Nawab Azimjah Sir Ghulam
Muhammad Ali Khan Bahadur,
G.C.I.E., Prince of Arcot.

The Prince of Arcot traces his descent from Hazarath Caliph Omer, the second successor of the Holy Prophet (God's blessings and Peace be upon Him) being the 35th in lineal descent. He is the direct descendant of the Sovereign Ruler of the House of Carnatic who was intimately associated with the early foundation of the British Empire in India and whose family traces its origin from the kings of Persia and Afghanistan. Some of his ancestors after their advent to India occupied high positions of trust in the Courts of the Moghul Emperors Shah Jahan and Aurangzeb. Nawab Anwaruddin Khan Bahadur the ancestor of the Prince was called the Eminent Saltanat (the right handman) of Nizamul-mulk, the founder of the present Hyderabad State. Anwaruddin Khan was appointed by the Nizam as the Viceroy of the Carnatic on 28-3-1744 and subsequently became independent ruler of the Carnatic like the Nizam of Hyderabad, under the Moghul Emperor's Ferman in 1750. His son His Highness Nawab Muhammad Ali Khan Bahadur, Walahaj, was recognised as the Independent Ruler of the Carnatic by the treaty of Paris between England and France in 1763. He was the recipient of several letters of high appreciation and regard from Their Majesties King George III and his successors. He was twice called, upon by the King of England to perform the function of investing Sir John Lindsay and Sir Hector Munro (The King's Plenipotentiaries at the Court of Nawab Walajah) with the insignia of the order of the Bath which he did in his Chhapauk Palace. He was always being regarded as the most faithful ally of the British. The then Raja of Tanjore, Travancore, and Pudukottah were all his vassals and almost all the Zamindars of this Presidency owe their present position to the generosity of the Nawab and still bear titles conferred by him. The Prince of Arcot was born on 26-2-1882 in Madras. He received his early secular and religious education at home and later learnt English under Mr. C. Morrisno,

He enjoys the privilege of annual exchange of official visits with the Governor of Madras. He is exempt from attending the Civil Courts. He possesses guns to fire Salutes on important occasions such as the Prophet's Birth Day, I'd Ramzan, I'd Bakrid, His own Birthday, as also on occasions of formal visits from the Governors of Madras and Ruling Chiefs. He is allowed to have an escort of Troopers and maintain an Infantry guard.

The full titles of the present Prince are:—Nawab-Azim Jah, Umdathul Umra, Ameerul-Umra, Sirajul-Umra, Madaul-Mulk, Umdatul-Mulk, Azemmed-Dowlah, Asadud-Dowlath-ul Ingliz, Sir Ghulam Muhammad Ali Khan Bahadur, G.C.I.E. Zulfakbar Jung, Sipah Salor, Amir-i-Arcot.

He loves high class music and Poetry. His broad munificence and philanthropy are not confined to any particular class or creed. He is unostentatious in his ways and possesses a most genial disposition. He maintains his religious convictions without bigotry and without intolerance. He is a Prince whose heart always beats on the side of Order and Loyalty. His quite unobtrusive and conscientious labours in the service of the King and Country, will always be remembered by Muhammadans and Hindus alike with great respect and approbation.

He travelled all over India on many occasions. All of his three brothers got the title of "Khan Bahadur" in 1897 when they were young. His Dewan and Private Secretary got the title of "Khan Sahib" and also his agent (Sadurmal Maham) got the title of Shansul Ulama as such. ## Preface

Some books are to be tasted
Others are to be swallowed and some few to be chewed and digested.

Having the above as the criterion to work with, this book entitled "The Madras City and Civic Guide" is a humble offering at the altar of the intellectual public. Since there be some who may not be conversant with the minutes of the Civic administration of the city and yet desirous to know something about what the Corporation stands for, her contribution to Society, her justification of the Rupees annas and pies which she collects in a business-like way, by way of Property Tax, Vehicle Tax, Entertainment Tax, Profession Tax and Sundry other means of Revenue, I am venturing to give such select information to the best of my ability that would solve the problem in a way.

In addition, in view of the fact that Madras, the seat of historical repute is gaining importance every day as a noted City among Cities, intellectually, morally, spiritually and socially advanced, it is but a matter of every day occurrence that travellers from the North, sight-seers from the South, Voyagers from the East and Westerners from the West, should come to this City time after time to see and study for themselves the Madras they have heard by reputation. To such enthusiasts, I believe, this guide will be a ready guide to guide them properly through every inch of space that is to be covered by them making their visit as pleasant as possible.

A first hand information of Madras with its geographical features, its high spots of enlightenment, its charitable institutions, its memorable monuments and buildings and sundry other useful details will not only prepare the stranger and insure him against running the least risk during the whole period of his sojourn, but it will also be an additional fillip to his imagination, a treasure deposited in his iron safe of knowledge which he can never lose as long as he has "The Madras City and Civic Guide" within sight. I have profusely illustrated this volume with picturesque sites of Madras to respond to the artistic fancy of the readers, pricing it as cheap as I am enabled to do.

It is quite possible that my humbleself with my limited knowledge, might have given room to a few errors of commission and omission, and would willingly therefore invite amendments and suggestions, which I shall carry into effect in the second edition. I trust I have done my best and hope that the sympathetic public will liberally welcome this attempt and extend that Co-operation that will encourage me to bring out other useful publications at an early date.

AUTHOR.

The author, an employee in the Revenue Department of the Madras Corporation, desires to express his heart-felt and sincere feelings of gratitude to. D. D. WARREN ESQ, I. C. ## The Madras City & Civic Guide

CHAPTER I

THE City of Madras was originally a fisherman settlement at the mouth of the River Cooum. We now see the city with beautiful gardens, delightful parks, magnificent buildings and broad roads. It was originally known as Madraspatam.

At San Thome, south of this city, the Portuguese had established a trading settlement. The Right Honourable East India Company who wished to extend their trade in the East Indies had a factory then at Masulipatam. But it was not found to be a convenient place. The English merchants at Masulipatam wanted to select a new place favourable to their trade. Sir Francis Day was deputed to select one. He landed at Madraspatam. The Silvery Cooum appeared to him very beautiful in its floods. He decided to find a settlement near it. The Portuguese merchants and Poonamallee Naick, Chieftain who had control over Madraspatam, assured him of their help.

On the 1st March 1639 Sir Francis was able to obtain possession of a piece of land round the fishermen settlement from the Raja of Chandragiri and also got permission to build a fort. The small fort built by him was called the Fort Saint George. At the request of Venkatadri, the Naik Chieftain, the small town that grew up to the north of it was called Chennappapatnam, after the name of his father Chennappa. Hence it has come to be known as Chennapatnam. There were then certain villages around this town (viz) the present Triplicane, Tondiarpet, Purasawalkam, Vepery, Perambur and Egmore. These were added to it from time to time. After the decline of the Portuguese power in India, San Thome and Mylapore were also obtained from the Nawab of Carnatic. These group of villages gradually grew up into a town, the present city of Madras on account of the extensive trade of the Right Honourable East India Company. The city now extends as far as Mambalam area.

The climate of Madras is very salubrious on account of its close proximity to the sea. The most attractive element, which makes a man's life worth living in the city is the Madras Beach with its extensive and picturesque shore. It is considered to be the second best in the world.

CHAPTER II

There are two kinds of Railways in the City :—

1. The Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway popularly known as பெரிய ரெயில் and,
2. The South Indian Railway, popularly known as the Carnatic Railway.

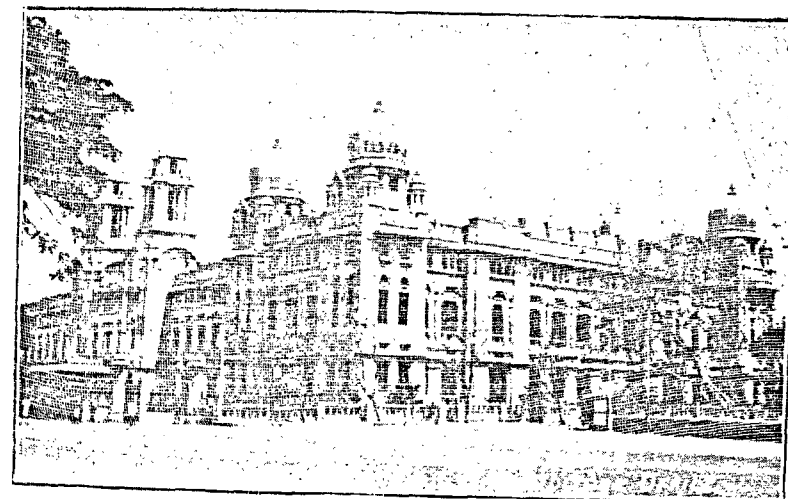

Persons coming to Madras from the north, north-east, north-west and south-west of India should arrive at the Madras Central Station, the southern terminus of the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway.

As the name itself signifies, this is beautifully and majestically situated in the heart of the city. It has got 5 broad and long platforms covered over with corrugated zinc roof fitted with electric lights and fans. Especially during evenings after the lighting time, these buildings present a beautiful spectacle.

It is generally during nights (i.e.) from 6 P.M. to 9-30 P.M. all mails and passenger trains leave the Madras Central Station and during mornings all mails and express trains arrive here.

Central Station, Madras.

M. & S. M. Ry. Audit Offices, Madras.

A new comer arriving at the Central Station Buildings, will really be puzzled at the multifarious roads leading to different places of the city and the magnificent buildings etc., and the various means of conveyances plying within the city.

The other Railway in the city is the South Indian Railway which starts from the Beach Railway Station passing through Fort, Park and Egmore Stations and goes south as far as Danushkoti. The S. I. Ry. Company now runs Electric Trains between Beach and Tambaram for the benefit of persons employed in the city, but residing outside its limits with a view to be free from the congestion of town life.

Stations within the City.

The Beach Station.—(S. I. R.).—This station is situated opposite to the Imperial and National Banks, General Post Office and near the Sea-Customs and Collector's Office and the important Companies in North Beach Road.

The Fort Station.—This is opposite to the Fort Saint George.

(3) Park Station.—This is near the General Hospital, Corporation Buildings, M. S. M. Ry. Station and The M. & S. M. Railway Audit Offices.

Vagaries of the Railway Porters at the Platform.

As soon as the mails and passenger trains steam into the platforms, the licensed porters who have their respective numbers in the brass badges worn by them, get into the different compartments, lay their hands on the luggage voluntarily as if they are very familiar with the passengers and begin to unload the luggage into the platform. They will not bargain with the passengers until the last luggage is removed from the carriage. Then they will begin to bargain by demanding 8 or 9 times the usual wages to carry the luggage either to the jutka or bus stand. Refusal to pay as demanded will near the High Court Buildings. Then the Road takes a turn to the north and goes by the name of North Beach Road and the road leading to the south is called the South Beach Road.

All the important and public roads are metalled and tarred with the exception of a few gullies.

Various Places in the City worth visiting :

1. The Madras High Court Buildings are situated near the Parry's Corner opposite to Christian College Buildings. They are a chain of lofty and beautiful buildings, wherein is located the rotating Light House, accessible from the ground level by a flight of winding staircase. This is the seat of the Judges of the High Court, and the Judge of the City Civil Court. Adjacent to the High Court Buildings and lying a little to the south of it is the Small Cause Court Building which is the seat of the Judges of the Court of Small Causes.

2. The Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Audit Offices lie opposite to the General Hospital and next to the Central Station Buildings by the side of Wall Tax Road. These are the strongest buildings constructed at a cost of nearly 40 lakhs of rupees.

3. The Moore Market Buildings will be busy and worth-seeing especially in the evenings where all kinds of things are available at moderate prices. This is maintained by the Madras Corporation.

4. The Menagerie.

Behind No. 3, there is the South Indian Athletic Association Buildings and grounds where the annual Park Fair and Exhibitions are held. Behind this building there is the zoo known in Tamil as adai an Gey where a collection of all living animals (wild beasts and domestic animals) are kept for exhibition. An admission fee of one anna per head is collected.

5. The Madras Museum.

This is situated in Pantheon Road, Egmore. Here large collections of all dead animals are kept besides all sorts of articles of historic importance usually kept in Museum. This is known as Chitrapathi.

Besides these there are two important and popular libraries, one Connemara Library and the other Oriental Manuscript Library attached to the museum opened for the public for free reading.

The Victoria Technical Institute adjacent to the museum is situated in the same compound. This is famous for its artistic beauty.

6. The Marine Aquarium is situated in the South Beach Road opposite to the Presidency College buildings. Here are kept for exhibition and for zoological study various and most beautiful coloured fishes and water animals in large glass cases full of water. Oxygen gas is prepared and let in in these cases for their respiration.

A small admission fee of one anna per head is generally collected from 7 A.M. till 6 P.M. and from 6 P.M. to 7 P.M., an admission fee of 4 annas per head is charged. On all Fridays admission is reserved for Gosha ladies.

7. The Buckingham and Carnatic Mills:—These are situated in an extensive plain at Perambur.

8. The Madras Harbour:—Especially at the time of the arrival of a Man of War or a big mail steamer, it is worth seeing. Generally these steamers stop away at a distance from the pier. These have then to be reached by small boats on payment of a few annas per head. Nothing need be paid for admission into the steamers. Admission into the Harbour requires a pass from the Port Officer.

9. The Theosophical Society, Adyar:—

The Headquarters of the Society is situated in the south east of Madras almost on the banks of the sea shore.

result in the use of bad and undesirable language. To avoid all these, the passengers will do well first to fix a reasonable cooly and then allow him to carry the luggage.

If the passengers have little or no luggage it is better they walk a few yards from the station either to the bus or jutka stand. In the case of Tram cars and motor buses, there are fixed schedule rates for conveyance to different places. But in the case of Jutka and Bullock-cart-wallas, though they have also got fixed schedule rates, they are another set of combatants to be ranked with the class of porters. When these people come across new faces other than Madrassese, they will first accept certain rates, so that they may not slip off their hands and after reaching the destination, not by a direct route, but by a round about way, fight in the streets for additional charge attracting large crowds of people. Strangers must be careful to deal with these sets of people.

Means of Conveyances Plying within the City

1. Taxi Cars
2. Motor Buses
3. Electric Tram-ways
4. Jutkas
5. Bullock carts
6. Jinrikshaws (drawn by persons).

The maximum rate for the maximum distance to travel in a Tram car is not more than 10 coppers. The Tram-car Company charges only 2 coppers from one station to another. For the convenience of the passengers, the Company also issues 4 kinds of monthly season tickets at the rates of Rs. 3, Rs. 3-8, Rs. 5 and Rs. 7 respectively. The Rs. 3 & Rs. 3-8-0 season tickets enable a passenger to travel only by one particular section and are not transferable. The Rs 5 season ticket enables the passenger to travel by all sections of the tram but is not transferable. The Rs. 7 season ticket is both transferable and available by all sections. The misuse of the above season tickets will entail their forfeiture even before the expiry of the term. Besides the above, the Company issues on all Government Holidays other than Sundays, a three annas ticket which enables a passenger to travel from morning till the close of the day, on all sections of the tram (i.e.) one can then see the whole of Madras at a cost of only three annas.

Names of Important Roads and where they lead to.

The broad and busy road opposite to the Central Station Buildings is called the General Hospital Road running from east to west. After crossing the bridge nearby it goes by the name of Poonamallee Road as it straightway leads to Poonamallee Cantonment. At the same point a road branches off to the south and goes by the name of the Penitentiary Road as the Penitentiary is situated in this road till it crosses another bridge called the Penitentiary Bridge and takes a curve by the side of the Island Ground. This part of the road is called the Body Guards Road and at last joins the main road. After crossing the Willingdon Bridge—named after the then Governor of Madras—it goes by the name of Mount Road which is the Grand Trunk Road leading to Tuticorin to the south. This is the longest and broadest metalled road of the city.

Next in importance comes the Beach Road, which is free from all the bustle of the town. No trams run here, and no buses ply here except pleasure cars, taxis, rickshaws, motor cycles and pedestrians. Now the other part of the road opposite to the Central Station leading towards the east goes by different names such as the General Hospital Road, Memorial Hall Road, Frasers Bridge Road, Evening Bazaar Road Rattan Bazaar Road and joins China Bazaar Road at the Pachiappa's College which goes east as far as Parry's Corner

These are a cluster of buildings where the Theosophical Society founded by Madame Blavatsky and Col. Olcott, has been in existence since several years past and they form the abode of some of the Theosophists of either sex. In the Central Hall, there is a very big library accessible to every one visiting Adyar. There is a very big banyan tree within the premises with its branches so beautifully touching the ground in a circular form affording shelter to thousands of people. Especially during the summer season, it will be a delightful sanatorium worth visiting. It is situated outside the municipal limit just a few yards after crossing the Adyar River. Dr. Annie Besant is the moving spirit of this institution.

10. The Horticultural Gardens located at Teynampet is the premier Botanical Gardens in Southern India. The Annual Flower Show is held here.

2. Places of Pilgrimage near Madras.

Thiruvattiyur.—This is a railway station situated on the M. & S. M. line (Madras-Waltair-Section). This is a Sivasthalam with the temple of Thyagarajaswamy. The temple is big with a fine Gopuram with artistic beauty ornamented by a tank and adorned by adjoining choultries. The Brahmotsavam ceremony takes place twice a year one for Thyagar and the other for Vattabali.

A very important annual festival takes place here named Molugadi Servai. The festival lasts for about 15 or 20 days. Besides these on all Fridays especially on Fridays in the month of Adi and Krithikai thousands of people resort to the place. This place attracts record crowd on Molugadi Servai day, when a half holiday is allowed in certain public offices in the city of Madras. During marriage season, many Hindu marriages take place in the various choultries here.

This place is accessible by Bus from Madras from the Washermanpet Tram Terminus at a cost of 2 As. per head:—

Thiruvamoor:—This is situated to the South East of Madras, a few miles from Adyar. This is also a Sivasthalam famous for "Thiruvamoor Natanam" which attracts very many crowds of people on occasions like the above.

B.B.B.—A mighty Indian Production.

Triplicane.—Is a compact division of Madras situated almost very near the sea-side. This is mostly occupied by the middle-class people. This place has taken its derivation after the name of a sacred tank here full of Alli (Lily) flowers and it is this tank that has given importance to Triplicane and is the birth place of Sri Vedavalli Thayar, the wife of God Sri Ranganathar.

There is also the famous Hindu Vishnu Temple of Sri Parthasarathy Swami as well as the temple of Narasimhaswami, the former facing east and the latter west, facing the important street known as the Thulasisingaperumal Covil Street. The name Sri Parthasarathy (Lord Krishna) was given when Lord Krishna acted as charioteer to Partha (Arjuna) on the battle field of Kurukshetra. The arrow marks on the face of the idol of Sri Parthasarathy is too visible and carries a greater amount of conviction with it. Every year during the three months of April, May and June, Brahmotsavam festivals takes place for these two deities each lasting for 10 days attracting large crowds of people.

There will be record crowd of pilgrims to this temple not only from the various parts of the Madras City, but even from mofussil, on the Vaikunta Ekadasi day which generally falls during Xmas holidays. The crowd will be equally great on all Saturdays in the month of Parattasi, gradually increasing on every Saturday commencing from the 1st Saturday of the month.

The Triplicane floating festival, which is always celebrated in the month of Palgunam and which lasts for 4 days starting from the Newmoon day falling in that month, also attracts many pilgrims. This float is typical and a real treat to the eye and heart especially for the fact that it is well decorated and choicely illuminated with electric installations, the manda-pam in the centre of the Tank not escaping similar attention. There are also the Sannadhis of:—

- (1) Sri Ranganathaswami
- (2) Sri Kothandaramaswami
- (3) Sri Varadarajaswami located at the said temple.

Mannathar's Glory.

Triplicane, otherwise known as Brindaranya is one of the 108 places of worship. This is situated east of Tirunir Hills and South of Mylapore adjoining the sea. The place is all the more sanctified by the presence of a tank Kaira-vani, and those who bathe in this tank are said to attain salvation. In this sacred place the seven great sages of yore were doing Tapasya. So great was their penance that Goddess Lakshmi herself took pity on them left her celestial seat in Vishnu's heart and descended to earth and lay in the guise of a young girl under the sandal tree. Sage Bruhu came upon this beauty incarnate and adopted her as his daughter. Some time later Sriman Narayan himself came down in the garb of a Rajput prince married the young girl in the month of Masi and upon the request of Bruhu (who by then recognised his potentialities) to give him an opportunity of worshipping him always in Brindavan; our Lord has been appearing as Mannathar with Vedavalli Thayar to appease hundreds of souls. As the said marriage was celebrated on a Suklapaksha Dwadasi, persons worshipping especially on this day are said to attain Mukthi.

The Grandeur of Narasingar

Hearing through Vasishta and Siddhas at Maha Meru of the austerities of Attri and the imminent appearance of God

B.B.B.—A truthful and timely helper

Narasimha, Vikatamaharishi-the son of Dharuna-and the grandson of Kapila, joined Attri in time. After days of prayers and fasts God Narasimha in all his pristine glory and omniscient omnipotency appeared on the horizon amidst the sounding of conches and showering of flowers by the Devas. When Attri was called upon to have a boon he requested the God of Gods Sri Narasimha to give permanent bliss by ever being within his sight—in other words to make him and the other humble devotees one with Him. And God 'the devotee of the devotees' answered their call by making a permanent residence of the sun-kissed Brindhavan.

The Glory of Chakravarthi Thirumagan

At a time when Ramamurthi-the God incarnate was about to transform himself into his Original self, after ridding the world of the sinful Ravana and his host of demons, Sage Sasapathar was doing peerless penance at the Mount of Pandara in the Pandya country. His 'Thyana' attained such austere proportions that the Devas including Indra fearing to be eclipsed by the strength of the devotion of a mortal being sent an Apsara girl by name Hela to play "the Eve". The Apsara girl did indeed succeed and their love culminated in marriage and "a blessed ovent", which latter they left in a cave to be nurtured by the music of the birds and the roar of the lions. The child, thus left to the mercy of the winds, began to cry of hunger and thirst. Dharmic Ramabiran took pity on the helpless orphan and made a drop of honey fall into its mouth. Hence the appeased child got its name of 'Mathuman' and began to "go to Him that came to him". He also learnt through Karkiya Maharishi that the latter was on his way to inform Agasthya of God Sri Rama's transformation after the cessation of his mission on earth. This all the more enervated the young child to increase his love for Rama and see Him 'face to face'.

B.B.B.—A divine healer

The Lord himself appeared in his dream in the guise of Karkiya and asked him to resort to Brindhavan and continue his prayers. Madhuman thereupon went to Brindhavan and succeeded in his efforts in seeing the Great one of the Ramayana with Sita, Lakshmana, Bharata Satrugna, Hanuman, and requested Him to leave His image there so that he might open the "fountain of his heart" to the same. God was much pleased and granted him this boon. To this day we are tasting a drop of honey from the cup of Madhuman's undying devotion.

The Greatness of Parthasarathy

There once was a king in Thundesra named Sumati. He was very brave and apart from being famous for his "balanced justice," he was an humble devotee of God Sree Venkatesa Perumal. Prostrating before the latter he begged the God of the Seven Hills to appear before him as he appeared when he was charioteer to Partha on the field of Kuruchetra. His supreme Goodness, asked him to go to Brindhavan when he would be pleased to satisfy his craving. In the meanwhile sage Veda Vyasa advised his disciple Atreya to shift to Brindhavan—the garden of mysterious mistletoes and perform his "japams" to the image of the charioteering Krishna and as an aid he himself cast an image of Krishna and sent it along with him, doing the preliminary purifications. True to his guru's words Atreya came to Brindhavan explained his purpose to Sumati and both of them began to pray together. Not only did Krishna appear before and give them salvation but he also left his image to be worshipped by millions of people.

Brindhavan was also the hermitage of sage Saptharoma who by his penance brought Varadarajaperumal on Garuda Bird to this place to be worshipped by all of us.

The Sacredness of the Kairavani Tank.

On the banks of the river Gomathi, Muthkala set up his ashram. Once when the great sages Gautama, Gohilar, Kathakar, Vimalar and Vithu paid a visit to him, they informed him that they were on their way to Brindharanya. Muthkala joined their party and reached the memorable Kairavani tank in Brindharanya and began to offer devotion. One day when he went to bathe in the tank sage Muthkala saw a shining silvery fish playing about the water with multitudes of small fish. The sage requested the fish to vacate the tank and not be an hindrance by its presence, to his penance. The fish cleared out. That is why to this day fish is not to be seen anywhere in the tank. This tank is the centre of five great thirthams (tanks) Indirathirtha on the North-east; Somathirtha on the south; Mina thirtha on the south-west; Agni thirtha on the North west and Vishnuthirtha on the North.

It is said that even Visrawas who spoiled the penance of Dhurvasa (by casting his shadow fall on the sage) and got cursed thereby—spent some time in Brindaranya.

The Kairavani is capable of casting away all sins by its sacred waters. People desiring all things can fulfill their cravings by a 'dip' into this tank. More about the importance of this tank appears in sthalamahatmyan.

Mylapore.—This is almost the southern divison of the city of Madras. This is very large in area, but less in density of population when compared with Triplicane. This is inhabited both by the middle as well as the rich classes including leading advocates of the High Court, living in spacious and well constructed bungalows with big compounds beautiful gardens and out-houses. Generally bungalows and gardens of the above type are so numerous in Mylapore that only the rich classes of people can afford to live in them. It is nearly 5 or 6 miles distant from the High Court Buildings and other Public offices of the city. This place is famous for the great Temple of Sri Kabaleeswarar with a very big Teppa Tank with a Mandapam in the middle, the tank covering an area of nearly 15 or 20 acres of land. The four streets around this temple are very long and broad and well lit with electric lights with big white domes burning throughout the night and presenting during nights, a cool and charming spectacle.

Here also, the Brahmotsavam festival of Sri Kabaleeswarar takes place ~~once a~~ year in the month of March lasting for nearly 20 days, chief of them are Adikara Nandi and the Aruvathumostavar festivals which attract innumerable crowd, all offices in the city being given a half holiday for the same. The floating festival of Sri Kabaleeswarar takes place in no less grandeur than the Triplicane festival and exactly after the same model but with bigger float and greater decorations, the Vimanam in the centre of the float being a gift costing many thousands.

There are also two Vishnu temples. Sri Kesava Perumal Temple and Madhava Perumal Temple. The annual Brahmotsavam at these two temples are celebrated on a grand scale. Mylapore is also the birth place of Peyalwar one of the famous first three Alvars.

Sri Kandasami Temple.—Is situated in the middle of Rasappa Chetty Street and Nainiappa Naik Street, Park Town. As the name itself signifies, this is famous for the deity Lord Subramanya, who is held in great reverence by all sects of Hindus. The annual festival for this deity is celebrated on a very grand scale, lasting for nearly 21 days. This takes place during the month of January. The festival attracts very large crowds of people especially on the Kailasapartham and the Glass Palanquin days.

Equally enthusiastic will the crowd be on the Masimakam festival at the Madras Beach, when the deity is taken in procession to the beach adorned with very costly jewels.

History of Kandaswami Temple

History of Sri Kandaswamy Temple situated in the heart of the city of Madras a few furlongs from the North West of Fort St. George.

In the Year 1672.—When the Muslims and the Maharattas were ruling over the City of Madras, a man by name Vellore Marri Chettiar belonging to the Vaisya Berri Chetty community was living with his wife. They were very devoted to God Subramanya, and so they have made it their custom to visit Thiruporur, near Chingleput, on every Krithikai day. Marri Chettiar had a friend by name Kanthappachary. One day those two friends went by walk to Thiruporur. On their way they took rest under a tree by the side of a hole where the image of God Subramanya was hidden by the inhabitants of the place fearing the Maharatta Invasion. They being quite tired were soon in a sound sleep.

God Subramanaya in the shape of a serpent came out from the hole, played on Marry Chettiar's chest and asked him to remove Him at once to Madras. He also asked the Chettiar to build a temple and place Him therein. After saying so he vanished from his sight.

At once those two gentlemen woke up and went to the place where God Subramanya was hidden and to their surprise they saw there the Almighty. They took Him up and praised Him with their eyes full of tears. They started with the idol to Madras and after resting at Thiruvamur came to Mylapore, after bath in the tank they rested under a tree. As they came all the way by walking they were soon asleep. The Almighty, considering the delay they were making appeared in their dream as a Brahmin and woke them up by beating them with a gold cane, gave them the "Sacred Ash" (vibuthi) and blessed them. They got up at once and brought Him to Madras and placed Him in the Temple of "Sarva Sakthi Vinayagar," which is now on the Bank of the Tank. Marri Chettiar afterwards built a Temple and thus fulfilled His desire. Marri Chettiar nominated eighteen merchants belonging to his own community as Trustees. A few days after the completion of his mission his devoted wife died and he at once took to meditation and became a Sanyasi. Later he received the idol of Muthukumaraswamy from the Brahmins who came from the southern side of Madras. He also arranged to do "Oothsavam on Panja Parva days" A few days later he passed away from the world leaving behind him eighteen men belonging to his community in charge of the temple. They in order to perform "Brohmaothsavam" made an "Oothsavamurthi". When the artist tried to alter the shape of the 'Murthi' fire came forth from the eyes and made him do nothing. This made them recognise the power of the God they were worshipping. For two years every artist feared to touch that Vighram. But afterwards a 'Vipra' by name Sambayar hearing that and with the intention of altering the Vighram came to Madras. After clearly studying all parts of the 'Vighram' explained to the Public that whoever worshipped the Almighty would be purified and would be successful in all their attempts. He was then successful in altering the shape of the 'Vighram'.

From that time onwards 18 cloth and other Merchants arranged to do "Brahmaothsavam" in the month of 'Thai' for eighteen days.

In addition to the Brahmaothsavam they have arranged to do 'Oothsavam' every month. The details as follows:—

- (1) Chitrai:—‘Theppothsavam’ for 5 days,
- (2) Vaikasi:—‘Vasanta Bangala Oothsavam’ for 19 days.
- (3) Ani:—‘Kodhikala Mathai Oothsavam, (The Summer Terrace Festival)’ for 7 days (Which was arranged only from last year).
- (4) Adi:—‘Adipura Oothsavam’ for Meenakshi Amman for 11 days.
- (5) Avani:—‘Pavuthrothsavam’
- (6) Purattasi:—‘Navarathri Oothsavam’ for 9 days.
- (7) Arpasi:—‘Skanda Shashti Sura Samhara Oothsavam’ for 7 days with Laksha Archana.
- (8) Karthikai:—Every Monday, Oothsavam for Chokkanathar and also for God Subramanya on Karthikai Krithikai day. And Vana Bojana Oothsavam at Tondiarpet.
- (9) Margashi:—Oothsavam for Vinayagar and Manikavasar for 11 days,
- (10) Thai:—‘Brothmothsavam’ for ‘Subramanya for 18 days’
- (11) Masi:—Sivarathri Oothsavam. Oothsavam for ‘Subramanya on sea festival day i. e. Masi Maham’.
- (12) and in the month of Panguni they also arranged.

(For Chokkanathar)

to do Oothsavam for 11 days from ‘Oothara Nakshatra day.’ In the end Oothsavam for ‘Kantha Kotta Skandar’ Thavana Oothsavam for three days.

N. B.:—The famous festivals of the Sree Kandaswamy Temple were often attended and patronised by the Maharajas, H. E. The Governors, Judges, High Officials, other High Monks, Sanyasis, Saints also millions of devotees worship every function and get their desires and thoughts fulfilled

127, Big Street, TRIPLICANE.

Important places of pilgrimage a few miles from Madras both in the M. & S. M. and S. I. R. lines :—Some of these places are accessible by Motor Buses :—

1. The Seshadri Hills (known as Tirupati) (Katpadi—Gudur Section on M. & S. M. Railway). This can be reached from Madras by the M. & S. M. Railway as far as Renigunta and from thence by the metre gauge on the line to Katpadi :—

Thousands of pilgrims from all parts of India travel to this place in and out of season to perform their vows to the deity Lord Sri Venkateswara Perumal. This holy place is regarded as the Kaliyuga Vaikuntam.

Tirupati is about 90 miles north-west of Madras. The town at the foot of the hill is known as Lower Tirupati and the temple on the hills as Upper Tirupati. The mountain has 7 principal peaks. The peaks originally formed part of Mount Meru and are the outcome of a dispute between Adishesha who tried to lift one of the peaks of Meru and Vayu blowing it into the present form.

Now for the benefit of the pilgrims, the mountains are illuminated on either side with Electric lights.

The seat of the deity on the hills is 7 miles distant from the foot and hence the deity is called Elumalayan. In the shrine lighted by lamps is the idol, astounding representation of Vishnu in stone, 7 feet in height. The income of the temple through offerings of vows, is considerable, and the Government control the purse under the Religious Endowment Act. A mile north of the town of Tirupati, there is "Kapila Theertham" important among 31 thirthams where all pilgrims bathe before ascending the mountains. On the up hills, there are also many water falls, chief of them being Papanasam, Akasa Gangai and Pandavatheertham. Just 3 miles from Tirupati, there is another place of pilgrimage

Avoid imitations and see the label B.B.B.

This place is really worth seeing by all pilgrims. During the annual festivals of the two distics in April and May thousands of pilgrims swarm around this place.

Next and equally important is Sri Ekambareeswarar Temple in Big Conjeevaram. The annual festival here is conducted in no less a granduer than in the Vishnu Temple and attracts thousands of pilgrims, mostly Saivites.

The huge Saiva temple at Great Conjeevaram has some lofty gopuras, large mandapas and 1000 pillars hall and some fine tanks with flights of stone steps. The largest Gopura is 188 ft. high.

The Vishnu temple at Little Conjeevaram has a very-remarkable hall of 96 pillars, carved at the basis into horse-men and fabulous animals. The flight of the Garuda bird overhead when the idol of the temple starts in procession in Garudavahan at the annual festival is a singular phenomenon attaching not a little sanctity to the power of Sri Varadarajaswamy and attracting multitudinous crowds on such occasions.

There are besides these two temples, the following:—

1. The Kanchi Kamatchi Amman Temple.
2. The Kacheeswarar Temple.
3. The Pandava Perumal Temple.
4. The Pavala Vennar.
5. The Pachai Vennar.
6. The Vaikunta Perumal Covil.
7. The Ulagalantha Perumal Temple, the God who measured the whole world.
8. The Ashtabujan Temple.
9. The Yadothikari Temple, and other minor temples too numerous to mention.

Thirukkalikunram.—Pakshitheertham. This is 9 miles from Chinglepet Junction on the S. I. R. line. This is accessible by Bus from Chingleput at a cost of 4 As. per head.

Buy a bottle and keep it always.

The name itself signifies that there is a mountain. No pilgrim who visits Conjeevaram fails to visit this as well as Mahabalipuram or Seven Pagodas, 9 miles distant from the place.

The peculiarity of this place is world known. This is otherwise known as the Kalikunram. The mountain has to be reached by a flight of over 300 steps. From time immemorial, two big Birds daily visit the temple on the mountain everyday (one is said to come from Benares and the other from Rameswaram) from opposite directions, between the fixed hours of 12 and 2 p.m. when prasadam are offered to them by the pandaram.

The birds partake the prasadam in the presence of a very large crowd gathering there from the hand of the pandaram. There is a big tank at the foot of the mountain known as Shankutheertham. The peculiarity of this tank is that once in every 12 years "Shanku" is produced from the Tank. It is also said that people suffering from chronic diseases, are cured by nature, by merely residing around the mountain, since the mountain bed is said to contain some sanjeevi, mulikas. There are many coulties in this place for halting.

Mahabalipuram.—or the Seven Pagodas. It is already said that this place is about 9 miles distant from Kalikunram accessible only by way of bullock carts available there. This is a place of sight seeing as well as a place of pilgrimage. This is a sea port village where there is also a Light House for the guidance of the steamers.

This is the city of seven pagodas each being carved out of a single stone and architectural work-manship is simply excellent and excellently superb. Here during eclipse and masinakam days thousands of people resort to bathe in that part of the sea.

known as "Alamelumangapuram" or Thiruchanur:—This is the seat of Goddess "Alamelumanga Thayar" the wife of "Lord Srinivasar." The significance of this place is that there are many choultries around the four sides of the tank where a good number of Hindu marriages are celebrated during marriage seasons.

Free choultries for Brahmians and Vysyas.

- (1) "Krishna & Co." Choultry. No. 4 New Street, Tirupati.
- (2) "Sree Seetha Rama Villas." Choultry north main street (Tirumali) or Upper Tirupati. Owner K. Sreeramulu Chetty. These Choultries founded by Messrs. Krishna & Co. Madras. Pilgrims can secure accomodation free of rent by previous applications to the owner of the agent (M.R.Ry. Annathanam Seshachariar 55 new street Tirupati); a stay beyond 3 days is inadmissible.

2. On the same line, a few stations off, there is the Sivasthalam, Kalahastri. This place is mostly visited by Saivites, especially on Kirthigai and Sivaratri days.

3. Trivellore.—This is also on the M. & S. M. line a few miles from Madras. The town is situated at a distance of 2 to 3 miles from the Railway Station and is accessible by buses and juktas. This is the seat of Sri "Veera Raghavaswami."

This place is also visited by a large number of pilgrims of all castes especially on New-moon days.

4. Sriperambudur.—There is no Railway communication to this place from Madras and is accessible by Bus at a cost of Re. 1 per head or by Jutka from Trivellore Railway Station. This is the seat of "Embernmanar" and is the Avathara Sthalam of Sri Ramanuja the founder of the Vasishtadwitha system of Philosophy.

5. Tiruttani.—A small and compact place famous as the seat of Lord Subramanya. This is also on the M. & S. M.

Railway; here is a Hillock, the seat of "Lord Subramanyam." This is the most important place of pilgrimage, especially to the Saivite community. This is also visited by a large number of pilgrims in and out of season. There are also innumerable choultries and Hindu Restaurants.

Madras—Bangalore Section.

6. Sholingar.—This is on the Bangalore Railway line.

This is another equally important place of pilgrimage. This is famous for two Hindu Temples, one big and one small situated on the hills, the temple of Sri-Narasimhaswamy and Anjaneyaswamy respectively.

People performing vows to these Gods first bathe in a big tank called the Takkankolam, very near the mountains and then ascend the hill. The peculiarity in Anjaneyaswamy temple is that persons possessed-say by devil-especially the other sex are relieved of their long suffering diseases by a few days stay and worship of Sri Anjaneyaswamy.

Places of Pilgrimage on the S. I. R. Line

There is the town of Conjeevaram (ancient capital of that kingdom of chola), 46 miles South-west of Madras. This can be reached both by the S. I. R. and M. & S. M. Railway from Madras and also is approachable by bus from Madras, a journey of 2½ hours. The railway fare from Madras is Rs. 1, by the S. I. R., and Rs. 1-2-0 by the M. & S. M. Railway and Rs. 1-0-0 by buss. The S. I. R. Company now runs one Up and Down train from Madras to Conjeevaram and vice-versa reducing the fare to As. 11 only for the single journey. This is also an important place of pilgrimage on the S. I. R. line. The town is divided into 2 sections called the Vishnu Kanchi or the Little and Sivakanchi or Big Conjeevarams. This place is famous for innumerable temples. Chief among these are, the Sri Varadaraja Swami Temple in Little Conjeevaram and Sri Ekambareeswar Temple in Big Conjeevaram.

Tirunir Hills.—These are a cluster of hills about three miles distant to the west of Pallavaram Station. The importance of this place is in the location of a temple on the top of a hill. Wherein God Sri Ranganathar is seen in his famous reclining pose.

Madurantakam.—This is on the S. I. R. line, 50 miles from Madras. This is famous, as the seat of Lord Sri Kothandaramaswamy with Pirattiyar and Brother Lakshman with Thanusu. There are two sets of deities called the Peria Perumal and Chinna Perumal. The Peria Perumal is taken in procession only twice a year on the sixth day of the Brahmotsavam festival and on the last day of Sri Rama Navami festival celebrated on a very grand scale.

The Goddess, "Janakavalli Thayar" is most beautiful and bountiful and gives all that is desired of her by her sincere worshippers.

Inscription on the Kalingalu.

This Kalingalu together with the Bank of the tank was begun in the year of our Lord 1795 and having been twice destroyed was finished in the year 1798 under the auspices of the Right Hon'ble Lord Hobart Governor of Madras by Lionel Place, Collector of the Jagir—Inscription on the 2nd granite beam of the Janakavalli Thayar Temple outside.

"இந்த தீர்மம் கும்பினி ஸ்தலீர் கெட்டிர் கையோனால் பிடுங்கித் துரை அலர்ந்தது."

It is here at Madurantakam that Sri Ramanuja and Peria Nambigal met together on their way to Srirungam and Conjeeveram respectively.—Where Pancha samakaram was done to Sri Ramanuja by Peria Nambigal and taught Vedantha Thathva ragasyam.

Sea-Bath in Madras,

Sea-bath is recommended by some doctors as conducive to health. Summer is the best and pleasant season for such baths. The bath is generally taken in Madras both by the Europeans and Hindus of either sex.

The Europeans take bath during pleasant summer evenings and on pleasant moon light nights irrespective of the importance of the days, whereas the Hindus consider sea-bath as very sacred and have it only on important days such as, Eclipse days, Masi Makham days and on New moon days and on chief Masapirapu days. On such days, the sea is generally rough with high tides. There are particular places in the sea, called ghats for conveniently bathing without the least danger. Of all the Ghats, the Triplicane Ghat, which the Sunkumar Bridge leads to, is the most convenient place for bathing.

Thousands of people, both young and old of either sex, resort to this Triplicane Ghat for bathing from different parts of the city, not only on account of its convenience, but also of the sanctity attached to this ghat.

On such occasions, both the Corporation Staff and the Police, co-operate and take every precaution to avert danger and to give first aid immediately to the injured, if any. Ambulance Cars are stationed near the Marina to remove to the Hospitals such cases, which cannot be cured by first aid and which need be treated at the hospital.

Caution.—Swimmers are warned against venturing swimming in the sea on such occasions, as cases have occurred of promising youths finding a watery grave year after year in spite of all precautions taken.—There were proposals some years back to construct permanent bathing ghats at convenient centres in the sea, and to that effect foundation also was laid, just opposite the Queen Mary's College. The proposal was subsequently dropped owing probably to various causes. But it will immensely benefit the public of Madras if convenient bathing ghats are constructed.

Cautions to Visitors and the Public of Madras.

1. Visitors are warned against keeping their money and valuables in the outer pockets of their coats. The safe place for depositing them is inside their coat pockets especially when they travel in Tram-cars, Buses, visit Moore-Market and private Markets, halt in Choultries and in Railway Stations and mix with crowds on festival days, as pick-pockets in these places are too numerous and difficult to identify.

Repentance after loss of money or jewels will be too late. Thousands of people visiting Madras have run the risk of losing their money by keeping it in the outer-pockets.

2. Visitors are warned against getting in and getting down the Tram Cars and Buses, when in motion, lest they should run the risk of not only falling and hurting themselves, but also of being run over by Motor Cars and Buses in such a busy place as Madras.

3. Wait for Cars at the stopping stations where Boards are generally put up, such as. 1. All cars stop here, and cars stop here if required. 2. Bus Stands:—Where the conductors will guide you to your destination:—

4. Never stand on the Foot-Boards of the Tram Cars. This system now prohibited by the Police, and is also strictly enforced by the Conductors and Inspectors.

5. Always keep to the rule of the road. When you go either by Bicycle, Motor-Cycle or Motor Car or any other vehicle overtake the vehicles by the right.

Pedestrians should always keep themselves to the right. But wherever footpaths are constructed for pedestrians to walk, they must go always on the platform.

6. Warned against leaving your young children with jewels in the pial of your streets and public streets unguarded, lest you should suffer the consequence of not only losing the ornaments, but the children themselves. These are of very common occurrence in Madras.

7. Warned against keeping your valuable clothes, coats with money, valuable gold watches with gold chains, gold buttons and costly fountain pens, very near the windows of your residential places as city thieves are very clever in removing them dexterously.

8. Beware of purchasing articles such as fountain pens, wrist watches etc., sold by stray people on the roads, because they are offered for low prices, lest they should launch you in difficulties as most of these articles will be stolen ones and not genuine. There are some dexterous dupers who knew how to polish brass and call it gold, to turn steel nib into 14 carat gold and sell guaranteed watches which will stop at the turn of the road. It is safer therefore to purchase such articles direct from recognised shops.

THE SUNKUVAR CIVIC LIBRARY.

A new and novel amenity has been bestowed on the City of Madras in the shape of a Library situated in the Ripon Buildings. This Library goes by the name of "The Sunkuvar Civic Library" and as the name indicates, contains only books on civic matters. The City of Madras owes this Library to the munificence of a public minded citizen who prefers to remain anonymous, but who desired to associate his endowment into the name of that illustrious family of the Sunkuvars, whose name already serves to distinguish the various land marks of the City.

It is interesting to note that M.R.Ry., Sunku Subramaniam Jetty Garu B.A., who holds a prominent position as Revenue Officer, Madras Corporation, belongs to that distinguished and illustrious Sunku family, after which the Library takes name.

That this is an important and unique institution is easily felt by the fact that His Excellency Lt. Col. The Right Hon'ble Sir George Frederick Stanley P.C., G.C.I.E., C.M.G., Governor of Madras declared the Library open on the 31st October 1932.

The idea of a City confined to works of a civic nature and importance, itself is unique and it has actually been found not quite an easy matter to fill the book cases with proper books. But it is hoped to collect many valuable books from all over the world and make the City one of vital importance as a source of useful information and reference. A competent Librarian is in charge and a very well appointed reading room is attached to the Library and it is hoped that the citizens and visitors to Madras will spend many interesting and useful evenings at the Library and reading room in large numbers.

The book cases and reference counters of the Library and all the furniture of the reading room were designed and

ST. THOMAS, THE APOSTLE IN INDIA.

BY

F. MERVYN D'CRUZ.

Few know that in Mylapore Christianity may be traced three centuries back, when the diocese was established in 1606 by Paul V. and even far beyond that memorable date, until she is lost in the mists of Apostolic Times. Long before the city of Madras came into existence, nay, twenty centuries or even further back, Mylapore or Mailapuram, the 'PEACOCK CITY', was according to tradition a very important town in ancient times, both for its commerce and its literature. Mylapore was the birth place of Tiruvalluvar, an illustrious Tamil author : of Peyalvar an eminent Vaishnavite saint and writer. It was here that Mastan, a renowned Mohammdan Scholar, lived, wrote and died. And it was here again that the glorious Apostle St. Thomas preached the Gospel, and where his martyred body was buried. When Camoes—the Shakespeare of Portugal—visited Mylapore some four-hundred years ago, he thus described her ancient glory :—

“ Here rose the potent City, Meliapor, Named in olden time rich, vast, and grand.”

CAMOEES.

But of the ancient glories of Mylapore no vestige now remains.

THE APOSTLE ST. THOMAS AND THE LEGEND OF THE LOG.

It is only in the Gospel of St. John that St. Thomas appears in a characteristic light, and is revealed as a personality of singular charm and interest, full of devotion and ready to die with his Lord and Master. Thus his courage, his intense love for and his implicit faith in his Divine Master, are most strikingly and aptly portrayed in those beautiful words, “ Let us also go that we may die with him ” and “ My Lord and my God.”

Stations of the cross. The latter, 14 artistic pictures were got out from France and cost Rs. 5,000. Four lofty Gothic arches in the centre separate the main parts of the building, the Sanctuary, the Nave, the right and left wings. Within the transept and to the front of the Sanctuary is the grave of the Apostle. The floor of the Fosse (Crypt) is 7 feet below that of the church. The Confession or crypt was got out from Rome. It consists of a marble altar just over the grave, while the floor and walls are of white Italian marble, bordered with coloured marble. Brass railings above complete the shrine. The stained glass over the High Altar rich and of a high finish, represents St. Thomas on his knees on the point of thrusting his finger into the wound on Jesus Christ's side when he exclaimed. "My Lord and My God." When seen at 3 O'Clock in the afternoon it is like velvet. In the transept over the arch leading towards the Vestry, is a fine large oil painting, representing the Burial of the Sacred Body of Our Lord, formerly the property of the worthy late John De Monte, a wealthy merchant of Madras and is considered to be a classic of Michael Angelo. An old silver reliquary (photo), containing some fragments of the lance which wounded St. Thomas, and small pieces of his bench and garments, are also preserved in the Cathedral. Two polished brass tablets are to be found on either side of the arch by the pulpit. They commemorate the time-honoured traditional belief in the martyrdom of St. Thomas in Southern India, and the building of the present Sacred edifice by Bishop Revd. D'Silva the Bishop of Mylapore, in 1896. From the top of the belfry on the steeple a fine view of the City of Madras may be got. It was here at the Tomb of St. Thomas the Apostle Francis Xavier, the second apostle of India prayed night after night, when he visited the place on 1545, that God may enlighten him as to his future labours.

O. B. SUIT OF THE DAY.

On the death of his Divine Master and after receiving the Holy Ghost, fired with Apostolic zeal he went out into the world to preach the Gospel. He handed over the precepts of the Christian faith and life to the Parthians, the Medes, the Persians, the Lyreanians and the Bactrians and finally betook himself to the Indians. He not only visited the north of India but also preached in Southern India, where he built churches and left congregations. From the West Coast where the descendants of the early converts are known to this day as the St. Thomas Christians, he went over to the east coast and preached with such success that a large number of the people were converted: and in the end he was martyred on St. Thomas Mount and buried in San Thome, now a suburb of Madras.

Thus while St. Thomas went about preaching and working miracles, as the legend states, one day a forest tree of immense size came floating over the waves and blocked up the river. The king with his elephants and men endeavoured to draw it ashore, but no human effort could move it. At this critical moment St. Thomas came upon the scene and laid claim to the log. He tied his girdle to the tree, and to the utmost surprise of the King and his people, hauled the immense log to a place, where with the timber he built a temple. This great miracle resulted in the conversion of many of the King's subjects. It was in this temple that the martyred body of the Saint was buried, and on its foundations the present SAN THOME CATHEDRAL STANDS.

THE PRESENT GOTHIC CATHEDRAL AT SAN THOME.

That pilgrims came from ancient-times, onwards, in large numbers from different parts of the world, to visit the grave of the Apostle at Mylapore, is well known. Theodore visited the Apostle's tomb before A. D. 590 as did also the great traveller Marco Polo and Friar John of Monte Corvino in about 1293. Even King Alfred sent an embassy to the shrine in A.D. 883.

When the Portuguese came to Mylapore in the early part of the 16th century, they built a church upon the remains of an ancient church that had enclosed the tomb; and the new church eventually became the Cathedral of San Thome. The 16th century building was pulled down in 1893, and the present Cathedral a handsome Gothic structure erected.

The San Thome Cathedral is one of the best and most magnificent christian monuments in India. In fact a tourist from Europe proclaimed that in size and in grandeur it out-beats the Cathedral at Marseilles. The visitor at first sight is struck by the chasteness of beauty, and majestic appearance of the edifice, nor is he disappointed with the interior of the church which is equally beautiful. The Assessment is generally based on the actual monthly rentals realized from all houses occupied by tenants and houses solely occupied by the owners are assessed on the probable rentals they may fetch if rented in the respective localities wherein they are situated. In the case of houses occupied both by the owners and tenants, the assessment is fixed on the total amount of rents realized and the probable rental value of the portion in owner's occupation if let. This is calculated as follows:—

12 times the monthly rentals minus 10 per cent usually allowed on all buildings for repairs etc. gives the annual valuation of a house.

For example:— Suppose a house fetches a rent of Rs. 40/- per mensem. The annual valuation comes to Rs.  $12 \times 40 = 480 - 48 = \text{Rs. } 432/-$

But this rule is not applicable when fixing assessments for very big buildings not rented but occupied by owners such as big Firms, Banks, Government Buildings and the like.

In these cases, the assessment is fixed at 6 per cent on the total estimated cost less a reasonable amount on account of depreciation if any to the estimated value of the land valued with the buildings as part of the premises:—

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Dr. C. S. Govinda Pillai, M. B. Ch. B., L. R. C. P. and S. D. P. H., (Edin.) is the Chief Health Officer :—

The appointments of the several Heads of Departments rest with the Corporation Council subject, however, to the approval of the Government :—

He is in charge of both the sanitation and conservancy of the City of Madras.

Till 1924, there was a separate conservancy officer placed in entire charge of the conservancy of the City. But, after his death in 1924, the post was abolished, with the result, that there are, at present, two assistants in charge of the north and south Ranges into which the City is divided for purposes of administration :—

In January, 1928, the drainage superintendent of the Corporation was transferred from the Engineering Department to the Health Department and placed in charge of the conservancy of the City, but under the direct supervision of the Health Officer.

The sanction for a separate conservancy officer is awaiting the approval of Government.

B. B. B. you will like it in the best

As the City is now divided into 30 Municipal divisions, there are at present 16 Sanitary Inspectors in charge of sanitation and 21 Sanitary Inspectors in charge of conservancy of the City.

There are also two senior Sanitary Inspectors to supervise the work of the Inspectors in charge of conservancy. One Sanitary Inspector is in charge of the sanitation of the Moore-Market :—

There are at present two markets owned and maintained by the Corporation.

1. The Moore-Market.

2. The Smith Field market.

In addition to these, the Health Department supervises sanitation of the other private markets in the City :—

REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

The registration of both births and deaths was made compulsory by Act IX of 1867. Registration offices were opened in several parts of the City for the convenience of the residents.

Births and deaths occurring within the City must be registered at once, cases occurring in hospitals, must be reported by the hospital authorities.

The informant has to sign in the birth and death register kept at the office of the medical registrar-vaccinator.

Intimation sent to the Health Officer will be of no avail.

VACCINATION.

Compulsory vaccination was introduced in the city on 1-6-1884 and is now worked as per bye-laws framed under City Municipal Act, by which every parent or guardian of an unprotected child more than six months old and residing within the municipal limits is bound to get it vaccinated.

In addition to the two Isolation Hospitals at Tondiarpet and Krishnampet, where cases of infectious diseases are treated, the Health Department runs 19 dispensaries in charge of qualified medical men in the several parts of the city for rendering free medical aid to the poor.

A Unani dispensary was opened in Thiagaraya Nagar, Mambalam, on 1-11-30 and an Ayurvedic dispensary exclusively for women and children at Thousand Lights on 26-11-1930.

SPECIAL INSPECTORS.

Two inspectors of weights and measures have been appointed one for the north range and the other for the south range.

The Health Department have employed four Sanitary Inspectors in connection with the Madras Prevention of Adulteration Act. These Inspectors are now going about and sending samples of food articles such as ghee, butter, milk, tea, coffee etc. sold in the City for analysis at Guindy and are taking suitable action against offences committed under the Act. Analysis of the samples reveal the existence of a large per centage of adulteration in the food articles sold in Madras.

The Health Department maintains also two dhobykanas at Chetput and Robinson Park, two model cattleyards at Basin Bridge and Chintadripet, cart stand at Elephant Gate and Zoological Garden in the People's Park where an interesting collection of animals are kept for exhibition.

MUNICIPAL DISPENSARIES.

The street lighting posts are of cast iron with ornamental scroll and are generally of 2 kinds (1) The glow lamp post and (2) The Arch lamp post.

The glow lamp posts are used in Marina and Mount Road and in other important places.

The row of these lights in the Marina after lit during night presents a most beautiful spectacle. Generally the light burns about 3100 hours per-annum. In the months of February to September the lights are switched on at 6-30 p.m. and switched off after the rise of the moon, the latest hour being 4 a.m. On moon-light nights (3 days before and 3 days after the full moon, the lights are switched off at 10 p.m. In the month of October, the lights are switched on at 6 p.m. but switched off as in the above months :—

In the months of November, December and January the lights are switched on at 6 p.m. and switched off at 5 a.m. as they are monsoon months.

Now the system of regulating the ever increasing traffic in the city of Madras by the introduction of Electric Traffic Controllers was first introduced by the Present Electrical Engineer Mr. C. V. Subsequently other radio loud speakers were installed in Robinson Park, Old Washermenpet, Spur Tank Road, Egmore, Panagal Park, Mambalam, Peoples Park, Periamet and High Court Beach.

These six radio loud speakers are found to be very popular.

In addition to the above, small radio sets of indoor type are working in the under mentioned Corporation Model Schools for which special programmes are broadcast on school days from 4 to 4-30 p. m.

The standard of music now broadcast at the Ripon Buildings has considerably improved. This has been effected through the kind co-operation of the Music Academy, Madras, who have specially requested their experts to help in the selection of artistes. Some of the professional artistes had prejudice against singing on the Radio and this prejudice was overcome by the kind help rendered

LIGHTING

Till 1910, streets in the city of Madras were lit with oil lights, when the system of lighting with electric lights was first introduced.

During 1909-10, the number of oil lights was 5269, as against only 15 electric lights. But now there are in the city about 9919 electric lights in place of oil lights—So much so that every nook and corner is lit with electric lights.

by the Music Academy. The engagement of professional artistes of repute in the Radio has given ample scope in educating laymen who cannot afford to attend the professional performances at other places.

UTILITY.

Till the end of July 1933, on all week days, except Sundays and other public Holidays amateur singers were engaged from 5-30 to 7-30 p.m. and musicians of repute were engaged to give musical performances from 5-30 to 7-30 p.m. It is now proposed to have musical programmes by professionals on all days of the week except Mondays. If Monday happens to be a public holiday, music by professionals will be broadcast even on that date, otherwise gramophone music will be broadcast. Proposals are under consideration to engage amateur artistes of repute once or twice a month :—

This latest and novel amenity was extended to the public during the administration of M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur C.V. Krishnaswami Chetty Garu B.A., B.Sc., (Tech) A.M. I.E.E. M.I.E., (Ind.) Electrical Engineer.

The Madras public should thank the present Electrical Engineer for the introduction of radio music and for having made the Beach more enjoyable by the introduction of radio music.

Of all the loud speaking equipments the one installed at the marina near the Aquarium, Triplicane attracts very large crowd from different places.

We now find people young and old, rich and poor, high and low of either sex gathering at the different centres where the loud speaking equipments are installed punctually at 5-30 p.m. to enjoy the radio music.

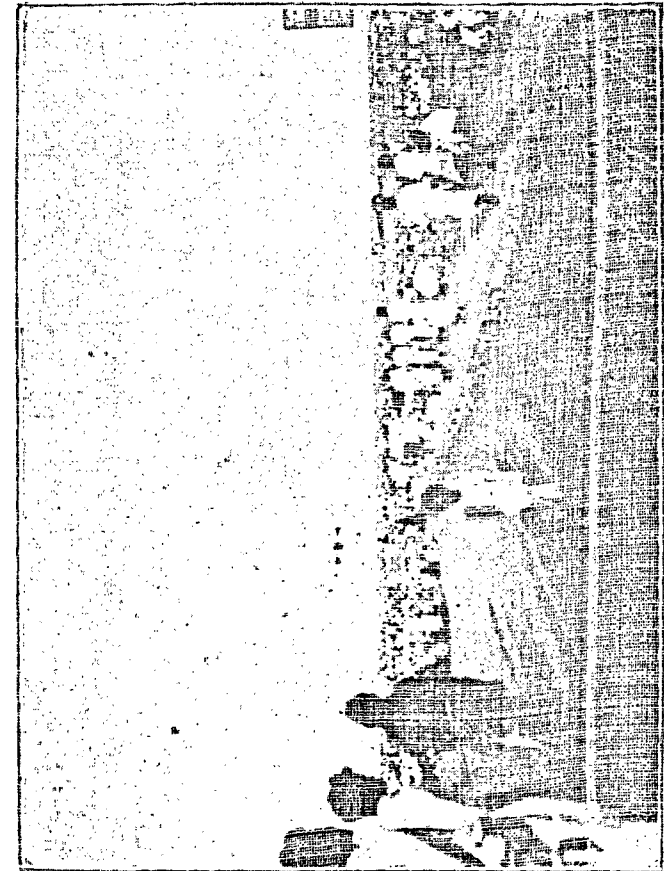

It is certainly a very good recreation to the public in the evenings after a hard days work.

It is hoped that as the corporation funds increase more of these are installed in important centres of the city to afford complete civic amenity.

Artistes are required to be present at the studio in the Ripon Buildings at least an hour before the commencement of broadcasting of the day of their performance. Rehearsals for professionals are arranged on the second Saturday of each month from 8 and 9 a.m. Charges for broadcasting advertisements are Rs. 3 per minute. No special concessions for weekly or long term engagements.
