How to use the index.

The index is arranged alphabetically. The main headings are printed from the margin and the sub-headings are indented from the main headings.

Under every main heading including various names, entries pertaining to proceedings other than Questions are indicated by printing immediately after the subject-matter within brackets, e.g., (M) for Motion, (C.A.) for Calling Attention, (R) for Resolution, (St.) for Statement, etc. An entry without any such indication will mean that it pertains to a question. In the case of Bills and Financial Business, the entry will be self-explanatory.

All the Bills are alphabetically arranged under the Main Heading 'Bill(s)'.

Various bodies like Committees, Councils, Boards, Corporations, etc., are consolidated under the said Main Headings, i.e., 'Committee(s)', 'Council(s)', 'Corporation(s)', etc.

Various Schools, Colleges, Conferences, Ports, temples and similar other broad subjects are shown in alphabetical order under these very Main Headings.

Rulings and Observations

Adjournment Motions—

While consent was withheld to an Adjournment Motion seeking to discuss the promulgation of an order under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code, the Speaker observed that every order under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code, could not be brought up before the House in the form of an Adjournment Motion and that the Legislature could not sit as an Appellate Court to question that order

Parliamentary Convention—

Order of speeches—

When a member sought the permission of the Chair to speak after the Leader of the Opposition concluded his speech, a Minister drew the attention of the Speaker to a convention followed in the House that after the speech of the Leader of the Opposition no other member used to speak, but only a member of the Treasury Bench replied. The Chair, agreeing with the Minister, called on the Leader of the House to reply to the debate

Procedure—

Government amendments to Bills reported on by a Select Committee

—In the course of the discussion on the Madurai University Bill, 1965, as reported on by the Joint Select Committee, the Leader of the House moved an amendment to a Clause. Thereupon, some members of the Opposition, rising on a point of order, stated that as the particular amendment was neither considered in, nor agreed to by, the Joint Select Committee, was inadmissible. The Leader of the House maintained that if the Government thought it necessary to bring forward an amendment, they could do so at any stage. Drawing the attention of the members to the relevant rules and also reiterating an earlier ruling to the effect that the Government can move amendments to a Government Bill as reported on by the Select Committee, even though those amendments have not been moved by them in the Select Committee, the Chair held that the amendment was in order
