Sir,

With reference to your Proceedings No. 728/101 dated 1st April 1881, I beg to submit herewith for sanction the Gratuity rolls of 11 out of 15 Harkarns referred to in my letter No. 66 of the 20th March that are entitled to the Compensation gratuity under the rules. The remaining 4 are not entitled to any gratuity by reason of the service of two being inferior throughout and less than 5 years, and that of the rest having been dispensed with at their request before the abolition of the Establishment in question.

2 As regards the delay in the submission of the rolls I respectfully beg beg to state that the officer in charge of the party then perhaps omitted to do so in view to reentertaining all mokoofed men. Six of them have been provided accordingly since then. The rest that have not got permanent footings applied now for gratuity, and the rolls for the same under submission have been prepared with your permission.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. 1404/215 of the 2d Instant, Communicating copy of letter No. ADK/51 of the 17th Ultimo from the Accountant-General, I beg to return the gratuity applications of the Tinnevelly Demarcation Harkoons making opposite to No. 4, on the 3d page of each of them, the entries as per rules 1, and 6 under Section 59 of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition. The only authority that is available in my records as to the abolition of the office of Harkoons is letter No. 1072/279 of the 29th March 1878, from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, in reply to Director Mr. Puckle's letter to him No. 673/18 of the 17th Idem, which which was with reference to G. O. No. 1572 dated 11th September 1871 - I have enclosed copies of them as directed. Harkoons, P. Rungaiyar, C. Rungasamiengar and V. Sundaram Iyer have been acting during the periods referred to. Their Acting posts fell permanently vacant by the removal or resignation of the permanent incumbents. They were then confirmed in the same posts, the service in which was counted in consequence by the applicants.

Up to 1880. it has not been usual to show the names of Acting incumbents in the annual returns. In the return of 1876 dated 3d April, the name of Sundaram Iyer who was confirmed from the 1st appears to have not been shown, probably, because the order for confirmation was passed with retrospective effect, immediately after

Sir,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 1598/276 dated the 26th July 1881 forwarding copies of correspondence in connection with the applications for gratuities to certain Karkoons of your Department, I have the honor to observe that the Establishment sanctioned in Government Order No. 1572 dated the 11th September 1871 Revenue Department appears to have been of a temporary character, inasmuch as the sanction was accorded on the understanding that the cost of it could be met from the Budget Grant of the Revenue Survey Department for 1871-72.

This assumption is supported to a certain extent also by Mr. Puckle's letter to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, No. 67 dated the 17th March 1878. I would, on reconsideration, the views of this Office be accepted, the applicants would seem to be entitled to no gratuities since their services must have been engaged on the understanding that their appointments were only temporary and that they would be liable to be discharged after a short and limited period of service. Under these circumstances I request to be informed whether there is anything to prove that such understanding existed at the time when the applicants were taken on into the Establishment vide Section 75 (a) of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

Proceedings of the 1st Member, Board of Rev. with Revenue Settlement Deptt 19

Read the following letter from the Dy Director of Revdett Party No III.

Forwarding copies of the 2d page of gratuity rolls of late classifiers Tirumeni Pillay & Ramasami Naick of abolished Party No II

A.E. No 27 dated 12th February 1881.

On the application of certain Karkoons for gratuity, the Dy Director was requested to report whether these men were borne on the strength of the perma-nent establishment and whether their names were included in the annual returns forwarded to the Accountant General.

2 In his letter No 353 dated 14 November /80, Mr Venkatachariar, while holding that they were always treated as permanent hands, reported that they were paid from from the savings of the Survey funds and that their names were not included in the annual returns transmitted to the Accountant General.

X Mr Puckle thereupon decided that their services were of a temporary character and that they were not entitled to gratuity.

None one of these men petitions and points out that the service of Karkoon in the Tinnevelly party was admitted towards gratuity in the case of two classifiers Tirumeni Pillay & Ramasami Naick and that similar indulgence should be shown to them.

5 In order to ascertain the truth of this statement the service lists of the two classifiers in question were sent for and they are the papers recorded above.

From

6 From them it appears that their services were admitted by the Accountant General in calculating their gratuity and that too without any explanation from this office. This apparently leads to the conclusion that the men belonged to the permanent establishment & that their names found a place in the annual lists to enable the accountant general to check their service.

7 Under these circumstances the questions that arise are:—

(1) Whether these two men belonged to the same batch of Karkoons that were paid from the savings of the Survey funds.

(2) Whether the statement

Statement of the dy director that their names were not included in the annual returns may not be a mistake.

8 If the dy director on further search can answer the above two points in the affirmative, there is nothing to prevent similar indulgence being extended to all the Karkoons who are thus paid.

9 With these remarks, the papers together with the petition in question are transmitted to the dy director for a full report on the subject.

The calculations have been duly verified.

2 It will be seen from the chain of correspondence that has taken place between this office and the officer in charge of the Settlement Department, that the applicant was employed on an Establishment sanctioned in G.O. No. 1572 dated 11 September 1871, and that his services were dispensed with on an authority based upon Mr Puckles letter to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey No 67/78 dated 17 March/78 on perusal of the G.O. quoted it would appear that the Government intended that the establishment sanctioned therein should be regarded as temporary entitling the members thereof to no claim for Pension or gratuity in the event of their final retirement from service on being required to justify the submission of the application on behalf of the applicant, the officer in charge of the Settlement Department refers this office to the cases of Tirumenai Pillai and Ramaswami Nayadu disposed of in G.O. No 899 dated 1 September 1880. The services of these two men were not passed wholly in the Establishment sanctioned in G.O. of September 1871. Their names were included in the Bills of the Permanent Establishment and in the annual returns submitted to this Office. At the time of reporting on those cases there was nothing to prove that any portion of their services was temporary and this fact was corroborated by the entries in their respective Service Books. Further the Hd of the Settlement Department is allowed the discretionary power to arrange the Establishments within the sanctioned Budget Estimates of any year. Although these conditions and qualifications have been fulfilled also in the case under report, it is still very doubtful whether the claim can be admitted in force of the assertion made in para 3 of the Deputy Directors letter No. 27 of the 12 Febry/81. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to determine whether the applicants case is or is not of kind deserving of special consideration, notwithstanding that during the tenure of his office as Karkoon he was not made to understand that the appointment was only temporary and that his services would be dispensed with after a short period. If it is determined in the affirmative the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs 75 equal to 5 months pay under Section 100 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. 5 Edition

3 The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 under Section 100 of the Code are furnished by the Deputy Director in his remarks opposite to No 4 on the 3d page of the application.

4 In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130 the attention of Govt is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

5 The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Dy. Director No III party in his letter No. 121 of the 7 May 1881.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) ~~qualifying~~ service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 2 years ~~0~~ months ~~for pension~~ and that the calculations have been duly verified.

2 It will be seen from the Chain of Correspondence that has taken place between this office and the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department and that the applicant was employed on an Establishment sanctioned in G.O. No 1572 dated 14 September 1871 and that his services were dispensed with on an Authority based upon Mr Pulkli's letter to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey No 672 dated 17 March 1878 on personal of the G.O. quoted it would appear that the Government intended that the Establishment sanctioned therein should be regarded as Temporary entailing the members thereof to no claim for Pension or Gratuity in the event of their final retirement from Service on being required to justify the submission of the application on behalf of the applicant the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department refers this Office to the case of Tirunlanai Pillai and Ramasamy Naidu disposed of in G.O. No 899 dated 1 September 1880. The services of those two men were not passed wholly on the Establishment sanctioned in G.O. of Sept. 1871. Their names were included in the Bills of the Permanent Establishment and in the annual returns submitted to this office. At the time of reporting on those cases there was nothing to prove that any portion of their services was temporary; and this fact was corroborated by the entries in their respective Service Books. Further the Head of the Settlement Department is allowed the Discretionary power to arrange the Establishment within the sanctioned Budget Estimate of any year. Although these conditions and qualifications have been fulfilled also in the case under report, it is still very doubtful whether the claim can be admitted in face of the assertion made in para 3 of the Deputy Director's letter No 27 of the 12 February 1881. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to determine whether the applicant's case is or is not of a kind deserving of special consideration notwithstanding that during the tenure of this office as Karkoon he was not made to understand that this appointment was only temporary and that his services would be dispensed with after a short period. If it is determined in the affirmative the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs 24 equal to 2 months pay under Section 100 and 109(2) of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

3 The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 under section 100 of the Code are furnished by the Deputy Director in his remarks opposite to No 4 on the 3rd page of the application.

4 In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

5 The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Deputy Director in Para III of his letter No 121 of the 7 May 1881.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX. D.o

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. D.o Re-employment cannot be found in consequence of abolition of settlement Parties. His monthly pay except the proposed gratuity of Rs 60 is a saving to Government.

5. Any other remarks. D.o Yes and should be admitted. H. Sullivan, 1st Member, Board of Revenue, Dy Director Revenue Settlement Party No III, Signature.

6 Specific opinion of the head of office, whether the service claimed is established

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

No ADV/245 CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying~~ service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 5 years 4 months and 18 days; ~~and~~ but that ~~a~~ no {~~pension~~ / gratuity} ~~not exceeding Rs.~~ will be ~~is~~ admissible under ~~Section~~ the provisions of the Civil Pension Code for reasons detailed below. The calculations have been duly verified.

2 It will be seen from the Chain of Correspondence that has taken place between this Office and the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department; that the applicant was employed on an Establishment sanctioned in Government Order No 1572 dated 11 September 1871 and that his services were dispensed with on an authority based upon Mr Puckle's letter to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey No 673/18 dated 17 March 1878 on perusal of the Government Order quoted, it would appear that the Government intended that the Establishment sanctioned therein should be regarded as Temporary entitling the members thereof to no claim for Pension or Gratuity in the event of their final retirement from service on being required to justify the submission of the application on behalf of the applicant the Officer in charge of the settlement Department refers this Office to the Cases of Tirumenai Pillai and Ramaswami Nayaon disposed of in Government Order No 899 dated 1st September 1880. The services of those two men were not passed wholly in the Establishment sanctioned in Government Order of September 1871. Their names were included in the Bills of the Permanent Establishment and in the annual returns submitted to this Office. At the time of reporting on those Cases there was nothing to prove that any portion of their services was temporary; and this fact was corroborated by the entries in their respective service Books. Further the Head of the Settlement Department is allowed the Discretionary power to arrange the Establishment within the sanctioned Budget Estimate of any year. Although these Conditions and qualifications have been fulfilled, also in the Case under report, it is still very doubtful whether the Claim can be admitted in face of the assertion made in para 3 of the Dy Director's letter No 27 of the 12 February 1881. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to determine whether the applicant's Case is or is not of kind deserving of special Consideration notwithstanding that during the tenure of his Office as Karkoon he was not made to understand that this appointment was only temporary and that his services would be dispensed with after a short period. If it is determined in the affirmative the applicant may be granted a Compensation Gratuity not exceeding Rs 60 equal to 5 months pay under sections 100 and 109(a) of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

3 The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under section 100 of the Code are furnished by the Deputy Director in his remarks opposite to No 4 on the 3d page of the application.

4 In accordance with Rule 4 under section 130 the attention of Govt is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the Code.

5 The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Deputy Director No III Party in his letter No 121 of the 7th May 1881.

2. It will be seen from the chain of correspondence that has taken place between this office and the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department that the applicant was employed on an Establishment sanctioned sanctioned in G.O. No. 1572 dated 11 September 1871 and that his services were dispensed with on an authority based upon Mr Puckles letter to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey No. 673 dated 17 March 1878 on perusal of the G.O. quoted, it would appear that the Government intended that the Establishment sanctioned therein should be regarded as temporary entitling the members thereof to no claim for Pension or gratuity in the event of their final retirement from service on being required to justify the submission of the application on behalf of the applicant the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department refers this office to the cases of Tirumenai Pillai and Ramaswami Nayadu disposed of in G.O. No. 899 dated 1 September 1880. The services of these two men were not passed wholly in the Establishment sanctioned in G.O. of September 1871. Their names were included in the Bills of the Permanent Establishment and in the annual returns submitted to this office. At the time of reporting on those cases there was nothing to prove that any portion of their services was temporary; and this fact was corroborated by the entries in their respective service Books. Further the Head of the Settlement Department is allowed the discretionary power to arrange the Establishment within the sanctioned Budget Estimates of any year. Although these conditions and qualifications have been fulfilled also in the case under report, it is still very doubtful whether the claim can be admitted in force of the assertion made in para 3 of the Deputy Directors letter No. 27 of the 12 February 1881. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to determine whether the applicants case is or is not of a kind deserving of special consideration notwithstanding that during the tenure of this office as Thakoon he was not made to understand that the appointment was only temporary and that his services would be dispensed with after a short period. If it is determined in the affirmative the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs 24 equal to 2 months pay under section 100 and 109(a) of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

3 The particulars required by rules 1 & 6 under section 100 of the Code are furnished by the Deputy Director in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the 3d page of the application.

4. In accordance with rule 4 to section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the Code.

5 The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Dy. Director in III party in his letter No. 121 of the 7 May 1881.

2. It will be seen from the chain of correspondence that has taken place between this office and the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department, that the applicant was employed on an establishment sanctioned in G.O. No. 1572 dated 11 September 1871 and that his services were dispensed with on an authority based upon the Public letter to the Supdt. of Revenue Survey No. 673 dated 17 March 1878. On perusal of the G.O. quoted, it would appear that the Government intended that the establishment sanctioned therein should be regarded as temporary entitling the members thereof to no claim for pension or gratuity in the event of their period of retirement from service being required to justify the submission of the application on behalf of the applicant. The Officer in charge of the Settlement Department refers this office to the case of Tirumalai Pillai and Ramaswami Nayadu disposed of in G.O. No. 899 dated 1 September 1880. The services of these two men were not passed wholly in the establishment sanctioned in G.O. of September 71. Their names were included in the Bills of the Permanent Establishment and in the annual returns submitted to this office. At the time of appointing on these cases there was nothing to preclude any portion of their service was temporary; and the fact was corroborated by the entries in their respective Service Books. Further the Head of the Settlement Department is allowed the discretionary power to arrange the establishment within the sanctioned Budget estimate of any year. Although these conditions have been fulfilled also in the case under report it is still very doubtful whether the claim can be admitted in face of the assertion made in para 3 of the Deputy Director's letter No. 27 of the 12 February 1881. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to determine whether the applicant's case is or is not of a kind deserving of special consideration. It is not clear from the Deputy Director's letter that during the tenure of his office as Karkoon he was not made to understand that this appointment was only temporary and that his services were to be dispensed with after a short period. If it is determined in the affirmative, the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs 24 — equal to 2 months pay under Section 100 and 109(a) of the Civil Pension Code. 5 Petition

This is not with the papers. I have asked that para 3 of the Deputy Director's letter dated 3rd March 81 is found 6

3. The particulars required by rule 886 under Section 100 of the Code are furnished by the Dy. Director in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the 3d page of the application.

4 In accordance with rule 4 Section 130 the attention of Government is respectfully invited to Section 65 of the Code.

5 The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Dy. Director in paras 3 of his letter No. 121 of the 7 July 1881.
