Motion re Food situation	481-485, 539-546
Ruling—
Bill—
Amendment—Mover of an amendment has no right of reply,
only mover of a substantive motion, under rule 63, has a right
of reply	30
Clauses of a Bill are separately put, so that members may if they so desire, speak on any one of them. Clauses to which no amendments are proposed may be put together and any member
may speak on any of them if he wants	412
Debate—
Second speech by a member might necessitate another speech
by the Minister concerned	196
Members are at perfect liberty to refer to the remarks
made by non-members provided they can prove them	518
In a debate on food policy and (rationing), questions such as intensive cultivation, etc., should not be raised	501
Motions—Voting on motions other than regular resolutions discussed in the House by a special arrangement are only adjournment motions in another form	548
Procedure—Reports of Select Committees and other papers given to the members of one House might be given to the members of the other House also	51-52
