RULING(S) BY MR. PRESIDENT (THE HONOURABLE SIR SHANMUKHAM CHETTY)—contd.

Miscellaneous—contd.

When negotiations are being carried on and not yet concluded between the Government of India and a foreign Government, the House will do well not to ask too many questions on the subject. 2250.

When one Honourable Member wants to quote the speech of another Honourable Member, he ought to quote from the official report and not from a newspaper. 2688.

Point of order—

A — cannot be addressed to an Honourable Member, but should be addressed to the Chair. 2141.

Put(ing) the Questions to vote—

When the Chair feels that there has been a fair debate on a question, it has the right to —. 2806.

Question(s) and Answer(s)—

A Member may withdraw a question at any moment without notice. 2721.

If an Honourable Member wants that the answer to a question should be laid on the table and not merely be communicated to the Honourable Member putting the question, that has to be done and Government will have to lay the answer on the table of the House. 2922.

It is the duty of the Honourable Member asking a question to find out whether the question has been previously asked and answered. 2924.

Questions cannot be asked on suppositions. 2589.

The same question that has already been answered cannot be put in another form. 2568.

When an Honourable Member has definitely put down a question, especially bringing to the notice of the Government a specific case in which the Agent of a Railway is supposed not to have carried out the orders, and when the Honourable Member replying for Government says that the question has been forwarded to the Agent, it is proper that the Agent must send a reply to the Railway Board and that reply must be communicated to the Honourable Member who asked the question, so that, if it is unsatisfactory, he might pursue the matter further. 2237.

RULING(S) BY MR. PRESIDENT (THE HONOURABLE SIR SHANMUKHAM CHETTY)—contd.

Question(s) and Answer(s)—contd.

When an Honourable Member has put down a question which has been admitted by the Chair, it means that the question is of public importance, and the Chair and the House have got a right to expect that a suitable answer would be given. 2236.

Select Committee—

Honourable Members cannot refer to anything except the published proceedings of the —. 3254.

Honourable Members who have been signatories to a Committee's report must justify their signatures on argument and not on the discussion that took place in the Committee. 2497.

It is not proper to mention on the floor of the House how particular Members voted in the —. 2408.

The House is not entitled to ask that every memorandum placed before the — committee must be made available to the House. 2227.

When witnesses are summoned before a —, it must, at the very outset, be made clear whether the evidence tendered by them is tendered in camera. If evidence is taken distinctly on that understanding, then no Honourable Member has got the right to refer to the evidence tendered before the Committee in support of the argument that the Honourable Member may wish to advance on the floor of the House. 2225.
