Sir:

The Gov^t. of India after receiving a full explanation from the Revt. Dept. of this Govt. regarding irregularities which they thought we were guilty of; quietly sanction the entertainment of the establishment & send their letter to the P. Works Dept. who have not communicated the paper sons. The matter has been along time in correspondce. Yet for the strong letter we wrote (11 October 1876) they would not have sanctioned it — Now they write
