T H O U G H T S

"The platform of service is as big as the world. It is never over-crowded".

- MAHATMA GANDHI -

"I do not think the man-in-the-street's approach is likely to be well-informed, or even very helpful. However, it is obviously an important approach, because it is the man in the street or the man in the field who counts; because, after all, it is him that the administration is ultimately meant to serve. It is worthwhile to repeat this, because the administration not only has to be good but has also to be felt to be good by the people affected".

- JAWAHARLAL NEHRU -

"Decisions should be taken after thorough consideration. But once a decision is taken there should be no hesitation in action".

"The human beings, one and all, are equal in their birth Thro' diff'rence in their deeds' nature springs diff'rence in their worth".

"True greatness useth humble words but littleness will use The self-adorning words and itself self-admiring lose".

- TIRUVALLUVAR -

"The duty must be performed; let the efforts be successful of not; let the work be appreciated or not. When a man's sincerity of purpose and capacity are proved even his enemies come to respect him".

"Knowledge is the foundation of a man's life".

"Character is more important than education".

- Dr. AMBEDKAR -
