Ramachandraraz mentioned in col. 15 died in 1834 leaving a childless widow daughter-in-law and he bequeathed his 3rd share of the village to his brother son the party in col. 13 on 4th May 1830 in preference to her providing for her maintenance. The share thus acquired was registered in the name of the incumbent No 1 by the Collector in 1859 on the death of his undivided father-mal uncle. The deed of the gift by which the grandfather of the incumbent No 1 obtained the additional share above referred to was registered in the Civil Court of the Dist. and is not now forthcoming.

This village was confirmed on the existing tenure by the British Govt. on the abolition of the Poligar service hereditary in the family of the present in col. 14.

The entries in the Deed accounts show that it was in the enjoyment of the party in col. 13 previous to the date of the Paravana treating the grant as purely personal.

Confirmed in one deed in the joint names of the parties in col. 15 &c.

Confirmed on present tenure 1/10/84 No. 1427
