These Baths stand on what was formerly part of the grounds of the celebrated Northumberland House. They occupied nearly three years in building, and involved an expenditure of £30,000. They comprise a large suite of Bath Rooms, having a floor space of about twelve thousand feet, with a smaller suite in a separate but adjacent building for the exclusive use of ladies; the Cooling Rooms, which are fitted in a most luxurious manner, are surmounted by a lofty dome specially designed to permit free circulation of air, and to ensure perfect ventilation; while the heating and ventilation of the hot chambers have been brought to a state of perfection by a system first introduced by the Proprietors of these Baths, and the whole of the decorations of both Hot and Cooling Rooms have been designed by the most eminent authorities.

PREFACE.

It is with the deepest regret that I have to record in this Edition the death of my father, Sir Edward Hertslet, K.C.B., who in 1854 (two years after the inception of the "Foreign Office List") became joint Editor with the late Mr. Francis H. W. Cavendish. Mr. Cavendish having withdrawn from the Editorship, on his retirement from the Foreign Office, in 1864, the work has been published annually in my father's name since that date.

Sir Edward Hertslet, who retired from the Foreign Office, after nearly 56 years' service, on the 3rd February, 1896, died at Belle Vue House, Richmond, Surrey, on the 4th August last, in the 79th year of his age.

In succeeding my father as Editor, I trust that the co-operation and support that was accorded to him may be continued to me.

Mr. Harry L. Sherwood, of the Financial Department of the Foreign Office, who, with my brother, Mr. E. Cecil Hertslet, has for several years past assisted in the compilation of the work, to my father's entire satisfaction, will continue to assist me in the same way.

A reference to page 12 will show that it has been deemed more convenient, for purposes of reference, to classify the various branches of the Consular Corps under the following sub-divisions:—The General Service (page 12); Consular Officers in the Ottoman Dominions (page 19); and Consular Officers in China, Japan, Corea, and Siam (page 20).

A new Regulation (No. XXII) for the Diplomatic Service respecting the Obligation of Secrecy which has recently been issued will be found at page 267.

The Promotions and Transfers announced since the last Edition include Mr. F. A. Campbell's promotion to be Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Sir Michael Herbert's promotion from Minister at Paris to Ambassador at Washington; and Sir Martin Gosselin's appointment as Envoy, &c., at Lisbon.

The Retirements include the names of Sir Francis Pakenham, Envoy, &c., at Stockholm; Sir Hugh MacDonell, Envoy, &c., at Lisbon; Mr. G. F. B. Jenner, Minister Resident at Guatemala; and Sir Henry Bergne, Senior Clerk in Charge of the Commercial Department of the Foreign Office.

The Deaths include the names of Lord Pauncefote, Ambassador at Washington; the Marquess of Dufferin and Ava, late Ambassador at Paris; the Earl of Kimberley, lately Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Sir T. Villiers Lister, late Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Mr. Robert T. C. Middleton, formerly Minister Resident at Carácas; Lord Connemara, formerly Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Mr. George J. R. Gordon, formerly Envoy, &c., at Stuttgardt; and of Sir Edward Hertslet, for nearly forty years Librarian and Keeper of the Papers of the Foreign Office.

It has been found possible to record in the present Edition the retirement on January 17 of Lord Currie, G.C.B., Ambassador at Rome, and the appointment of his successor, the Hon. Francis Bertie, K.C.B., lately Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and also the appointment of the Hon. Charles Hardinge, C.B., as Assistant Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Other information, received since the 1st January, 1903, up to the date of going to press, will be found on page xvi.

GODFREY E. P. HERTSLET.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE ADMISSION OF PERSONS TO THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

(1.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(EXAMINATIONS). May 21, 1855.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to make provision for testing, according to fixed rules, the qualifications of the young men who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed to the junior situations in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan,* Assistant Comptroller-General of the Exchequer, John George Shaw Lefevre, Esq.,* Companion of the Bath, Clerk Assistant to the House of Lords; and Edward Romilly, Esq.,* Chairman of the Board of Audit: or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them; shall be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men so proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

And it is hereby ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of a Secretary to the said Commissioners, and of such Examiners and others as may be required to assist in the performance of their duties.

And it is hereby ordered, that all such young men as may be proposed to be appointed to any junior situation in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are admitted to probation, be examined by or under the directions of the said Commissioners, and shall receive from them a certificate of qualification for such situation.

(a) And it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, in respect of every such candidate, before granting any such certificate as aforesaid—

1st, to ascertain that the candidate is within the limits of age prescribed in the department to which he desires to be admitted;

2nd, to ascertain that the candidate is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

3rd, to ascertain that the character of the candidate is such as to qualify him for public employment; and 4th, to ascertain that the candidate possesses the requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of his official duties.

The Rules (b) applicable to each department under each of the above heads should be settled, with the assistance of the Commissioners, according to the discretion of the chief authorities of the department; but, except that candidates for admission to any of the junior situations in any branch of the Civil Service will be required to obtain certificates of qualification as aforesaid, such Examining Board shall not make any alteration in respect to the nomination or appointment of candidates by those who are or may be charged with the duty of nomination and appointment.

After the candidate has passed his Examination, and received his certificate of qualification from the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the public service unless upon satisfactory proofs of his fitness being furnished to the chief of the department after 6 months' probation.

And it is, lastly, hereby ordered, that in case the chief of any department considers it desirable to appoint to any situation, for which there are no prescribed limits of age, a person of mature age, having acquired special qualifications for the appointment in other pursuits, such person shall not, in virtue of this Order, be required to obtain any certificate from the said Commissioners in order to obtaining such appointment, but the chief of the department shall cause the appointment of any person not previously examined to be formally recorded as having been made on account of special qualifications (c).

(2.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(OPEN COMPETITION). June 4, 1870.

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue, with certain amendments, the existing provision for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, except as hereinafter mentioned:

1. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Hon. Sir Edward Ryan,* now First Commissioner under Her Majesty's Orders in Council of the 21st of May, 1855, and the 26th of April, 1862, and George Webbe Dasent,* Esq., Doctor of Civil Law, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them, or either of them, shall be Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners for testing the qualifications of the persons so proposed to be appointed to any situation or employment in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty; the said Sir Edward Ryan continuing to be the First Commissioner, and the said George Webbe Dasent being the Second Commissioner: and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such assistant examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

2. And it is hereby ordered, that (except as may be excepted under Clause 7 of this Order, and in the Schedule marked B annexed hereto) the qualifications of all such persons as may be proposed to be appointed, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any department of the Civil Service shall before they are employed, be tested by or under the directions of the said Commissioners; and no person (except as aforesaid) shall be employed in any department of the Civil Service [until he shall have been reported by the said Commissioners to be qualified to be admitted on probation to such situation or employment] †

3. No person shall be appointed to any office or employment in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments until he shall be reported by the said Commissioners to have satisfied them—

1st. That he is within the limits of age prescribed for the situation or employment to which he desires to be admitted.

2nd. That he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties.

3rd. That his character is such as to qualify him for such situation or employment: and,

4th. That he possesses the requisite knowledge and ability to enter on the discharge of his official duties.

4. The rules applicable to each department, under each of the above heads, shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by the said Civil Service Commissioners and the chief authorities of the department.

5. Except as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make, after the 31st day of August next, to any of the situations included or to be included in Schedule A. to this Order annexed, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to

7. In case the chief of a department to which a situation belongs, and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the said chief of the department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the said chief of the department and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that, either for the purpose of facilitating transfers from the Redundant List, or for other reason, it would be for the public interest that examination should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Civil Service Commissioners may dispense with examination, wholly or partially, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person possesses the requisite knowledge and ability and is duly qualified in respect of age, health, and character.

8. And it is lastly hereby ordered, that the situations mentioned or referred to in the Schedule marked B, hereto annexed, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Order, provided that the chief authorities of any department, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, by notice in the London Gazette, may from time to time add situations to either of the said Schedules, or withdraw situations therefrom, or restore thereto situations which may have been withdrawn.

(3.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(PROBATION). August 19, 1871.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, whereby rules were laid down for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered—

1. In section two of the said Order, the words "until he "shall have been reported by the said Commissioners to "be qualified to be admitted on probation to such situation "or employment" are hereby cancelled; and instead thereof, the words "until a certificate of his qualification "shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commis-"sioners" shall be substituted.

3. A report by the Commissioners under the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, that a person is qualified to be admitted on probation to a situation or employment, if given before the date of this Order in Council, shall, for the purposes of this present Order in Council, be deemed to be a certificate of qualifications.

* This notification applies to non-commissioned Consular Officers, not allowed to trade, who may be serving Abroad without yet having passed an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to Officials serving in Consulates abroad in a subordinate capacity, provided that they were abroad at the time of their first appointment, and provided no undue delay takes place in procuring the necessary Civil Service certificates.

(4.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(LOWER DIVISION CLERKS). February 12, 1876.

[Repealed by Order in Council of November 29, 1898. See page 261.]

(5.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(SECOND DIVISION CLERKS). March 21, 1890.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty on the 12th February, 1876, 27th June, 1876, 9th December, 1876, and 15th July, 1881, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order, among other matters, that a Lower Division of the Civil Service should be constituted, to consist of men clerks and boy clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the State to which they might from time to time be appointed or transferred; that no Department throughout Her Majesty's Civil Service should be permanently increased or regulated afresh without providing for the introduction of a system whereby such of its duties as were of a suitable character should be performed by members of such Lower Division; that such situations in Her Majesty's Civil Service as were not suitable to be filled by members of such Lower Division should be excluded from the Orders, and should until declaration of Her Majesty's further pleasure be regulated as theretofore; that no vacancies should be filled up nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing clerks of the Lower Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury had been satisfied with the number of clerks serving in such Department with higher salaries than those of the Lower Division were not in excess of the number sufficient to perform superior duties; that the salaries of men clerks in the Lower Division should commence at eighty pounds, and should rise by triennial increments of fifteen pounds to two hundred pounds; but that in any office where a regular attendance of seven hours a day was required, the commencing salary might be ninety-five pounds, and the maximum salary might be two hundred and fifty pounds; that extra pay, not exceeding one hundred pounds per annum, might be attached to certain situations open to clerks of the Lower Division whose duties involved the superintendence of other clerks, or were otherwise of a more responsible character than such as the generality of their colleagues had to perform; that promotion from the Lower to the Higher Division of the Service should not be made without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than 10 years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the assent of the Treasury; that below the Lower Division of ordinary clerks (including boy clerks) men and boy copyists might be employed for mere copying and for routine work under direct supervision, on the same conditions of service as those then in force for Civil Service Writers:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 28th day of May, 1889, it was provided that men clerks appointed after the date of that Order should give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours a day, and that the salaries of such men clerks should commence at seventy pounds per annum, and should rise by such increments to such sums as might thereafter be fixed by Order in Council:

And whereas it appears from certain recent Reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, and others appointed by Her Majesty to be a Royal Commission for enquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of Civil Departments of the State, that further Regulations are required in order to improve the organisation of the Civil Service.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The name "Lower Division" is hereby changed to Second Division;" but boy clerks appointed under the Order in Council, dated the 12th day of February, 1876, shall be held not to belong to the Second Division.

2. This Order shall apply only to the Second Division of the Civil Service, as defined by Clause 1.

3. The salaries of clerks in the Second Division, for a daily attendance of [not less than] seven hours, shall commence at seventy pounds per annum, and shall rise by annual increments, as follows, viz.:—

From seventy pounds to one hundred pounds by annual increments of five pounds

From one hundred pounds to one hundred and ninety pounds by annual increments of seven pounds ten shillings.

From one hundred and ninety pounds to two hundred and fifty pounds by annual increments of ten pounds.

4. A higher grade of the Second Division shall be and is hereby established, with salaries commencing at two hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of ten pounds to three hundred and fifty pounds.

5. The annual increments of salary shall not be allowed without an annual certificate from the immediate superior of each clerk, countersigned by the Head of the Department or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such clerk's conduct has during the year immediately preceding the date of such certificate been [in all respects satisfactory.]‡

When the salary of any clerk appointed after the 28th May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine reaches one hundred pounds, a special Report, to be officially recorded in writing, on the competence, character, and diligence of such clerk, shall be required from the Head of the room, and from the Head of the Division in which, respectively, such clerk is serving or has served; and until this Report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory, such clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any clerk appointed after the 28th May, 1889, reaches one hundred and ninety pounds, he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtain a Report to be officially recorded in writing from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior and more advanced character in the future.

6. Promotion to the higher grade established under Clause 4 of this Order shall be made (subject to the provisions of Clause 16 of this Order) according to positive merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said higher grade shall be made whenever any clerk, who is not in receipt of extra pay, shall reach a salary of two hundred and fifty pounds: but, irrespective of this condition, the Head of a Department may recommend, and the Commissioners of the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the higher grade of a specially meritorious clerk who is in receipt of a salary less than two hundred and fifty pounds.

7. Clerks who are required to attend seven hours a day shall be allowed a half holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Heads of the Departments in which such clerks are respectively serving are satisfied that the state of public business will permit.

8. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, and twenty-one week-days thereafter, exclusive in both cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the

* This clause was repealed by s. 19 of the Order in Council of August 15, 1890 (page 261), so far as regards the Officers to whom that Order applies; and was cancelled, and a new clause substituted therefor, by s. 1 of the Order in Council of September 15, 1902 Page 262.

Queen's Birthday, and (subject to the convenience of the public service) the four Bank Holidays. Provided that nothing in this Clause shall affect the rights of existing clerks, who, under the Regulations of the respective Departments in which they are serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

9. Sick leave may be granted by the Head of a Department to any clerk serving in such Department, but subject to the following conditions, viz:—

(1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.

(2.) If the number of days during which any clerk in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under Clause 8 of this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate, for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave no clerk shall be paid any salary, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick leave to a clerk at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the clerk would have been qualified.

(4.) Cases of repeated but not continuous sick leave amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months during any period of eighteen months shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick leave.

10. An Attendance Book shall be kept in every Department, in which the times of arrival and departure of every clerk shall be daily recorded.

11. No clerk shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, or financial Company of whatever description, which would require the attendance of such clerk at any time between the hours of ten a.m. and six p.m.

13. All clerks appointed after the 28th May, 1889, and all clerks appointed before that date, who shall be promoted to the higher grade of the Second Division established by Clause 4 of this Order, shall be required to give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours daily; and, as regards all other clerks appointed before the 28th May, 1889, who are giving, at the date of this Order, an attendance of six hours only, the hours of attendance shall be extended to seven, so soon as circumstances will permit, on the conditions specified in Clause 14 of this Order, subject, in each case, to agreement between the Commissioners of the Treasury and the Heads of the respective Departments in which such clerks are serving as to the date of such extension of hours, and the reduction in the numbers of such clerks to be made consequent thereon.

14. Clerks who were appointed before the 28th May, 1889, and who may be called upon at any time antecedent to their promotion to the higher grade of the Second Division to attend seven hours instead of six, shall be granted an increase of salary of fifteen pounds per annum from the date on which the extension of hours takes place: but clerks who at the date of their promotion to such higher grade are giving six hours' attendance only, shall, on promotion, give an attendance of seven hours without any such increase of salary.

15. Clerks appointed before the 28th May, 1889, shall be placed upon the new scale of salary sanctioned in this Order under the following conditions:—

(1.) They shall retain the salary with extra pay, if any, which they are receiving at the date of this Order.

(2.) They shall receive as from the 1st April, 1889, an increment of salary equal to the proportion of their triennial increment of fifteen pounds (omitting any fraction of a pound sterling) which may have accrued up to that date.

(3.) The next increment after that described in the preceding paragraph shall accrue on the 1st April, 1890; and this and all following increments shall depend upon the rate of salary, exclusive of extra pay, and shall be determined according to Clause 3 of this Order.

Provided always, that if a clerk be in receipt of extra pay, and his total emoluments are not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, he shall receive no further increment unless he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; and if he be not in receipt of extra pay, and his salary be not less than two hundred and fifty pounds (or two hundred pounds in case he be a clerk who is required to give a daily attendance of six hours only), he shall receive no further increment unless he be promoted under Clause 6 of this Order.

Provided further, that under no circumstances shall a clerk, with or without extra pay, who is transferred to the new scale under this Order, be allowed to rise beyond a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds.

16. Any clerk who is in receipt of extra pay shall, when his total emoluments reach two hundred and fifty pounds, be forthwith placed in the higher grade established under Clause 4 of this Order, if he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; after which he shall rise to a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds, including extra pay, but no more.

17. Clause 1 of the Order in Council of the 12th February, 1876,† shall be read, from and after the date of this Order as if the words "and of boy clerks" were omitted therefrom.

18. Clause 5 of the Order in Council of the 12th February, 1876 † shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words, "of the Lower Division," following the words, "for boy clerks," were omitted therefrom.

19. Clause 14 of the Order in Council of the 12th February, 1876,† is hereby repealed.

20. Clauses 16 and 17 of the said Order in Council,† authorising and regulating the grant of extra pay, are hereby repealed.

(6.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(Upper Division). August 15, 1890.

Whereas by Her Majesty's Orders in Council dated the 4th June, 1870, and the 19th August, 1871, rules were laid down for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments:

And whereas under the said Orders in Council, or by Orders and Regulations subsequent thereto, permanent officers of different rank in the Civil Service have been appointed according to different tests applied by the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas one section of the said Civil Service has been established and organised on a uniform basis by successive measures, of which the latest is Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, whereby the constitution of the Second Division of the Civil Service is fixed and defined:

And whereas it appears from certain recent reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., and others, appointed by Her Majesty to be Royal Commissioners for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of the Civil Departments of the State, that further regulations are required in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall apply to all permanent officers in the Civil Service drawing salaries, or placed on scales of salary, in excess of those of the Second Division as constituted by the Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890.

2. Candidates for clerkships falling within the description contained in Clause 1, and filled by open competition under the scheme known as "Class I," shall be not less than twenty-two, and not more than twenty-four years of age.

3. Every person hereafter certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners, for appointment to the Civil Service,

* Repealed by Clause 12 of Order in Council of November 29, 1898. See page 261.

† The Order in Council of February 12, 1876, was repealed by Order in Council of November 29, 1898. See page 261.

shall be subject to a strict probation for a period of two years, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Chief of the Department for which he is certificated, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless his two years' probation shall furnish to the Chief of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in that Department.

4. All officers appointed after the date of this Order, and all officers who shall, after the date of this Order, be promoted to any class carrying increase of salary, immediate or prospective, shall be liable to give an attendance of not less than seven hours a day, without any addition to the rates of salary in force at the date of this Order for a daily attendance of six hours:

Provided that no person promoted to a higher post shall in any case suffer immediate pecuniary loss by such promotion.

5. Promotion of officers from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) That there is a vacancy in the higher class which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Commissioners of the Treasury, it is competent for the authorities of a Department to fill up;

(2.) That the work of the Department requires such vacancy to be filled up;

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion has been reported by the Head of the Division or Department in which he is serving fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

6. Officers who are required to attend seven hours a day shall be allowed a half-holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Heads of the Departments in which such officers are serving are satisfied that the state of public business will permit.

7. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to officers shall not exceed thirty-six week-days during each of their first ten years of service, and forty-eight week-days thereafter, exclusive in both cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and (subject to the convenience of the public service) the four Bank Holidays: Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing officers who, under the regulations of the respective departments in which they are serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

8. Sick leave may be granted by the Head of a Department to any officer serving in such department, subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

(1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.

(2.) If the number of days during which any officer in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under Clause 7 of this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may, at his discretion, grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave no officer shall be paid any salary, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may, at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick leave at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the officer would have been qualified.

(4.) Cases of repeated but not continuous sick leave, amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months, during any period of eighteen months, shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick leave.

9. An Attendance Book shall be kept in every Department for the purpose of recording times of arrival and departure.

10.* It shall be competent for the Head of any Department to call upon any officer of such Department to retire at the age of sixty on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases, the Commissioners of the Treasury may, at the instance of a department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, in no case exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

11. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, or financial company of whatever description, which would require the attendance of such officer at any time between the hours of ten a.m. and six p.m.

New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme.

12. The grant of duty pay to the class of officers known as the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme shall be discontinued, provided that officers at present in receipt of duty-pay shall continue to receive the same so long as they retain the posts to which such duty-pay is attached.

13. In consideration of the cessation of such duty-pay, there shall be established an upper grade of such New Higher Division with salaries commencing at four hundred pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of twenty pounds to a maximum to be fixed by the Commissioners of the Treasury not exceeding six hundred pounds.

14. Promotion into the upper grade of the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme established under the foregoing clause shall be dependent on merit alone, and shall be made upon the recommendation of the Heads of Departments, provided that such Heads of Departments shall satisfy the Commissioners of the Treasury, before such promotion takes place, that the officer to be promoted is or will be insufficiently remunerated for the duties which he will be called upon to discharge by the scale of salary which he is receiving at the time when he is recommended for such promotion.

Any officer promoted under this clause shall accept such promotion subject to the condition that he shall give an attendance of not less than seven hours daily, without increase of salary in respect of increased attendance.

No officer who is in the receipt of duty-pay at the time of his promotion to the upper grade established by this clause shall rise, so long as he remains in that grade, beyond a salary of six hundred pounds, inclusive of such duty-pay.

15. The triennial increments hitherto allowed to clerks of the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme shall be abolished, and, in lieu hereof, such clerks shall receive annual increments of twelve pounds ten shillings.

The transition from triennial to annual increments in the case of existing clerks shall be effected as follows:—

(1.) As from the 1st April, 1890, they shall receive an increment of salary equal to the proportion of their triennial increment of thirty-seven pounds ten shillings (omitting any fraction of a pound sterling) which may have accrued up to that date.

(2.) The next increment after that described in the preceding paragraph shall accrue on the 1st April, 1891, and shall be at the rate of twelve pounds ten shillings; provided that the salary, apart from duty-pay, is not thereby raised above four hundred pounds per annum, in which case an increment shall be allowed of such sum, being less than twelve pounds ten shillings, as will raise the salary to four hundred pounds per annum.

General.

16. It shall be competent for the Commissioners of the Treasury to direct, should they see cause, that inquiry be made at intervals of not less than five years into the pay and numbers of officers employed by any Department of State.

17. At the beginning of each calendar year the Commissioners of the Treasury shall nominate four Principal Officers of Public Departments to serve on a Consultative Committee to advise the Commissioners upon questions on staff, salary, and organisation for the calendar year then beginning. One of such four members shall be the Permanent Secretary, or (in his absence) the Assistant Secretary, of the Treasury, and another shall be a representative of the Civil Service Commissioners; the remaining two shall be selected at the discretion of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

* See Clause 18 of Order in Council of November 29, 1898, as to extension of application of these provisions. Page 262.

If the particular Department concerned in the inquiry be not represented on such Committee, there shall be added to it for the particular occasion a representative of such Department.

If the Department concerned in the inquiry be represented on such Committee, there shall be added, for each occasion, one other temporary member, being a Principal Officer of some other Department.

18. If proposals for increase of staff or pay, or for re-organisation of a Department, have been submitted to the Commissioners of the Treasury, and the chief authority of the Department is not satisfied with the decision of the Commissioners thereupon, it shall be open to such chief authority to move the Chancellor of the Exchequer to refer the proposals, together with the decision thereupon, to the Consultative Committee, and on the Chancellor of the Exchequer consenting to such reference, the Consultative Committee shall examine the subject and report thereupon to the Commissioners of the Treasury.

19. Clause 2 of the Order in Council of the 19th August, 1871, is hereby repealed so far as regards the officers to whom this Order applies.

(7.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(Second Division and General). November 29, 1898.

Whereas by Orders made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council on 12th February, 1876, and the 17th November, 1888, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased to make regulations respecting the Lower (now Second) Division of Her Majesty's Civil Service:

And whereas by subsequent Orders in Council, of which the latest is that of the 21st March, 1890, the two first-mentioned Orders in Council have been amended and, as regards some of their provisions, repealed:

And whereas it is expedient wholly to repeal the said Orders in Council of the 12th February, 1876, and 17th November, 1888, and to re-enact, with amendments, such of their provisions as are now in force:

And whereas it appears desirable to make certain further regulations applicable to all persons in the established Civil Service of the State:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.—Second Division.

1. On and after the date of this Order the said Orders in Council of 12th February, 1876, and 17th November, 1888, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and this Order shall be substituted for them.

2. The Second Division of the Civil Service constituted by the said Order in Council of 12th February, 1876, as amended by the said Order in Council of 21st March, 1890, shall continue and shall consist of Clerks engaged to serve in any department of the Civil Service to which they may from time to time be appointed or transferred.

3. No department of the Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh without provision being made that such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by Members of the Second Division or other officers of a rank below that Division.

4. No vacancies shall be filled nor any new appointments made in any department, except by appointing Clerks of the Second Division, or other officers of a rank below that Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of officers serving in such department with salaries higher than those of the Second Division will not be excessive.

5. The Civil Service Commissioners shall at fixed intervals, or whenever they may, with the previous approval of the Treasury, decide it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for Clerkships of the Second Division in such subjects, and under such regulations as to limits of age and otherwise, as the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe.

6*. A list of the successful competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to the prescribed number, if so many are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified for appointments in the Second Division.

7. From the list made out as aforesaid, the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of departments having vacancies, may assign, on probation, the requisite Clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Assignments shall, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list; but they may assign any successful competitor who has shown special qualifications in any particular subject included in the scheme of examination, if special application for a Clerk so qualified be made by any department; provided that if a successful competitor has at the date of the competition served as a Boy Copyist, Boy Clerk, or Abstractor, for not less than six full months in a department, he may, on the application of the head of that department, be specially assigned to it.

8. Under conditions to be settled by the Civil Service Commissioners and the Treasury, successful competitors will be allowed, within reasonable limits and when convenient, to select the departments in which they may wish to serve; but the requirements of the public service will take precedence of all other considerations, and any successful competitor refusing to serve in the department to which he is assigned will be finally removed from the list.

9*. On a successful competitor being assigned to a situation in a public office, his name shall be removed from the list.

10. A Clerk shall be regarded as accepted by a department if he has served twelve months in it, and a record has been made by the head of the department that his service has been approved.

A Clerk shall not, except for grave misconduct, be rejected on probation till he has served for at least three months in the department to which he has been assigned.

If a Clerk is rejected on probation by the department to which he has been assigned, the department shall report to the Civil Service Commissioners the reasons for his rejection; and the Commissioners shall thereupon assign another Clerk in his room, and shall decide whether the rejected Clerk shall be discharged as unfit for the service generally, or whether he shall be re assigned for duty in another department.

In the event of a rejected Clerk being re-assigned as aforesaid, the Civil Service Commissioners shall decide whether his previous service should be reckoned [with or without conditions†] towards increment of salary. If they decide that his service should not be so reckoned, the fact shall be notified by the Commissioners to the Comptroller and Auditor General.

11. No person appointed to the Second Division on the ground that it was desirable in the interest of the public service to retain him in any particular department shall be made redundant without the consent of the Civil Service Commissioners and the approval of the Treasury. The same consent and approval shall be necessary, except in the case of redundancy, before any person who has become a Clerk of the Second Division after competitive examination or by promotion may be transferred to another department.

Except as aforesaid all redundant clerks may be transferred without reference to their age or the amount of salary due to them.

12. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second to the Higher Division of the Service, or to posts, not classified as Higher Division, but carrying a maximum salary exceeding five hundred pounds a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds five hundred pounds a year, without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service, upon a special recommendation from the head of the department, and with the assent of the Treasury; and every such promotion, including such recommendation, certificate, and assent, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect from and after the date of such publication.

Clause 12 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, is hereby repealed.

14. Below the Second Division persons may be employed for copying, routine work under direct supervision, or work inferior to that of Clerks of the Second Division, in accordance with regulations to be from time to time framed by the Civil Service Commissioners and approved by the Treasury, and at rates of pay from time to time prescribed by the Treasury.

15. A permanent Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners under Clause 7 of the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870. But such certificate shall only be granted exceptionally after not less than six years' established service [towards which not less than one and not more than two years' approved service as Boy Clerk or Boy Copyist may be allowed to reckon†] upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may, notwithstanding anything in Clause 3 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the division at such salary as they shall think fit, not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment; and he shall be allowed the same amount of annual holiday as though his previous established service had been in the Second Division. In the case of a person so appointed before the date of this Order, the Treasury may, if they think fit, increase the salary of which he is now in receipt to an amount not exceeding that of which he would have been in receipt if this Order had been in operation at the date of his appointment.

16. Clause 3 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words "not less than," were inserted after the words "for a daily attendance of" and before the words "seven hours."

17. Clause 5 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, shall be read as if the word "approved" were substituted for the words "in all respects satisfactory" in the first paragraph of the clause.

PART II.—General.

18. The provisions of Clause 10 of the Order in Council of the 15th August, 1890, as to retirement on account of age shall, in future, apply to all persons in the established Civil Service of the State, but, in the case of persons to whom those provisions have not heretofore been applicable, they shall take effect after the expiration of one year from the date of this Order.

19. When a person has been selected for appointment to an office in any department of the Civil Service, and the state of business in that department makes it necessary that he should enter upon his duties before the issue to him of a certificate by the Civil Service Commissioners, the Treasury may, if they think proper direct that his salary shall be payable from the date on which he commences the regular discharge of his duties, provided that they are satisfied that the delay in the issue of the certificate is owing to causes wholly beyond his control. If such person is on a scale of salary, the first incremental period of such scale shall be reckoned from the date on which his salary became payable, provided that he shall in the meanwhile have obtained a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners.

20. An annual increment of salary shall not be allowed to any person in the established Civil Service of the State without a certificate from the immediate superior of such person, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such person's conduct has during the year immediately preceding the date of such certificate been approved.

Provided that, if, at the date when the increment would in ordinary course become due, the Head of the Department is unable to give the certificate, he (the said Head) may withhold the same until the officer shall have completed a continuous period of twelve months' approved service; and the increment shall thereupon become payable from the date of such certificate. If the officer's conduct shall thereafter continue satisfactory, the Head of the Department may, after such interval as he shall consider sufficient, but subject to the approval of the Treasury, increase the salary to an amount not exceeding that at which it would have stood if no increment had been withheld. Every such increase shall be reported to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

21. Paragraph 3 of the Order in Council of 22nd March, 1879, shall be read as if the words "or certificated by the said Commissioners under Clause 7 of the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870" were inserted immediately before the words "as those Commissioners."

22. All appointments and promotions with respect to which certificates have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners, and all assignments and transfers of Second Division Clerks shall continue to be published by the Civil Service Commissioners in the number of the London Gazette first issued in each month.

* Additions made to these Clauses by Clauses 2 and 3 of the Order in Council of September 15, 1902 (page 262).

† The words in brackets were inserted by Clause 4 of the Order in Council of September 15, 1902 (page 262).

(8.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(Amendment of Orders in Council of August 19, 1871, and November 29, 1898). September 15, 1902.

Whereas it is expedient to amend in certain particulars regulations prescribed by Orders made by Her late Majesty in Council on the 4th day of June, 1870, the 19th day of August, 1871, and the 29th day of November, 1898, respecting appointments to, and employments in, the Civil Service of the State:—

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Clause 6 of the said Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870,‡ as amended by Clause 2 of the said Order in Council of the 19th August, 1871,§ is hereby cancelled and the following Clause is substituted therefor:—

After the candidate has passed his examination and his certificate of qualification has been issued by the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation of at least one year. During this time his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the Department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless his probation shall furnish to the head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in that Department.

This Clause shall not be interpreted as reducing any period of probation of greater length than one year which may be prescribed for any particular situation by any other Order or regulation.

2. The following shall be added to Clause 6 of the said Order in Council of the 29th November, 1898:—

In ascertaining the order of merit, such allowance may be made as the Civil Service Commissioners and the Treasury may from time to time prescribe in respect of previous service as a Boy Copyist or Boy Clerk.

3. The following shall be added to Clause 9 of the said Order in Council of the 29th November, 1898:—

If the assignment has been for temporary duty the Civil Service Commissioners may in making a subsequent assignment for permanent duty have regard to the requirements of the public service as well as to the position of the Clerk's name on the list.

4. The words "with or without conditions" shall be inserted after the words "should be reckoned" in Clause 10 of the said Order in Council of the 29th November, 1898.

5. Clause 13 of the said Order in Council of the 29th November, 1898, is hereby cancelled.

6. In Clause 15 of the said Order in Council of the 29th November, 1898, after the words "six years established service" the following words shall be inserted in brackets:—"(towards which not less than one and not more than two years' approved service as Boy Clerk or Boy Copyist may be allowed to reckon)."

* Clause 13 cancelled by Clause 5 of the Order in Council of September 15, 1902 (on this page).

† Inserted by Clause 6 of the Order in Council of September 15, 1902 (on this page).

ORDER IN COUNCIL RESPECTING CIVIL SERVANTS WHO MAY BE CANDIDATES FOR SEATS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. November 29, 1884.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Minute by the Commissioners of the Treasury, dated the 12th instant, in the words following, viz.:—

"The First Lord informs the Board that questions have been asked in the House of Commons whether persons serving in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State may, at the same time, announce themselves publicly as Candidates for seats in that House, and may issue political addresses, and speak at political meetings in furtherance of their election.

"The First Lord represents to the Board the grave importance of these questions, and that it is expedient to settle them as regards the establishment of the Treasury, by an express Minute of such a general character as to regulate, without further reference to the Board, whatever particular cases of the kind may arise.

"The First Lord expresses to the Board his own strong sense of the public injury which must be the consequence of any departure from the conditions which, under Parliamentary Government, render a Permanent Civil Service possible, and he points out that, among those conditions, the essential one is that the members of such a service should remain free to serve the Government of the day, without necessarily exposing themselves to public charges of inconsistency or insincerity.

"The First Lord points out that, whatever may be the theoretical difficulty of defining the degree of reserve which these conditions impose upon Civil Servants, it has been solved in practice, as is proved by the rarity of charges of partisanship against members of their body, so that the Board of Treasury is called upon to refer to an unwritten, but operative, law, rather than to declare a new one.

"My Lords find that, as matter of fact, the usage of the Public Departments has been for a Civil Servant, seeking a seat in the House of Commons, to resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner announces himself a candidate.

"My Lords consider that this usage should be binding, and They declare it to be so in the Treasury, and in all other Departments which depend upon the Treasury for the regulation of their discipline.

"The First Lord further states that Her Majesty's Government is agreed upon the substance of his observations to the Board, and that he proposes to cause the result of them to be embodied in an Order to be submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, which, when passed will be binding on the entire Permanent Civil Service of the State."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Minute into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof as applicable generally to Her Majesty's Civil Establishments; and the Chief Authorities of the said Establishments are to take the necessary steps herein accordingly, in respect of all persons serving within such Establishments in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT AND ORDER IN COUNCIL RELATING TO THE CONSULAR SERVICE.

(1.) CONSULAR ACT, SO FAR AS RELATES TO CHURCHES, HOSPITALS, CHAPELS, BURIAL GROUNDS, AND CHAPLAINS.*

6 GEO. IV. c. 87—July 5, 1825.

Provision for support of churches and chapels, &c., in foreign ports and places where a chaplain is appointed and maintained by subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such purpose a sum equal to the amount subscribed.

X. And whereas churches and chapels for the performance of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the interment of the dead, in divers foreign ports and places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the performance of divine service in the said churches and chapels, and are now resident in such foreign ports and places; and it is expedient to afford encouragement for the support of the churches and chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the erection of other churches and chapels in foreign ports and places to which His Majesty's subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of trade or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any foreign port or place in which a Chaplain is now or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary subscription or rate levied among or upon His Majesty's subjects resorting to or residing at such foreign port or place, or by any rate or duty levied under the authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any order for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from time to time, for and towards the maintenance and support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the expenses incident to the due celebration of divine service in any such churches and chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such burial grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the interment of any of His Majesty's subjects in any such burial grounds, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in any one year the amount of the sum or sums of money which during that year may have been raised at such port or place for the said several purposes or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid credit for all sums of money not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by them disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

Where voluntary contributions towards erecting churches, hospitals, or providing burial grounds, in any place where Consuls are resident, such Consuls are authorized to advance a sum equal to the amount of such contributions.

XI. In case any of His Majesty's subjects shall by voluntary subscriptions among themselves raise and contribute such a sum of money as shall be requisite for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any church or chapel or building, to be appropriated for the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, or for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any building to be used as a hospital for the reception of His Majesty's subjects, or for defraying one half of the expense of purchasing or hiring any ground to be used as a place of interment for His Majesty's subjects, at any foreign port or place wherein any Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty shall be resident, then and in any such case it shall and may by lawful for such Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any Order to be for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay, for and towards the purposes aforesaid or any of them, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole in any one year the amount of the money raised in that year by any such voluntary contribution as aforesaid; and every such Consul General or Consul as aforesaid shall in like manner once in every year transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to such Consuls-General or Consuls credit for all sums of money, not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by him disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

His Majesty's approbation to be first obtained.

XII. Provided always, That no such Order shall be issued as aforesaid through any of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State authorizing the expenditure of money for the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such new church or chapel or hospital as aforesaid, or for the purchase or hiring of any such new burial ground as aforesaid, unless and until such Consul-General or Consul shall first have transmitted to His Majesty, through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the plan of such intended church or chapel, hospital, or burial ground, with an estimate, upon the oath of some one or more competent person or persons, stating the probable expense of and incident to the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such church, chapel, hospital, or burying ground as aforesaid, and unless and until His

* The remainder of the Act was repealed by Act 5 & Vict., c. 36. See page 264.

Majesty shall have signified, through one of His said Principal Secretaries of State, his approbation of the said plan and estimate: Provided also, that no money shall actually be disbursed by any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, for any of the purposes aforesaid, unless and until the money to be raised by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid be actually paid up and invested in some public or other sufficient security, in the joint names of such Consul-General or Consuls and two Trustees appointed for that purpose by the persons subscribing the same, or unless and until two or more of such subscribers shall enter into good and sufficient security to His Majesty, by bond or otherwise, that the amount of such subscriptions shall actually be paid for the purposes aforesaid, by a certain day to be specified in every such bond or security, and which bond or security shall be preserved in the office of such Consul-General or Consul, and shall by him be cancelled and delivered back to the parties entering into the same, their heirs, executors, or administrators, when and so soon as the condition thereof shall be fully performed and satisfied.

Salaries to chaplains not to exceed the sums herein mentioned.

XIII. Provided also, that the whole salary of any Chaplain heretofore appointed or to be appointed to officiate in any such church or chapel in any foreign port or place in Europe shall not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Pounds by the year, or in any foreign port or place not in Europe, Eight Hundred Pounds by the year: Provided also, that all such Chaplains shall be appointed to officiate as aforesaid by His Majesty, through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, and shall hold such their Offices for and during His Majesty's pleasure, and no longer.

Meetings of subscribers to churches, chapels, &c.

XIV. All Consuls-General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside and being resident at any foreign port or place wherein any such church or chapel or other place appropriated for the celebration of divine worship, or hospital, or any such burial ground as aforesaid, hath heretofore been or shall hereafter be erected, purchased or hired, by the aid of any voluntary subscription or rates collected by or imposed upon His Majesty's subjects, or some person or persons for that purpose duly authorized by any writing under the hand and seal of any such Consul-General or Consul, shall once at least in every year, and more frequently if occasion shall require, by public advertisements, or in such other manner as may be best adapted for insuring publicity, convene and summon a meeting of all His Majesty's subjects residing at such foreign port or place as aforesaid, to be holden at the Public Office of such Consul-General or Consul, at some time, not more than Fourteen Days nor less than Seven Days next after the publication of any such summons; and it shall and may be lawful for all His Majesty's subjects residing or being at any such foreign port or place as aforesaid at the time of any such meeting, and who shall have subscribed any sum or sums of money not less than Twenty Pounds in the whole, nor less than Three Pounds by the year, for or towards the purposes before mentioned, or any of them, and have paid up the amount of such their subscriptions, to be present and vote at any such meetings; and such Consuls-General or Consuls shall preside at all such meetings; and in the event of the absence of any such Consuls-General or Consuls, the subscribers present at any such meeting shall, before proceeding to the dispatch of business, nominate one of their number to preside at such meeting; and all questions proposed by the Consul-General, Consul, or person so nominated as aforesaid, to preside in his absence, to any such meeting, shall be decided by the votes of the majority in number of the persons attending and being present thereat; and in the event of the number of such votes being equally divided, the Consul-General, Consul, or person so presiding in his absence, shall give a casting vote.

General meetings may establish rules for the management of such churches, &c., subject to the sanction of the Consul, who shall transmit the same for His Majesty's approbation.

XV. It shall and may be lawful for any such general meeting as aforesaid to make and establish, and from time to time, as occasion may require, to revoke, alter, and render such general rules, orders, and regulations, as may appear to them to be necessary for the due and proper use and management of such churches, chapels, hospitals, and burial grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper control over and expenditure of the money raised by any such subscription as aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the matters aforesaid, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the objects of this Act, so far as relates to those matters or any of them. Provided always that no such rule, order, or regulation as aforesaid shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul-General or Consul for the time being appointed by His Majesty to reside and actually resident at such foreign port or place; and provided also, that the same shall by such Consul-General or Consul be transmitted by the first convenient opportunity for His Majesty's approbation; and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be by him issued through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, either to confirm or disallow any such rules, orders, and regulations, either in the whole or in part, and to make such amendments and alterations in or additions to the same, or any of them, as to His Majesty shall seem meet, or to suspend for any period of time the execution thereof or any of them, or otherwise to direct or prevent the execution thereof or any of them, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and all Orders so to be issued by His Majesty, in relation to the matters aforesaid, through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, shall be recorded in the Office of the said Consul-General or Consul at the foreign port or place to which the same may refer, and shall be of full force, effect, and authority upon and over all His Majesty's subjects there resident.

(2.) ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE SALARIES AND FEES OF CONSULAR OFFICERS.

54 & 55 Vict., c. 36—July 21, 1891.

Salaries of Consular Officers.

I.—(1.) There may be granted to a consular officer, out of money provided by Parliament, such remuneration and allowance for expenses as may from time to time be fixed by a Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(2.) Such remuneration and allowance shall be received by a consular officer so long only as he actually discharges the duties of his office: Provided that if a consular officer is absent from his post with the sanction of the Secretary of State, he may receive the whole or such part of the remuneration or allowance accruing during his leave of absence as the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may by regulation direct.

Power to fix Consular Fees.

II.—(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen, by Order in Council, to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees.

(2.) All such fees shall be levied, accounted for, and applied, and may be remitted, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(3.) A consular officer shall not, save as may be provided by any Order in Council under this Act, ask for or take any fee or reward for or on account of any act, thing, or service done, performed, or rendered by him in the execution of his office, and if he does, he shall without prejudice to any other liability, be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, recoverable in the High Court, by information on the part of Her Majesty's Attorney-General.

(4.) Tables of the fees which may, for the time being, be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act shall be published and exhibited in a conspicuous manner for the inspection of all persons at the custom houses of the United Kingdom; and a printed copy thereof shall be given by every chief officer of customs, at a port of the United Kingdom, gratuitously to every master of a vessel clearing out of that port who requests the same.

(5.) Every consular officer shall hang up and exhibit in a conspicuous place in his consular office a copy of the table of fees to be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act, and shall permit the same to be inspected by any person interested therein.

Definition of Consular Officer.

III. In this Act the expression "consular officer" includes consul-general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, pro-consul, and any person for the time being authorised to perform the duties of consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent.

Repeal of part of 6 Geo. 4. c. 87.

IV. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Provided that any Order in Council issued under any enactment repealed by this Act, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force as if it has been issued in pursuance of this Act.

(3.) CONSULAR SERVICE ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of March, 1896.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Order in Council made on the 15th August, 1890,* Her Majesty was pleased to make certain regulations in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments of the Civil Service:

And whereas it is expedient that similar Regulations, so far as circumstances admit, should be made with respect to pensionable officers in the Consular Service of Her Majesty:

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order shall apply to all such Consular Officers and other persons employed in or in connection with the Consular Service as are entitled to receive superannuation allowances under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892,† and any Acts amending those Acts.

2. Except in the case of officers appointed by Commission from Her Majesty, every person hereafter certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment to the Consular Service shall be subject to a strict probation for a period of two years, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subject to such tests as may be determined by the Secretary of State, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Consular Service unless his probation shall furnish to the Secretary of State satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in the Consular Service.

3. Promotion of officers in the Consular Service shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) That there is a vacancy which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Commissioners of the Treasury, it is competent for the Secretary of State to fill up;

(2.) That the work of the Consular Service requires such vacancy to be filled up;

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion appears to the Secretary of State to be fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

4. Every officer hereafter appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 65 on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Officers heretofore appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 70.

If in any special case the Secretary of State is satisfied that the retirement of an officer would be detrimental to the interests of the public service, he may, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from time to time extend that officer's employment for such period or periods, not exceeding five years, as he may determine.

Nothing in this Article shall affect any existing power of the Secretary of State to require any officer to retire from the Consular Service if he has ceased, from whatever cause, to be fully competent for the performance of his duties.

5. The Consular Service shall be governed by such instructions as may from time to time be issued by a Secretary of State, with the approval, in so far as such instructions may affect the expenditure of public funds or the receipt and application of fees, of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

6. This order may be cited as "The Consular Service Order in Council, 1896."

‡ Came into force on July 16, 1899.
§ Denounced June 13, 1899; but subsequently prolonged until January 1, 1904.
‖ Treaty renewed by Convention signed at Monte Video, July 15, 1899.

REGULATIONS for the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(In force, January, 1903.)

Period of Service of Attachés.†

I. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up a further period of eighteen months, exclusive of any leave of absence, during either period. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from their posts will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries, and a Salary of £150 a-year.

II. and III. Commissions as Third Secretaries under His Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year, provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory, and that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a year for Knowledge of Public Law.

IV. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l.* a-year. (Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination.) [See also page 251.]

Second Secretaries.

V. Second Secretaries will constitute an Intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l.* a-year, increasing by 15*l.* a-year until it reaches a maximum of 450*l.* a-year. But Second Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l.* a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

Employment and Designation of Second and Third Secretaries.

VI. Secretaries of the Second and Third Classes may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

VII. Any Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Second or Third Secretary or Attaché on probation, who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, or Chinese language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l.* a-year over and above any other salary or allowance which he may be in receipt of.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

VIII. In virtue of His Majesty's Commissions, the service of Second and Third Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43,‡ from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Second or Third Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted, provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Second or Third Secretary.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

IX. Second or Third Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Salary of Secretary of Legation.

X. The minimum salary of a Secretary of Legation will be 500*l.* a year.

Travelling Expenses.

XI. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, Second and Third Secretaries and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, or other public reason, be allowed their actual travelling expenses by land, or the actual amount of their passages by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another (in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of Second Secretaries, the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one)§; and they will further be allowed subsistence money for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of one pound a day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board one of His Majesty's ships of war, the allowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations; but the travelling expenses and subsistence of the families of Secretaries or Attachés will not be allowed.

No allowance will be made to Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence.

Secretaries and Attachés may be required to carry Despatches.

XII. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

XIII. It is to be distinctly understood that, in future, all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Peking, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

Interchange of Employment between Second and Third Secretaries, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

XIV. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the public service, allow Second and Third Secretaries, and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the two Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

* For Rules and Regulations as to the Occupation and Maintenance of Embassy and Legation Houses, the Property of or leased by His Majesty's Government, see page 317.
§ This privilege was extended to Third Secretaries when sent to non-European Posts, January, 1897.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine.

Annual Reports on Conduct of Junior Secretaries and Attachés.

XV. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

XVI. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the King to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions. Retirement at the age of 70.

XVII. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

XVIII. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date as heretofore from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. Under the Regulation as now amended, the time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Secretary of the Mission may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be, at Embassies at the rate of 3*l.* a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 2*l.* a-day.*

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service. Notice to be given of Addresses of Persons on Leave of Absence, and in the case of Junior Members of intended departure for their posts.

XIX. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Doorkeeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

XX. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Circular of November 6, 1860.

XXI. It being very desirable that the Members of His Majesty's Diplomatic Service should clearly understand the duties respectively assigned to them, a copy of the Circular instruction on this subject, addressed to the Heads of Missions by Lord John Russell on the 6th November, 1860, is annexed to these Regulations, and the Secretary of State requests that the rules therein laid down may be duly observed.

Obligation of Secrecy.

XXII. Members of the Diplomatic Service must not, without the express permission of the Secretary of State, publish observations on, or accounts of, their experiences in the countries in which they are, or have been, officially employed, nor any information obtained by them in their official capacity. The obligation of secrecy in regard to official experiences and information continues equally after their retirement from active service, and in the event of its being disregarded, the Secretary of State will consider himself justified in bringing the circumstances to the notice of Parliament, when the Estimate providing for the officer's pension is before the House of Commons. The disclosure of information acquired in an official capacity, when such disclosure is contrary to the public interest, is, moreover, punishable under "The Official Secrets Act, 1889,"† by fine and imprisonment.

Foreign Office, January 12, 1903.

* At the Missions of Berne, Munich, and Belgrade, the allowance remains at the rate of 1*l.* a-day. The allowance at Bucharest and Tangier is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post, and at Cairo at the rate of 1,000*l* a year.

† See page 292.

CIRCULAR TO THE HEADS OF MISSIONS, DATED NOVEMBER 6, 1860.

My Lord, Foreign Office, November 6, 1860.

Sir,—I have reason to apprehend that some misconception has prevailed in the minds of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as to the nature of the relations between them and their Secretaries and Attachés, and that they have consequently, in many cases, overlooked the fact that the Secretaries and Attachés are public servants appointed by the Secretary of State to perform specific public duties.

It is to be borne in mind that one of the objects for which Secretaries and Attachés are appointed to Embassies and Missions is, that they may be trained up in the junior branches of the Diplomatic Service, and thereby become qualified for filling afterwards higher and more important situations; but this training they cannot receive unless they are employed, according to their several Commissions, in the general business of the Embassy or Mission.

It follows that the Chiefs of Missions should not defeat the above-mentioned purpose by entrusting, at their own discretion, and with reference to their own personal convenience, the management and execution of the public business of their Chanceries to persons out of the regular order. Each member of an Embassy or Mission, whether Secretary, Attaché, or Keeper of the Archives, should hold in the Chancery the position to which he is entitled by office or seniority, and to which he is named by the Secretary of State; and in no case should a junior be arbitrarily preferred to a senior, nor an Attaché to a Secretary, nor a Keeper of the Archives to an Attaché.

A disregard of these principles not only tends to defeat the objects for which the Diplomatic Service is constituted, but is, moreover, among the junior members of that service, a fruitful source of jealousy and disunion.

On these grounds I have thought it expedient, with Her Majesty's approbation, to lay down certain fixed Rules for the regulation of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations, in which the nature and amount of the business to be transacted renders an adherence to fixed Rules peculiarly important; and I am convinced that if those Rules are strictly attended to, the general interests of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, both present and prospective, will be greatly advanced, and the convenience and comfort of the Chiefs and subordinate members of the service will be essentially promoted.

The principle on which the Rules which I now proceed to lay down are founded is to apply, as far as possible, to Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad the system on which the business of the Foreign Office is carried on at home.

In the Foreign Office the Under Secretaries of State, the Senior and Assistant and Junior Clerks, have their respective duties to perform, and they do perform them without clashing or interfering with each other.

In like manner Her Majesty's Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, the Senior and Junior Paid Attachés, and the Unpaid Attachés, have in Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations their regular and appointed positions and duties; and it is only necessary to bear this analogy in mind, and to carry it out in practice, in order to ensure the efficient and harmonious working of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad.

The manner in which this principle is to be applied will readily occur to such of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as are conversant with the working of the system in the Foreign Office; but I consider it desirable to explain its application in detail.

Accordingly, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation must be deemed to hold, as regards the Chief of the Mission, the same position which an Under Secretary of State holds as regards the Secretary of State, and therefore the whole public business of the Embassy or Mission should pass through his hands, and, subject to the orders of the Chief, should be carried on under his immediate superintendence.

The public and official despatches and papers will, if not opened by the Ambassador or Minister himself upon their arrival, reach him through the Secretary of Embassy or Legation: and the directions of the Chief in regard to all matters of public business will pass through the Secretary, and be executed under his superintendence and control. The principle on which this regulation is founded scarcely needs an explanation, for it is obvious that the public interests require that the Secretary, who may at any moment, in consequence of the absence of the Chief be called upon to conduct the public business on his own responsibility, should be kept fully informed as to the course of those matters with which he may have to deal.

In the occasional or accidental absence of the Secretary from the residence of the Mission, or from the Chancery, the Senior Attaché in attendance will undertake his duties, so that no inconvenience or delay need arise in the transaction of the public business.

As regards the general duties of Attachés, the Senior will, in the Chancery, occupy the position which a Senior Clerk occupies in the Foreign Office. He will be responsible for the correct performance of the details of the Chancery work; he will assign to the other Attachés their respective portions of it; he will have the general custody of the Cyphers and Decyphers; and he will be responsible for keeping the accounts of the Extraordinary Expenditure, and for submitting them to the Chief of the Embassy or Mission for approval and transmission to England as soon as possible after the expiration of each quarter. Moreover, as stated in my Circular despatch of the 10th February last the Senior Attaché for the time being will, if no other person has, with the sanction of the Secretary of State been appointed for that special duty, have the custody of the Archives. He will be held responsible for their being kept in proper order; for the correspondence being regularly registered; and for the letters and drafts being properly docketed and filled up before they are consigned to the Archives.

The position and duties of the Keeper of Archives in those Embassies or Missions to which such an officer is attached will correspond with those of the Librarian of the Foreign Office, though his duties in regard to the correspondence will commence at an earlier period than that of that officer. Those duties will be to keep the papers, whether bound or unbound, in good order, so that they may be at any time easily accessible; to see that the papers are at stated intervals bound in volumes; and to make references and Memoranda for the information of the Ambassador or Minister, and for the general requirements of the Chancery.

The order of precedence among the Junior members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will thus be:—

Secretary of Embassy or Legation; Paid Attachés;
Unpaid Attachés;
Keeper of Archives; and Translator, where a Translator is appointed with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

The foregoing Regulations apply exclusively to the transaction of Public and Official business, and are not intended in any way to interfere with the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister as to the arrangements he may make in regard to his private correspondence. I have only to observe on this point, that if the Ambassador or Minister sees occasion to employ one of the Attachés as his Private Secretary, the manner in which such Attaché should be employed in the transaction of the public business of the Embassy or Mission is not to be affected thereby, but is to continue to be governed by the Rules which I have laid down, and must remain in entire subordination to, and under the control of, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation, and of the Attachés holding a superior position to him in the Chancery.

The Secretary of Embassy or Legation, the First Attaché, and the Keeper of the Archives, should be under no restriction as to the hours at which the Chancery shall be open to them, even if any such restriction is habitually placed on other members of the Mission; and they should each have keys of the presses or boxes in which the Archives and Public Papers are kept.

No person must be employed in the transaction of the public business except those who may be actually members of the Embassy or Legation, or whose employment may be specifically sanctioned for a limited period by the Secretary of State.

I have no doubt that a strict adherence to the Rules I have thus laid down will tend to the regular dispatch of public business, and to the maintenance of harmony among the different members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service; while it will also be advantageous to the Chiefs of Missions. It is not my intention by these Regulations to prescribe to those Chiefs any obligation of consulting or of being guided by the opinion of any of the subordinate members of their Mission. On those Chiefs rests the responsibility of the decisions they may come to, and of any course they may determine to pursue, and with them, therefore, must also rest the free choice of the means for arriving at their decisions.

My object in the present communication is to provide that those persons who are appointed by the Secretary of State to definite situations and ranks in Her Majesty's Embassies and Missions shall be employed in the transaction of the public business of such Embassies and Missions in accordance with the purposes for which their appointments have been created.

I am, &c.,
J. RUSSELL.

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

(In force, January, 1903.)

*For CLERKSHIPS on the Establishment of the FOREIGN OFFICE, and for ATTACHÉSHIPS in the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

Obligatory.

1. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
2. Handwriting and Orthography.
   (These should include, besides correct spelling, writing a good bold hand, and forming each letter distinctly, proof that the Candidates can write quickly and correctly from dictation.)
3. English Composition.
4. Précis Writing.
5. French (Translation from and into, Reading MS., Extempore Translation from and into, writing a letter in French on ordinary subjects, and an essay upon some political or commercial question and Viva Voce, paying particular attention to accent, genders, and tenses).
6. German (the same course of examination as in French).
7. General Intelligence (exercise to test general intelligence as evinced by the manner in which the Candidates acquit themselves under examination, and specifically by the quickness they may show in seizing the points in papers read by them, or read over to them, once or twice).
8. Geography.
9. History of Europe, 1789 to 1880 inclusive; also History of Asia and America for the same period so far as it is connected with European History.

Optional Subjects.

10. Any two of the following languages, viz., Latin, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Modern Greek, Arabic.

In Latin the examination will be in translation from and into Latin. In each of the other languages the course of examination will be the same as in French.

The limit of age for Candidates is between 19 years complete and 25 years complete.

Foreign Office, November, 1899.

[The fee for examination is 6*l.*]

(For specimen of Examination Papers, see page 334.)

REGULATIONS for FOREIGN OFFICE TRANSLATORS.

1. These appointments, the number of which is limited to three, are open to Clerks on the establishment of the Foreign Office, after completion of one year's service, and may be held until the rank of Assistant or Acting Assistant Clerk is attained.

2. Candidates will be required to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess the requisite practical knowledge of the languages in which they are examined, and that they are able to translate such languages quickly and correctly into good English. In the event of two or more candidates presenting themselves for one vacancy, the candidate who obtains the largest number of marks will receive the appointment. The qualifying languages will be either Italian, or Spanish, or Russian, in addition to which candidates must pass a test examination in German. The Translators will not be required to pass examinations in Dutch, Danish, Portuguese, or Swedish, unless they wish to do so, but the Secretary of State expects that they will among them acquire sufficient proficiency in those languages to make translations from them if required.

Two of these allowances cannot be permanently held by the same Translator.

3. The Translators will be expected to prepare all translations required for the use of the Foreign Office.

In case, however, of great pressure, or of documents being received in any languages other than those mentioned above, assistance may be obtained through the Civil Service Commissioners on sanction being received from the Under-Secretary of State.

4. The Translators will rank according to their seniority in the Office.

5. It will be the duty of the Senior Translator, or in his absence of the Second Translator, to receive and distribute papers requiring translation; to superintend the work as far as may be possible; to apply to the Under-Secretary of State for assistance when needed; and to arrange questions of leave, and such matters as relate to the ordinary duties of the Translators.

6. Should a Translatorship be temporarily vacated in consequence of one of the Translators becoming an Acting Assistant Clerk, or effecting a temporary exchange into the Diplomatic Service, any Clerk who is eligible, or in case of there being no candidate among the Clerks, the member of the Diplomatic Service with whom the exchange is made, may, after examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, occupy the appointment for the period during which it is vacated, and receive the allowance attached to it.

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it desirable, appoint any Clerk who has held such an acting appointment to the next actual vacancy among the Translators, without further examination.

7. In case there should be no candidate for a vacant Translatorship, or that the candidates should fail to pass the necessary examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, one or both the other Translators will be permitted, if duly qualified, to undertake temporarily the duties of the vacant appointment, and to receive the allowance attached to it, on the understanding that the vacancy will be filled up as soon as circumstances will permit.

Foreign Office, October 1, 1886.

* These appointments are filled up by limited competition.

THIRD SECRETARIES (see §4 of Regulations, page 266).*

Public Law.

Third Secretaries who desire a Certificate of having satisfactorily passed an examination in Public Law will be required to show a competent general knowledge of the ordinary rights and obligations of Sovereign States in time of peace, and of belligerents and neutrals in war.

They will also be expected to be able to give an account of—

(1.) The nature and authority of International Law.

(2.) The sources from which it is derived, the leading authorities (British and Foreign) on the subject, and the manner of referring to and applying those authorities.

(3.) The Political Constitution of the several States, and Unions of States, in Europe and America, so far as the constitution of each may affect its international relations.

(4.) The status, duties, and privileges of Public Ministers and Diplomatic Agents.

(5.) The general principles of the Law of Nationality and of Domicil.

The Books recommended are :—

Wheaton's "Elements of International Law"; Heffter, "Das Europaische Volkerrecht der Gegenwart," either in the original German or in the French Translation of Jules Bergson; and for (5) Westlake's "Treatise on Private International Law," chapters I, II, III, with the Naturalization Acts, 33 Vict. c. 14, and 35 and 36 Vict. c. 39.

Foreign Office, March 7, 1873.

CONSULAR APPOINTMENTS.†

[As revised to 1895.]

Persons selected for the Consular Service—whenever the circumstances of their being resident in England on their first appointment, or of their passing through England on their way to take up such first appointment, may admit of their being subjected to examination—will be expected to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

1st. That they have a correct knowledge of the English language so as to be able to express themselves clearly and correctly in writing.

2nd. That they can write and speak French correctly and fluently.

3rd. That they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language, as far as commerce is concerned, of the port at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place: a knowledge of the German language being taken to meet this requirement for ports in Northern Europe; of the Spanish or Portuguese language, as may be determined by the Secretary of State, for ports in Spain, Portugal, Morocco, and South or Central America, and of the Italian language for ports in Italy, Greece, Turkey, Egypt, and on the Black Sea or Mediterranean, except those in Morocco and Spain.

4th. The principles of British Mercantile and Commercial Law relating to: (1) Shipping; (2) Negotiable Instruments, Bills of Exchange, and Promissory Notes; (3) Contracts for the Carriage of Goods; (4) Contracts of Marine Insurance, Bottomry, and Respondentia.

5th. A sufficient knowledge of arithmetic for the nature of the duties which Consuls are required to perform in drawing up Commercial Tables and Reports. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Bishop Colenso's Arithmetic."

Moreover, all persons on their first nomination to Consulships, and after having passed their examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, will be required as far as practicable, to attend for at least three months in the Foreign Office, in order that they may become acquainted with the forms of business as carried on there.

Limit of Age for Candidates:—25 to 50, both years inclusive. (Fee for examination 1*l.* to 6*l.*)

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR THE OTTOMAN DOMINIONS, PERSIA, GREECE, AND MOROCCO.

The following are the Regulations under which Candidates will be appointed:—

1. Student Interpreters are appointed to supply His Majesty's Missions and Consulates in these countries with officers versed in the languages and competent to discharge the duties of Interpreters and Consular Officers.

2. They are selected by open competition, after examination by the Civil Service Commissioners, who give public notice beforehand of the subjects and date of examination.

3. They are required to proceed to such one of the Universities as may be selected by the Secretary of State as soon as possible after their appointment, where they will study Oriental languages. They reside there as members of the University for not less than nine months in the year during two consecutive years. During their residence they are called on to pass examinations, success in which is requisite to qualify them for continuance in the service.

They are required to produce to the Foreign Office the certificates issued from time to time by the Head or Tutor of the College to which they are attached, stating the amount of residence and the character of their conduct.

4. During their residence they receive a salary of £200 per annum.

5. They are required, before proceeding to the University, to execute a bond, with a sufficient surety, for the payment of £500 to His Majesty's Government in the event of their leaving the service of their own free will, or being discharged from it for misconduct or neglect of duties within five years.

6. Turkish, Arabic, and Mussulman Law are obligatory subjects; Persian, Modern Greek, and the Slav languages optional subjects. Their studies are under the control of the Board which superintends the instruction of Indian Civil Service students, and to which they should apply for information.

7. They must clearly understand that their retention and advancement in the service will depend on their efficiency and general good conduct.

8. Candidates must be natural born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, are only allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 18 or over 24 years of age, at the date of examination. Persons who may be serving, or who may have served, in the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay.

Candidates are required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are physically qualified for service in Eastern countries.

9. The examination is in the following subjects, viz.:—

Obligatory.—Handwriting, orthography, and reading aloud; arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions; English Composition; Latin: translations from and into French; writing from dictation; writing a letter in French on ordinary subjects, and conversation, paying particular attention to accents, genders, and tenses.

Optional.—Ancient Greek, Italian, German, Spanish.

[A fee of 4*l.* will be required from every candidate attending the examination.]

Regulations as to the Promotion of Student Interpreters.

On leaving the University they are appointed to be Assistants, and are assigned for service in the above-mentioned Missions or Consulates. The Assistants receive a salary of £300 a-year. At the end of the first twelve months they are examined in the language of the country in which they have resided. Twelve months after passing that examination they are called upon to undergo a further examination in the civil, criminal, and commercial law of Turkey, in international law, and in the history, language, and mode of administration of the country in which they have resided; they have also to show a general knowledge of the history of the Turkish Empire, and of the treaties which have been concluded between it and foreign Powers. The promotion of Assistants and their subsequent seniority will depend upon the result of this final examination.

(The text books recommended are—"Destour"; Aristarchi's "Législation Ottomane," and "Code d'Instruction Criminelle" and "Code de Procedure Civile"; Hertslet's "Treaties on Trade, Turkey"; Wheaton's "Elements of International Law.")

Foreign Office, November, 1901.

* For specimen of Examination Papers, see page 342.

† For specimen of Examination Papers for Vice-Consul, see page 342. Consuls, and Vice-Consuls holding Royal Commissions, or appointed since June 10, 1872, with permission to trade, are not necessarily required to pass an examination. (See Schedule B. of Order in Council of June 4, 1870, page 257.)

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR CHINA, JAPAN, AND SIAM.

The following are the regulations under which candidates will be appointed:—

1. The office of Student Interpreter has been instituted to supply the Consular Service in China, Japan, and Siam with persons versed in the languages of those countries, and otherwise competent to discharge Consular duties.

2. Student Interpreters are selected by open competition after examination by the Civil Service Commissioners, who will give notice in the newspapers beforehand of such examination.

3. The Student Interpreters are to devote themselves, in the first place, to the study of the language of the country to which they are appointed, and, in the next place, they are to qualify themselves generally for the public service; but they must clearly understand that their retention and advancement in the public service will depend entirely on the ability which they may show after their arrival at their destination, and on their general steadiness and good conduct.

4. The salary of the Student Interpreter is fixed at the rate of £200 a year, commencing ten days previously to the date of their departure from England. A passage to their post is provided for them at the public expense, but they are required to enter into a bond of 300*l.* with a sufficient surety for the repayment of 150*l.* in the event of resignation or discharge from the service within five years. The successful candidates are expected to proceed to their destination as soon after their appointment as they can make arrangements for doing so.

5. Candidates must be natural born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not actually born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, will only be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 18 or over 24 years of age at the date of examination, with an extension of five years in favour of persons who have served under the Foreign Office continuously from a time when they were within the above limits of age. Persons who may be serving, or who may have served, in the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay. Candidates must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight, and physically qualified for service in tropical climates. They will be called upon to undergo a medical examination to test these points, which will take place after the result of the literary examination has been ascertained. All candidates who have not been vaccinated within the last seven years must undergo the operation before leaving England.

6. The examination will be in the following subjects viz.:—

Obligatory.—Handwriting and Orthography; Arithmetic (including vulgar and decimal fractions); English Composition.

 Candidates failing in any of these subjects will be informed of their failure as soon as possible, and will not proceed further with the examination.

Optional.—Précis, Geography, Euclid (Books I. to IV.) Latin, French, German; the elements of Criminal Law, the principles of British Mercantile and Commercial Law relating to: (1) Shipping; (2) Negotiable Instruments, Bills of Exchange, and Promissory Notes; (3) Contracts for the Carriage of Goods; (4) Contracts for Marine Insurance, Bottomry, and Respondentia; (5) Contracts with Seamen; (6) The Doctrines of Stoppage in Transitu and Lien.

[A fee of £4 is required from each candidate attending the examination.]

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS (CHINA, JAPAN, AND SIAM).

Law Examination.

With the view of enabling Assistants in the Consular Service of China and Japan, and Siam, to study Law in this country in order—

(a.) To qualify themselves in the special branches of Law which would be useful to them in their Consular duties; and the usual furlough of one year after five years' service will be extended to two years in the case of any Assistant who may, on this ground, apply for such extension, provided that the Minister under whom he may have been serving shall recommend the application, and shall express his opinion that the ability, industry, and general good conduct exhibited by the officer in the past five years warrant the expectation that he will turn to good account whatever opportunities of studying Law may be afforded to him.

(b.) To be ultimately called to the Bar;

2. Assistants to whom the Minister has recommended that extended leave shall be granted must report themselves, on their arrival in England, to the Civil Service Commissioners, by whom their legal studies under head (a) will be directed, and by whom their progress in such studies will from time to time be tested by examination.

3. These examinations will, in ordinary circumstances, be held twice in each year of furlough, at intervals, as nearly as may be, of six months, and will be partly by questions on paper and partly viâ voce.

4. The grant of a second year's leave of absence will not be confirmed unless the Civil Service Commissioners shall certify that the Assistant's progress during the previous year has been satisfactory to them, and such leave may at any time be terminated if the Civil Service Commissioners shall report that he appears to be neglecting the prescribed studies.

5. The subjects of examination by the Civil Service Commissioners will consist of two branches:—

(1.) Notes of Cases and Proceedings in Courts of Law or before police magistrates;

(2.) Certain special or prescribed subjects.

1.—Notes of Cases.

These must be obtained by personal attendance in Court. They should consist of short notes of the main points in the evidence, arguments of counsel, and opinion of judge or magistrate in each case. Short references should be made, in the form of marginal notes to the Statutes, reported decisions, or other authorities governing or affecting any point in the case.

Such authorities should, before the reports are sent in be carefully consulted in some legal library.

2.—Special or prescribed Subjects.

These will consist of the following:—

(i.) Law of Evidence.

(ii.) Selected portions of the Criminal Law.

(iii.) Elements of the Law of Contract.

(iv.) Law relating to merchant shipping, contracts of affreightment, and marine insurance.

(v.) Law relating to the status of and jurisdiction over—

(a.) British Subjects and Aliens.

(b.) Questions of Extra-territoriality as affecting marriage, succession (testamentary and intestate), contracts, torts, and criminal responsibility.

(vi.) The Foreign Jurisdiction Acts and the Orders in Council and Rules of Procedure in force for the time being in China and Japan, and in Siam in the case of Assistants in the Consular Service of Siam.

(vii.) Any other subject or subjects which the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may from time to time prescribe.

6. Detailed instructions as to the course of study to be pursued under these heads, as to the text-books to be read, and as to attendance at the various Courts for the purpose of reporting the proceedings therein, will be issued by the Civil Service Commissioners to every candidate prior to each half-yearly period.

7. Under head (b) Assistants will have to satisfy the Secretary of State that they are duly keeping their terms at an Inn of Court, and that they are prosecuting with due diligence the course of reading prescribed for students for the Bar by the Council of Legal Education. To this end they will be required to produce to the authorities of the Foreign Office certificates of attendance upon the lectures provided by such Council. They will also be required to undergo, at the earliest period permitted by the Regulations of the Inns of Court (viz., after four terms), the examination in Roman Civil Law necessary for a call to the Bar. Any Assistant who fails to transmit to the Foreign Office a certificate of his having passed this Examination before the expiration of the first eighteen months of his furlough, will be liable to have the residue of his leave cancelled.

Foreign Office, March, 1883.

FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.*

That they are between the ages of 25 and 35, both periods complete.

That they are British subjects.

That they have such a knowledge of either French, German, or Italian, as will enable them to make themselves understood in regard to such matters as concern their duties on the road; those duties being, to convey the Despatches entrusted to them safely and expeditiously by whatever means they may have occasion to travel.

That they have such a knowledge of the first four rules of arithmetic as will enable them to make out their accounts in the simplest form.

That they are able to ride, and competent to perform journeys on horseback.

That they possess sound bodily health.

(Fee for examination, 3*l.*)

TRANSLATORS TO MISSIONS.

Exercises in Translations from and into that language or those languages upon which the candidate is destined to be employed. (Age between 25 and 55 years complete. Fee for examination 1*l.*)

CLERKS IN LEGATIONS ABROAD.

Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
French. (Age between 18 and 40 years complete. Fee for examination 1*l.*)

CONSULAR CLERKS.

Handwriting and Orthography.
Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
One Foreign Language (speaking, translating, and copying).
(Age between 17 and 40 years complete, and between 17 and 50 in China, Japan, Siam, and Constantinople.)

HOME SERVICE MESSENGERS, OFFICE-KEEPERS, DOOR-KEEPERS, HOUSEKEEPERS, AND OTHERS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE; MESSENGERS AT MISSIONS ABROAD, CONSTABLES AND GAOLERS AT CONSULATES, USHERS IN JUDICIAL COURTS, OTHER SUBORDINATE SITUATIONS UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

1. Candidates must be between the ages of 20 and 40 years complete, except as regards constables and gaolers in China, Corea, and Siam, where the age limit is 45 for persons engaged locally. Persons who have served in the army and navy may be allowed to deduct from their actual ages any time, not exceeding five years, that they may have so served.

2. Subjects of examination:—

(i.) Writing (including copying manuscript) and spelling.

(ii.) Arithmetic (first four rules, money and avoirdupois weight).

3. Candidates must satisfy the Commissioners that their general health and character are good.

4. All candidates locally selected for situations as constables and gaolers in China, Corea, and Siam, must obtain the permission of the Consul and Minister before presenting themselves for examination. Such permission shall be given in each case only after such temporary service as would prove the candidate to be worthy of permanent retention.

Foreign Office, April, 25, 1902.

* Excepted from the operation of the Order in Council of June 4, 1870 (see Schedule B, page 257).

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union Flag, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union Flag.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly of the flag—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

(In force, January, 1903.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Unless the Foreign Decoration shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service, either at Sea or in the Field, such permission will not be given to any subject of Her Majesty, except in the following cases, if recommended specially by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs:—

(1.) The Chief of a Complimentary Mission from Her Majesty.

(2.) A Military or Naval Attaché on the termination of his appointment.

(3.) Any person, not at the time in the service of Her Majesty, who has rendered valuable service to the Sovereign bestowing the Order outside Her Majesty's dominions, or in an Embassy or Legation of that Sovereign in this country.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through Her Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept the Decoration of a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Decoration, and common to every person upon whom such Decoration is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, June 23, 1898.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or Navy, should be addressed to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be, who, if they see fit, may submit the same for Her Majesty's sanction, upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without other formality.

2. Any other British subject, having obtained Her Majesty's permission, is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT, AND ORDER IN COUNCIL, RELATING TO MARRIAGES ABROAD.

(1.)—An Act to consolidate Enactments relating to the Marriage of British Subjects outside the United Kingdom.

55 and 56 Vict., c. 23—"Foreign Marriage Act, 1892."

Validity of marriages solemnized abroad in manner provided by Act.

1. All marriages between parties of whom one at least is a British subject solemnized in the manner in this Act provided in any foreign country or place by or before a marriage officer within the meaning of this Act shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized in the United Kingdom with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Notice to marriage officer of intended marriage.

2. In every case of a marriage intended to be solemnized under this Act, one of the parties intending marriage shall sign a notice, stating the name, surname, profession, condition, and residence of each of the parties, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor, and give the notice to the marriage officer within whose district both of the parties have had their residence not less than one week then next preceding, and the notice shall state that they have so resided.

Filing in registry and posting up of notice.

3.—(1) The marriage officer shall file every such notice, and keep it with the archives of his office, and shall also, on payment of the proper fee, forthwith enter in a book of notices to be kept by him for the purpose, and post up in some conspicuous place in his office, a true copy of every such notice, and shall keep the same so posted up during fourteen consecutive days before the marriage is solemnized under the notice.

(2) The said book and copy posted up shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to the inspection of any person.

Requirement of like consent to marriage as in England, and power to forbid marriage.

4.—(1) The like consent shall be required to a marriage under this Act as is required by law to marriages solemnized in England.

(2) Every person whose consent to a marriage is so required may, at any time before the solemnization thereof under this Act, forbid it by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the intended marriage in the book of notices, and by subscribing thereto his name and residence, and the character by reason of which he is authorised to forbid the marriage; and if a marriage is so forbidden the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Caveat against marriages may be lodged with marriage officer.

5.—(1) Any person may on payment of the proper fee enter with the marriage officer a caveat, signed by him or on his behalf, and stating his residence and the ground of his objection against the solemnization of the marriage of any person named therein, and thereupon the marriage of that person shall not be solemnized until either the marriage officer has examined into the matter of the caveat and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, or the caveat is withdrawn by the person entering it.

(2) In a case of doubt the marriage officer may transmit a copy of the caveat, with such statement respecting it as he thinks fit, to a Secretary of State, who shall refer the same to the Registrar General, and the Registrar-General shall give his decision thereon in writing to the Secretary of State, who shall communicate it to the marriage officer.

(3) If the marriage officer refuses to solemnize or to allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring it to be solemnized, that person may appeal to a Secretary of State, who shall give the marriage officer his decision thereon.

(4) The marriage officer shall forthwith inform the parties of and shall conform to any decision given by the Registrar-General or Secretary of State.

When marriage not solemnized within three months a new notice required.

6. Where a marriage is not solemnized within three months next after the latest of the following dates—

(a) the date on which the notice for it has been given to and entered by the marriage officer under this Act, or

(b) if on a caveat being entered a statement has been transmitted to a Secretary of State, or if an appeal has been made to a Secretary of State, then the date of the receipt from the Secretary of State of a decision directing the marriage to be solemnized, the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Oath before Marriage.

7. Before a marriage is solemnized under this Act, each of the parties intending marriage shall appear before the marriage officer, and make, and subscribe in a book kept by the officer for the purpose, an oath—

(a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment to the marriage by reason of kindred or alliance, or otherwise; and

(b) that both of the parties have for three weeks immediately preceding had their usual residence within the district of the marriage officer; and

(c) where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or, as the case may be, that there is no person having authority to give such consent.

Solemnization of marriage at office in presence of marriage officer and two witnesses.

8.—(1) After the expiration of fourteen days after the notice of an intended marriage has been entered under this Act, then, if no lawful impediment to the marriage is shown to the satisfaction of the marriage officer, and the marriage has not been forbidden in manner provided by this Act, the marriage may be solemnized under this Act.

(2) Every such marriage shall be solemnized at the official house of the marriage officer, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and may be solemnized by another person in the presence of the marriage officer, according to the rites of the Church of England, or such other form and ceremony as the parties thereto see fit to adopt, or may, where the parties so desire, be solemnized by the marriage officer.

(3) Where such marriage is not solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, then in some part of the ceremony, and in the presence of the marriage officer and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare,

"I solemnly declare, that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B. [or C. D.] may not be joined in matrimony to C. D. [or A. B.]."

And each of the parties shall say to the other,

"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I A. B. [or C. D.] take thee C. D. [or A. B.] to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]."

Marriage fees to marriage officer and registration of marriages.

9.—(1) The marriage officer shall be entitled, for every marriage solemnized under this Act by him or in his presence, to have from the parties married the proper fee.

(2) He shall forthwith register in duplicate every such marriage in two marriage register books, which shall be furnished to him from time to time for that purpose by the Registrar-General (through a Secretary of State), according to the form provided by law for the registration of marriages in England, or as near to that form as the difference of the circumstances admits.

(3) The entry in each book of every such marriage shall be signed by the marriage officer, by the person solemnizing the marriage, if other than the marriage officer, by both the parties married, and by two witnesses of the marriage.

(4) All such entries shall be made in regular order from the beginning to the end of each book, and the number of the entry in each duplicate shall be the same.

(5) The marriage officer by whom or in whose presence a marriage is solemnized under this Act may ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching the marriage.

Annual forwarding of copies of register book to Secretary of State.

10.—(1) In January in every year every marriage officer shall make and send to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General, a copy, certified by him to be a true copy, of all the entries of marriages during the preceding year in the register book kept by him, and if there has been no such entry, a certificate of that fact: and every such copy shall be certified, and certificate given, under his hand and official seal.

(2) The marriage officer shall keep the duplicate marriage register books safely until they are filled, and then send one of them to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General.

Marriage officers and their districts.

11.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the following officers shall be marriage officers, that is to say;—

(a) Any officer authorised in that behalf by a Secretary of State by authority in writing under his hand (in this Act referred to as a marriage warrant); and

(b) Any officer who, under the marriage regulations herein-after mentioned is authorised to act as marriage officer without any marriage warrant, and the district of a marriage officer shall be the area within which the duties of his office are exercisable, or any such less area as is assigned by the marriage warrant or any other warrant of a Secretary of State, or is fixed by the marriage regulations.

(2) Any marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorise to be a marriage officer—

(a) a British ambassador residing in a foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, and also any officer prescribed as an officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of such ambassador;

(b) the holder of the office of British consul in any foreign country or place specified in the warrant; and

(c) a governor, high commissioner, resident, consular or other officer, or any person appointed in pursuance of the marriage regulations to act in the place of a high commissioner or resident, and this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications to a marriage by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident, or officer so authorised by the warrant, and in such application shall not be limited to places outside Her Majesty's dominions.

(3) If a marriage warrant refers to the office without designating the name of any particular person holding the office, then, while the warrant is in force, the person for the time being holding or acting in such office shall be a marriage officer.

(4) A Secretary of State may, by warrant under his hand, vary or revoke any marriage warrant previously issued under this Act.

(5) Where a marriage officer has no seal of his office, any reference in this Act to the official seal shall be construed to refer to any seal ordinarily used by him, if authenticated by his signature with his official name and description.

Marriages on board Her Majesty's ships on foreign stations.

12. A marriage under this Act may be solemnized on board one of Her Majesty's ships on a foreign station, and with respect to such marriage—

(a) subject to the marriage regulations a marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorise the commanding officer of the ship to be a marriage officer;

(b) the provisions of this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications.

Avoidance of objections to marriages on account of want of formalities or authority of officer.

13.—(1) After a marriage has been solemnized under this Act it shall not be necessary, in support of the marriage, to give any proof of the residence for the time required by or in pursuance of this Act of either of the parties previous to the marriage, or of the consent of any person whose consent thereto is required by law, nor shall any evidence to prove the contrary be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

(2) Where a marriage purports to have been solemnized and registered under this Act in the official house of a British ambassador or consul, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, it shall not be necessary in support of the marriage, to give any proof of the authority of the marriage officer by or before whom the marriage was solemnized and registered, nor shall any evidence to prove his want of authority, whether by reason of his not being a duly authorised marriage officer or of any prohibitions or restrictions under the marriage regulations or otherwise, be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

Forfeiture of property in case of fraudulent marriage.

14. If a marriage be solemnized under this Act by means of any wilfully false notice, signed, or oath made by either party to the marriage, as to any matter for which a notice, or oath, is by this Act required, the Attorney General may sue for the forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property in England accruing to the offending party by the marriage; and the proceedings thereupon, and the consequences thereof, shall be the same as are provided by law in the like case with regard to marriages solemnized in England according to the rites of the Church of England.

Punishment of false oath or notice.

15. If a person—

(a) knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or signs a false notice, under this Act, for the purpose of procuring a marriage, or

(b) forbids a marriage under this Act by falsely representing himself to be a person whose consent to the marriage is required by law, knowing such representation to be false, such person shall suffer the penalties of perjury, and may be tried in any county in England and dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if the offence had been committed in that county.

Evidence.

16.—(1) Any book, notice, or document directed by this Act to be kept by the marriage officer or in the archives of his office, shall be of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the custody of the officer.

(2) A certificate of a Secretary of State as to any house, office, chapel, or other place being, or being part of, the official house of a British ambassador or consul shall be conclusive.

Application of Registration Acts to this Act.

17. All the provisions and penalties of the Marriage Registration Acts, relating to any registrar, or register of marriages or certified copies thereof, shall extend to every marriage officer, and to the registers of marriages under this Act, and to the certified copies thereof (so far as the same are applicable thereto), as if herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to this Act, and as if every marriage officer were a registrar under the said Acts.

Registration of marriages solemnized under local law.

18.* Subject to the marriage regulations, a British consul, or person authorised to act as British Consul, on being satisfied by personal attendance that a marriage between parties, of whom one at least is a British subject, has been duly solemnized in a foreign country, in accordance with the local law of the country, and on payment of the proper fee, may register the marriage in accordance with the marriage regulations as having been so solemnized, and thereupon this Act shall apply as if the marriage had been registered in pursuance of this Act, except that nothing in this Act shall affect the validity of the marriage so solemnized.

Power to refuse solemnization of marriage where marriage inconsistent with international law.

19. A marriage officer shall not be required to solemnize a marriage, or to allow a marriage to be solemnized in his presence, if in his opinion the solemnization thereof would be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations;

Provided that any person requiring his marriage to be solemnized shall, if the officer refuses to solemnize it or allow it to be solemnized in his presence, have the right of appeal to the Secretary of State given by this Act.

Fees. 54 & 55 Vict., c. 36.

20. The proper fee under this Act shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891; † and the fee so fixed as respects a consul shall be the fee which may be taken by any marriage officer; and the provisions relating to the levying, application, and remission of and accounting for fees under that Act shall apply to the same when taken by any marriage officer who is not a consul.

Power to make marriage regulations.

21.—(1) Her Majesty the Queen in Council may make regulations (in this Act referred to as the marriage regulations) ‡—

(a) Prohibiting or restricting the exercise by marriage officers of their powers under this Act in cases where the exercise of those powers appears to Her Majesty to be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations, or in places where sufficient facilities appear to Her Majesty to exist without the exercise of those powers, for the solemnization of marriages to which a British subject is a party; and

(b) Determining what offices, chapels, or other places, are, for the purposes of marriages under this Act to be deemed to be part of the official house or the office of a marriage officer; and

(c) Modifying in special cases or classes of cases the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, so far as such modification appears to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against clandestine marriages; and

(d) Prescribing the forms to be used under this Act and

(e) Adapting this Act to marriages on board one of Her Majesty's ships; and to marriages by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident or other officer, and authorising the appointment of a person to act under this Act in the place of a high commissioner or resident; and

(f) Determining who is to be the marriage officer for the purpose of a marriage in the official house of a British ambassador, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, whether such officer is described in the regulations or named in pursuance thereof, and authorising such officer to act without any marriage warrant; and

(g) Determining the conditions under which and the mode in which marriages solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country may be registered under this Act; and

(h) Making such provisions as seem necessary or proper for carrying into effect this Act or any marriage regulations; and

(i) Varying or revoking any marriage regulations previously made.

(2) All regulations purporting to be made in pursuance of this section may be made either generally or with reference to any particular case or class of cases, and shall be published under the authority of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, and laid before both Houses of Parliament, and deemed to be within the powers of this Act, and shall while in force have effect as if enacted by this Act.

(3) Any marriage regulations which dispense for any reason, whether residence out of the district or otherwise, with the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, may require as a condition or consequence of the dispensation, the production of such notice certificate, or document, and the taking of such oath, and may authorise the publication or grant of such notice, certificate, or document, and the charge of such fees as may be prescribed by the regulations; and the provisions of this Act, including those enacting punishments with reference to any false notice or oath, shall apply as if the said notice, certificate, or document were a notice, and such oath were an oath, within the meaning of those provisions.

Validity of marriages solemnized within British lines.

22. It is hereby declared that all marriages solemnized within the British lines by any chaplain or officer or other person officiating under the orders of the commanding officer of a British army serving abroad, shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized within the United Kingdom, with a due observance of all forms required by law.

* See Order in Council of June 29, 1895, page 290.
† See table of Fees, pages 274 and 278.
‡ See Order in Council of October 28, 1892, page 288.

Saving.

23. Nothing in this Act shall confirm or impair or in anywise affect the validity in law of any marriage solemnized beyond the seas, otherwise than as herein provided, and this Act shall not extend to the marriage of any of the Royal family.

Definitions.

24. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expression "Registrar General" means the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

The expression "Attorney General" means Her Majesty's Attorney General, or if there is no such Attorney General, or the Attorney General is unable or incompetent to act, Her Majesty's Solicitor General, for England:

The expression "the Marriage Registration Acts" means the Act of the session of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-six, intituled "An Act for registering "births, deaths, and marriages in England" and the enactments amending the same:

The expression "official house of a marriage officer" means, subject to the provisions of any marriage regulations, the office at which the business of such officer is transacted, and the official house of residence of such officer, and, in the case of any officer, who is an officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of an ambassador, means the official house of the ambassador:

The expression "consul" means a consul-general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, or consular agent:

The expression "ambassador" includes a minister and a chargé d'affaires:

The expression "prescribed" means prescribed by marriage regulations under this Act.

Commencement of Act.

25. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January next after the passing thereof.

Repeal and savings.

26.—(1) The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that Schedule mentioned.

Provided that—

(a) any Order in Council in force under any Act so repealed shall continue in force as if made in pursuance of this Act; and

(b) any proceedings taken with reference to a marriage, any register book kept, and any warrant issued in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed, shall have effect as if taken, kept, and issued in pursuance of this Act; and

(c) The fees which can be taken in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be taken in like manner as if fixed in pursuance of the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891, and may be altered accordingly; and

(d) The forms prescribed by or in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be used as if prescribed by an Order in Council under this Act.

(2) Every marriage in fact solemnized and registered by or before a British Consul or other marriage officer in intended pursuance of any Act hereby repealed shall, notwithstanding such repeal or any defect in the authority of the consul or the solemnization of the marriage elsewhere than at the consulate, be as valid as if the said Act had not been repealed, and the marriage had been solemnized at the consulate by or before a duly authorised consul;

Provided that this enactment shall not render valid any marriage declared invalid before the passing of this Act by any competent court, or render valid any marriage either of the parties to which has, before the passing of this Act, lawfully intermarried with any other person.

(2.)—Order in Council Making Regulations for Certain Purposes Specified in "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892."

At the Court at Balmoral, the 28th day of October, 1892.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892"* (in this Order referred to as the Foreign Marriage Act), certain enactments relating to the marriage of British subjects outside the United Kingdom are consolidated, and Her Majesty the Queen in Council is authorised to make regulations for the purposes therein specified:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise, enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Embassy Marriages.

1. The person before and by whom a marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act may be solemnized and registered in an embassy house in a foreign country shall either be the ambassador, or the officer for the time being performing the duties of the ambassador, or be any of the secretaries attached to the embassy from time to time appointed for the purpose in writing by the ambassador, or by the officer performing his duties; and for the purpose of marriages solemnized in such embassy house such ambassador, officer performing his duties, or secretary shall, without any marriage warrant, be a marriage officer.

2. For the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act and these regulations, the house in which a British ambassador resides in the foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, or which is occupied by him in that country for the purposes of his embassy, shall be deemed to be the official house of such ambassador, and is in this Order referred to as the embassy house, and every place within the precincts or curtilage of any such house, and any church or chapel annexed to such house, or for the time being used with the consent of the Government to which the ambassador is accredited as the chapel thereof, shall be deemed to form part of the embassy house.

For the purpose of marriages in an embassy house the expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such part of the embassy house as the Ambassador may from time to time appoint as being sufficiently accessible to the public.

Embassy and Consular Marriages.

3. Where a marriage can be solemnized at a British consulate in a foreign country, the leave of the ambassador shall be obtained before the marriage is solemnized in the embassy house in that country.

4. (1) Where a marriage according to the local law of a foreign country is valid by English law, then before the marriage is solemnized in that country under the Foreign Marriage Act, whether in an embassy house or at a consulate, the marriage officer must be satisfied either—

(a) That both the parties are British subjects: or

(b) If only one of the parties is a British subject, that the other is not a subject or citizen of the country; or

(c) If one of the parties is a British subject and the other a subject or citizen of the country, that sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage in the foreign country in accordance with the law of that country.

(2) If a marriage officer, by reason of anything in this article, refuses to solemnize or allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring such marriage to be solemnized, that person shall have the right of appeal to a Secretary of State given by section five of the Foreign Marriage Act.

5. In the case of any marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act, if it appears to the marriage officer that the woman about to be married is a British subject, and that the man is an alien, he must be satisfied that the marriage will be recognised by the law of the foreign country to which the alien belongs.

6. The following modifications of the requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice which appear to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against the solemnization of clandestine marriages, shall have effect in cases where one only of the parties has dwelt within the district of the marriage officer:—

(1) A marriage may be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act in the official house of a marriage officer in whose district one of the parties has dwelt—

(a) If the marriage officer is satisfied that such notice as is mentioned below in sub-articles three and four of this article, has been given of the intended marriage in the place where the other party has dwelt; or

(b) If a Secretary of State is satisfied that the intended marriage is not clandestine, and that adequate notice has been given, and gives permission for the same to be solemnized.

(2) In either case the oath, affirmation, or declaration under section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act, shall, in addition to the matters specified in sub-sections (a) and (c) of that section, state that one of the parties has for three weeks immediately preceding, had his or her usual place of abode within the district of the marriage officer, and further state the place where the party who has not dwelt within that district has within three months immediately preceding had for three consecutive weeks his or her usual place of abode, and the notice which has been given in that place during those three weeks.

(3) The notice to be given where the marriage is not solemnized with the special permission of a Secretary of State shall, if the party has dwelt in a foreign country, be given, entered, and posted up in the manner and during the period provided by the Foreign Marriage Act, in like manner as if the marriage were to be solemnized by or before a marriage officer in that country, and the marriage officer to whom the notice is given in that country shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a certificate that the notice has been so given and posted up, and that he is unaware of any impediment which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage.

(4) If the party dwells in a place in the United Kingdom, the notice shall be given in the like manner and on payment of the like fee as if that party were about to be married in that place, and in England or Ireland shall be given to the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar, and in Scotland shall be given by proclamation of banns; and the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar shall deal with the notice and give a certificate for marriage in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district; and the session clerk of the parish in which the banns were proclaimed in Scotland shall, in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district, give a certificate of proclamation of such banns.

Consular Marriages.

7. For the purpose of marriages to be solemnized by or before a marriage officer who is also a consul as defined by the Foreign Marriage Act, every place within the curtilage or precincts of the house in which the Consul is for the time being resident, or of the building which is for the time being used for the purpose of his office, shall be part of the official house of such marriage officer, and every place to which the public have ordinary access in such official house shall be deemed to be part of the office of such marriage officer.

Registration of Marriages by Foreign Law.

8.*—(1) A consular officer shall not be required to attend at the solemnization of a marriage solemnized in accordance with the local law unless the marriage is solemnized at the place where he is appointed to reside, nor unless the proper fee has been previously paid to him.

(2) The consular officer shall forthwith, after the solemnization of the marriage, register the marriage in duplicate in books furnished to him by the Registrar-General through a Secretary of State for the purpose, separate from any register books provided for marriages solemnized by him, and shall register the same in accordance with section 9 of the Foreign Marriage Act, save that if the person by whom the marriage has been solemnized declines to sign the same, the consular officer shall enter the name of that person, and the fact that he declines to sign the same.

(3) The consular officer shall transmit copies and the certificate and the book when filled in manner provided by section 10 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

(4) Nothing in this Order shall authorize any officer who is not a consular officer to register a marriage solemnized in accordance with the local law.

(5) The expression "consular officer" includes a consul-general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, consular agent, and any person for the time being authorized to discharge the duties of consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent.

High Commissioners, &c.

9.—(1) A Secretary of State, by a written authority under section 11 of the Foreign Marriage Act, may authorize a person to act in the place of a high commissioner or resident mentioned in that section, outside of Her Majesty's dominions.

(2) If a Secretary of State give such authority, or in pursuance of the said section, authorizes any high commissioner, resident, or other officer outside Her Majesty's dominions, not being an ambassador or a consul, to be a marriage officer, then, for the purpose of marriages solemnized and registered by or before any high commissioner, resident, or officer, or person so authorized, expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

(a) Expressions referring to the district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to the district for which such high commissioner, resident, or officer, or person is authorised to act for the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act.

(b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the building, or part of a building or place specified in the document by which he is authorized to act;

(c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place at which any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such portion of the building part or place so specified as is ordinarily accessible to the public.

Her Majesty's Ships.

10.—(1) Marriages, under the Foreign Marriage Act, on board one of Her Majesty's vessels may be solemnized by or before a commanding officer of such rank and of such vessel as is for the time being authorized for that purpose by or in pursuance of any Admiralty instructions, and for the purpose of any such marriages a commanding officer so authorized shall, without any written warrant, be a marriage officer and, for the purpose of such marriages, expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

(a) Expressions referring to the district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to such parts of the foreign station to which the commanding officer is attached as may be specified in that behalf by Admiralty instructions;

(b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the vessel of the said commanding officer;

(c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any Act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to the part of the ship on which public notices are affixed.

(2) The commanding officer, before he solemnizes a marriage, shall be satisfied that, at the port or place where the marriage is solemnized, sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage on land, either in accordance with the local law of the country or in accordance with the Foreign Marriage Act.

(3.) The requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice shall be modified as follows, namely, not less than three weeks' notice of the intended marriage must have been given in such public manner, or to such relatives or friends of the parties, as satisfies the commanding officer that as much notice of the intended marriage has been given as would be given if the marriage took place in England, and that the marriage is not clandestine.

11. The forms in the Schedule to this Order, or forms to the like effect, shall be used in all cases to which they are applicable.

Definitions, &c.

12. In this Order the expression "Ambassador" includes Minister and Chargé d'Affaires and references to the embassy or embassy house shall be construed accordingly.

Other expressions have the same meaning as in the Foreign Marriage Act.

13. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1893, and from and after that day the Order in Council made on the 24th November, 1891, with respect to foreign marriages, shall be repealed.

14. This Order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council. 1892."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosebery and the Most Honourable the Marquis of Ripon two of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and the Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

HERBERT M. SUFT.

(3.)—ORDER IN COUNCIL (MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED UNDER LOCAL LAW).

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1895.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," Her Majesty the Queen in Council is authorized to make Regulations for the purposes therein specified:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. A British Consul, or person authorized to act as British Consul, shall not, under the provisions of section 18 of "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,"* or Article 8 of "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892,"† register any marriages solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country, unless he is a marriage officer, or is, for the time being, authorized by a Secretary of State to register such marriages; and no Consular Officer shall be required to attend at the solemnization of any marriage so solemnized unless he is by, or in pursuance of, this Order authorized to register such marriage.

2. This order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1895."

And one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR AMENDING AND CONSOLIDATING ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS.

52 Vict., c. 10.—May 31, 1889.

1.—(1.) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time, by commission signed by him, appoint persons being practising solicitors, or other fit and proper persons, to be commissioners for oaths, and may revoke any such appointment.

(2.) A commissioner for oaths may, by virtue of his commission, in England or elsewhere, administer any oath or take any affidavit for the purposes of any court or matter in England, including any of the ecclesiastical courts or jurisdictions, matters ecclesiastical, matters relating to applications for notarial faculties, and matters relating to the registration of any instrument, whether under an Act of Parliament or otherwise, and take any bail or recognizance in or for the purpose of any civil proceeding in the Supreme Court, including all proceedings on the revenue side of the Queen's Bench Division.

(3.) Provided that a commissioner for oaths shall not exercise any of the powers given by this section in any proceeding in which he is solicitor to any of the parties to the proceeding, or clerk to any such solicitor, or in which he is interested.

2. Every person who, being an officer of or performing duties in relation to any court, is for the time being so authorised by a judge of the court, or by or in pursuance of any rules or orders regulating the procedure of the court, and every person directed to take an examination in any cause or matter in the Supreme Court, shall have authority to administer any oath or take any affidavit required for any purpose connected with his duties.

3.—(1.) Any oath or affidavit required for the purpose of any court or matter in England, or for the purpose of the registration of any instrument in any part of the United Kingdom, may be taken or made in any place out of England before any person having authority to administer an oath in that place.

(2.) In the case of a person having such authority otherwise than by the law of a foreign country, judicial and official notice shall be taken of his seal or signature affixed, impressed, or subscribed to or on any such oath or affidavit.

4. The Lord Chancellor may, whenever it appears to him necessary to do so, authorise any person to administer oaths and take affidavits for any purpose relating to prize proceedings in the Supreme Court, whilst that person is on the high seas or out of Her Majesty's dominions, and it shall not be necessary to affix any stamp to the document by which he is so authorised.

5. Every commissioner before whom any oath or affidavit is taken or made under this Act shall state truly in the jurat or attestation at what place and on what date the oath or affidavit is taken or made.

6.—(1.) Every British ambassador, envoy, minister, chargé d'affaires, and secretary of embassy or legation exercising his functions in any foreign country, and every British consul-general, consul, vice-consul, acting consul, pro-consul, and consular agent, [acting consul-general, acting vice-consul, and acting consular agent]* exercising his functions in any foreign place may, in that country or place, administer any oath and take any affidavit, and also do any notarial act which any notary public can do within the United Kingdom; and every oath, affidavit, and notarial act administered, sworn, or done by or before any such person shall be as effectual as if duly administered, sworn, or done by or before any lawful authority in any part of the United Kingdom.

(2.) Any document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereon or thereto the seal and signature of any person authorised by this section to administer an oath in testimony of any oath, affidavit, or act being administered, taken, or done by or before him, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of the seal or signature being the seal or signature of that person, or of the official character of that person.

7. Whoever wilfully and corruptly swears falsely in any oath or affidavit taken or made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of perjury in every case where if he had so sworn in a judicial proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction he would be guilty of perjury.

8. Whoever forges, counterfeits, or fraudulently alters the seal or signature of any person authorised by or under this Act to administer an oath, or tenders in evidence, or otherwise uses, any affidavit having any seal or signature so forged or counterfeited or fraudulently altered, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or fraudulently altered, shall be guilty of felony, and liable on conviction to penal servitude for any term not exceeding seven years and not less than five years, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two years.

9. Any offence under this Act, whether committed within or without Her Majesty's dominions, may be inquired of, dealt with, tried, and punished in any county or place in the United Kingdom in which the person charged with the offence was apprehended or is in custody, and for all purposes incidental to or consequential on the trial or punishment the offence shall be deemed to have been committed in that county or place.

10. Where any offence under this Act is alleged to have been committed with respect to any affidavit, a judge of any court before which the affidavit is produced may order the affidavit to be impounded and kept in such custody and for such time and on such conditions as he thinks fit.

11. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
"Oath" includes affirmation and declaration;
"Affidavit" includes affirmation, statutory or other declaration, acknowledgment, examination, and attestation or protestation of honour;
"Swear" includes affirm, declare, and protest:
"Supreme Court" means the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

12. The enactments specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in that schedule.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—
(a) anything done or suffered under any enactment repealed by this Act; nor
(b) any appointment made under or authority given by or in pursuance of any enactment so repealed; nor
(c) any punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence committed before the commencement of this Act against any enactment so repealed; nor
(d) any legal proceeding for enforcing any such punishment;
and any such legal proceeding may be instituted or continued, and any such punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

13. A commissioner authorised before the commencement of this Act to administer oaths in the Supreme Court shall be deemed to be a commissioner for oaths within the meaning of this Act.

14. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

15. This Act may be cited as the Commissioners for Oaths Act, 1889.

* The words in brackets were inserted by Act 54 and 55 Vic., c. 50.—August 5, 1891.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO PREVENT THE DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION.

52 & 53 Vict., c. 52.—August 26, 1889.

1.—(1.) (a.) Where a person for the purpose of wrongfully obtaining information—
(i.) enters or is in any part of a place belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, being a fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place, in which part he is not entitled to be; or
(ii.) when lawfully or unlawfully in any such place as aforesaid, either obtains any document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge of any thing which he is not entitled to obtain, or takes without lawful authority any sketch or plan; or
(iii.) when outside any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, or camp belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, takes or attempts to take without authority given by or on behalf of Her Majesty, any sketch or plan of that fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, or camp; or
(b.) where a person knowingly having possession of, or control over, any such document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge as has been obtained or taken by means of any act which constitutes an offence against this Act at any time wilfully and without lawful authority communicates or attempts to communicate the same to any person to whom the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time; or
(c.) where a person after having been entrusted in confidence by some officer under Her Majesty the Queen with any document, sketch, plan, model, or information relating to any such place as aforesaid, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, wilfully and in breach of such confidence communicates the same when, in the interest of the State, it ought not to be communicated; he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(2.) Where a person having possession of any document, sketch, plan, model, or information relating to any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place belonging to Her Majesty, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, in whatever manner the same has been obtained or taken, at any time wilfully communicates the same to any person to whom he knows the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to the same punishment as if he committed an offence under the foregoing provisions of this section.

(3.) Where a person commits any act declared by this section to be a misdemeanor, he shall, if he intended to communicate to a foreign State any information, document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge obtained or taken by him, or entrusted to him as aforesaid, or if he communicates the same to any agent of a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the court to penal servitude for life or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years with or without hard labour.

2.—(1.) Where a person, by means of his holding or having held an office under Her Majesty the Queen, has lawfully or unlawfully either obtained possession of or control over any document, sketch, plan, or model, or acquired any information, and at any time corruptly or contrary to his official duty communicates or attempts to communicate that document, sketch, plan, model, or information to any person to whom the same ought not, in the interest of the State, or otherwise in the public interest, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a breach of official trust.

(2.) A person guilty of a breach of official trust shall—
(a.) If the communication was made or attempted to be made to a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the court to penal servitude for life, or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour; and (b.) in any other case be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(3.) This section shall apply to a person holding a contract with any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, or with the holder of any office under Her Majesty the Queen as such holder, where such contract involves an obligation of secrecy, and to any person employed by any person or body of persons holding such a contract, who is under a like obligation of secrecy, as if the person holding the contract and the person so employed were respectively holders of an office under Her Majesty the Queen.

3. Any person who incites or counsels, or attempts to procure, another person to commit an offence under this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to the same punishment as if he had committed the offence.

4. The expenses of the prosecution of a misdemeanor under this Act shall be defrayed in like manner as in the case of a felony.

5. If by any law made before or after the passing of this Act by the legislature of any British possession provisions are made which appear to Her Majesty the Queen to be of the like effect as those contained in this Act, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, suspend the operation within such British possession of this Act, or of any part thereof, so long as such law continues in force there, and no longer, and such order shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act:

Provided that the suspension of this Act, or of any part thereof, in any British possession shall not extend to the holder of an office under Her Majesty the Queen who is not appointed to that office by the Government of that possession.

The expression "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions not within the United Kingdom.

6.—(1.) This Act shall apply to all acts made offences by this Act when committed in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or when committed by British officers or subjects elsewhere.

(2.) An offence under this Act, if alleged to have been committed out of the United Kingdom, may be inquired of, heard, and determined, in any competent British court in the place where the offence was committed, or in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England, or the Central Criminal Court, and the Act of the forty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter eighty-five, shall apply in like manner as if the offence were mentioned in that Act, and the Central Criminal Court as well as the High Court possessed the jurisdiction given by that Act to the Court of King's Bench.

(3.) An offence under this Act shall not be tried by any court of general or quarter sessions, nor by the sheriff court in Scotland nor by any court out of the United Kingdom which has not jurisdiction to try crimes which involve the greatest punishment allowed by law.

(4.) The provisions of the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887, shall not apply to any trial under the provisions of this Act.

7.—(1.) A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General.

(2.) In this section the expression "Attorney-General" means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for England; and as respects Scotland, means the Lord Advocate; and as respects Ireland, means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for Ireland; and if the prosecution is instituted in any court out of the United Kingdom, means the person who in that court is Attorney-General, or exercises the like functions as the Attorney-General in England.

8. (Definitions).

9. This Act shall not exempt any person from any proceeding for an offence which is punishable at common law, or by military or naval law, or under any Act of Parliament other than this Act, so, however, that no person be punished twice for the same offence.

10. This Act may be cited as the Official Secrets Act, 1889.

OUTFITS (Diplomatic). See pages 325 and 326.

THE SCALE OF CONSULAR OUTFITS IS AS FOLLOWS:—

On first appointment	One-third of salary of post.
On transfer with promotion in rank or salary	Two-ninths of salary of new post.
On transfer without promotion	One-sixth of salary of new post.
On appointment to a place at which the officer already resides	One-ninth of salary of post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Diplomatic). See Regulations, section XI., page 266.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).

Rules respecting Passage Allowances granted to Paid Members of His Majesty's Consular Service in countries other than China, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions of 1893.

Travelling allowances are paid to Salaried Consular officers not engaged in trade.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to a travelling allowance. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

(a.) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and one-third of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant. In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance of 1*l.* a-day, for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, and 6*s.* 8*d.* a-day for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed wine allowance of 3*s.* 6*d.* a-day, or of 4*s.* 2*d.* if accompanied by his wife.

(b.) On returning home on leave of absence after a continuous residence of five years he is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, and one-third of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph; and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence money.

(c.) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate.

The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.

(d.) If conveyed in a British man-of-war he must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently.

A Consul-General or Consul is entertained at the Captain's table at the rate of 1*l.* 1*s.* a-day for the first fourteen days, and of 15*s.* subsequently. A Vice-Consul is entertained at the ward-room mess at the rate of 12*s.* for the first fourteen days, and of 9*s.* subsequently.

(e.) Charges for luggage must not include transport of furniture, wine, or other heavy effects.

(f.) A detailed statement of expenses on account of journeys, accompanied by the necessary vouchers, stating separately the amounts paid on the officer's own account and on that of his family, must be forwarded to the Secretary of State in a numbered despatch of the Consular series, on receipt of which the amount, if found correct, will be paid to his agent in England. If he has no agent he will receive authority to charge it in his account current.

Vice-Consuls forward their claims through their superintending Consuls.

(g.) Government is not responsible for loss or damage of baggage or effects of Consular officers, even while travelling on duty.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be in the form printed on the back of these Regulations, and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Passport Department, Foreign Office, London, S.W."

2. The charge for a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is 2*s*. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office between the hours of 11 and 4 on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received, except on Sundays and Public Holidays, when the Passport Office is closed. If the applicant does not reside in London, the passport may be sent by post, and a postal order for 2*s*. should in that case accompany the application. POSTAGE STAMPS WILL NOT BE RECEIVED IN PAYMENT.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only: (1) to natural-born British subjects, viz., persons born within His Majesty's Dominions, and to persons born abroad who derive British nationality from a father or paternal grandfather born within His Majesty's Dominions, and who, under the provisions of the Acts 4 George II, cap. 21, and 13 George III. cap. 21, are to be adjudged and taken to be natural-born British subjects; (2) to the wives and widows of such persons; and (3) to persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies, or in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted to such persons as are known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the production of a Certificate of Identity and Recommendation (see Form at back) signed by any Banking Firm established in the United Kingdom, or by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. The applicant's Certificate of Birth may also be required, especially when his name is of foreign origin, in addition to the Certificate of Identity and Recommendation.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, his Certificate of Naturalization must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the Certificate of Identity and Recommendation. Naturalized British subjects, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their Passports at the Foreign Office; if resident in the country, the Passport will be sent, and the Certificate of Naturalization returned to the person who may have granted the Certificate of Identity and Recommendation, in order that he may cause the applicant to sign the Passport in his presence.

Naturalized British subjects will be described as such in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Foreign Office Passports are not limited in point of time, and are available for any number of journeys abroad. They may be renewed at the Foreign Office on personal application, or, if the applicant does not reside in London, on the receipt of a letter signed by him, returning the Passport previously issued to him, and inclosing a Postal Order for 2*s*.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an outport, on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

8. THE BEARER OF EVERY PASSPORT GRANTED BY THE FOREIGN OFFICE MUST SIGN HIS PASSPORT AS SOON AS HE RECEIVES IT: WITHOUT SUCH SIGNATURE EITHER THE visa MAY BE REFUSED, OR THE VALIDITY OF THE PASSPORT QUESTIONED ABROAD.

9. Travellers who intend to visit the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, the Kingdom of Roumania, Persia, Venezuela, Hayti, or Eritrea, in the course of their travels, must not leave the United Kingdom without having had their Passports visés either at the Russian Consulate-General, 17, Great Winchester Street, E.C.; the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 29, Mincing Lane, E.C.; the Roumanian Consulate-General, 68, Basinghall Street, E.C., the Persian Consulate-General, 120, Victoria Street, S.W.; the Venezuelan Consulate, Moorgate Station Chambers, Moorfields, E.C.; the Haytian Consulate, 32, Fenchurch Street, E.C., or the Italian Consulate-General, for Eritrea, respectively, or at one of the other Consulates of Russia, Turkey, Roumania, Persia, Venezuela, Hayti, or Italy in the United Kingdom. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country, except as an additional precaution, which is recommended in the case of Passports of old date.

10. Although travellers are now permitted to enter most Foreign Countries without Passports, and the rules respecting Passports have been generally relaxed, nevertheless, British subjects travelling abroad are recommended to furnish themselves with Passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification, e.g. in claiming letters at a poste restante. British subjects intending to reside in Germany or in Switzerland should provide themselves with Passports.

Foreign Office, December 31, 1902.

N.B.—A statement of the requirements of Foreign Countries with regard to Passports may be obtained upon application to "The Passport Department, Foreign Office, London, S.W."

CERTIFICATE OF IDENTITY AND RECOMMENDATION.

(a) Insert Name of Place and Date.

(b) Name and Qualification of the Recommender, viz.:—
Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Barrister-at-Law, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary (as the case may be), and give professional or business address.

(COMMUTATION.)

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871 (34 and 35 Vict., c. 36).*

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office† in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3*l.* 3*s.* within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

Act of Parliament to provide for the Payment of DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

4. (Repeal of previous Acts.)

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5. All salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. The Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

(1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
(2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
(3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
(4.)* 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for Pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

(1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:

(2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:

(3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class,† and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class,† or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalided Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months, salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

† For Classification of Missions, see pages 325 and 326.

(Diplomatic.)

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

Determination of Class of Missions.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission, he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versâ.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

Act of Parliament to remove doubts as to the Qualification of PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

1. Pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS.

(1.) Act of Parliament to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service ("The Superannuation Act, 1834").

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Superannuation Allowance to Persons who entered the Service before 5th August, 1829.

IX. From and after the passing of this Act the superannuation allowances to be granted to such officers and clerks who shall have entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829 (except only as hereinafter is authorized), shall not exceed the following proportions with reference to the amount of their salaries and the periods of their services respectively; videlicet:—

To an officer, clerk, or person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 15 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount 4-12ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 15 years	and	upwards,	and under	20	years,	not exceeding	5-12ths	of such salary	and emoluments:
,, 20	,,	,,	25	,,	,,	6-12ths	,,	,,
,, 25	,,	,,	30	,,	,,	7-12ths	,,	,,
,, 30	,,	,,	35	,,	,,	8-12ths	,,	,,
,, 35	,,	,,	40	,,	,,	9-12ths	,,	,,
,, 40	,,	,,	45	,,	,,	10-12ths	,,	,,
,, 45	,,	,,	50	,,	,,	11-12ths	,,	,,

And for 50 years or upwards, any annual allowance not exceeding the net amount of the salary and emoluments of his office.

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

XII. Provided always, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act, shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

No Compensation to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

XVIII. No compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Treasury.

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

XX. Provided always, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

XXI. Provided always, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

XXII. Between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department, or of any salary, emolument, allowance, compensation, or superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the name of every person receiving such allowance or compensation who may have died in the course of the year, together with the amount of the annual allowance payable to such person.

* The clauses of the Act of 1834 which are not repealed, and the Act of 1859, are declared by the Act of 19th April, 1859, § xviii. (page 310) to be construed as one Act.

Civil Allowances, &c., to be laid before Parliament.

XXIII. Provided always, That accounts of all compensations for offices abolished, and of all allowances in the nature of superannuation or retired allowances to all other persons in respect of their having held any public office or employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

Half-pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

XXV. Provided always, That all half-pay and allowances in lieu of half-pay in the several departments of the army, ordnance, navy, and marines, and all military and naval allowances or pensions granted or which shall be granted in any of such departments under the authority of any Order in Council, shall be annually laid before the Commons House of Parliament, in separate estimates, at the same time with the ordinary estimates of those respective departments, and shall be kept distinct from all pensions, compensations, superannuation and retired allowances in any of the civil offices of those departments respectively.

Compensations not provided for to be charged on Funds of Departments.

XXVI. The compensations, superannuations, and allowances authorized as well by this as any former Act or Acts shall, when not specially provided for by Parliament, be charged upon and paid and payable by the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served.

Average of Emoluments to be made by Heads of Departments.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the person or persons at the head of any department in which any fees or other sources of profit may form part of the emoluments of any office in such department, to fix, with the approbation of the Treasury, or for the Admiralty if the office shall be in that department, an average sum upon which the compensation or superannuation allowance shall be granted, which sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average amount of such emoluments for the 3 last preceding years.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

XXX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

(2.) Act of Parliament to amend the Laws concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service.

22 Vict., c. 26.—19 April, 1859.

Ordinary Rate of Superannuation Allowance.

I. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows; (that is to say,)

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11 60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

*Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. †It shall be lawful for the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins: and by the same or any other order or warrant to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the

* See also Section 3 of Act of 1884, 47 and 48 Vict., cap. 57. Page 311.

† The Treasury Minutes granting additional years are suspended in the case of any officers appointed after the 30th of November, 1888, to a post to which, under such Minute, additional years have hitherto been attached, and if Parliament takes away the power to grant additional years such officer will not receive on retirement the benefit of additional years. Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.*

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

* The following appointments connected with the Foreign Office have been placed under the above clause by Treasury Minutes:—

Appointment.	Date of Treasury Minute.	No. of years to be added in computing amount of Pension.

Legal Assistant to the Foreign Office	Feb. 22, 1887	7

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

XIII. Orders, &c., within what time to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. Section 6 of 57 George III, c. 65, respecting pensions to officers having had seats in Parliament.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

XV. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as of the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners:* nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of moneys voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

XVIII. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,† as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

XIX. It shall be sufficient, in citing this Act, to use the expression "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

(3.) Act of Parliament to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.‡

39 and 40 Vic., c. 53.—11th August, 1876.

Unhealthy Places.

1. The Treasury may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration in the unhealthy place affected thereby, shall be the same as if it had not been made.

2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, two years' service in an unhealthy place shall be reckoned as service for three years, and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or less period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion.

Provided that nothing in this section—

(1.) Shall alter so much of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1859, as requires a service of ten years before an annual superannuation allowance can be granted; or

(2.) Shall, without the consent of the Treasury, apply to a person who was residing in an unhealthy place when he entered the permanent civil service of the State.

Supplemental.

3. Every order under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

4. This Act shall apply to persons who have retired from the public service since the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

5. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1876.

(4.) Act of Parliament to extend certain Powers given by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873.

47 and 48 Vict., c. 57.—14th August, 1884.

(Relief of persons for want of a Civil Service Certificate, &c.)

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1859, it is enacted that for the purposes of that Act no person thereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the Permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas it appears that in several public departments of the State persons have been appointed since the passing of the said Act to established situations in the Civil Service not held directly from the Crown, but that through inadvertence on the part of the heads of such departments, and without any default on the part of the persons so appointed, no steps were taken before their appointment to procure for them certificates from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas with a view of relieving such person from loss of the superannuation allowance or gratuities which they were led to expect when they entered the Civil Service, provision was made by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873, enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on applications by the heads of such departments, by order or warrant, to place such persons in the same position as regards their claim to a superannuation allowance or gratuity as they would have been in if they had been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas a further provision to the like effect was made by the Superannuation (Post Office and War Office) Act, 1876, and the Superannuation Act, 1881:

And whereas the orders or warrants under the said Acts were required to be made before the terms therein mentioned which have now passed:

And whereas notwithstanding that most of the said persons have been relieved by orders or warrants made under the said Acts, some of them still remain for whom, owing to the failure of the heads of departments to make application within the time limited by the said Acts, or owing to other causes beyond their own control, relief has not been provided:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1884.

Power to Treasury to make order relieving person for want of certificate under 22 Vict., c. 26.

2. (1.) The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, at any time on application being made to them by the head of any public department of the State, declare by order or warrant that a person who has been appointed after the date of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and before the passing of this Act, to a situation in such department entitling persons appointed thereto with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners to superannuation allowance was appointed thereto without such a certificate through inadvertence on the part of the head of such department, and without any default on the part of the person so appointed, and every person with respect to whom such order or warrant is issued shall be in the same position as regards his claim to allowances under the Superannuation Act, 1859, as he would have been in if he had been appointed with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners.

(2.) Every order or warrant made in pursuance of this Act shall be laid before Parliament in manner provided by the thirteenth section of the said Superannuation Act, 1859.

*Provision for addition of years to service in certain cases.

3. Where the regulations respecting an office which entitles or would, if he had continued to hold it, have entitled the holder to receive an allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859, provide that a person appointed to such office must have held a professional or other peculiar qualification for the number of years specified in the regulations, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859 to a person who holds or has at any time held such office, add the number of years so specified to the number of years that such person has actually served, provided that the minute adding that number of years shall be laid before Parliament.

(5.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes.

50 and 51 Vic., c. 67.—16th September, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

(a.) In the actual discharge of his duty; and

(b.) Without his own default; and

(c.) By some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.†

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act, 1859, without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant, and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

(a.) The employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and

(b.) The remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and

(c.) He has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

6.‡—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has commuted the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

7.*—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquisition or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.) Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance, is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

8.* On the death of a person to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government: and the expression "prescribed public department" means as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate "the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, "and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their "having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

Treasury Warrant regulating the Grant of Gratuities and Allowances under Section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887.†—September, 1887.

In conformity with the provisions of the 1st section of the Superannuation Act, 1887, we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby direct that any award of a gratuity or annual allowance made under the said section shall be subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

The award shall be calculated upon one or other of the following scales, which shall respectively apply to:—

I. Established officers of prisons or criminal lunatic asylums injured by the violence of a prisoner or lunatic; or established officers of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.

II. All civil servants not falling under the above description, and also all hired persons employed in a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.

III. All other hired persons employed in a public department.

SCALES I. and II.

To the retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service, shall be added an allowance not exceeding the under-mentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz.:—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

	Scale I.	Scale II.
Slightly impaired	Six sixtieths	Five sixtieths
Impaired	Twelve sixtieths ...	Ten sixtieths
Materially impaired	Eighteen sixtieths ...	Fifteen sixtieths
Totally destroyed	Twenty-four sixtieths	Twenty sixtieths

Provided that no award on Scale I. shall, together with any retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service exceed the amount of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less; and that no award on Scale II., shall, together with any retired allowance for which he would be qualified by length of service, exceed fifty sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less.

SCALE III.

(a.) A gratuity not exceeding the undermentioned portion of the salary and emoluments of the injured man at the date of the injury, or 100*l.*, whichever is less, viz.:—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

Slightly impaired ... One third. Impaired ... Two thirds. Materially impaired ... The whole.

* By Treasury Minute of July 18, 1888, the Foreign Office was included in the List of Departments prescribed by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.

(b.) When his capacity to contribute to his support is totally destroyed, he shall receive an annual allowance exceeding by fifteen sixtieths of his salary and emoluments the rate of retired allowance for which he would have been qualified by length of service if he had been a civil servant, provided that the total award shall not exceed forty-five sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less.

An award under any of the above scales shall be so much less than the usual amount as the Treasury shall think reasonable, in case—

(a.) The usual amount exceeds by not less than 100*l.* a year the rate of retired allowance for which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him; or

(b.) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires; or

(c.) The injured man is 55 years of age or upwards at the date of the injury; or

(d.) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF MEN KILLED WHILE IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

An award shall be on one or other of the following scales, according as the deceased had been—

I. An established officer of a prison or of a criminal lunatic asylum killed by a prisoner or lunatic; or an established officer of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, of which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.

II. A civil servant not falling under the above description or a hired person employed in a manufacturing department as above.

III. Any other hired person employed in a public department.

SCALE I.

Pension to widow, while unmarried and of good character, not exceeding ten sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 15*l.* a year, whichever is greater; and

Pension to each child until he or she attains the age of 15, not exceeding one sixth of the rate which might be granted to the widow, but the aggregate of the children's pensions not to exceed the amount which might be granted to the widow.

SCALE II.

Pension to widow not to exceed ten sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10*l.* a year, whichever is greater; and

SCALE III.

Pension to the widow not exceeding eight sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10*l.*, whichever is greater.

Gratuity to children not exceeding 1*l.*, multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the date of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 8*l.*, or more than 40*l.*

In the case of motherless children the award under any scale may be of twice the usual rate.

If the service of the deceased at the date of the injury was less than five years the award under any scale shall be:

To the widow a gratuity not exceeding one half of the salary and emoluments of the deceased.

To each child a gratuity not exceeding one twelfth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased; but the total gratuity to widow and children shall not exceed one year's salary and emoluments of the deceased.

MOTHERS OF MEN KILLED IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

If the deceased does not leave a widow, and if his mother was wholly dependent upon him for support, the award which might have been made to a widow may be made to the mother.

HERBERT EUSTACE MAXWELL.
W. H. WALROND.

Treasury Chambers, September, 1887.

(6.) Act of Parliament to amend the Acts relating to Superannuation Allowances and Gratuities to Persons in the Public Service so far as respects the computation of successive Service in different Offices where not all subject to the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887.

55 and 56 Vict., c. 40.—27th June, 1892.

Reckoning of Service in one or more public offices.

1.*—(1) The Treasury may within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules regulating the superannuation allowance or gratuity which may be granted to persons who have served continuously and successively in two or more public offices as defined by this Act, but are not entitled to reckon for such grant service in all those offices.

(2) The said rules shall provide for reckoning service according to the rules under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and subject to such reckoning of service, for granting the same superannuation allowance or gratuity to any person as might have been granted to him if his whole service had been in the public office from which he ultimately retires.

(3) The Treasury may determine in each case the funds or accounts out of which the superannuation allowance or gratuity is to be paid, and where it is to be paid out of more than one fund or account, may apportion the amounts to be paid out of each fund or account: Provided that in cases affecting the revenue of India the Secretary of State in Council of India shall determine the amount to be paid therefrom.

Rules to be laid before Parliament.

3. A copy of any rules made under this Act shall forthwith be laid before Parliament, and the rules shall not come into operation until three months after such copy is so laid, nor if within those three months either House passes a resolution objecting to them, but if such resolution is passed the Treasury may frame new rules, and this section shall apply as if the passing of the said resolution were substituted for the passing of this Act, and so on as often as occasion may require.

Definitions.

4. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression "public office" means any office or employment (other than any office or employment in Her Majesty's naval or land forces) service in which qualifies for the grant of a superannuation allowance or gratuity, and the remuneration of which is paid out of—

(a) the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; or

(b) moneys provided by Parliament, or dealt with as appropriations in aid; or

(c) the revenue of India; or

(d) the revenue of the Isle of Man; or

(e) any fund which, from its being administered by a public department, the Treasury may determine to be a public fund; and includes the office of any existing prison officer within the meaning of the Prisons Act, 1877, the General Prisons (Ireland) Act, 1877, and the Prisons (Scotland) Act, 1877:

The expression "superannuation allowance" includes any pension or superannuation or other retiring allowance.

Commencement of Act.

5. This Act shall take effect as from the first day of January, 1891.

Short title and Construction.

6. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1892.

This Act shall be read as one with the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892.

PENSIONS TO CHAPLAINS.

Under the Act 22 Vict., c. 26 (Page 308) Pensions are granted to Chaplains attached to British Legations and Consulates abroad, calculated on the amount of the annual salary or contribution made by His Majesty's Government in each case. The contributions made by British residents towards the support of the Chaplain are not reckoned in the calculation.

* Rules were framed by the Treasury under Section 1, dated July 20, 1892 (Circular of April 20, 1893).

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1903.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1903.)

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in Her Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General and Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals and Rear-Admirals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels; and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing; before all other Captains, R.N.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors; and Lieutenants, R.N., of eight years' standing.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army; and Lieutenants, R.N., of less than eight years' standing.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their Colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1903.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

PRO-CONSULS.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

(Embassies and Legations.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE OCCUPATION AND MAINTENANCE OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HER MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, MAY 8, 1898.

(In force, January 1, 1903.)

The following Rules and Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furniture, &c., held by Her Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of the Diplomatic Service, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

GENERAL.

Definition of Word "Mission."

1. For the purpose of these Rules the word "Mission" will be used indiscriminately, whatever may be the class of the Mission, and the Chief of the Mission will be styled Minister, whether his official title be that of Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires.

Responsibility of Chief of a Mission.

2. The Chief of a Mission for the time being is, unless otherwise specially arranged, to be deemed the officer in charge thereof. He will be responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed in these Rules, and, on entering into occupation, he will be required to sign an agreement in the form shown in Appendix (A), page 299.

Inventories of Furniture, &c., to be kept.

3. At each Mission are to be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to Her Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and rules relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Office of Works.

Survey of Buildings and Furniture to be made from time to time.—Damages, &c., to be made good.

4. From time to time, and, if possible, on every change of occupation, the First Commissioner of Works will cause a survey of the buildings and furniture to be made by a duly appointed officer of his Department. Such officer will take note of any deficiency, misuse, or waste of Government furniture or other property, in order that the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper usage, may be recovered from the Minister. (See also Rule 25, page 319.)

Survey on Change of Occupation.

5. The survey on change of occupation will, whenever possible, be made as soon as the outgoing Minister has removed his private property from the Mission. Until the survey has been made, the outgoing Minister must retain in charge of the house some servant or other person, responsible to him, who may represent him when the survey is made. The incoming Minister should also be either present or represented at the survey, and he or his representative should sign the inventories and take charge of the house as soon as the survey is completed. Ministers should communicate directly with the Office of Works as to the details of these arrangements.

Decision of Office of Works on all matters relating to Maintenance, &c., of Government Property. Appeal to Foreign Secretary. Treasury Decision, if appealed to, to be final.

6. The First Commissioner of Works shall, after consultation with the Minister when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and due preservation of the Government property before described, and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from the Vote administered by the First Commissioner. If, however, the Minister should be dissatisfied with the decision of the First Commissioner, it shall be open for him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur with the decision of the First Commissioner, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the First Commissioner, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Present permanent Official Residences deemed complete.—Minister held Responsible for any Alterations or Additions without previous sanction.

7. The present permanent official residences shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects for the reception of the Ministers appointed to occupy them, and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings or furniture will be paid for by the Office of Works unless such alteration or addition shall have been previously approved of by the First Commissioner. Should any alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Minister making them will be responsible, not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for any expense which may be thought necessary by the First Commissioner for restoring buildings, fittings, or furniture to their original state.

Structural Repairs when required by urgent necessity.

8. In cases where structural repairs have been ordered by the Minister without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner the onus of proving urgent necessity rests upon the Minister (see also Rule 16, page 318).

Requisitions for Erection, &c., of Buildings, or for Purchasing of Property, &c.

9. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, or for works connected therewith, for purchases of property, and for purchases of furniture, are to be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Office of Works. Proposals involving large expenditure should be sent so as to reach that Department in London before the middle of October, so that, if approved by the First Commissioner, there may be time to submit them to the Treasury for consideration with the annual estimate for the following year.

Precautions to be taken against Fire.

10. Ministers are to use all reasonable precautions against fire, and when fire-engines or other appliances are supplied, they are to satisfy themselves that the same are examined from time to time, and, if necessary, worked, in order to ascertain that they are in an efficient state.

Responsibility of the Chargé d'Affaires in event of death of a Minister.

11. In the event of the death of a Minister or other vacancy in the post, the Chargé d'Affaires will be responsible to Her Majesty's Government for the proper custody of Government property. He should at once report to the First Commissioner the arrangements which he makes for this purpose, and should apply for his sanction to any expenditure that it may be necessary to incur.

Care of Residences in case of there being two.

12. At Missions where two official residences exist, as at Constantinople, Tehran, and Peking, the care of the residence that may be unoccupied, as well as of the Government furniture that may be therein, will devolve upon the Minister, but the caretaker's wages will be paid by the Office of Works.

Holding of Auctions upon Government Premises Forbidden.

13. The holding of auctions of private effects in or upon Government premises is strictly forbidden.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

Maintenance of Fabric of Buildings, &c.

14. The fabric of all Government buildings, with the permanent fixtures thereto attached, the boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, will be kept in an efficient state of repair by the Office of Works.

External Painting and Internal Papering, &c.

15. Periodical painting and colouring externally, and papering, painting, colouring, &c., internally, will be done by the Office of Works. External painting will, as a rule, not be executed more frequently than once in every three or four years; nor internal painting more frequently than once in every seven years. Painting at shorter intervals than these will not be paid for by the Office of Works unless specially authorised beforehand by the First Commissioner, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by Storm, Fire, &c.

16. In case of damage by storm, fire, or other casualty, the expense of restoration will be borne by the Office of Works, provided the Minister can show to the satisfaction of the First Commissioner of Works that the damage was in no way due to neglect of proper precautions. In such cases the Minister may order urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required will be large, he is, if possible, to obtain an estimate of the cost of repairing the damage, and to submit it to the First Commissioner before ordering any but the most indispensable repairs.

Renewal of Fittings and Fixtures, Petty Additions and Alterations and Ordinary Cleaning.

17. The cost of renewing fittings and fixtures, worn out by fair wear and tear, will be borne by the Office of Works, as well as the cost of petty household repairs.* Petty additions and alterations, however, effected by the Minister without authority will, under Rule 7, not be paid for by the Office of Works. The Minister must himself defray the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys, the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, and of tanks and cisterns.

Warming, Lighting, and Supply of Water.—Supply of Fuel, Electric Current, Gas and Water.

18. As regards warming, lighting, and the supply of water, the Office of Works, under the foregoing Rule, will provide, maintain, and repair the necessary apparatus and fittings; but, except at Missions where such payments are specially provided for, the Minister will be required to bear all charges for the actual supply of fuel, electric current, gas, and water

Maintenance of Gardens and Pleasure Grounds.

19. The Minister will defray all expenses necessary for the care and maintenance in good order of gardens and pleasure grounds, the Missions at Peking, Tôkiô, Bangkok, and Zanzibar excepted.† At these places the grounds generally will be maintained at the cost of the Office of Works, but no portion of the cost of maintaining private inclosures, kitchen gardens, or tennis lawns will be defrayed out of public funds.

Disinfection of Premises.

20. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of contagious or infectious disease in the household of a Minister, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Minister will be held responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done.

FURNITURE.

In Embassy and Legation Houses.

21. In Embassy or Legation houses, the property of Her Majesty's Government, the reception-rooms, together with the staircase and corridor leading thereto, the principal entrance and hall will be provided at the public expense with the necessary articles of furniture. The study and the Chancery or offices will also be suitably furnished at the public expense. Muslin curtains, rugs other than hearthrugs, fire-screens, clocks, chimney ornaments, table lamps and candlesticks, and other decorative articles will not be supplied. Where articles of the above description have been supplied in the past, they will be included in inventories and left for use by Ministers, but when worn out they will not be replaced. Furniture for all other portions of the house must be provided and kept in repair by the Minister himself.

In Apartments.

The apartments in the several houses which will be furnished at the public expense are given in detail in Appendix B, page 319.

Movable Articles to be Stamped.

22. All movable articles belonging to Her Majesty's Government are to be stamped or otherwise marked with the Royal arms or the Royal cypher and broad arrow, thus V. ✠ R.

Renewal and Repair.—Periodical Cleaning.

23. The Office of Works, subject to the provisions contained in the two following rules, will bear the cost of renewing and repairing the Government furniture in the State Rooms and Chanceries detailed in Appendix B, but the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the beating of carpets, the cleaning or washing of curtains, holland covers &c. must be borne by the Minister.

Old Furniture Replaced by New.

24. The sanction of the First Commissioner of Works must be obtained before old furniture is replaced by new, and such sanction will only be granted when a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally purchased. Old articles, carpets, curtains, &c., must be returned to the Office of Works, or will be sold locally as directed by the First Commissioner.

* At Cairo, for the present, the annual grant made to the Minister by the Office of Works in aid of such charges will be continued.

† For the present, a moiety of the cost of the Agency Garden at Cairo is contributed by the Office of Works as a special case. The existing special arrangements at Constantinople and Tehran will be maintained, and vouched expenditure up to a maximum of £405 per annum at Constantinople, and of £125 per annum at Tehran-Gulahek, will continue as a charge on the Diplomatic and Consular Vote.

Ministers Responsible for Preservation of Furniture and for Repairs of Defects caused by Improper Use.—Damage by Animals, Birds, &c., and by Pictures being on Walls.

25. Ministers will be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official furniture, and for the immediate repair, at their personal cost, of defects arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use. It is to be distinctly understood that the Office of Works will refuse to defray the cost of renewing or repairing any article of furniture, carpets, curtains, &c., which may be destroyed or damaged by the keeping of animals, birds, &c., and that all such damage must be completely made good at the sole cost of the Minister. It is also to be understood that pictures are not to be hung, nor brackets, &c., fixed on walls covered with silk or similar material, and that where this rule has been disregarded, any damage caused thereby must be made good by the Minister at his own cost.

Furniture, &c., not to be Removed without Written Sanction.

26. Furniture or other Government property is not, without the written sanction of the Office of Works, to be removed from the buildings or apartments for which it has been provided; and this prohibition extends equally to the removal of furniture from one Mission house to another, as from Pera to Therapia, Tehran to Gulhek, or Peking to the Hill Station.

State Room Furniture provided by the Minister.

27. In any case where a Minister may himself provide furniture for rooms which he is entitled to have furnished at the public expense, the Office of Works will pay, for the use and wear and tear of the furniture provided by the Minister, an annual allowance calculated at the rate of 7½ per cent. on the sum that the Department estimates it would cost it to furnish the said rooms to the same extent. (See Appendix C, page 320.)

ACCOUNTS.

Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.—Currency and Rate of Exchange.

28. As soon as possible after the 30th June, 30th September, 31st December, and 31st March in each year the Minister should render to the Office of Works an account current (in a form which will be provided by that Department) of receipts and payments in the quarter, with supporting vouchers. Care should be taken to include in such account all transactions dealing with receipts and payments which have taken place within the quarter. The amounts should be given in the account in currency, a note of the sterling amount of any Bill of Exchange, and of the rate at which it was negotiated, being inserted in the "Schedule of Sums Received," under the heading "Detail" in the form in question. Should no cash transaction have taken place, an account should be rendered in which the fact should be stated.

Vouchers.

29. Where vouchers are made out in a language other than English or French, a brief translation or précis should accompany the voucher.

Audit.—Amended Accounts.—Items disallowed.

30. The Minister will be informed immediately after the examination of an account either that its correctness is admitted, subject to any question by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, or that it has been amended. If amended, particulars of the alterations will be given, and the adjustment required by the Office of Works must be forthwith accepted by the Minister and made in the next account rendered by him. Should the Minister see cause to object to any alterations made by the Office of Works he should represent his views fully to the First Commissioner, who will carefully consider them. But pending his decision the Minister must not take credit in his current accounts for any items of expenditure disallowed by the Office of Works.

Drawing Bills.

31. The Minister is to defray charges incurred in accordance with these Regulations, and for this purpose may provide himself with funds by drawing a Bill on Her Majesty's Paymaster-General at three days' sight. He should notify the fact to the Office of Works by post on the day on which the Bill is drawn, and should, with his letter, forward a certificate by a banker or merchant of the rate of exchange.

Separate Accounts.

32. Ministers are requested to arrange that tradesmen should not include in bills payable by the Office of Works any items of expenditure payable by the Minister. Separate accounts should be rendered for works ordered by, or on behalf of, the Office of Works, and for works ordered on behalf of the Minister.

Tradesmen's Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.

33. It is very desirable that tradesmen's accounts for work done on behalf of the Office of Works should be rendered regularly at the conclusion of each quarter, and Ministers should use their influence of insure such regularity.

Foreign Office, May 8, 1898.

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE CARE OF THE PROPERTY OF HER MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT AT THE TREATY PORTS IN CHINA AND JAPAN, DECEMBER 1, 1874.

(In force, January 1, 1903.)

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings the charge of all the lands, buildings, furniture, and other property belonging to Her Majesty's Government at the several Treaty ports in China and Japan, it is desirable that the following Rules and Regulations should be observed in the charge, use, and occupation of the said properties.

Her Majesty's Ministers, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, Judges, Assistant Judges, and other Heads of Departments, who respectively have the use and occupation of buildings, furniture, or other property belonging to Her Majesty, are to be deemed officers in charge thereof, and to be responsible respectively for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Rules:—

Registers of Properties.

1. All freehold, leasehold, and other Government properties at or in the respective Legations are to be registered in the Office of Works at Shanghae.

Inventories of Furniture, &c.

2. At each Legation, Consulate, Vice-Consulate, and at the offices of the Chief Judge and the Assistant Judge, is to be kept a Register of buildings, lands, furniture, &c., containing a complete description of the lands and buildings, inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to the Government, and copies of all Circulars relative to the management of the same.

Liability of an Officer pending Appointment of a Successor.

3. On the removal of an officer in charge from a station, his successor is to examine, sign, and date the Register, and to become responsible for its correctness, and for the safe custody of the property until he shall be relieved of his duties.

Periodical Examination of Registers by Assistant Surveyor of Works.

4. The Registers at the several Treaty ports are to be periodically examined and checked by the Assistant Surveyor of Works and the officers in charge, who are directed to afford the Assistant Surveyor every facility in making periodical examinations of the Government property and in verifying the Registers.

Boundaries of Properties.

5. Where any doubts exist as to the actual extent of the Government lands at any of the ports, the officers in charge are to have the boundaries clearly defined, and to take care that they are not interfered with.

Interference with Properties.

6. Officers in charge are also to take means (or in case they are unable to do so, to apply to Her Majesty's Minister and to the Assistant Surveyor for aid) to prevent the public bodies, municipalities, or private individuals from carrying out works, such as drains, roads, buildings, warehouses, bunds, piers, &c., which may directly injure or encroach upon any of the rights appertaining to the property of Her Majesty's Government.

Every Building to have a fixed name.

7. Every building is to be known by a fixed name, which is not to be changed without the knowledge of the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghae, who is to report the change to the First Commissioner of Works.

Custody of Properties.

8. The officer in charge at each station is to be held responsible for the safe custody and the proper use of the grounds and buildings belonging to the station.

Unoccupied Buildings.

9. When any building is unoccupied, the officer in charge at the station is to see that it is kept fit to receive a new occupant.

Change of Officers.

10. On the removal of an officer from any station the officer left in charge is to take over and deliver up the Government property to the incoming officer, each officer noting in the Register the actual condition of the buildings, offices, furniture, and other property when the respective transfers are made.

Non-occupation of Buildings, &c., by Non-authorised Persons.

11. No buildings or premises are to be occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to be provided with accommodation at the Government expense without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner of Works.

Non-alteration of Buildings, &c.

12. No alterations in the buildings or properties are to be made, or the uses for which they were originally intended to be changed, without previous communication with the Assistant Surveyor.

Proposals for New Buildings, Purchase of Property, or other Services.

13. All proposals for new buildings, purchases of property, lodging allowances in lieu of house accommodation, and purchases of furniture, must be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghae, and in time to admit of proper reference to the First Commissioner of Works.

Sudden Emergencies.

14. The Assistant Surveyor will be authorised to act without the previous authority of the First Commissioner in case of sudden emergencies, but only on condition that officers in charge report to the Assistant Surveyor all the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises.

Treasury Sanction for large Expenditure.

15. Proposals involving large expenditure are to be sent to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghae by or before the month of October, in order that they may be submitted to the First Commissioner in time to obtain Treasury authority for including the cost thereof in the annual estimates for the following year.

Non-purchase or Hire of Houses, &c., without sanction.

16. No houses or premises are to be purchased or hired without the sanction of the First Commissioner or the Assistant Surveyor.

Form of Application.

17. Applications for purchasing or hiring premises are to state: the situation, extent, and value of the premises; reasons for having made the selection; intended appropriation; amount of rent, conditions of hiring, &c.; length of term proposed; state of repair; whether the proprietor will undertake to keep the premises in proper repair; probable cost of making any alterations which may be required, and whether the proprietor will pay for making the alterations; and no liability for expenditure is to be incurred without the previous approval of the Assistant Surveyor.

(China and Japan.)

Claims for Lodging Allowances.

18. Claims for lodging or house allowances are to be accompanied by a full report from the officer in charge of the station, explaining the necessity for granting the allowances. It will then be the duty of the Assistant Surveyor to ascertain and certify that the claim is fair and reasonable, and that by granting the allowance the most economical course has been pursued.

Assistant Surveyor's Responsibility.

19. The Assistant Surveyor of Works is to be held responsible for the proper repair and maintenance of all the Government buildings and properties under his charge, and he is to take steps to prevent unauthorised works being executed without his sanction, reporting the circumstances to the First Commissioner of Works.

Office of Works to pay for Offices.

20. The Assistant Surveyor of Works will pay out of the amount allowed for incidental services the cost of urgent ordinary tenants' repairs for offices used for public business, if executed by order of the officer in charge of the office, provided the cause and nature of the repair is reported to and approved by the Assistant Surveyor when the claim is presented for payment.

Office of Works to pay for all Landlord's Repairs.

21. Government fittings and fixtures, whether in residences or offices requiring repair, arising from fair wear and tear, may be repaired or replaced by the officer in charge of a residence or office, provided he previously obtains the sanction of the Assistant Surveyor to effect such repairs. In very urgent cases of repairs, the officer in charge of a residence or office may effect the repairs of fittings and fixtures before receiving the Assistant Surveyor's sanction, provided the officer reports the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises. The Assistant Surveyor is then to ascertain and certify to the First Commissioners of Works that the repairs were absolutely necessary, and that the prices charged for them are fair and reasonable.

Residents to pay for ordinary Tenant's Repairs.

22. Officers in charge of residences are to be responsible for keeping them in a tenantable condition, and to pay for the current household repairs ordinarily paid by a tenant, such as replacing broken glass, repairing locks and keys, repairing and hanging bells, replacing catches and hooks on Venetian shutters, windows, and doors; casing and rehanging shutters, windows, and doors, and repairing and resetting grates: provided always, that when the Assistant Surveyor shall, on periodical inspection, consider that such are required in consequence of ordinary wear and tear, he shall have authority to cause them to be executed at the public expense.

Urgent Repairs.

23. Officers in charge of properties or buildings which may be damaged by storms or other casualties, may order small or temporary urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required for permanent works will be large, the officer in charge is to obtain the advice and sanction of the Assistant Surveyor before ordering any permanent works to be executed.

24. In all cases of urgent repairs arising from storms or other casualties, officers in charge of properties of buildings so damaged are to report their reasons fully to the Assistant Surveyor for having expended money upon temporary repairs, or for proposing to incur expenditure upon permanent works.

Payments for works done by Officers in charge.

25. Payments for works previously authorised, and for urgent repairs sanctioned by the Assistant Surveyor, and executed by order of the officer in charge of any building, are to be made from the Legation or Consular chest, and the amounts so paid will be refunded by the Assistant Surveyor upon receiving duly signed vouchers, in duplicate, made out on the proper official form.

(Proper forms for the vouchers will be supplied upon application to the Assistant Surveyor of Works at Shanghae.)

26. Vouchers for repayment should be despatched in time to reach the Office of Works at Shanghae at such date before the end of each quarter as will admit of the amount being refunded at once. At stations where it is impossible to supply vouchers to and receive payment from the Office of works before the close of the quarter in which the repairs or works are executed, payment for such repairs or works should be deferred until the subsequent quarter, in order that no entries may appear in the Consular accounts for advances from the Consular chest on account of the Office of Works.

27. All moneys paid by officers in charge of properties or buildings in any other currency than dollars must be entered in the vouchers in dollars.

Cooking-stoves or cooking ranges.

28. Cooking-stoves or cooking-ranges which have hitherto been supplied by Her Majesty's Government, or the Office of Works, together with utensils belonging to them, are to be entered in the register in the same manner as other Government property, and will be maintained in working order; but no other stoves, cooking-ranges, or utensils are to be supplied by the Office of Works.

Supply of Books.

29. All books, legal and others, are to be obtained as heretofore on requisition from the Stationery Office, and they are to be stamped with the office seal, and the name of the office to which they belong is to be marked on the title-page.

Supply of Furniture.

30. Articles of furniture of a plain and durable description will be furnished at the public expense to the following rooms, viz.:—the Chancery offices at Peking and Yedo, the Judicial and Consular Offices in China and Japan; Court-room and jail fittings, and partial furniture for the Students' quarters only at Peking and Yedo.

31. The business rooms of the Ministers, Judges, and Consuls are to be supplied with carpets or matting.

32. The offices of the Supreme Court, Consular and other offices used for public business are to be supplied with chairs, tables, desks, presses for books and stationery, and fenders and fire-irons, all of good and durable quality.

33. Any furniture or other articles desired by any officer beyond the regulated provision are to be provided, and must be removed by the officers at their own expense.

34. Before additional furniture is purchased, or old articles replaced by new ones at the public expense, it must be shown that additional furniture is absolutely necessary, and that a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally supplied.

35. In order to guard against the misuse or waste of furniture or other office moveable property, officers in charge of offices will be held responsible for their due preservation and for the immediate repair of defects arising from accidents or unfair use, the cost of which is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

36. All moveable articles belonging to Her Majesty's Government are to be marked with the Royal Cypher and Broad Arrow, thus, V. ↑ R. The brand will be supplied by the Office of Works.

Watchmen.

37. Watchmen paid by the Government are to be employed solely for the protection of the public offices and grounds and not for the private residences of officers.

(China and Japan.)

Boats.

38. The cost of renewing or repairing boats, boat furniture, boatmen's uniform, flags, running rigging, sails, awnings, &c., is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

39. New boats are to be of plain construction (substantial gigs), built of teak or other durable wood, copper riveted, about 26 feet in length, 5 feet 6 inches in the beam, 2 feet 2 inches in depth, square sterned, and fitted for four oars.

40. Applications for new boats are to be sent to Her Majesty's Minister, accompanied with a report of the age and service of any boat which may be worn out, or of the reason for applying for an additional boat.

Flags.

41. Not more than three flags per annum are to be allowed to each Consulate, viz.: one flag (16 feet by 10 feet) for Sundays and holidays, and two flags (each 12 feet by 9 feet) for ordinary use. If new flags cannot readily be procured on the spot, they are to be obtained from home by application to the Foreign Office.

42. The cost of running rigging and repairs to flags and flagstaffs is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

Precautions against Fire.

43. Officers in charge are to use all reasonable precaution to protect Government property from fire.

44. Each public building is to be provided with one "extincteur" and at least twelve fire-buckets, which are to be kept in the verandahs, lobbies, or other equally convenient place, filled with water and ready for immediate use.

45. All fireplaces are to be provided with cinder-boxes or trays to fit, and strong, close-mesh wire guards; no live cinders are to be carried across the rooms, nor are the fires in the grates to be raked out; but when done with each fire is to be protected with its wire guard.

46. The foregoing articles will be supplied on requisition by the Office of Works, and the officer in charge of each building will be held responsible for their being kept at all times in working order; and where a fire-engine is stationed the officer in charge is to see that it is always in working order.

Report upon any Fires which may have broken out.

47. In the event of a fire breaking out in any of the Government buildings, the officer in charge is immediately to assemble a Court of Inquiry to ascertain the origin of the fire, and to inquire into the working condition of the foregoing appliances at the time of the fire, and the result of their use. He is then to draw up a Report of all the circumstances and send copies of his Report to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the First Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings.

48. The Assistant Surveyor of Works (if within easy reach) is, by virtue of his office, to be a member of the Board of Inquiry.

Foreign Office, December 1 1874.

COMMERCIAL AGENTS.

FOREIGN OFFICE NOTIFICATION OF DECEMBER 29, 1902.

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has arranged with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the extension of the appointments of the British Commercial Agents in Russia, Switzerland, the United States and Central America, for a further period of three years from the 1st January next.

He has also appointed Mr. E. S. Schwabe to be British Commercial Agent at Vladivostock for an experimental period of two years.

The names and addresses of the Agents are as follows:—

Mr. H. A. Cooke, 17, Malaia, Dimitrovka, Moscow.
Mr. J. C. Milligan, British Consulate-General, Zurich.
Mr. E. Seymour Bell, 196, La Salle Street, Chicago.
Mr. F. W. Melville, care of British Legation, Guatemala.
Mr. E. S. Schwabe, Vladivostock.

The business of the Agents consists in watching and reporting on the commerce, industries, and products of special districts, and in answering inquiries on commercial subjects.

In cases requiring a journey, the Agent will report to His Majesty's Ambassador or Minister, who will decide whether an offer should be made to procure the information. If journeys are undertaken by the Commercial Agent, a subsistence fee of 1*l.* 1*s.* per night will be charged, in addition to the actual expenses of locomotion, and payment in advance will be required.

12. If 72 tons of merchandise can be carried 150 miles for £22 10*s.*, what should be the cost of carrying 64 tons twice as far, if the rate per ton per mile be decreased by one-eighth?
13. What vulgar fraction expresses the ratio of $17\frac{1}{2}$ square yards to half an acre?
14. Trains leave London for Lancaster at 5.15, 7.15, 10.0, 10.15, 1.15, 4.10, 10.0, and 12.0, and arrive respectively at 11.24, 1.6, 3.34, 5.31, 7.33, 10.24, 4.3, and 6.34. Find the average time consumed on this journey.

2. Dictation (Obligatory).

The sacerdotal despotism of Egypt, though deadening for the intellect, was at least penetrated by religious ideas; it cannot have been so devoid of everything that avails to comfort or elevate the human spirit as was the royal despotism of Assyria.

Both these benumbing influences had been escaped by the Phœnicians, though their government was probably monarchical, and their priesthoods, probably hereditary, had great influence. In their career as the earliest traders and colonizers of the Mediterranean,—carrying the wares of the East to other lands, and planting factories or trading settlements where they went,—the Phœnicians showed a spirit of free enterprise unlike any that had yet appeared in the world. But its distinctive character was commercial. It was primarily associated with the pursuit of gain; it aimed at extended dominion as a means to the extension of trade. Phœnicians enlarged the boundaries of geographical knowledge; but that was merely an incident of voyages inspired by other motives than the spirit of exploration. It does not appear that the Phœnicians developed any intellectual activities beyond those which were required in the manufacturer, the merchant, and the adventurous pioneer of commerce. Though often regarded by the ancients as great inventors, the Phœnicians do not seem to have possessed much real claim to originality. Their alphabet was probably derived from the Egyptian. The invention of arithmetic, and of systematic weights and measures, must be ascribed to the Babylonians. Glass-making, in which the Phœnicians excelled, was an art borrowed from Egypt. Their skill in embroidery, in purple dyeing, was again a double debt to Babylon. In their religion, the central point was the worship of the Sun, whose spouse was sometimes represented as the Earth, sometimes as the moon-goddess, the mother of the Tyrian sun-god. They refrained from portraying their gods under human forms, but represented them either by symbolic pillars, or by images not of the human type.

3. English Composition. (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, $2\frac{1}{2}$ hours.

You should pay attention to your spelling, punctuation, grammar, and style. Your composition should fill at least two pages, but it will be valued according to the quality rather than the quantity.

Write an essay on one of the following subjects:—

1. Patriotism and Chauvinism;

or,

2. The prospects of a General Disarmament;

or,

3. "Antiquitas Saeculi Juventus Mundi."

4. Précis. (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

1. Make a short Abstract, Schedule, or Docket to the several letters and other papers.*
2. Draw up a Memorandum or Précis, i.e., a brief and clear statement of what passed, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative.

N.B.—You are warned that full marks cannot be obtained unless both the Abstract and the Précis are attempted.

Directions.

(1.) The object of the Abstract, Schedule, or Docket is to serve as an Index. It should contain the date of each letter; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and, in as few words as possible, the subject of it. The merits of such an Abstract are (1) to give the really important point or points of each letter, omitting everything else; (2) to do this briefly; (3) distinctly; and (4) in such a form as readily to catch the eye.

(2.) The object of the Memorandum or Précis (which should be drawn up, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative, without marginal references), is that any one who had not time to read the original letters, might, by reading the Précis, be put in possession of all the leading features of what passed. The merits of such a Précis are—(1) to contain all that is important in the correspondence, and nothing that is unimportant; (2) to present this in a consecutive and readable shape, expressed as distinctly as possible, and as briefly as is compatible with completeness and distinctness.

* These were letters and enclosures extracted from a Parliamentary Paper containing some correspondence relating to the Slave Trade in the Red Sea, and occupied about 12 pages.

* Reprinted by permi sion of the Controller of His Majesty's Stationery Office, from the papers issued by the Civil Service Commission.

Les joueurs d'orgues de Barbarie, de clarinettes ou de cornemuses, ceux mêmes de vielles, les musiciens ambulants, enfin, croyez vous qu'ils soient inutiles à la société? Non, vraiment. Dans le cours le leur errante existence, ne sèment-ils point partout la joie? Nous devons de la reconnaissance à ces porteurs d'harmonie.

A peine sont-ils arrivés dans un village et ont-ils fait retenter leurs premiers accords, que choses et gens semblent se réveiller dans une vie nouvelle. Battant dans leurs petites mains en signe d'allégresse, ce sont d'abord les enfants qui accourent, s'amassent et leur font cortège, tandis que, des deux côtés de la rue, les portes, les fenêtres s'ouvrent, encadrant femmes et jeunes filles, la plupart joyeuses, quelques-unes attendries, selon leur tempérament. Les scieurs de long arrêtent la scie, le forgeron dépose son marteau, le menuisier sa varlope et la civière demeure immobile entre les deux porteurs qui écoutent. Ainsi qu'un courant électrique, la joie a effleuré, réjoui tous les fronts. Que de peines calmées, de souffrances un instant guéries! des ennemis réconciliés peut-être! Qui donc, depuis nos revers surtout, marchandersit dans ces moments son dévouement à la patrie? Quelles fières espérances, quelles généreuses résolutions naissent dans tous les cœurs! Voyez, la musique a passé; on s'aborde: il semble qu'il n'y ait plus au monde que de bons citoyens et des amis! Ce fluide de paix fraternelle, d'enthousiasme et d'amour, est-ce donc rien? Cependant au bout de l'année, ces pauvres gens rentrent dans leur chaumière, quand il leur en reste une, avec quel bénéfice? Heureux de revoir ce logis, les musiciens se sont rangés en demi-cercle sous le tilleul, et ils commencent à jouer leur valse la plus joyeuse, non sans jeter sous l'auvent des regards de connaissance.

II.

Le soleil est tout au haut du ciel, si haut que les grandes haies ne donnent plus d'ombre. Les troupeaux haletants se sont couchés dans l'herbe, au milieu du pré, et, sous la chaleur ardente, ils dorment d'un sommeil de plomb. Les oiseaux, blottis sous les feuilles, attendent que la grande heure, l'heure solennelle de midi, soit passée. A perte de vue, les moissons sommeillent; à peine une onde de vent passe-t-elle sur les épis couleur d'or mat, en moirant d'un ton plus clair la nappe immense.

C'est sur la terre l'heure du repos pour tous ceux qui, dès le lever du jour, ont travaillé, la sueur montant à leurs fronts à mesure que le soleil montait dans le ciel. Ils se reposent maintenant et tout repose avec eux. Seules, la cigale et l'alouette agitent leurs ailes infatigables, l'une dans le sillon, l'autre dans l'azur, et pendant ces heures lourdes chantent la vie, la vie qui ne dort jamais. La mer dort là-bas, douce, bleue, sans une ride; une voile rousse se fait voir, mais si loin, qu'elle semble immobile. Les grandes mauves aux ailes blanches dorment dans le creux des rochers, la falaise gazonneuse brille au soleil comme une cuirasse d'émeraude, les panaches des hautes fougères s'inclinent de temps en temps et montrent leurs dessous plus clairs au passage de quelque animal farouche. Un cri se fait entendre, puis le silence et l'immobilité recommencent, pendant que tout en bas des rochers la frange d'écume blanche qui joue et s'agite, éternellement inquiète, autour des noirs écueils, répète à la terre somnolente que, pas plus que la vie elle-même, l'océan ne dort jamais. Ferasés sous la chaleur pénétrante, les moissonneurs se sont endormis à l'abri de la haute meule; plus loin, sous le parasol grêle d'un frêne, les femmes se sont rapprochées pour profiter de toute l'ombre et dorment d'un sommeil moins lourd.

III.

It was early noon, and the forum was crowded alike with the busy and the idle. As at Paris at this day, so at that time in the cities of Italy, men lived almost wholly out of doors: the public buildings, the forum, the porticoes, the baths, the temples themselves, might be considered their real homes; it was no wonder that they decorated so gorgeously these favourite places of resort—they felt for them a sort of domestic affection as well as a public pride. And animated was indeed the aspect of the forum of Pompeii at that time! Along its broad pavement, composed of large flags of marble, were assembled various groups, conversing in that energetic fashion which appropriates a gesture to every word, and which is still the characteristic of the people of the south. Here in seven stalls on one side of the colonnade sat the money-changers with their glittering heaps before them, and merchants and seamen in various costumes crowding round their stalls. On one side, several men in long togas were seen bustling rapidly up to a stately edifice where the magistrates administered justice; these were the lawyers, active, chattering, joking and punning, as you may find them this day in Westminster. In the centre of the space, pedestals supported various statues, of which the most remarkable was the stately form of Cicero. Around the court ran a regular and symmetrical colonnade of Doric architecture; and there several, whose business drew them early to the place, were taking the slight morning repast which made an Italian breakfast, talking vehemently on the earthquake of the preceding night, as they dipped pieces of bread in their cups of diluted wine.

IV.

Death was very busy about this time with men whose names had made deep mark on history or letters. Lord Lytton, the brilliant novelist, the successful dramatist, the composer of marvellous parliamentary speeches, died on January 18, 1873. Dr. Livingstone, the famous missionary and explorer, had hardly been discovered among the living by the enterprise and energy of Mr. Stanley when the world learned that he was dead. So many false reports of his death had been sent about at different times that the statement now was received with incredulity. The truth had to be confirmed on testimony beyond dispute before England would accept the fact that the long career of devotion to the one pursuit was over, and that Africa had had another victim. John Stuart Mill died on May 8, 1873, at his home at Avignon, where the tomb of his wife was made. "There's a great spirit gone" was the word of all men. A loftier and purer soul, more truly devoted to the quest of the truth, had not mingled in the worldly affairs of our time. His influence over the thought and culture of his day was immense. Most of Mr. Mill's writings may safely be regarded as the possession of all the future, and he has left an example of candour in investigation and fearless moral purpose in action such as might well leaven even the most thoughtless and cynical generation.

Passage for Extempore Translation (1).

[The Examiner read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their English translation of it.]

Le système protecteur est une machine à vapeur sans soupape de sûreté, s'il n'a pas pour correctif et pour auxiliaire une saine et sérieuse politique coloniale. La pléthore des capitaux engagés dans l'industrie ne tend pas seulement à diminuer les profits du capital, elle arrête la hausse des salaires, qui est pourtant la loi naturelle et bienfaisante des sociétés modernes. Et ce n'est pas là une loi abstraite, mais un phénomène fait de chair et d'os, de passion et de volonté, qui se remue, se plaint, se défend. La paix sociale est, dans l'âge industriel de l'humanité, une question de débouchés. La crise économique qui a si lourdement pesé sur l'Europe laborieuse depuis 1876, le malaise qui s'en est suivi, et dont des grèves fréquentes, longues, malavisées souvent, mais toujours redoutables, sont le plus douloureux symptôme, a coïncidé en France, en Allemagne, en Angleterre même avec une réduction notable et persistante du chiffre des exportations. L'Europe peut être considérée comme une maison de commerce qui voit depuis un certain nombre d'années décroître son chiffre d'affaires. La consommation européenne est saturée, il faut faire surgir des autres parties du globe de nouvelles couches de consommateurs, sous peine de mettre la société moderne en faillite et de préparer pour l'aurore du vingtième siècle une liquidation sociale par voie de cataclysme, dont on ne saurait calculer les conséquences.

[The Superintendent of the examination read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their French translation of it.]

The spirit of self-help, as exhibited in the energetic action of individuals, has in all times been a marked feature in the English character, and furnishes the true measure of our power as a nation. Rising above the heads of the mass, there have always been a series of individuals distinguished beyond others, who have commanded the public homage. But our progress has been owing also to multitudes of smaller and unknown men. Though only the generals' names may be remembered in the history of any great campaign, it has been mainly through the individual valour and heroism of the privates that victories have been won. And life, too, is "a soldiers' battle"; men in the ranks having at all times been amongst the greatest of workers. Many are the lives of men unwritten, which have nevertheless as powerfully influenced civilization and progress as the more fortunate Great whose names are recorded in biography. Even the humblest person, who sets before his fellows an example of industry, sobriety, and upright honesty of purpose in life, has a present as well as a future influence upon the well-being of his country; for his life and character pass unconsciously into the lives of others, and propagate good example for all time to come.

Giebt es einerseits eine Wissenschaft der Diplomatie, die als Hilfszweige das Studium des Staats- und Völkerrechts, der Politik, Statistik und Geschichte enthält, so liegt doch auf der andern Seite die wesentliche Bedingung diplomatischen Erfolgs in jener Kunst, seinen Zweck zu erreichen, die man aus blos wissenschaftlichen Studien sich nie erwerben mag. Die feine, psychologische Taktik, die es versteht, Menschen zu gewinnen und zu leiten, Raschheit und Ausdauer, Geschmeidigkeit und Zähigkeit werden nicht erlernt, sondern angeboren und im Leben selbst ausgebildet. Jene steifen Formen, die prätentiöse Etikette, die endlosen Streitigkeiten und alle die Kleinlichkeiten des Vorrangs, die so viel Mühe und Kunst der Diplomaten des 17. Jahrhunderts in Anspruch nahmen, und durch die jene Diplomatie heute lächerlich erscheinen kann, waren für die großen Diplomaten jener Zeit sehr wohlerwogene und sehr geschickt gebrauchte Mittel zum Zwecke. Dieselben wurden nicht erst durch den Wiener Kongreß, der nur ein vorübergehendes Auskunftsmittel anwendete, auch nicht durch die neuen Bestimmungen des Aachener Kongresses über die Gesandtenklassen, die darauf sehr wenig Bezug haben, beseitigt. Ein freierer Geist des socialen Lebens und das Aufkommen anderer Mittel für dieselben Zwecke hatten sie schon früher entfernt oder doch auf die kleinlichen Angelegenheiten kleinlicher Geister beschränkt, und namentlich hatte die Zeit Friedrichs II. hierbei das meiste gethan. Dagegen griffen im 18. Jahrhundert manche andere, schon vorher in einigen Fällen gebrauchte Richtungen offener und allgemeiner um sich, welche gleichfalls der Diplomatie viel üble Nachrede zuzogen. Sie hatte einer Politik zu dienen, die mehr persönlich und auf den Augenblick berechnet als von bleibenden Grundsätzen und tiefen Ideen getragen war; zur Mode gewordene Eroberungs- und Arrondirungssucht beherrschte die Staaten, und mit der Moral der Mittel ward es nicht genau genommen.

The West Indies were for some time the centre of our colonial interest, especially after they had been secured to us by Rodney's great naval victory over the French in the West Indies in 1782, and they rapidly became a source of increasing wealth till, at the close of the last century, the West Indian influence in the City of London and in Bristol became a factor of considerable commercial importance. The chief islands of the various groups which form the West Indies are, commercially speaking, Jamaica, Trinidad, and Barbadoes, to which we may add the continental settlement of British Guiana. Their development continued for many years to be closely identified with the sugar industry, but a severe blow was dealt to their prosperity by the invention of beet sugar and the abolition of slavery. The use of beet sugar in Europe, encouraged as it has been by bounties given by European Governments to the manufacturers and growers of beetroot, has extended enormously within the last fifty years. Only 95,000 tons of beet sugar were produced in 1849 as compared with 3,630,000 tons in 1890, in which last year it considerably exceeded the amount of cane sugar manufactured. Thus the West Indies, which had practically a monopoly of the sugar supply of Europe, now found this monopoly entirely ruined, while the change in its labour system has been—to put it mildly—by no means so beneficial as the promoters of the anti-slavery agitation fondly hoped. Hence our West Indian colonies are now in a somewhat critical position.

IV.

The influence of labour organisations upon strikes has been less marked in Germany than in many other countries, owing to the early failure of the trade unions in this respect and the disabilities which from 1878 to 1890 attached to the Socialist organisations. Indeed the slow progress of trade unionism in Germany is attributed by Herr Schmoele in a large measure to the reluctance of the unions to organise strikes with a view to obtaining better conditions of labour. According to the recent factory inspectors' reports the influence of organisations upon strikes in Germany shows itself most plainly in one of two forms, either the attempt to force employers to engage workmen only through a labour registry controlled by the men themselves, or, according to the Dresden factory inspector, the prevalence of a spirit of discontent and of hostility to particular firms, which in the last resort can be traced to the misrepresentations of the Social Democrats. Further, the demand for a minimum wage, already mentioned as a frequent cause of strikes, is in itself an article in the Socialist programme, and the factory inspector for the Schleswig district remarks in his report for 1888 that he has invariably found this demand to proceed from the younger and inferior workmen, upon whom the Social Democrats have the greatest hold.

Meine Herren, ich wünsche aufrichtig, daß die geehrten Mitglieder, die gestern und heute die Regierungsvorlage bekämpft haben, nicht allzu bald in die Lage geraten mögen, eben dieses Gesetz oder ein ähnliches, vielleicht ausgestattet mit noch größeren Beschränkungen, selbst von der Regierung zu verlangen. Es mag ja sein, daß die Vorlage an manchen Punkten einer Verbesserung bedarf, daß manche Paragraphen geändert werden müssen; aber die Ueberzeugung scheint mir doch allgemein Platz gegriffen zu haben, daß wir eines besseren Schutzes bedürfen gegen die Gefahren, welche dem Staat in seinem Innern drohen durch die fortschreitende Organisation der Sozialdemokratie. Ich fürchte, daß die Leiter dieser Organisation schon heute bedenklich nahe an die Grenze gedrängt sind, wo man von ihnen die Erfüllung ihrer Zusagen und Verheißungen fordert. Diese Herren werden am besten wissen, daß das seine Schwierigkeit haben wird. Sie können sich nicht dagegen verschließen, daß die erste Güterteilung die hunderste involviert; daß in dem Augenblick, wo wir alle gleich reich, wir alle gleich arm geworden sind; daß Not, Elend und Entbehrungen untrennbare Bedingungen des menschlichen Daseins sind; daß keine Form der Regierung, keine Gesetzgebung und überhaupt keine menschliche Einrichtung Elend und Not jemals aus der Welt schaffen werden. Wohin wäre es mit der Entwickelung des Menschengeschlechtes gekommen, wenn diese zwingenden Elemente nicht in Gottes Weltordnung enthalten wären! Nein, ohne Sorge und Arbeit wird auch die Zukunft nicht sein: aber ein Mensch, der hungert und friert, fragt nicht viel nach den Konsequenzen der Zukunft; er ergreift nach den Mitteln, welche die Gegenwart ihm bieten kann —

[The Superintendent of the Examination read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their German translation of it.]

The object of the state is (as far as may be) the happiness of the whole. Whatever makes multitudes of men utterly miserable can never answer that object; indeed it contradicts it wholly and entirely; and the happiness or misery of mankind, estimated by their feelings and sentiments, and not by any theories of their rights, is, and ought to be, the standard for the conduct of legislators towards the people. This naturally and necessarily conducts us to the peculiar and characteristic situation of a people, and to a knowledge of their opinions, prejudices, habits, and all the circumstances that diversify and colour life. The first question a good statesman would ask himself, therefore, would be, how and in what circumstances do you find the society, and he would then act upon them. It is the interest, and it is the duty, and because it is the interest and the duty, it is the right of government to attend much to opinions; because, as opinions soon combine with passions, even when they do not produce them, they have much influence on actions. Factions are formed upon opinions; which factions become in effect bodies corporate in the state;—nay, factions generate opinions in order to become a centre of union, and to furnish watchwords to parties; and this may make it expedient for government to forbid things in themselves innocent and neutral.

Liberty in itself is but the power of doing what we please; a power which for all human beings has its natural limits. We may easily indeed have too much or too little of it; we can only have it in degree, but without some degree of it we cannot exist.

It is very fine, perhaps not very difficult, to do every now and then some noble or generous act. But what is wanted of us is to do no wrong ones. It may be, for instance, in many eyes a laudable thing to amass a colossal fortune by acts not in all cases of quite unimpeachable integrity and then to expend it in magnificent benevolence. But the really good thing is not to make the fortune. Thorough honesty and plain undeviating integrity—these are our real needs; on these substructions only can the fabric of individual or national well-being safely be reared. Common men, who in their petty daily acts maintain these ordinary unostentatious truths are the real benefactors of mankind, the real pillars of the State.

Don Cornelio e il suo coadiutore, continuando per a stradetta che conduceva al piano, erano intanto arrivati a un piccolo poggio dove improvvisamente si affacciava un lungo tratto della valle. Chi passava di là, ci fosse pure passato mille volte, rallentava il passo, mandava una lunga occhiata a quella scena che gli si parava dinanzi, e faceva volontieri una fermatina, parendogli quasi di riposar meglio che altrove; e intanto correva subito con l'occhio a discernere il suo campanile, la sua casuccia, il suo camperello, tra i casolari, le chiesuole e i poderi che si vedevan sparsi sulle falde dei monti e sul piano della valle: e quando gli aveva ravvisati, si rimetteva più lieto in cammino, come chi s'è imbattuto in qualcuno a cui voglia bene. Don Cornelio s'era fermato, s'era seduto su un muricciolo, e levatosi il cappello, guardava mestamente la valle, intanto che il suo compagno guardava lui di sott' occhio, pur avendo l'aria di contemplare anch' esso gli ultimi sprazzi di sole che mano mano abbandonavano le cime dei monti.

The secret presses of London worked without ceasing. Many papers daily came into circulation by means which the magistracy could not discover, or would not check. One of these has been preserved from oblivion by the skilful audacity with which it was written, and by the immense effect which it produced. It purported to be a supplemental declaration under the hand and seal of the Prince of Orange; but it was written in a style very different from that of his genuine manifesto. Vengeance alien from the usages of Christian and civilized nations was denounced against all Papists who should dare to espouse the royal cause. They should be treated, not as soldiers and gentlemen, but as freebooters. The ferocity and licentiousness of the invading army, which had hitherto been restrained with a strong hand, should be let loose on them. Good Protestants were adjured, as they valued all that was dear to them, to seize, disarm, and imprison their Roman Catholic neighbours. Discerning readers had no difficulty in pronouncing this document a forgery, but the multitude was completely duped.

The opportunity which we let slip in 1854 is offered to us a second, and doubtless last, time to-day. The conditions on which we may avail ourselves of it are matter for negotiation. First and foremost, of course, we shall have to eschew once for all the system of foreign policy by means of periodic scares. We cannot hope to propel and guide a balloon by means of dynamite explosions. But the principal obligations which our adherence to the Triple Alliance would involve are, I am assured on high authority, the following:—The effective strength of our navy should outweigh that of the combined fleets of France and Russia at the outbreak of hostilities. We should undertake the protection of the coasts of Italy; command the Black Sea, blockade Odessa, and, if Turkey were fighting on the side of her former enemy, provisionally take possession of Constantinople. Over and above all this, and in the guise of what theologians term a "work of supererogation," we might feel naturally disposed to extend a helping hand to Italy, and enable her to put her finances upon a sound working basis.

Sono rimasto incantato di Pisa per il clima; se dura così, sarà una beatitudine. Ho lasciato a Firenze il freddo di un grado sopra gelo; qui ho trovato tanto caldo, che ho dovuto gettare il ferraiuolo e allegerirmi di panni.

L'aspetto di Pisa mi piace assai più di quel di Firenze: questo lung' Arno è uno spettacolo così bello, così ampio, così magnifico, così gaio, così ridente che innamora: non ho veduto niente di simile nè a Firenze nè a Milano nè a Roma: e veramente non so se in tutta l' Europa si trovino molte vedute di questa sorta. Vi si passeggia poi nell' inverno con gran piacere, perchè v' è quasi sempre un' aria di primavera: sicchè in certe ore del giorno quella contrada è piena di mondo, piena di carrozze e di pedoni: vi si sentono parlare dieci o venti lingue, vi brilla un sole bellissimo tra le dorature dei caffè, delle botteghe piene di galanterie, e nelle invetriate dei palazzi e delle case, tutte di bella architettura. Nel resto poi, Pisa è un misto di città grande e di città piccola, di cittadino e di villereccio, un misto così romantico che non ho mai veduto altrettanto. A tutte le altre bellezze si aggiunge la bella lingua. E poi vi si aggiunge che io, grazie a Dio, sto bene, chè mangio con appetito, che ho una camera a ponente che guarda sopra un grand' orto, con una grande apertura tanto che si arriva a veder l' orizzonte, cosa di cui bisogna dimenticarsi in Firenze. La gente di casa è buona, i prezzi non grandi; cosa ottima per la mia borsa, la quale non è stata troppo contenta de' Fiorentini.

The other class of local traditions in Damascus is that relating to St. Paul. It is no wonder that, as every traveller comes near to Damascus, the question arises, where took place that conversion which turned the fortunes of the world. We know only that it was on the road from Jerusalem; and the expression seems to indicate that Damascus was in sight, perhaps we may even say had come suddenly into sight. Four distinct spots have been pointed out at different times in the neighbourhood, at a greater or less distance, within ten miles of the city. Of these four spots, the only one now kept in remembrance is situated at about a quarter of an hour to the east, in the Christian burial ground, and is marked by a small mass of conglomerate stone. Not far off is the so-called tomb of St. George, "the good porter," who is traditionally said to have assisted St. Paul in his escape over the adjacent wall; and to the stone altar erected over this tomb are brought all the coffins of the Christian dead before their interment. A more authentic locality in St. Paul's history is "the Straight Street." From the eastern to the western gate, through the heart of the city, there runs a long thoroughfare, called the "Street of Bazaars," from the bazaars which, after a few hundred yards, contract and fill up its course. Both of the gates bear traces of Roman workmanship. That on the west is now so much blocked up by buildings, as to be almost undistinguishable. That on the east, however, shows distinctly the triple archway, which opened on the great road or street; the large central arch leading to the broad central thoroughfare; the lesser arches on each side leading to the side thoroughfares, divided from the central one by colonnades.

La tierra habitada produce anualmente una cantidad de cosas proporcionadas al consumo universal. El comercio llena con lo supérfluo de un país la necesidad de otro; y en este movimiento continuo, despues de algunas oscilaciones, se nivelan periodicamente la necesidad y la abundancia. Es una suerte melancólica el mirar á los hombres reducidos á echar el dado sobre quien debe morirse de hambre. Miremoslos con tranquilidad, y tendremos ideas mas ciertas y agradables. Hermanos de una gran familia derramada sobre la tierra, y obligados á darnos mútuo socorro, veremos quel el Autor de la vegetacion nos ha proveido de todo lo necesario para satisfacer las necesidades de la vida. Solo las trabas artificiales pudieron reducir los Estados al temor de la hambre, el cual, despues de haber llegado á un cierto punto, la produce seguramente, aun en medio de las provisiones suficientes para remediarlas. La mayor parte de las carestias lo han sido, mas que en realidad, en la opinion: en aquella opinion, reina del mundo, que distribuye entre los hombres y los reinos la felicidad y la miseria, con mas securidad y predominio que ninguna otra causa física. Digo por tanto, que las leyes prohibitivas ó son causa de esterilidad, ó son inutiles.

Allí, en presencia de sus salsas favoritas, se accordaba de que iba á ser el último vástago de su estirpe... y, consagrando un gran suspiro á la memoria de su ilustre ascendencia, hacia por vivir... porque, despues de todo, no le quedaba mas consuelo que alargar la vida de su linaje, alargando la suya. Se sentaba pues á la mesa dispuesto á comer por dos: por él, y por el hijo que, si hubiera nacido, sería el heredero de su nombre. Acudia con la puntualidad de un estómago exacto, mostrando en el esmero de su vestido la importancia que daba al acto de hacer por la vida. Zapatos con hebillas de plata, medias de seda, calzon azul de punto, chupa amarilla y casaca verde, ambas bordadas en variedad de colores, gran chorrera, vuelecillos de encaje en las bocas mangas .. no habia nada que pedirse. Your highnesses commanded me, in the month of January, to proceed with a sufficient armament to the lands of India, ordering that I should not go by land to the East, by which it is the custom to go, but by a voyage to the West, by which course, unto the present time, we do not know for certain that anyone hath passed. And for this purpose your highnesses bestowed great favours upon me, ennobling me, that thenceforward I might style myself Don, appointing me High Admiral of the Ocean Sea, and perpetual Viceroy and Governor of all the islands and continents I should discover and gain; and that my eldest son should succeed me, and so on, from generation to generation for ever. I departed, therefore, from the city of Granada, on Saturday the 12th May, of the year 1492, to Palos, a sea port, where I armed three ships well calculated for such service, and sailed from that port well furnished with provisions, and with many seamen, on Friday the 3rd of August of the same year 1492, half an hour before sunrise, and took the route for the Canary Islands of your highnesses, to steer my course thence, and navigate until I should arrive at the Indies, and deliver the embassy of your highnesses to those princes, and accomplish that which you had commanded.

The Greek Byzantine Emperors, whom the populace of Constantinople raised at pleasure to the throne or hurled into the dust, had above all things to provide cheap bread. The neighbouring provinces were consequently prohibited from exporting wheat, but this, like all other attempts against nature, instead of supplying the capital, depressed and exasperated the provinces, and ended by ruining the Empire. The Turkish system was simplicity itself; it enacted by law, and sealed by religion, that rule of administration which belongs to the earliest times. Unfortunately, however, the Greek system was not entirely blotted out with the Greek Empire, and, without the necessity, the Sultans followed the practice of their predecessors, so far as to prohibit the exportation of grain. This state of things lasted 376 years, from 1453 till 1829, when, after many ages of security, Constantinople was once more placed between foes on the North and South, traffic by sea was stopped, and she was in want of bread. She had still the two continents open, but the corn administration (Moubaya), invented to feed the capital, blockaded it as effectually by land as the Russian squadrons by sea. Under the presence of absolute famine the old laws were suspended, and instantly plenty reappeared.

No es el trabajo la virtud sobresaliente de los pueblos meridionales; la dulzura del clima, la magnificencia del cielo, la espontaneidad de la tierra y la brillantez del sol hacen creer, sin duda, que se hallan todavía en el Paraiso, y se consideran dispensados de ganarse el sustento con el sudor de la frente.

El pueblo de que nos ocupamos no se distingue por ningun rasgo especial que le dé carácter proprio. Su antigüedad se descubre desde el momento en que se distingue la fabrica medio arruinada de una torre morisca que se levanta sobre un monte vecino, y permanece allí como una fecha medio borrada. A sus pies se agrupan las casas formando un laberinto de calles estrechas que se retuercen y se cortan entre sí á ojo de buen cubero. Añadase á esto un rio muy estrecho, deslizandose cautelosamente por un cáuce muy ancho, un puente de piedra y una huerta que se estiende como una alfombra, y se tendrán las lineas generales del paisaje.

Es, pues, un pueblo como otro cualquiera, y atendida su magnitud bien puede llamarse poblachon. Mas prescindiendo de lo que hay de intransitable en las calles, de lo que tienen de oscuros los escasos faroles del alumbrado, de la poca comodidad de las casas, y de la sobriedad, de la mesa es un pueblo por lo visto inmejorable, en razon á que á nadie se le ocurre la idea de mejorarlo. Por lo demás se vive en el bien, á lo ménos los vecinos que lo habitan no lo cambiarian por la ciudad mas bella del mundo.

[The Superintendent of the Examination read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their Spanish translation of it.]

Imaginative reader! have you ever been in a gale of wind off the Bay of Biscay? If not, and you are fond of variety, it is really worth your while to take a trip to Lisbon or Madeira for the chance of meeting with one. Calculate your season well in December or January, when the south-wester has properly set in, and you will find it one of the finest and most uncomfortable things in the world. My gale lasted from Sunday to Wednesday evening, which is something long perhaps for amusement, but it gave ample room for observation and philosophy. I think I still hear that ineffable hubbub of plates and glasses breaking, chairs and tables falling, women screaming, sailors piping, officers swearing, the wind whistling, and the sea roaring, which awakened me about two o'clock on Monday morning. The Atlantic was gushing in through my port in a very refreshing manner, and ebbing and flowing under and around my bed with every roll of the ship. My clothes were floating on the face of the waters. I turned to sleep again, but the sea came with that awful dead sledge-hammer beat, which makes a landman's heart tremble, and the impertinent quotation of some poor scholar in the next cabin about quatuor aut septem digitos brushed every atom of sleepy dust from my eyes. I sat bolt upright, and for some time contemplated, by the glimmering of the sentry's lantern, the huge disarray of my pretty den; I fished for my clothes, but they were bathing. I essayed to rise, but I could find no resting place for the sole of a rheumatic foot.

PAPERS SET TO A THIRD SECRETARY IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE NOMINATED FOR EXAMINATION FOR A SPECIAL CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC LAW.*

Paper I.

1. Is the tendency of the authority of International Law to grow stronger or weaker?
2. A recent Act of Parliament has given English Tribunals jurisdiction over all ships passing through English territorial waters. If a foreign State protested against this Act as infringing International Law, what books and documents would it be proper to study in order to frame a reply on behalf of England?
3. In what way does the constitution of the German Empire affect its international relations?
4. Examine the origin, history, and consequences of the capitulations with the Porte and its Tributaries.
5. Give instances showing when a government ought, and when it ought not, to interfere to protect its subjects abroad.
6. Give a summary of the present English Law with regard to naturalization.
7. What steps must a Frenchman who wishes to be married in England take in order that his marriage here may be treated as valid in France?
8. If an Englishman residing in Paris made there a holograph will, would his property in England pass under it?

Paper II.

9. What is the rule of International Law as to the position of neutral vessels sailing under an enemy's convoy?
10. Are there any recognized limits to the right of a belligerent to levy contributions and requisitions on the inhabitants of an invaded country?
11. Give examples of cases in which the local jurisdiction prevails over a foreign ship of war.
12. What is now recognised as the proper mode of treating Prisoners of War?
13. What are the chief points which a competent tribunal has to consider and decide when a prize is brought before it for condemnation?
14. Give historical instances showing the circumstances and the mode in which resort may be had to reprisals.
15. What is meant by setting forth a ship as a vessel of war?
16. "Every lawfully declared war is to be regarded as just on both sides." What did Vattel mean by this statement?
17. Was the detention by Napoleon of the English who happened to be in France at the opening of the war of 1803 contrary to the rules of International Law?

Write an essay on one of the following subjects:—

(1.) The Portuguese and their place in Modern Europe;

or,

(2.) In Politics it is the unexpected that happens.

2. Dictation (1).

It is indeed impossible to deny that, in the great art of inspiring large masses of human beings with confidence and attachment, no ruler ever surpassed Hastings. If he had made himself popular with the English by giving up the natives to extort on and oppression, or if, on the other hand, he had conciliated the natives and alienated the English, there would have been no cause for wonder. What is peculiar to him is that, being the chief of a small band of strangers who exercised boundless powers over a great indigenous population, he made himself beloved both by the subject many and by the dominant few. The affection felt for him by the civil service was singularly ardent and constant. Through all his disasters and perils, his brethren stood by him with steadfast loyalty. The army, at the same time, loved him as armies have seldom loved any but the greatest chiefs who have led them to victory. Even in his disputes with distinguished military men he could always count upon the support of the Military profession. While such was his empire over the hearts of his countrymen, he enjoyed among the natives a popularity, such as other Governors have perhaps better merited, but such as no other Governor has been able to attain. He spoke their dialects with facility and precision. He was intimately acquainted with their feelings and usages. On one or two occasions, for great ends, he deliberately acted in defiance of their opinion; but on such occasions he gained more in their respect than he lost in their love. In general, he carefully avoided all that could shock their national or religious prejudices. These things inspired good-will. At the same time, the constant success of Hastings, and the manner in which he extricated himself from every difficulty, made him an object of superstitious admiration; and her more than regal splendour which he sometimes displayed dazzled a people who have much in common with children.

2 (b) Dictation (2).

The opinion of the great body of the reading public is very materially influenced even by the unsupported assertions of those who assume a right to criticize. Nor is the public altogether to blame on this account. Most even of those who have really a great enjoyment in reading are in the same state with respect to a book, in which a man who has never given particular attention to the art of painting is with respect to a picture. Every man who has the least sensibility or imagination derives a certain pleasure from pictures. Yet a man of the highest and finest intellect might, unless he had formed his taste by contemplating the best pictures, be easily persuaded by a knot of interested admirers that the merest daub was in reality a miracle of art. If he deserves to be laughed at, it is not for his ignorance of pictures, but for his ignorance of men. He knows that there is a delicacy of taste in painting which he does not possess, that he cannot distinguish hands as practised judges distinguish them, that he is not familiar with the finest models, that he has never looked at them with close attention, and that, when the general effect of a piece has pleased him or displeased him, he has never troubled himself to ascertain why. When, therefore, people, whom he thinks more competent to judge than himself, and of whose sincerity he entertains no doubt, assure him that a particular work is exquisitely beautiful, he takes it for granted that they must be in the right. He returns to the examination, resolved to find or imagine beauties; and, if he can work himself up into something like admiration, he exults in his own proficiency. Just such is the manner in which nine readers out of ten judge of a book. They are ashamed to dislike what men who speak as having authority declare to be good. However contemptible a poem or novel may be, there is not the least difficulty in procuring favourable notices of it from all sorts of publications.

La Section anglaise à l'Exposition de 1889.

La section anglaise se distingue de toutes les autres par une grande simplicité; mais elle est la seule dans tout le Champ de Mars qui donne au visiteur l'impression d'un pays complètement différent du nôtre; depuis les ouvriers au chef coiffé du chapeau haute forme jusqu'aux vitrines en bronze doré, tout est différent de ce que l'on voit ailleurs. Ce qui ressemble le plus aux autres expositions, ce sont les objets exposés. Il serait trop long de les énumérer tous et il serait très difficile d'énumérer les plus remarquables et les plus beaux. Cependant on remarque surtout des faïences et des porcelaines. Il y a même un immense vase en pâte tendre qui est curieux pour sa forme et fort remarquable par les groupes qui l'ornent. Beaucoup de cristaux et de lainages naturellement; un très-curieux pavillon occupé par l'Illustrated London News, et tout ce que l'on trouve dans toutes les expositions anglaises: les souliers, les vêtements, les bougies (il y a même un buste de la reine en stéarine), des armes, des munitions et tout ce qui constitue l'Angleterre et la vie anglaise, depuis le meuble à application de faïence jusqu'aux grilles pour brûler le charbon sans fumée, sans oublier l'argenterie, massive mais belle. Il y a une très remarquable collection de cuillers appartenant à la corporation des orfèvres de Londres; chaque cuiller est un chef-d'œuvre.

La matinée du lendemain fut splendide. Le printemps envoyait à la terre ses premiers sourires. Les grands arbres, dont la végétation est si lente dans nos climats froids, n'avaient point encore leurs dômes d'impénétrables feuillages, ni leurs massifs de verdure sombre, et leurs têtes chenues et dépouillées laissaient passer l'or des rayons, qui versait une chaleur bienfaisante. Çà et là, sous bois, ou bien au bord des sentiers, les essences les plus hâtées laissaient déjà voir au bout des noirs rameaux des bourgeons roses et de jeunes pousses tendres. Partout on respirait je ne sais quelle vague odeur de mousse et d'écorce. Les fleurs étaient rares encore, mais déjà, dans l'herbe drue, on voyait briller la tête de safran des primevères sauvages, et les petites violettes ouvraient leurs yeux bleus le long des ruisseaux. Les merles siffiaient dans les buissons, les chevreuils et les daims bramaient dans les taillis, et, au bout des allées, l'on voyait passer des dames et des messieurs en costume de printemps. Il semblait que l'on entendît bruire, sourdre et germer la vie. C'était, en un mot, une de ces heures vraiment rares où tout dans la nature est harmonie et parfum, où tout semble nous convier à l'amour et au bonheur.

The Seaport of Paris.

This has been a dream of the Parisians for a great many years. And now it would seem as if the dream were to become a reality. A Bill has been prepared under the novel title of "Paris, port de mer," and the Chamber will soon be invited to debate the project. In two or three years we shall be speaking of the seaport of Manchester, just as we speak of the seaport of Liverpool. Why, the Paris people ask, should not ocean vessels sail up (remonter) the Seine to the capital as well as through the Mersey-Manchester canal? Why not, indeed? Money can do everything. Canalisation and the improvement of rivers for navigating purposes is an incident in the general international process of cheapening transit. The competition in the price of manufactured goods is so great that the nation which carries more cheaply than its neighbours has an immense advantage over them. In some respects the scheme is not so formidable as it looks at first sight. Paris is one hundred and ten miles from the sea-coast; but only a portion of the river between its mouth and Paris would have to be widened and deepened.

Saisie de tabac de contrebande.

On a amené hier levant la Cour de Police à Liverpool un marin, nommé William Cuff, accusé d'avoir en sa possession une certaine quantité de tabac de contrebande. Cuff est marchand de tabac ainsi que marin. Monsieur Peterson, directeur de la division, qui dirigeait les poursuites, a dit que ce n'était qu'un des cas nombreux, resultant des perquisitions que l'Administration a fait faire dans les boutiques et magasins des marchands de tabac de Liverpool et des environs. Le but que l'on vent atteindre est de détruire complètement la contrebande en tabac. Jusqu'à ce jour seulement les saisies faites s'élèvent déjà à cent vingt-sept; ce qui peut donner une idée de la grande quantité, introduite en fraude, de ce tabac fabriqué à l'étranger et n'ayant payé aucun droit: et l'Administration prie le Magistrat de les aider à détruire cette fraude en imposant de fortes amendes. Cette contrebande fait grand tort à l'Administration et même aux commerçants honnêtes qui naturellement désirent que l'on empêche cette concurrence déloyale. Comme le cas était evident, le Magistrat condamna l'accusé, qui avait déjà été puni pour un semblable délit, à une amende de cinq livres sterling et aux frais.

La industria della pesca viene esercitata in Italia su assai vasta scala ed è sorgente di non piccolo guadagno. Se si pensa che circa sessantamila uomini vi si dedicano abitualmente, e che sulle coste italiane si calcola ci siano sparse sedicimila cinquecento barche a ciò destinate, le quali mettono in commercio più di dodeci milioni di chilogrammi di pesce (del valore di circa cinque milioni di lire) non si può esitare a riconoscere l'importanza che quest'industria ha per l'Italia. Da varii anni si lamenta una scarsità di pesce che va sempre più accentuandosi. A questa minaccia di spopolamento dei mari italiani comincia ad opporsi l'opera del Governo, che impedendo i mezzi di pesca troppo distruttori cerca conservare le specie che presentemente vi albergano. Ma devesi riconoscere che fu ben scarsa finora l'opera dei privati per cercare di favorire questo importante ramo d'industria. Soltanto da pochi anni esistono in Italia stabilimenti di piscicultura, e questi non hanno ancora raggiunto lo sviluppo di cui sono suscettibili. Nella vicina Francia si è perfezionato in modo il sistema di conservazione del pesce, che se ne esporta una ingente quantità, mentre in Italia si hanno ancora sistemi troppo primitivi: perciò il prodotto resta pessimo e di difficile conservazione; ed è quindi poco apprezzato e non si trova a smerciarlo se non a vilissimo prezzo.

Bella ed amabile illusione è quella per la quale i dì anniversari di un avvenimento, che per verità non ha che fare con essi più che con qualunque altro dì dell'anno, paiono avere con quello un'attenenza particolare, e che quasi un'ombra del passato risorga e ritorni sempre in quei giorni, e ci sia davanti; onde è medicato in parte il tristo pensiero dell' annullamento di ciò che fu, e sollevato il dolore di molte perdite, parendo che quelle ricorrenze ficciano che ciò che è passato, e che più non torna, non sia spento nè perduto del tutto. E tale immaginazione è sì radicata nell' uomo, che a fatica pare che si possa credere che l' anniversario sia così alieno dalla cosa come ogni altro dì: onde il celebrare annualmente le ricordanze importanti, sì religiose come civili, sì pubbliche come private, i dì natalizi e quelli delle morti delle persone care ed altri simili, fu comune, ed è, a tutte le nazioni che hanno, ovvero ebbero, ricordanze e calendario. Ed ho notato, interrogando in tal proposito parecchi, che gli uomini sensibili, ed usati alla solitudine, o a conversare internamente, sogliono essere studiosissimi degli anniversari, e vivere, per dir così, di rimembranze di tal genere, sempre riandando, e dicendo fra sè: in un giorno dell' anno come il presente mi accadde questa o questa cosa.

There seems to be every reason to believe that, in general intelligence, the Athenian populace far surpassed the lower orders of any community that has ever existed. It must be considered that to be a citizen was to be a legislator, a soldier, a judge—one upon whose voice might depend the fate of the wealthiest tributary state, of the most eminent public man. The lowest offices, both of agriculture and of trade, were performed by slaves. The commonwealth supplied its meanest members with the support of life, the opportunity of leisure, and the means of amusement. Books were indeed few: but they were excellent; and they were accurately known. It is not by turning over libraries, but by repeatedly perusing and intently contemplating a few great models, that the mind is best disciplined. A man of letters must now read much that he soon forgets, and much from which he learns nothing worthy to be remembered. The best works employ, in general, but a small portion of his time. Demosthenes is said to have transcribed six times the history of Thucydides. If he had been a young politician of the present age, he might in the same space of time have skimmed innumerable newspapers and pamphlets. Yet I do not condemn that desultory mode of study which the state of things, in our day, renders a matter of necessity.

Quei tanti massi nuotanti di ghiaccio, pari a tante galleggianti isolette, rendevano stranissimo l'aspetto di quell' orrido mare che parea piuttosto una terra scompaginata e disciolta, che non un volume di acque: ma il vento essendo tenuissimo, le percosse di quei tavoloni nella mia barca riuscivano piuttosto carezze che urti; tuttavia la loro gran copia e mobilità spesso li facea da porti opposte incontrarsi davanti alla mia prora, e combaciandosi, tosto ne impedivano il solco; e subito altri ed altri vi concorreano, ed ammontandosi, facean cenno di rimandarmi nel continente. Rimedio efficace ed unico, veniva allora ad essere l'ascia, castigatrice d'ogni insolente. Più d'una volta i marinari miei, ed anche io stesso scendemmo dalla barca sovra quei massi, e con delle scuri si andavano partendo, e staccando dalle pareti del legno, tanto che desser luogo ai remi e alla prora; poi risaltati noi dentro coll' impulso della risorta nave, si andavano cacciando dalla via quegl' insistenti accompagnatori; e in tal modo si navigò il tragitto primo di sette miglia svezzesi in dieci e più ore. La novità di un tal viaggio mi diverti moltissimo, e debbo confessare che nella sua salvatica rovidezza la Scandinavia è uno dei paesi d'Europa che mi siano andati più a genio, e destate più idee fantastiche, malinconiche ed anche grandiose, per un certo vasto indefinibile silenzio che regna in quell' atmosfera, ove ti parrebbe quasi di esser fuor di globo.

Havia lá no convento—principiou João Semana—uma pintura muito grande, representando a ceia de Christo; e era esta pintura a que mais attrahia as meditações piedosas do tal reverendo, o qual, de olhos fitos n' aquelle quadro, passava horas e horas esquecido de tudo o mais. Um outro frade que tinha notado isto, não póde ter mão em si que lhe não perguntase com aquella voz de lamuria de franciscano manhoso: "Em que pansaes vós, irmão, quando con tanta attenção olhaes para este quadro?"—"Nos tormentos que por nos padeceu o Salvador"—respondeu-lhe o tal—"E longos foram na verdade"—continuou o primeiro.—"Mas porque esta pintura, mais do que as outras, vos traz tão sanctas ideias? Não tendes na sachristia a do descimento da Cruz e aquella do Senhor preso á columna?"—"É verdade, irmão-diz-lhe então o franciscano com cara de mortificação—é verdade! Mas olhai que não menor tormento era este de ter doze pessoas á mesa e tão pouco de comer em cima d'ella."

E João Semana, dizendo isto, roçou as esperas pela barriga da egoa e partiu, acompanhado d'uma grande gargalhada do reitor, que era perdido por as anecdotas de João Semana. Onde diabo vai este homem buscar estas cousas—dizia o reitor, chorando de tanto que se ria.

No decurso de dous para tres seculos uma grande revolução se operára no systema da fazenda publica de Portugal. Em virtude dessa revolução, em quanto o rei e os concelhos, empobrecidos pelos males da guerra, se debatiam na miseria, as classes privilegiadas achavam ainda recursos para a devassidão e para o luxo, sem empenharem inteiramente nas mãos dos judeos as rendas das suas honras e solares. O estado, que, nos primeiros tempos da monarchia, copiiva na sua organisação economica o modelo que lhe offerecia a familia; isto é, que vivéra do producto das suas propriedades, dos fructos das terras chamadas então regalengas, e das rendas e foragens, a troco das quaes cedera os terrenos onde não só se fundavam grandes povoações, mas tambem se estabeleciam os herdamentos, as aldeias, e até as pequenas arroteas, desbaratára gradualmente este rico patrimonio. Os reis tinham ido distribuindo essas grangearias destinadas a alimentar a vida collectiva da sociedade pelos seus ricos-homens, pelos seus infanções e pelos seus validos; pelos seus bispos, pelas suas cathedraes e pelos seus mosteiros. D. Fernando esgotára os derradeiros estillicidios que manavam das antigas fontes de rendimento publico, e a nobreza respigara, até o ultimo grão, o que restara da recolhida seara. O estado continuava; todavia, a achar com que supprir as suas necessidades.

"All travellers," answered the good woman, "are welcome here, for the sake of one." "And who is that one," said the king, "for whose sake you make all travellers welcome?" "It is our rightful king, Robert the Bruce," answered the mistress, "who is the lawful lord of this country: and although he is now pursued and hunted after with hounds and horns, I hope to live to see him king over all Scotland." "Since you love him so well, dame," said the king, "know that you see him before you. I am Robert the Bruce." "You?" said the good woman, in great surprise, "and wherefore are you thus alone? Where are all your men?" "I have none with me at this moment," answered Bruce, "and therefore I must travel alone." "But that shall not be," said the brave old dame, "for I have two stout sons, gallant and trusty men, who shall be your servants for life and death."

Em todas as provincias de Portugal o numero de romances que andam na tradição oral, é consideravel; mas quem já conseguiu obter qualquer versão immediatamente do povo, sabe com quantas difficuldades ha de luctar o collector para chegar ao seu fim, pois só a grande custo as velhas resolvem se a trahir seus segredos. Durante minhas viagens pelas provincias do reino, muitas vezes tive occasião de ouvir cantar romances que me eram completamente desconhecidos e que não andam recolhidos em nenhum dos Romanceiros até hoje publicados.

Bien estraño fuera por cierto que, en España cuya monarquía es de origen tan remoto que se pierde en la oscuridad de los tiempos, no tuviesen profundo arraigo las ideas y los sentimientos monárquicos; porque aun cuando las invasiones de los pueblos del Norte, las de los árabes y las guerras que á ello fueron consiguientes modificaron y variaron mucho la forma del poder, no cabe duda que la idea de la monarquía sobrevivió á todos los trastornos, viéndose de esto una clara y hermosísima prueba al levantarse en Covadonga el trono de Pelayo, despues que segun todas las probabilidades debia haber perecido para siempre el sólio español con el desastre de Don Rodrigo á las orillas del Guadalete. Donde se ven reunidos algunos cristianos para hacer frente á los sectarios de Mahoma, allí se presenta un rey; su trono son los escudos de los valientes que le levantan en alto y le proclaman caudillo; su diadema es su capacete: su cetro la espada. No obstante, los pueblos le veneran, le tributan homenage; y sin el oropel de grandes palacios ni el esplendor de la purpura, recaba de cuantos le rodean sumision y acatamiento. A la sazon la monarquía no podia ser una, porque no lo consentia la situacion del país, ocupado en gran parte por los sarracenos; pero á medida que estos andaban cejando hácia las orillas del Mediterraneo, las provincias se reunian bajo un mismo imperio. Leon y Castilla, Cataluña y Aragon presentan este fenómeno; y los monarcas que conquistan á Granada miran sometida á su cetro la España entera. Desde los Reyes Católicos la nacion ha continuado bajo el imperio de un monarca, y es impossible que tres siglos de monarquía no hayan arraigado hondamente en el pais las ideas y sentimentos monárquicos.

Acabó poco á poco á descararse la tempestad; las furiosas ondas cubiertas de blanca espuma comienzan á ensoberbecerse. Estaba el cielo abundante lluvia derramando, furibundos rayos arrojando, y con espantosos truenos el mundo estremeciendo. Sentíase un espantable ruido de las sacudidas maromas y movian gran terror las lamentables voces de los navegantes y marineros. Los vientos por todas partes la nave combatian, las ondas con terribles golpes en ella sacudiendo, las más enteras y mejor clavadas tablas hendian y desbarataban. A veces el soberbio mar hasta el cielo nos levantaba, y luego hasta los abismos nos despeñaba, y á veces espantosamente abriéndose, las más profundas arenas nos descubria. Los hombres y mugeres á una y otra parte corriendo, su desventurada muerte dilatando, unos entrañables suspiros esparcian, otros piadosos votos ofrecian, y otros dolorosas lágrimas derramaban. El piloto con tan brava fortuna atemorizado, vencido su saber de la perseverancia y braveza de la tempestad, no sabia, ni podia regir el gobernalle. Ignoraba la naturaleza y origen de los vientos, y en un mismo punto mil cosas diferentes ordenaba. Los marineros con la agonía de la cercana muerte turbados, no sabian ejecutar lo mandado, ni con tantas voces y ruido podian oir el mandamiento y órden del ronco y congojado piloto. Unos amainan la vela, otros vuelven la antena, otros añudan las rompidas cuerdas, otros remiendan las despedazadas tablas, otros el mar en el mar vacian, otros al timon socorren; y en fin todos procuran defender la miserable nave del inevitable perdimiento. Mas no valió la diligencia ni aprevecharon los votos y lágrimas para ablandar el bravo Neptuno.

It may be said, and perhaps with too much truth, that the business of shopkeeping, as it is generally conducted, has little tendency to ennoble the character: and that perpetually striving to please, for purposes of self-interest, those who in reality are sometimes cordially despised, is lowering to the dignity of a man, to say nothing of a gentleman. It may be asked, on the other hand, who, in the present state of society, is exempt from this particular kind of degradation? The lawyer, who may be said almost to hold the destinies of his fellow-creatures in his hand—he cringes to his wealthy client, and often works his way to distinction by concealing his real sentiments, and pretending to be other man than he is. The doctor, too, with his untiring patience and his imperturbable serenity, approaching with apparent kindness and respect, where every feeling of his soul is repelled—who would speak of him as an independent man, more especially in the outset of his career? Nor is this less the case with other professions, all which, however, are esteemed more honourable, and consequently more eligible, than any kind of trade. But let his occupation be what it may, it is the honest heart, the upright principle, the steady mind, and the unbiased judgment, which give him dignity wherever he may be placed.

Lo mismo en las llosas del fondo del valle, que en las que rodeaban las caserías dispersas en las alturas, reinaban la animacion y el contento, no tanto porque habian venido las hojas y las flores, y los pájaros, y los dias claros y las noches serenas, como porque habian venido las esperanzas, doradas mariposas, cuyas crisálidas eran el piececito de maiz que asomaba ya su rubia cabeza en la heredad lavada y sembrada quince dias ántes, la hebra de trigo que reventaba de orgullo al sentir la espiga en su seno, y la flor de los frutales, madre feliz que no muere hasta que estan granaditos sus hijos. Los niños hacian silbos con la corteza del nogal ó del castaño, ó buscaban nidos en los ave lanales de los regatos, de paso que apacentaban los bueyes en las honderas de las piezas ó en las campas; y los hombres y las mujeres sallaban en las piezas adelantadas, ó batian terrones en las atrasadas, chupando su pipa los primeros, cantando ó riendo estrepitosamente las segundas, y todos, niños, y hombres y mujeres, sintiendo una alegria y una felicadad que nos está vedada á nosotros los que nos ahogamos en esta atmósfera deletérea de las ciudades.

Былая жизнь какой бы то ни было страны можетъ быть доступна для насъ двумя путями: посредствомъ знакомства съ бытомъ, судьбами и дѣяніями ея населенія, или посредствомъ изученія тѣхъ вещественныхъ памятниковъ этого быта, которые уцѣлѣли до насъ. Обязанность изобразить прошлую жизнь населенія лежитъ на историкахъ; объясненіе старинныхъ памятниковъ этой жизни принадлежитъ археологамъ. Только при совмѣстныхъ трудахъ бытописателей и реставраторовъ старины возможно болѣе или менѣе полное знаніе той жизни, которая господствовала нѣкогда въ изучаемомъ краѣ Западныя губерніи Россіи представляютъ въ этомъ отношеніи еще ту трудность, что въ теченіе среднихъ вѣковъ главнымъ дѣятелемъ въ ихъ исторіи было Литовско-русское населеніе, а позднѣе господство въ цѣломъ краѣ перешло къ Польскому элементу, и только съ нынѣшняго столѣтія Русская жизнь стала возраждаться въ этихъ мѣстностяхъ.

Къ имѣнію принадлежитъ огромное пространство земли. На Волховѣ имѣются луга, съ которыхъ, кромѣ сѣна, употребляемаго во множествѣ на хозяйство, поступаетъ въ продажу до 20 тыс. пудовъ; такимъ-же образомъ и лѣсъ, разбитый на участки, даетъ ежегодно отъ 8 до 10,000 руб. дохода. Казенныя повинности крестьянъ обезпечены особымъ капиталомъ, процентами съ котораго онѣ покрываются; равнымъ образомъ помѣщены въ Банкѣ особые капиталы: для ссуды крестьянамъ, для ремонта строеній, словомъ для всѣхъ правильно-наступающихъ расходовъ по имѣнію. И при всѣхъ этихъ нескончаемыхъ выгодахъ сельское населеніе чувствовало себя очень несчастнымъ: деспотическій характеръ графа ставилъ крестьянина въ положеніе, которое не согласовалось съ его бытомъ.

Behold, then, Napoleon Bonaparte undisputed master of the noble empire of France; he the younger son of a decayed noble on the petty island of Corsica, which only a few months previous to his birth had become for the first time a French dependency; he who had just completed his thirtieth year, and yet filled the universe with his renown! With him henceforth its destinies were identified. The character of his government followed the bent of his individual genius. It was that emphatically of an organiser, on the sound and admirable principle of fusion, for he was personally free from connection or sympathy with any of the factions that had so long distracted the Republic. He made it his object to gather around him the men who had distinguished themselves for talents of various kinds in the course of the Revolution, whatever their previous opinions might have been, provided only that they harmonised with the new spirit he sought to give the era, and abjured extreme doctrines either political or social.

Баронъ Строгоновъ употребилъ всѣ усилія, всѣ мѣры убѣжденія и угрозы, чтобы прекратить гоненія, чтобы заставить Турокъ понять, что, карая враговъ вооруженныхъ, они должны уважать общій законъ и не трогать невинныхъ, безоружныхъ подданныхъ Порты; его требованія только раздражали султана, который съ своей стороны употребилъ угрозу, и можно было ожидать со дня на день, что Строгонова и все посольство посадятъ въ Семибашенный замокъ, въ видѣ заложниковъ, на случай движенія Русской арміи. Не смотря на явную опасность, баронъ Строгоновъ тѣмъ не менѣе отстаивалъ Христіанъ, а отъ своего собственнаго правительства надѣялся поддержки военною силою. Каподистрія поручилъ ему подать окончательную ноту съ требованіемъ отвѣта въ теченіи недѣли; отвѣта не было, и Строгоновъ со всѣмъ посольствомъ выѣхалъ, увѣренный, что послѣдуетъ объявленіе войны.

Here I met with my former worthy tutor, Brodowsky, who was become a captain and auditor in the Polish regiment of Golz. He met me just as I entered the town. I followed triumphantly to his quarters; and here at length ended the painful, long and adventurous journey I had been obliged to perform.

This good and kind gentleman, after providing me with immediate necessaries, wrote so affectionately to my mother, that she came to Elbing in a week, and gave me every aid of which I stood in need.

The pleasure I had in meeting once more this tender mother, whose qualities of mind and heart were equally excellent, was inexpressible. She found a certain mode of conveying a letter to my dear mistress at Berlin, who a short time after sent me a bill of exchange for four hundred ducats upon Dantzic. To this my mother added a thousand dollars and a diamond cross worth half as much, remained a fortnight, and persisted, in spite of all remonstrance, in advising me to go to Vienna.

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH DOMINIONS.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR PRESERVING THE PRIVILEGES OF AMBASSADORS AND OTHER PUBLICK MINISTERS OF FOREIGN PRINCES AND STATES.*

(7 Ann, cap. 12, 1708.)

[In force January 1, 1903.]

Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly persons having in a most outragious manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matueof, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesties good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him in custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorised and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable.

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorised and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick, or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing such Process. Punishment.

4. And . . . . in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and sollicitors prosecuting and solliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or process, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said †] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trader.

5. [‡ Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registred in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

7. . . . . all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and other officers and ministers of justice, concerned in the execution of process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their peril.

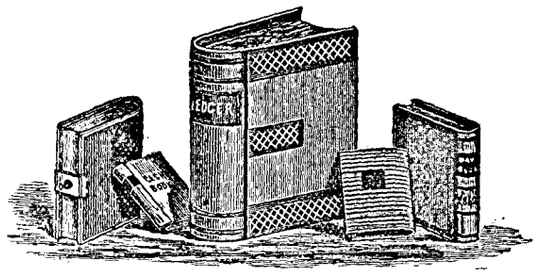
ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.



ACCOUNT BOOKS,

Made of the best description of Paper, well Ruled and Printed, and the

MATERIALS USED FOR BINDING ARE OF SUPERIOR QUALITY,

ESPECIALLY THE RUSSIA, CALF, AND VELLUM.

All best Books are made with patent flexible backs, and warranted to open perfectly flat, without danger of the joints or sections giving way.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING ACCOUNT BOOKS.

The Size of Paper may be given in inches.

Description of Paper—Blue Laid Hand-made is always used, unless instructions are given to the contrary.

Thickness of Book—The number of Pages should be given; two pages constitute a leaf or folio, and two leaves or folios or four pages form a sheet.

Pattern for Ruling—Patterns of ordinary Rulings are on next page; if any other be required, a whole sheet should be sent.

Description of Binding—Russia, Calf, Vellum, with single or double Russia Bands, Basil, Forril, half Russia, half Calf, half Vellum, half Basil, with cloth or paper sides.

Lettering—If on Back or Side, or both.

Indexes—Ruled blue lines, unless a pattern for the Ruling be sent, are bound up with the Book, if not ordered in a separate binding. The number of leaves to each letter should be stated.

Paging or Folioing—Care should be taken to state distinctly whether the Book is to be paged or folioed; if paged, the numbers run consecutively, thus: (1) (2; if folioed, both pages in the opening have the same number, thus: 1) (1.

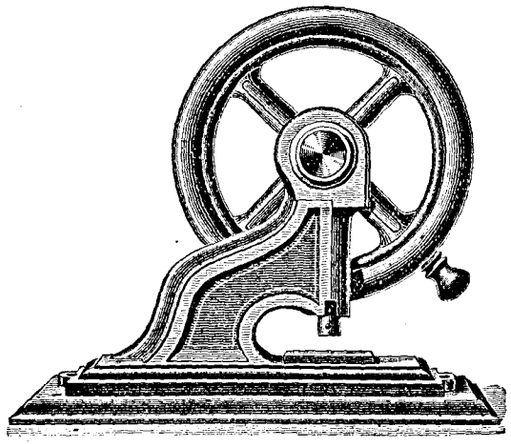
PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.



For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press: so little force is needed to work it, that the Press requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a Cam. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screw-press.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

Directions for Use.

Proceed as with an ordinary Copying Press; the pressure is obtained by closing the clasps.

VAN ANDEN'S PATENT "ROLL" PRESS.

The extreme portability of this Press renders it highly useful to Architects, Surveyors, Solicitors, and Professional Men generally.

	Quarto. s. d.	Foolscap. s. d.
With Copying Book complete	7 0	10 6
„ „ „ „ and with Inkstand ...	9 0	12 6

Directions for Use.

To copy a letter or other writing, extend the book on a table or desk, with the case toward you; place your letter under a leaf of the book with the writing uppermost; wet the cloth, squeeze it as dry as possible with one hand, and spread it over the leaf. Lay the oiled paper over the cloth to prevent wetting the preceding leaf; roll the case on the table so as to furl the book tightly round it, and in five seconds you will have a perfect copy.

When the letter to be copied covers two or more sides of the sheet, a half sheet of plain paper placed between the written sides will prevent blotting.

Good copying ink should be used.

When one book is filled, it can be slipped out of the groove, and replaced by another.

Directions for Opening and Shutting the Framed Inkstands.

Push the ink case at the part marked "Push" and, when raised to a right angle with the frame, slide it to the centre. In sliding the ink case back into the frame, apply the pressure at the lowest part, and it will be found to move along the groove quite easily.

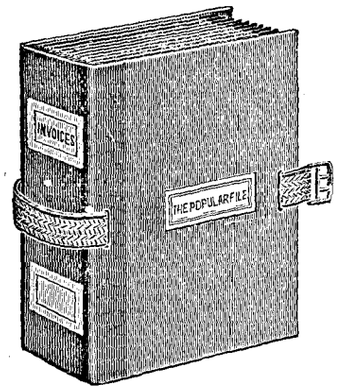
THE POPULAR FILE.



A tough A B C Case, bound in green cloth, with green Manilla sides. It has a strong web strap and buckle, and a loop at the back for convenience in removing from shelf. The stiff cover projects above and below, and thus protects the gussets from wear. A dozen of these files will hold a year's invoices, letters, &c., in the most accessible manner possible, so that any document may be found at once.

This is the most simple method of storing papers. Notwithstanding their low price, the Files are very strong, and will last for years. A complete set of labels is supplied with each File. They are made in four sizes, with 21 pockets, indexed A to Z.

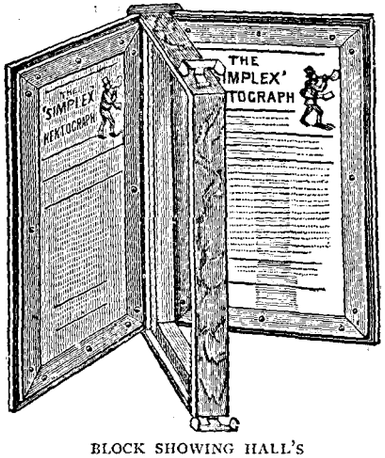
BLOCK SHOWING HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH CLOSED.

HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH

Is the latest device introduced for the instantaneous fac-simile reproduction of any Circular, Writing, Drawing or Music in Black Ink. It is the most recently improved form of Copying Apparatus by means of Composition, and its perfected character is now such as to constitute it a genuine marvel of its kind.

Outwardly it looks like a book, and could be placed with bound volumes upon the library shelf. It consists of two plates, which are movable, and should be used alternately. After the necessary number of copies (which are as sharp and clear as lithography) have been taken, the Ink remaining on the plate is not washed off; but after the lapse of a few hours will have disappeared by evaporation, and the plate will again resume its clear appearance. The Directions for Use are placed under the Composition (which is transparent); they are therefore always readable and immediately under the Operator's eye.



BLOCK SHOWING HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH OPEN. THE TWO PLATES ARE MOVABLE.

Blind, The Education and Employment of the. By T. R. ARMITAGE, M.D. What it has been, is, and ought to be. Second Edition, 1886. 216 pp. Price 6s.

Burke's General Armory of England,

Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Comprising a registry of Armorial Bearings from the earliest time to the year 1882. This work contains above 66,000 Blazons of the Arms of Families, Companies, Cities, &c., with mottoes arranged in alphabetical order. This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable, not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry," &c. 1,280 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d. Out of Print.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Great BRITAIN. TENTH EDITION, 1900. Thoroughly Revised. The Editor has been enabled, in diligent collaboration with the families themselves, to make this edition especially complete, accurate and interesting, not only to the landed classes but to all lovers of family history. All the well-known features of the work have been retained, and much additional information is given which will, it is hoped, enhance the value of the book from every point of view. To illustrate the thousands of articles, a very large number of representations in fac-simile of the ARMORIAL BOOK PLATES in use by the heads of families are given. Their artistic merit and heraldic interest must, it is felt, extend the wide popularity of this standard work. The LANDED GENTRY is a vast compendium of genealogical knowledge, for it contains the records of nearly four thousand families in England and Scotland, with all their branches, and accurate descriptions of their heraldic insignia. It is published in one volume, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c., &c. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. Super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Ireland, with Supplement, 1899, recording the changes that have taken place up to date, and containing several additional pedigrees, with new illustrations of arms. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. One volume, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt, uniform with "The Peerage," &c. Price £1 1s.

Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, Knight-

AGE, &c. This PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE is the only volume published annually, which gives a genealogical account of the families of the Peers and Baronets of the realm, with their collateral branches. Its plan is therefore not merely confined to lists of the surviving relations of Peers and Baronets, but contains an account of every member of their families living and dead, to each of whom a separate paragraph is devoted. In the Key will be found the name of everyone entitled to precedence, with a number prefixed to each, showing at a glance their exact relative precedence. The rules of PRECEDENCE are set forth in ample detail. To the Peerage and Baronetage proper is added the KNIGHTAGE, which gives in alphabetical order an account of every Knight, Commander, Companion and Member of the various orders of Knighthood, and of their widows. The complete list of these ORDERS is also given with their members in order of precedence. An account of FOREIGN TITLES used by British Subjects will be found at the end of the work. The ILLUSTRATIONS with BLAZONS of the Arms are a special feature of this work. Over 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. Uniform with the "Landed Gentry." Price £2 2s. (Published annually.)

"Has for more than half-a-century been regarded as containing a history of all the great titled families in the Empire. There is scarcely a page in the volume that is not full of interest. . . . . There is an excellent index to the work. . . . . Considerable space is devoted to the question of precedence."—Times.

"The foremost place among works of reference is claimed, almost by traditional right, by Sir Bernard Burke's 'Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage,' which still remains the Standard Authority as to Aristocratic Lineage."—Whitehall Review.

"Constant reference to the pages of 'Burke' enables us to testify to its invariable accuracy. . . . . For completeness and comprehensiveness on all matters connected with Titles of honour it is unsurpassed."—Court Journal.

"An indispensable companion to all classes."—Illustrated London News.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Colonial Gentry,

A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the leading families in the Colonies. Imperial 8vo., with many copper-plate engravings of armorial bearings, cloth, gilt. Vol. I., 1892. Price £1 10s. Vol. II., 1895. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. Price £1 10s.

"Cannot fail to be of considerable value, and to increase in size and interest in succeeding editions."—Morning Post.

"In every respect the volume appears to have been compiled with the Author's well-known scrupulous accuracy."—Daily Telegraph.

"The 'Colonial Gentry' is but an appendix to the traditional volume of Burke. . . . Sir Bernard Burke's carefully compiled volume may be regarded in the light of a historical monument."—Whitehall Review.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Dormant, Abeyant,

FORFEITED, AND EXTINCT PEERAGES of the British Empire. NEW EDITION, BROUGHT DOWN TO 1883. Comprising every Peerage created since the Conquest, that is now Extinct, Dormant, under Attainder, or in Abeyance, and tracing down the various dignities to their existing representatives. Illustrated by Steel Engravings of the Principal Arms. Royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s. Out of Print.

"By the publication of this splendid volume, Ulster King of Arms completes the structure of information which he has been so long engaged in rearing, and in whose construction he has displayed not only the accuracy and research of the herald, but the generalization, the appreciation of the historian."—Morning Post.

Burke's Family Records. A Genealogical and Heraldic Account of the Families of the Gentlemen of England, Ireland, and Scotland, with illustrations of their Armorial Bearings. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. 1897. This work is designed as a companion volume to the "Landed Gentry." In one volume, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2*s*. net.

Hibernia Hippica. By M. O'CONNOR MORRIS. Author of "Dublin Castle," "Hibernia Hodierna," &c., &c. Crown 8vo. With four maps of Irish Hunting Districts. Price 5s.

"Sportsmen on both sides of St. George's Channel owe Mr. M. O'Connor Morris no small debt of gratitude for the chattily comprehensive treatise on horses and hunting in Ireland, which he has published under the title 'Hibernia Hippica' (Harrison & Sons). A thorough master of his fascinating subject, as readers of the Field for many years have had good reason to know, Mr. O'Connor Morris here provides a sketch of what may be called the equine history of Ireland, and a descriptive account of the various Irish hunts, which will delight not only every hunting man, but all to whom the most important question of horse-breeding is in any way of interest. Writing of a country which has been at all times famous for its horses, the author of this valuable little work finds no lack of material for his survey of the Hibernian record in this regard; nor can it be doubted that his capital descriptions of the existing Irish hunts will have the desired result of inducing more English sportsmen to cross over and avail themselves of the advantages so attractively indicated. An account of the hunting experiences in Ireland of the late Empress of Austria forms not the least interesting chapter of a volume which is to be cordially commended to every lover of horses and every devotee of the chase."—The World.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED a REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and, as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This Caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states, "TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME OF DIARRHŒA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the true Palliative in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the nervous system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The IMMENSE SALE of this REMEDY has given rise to many UNSCRUPULOUS IMITATIONS. Be careful to observe Trade Mark. Of all Chemists, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

ELEMENTS OF STATISTICS.

By ARTHUR L. BOWLEY, M.A., F.S.S., Lecturer in Statistics at the London School of Economics; Guy Silver Medallist of the Royal Statistical Society. Edited by Prof. W. A. S. HEWINS, Director of the London School of Economics. Second Edition. Demy 8vo, cloth, 342 pp.; numerous diagrams. 10s. 6d. net.

Economic Journal.—"The London School of Economics has, since its foundation, had systematic courses of lectures on the elements of statistics, and the school therefore is entitled to share with Mr. Bowley the congratulations which are due to him for supplying a long-felt want. Without further ado it may be plainly stated that, whatever its shortcomings, this book, is the best on the Elements of Statistics written in English, French, German or Italian."
