GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.Os., dated 21st May 1888, No. 1162, and 28th August 1888, No. 1306, Judicial.

READ—also the following papers:—

Petition [illegible] the inhabitants of Viravanallur, Ambásamudram taluk, Tinnevelly district, dated 24th August 1888.

From Colonel C. A. PORTEOUS, Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Coonoor, 23rd September 1888, C. No. 37.

In accordance with instructions contained in paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 1162, dated 21st May 1888, Judicial Department, I have the honor, after personal consultation with the District Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, Tinnevelly, to report that the taluks of Tenkarai, Nánguneri, Ambásamudram and Tinnevelly are, owing to the strong and troublesome Maravar element which they contain, the only ones requiring an immediate increase of the regular police.

2. In the accompanying statement (A) I have given—

(1) the present and proposed strength of police at each station in the district;
(2) the names of certain small stations to be abolished and reasons for same;
(3) reasons for strengthening other stations; and
(4) the cost of the present and the proposed force and the increase of expenditure required for the latter.

3. It will be seen that I propose an increase in the—

	MEN.
Srívaikuntham division (Tenkarai taluk) of	10
Nánguneri taluk of	19
Ambásamudram taluk of	10
Tinnevelly taluk of	18
Palamcottah division (Tinnevelly taluk) of	1
Total increase ..	58

four of these fifty-eight being head constables. Already there is an Inspector in charge of every division and by the increase proposed above every station will have a head constable in [illegible]. No amalgamation of divisions is practicable. The Superintendent has proposed the amalgamation of the Tinnevelly and Palamcottah divisions, but I think this is out of the question; both are large and difficult divisions as they are—amalgamated, they would be beyond the power of any one Inspector.

4. It will be seen that the retaining the present three classes of constables—

1st class	..	Rs. 8 per mensem.
2nd "	..	7 "
3rd "	..	6½ "

the proposed increase of 4 head constables and 54 constables will entail an extra expenditure of Rs. 6,061 per annum as particularized below :—

			Rs.
4 head constables, 4th grade,	at Rs. 12 per mensem	..	576
18 constables, 1st class,	at " 8 "	..	1,728
18 " 2nd "	at " 7 "	..	1,512
18 " 3rd "	at " 6½ "	..	1,404
58 Clothing at Rs. 10 each		..	580
Contingencies		..	261
	Total	..	6,061

By abolishing the third class, the pay of which is too small in a dear district like Tinnevelly and which, I think, it was a mistake to re-establish a short time ago merely for the sake of obtaining a few more men for the district, the extra expenditure entailed would amount to Rs. 9,539 per annum. Vide statement B herewith.

I would strongly recommend the abolition of the third class for the reasons just given.

5. I append another statement (C) showing the number of regular taliaries in the district and the different rates of pay drawn by them.

It will be seen that, while the essentially Maravar taluks of Nánguneri, Tenkarai, Ambásamudram and Tinnevelly have the largest number of taliaries, the first mentioned of these taluks (Nánguneri, the stronghold of the Maravars) has the largest number of taliaries on the lowest pay—Rs. 2 per mensem.

It is impossible that any proper work can be exacted from men drawing such a miserable pittance.

If we are to insist on taliaries doing police work and assisting in the detection of grave crime (without their assistance I do not think that we can obtain any great success in detection), it is absolutely necessary that the pay and position of the taliaries be improved.

As I gave my opinion on this subject in my letter No. 2179, of 21st April 1888, I will not repeat it here.

6. Exhibit D is copy of a circular which the District Magistrate proposed issuing, which must go far towards strengthening the hands of the police.

7. In conclusion I may add that, on my late inspection of Tinnevelly, I noticed with satisfaction great improvement in the working of the police. I attribute this to the energy and zeal of the Superintendent (Mr. Stevenson), the hearty co-operation and assistance in every way afforded by the District Magistrate, and to greater success in conviction of cases in the Sessions Court.

Village Munsif need do is to record the complainant's statement in full, and when identity is in question, to write down as careful and accurate description of accused as he can obtain. To this end, he should record in detail his age, height, shape, colour, marks, clothing and languages. In the same way, when a burglary has been committed, the size of the hole made should be recorded. The substance of what other witnesses have to say should be carefully heard, and the net result embodied in a careful and accurate occurrence report. More care should be devoted to its preparation than is at present the case, and Village Munsifs should bear in mind that the omission to notice important facts in the first report discredits evidence regarding them when produced at a later stage.

4. In a separate circular Village Munsifs have been informed that the power of recording confessions or statements made by accused persons has been withdrawn from them by Government. It is therefore the less necessary for them to record the evidence of witnesses at length. Magistrates are not guided thereby, and the discovery of discrepancies between such recorded evidence and the subsequent viva voce statements of the witnesses themselves creates much confusion and often discredits good evidence.

5. Another point to which the attention of Village Munsifs is expressly called is the investigation of undetected cases; the tendency is to let them drop, but Village Munsifs should keep them alive by entering particulars of undetected cases and criminals wanted, whether ascertained by themselves or communicated by beat constables, in their diaries, and by fully explaining to their Taliaries all details connected therewith.

6. Village Magistrates must also take prompt cognizance of known depredators: it is part of their duty to report the absence of all such persons from their villages and all important particulars regarding them which may come to notice; if this duty is neglected, punishment will follow.

7. Village Magistrates must reside within the limits of their villages and be accessible at all hours to reports of serious crime and other important matters. Complaints are made regarding the neglect of both these matters, and dismissal will follow proof.

8. Taliaries must attend to their legitimate police duties; these must not be neglected on plea of revenue work. All such neglect will then and there be brought to the notice of the Taluk Magistrate by the Police Inspectors, and the Taluk Magistrate will at once inquire into any such complaints. The pay bill of Taliaries will in future be forwarded by Taluk Magistrates to Police Inspectors for countersignature before payment.

(Signed) F. A. NICHOLSON.

Forwarded to the Superintendent of Police for communication to the Inspector-General of Police, as requested by Colonel Porteous on the 10th current.

2. The draft is at present only a proposed draft, and may possibly be amended, altered or added to before final publication.

3. Opinion is invited.

13th August 1888.

(Signed) F. A. NICHOLSON,
Ag. District Magistrate of Tinnevelly.

From Colonel T. K. GUTHRIE, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 1st November 1888, No. 5673.

Adverting to G.O., dated 28th August 1888, No. 1806, Judicial, I have the honor to submit, for the consideration of Government, a fuller and more detailed scheme in connection with the charge allowances for station house officers.

2. Since Colonel Porteous sent in the scheme sanctioned by Government in the above-quoted order, district officers have had more time to go carefully through proposed changes, and consequently the material now in my hands enables me to go further into the subject.

3. I propose to substitute the following changes in lieu of those suggested by Government:—

(I) The charge allowances to be Rs. 7 for first-class stations, and Rs. 4 for second-class stations.

(II) To abolish the third class of constables, and to have two rates of pay only—First class Rs. 8, second class Rs. 7.

(III) Fixing number of District Magistrates' orderlies at 3 constables, and Divisional Magistrates' at 2 constables.

The revised proposals allow for 301 first-class and 1,293 second-class stations according to district returns which provides for a first-class charge at every Tahsildar's and Sub-Magistrate's head-quarters. The scheme previously submitted did nothing like this and was therein defective. The cost of this is—

301 × 7 = 2,107
1,293 × 4 = 5,172

7,279 × 12 = Rs. 87,348 per annum.

The establishing of two rates of pay at Rs. 8 and Rs. 7 cuts off 7,077 constables, and the cost will be Rs. 42,462.

To these sums add the Tinnevelly requirements separately submitted by Colonel Porteous, Rs. 6,061 (the third-class men there applied for being dealt with in the foregoing calculation).

These three sums amount to Rs. 1,35,871, against which has to be put—Saving by reduction of men and stations, Rs. 53,247; saved by adoption of III (Magistrates' orderlies), Rs. 14,381; total, Rs. 67,628; leaving a balance to be provided by Government of Rs. 68,243 in lieu of Rs. 85,000.

5. The majority of District Magistrates who have up to this replied to the questions regarding orderlies agree in fixing the number as given by me in para. 3 (III), and I have adopted that scale.

6. An addition is much needed to the Kistna Reserve. I propose therefore, with the sanction of Government, to abolish the Jagayyapet reserve of 1 Inspector, 2 head constables and 40 constables, as I consider this party no longer necessary, and to add 1 head constable and 20 constables to the Head-quarter Reserve, saving the pay of 1 Inspector, 1 head constable and 20 men. This is included in accompanying statements.

7. Details of the foregoing are given in the accompanying statements by districts.

8. The question of police supplied to railways is one that might fairly be taken up in connection with improvements in the force, and also the payment in part of Municipal Police by Municipalities. With contributions from these sources, we might find funds to increase the pay of Inspectors—a very needful reform.

PROPOSED CIRCULAR.

The following instructions are issued for the guidance of Village Magistrates, to whom they will be carefully communicated by the several Taluk Magistrates:—

1. Village Magistrates must arrange for giving proper information to beat constables when they visit the villages. Absence from the village without due cause or leave will be severely noticed; the Taluk Magistrate will inquire into all such absences when duly reported. In cases of unavoidable or lawful absence, a Taliari must be present in the village to give all necessary information to the beat constable.

2. On receiving a requisition from any police constable on duty for aid, Village Munsifs are instructed to make an invariable practice of sending out their Taliaries to trace stolen cattle. Prompt action in this respect will do more to improve the detection of such crimes than any other plan, and remissness to afford such aid to the police will be severely noticed.

3. When on investigating a criminal case, other than the one coming within the Village Munsif's own jurisdiction, it is not only unnecessary, but is highly objectionable, for him to record fully the evidence of the witnesses. Such a course facilitates the subsequent escape of the guilty and fails to benefit the prosecution; furthermore, it wastes much valuable time; all that the

The following instructions are issued for the guidance of Village Magistrates to whom they will be carefully communicated by the several Taluq Magistrates.

1 — Village Magistrates must arrange for giving proper information to Beat Constables when they visit the villages. Absence from the Village without due cause or leave will be severely noticed; the Taluq Magistrate will enquire into all such absences when duly reported. In cases of unavoidable or lawful absence a Taliari must be present in the village to give all necessary information to the Beat Constable.

2 — On receiving a requisition from any Police Constable on duty for aid, Village Munsiffs are instructed to make an invariable practice of sending out their Taliaris to track stolen cattle. Prompt action in this respect will do more to improve the detection of such crimes than any other plan, and readiness to afford such such and to the Police will be severely noticed.

3 — When on investigating a criminal case, other than the one coming within the Village Munsiffs own jurisdiction, it is not only unnecessary but is highly objectionable for him to record fully the evidence of the witnesses. Such a course facilitates the subsequent escape of the guilty and fails to benefit the prosecution; furthermore, it wastes much valuable time; all that the Village Munsiff need do is to record the complainant's statement in full and when identity is in question to write down as careful and accurate description of accused as he can obtain. To this end, he should record in detail his age, height, shape, colour, marks, clothing and languages. In the same way when a burglary has been committed, the size of the hole made should be recorded. The substance of what other witnesses have to say should be carefully heard and the net result embodied in a careful and accurate occurrence report. —

More

More care should be devoted to its preparation than is at present the case, and Village Munsiffs should bear in mind that the omission to notice important facts in the first report discredits evidence regarding them when produced at a later stage.

4 — In a separate circular Village Munsiffs have been informed that the power of recording confessions or statements made by accused persons has been withdrawn from them by Government. It is therefore the less necessary for them to record the evidence of witnesses at length. Magistrates are not guided thereby and the discovery of discrepancies between such recorded evidence and the subsequent viva voce statements of the witnesses themselves, cause much confusion and often discredits good evidence.

5 — Another point to which the attention of Village Munsiffs is expressly called is the investigation of undetected cases; the tendency is to let them drop, but Village Munsiffs should keep them alive by entering entering particulars of undetected cases and criminals [illegible] whether ascertained by themselves or communicated by [illegible] constables, in their diaries and by fully explaining to their Taliaries all details connected therewith.

6 — Village Magistrates must also take prompt cognizance of Known Depredators: it is part of their duty to report the absence of all such persons from their villages and all important particulars regarding them which may come to notice; if this duty is neglected, punishment will follow.

7 — Village Magistrates must reside within the limits of their villages and be accessible at all hours to reports of serious crime and other important matters. Complaints are made regarding the neglect of both these matters and dismissal will follow proof.

8 — Taliaries must attend to their legitimate Police duties; these must not be neglected on plea of Revenue work. All such neglects will then and there be brought to the notice of the Taluq Magistrate by the Police Inspectors and the Taluq Magistrates will at once inquire into any such complaints. The [illegible] of Taliaries will in future be forwarded by Taluq Magistrates to Police Inspectors for countersignature before payment.

(Signed) F. A. Nicholson.

Forwarded to the Superintendent of Police for communication to the Inspector General of Police as requested by Colonel Porteous on the 10th Current.

2 — The draft is at present only a proposed draft and may possibly be amended, altered or added to before final publication.

3 — Opinion is invited.

CURRENT NO.

C. No. 37

Office of the Inspector General of Police,

Coonoor 23 Septr 1888

From Colonel C. A. Porteous,

Ag: Inspector General of Police,

To The Chief Secretary to Government Ootacamund

Sir,

Enclosures. Four } In accordance with instructions contained in para 3 of G.O. No. 1162 dated May 21st 1888 J.D., I have the honor after personal consultation with the District Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, Tinnevelly to report that the talugs of Tenkarai, Nanganeri, Umbasamudram and Tinnevelly are, owing to the strong and troublesome Marine Element which they contain, the only ones requiring an immediate increase of the regular Police.

* Not Tenkasi as stated in the l.o. under reply

II — In the accompanying Statement (A) I have given

1. The present and proposed strength of Police

Police at each Station in the District,

2. The names of certain small Stations to be abolished and reasons for same.

3. Reasons for strengthening other stations, &

4. The cost of the present and the proposed force and the increase of expenditure required for the latter.

III — It will be seen that I propose an increase in the

Srivyguntam Division (Tenkarai Taluq) of	10 men
Nanganeri Taluq	19 —
Umbasamudram Taluq	10 —
Tinnevelly Taluq	18 —
Palamcottah Division, Tinnevelly Taluq	1 —
Total Increase	58 —

Four (4) of these fifty eight (58) men being Head Constables. Already there is an Inspector in charge of every Division, and by the increase proposed above, every Station will have a Head Constable in charge. No amalgamation of Divisions is practicable. The Superintendent has proposed the amalgamation of the Tinnevelly and Palamcottah Divisions, but I think this is out of question. both are large and difficult Divisions as they are; amalgamated, they would be beyond the power of any one Inspector.

IV — It will be seen that by retaining the present three (3) Classes of Constables 1st Class on Rs 8 per mensem.

2d Class on — do —
3d Class on — do —

the proposed increase of 4 Head Constables and 54 Constables will entail an extra expenditure of Rs 6061 per annum as particularized below.

4.	Head Constables, 4th Grade @ Rs 12 p.m.	576
18.	Constables, 1st Class @ Rs 8 p.m.	1728
18	do 2d do —	1513
18	do 3d do — 6½	1404
58.	Clothing at 10 each	580
	Contingencies	261
	Total	6061

By abolishing the 3d Class — the pay of which is too small in a dear district like Tinnevelly and which I think, it was a mistake to re-establish a short time ago ago merely for the sake of obtaining a few more men for the District — the extra expenditure entailed would amount to Rs 9539 per annum. Vide Statement B herewith.

I would strongly recommend the abolition of the 3d Class for the reasons just given.

V — I append another Statement (C) showing the number of regular taliaries in the District and the different rates of pay drawn by them.

It will be seen that while the essentially Maravar taluqs of Nanganeri, Tenkarai, Umbasamudram and Tinnevelly have the largest number of taliaries, the first mentioned of these taluqs (Nanganeri, the stronghold of the Maravars) has the largest number of taliaries on the lowest pay. Rs 2 per mensem

It is impossible that any proper work can be exacted from men drawing such a miserable pittance.

If we are to insist on Taliaries doing Police work and assisting in the detection of of crime without their assistance I think that we can obtain any great success in detection; it is absolutely necessary that the pay and position of the taliaries be improved.

As I gave my opinion on this subject in my letter No 2179 of April 21st 1888, I will not repeat it here.

VI — Exhibit D is — copy of a Circular which the District Magistrate proposed issuing, which must go far towards stiffening the hands of the Police.

VII — In conclusion I may add that on my late inspection of Tinnevelly, I noticed with satisfaction great improvement in the working of the Police. I attribute this to the energy and zeal of the Superintendent (Mr Stevenson), the hearty co-operation and assistance in every way afforded by the District Magistrate and to greater success in conviction of cases in the Sessions Court.

I have the honor to be

C. No. 3827 & 445

From (1) Inhabitants of Viravanallur, 22 Aug: 88
(2) I.G. of Police, no. 37C.

Dated 23 Sept 1888.

FOR ORDERS.

I am strongly in favour of abolishing constables on 6½ & no doubt Tinnevelly requires more men but I think this should be considered along with the amended propos^n statement, being sent up by Col. Guthrie. We will then see what we are asked to give in all & shall know if we can possible find the funds.
PH 24 Oct

The I.G. of Police submits his proposals for increasing the strength of the Force in the Tinnevelly Dt with reference to Gov^t 21st May 88. No 1162.

The present strength of the Tinnevelly Force is shown as 891 by the I.G. 888 in the Police Adm^n Report 188[illegible]. At the former figure, there is one policeman to every 1907 inhabitants against 1 in 1464 for the whole Presidency and 1 in 1598 for rural parts of the Presidency [illegible]ally. The Tinnevelly Force is, therefore, somewhat undermanned.

The I.G. now proposes to increase the strength to 949 or by 58 men. This would raise the proportion of Force to population to 1 policeman [illegible] 1791 inhabitants. wh. is not excessive.

The cost of the 58 extra men is Rs 6061 per annum. The I.G. also proposes to abolish the 3rd grade on Rs. 6½. This will cost Rs. 3478 extra - & thus raise the total increase of expenditure to Rs. 9539.

5 small stations are to be abolished, the men thus set free being used to strengthen the main station [illegible] division. C No 3827 is a protest agt the abolition of one of these stations Viravanallur.

The increase is to be given only in 4 tal[illegible] where the Maravars are most difficult to m[illegible]

The Govt will, it is presumed, accept [illegible] proposals [illegible] increase of strength, but the [illegible] of the [illegible] - at the cost of Rs. 3478 - [illegible] may not be possi[illegible]

FOR ORDERS.

[illegible] that Provincial funds [illegible] [illegible] by the Govt. of India. Inf. O. 28 [illegible] 1806, para 4 - the cost of the increase in Tinnevelly was assumed to be about Rs. 5000.

It seems better [illegible] to make a half [illegible] of this [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the abolition of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] should be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] entirely

ENCLOSURE.

In a letter from the Inspector General of Police, dated Madras 15th November 1888 No. 5673.

No. 673

Chief Office of the Inspector General of Police,

Madras, 1st November 1888.

From Colonel J. H. Cuthbert

Inspector General of Police,

To The Chief Secretary to Government Fort Saint George

Sir,

Enclosures. Adverting to G.O. 28 dated August 1888, No. 1806, Judicial, I have the honor to submit for the consideration of Government a fuller and more detailed scheme in connection with the Charge Allowances for Station House Officers—

2. Since Colonel Carleton left in the scheme sanctioned by Government in the above quoted order District officers have had more time to go carefully through the proposed proposed changes and consequently the material now in my hands enables me to go further into the subject ——

3. I propose to substitute the following changes in lieu of those suggested by Government ——

I. The charge allowances to be Rs. 7 for 1 Class Stations and Rs. 4 for 2 Class Stations ——

II. To abolish the 3 Class of Constables and to have two rates of pay only 1 Class Rs. 8 - 2 Class Rs. 7 ——

III. Fixing number of District Magistrates' Orderlies at 3 Constables and Divisional Magistrates at 2 Constables ——

4. The revised proposals allow for for 301 First Class and 1293 Second Class Stations according to District returns which provides for a first Class Charge at every Tahsildar's and Sub Magistrate's Head Quarters - the Scheme previously submitted did nothing like this and was therein defective - the cost of this is

301 × 7 = 2107
1293 × 4 = 5172
(7279) × 12 = Rs. 87,348

per annum ——

The establishing of two rates of pay at Rs. 8 and 7, affect 7077 Constables and the cost will be Rs. 42,462 ——

To

To these sums add the Tinnevelly requirements separately submitted by Colonel Porteous Rs. 6061. the 3 Class Men there applied for being dealt with in the foregoing calculation)

These three sums amount to Rs. 135,871 against which has to be put - Savings by reduction of Men and Stations Rs. 53,247 - Saved by adoption of III (Magistrates Orderlies) Rs. 14,381 - total Rs. 67,628, leaving a balance to be provided by Government of Rs. 68,243 in lieu of Rs. 85,000

5. The Majority of District Magistrates who have up to this replied replied to the questions regarding orderlies agree in fixing the number as given by me in para 3 (III) - and I have adopted that scale

6. An addition is much needed to the Kistna Reserve, I propose therefore with the sanction of Government to abolish the Jaggiapett Reserve of 1 Inspector 3 Head Constables and 40 Constables as I consider this party no longer necessary and to add 1 Head Constable and 20 Constables to the Head Quarter Reserve, saving the pay of 1 Inspector 1 Head

[illegible] Stand [illegible] stable and 20 [illegible]
This is included in accompanying Statements.

7. Details of the foregoing are given in the accompanying Statements by Districts —

8. The Question of Police supplied to Railways is one that might fairly be taken up in connection with improvements in the Force and also the payment in part of Municipal Police by Municipalities. With contributions from these sources we might find funds to increase the pay of Inspectors — a very needful reform —

SIR,

I have the honor to report as directed in para 3 of Government Order Judicial 28th Ultimo No. 80.

2 I am of opinion that Magistrates in charge of Divisions and District Magistrates can dispense with the attendance of orderlies when at their head quarter stations.

3 Constables should be in attendance on every Magistrate's Court whilst the Court is sitting.

4. Magistrates itinerating require a few Police constables with their Camp; these cannot always be drawn from stations near the line of March without some derangement of beat arrangements and some such derangement must be accepted. The best plan would be to require 3 Constables to accompany the District Magistrate's Camp, or 2 Constables the Divisional Magistrate's Camp, to be sent from the Kasba of the Taluk wherein the Magistrate is, for the time, on circuit.

5 A regular Guard is necessary with the Camps of the agents to the Governor in the Northern circars.

From

S. H. Wynne, Esquire,

To

The CHIEF SECRETARY to GOVERNMENT,

Judicial Department,

Fort St. George.

Sir,

In reply to G.O., dated 28th August 1888, No. 1806, Judicial, para 3, I have the honor to state that the Inspector General of Police is entirely mistaken in supposing that the scale of orderlies attached to Magistrates' offices shown in division III of his letter is true for all districts. He gives for instance the "Collector" a Head Constable and 5 Constables or 6 in all, and the "Senior Assistant Collector" by which I presume he also means the "Head Assistant Collector" 3 Constables; while in this district I have only 2 orderlies while at head quarters and 4 when out in Camp and the "Head Assistant Collector" has only not 3.

2. I also consider that in para 1 of this division (III) he has neglected a good nearest Police Station" would be very much like "calling spirits from the vasty deep."

3. The phrase "Constables should, of course, be in attendance on all Magistrates when in Courts" is unintelligible except on the supposition that the Inspector General is so little acquainted with the practice of district executive as to suppose that a Magistrate never holds a Court except when at Head Quarters. Again, at Head Quarters on many days there is no Court work to be done. Are Constables to be absent at such times? If so how is their presence to be secured when a Court begins to sit which may be quite suddenly? I have never I think read a paragraph of 11 lines which presented so many puzzles for solution as this.

4. I am of opinion therefore that the proposal to withdraw orderlies from Magistrates is not feasible but if instead of 3 Constables for District Magistrates, 2 when at Head Quarters and 4 when in Camp be given and if 2 instead of 1 be given to Deputy Magistrates whose duties are just the same as those of Joint and Head Assistant Magistrates I think the staff suggested by Government in the second sentence of the third paragraph of their order is sufficient.

FROM

A. M. Mallaly Esquire
MAGISTRATE OF THE CHINGLEPUT DISTRICT.

To

The Chief Secretary
to Government
Judicial Department,
Madras.

Sir,

As directed in para 3 of G. O. No 1806, Judicial, dated 8th August, I have the honor to report on the question of the abolition of Magistrate's orderlies.

The only uses of orderlies to a Magistrate are:—

(1) To keep order in court and prove execution.
(2) To take charge of convicted or under remand prisoners.
(3) To take ordinary processes to Police stations for service or execution.
(4) To serve emergent summonses and execute emergent warrants.
(5) To accompany the Magistrate when inspecting [illegible] etc.
(6) To guard office cash boxes and records

3 It is adi[illegible] bles [illegible] in attendance [illegible] trates [illegible] Courts (or [illegible] [illegible] Magisterial functions). The [illegible] of orderlies is therefore in proportion to the [illegible] sequency of the recurrence of the duties mentioned in para 2 above but it will [illegible] that the present supply is in the inverse ratio to the necessity.

4. The supply of orderlies is as follows:—

District Magistrate.	Head C[illegible]	table 1. Constables	5
Sub Divisional Magistrates	Joint Magi[illegible]	[illegible] 1	3
	Head Asst		3
	Assistant		[illegible]
	Deputy		[illegible]
	Sub Magistra[illegible]		nil

5. A District Magistrate [illegible] [illegible] or ever requires the services of or[illegible] [illegible]rlies for he rarely tries original cases and [illegible]erefore the first four reasons are wanting. The fifth is also usually wanting. The sixth only [illegible]plies when he is moving in camp and wi[illegible] [illegible] be considered at length further on. The [illegible] [illegible] supply of orderlies to [illegible] does not [illegible]pear to have been fixed on the principle [illegible] [illegible]ility but simply to magnify the office.

The [illegible] [illegible] Sub Divi-[illegible] Magistr[illegible] continually [illegible] cases and [illegible] [illegible]red for the first four reasons. If [illegible] [illegible] interested in the sanitation [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] the fifth reason applies. But in addition to this we have a state of circumstances which do not apply either to the District Magistrate or to Sub Magistrates, viz. the application of the sixth use — protection of [illegible] and records.
Their offices are usually isolated buildings, where only the orderly in charge sleeps. In G.O.
dated 24th September 1878, No. [illegible], it is laid down "that it is altogether unreasonable that "Police orderlies, who have been on duty all day
"in a Magistrate's Court, should remain on guard
"at the office all night". The question then arises "who is responsible? The Revenue peons [illegible] much harder worked than the orderlies and the duty of guarding "seems to appertain more properly to [illegible] than to peons. We have a treasury [illegible] [illegible] Jail guard and why [illegible] for valuable records and cash in Divisional offices. The custody

3 It is adv[illegible] ... each is in itself in attendance [illegible] for Divisional officers Courts (or ra[illegible] ... should take functions). The [illegible] the security of [illegible] [illegible] proportion to th[illegible] ... it to [illegible] locked up, [illegible] ies must not be held responsible for it, and [illegible] respo[illegible] ... submit, that, this is a very proper duty of constables attached to Divisional officers.

Sub Magistrates have more need of orderlies than any other Magistrate, because they have
(1) more criminal work
(2) greater difficulty in the preservation of order and dignity of the Court.

At present they have no orderlies attached to them, but one is deputed usually from the Cusbah station, and he follows the Sub Magistrate from place to place. It occasionally happens that a Sub Magistrate and a [illegible] Police Inspector are on bad terms, if so, the present system of supplying orderlies to Sub Magistrates may be [illegible] ... fruitful source of [illegible].

8. It is proposed that orderlies should be abolished and their place supplied by deputing constables from the near[illegible] ... Sub Divi-

There are three [illegible] ... continually
(1) There may be [illegible] ... [illegible]red for the
(2) Delay and trouble in [illegible] ... [illegible] in
(3) Uncertainty [illegible] ... [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] station [illegible]

As to (1). This is not unlikely considering how much camping is required of Divisional officers, especially, as in the [illegible] port under review, the question of conce[illegible] and amalgamating stations is considered.

[illegible] the Magistrate on each occasion to send a requisition to the nearest [illegible] station, which [illegible] its jurisdiction, and is he to postpone [illegible] till the Police arrive?

(3) Such an arrangement would disturb the routine work of the station, interrupt beats, and possibly there may be no constable available.

Ordinarily [illegible] no doubt that the suggestion could [illegible] worked [illegible] is done by Young Magistrates [illegible] but [illegible] would cause great [illegible] in emergent cases and petty [illegible].

Eg. (α) [illegible] that const[illegible]

3 It Section [illegible] all Mag[illegible] [illegible] summons shall be served their when exe[illegible] [illegible] or subject to such rules [illegible] the [illegible] Local Governm[illegible] of it to [illegible] this code as the [illegible] [illegible] be in this behalf by an office[illegible] of the Court issuing it to such rules (as far as I know) have been [illegible] [illegible]. Therefore having no orderly work would suffice.

(β) Urgent warrants.

Section 77, C.P.C. lays down that warrant shall ordinarily issue to a Police officer, but may be issued to any other person; if there is no orderly, who would execute the warrant?

(γ) Urgent remand. Who would guard prisoners during non-office hours?

9. Sometimes a Magistrate receives reports of serious riots, fire or grave crime (Dacoity etc) when out in non-Police station villages and he has to start at once. The presence of an orderly on such occasions is of the utmost value.

10. After [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], it appears to me, to be necessary, [illegible] person exercising the functions of a Police Constable should be in con[illegible] [illegible] ever, differ[illegible] [illegible] Magistrate, but [illegible] [illegible] They [illegible] have [illegible] orderlies [illegible] often [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] added to [illegible] [illegible] and that the orderlies [illegible] [illegible] additional Revenue peons, with a distinct uniform; this would be so much increased power without any additional expense. They should have all the powers of a constable for serving urgent summons, executing warrants, and taking charge of remanded and [illegible] prisoners. I cannot perceive any objection to such an arrangement. When not required to perform the functions of "orderlies" they would do their work as ordinary Revenue peons.

Colonel Porteous remarks that "most Magistrates I [illegible] [illegible], would relinquish all or most of [illegible] orderlies". This is due not because [illegible] [illegible] necessary but probably to the [illegible] reasons.

1. Inte[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
2. Want of direct control.
3. General incapacity.

These would be obviated by investing Magistrates orderlies, with double functions and placing them under the direct control of the Magistrate which would render them much more useful public servants.

From a Police point of view the proposals of the Inspector General are undoubtedly good, but not so from an administrative point of view, for it is most important to carefully uphold the dignity and order of especially the lowest criminal court. An orderly changed continually probably useless for other Police purpose, and not subject directly to the control of the Magistrate, serves more as a source of irritation than any practical good.

It appears to me advisable to let things remain as they are, but if it is absolutely necessary to make reduction the least harm would be done by abolishing two of the Collect orderlies and the Sub Collector's Head Constable.

SIR,

In reply to G.O. 28th August 1888. No. 1806 I have the honor to state that I have always considered it useless and wasteful to attach Police orderlies to Magistrates. They are either sleeping about in the verandahs or slouching about and I fancy very often they are absent without leave. They get into idle slovenly habits instead of spending their time on drill or the catechism.

2. There can be no difficulty in arranging for the attendance of orderlies when cases are being tried. My predecessor I learn was robbed twice whilst in camp despite the the Police and Talayaries sleeping at his tents. So for travelling I think their services may be dispensed with. I may mention that since I began to write this letter I sent to enquire how the orderlies were employed. The reply is that not one has been present all day.

3. In this connection I note that Dharmavaram is reduced to a second class station. It is the curtsey of a large cumbrous Taluq with heavy crime.

In reply to G.O. No. 1806 and 1807 dt 28th August, I have the honor to state that I see no objection to the reduction in the number of orderlies proposed in para. 3.

2 In connection with this I would observe that if care were taken to exclude all but able bodied men from peon's posts one might very well do without orderlies at all, but so long as these appointments are allowed to be bestowed on men unfit to earn their living in any other way it will be hard to do without a Constable or two in ones Court.

Sir

I have the honor to report as directed in para 3 of Government Order 1806, dated 28 August 1888, Judicial, on the proposal to reduce the number of orderlies.

I have consulted the Divisional magistrates on the subject. Except the Head Assistant Magistrate, they all agree that two orderlies for joint and Head Assistant Magistrates and one each for Assistant and Deputy Magistrates would ordinarily be sufficient. The Head Assistant Magistrate points out a

a fact which applies to the case of all magistrates [illegible] that the present jail guards do not [illegible] prisoners brought from jail to a magistrate's [illegible] for trial. In fact as such prisoners are usually brought from a subjail there is no one who could guard them. The Magistrate's orderlies perform this duty and it is one which cannot well be dispensed with.

An officer like the Head Assistant Magistrate in this District who has many magisterial cases finds his two or three orderlies none too many to take the prisoners from and to jail and guard them while in court. It should be remembered that a magistrate engaged in committing a prisoner for trial to the court of Session may have to deal with murderers, housebreakers and all manner of criminals, requiring to be securely guarded.

It is also to be remembered that Divisional Magistrates are very often on tour in camp and have to conduct their criminal trials there as

as well as at head quarters. On such occasions a guard is required for the officer [illegible] and the property before the magistrate's criminal cases which is sometimes of considerable value.

Orderlies are occasionally required for the purpose of executing at once process arresting a criminal caught flagrante delicto.

Peons have a large number of other duties to perform and the number actually available for duty at one place and time (especially in camp) is often very small. In my opinion the Divisional officers who do much original magisterial work will either find themselves very much hampered in their work by the absence of orderlies or some system will have to be devised for supplying men from the Police station in the neighbourhood of their court.

It is to be feared that this plan would upset all attempts at system in beat-duty, patrol

patrols and process serving.

The District Magistrate who does very little original magisterial work has less need for orderlies than any one else.

I think Colonel Porteous might be asked to state what "duties for which they "are not intended orderlies are frequently "engaged upon." I have never known an instance of any such thing.

Sir,

Adverting to para 3 of Government order dated 28th August 1888 No 1806, Judicial, directing the District Magistrates to report on the subject of orderlies, I have the honor to state that I consider three Constables for the District Magistrate, two for each of the Principal, Senior or Special Assistant Magistrate and one, for each Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, ample. When on tour in the low Country I would retain three Constables but not be dependent on stations as the Camp is frequently at a distance from such and it is not always convenient to communicate before hand one's movements.

2. In the Maliahs the usual Police

Guard should continue to be supplied.

North Arcot District Magistrate Office

From

To

The Chief Secretary

Judicial Department.

Sir,

With reference to para 3 of G.O. dated 28th August last, No 1801, Judicial, I have the honor to report as follows:—

2 The number of orderlies attached at present to the several magistrates in the District is given in the margin. The proposal to withdraw entirely or to considerably reduce in number the orderlies supplied to magistrates is, in my opinion, inadvisable.

District Magistrate 5
Joint Magistrate 3
Head Asst Magistrate 3
General Duty Dy Magte 2
Special Dy Magistrate 2

3 The District Magistrate should have the five orderlies at present supplied to him. This number cannot, without risk and serious inconvenience inconvenience be required. Two Constables are required to watch the treasure box kept in the Circ. office. The office at Chittoor has to be guarded, records on March and in Camp escorted and watched. There is not a man too much. I regret that Government should have passed over in silence the Inspector General's assertion that Orderlies are improperly employed. In my experience this is not the case. I must distinctly state that in this District, no reduction can be made with safety. The reference to the number of Revenue peons allowed is misleading. From the Collector's peons are supplied those of the Treasury Deputy Collector, Assistant Collector and Huzur Sheristadar. The remainder, allowing for reliefs, Changes of Camps &c., are not more than are required. As for the guarding of the important offices at Chittoor and the escort of records &c., when in Camp it is police work, and if the Police are reduced, and anything happens to the records or treasure the the [illegible] be held accountable [illegible] happy [illegible] the Collector's Circuit Camp is in two or three places at the [illegible] time. Each separate Camp must have its guard in addition to the guards at the Chittoor office.

4. It is absolutely necessary that some orderlies should be attached to Magistrates. The minimum number that the other Magistrates should have is 2 each. One Constable may thus be taken away from the Joint Magistrate and one from the Head Assistant. The two Constables [illegible] allowed to the Deputy Magistrates cannot be reduced, as great inconvenience would be felt especially when they go out in Camp.

5. A precis of the replies received from the Joint, General Duty & Special Deputy Magistrates, setting forth the circumstances under which orderlies are indispensable is given below.

Joint Magistrate. Only 3 orderlies are attached to his office. The number may
