It is submitted that some explanation of what is meant by "relatives" should be given, as the word is often used loosely to include persons who are most distantly connected. In this connection attention is solicited to the remarks in the leader of the "Madras Mail" of the 7 instant.

5/95 If a definition is considered to be necessary that in section 5 (XXIII) of the bill to amend Act IV of 1884 may be adopted. The Council should have made their suggestion when the rule was published for criticism and not after it had been confirmed.

Abstract.—Ordering the publication in the Fort St. George and District Gazettes of a notification proposing to make an addition to the rule prohibiting municipal councillors from voting on certain questions, issued under G.O., dated 14th December 1889, No. 1703 M., and stating that any objections or suggestions regarding the proposed addition will be considered on or after 1st February 1895.

Order—dated 16th February 1895, No. 239 M., Local and Municipal.

In the Government order read above, an addition which it was proposed to make to the rule prohibiting municipal councillors from voting on certain questions, issued under G.O., dated 14th December 1889, No. 1703 M., was published for information and criticism. The letters read above contain the replies which have been received. Of the eight municipal councils which have responded to this call, four approve of the addition and three others have no objections or suggestions to make, while the remaining one, the Bellary municipal council, thinks that the proposed addition is "too wide, unnecessary and unworkable." The Government is, however, unable to agree in this opinion.

2. The proposed addition is therefore confirmed, and the following notification will be published in all District Gazettes in English and in the respective vernaculars:—

NOTIFICATION.

Under section 250 (1) (m) of the District Municipalities Act, IV of 1884, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following addition to the rule prohibiting municipal councillors from voting on certain questions, issued under G.O., dated 14th December 1889, No. 1703 M.:—

"or which affects otherwise than in its general application to all properties situated within the municipality, any property belonging to him or his relatives, or in which he is interested, or of which he has the supervision or management."
