Owing to the volume of the statistics compiled for presentation in India Volume I—Part II-A, the Tables are presented in two separate books. This first book contains the General Population Tables A-I to A-IV. The second book, published in December 1963, contains the Union Primary Census Abstracts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The decade 1951-61 was a period of extensive changes in political and administrative boundaries. It was also an era of integration, reorganisation and rationalisation. Much work, to which the Flyleaves bear but pale testimony, was indeed involved in relating populations of six past censuses to the political and administrative jurisdictions of the Census of 1961. It is therefore my privilege to acknowledge my debt to the following Superintendents of Census Operations and their staff for all their help in the preparation of this volume.

For the completion of this patient, challenging, and at times baffling task, I am greatly indebted to Shri K. D. Ballal, I.A.S., Central Tabulation Officer. He cheerfully undertook to prepare all the statements contained in the General Note and Flyleaves, which, it is hoped, will assist in the understanding of the Tables. I am grateful to him and his colleagues, particularly to Shri S. N. Chaturvedi, in the Central Tabulation Unit for having thoroughly scrutinised the text and figures in the General Note, Flyleaves and Appendices.

GENERAL NOTE

THE 1961 CENSUS COUNT

The census count started on the morning of 10 February, 1961 and ended at sunrise of 1 March. The canvasser method of enumeration was employed i.e., an enumerator called at every household or on every human being and took down particulars relating to the household and individuals in appropriate forms himself. Each enumerator was given the above period in which to complete his work, which consisted of filling up for each household a Household Schedule and for each human being an Individual Slip. Sunrise of 1 March was called the reference date which meant that all births and deaths occurring between the time the count was taken and sunrise of 1 March, and detected during the revisional round between 1 March and 5 March, were to be accounted for. The enumerator was also required to enumerate any person found in a household during the revisional round who had not been enumerated elsewhere during the enumeration period. Thus the 1961 Census included all persons who were alive at sunrise of 1 March, 1961, the exception being non-Indian nationals who are members of the staff of Diplomatic and Consular missions in India and their families.

As a general rule, every person has been enumerated at his normal place of residence, except those who were away from their normal places of residence throughout the period of count. These persons were enumerated at the places where they were first found by an enumerator during the enumeration period or during his revisional round. Houseless persons were enumerated at the places they were found on the night of 28 February.

There are several areas where there were departures from this time-table. They were (i) several snow-bound areas in Jammu and Kashmir, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh and Himachal Pradesh where the enumeration was held in September and October 1960, whereafter either check-posts were established or identity cards issued to account those migrating out of or into the censused areas; (ii) several 'Agency areas' in Andhra Pradesh where the count was taken in December 1960 because of the difficulties of communication and administration; (iii) the North-East Frontier Agency where the census began in January 1960 and continued into 1962; (iv) two districts of Nagaland where the census was completed in early summer of 1961; and (v) a small pocket in Manipur where the census continued in 1961. As the latter three areas are inaccessible and scarcely subject to any migration, the non-synchronous census will still give fairly reliable results. Later, in March 1962 a census of Dadra and Nagar Haveli was taken and its results together with those of a census of Goa, Daman and Diu taken in December 1960 were incorporated in the results of the Census of India, 1961.

Thus the 1961 Census count covers the entire country with the exception of portions of Jammu and Kashmir currently under the occupation of Pakistan & China and 113 Indian enclaves of Cooch Behar covering an area of 26·80 Sq. miles falling in East Pakistan (77 in Rangpur district and 36 in East Dinajpur district). The 1951 Census did not cover (a) the State of Jammu and Kashmir, M1RGI/62—1

(b) the North-East Frontier Agency, (c) Major portion of Nagaland, (d) Pondicherry, Karaikal, Mahe and Yanam, (e) Dadra and Nagar Haveli and (f) Goa, Daman and Diu.

PREPARATORY

Preparations for the census began when the Registrar General and ex-officio Census Commissioner for India joined in July 1958. Soon after, requests were sent to all important users of census data, including Union Ministries, the Planning Commission, State Governments, specialist bodies engaged in demographic and economic research, Universities, Chambers of Commerce including their Federations and Associations, inviting their opinion on what questions the next census should ask and why. Responses were gratifyingly prompt. Two conferences were held in August and September 1958 with principal users of census data which helped to frame the first draft of houselist, household and individual enumeration schedules.

The first drafts were pilot-tested throughout India during February-April 1959 in selected rural and urban areas with the help of State Statistical Bureaus and specialist institutions. The piloting was done under differing circumstances; in some places trained and seasoned investigators were employed, in others, the normal conditions of a census were simulated. The experience gained from this first pilot-test helped to improve the schedules and second drafts were prepared in May 1959. The second drafts were again extensively piloted by the newly appointed State Superintendents of Census Operations (hereafter referred to as SCOs) in July-August 1959. In the light of experience gained at the second pilot-test, the second drafts were again largely revised and modified at the first conference of SCOs held in September 1959. It was decided at this conference to have three forms: the Houselist, the Household Schedule-cum-Census Population Record and the Individual Slip, instead of the two forms used in the pilot-tests: the Houselist and the composite Household Schedule-cum-Individual Slip. The drafts, including concepts, definitions, methods and instructions finally designed at this conference were submitted to Government and approved in October 1959.

The translation of the schedules and their main instructions into fifteen languages (Assamese, Bengali, English, Gujarati, Gurmukhi, Hindi, Kannada, Malayalam, Manipuri, Marathi, Nepali, Oriya, Tamil, Telugu and Urdu) were centrally supervised. The aim was to ensure evenness of nuance and connotation in translation. This was achieved through the revision of a series of drafts shuttling between the State Superintendents and Registrar General until the final version slowly emerged. The finalisation of translations took this office well into December 1959.

The printing of the schedules and instructions in regional languages was centrally undertaken by the Chief Controller of Printing and Stationery, and the work distributed to three Government of India Presses at Aligarh, Nasik and Calcutta. The Central Office supervised the progress of printing with the help of the SCOs of Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra and West Bengal.

There were, broadly, six stages in the census operations of 1961. The first task which SCOs set themselves was the checking of the boundaries of States and Union Territories and their constituents down to the lowest unit of an enumeration block which is usually an area containing an average of 120 households in an urban locality and 150 households in a village. This was rendered arduous on account of major boundary changes during the decade. The old State of Madras was divided into two new States, Madras and Andhra, on 1 October, 1953. The former French possession of Chandernagore was merged in West Bengal in 1954 as a result of the Chandernagore (Merger) Act of 1954. Major changes came along in 1956 consequent on the reorganisation of States, followed by the bifurcation on 1 May, 1960 of the State of Bombay into two States : Maharashtra and Gujarat. The Census of 1961 covered fifteen States : Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Bihar, Gujarat, Jammu and Kashmir, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Madras, Maharastra, Mysore, Orissa, Punjab, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal; six Union Territories : Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Delhi, Himachal Pradesh, Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands, Manipur and Tripura; North-East Frontier Agency and Naga Hills-Tuensang Area, the latter reconstituted as the State of Nagaland. In addition, it covered as in past years, the north-eastern State of Sikkim. It also covered the then de facto possessions of Pondicherry, Karaikal, Mahe and Yanam. These political changes bestowed, for the first time, a uniformity of administrative set up throughout the country. This first stage kept SCOs occupied throughout 1959. The incorporation of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Daman and Diu came after the Census of 1961.

The second stage came with the fixing of hierarchic levels of census responsibility : the district, subdivision, police station/taluk/tehsil/anchal, charge, circle and block. This occupied the first four to five months of 1960.

The third stage came with the numbering and listing of buildings, census houses and households throughout the country as an essential preliminary to (i) the final demarcation of census blocks and assessment of personnel requirements, (ii) securing the identity of every likely habitation, (iii) a forecast of the likely population of 1961 and requirements of forms. In addition, the houselist itself was designed to collect information on certain characteristics of all industrial establishments of all sizes and categories together with information on the materials of walls and roofs, the number of rooms in occupation of each household. This third stage was completed in a few States well before June 1960, but in the majority during September-November of that year.

The fourth stage came with the training of all levels of the census agency in every aspect of census taking, including practical lessons, and the conducting of a training sample census. This training, which consisted of a minimum of six lessons to each census-taker, lasted between October-November 1960 and beginning of February 1961. Forms and schedules were distributed to the census agency towards the end of January.

The fifth stage came with the actual count from 10 February, 1961 to 28 February, 1961 followed by a revisional round between 1 March, 1961 to 5 March, 1961.

The sixth stage was of the compilation and reporting of provisional totals from 6 March, 1961 to 10 March, 1961.

The following is a tabular statement of the Census Calendar as worked out in the fifteen States of India :

THE CENSUS QUESTIONNAIRE

At the 1961 Census the following three documents were prepared :

- 1 Houselist
- 2 Household Schedule-cum-Census Population Record
- 3 Individual Slip

The Houselist was prepared six to nine months before the enumeration and all the houses and households were listed for purposes of enumeration. In the 1961 Census a standard form was adopted for the first time throughout the country which was designed to collect information on the use to which a census house was put, on the material of wall, material of roof of a census house, whether the census house was owned or rented, and the number of rooms, if the house was used for dwelling, together with essential data concerning houses that were used as establishments, workshops or factories, like name of establishment or proprietor, name of product(s) produced, repaired or serviced, number of persons working and kind of fuel or power, if machinery was used.

The Household Schedule was introduced for the first time in the 1961 Census, no data based on the household as such having been collected in earlier censuses. Through the Household

Schedule information on the extent of land cultivated by the household either owned or held from Government or held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share, land given to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share, nature of Household Industry conducted by the household and the duration of the industry in a year along with number of family workers and hired workers engaged in Cultivation or Household Industry or in both were collected. At the back of the Household Schedule there was a Census Population Record as counted at the Census in each household giving an abstract of information for each individual enumerated in the household, e.g. name, sex, relationship to Head of household, age, marital status and description of work, if working.

In the Individual Slip essential demographic data like relationship to Head of household, sex, age, marital status and birth-place, social and cultural data like nationality, religion, literacy and mother tongue and economic data like occupation, industry, class of worker and activity, if not working were also collected.

A sample of each of the three documents, the Houselist, the Household Schedule-cum-Census Population Record and the Individual Slip, is reproduced.

Column 1—Line Number

Only one digit of the line number has been printed in this column. The line numbers should be continuous for your block. Where the line numbers exceed 9 write the earlier digit(s) yourself.

Column 2—Building Number (Municipal or Local Authority or Census Number, if any)

This refers to the entire structure on the ground. There are, however, high, large or long buildings along a street or lane which have been partitioned or portions of which have been sold, which have distinct, separate main exit on the road and which belong to separate owners or occupiers or alternatively there are a series of different houses joined each to each by common walls on either side to make the whole look like one building but parts of which have been built at different times and belong to separate owners. Such distinguishable structures, although not separate from each other, should be regarded as separate buildings and given separate numbers. Each building should have a separate number. If in big cities a large mansion or building containing several census houses has a well known name by which it is generally known then the name of the building should also be recorded for convenient reference. If there are more than one structure within an enclosed or open compound belonging to the same person e.g., the main house, the servants' quarters, the garage, etc., only one building number should be given. If the locality consists of a number of streets in a village, the buildings in the various streets should be numbered continuously and the streets should be taken in uniform order, from North-West to South-East. Experience suggests that the best way of numbering is to continue with one consecutive serial on one side of the street and complete the numbering on that side before crossing over to the end of the other side of the street and continuing with the serial, stopping finally opposite to where the first numbering began. In a city enumeration block, the numbering will have to respect the axis of the street and not any preconceived geographical direction like North-West. A building under construction should also be given a number in the serial. If a new hut or building is constructed between the time when the housenumbering and houselisting have been completed and the census count it should be given a new number beyond the last number of the serial for the village. Arabic numerals should be used for building numbers.

This will facilitate verification by supervisors. In areas e.g., urban, where the buildings are already numbered by the municipal or other authorities, the enumerator may adopt the existing numbers in the houselist. In such cases, column 2 will carry the established municipal or local authority number which will facilitate identification. Where there are municipal or local authority numbers but there are reasons to believe that the number is incomplete or unsatisfactory, the municipal or local authority number may still be entered in column 2, but at the same time it will be necessary to serially number the buildings afresh for the purposes of census houselist. In that case, the new census serial for buildings will be entered in column 3 and the new census numbers for the buildings will have to be painted on the buildings themselves. In those cases where there are no municipal or local authority numbers in existence, all buildings will have to be serially numbered for the census and column 2 will contain entries of this census serial. This number will have to be repeated in column 3 with sub-numbers for census houses, if any.

Column 3—Building Number (Column 2) with sub-numbers for each Census House

A census house is a structure or part of a structure inhabited or vacant, or a dwelling, a shop, a shop-cum-dwelling or a place of business, workshop, school etc., with a separate entrance.

If a building has a number of flats or blocks which have separate entrances of their own and are independent of each other giving on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard leading to a main gate, they will be considered as separate census houses. If within an enclosed or open compound there are separate buildings then each such building will also be a separate census house. If all the structures within an enclosed compound are together treated as one building then each structure with a separate entrance should be treated as a separate census house.

The order in which census houses within a building should be numbered should be continuous, preferably clockwise, or in any convenient manner if it is at all difficult to do it clockwise. If a building itself is a census house, then it will have only one number, namely, that of the building. If within a building there are a number of census houses, then each census house will have two sets of numbers, e.g., the number of the building and the sub-number of the census house. The census house number should be written after the building number in Arabic numerals in brackets such as 2(2), 3(2), etc. A census house may contain more than one household, in which case, each household will have to be denoted by a separate alphabetical sub-number (see instructions for column 11 below).

Column 4—Purpose for which census house used, e.g., dwelling, shop, shop-cum-dwelling, business, factory, workshop, school or other institution, jail, hostel, hotel, etc.

The actual use to which a census house is put should be written here.

In the case of a factory or workshop 'Factory' should be written for a large factory if registered under the Indian Factories Act and 'Workshop' for a small unregistered workshop. A workshop is a place where some kind of production, repair or servicing goes on or where goods or articles are made and sold. Similarly, a shop is a place where articles are sold for cash or for credit. Business houses are those where transactions in money or other articles are taking place e.g., bank, etc. But rooms or apartments where professional consultations are held such as by doctors, hakims, pleaders, etc., should be described as 'professional consultation rooms' and not workshops. In the case, however, of a dispensary where, in addition to consultation by a doctor, medicines are prepared and sold, the house should be described as a 'dispensary'. Write also if used for place of worship or congregation or if unoccupied, 'vacant'. If the census house is a shop, business house, bank, etc., but is not a factory or workshop as defined above, the name of the proprietor, manager or director should be entered in column 18.

Columns 5 to 8—If this census house is used as an establishment, workshop or factory

These columns apply only in cases where the census house is a factory or a workshop i.e., where some kind of production, processing, repair or servicing is undertaken or where goods or articles are made and sold. If the census house is not used for purposes of a factory or workshop write 'X' in each of the columns 5 to 8.

Column 5—Name of establishment or proprietor

Write the name of the establishment in the case of factories or large manufacturing concerns and write the name of the proprietor in the case of small workshops and establishments like confectionaries where no distinct name has been given to them like Halwai shop, etc. If the census house is not used for the purpose of a factory or workshop put 'X' in each of the columns 5 to 8.

Column 6—Name of product(s), repair or servicing undertaken

In this column enter the actual work that is being done in the establishment, factory or workshop, like paper making, shoe making, cycle repairing, motor servicing, etc.

Column 7—Average number of persons employed daily last week (including proprietor or household members, if working)

The total number of workers including apprentices, either paid or unpaid, employed in the factory or workshop, including the owner or proprietor and any of his family members (if working), should be entered. The average number of persons working per day during the week preceding the date of your visit should be entered.

In case more than one product is produced it is not necessary to enquire the number of persons employed in the production of each product. It may not be possible to get this information in cases where the operations may be composite.

Column 8—Kind of fuel or power, if machinery is used

If the factory or workshop uses steam or diesel engine or fuel, e.g., kerosene, soft coke, electricity, water-mill, etc. for running the machinery used for production, servicing or repairs, write what fuel or power is actually used.

Columns 9 & 10—Description of Census House

Column 9—Material of wall

Under this column the material out of which most of the walls of the house are made i.e., grass, leaves, reeds, bamboo, unburnt bricks, mud, burnt bricks, stone, cement concrete or timber should be written. Where a house consists of separate structures each of different materials, the material out of which the walls of the main bedrooms are made are to be recorded.

Column 10—Material of roof

The material out of which most of the outer roof exposed to the weather and not the ceiling is made, i.e., tiles, thatch, corrugated iron, zinc or asbestos cement sheets or concrete etc. should be written. In the case of a multi-storeyed building the intermediate floor or floors will be the roof of the lower floor.

Column 11—Sub-number of each Census Household with Census House number (Column 3)

A household is a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so.

There may be one or more households in a census house. Each household should be separately numbered. This can be done by using the alphabets as (A), (B), (C), etc. For example, if building No. 2 is also a census house and has three households, the household numbers will be 2(A), 2(B) and 2(C). If building No. 4 has two census houses, the houses will be numbered as 4(1) and 4(2). If within each house there are respectively 3 and 2 households, then they will be numbered as 4(1A), 4(1B), 4(1C) and 4(2A) and 4(2B).

Column 12—Name of Head of Household

The name of the Head of each household given in column 11 should be written here. The Head of a household, for census purposes, is the person on whom falls the chief responsibility for the maintenance of the household. The name of the person who is actually acknowledged as Head of the household should be recorded. In the case of places like messes, boarding houses, chummeries, etc., where people live together with no ties of relationship, the manager or the superintendent or the person who by common consent is regarded as the Head, should be recorded as Head of the household.

If the census house is used as a sitting place, cattle shed, etc., write the use to which it is put (and add the name of the owner).

Column 13—Number of rooms in Census Household

If a census house is occupied by one household the enumeration of rooms should be simple.

If a census house consists of a number of households the number of rooms occupied by each household should be entered on each line against the name of the Head of the household. In cases where more than one household occupy a single room or share more than one room in such a way that it is not possible to say the number of rooms occupied by each household, the number of rooms should be given together within brackets as common to both the households.

A room should usually have four walls with a doorway with a roof overhead and should be wide and long enough for a person to sleep in, i.e., it should be at least 6 ft. long. Unenclosed verandah, kitchen, store, garage, cattle shed and latrine which are not ordinarily used for living and sleeping should not be treated as rooms. An enclosed room, however, which is used for living, dining, storing and cooking should be regarded as a room.

Column 14—Does the household live in own or rented house ?

If the household lives in own house write 'O'. If the household lives in a rented house write 'R'.

In the case of public buildings like schools, hospitals, etc., or places of worship, put 'X' in this column.

Columns 15 to 17—Number of persons residing in Census Household on day of visit

Write the number of males residing in the household in column 15, the number of females residing in the household in column 16 and the total number of persons in column 17.

Column 18—Remarks

In this column should be entered any useful or significant information about the building or the census house or the census household that has not been entered in any other column. For example, if the census house is a shop, the name of the proprietor or owner should be recorded in this column. If the census house is occupied by members of Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, it should be indicated by writing words 'S.C.' or 'S.T.' If a census house is vacant at the time of houselisting but there is reason to believe that the house will be occupied in the course of the next few days and almost certainly before the census enumeration period, then the word 'Vacant' should be entered in column 4 and a remark should be entered in column 18 to the effect 'likely to be occupied shortly'. Thus, the Remarks column should be utilised for recording all significant information relating to the building or census house or census household.

Each person engaged in housenumbering of one block will have to make out an abstract at the conclusion of houselisting and housenumbering. This abstract will be in the form shown below:

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO ENUMERATORS

The following Instructions to Enumerators were finalized at the Conference of Census Superintendents in September-October 1959. The basic concepts and definitions of these instructions had also been discussed in the 1958 series of Conferences and tested out in field tests. The translations in regional languages, done at the State Census Offices, were centrally supervised at the Registrar General's Office by a panel of fifteen persons speaking the fifteen languages which, however, made repeated references to State Census Offices :

The 1961 Census count will relate to the sunrise of 1 March, 1961. The count will be spread over a period of 19 days, beginning on 10 February and ending on the 28 February, 1961. During this period you should visit every household in your block for enumeration. On the night of 28 February you will have to go round your enumeration block and enumerate all persons who are houseless. (In large cities the enumeration of houseless persons will have to be undertaken in a different manner for which more elaborate arrangements will be made). During the period 1 March to 5 March you will have to pay a revisional round to every household and verify that your earlier work of enumeration has been completed in every respect. If during this revisional round you find that a birth has taken place in any household between the time of your first visit and the sunrise of 1 March, 1961, you will have to fill up a new slip for this birth; if there has been a death in any household during the same period you will have to cancel the slip of the dead person; if there is a visitor in any household who has come to stay during the same period and has not been enumerated elsewhere, you will have to fill up a new slip for this visitor. But you will not have to take notice of any birth or death or visit occurring after sunrise of 1 March, 1961.

Instructions for enumerating individual members of households

I. GENERAL

1 Enumerate all persons who are normally resident in the household, i.e., those who live in the household and also who have recently become members of the household through marriage or birth or other vital social or domestic ties and are present at the time of your visit.

2 Enumerate also all persons who are normal residents in the household even if they are absent at the time of your visit, provided they left the household on or after 10 February, 1961, or if they had left earlier than 10 February, 1961, are likely to return before the sunrise of 1 March, 1961.

3 Enumerate a visitor, a boarder, or a guest found in the household at the time of your visit, if he had not been enumerated before and if he will be away from his household between 10 and 28 February, 1961, and warn him not to permit any other enumerator to enumerate him even if he goes back by 1 March, 1961.

4 Do not enumerate pavement dwellers or others who do not form part of the household, when you are enumerating the households. These along with persons who do not normally reside in houses, i.e., members of wandering tribes, tramps, sadhus, etc., would be separately enumerated on the night of 28 February and on 1 and 2 March, 1961.

5 Each individual has to be enumerated in one slip. Before commencing enumeration of an individual make sure to fill the Location Code in each case. The Location Code in the slips will be the same as in the Household Schedule to which the individuals relate.

6 The questions have been briefly printed in the slips, but only briefly, and you should study the detailed question forms and instructions for answering them without which you will be liable to miss some of the range and implications of the questions. You should ask the questions in the order in which they are given in the slips and proceed to record the answers in their given order. You should make use of the abbreviations recommended in these instructions for recording the answers to the various questions. All abbreviations required to be entered within the geometric designs should be written well within the designs.

7 Make repeated enquiries about new born babies and very young children for they are liable to be missed because they neither talk nor walk and no meals are usually cooked for them.

8 Before leaving one household for the next make doubly sure that all the persons that are to be enumerated in the household have been enumerated. As soon as you have completed the enumeration of the household fill up the Census Population Record at the back of the Household Schedule for that household before you proceed to the next household. Strike the total for the number of males and females in the household and check it with the number of enumeration slips used before you sign the Census Population Record.

9 You should revisit every household in your block during the period of final check (1 to 5 March) when you should enumerate every birth that has taken place in the household since your visit but before sunrise of 1 March. You should cancel the slip for any death that might have taken place since your last visit but before sunrise of 1 March by drawing a bold line diagonally across the slip and write DEATH along the diagonal line. You should enumerate any visitor who may have arrived to stay since your last visit and who says he has not been enumerated anywhere else. But you should not take notice of any birth or death or visit occurring after sunrise of 1 March, 1961. After your revisit if you have added any new slip or cancelled any slip already prepared you should make corresponding changes in the Census Population Record at the back of the Household Schedule.

10 As soon as you have completed a pad, you should fill up the enumerator's abstract on the cover of the pad. After you have completed the enumeration of your block and filled up all the abstracts in the pads, you should total up your figures and prepare your abstract for your entire block and hand it over to your supervisor along with your pads.

11 Under the Census Act, every person is legally bound to furnish you with the information you need for recording your answers. You must not ask information on any matters not necessary for the purposes of the census, for example, the amount of any person's income. Nor must you disclose to any unauthorised person any information given to you or the results of the enumeration. All census entries are confidential and cannot be admitted as evidence in any civil proceeding whatever or in any criminal proceeding other than a prosecution for a census offence.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENUMERATORS FOR FILLING UP THE HOUSEHOLD SCHEDULE

At the top of the Schedule you will find the Location Code. You will have to write the Location Code of the household here. Your supervisor will give you the Code numbers representing your district, tehsil/thana/town, village/ward/block. You should take care to write these three numbers connected together by oblique strokes in between on every household schedule.

When you are visiting each household for enumeration you should write the code number of the household also on the Household Schedule. For purposes of the census a Census House has been defined as a structure or a part of structure, a dwelling, a shop, workshop, factory or place of business, or shop-cum-dwelling giving on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard leading to a main gate or enjoying a separate entrance. A household is a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so. In some census houses there may be more than one group of persons, each group with a common kitchen. In such cases, each group should be regarded as a separate household for purposes of the census and a separate household schedule should be prepared. You should write the household number from the extracts of the Houselist given to you by your supervisor. If, in any case, you find a census house or a household satisfying the definitions given above has not been numbered you should bring it to the notice of your supervisor and have a separate number given to the house or household and enumerate the household.

At the right hand corner of the Location Code you will find a question "Is this an institution?" with a rectangle below it. If you are enumerating any penal, charitable or mental institution, hostel, hotel, hospital, boarding house, etc., you should write the nature of the institution within the rectangle like jail, hospital, etc.

Below the Location Code you will find a column for recording the full name of the Head of the household. The Head of the household for census purposes is a person on whom falls the chief responsibility for the maintenance of the household. Thus the Head of the household need not necessarily be the eldest male member but may even be a female or a younger member of either sex. You need not, however, make any elaborate enquiry about this and should record as Head of household the name of the person who is actually acknowledged as such.

Institutions like boarding houses, messes and chummeries should also be regarded as census households but of 'un-related persons living together'. In such a Household the manager or the superintendent or the person who has administrative responsibilities or who by common consent is regarded as the Head, should be recorded as Head of the household. If in an institution separate families are also living, each such family should be treated as a census household and a separate household schedule should be filled. In such cases the full name of the recognised Head of the household should be written.

If the Head of the household is a person who spends the weekdays in town and spends the week-ends at home, he should be recorded as Head of household and entered for enumeration at his home. If he should be away for a fairly long time which covers the entire enumeration period then the person who is in charge in his absence should be recorded as the Head of the household.

You will find a parallelogram at the right hand side against the Full Name of the Head of the household marked 'S.C./S.T.' If the Head of the household is a member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe obtaining in your State or in your district, you should write the name of the particular Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe to which the Head of the household belongs within the parallelogram.

You should then fill up the part of the household schedule relating to Cultivation and Household Industry. Sub-part 'A' relates to Cultivation; sub-part 'B' to Household Industry and sub-part 'C' to Workers at Cultivation or Household Industry.

Sub-part 'A' relating to Cultivation will have to be filled in only where the household cultivates land (land includes all land normally used for cultivation purposes including temporary fallows). Three categories of land are given in items 1(i), 1(ii) and 2. Items 1(i) and 1(ii) relate to land actually cultivated by the household. Item 2 relates to land which is not cultivated by the household but has been given by it to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share. In each of the three cases the total of separate plots or parcels of land in different places, owned or held, or taken or given should be made and entered. A number of lines has been provided for this purpose in 1(i) and 1(ii) to account for separate plots or parcels of land held or owned or taken under different recognised local rights. If the household (a) cultivates land owned or held from Government or taken from private persons or institutions or (b) has given land to private persons for cultivation purposes you should ascertain the local name of the right on such land and record in the column relating to 'local name of right on land'. Category 1(i) land owned or held from Government, will include the total of all pieces of land owned or held in owner-like possession, e.g., land held directly from Government under a grant, lease or assignment, (i) with rights of permanent, heritable and transferable possession, (ii) with rights of permanent and heritable possession, but without the right of transfer and (iii) temporary or conditional leases of any kind with the Government. Category 1(ii) land taken from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share, will include (i) with rights of permanent, heritable and transferable possession, (ii) with rights of permanent and heritable possession but without right of transfer; (iii) held in a variety of tenancies or tenures which may be broadly classified as follows:

- (a) tenants holding land with permanent and heritable rights whose land cannot be resumed by the owner on grounds of personal cultivation (such tenants may in some cases have the right of transfer also);
  - (b) tenants who have been given permanent rights subject to the right of resumption by the owner (in some cases the tenant has the right to acquire ownership of the non-resumable area. In other cases he does not possess the right);
  - (c) tenants holding land in areas where interim measures have been enacted for stay of ejectment or for continuing the leases for a specified period;
  - (d) tenants holding land on temporary leases who are liable to ejectment; and
  - (e) areas held on condition of rendering service either to a village community or to Government (this also includes cases where labourers on plantations are given some land for cultivation with permanent rights); and
- (iv) the following:
- (a) land taken for a fixed amount of money,
  - (b) land taken for a fixed amount of produce,
  - (c) land taken for a share of the produce,
  - (d) land for which money is paid partly in one and partly in any other form mentioned above, and
  - (e) land held free of consideration.

Category 2—Land given to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share—will include the classifications mentioned in category 1(ii).

Categories 1(i) and (ii) will include only those plots or parcels of land which are cultivated by the household itself, that is, lands which lie within the village, or in adjacent villages, or within such a distance as enables the household to work on the land or actively supervise the cultivation. They will not include land or actively supervise the cultivation. They will not include land owned or held in distant places where distance itself is a bar to active cultivation, constant supervision or direction. But category 2 will include land in any part of the country whatsoever. You should ascertain the extent of land in each category of local right in acres and record in the column relating to 'Area in acres'. You should write the total of separate plots or parcels of land under the same right if they are situated in different places. If it is not possible to ascertain the extent of land in acres you should, if possible, make a conversion from the local measure given to you. Even if this is not possible write the area in local measure giving invariably the name of the measure adopted.

This sub-part will not apply to households which do not possess any land. Thus, it will not apply to households which consist of only agricultural labourers without any land. In such cases put 'X' in all the spaces provided in the right hand side and put a bold cross on this sub-part.

Land under any of the items in sub-part 'A' includes rent free land, lands enjoyed in permissive possession or gifts without encumbrance or consideration. A household which is a member of a co-operative farm will record only that amount of land in the co-operative farm which had belonged to it before and under right enter 'co-operative farm'. Labour hired by such a co-operative farm should not be entered for this household.

Sub-part 'B' relates to Household Industry. This part will be filled up only where there is a Household Industry conducted by the Head of the household himself and/or mainly by members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. The industry should not be on the scale of a registered factory. The participation of the Head of the household and/or members of the household is an essential feature of the Household Industry. In a rural area the Household Industry can be located either at home or within the village. But in an urban area the Household Industry or at least the major part of its work must be located only at home. A Household Industry should relate to production, processing, servicing or repairing and includes makers and sellers of goods.

The test for a Household Industry is mainly threefold:

- (a) Household Industry should embrace manufacture, processing or servicing and may include sale but should not be confined simply to buying and selling. At least part of the goods offered for sale from the household should be manufactured or processed by members of the household.
- (b) Household Industry should be on the household scale where the workers mainly will be the Head of the household himself and members of the household, the role of hired workers from outside being of secondary importance. Thus, in any Household Industry, members of the household should be in a position to lend a hand in the industry whenever they find the time in the course of their daily chores. Household Industry cannot, therefore, be on the scale of a registered factory but can use machinery and employ power like steam engine or oil engine or electricity to drive the machinery.
- (c) Location also is important, for proximity decides participation by members of the household. In a village this participation is possible if the Household Industry is located at home or within the village, because village organisation is such as makes it possible for members of the household to move about freely in the village to look after their work. In urban areas such a free movement is not possible and, therefore, for Household Industry in urban areas we should consider only those industries which are located at home. Where, however, part of the work is done outside the house, e.g., preparing and dyeing the yarn for weaving or winding into warp and woof or cleaning metal surfaces before electroplating in baths, it should still be considered a Household Industry, even in urban areas, as the main operation of weaving or of electroplating is conducted within the house and only one or two operations are conducted outside.

The following activities should also be regarded as illustrative of Household Industry. Biri-makers who either alone or with help of members of the family roll biris at home, for wages at piece rates, while the contractor supplies the materials. Certain processes like buttoning and handsewing of tailored cloths, dyeing and printing of cloth, are carried out at home by members of the household both at residence and at 'place of work' or where womenfolk of the household fill in at home with lac gold ornaments prepared at the shop by male members of the household.

Ascertain from the Head of the household whether there are any Household Industries and write the nature of the industry(s) in the column provided, if there are any. Then ascertain for how many months in a year roughly they are conducted and put down the number of months in the appropriate column. If the industry is conducted throughout the year write '12'. If there is no Household Industry of any sort put 'X' in each of the places in the right hand corner where the answers will be written and put a bold cross on this sub-part.

Sub-part 'C' relates to Workers in Cultivation or Household Industry.

In the case of households which are engaged only in Cultivation, if the Head of the household is working write '1' under the column 'Head', and ascertain how many other male and female members of the family are working. Write the numbers in the respective columns. Write the total number of family workers including the Head, if he is working, in the column relating to 'Total'. Then ascertain whether any hired workers are employed and, if so, write the number of such workers in the column allotted for it. The hired workers should have been in whole time employment during last working season or should be in whole time employment during current working season.

Similarly in the case of households engaged in Household Industry only, if the Head of the household is working write '1' in the column relating to the 'Head', and also ascertain how many male and female members of the family are working and write the numbers in the respective columns. Write the total number of family workers including the Head, if he is working, in the column relating to 'Total' and then ascertain the number of hired workers, if any, and then write the number of hired workers in the appropriate column.

If a household is engaged both in Cultivation and Household Industry ascertain whether the Head is working and write '1' under the column relating to the 'Head' and also ascertain how many male and female members of the family are working both at Cultivation and the Household Industry and write the numbers in the respective columns. Write the total number of family workers in the column relating to 'Total'. Ascertain the number of hired workers engaged by the family both for Cultivation and Household Industry and write the number in the appropriate column. In a household engaged both in Household Cultivation and Household Industry, you need not ascertain how many are engaged in Household Cultivation and Household Industry separately.

Even if any of the members of the family working or hired labourers are absent during the period of the census count they should be counted for the purposes of the Household Schedule.

In the case of households engaged in Cultivation only, put 'X' in the columns relating to 'Household Industry only' and 'Both in Household Cultivation and Household Industry.' Similarly, in the case of Households engaged 'in Household Industry only' put 'X' in the columns relating to 'Household Cultivation only', and 'Both in Household Cultivation and Household Industry'. If a household is engaged both in Household Cultivation and Household Industry put 'X' in the columns relating to 'Household Cultivation only' and 'Household Industry only'. If a household is not engaged in either Household Cultivation or Household Industry or both put 'X' in all the columns and a bold 'X' on this sub-part.

The test for a worker is whether a person is actually working in Cultivation or Household Industry or supervising or directing work thereon.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENUMERATORS FOR FILLING UP INDIVIDUAL SLIP

In each household you should first enumerate the Head of the household followed by other members of the household in the most convenient order and see that none of the persons in the household is left out. Please make repeated enquiries about infants and very young children, for they are liable to be left out of count. Count near relatives first, such as wife, son, daughter-in-law, daughter, son-in-law, grand-children, then distant relations and then domestic servants or other employees living in the household, boarders, visitors etc.

Location Code

Write the Location Code of the household in each slip. Your supervisor will give you the code numbers representing your district, tehsil/thana/town, village/ward/block. You should take care to write these three numbers connected together by oblique strokes in between on every slip.

Q. 1(a) Name

Write the name of the person enumerated. If a woman's name is not given out describe her as "so-and-so's mother, wife or daughter". If a woman does not take the name of her husband and that husband's particulars have to be recorded write "so-and-so's husband".

For newly born infants who have not yet been given a name write 'Baby' and write "father's or mother's name".

Q. 1(b) Relationship to the Head of the household

In the case of the Head of the household write 'Head'. The Head of the household for census purposes, is a person on whom falls the chief responsibility for the maintenance of the household. Thus the Head of the household need not necessarily be the eldest male member but may even be a female or a younger member of either sex. In the case of institutions like boarding houses, messes and chummeries, which should be regarded as houses of 'unrelated persons living together', the manager or the superintendent or the person who has administrative responsibilities or who by common consent is regarded as the Head should be recorded as Head of the household.

All relationships in this question should be recorded in respect of Head of the household. In the case of relations write the relationship in full. Do not use words like nephew, niece or uncle, but state whether brother's or sister's son or daughter (for nephew or niece) or father's or mother's brother (uncle). 'Son' will include 'adopted son' or 'step-son'; similarly for a daughter. In the case of visitors, boarders or employees write 'visitor', 'boarder', or 'employee' as the case may be. In the case of institutions, the member should be recorded as unrelated.

If on the check or revisional round between 1 and 5 March the Head of the household as recorded previously is found to have died, the person in the household who succeeds him by common consent as Head should be recorded as Head and the relationships in all other slips will have to be suitably corrected. The slip of the dead Head of household will, of course, be cancelled.

Q. 2 Age in completed years last birthday,

Write age in years completed last birthday. For infants below one year of age, write 'O'. You will find many persons who cannot state their age correctly. You should assist them to state the correct age. If you are not able to elicit correct age directly, you should stimulate their memory by referring to historical incidents or religious events etc. You may use any local calendar of such events that may have been prepared for the purpose.

Q. 3 Marital Status

|                       |   |   |   |   |       |    |
|-----------------------|---|---|---|---|-------|----|
| For Never Married     | . | . | . | . | write | NM |
| Married               | . | . | . | . | write | M  |
| Widowed               | . | . | . | . | write | W  |
| Separated or Divorced | . | . | . | . | write | S  |

For a person who has never been married write 'NM'. For a person married, whether for the first or another time, write 'M'. Write 'M' also for persons who are recognised by custom or society as married and for persons in stable de facto union. Even if a marriage is disputed in the locality write 'M' if the person concerned says he or she is married or is in stable de facto union. For a widowed person<sup>2</sup> whose husband or wife is dead, and who has not been married again, write 'W'. For a person who has been divorced in a lawful manner, either by decree of a law court or by a regular social or religious custom but who has not remarried, or a person who has been separated from wife or husband and is living apart with no apparent intention of living together again, write 'S'. For a prostitute return her marital status as declared by her.

Q. 4(a) Birthplace

| 3 | If the person enumerated is not in a position to say whether the place of birth is a village or town                   | write the name of the place of birth as returned by him. |   |

Q. 4(c) Duration of Residence

1 For a person born in village or write X town or city in which enumerated

- 2 For a person born in another village or town or city of district of enumeration or who was not born in the district of enumeration write the number of completed years this person has been in the village/ town/city of enumeration.
(Do not take into account periods of temporary absence on leave or holiday or tour or business.)
- 3 If the duration of residence is less than one year write 0
- If the duration of residence is one year or over write the actual number of completed years of residence.

Q. 5(a) Nationality

- 1 For Indian nationals . . . write I
- 2 For other nationals . . . write the nationality in full.

Q. 5(b) Religion

- |                     |       |   |
|---------------------|-------|---|
| For Hindu . . . . . | write | H |
| Muslim . . . . .    | write | M |
| Christian . . . . . | write | C |
| Jain . . . . .      | write | J |
| Buddhist . . . . .  | write | B |
| Sikh . . . . .      | write | S |

For others write the answers actually returned.

Q. 5(c) Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes

The answer to this question will be recorded only if a person belongs to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe. If the person belongs to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe obtaining in your State, or in your district write the name of the caste or tribe to which he belongs. For all others, write 'X' in this column. A list of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes obtaining in your State or in your district will be found in the 'instructions' given to you.

If the person belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe returns his caste or tribe by a synonym or a generic name of a caste or tribe as given in your list, write the name as returned and the name of the relevant caste or tribe, as per printed list, within brackets.

Do not write the names of Scheduled Castes in general terms as Harijan, Achhut. You should ascertain the name of the caste when it is returned and write it. If a person is negligent and insists on calling himself merely Harijan tell him that this description will not earn the person any benefits under the Constitution permissible to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. This may persuade him to give out the correct name.

Scheduled Castes can belong only to the Hindu or Sikh religions. If a person belongs to a Scheduled Caste, there will be either 'H' or 'S' in the answer to question 5(b). Scheduled Tribes may belong to any religion.

Q. 6 Literacy and Education

I. ILLITERATE OR LITERATE

For a person

- 1 Who can neither read nor write or can merely read but cannot write in any language write 0

- 2 Who can both read and write write L

The test for reading is ability to read any simple letter either in print or in manuscript i.e., if the person can read one of the examples in the Enumerator's Handbook with felicity he may be taken to have passed the test for reading. The test for writing is ability to write a simple letter. The test for literacy is satisfied if the person can with understanding both read and write.

II. STANDARD OF EDUCATION

If the person can both read and write and has also passed a written examination or examinations as proof of an educational standard attained, write the highest examination passed instead of 'L'.

Q. 7(a) Mother Tongue

Write the mother tongue in full including dialect as returned by the person enumerated. Mother tongue is language spoken in childhood by the person's mother to the person or mainly spoken in the household. If the mother died in infancy write the language mostly spoken in the person's home in childhood. In the case of infants and deaf mutes give the language usually spoken by the mother.

Q. 7(b) Any other Language(s)

After recording the mother tongue enquire whether the person knows any other language(s), Indian or foreign, and write the language(s) returned by him against this question. In case he does not know any other language put 'X'.

The number of languages recorded against this question should not be more than two. These languages should be other than his mother tongue which he speaks and understands best and can use with felicity in communicating with others. Such language or languages will exclude dialects of the same language.

Qs. 8 to 11 Working

These questions apply only to workers. A person who is working may be working as a Cultivator, as an Agricultural Labourer, at a Household Industry or may be doing any other work. You have to record the answer in questions 8, 9, 10 and 11 according as the person is working as a Cultivator or as an Agricultural Labourer or at Household Industry or doing any other work. He may be engaged in only one of the above four categories or in more than one. Thus a person can be working both as a Cultivator and an Agricultural Labourer, in which case he should be entered both in Q. 8 and Q. 9. Or, he may be working both as Cultivator and at Household Industry in which case he will be entered in Q. 8 and Q. 10. Or, he may be working in any possible combination of 8, 9, 10 and 11, in which case he will be entered in the appropriate places. Or, he may be doing just one kind of work in which case he will be entered in only one of the four questions 8 to 11.

Detailed instructions as to how the answers should be recorded in the individual questions are given against those questions below. You should carefully study them before recording the answers. For an undertrial prisoner enumerated in a jail he should be recorded for the work or kinds of work he was doing before he was apprehended. Similarly, for a person temporarily in a hospital or similar institution he should be recorded for the kind of work he was doing before he was admitted into hospital or institution. But for a convict in a prison or for long term inmates of penal or charitable or mental institutions, the person's previous work should not be recorded but 'I' should be recorded in question 12 below.

The following classification illustrates as to which answers should be entered under Q. 8 and which others under Q. 11.

Under Q. 8 : Cultivation involving ploughing, sowing and harvesting.

- 1 Production of cereal crops (including Bengal gram), such as rice, wheat, jowar, bajra, maize; roots and tubers like potato, yam, beet etc.; sugarcane etc.
- 2 Production of pulses, such as arhar, moong, masur, urd, khesari, other gram.
- 3 Production of raw jute and kindred fibre crops.
- 4 Production of raw cotton and kindred fibre crops.

Under Q. 11 : Other Field Produce, Plantation Crops.

A. Other Field Produce :

- 1 Production of other crops including vegetables not covered in Q. 8.
- 2 Production of fruits and nuts in plantations, vines and orchards (like cocoanut, arecanut etc.).
- 3 Production of wood, bamboo, cane reeds, thatching grass etc.
- 4 Production of juice by tapping palms.
- 5 Production of other agricultural produce (including fruits and nuts not covered by sl. no. 2 and flowers) not covered above.

B. Plantation Crops :

- 1 Production of tea in plantation.
- 2 Production of coffee in plantation.
- 3 Production of rubber in plantation.
- 4 Production of tobacco in plantation (does not include tobacco which is cultivated in rotation with other cereal crops, in which case it would go under cultivation).
- 5 Production of ganja, cinchona, opium, poppy, saffron etc.
- 6 Production of other plantation crops not covered above.

Q. 8 Working as Cultivator

For a person working as Cultivator write 'C'. For a person not working as Cultivator and for a person not working at all put 'X'.

For purposes of the census a person is working as Cultivator if he or she is engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in (a) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land owned or held from Government and (b) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share.

Cultivation involves ploughing, sowing and harvesting and does not include fruit growing or keeping orchards or groves or working for plantations like tea, coffee, rubber, cinchona and other medicinal plantations. Persons engaged in fruit growing or orchardry or plantations like tea, coffee, rubber, cinchona and other medicinal plantations should be entered in Q.10 or Q.11 as the case may be.

A person who has given out his land to another person or persons for cultivation for money, kind or share of crop and who does not even supervise or direct cultivation of land, will not be treated as working as Cultivator. Similarly, a person working in another person's land only as a labourer and has no right or lease or contract on land on which he works, nor is responsible for taking decisions as to which crops to sow and when, or taking the risks of cultivation and is paid wages in cash, kind

The basis of work will be satisfied in the case of seasonal work like cultivation, livestock, dairying, household industry etc., if the person has had some regular work of more than one hour a day throughout the greater part of the working season. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce the basis of work will be satisfied if the person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the day on which you visited the household. If on the check or revisional round such a person is found to be unemployed no change in the original entry should be made. A person who is working but was absent from his work during the fifteen days preceding the day on which enumerated or even exceeding the period of fifteen days due to illness or other causes should be treated as worker. A person who has been offered work but has not actually joined should be treated as non-worker. Work includes not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work.

Persons under training as apprentices with or without stipend or wages will be regarded as working.

An adult woman who is engaged in household duties but doing no other productive work to augment the family's resources should not be considered as working for purposes of this question. If, however, in addition to her household work she engages herself in work such as rice pounding for sale or wages, or in domestic services for wages for others or minding cattle or selling firewood or making and selling cowdung cakes or grass etc., or any such work she should be treated as a worker.

Persons like beggars, pensioners, agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend receivers, who may be earning an income but who are not participating in any productive work should not be treated as working unless they also work in cultivation, industry, trade, profession, business or commerce.

A public or social service worker who is actively engaged in public service activity or a political worker who is also actively engaged in furthering the political activity of his party will be regarded as a worker and entered fully in question 11.

After you have filled up the answers to questions 8 to 11 if you find that in the case of any person more than one productive activity has been recorded, i.e., more than one of the questions 8, 9, 10 or 11, has been filled up by some work you should ask him which one of the activities that has been recorded for him is his principal work. The principal work is the one on which the person spends most time. Put a ring round the number of the question 8, 9, 10 or 11, according to the work on which the person says he spends most time. You should invariably ask for the principal work where more than one work is recorded and put a ring round the question relating to the principal work.

It may be that in a few cases you find that you have recorded more than two productive activities in questions 8 to 11, i.e., more than two of the questions, 8 to 11 would have been filled up by some work. In such cases you should first ascertain the principal work i.e., the one on which the person spends most time and put a ring round the number of the question. You should then ascertain the work which is the next in importance to his principal work i.e., the work after his principal work which occupies most time. You should put a tick against the question number of that work on the left hand side of the question number. The ring and the tick should be put clearly so that any difficulty will not be felt to recognise them clearly.

or share such as share of produce (Agricultural Labourer) will not be treated as Cultivator in this question.

Q. 9 Working as Agricultural Labourer

Write 'AL' for a person working as Agricultural Labourer, i.e., a person who works in another person's land only as a labourer without exercising any supervision or direction in cultivation, for wages in cash, kind or share such as share of produce. For others put 'X'. The labourer should have no right or lease or contract on land on which he works, nor should he be responsible for taking decisions as to which crops to sow and when, or taking the risks of cultivation. A share of the produce goes to him only as wages. He should have been working as Agricultural Labourer in the last or current cultivating season.

Qs. 10(a) and 10(b) Household Industry

If a person is working in a Household Industry write (i) the nature of work done by him in the Household Industry against question 10(a) and (ii) the nature of the Household Industry against question 10(b). Otherwise, put 'X' in both questions 10(a) and 10(b). A Household Industry is defined as an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself and/or mainly members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. The industry should not be run on the scale of a registered factory. Thus the main criterion for a Household Industry is the participation of one or more members of a household in rural areas. In the urban areas the industry should be confined to the house. You should carefully keep in mind the definition of Household Industry in the rural area if you are enumerating a rural area and the definition in the urban area if you are enumerating an urban area.

A Household Industry should relate to production, processing, servicing, repairing or making and selling of goods. It does not include professions such as pleader or doctor or barber or waterman or astrologer.

A person though he may not be working in his own Household Industry may be working as a paid employee in another Household Industry. You should, therefore, enquire whether the person who is not working in his own Household Industry is working in any other Household Industry and if so, write the nature of the work done by him against question 10(a) and the nature of the Household Industry against 10(b).

Q. 10(c) If Employee in Household Industry

This question will be filled up only for a person who is working as a paid employee in another person's Household Industry. In his or her case write 'EE'. For all others put 'X'.

The following examples will illustrate how questions 10(a) to 10(c) should be filled up for persons working at Household Industry :

Q. 10 Working at Household Industry

| (a) Nature of Work         | (b) Nature of Household Industry | (c) If Employee |

| 12 Polishing and Scraping metal                          | Electroplating                             | X               |
| 13 Labourer employed for putting iron hoop on cartwheels | Cartwheelwright                            | EE              |
| 14 Repairing of guns                                     | Gunsmithy                                  | X               |
| 15 Bee Keeping                                           | Production of honey                        | X               |
| 16 Tending cattle                                        | Livestock raising                          | X               |

Q. 11 Doing Work other than 8, 9 or 10

If a worker is not working as a Cultivator or as an Agricultural Labourer or at any Household Industry write the actual work he is doing. If a person is working as a Cultivator or as an Agricultural Labourer or at Household Industry and also does some other work (including dairying or livestock raising, orchard or plantation etc., as distinct from cultivation of crops) which does not relate to any of the above categories, write the other work he does in this question. If he is engaged in more than one work and neither of them relates to any of the three categories mentioned above write here the work on which he devotes more time.

Q. 11(a) Nature of Work

In the case of persons not working or who work only as Cultivator or as Agricultural Labourer or at Household Industry put 'X'.

Describe fully the nature of the work done by the person himself. Full and precise information as to the nature of work done by the person should be given either in the vernacular or in English or in vernacular transliteration of English. At previous censuses much trouble has been caused by inadequate answers, and if you do not succeed in obtaining satisfactory information on the individual slips, you will be required to make a further visit for that purpose.

Q. 11(b) Nature of Industry, Profession, Trade or Service

In the case of a person who is working and the nature of whose own work has been recorded in Question 11(a), you should write here the nature of industry, profession, trade or service in which the person works.

As in the case of Question 11(a), you should describe in detail the nature of industry, business, trade, profession or service in which the person works. Vague answers should be avoided.

In the case of industries, the articles which are produced or serviced or repaired, should be given. If more than one article is produced the chief article produced or serviced or repaired should be given. In the case of business or trade the principal article of trade should be described. In the case of service describe the nature of the service to which the person's work belongs. The description should be such that it would be possible to classify the establishment in which the person is working for purposes of industrial classification of the population. The description should be either in the vernacular or in English or in vernacular transliteration of English.

In the case of a person for whom 'X' is put in question 11(a) put 'X' in this question also.

Important points to remember in Questions 11 (a) and 11(b)

1 Women or children who help with work, such as rice pounding or doing domestic service for wages or minding cattle or selling firewood or making and selling cowdung cakes, grass, etc., should be described fully even if they work part-time. In the case of married or grown-up women who do any of the work mentioned above in addition to the usual household duties such work should be fully described and 'HW' written in brackets after the full description.

2 If a person makes the articles he sells, he should be entered as maker and seller of them.

3 Wherever convenient, for complete description, the work should be expressed by the vernacular name by which it is known.

4 The following are too vague and must not be used by themselves :

Scientist, technician, civil servant, clerk, engineer, inspector, checker, foreman, overseer, supervisor, labourer, machinist, assistant, contractor, polisher.

5 Labourers—For an unskilled labourer usually employed on one sort of work alone, give also the sort of work done, e.g., railway porter, market or bazar porter, labourer employed on road digging, bricklayer's labourer. If accustomed to work on various jobs, write general labourer.

6 Machine Operators—Always state the kind of machine giving its recognized name, if any.

7 Shop-keepers, Retail Dealers, Shop Assistants—If wholly or mainly engaged in selling, write, 'Dealer' (if principal) or, 'Shop Assistant' or 'Salesman' (if assisting) and state whether the business is wholesale or retail or both. For Shop Assistants and Salesmen in stores with several departments, state the particular department in which engaged (e.g., Ship and Railway Parts, Fans and Sewing Machines, Grocers and Confectioners).

8 Transport Workers—Describe fully the nature of the transport, e.g., air transport, rail transport, transport by motor car or motor cycle, or vehicles drawn by horse, etc.

9 Services—For a person engaged in the Defence Services write 'Service of Central Government'.

10 If the job is known in the trade or industry by a special name, use that name. Manager, Foreman, etc., should be given the department/branch wherever applicable e.g., 'Sales Manager' or a 'Manager' of Hardware Department, 'Machine Shop Foreman' or 'Boiler Room Foreman', etc. The following terms are insufficient by themselves :

Manufacturer, merchant, agent, broker, refractor, dealer, engineer and iron works, etc.

11 Domestic Services—In the case of any private servant e.g., a cook or domestic servant, write only 'private cook or domestic servant'. There is no industry in his case but in the case of persons employed in hostels, restaurants, boarding houses, institutions, etc., the words hostel, restaurant, etc., should be added.

For persons in the employ of firms carrying on two or more businesses, if the businesses are carried on in separate premises then the business carried on at the premises in which the person is employed should be given. If the businesses are carried on in the same premises but each has a separate organisation (i.e., they have separate records of employment, production, etc.) then the appropriate business should be quoted. If, however, the two activities are carried on side by side then the major activity of the firm or establishment should be given.

12 Commerce—Special care should be taken to see that the distinction between retail and wholesale business is clear. As in industries, the goods handled should be clearly indicated.

Q. 11(c) Class of Worker

For a person who is :

- 1 an Employer, that is, who hires one or more persons in his work described in Q. 11 (a) write MR
- 2 an Employee, that is, who does his work described in Q. 11(a) under others for wages or salary in cash or kind write EE
- 3 a Single Worker, that is, who is doing his work described in Q. 11(a) without employing others, except casually and without the help of other members of the family except casually. This will include workers working as members of co-operatives write SW
- 4 a Family Worker, that is, who is doing his work described in Q. 11(a) in own family without wages or salary in cash or kind write FW

For a person for whom 'X' is put in Qs. 11(a) and 11(b) put 'X' in this question also.

Explanation :—

(i) An Employer is a person who has to employ other persons in order to perform the work entered in Q. 11(a). That is to say, such a person is not only responsible for his own personal work but also for giving work to others in the business mentioned in Q. 11(a). But a person who employs domestic servants for household duties or has subordinates under him in an office where he is employed by others, is not an employer, even if he has the power to employ another person in his office on behalf of his own employer or employers.

(ii) An Employee is a person who usually works under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind. There may be persons who are employed as managers, superintendents, agents etc., and in that capacity employ or control other workers on behalf of their own employers. Such persons are only employees, as explained above, and should not be regarded as employers.

(iii) A Single Worker for the purpose of Q. 11(c) is a person who works by himself. He is not employed by any one else and in his turn does not employ anybody else not even members of his household except casually. This definition of a Single Worker will include a person who works in joint partnership with one or several persons hiring no employees, and also a member of a producers' co-operative. Each one of the partners or members of such producers' co-operatives should be recorded as 'Single Worker'.

(iv) A Family Worker is a member who works, without receiving wages in cash or kind, in an industry, business or trade conducted mainly by members of the family and ordinarily does at least one hour of work everyday during the working season. For the purpose of the entire Q. 11, such an industry should be on a scale larger than what has been covered in 'Household Industry' in Q. 10 whether run at home or away from home in town or village and even away from village in rural area and should ordinarily be in the nature of a recognised partnership, joint stock company or registered factory. For the purpose of this definition members of a family may be drawn from beyond the limits of the household by ties of blood or marriage. The family worker may not be entitled to a share of the profits in the work of the business carried on either by the person or head of the household or other relative.

Members of the household who help solely in household duties should not be treated as family workers.

Q. 11(d) Name of Establishment

Describe in detail the name of the factory, workshop, business house, company, shop, etc. If a person has no fixed place of work, write 'No fixed place of work'.

For a person for whom 'X' is put in Qs. 11(a), 11(b) and 11(c) put 'X' in this question also.

The following examples will illustrate how Qs. 11(a) to 11(d) should be filled up for persons doing work other than 8, 9 or 10:

Q. 12 Activity, if Not Working

This question will apply to a person NOT WORKING.

Write 'X' in this question for a person who is working that is for whom you have recorded the work in any of the questions 8 to 11 above.

The following activities should be recorded in the case of persons NOT WORKING:

- For a full time student or child attending school who does no other work, such as make articles at home for sale, nor even help part-time in his own family cultivation, industry, trade or business write ST
- For a person engaged in unpaid home duties (like housewife or other adult female) who does no other work, such as make articles at home for sale or wages, nor help regularly even part-time in family cultivation, industry, trade or business write HW
- For any dependent, including an infant or child not attending school, a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age write D
- For a retired person who is not employed again, rentier, person living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work and who does no other work

5 For a beggar, a vagrant or an independent woman without indication of source of income and others of unspecified source of existence write B

6 For a convict in jail (an undertrial prisoner will be shown as a worker if he used to work before he was apprehended) or an inmate of a penal, mental or charitable institution write I

7 For a person who has not been employed before but is seeking employment for the first time write NE

8 For a person employed before but now out of employment and seeking employment write UN

Explanation:—If a person, who does not work, cannot be readily classified in any of the above categories, put him in category 5 and write 'B' in this question. A retired person who has taken up regular work again should not be entered in this question as he would have been entered for his new work in questions 8 to 11.

A person who is not working but has been offered work which he has not joined should be included in item 3 and 'D' should be written. He should not be included in item 7 or 8.

Q. 13 Sex

Write 'M' for Males; and 'F' for Females.

For eunuchs and hermaphrodites write M

1961 CENSUS PUBLICATION PROGRAMME

According to the Tabulation Plan for the 1961 Census, 5 tables, mainly devoted to housing conditions and establishments, workshops and factories are to be produced from the Houselist. 8 Household Economic Tables, 1 table on Composition of Households for general population and 1 Household Economic Table (SCT-V) for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are to be produced from the Household Schedule. The Individual Slip will yield 4 General Population Tables. The Primary Census Abstracts, 9 Economic Tables, 7 Social and Cultural Tables, 6 Migration Tables and 7 Special Tables for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes excluding the Household Economic Table (SCT-V).

Some of the Tables have already been prepared and the others are under preparation. This part contains the General Population Tables and The Primary Census Abstracts.

The 1951 Age Tables were prepared on the basis of a 10 per cent. sample. In 1961 all the Age Tables are prepared on the full count. The Household Economic and Household Size and Composition Tables are prepared on the basis of a 20 per cent. sample of households.

Many of the tables contain separate parts for total, rural and urban populations. In addition, data at the village level are given in The Primary Census Abstracts and Village Directories for the total population, number of literates, number of members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes separately, and number of persons working in each of the following nine industrial categories and the number of non-workers, all classified by sex:

- I Working as Cultivator
- II Working as Agricultural Labourer
- III Working in Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied activities
- IV Working at Household Industry
- V Working in Manufacturing other than Household Industry
- VI Working in Construction
- VII Working in Trade and Commerce
- VIII Working in Transport, Storage and Communications
- IX Working in Other Services
- X Non-workers

In the case of towns the data are given for each Enumerator's block classified under respective wards. These statistics of villages and town blocks will be published in the District Census Handbook which will be a State Government publication.

Many ancillary enquiries connected with the census were also undertaken by this Organisation. In consultation with the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research a special questionnaire was designed, and a special business reply card was distributed by the enumerator to scientifically and technically trained persons during his first round at household; that claimed such persons. The persons concerned had either to fill up the card and hand it over to the enumerator during his second call or mail it direct to the Registrar General's Office. Two hundred and fifty thousand filled up cards were received back. The response, as was to be expected in such a procedure, was incomplete but far from discouraging. These are being processed and, as a result, 8 tables will be prepared and published in Part II-C.

In all the States the State Census Superintendents are engaged in Socio-Economic Surveys of selected villages. The total number of villages taken for such survey throughout the country is about 800. The office of the Registrar General has also independently undertaken similar surveys in cognate fields. The reports of the survey will throw light on the Social and Economic conditions of village life which will add to the understanding and interpretation of the general results of the census.

Detailed survey is also being undertaken in the States on selected handicrafts. About 200 important handicrafts in the country will be covered and a monograph will be published on each handicraft. Similarly in all the States material is being collected on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes from which Ethnographic notes on these castes and tribes will be published along with the Special Tables for these communities.

There will be a general examination of the language returns and a separate volume is contemplated on a scrutiny of Indian languages.

In addition to the tables and the reports on the ancillary surveys, there will be a General Report on the census for each State written by the State Census Superintendent and for all India written by the Registrar General. The report will contain a large number of subsidiary and inset tables and will also be illustrated by maps, charts and diagrams.

A special project for the 1961 Census is the preparation of an Atlas Volume depicting the results of the census through maps. This volume will also contain other maps relating to physiography, rainfall, soil, agriculture, transport, power, etc.

The 1961 Census publications will thus consist of the following:

Besides the above, there will be a series of Monographs called 1961 Census papers. These will be All-India Census Monographs, each concerned with the whole of India and not with any particular State. The Monographs will be prepared and published by the Registrar General, India. A tentative list of 1961 Census Monographs is given below:

- No. 1—Results of the Post-Enumeration Check of 1961.
- No. 2—Internal Migration.
- No. 3—Rural Urban Migration and Urbanisation.
- No. 4—Age and Sex of the Population.

ACCURACY OF THE CENSUS COUNT

POST-ENUMERATION CHECK

A Post-Enumeration Check of 1961 Census count was undertaken around 22 March, 1961 in most of the States. Error in population count might occur on account of (a) omission or duplication of a house as a whole and hence its inmates, and (b) omission or duplication in counting inmates in a house canvassed by the census enumerator. The effect of type (a) error on population count was sought to be estimated from a sample of enumeration blocks and of type (b) error from a sample of houses in sampled blocks. In rural areas 1 per cent. of blocks and 10 per cent. of houses and in the urban areas 2 per cent. of blocks and 5 per cent. of houses generally were taken for these purposes. The results show that there were 1,007 persons for every 1,000 persons counted in the 1961 Census. It is a reasonably safe conclusion (level of probability being 99.7 %) that the number of persons (level of probability being 99.7 %) that the number of persons omitted per 1,000 counted could not have exceeded 8 or fallen short of 6. A similar Post-Enumeration Check conducted after the 1951 Census showed an under-enumeration of 11 persons per 1,000 counted with upper and lower limits of 12 and 10 respectively.

There will be a separate series of Census Publications for each State and for All-India. In the case of Union Territories one or more parts may be combined. The State Tables Volume will publish data down to the district level and the All-India Tables Volume will give data down to the State level except Tables A-I, A-III and The Primary Census Abstracts. In the case of Tables A-I, A-III and The Primary Census Abstracts the State Volume will give data down to tehsil/taluk/police station/anchal according to the administrative units below the district and the All-India Volume will give data down to the district level.

The following statement gives the result for all the States and Delhi separately for rural and urban sectors. Row (i) shows the estimated error as a percentage of censused population and row (ii) shows its sampling percentage error. Negative sign means a net over-counting, figures without sign in row (i) representing a net omission:

The small dimension of the error, of a limit of confidence nearing certainty, bears testimony to the excellence of the census count, which was but the result of close, patient and thorough organisation. The reasons why the error should be so small in an Indian census are built into the organisation itself. First, almost the entire country is divided into minute revenue areas each with its well-defined boundaries, which render omissions or overlaps difficult. Secondly, for most of these villages, large-scale maps are available, which facilitate identification and satisfactory verification on the ground. Thirdly, the census enumerator is selected from among the villagers themselves in the overwhelming majority of cases who brings into the work his intimate local knowledge. Fourthly, the enumerator-designate was required to paint and number all census houses, establishments and census households in his beat several months ahead of the census count, and to list all population in the houselists, which acquainted him over again with his own area. He was at the same time required to fill up houselists which served as a check to his preliminary listing. Fifthly, apart from the official maps, he was required to make out a notional map of his area on which he was required to plot every landmark, natural feature and configuration and each census house and household. Sixthly, all these stages were closely checked and supervised by his superiors. In the seventh place, he received a minimum training course of six practical lessons during one of which he was required to undertake a sample census of several households, the results of which were discussed again in class. In the next place, there was a revisional round following main census count, and the enumerator had a further chance of picking up in the second round whatever he had missed in the first. Finally, as corroborated by the 1961 Census results as well, error in population count is higher in the more congested urban areas with their complex structure of housing and mobility of population. In India the number of urban areas and the urban population, especially in towns and cities of over 50,000, still continue to be small. Thus, one of the major factors contributing to enumeration error still remains narrowly circumscribed, so that it fails to affect to any considerable degree the greater accuracy of the dominating rural areas. All these factors, therefore, more than compensate for the diversity of the census personnel and the low rate of general literacy, so much so that the count of human beings itself, as distinct from a record of their attributes, the reliability of which will still largely depend on the level of literacy and education, is apt to be as accurate as the results of the Post-Enumeration Check testify.

It is a matter for gratification that the extent of error in 1961 Census count is substantially lower than that shown by 1951 Census count. This seems to be mainly due to the clear and timely planning of the census operations, for which steps were taken well in advance of the census reference period. The Census Superintendents were in position early in 1959. They got enough time to think and plan the organisational aspects of the work. In 1951 Census Post-Enumeration Check was an after thought but in 1961 it was included as a distinct item in the census time schedule. The knowledge of its coming kept the organisation on its toes. The Post-Enumeration Check in 1961 was conducted soon after the main census and was differently organised after a detailed consideration of the main census operations. The check was linked closely with the main census records. It was direct and conducted by an efficient and carefully selected supervisory staff, which had actually taken part in the field work in the main census enumeration, though in another locality. The staff was fully familiar with the problems of the census organisation. This fact itself must have helped in yielding a true estimate of the error.

A brochure containing the details of the organisation of the Post-Enumeration Check and the results will be issued separately.

NEW FEATURES OF 1961 CENSUS

The Census of 1961 claims several new features which, apart from consolidating the unique features of 1951 Census, seek to extend the scope of population statistics. It will be of interest to mention them very briefly:

(i) A census of housing including one of workshops, factories and other establishments was taken throughout the country in 1960. The results will be published separately in five new tables.

(ii) Notional maps for each village and urban block have been prepared for the greater part of the country.

(iii) The adoption of the Household Schedule and Census Population Record will yield 8 Household Economic Tables, 1 table on Household Composition for general population and 1 Household Economic Table (SCT-V) for members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes featuring the activity of the household as an economic unit as distinct from that of the individual.

(iv) Economic activity will be classified separately for rural and urban areas by sex and by the National Classification of Occupations and the 10 Census Industrial Categories cross-classified by broad age groups and educational levels.

(v) Migration Statistics will be presented by duration of residence in place of migration. Birth place data will be presented by rural/urban. Migrants to cities will be classified by sex, broad age groups, educational levels and in the case of workers also by occupational divisions and groups.

(vi) The population returned as unemployed will be classified by sex, broad age groups and educational levels for urban areas and by sex and educational levels in rural areas, while the population not at work will be classified by sex, broad age groups and type of activity.

(vii) The entire population of the country has been tabulated by single year ages.

(viii) There will be a more elaborate classification by different grades of educational attainment and a greater number of age groups of the Social and Cultural Tables.

(ix) There will be a special set of 7 tables for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in addition to the Household Economic Table (SCT-V).

AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

A-I AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

Fly-leaf

This table differs from the corresponding Table of 1951 inas-much as in 1961 the political and administrative zones have re-placed the Natural Regions, Sub-Regions and Divisions of 1951. The Reorganisation of States which commenced with the birth of Andhra in 1953, reached its peak in 1956 and terminated with the birth of Maharashtra and Gujarat in 1960, brought about the dissolution of Part A, Part B, Part C States and Part D Territories of 1951 and the emergence of States and Union Territories. The political and administrative Reorganisation of States also, incidentally, paved the way for greater uniformity in census concepts, definitions and methods and made for much improvement and cohesion in organisation. During the decade the former French territories of Pondicherry, Karaikal, Mahe and Yanam as well as the former Portuguese territories of Goa, Daman and Diu merged with the Indian Union. The former French territory of Chandernagore was absorbed in West Bengal.

There were fourteen main legislations after the 1951 Census, enumerated below which changed the poitical and administrative dϑlineations of the Union:

- (i) The Andhra State Act, 1953 (30 of 1953)
- (ii) The Himachal Pradesh and Bilaspur (New State) Act, 1954 (32 of 1954)
- (iii) The Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954 (36 of 1954)
- (iv) The States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956)
- (v) The Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 (40 of 1956)
- (vi) The Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956
- (vii) The Naga Hills-Tuensang Area Act, 1957 (42 of 1957)
- (viii) The Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh (Transfer of Terri-tories) Act, 1959 (47 of 1959)
- (ix) The Andhra Pradesh and Madras (Alteration of Bounda-ries) Act, 1959 (56 of 1959)
- (x) The Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1960 (11 of 1960)
- (xi) The Constitution (Tenth Amendment) Act, 1961
- (xii) The Constitution (Twelfth Amendment) Act, 1962
- (xiii) The Constitution (Fourteenth Amendment) Act, 1962
- (xiv) The State of Nagaland Act, 1962 (27 of 1962)

Following the Andhra State Act, 1953, the Himachal Pradesh and Bilaspur (New State) Act, 1954, the Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954, the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 and the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956, the Registrar General's Office published Paper No. 1 of 1957 'General Population Tables and Summary Figures by Districts of Reorganised States— 1951 Census' which gave all the A-Series Tables and the E Table of 1951 re-cast in terms of the new delineations. In A-II Table 'Variation in Population, 1901-51' adjustments in population were made as far as practicable in terms of the reorganised juris-dictions backwards to 1901.

It should be mentioned that the Assam (Alteration of Bounda-ries) Act, 1951 (47 of 1951) ceded a 'strip of territory' from Assam to Bhutan measuring 32·81 Sq. miles lying to the south of Bhutan within 26° 45' North Latitude and 91° 15' and 91° 45' East Longitude, demarcated on the West, North and East by boundary pillar Nos. 90, 91, 92, 93 and 94 erected in 1930-31 and on the South by boundary pillar Nos. 90, 91, 92, 93 and 94 erected in 1950.

The Andhra State Act, 1953 (30 of 1953) was concerned with the formation of Andhra State and transfer of certain territories from Madras to Mysore. Andhra was formed a Part A State out of the former Madras districts of Srikakulam, Visakhapatnam, East Godavari, West Godavari, Krishna, Guntur, Nellore, Kur-nool, Anantapur, Cuddapah and Chittoor together with the Alur, Adoni and Rayadrug taluks of Bellary district. Alur and Adoni were included in and became partof Kurnool district and Rayadrug in Anantapur district. Bellary district, exclusive of Alur, Adoni and Rayadrug taluks, were added to Mysore and formed a separate district of the same name in Mysore.

The Himachal Pradesh and Bilaspur (New State) Act, 1954 (32 of 1954) formed the new State of Himachal Pradesh by uniting the existing States of Himachal Pradesh and Bilaspur.

The Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954 merged in West Bengal the former French possession of Chandernagore (Chandannagar) which became part of the Indian Union after the 1951 Census and was a separate unit till 1954. Chandernagore, so long an enclave in Hooghly district, now became part of that district.

The States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956) was res-ponsible for the following changes:

- 1 Transfer of Territory from Hyderabad to Andhra and alteration of name.
- 2 Transfer of Territory from Travancore-Cochin to Mad-ras.
- 3 Formation of Kerala State.
- 4 Formation of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands as a new Part C State.
- 5 Formation of a new Mysore State.
- 6 Formation of a new Bombay State.
- 7 Formation of a new Madhya Pradesh State.
- 8 Formation of a new Rajasthan State.
- 9 Formation of a new Punjab State.

In respect of 1, the districts of Hyderabad, Medak, Nizamabad, Karimnagar, Warangal, Khammam, Nalgonda, Mahbubnagar and Adilabad (with the exception of Islapur circle of Boath taluk, Kinwat taluk and Rajura taluk which were transferred to Bombay State and made part of Nanded district, Rajura was subsequently transferred to Chanda district) went from former Hyderabad State to Andhra; the taluks of Alampur and Gadwal of Raichur district and Kodangal taluk of Gulbarga district became part of Mahbubnagar district; Tandur taluk of Gulbarga district became part of Hyderabad district; Zahirabad taluk (with the exception of Nirna circle transferred to Mysore and retained in Bidar distt.);

Nyalkal circle of Bidar taluk and Narayankhed taluk of Bidar district became part of Medak district; Bichkonda and Jukkal circles of Deglur taluk of Nanded district became part of Nizamabad district; Mudhol, Bhainsa and Kuber circles of Mudhol taluk of Nanded district became part of Adilabad district. The State was renamed Andhra Pradesh.

In respect of 2 and 3, Agasteeswaram, Thovala, Kalkulam and Vilavancode taluks of Trivandrum district were added to Madras State and made into a separate district of Kanyakumari; the Shencottah taluk of Quilon district was made part of Tirunelveli district of Madras. The State of Travancore-Cochin was transformed into the State of Kerala with the following modifications; with the exception of the areas just mentioned, the districts of former Travancore-Cochin would form Kerala; and the addition of Malabar district with the exception of Laccadive and Minicoy Islands (included in the Part C State of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands), and Kasaragod taluk of South Kanara district of Madras as Malabar district of Kerala.

In respect of 4, Laccadive and Minicoy Islands in the Malabar district, and the Amindivi Islands in the South Kanara district of Madras together formed the Part C State of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands and ceased to form part of Madras.

In respect of 5, the State of Mysore was freshly formed with (i) the territories of the existing State of Mysore; (ii) Belgaum district (with the exception of Chandgad taluka retained in Bombay and merged with Kolhapur district), Bijapur, Dharwar and Kanara districts of the existing State of Bombay; (iii) Gulbarga district (with the exception of Kodangal and Tandur taluks merged in Mahbubnagar and Hyderabad districts respectively of Andhra Pradesh), Raichur district (with the exception of Alampur and Gadwal taluks included in Mahbubnagar district of Andhra Pradesh), Bidar district (with the exception of Ahmadpur, Nilanga, and Udgir taluks included in Osmanabad district of Bombay, Zahirabad taluk except Nirna circle, Nyalkal circle of Bidar taluk, and Narayankhed taluk included in Medak district of Andhra Pradesh) of the existing State of Hyderabad; (iv) South Kanara district (with the exception of Kasaragod taluk transferred to Malabar district in Kerala and Amindivi Islands included in the Part C State of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands), and Kollegal taluk of Coimbatore district of the existing State of Madras, and (v) the territories of the existing State of Coorg. Kollegal taluk became part of Mysore district and Coorg became a district of Mysore State.

In respect of 6, the new State of Bombay was comprised of (i) the territories of the existing State of Bombay excluding the districts of Bijapur, Dharwar, Kanara and Belgaum (with the exception of Chandgad taluka which continued to be in Bombay, forming part of Kolhapur district), and Abu Road taluka of Banaskantha district (which now became part of Rajasthan and was included in Sirohi district); (ii) Aurangabad, Parbhani, Bhair, and Osmanabad districts of the existing State of Hyderabad; (iii) Ahmadpur, Nilanga and Udgir taluks of Bidar district (of the existing State of Hyderabad), which now became part of Osmanabad district of Bombay; (iv) Nanded district of the existing State of Hyderabad (with the exception of (a) Bichkonda and Jukkal circles of Deglur taluk which were now made part of Nizamabad district of Andhra Pradesh and (b) Mudhol, Bhainsa and Kuber circles of Mudhol taluk which were now made part of Adilabad district of Andhra Pradesh); (v) Islapur circle of Boath taluk and Kinwat taluk of Adilabad district of the existing State of Hyderabad which now formed part of Nanded district; (vi) Rajura taluk of Adilabad district of existing State of Hyderabad which now formed part of Chanda district; (vii) Buldhana, Akola, Amravati, Yeotmal, Wardha, Nagpur, Bhandara and Chanda districts of the existing State of Madhya Pradesh; (viii) the territories of the existing State of Saurashtra; and (ix) the territories of the existing State of Kutch. Kutch became a district of Bombay State.

In respect of 7, the new State of Madhya Pradesh was formed of (i) the territories of the existing State of Madhya Pradesh, with the exception of the districts of Buldhana, Akola, Amravati, Yeotmal, Wardha, Nagpur, Bhandara and Chanda in the existing State of Madhya Pradesh which formed part of the State of Bombay; (ii) the territories of the existing State of Madhya Bharat, with the exception of Sunel Tappa of Bhanpura tehsil of Mandsaur district (which now became part of Jhalawar district of the State of Rajasthan); (iii) Sironj subdivision of Kota district in the existing State of Rajasthan which now became part of Vidisha (Bhilsa) district; (iv) the territories of the existing State of Bhopal; and (v) the territories of the existing State of Vindhya Pradesh.

In respect of 8, the new State of Rajasthan was formed of (i) the territories of the existing State of Rajasthan, with the exception of Sironj subdivision of Kota district which now became part of Vidisha (Bhilsa) district in the State of Madhya Pradesh; (ii) the territories of the existing State of Ajmer which now became a separate district; (iii) Abu Road taluka of Banaskantha district in the existing State of Bombay which now became part of Sirohi district; and (iv) Sunel Tappa of Bhanpura tehsil of Mandsaur district in the existing State of Madhya Bharat which now became part of Jhalawar district.

In respect of 9, the State of Punjab was formed of (i) the territories of the existing State of Punjab; and (ii) the territories of the existing State of Patiala and East Punjab States Union.

The Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 transferred from Bihar to West Bengal (a) that portion of Kishanganj subdivision of Purnea district which lay to the East of the boundary line demarcated by an authority appointed by the Central Government for the purpose and the portion of Gopalpur thana of the Purnea district which lay to the East or North, as the case might be, of the said boundary line and (b) Purulia subdivision of Manbhum district with the exception of Chas thana, Chandil thana and Patamda police station of Barabhum thana. The territory specified in (a) was to form part of Darjeeling district and the territory specified in (b) was to form a separate district to be known as Purulia district. (The territory specified in (a) was later divided between Darjeeling and West Dinajpur districts.)

The Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act of 1956, apart from confirming the boundaries of the States effected by the first four Acts referred to on page 47, abolished Part A and Part B States forming them into 14 States, and the Part C States and Part D territories forming them into the Union Territories of Delhi, Himachal Pradesh, Manipur, Tripura, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands.

In 1957 the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area Act, 1957 (42 of 1957) provided for the formation of the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area of Assam as an administrative unit.

The Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1959 (47 of 1959) introduced a number of boundary adjustments which are recorded elsewhere in this Volume.

The Andhra Pradesh and Madras (Alteration of Boundaries) Act, 1959 (56 of 1959) affected the district boundaries of Chittoor of Andhra Pradesh and Salem, Chingleput and North Arcot of Madras. The territorial adjustments are recorded elsewhere in this Volume.

The next most considerable Act is the Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1960 (11 of 1960) which split up the State of Bombay to form two new States, Maharashtra and Gujarat. Maharashtra constituted all the territories that went to make the State of Bombay under the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956) with the exception of the following territories which were now taken away to form the new State of Gujarat: (a) Banaskantha, Mehsana, Sabarkantha, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Panchmahals, Baroda, Broach, Surat, Dangs, Amreli, Surendranagar, Rajkot, Jamnagar, Junagadh, Bhavnagar and Kutch districts; (b) 47 villages and 3 towns in Umbergaon taluka of Thana district which now formed a separate taluka of Umbergaon in Surat district; (c) 38 villages of Nawapur taluka of Dhulia (West Khandesh), first transferred to Songadh taluka and subsequently to Uchhal mahal of Surat district; (d) 38 villages of Nandurbar taluka of Dhulia (West Khandesh), first transferred to Songadh taluka and subsequently to Nizar mahal of Surat district; (e) 27 villages of Akalkuva taluka of Dhulia (West Khandesh), now form part of Sagbara mahal of Broach district; (f) 10 villages of Akalkuva taluka of Dhulia (West Khandesh), first transferred to Sagbara mahal of Broach district and subsequently to Nizar mahal of Surat district. It was further stipulated that the residual villages of the former Umbergaon taluka of Bombay which now fell with the jurisdiction of Maharashtra would form part of Dahanu taluka (now Talasari mahal) of Thana district.

The Constitution (Tenth Amendment) Act, 1961 established the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli with effect from 11 August, 1961.

The Constitution (Twelfth Amendment) Act, 1962 established the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, with effect from 20 December, 1961.

The Constitution (Fourteenth Amendment) Act, 1962 established the Union Territory of Pondicherry comprising the former French Establishments with effect from 16 August, 1962.

The State of Nagaland Act, 1962 (27 of 1962) created a new State of Nagaland which comprised the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area to operate from a date to be notified [earlier formed by Nagaland (Transitional provision) Regulation, 1961 and since has come into operation with effect from 1 December, 1963 as a State]. The figures for Nagaland are not shown under States. The data collected at the Census and the tables relate to the position as on 1 March, 1961, the reference date for the Census.

Appendix I to Table A-I will give the details of adjustment of territory down to the level of the district arising out of the operation of the above mentioned Central and other State Legislations. It will bear mention, in passing, that these administrative and jurisdictional changes will have considerable import for Migration Tables in the D Series. Since Migration Statistics will be based on birth place even in 1961, they will conceal a certain degree of administrative migration, that is, migration.

tion spuriously thrust upon a person by the Reorganisation of States and by change of jurisdiction.

It is but natural that in a decade of such extensive changes often necessitating the setting up of entirely new Governments together with their administrative machinery all along the line from the State capital to the village, there will be cases of unreconciled discrepancy between areas computed by the State Survey Department and those calculated by the Survey of India. Areas of uncertain or unstable international boundary are likely to be affected the most, e.g., in Jammu and Kashmir. The next in order of importance are areas like North-East Frontier Agency, Nagaland, Manipur and Kutch where cadastral surveys still remain to be completed. While on the one hand, there was no jurisdictional uncertainty, where transfers were made in terms of entire revenue villages or revenue circles or talukas or tehsils as a result of which the villagers themselves as well as the village revenue officials knew for certain which fields and homesteads now went to which district or to which State, there were often, on the other hand, new delineations which were severally so minute that the method of computation by which the Survey of India works was bound to produce different results from what the State Department of Survey derived from its cadastral computations.

The following statement picks out those States and districts where the areas as determined by the Surveyor General of India and the State Department of Land Records and Survey are out by one-half of one per cent. or more of each other:

STATEMENT 1

States and districts where the area figures (in square miles) as given by the Surveyor General, India and the State Department of Land Records and Survey differ by one-half of one per cent. or more

(Excludes Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and NEFA as area figures of State Survey Department are not available. In case of Uttar Pradesh the State Survey area for Uttar Kashi, Chamoli, Pithoragarh, Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora is not separately available.)

Towns, Town Groups and Cities

For the first time in 1951 all census statistics were presented separately for rural and urban areas. This has been continued in 1961 as a basic stratification as fundamental as the presentation of all statistics separately for males and females. The completion of two five year plans together with such reforms as the merger of Princely States and the Reorganisation of States seemed to demand a more rigid application of the tests for urbanisation and the working out of a list of urban areas in 1961 that would form a series for the future. It should be remembered, however, that in every decade the Census Commission has tried to apply uniform eligibility tests throughout the country but the diversity of conditions prevailing in provinces and Princely States has defeated their realization to a certain extent even in 1961. To qualify for an urban area, a place should first be either a municipal corporation or a municipal area, or under a town committee or a notified area committee or cantonment board. In the absence of a central municipal law, these have always meant different things at different places so that a municipal town or town committee in State A, has had different standards from what obtained in State B, thus eluding comparability on all fours. In the second place, each census has adopted a number of census towns, which do not enjoy any statutory label of administration. This has been considered desirable in order to obtain a true measure of urbanization as it is usual for an administrative label to fall some way behind actual achievement. These census towns were in 1961 determined on the basis of a number of empirical tests : (a) a density of not less than 1,000 per square mile; (b) a population of 5,000; (c) three-fourths of the occupations of the working population should be outside of agriculture; and (d) the place should have, according to the Superintendent of the State, a few pronounced urban characteristics and amenities, the definition of which, although leaving room for vagueness and discretion, yet meant to cover newly-founded industrial areas, large housing settlements, or places of tourist importance which have been recently served with all civic amenities. Naturally enough, such a course also implied the elimination of a fair number of places which had passed muster for towns in the past and the emergence of a number of new places as towns in 1961. All cases of elimination were first referred to the State Government and its approval secured before being struck off the 1961 Census list of towns. All cases of fresh inclusion were required to be referred to the Registrar General's Office, with full and sufficient reasons supporting the proposal to treat a place as a town, and the concurrence of that Office had to be obtained. The following gives a brief historic survey of the changing definition of towns between 1891 and 1961.

| 6 Selected places with (a) density of not less than 1,000 per square mile; (b) a population of 5,000; (c) three-fourths of the working population should be working outside agriculture; (d) or any other place, which, according to the Superintendent of the State, possesses pronounced urban characteristics and amenities. | Test prescribed for distinguishing towns from villages in different States were based on ideas common to all States, but they were not identical nor had they been applied with meticulous uniformity. In the case of Princely States, the definition of town was applied a little indiscriminately. | Every continuous collection of houses inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which the Provincial Superintendent may decide to treat as a town. | Every other continuous collection of houses inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which the Provincial Superintendent may decide to treat as urban. In making this decision consideration was given to (a) the character of the population; (b) relative density of the dwellings; (c) importance in trade, historic associations and to avoid treating as towns overgrown villages without urban characteristics. | Every other continuous collection of houses inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which the Provincial Superintendent may decide to treat as a town for census purposes. | Every other continuous collection of houses permanently inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which the Provincial Superintendent may decide to treat as a town for census purposes. | Every other continuous collection of houses permanently inhabited by not less than 5,000 persons, which the Provincial Superintendent may decide to treat as a town for census purposes. | (a) Every place where the proportion of the trading and industrial population to the total is equal to or greater than that of the agricultural population; (b) every other continuous group of houses inhabited by not less than 5,000 people. |

More details of the difference that changes in the definition of urban areas have made to census statistics will be found in Fly-leaf to Table A-IV. The Appendix to Table A-IV gives an account (i) of places which were not treated as towns in 1951 but treated as such in 1961 with their population, wherever available, of both 1951 and 1961 (ii) of places treated as towns in 1951 but declassified in 1961 with their population, wherever available, of both 1951 and 1961.

One of the innovations attempted in 1961 in the presentation of urban statistics is by the way certain clusters have been grouped to denote 'town groups'. It was realized that in certain clusters the urban area is not really limited only to the notified boundary of any one or two places but embraces satellite towns and cities, industrial towns or settlements close to this urban area, which may even be surrounded by rural areas. There was, therefore, an attempt from the very beginning to define well-formed clusters and treat them as town groups, the main determinants being facility of road and railway transport, and the interchange of population on account of business and work. These town groups emerged in two types: (a) town groups which were made up of a cluster of neighbouring municipalities only; (b) town groups which were made up of a cluster of municipal and non-municipal localities. In actual practice, in those cases where there was no clear articulation of extension, any town falling within a radius of 2 to 4 and some times 5 miles of the periphery of the main and most populous city was empirically examined in respect of continuity of urban characteristics, communications, possibility of satisfactory commutation and economic interdependence of functions to determine whether the town should be incorporated in a town group. These town groups were devised with the intention of marking off areas of conglomerate growth which as a whole rather than the individual units should henceforth receive attention in matters of planning and development. Further, a town group also suggests the spatial directions of future growth.

The following statement gives in tabular form a picture of progress in the number of towns in each State between 1901 and 1961. In this statement constituents of town groups in 1961, which were also regarded as separate towns in any previous census have been reckoned as separate units. Similar statements on the progress in the number of towns in each district of a State will be found in Part II-A of the respective State Volumes.

*7 towns of 1941 (population 18,633) which are not towns in 1961 have been treated as deleted in 1951.

†In Union Territories and Other Areas except Delhi no town has been removed from the lists in 1961 nor has merged in other town.

Villages :

When the Census Commissioner for India observed in his Report for 1931 that 'the distribution between a town and a village however arbitrary is easily effected on a numerical basis, but the definition of the village as a unit is by no means always so easy', he was speaking for his successors as well as his predecessors. W.C. Plyden, Census Commissioner for 1881, like his successor J.A. Baines in 1891, thought that one way of defining the village would be to proceed by defining the village community according to Sir Henry Maine. But this did not yield much positive result, for, already by that time, thanks to the great Revenue Surveys of India which had commenced in the 18th century, the revenue village or mauza had already come to be regarded as the census unit or the census village. The slow emergence of the revenue mauza as the village is traced in the first three volumes of Historical Records of the Survey of India by R. H. Phillimore. Brief mention will be made of the historic treatment of the village in the Census of India.

1891

In the first place, it should be explained that for the purposes of the census, the term village is used in most parts of India to denote the unit of administration of the land revenue, and this implies, as a rule, the existence of a congregation of the inhabitants on a fixed site, with occasionally some outlying hamlets. It is not so, however, in parts of lower Bengal and of Assam, where the land settlement, not being subject to periodical revision, does not require the maintenance of minute administrative records, and the population scatters itself as it pleases within the limits of the village. It is not so, again, in most of the hill tracts, where the boundaries of the village, as a unit, may be surveyed or not, but the inhabitants thereof are not to be bound down to a fixed site, the spirits attached to which may at any time turn suddenly malignant, leading to unexplained death or sickness in the resident families, or still worse, to the loss of some of their fowls or cattle. Then, again, on the Malabar coast, the village, such as it is on the plateau above the Ghats, is almost unknown, so the unit taken is the collection of separate homesteads, known as the desham, which corresponds to the deh in the desert tracts of Sind. . . . Thus the return shows that whereas in the British portion of this tract (Himalayan tracts of the Punjab), the revenue unit has been used, in the Hill States the return recognises only the tika or hamlet. On the whole, the latter seems to be the preferable course to be taken in future, as the members of the tika are usually connected by some bond or other, but the village, consisting of a number of hamlets founded by entirely independent sets of cultivators, is a mere unit of record, the collective name of which is not always even known to many of the inhabitants, and certainly is not in colloquial use. At the other extreme of India, in Assam, there is the revenue unit in the Brahmaputra valley and in the upper portion of the Surma; but elsewhere the people have squatted according to the convenience of their field work, and the village, as a community is unknown.

(J. A. Baines, General Report, 1891 pp. 46,47 and 49).

Assam

In spite of the fact that the survey village does not always correspond to the residential, it has been taken for census purposes wherever it exists and is sufficiently well known. In Assam it was so taken in the greater part of the Brahmaputra valley and in Cachar. Elsewhere the residential village was rarely collected on a central village site. In the hill districts the houses were and formerly packed closely together on the hill-tops for the purpose of defence cultivated land, which is often miles away from the old village sites.

Bengal

The census village corresponds to the mauza or survey unit of area in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions and Cooch Behar, and elsewhere to the residential village, or collection of houses bearing a common name with its dependent hamlets. As a rule, the difference between the mauza and the residential village is small; but this is not so in tracts which were uninhabited at the time of revenue survey, and so were not properly subdivided. A striking instance of this is found in the western part of the Midnapore district, known as the Jungle Mahals, where nineteen mauzas contain more than 20,000 villages and hamlets. The village is thus a somewhat indeterminate entity.

Bihar and Orissa

Except in three districts where the residential village was taken, the mauza or survey unit of area was everywhere adopted as the census village. The residential village is very indeterminate; there are many groups of houses which one person would class as hamlets and another as independent villages. The statistical value of a village thus defined would therefore be very great. It enables the local staff to make absolutely certain that no tract, however remote, is left out of account. In some places the census village or mauza includes several residential villages.

Bombay

The revenue village has been taken as the census unit. This corresponds fairly closely to the residential village, except in the wilder tracts which were often surveyed in large blocks, some of which now contain several residential villages. The ordinary Bombay residential village consists of a cluster of houses on a comparatively elevated position, in the midst of cultivated lands. The depressed castes live outside in a rookery of their own. In the Maratha country, the villages are congregated on a central site.

Central Provinces and Berar

The revenue mauza was everywhere treated as the census village, except in the Chota Nagpur Division, where the residential village was taken as the unit. The majority of the villages are small.

Madras

The revenue unit of area, which often includes two or more residential villages, was taken as the census village.

Punjab

The revenue unit of area was usually taken as the census village. In the east and the south this corresponds fairly closely to the residential village with its dependent hamlets, but in some parts it is a more or less artificial division, including a number of scattered hamlets.

United Provinces

Throughout the province the revenue mauza or survey unit was taken as the census village. It corresponds fairly well to the residential village, except in tracts which were uninhabited when the mauzas were just formed. In the western districts the villages occupy a compact central site, but in the central and eastern tracts they are more scattered.

Cochin

The survey unit has been taken as the census village.

Hyderabad

The revenue unit was taken as the census village. In Marathwara the typical village consists of a group of flat-roofed houses in a walled enclosure situated on a mound, which is usually near some river or stream. This is a village partook of the character of a rude fort. In Telingana the village site is more open, and the houses, which generally have thatched roofs, are more scattered, an arrangement which is prompted by considerations of individual convenience rather than of common defence.

Kashmir

In the settled areas, the revenue unit, and in the unsettled areas the residential village, was taken as the census village. In the plains the houses are collected in groups of varying size. In the hilly tracts they are scattered, and villages in the ordinary sense of the term do not exist.

Mysore

The revenue village was ordinarily taken as the census unit. In the Maidan the villages are usually compact, but in the Malnad they generally consist of a number of scattered homesteads.

Travancore

For census purposes, the kara or residential village has been taken as the unit.

(E.A. Gait, General Report, 1911, pp. 30—39).

1921

J.T. Marten, Census Commissioner for India in 1921 observed: "The census statistics rest on the returns of the number of persons residing in villages, and from the point of view of census enumeration it would seem essential that the ultimate territorial unit should be a unit based on an aggregate of population. Unfortunately in large parts of India the village does not correspond to this description. Over a considerable area of the country villages are not units of residence but arbitrary and irregular units of area, into which the country has been divided for the purposes of the administration of land revenue; they correspond in a certain degree to the civil parish in England, but have little demographic interest."

Bihar and Orissa

Mr. Tallents observes of the villages in Bihar and Orissa: "The village (mauza) boundaries were demarcated by an official called the superintendent of survey, and maps were prepared accordingly by the revenue surveyor who was also responsible for demarcating the estates of revenue-paying proprietors. Owing to want of clearness in the instructions and the various ways in which they were interpreted, there was much confusion between the estate and the mauza, which in some cases was continuous with the estate, in others formed part of an estate and in others again included several estates. In the districts to which the operations were first extended it appears to have been the intention to include all the lands of a particular estate, wherever situated, in the mauza in which most of the estate lay, and in these districts, it is not uncommon to find revenue survey mauzas which include five or six insignificant parcels of ground separated from each other by several miles. This desire to identify the mauza with the estate also resulted in some cases in a number of what would ordinarily be considered villages being included in a single mauza. Towards the end of the operations ideas changed and there was a tendency to treat as mauzas groups of cultivated holdings usually with a central site for dwelling houses and sometimes with waste land attached, without reference to the boundaries of the estates." Mr. Tallents observes that in the Monghyr district of Bihar, the size of the mauza or revenue village varies between 72,000 acres, the maximum and a minimum of less than one acre.

Bengal

In large parts of Bengal, where, owing to the peculiar configuration of the country, the houses are scattered over the face of the country without any reference to civic unit or corporate life, there is practically nothing which corresponds to a village in the ordinary sense of the word, and the mauza, which is for convenience's sake translated as a village, is merely that tract of land, inhabited or not, which has been demarcated as a unit for revenue purposes.

Punjab

In the Punjab the village has had a somewhat similar history, the present village areas being the result, modified by various revisions, of the old survey based on the then existing estates.

Northern, Central and Western Tracts of India

Throughout these tracts, however, there is, as a rule, considerably more correspondence between the unit of area and the unit of residence than in the eastern provinces. Unlike the Bengali the upcountry peasant is distinctly gregarious. Partly on this account, and very largely owing to the necessity in unsettled times of combination against hostile attacks, the village in the north-west of India and throughout the United Provinces and the Central tracts of the Deccan has a distinct residential aspect, which was to a certain extent considered in determining the unit of revenue administration. Even here however the correspondence may be, and very often is, by no means complete.

Hills of the Punjab and United Provinces

Difficulties of communication prevent any large aggregate of houses in one place. The village in its administrative sense may consist of a large tract of waste land with individual houses scattered all over it.

Assam

There are three distinct village units, one based on the cadastral survey, one on the gaon or gram, which more nearly resembles a residential unit, and one in the hills which consists usually of a collection of houses and is practically identical with a village in the usual sense of the term.

Madras

The classification based on villages is for demographic purposes practically useless, since the meaning of the term differs essentially in the Agency tracts (in 1961 in Andhra Pradesh), where the revenue mauza has little connection with any form of residential unit, the Deccan tract, where the mauza nearly resembles the residential village of central and northern India, and the Tamil country and west coast tracts, where the correspondence between a corporate village and a revenue unit varies in different localities.

Hyderabad

Similar inconsistencies in the meaning of the word occurs between the western tracts of Marathwara and the south eastern Telugu areas.

Travancore

Though the unit taken was the residential village known as kara and muri, the boundaries are apparently entirely undetermined and it is probably that as a result of recent settlement operations the revenue demarcation will be revised on a completely different basis.

J. T. Marten concludes his discussions as follows: It will be seen from the above review that the term village has for the most part an arbitrary connotation which differs enormously in various parts of India. There is no single homogeneous unit which can be described as a village; and while the regional figures are of some local interest as showing the variations in the distribution of the population in the villages considered as local population units, no comparison can be made between such statistics over different parts of India and it is useless on such a basis to attempt any discussion of the general distribution of the rural population of India as a whole.

(J. T. Marten, General Report, 1921, pp. 78-79).

The mauza, which is the revenue unit, is rather administrative than geographical and may consist of quite separate hamlets or even contain no houses at all. This indeterminate nature of the village unit, which may be a definite residential site, walled or palisaded, or may be an administrative unit containing several residential villages or a number of scattered houses, impairs the significance of the figures of the population as distributed in villages of various sizes. Population, for instance, shown as residing in a village of 2,000 to 5,000 persons may really be the population of a mauza containing several small residential villages of less than 500 persons each, whereas a number of villages of less than 500 may really be contiguous hamlets of scattered houses that might just as well be shown as one large village.

(J. H. Hutton, General Report, 1931, pp. 54-55).

What is reckoned for all administrative purposes (and consequently also for the census) as a village may or may not be the same as what we normally have in mind when we speak of a village. A village in the latter sense, means or should mean a cluster of houses (or more than one closely adjoining cluster of houses), whose inhabitants are regarded by themselves as well as by others as a distinctive social unit with its identity marked by a distinctive local name. The village in the administrative sense is the mauza — a settled area with defined boundaries, for which village records have been prepared. In the south, there is a further development by which contiguous administrative villages defined by land records have been grouped together for purposes of land revenue administration and the group is referred to as the 'village'. The variations in the figures, therefore, merely bring out the differences in the delimitation of administrative villages. This does not, of course mean that real differences in the social unit, based on the housecluster and local name—do not also exist. They do. Thus, for instance, in Travancore-Cochin and West Madras, where the average number of inhabitants per village is perhaps the largest, the houses do not cluster at all. The 'village', as it is understood in the rest of India, is scarcely to be found there.

(R. A. Gopalaswami, General Report, 1951, pp.42-43).

The basis was plainly revenue village or mauza wherever it exists because 'the administrative convenience of taking the survey unit of area is very great. It enables the local staff to make absolutely certain that no tract, however remote, is left out of account. Thus the mauza, which is for convenience's sake translated as a village in census parlance, is merely that tract of lands inhabited or not, which has been demarcated as a unit for revenue purposes.' The following statement shows where the revenue mauza is the census village and where other concepts more corresponding to village settlement entities have prevailed:

The following brief historical account of the definition of 'village' will be pertinent :

Andhra Pradesh

In composite Madras though basically the revenue village formed the rural unit in 1951, in several cases where groups of villages had been combined to form a panchayat, or a village and its hamlets were split up into different panchayats, each of these panchayats were taken as separate units. For 1961 it was decided to take the revenue village and not the panchayat as the unit, the reason being that there is no permanence in panchayat boundaries. In the old proprietary estate areas where survey and settlement were introduced for the first time, some groups of small villages were constituted into survey villages to form viable units. Wherever such surveys were finalised, the survey villages were taken as units for the purposes of 1961. There have also been one or two rare exceptions where a panchayat constituted of more than one village had to be taken as a unit for 1961, for the inhabited area under such old panchayats would have so developed that it was hardly possible to demarcate the boundary of each constituted revenue village as it may cut through the heart of a street. Only in such well established units, where identity of the old revenue village had almost been completely lost, was the panchayat recognised as a unit for 1961 and not each revenue village. But, basically it may be taken that the revenue village, whether inhabited or not, represents the Rural unit for 1961. A big increase from 1951 will be noticed in the number of villages in Srikakulam and Visakhapatnam districts. This is mainly due to the location of every habitation at the present census by special staff in the agency areas, where, in the absence of well established revenue villages, the smallest group of tribal habitations bearing a distinct name had to be reckoned as a separate census village.

Assam

More or less the same position as in 1931.

Bihar

The revenue village or mauza was the census unit.

Gujarat

It is a revenue or cadastral survey village which has got a separate entity and a distinct number assigned to it in the revenue records of the State. It may consist of a single village with a cluster of houses or a number of hamlets with separate clusters of houses. In forest areas it may even consist of scattered houses situated on the field within the boundaries of the village. It may be inhabited or uninhabited.

Jammu and Kashmir

Every village with well-defined boundaries for revenue assessment having residential houses densely or sparsely populated has been treated as a village irrespective of the number of hamlets of which it is constituted.

Kerala

For 1961 a village means a revenue village. Such a village has karas or muris as its constituent units in the former Travancore-Cochin area and desoms in the former Malabar area. In all these areas there are also revenue villages which are not subdivided into karas, muris or desoms. But the majority of the revenue villages are subdivided into karas, muris or desoms. In 1961 these constituent units have not been treated as census villages. This is a departure from previous censuses where the karas and muris of a revenue village in former Travancore State and desoms in former Malabar district were recognised as separate census villages. In the former Cochin State, however, although a desom or muri was recognised as census village up to 1901, from 1911 onwards the revenue village alone was the census village. In the Village Directory of each District Census Handbook of Kerala for 1961, the information for each kara will be inserted in former Travancore area under its revenue village, muri in former Cochin area and desom in former Malabar area, although their individual areas in area column will not be shown. There will be a special State Table A-III in Kerala Part II-A Tables which will present karas, muris and desoms according to size ranges of population.

Madhya Pradesh

In surveyed area, a village has definite boundaries though they do not always contain only one habitation; quite often, a village has a main habitation with hamlets (variously called tolas, mazras etc.). For census purposes, this revenue 'mauza' has always been treated as the village. In unsurveyed areas, also, the village has well recognised traditional boundaries and the area included therein is treated as the village. In reserve forest areas, there are forest villages with no clearly demarcated boundaries. Their areas, therefore, can only be considered approximate.

Madras

In 1961, a village is an administrative entity which may be inhabited or have one or more residential localities. In practice, it refers to all panchayats not treated as towns and other non-panchayats treated as villages under Revenue administration. The recent introduction of Panchayat Raj has accelerated the process of grouping of villages into panchayats since 1951 which led to an appreciable fall in the number of villages between 1951 and 1961. Therefore, in Madras, the village has no connotation except that it is a unit of administration and the fact that there is more centralisation in administration of villages with passage of time has led to an appreciable reduction in the number of villages.

Maharashtra

A village is a statutorily recognised village having a defined boundary and separate land records. Hamlets, wadis or padas have, therefore, not been treated as separate villages. On the other hand, statutorily recognised villages having no population have been treated as separate but as uninhabited villages. Forest villages make an exception. Situated within Reserved Forest Areas, their population mainly consists of forest labourers and their families. Most of them are, however, permanent localities and also have attached cultivated areas leased out by the Forest Department. Such forest villages, the records of which are maintained by the Forest Department, have also been treated as villages.

Mysore

No distinction has been made between a census village and a revenue village. The census village includes all areas within the jurisdiction of the revenue village, e.g., the main settlement, the hamlets, and the scattered and even isolated homesteads within the boundaries of the revenue village. An uninhabited revenue village is also called bechirak.

Orissa

A village means a revenue village or mauza other than that which is absorbed within the area of a town or a city. It may contain one or many groups of houses or hamlets or, on the other hand, no houses at all. In settled areas the boundaries of the mauza or census village have been demarcated by survey and settlement operations. In unsurveyed areas the group of houses paying government revenue as a unit has been taken into a census village. The term village is not confined to the site of a village whether demarcated or not.

Punjab

Village is an area for which a separate record of rights is maintained, or which has been separately assessed to land revenue, or would have been so assessed if the land revenue had not been released or compounded or redeemed or which the State Government may, by general rule or special order, declare to be an estate.

Rajasthan

A revenue mauza (including its hamlets) was taken as a village for census purposes. Hamlets falling into the revenue area of the towns but which were not administered by municipalities were taken as non-municipal area of the towns.

Uttar Pradesh

The revenue mauza has been treated as a census village, whether inhabited or uninhabited. Forest tracts not included within the boundaries of revenue mauzas have also been treated as villages.

West Bengal

The revenue mauza is the census village.

Andaman and Nicobar Islands

Forest camps, Bush Police Camps, ships and boats have been treated as separate villages, in addition to revenue villages. The number of villages in the Nicobar Islands has remained practically constant. The sudden increase in the number of villages in the Andaman Islands in 1961 is due to the establishment of a large number of colonies of settlers from the mainland.

Delhi

The definition of a village under Section 3(23) of the Delhi Land Reforms Act of 1954 is as follows :

"Village means any local area whether compact or otherwise recorded as a village in the Revenue Records of the Delhi State and includes any area which the Chief Commissioner may, by a general or special order published in the Official Gazette, declare to be a village."

Himachal Pradesh

Village generally denotes a revenue village or an 'Estate' as defined in the Punjab Land Revenue Act of 1887 except in the two areas of former Suket State, viz. tehsil Sundarnagar and tehsil Karsog. No settlement of the present uniform pattern of land in these two areas have so far taken place and Revenue collection is made not from each hamlet or collection of hamlets having a separate hadbast number as in other districts, but from Revenue circles each comprising quite a large number of villages. These circles may comprise villages each with a population varying from 20 to 600. For the purpose of the census, these Revenue circles were broken down and a hamlet or a collection of hamlets bearing distinct name was taken to be a census village.

Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands

Each Island is taken as a village.

Tripura

For the purpose of census all revenue villages as well as hill villages, which are called parah under the revenue mauza were treated as villages. Owing to the migratory habits of the tribal people who mostly live in hilly villages, villages of one census may cease to exist in a subsequent census. Some new villages also cropped up due to the settlement of refugees in some barren land.

This brief historical survey has been introduced as a note of caution against uncritical use of the census village as a demographic unit. As a corollary to the above discussion the following statement shows the distribution of taluks/tehsils/police stations/anchals by the number of inhabited villages per 100 square miles in 1961, which will afford an idea of the distribution of mauzas of different physical sizes throughout the country. The statement excludes 26 tehsils for which areas are not available and 23 areas which are entirely urban.

On application of the  $\chi^2$  test it appears that the States of Gujarat, Maharashtra and Madras have similar distributions of taluks in respect of the density of census villages per 100 Sq. miles: more than 60 per cent. of taluks in each of these three States (Gujarat 60.54; Maharashtra 65.50 and Madras 63.11) have not more than 36 census villages per 100 Sq. miles. Similarly, Mysore and Rajasthan seem to go together, a little more closely, about two-thirds of all taluks/tehsils in each State having no more than 46 villages per 100 Sq. miles (Mysore 66.86 and Rajasthan 63.51). So do Uttar Pradesh and Bihar in another group where about three-fourths of all tehsils/anchals in each (Uttar Pradesh 75.84 and Bihar 73.56) have more than 73 census villages per 100 Sq. miles;

Assam and Orissa fall in still another where about 60 per cent. of all police stations in Orissa (58.59) and about two-thirds of all police stations in Assam (66.67) have from 47 to 114 villages per 100 Sq. miles. The remaining States seem to have unique distributions each, not conforming to any grouping. Thus, Punjab has a fair proportion of tehsils in each decile; West Bengal has more than 115 villages per 100 Sq. miles in 58 per cent. of her police stations; Andhra Pradesh has less than 29 villages per 100 Sq. miles in 65.08 per cent. of her taluks. More than 70 per cent. (70.53) of tehsils in Madhya Pradesh have 29 to 57 census villages per 100 Sq. miles. Owing to the peculiarity of its village system no taluk in Kerala has more than 36 villages per 100 Sq. miles; the village areas are so large. The following are the values:

*Excluding Union Territories and Other Areas.
† No census was held in 1951.

From what has been discussed above, it will be quite clear that the fluctuations have been due to a variety of reasons: (i) the creation of new villages in certain areas owing to fresh settlements with new land being brought under cultivation and to better coverage in remote and inaccessible areas; (ii) alluvion and diluvion of large rivers which create new lands and islands and therefore fresh human settlements as well as destroy old settlements on crumbling river banks; (iii) the periodic land settlements and surveys organised by State Governments which rationalise revenue administrations and revenue boundaries; (iv) various administrative measures, e.g., panchayat groupings of village communities; (v) the tendency in remote and hilly areas of isolated hamlets to expand and merge into larger units; (vi) the inclusion of villages in new and expanding towns; and (vii) the declassification of a number of towns at each census.

The following statement gives an account of the total number of mauzas borne on the State Survey lists, total number of mauzas on census list, the number of inhabited and uninhabited mauzas, the number of mauzas partly or fully included in towns, and the number of towns. Details of the part inclusion of villages in towns will be found in the fly-leaves in Part II-A of State Volumes.

*Excludes Assam and Madhya Pradesh as complete data are not available.

† The number of villages in columns 2 and 3 does not tally owing to the difference in the number of villages in the districts of Patna, Shahabad, Muzaffarpur, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Palamau, Ranchi and Singhbhum.

In Patna district two mauzas occur in two anchals on census lists and one mauza has been regarded as independent unit for census, though it does not find mention either in Thana Jurisdiction List or in the Revenue Thana Map.

In Shahabad district there is an excess of 11 villages in the census list over jurisdiction list due to the inclusion of 10 unsurveyed diara villages and of village Bhelsand whose enumeration was done by census authorities in Uttar Pradesh but figures are included in Bihar.

In Muzaffarpur district there is a difference of 21 due to the merging together of thana numbers 540 and 541 of Revenue Thana Muzaffarpur as one independent village and the occurrence of 18 mauzas twice and 2 mauzas thrice presumably because tolas were treated as independent mauzas.

In Monghyr district the number in census list is less than thana jurisdiction by 30. It appears that 30 entries in the jurisdiction lists having fractional thana numbers have been merged with the mauza having whole thana numbers.

In Bhagalpur district there is a difference of 98 for the reasons similar to those stated in the case of Monghyr.

In Palamau district there is an excess in the census list due to the inclusion of 8 forest villages in the unsurveyed jungle tracts of the district.

In Ranchi district two mauzas have been repeated in The Primary Census Abstracts (P.C.A.) presumably, giving figures separately for distinct tolas (hamlets) within these mauzas.

In Singhbhum district the census list exceeds by 24, of these 20 are due to the inclusion of forest villages in unsurveyed jungle tracts. Thana numbers 21, 41 and 51 of Revenue Thana Chakradharpur have been repeated in Chakradharpur and Sonua anchals, presumably for reasons similar to those stated in the case of Ranchi district. Mauza Chota Bankau (thana No. 31) of Chakradharpur Revenue Thana has been transferred to Kolhan Revenue Thana, but Thana No. 31 still occurs in the census list of Sonua Charge under the name of Dalkutam, which, presumably is a tola of the main mauza transferred to Kolhan Revenue Thana.

‡ For census purposes villages and panchayats were treated as units. These units called the census villages were in many instances formed by amalgamating small J. L. mauzas to form viable units for Panchayats. In many instances the new Panchayats jurisdictions which have served for villages in the 1961 Census have nullified the revenue boundaries of the jurisdiction lists.

§ The number of mauzas on revenue jurisdiction list is 38,692 and on forest jurisdiction list is 597.

@ The number of villages in the district as per Settlement Records tallies with the total got by adding the number of villages (including uninhabited ones) as per The Primary Census Abstract to the number of villages fully included in towns of the district in the case of all districts except Dharwar, Kolar and North Kanara districts. In Dharwar district it appears that the Settlement Department has not yet effected the necessary corrections in the number of villages after the amalgamation of bechirak villages with the neighbouring inhabited villages in 1959. The discrepancy in the figures of North Kanara district is partly due to the same reason. Also some villages which have been shown as single villages in Settlement Records have actually been divided into two or more units for the purpose of revenue collections and the revenue records show each portion as an independent village. As the revenue records have been taken as the basis for the preparation of the list of census villages, the difference between the number of census villages and the number of villages as per Settlement Records was inevitable. In Kolar district a comparison was made of the list of the villages of Kolar district with the talukwise list of villages given in the 1951 District Census Handbook. This comparison revealed that in 1951, 16 villages were omitted. This fact has also been recorded in the 1961 Charge Lists. Except for these villages there is one to one correspondence between the villages in the two censuses. The villages left out in 1951 P.C.A., however, have been added in the 1961 P.C.A.

¶ The difference is due to non-inclusion of fully merged villages in the jurisdiction list.

§§ villages do not bear regular hadbast number, of these 4 are the forest areas in Simla and 1 village Thara in Pathankot tehsil of Gurdaspur district was given a Code No. twice.

Census Houses

"Ambiguity" observed the Census Commissioner for India in 1931, "has characterised the terms 'town' and 'village' and it attaches again to the term 'houses'. The term 'house' in India covers the greatest diversity of dwellings." The following is a brief abstract of the various definitions adopted for a census house and a census family or household from 1881 to 1961.

| 1961        | 'Census house' is a structure or part of a structure inhabited or vacant, or a dwelling, a shop, a shop-cum-dwelling or a place of business, workshop, school etc., with a separate entrance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 'Household' is a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so. |

If all the structures within an enclosed compound are together treated as one building then each structure with a separate entrance should be treated as a separate census house. |                                                                                                                                                                                  |

It will be rewarding, in the interest of comparability of concepts, to quote at greater length on these definitions from the Reports themselves.

In India the variety of structure with which the census has to deal is so great that it has been found impossible to frame a definition that would meet all the cases that would occur in the process of registration. Upon considering all this variety and the difficulties in getting a uniform interpretation of a general definition that arose in 1881, it was decided to prescribe a standard on which the Provincial Census Superintendents were to engraft special additions to suit the circumstances of the different parts of their charge. It was the object to thus obtain a return that would be uniform for the Province or State, though it might be inconsistent with that of other parts of India. Clearly, therefore, the subject had to fall out of the ranks of the Imperial series. So far as the latter is concerned, the chief aim was administrative; namely, to show the enumerator what buildings he had to visit. In the North-West Provinces there are numerous cases in which a courtyard surrounded by many separate tenements opening on to it is entered by a single gateway. These were formerly treated as one building, but on this occasion they were enumerated by tenements. In Bengal, again, the test on this occasion was the custom as regards eating together, or what the Provincial Superintendent calls by the convenient name of the communal test. Each separate cooking place was counted as a house wherever the building was obviously outside the standard definition. In the city of Bombay, too, it is plain that the enumeration must have been by tenements on this occasion, probably counting as such those which had an independent entrance from some space either public or common to all the residents of the building in question.

(J.A. Baines, General Report, 1891, pp. 54—56)

The question can be regarded from two different points of view—the structural and the social. Where the structural criterion is taken, a house is ordinarily defined, with minor local qualifications, as the residence of one or more families having a separate independent entrance from the common way. Where the social aspect is looked to, it is defined as the home of a communal family with its resident dependants and servants. At the earlier censuses the former type of definition was most in favour, but it is gradually being supplanted by the latter, which, at the present census, has been adopted for the first time in Bombay, the North-West Frontier Province and the Punjab. Where it is otherwise suitable, the social criterion has several advantages over the structural. It is easier to apply; it enables a simpler form of house list to be used, and it furnishes a clue to the number of communal families. The alternative definition (the structural) is useless from a statistical point of view. In spite of the joint family system, the number of houses corresponds very closely to the number of families in the European sense, i.e. married couples with their children and dependants. The total number of houses is 63·7 million and there are 64·6 million married females aged 15 and over.

(E.A. Gait, General Report, 1911, p. 46)

Same as 1911.

Of the larger Provinces only Madras and the Central Provinces still retain the structural view of the house, but this definition is still usually applied to houses in towns and to all buildings of the nature of chawls and lines and to large bungalows, and the census house is therefore everywhere somewhat of a hybrid between a 'house' and a 'household'.

(J. T. Marten, General Report, 1921, p. 46)

It was therefore necessary to define the house for census purposes, since a house is far from being a constant unit; and generally speaking a census house meant the buildings, several, one, or part of one, inhabited by one family, that is by a number of persons living and eating together in one mess with their resident dependants and their servants residing in the house. Even this wide definition proved difficult to apply universally, as it is defeated by the Santal for instance, whose married sons have entirely separate establishments but resort to their father's house for meals. In the case of town houses it was generally provided that the houses for census purposes should be taken as any part of an inhabited building with a separate entrance, which is in practical conformity with the definition of a house given above. . . . The census house is thus normally the dwelling of a commensal family, and in towns is usually determined by the existence of a separate entrance, but it very often implies no more than a single room like one of the small compartments provided for servants in the compounds of larger houses.

(J. H. Hutton, General Report, 1931, pp. 55—57)

We defined a 'house' and a 'household' separately. A 'household' was a group of people who lived together and took their food from a common kitchen. A 'house' was a building within which people lived; provided that if different parts of the building were structurally separated and provided with separate main entrances so as to give independent access to each part, then each such part was to be recognised and numbered as a separate 'house.' In the result, every household must have a house in which its members live. Every house would, in most cases, have only one household living in it, if the people where a house may have more than one household living in it, if the people go in and out of it by the same main entrance but nevertheless keep separate mess within it. The statistics were collected on this basis in all States except West Bengal. In that State a local instruction was issued (for reasons which are not altogether clear) varying the definition of the house, with the result that in urban areas of that state there are more houses than households.

Building

This refers to the entire structure on the ground. There are, however, high, large or long buildings along a street or lane which have been partitioned or portions of which have been sold, which have distinct, separate main exit on the road and which belong to separate owners or occupiers or alternatively there are a series of different houses joined each to each by common walls on either side to make the whole look like one building but parts of which have been built at different times and belong to separate owners. Such distinguishable structures, although not separate from each other, should be regarded as separate buildings and given separate numbers. Each building should have a separate number. . . . If there are more than one structure within an enclosed or open compound belonging to the same person, e.g., the main house, the servants' quarters, the garage, etc., only one building number should be given.

Census House

A census house is a structure or part of a structure inhabited or vacant, or a dwelling, a shop, a shop-cum-dwelling or a place of business, workshop, school etc., with a separate entrance.

If a building has a number of flats or blocks which have separate entrances of their own and are independent of each other giving on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard leading to a main gate, they will be considered as separate census houses. If within an enclosed or open compound there are separate buildings then each such building will also be a separate census house. If all the structures within an enclosed compound are together treated as one building, then each structure with a separate entrance should be treated as a separate census house. . . . If a building itself is a census house, then it will have only one number, namely, that of the building. If within a building there are a number of census houses, then each census house will have two sets of numbers, e.g., the number of the building and the sub number of the census house.

Census Household

A household is a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so.

There may be one or more households in a census house. Each household should be separately numbered.

Number of Rooms in Census Household

If a census house is occupied by one household the enumeration of rooms should be simple.

If a census house consists of a number of households the number of rooms occupied by each household should be entered on each line against the name of the Head of the household. In cases where more than one household occupy a single room or share more than one room in such a way that it is not possible to say the number of rooms occupied by each household, the number of rooms should be given together within brackets as common to both the households.

Several conclusions emerge from this brief survey; (i) it is difficult to contain the enormous structural variety of buildings, census houses, census households and census rooms of this subcontinent within the confines of a single set of definitions for buildings or census houses; (ii) it is equally difficult to contain the enormous social variety of census houses and households in this subcontinent within a single uniform definition to obtain for the whole of India; (iii) lipservice has been paid to the structural definition of a census house in the definition of a building, house and room, although a more rational approach has been possible for the social family or household. But even in the latter case the definition has defeated consistent application so that it is difficult to construct a historic series reflecting changes in the joint family system; (iv) the need for separating the structural from the social definition led to the separation of census houses from census households; (v) the definition of 'building, census house' etc., although fairly 'useless from a statistical point of view' (1911) has served very well empirically over the censuses as an administrative proposition: 'namely, to show the enumerator what buildings he had to visit' (1891). For, the most important task of a population census is to catch every person and catch him or her only once, preferably at his or her normal place of residence and so whatever definition helps in this task is not to be scoffed at. In the result therefore, 'building', and 'census house' in 1961 have been reduced quite frankly to serving for locating and indentifying devices, while the census household alone is capable of statistical and demographic interpretation; (vi) the great variety of uses to which census houses, so defined and numbered in 1961, are put in various parts of the country, other than as dwellings for human beings, will be seen in the Reports and Tables on the Housing Census of 1961; (vii) it will thus be a mistake mentally to equate a census house in 1961 with a dwelling for human beings.

For the purpose of Table A-I, however, only occupied residential census houses have been exhibited. An 'Occupied Residential Census House' is a census house used wholly or partly for the purpose of residence by one or more households and includes: (a) dwellings, (b) shop-cum-dwellings, (c) workshop-cum-dwellings and (d) dwellings with other uses. In the statement below persons per occupied census house therefore means persons per occupied residential census house. The figures for persons per 100 occupied census houses and those for persons per 100 households will testify that the census house is an ad hoc definition adopted for the convenience of census taking while the household is a demographic concept. Similar statements down to the level of the district will be found in Part II-A of State Volumes.

*For working out these figures in case of North-East Frontier Agency, population for which all-India schedule was canvassed has been taken.

† Rural density is worked out on the basis of rural population only, though the area figures include area of those urban units for which separate area figures are not available.

‡ Population of those urban units, for which area figures are not available, is ignored for working out urban density.

A-I AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

NOTES FOR THE TABLE

1 A Census of Goa, Daman and Diu was taken by Portuguese Government as on 15 December, 1960. The figures represent 'present population' on that date. The figures relating to Goa, Daman and Diu appearing in Paper No. 1 of 1962 (Final Population Totals) were based on the figures supplied by the Statistical Department, Goa. Figures appearing in this Volume are the result of tabulation of the schedules done in the Mechanical Tabulation Unit of the Registrar General's Office. A Census of Dadra and Nagar Haveli was taken as on 1 March, 1962. The figures for these territories have not been adjusted as on 1 March, 1961.

2 Under columns 3(a) and 3(b), (a) represents the area figures furnished by the Surveyor General of India, (b) represents the area figures furnished by the State Survey Department. The urban areas are based on the area of individual towns furnished by the Local Authorities. The rural area for a district is obtained by subtracting from the State Survey area, the urban area.

3 The density figures of urban areas of District/State/Zone/India are worked out using the area figures corrected upto two places of decimal obtained by adding the areas of individual towns in the respective units. For 'Total' and 'Rural' the density is worked out on area figures corrected upto one place of decimal.

In State Volumes the areas for the districts and the State are given in one place of decimal. For purposes of this table the district and the State area figures as given in the State Volumes have been rounded off to the nearest integer. To arrive at the area figures for zones and India the figures in one place of decimal in the State Volumes have been added and rounded off to the nearest integer. The rounded off figures are further adjusted to make the districts, zones and India figures tally.

The same method is followed for the conversion of square miles into square kilometres.

4 The area in columns 3(a) and 3(b) for 'Total' in respect of Jammu and Kashmir, North-East Frontier Agency and Andaman and Nicobar Islands is as supplied by the Surveyor General of India. In case of Jammu and Kashmir and Andaman and Nicobar Islands the urban area figures are those supplied by the Local Authorities for individual towns and rural area has been derived by subtracting urban area from the figures of the Surveyor General.

5 Population per Sq. mile is calculated on area figures supplied by the State Survey Department, except in the case of Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and North-East Frontier Agency for 'Total' and 'Rural', where it has been calculated on the figures of the Surveyor General.

6 Area figures of some suburban units and Port Areas included as urban in Gujarat are not separately available. Population of these units is ignored for working out urban density. Rural density is based on the rural population only but the area figures also include the area of the urban units of which separate area is not available.

The same procedure has been followed in the case of eight towns of Goa, Daman and Diu for which area is not available.

The area of Mokhasa Mutyalampadu and Malkapuram towns is included in the 'Rural' area of Krishna and Visakhapatnam districts respectively of Andhra Pradesh as the same is not available for these towns separately.

7 In the case of West Bengal, there is a difference of 1.0 Sq. mile in rural and urban area of the State between the figures appearing in this table and those in the State Volume, owing to difference in methods adopted for rounding off the areas of towns. The method of rounding off in this Volume has been applied uniformly for all States and Union Territories. The total area, however, remains unchanged. There are differences in the area figures of several districts due to the same reason.

Besides, there is a difference of 2.09 Sq. miles in the urban area of West Bengal between Table A-I and 'All Classes' of Table A-IV which is explained in the note to Table A-IV.

8 There is a difference of 13 inhabited villages in column 5 of Table A-I and column 2 of Table A-III in respect of West Bengal and Sikkim. In Table A-III these 13 villages (11 in West Bengal and 2 in Sikkim) could not be shown separately as population of these villages is not available severally owing to the fact that they are merged in Tea-Estates and Forest units in the absence of delineated boundaries of these villages. This is further explained in note to Table A-III.

9 In the Kozhikode, Palghat, Ernakulam and Quilon districts of Kerala, area, houses and population of unmeasured forest areas are included. There are no villages.

10 There are 27 uninhabited villages with houseless population of 1,607 (Males 1,404, Females 203) in Himachal Pradesh.

11 In column 8, the figures of occupied residential census houses in North-East Frontier Agency relate to the area where all-India Schedule was canvassed i.e. for 38,705 persons.

Columns 9, 10 & 11 include estimated population of 781 (Males 411, Females 370) of 3 villages of Tirap Frontier Division in North-East Frontier Agency.

12 The figures of North-East Frontier Agency are provisional.

CENSUS ZONES CONSTITUTING STATES, UNION TERRITORIES AND OTHER AREAS

The following zones differ from those politically constituted under the States Reorganisation Act of 1956 and the Bombay Reorganisation Act of 1960 in as much as North-East Frontier Agency, Nagaland, Sikkim, Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Pondicherry, Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Goa, Daman and Diu have not yet been notified under any of them. For convenience of regional study, these territories have been informally included in the various zones as indicated below except Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Goa, Daman and Diu which have not been included in any of the zones:

ADDENDUM CENSUS OF INDIA 1961 Volume I INDIA

Part II-A(i)—General Population Tables

(To be pasted facing page 70)

Add the following paragraph 13 as a note for Table A-I, after para 12:

13. The area shown against India in cols. 3a and 3b viz. 1,232,561 Sq. miles & 3,192,333 Sq. Km. respectively is arrived at by adding area figures of individual state and union territory as supplied by the Surveyor General and includes 2,744 Sq. miles (7,107 Sq. Km.) area of Sikkim but excludes non-censused area of 32,358 Sq. miles (83,807 Sq. Km.) of Jammu & Kashmir.

The total area of India as a whole including Sikkim and non-censused area of Jammu & Kashmir according to the Surveyor General is 1,264,341 Sq. miles (3,274,643 Sq. Km.). The total of areas of individual state & union territory will not tally with the above area of India as the area figures of Andhra Pradesh, Madras & Bihar states are approximate, and for some districts of Maharashtra, Mysore, Madhya Pradesh & Pondicherry provisional. Due to these facts and some other changes revealed by the latest surveys the difference of 578 Sq. miles (1,497 Sq. Km.) in area shown against states & union territories has yet to be reconciled.

The area figures against Northern Zone and the state of Jammu & Kashmir excludes the non-censused area, i.e. 32,358 Sq. miles (83,807 Sq. Km.) of Jammu & Kashmir State.

(Conversion factor : 1 Sq. mile = 2.59 Sq. Km.)

*Area figures of the districts of Uttar Kashi, Chamoli, Pithoragarh, Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora are not available separately as these districts have been carved out in the inter-censal period. Uttar Kashi and Tehri Garhwal are formed from the former Tehri Garhwal district, Garhwal and Chamoli from the former Garhwal district and Almora and Pithoragarh from the former Almora district. According to the State Survey Department the area of the former districts of Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora is 4,500.0 Sq. miles (11,655.0 Sq. Km.), 5,619.2 Sq. miles (14,553.7 Sq. Km.) and 5,330.7 Sq. miles (13,806.5 Sq. Km.) respectively. "N.A." has been recorded against 'T' and 'R' in columns 3(a), 3(b) and 4 for these districts. For the State the area of the former three districts has been added.

A-I AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

APPENDIX I

Fly-leaf

Andhra Pradesh

Numerous changes were made in Telangana among the former districts of Hyderabad State which was trifurcated among the States of Maharashtra, Mysore and Andhra Pradesh. The intra-district transfers in Andhra Pradesh were negligible but as a result of the taking over of Zamindari and other proprietary estates under the Madras Estates Abolition Act of 1948 and the introduction of the Ryotwari system and eventual integration of those areas with other administrative units in 1957 and 1958, the territorial demarcation of certain taluks within the districts of the Andhra region was affected.

Khammam district was formed out of former Warangal district of former Hyderabad in 1953 with Yellandu, Madhira, Bhoorgampadu, Palvancha and Khammam (except 2 villages) taluks, to which were added Bhadrachalam taluk and Nugur I.S.T. of East Godavari in 1959.

Transfer of areas from one district to another has been exhibited in Appendix I, Statement B.

Assam

United Mikir and North Cachar Hills district was newly formed from the portions of Nowgong, Sibsagar, Cachar and United Khasi and Jaintia Hills districts in 1951. Although this district came into existence after 1951 Census but has been shown in 1951 Census Publications as a district.

Transfer of areas from one district to another has been exhibited in Appendix I, Statement B.

Bihar

The districts of Saharsa and Dhanbad were newly created after 1951 Census (although these districts appear in the publications of that census as separate districts) from the following tracts :

Saharsa : Supaul and Madhepura subdivisions of Bhagalpur district.

Dhanbad : Entire Dhanbad subdivision and Chas and Chandan Kiyari police stations of Sadar subdivision of former Manbhum (Purulia) district.

The State Tables Volume gives statement showing the inter-relationship between revenue thanas, police stations and anchals.

Transfer of areas from one district to another has been exhibited in Appendix I, Statement B.

Gujarat

Transfer of areas from one district to another has been exhibited in Appendix I, Statement B.

Jammu and Kashmir

There have been changes in the boundaries in all the districts except Kathua during 1941-61, which have been shown in the statement below:

Changes in the jurisdiction of each district during 1941-61

† At the 1961 Census, there was some controversy about the enumeration of mauza Govindpur (Thana No. 349 of Katihar revenue thana) on Bihar—West 5 tolas would be done by the West Bengal authorities subject to two conditions :—

(a) Separate identities would be kept of each disputed tola and

(b) The Census would be done without prejudice to the claims of either Government, pending final settlement of issue between them.

‡ At the 1961 Census, the enumeration of the whole of mauzas Sheopur Diar and Jawahi was done by the agency in Bihar; while that of mauza Bhelsand in Uttar mauza Sheopur Diar lying in Simri anchal with a population of 5,431 (M. 2,602, F. 2,829) were sent by mistake to the Tabulation Office at Gorakhpur in Uttar Pradesh portion of mauza Sheopur Diar lying in Brahmapur anchal comprising a population of 10,003 (M. 4,988, F. 5,015) were, of course, retained in the Tabulation Office regard to these 3 villages, census data relating to Bhelsand and part of the village Sheopur Diar lying in Brahmapur anchal will be incorporated in the census

As precise 1951 area figures of Sironj subdivision and Sunel Tappa transferred from and to Rajasthan respectively are not available, 1961 area figures have been adopted.
 The area figures of police stations involved in the transfer as worked out from the village area given in Thana Jurisdiction Lists actually add upto 733.3 Sq. miles, the area of 270 villages of Karandighi being 150.2 Sq. miles. But the figures of 732.9 Sq. miles, the area 149.7 Sq. miles of Karandighi is being taken on the basis of Ministry of Home Affairs corrigendum published in Part II Section III (ii) of Gazette of India, dated the 11th July, 1960. The difference of 0.5 Sq. mile remain unexplained and may be attributable to the transfer of few part villages.

A-I AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION
APPENDIX III

Houseless and Institutional Population

Fly-leaf

The following arrangements for enumeration of institutional population and houseless persons were drafted in the Census Conference held in September-October, 1959:

Enumeration of institutions will depend upon their size. Some institutions will be so large that they will have to be made a Census Supervisor's Circle. The Superintendent or Director or Manager-in-charge of the institution should preferably be appointed as Census Officer and asked to recommend the persons who should work under him as enumerators. In the case of really large institutions, the Officer-in-charge of the institution or his nominee may be appointed Charge Officer. Here too, this officer should be requested to name the persons who should be appointed enumerators. This does not, of course, preclude the appointment of outsiders as enumerators, provided such appointments do not interfere with the work of the institutions. In the case of hotels, the Manager should ordinarily be appointed the Charge Officer or Circle Supervisor or enumerator, according to the size of the hotel. In those hotels where families reside in separate suites, each family should be treated as a separate census household for the purpose of census enumeration.

The Census of houseless persons in big cities and towns should be conducted over a period of more than one night, wherever there is reason to believe that there is a large houseless population. One-night censuses with the help of the police of houseless persons, in large cities and towns, as has been the practice obtaining on previous occasions, are unsatisfactory. The help of the police, will have to be taken, but should be restricted to the minimum. More assistance should be taken of social welfare organisations and established public welfare bodies like the Ramakrishna Mission, the Bharat Sevak Sangh and so on and they should be encouraged to take part in the enumeration of houseless persons. The whole city or town should be divided into convenient blocks and enumeration completed in three nights viz., the nights of 28th February, 1st March and 2nd March. Adequate publicity should be given beforehand that the enumeration of houseless persons has nothing to do with any round-up by the police force.

Special enumerators will have to be appointed for enumeration of houseless persons. These enumerators, especially recruited and kept in reserve, should be asked to draw up a rough list, block by block, of likely places to which houseless persons congregate at night and the approximate number of houseless persons to be found at each place. This can be checked beforehand by the Circle Supervisor going his rounds.

In actual practice the following arrangements were made:

Andhra Pradesh

In rural areas houseless persons—i.e., those who have no fixed place of residence and no regular house to live in and include such persons as beggars, sadhus, nomads, mendicants, vagrants, vagabonds, tramps, etc., and also population on boats plying on rivers, canals or lakes—were enumerated by special arrangements at the places where they normally slept on the night of 28th February, 1961. In urban areas the enumeration was extended over the nights of 28th February, 1st and 2nd March, 1961.

Institutions included hostels, boarding houses, hotels with lodging and boarding facilities, in-patients of hospitals, sanatoria, leper asylums, nursing homes, jails, mental institutions, borstal schools, beggar houses, orphanages, resident charitable institutions, ashrams, convents etc. The symbol (Inst.) was affixed to house numbers in census schedules to distinguish them from ordinary households.

Assam

The houseless population was enumerated by the enumerators of the concerning blocks on the night of 28th February, 1961.

The count of institutional population was taken on the night of 28th February, 1961 by the enumerators of the blocks in which such institutions lay, special enumerators, however, were appointed for big institutions like big hospitals, big hostels etc.

Bihar

The enumeration of houseless population was done by general enumerators on the night between 28th February and 1st March, 1961 by visiting places where such persons were expected to be found in their blocks. The houselist already contained the names of such places.

Institutions were classified into two broad groups, the first included hotels, sarais, dharamshalas etc. and the second comprised jails, charitable and penal institutions, large hospitals, etc. The enumeration of institutional population in the first group was conducted on 28th February, 1961; in the second group it was spread over the enumeration period i.e., from 10th February, 1961 to 28th February, 1961 followed by a revisional round between 1st March to 5th March, 1961. The agency for enumeration of institutional population depended upon their number of inmates. Small institutions were enumerated along with other households by the enumerator in whose block they lay. For bigger institutions of the second group, the Officer-in-charge of the institution was generally appointed as the Census Officer who was assisted by his own staff.

No person admitted to an institution after the commencement of enumeration (i.e. 10th February, 1961) was to be enumerated there, if it was found that he was at his normal residence at any time since the commencement of the enumeration period.

Gujarat

Houseless population was censused on the night of 28th February, 1961. This category also included persons travelling by pilgrim specials or coaches in transit during the course of enumeration period and not enumerated at the place of their normal residence. Houseless persons were enumerated by the enumerators of the blocks in which they were found except in the city of Ahmedabad where owing to the vast expanse of the city, special enumerators had to be employed who carried on the enumeration of the houseless persons with the help of the police authorities who knew their rendezvous and arranged for their collection at places and time fixed in advance.

Institutional population was counted by the enumerators of the blocks concerned during the enumeration period of 10th February to 28th February, 1961.

Jammu and Kashmir

The houseless persons were counted on the night of 28th February, 1961 by the enumerators of the blocks except in the case of forest areas where special blocks were constituted with the help of Forest Officers and the enumeration in such blocks was done by the Foresters.

Institutional population was counted in the entire period of 10th February to 28th February, 1961. In big institutions the enumeration was done by their officials, but where the number of persons was small, the enumerator of the concerned block took the count.

Kerala

The enumerators were asked to prepare a list of places of common resort of vagrants and houseless population. With the help of this list the enumeration of houseless population was done in the night of 28th February, 1961 by the enumerators of the blocks which were assigned to them for general count except in the case of District headquarter towns and Mattencherry municipal town where special enumerators were appointed. The special enumerators were from among the sanitary staff of the municipalities. All enumerators were given police assistance wherever necessary with clear instructions that the police officials should remain in the background lest the houseless people might get scared owing to their presence. Female enumerators were not employed to count this population even in their own blocks but male enumerators of the neighbouring blocks were entrusted with their work and to that end it was provided that, where the work load was heavy, the count might be taken on the night of 27th February, 1961. Persons in transit travelling by native boats or steam boats or other inland power vessels except ships were counted by the enumerators in their blocks on the night of 26th February, 1961 provided they had not been enumerated elsewhere. The crew and passengers of a ship or other vessel which touched any port or was already in the port between 10th February, 1961 and the sunrise of 1st March, 1961 were enumerated by the Port Officers with the assistance of trained enumerators provided they had not been enumerated elsewhere in India. Enumeration on ships and vessels belonging to Navy was to be done by the Commander of the ship or Officer-in-charge of the vessel with the help of trained enumerators.

Special enumerators were appointed for the enumeration of institutional population in the following special blocks:

- (i) Jails, reformatories, borstal schools, rescue homes or after-care-homes, mental hospitals and asylums, leprosy hospitals and asylums, armed reserved camps, police training schools, relief settlements, nunneries, mutts and monasteries;
- (ii) Residential hospitals, poor homes, orphanages, nursing homes, hostels, boarding houses, beggar homes etc. and
- (iii) Small institutions like boarding houses etc., however, were not treated as special blocks but were enumerated by the general enumerators in whose jurisdiction such institutions were situated.

Madhya Pradesh

Special attention was paid to the arrangements for the enumeration of houseless persons and to that end a circular (No. 14/2) was issued on 6th January, 1961 containing instructions to the Charge Officers for making arrangements to enumerate persons found in fairs, at pilgrim centres, in pilgrim special trains, in ballast trains and on the site of big construction projects. In cities also, particular care was taken to enumerate the pavement dwellers, beggars, vagrants etc., where their number was small, they were enumerated by the enumerator of the concerned block on the night of the 28th February, 1961 and in some cases where it was necessary, even on the morning of 1st March, 1961. Additional enumerators or helpers were given to assist the enumerators of the concerned blocks where such population was found to be large. Enumerators had instructions that such categories of houseless persons, e.g., harvesters, labourers on project sites etc. about whom there was definite indication that they would live at the place of their encampment for whole of the enumeration period could be counted even before 28th February. But in such cases the persons enumerated were warned that in case they left their camps, they should not get themselves re-enumerated elsewhere.

As the institutional population lives in houses which were listed in the ordinary course of houselisting no particular arrangements were made except that in those places where the number of inmates was large, separate blocks were formed and the enumeration was carried out with the help of the management of the institution. Such institutions were big hospitals, jails, boarding houses, hostels, etc. Enumeration of the institutional population took place alongwith the household population.

Madras

The houseless population was counted on the night of 28th February, 1961 in the mofussil areas other than Madras city. In the city of Madras the enumeration took place on the nights of 28th February, 1961 to 4th March, 1961. In the special tracts, forest areas and hilly villages the count was made on 1st March, 1961 during the revisional round.

The enumerators were requested to visit every place in their blocks where the houseless persons were likely to be found immediately after sunset and enumerate them taking the precaution that they were not enumerated elsewhere earlier. The supervisors were also requested to locate the places earlier in each block within their circle where houseless persons normally halted for shelter.

In the case of big institutions like central jails, hospitals, hostels, hotels, boarding houses etc., special blocks were formed to count the institutional population. So far as Governmental institutions were concerned, enumerators and supervisors were taken from their establishments.

Maharashtra

Ordinarily, each enumerator was asked to make a note of places within his block where houseless persons were likely to be found; to visit those places on the night of 28th February and to count all such persons found on that night. In cities like Bombay, in addition to enumerators going on the prescribed visits within their blocks, the police collected beggars and other houseless persons found on the sea-shore, parks, gardens and other open spaces. Such persons were taken to enumeration centres specially opened for enumerating them on that night. Nomadic groups were also enumerated wherever found on the night of 28th February. Yet another class of persons in Greater Bombay who are domestic servants working for more than one household but do not take food or stay with any one of them. Most of them sleep during the night in passages, corridors or open courtyards. None of the households in the building would own them as members. Nor are their sleeping places numbered as houses. To avoid such persons being missed special instructions were issued to enumerators in Greater Bombay to make inquiries at each building, to find out and to enumerate such persons.

The enumeration of institutional population found in the institutions like jails, hospitals, hostels etc. was done in the normal course of enumerator's visits.

Mysore

The Charge Superintendents were instructed to comb their respective beats for the usual haunts of houseless persons either before or during the period of enumeration. The actual enumeration of such persons was done on the night of 28th February, 1961. In rural areas where the enumerator had more than one village in his block, he was permitted to count houseless persons even on the night of 1st March, 1961.

Special arrangements were made to enumerate pilgrims travelling by special pilgrim trains with the co-operation of the Railway Board.

The enumeration of institutional population found in the institutions like hospitals, choultries and hotels was done on the night of 28th February, 1961 or at sunrise of 1st March, 1961; whereas the inmates of institutions like hostels, jails, alms houses, messes, houses of disabled persons were counted in the enumeration period of 10th February to 28th February, 1961 with revisional rounds between 1st March and 5th March, 1961.

Orissa

Instructions were issued to enumerators not to count houseless persons during the enumeration period i.e., 10th February to 28th February, 1961. They were counted on the night of 28th February, 1961 by the enumerators of the concerning blocks. The count was completed by the sunrise of 1st March, 1961.

Special arrangements were made to count the houseless population who congregated at Puri for Hindu festival of 'Govind Dwadashi' on 27th February, 1961.

Institutional population was enumerated in the enumeration period of 10th February to 28th February, 1961 by the enumerators of the blocks in which they were situated. Such institutions were schools, dispensaries, hospitals, hotels, village commune houses, jails etc.

Punjab

Enumerators had instructions to note places of halts of houseless population in their blocks during the enumeration period, which they visited on the night of 28th February, 1961 and counted the houseless population.

Institutional population was counted by the enumerators of the blocks concerned in which the institution lay during the entire enumeration period i.e., 10th February, 1961 to 28th February, 1961.

Rajasthan

The enumerators were instructed to enumerate houseless persons on the night of 28th February, 1961 at the places where they were found and to warn them not to get themselves re-enumerated elsewhere, should they move on to any other place.

No special enumerators were appointed for this purpose. Each enumerator was required to locate the houseless and floating population during his normal rounds between 10th to 28th February, 1961, and to note down the place or places at which they congregated during the night so that he could visit those places on the night of 28th February, 1961. No assistance was taken either from the police or from any other public organisations in the enumeration of such population.

For the enumeration of institutional population residing in hospitals, prisons, hostels, welfare homes, mental and charitable institutions etc., special arrangement of constituting 'special charges' or 'special circles' was made depending on the number of inmates of such institutions.

Uttar Pradesh

Special enumeration blocks were formed for places where a sizable houseless population was found. In towns where there was a concentration of such population, enumeration commenced on the night of 26th February and ended on the night of 28th February, 1961, but where such population was small, enumeration was done on the night of 28th February, 1961.

Institutional population found in jails, hospitals including mental hospitals, ashrams, dharamshalas, hotels, hostels, boarding houses etc. was counted during the enumeration period i.e., 10th February to 28th February, 1961.

West Bengal

Census of houseless population was conducted throughout West Bengal and Sikkim on the night of 28th February, 1961. Each census enumerator was required to go round his block during a specific period on the night of the 28th February, 1961 and enumerate the houseless persons found within his block. So far as the mobile part of the population was concerned, special rules were prescribed for the enumeration of those who lived in boats and also for persons residing in Sunderbans in the district of 24-Parganas and for those who were on board ships.

The enumeration of institutional population found in the institutions like penal, charitable or mental institutions, hostels, hotels, hospitals and boarding houses etc. was done during the entire enumeration period i.e., 10th February to 28th February, 1961.

Andaman and Nicobar Islands

The houseless population was confined almost exclusively to bazar porters in the urban area. The institutional population were all lodged in establishments maintained by Government. The former was counted on the night of 28th February and the latter in the period of enumeration i.e., 10th February to 28th February, 1961.

Delhi

The first step taken was to collect lists of places where houseless persons usually sleep at night. These lists were obtained from the Bharat Sevak Samaj and the Superintendents of Police of North, Central and South districts. Thereafter special enumerators were appointed for these areas who were asked to carry out the census of houseless persons in their respective areas on the nights of 28th February and 1st March. For other areas the work was entrusted to block enumerators. Incidentally, the Bombay Anti-Beggary Act was applied to Delhi with effect from 1st March, 1961, the very night on which enumeration of houseless population was held. When the enumerators along with the police appeared to enumerate houseless persons consisting mostly of beggars, the latter fearing that the police had come to round them up ran away and hid themselves at places where they could not be located. This very probably led to greater under enumeration than what might be normally expected.

For the enumeration of institutional population, special blocks were constituted and personnel was drafted from the staff of the institutions concerned except in the case of All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Safdarjang and Lady Hardinge Hospitals outside enumerators had to be employed as these institutions did not spare their own men. Institutional population was enumerated in the entire enumeration period of 10th February to 28th February, 1961.

Himachal Pradesh

All houseless persons were enumerated in the snow-bound areas of Chamba district from 21st to 23rd September, 1960, in the snow-bound areas of Mandi, Mahasu and Kinnaur districts from 1st to 3rd November, 1960, and in all non-snow-bound areas of Himachal Pradesh on the night of 28th February and from 2nd to 4th March, 1961.

Other Union Territories

In other Union territories, no special arrangements were made for the enumeration of houseless and institutional population owing to their small number and the count of houseless persons was made on the night of 28th February, 1961, Institutional population was, however, counted in the normal enumeration period i.e., 10th February to 28th February, 1961; by the enumerators of the blocks concerned.

In the very nature of things, unqualified success can never be claimed for enumeration of houseless persons. It is difficult to assess the completeness of coverage and one's visual impression of pavement sleepers in big cities like Calcutta, Delhi, Greater Bombay or Madras has invariably been proved to err on the side of exaggeration of their numbers. Nevertheless it is very probable that the enumeration of houseless persons in cities above 100,000 has been less than complete; the figures for cities like Calcutta, Delhi, Greater Bombay, Madras and Hyderabad impress one as definitely on the low side. The enumeration of institutional population, however, has generally been of a high order and there is little reason to suspect under count anywhere.

A-II

VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING SIXTY YEARS

A-II VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING SIXTY YEARS

Fly-leaf

The following instructions were issued on the method to be adopted for adjustment of populations of previous censuses to 1961 jurisdiction of districts and States :

1 In Table A-II it is proposed to give figures for seven censuses, that is, 1901 to 1961. The 1951 Census figures can be actually worked out with the help of District Census Handbooks and Primary Census Abstracts given therein. In the case of previous censuses the Superintendents should try to work out the figures with the aid of the State Census Tables or the village statistics that might have been published for the earlier censuses. If, however, they find that the actual figures cannot be worked out with the help of censuses or other publications, the population of transferred areas for censuses prior to 1951 should be estimated in the following manner :

The population of an area transferred for any particular census prior to 1951 should be estimated on the assumption that the proportion of the population in the area transferred to the total population of the district (taluk, etc.) in which it was situated at the time of the transfer was the same in the particular previous census, as it was in 1951. A table illustrating the method of estimation is given below.

Distribution by sex of the population so estimated for a previous census should be worked out on the basis of the male/female distribution of population in that particular previous census of the district (taluk, etc.), in which it was situated at the time of the transfer. These estimates should be communicated to the Superintendents of Census Operations of the neighbouring States from or to which the territories have been transferred so that they may tally with the estimates worked out by them independently. This step is essential in order to ensure complete correspondence between the totals both at district and State levels.

2 It is assumed that necessary adjustments are made in the census table of 1951 for all transfers of area prior to the date of that census. If, however, any omission comes to the notice of the State Census Superintendents, necessary adjustments should be made now.

3 In all cases where alterations are made in the previous census populations, complete details of changes of area and the population involved, should be incorporated in the Introductory Note to Table A-II. It should be kept in mind that the sum total of all deductions made from the population of States as well as districts which have been reduced in area will be equal to the sum total of additions made to the population of the States and districts which have been increased.

4 These transfers will affect a good many of the subsidiary tables in the body of the reports on the last census. This should be borne in mind wherever it is proposed to utilise the figures in those tables. Such tables should, in any case, be tested before being used.

NOTE : In this particular case the calculation has been based on the population of the districts from which transfers have been made, as tract or taluk figures were not available in the District Census Handbooks. In actual practice, the calculation should be based on the population of the tract or the taluk, if figures are available for these units.

This table corresponding to Union Table A-II of 1951 and Imperial Table II of previous censuses, acquires added importance in the absence of reliable vital statistics in respect of many parts of the Union. One of the main changes in this table from 1951 is that percentage variation is also given from decade to decade.

The Appendix to this table gives the adjustments necessary to bring the 1951 Census population of each district to its jurisdiction as at the Census of 1961.

Brief notes indicating the changes necessitating inter-district adjustments are given below in respect of each State/Union Territory.

Andhra Pradesh

Changes in the territorial boundaries of districts in the past decade were numerous and affected as many as 16 out of 19 districts, which were in existence in 1951. The three districts unaffected are Srikakulam, Visakhapatnam and West Godavari. The changes are due to the Andhra State Act, 1953, the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, the Andhra Pradesh and Madras (Alteration of Boundaries) Act, 1959 and other local inter-district transfers made under the orders of the State Government. Full details of the transfers are given in the Appendix to Table A-II.

Khammam district was created on 1-9-1953 with the portions of Yellandu, Madhira, Bhoorgampadu, Palvancha taluks and Khammam taluk except 2 villages, of Warangal district. It was further expanded in 1959 by transfer of Bhadrachalam taluk and Nugur I. S. T. from East Godavari district.

The State Superintendent adds a caution that the totals of population of all districts of Andhra Pradesh for 1901, 1911, 1921 and 1931 given in this Table do not tally with the total population of the State and the difference between the figure for the State as a whole on the one hand and the sum of totals for individual districts on the other, vary slightly, i.e.,—21,599 for 1901; —70,744 for 1911; +16,456 for 1921 and +8,240 for 1931. This difference existed in 1951 Table A-II for Hyderabad State and was due to an error that had occurred in the recasting of Table A-II in 1941, when the population of Medak and Nizamabad districts was recast in accordance with certain inter-district transfers that had taken place between Medak and Nizamabad districts of former Hyderabad State in the decade 1931-41.

The following are the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years:

Assam

There had been minor adjustments of population from 1901 to 1941 in some districts of Assam.

1 Adjustments in 1941-51

Darrang District

The censused portion of Balipara Frontier Tract was transferred to this district on 23 February, 1951.

Lakhimpur District

The two subdivisions of the Sadiya Frontier Tract, namely Sadiya and Pasighat, were created into independent districts under the name of Mishmi Hills and Abor Hills in July 1948. Another frontier district, called Tirap Frontier Tract, was constituted in 1943, by excluding 103 square miles from Lakhimpur and joining it with a portion of the old Sadiya Frontier Tract and the Naga Tribal Area. The population figures of these three Frontier Tracts, however, take into account only the censused population.

The censused portion of Mishmi Hills, Abor Hills and Tirap Frontier Tract was transferred to this district on 23 February, 1951.

Cachar District

Consequent on partition in August 1947, only Patharkandi, Ratabari and Badarpur police stations and a portion of Karimganj police station of Sylhet district were retained in Assam. These areas were added as a separate subdivision, viz., Karimganj to the Cachar district of Assam. The 1941 population of these areas which were transferred to Cachar district from Sylhet district was as follows:

| Police Station         | Area in Sq. miles | Population          |
|------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| 1 Patharkandi          | 277               | 70,788              |
| 2 Ratabari             | 240               | 67,599              |
| 3 Badarpur             | 47                | 42,672              |

district covering an area of 3,788 square miles were merged in the rest of the district immediately after Independence forming the United Khasi and Jaintia Hills district.

2 Adjustments in 1951-61

United Mikir and North Cachar Hills District

The whole of North Cachar Hills subdivision of former Cachar district was transferred to the newly created United Mikir and North Cachar Hills district. The Mikir Hills Sadar subdivision was also formed during this period from the following components:

|                                                                                | Area in Sq. miles |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| (i) Portions of Sibsagar district                                              | 1,692             |
| (ii) Portions of Nowgong district                                              | 1,707             |
| (iii) Portions of Jowai subdivision of United Khasi and Jaintia Hills district | 596               |
| Total                                                                          | 3,995             |

The population of these transferred portions was not available from old census records and therefore the recast figures of the United Mikir and North Cachar Hills district do not contain adjustment for these areas from 1901 to 1931. In the case of 1941 census figures the population of the portions of Jowai subdivision transferred to the United Mikir and North Cachar Hills district is not known.

Naga Hills district and the Naga Tribal Area were excluded from Assam which constituted the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area (Nagaland) after 1951.

North-East Frontier Agency comprising the non-censused portions of former Balipara Frontier Tract, Abor Hills, Mishmi Hills and Tirap Frontier Tract were excluded from Assam for administrative purposes; a census was taken in NEFA as a separate entity.

The following are the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years :

Bihar

The populations of Champaran, Darbhanga and Hazaribagh districts have remained unaffected since 1901. During 1951-61 only the districts of Purnea, Singhbhum, Ranchi and Bhagalpur underwent changes in area and jurisdiction, the first in the wake of the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956, the second due to the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 as well as transfer of 39 villages from Tamar police station of Ranchi, the third as a result of the transfer of 39 villages from Tamar police station of Ranchi district to Singhbhum district and the fourth due to the formation of a new district of Saharsa, from Bhagalpur. For these 4 districts as well as for Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Saran, Muzaffarpur, Monghyr, Santal Parganas and Palamau adjustments in population have been made for changes in area in one or other of the previous censuses. 2 districts viz., Saharsa and Dhanbad were newly formed after 1951.

Gujarat

Changes in the territorial boundaries of districts during the past decade have been numerous and affected as many as 13 out of 17 districts of the State. The four that have remained unaffected are Kutch, Sabarkantha, Kaira and Dangs. The 1951 population of the State adjusted to the 1961 jurisdiction of the State would be 16,262,657 in place of 16,149,036 as recorded in 1951 Census; which means a net increase of 113,621 persons. The net gains and losses in population to concerned districts in 1951 as a result of adjustments in jurisdiction in 1961 are given below:

Amreli has gained the most by adjustment, having received large accretions of territories from the neighbouring districts of Bhavnagar and Rajkot. Surat has gained by inclusion of 176 villages and 3 towns from Thana and Dhulia (West Khandesh) districts of former Bombay State.

Madhya Pradesh

Damoh, Narsimhapur and Seoni districts were newly constituted during 1951-61 from the portions of Sagar, Hoshangabad and Chhindwara districts. Damoh is formed from Damoh and Hatta tehsils of Sagar district, Narsimhapur from Narsimhapur and Gadarpura tehsils of Hoshangabad district and Seoni from Seoni and Lakhnadon tehsils of Chhindwara district. Besides inter-district transfers, there have been inter-State transfers of areas such as Sironj subdivision of Kota district and parts of 3 villages of Chitorgarh district of Rajasthan to Vidisha (Bhilsa) and Mandsaur districts respectively of this State and Sunel Tappa of Mandsaur district of this State to Jhalawar district of Rajasthan.

In the past decade, therefore, besides Sagar, Hoshangabad and Chhindwara, the boundaries of 12 districts were affected. The 1951 population of this State adjusted to 1961 jurisdiction of the State would be 26,071,637 in place of 21,247,533 according to 1951 Census, which means a net increase of 4,824,104 persons.

Details of areas added to or subtracted from the affected districts are given in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-I.

Madras
Kanyakumari district was newly constituted during 1951-61 from Agasteeswaram, Thovala, Kalkulam and Vilavancode taluks of Trivandrum district of Kerala. Shencottah taluk (except Aryankavu, Idappalayam and Kazhuthayurutti villages of Puliyara Pakuthy, Achancoil village of Achanputhur Pakuthy and a portion of Shencottah Pakuthy with a population of 20) of Quilon district was transferred from Kerala to Tirunelveli district. Besides there have been inter-district and inter-State transfers of areas necessitating adjustment in population of the affected districts. The districts to which additions were made are Chingleput, North Arcot, Thanjavur, Ramanathapuram and Tirunelveli and those from which areas were transferred are Chingleput, Salem, Coimbatore, Tiruchirapalli and Tirunelveli. Details of these transfers are given in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-1.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years :

Maharashtra
Out of 26 districts, changes in the territorial boundaries during the past decade affected 9 districts, viz., Greater Bombay, Thana, Satara, Dhulia, Sangli, Kolhapur, Nanded, Osmanabad and Chanda. The 1951 population of the State adjusted to 1961 jurisdiction of the State would be 32,002,564 in place of 31,676,560 according to the 1951 Census, which means a net increase of 326,004 persons. The districts to which areas were added are Greater Bombay, Satara, Kolhapur, Nanded, Osmanabad and Chanda and from which areas were subtracted are Thana, Dhulia, Sangli and Nanded. The details of the areas added to/subtracted from are to be found in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-1.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years :

Orissa

Although no territorial changes have taken place in the jurisdiction of the State or districts, 1961 Census shows an increase in the area of the State by 44.8 square miles in 1961 over 1951. The difference is confined to two districts Koraput and Mayurbhanj. The 1961 area for Koraput is the result of recent survey conducted in the last decade which shows an increase of 44.0 square miles. The increase of 0.8 square mile in Mayurbhanj district was detected at the time of the apportioning of the area of Similipal

Hills, hitherto inaccessible, among the neighbouring police stations.

The urban area has more than doubled from 1951 to 1961, i.e., from 192 square miles to 397.43 square miles.

There were a few internal changes within the jurisdiction of police stations and subdivisions in the districts; these have been incorporated in Appendix I to Table A-I in Part II-A State Volume.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years:

Punjab

Owing to the merger of PEPSU in the Punjab as a result of States Reorganisation and inter-district transfers of small areas there have been changes in the territorial boundaries of the districts during the past decade affecting 10 districts. 8 districts viz., Hissar, Rohtak, Gurgaon, Jullundur, Amritsar, Gurdaspur, Kapurthala and Mahendragarh have remained unaffected. Lahaul and Spiti was newly constituted out of 20 villages of Kulu tehsil of Kangra district. 2 villages and strips of land of 12 villages of Ferozepur district were excluded from the limits of the district and made over to Pakistan. The 1951 population of the State adjusted to 1961 jurisdiction is 16,134,890 in place of 12,641,205 according to 1951 Census, which means an increase of 3,493,685 persons. The details of areas added to/subtracted from the 10 affected districts viz., Ambala, Simla, Hoshiarpur, Bhatinda, Sangrur, Patiala, Karnal, Kangra, Ludhiana and Ferozepur are shown in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-I.

Here are the figures adjusted and unadjusted of all districts from 1901 to 1951 except for the districts of Kapurthala, Bhatinda, Sangrur, Patiala and Mahendragarh as separate figures for these are not available for back censuses prior to 1951:

Rajasthan

Besides inter-district transfers, there have been inter-State transfers of areas such as Abu Road taluka of Bikaner district of Gujarat and Sunel Tappa of Mandasaur district of Madhya Pradesh to this State and Sironj and Lateri tehsils (Sironj subdivision) of Kota district and 3 villages (partly) of Chitorgarh district of this State to Vidisha (Bhilsa) and Mandasaur districts respectively of Madhya Pradesh. In the past decade, therefore, the boundaries of 17 districts were affected. The 1951 population of the State adjusted to 1961 jurisdiction of the State would be 15,970,774 in place of 15,290,797 according to 1951 Census ; which means a net increase of 679,977 persons.

The details of areas added to/subtracted from the affected districts are given in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-I.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures for censuses from 1901 to 1951. Unadjusted figures, however, are not available for the districts of Ganganagar, Bikaner, Churu, Jhunjhunu, Sawai Madhopur, Jaipur, Sikar, Jodhpur, Nagaur, Pali, Barmer, Jalor, Bhilwara, Udaipur and Chitorgarh for the brick censuses prior to 1951 as these districts did not exist as such in 1941 Census and prior to it. These districts were formed from the portions of erstwhile Princely States.

Uttar Pradesh

No territorial changes have taken place in the jurisdiction of the State in the past decade. Major changes took place in the boundaries of Tehri Garhwal, Garhwal and Almora districts. New districts of Uttar Kashi, Chamoli and Pithoragarh were constituted from portions of Tehri Garhwal (Rawain tehsil), Garhwal (Chamoli tehsil) and Almora (Pithoragarh tehsil and 2 pattis viz., Walla Athigaon and Palla Athigaon of Almora tehsil) districts respectively. In addition to this, minor changes due to inter-district transfers affected 33 districts. Details of area added to/subtracted from these districts are to be found in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-I.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years:

West Bengal

A major territorial change which took place in the jurisdiction of the State in the past decade was due to the transfer of portions of Purnea and former Manbhum (Purulia) districts of Bihar under the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956. Ex-French territory Chandernagore was merged in Hooghly district. The 1951 population adjusted to the 1961 jurisdiction of the State would be 26,299,980 in place of 24,810,308 according to the 1951 Census, thus making a net increase of 1,489,672 persons. The boundaries of Darjeeling and West Dinajpur districts were affected owing to the transfer of portions from Purnea district of Bihar.

The boundaries of Hooghly district were affected due to the merger of Ex-French territory Chandernagore. The boundaries of Jalpaiguri and Calcutta districts were affected owing to inter-district transfers of areas. The latter area transfers affected the boundaries of Cooch Behar and 24-Parganas districts owing to corresponding reduction in their jurisdiction. The details of the additions to the districts and subtraction from their area are to be found in Statement B of Appendix I to Table A-I. The district of Purulia was newly formed from Jhalda, Purulia, Baghmundi, Barabhum except Patamda police station, Manbazar, Raghunathpur, Kashipur and Para revenue thanas of Sadar subdivision of former Manbhum (Purulia) district of Bihar.

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population for successive census years :

Union Territories and Other Areas

There have been no changes in the territorial boundaries of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Delhi, Manipur, Tripura and Sikkim in the past decade.

Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Daman and Diu, Pondicherry, North-East Frontier Agency and Nagaland did not exist as Union Territories/Other Areas in 1951. Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Goa, Daman and Diu were the Ex-Portuguese territories and Pondicherry was Ex-French Territory. North-East Frontier Agency has been formed from the non censused portions of Balipara Frontier Tract, Abor Hills, Mishmi Hills and Tirap Frontier Tract of Assam State, MIRGI/62—12

Nagaland has been formed from former Naga Hills district and Naga Tribal Area (including non censused area) of Assam State.

In case of Himachal Pradesh, the former Part C State of Bilaspur has been merged. The formation of the new district Kinnaur from portion of Mahasu district (Chini tehsil and 14 villages of Rampur tehsil) has affected the boundaries of the latter district.

The union territory of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands was formed by the transfer of (i) Laccadive and Minicoy Islands (referred to as Laccadive Islands) of former Malabar district of Madras State and (ii) Amindivi Islands of South Kanara district of Mysore (formerly of Madras).

The following statement gives the adjusted and unadjusted figures of population (wherever available) of Union Territories and Other Areas in the successive census years:

†These are administrative units of the territory called "areas" and not districts.
‡Naga Tribal Area of 1951 (at present Tuensang district of Nagaland) was censused for the first time in 1951 for an area of 50·0 Sq. miles only.

A-II VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING SIXTY YEARS

NOTES FOR THE TABLE

1 A Census of Goa, Daman and Diu was taken by the Portuguese Government as on 15 December, 1960. The figures represent 'present population' on that date.

2 The figures of Dadra and Nagar Haveli (where a census was taken as on 1 March, 1962) and Goa, Daman and Diu have not been adjusted as on 1 March, 1961. The populations of these territories for 1901, 1911, 1941 and 1951 have been assumed to be the same as in 1900, 1910, 1940 and 1950 so far as the figures of India and respective Zones are concerned. Similarly the population of Pondicherry for 1951 has been assumed to be the same as in 1948 for India and Southern Zone.

3 The population of Jammu and Kashmir for 1951 has been taken to be the arithmetic mean of 1941 and 1961 population. The population of the State for 1941 and earlier censuses have been adjusted with reference to the present censused area of the State which excludes territories currently under the occupation of Pakistan and China.

4 Population of each State or Union Territory has been adjusted as close as practicable to its present area and limits following the merger and Reorganisation of States (1956-60).

5 In working out decennial percentage variations for 1941-51 and 1951-61 for India and Eastern Zone, the population of the following areas has not been taken into consideration:

(i) The 1951 Census population of Tuensang district of Nagaland i.e., 7,025 has not been taken into account for 1941-51 as this area was censused for the first time in 1951.

(ii) The 1961 Census population of North-East Frontier Agency and Tuensang district of Nagaland has not been taken into account for 1951-61 as there are no comparable figures for 1951.

6 The distribution of population by sex of Pondicherry for 1901 (246,354), 1931 (258,628) and 1941 (285,011) is not available. The figures of India and Southern Zone for these years are, therefore, exclusive of these population so far as distribution by sex is concerned.

7 The figures for North-East Frontier Agency are provisional.

*(i) Jukkal circle of Deglur taluk was transferred under the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 from Maharashtra to Andhra Pradesh. Ramtapur village (Code No. 217 of 1951) of Jukkal circle still continues in Maharashtra State. The population of this village from 1901 to 1951 has been adjusted in the Adilabad district of Andhra Pradesh.

(ii) The totals of population of all the districts of Andhra Pradesh for 1901, 1911, 1921 and 1931 censuses do not tally with the total population of the State. The difference between the figures given for the State total and the totals of all the districts is—21,599 for 1901,—70,744 for 1911,—16,456 for 1921 and +8,240 for 1931. This difference is due to an error that has occurred in Table A-II of 1941, when the population data of Medak and Nizamabad districts were recast in 1941 in accordance with certain inter-district transfers that had taken place between Medak and Nizamabad districts of the erstwhile Hyderabad State during the decade 1931-41.

A-II VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING SIXTY YEARS

APPENDIX

NOTES

1 Area figures shown under columns 2, 3, 5 and 6 relate to the area supplied by State Survey Department except North-East Frontier Agency and the districts of former Vindhya Pradesh (cols. 5 & 6 only) where the figures of Surveyor General have been used. These columns do not appear in the Appendix of Jammu and Kashmir for which different form has been devised and figures of Surveyor General have been used for 1961 area figures and is given in the end.

2 Though some districts have not undergone any jurisdictional change in their areas since 1951, there is an increase or decrease in their areas due to computational error as well as unsurveyed tracts of 1951.

3 The figures in brackets in columns 5-6 show the difference in area of the unit in 1951-61 but in certain cases these figures do not tally with the area of the parts actually transferred owing to computational error. For the same reason the figures in columns 4, 5, 9 & 10 in Appendix I to Table A-I do not tally with the corresponding entries in brackets in cols. 5 and 6 of this Appendix.

4 The figures in brackets in column 7 denote the difference in population according to 1951 and 1961 jurisdiction appearing in columns 7 and 8 respectively.

5 In the case of Bihar, the districts of Saharsa and Dhanbad have been shown as new districts constituted in 1951-61 although they appear as separate districts in 1951 Census Publications, owing to the fact that they were in fact created during the inter-censal period 1951-61. Similar is the case of United Mikir and North Cachar Hills district of Assam State.

In the case of Darrang censused portion of Balipara Frontier Tract has been shown as merged even in 1951 Census owing to the fact that it was merged on 23 February, 1951 although it has not been shown as such in 1951 Census Publications. Similar is the case of Lakhimpur district where censused portion of Abor Hills, Mishmi Hills and Tirap Frontier Tract had been merged on 23 February, 1951 although it has not been shown as such in 1951 Census Publications.

6 A State/Union Territory which has seen no transfer of area, does not appear in the Appendix,
