The grant appears to have been made under Sanad (AD 1792) as per entry at Inam Book of Tenkasi.

This is a lapsed case.

The Inam was held under Gojabaiyi under G. Reddi Rao at the time of his death in Oct 1862, leaving behind her two daughters Jinubaiyi & Kavindbaiyi. He filed in this order of 22 Dec 1863 directed the Inam be placed at the disposal of the deceased daughters Jinubaiyi & Kavindbaiyi pending final disposal of the case by the Inam Court.

Jinubaiyi died soon after the death of Gojabaiyi. Some general allegations were preferred by the boy named Sitti Mallikarjuna Pandy. Not a month after the said Sitti Mallikarjuna Pandy died of Jinubaiyi died. Jinubaiyi is now a filthy widow whereas her sister Kavindbaiyi has a son named Nainaya Pandy. Kavindbaiyi now claims the whole Inam, as general to her sister as Jinubaiyi has no heir. While Jinubaiyi says claim to a moiety of the Inam. Under Act 321 & 322 of the Shastras Dayabhaga of Madras Law, the claim of Kavindbaiyi is perfectly the remaining a sole heir. But if person, some relations must be allowed to the widows, widowed daughter Jinubaiyi for her maintenance. The Inam Commissioner recommend the Inam, the compound to both the daughters jointly with a proviso that Jinubaiyi should enjoy a moiety of the Inam during her life.

The compound - as per decree of Court.

Certified on an order of Sivanthoy on the ground that her mother died, and even if she was dead, it is doubtful whether under the usage of the country she would be entitled to inherit the Inam.
