135 Suit No 116 of 1861 on the files of the Tahsildar's Court. Decree

Christna Iyengar inhabitant of Kyatanhully in Pattem & Telugu Talook — Plaintiff

Tahachia, son of Hanuman Arpat Chetty living on the house of Tiruvengadamma daughter in Law of Anchapully Tahsildar Chetty at Triplicane Madras — Defendant

The Defendant who was duly served with the notice issued to him relative to a Suit instituted by the Plaintiff against the Defendant for the recovery of a house, valued at Rupees 100, having failed to file an answer in due time setting forth the objections which he has detailed in a Memorandum urged or petition presented by him and therefore to make the defence, the Suit had to be decided ex-parte, but as the absence of the Plaintiff from the Talook Court prevented the Suit, notice was issued to the Plaintiff on the 6th January 1862, requiring his attendance According to this notice, though it was served on him on the 7th idem, the Plaintiff instead of attending the Court within the limited time, addressed after its expiration an Urzee stating that he had a Marriage to be solemnized in his house, and therefore requesting leave of absence till the 17th February, but even in this, the Plaintiff failed and after the lapse of some days he only sent to the Court on the 21st February a Mooktar and purposely to conduct the Suit but from the default either of the Mookter or the Plaintiff to appear before the Court it was to be inferred that the Plaintiff abandoned his Claim with the understanding that it is a weak one. It therefore being unnecessary for the Cutcha to allow the Suit has been dismissed, and the fees of Rs 6 imposed on the Plaintiff. 31st March 1862.

			1863 April 22	1863 April	1863 April 27	1863 April 30		118	"	"	"
			The Plaintiff sued the Defendant on the 18th September 1862 for the recovery of the aggregate Sum of 118 Rupees the principal being 100 Rupees and interest at 8 Annas per Cent, 18 Rupees on account of a Simple bond, dated 26th September 1859 executed to him by the late Solomon Pillay father in law to the Defendant.
			The defendant in his Answer, dated 28th November 1862, States that he does not recognize the claim, not being a special heir to the deceased, and that he had no Share of deceased's property but that Coonamma the Widow of late Solomon Pillay, was saying that she heard her husband (during) his life time, say that he had liquidated the Amounts to the Plaintiff, hence, the bond which the Plaintiff produced might be a forged one.
			Clerk of the District Moonsiffs Court

	Decree

The four Witnesses, in favor of the Plaintiff, depose that the Defendant promised Plaintiff, about 8 or 10 months ago, that he would pay the amount of the bond; and two of the witnesses depose that the bond was written in Soloman Pillay's own hand-writing.

It is not proved by any of the witnesses that he (the Defᵗ) is the legitimate heir to the property of the deceased.

The Plaintiff produced a paper addressed to Dhunsing (5ᵗʰ witness) by the Defendant, in Tamil, stating that he would not deceive the Plaintiff for the amount, and which, he, witness deposes to be the letter written by the Defendant. It is therefore impossible to ascertain whether the Defendant wrote the letter himself. Under this circumstance, it is of very little use in favor of the Plaintiff.

The Punchayet convened in this case record their Mahazur to the following effect that as the Defendant is not liable to answer the claim of the Plaintiff, nothing is to be paid by him to the Plaintiff.

On reviewing the whole of the proceedings, the Assistᵗ Superintendent decides according to the Mahazur of the Punchayet that nothing is to be paid to the Plaintiff by the Defendant, it being thought just and proper.

The Court Cost Rs 3-4-" devolves upon Plaintiff. Nothing was charged to the Defendant.
