No. 66. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Deputy Collector in charge of Treasury, Vizagapatam; dated Fort Saint George, 19th June 1867, Circular No. 15.

Family Remittances to England by Military Officers in Civil employ.

Book Department.

With reference to your letter No. 318, dated 7th instant, I have the honor to forward, herewith, copy of a Circular No. 72, dated 8th May 1867, issued by the Comptroller General of Accounts, relative to the mode of making family remittances to England by Military Officers in Civil employ. Paragraph 97 of the Bill Rules refers to granting Privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts to Military Officers when such remittances are made to their families within any part of India and not to families in England.

2. In the present case, therefore, you should simply receive money from Captain Frazer, and grant him a detailed receipt as required by paragraph 3 of the Comptroller General's Circular above adverted to. The Form No. 144 should be returned to Captain Frazer, who will forward your receipt to the Military Paymaster, to enable the latter Officer to arrange for the remittance being made, as stated in paragraph 4 of the Comptroller General's Circular.

From the Deputy Collector, Vizagapatam, to the Accountant General, Madras; dated Vizagapatam, 7th June 1867, No. 318.

Captain Frazer, Superintendent of Police, Vizagapatam, has applied to me to deduct from his pay, drawable from my Treasury, the sum of Rupees 600 for Home remittance, enclosing Madras Form 144 (Roll of Family Remittance) in triplicate for transmission to the Military Accountant, Madras.

2. Under paragraph 97 of "the Rules for regulating Bills of Exchange," page 16, Transfer Receipts for such remittances are grantable by Divisional Paymasters to Military Officers drawing their salaries through the former.

3. No provision has been made to this end in the case of Military Officers in Civil employ paid from the Civil Treasuries.

4. I have, therefore, the honor to request that you will instruct me as to how I should dispose of Captain Frazer's application.

From the Comptroller General of Accounts, to the Officer in charge of the Treasury at———; dated Calcutta, 8th May 1867, Circular No. 72.

Audit and Account Department.

I have the honor to request that you will observe the following instructions in respect of family remittances to England by Military Officers in Civil employ, for the benefit of their parents, wives, children, brothers, and sisters.

2. The following table shows the extent to which each Officer is entitled to make his remittance annually:—

Colonel...	Rupees	3,000
Lieutenant-Colonel...	,,	2,000
Major...	,,	1,500
Captain...	,,	1,000
Lieutenant...	,,	700
Ensign...	,,	500

Chaplains and Surgeons are allowed to remit according to their relative rank.

3. The Military Pay Department is the only Agency through which such remittances can be made; and an Officer desirous of making remittance by it should pay the amount to be remitted into the Civil Treasury where it should be distinctly credited, a receipt being granted to the remitter.

4. The arrangement for the remittance will be made by the Military Paymaster on being furnished with the receipt in question, and the particulars of the remittance.

Copy to all Collectors, Commissioner of Mysore, Resident of Travancore, the Secretary and Treasurer Bank of Madras, and Military Accountant.

No. 67. ORDER THEREON, 25th June 1867, No. 278.
