfers. Further, it was also found that an additional 54 sq. miles had been incorrectly shown in 1921 in districts Bulandshahr, Agra, Bijnor, Etawah, Allahabad, Jhansi, Ballia, Basti, Sitapur, Kheri, Gonda and Rampur. Apart from the above extra-provincial transfers and discrepancy, an addition of 9 Sq. miles was due to resurvey in some districts and other changes of boundaries due to fluvial action.

Intra-provincial transfers which did not affect the total area of the Province

District: From	District: To	Area in Sq. miles
Farrukhabad	Shahjahanpur	40
Banda	Hamirpur	147
Ghazipur	Varanasi	90

1931—1941 : The areas given for the 1931 Census were based on the district records of tahsils areas, and the differences between the Provincial areas as given in 1941 by Survey Department and the Provincial area at the preceeding Census 1931 as based on the district records was (—) 332 Sq. miles. Out of this the real reduction in area was of 71 Sq. miles only which was due to the following extra and intra-provincial transfers :

I—EXTRA PROVINCIAL TRANSFERS

District: From	District: To	Area in Sq. miles
Bulandshahr	Gurgaon, Punjab	—2
Karnal, Punjab	Muzaffarnagar	+3
Muzaffarnagar	Karnal, Punjab	—1
Meerut	Karnal, Punjab	—1
Dehra Dun	Sirmoor State, Punjab	—1
Ballia	Saron, Bihar	—9
	Net deletion	11

II—INTRA-PROVINCIAL TRANSFERS (which did not affect the total area of the Province)

District From	District To	Area in Sq. miles
Bareilly	Budaun	1
Pilibhit	Bareilly	2
Bareilly	Pilibhit	2
Kanpur	Unnao	1
Bijnor	Muzaffarnagar	5
Muzaffarnagar	Bijnor	7
Faizabad	Gorakhpur	1
Basti	Faizabad	8

III—OTHER REASONS

On account of resurvey in some districts preparatory to resettlement a decrease of 84 Sq. miles had occurred. The districts concerned were, Aligarh, Sitapur, Kheri, Bahraich, Sultanpur, Pilibhit, Faizabad, Gorakhpur, Muzaffarnagar and Bijnor.

24 Sq. miles were shown less in 1931 in districts Farrukhabad, Etawah, Kanpur, Allahabad, Jhansi, Gorakhpur, Muzaffarnagar, Ballia and in Benares state.

1941-1951: The area in 1951 has been recorded as 113, 409 Sq. miles which is 886 Sq. miles more than the area of United Provinces and the three princely states in 1941. The difference is accounted for as follows :

(i) 56 Sq. miles due to revised calculations of area made by the Surveyor General, India ; and

(ii) 830 Sq. miles due to transfer of enclaves to Uttar Pradesh.

Intra-provincial transfers which did not affect the total area of the Province

District From	District To	Area in Sq. miles	Reasons for transfer
Budaun	Etah	0·71	Due to fluvial action of river Ganga
Hardoi	Farrukhabad	5·55	Due to fluvial action of river Ganga

The merger of the states of Rampur, Tehri Garhwal and Benares in 1949 did not bring about any change as their area was being included in the State previously also. The states of Rampur and Tehri Garhwal were formed into separate districts, while the Benares state was merged with the old Benares district.

1951-61: There is a difference of 245 Sq. miles in the area figures of the State between 1961 and 1951. Since there has been no change in jurisdiction at the State level, the difference is as a result of revised calculations by the Surveyor General, India. The highest difference is in the area of old Tehri Garhwal district which includes the new district Uttar Kashi formed out of Rawain tahsil of old Tehri Garhwal district.

5. Critical survey of changes in jurisdiction

In the over all jurisdiction of the State there has practically been no change. Within the State the most outstanding change was the creation of three new border districts of Pithoragarh, Chamoli and Uttar Kashi. The district Pithoragarh has been constituted from the old Pithoragarh tahsil of district Almora and two pattis viz. Walla Athigaon and Talla Athigaon of Almora tahsil also of district Almora. This in its turn resulted in the reduction of district Almora by the same area. The new district Pithoragarh now comprises 4 tahsils Munsiari, Dharchula, Didihat and Pithoragarh.

District Uttar Kashi has been constituted from the old Rawain tahsil of district Tehri Garhwal. This district now comprises 4 Tahsils Puraula, Rajgarhi, Dunda and Bhatwari. The area of district Tehri Garhwal has in turn been reduced by its Rawain Tahsil. The old Chamoli Tahsil of district Garhwal now forms the Chamoli district which consists of 4 tahsils Joshimath, Karnaprayag, Chamoli and Ukhi Math. The district Garhwal has in turn been reduced in size accordingly.

The name of Banaras district has been changed as Varanasi.

The other important changes are :—

(i) Tahsil Kulpahar of district Hamirpur has been merged with Charkhari and Mahoba tahsils within the same district.

(ii) Tahsil Tanda of district Rampur has been merged with Suar tahsil of the same district.

(iii) A new tahsil of Naugarh has been formed from portions of Domariaganj and Bansi tahsils within Basti district.

(iv) A new tahsil Zamania has been formed from portion of Ghazipur tahsil of Ghazipur district.

(v) A new tahsil Balrampur has been formed from portion of Utraula tahsil of Gonda district.

(vi) Tahsil Huzur of district Rampur has been renamed as Rampur.

(vii) Tahsil Khajuha of district Fatehpur has been renamed as Bindki.

(viii) Tahsil Banaras of the same district has been renamed Varanasi.

6. Rural and Urban Population

(i) Definition of Urban Area and brief Historical Survey

Definition 1961 :

"The following kinds of places were deemed to be urban areas in 1961 :

1. All Municipalities and Notified Areas,
2. All Cantonments,
3. All localities though not in themselves local bodies yet are part of city or town agglomerations, and
4. All places which satisfied all the three conditions, noted below, at the 1951 Census;

(i) Population exceeded 5,000,

(ii) at least three-fourth of the population depended on non-agricultural livelihood, and

(iii) density of population exceeded 1,000 persons per square mile."

"Cities"—"All places of the above categories have been treated as towns and such of them as have a population of one lakh and above have been treated as cities."

Apart from these, those villages which showed an urban pattern in 1961 Census, i.e., who at least three-fourth working population of which was non-agricultural, were also treated as towns after enumeration.

Brief Historical Survey

Throughout the world and in all previous Census, it has been observed that it is difficult to present a standard method of rural and urban classification and there is no clear cut distinction between the two. "The term 'Rural' and 'Urban' have their connotations which refer to ways of life, cultural patterns, attitudes and other intangible aspects and it is difficult to pin down these in a census frame of reference. Historical, political, cultural and administrative considerations give the criteria for rural-urban classification. There is no uniform definition and classification of rural and urban among the nations of the world. At its fourth session in April, 1949, the United Nations Population Commission made the recommendations to obtain the aggregate population of all identifiable agglomerations and clusters of population classified by size and other characteristics."
(1951-Census Report)

The definitions of urban areas from Census to Census also provide an interesting study. They show the evolution of the definition from 1901 to 1961. These are reproduced below :

Census 1901 : "For Census purposes a townwas defined as any area in which the Municipal Act or the Cantonment Act or Act XXof 1856 (Chaukidari) was in force, or any continuous group of houses containing a population of not less than 5,000 persons".

Census 1911 : No definition was given in the report but it was mentioned that "the typical country town, therefore, is an exaggerated village with a certain non-agricultural population attracted by the convenience of its site."

Census 1921: "A town is—

(i) Every continuous group of houses permanently inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, and

(ii) Every area in which Act II of 1914 or Act II of 1916 is in force.

Explanation 1: Where several villages lie so close together that their houses form a continuous group with a population exceeding 5,000, such group is a town.

Explanation 2: Where one village is broken up into distinct groups of houses, none of which contains more than 5,000 inhabitants, then though the population exceeds 5,000 the village is not a town.

Explanation 3 : Where separate groups of houses have been united for the purposes of the Acts mentioned above, they will be considered one town".

Census 1931 : "A town is :

(i) Any area in which U. P. Act II of 1916 is in force, i. e., any Municipality.

(ii) Any area under sections 337 and 339 of U. P. Act II of 1916, i. e., any Notified Area.

(iii) Any area under U. P Act II of 1914, i. e., any Town Area.

(iv) Any Cantonment.

(v) Any other continuous group of houses permanently inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which, having regard to the character of the population, the relative density of the dwelling, the importance of the place as a centre of trade and its historical associations, the provincial Census Superintendent decided to treat as town".

"City—A city is only a large town. It was defined as :

(1) any town whose population in 1921 was not less than 100,000.

(2) any town which the local government declared to be a city for census purposes.

Included in such cities are not only the municipalities but also any cantonments, notified areas or railway colonies that may be adjacent to them, so that in many cases a city is actually a collection of Census towns".

Census 1941: The definition of 1931 was adopted.

Census 1951: The definition of a town for census purposes has resulted in a distinction which is sometimes arbitrary. A "town" was defined as :—

(i) Any area in which U. P. Act II of 1916 is in force, i. e., any Municipality ;

(ii) Any area under sections 337 and 339 of the U. P. Act II of 1916, i.e., any Notified Area ;

(iii) Any area under U. P. Act II of 1914, i. e., any Town Area ;

(iv) Any area under the Cantonment Act of 1921, i.e., any Cantonment ; and

(v) Any other continuous group of houses permanently inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which, having regard to the character of the population, the relative density of the dwelling, the importance of the place as a centre of trade and its historic associations, the State Census Superintendent decided to treat as a town.

Explanation 1—Where several villages lie as close together that their houses form a continuous group with a population exceeding 5,000 such groups may be treated as a single town under (V) above.

Explanation 2—Where one village is broken up into distinct groups of houses none of which contain more than 5,000 inhabitants, then although the total population exceeds 5,000, the village is not a town.

Explanation 3—By the area of a town is meant :

(i) The area demarcated for the purposes of the above Acts ; and

(ii) The area occupied by the group of houses and the land immediately appurtenant thereto.

"A city is—

(i) Any town whose population is not less than 100,000 ; and

(ii) Any other town with an expected population of 50,000 or above which the state Census Superintendent with the sanction of the State Government may decide to treat as a city for Census purposes.

Included in such cities are not only the municipalities but also any cantonments, notified areas, town areas or railway colonies that may be adjacent to them and in some cases also other adjacent areas or sub-urban areas not included in any local body. In many cases a city is actually a collection of Census towns."

It would be seen that there has been a continuous evolution of the definition of urban areas which in 1961 have ultimately been differentiated from rural on the basis of the pattern of economic activities in them. In 1961, the basic difference has been in laying down the condition that those places of 1951 apart from M. B.'s Cantonments, Notified Areas and those forming a constituent unit of a city or town agglomeration, which satisfied all the three conditions below have also been treated as towns—

(i) having population over 5,000 ;

(ii) having at least three-fourth population dependent on non-agricultural pursuits ; and

(iii) having a density of 1,000 person per Sq. mile.

The condition (i) was as per previous Census, condition (ii) adds the concept of urbanisation as distinct from rural pattern of life, and condition (iii) pins down the basic concept being followed since beginning that "a town is any continuous group of houses containing a population of not less than 5,000 persons" (1901) and "the typical country town, therefore, is an exaggerated village with a certain non-agricultural population attracted by the convenience of its site."

Further, it is also clear that the discretion of the State Census Superintendents has been subjected to statistical bindings so that there may be uniformity throughout India in the use of the discretion. In the census report of U. P. 1951 it had been mentioned that

"If population alone were to be considered in declaring an area urban, many over-sized villages with no urban characteristics will qualify for classification as town. Hence, it becomes necessary that a place be identified as a town if it has certain specified characteristics which are essentially urban and the most tangible of these is the preponderance of non-agricultural pursuits or the typically urban occupations which are commercial, professional and industrial." It is noteworthy that the State of West Bengal was the percursor in adopting this criterian.

It's definiton of urban areas in 1951 has virtually been adopted by all the States in 1961. The orders of R. G. I. reproduced below throw further light on the finalisation of this definition:

"Since urbanisation is going to be a major field of study from 1961 onwards, greater strictness and uniformity should henceforth prevail in the definition of 'town' so that precise criteria may be set up in the interest of comparability.

For census purposes a town is defined as an area of 5,000 population or over not less than threefourth of whom live on non-agricultural livelihoods. Where the population is predominantly agricultural the background is rural and the place cannot, therefore, be classified as urban. Where the population is predominantly non-agricultural, there is likelihood to be a more urban background and the place can be treated as a town.

At the 1951 Census in West Bengal, it was prescribed that, in order that a place may be classified as a town, it should have (i) a population of not less than 5,000, (ii) a density of not less than 1,000 persons per Sq. mile, and that (iii) at least three-fourth of the adult male population should be employed in pursuits other than agriculture. It is possible that in many States, where the average urban density is not as high as in West Bengal urban localities may not attain such a high density. But it should be possible to apply the other two criteria uniformly to all States. I would, therefore, suggest that in the case of all States, localities other than Municipalities, Cantonments or Civil Lines should be treated as towns for purposes of the Census, if their population is not less than 5,000 and their adult male population in non-agricultural livelihoods is at least three-fourth of the total male population of the locality."

(R. G. I.'s D.O. No. 3/9 /59-RG dated 14.3.59 addressed to S. C. O., U. P.)

(ii) Difference that this definition has made to statistics of urban areas of 1951 :—

(a) Statement 2 gives the population for 1951 and 1961 for urban areas of classes IV, V and VI of 1951 which have been declassified in 1961.

(b) Statement 3 gives the population of urban areas added in 1961.

α Uttar Kashi T. A. which fell in district Tehri Garhwal in 1951

δ Pithoragarh T. A. which fell in district Almora in 1941 and 1951

γ Tehri Garhwal district was a princely state from 1901 to 1941

*Rampur district was princely state from 1901 to 1941

§Excludes Shahadra town since transferred to Delhi

θ Includes Samthar town also though transferred to U. P. in 1951

‡Includes Nadigaon town transferred to U. P. after 1901

μ Includes Charkhari town also though transferred to U. P. in 1951

†These are towns of the then Gorakhpur district which would have fallen in District Deoria had it existed separately from 1901 to 1941

+Includes towns of Princely State Benares.

8. Definition of village and brief historical survey

Definition 1961 Census

"A Census village is ordinarily the same thing as a revenue mauza, but in some cases differs therefrom. Sometimes population springs up in a locality comprised in two or more revenue mauzas, the name of the locality not finding place in revenue records. The locality may be important from commercial, industrial or administrative points of view. Such a locality is treated as a separate Census village and the area occupied by it is excluded from the revenue mauzas concerned. In case such a Census village bears the name of one of the mauzas it is distinguished by the addition of suitable suffix like Bazar, Tahsil or Factory. The remainder of each revenue mauza part of which is rural and part has been absorbed in an urban area, the part which remains rural is treated as a full-fledged Census village, and the part absorbed in the urban area loses its identity.

Each forest range has been deemed to be a unit, provided it lies wholly in one tahsil. Where a forest range lies in two tahsils, it has been treated as two sub-ranges and each sub-range has been deemed to be a unit. It is note-worthy that forest tracts lying within revenue mauzas have been excluded from forest charges. A permanent forest village or abadi found in a forest range during the period of enumeration is to be treated as a hamlet (s)."

Historical Survey.

'By the term "village" the revenue mauza is usually meant. This being a definite area changes are little.' This was how a village was defined in 1901 Census. In 1911 Census it was further specified that "the Census village (i. e. the revenue mauza) may represent a single site or two or more detached hamlets amongst which its population is divided." As some revenue mauzas got partly or wholly merged in the adjoining towns and lost their identity as separate village or as a full revenue mauza, the 1921 Census Report further elaborated the definition which read as "village denotes the area demarcated for revenue purposes as a mauza, provided that where such a village, or part of a village, or part of the area of a town, it will be included in such town. A village includes all the hamlets." In 1931 Census all the definitions of 1901 to 1921 were pieced together and a fuller definition was given to a village. A village was defined there in "as the area demarcated for revenue purposes as a mauza, provided that where such a village or part of a village forms part of the area of a town, it be included in such town. A village includes all the hamlets situated within the area of a revenue mauza. A revenue mauza is the Survey and settlement village, which is a parcel of ground with definite boundaries which may contain one or more groups of houses or even no houses at all. Uninhabited villages are not included in the Census statistics." This definition remained unaltered in 1941 because no modification was made. But in 1951 Census a more complete definition depicting the historical evolution of village and hamlets was given clarifying further that (i) the portion of a village which has not merged with an adjoining town is regarded, for Census purposes, as the village, and (ii) the forest tracts not included within the boundaries of a revenue mauza have also been entered as villages, the boundaries being those recognized by the Forest Department. The definition ran as follows "For purposes of the Census a "village" is not necessarily a village in the ordinary sense. It denotes the area demarcated for revenue purposes as a mauza, provided that where a mauza or part of a mauza forms a part of the area of a town, it is included in such town and the remainder, if any, is regarded, for census purposes, as the village. A revenue mauza is the survey and settlement village which is a parcel of ground with definite boundaries which may contain one or more groups of houses or even no houses at all. The Census village is, therefore, not actually a residential unit or aggregation. A distinctive cluster or agglomeration of houses makes up the "hamlet"; and the revenue mauza may consist of several such hamlets or it may even consist of no 'abadi' or residential site. The "village" by which name the revenue mauza is traditionally called, consists usually of a central inhabited site, with a tract of cultivated land around it. Unlike other countries, in India and in this State the farmstead is practically unknown. The people are gregarious by habit and are huddled together in congested sites. Owing to the necessity in unsettled times of combinations against hostile attacks the people had to live together for mutual protection. This residential aspect was taken into consideration while determining the unit of revenue administration except in tracts which were uninhabited when the mauzas were first formed. Later on when such tracts were inhabited and there was greater sense of security of life and property and when people obtained a right in land, outlaying hamlets were also formed. These hamlets usually consist of the homestead of a landlord or a large tenant built for greater convenience in or near his holding round which cluster the houses of his farm servants; or else of the houses of some special social groups or castes living separately from the central site. Most of these hamlets are usually given a separate name and are identifiable from the main site. From the strictly demographic angle it is these hamlets and not the revenue mauzas which should be the units of population. This was, however, not practicable at the Census on account of administrative difficulties. Besides, in a large number of cases where the houses are scattered it would have been impossible to decide which groups of houses form independent villages and which groups are mainly parts of other villages. Groups of houses also appear or disappear between one Census and another and so any reliable comparison from one Census to the next would have been impossible. The revenue mauza, on the other hand, has a definite area which changes little. For these reasons the revenue mauza had to be adopted as the Census village.

As has been said above, the village includes inhabited as well as uninhabited mauzas. The latter are not included in the Census statistics though they are entered in the preliminary Census records

Besides the revenue mauzas which have been treated as village, the forest tracts not included within the boundaries of a revenue mauza have also been entered as villages, the boundaries being those recognized by the Forest Department.

The 1961 Census has made further history in improving upon the concept of village in three ways. First, it recognised as separate villages some localities important from commercial, industrial or administrative points of views, which had sprung from one or more revenue mauzas though did not find place in the revenue records. The area occupied by such a locality is excluded from the revenue mauzas concerned. Second, the position of forest tracts treated as census villages was further clarified. Each forest range was deemed to be a unit provided it wholly lay in one tahsil and in case a forest range ran into two tahsils, the portions falling in the two tahsils were treated as separate units. Thirdly, a clear distinction was made between towns and villages on the basis of the pattern of distribution of population. The criteria of agricultural and non-agricultural bias was introduced to draw a clear line between the two. Ths criteria added 222 towns of 1951 Census to the rural area of the State as villages. Further, after the preparation of the Primary Census Abstract, 18 villages were treated as towns as they showed a predominance of non-agricultural bias.

10. Explanation of variations in the number of villages (1901–1961)

Except for the Census year 1941, the figures of the remaining decades show a uniform trend of increase in the number of inhabited villages. However, there are minor differences in certain districts. Various reasons which might be responsible for these differences can be :

(i) Change of definition of urban areas from decade to decade ;

(ii) Certain uninhabited villages becoming only inhabited at the time of Census ;

(iii) Certain sparsely populated villages becoming uninhabited at the time of enumeration ;

(iv) The changes in the district boundaries from decade to decade as a result of settlement ;

(v) The changes in the boundaries of the state ;

(vi) The fluvial action of the rivers ;

(vii) New districts being formed out of portions of old districts, e.g., Chamoli from Garhwal district, Uttar Kashi from Tehri Garhwal district and Pithoragarh from Almora district between 1951-1961 ;

(viii) Merger of certain states in U. P., e. g., Benares on 15-10-49, Tehri Garhwal on 1-8-49 and Rampur on 1-12-49. The change in revenue administration appears to have been responsible for some minor changes ;

(ix) Treating certain villages as separate Census villages though they are not revenue mauzas, in 1961 ; and

(x) Merger of villages with adjacent towns with the growth of towns.

12. Villages wholly and partly included in towns

In the state there were 126,001 revenue mauzas on the jurisdiction list. Out of these 112,624 were inhabited, 12,720 were uninhabited and 657 were wholly included in the towns. Those included wholly in the towns thus do not find place in the village-wise record in the Primary Census Abstracts of the corresponding districts. Thus 657 out of 126,001 villages are wholly merged in towns as a result of the growing pace of urbanisation. Parts of 824 villages lying near their contiguous towns have also been included in the different adjacent towns of the state. These have been indicated through suitable footnotes in the District Census Handbooks.

13. Definition of Census Houses

"A census house is a building or part of a building inhabited or vacant and can be a dwelling, a shop, a shop-dwelling, a place of business, an office, a workshop, school, etc., having a separate main exit. If a building has a number of independent portions under different occupations each having a separate exit of its own opening on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard or a common gallery leading to the main gate, each portion is considered as a separate Census house. If, however, within an enclosed or open compound there are separate structures which have been deemed to be one building, each such structure is to be considered as a separate Census house. In other cases a building if occupied by one party is to be considered as one Census house, irrespective of the number of main exits. If it is occupied by several parties, it is to be deemed as so many Census houses provided each portion has a separate main exit."

(Census of Indian 1961-Census Manual-Part I for U. P.)

14. Definition of occupied Residential House

An occupied Residential House is a Census house used for residential purpose and in which one or more households were living at the time of enumeration.

16 (i) Persons per occupied Census house

The state figures show that on the whole there are 6 persons per occupied Census house. The variation between rural and urban areas is also negligible, i. e., 6·1 and 6·3 persons, respectively, per occupied Census house.

The pattern of districts is depicted in the following table :

	Total		Rural		Urban
	District	Persons per occupied Census house	District	Persons per occupied Census house	District	Persons per occupied Census house
MAXIMUM

					Tehri Garhwal	4
PERCENTAGE VARIATION
	60%		60%		125%

The pattern of total which is highly weighted by rural is quite close to the rural pattern. The urban pattern is obviously different having a variation between minimum and maximum of 125%. Leaving aside the hill districts which have a widely different pattern because of the topographical and economic conditions, the position comes out to be that the minimums are Total—5 persons per occupied Census house in Bijnor, Lucknow, Rae Bareli, Bara Banki, Sultanpur and Pratapgarh districts, Rural-5 persons per occupied Census house in Bijnor, Dehra Dun, Lucknow, Saharanpur, Jhansi, Rae Bareli, Bara Banki, Sultanpur and Pratapgarh districts, and Urban—5 persons per Census house in Bijnor, Hamirpur, Lucknow, Rae Bareli Gonda, Sultanpur, Pratapgarh and Basti districts. This shows that percentage variations are only 67%, 60% and 80%, respectively. It is interesting to note that in all the three cases the minimum is 5 persons per Census house.

The tahsils with maximum and minimum average of persons per Census house are given in the following table :

16 (ii) Sex Ratio

In the state as a whole there are 909 females per 1,000 males. The figure is higher at 924 in rural and quite low 812 in urban areas of the state.

The following table depicts the maximum and minimum variations in sex ratio in the districts of the state :

Pattern	Total District	Total Females per 1,000 males	Rural District	Rural Females per 1,000 males	Urban District	Urban Females per 1,000 males
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Maximum	Tehri Garhwal	1,202	Tehri Garhwal	1,222	Ghazipur	902
Minimum	Naini Tal	719	Naini Tal	714	Uttar Kashi	517
Percentage variation		67%		71%		75%

It is surprising to note that the maximum and minimum both lie in the Hill region except for Ghazipur district (Urban).

The following table provides a study of the sex-ratio by the Natural Divisions of the State :

Natural division	Maximum, Minimum and % variation	Total District	Total Females per 1,000 males	Rural District	Rural Females per 1,000 males	Urban District	Urban Females per 1,000 males
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

	Minimum	Saharanpur	825	Shahjahanpur	819	Saharanpur	786
	% Variation		9%		7%		14%
Hills and Plateau	Maximum	Mirzapur	940	Mirzapur	953	Hamirpur	877
	Minimum	Jalaun	886	Jalaun	892	Jhansi	837
	% Variation		6%		7%		5%

It is clear from the above table that minimum variation is in the Hills and Plateau Division. The variations in rural and urban areas of this region have also minimum variation. Even the slight variation is also distinctly due to Mirzapur district which is not close to the other four districts of this region as they are to each other. As against this the Himalayan Division has the widest variations and that too in its rural areas. After the Himalayan region comes the Central Plain in order of per cent variation.

In the urban area of Uttar Kashi district there are only 517 females for every 1,000 males while in rural area of Tehri Garhwal there are 1,222 females per 1,000 males. In the East Plain the maximum sex ratio is in Jaunpur (rural) and minimum in Gorakhpur (urban). In the Central Plain the maximum sex ratio is in Pratapgarh (rural) and minimum in Kanpur (urban). In the West Plain there is maximum sex ratio in Bulandshahr (rural) and minimum in Saharanpur (urban) and in Hills and Plateau there is maximum sex ratio in Mirzapur (rural) and minimum in Jhansi (urban). In regions 'West Plain' and 'Hills and Plateau' the sex ratio is no where more than 1,000 females per 1,000 males. It is lowest in 'West Plain' region amongst all the Natural Divisions.

The following statement shows the tahsils with maximum and minimum sex ratio i.e., females per 1,000 males.

16 (iii) Percentage of Rural and Urban Population of the Total Population

The 1961 Census figures show that in terms of the classified rural and urban areas the state had its 87·2% population living in villages and 12·8% in towns and cities. Thus the rural bias instead of decreasing has some what increased as compared to 1951 when 86·4% population was rural and 13·6% was urban. This appears to be due to the decrease of cities and towns from 486 in 1951 to 267 in 1961 as a result of the revised definition of urban areas.

Leaving aside the two new districts Chamoli and Pithoragarh where there is no urban area, district Basti had the maximum percentage of rural population, i. e., 98·5%. As compared to this Lucknow has only 50·5% population in its rural areas and 49·5% population in the urban area. The position of districts having towns with population of one lakh or above in them is as follows :

District	Percentage of population
	Total	Rural	Urban
Kanpur	100·0	59·0	41·0
Agra	100·0	64·1	35·9
Varanasi	100·0	76·6	23·4
Allahabad	100·0	81·8	18·2
Lucknow	100·0	50·5	49·5
Aligarh	100·0	83·8	16·2
Meerut	100·0	79·4	20·6
Shahjahanpur	100·0	86·1	13·9
Saharanpur	100·0	77·0	23·0
Bareilly	100·0	77·9	22·1
Jhansi	100·0	76·2	23·8
Rampur	100·0	79·2	20·8
Mathura	100·0	83·2	16·8
Mirzapur	100·0	88·5	11·5
Moradabad	100·0	77·8	22·2
Gorakhpur	100·0	92·7	7·3
Dehra Dun	100·0	53·9	46·1

It is clear from the above table that Lucknow district has nearly equal urban and rural population in the state and can be said to be the most urbanised. Next comes the district Dehra Dun and Kanpur district stands third.

Amongst tahsils, however, Kanpur tahsil has the maximum urban population at 83·0% followed by Agra tahsil 77·0%, Lucknow tahsil 72·8% Chail tahsil (of Allahabad district in which Allahabad City lies) 63·5%, Jhansi Tahsil 60·8%, Dehra Dun tahsil 54·0% and Meerut tahsil 50·0%.

For true rate of urban increase please see the last para of Flyleaf to Table A-IV

(iv) Density per square mile

The state as a whole has a density of 648 persons per square mile. In the rural areas it has 569 persons per square mile and in the urban areas it has 9,903 persons per square mile.

Amongst districts, Lucknow district is by far the most densely populated. It has a density of 1,382 persons per square mile. This is due to predominently high density and 49·5% population living in its urban area. It is followed by Meerut district with a density of 1,168 persons per square mile. Thereafter, come the eastern districts of the state. The density figures in these districts are 1,160 persons per square mile in Varanasi district, 1,134 persons per square mile in Deoria district, 1,111 persons per square mile in Jaunpur district, 1,085 persons per square mile in Azamgarh district, 1,074 persons per square mile in Ballia district, 1,042 persons per square mile in Gorakhpur district and 1,016 persons per square mile in Ghazipur district. Basti district is at the lowest ladder in this respect amongst the eastern districts. It has a density of only 926 persons per square mile. The high density in these districts is chiefly due to high density in their rural areas.

The hill district of Naini Tal whose area figures of which were available has the lowest density of 237 persons per square mile. Then come Jhansi district (274 persosns per square mile), Hamirpur district (286 persons per square mile) and Mirzapur district (298 persons per square mile).

The density of population in the rural area of the districts of the state varies from 192 persons per square mile (in Naini Tal district) to 1,111 persons per square mile (in Deoria district). The eastern districts have the highest density figures in their rural areas, Deoria district (1,111 persons per square mile), Jaunpur District (1,063 persons per square mile), Ballia district (1,039 persons per square mile), Azamgarh district (1,038 persons per square mile), Ghazipur district (986 persons per square mile), Gorakhpur district (972 persons per square mile), Basti district (915 persons per square mile) and Varanasi district (908 persons per square mile). In the Western districts, Meerut district too has a high density (850 persons per square mile) in its rural areas.

Leaving apart the hill districts, the districts of Jhansi division and districts Mirzapur and Dehra Dun have markedly low density in their rural areas. Amongst these, Jhansi district has only 211 persons per square mile, followed in ascending order by Hamirpur district 263 persons per square mile, Banda district 288 persons per square mile, Jalaun district 328 persons per square mile in Jhansi division. Mirzapur district has also only 261 persons per square mile and district Dehra Dun has 262 persons per square mile.

Surprisingly, the district having the highest density in its urban area is Pilibhit with 23,234 persons per square mile. It is followed by district Bulandshahr with 20,862 persons per square mile. The remaining districts have less than 19,999 persons per square mile. The density figures in Districts (urban) in which the KAVAL Cities lie are comparatively not inordinately high. Their density figures are given below :

District (urban)	Density per sq. mile	KAVAL Cities	Density per sq. mile
Kanpur	8,504	Kanpur Town-Group	8,478
Agra	15,961	Agra Town-Group	14,835
Varanasi	12,281	Varanasi Town-Group	14,999
Allahabad	12,891	Allahabad Town-Group	13,696
Lucknow	12,127	Lucknow Town-Group	12,539

Amongst these, it is surprising to find that Kanpur district (Urban) and Kanpur Town-Group have comparatively low density though Kanpur Town-Group is the most populous city of the state. The density figures of Varanasi, Allahabad and Lucknow are consistently close to each other.

Obviously, hill districts have very low density in their urban areas. Chamoli and Pithoragarh districts have no urban areas. Tehri Garhwal has only 452 persons per square mile and Uttar Kashi 577 persons per square mile in their urban areas. The urban area of Almora district has 1,153 persons per square mile and Naini Tal district has a comparatively high density of 2,791 persons per square mile in its urban area.

1. Under column 3, (a) represents the area figures furnished by Surveyor General of India, (b) represents the area figures furnished by the State Survey Department. The urban areas are based on the area of individual towns furnished by the local authorities. The rural area for State is obtained by substracting the urban area from the State Survey Area.

2. The density figures of urban areas of State/Zone/India are worked out using the area figures corrected up to 2 places of decimal obtained by adding the areas of individual towns in the respective units. For total and rural the density figures are worked out on area figures corrected up to 1 place of decimal.

3. Population per square mile has been calculated on area figures supplied by State Survey Department, except in the case of Jammu & Kashmir, Andaman & Nicobar Islands and N.E.F.A. for 'total' and 'rural' where these have been calculated on the figures supplied by Surveyor General of India.

4. Area figures of some suburban units and Port Areas included as urban in Gujarat are not separately available. Population of these units is ignored for working out urban density. Rural density is based on the rural population only but the area figures also include the area of the urban units of which separate area is not available. The same procedure has been followed in the case of eight towns of Goa, Daman & Diu for which area is not available.

@Surveyor General's figures. State Survey figures not available.
@@These figures relate to area where all-India Schedule was canvassed (i. e. for 38,705 population).
The figures for N. E. F. A. are provisional.

Note—1. Under columns 3(a) and 3(b), (a) represents the area figures furnished by Serveyor General of India and (b) represents the area figures furnished by the Board of Revenue, U. P. The urban areas are based on the area of individual towns furnished by the local authorities and the rural area for a district is obtained by substracting from the State Survey area, the urban area.

2. The Sq. Km. and density figures of urban areas of Districts/Divisions/State are worked out using the area figures corrected upto 2 places of decimal obtained by adding the areas of the towns in the respective units and not using the area figures given in the tables in addition to this the area figures relating to Sq. Km. are further adjusted to make the Districts/Divisions/State totals tally.

3. Population per square mile has been calculated on area figures supplied by the Board of Revenue.

4. There is no urban area in Chamoli and Pithoragarh districts.

5. The total area figures of State, divisions and districts have been supplied by the Board of Revenue, U. P. The Board of Revenue, U. P. maintains conventional area of undivided districts of Tehri Garhwal (4,500.0 Sq. miles or 11,655·0 Sq. Km.), Garhwal (5,619·2 Sq. miles or 14,553·7 Sq. Km.) and Almora (5,330.7 Sq. miles – or 13,806·5 Sq. km.). Therefore, separate area figures for districts Uttar Kashi and Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Chamoli and Almora and Pithoragarh are shown as 'N. A.' i. e. Not available.

6. Names of districts formed after 1951 Census are printed in italics.

7. N. A.—Not available.

Footnotes—(i)† In columns 3 (b) and 4, the Sq. Kilometer and density figures respectively of urban areas of Tahsils, Districts, Divisions, and State are worked out using the area figures corrected up to 2 places of decimals obtained by adding the areas of towns in the respective units and not using the area figures given in the table. In addition to this, the figures relating to Sq. Km. are further adjusted to make the Tahsil/District/Division/State Totals agree.

(ii) M. C.—denotes Municipal Corporation ; M. B. —denotes Municipal Board ; T. A.—denotes Town Area ; N. A.—denotes Notified Area, and Cantt.—denotes Cantonment.

(iii) Towns added for the first time in 1961 are printed in italics.

(iv) Towns treated as such for the first time in 1951, which continue as such in 1961, are marked with an asterisk.

(v) The total area figures of State, Districts and Tahsils have been supplied by the Board of Revenue, U. P. The Board of Revenue U. P. maintains conventional area of undivided districts Tehri Garhwal (4,800·0 Sq. miles), Garhwal (5,619.2 Sq. miles) and Almora (5,330·7 Sq. miles). Therefore, separate area figures for districts Uttar Kashi and Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Chamoli, and Almora and Pithoragarh are shown as 'N. A'. i. e., not available. The Tahsil-wise breakdown of district Naini Tal is also not available.

(vi) In districts and tahsils marked '*', 'R' is the same as 'T' as there is no urban area.

(vii) Tehri N. A. of Tehri Garhwal district partly lies in Tehri tahsil and partly in Pratapnagar tahsil.

(viii) Bah Bazar town of Garhwal district forms part of Devaprayag N. A. of Tehri Garhwal district.

(ix) Population figures of Misrikh-cum-Nimsar M. B. cover temporary population of 6,351 (M—5,400 and F—951) including 1064 (M—906 and F—149) Scheduled Castes population of the Mela held at the time of 1961 Census Enumeration.

FOOT NOTE

At the 1961 Census, for the sake of convenience, the enumeration of villages Jawahi, Sheopur Diar Numberi, Sheopur Diar Shumali, Sheopur Diar Junubi and Sheopur Diar Sarjoo Barar (the last one uninhabited), lying to the south of the Ganga, on the U. P.-Bihar border (Ballia-Shahabad districts) was done by the Census Authorities of Shahabad district in Bihar ; and of village Bhelsand, lying to the north of the Ganga by those of Ballia district in U. P. At the stage of Tabulation, Census records of Bhelsand (P 737 ; M 337, F 400) were transferred from U. P. to Bihar and those of Jawahi (P 2811 ; M 1,432, F 1379) and of a portion of Sheopur Diar Numberi lying in Simri Anchal (P. 5,431 ; M 2,602, F 2.829) were transferred from Bihar to U. P. The record of the remaining portion of Sheopur Diar Numberi, and of Sheopur Diar Shumali and Sheopur Diar Junubi lying in Brahmapur Anchal (P 10,003 ; M 4,938, F 5,015) were retained in Bihar.

The Registrar General decided that without prejudice to the claim on border villages the Census data relating to Jawahi and a portion of Sheopur Diar Numberi (Simri Anchal) should be incorporated in the Census Tables of U. P. and those relating to Bhelsand, Sheopur Diar Shumali, Sheopur Diar Junubi and the remaining portion of Sheopur Diar Numberi (Brahmapur Anchal) in the Census Tables of Bihar.

N. B. 1. The Code Number of villages given in Cols. 3 and 6 relate to 1951 Census.

2. 'N' Stands for 'Negligible'

BRIEF NOTE ON APPENDIX I TO TABLE A-I

This Appendix gives information about the territorial changes in the State during the decade 1951-1961. There have been no extra-state transfers. But within the State there have been many territorial changes. The most outstanding have been the creation of three new border districts, viz., Pithoragarh, Chamoli and Uttar Kashi. District Pithoragarh was constituted from the old Pithoragarh tahsil and two pattis Walla Athigaon and Palla Athigaon of tahsil Almora of erstwhile district Almora. The old Chamoli tahsil of district Garhwal now forms the new Chamoli district and district Uttar Kashi has been constituted from old Rawain tahsil of district Tehri Garhwal. The old districts Almora, Garhwal and Tehri Garhwal have consequently been reduced by the areas separated from them to form these new districts.

The other important changes are:—

(i) Kulpahar tahsil of district Hamirpur has been merged with Charkhari and Mahoba tahsils of the same district.

(ii) Tanda tahsil of district Rampur has been merged with Suar tahsil of the same district.

(iii) A new tahsil Naugarh was formed from portions of Domariaganj and Bansi tahsils of district Basti.

(iv) A new tahsil Zamania was formed from portion of Ghazipur tahsil of district Gahzipur.

(v) A new tahsil Balrampur was formed from portion of Utraula tahsil of district Gonda.

(vi) Tahsil Huzur of district Rampur has been renamed Rampur.

(vii) Tahsil Khajuha of district Fatehpur has been renamed Bindki.

(viii) District Banaras has been renamed Varanasi.

BRIEF NOTE ON APPENDIX II TO TABLE A-I

Appendix II to Table A-I gives information (a) regarding villages with a population of 5,000 and over and (b) of towns with a population under 5,000. The former indicates that there are 331 villages having a population of over 5,000 each. Their population is chiefly engaged in agricultural pursuits, as otherwise they would have been treated as urban in terms of the definition for towns in 1961 Census. The following 15 towns were retained as urban though having a population less than 5,000 :—
They are

(i) Cantonments, e.g., Chakrata Cantt. and Landour Cantt. of district Dehra Dun, Varanasi Cantt., Faizabad Cantt., Almora Cantt., and Naini Tal Cantt.

(ii) Constituents of town-groups, e.g., Swamibagh and Dayalbagh of district Agra;

(iii) Notified Areas, e.g., Narendranagar, Devaprayag and Tehri of district Tehri Garhwal, Dogadda and Srinagar of district Garhwal, Uttar Kashi of district Uttar Kashi, and Bhowali of district Naini Tal ; and

(iv) Constituent of a town which falls in another district, e.g., Bah Bazar of district Garhwal.

The 1961 definition of urban areas resulted in declassification into rural of 222 out of 486 towns of 1951 Census. Out of these, 9 towns were of class IV, i.e., with a population ranging from 10,000 to 19,999, 86 were of class V, i.e., with a population ranging from 5,000 to 9,999 ; and 127 were of class VI, i.e., with a population below 5,000. The purview of urban areas was, therefore, reduced by these towns in 1961 from that in 1961. Further 5 villages Rudrapur (Naini Tal), Raipur (Dehra Dun) Shahjahanpur (Meerut), Manikpur (Banda) and Pipri (Mirzapur), which had a population over 5,000 and over 3/4th of their population was engaged in non-agricultural pursuits, were treated as towns for the first time in 1961. Apart from these Dayalbagh and Swamibagh which form part of Agra town-group are also treated as towns though they each have a population below 5,000. Bah Bazar, having a population of only 595, was also treated as a town because it is an administrative part of Devaprayag town of district Tehri Garhwal but falls in another district Garhwal.

There has been no change in the definition of rural areas. The rural area of 1961, however, includes the declassified towns of 1951 as described above.

BRIEF NOTE ON APPENDIX III TO TABLE A-I

1. This Appendix gives information about the Houseless and Institutional Population enumerated at the 1961 Census.

2. Houseless Population comprises those persons who have no roof over their heads. A person is not deemed to be houseless, if he is living in a hut or hovel or in a portion of someone else's Kothari or Verandah. Anyone sleeping out on the road or pavement or in the land in the summer is also not houseless, if he has a house to live in. Persons residing with others temporarily, though practically houseless and vigorously in search of one, are also not houseless for Census purposes.

3. Special Enumeration Blocks were formed for enumeration at places where a sizable houseless population existed. In towns where there was a concentration of such population enumeration commenced on the night of the 26th February and ended on the night of the 28th February, 1961 ; but where such population was small, enumeration was done on the night the 28th February, 1961. For the fourth element of the location code either 'X' or 'houseless' (Beghar) was recorded in the Household Schedule or the Individual Slip.

4. Jails, hospitals (including mental hospitals), ashrams, dharamshala, hotels, hostels, boarding houses, messes and chummeries, orphanages, charitable institutions, etc., have been regarded as institutional households of unrelated persons. In such cases, the manager, superintendent, or person who has the administrative responsiblity or who by common consents is regarded as the head has been treated the head of the household.

5. Whether a household was institutional and the nature of the institution was mentioned in a rectangle at the top of the Household Schedule.

TABLE A-II

VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING SIXTY YEARS

FLYLEAF TO TABLE A-II

Table A-II provides data on the population for the seven censuses from 1901 to 1961 and their variation from decade to decade. A study of this Table gives an idea of the growth of population from decade to decade and in the absence of reliable vital statistics data, forms the main source for estimation of population through interpolation and extrapolation. One of the main changes in this Table since 1951, is that percentage variation has also been given in 1961 Census.

The Appendix to this Table further gives the adjustments necessary to bring the 1951 Census population of each district to the jurisdiction of that district as at 1961 Census. This provides for a proper comparative study of growth of population in the districts of the State.

2. Details of adjustments of population from 1901 to 1951, district by district

Recasting for 34 districts had to be done (as shown in Appendix to Table A-II) as a result of changes in jurisdiction. In all these cases the population figures for 1951 were recast on the basis of changed jurisdiction after adding or subtracting the population figures for areas added or transferred with the help of District Census Handbooks. The changes in jurisdiction were those given in Government notifications and concerned rural tahsils only. Attempt to recast urban figures on the basis of changes in jurisdiction within the district was, however, not done and thus the recast figures tell of adjustments at the district level without break-ups of the rural and urban areas of the district. Figures of decades prior to 1951 were recast, on the assumption that the proportion of the population in the area transferred to the total population of the district in which it was situated at the time of the transfer was the same in the particular previous Census as it was in 1951. The details of total adjustments of population for 1951, district by district are given below :—

3. Details of Appendix to Table A-II

The Appendix compares the area jurisdiction of districts in 1961 with that in 1951 chiefly for those districts which have changed in territorial jurisdiction between 1951-1961 and shows their population as enumerated in 1951 as compared to what it would have been had their jurisdictions been at par with those in 1961. During 1951-61, three new districts were formed, viz., Uttar Kashi from Rawain tahsil of district Tehri Garhwal, Chamoli from Chamoli tahsil of district Garhwal and Pithoragarh from Tahsil Pithoragarh and two pattis of Almora tahsil of district Almora. Consequently, the areas of old districts Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora were reduced by those areas. In the jurisdiction of district Uttar Kashi, two villages of district Dehra Dun having an area equal to 237 acres had also been added prior to the formation of this district. In other districts there were minor transfers from one district to the other. On the whole in U. P., therefore, there were inter district transfers affecting a cumulative population of 587,034 which cancelled each other at the state level, transfers being within the State.

This table enables a comparision of the population of these 34 districts in 1961 with what it would have approximately been in 1951 had their jurisdictions been same in the two decades. Further these figures of changes have been used for recasting the figures of decades prior to 1951 on the basis of their jurisdiction in 1961.

4. Percentage variation of population 1901-1961 of as many districts in the State as possible

The statement giving 'percentage variation of population 1901-1961' for all the 54 districts is given in statement 1. Since the recasting of population figures was done for districts as a whole in Table A-II the recast figures for 'Rural' and 'Urban' were not separately available in it and have been calculated further by taking urban figures as they stood and subtracting them from recast total figures to arrive at recast rural figures.

5. Movement of population

The above statement shows that there has been an increase of 51·7% in the total population of State since 1901. In its rural areas, however, there was an increase of 49·1% and in the urban of 76·3%. It clearly shows that during the last sixty years the populatin has multiplied by one and a half time. Inspite of the fact that due to the revised definition of urban areas in 1961 there has been a considerable decrease in the urban area of the State, the urban population has shown more marked increase than the rural population.

Except for the decades 1901 to 1911 and 1911 to 1921 there has been a continuous growth of population which was sightly marred during the decade 1941 to 1951. During 1951 to 1961 the growth of urban population has declined as a result of changed definition of urban areas in 1961.

Amongst districts, Dehra Dun shows a remarkable increase of 140·8% since 1901 chiefly due to 401·3% increase in its urban population which weighs heavily in the total population of this district. After Dehra Dun come Almora, Kanpur, Varanasi and Naini Tal districts with an increase of 96·0%, 89·2%, 83·5% and 84·5%, respectively, since 1901. The increase in these districts has also been particularly large in their urban areas. Districts Chamoli and Pithoragarh which are both completely rural have also shown remarkable increase of 173·8% and 102·0%, respectively, since 1901.

The resultant effect of decrease in urban area of the State due to changed definition in 1961 is depicted in minus variation during the decade 1951-1961 against many of the districts. The percentage variations during the period 1901 to 1961 show that the urban areas of districts Unnao, Ballia and Ghazipur have decreased to a very great extent, relatively since 1901, which is due to reduction in the number of towns from 10 to 1, 13 to 2 and 7 to 2, respectively, as a result of changed definition of urban area in 1961.

6. Changes in the proportion of the sexes 1901-1961 for as many districts in the State as possible

The statement 2 gives this information for all the 54 districts of the State.

7. Conclusions

The statement shows that at the State level there was maximum sex ratio in 1901 which abruptly declined in 1911 and further declined in 1921 and slightly again in 1931. Thereafter, there is very gradual increasing tendency and for the total State the sex ratio of 1921 has been reached in 1961. It appears that the natural catastrophes between 1901 to 1911 and 1911 to 1921 were responsible for the sharp declines in sex ratio. Between 1901 to 1911 the famine, plague and malaria epidemics played havoc with the population growth and sex ratio. Between 1911 to 1921 the plague, cholera and influenza epidemics again took a big toll. It is surprising that the growing trend in the number of females per 1,000 males from 1931 to 1961 shows a declining tendency from 1951 to 1961. It cannot be said how far it is due to the emphasis on family planning during the five year plans.

The hill districts have by far the highest sex ratio, amongst which Garhwal, Almora, Tehri Garhwal, Pithoragarh and Chamoli are marked for having more females than males. However, some districts of the plains, viz., Sultanpur, Pratapgarh, Deoria, Azamgarh Jaunpur, Ballia and Ghazipur too have a higher number of females than males. It is surprising that Naini Tal district though being a hill district has the least sex ratio of 719 females per 1,000 males and there is not much of difference between its rural and urban areas. Even the districts of the plains have higher sex ratios as compared to it. After district Naini Tal comes Dehra Dun having sex ratio of 766 females per 1,000 males. It has, however, a marked difference between its rural and urban areas.

As at the State level, the districts also show in general a decline in sex ratio from 1951 except for districts Azamgarh, Ghazipur, Jaunpur, Sultanpur, Faizabad, Gonda, Rae Bareli, Kheri, Kanpur, Etawah, Farrukhabad, Aligarh, Meerut, Muzaffarnagar, Saharanpur, Dehra Dun, Rampur, Naini Tal, Almora, Garhwal, Tehri Garhwal, Pithoragarh and Chamoli.

FLYLEAF TO TABLE A-III—contd.

3. The above table shows that in the State, maximum percentage of rural population resides in villages of size '500 to 999', followed by the size '1,000 to 1,999'. Thus more than half of the rural population (55·4%) inhabits villages with population ranging from 500 to less than 2,000. As is obvious, only 0·4% population lives in villages with a population of over 10,000 and 3·1% in villages with a population ranging from 5,000 to less than 10,000. These villages are of considerable size but as their economic pattern of living has not changed from rural to urban, they were treated as villages in terms of 1961 Census definition of urban areas already mentioned before in Flyleaf to Table A-I

The distribution of population by different sizes of villages in the districts of U. P. has its own peculiarities. The hill districts of U. P. including Dehra Dun have majority of their population living in villages of sizes 'less than 200' and '200 to 499'. Between these two size groups, in general, more population resides in the latter group except only district Garhwal where the former group predominates. In the remaining districts of the State, the percentage of population residing in villages of size 'less than 200' ranges from 0·4% (Meerut District) to 11·4% (Mirzapur District). The districts of Western U. P. are on the minimum side (Meerut 0·4%, Bulandshahr 0·8% and Muzaffarnagar 0·9%) and districts of Eastern and Southern part of U. P. on the maximum side (Mirzapur 11·4%, Basti 10·2%, Azamgarh 7·3% and Ghazipur 6·8%).

The percentage of population residing in villages of size '200 to 499' in all districts except hill districts ranges between 3·6% (Meerut District) to 38·8% (Basti District). At the minimum end of the range cluster the districts Meerut (3·6%) Muzaffarnagar (3·9%), Bulandshahr (8·0%), Mathura (8·0%) and Agra (8·9%), and on the maximum end of the range are Basti (38·8%), Shahjahanpur (29·2%), Mirzapur (27·7%) Bijnor (26·6%), Rampur (26.1%), Pilibhit (25·1%), Azamgarh (24·3%), Sultanpur (23·1%), Faizabad (22·9%), Varanasi (22·4%), Jhansi (22·3%), Jaunpur (22·2%), Pratapgarh (22·0%), Bareilly (21·2%), Moradabad (21·0%), Allahabad (20·9%) and Ghazipur (20·2%).

In the size-group (500-999), the distribution amongst districts ranges from 7·6% (Garhwal District) to 38·8% (Pilibhit District). The districts clustering at the minimum end of the range are Garhwal (7·8%), Uttar Kashi (11·7%), Tehri Garhwal (12·6%), Meerut (12·8%), Pithoragarh (13·0%), Almora (13·3%), Muzaffarnagar (14·5%), Chamoli (17·2%) and Dehra Dun (18·1%) which are either hill districts or districts of Western U. P., and at the maximum end of the range are the districts Pilibhit (38·9%), Moradabad (35·2%), Shahjahanpur (35·0%), Gonda (34·7%), Jaunpur (34·2%), Budaun (34·2%), Bahraich (33·7%), Sitapur (33·7%), Bijnor (33·1%), Bareilly (33·1%), and Pratapgarh (33·1%).

In villages of size '1,000 to 1,999 'the distribution of population ranges from 'Nil' (Tehri Garhwal District) to 37·1% (Bulandshahr District). The hill districts have clearly very few villages of this size and the percentages of their population living in villages of this size are obviously negligible. The districts having high percentage of population living in the villages of this size group are Bulandshahr (37·0%), Bahraich (36·3%), Sitapur (35·9%) Hardoi (34·3%), Etah (33·8%), Saharanpur (33·7%), Kanpur (32·9%), Banda (31·8%), Aligarh (31·5%), Agra (30·8%), Etawah (30·4%), Kheri and Lucknow (30·2%) and Meerut (30·2%). It is clear that the districts of Western and Central U. P. have sufficient villages falling in this size.

The district-wise distribution of population in villages of size (2,000-4,999) shows that such villages in hill districts are negligible while in Western districts such villages abound, so much so, that in Meerut District 41·6% rural population lives in villages falling in this size-group. Next come districts Muzaffarnagar (35·5%), Mathura (32·4%) and Agra (31·7%) which also reached their maximum in this size-group.

In the next higher size-group '5,000-9,999' rural population of 10% or over of only Districts Muzaffarnagar (14·3%), Meerut (10·8%), Dehra Dun (10·0%) and Ballia (10·0%) lives.

Ghazipur and Bijnor are the only two districts in which 4·9% and 3·8% rural population lives in villages with a population of over 10,000. Apart from these there are only 12 districts more which have a negligible population living in such villages.

The following table gives the pattern of distribution of districts, by their maximum rural population in the different sizes of villages :—

FLYLEAF TO TABLE A-III—concld.

Statement of Percentage of Villages and Population by Class of Village 1901, 1921, 1951 and 1961

5. The above table shows that over 60% of the villages in the State have less than 500 population each. Then come the villages with size '500-900.' Thus in 1961 nearly 85% villages had a population below 1,000. As compared to this, in decades 1901, 1921 and 1951, 92%, 93%, and 88% villages, respectively, had population ranging from 1 to 999. This clearly shows a decreasing tendency. Conforming to this pattern the distribution of rural population by size of villages is that in 1901 nearly 67% rural population lived in villages with a population 'less than 1,000', in 1921 nearly 70% rural population lived in villages with a population 'less than 1,000', in 1951 nearly 59% population lived in villages with a population 'less than 1,000', and in 1961 there is a marked decrease to 53%. The downward tendency, however, reverses in higher size groups of villages from 1901 to 1961. In size-group '1,000 to 1,999', there has been an increase in the number of villages from 6·3% in 1901 to 11·4% in 1961 and consequently the percentage of population inhabiting the villages of this size of the total rural population in these decades also moved from 21·8% in 1901 to 26·9 % in 1961. Size-groups '2,000 to 4,999', '5,000 to 9,999' and '10,000 and above' also evinced an increasing trend. In class '2,000 to 4,999', the no. of villages increased from 1·5% in 1901 to 3·4% in 1961, in class '5,000 to 9,999' they increased from 0·0%, (i.e. negligible) in 1901 to 0·3 % in 1961, and in class '10,000 +' they are 0.02% in 1961. The percentage distribution of population in these size-groups also moved consistently upwards.

The trend evidenced in the over all State figures is generally distributed over the constituent districts with, however, some stray cases showing opposite tendency. The following tables give in a nutshell, the position of districts showing tendency opposite to that in the State as a whole :

Trend of the distribution of no. of villages by classes of villages from 1901 to 1961

Class	Over all tendency	Districts showing opposite tendency
Less than 500	Decreasing	Dehra Dun
500—999	Increasing	Dehra Dun, Muzaffarnagar, Meerut
1,000—1,999	Increasing	Dehra Dun
2,000—4,999	Increasing	Dehra Dun
5,000—9,999	Increasing	Nil
10,000 and above	Increasing	Nil

Trend of the distribution of population by class of villages from 1901 to 1961

Class	Over all tendency	Districts showing opposite tendency
Less than 500	Decreasing	Dehra Dun, Jaunpur
500—999	Decreasing	Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal, Almora, Naini Tal, Bijnor, Moradabad, Budaun, Pilibhit, Shahjahanpur, Farrukhabad, Unnao, Rae Bareli, Faizabad, Pratapgarh, Basti, Azamgarh, Ghazipur, Varanasi and Mirzapur
1,000—1,999	Increasing	Dehra Dun, Muzaffarnagar, Meerut, Hamirpur, Rae Bareli and Jaunpur
2,000—4,999	Increasing	Dehra Dun, Unnao
5,000—9,999	Increasing	Allahabad
10,000 and above	Increasing	Nil

Dehra Dun district figures prominently as a dissident to the general trend. The districts of Meerut and Muzaffarnagar of Western U. P., have by far the largest proportion of villages with high populations in the range '1,000 and above'. Districts which have more villages of size '1,000 and above' are Saharanpur Muzaffarnagar, Meerut, Bulandshahr, Aligarh, Mathura, Agra, Etah, Mainpuri, Farrukhabad, Etawah, Kanpur, Fatehpur, Hamirpur, Banda, Kheri, Hardoi, Unnao, Lucknow, Rae Bareli, Bahraich and Ballia. The rest have greater concentration of rural population in villages of size '1 to 999'.

TABLE A-IV

TOWNS AND TOWN-GROUPS CLASSIFIED BY POPULATION IN 1961 WITH VARIATION SINCE 1901

FLY—LEAF TO TABLE A-IV

The main purpose of Table A-IV is to show the growth of towns as towns. It also provides a study of the growth of the various classes (I-VI) of towns from one Census to another. The towns have already been defined in Fly-leaf to Table A-I.

2. The towns have been classified by size of population as follows :

Class	Range of population
I	100,000	and above
II	50,000	—	99,999
III	20,000	—	49,999
IV	10,000	—	19,999
V	5,000	—	9,999
VI	Below		5,000

3. A town-group is defined as follows :

'A town-group consists of two or more towns which are either contiguous or near each other having their own legally constituted civic administration like Municipality, Cantonment, Panchayat, Town Area, Notified Area, etc." In this state there are some cases where constituents were non-municipal suburbs or extensions of the adjoining municipal area. It is sometimes a railway colony within or outside the municipal limits but adjoining the municipal area, or a group of villages having the characteristics of a town, situated close to the municipal area but not included in the municipal area. Therefore, in such cases the municipal area and the adjoining non-municipal area or a railway colony have together been treated as a town. Similarly, a cantonment and its contiguous defence areas have together been treated as a town. The formation of town-groups and composite towns which have been so formed would be clear from the important cases enumerated below :

7. Statement of 'Percentage of area in each class of towns to total urban area of the state and density of population per urban square mile in each class in 1961 is given below :

	Percentage of area to total urban area	Density per square mile
Class I	44·80	12,031
Class II	8·66	13,452
Class III	16·78	9,826
Class IV	13·52	8,067
Class V	12·72	4,611
Class VI	3·52	646

8. (a) It is estimated that the urban population of U. P. in 1961 would have been 10,834,692, if all those places treated as towns in 1951 but declassified in 1961 due to the change in difinition of urban areas had been treated as urban.

(b) It is also estimated that the urban population in 1951 would have been 7,492,536, if the new towns in 1961 had also been treated as towns in 1951 and the towns of 1951 declassified in 1961 had been treated as rural in 1951. The new town 'Bah Bazar' has not been taken into consideration in deriving the above figure because 'Bah Bazar' was already included in 'Devaprayag' in 1951. Further, the 1951 populations of Dayalbagh and Swamibagh are also not accounted for as they are not available.

The true rate of increase of urban population between decades 1951-1961 comes to 26.76%. It has been calculated on the basis of 1951 urban population recast to the jurisdiction of 1961 in view of the changed definition of towns adopted in 1961. The formula used is as follows:

$$\text{True rate of urban increase} = \frac{[T61-(T51-t'51)] \times 100}{T51-t'51}$$

Where T61 = Total urban population of 1961 (inclusive of population of new towns)

T51 = Total urban population of 1951 (inclusive of population of towns deleted in 1961) and t'51 = Total population in 1951 of towns deleted in 1961.

PRIMARY CENSUS ABSTRACT

FLYLEAF

The Primary Census Abstract is the outcome of the first operation of sorting of enumeration slips and compilation of Census data. It comprises Village-wise (in the case of rural areas) Enumeration Block-wise (in the case of urban areas) information regarding total number of occupied census houses and households, and sex-wise figures of total population, scheduled castes, literate and educated, workers by nine industrial categories and non-workers. The Village-wise/Enumeration Block-wise figures were added to give Tahsil/Town level totals. On the basis of these, the District/Division State figures were built up for rural and urban areas. In this volume, the Primary Census Abstract is presented for the State, Divisions, Districts, Tahsils by rural and urban areas separately and for all Towns, including constituents of a town or town-group. Apart from this, area figures have also been given. The figures of rural areas are those furnished by the Board of Revenue (Department of Land Records and Survey), while the area of each town has been furnished by the local body district authority concerned.

The Primary Census Abstract summarises the most important demographic information and forms the basis for subsequent detailed Census Tabulation.

The important definitions and concepts involved are summarised below :

"Census House is a building or part of a building inhabited or vacant and can be a dwelling, a shop, a shop-cum-dwelling, a place of business, an office, a workshop, school, etc., having a separate main exist. If a building has a number of independent portions under different occupations each having a separate exit of its own opening on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard or a common gallery leading to the main gate, each portion is considered as a separate Census House. If, however, within an enclosed or open compound there are separate structures which have been deemed to be one building, each such structure is to be considered as a separate Census House. In other cases, a building if occupied by one party is to be considered as one Census House irrespective of the number of main exits. If it is occupied by several parties, it is to be deemed as so many Census Houses provided each portion has a separate main exit".

In order to show the actual use to which a Census House has been put, further information regarding the same was also collected at the 1961 Census. Accordingly, it could be the following :

"Dwelling" is a house being used as a lodging by a family or group of persons living together.

"Shop-cum-dwelling" is a house being used partly or wholly, both as a shop and lodging, by a family or a group of persons living together. A 'shop' is a place where articles are sold for cash or for credit.

"Workshop-cum-dwelling" is a house being used partly or wholly, both as a workshop and lodging by a family or group of persons living together.

"A 'workshop' is a place where some kind of production, repair or servicing goes on or where goods or articles are made and sold, and which is not registered under Indian Factories Act".

All these categories of Census Houses are taken as Occupied Residential Census Houses for the purpose of this Table.

"Census Household is a group of persons who commonly live together and take their meals from a common kitchen unless exigencies of work prevent any of them from doing so. A hotel, mess, ashram, etc., is to be treated as one household but of unrelated persons.

A Census House may contain one or more Census Households".

2. Percentage of Households to Number of Houses. The distribution of number of households per 100 houses in rural and urban areas for the State as a whole and for each district is given in Statement I.

In the State as a whole there are on an average 116 households in every 100 houses. The proportion is slightly lower at 115 households per 100 houses in rural areas, and markedly high at 126 households per 100 houses in urban areas. This position is obviously due to the difference in rural and urban pattern of living and shortage of housing accommodation in the urban areas.

The variation between rural and urban distribution is nearly 10 per cent and the average for the State as a whole is weighted towards rural because 87 per cent of the population of the State lives in rural areas. There are, however, no urban areas in districts Chamoli and Pithoragarh.

Now coming to the districts, the percentage of total households to houses is the highest in district Etah (140·7), closely followed by district Pilibhit (134·7). It is the lowest in district Tehri Garhwal (101·1).

The percentage of rural households is the highest in district Etah (142·9) and the lowest in district Tehri Garhwal (101·1), while the percentage of urban households is the highest in Varanasi (179·6) and the lowest in district Uttar Kashi (100·1).

The highest percentage in Varanasi (urban) is due to the accelerated growth of Varanasi Town-group, the population of which has increased from 355,777 in 1951 to 489,864 in 1961, thereby showing a growth of 37·7 per cent.

The general pattern is that the percentage of households to houses is much higher in urban as compared to rural areas. But it is reverse in the case of districts Uttar Kashi, Budaun, Etah, Mainpuri, Fatehpur, Jalaun, Hamirpur, Kheri, Sitapur, Hardoi, Bahraich, Gonda, Basti, Gorakhpur, Jaunpur, and Ballia.

The tahsil with the highest percentage (149·6) of households to houses is Varanasi of District Varanasi and with the lowest (100·8) is tahsil Didihat, District Pithoragarh.

The Rural area of tahsil Gorakhpur of district Gorakhpur has the highest density (218.2 Households per Sq. mile). The tahsils of Hill areas and Dudhi tahsil of district Mirzapur have the lowest density. Amongst towns Sardhana M. B. (Meerut) and Tehri N.A. (Tehri Garhwal) have the highest (21,931 households per Sq. mile) and lowest (97 households per Sq. mile) density, respectively, in the State.

4. Definitions of Scheduled Castes, Houseless Persons, Institutional Population and Literacy and Education.

Scheduled Castes:

In accordance with the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Order (Amendment) Act 1956 and the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Lists (Modification) Order, 1956, the following castes or tribes, or parts of, or groups within, castes or tribes, shall, in relation to U. P., deemed to be Scheduled Castes so far as regards members thereof resident in the State :—

(1) Throughout the State :—

1 Agariya	17 Bawariya	33 Dusadh	49 Korwa
2 Badi	18 Beldar	34 Gharami	50 Lalbegi
3 Badhik	19 Beriya	35 Ghasiya	51 Majhwar

(2) Throughout the State excluding Agra, Meerut and Rohilkhand Divisions : Kori

(3) In Jhansi Division and the portion of Mirzapur district South of Kaimur Range : Gond

The total population of Scheduled Castes in the State is 15,399,881 with 7,934,935 males and 7,464,946 females. Thus the percentage of Scheduled Castes to total population of the State comes to 20·88 ; and 3·51 per cent to the total population of the Indian Union. Statement III gives percentage of Scheduled Castes to total males and females by rural and urban areas of each district and in cities and towns of population 50,000 and over.

In the following 22 districts the percentage of Scheduled Castes population in rural areas in respect of both males and females is higher than the State average of 22·0 amongst males and 22·6 amongst females :

District	Males	Females	District	Males	Females
Bijnor	22·4	23·5	Kheri	27·2	28·3
Saharanpur	27·8	28·9	Sitapur	32·1	33·2
Agra	25·0	25·3	Hardoi	32·3	33·0
Etawah	26·5	27·2	Unnao	28·2	29·2
Kanpur	23·1	23·8	Lucknow	38·0	38·7
Fatehpur	22·4	23·2	Rae Bareli	29·5	30·4
Allahabad	25·5	26·4	Bara Banki	28·6	29·4
Jhansi	28·3	29·0	Faizabad	25·0	26·3
Jalaun	28·3	29·1	Sultanpur	23·6	24·4
Hamirpur	25·5	27·1	Azamgarh	24·5	26·1
Banda	22·5	22·9	Mirzapur	36·3	37·0

District having highest percentage in both the sexes is Lucknow followed by Mirzapur. Sitapur and Hardoi are the other two districts in which the percentage of Scheduled Castes in the rural areas is above 30 per cent. The total Scheduled Castes population in urban areas of U. P. is 1,067,700 which is 7 per cent of the total Scheduled Castes population of the State and 11·3 per cent of the total urban population.

Amongst the urban areas, district Jalaun has the highest percentage of males (21·6) and females (22·0) which is much above the State average (M 11·1 and F 11·5).

In the cities and towns having population 50,000 and over amongst males, Hapur M. B. (District Meerut) is at the top with 19·5% and, Jhansi Town-group tops with 19·6% in females. In the case of towns with population below 50,000, Ranipur T. A. of district Jhansi has the highest percentage both amongst males (48·1) and females (46·9).

5. Workers and Non-workers.

The entire population at this Census has been divided broadly into two categories, viz., (i) Workers, i.e., all those engaged in some productive work, supervision and direction and (ii) Non-workers. The emphasis at this Census is not on income or dependence for livelihood but the actual work that a person does. Thus the working population, irrespective of whether all the workers actually derive income or not, is classified according to the primary economic activity of the workers. 'Workers' and 'Non-workers' are defined as below :

Worker: "A person who is working may be working as a Cultivator, as an Agricultural Labourer, at a Household Industry or may be doing any other work. He may be engaged in only one of the above four categories or in more than one. Thus a person can be working as a Cultivator and at Household Industry or in any other possible combination or he may be doing only one kind of work. Work includes not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work."

"In the case of seasonal work like cultivation, livestock, dairying, household industry, etc., the condition of work will be satisfied, if the person has had some regular work of more than an hour a day throughout the greater part of the working season. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce, the basis of work will be satisfied if the person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the day of enumeration. Even if a person who is working but was absent from his work during the fifteen days preceding the day on which enumerated or even exceeding the period of fifteen days due to illness or other causes should be treated as worker. A person who has been offered work but has not actually joined should be treated as non-worker."

"Persons under training as apprentices with or without stipend or wages are regarded as working".

"An adult woman who is engaged in household duties but doing no other productive work to augment the family's resources should not be considered as working. If, however, in addition to her household work she engages herself in work such as rice pounding for sale or wages, or in domestic services for wages for others or tending cattle or selling firewood or making or selling cowdung cakes or grass, etc., or any such work, she should be treated as a worker.

"Persons like beggars, pensioners, agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend receivers, who may be earning an income but are not participating in any productive work, should not be treated as working, unless they also work in cultivation, industry, trade, profession, business or commerce."

"A pubic or social service worker who is actively engaged in public service activity or a political worker who is also actively engaged in furthering the political activity of his party will be regarded as worker."

Non-worker:—'A Non-worker is a person who is not doing any kind of work contemplated for workers, but is either—

(1) a full-time student or child attending school who does no other work, such as make articles at home for sale, nor even help part-time in his own family cultivation, industry, trade or business ;

(2) a person engaged in unpaid home duties (like housewife or other adult female) who does no other work, such as make articles at home for sale or wages nor help regularly even part-time in family cultivation, industry, trade or business ;

(3) any dependent, including an infant or child not attending school, a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age ;

(4) a retired person who is not employed again, rentier, person living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work and who does no other work ;

(5) a beggar, vagrant or independent woman without indication of source of income and others of unspecified source of existence;

(6) a convict in jail (an undertrial prisoner will be shown as a worker if he used to work before he was apprehended) or an inmate of a penal, mental or charitable institution ;

(7) a person who has not been employed before but is seeking employment for the first time ; and

(8) a person employed before but now out of employment and seeking employment.

Classification of worker

Cultivators—"For purposes of the census a person is working as cultivator if he or she is engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in (a) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land owned or held from Government and (b) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share."

"Cultivation thus includes effective direction or supervsion. It does not include horticulture, orchards, groves and plantation."

Agricultural Labourer—"An Agricultural Labourer is a person who works in another person's land for wages in money, kind or share, such as share of produce."

"The labourer should have no right of lease or contract on land on which he works. He should have been working as Agricultural Labourer in the last or current cultivating season."

Household Industry :

Amongst workers, an important type of worker that has been taken cognizance of and given separate recognition for the first time at this Census is constituted of all those working in household industries. This has been necessitated due to peculiar set up of the rural crafts and economy of India's craftsman families who form an important part of the Indian Community.

Household Industry' can be defined as follows :

"A Household Industry is an industry conducted by the head of the household himself and/or mainly by members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. The industry should not be on the scale of a registered factory."

Thus the main criterion for a Household Industry is the participation of the Head of the household and/or members of the household in rural area at home or within the village. In an urban area the Household Industry or at least the major part of its work must be located only at home. A household Industry should relate to production, processing, servicing or repairing and includes makers and sellers of goods.

The test for a Household Industry is mainly threefold

(a) Household Industry should embrace manufacture, processing or servicing and may include sale but should not be confined simply to buying and selling. At least part of the goods offered for sale from the household should be manufactured or processed by members of the household.

(b) Household Industry should be on household scale where the workers mainly will be the head of the household himself and member of the household, the role of hired workers from outside being of secondary importance. Thus in any Household Industry, members of the household should be in a position to lend a hand in the industry whenever they find the time in the course of their daily chores. Household Industry cannot, therefore, be on the scale of a registered factory but can use machinery and employ power like steam engine or oil engine or electricity to drive the machinery ; and

(c) Location also is important, for, proximity decides participation by the members of the household. In a village this proximity is possible if the Household Industry is located at home, or within the village, and in urban areas if it is only located at home. Where, however, part of the work is done outside the house, it should still be considered a Household Industry, as even in urban areas the main operation is being conducted within the house and only one or two operations are conducted outside.

Categories of Workers other than as Cultivator, Agricultural Labourer, and at Household Industry

These include services rendered by workers in such fields as (i) Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting, Plantation, Orchards and allied activities, (ii) Manufacture (Other than Household Industry) (iii) Construction of buildings, roads, telegraph and telephones, canals, tube-wells, etc., (iv) Trade and Commerce (wholesale and retail), money lending, banking, export, import, distribution, etc., (v) Transport, Storage and Communications (transport by rail, road, river, air or by power or manual labour, packing, storing and ware-housing, wireless, post, telegraph and telephone except construction of telegraph and telephone lines) and (vi) Other Services.

In this context it may be pointed out that the classification of persons employed in these non-agricultural enterprises or non-household establishments is based on the nature of their own work and not on the nature of enterprise or establishment concerned. Thus, for instance, not all railway employees are classifiable under livelihood class VIII (Transport). Those employed in Railway workshops are classifiable under livelihood class V (Manufacturing) and those engaged in the constructional work, under livelihood class VI (Construction).

The division of workers into industrial categories (category III to IX) has been done in 1961 Census with reference to the first digit of the three digit Industrial Classification, which is closely related to international usage as recommended by the I. L. O. of United Nations Organisation.

The rules of categorisation on the foregoing basis are laid down as under :—

Sl. No.	First digit of industrial code	Category	Description of Categories
1	2	3	4
1	0 & 1	III	Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting, Plantations & Orchards and allied activites
2	2 & 3	V	Manufacturing other than household industry
3	4	VI	Construction
4	6	VII	Trade and Commerce
5	7	VIII	Transport, Storage and Communication
6	5,8 & 9	IX	Other services

Workers of Categories III to IX except IV may be further classified as Employer, Employee, Single Worker or Family Worker by their status.

(i) An Employer is one who hires one or more persons in his work.

(ii) An Employee is one who does his work under others for wages or salary in cash or kind.

(iii) A Single Worker is one who is doing his work without employing others, except casually, and without the help of the other members of the family except, casually. This includes workers working as members of co-operatives.

(iv) A Family Worker is one who does his work in his own family without wages or salary in cash or kind. Members of household who help solely in household duties cannot be treated as family workers.

Distribution of 1,000 persons, males and females in various categories of Workers and Non-workers

Statement V shows that out of the total population of the State, 39·1% of the people are economically active while 60·9% are not engaged in any fruitful activity. This shows that the burden of non-workers on workers is considerably heavy. Only 58·2% of the total male population and 18·1% of the total female population is working. Percentage of female workers is, of course, very low. Distribution of 1,000 males and 1,000 females for the State as a whole according to nine industrial categories of 'workers' and 'non-workers is as follows :

Category of Workers	Males	Females	Category of Workers	Males	Females
I Cultivators	370	117	VI Construction	5	..
II Agricultural Labourer	53	35	VII Trade & Commerce	26	2
III Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, etc.	4	1	VIII Transport, Storage and Communications	10	..
			IX Other Services	60	11
			Total Workers I—IX	582	181
IV Household Industry	34	14	X Non-workers	418	819
V Manufacturing other than Household Industry	20	1	Total	1,000	1,000

It is evident now that 423 males out of 582 total male workers and 152 females out of a total of 181 workers of this sex are engaged in agricultural activities. This, however, does not represent the total proportion of population dependent on agricultural means of livelihood, as all the non-workers of various categories have been lumped together under Non-workers. The preponderance of agricultural workers holds that Uttar Pradesh continues to be an agricultural State. Next in importance is Household Industry which comprises 34 male and 14 female workers. Uttar Pradesh is famous for its handloom textiles and handicrafts. Other Services engage 60 male and 11 female workers. The least number of workers are engaged in Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestery, etc., with only 4 males and 1 female. In all categories male workers exceed the female workers in absolute numbers as well as in porportion per one thousand.

Taking the rural and urban population of the State the proportion of workers per 1,000 of persons of each sex for these two sectors is as follows:

	Workers		Non-workers
	Rural	Urban	Rural	Urban
Persons (1,000)	403	310	597	690
Males (1,000)	592	517	408	488
Females (1,000)	199	53	801	947

Thus there is a positive fall in the proportion of workers amongst the urban population and a significant fall in case of female workers in 1961 as compared to 1951. This is due to a larger proportion of students, retired persons, pensioners, etc., being concentrated in urban areas. As regards females, she is generally a housewife who hardly engaged herself in any economic activity unlike her counter-part in the rural areas where she participates in agricultural activities, or in traditional household industry, if any. In the rural areas the largest proportion of workers is confined to categories I and II, i.e., Cultivators and Agricultural Labourers followed by Other Services (Category IX) and Household Industry (Category IV). In the urban areas the largest proportion is in 'Other Services' (Category IX), followed by 'Trade & Commerce' (Cateogory VII), 'Manufacture other than Household Industry' (Category V) and 'Household Industry' (Category IV), respectively.

Taking the districts, Uttar Kashi (690) has the highest proportion of workers, and Agra 506 has the lowest. Amongst males, Uttar Kashi (697) is again at the top and Ballia (528) at the bottom; while amongst females Chamoli (692) is at the top closely followed by Tehri Garhwal (667), and Bareilly (22) comes at the bottom. The proportion of female workers per 1,000 in most of the districts falling in the Western Natural Division of this State is comparatively very low. In the hill districts, barring Naini Tal and Dehra Dun, the proportion of feamle workers is above 600, which shows that female participation in economic activity is considerably high. Female workers above 550 in the rural areas are found in districts Uttar Kashi, Chamoli, Pithoragarh, Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora, which shows that they are engaged in productive enterprises. In the rural areas of districts, a considerable proportion of male workers is engaged in agriculture pursuits.

In respect of Household Indsutry (Category IV) the proportion of total male workers above 50 is in district Bijnor (62). Muzaffarnagar (58), Meerut (68), Hamirpur (54) and Varanasi (76), which are important centres for Household Industry. The porportion in the rural areas above 50 is in districts Bijnor (64), Dehra Dun (59), Muzaffarnagar (63), Meerut (79), Hamirpur (54) and Varanasi (58). Muzaffarnagar and Meerut are famous for handlooms both cotton and woollen, and Varanasi for silk textiles. The position in respect of males in urban areas is a bit different where it exceeds 100 in districts Faizabad (103), Azamgarh (214) and Varanasi (130)., Faizabad and Azamgarh districts are reputed for their cotton handlooms, specially of Tanda and Mau; and Varanasi is famous for silk. The silk products of Varanasi are famous throughout the country.

In respect of persons of both sexes engaged in Manufacture other than Household Industry (Category V) in the urban areas, the proportion exceeds 100 in districts Moradabad (114), Rampur (137), Bareilly (112), Saharanpur (105), Meerut (118), Aligarh (114), Agra (146), Kanpur (193), and Lucknow (114). The proportion is so high because in some of these districts large mills and factories are situated.

Male workers engaged in constructional activities (Category VI) are mostly found in the urban areas of the districts. The highest proportion is in Mirzapur Urban (75) which is due to large scale construction work of the Rihand Dam that was going on at the time of enumeration. Female workers are, however, conspicuously absent.

Trade and Commerce (Category VII) is mostly confined to urban area of the districts where the proportion of males exceeds 100 in many districts. The proportion of females engaged in this activity is not very much noticeable anywhere.

Workers engaged in Transport, Storage and Communications (Category VIII) are mostly confined to urban areas and that too amongst males. In urban areas of districts Garhwal (62), Naini Tal (59), Moradabad (52), Bareilly (66), Saharanpur (65), Allahabad (67), Jhansi (66), Lucknow (65), Gonda (56), Sultanpur (63), Gorakhpur (114) and Varanasi (57) the proportion exceeds 50. Some of these districts possess large railway establishments which is responsible for increasing the proportion. Except in the urban areas of districts Almora, Naini Tal, Aligarh, Kanpur, Allahabad, Jhansi, Jalaun, Banda, Lucknow and rural area of Mirzapur where the proportion of females workers is one, in none of the districts females are engaged in transport, etc.

In the last category 'Other Services' (Category IX) the proportion of male workers in the urban areas of each district is considerable. It exceeds 300 in districts Tehri Garhwal (420), Garhwal (362), Almora (385) and Dehra Dun (307) and exceeds 40 in the case of feamales in districts Almora (47), Mathura (44), Banda (45), Gonda (43) and Mirzapur (46).

Taking the populaton of cities only, the following statement indicates the cities which take the first two places under each category of workers, taking the proportion of workers per 1,000 of population of each sex.

Cateogry of workers	Name of city	Proportion of workers per 1,000 population

Houseless Persons ; are such people who sleep on streets, pavements, and open grounds, such as parks, etc. A person will not be deemed be houseless, if he is living in a hut or a hotel or in a portion of someone else's kothri, verandah etc."

Institutional Population.—If the household is an institution, e.g. jail, hospital, mental hospital, ashrum, dharamshala, hotel, hostel, charitable stitutions etc. the persons living in them have been treated as institutional population.

Literacy and Education

Those who can read as well as write but have not passed a written examination equivalent to or higher than Lower Primary have been treated as Literate. Regarding education information for the last examination passed was collected.

Statement IV (i) gives the percentage of literate and educated persons to total population, males and females by rural and urban areas of each district, IV (ii) in cities, town-groups and towns of population of 50,000 and over and IV (iii) in town-groups and towns, with population less than 50,000, where the proportions are higher than the State average.

Taking the State as a whole, only 17·6% of the whole population represents the literate and educated persons as against 10·6% in 1951. Uttar Pradesh ranks eleventh in literacy and education amongst the States (excluding Union Territories) of India.

The percentage of literate and educated persons in the rural areas of the State comes to 14·3 and in urban 40·1. In the rural areas of districts Chamoli (21·8), Pithoragarh (23·4), Garhwal (21·7), Naini Tal (23·4), Dehra Dun (22·8), Etawah (21·1), Kanpur (20·9) and Jalaun (20·4) the percentage of literacy is considerably high. Most of the hill districts show a marked increase in total literacy percentage. The lowest percentage is in district Budaun which is 7·9. Amongst males, Pithoragarh (41·8%) is at the top, and Budaun (12·4%) at the bottom.

The urban population, because of the need for literates in urban occupations and the availability of greater facilities for education is naturally more literate than the rural population. Taking the State as a whole 40·1 % of the urban population is literate. The urban population of Almora district (68·7%) records the highest literacy closely followed by Tehri Garhwal (64·7%) and the least literate urban population is in Rampur (27·7%).

The State average for males and feamales in the urban areas comes to 50·0% and 27·8%, respectively. Again the male population of Almora district records the highest percentage literacy of 77·1 closely followed by Tehri Garhwal 72·2 ; and the least literate male population is in Budaun district with 34·9%.

Literacy amongst females

The literacy amongst the female population of the State is still quite poor. In the State only 4·2% females population in the rural areas and 27·8% in the urban areas is found to be literate. Highest literacy recorded amongst the rural population is in Dehra Dun district (10·9%) and the lowest in Tehri Garhwal (1·4%). Besides Dehra Dun, the literacy is above 8% in the districts of Naini Tal (10·0), Farrukhabad (8·2), Etawah (8·1) and Kanpur (8·7). On the whole the literacy amongst females in rural areas has hardly touched the fringe of the problem.

As regards the literate female urban population, the highest percentage is in Dehra Dun district (46·8), closely followed by Tehri Garhwal (46·3), Almora (45·5) and Gorakh pur (45·2). It is creditable that although district Tehri Garhwal is at bottom so far as rural female literacy is concerned, it is at the top in respect of urban literacy. The lowest position, however, is of Hamirpur district (18·8%), closely followed by Rampur (18·6%).

Literacy in larger towns

Statement IV (ii) gives the literacy percentage in cities, town-groups and towns with a population 50,000 and over. Taking larger towns and cities, more than 45% of the population is literate in Dehra Dun Town-group (58.0), Hardwar M. B., Gurukul Kangri and Jwalapur Mahavidyalaya (45·1), Meerut Town-group (46·9), Ghaziabad M. B. and Railway colony (47·3), Kanpur Town-group (46·7), Allahabad Town-group (48·1), Lucknow Town-group (47·4), Gorakhpur M. B. (49·2); and, the lowest is in Sambhal M. B. (19·3) of Moradabad district. The percentage literacy of Kanpur Town-group would have been much higher but for large concentration of illiterate labour.

Amongst the male literates, highest percentage is in Dehra Dun Town-group (64·8), followed by Gorakhpur M. B. (60·9) ; and the lowest is Sambhal, M. B. (27·0). The position in respect of Kanpur has already been explained above. As for female literates, Dehra Dun Town-group tops with 49.5% and the lowest is Sambhal M. B. (11·1%). Thus in total, male and female literacy, Dehra Dun Town-group is at the highest and Sambhal M. B. at the lowest ladder.

Statement IV (iii) gives literacy percentage in town-groups and towns with population below 50,000 where the percentage is higher than the State average. In this group Roorkee Cantt. (73·7%) is at the top, followed by Naini Tal Cantt. (72·1%); and, the lowest is Kalpi, M. B. (40·6%) of Jalaun district. Amongst the males, Roorkee Cantt. (81·4%) is at the top, followed by Tehri N. A. (78·3%); and, the lowest (24·1%) is in Kopaganj T. A. of Azamgarh district. As for females Naini Tal Cantt. (62·4%) is at the top, followed by Almora M. B (60·8%) ; and, the lowest (18·9%) is in Gopiganj T. A. of Varanasi district.

Sex-ratio among Workers and Non-workers.

Statement VI gives the sex-ratio (females per 1,000 males) in respect of total population, total workers, each category of workers and non-workers in rural and urban areas of each district, and in cities and town-groups of population 100,000 and over.

The sex-ratio in the working population of the State as a whole is 283 females per 1,000 males. It is 311 females per 1,000 males in the rural areas and 84 females per 1,000 males in the urban areas. Thus, the sex ratio is considerably less in the urban working population. Amongst districts, the hill districts have the highest sex-ratio so much so that in Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal, Chamoli, Almora and Pithoragarh it is 1,339, 1,328, 1,257, 1,221, and 1,202 females per 1,000 males, respectively. Amongst hill-districts, Naini Tal district comprising two tahsils out of 4 of non-hilly type does not follow suit. But even then, as compared to the districts of plains, it has high sex-ratio in the working population.

Amongst the working population of the State in different industrial categories the highest sex-ratio is in category 'Agricultural Labourer' which is 602 females per 1,000 males. It is 609 females per 1,000 males in the rural areas and only 144 females per 1,000 males in the urban areas of the State. This is followed by the category 'Household Industry' wherein 366 females per 1,000 males are working in the State as a whole, 378 females per 1,000 males in the rural areas and 305 females per 1,000 males in the urban areas. Next comes the category 'Cultivator' where, in the State as a whole, 289 females per 1,000 males work while 290 females per 1,000 males and 104 females per 1,000 males work in rural and urban areas, respectively. The sex-ratio in the above-mentioned categories is markedly high in the hill districts. The categories dealt with above are generally concerned with the rural areas. In the remaining six categories, Category IX, i.e., 'Other Services' has 177 females for every 1,000 males with 218 females per 1,000 males in the rural areas and 115 females per 1,000 males in urban areas. This is closely followed by Category III. The sex-ratio in category III and in the remaining categories is very low.

It is worthy of note that in the districts of the plains there is comparatively high sex-ratio amongst workers of Category III. Further on the pattern of hill districts the Districts Allahabad, Faizabad, Pratapgarh, Basti, Gorakhpur, Deoria, Azamgarh and Ballia have very high sex-ratio in category 'Agricultural Labourer'. This leads to the conclusion that in the hill districts and the eastern districts of the State there are more women as compared to men working as Agricultural Labourers. It is worth mentioning that in District Mathura more females than males are engaged in Category III, i. e., Mining, Quarrying, Liverstock, etc.,

Amongst Cities and Town-groups of population 100,000 and over the pattern of sex-ratio amongst workers is quite similar to the general pattern.

The sex-ratio among non-workers in general shows preponderance of females over males which is obviously as expected.

Foot-notes :

(1) The area figures given in col. 2 for rural areas are those furnished by the Board of Revenue (State Survey Department) while the areas of towns have been furnished by the local authorities. The area figures for towns have been given up to two places of decimal but total urban area figures at Tahsil/District/Division/State levels have been rounded off to one place of decimal.

(2) As the Board of Revenue (State Survey Department) maintains conventional areas for combined districts (i) Uttar Kashi and Tehri Garhwal (4,500 Sq. miles), (ii) Chamoli and Garhwal (5,619.2 Sq. miles), and (iii) Pithoragarh and Almora (5,330.7 Sq. miles), separate area figures for these districts are not available and have, therefore, been reported as 'N. A.' Tahsilwise breakdowns of area of Naini Tal district are also not available.

(3) Towns treated as such for the first time in 1951 which continue as towns in 1961, are shown with asterisk (*) on their left.

(4) Towns treated as such for the first time in 1961 are printed in italics.

(5) The following abbreviations have been used for the status of a town, e.g.

(i) M. C. — Municipal Corporation
(ii) M. B. — Municipal Board
(iii) T. A. — Town Area
(iv) N. A. — Notified Area
(v) Cantt. — Cantonment

(6) In districts and tahsils marked @, 'R' is the same as 'T' as there is no urban area.

(7) Tehri N. A. of district Tehri Garhwal partly lies in Tehri Tahsil and partly in Pratapnagar Tahsil.

(8) Bah Bazar town of Garhwal district forms Part of Devaprayag N. A. of Tehri Garhwal district.

(9) Population figures of Misrikh-cum-Nimsar M. B. cover temporary population of 6,351 (M 5,400 and F 951) including 1,054 (M 905 and F 149) Scheduled castes population of the Mela held at the time of 1961 Census enumeration.
