Sir,

In reply to your letter No 1109 of the 30th September 1884 received to day I have the honor to state that the promotion of Ramachandra Patnaik from an inferior to a Superior grade was in the ordinary course and not an exceptional one.

His pay was ~~reduced~~ raised from Rs 24 to Rs 18 on the 1st March 1878 on account of his being reported after the Special Assistant Agent's Examination of his school he having been previously warned.

There is nothing on the records forthcoming as to why his pay was reduced on two occasions during the period of his inferior service service except his own story that his pay was reduced owing to the bad report made against him by the then Superintendent of schools, Balajirutho who had, as he says, an ill feeling towards him. His reasons for these two reductions were I think recorded by me in the affidavit made by him and forwarded with the application for his pension. I really can add no more.

With reference to his letter of 23rd January 1884, no 280, and to sec. 123, Rule 1, Civil Pension Code (6th edition) the Director of Public Instruction is requested to report whether the promotion of Ramachandra Patrudu from an inferior to a superior grade was an exceptional promotion made out of the ordinary course as a reward for meritorious service. Detailed explanation should also be furnished as regards the ground on which the applicant's pay was reduced from Rs 24 to Rs 18 on the 1st March 1878 and also on two occasions ~~during~~ during the period of his inferior service.

Sir,

In reference to your letter No. 214, dated 23rd March 1884 forwarding the papers regarding the pension applications on behalf of Arto Mahanty and Ramachandra Patnaick for certain correction and return, I have the honor to state as to objection

(1.) The applicant Ramachandra Patnaick and his father according to the custom of their country have no house or country name whatever, they do not even use the name of their village as one.

(2.) The class of records are already given on the second page of the application as "Pay Bills."

(4) Has already been replied to (vide this Office letter No. 28 dated 21st December 1883. All the applicants' leave is inserted, for they had none at all except the "mamool" leave of two months in the year when the Schools are closed.

(5.) The reason is now given "retirement"

(7.) First applicants signature is in the appropriate column of his service book in the handwriting of his mother tongue Uriya.

(9) The delay was caused by my having to obtain the necessary affidavits, their attendance before me not being procurable before the 20th day of August 1883.

(19) Arto Mahanty has a peculiar twitching of both eyes. Ramachandra Patnaik's scar is on the foot of the right leg.

(35) The records up to 1873 were never in this Office but in that of the Deputy Inspector of Schools who when applied to for them in 1876 or 1877 on the occasion of application for another pension reported that they were not forthcoming in his Office.

All the papers received with your letter mentioned above are herewith returned

Official Memo. to the Director of Pub. Instruction dated 5 Sept. 84 No. 59
From the Director of Public Instruction dated 15 Nov. 1884 No. 8119.

The Director of Pub. Instr. recommends the grant of a special pension to this applicant as he was one of the pioneers of education in the Madras Presidency and has a combined inferior and superior service of about 28 years. The Director quotes Sec 123 but a reference for further information establishes the fact that Sec 123 does not apply and that the special pension if granted must be granted by the Secretary of State. The proposed grating of Rs 206 is the most that can be granted and here. As to referring to the Secy of State, then is really no case to go upon. The salary has been reduced three times for bad work, the last time in 1878, when he was warned to the very verge of his retirement.

ORDER THEREON, 29 May & 11 Nov. No. 1627.

UNDER Sections 110, 113 as amd 115 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Ramaswamy Pattanaik late Head Master of Rajahmundry Mill Track a superannuation gratuity of Rupees (206) Two hundred and six being equal to twelve months pay payable at Jaganathapuram in Kurda Zamindari of Cuttack District in consideration of his qualifying service of twelve years, one months and fifteen days.

It is for Government to decide whether the case is deserving of any special consideration or not.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Special Assistant Agent in Ganjam in his letter No. 13 dated 31st March 1884.

In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 134 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 69 of the Code.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No 1109 of the 30th September 1884 received to day I have the honor to state that the promotion of Ramachandra Patnaik from an inferior to a Superior grade was in the ordinary course and not an exceptional one.

His pay was ~~reduced~~ raised from Rs 24 to Rs 18 on the 1st March 1878 on account of his being reported after the Special Assistant Agent's Examination of his school he having been previously warned.

There is nothing on the records forthcoming as to why his pay was reduced on two occasions during the period of his inferior service service except his own story that his pay was reduced owing to the bad report made against him by the then Superintendent of schools, Balajirutho who had, as he says, an ill feeling towards him. His reasons for these two reductions were I think recorded by me in the affidavit made by him and forwarded with the application for his pension. I really can add no more.

With reference to his letter of 23rd January 1884, no 280, and to sec. 123, Rule 1, Civil Pension Code (6th edition) the Director of Public Instruction is requested to report whether the promotion of Ramachandra Patrudu from an inferior to a superior grade was an exceptional promotion made out of the ordinary course as a reward for meritorious service. Detailed explanation should also be furnished as regards the ground on which the applicant's pay was reduced from Rs 24 to Rs 18 on the 1st March 1878 and also on two occasions ~~during~~ during the period of his inferior service.

Sir,

In reference to your letter No. 214, dated 23rd March 1884 forwarding the papers regarding the pension applications on behalf of Arto Mahanty and Ramachandra Patnaick for certain correction and return, I have the honor to state as to objection

(1.) The applicant Ramachandra Patnaick and his father according to the custom of their country have no house or country name whatever, they do not even use the name of their village as one.

(2.) The class of records are already given on the second page of the application as "Pay Bills."

(4) Has already been replied to (vide this Office letter No. 28 dated 21st December 1883. All the applicants' leave is inserted, for they had none at all except the "mamool" leave of two months in the year when the Schools are closed.

(5.) The reason is now given "retirement"

(7.) First applicants signature is in the appropriate column of his service book in the handwriting of his mother tongue Uriya.

(9) The delay was caused by my having to obtain the necessary affidavits, their attendance before me not being procurable before the 20th day of August 1883.

(19) Arto Mahanty has a peculiar twitching of both eyes. Ramachandra Patnaik's scar is on the foot of the right leg.

(35) The records up to 1873 were never in this Office but in that of the Deputy Inspector of Schools who when applied to for them in 1876 or 1877 on the occasion of application for another pension reported that they were not forthcoming in his Office.

All the papers received with your letter mentioned above are herewith returned

(1) From the Director of Public Instruction Madras dated 23rd January 1884 No. 280

Accountant-General, dated 8th July 1884 No. A.D.S. 130

Official Memo. to the Director of Pub. Instruction dated 5 Sept. 84 No. 59
From the Director of Public Instruction dated 15 Nov. 1884 No. 8119.

The Director of Pub. Instr. recommends the grant of a special pension to this applicant as he was one of the pioneers of education in the Madras Presidency and has a combined inferior and superior service of about 28 years. The Director quotes Sec 123 but a reference for further information establishes the fact that Sec 123 does not apply and that the special pension if granted must be granted by the Secretary of State. The proposed grating of Rs 206 is the most that can be granted and here. As to referring to the Secy of State, then is really no case to go upon. The salary has been reduced three times for bad work, the last time in 1878, when he was warned to the very verge of his retirement.

ORDER THEREON, 29 May & 11 Nov. No. 1627.

UNDER Sections 110, 113 as amd 115 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Ramaswamy Pattanaik late Head Master of Rajahmundry Mill Track a superannuation gratuity of Rupees (206) Two hundred and six being equal to twelve months pay payable at Jaganathapuram in Kurda Zamindari of Cuttack District in consideration of his qualifying service of twelve years, one months and fifteen days.
