* Rungammal is the widow of Kristna [illegible] great grandson of the original grantee. He & his brother Rama Dichadur were divided from the family & enjoyed each a share in the Enam — the former $1^{a} - 7^{d}$, the latter $1^{a} - 6^{d}$, total $2^{a} - 13^{d}$. Both dead. Rama Dichadur left no [illegible] but left by his will his share to Rungammal his brother's widow. So Rungammal held both shares but by the statement put in by her Vakeel it wd appear she has given up all claims to the shares in favor of Corporsamy agreeing to receive her maintenance from Corporsamy, she having no issue.

* Ponnammal is the widow of Ramadikshitar great grandson of the original grantee. He and his brother Ramadikshitar were divided from the family & enjoyed each a share in the Inam - the former 1-7 the latter 1-6. Total 2-13. Both dead. Ramadikshitar left no widow or issue but left by his will his share to Ponnammal his brother's widow. So Ponnammal the left 1/2 share but in the statement put in by her Vakil it would appear she has given up all claims to the share in favor of Corporaisami agreeing to receive her maintenance from Corporaisami, she having no issue.

This is a personal grant & has long been in the family. The present holder Corporaisami is a direct descendant of the original grantee. It would be observed by the remarks under the Col. 16 that Ponnammal has voluntarily given up her share in favor of Corporaisami so he is now the holder of the entire Inam but under orders of a former Collector of the District dated 23d December 1858 No. 679 it would appear that Ponnammal's shares have been restricted to her life, but this was prior to the settlement of Inams by the Commissioner. The present holder is willing to avail himself of the indulgements offered under the Inam Rules. It would recommend that the entire Inam be confirmed to him with a free title subject to the payment of an annual quit rent of at the rate of 1/8 of the assessment.

The Dy. Collector will be as good as to furnish a copy of the Collector's order dated 23d Dec. 1858 & report as regards whether the rent fixed for life was imposed by Collector on his own authority or under any specific order from the Board of Revenue.

The Dy. Collector will also state whether the claimants preferred before him within one year from the date of attachment & if not whether the Commissioner's explanation of the delay is satisfactory.

(Sd.) S. Venkata Rao
Dy. Collr. & recommend the Inam be confirmed.

10/7/67.

Read the following further Explanations received with the Dy. Collr's official Memo: dated 8th June 1867 No. 229

Copy of the Collector's Order dated 23d December 1858 No. 679 is herewith enclosed - also Memo of the Collector dated 4th March 1867 No. 40; by which it will be observed that the rent restricting the Inam for life was imposed by the then Collector Mr. Bird on his own authority -

In regard to the claim, Corporaisamy Dikshitar appeared & preferred it on the 28th September last - The date of attachment being 30th August 1865. So the claim was preferred nearly 13 months from the date of attachment. During that period he appears to have been to Tirupati, & then there is no reason to doubt
