TABLE XVII.
RACE, TRIBE OR CASTE.

1. The number of castes for this Table has been reduced to fifty-six. The selection was made with a view to include all the castes, which contributed 4 per mille or more to the total population of 1921, the four criminal tribes, Bawaria, Harni, Pakhiwara and Sansi, and the "backward and depressed castes," numbering fourteen in all, five of which, Chamar, Chuhra, Dhobi, Dagi and Koli, and Julaha, also fall under the category of 4 per mille, the rest being Bagaria, Dumna, Ghosi, Kahar, Mahtam, Megh, Od, Ramdasia and Sarera. Darzi and Mali, which did not fall under any of the above categories, were also included. Separate figures have also been given for Brahmanic Hindus, who returned no caste.

2. In some places members of occupational castes, such as Darzi, Chhimba and Chhipi, returned themselves as Tank Kshatrya, and Lohars and Tarkhans as Dhiman Brahman. Figures for these two new castes have also been tabulated, and the details of the occupational castes included therein appear in Appendix I to Chapter XII of the Report.

3. In many cases members of certain occupational castes other than those, mentioned in the preceding paragraph, returned a higher caste, and their figures have been included in those of the traditional castes, for instance, Brahman Nai in Nai, Rajput Sunar in Sunar. The details of such figures appear in Appendix II to Chapter XII.

4. The castes of Indian Christian converts have been tabulated on the present occasion.

5. Where members of a caste belong to different religions, separate figures have been given; but where the numerical strength of a caste (for the whole Province) in any one religion falls below 1,000, the figures have been included in the total, with a foot-note to this effect. In order, however, to reduce the number of foot-notes, the figures for the religion with the greatest number of converts have not been detailed by localities, but an asterik indicates the locality and figures can be extracted by subtracting the detail of other religions, given in the body of the Table and in the foot-notes, from the column of "Total". The strength of such castes is indicated by the table below for the whole Province:—

TABLE XVIII.

VARIATION OF POPULATION OF SELECTED TRIBES.

1. This is entirely a new Table and shows the variation in the number of persons belonging to certain castes or tribes for the last five Censuses. The castes are the same as those in Table XVII. For the purposes of locality, the Districts have been grouped as in Table VIII. For the castes, dealt with in this as well as Table VIII, the localities and the figures are the same, but in the case of other castes, figures have been given only for the locality where a sufficient number of persons belonging to these castes are found.

2. In every case the column for total strength of caste includes figures for all religions, but detail has been given for religions contributing 1,000 persons or more.

3. The figures for 1911 and 1921 have been taken from Table XIV of the Table Volumes of the two Censuses in which totals for these localities are available, having been obtained after classification. In other cases the figures have been compiled from the Table XIII of those years which gave details for all the Districts and States.

4. After the Census of 1911, a portion of the Delhi District was added to the Rohtak District and a portion to the Gurgaon District, and the Mianwali District was formed after the Census of 1891, and therefore the figures of previous Censuses in the case of Rohtak, Gurgaon and Mianwali Districts, have been obtained after the necessary adjustment.

5. The figures of 1891, show the total strength of each caste by sex, without a similar detail by religion, and the figures by religion have now been given without a detail by sex. The figures of Aggarwals and Bagarias for the first three Censuses and of Mussallis for the first two, are not available, and in the case of these castes, no variation is shown prior to 1911, and 1901 respectively.

6. The castes sorted separately for the first time, namely, Tank Kshatrya, Dhiman Brahman and Ramdasia have been omitted from this Table.

PROVINCIAL TABLE I.

AREA AND POPULATION OF TAHSILS.

1. The figures of area have been taken from the Revenue Records as survey figures are not available by Tahsils. The totals of these figures, therefore, do not agree with the figures of Imperial Table I which are based on the survey data.

2. The difference, between some of the areas shown in this Table and those given in the corresponding Table of 1921, is due to remeasurement or territorial transfers. The details of transfers whether inter-district or provincial, which affect the areas of Districts, are shown on the fly-leaf to Imperial Table I. Some changes have, however, taken place during the decade inside the Districts, affecting certain Tahsils, as mentioned below :—

a. In the Sialkot District, Zafarwal and Raya have ceased to be Tahsils, while a new Tahsil called Narowal has been formed.

b. In the Sheikhupura District, three new Tahsils, Sheikhupura, Shahdara and Nankana Sahib, have been formed out of the Khangah Dogran and Sharakpur Tahsils, and the area transferred from the Lyallpur District.

c. In the Muzaffargarh District, Sanawan Tahsil has been abolished, while a new Tahsil called Kot Adu has been formed.

d. In Mandi State, Harbhag Tahsil has been abolished, and another called Jogindernagar has been formed.

e. In Suket State, portions have been taken out of Bhal and Karsog Tahsils to form the new Dehar Tahsil.

f. In Kapurthala State, the Bastiat Tahsil has ceased to exist, having been amalgamated with the Kapurthala Tahsil.

g. In Fridkot State, Kot Kapura Tahsil has ceased to exist.

h. In Nabha State, the Tahsil of that name has been added to the Amloh Tahsil ; while Jaitu and Dhanaula Tahsils have been added to the Phul Tahsil of the same State.

i. In Bahawalpur State, Naushehra Tahsil has given place to one named Rahim Yar Khan.

The changes that have altered the area of certain Tahsils are given below :—
