TABLES ON SCHEDULED TRIBES

THE CONSTITUTION provides special safeguards for the communities listed as Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. At the 1951 Census there was no union table devoted particularly to them, except one giving their total numbers with economic classification. The 1961 Census has endeavoured to produce the population figure for each Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe and their cross classification by age, marital status, education, religion and industrial category. Hence these Special Tables. Included in these is also a table on household cultivation confined to the total Scheduled Tribes, one on distribution of each tribe by mother tongue and subsidiary language and another on classification of non-workers of each tribe by sex and type of activity. A complete list of villages predominantly populated by the Scheduled Tribes is given in the Appendix.

The Special Tables on Scheduled Castes have already been published in Part V-A(i). The total figures of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes population for each village and town have been given in the Primary Census Abstract. The figures for the police stations and towns will be found in Part II-A of the West Bengal Census Report, and for villages in the District Census Handbooks. Table C-VIII printed in Part II-C(i) of the Report classifies the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes population of the districts by literacy and industrial categories of workers and non-workers. Ethnographic Notes on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes based on studies undertaken as ancillaries to the 1961 Census enumeration will be found in Part V-B.

For an account of the treatment of castes and tribes in earlier Censuses, reference is invited to the Introduction to Part V-A(i).

AS NO CASTE OR TRIBE IS 'SCHEDULED' IN SIKKIM, PART V (IN ALL ITS SUB-PARTS) OF VOLUME XVI WILL RELATE TO WEST BENGAL ONLY

NOTES ON PRESENTATION

In the tables the tribe names are arranged alphabetically. Where two or more tribe names are grouped under one item in the Scheduled Tribes List, total figures for all the names have been shown against the item, arranged under alphabetical order on the basis of the first name of the item.

'Unclassified' denotes persons who were returned as members of Scheduled Tribes with no tribe name or vague or unclassifiable tribe names.

For Scheduled Tribes which are listed for specified areas of the State or a district (not its whole area), the population figures represent the population enumerated in those specified areas alone and do not include the population which may be residing in the State or district, as the case may be, outside those specified areas. The restriction is based not on nativity but on physical presence on the day of the enumeration.

Each table presented in this volume has a fly-leaf prefixed to it stating the scope of the table. A general note broadly summarising the statistics follows immediately.

2. Among the States, West Bengal ranks eighth by size of the Scheduled Tribes population which constitutes 6.82 per cent of the country's total Scheduled Tribes population. So far as the proportion of the Scheduled Tribes population in the total population is concerned, West Bengal occupies the eighth place again, the first seven places being occupied by Orissa, Madhya Pradesh, Assam, Gujarat, Rajasthan, Bihar and Maharashtra. The lowest position is held by Punjab. There are no Scheduled Tribes in the States of Uttar Pradesh and Jammu and Kashmir.

Distribution among the districts and police stations

3. The population of individual Scheduled Tribes in the districts, separately for rural and urban areas, is given in Table SCT-I Part B. The distribution of the total Scheduled Tribes population among the divisions and districts of the State is as follows :

STATEMENT II

4. Jalpaiguri has the largest Scheduled Tribes population (3·55 lakhs). The district ranks first also in terms of the proportion of the Scheduled Tribes population to the total population (26·10 per cent). By the size of the Scheduled Tribes population, the second, third and fourth positions are held by Midnapore (3·30 lakhs), Purulia (2·63 lakhs) and Burdwan (1·80 lakhs) respectively. Out of the 16 districts in West Bengal, only 5 districts, viz., Jalpaiguri, Midnapore, Purulia, Burdwan and Bankura account for more than 63 per cent of the total Scheduled Tribes population. Five districts, viz., Calcutta, Howrah, Cooch Behar, Nadia and Murshidabad contain between them a little more than 3 per cent of the State's total Scheduled Tribes population.

5. Jalpaiguri, as already stated, ranks first in terms of percentage of the Scheduled Tribes population to total population. The next five positions are held by Purulia (19·33 per cent), Darjeeling (15·44 per cent), West Dinajpur (12·85 per cent), Bankura (10·42 per cent) and Malda (8·14 per cent) respectively. The district having the lowest percentage is Calcutta (0·09 per cent).

6. The distribution of 286 police stations of the State according to the percentage of the Scheduled Tribes population to their total population is as below :

STATEMENT III

Distribution of Police Stations by percentage of Scheduled Tribes Population, 1961

11. In West Bengal out of the forty-one groups listed as Scheduled Tribes, only thirty-five have been returned in the 1961 Census. The six unreported Scheduled Tribes are Asur, Banjara, Bathudi, Binjhia, Birjia and Chik Baraik. All these six tribes are scheduled only in the Purulia district and in the territories transferred from the Purnea district of Bihar.

12. Out of the thirty-five Scheduled Tribe groups returned, ten account for 94·18 per cent of the total Scheduled Tribes population of the State. The last eleven Scheduled Tribes (excluding the unspecified class) in Statement V, which have less than 1,000 representatives each in the State, together constitute only 0·17 per cent to the total Scheduled Tribes population. As many as 68,923 persons have been shown as 'Unclassified' in the table, because they were returned by such indeterminate terms as 'Upajati', 'Adibasi' etc. Actually, however, this unclassified Scheduled Tribes population should belong to one or other of the tribes enumerated.

13. The statement below shows the distribution per 1,000 of total population of each of the ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes of the State among the districts.

14. The Santals are mainly concentrated in the five districts of Midnapore, Purulia, Burdwan, Bankura and West Dinajpur which account for about 70 per cent of them. Oraons are prominent in the district of Jalpaiguri only, which, incidentally, claims rather more than 61 per cent of the total population of this tribe in the State. The Mundas have been found in significant numbers in the districts of Jalpaiguri, 24-Parganas and Midnapore, which together represent about 71 per cent of total population of the tribe in the State. The Bhumij are distributed chiefly in the districts of Purulia, Midnapore and 24-Parganas. Only 14.5 per cent of the Bhumij population live outside these three districts. Koras are to be found in all the districts but their numbers are significant only in the districts of Burdwan, Midnapore, Bankura and Purulia. About 86 per cent of the Lodha, Kheria or Kharia population live in two districts, viz., Jalpaiguri and Midnapore. In the case of the Mahalis, the population is spread all over the State except in the Purulia district where it is not scheduled, but the two districts of Jalpaiguri and Midnapore account for 66 per cent of the total. For the Bhutia group of communities the principal habitat lies in the district of Darjeeling which disposes of about 94 per cent of the total population of the group. Murshidabad, Midnapore, Purulia, West Dinajpur, Jalpaiguri and Darjeeling claim about 81 per cent of the members of the Mal Pahariya community. The Lepchas are found in large numbers only in the district of Darjeeling which represents about 98 per cent of the total population of this community. Outside Darjeeling Lepchas are found only in the districts of Jalpaiguri, Cooch Behar, West Dinajpur, 24-Parganas, Calcutta and Hooghly.

Variation in the Population, 1951-61

15. In 1951 the Scheduled Tribes population of West Bengal (as she was then constituted) was 1,165,337. In 1961 the Scheduled Tribes population of the State was 2,054,081. The figures are not comparable due to intercensal changes (a) in the jurisdiction of the State and (b) in the administrative list of the Scheduled Tribes. The jurisdictional changes consist of transfer to the State of the former French possession of Chandernagore and of parts of the Manbhum and Purnea districts of Bihar. The statement below describes the administrative changes in the list of the Scheduled Tribes.

16. Only seven communities, viz., Bhutia, Lepcha, Mech, Mru, Munda, Oraon and Santal were treated as Scheduled Tribes in 1951. Of these seven, the three last named, viz., Munda, Oraon and Santal were treated as Scheduled Tribes in 1961 throughout the State. Lepcha, Mech and Mrú were Scheduled Tribes in 1961 throughout the State except in the Purulia district and the territories transferred from the Purnea district of Bihar. In the same area Bhutia also was treated, as a Scheduled Tribe but it included in 1961 the communities of Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo.

17. Meaningful comparison can therefore be instituted only for districts which were either not affected or affected only slightly by the States' Reorganisation in respect of those selected communities figures for which are available both for 1951 and 1961. Statement VIII shows the 1951 and 1961 population figures of these selected communities for selected districts. The 1951 figures for Hooghly include the figures for Chandernagore. For other districts no adjustments have been made in the 1951 figures for jurisdictional changes, if any, during 1951-61.

18. There are extraordinary variations in the figures for some communities, e. g., the Bhumij in Cooch Behar, Hooghly, Bankura and Midnapore; the Kora in Jalpaiguri, Malda and 24-Parganas; the Mal Pahariya in Malda, Murshidabad and Burdwan; the Mru in 24-Parganas and Hooghly; the Munda in Malda, Nadia and 24-Parganas; the Oraon in Nadia; the Rabha in Jalpaiguri, Cooch Behar and Howrah etc. It is hardly possible to ascribe specific reasons to these variations but a part of it seems to have been caused by such indeterminate factors as confusion over names, ignorance of the respondent, personal equation of the enumerators etc.

19. There is yet another point which it will be useful to take note of. At the 1951 Census the enumeration was conducted with reference to a negative list, i.e., a list of 'non-backward' classes‡, and the enumerator was free to record any caste or tribe name returned provided the name did not appear in that list. A great variety of names therefore found its way to the enumeration slips and for the purpose of preparation of tables on Scheduled Castes and Tribes only those names were picked up which conformed to the Constitution (Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes) Order 1950. Generic names, Synonyms, Sub-Caste or

* Treated as Scheduled Caste in 1951 but as Scheduled Tribe in 1961.
† 1951 figures include figures for Chandernagore.
‡ Vide Introduction to Part V-A(i), Tables on Scheduled Castes.

Sub-Tribe names by which some of these Scheduled Castes and Tribes are sometimes known therefore remained outside the scope of the tabulation. In 1961, on the otherhand, the enumerator was given a complete list of all Scheduled Castes and Tribes together with corresponding generic names, synonyms and Sub-Caste and Sub-Tribe names with special instructions to enquire into all doubtful names before recording them. The coverage this time is, therefore, expected to be more accurate.

Rural-Urban break up

20. Of the total population of the State, 75·55 per cent live in rural areas and 24·45 per cent in the urban areas. But, of the Scheduled Tribes population 97.66 per cent live in the rural areas and only 2·34 per cent in the urban areas. This indicates that there is relatively a greater concentration of the Scheduled Tribes in rural areas than in urban areas. Obviously the position will vary from district to district. The following statement shows the rural-urban proportions of the total and Scheduled Tribes population in the different districts of the State :

STATEMENT IX

Midnapore	92·30	7·70	98·43	1·57
Purulia	93·20	6·80	99·51	0·49

21. In all the districts, the urban areas have less than their share of the Scheduled Tribes population, the deficiency being the most pronounced in the districts of Darjeeling, Nadia, 24-Parganas, Hooghly and Burdwan. The most urbanised district (after Calcutta) is Howrah both in terms of the total population and the Scheduled Tribes population. The least urbanised district is Malda both in terms of the total population and the Scheduled Tribes population.

22. The percentage distribution of the ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes by rural and urban areas is shown in the statement presented below :

STATEMENT X

Rural-urban Proportions of the Population of Ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes, 1961

Scheduled Tribe	Percentage of the Scheduled Tribes Population
	in Rural areas	in Urban areas
1	2	3

Bhutia including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo	60·83	39·17
Mal Pahariya	96·87	3·13
Lepcha	90·33	9·67

23. Of these ten Scheduled Tribes all except the Bhutias and Lepchas have more than 95 per cent of their population in rural areas. The Bhutia group of communities show a high degree of urbanisation. The least urbanised, among these selected tribes, are the Lodhas, Kherias or Kharias.

24. The following statement shows the distribution of 184 towns in West Bengal according to the percentage of Scheduled Tribes population to total population :

STATEMENT XI

5·1 to 10·0	7
10·1 to 20·0	2
20·1 to 30·0	1
Total	184

25. In West Bengal there are 28 towns which did not return any Scheduled Tribe population in 1961. The ten towns in which more than 5 per cent of population belong to the Scheduled Tribes are :

Kalimpong (20·11), Darjeeling (12·07), Kshirpai (10·29), Balarampur (8·85), Gangarampur (8·73), Jamuria (7·71), Kurseong (6·67), Bali-Chak (6·49), Pandua (6·43) and Jalpaiguri (5·02).

26. A list of villages predominantly populated by the Scheduled Tribes will be found at the end of this volume.

Age Composition

27. The distribution of the Scheduled Tribes population by broad age-groups : 0 to 14 years, 15 to 44 years and 45 years and above has been shown in Table SCT-II Part B. The statement below shows the percentage distribution of the total population and the Scheduled Tribes population between these three age groups.

STATEMENT XII

Age Composition of the Total Population and Scheduled Tribes Population, 1961

Age-group	Percentage of
	Total Population	Scheduled Tribes Population
1	2	3
0 to 14	40·92	39·45
15 to 44	53·65	44·95
45 and above	5·40	15·55
Age not stated	0·03	0·05

28. The proportion of children is almost the same in the Scheduled Tribes population as in the total population. But the proportion of the population in the working age-group is much lower in the Scheduled Tribes population than in the total population, with a matching excess in the proportion of elderly and old persons. The Scheduled Tribes population is, therefore, on the whole more elderly than the total population.

29. The percentages of the population in three broad age-groups and also the group 'Age not stated' in respect of the ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes are shown below :

STATEMENT XIII

Age Composition of the numerically major Scheduled Tribes, 1961

Scheduled Tribe	Total	Age-group
		0—14	15—44	45+	Age not stated
1	2	3	4	5	6

Bhutia including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo	100·00	40·11	46·41	13·03	0·45
Mal Pahariya	100·00	36·69	49·07	14·22	0·02
Lepcha	100·00	37·58	44·54	17·87	0·01

30. Among the ten Scheduled Tribes the Tribe group Lodha, Kheria or Kharia has the largest proportion of population (42·35 per cent) in age 0 to 14 years. In the age-group 15 to 44 years the Scheduled Tribe Mal Pahariya has the highest percentage of population (49·07 per cent). The Tribe Lepcha has the highest percentage of population (17·87) in the age-group 45 years and above. The lowest percentage of Scheduled Tribe population among these ten Tribes in the age-groups 0 to 14, 15 to 44, 45 and above are 36·69, 42·87 and 13·03 for the Community Mal Pahariya, Lodha, Kheria or Kharia and the Bhutia group respectively.

Sex Ratio

31. In the Scheduled Tribes population of the State there are 969 females per 1,000 males. In the total population the corresponding ratio is 878 : 1,000. As we do not have migration data and Vital Statistics for the Scheduled Tribes population separately, it is not possible to estimate how much of this sex-ratio differential is caused by migration and how much by births and deaths.

The following statement shows the 1961 sex-ratio for ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes :

STATEMENT XIV

Sex Ratio among the Ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes, 1961

Scheduled Tribe	Females per 1,000 Males
1	2
All Scheduled Tribes	969
Santal	981
Oraon	903
Munda	1,041
Bhumij	942
Kora	923
Lodha, Kheria or Kharia	1,014
Mahali	1,031
Bhutia including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo	934
Mal Pahariya	850
Lepcha	1,020

32. It is seen that among these ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes those with sex ratios lower than the all Scheduled Tribes average are, Oraon, Bhumij, Kora, the Bhutia group and Mal Pahariya, the community last named having the lowest ratio of 850. The highest sex ratio (among the ten Scheduled Tribes) is 1,041 recorded by the Munda Community. The second and third places are occupied by Mahali (1,031) and Lepcha (1,020). The group Lodha, Kheria or Kharia has a considerably high sex ratio (1,014).

Marital Status

33. Table SCT-II Part B shows the marital status classification, by age and sex, for each of the Scheduled Tribes. The following summary statement shows the comparative distribution for the Total and Scheduled Tribes population by marital status.

STATEMENT XV

Distribution by Marital Status of the Total Population and the Scheduled Tribes Population, 1961

Marital Status	Total Population		Scheduled Tribes Population
	Males	Females	Males	Females
1	2	3	4	5
Total	10,000	10,000	10,000	10,000
Never Married	5,532	4,436	5,171	4,048
Married	4,166	4,276	4,420	4,716
Widowed	267	1,237	351	1,138
Divorced or separated	29	44	53	92
Unspecified	6	7	5	6

34. The degree of prevalence of the institution of Marriage is thus higher in the Scheduled Tribes population than in the total population. The proportion of Never Married persons of either sex is larger in the Total than in the Scheduled Tribes population.

35. The age-groupwise distribution by marital status is shown in Statement XVI.

STATEMENT XVI

36. In age-group 0 to 14 the proportion of Never Married persons of either sex is slightly higher in the Total than in the Scheduled Tribes population. An interesting feature of the distribution is that in age-groups 15 to 44 and 45 and above the proportions of widowed females are lower in the case of the Scheduled Tribes than in the Total population. This may indicate a higher incidence of widow remarriages among the Scheduled Tribes.

37. Statement XVII shows the classification by marital status of the population of the ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes of the State.

STATEMENT XVII

Distribution per 10,000 of the Population of Ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes by Marital Status, West Bengal, 1961

Lepcha	Males	5,440	3,925	483	133	19
	Females	5,802	3,599	550	43	6

38. Judging from the proportion of the Never Married among the females, the institution of marriage seems to be the most prevalent in the Bhumij community. Santal, Kora and Mahali are among the other communities where the proportion of Never Married among the females is less than the all-Scheduled Tribes average. This proportion is the highest, of these ten Scheduled tribes, among the Lepchas. The proportion of widows among females is higher than the all-Scheduled Tribes average in the case of Santal, Bhumij and Kora communities. It is significant that the proportion of widows is the lowest among the Lepcha women, among whom, as we have already seen, the proportion of the Never Married is the highest. The proportion of the Divorced or Separated is the highest among the women of the Bhutia community and the lowest among the Lepchas.

Literacy and Education

39. Parts A(ii) and B(ii) of Table SCT-III show the literacy and educational levels for each Scheduled Tribe for urban and rural areas respectively.

40. The following statement compares the sexwise literacy percentages of the Total population and the Scheduled Tribes population for the State and districts :

Purulia	17·79	30·20	5·04	8·05	14·97	1·06

41. In every district of the State, literacy is lower in the Scheduled Tribes population than in the Total population, the divergence is the most pronounced in the districts of Murshidabad, Nadia, 24-Parganas, Howrah, Hooghly, Burdwan, Birbhum and Midnapore. Calcutta has the highest literacy rates both in the Total population and the Scheduled Tribes population, but the district with the lowest literacy rates is Malda in case of the Total population and Murshidabad in case of the Scheduled Tribes population. The districts where the Scheduled Tribes literacy rates are above the State average are Darjeeling, Jalpaiguri, Cooch Behar, 24-Parganas, Calcutta, Bankura and Purulia.

42. It is in female literacy in particular that the Scheduled Tribes rates are very low. In the Total population the lowest female literacy rate for a district is about 5 per cent in Purulia, while in the Scheduled Tribes population the female literacy is below that mark in all the districts except Calcutta, Darjeeling and Cooch Behar. It is the lowest in Murshidabad where only 26 Scheduled Tribes females among 10,000 are literate.

43. The rural-urban differential of literacy rates is also quite marked. The Scheduled Tribes population of West Bengal has a male literacy rate of 10·83 per cent in the rural areas and of 24·76 per cent in the urban areas. The respective female literacy rates are 1·60 per cent and 9·57 per cent respectively.

44. The 1961 literacy percentages, sexwise, for ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes of the State are shown below :

STATEMENT XIX

Literacy among Ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes, 1961

	Persons	Males	Females
1	2	3	4
Santal	5·56	10·00	1·03
Oraon	7·59	11·63	3·11

Mal Pahariya	3·57	5·97	0·73
Lepcha	24·66	37·39	12·13

45. The Bhutia group of communities have the highest literacy percentage (25·06 per cent) among the ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes closely followed by the Lepchas (24·66 per cent). The other tribes having literacy rates higher than 7 per cent are Mahali (7·90 per cent), Oraon (7·59 per cent) and Bhumij (7·36 per cent). The Scheduled Tribe Mal Pahariya (3·57 per cent) has the lowest literacy percentage among these ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes. It is observed that though the tribe Santal has largest population it ranks seventh in respect of literacy percentage, so far as these ten tribes are concerned.

46. The following statement indicates the percentage distribution of the Scheduled Tribes and General population by literacy and educational levels sexwise.

STATEMENT XX

Levels of Education in the Total and Scheduled Tribes Population, 1961

Matriculation and above	2·85	4·67	0·79	0·10	0·18	0·02

47. It is evident that in the case of the Scheduled Tribes population literacy consists mostly of rudimental literacy without any formal standard of education.

Religion

48. Distribution of population of each Scheduled Tribe classified by religion for the State, divisions and districts and for rural and urban areas under each tribe separately is shown in Table SCT-IV Part B. The distribution of the Scheduled Tribes in the State by religion is as follows:

50. Of the 35 tribes returned at the 1961 Census 14 seem to have completely gravitated towards Hinduism since no member of these tribes has reported any other religion. These 14 tribes are : Baiga, Bedia, Birhor, Chero, Gond, Gorait, Kharwar, Khond, Kisan, Korwa, Lohara or Lohra, Parhaiya, Sauria Paharia and Savar. At least 98 per cent of the persons belonging to the Bhumij, Ho, Kora, Mru, Magh, Mal Pahariya, Mahli, Nagesia and Rabha tribes have been returned as Hindus. Hinduism is the least prevalent among the Bhutias and allied tribes and the Lepchas less than 8 per cent of whom profess this religion.

51. After Hinduism, Christianity is the next major religion among the tribals. Christianity has the largest following among the Mech, 30·44 per cent of whom profess this religion. Next come the Lepchas about a fourth of whom are Christians. At least 1 among every 10 Lodha, Kheria or Kharia of West Bengal is a Christian. This religion claims 8·96 per cent of the Garos, 8·65 per cent of the Oraons, 5·10 per cent of the Mundas, 3·49 per cent of the Mahalis and 2·25 per cent of the Chakmas. In none of the remaining tribes the incidence of Christianity rises above 2 per cent of the population. It is only 0·66 per cent among the Santals.

52. Saridharma as a religion has been returned for the first time at the 1961 Census. It has been recorded as the religion of 35,928 persons in the State, all of whom are tribals, chiefly Santals, enumerated in the districts of Bankura and Purulia. Statement XXIII shows the police stationwise distribution of the figure.

STATEMENT XXIII

Police Stationwise Return for Saridharma, 1961

53. 'Sari' means truth. Saridharma may therefore mean either true religion or religion based on truth. The Special Officer for Tribal Welfare, Purulia, reports that the founder of Saridharma was one Sadhuram Murmu of village Khamarbandi, Pargana Silda in the Midnapore district who sub-divided the Santals in three groups, viz., (i) the Um-hor, i.e., the Christians, (ii) the Saka-hor, i.e., the followers of Lord Siva and lastly (iii) the Bonga-hor i.e., the followers of Saridharma.

54. Of the 35,928 tribals who have returned their religion as Saridharma, 34,177 are Santals, 1,152 are Bhumij, 587 are Karmalis, 7 are Koras and 5 Mrus. In terms of percentages to tribal population, Saridharma has the largest representation of 57·38 per cent among the Karmalis, followed by 2·87 per cent among the Santals.

55. Buddhism is the most common religion of the Bhutia group of tribes and the Lepchas. About 90 per cent of the former and 68 per cent of the latter are Buddhists.

56. Marangburu has been returned as the religion of 701 tribals, 624 of whom are Santals. Buru or Boro is the supreme being or the personal high-god. Marangburu means 'the principal deity'. 14 Santals have returned their religion as Chandobonga. To a Santal, Bonga is a spirit endowed with certain mysterious supernatural powers and therefore capable of spelling both welfare and disaster. The Santals hold in reverential awe many Bongas of which Chando-bonga is one.

57. In the case of 38 Santals, the name of the tribe was repeated in the column meant for religion. The returns have not been interfered with.

Mother Tongue

58. The Scheduled Tribes of this State are a polyglot population speaking as many as 106 mother tongues. Table SCT-I distributes the population of each Scheduled Tribe by the mother tongues returned by them. A summary statement prepared on the basis of that table showing the total number of speakers against each mother tongue returned by the Scheduled Tribes population is given below:

59. Santali is the most predominant language of the Scheduled Tribes population. It is spoken by 1,121,446 persons or about 55 per cent of the total Scheduled Tribes population of the State. The next predominant language is Bengali. It is the mother tongue of 410,140 or 20 per cent of the total Scheduled Tribes population of the State. Next comes Kurukh/Oraon. It is spoken by 215,593 tribals. Other languages spoken by at least 10,000 tribals in this State are Munda-

Unspecified (49,410), Hindi (39,964), Mundari (31,486), Sadan/Sadri (23,802), Nepali (18,471), Khaira (18,325), Adibhasha-Munda (13,140), Karmali (12,533) and Mech (10,118).

60. Table ST-I also furnishes a wealth of information on the extent of infiltration of Aryan languages among the different Scheduled Tribes of the State. It will be seen that the grim struggle waged by the tribal languages for existence is going on in varying degrees among all the tribes and is virtually lost now in case of the Bedias, Birhors, Cheros, Gonds, Goraits and Khonds, Kisans, Korwas, Loharas or Lohras and Parhaiyas who have adopted Bengali almost to a man. Non-Aryan languages are falling into desuetude among a great bulk of the Bhumij population also. Of the 91,289 members of this tribe enumerated at the 1961 Census, only 11,956, i.e., 13 per cent, speak a non-Aryan tongue. It is only in the districts of Murshidabad and Jalpaiguri that a majority of Bhumij population still favour a tribal form of speech. Chakma, a tribe of Mongolian origin, is now represented in West Bengal by 1,379 persons only, barely 2·68 per cent of whom speak a non-Aryan tongue. Out of the 2,535 Garos of the State, only 163 speak their own language, while the great bulk speak Bengali and Hindi. Hardly 35 per cent of the Ho population of the State speak a non-Aryan language. Three-fourths of the Karmalis of the Purulia district have given up their tribal tongue. In the same district, tribal languages are on the verge of total extinction among the Kharwars and Mahlis of whom 80 per cent and 93 per cent respectively have already discarded their tribal language in favour of an Aryan one.

61. The tribal languages have lost ground also among the Koras, a tribe allied to the Mundas. In every 100 Koras of West Bengal, 12 speak Koda or Kora, and another 24 speak other tribal languages, chiefly Santali. Most of the remaining 64 speak Bengali. Aryan languages have been returned by 53 per cent of Mahalis and 88 per cent of the Mal Paharias of the State. Out of the 1,477 persons belonging to the Mru tribe, only 48 have returned the mother tongue known by the name of that tribe. Barely a third of the population of the Nagesia tribe speak non-Aryan languages. Among the Savars of Purulia, only 8 in 100 hold on to a tribal form of speech.

62. The Santals are the foremost of the few tribes which have still kept their language alive. Rather more than 90 Santals among every 100 cling to the Munda Branch of languages. The proportion is as high as 99 in 100 in West Dinajpur, Malda and Birbhum districts. The Munda Branch of languages is also current, though to a lesser extent, among the majority of the tribe whose name it bears. Out of the 160,245 Mundas enumerated in the State, as many as 83,480 have returned a Munda dialect as their mother tongue and 4,370 have returned other tribal languages outside the Munda Branch. A larger majority of the Oraons, the chief of the tribes speaking a Dravidian language, still hold on to the tribal form of speech. In every 3 Oraons of West Bengal, 2 have been returned as speaking the language known by the name of the tribe. About 73 per cent of the population belonging to the Mech tribe speak their own language. The mother tongue Rabha also seems to have hold its own, as 5 in every 6 Rabhas have claimed to speak it. Among the Lodhas, Kherias or Kharias those who speak tribal languages have a slender majority over those who do not.

63. In the Darjeeling district a little more than 22,000 persons have been enumerated as belonging to the tribe Bhutia, including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo. Among them, about 7,000 have given up their own language in favour of Nepali—the lingua franca of the Eastern Himalayas, and about 1,000 in favour of Hindi. Nepali appears to have gained a strong foothold among the Lepchas of the district, claiming, as it does, about half of the population belonging to that tribe.

64. Among all tribes, generally speaking, the proportion of the population retaining the tribal tongue decreases as the tribes spread out to industrial and more accessible areas. For example, in West Bengal as a whole, 55 Mundas in every 100 speak a tribal language, but in the 24-Parganas district the proportion falls to 10 in 100. As for the Oraons, 73 per cent of them speak non-Aryan tongues at the State level, 43 per cent in the Nadia district, 22 per cent in the 24-Parganas. Even among the Santals, who are a conservative people so far as their language is concerned, Aryan languages have made quite a noticeable impression in the 24-Parganas district where a little less than 65 per cent of the population belonging to that tribe have returned Aryan languages, chiefly Bengali, as their mother tongue.

65. The statement below shows the proportion speaking non-Aryan languages in each of the Scheduled Tribes of West Bengal :

Bilingualism

66. Table ST-I also furnishes data on subsidiary languages. A subsidiary language is one which is other than the mother tongue of the person and which he speaks and understands best and can use with felicity in communicating with others. In the Enumeration Slip two subsidiary languages could be recorded but at the tabulation stage only the language first named was taken into account and the second if any was discarded. The question on subsidiary language was asked of every person irrespective of age and literacy.

67. The first point that needs to be brought forward is that bilingualism is more extensive among the Scheduled Tribes population than among the general population. The percentage of population speaking a subsidiary language is only 8·65 in case of the general population but 29·61 in case of the Scheduled Tribes population. Obviously the necessity for knowing the most common language of the area is very great in the case of the tribal population who speaks the tribal tongue. As a rule bilingualism is encouraged whenever a small linguistic group finds itself planted in the midst of a population speaking a different tongue. The more a tribal population discard the tribal languages and adopt a prevailing Aryan form of speech, the less is its need for a second language. It is significant, therefore, that out of the aggregate of 608,196 tribals who speak some subsidiary language in addition to their mother tongue, as many as 574,380 speak a non-Aryan language as mother tongue and an Aryan language as its subsidiary.

68. The statistics on bilingualism among tribals also help to illustrate the extent to which tribal languages are being ousted by Aryan tongues. A rather fascinating feature of bilingualism in the tribal population is the relative desuetude of tribal tongues even as subsidiary languages among those who speak non-tribal mother tongues. Among over fifty million tribals who speak Aryan mother tongues, hardly six thousand use a non-Aryan subsidiary language. It seems a general rule that when a tribal language loses ground as mother tongue, it is not retained even as the second language.

69. The following statement shows the extent of bilingualism and the use of Aryan languages as subsidiary to non-Aryan mother tongues and vice versa for each of the Scheduled Tribes of West Bengal.

70. Among the most bilingual tribes are the Bhutia group, Lepchas and Santals. At least 1 in every 3 persons belonging to these tribes speak a subsidiary language. It is among these tribes, it may be recalled, that large portions of the population speak non-Aryan mother tongues. Bilingualism is also widely prevalent among Mundas and Oraons, the tribes who have largely retained their in igenous languages. On the other hand, bilingualism is practically non-existent among the Bhumij, Chakma, Garo, Korwa, Mahli etc.,who have, by and large, discarded the tribal languages in favour of Aryan ones.

Economic Activity

71. An important departure was made at the 1961 Census in the collection of data on the economic characteristics of the population. Instead of dividing the population into earners and dependents on the basis of income and into livelihood classes on the basis of the means of livelihood of the earners, stress was laid on work so that all people who worked including family workers who were not in receipt of any income, or persons working who could not earn enough for their maintenance, were returned as workers and all those who did no work were shown as non-workers.

72. The workers were classified into the following nine basic Industrial Categories :

I—As Cultivator ;

II—As Agricultural Labourer ;

III—In Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and allied activities ;

IV—At Household Industry ;

V—In Manufacturing other than Household Industry ;

VI—In Construction ;

VII—In Trade and Commerce ;

VIII—In Transport, Storage and Communications ; and

IX—In Other Services.

73. The Non-workers were treated as the tenth category.

74. The following is a brief description of the Industrial Categories :

Category I

This category includes both owner cultivators and tenant cultivators. Along with workers doing manual work on land are also included persons who are engaged in active supervision or direction of cultivation. All persons working in cultivation of land on which they have either ownership or tenancy rights are included in this category.

Category II

All other persons working on land as labourers on wages without holding any right upon the land are classified as agricultural labourers and included in the second category.

Category III

Workers in mining, quarrying, livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting, plantations, orchards and allied activities are included in this category.

Category IV

"Household Industry" is defined as an industry conducted at home in urban areas or within the village in rural areas by the head of the household himself and/or mainly by the members of the household. A household industry is not run on the scale of a registered factory and relates to processing, servicing, repairing or making of goods. This may include sale of goods, but should not be confined merely to buying and selling. Thus, the main criteria for household industry are its smaller scale, its being run at home in urban areas and within the village in rural areas and the participation of the head of the household and/or one or more members of the household. Professional, personal and such other 'Services' are not covered by this definition, although they may be run at home. A person working as an employee in another person's household industry has also been treated as working at household industry.

Category V

"Manufacturing" includes all types of production, processing, servicing or repairing of goods. This category does not include production, processing, etc., which is carried on at household level and is classified as household industry.

Category VI

This category includes workers engaged in construction and maintenance of buildings, roads, railways, bridges and telegraph and telephone lines, waterways, reservoirs, etc.

Category VII

This category includes workers engaged in any capacity in wholesale or retail trading activity and commercial transactions relating to imports and exports, real estate and properties, stock and shares, insurance, money-lending, banking, etc.

Category VIII

This category includes workers engaged in transport activities by air, rail, road and water and in services incidental to transport such as packing, carting, loading, unloading, etc. Workers engaged in storage, warehousing and communication services such as Posts, Telegraphs, Telephones, Wireless Signalling, Information and Broadcasting are also included in this category.

Category IX

This category includes (i) Public Utility Services like electricity, gas or water supply and sanitary services; (ii) Central, State, Quasi-Governments or Municipal employees in administrative departments or offices; (iii) Professional services; (iv) Trade or labour associations, recreational and personal services and (v) Services not elsewhere classified, etc.

75. The distribution of the Scheduled Tribes population according to the industrial categories of workers and non-workers is shown in Table SCT-I Part B for rural and urban areas separately. It is for the first time that the economic classification of the Scheduled Tribes population has been recorded in such detail for each community. As such, any comment on the statistics relating to economic activities must be handicapped first by a lack of adequate and comparable statistics from earlier Censuses and secondly, due to non-availability of detailed break-ups of the classification of economic activities.

76. As regards the workers it will be pertinent to assess the position of the Scheduled Tribes in comparison to the Total population. The proportion of workers for total, rural and urban areas and for males and females in the Scheduled Tribes population and the total population of West Bengal is as follows:

STATEMENT XXVII

Proportion of Workers in the Total and Scheduled Tribes Population, 1961

Population	Percentage of Workers to Total Population
	Total	Rural	Urban
1	2	3	4
Total Population
Males	53·98	53·47	55·38
Females	9·43	10·62	5·12
Scheduled Tribes Population
Males	58·48	58·59	54·17
Females	41·55	41·86	26·27

77. Except for males in urban areas, the participation rate, for either sex, is higher in the Scheduled Tribes population than in the total population for both rural and urban areas. This does not necessarily indicate economic prosperity of the Scheduled Tribes, for when a large section of the population lives on subsistence level, even the children and womenfolk have to lend a hand in household industry, cultivation or business to carve out a living for the family.

78. We now pass on to the consideration of the types of activities in which the Scheduled Tribes are engaged. The statement below shows the distribution among the nine industrial categories of 10,000 males and females workers separately for the Scheduled Tribes and the total population:

STATEMENT XXVIII

Distribution per 10,000 Workers of each Sex of the Total and Scheduled Tribes Population by Industrial Categories, 1961

IV At Household Industry	299	1,217	103	179
V In Manufacturing other than Household Industry	1,239	491	170	200
VI In Construction	146	30	39	24

VIII In Transport, Storage and Communications	385	35	53	7
IX In Other Services	1,344	1,299	579	415

79. A little more than 76 per cent of the Scheduled Tribes male workers are engaged in agriculture either as Cultivators or Agricultural Labourers. The corresponding percentage among the total male workers is 53. Among females the percentage is 78 and 58 for Scheduled Tribes and total population respectively. The proportion of workers engaged in agriculture is thus much higher in the Scheduled Tribes than in the total population.

80. The Cultivator-Agricultural Labourer ratio is 100 : 58 in the Scheduled Tribes population as compared to 100 : 40 in the total population.

81. After agriculture, Category III—Mining, Quarrying etc., is the only group of activities in which the proportion of Scheduled Tribes workers is higher both for males and females than in the total population.

82. The following statement shows the distribution of 10,000 persons of ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes by Industrial Categories of workers and non-workers.

Bhutia including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo	10,000	51	1,024	6,046
Mal Pahariya	10,000	17	336	4,842
Lepcha	10,000	27	472	4,840

83. Of these ten communities only the Oraon, the Lodha, Kheria or Kharia and the Mahali have their largest portions of working population engaged in Category III, i.e., in Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry etc. For the other seven communities, Category I- Cultivation is the largest single economic activity. The most prominent of these cultivating communities are the Lepcha and the Bhumij of whom 42 per cent and 31 per cent respectively are cultivators.

84. The cultivator-agricultural labourer ratio favours the former in all these ten communities but is closest to equality in the case of the Kora and the Lodha, Kheria or Kharia. The Bhumij, Santal and Mal Pahariya are among the other communities where large proportions of the population are engaged as agricultural labourers.

85. The tribe having the largest representations in Category III is Oraon. Large number of members of this tribe are chiefly employed in the tea plantations. Forestry is an important source of livelihood for the Lodha, Kheria or Kharia. Other tribes well represented in Category III are Munda and Mahali. In Other Services are engaged a large proportion of the Bhutia and the allied communities.

86. Of the ten communities under consideration the proportion of non-workers is the lowest among the Bhumij and the highest among the Bhutia group of communities.

87. Table SCT-V Part B shows Sample Scheduled Tribes Households engaged in cultivation classified by interest in land and size of land cultivated in rural areas. The figures are available only for rural areas and for all Scheduled Tribes as a group and not for each Scheduled Tribe separately. The interest in land has been classified into three categories.

(i) Owned or held from Government.

(ii) Held from private persons or institutions etc.

(iii) Partly held from Government and partly from private persons.

88. The statement below shows the percentage of the households in each of the three categories mentioned above in the rural areas.

STATEMENT XXX

Cultivating Households classified by Interest in Land cultivated, 1961

Interest in Land	General Households	Scheduled Tribe Households
1	2	3
(i) Owned or held from Government	65·64	47·73
(ii) Held from private persons or institutions	13·34	35·36
(iii) Partly held from Government and partly from private persons	21·02	16·91
Total	100.00	100.00

89. It would appear that the proportion of cultivating households holding land as tenant cultivators and share croppers is higher among the Scheduled Tribes cultivating households than the General Cultivating Households.

90. Percentage distribution of cultivating households by size of land cultivated is given below separately for the general and Scheduled Tribes households :

STATEMENT XXXI

Distribution of General and Scheduled Tribes Cultivating Households by Size of Land cultivated, 1961

Holding	General Households	Scheduled Tribes Households
1	2	3
All Sizes	100·00	100·00
Less than 1 acre	15·93	10·95
1·0—2·4 acres	30·12	33·89
2·5—4·9 acres	26·68	29·08
5·0—7·4 acres	14·22	15·36
7·5—9·9 acres	4·71	4·19
10·0—12·4 acres	3·61	2·98
12·5—14·9 acres	1·33	0·95
15·0—29·9 acres	2·64	1·76
30·0—49·9 acres	0·22	0·14
50 and above acres	0·08	0·07
Unspecified	0·46	0·63

91. The average size of holding is thus almost the same for the Scheduled Tribes cultivating households as for the general cultivating households.

Non-working Population

92. We have already noted the proportion of non-workers among the Scheduled Tribes population generally and among each of the ten numerically major Scheduled Tribes in particular. It now remains for us to examine the distribution of the non-workers by type of activity. The 1961 Census was the first occasion when the non-workers were classified by type of activity. Table ST-II classifies the non-workers of each individual Scheduled Tribe by the following types of activity :

(i) Full-time students ;

(ii) Persons seeking employment for the first time ;

(iii) Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work and

(iv) Others

The last group includes persons engaged in unpaid household duties, dependents, infants and disabled, retired, rentiers or independent means, beggars, vagrants etc., and inmates of penal, mental and charitable institutions. The statement below shows the distribution of 1,000 non-workers of the ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes by type of activity.

STATEMENT XXXII

Distribution of 1,000 Non-workers of Ten numerically important Scheduled Tribes by Type of Activity, 1961

Scheduled Tribe	Total Non-working Population	Full time Students	Persons seeking employment for the first time	Persons employed before, but now out of employment and seeking work	Others
1	2	3	4	5	6

Santal	1,000	61	4	3	932
Oraon	1,000	52	12	9	927
Munda	1,000	55	9	8	928
Bhumij	1,000	75	6	4	915
Kora	1,000	46	6	6	942
Lodha, Kheria or Kharia	1,000	40	13	11	936
Mahali	1,000	57	14	21	908
Bhutia including Sherpa, Toto, Dukpa, Kagatay, Tibetan and Yolmo	1,000	247	47	18	688
Mal Pahariya	1,000	32	11	7	950
Lepcha	1,000	204	33	15	748

93. The proportions of full time students are high in the Bhutia group of communities and the Lepchas. It may be re-called that these two tribes have also the highest literacy rates vide Statement XIX. The proportion of students is very small among the Mal Pahariya, Lodha, Kheria or Kharia and the Kora which are educationally very backward. The proportion of persons seeking employment is relatively higher among the Bhutia group of communities and Lepchas. It is obvious that the number of persons employable in different occupations is higher in these tribes than among the others.

TABLES ON SCHEDULED TRIBES

TABLE SCT—I PART B

INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK AND NON-WORKERS BY SEX FOR SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE gives the distribution of the Scheduled Tribes population of the State, Divisions and districts by sex and by the nine Industrial Categories of workers and non-workers. Data are given for the Scheduled Tribes population as a group, as well as for the individual Scheduled Tribes and for rural and urban areas separately. The description of the concept of workers and non-workers and of the nine Industrial Categories will be found in the Introductory Note.

Similar table for the Scheduled Castes population is SCT-I Part A printed in Part V-A(i) and for the General Population is the Union Primary Census Abstract printed in Part II-A of the West Bengal Census Publications. State Table VII of the 1951 Census (printed in Tribes and Castes of Bengal, Mitra) classified the Scheduled Tribes population of the State, as a group, by Livelihood Classes.

TABLE SCT-II PART B

AGE AND MARITAL STATUS FOR SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE gives the distribution of the Scheduled Tribes population of the State, Division and districts by sex, broad age-groups and marital status. The presentation is for all Scheduled Tribes as a group as well as for each Scheduled Tribe separately, but without any break-up for rural and urban areas. The age-groups adopted are 0 to 14, 15 to 44, 45 and above and Age not stated.

Never Married are persons who have never been married. Married persons are those who are married whether for the first or another time and whose marriage is subsisting. These include those recognised as married by custom, society or by the couple themselves who are in stable de facto union even if the marriage is disputed in the locality. Widowed are those whose husbands or wives are dead and who have not married again. Divorced or Separated include persons divorced in a lawful manner either by decree of a law court or by a regular social or religious custom but who has not remarried or a person who has been separated from spouse and is living apart with no apparent intention of living together again. For a prostitute her marital status was recorded as declared by her.

Corresponding tables for the Scheduled Castes population and General population are SCT-II Part A and C-II printed in Parts V-A(i) and II-C(i) respectively of the West Bengal Census Publications.

TABLE SCT-III PART A(ii)

EDUCATION IN URBAN AREAS ONLY FOR SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE gives the distribution of the Scheduled Tribes population of the State, divisions and districts by sex, literacy and levels of education, for the urban area only. Data are given for the Scheduled Tribes population as a group as well as for the individual Scheduled Tribes. The educational levels adopted are :

(i) Illiterate,
(ii) Literate (without educational level),
(iii) Primary or Junior Basic,
(iv) Matriculation or Higher Secondary,
(v) Technical diploma not equal to degree,
(vi) Non-technical diploma not equal to degree,
(vii) University degree or post-graduate degree other than technical degree,
(viii) Technical degree or diploma equal to degree or post-graduate degree.

The test of literacy was ability to read and write a simple letter with understanding. Data for the rural areas will be found in Table SCT-III Part B(ii).

TABLE SCT-IV PART B

RELIGION FOR SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE classifies the total Scheduled Tribes population and the population of each Scheduled Tribe by religion professed by the members of the Tribe(s). Figures are presented for rural and urban areas separately down to the district level.

For the Scheduled Tribes population returns for religion have been received in West Bengal under the following heads :

1 Buddhist
2 Chandobonga
3 Christian
4 Hindu
5 Jain
6 Marangburu
7 Muslim
8 Paharia
9 Santal
10 Saridharma
11 Sikh
12 Tirkia

Figures under all these heads have been shown separately and the columns for 'indefinite beliefs' and 'religion not stated' as per the all-India Tabulation Plan have been deleted as there are no entries under them.

TABLE SCT-V PART B

SAMPLE HOUSEHOLDS ENGAGED IN CULTIVATION CLASSIFIED BY INTEREST IN LAND AND SIZE OF LAND CULTIVATED IN RURAL AREAS ONLY FOR MEMBERS OF SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE has been prepared on the basis of the data collected in Household Schedules canvassed in the 1961 Census and has been compiled for a 20 per cent sample drawn from total households. It shows the distribution of sample households among the Scheduled Tribes engaged in cultivation, classified by size of land and interest in land cultivated. The table is similar to the Household Economic Table B-XI for general population presented in Part III of the West Bengal Census Report.

When the head of a household himself and/or any of the members of the household is engaged, even as a secondary work, in cultivation of land the household is said to be a cultivating household. The distribution by size groups shown in this table is of the cultivating or operational holdings and not of the ownership holdings.

Material is presented for the State, its administrative divisions and districts for the rural areas only. The presentation is for all Scheduled Tribes as a group and not for each Scheduled Tribe individually.

TABLE ST-I

MOTHER TONGUE AND BILINGUALISM FOR SCHEDULED TRIBES

THIS TABLE shows, first, the distribution of the members of each Scheduled Tribe by mother tongue and, again, the classification of the speakers of each mother tongue by subsidiary language. Mother tongue is language spoken in childhood by the person's mother to the person or mainly spoken in the household. Subsidiary language is the other language, besides the mother tongue, which the person speaks and understands best and can use with felicity in communicating with others. Although two subsidiary languages could be recorded in the Enumeration Schedule, at the sorting stage only the first language recorded was taken into account.

Figures are given separately for each sex, down to district level.
