LIMITATION OF ARMAMENT

The SPEAKER laid before the House the message from the President, which was read, as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Pursuant to my instructions the American ambassadors at London, Paris, Rome, and Tokyo will to-day present to the Governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, and Japan a memorandum suggesting that they empower their delegates at the forthcoming meeting of the preparatory commission for the disarmament conference at Geneva to negotiate and conclude at an early date an agreement further limiting naval armament, supplementing the Washington treaty on that subject, and covering the classes of vessels not covered by that treaty. I transmit herewith, for the information of the Congress, a copy of this memorandum.

I wish to inform the Congress of the considerations which have moved me to take this action.

The support of all measures looking to the preservation of the peace of the world has been long established as a fundamental policy of this Government. The American Government and people are convinced that competitive armaments constitute one of the most dangerous contributing causes of international suspicion and discord and are calculated eventually to lead to war. A recognition of this fact and a desire as far as possible to remove this danger led the American Government in 1921 to call the Washington conference.

At that time we were engaged in a great building program which, upon its completion, would have given us first place on the sea. We felt then, however, and feel now, that the policy we then advocated—that of deliberate self-denial and limitation of naval armament by the great naval powers—promised the attainment of at least one guarantee of peace, an end worthy of mutual adjustment and concession.

At the Washington conference we found the other nations animated with the same desire as ourselves to remove naval competition from the list of possible causes of international discord. Unfortunately, however, it was not possible to reach agreements at Washington covering all classes of naval ships. The Washington treaty provided a specific tonnage limitation upon capital ships and aircraft carriers, with certain restrictions as to size and maximum caliber of guns for other vessels. Every nation has been at complete liberty to build any number of cruisers, destroyers, and submarines. Only size and armament of cruisers were limited. The signatories of the Washington treaty have fulfilled their obligations faithfully and there can be no doubt that that treaty constitutes an outstanding success in its operation.

It has been the hope of the American Government, constantly expressed by the Congress since the Washington conference, that a favorable opportunity might present itself to complete the work begun here by the conclusion of further agreements covering cruisers, destroyers, and submarines. The desirability of such an agreement has been apparent, since it was only to be expected that the spirit of competition, stifled as regards capital ships and aircraft carriers by the Washington treaty, would, sooner or later, show itself with regard to the other vessels not limited under the treaty. Actually, I do not believe that competitive building of these classes of ships has begun. Nevertheless, far-reaching building programs have been laid down by certain powers, and there has appeared in our own country, as well as abroad, a sentiment urging naval construction on the ground that such construction is taking place elsewhere. In such sentiments lies the germ of renewed naval competition.

I am sure that all governments and all peoples would choose a system of naval limitation in preference to consciously reverting to competitive building. Therefore, in the hope of bringing about an opportunity for discussion among the principal naval powers to ascertain whether further limitation is practicable, I have suggested to them that negotiations on this subject should begin as soon as possible.

The moment seems particularly opportune to try to secure further limitation of armament in accordance with the expressed will of the Congress. The earnest desire of the nations of the world to relieve themselves in as great a measure as possible of the burden of armaments and to avoid the dangers of competition has been shown by the establishment of the preparatory commission for the disarmament conference, which met in Geneva last May, and which is continuing its work with a view to preparing the agenda for a final general conference. For more than six months, representatives of a score or more of nations have examined from all points of view the problem of the reduction and limitation of armaments. In these discussions it was brought out very clearly that a number of nations felt that land, sea, and air armaments were interdependent and that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to agree upon the limitation of one type of armament without simultaneously limiting the other types.

The consequence to be feared is that a deadlock will be reached should even partial progress in the reduction of armaments be conditioned upon the acceptance of some universal plan covering land, sea, and air forces together. If the prospective deadlock can not be broken, it is probable that little progress will be made for the time being. It appears to me to be the duty of this Government, which has always advocated limitation of armaments, to endeavor to suggest some avenue by which concrete results may be achieved even though such results may be short of an ultimate ideal solution for the threefold problem of land, sea, and air armament.

Our delegates at Geneva have consistently expressed the view that under conditions as they exist in the world to-day the problems of land and air armaments are most susceptible of solution by regional agreements covering regions within which the land or air armaments of one country could constitute a potential threat to another country. Geographical continents have been suggested as regions appropriate for land and air limitation agreements.

The American land and air force constitute a threat to no one. They are at minimum strength; their reduction has been suggested by no one as a necessary condition precedent to general arms limitation. This reduction of our land forces has been rendered possible by our favored geographical position. I realize that the problems of armaments on land and in the air in Europe are beset with difficulties which in all justice we must recognize and, although this Government will always be ready to lend its assistance in any appropriate way to efforts on the part of European or other governments to arrive at regional agreements limiting land and air forces, it would hesitate to make specific proposals on this subject to European nations.

The problem of the limitation of naval armament, while not regional in character or susceptible of regional treatment, has been successfully treated, in part, by an agreement among the five leading naval powers, and, in my opinion, can be definitely dealt with by further agreements among those powers.

It will be a contribution to the success of the preliminary work now going on at Geneva should the great naval powers there agree upon a further definite limitation of naval armament.

It is my intention that the American representatives at Geneva should continue to discuss with the representatives of the other nations there the program for a general limitation of armaments conference. If such a conference should be possible in the future, on a basis generally acceptable, this Government would, of course, be highly gratified. Pending the formulation of the plan for such a general conference, however, I believe that we should make an immediate and sincere effort to solve the problem of naval limitation, the solution of which would do much to make the efforts toward more general limitation successful.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

The message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed.

MILK BILL

On motion of Mr. HAUGEN, the bill (H. R. 11768) to regulate the importation of milk and cream into the United States for the purpose of promoting the dairy industry of the United States and protecting the public health, with the following amendments of the Senate thereto, was taken from the Speaker's table:

The Secretary of Agriculture is directed to waive the requirements of paragraphs 2 and 5 of section 2 of this act in so far as the same relate to milk when issuing permits to operators of, or to producers for delivery to, creameries and condensing plants in the United States within 20 miles of the point of production of milk, and who import no raw milk except for pasteurization or condensing: Provided, That if milk imported when the requirements of paragraphs 2 and 5 of section 2 have been so waived is sold, used, or disposed of in its raw state, or otherwise than as pasteurized, condensed, or evaporated milk by any person, the permit shall be revoked and the importer shall be subjected to fine, imprisonment, or other penalty prescribed by this act.

Page 4, line 20, strike out all after "cream," down to and including "time," in line 2, page 5, and insert: Provided, however, That unless and until the Secretary of Agriculture shall provide for inspections to ascertain that paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 of section 2 have been complied with, the Secretary of Agriculture shall issue temporary permits to any applicants therefor to ship or transport milk and/or cream into the United States.

Page 5, line 6, after "has," insert: failed to comply with the provisions of or has.

Mr. HAUGEN moved that the House concur in said Senate amendments.

Mr. BLACK of New York made the point of order that the Senate amendments should be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

After debate,

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order, and said:

"The Chair is ready to rule. A very recent decision of the House itself holds that if any amendment or provision makes a charge upon the Treasury it must appear upon the face of the bill itself. The House went so far even as to hold that the Speaker might not make use of any knowledge he might possess that a charge on the Treasury would necessarily follow. The effect of the decision of the House is that any provision must show on its face beyond any possibility of speculation or doubt that a charge upon the Treasury is in fact created. The Chair is unable to see language in these amendments on their face which would cause the Chair to be certain of there being a charge on the Treasury and overrules the point of order."

After further debate,

On motion of Mr. HAUGEN, the previous question was ordered on his motion to concur in said amendments, and under the operation thereof the motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

The SPEAKER resumed the chair.

When Mr. MAPES, Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had come to no resolution thereon.

By unanimous consent, the bill H. R. 16994, a similar House bill, was laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

CHARLES B. BREWER & A. S. ABELL, CO.

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the Clerk of the House, which was read, as follows:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, CLERK'S OFFICE, Washington, D. C., February 16, 1927.

HON. NICHOLAS LONGWORTH,

House of Representatives.

MY DEAR MR. SPEAKER: I beg to inform you that I have received from the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia subpoenas duces tecum directed to me as Clerk of the House of Representatives commanding me to appear before Circuit Court, Division No. 1, on the 15th and 16th days of February, 1927, at 10 o'clock a. m., as a witness in the case of Charles B. Brewer v. A. S. Abell Co. (No. 70158 at Law), and to bring with me certain and sundry papers, documents, books, and testimony, therein described, in the files of the House of Representatives.

The papers, documents, books, and testimony in question were adduced in evidence before the select committee appointed under House Resolution 231, Sixty-eighth Congress, to investigate the preparation, distribution, sale, payment, retirement, surrender, cancellation, and destruction of Government bonds and other securities, and are now in possession of the House of Representatives in the custody of the Clerk.

Your attention and that of the House is respectfully invited to a resolution of the House adopted in the Forty-sixth Congress, first session (CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, p. 680), upon the recommendation of the Committee on the Judiciary, as follows:

"Resolved, That no officer or employee of the House of Representatives has the right, either voluntarily or in obedience to a subpoena duces tecum, to produce any document, paper, or book belonging to the files of the House before any court or officer, nor to furnish any copy of any testimony given or paper filed in any investigation before the House or any of its committees, or of any other paper belonging to the files of the House except such as may be authorized by statute to be copied, and such as the House itself may have made public, to be taken without the consent of the House first obtained."

And a resolution adopted by the House in the Forty-ninth Congress, first session (CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, p. 1295), from which the following is quoted:

"Resolved, That by the privilege of this House no evidence of a documentary character under the control and in possession of the House of Representatives can, by the mandate or process of the ordinary courts of justice, be taken from such control or possession but by its permission.

"That when it appears by the order of a court or of the judge thereof, or of any legal officer charged with the administration of the orders of such court or judge, that documentary evidence in the possession and under the control of the House is needful for use in any court of justice or before any judge or such legal officer for the promotion of justice, this House will take such order thereon as will promote the ends of justice consistently with the privileges and rights of this House."

These resolutions resulted from the issuance of subpoenas duces tecum upon the Clerk of the House to produce certain original papers in the files of the House.

Permission to remove from their place of file or custody any documents or papers was denied by the House, but the court was afforded facilities for making certified copies. This seems to have been the uniform practice in respect to subpoenas duces tecum issued by a court upon the Clerk of the House to produce in court original papers from the files of the House.

The subpoenas in question are herewith attached and the matter is presented for such action as the House in its wisdom may see fit to take.

Very respectfully,
WM. TYLER PAGE,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER resumed the chair.

Mr. HAUGEN moved that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill of the Senate (S. 4808) to establish a Federal farm board to aid in the orderly marketing and in the control and disposition of the surplus of agricultural commodities.

The question being put,

On a division there appeared—yeas 162, nays 121.

Mr. NEWTON of Minnesota demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was not supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were refused. So, the motion was agreed to.

Sec. 2. (a) The terms of office of the appointed members of the board first taking office after the approval of this act shall expire, in accordance with designations to be made by the President at the time of nomination, two at the end of the second year, two at the end of the fourth year, and two at the end of the sixth year after the date of the approval of this act. A successor to an appointed member of the board shall be appointed in the same manner as the original appointed members, and shall have a term of office expiring six years from the date of the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy in the board occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term, and any member of the board in office at the expiration of the term for which he was appointed may continue in office until his successor takes office.

TOLL BRIDGES

On motion of Mr. OLDFIELD, by unanimous consent, the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union was discharged from the further consideration of the bill (H. R. 16551) amending the Federal highway act.

When said bill was considered and read twice.

The following amendment was recommended by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

That notwithstanding any provision of the act entitled "An act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in the construction of rural post roads, and for other purposes," approved July 11, 1916, or of the Federal highway act, the Secretary of Agriculture may extend, on the same basis and in the same manner as in the construction of any free bridge, Federal aid under such acts in the construction of any toll bridge and approaches thereto by any State or States, or political subdivision or subdivisions thereof, upon the condition that such bridge is owned and operated by such State or States, or political subdivision or subdivisions thereof, and that all tolls received from the operation thereof, less the actual cost of operation and maintenance, are applied to the repayment to the State or States, or political subdivision or subdivisions thereof, of its or their part of the cost of construction of such bridge, and upon the further condition that when the amount contributed by such State or States, or political subdivision or subdivisions thereof, in the construction of such bridge shall have been repaid from the tolls, the collection of tolls for the use of such bridge shall thereafter cease, and the same shall be maintained and operated as a free bridge.

Sec. 2. That nothing contained in the act entitled "An act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in the construction of rural post roads, and for other purposes," approved July 11, 1916, or in the Federal highway act, shall be construed to prohibit the Secretary of Agriculture from granting Federal aid, in accordance with the provisions of such acts, in respect of a road or highway, because such road or highway leads directly to or from a toll bridge or toll ferry.

Mr. DOWELL made the point of order against section 2 of the amendment on the ground, first, that the committee was without jurisdiction in placing said section in the bill, and, second, that it is not germane to section 1.

After debate,

The SPEAKER sustained the second point of order, and said:

"The Chair is ready to rule. The point of order is made against section 2 of the bill on the ground that the committee to which it was referred had no authority to report on this subject. The second point is made that it is not germane. The Chair doubts very much if the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has jurisdiction over the matter contained in section 2.

"But without deciding unnecessarily on that point, the Chair is clearly of the opinion that section 2 is not germane to section 1. He therefore sustains the point of order."

The first section of the committee amendment was then agreed to.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title, and passed.

The title was amended so as to read: "A bill to permit the granting of Federal aid in respect to certain roads and bridges."

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

The joint resolution, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title, and passed.

The title was amended so as to read: "A joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to withhold his approval of the adjustment of the Northern Pacific land grants, and for other purposes," approved June 5, 1924, and for other purposes."

The total amount of such advances, loans, or sales to any one farmer shall not exceed the sum of $300. All such advances or loans shall be made through such agencies as the Secretary of Agriculture shall designate. For carrying out the purposes of this act there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $8,600,000, to be immediately available: Provided, That of said amount not more than $2,500,000 shall be used for loans, advances, or sales for fertilizer in drought-stricken areas, in the cotton States of Georgia and South Carolina and western Alabama, and not more than $600,000 shall be used for loans, advances, or sales for fertilizer or fertilizer material or nursery and sugar-cane stock in storm-stricken areas in Florida and Louisiana: Provided, That not less than $5,000,000 of this fund shall be available in the States of South Dakota, North Dakota, and Montana.

Whereas the United States in its relations with China has always endeavored to act in a spirit of mutual fairness and equity and with due regard for the conditions prevailing from time to time in the two countries, and since the development of conditions in China makes it desirable that the United States at the present time, in accordance with its traditional policy, should take the initiative in bringing about a readjustment of its treaty relations with China: Therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the President of the United States be, and he hereby is, respectfully requested to enter into negotiations with duly accredited agents of the Republic of China, authorized to speak for the people of China, with a view to the negotiation and the drafting of a treaty or of treaties between the United States of America and the Republic of China which shall take the place of the treaties now in force between the two countries, which provide for the exercise in China of American extraterritorial or jurisdictional rights or limit her full autonomy with reference to the levying of customs dues or other taxes, or of such other treaty provisions as may be found to be unequal or nonreciprocal in character, to the end that henceforth the treaty relations between the two countries shall be upon an equitable and reciprocal basis and will be such as will in no way offend the sovereign dignity of either of the parties or place obstacles in the way of realization by either of them of their several national aspirations or the maintenance by them of their several legitimate domestic policies.

The President of the United States; Presiding Officer of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, ex officio; eight persons appointed by the President of the United States; four Senators and four Representatives, whose duty it is to prepare a plan or plans and a program signifying the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington, and to take such steps as may be necessary in the coordination and correlation of plans prepared by State commissions or by bodies created under appointment by the governors of the respective States and by representative civic bodies: Therefore

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress of the United States earnestly and respectfully invites the full cooperation of the legislatures and the chief executives of the respective States and Territories of the United States in the execution of the joint resolution of Congress creating the United States Commission for the Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington in such manner as may seem to them most fitting to the end that the bicentennial anniversary of the birth of him who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen"—the pioneer, the soldier, the statesman, the husbandman, the exemplar of American citizenship—George Washington, may be commemorated in the year 1932 in such manner that future generations of American citizens may live according to the example and precepts of his exalted life and character and thus perpetrate the American Republic; and be it further

INDIAN OIL AND GAS LANDS

Mr. HAYDEN, by direction of the Committee on Indian Affairs, called up from the Speaker's table the bill of the Senate (S. 4893) to authorize oil and gas mining leases upon unallotted lands within Executive order Indian reservations.

Mr. SPROUL of Kansas made the point of order that the bill should be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union on the ground, first, that the bill provides for the disposal of Government property, and, second, that section 2 of the bill proposes a charge against the Treasury.

After debate,

The SPEAKER overruled the points of order, and said:

"The Chair is prepared to rule. This motion presents a very interesting question. It has been very ably argued, the Chair thinks, on both sides, by the gentleman from Arizona and others on the one side, and by the gentleman from Kansas on the other.

"The question presented is this: Is the House bill properly on the Union Calendar or might it not be properly on the House Calendar? If it could be properly on the House Calendar the motion of the gentleman from Arizona is in order, but if it should be properly on the Union Calendar it is not in order.

The gentleman from Kansas makes the point of order that the bill should be on the Union Calendar or that it should be considered in the Committee of the Whole under paragraph 3, of Rule XXIII, which provides:

"All motions or propositions involving a tax or charge upon the people; all proceedings touching appropriations of money, or bills making appropriations of money or property, or requiring such appropriation to be made, or authorizing payments out of appropriations already made, or releasing any liability to the United States for money or property, or referring any claim to the Court of Claims, shall be first considered in a Committee of the Whole, and a point of order under this rule shall be good at any time before the consideration of a bill has commenced."

"The gentleman from Kansas makes the point of order on two grounds. First, that the bill disposes of property owned by the United States and not owned by the Indians; and, second, that section 2 of the bill provides for an appropriation of money.

"Section 2 of the bill provides that the proceeds from rentals, and so forth, of this property—

"Shall draw interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum and be available for appropriation by Congress."

"Query: Is this an appropriation? * * *

"The Chair will put it in another way. Does section 2 on its face provide a charge on the Treasury?

"The Chair thinks it is a little doubtful on its face, but in view of the statement made by the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MADDEN], who knows more about practical questions relating to appropriations than any other living man, that under the rules and procedure of his committee this is not an appropriation, the Chair will so hold. As the Chair understands it, this is not a direct charge on the Treasury, but is a fund which is kept to the credit of the Indians and available for all sorts of uses by the Treasury. A mere book account is kept and 2 per cent semiannually is credited to this fund, and the fund is available for any proper use by the Treasury and probably draws interest at the rate of 4 per cent or perhaps more than 4 per cent. Under these conditions the Chair does not think that section 2 of this bill of itself and on its face creates a charge on the Treasury.

"As to the question whether this is public land or Indian land, the Chair listened attentively to the argument of the gentleman from Kansas, but if it was doubtful in the past as to whether there is a distinction between lands given to the Indians by treaty or by Executive order, all doubt is removed by the opinion of the Attorney General, as follows:

"When by an Executive order public lands are set aside, either as a new Indian reservation or an addition to an old one, without further language indicating that the action is a mere temporary expedient, such lands are thereafter properly known and designated as an Indian reservation; and so long, at least, as the order continues in force the Indians have the right of occupancy and use and the United States has the title in fee."

"The following statement also occurs in his opinion:

"The important matter here, however, is that neither the courts nor Congress have made any distinction as to the character or extent of the Indian rights as between Executive-order reservations and reservations established by treaty or act of Congress."

"Furthermore—

"In Spalding v. Chandler, which involved an Executive-order Indian reservation, the Supreme Court said (pp. 402, 403):

"It has been settled by repeated adjudications of this court that the fee of the lands in this country in the original occupation of the Indian tribes was from the time of the formation of this Government vested in the United States. The Indian title as against the United States was merely a title and right to the perpetual occupancy of the land, with the privilege of using it in such mode as they saw fit until such right of occupation had been surrendered to the Government. When Indian reservations were created, either by treaty or Executive order, the Indians held the land by the same character of title, to wit, the right to possess and occupy the lands for the uses and purposes designated."

"Under these circumstances the Chair thinks, first, that this bill does not create, on its face, a charge on the Treasury; second, that it disposes of lands which are held in trust for the Indians; and being convinced about these two propositions, the Chair thinks the bill does not require consideration in Committee of the Whole.

"This being the case, the motion of the gentleman from Arizona is in order and the Chair overrules the point of order made by the gentleman from Kansas."

The bill was then considered and read twice.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. HAYDEN, the previous question was ordered on the bill to its passage or rejection.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, and was read a third time by title.

The question being put,

Will the House pass said bill?

On a division there appeared—yeas 115, nays 59.

Whereupon Mr. SCHAFER made objection that a quorum was not present and not voting.

The SPEAKER, after counting, announced that 227 Members were present, a quorum.

Mr. SCHAFER demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was not supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were refused.

So, the bill was passed.

A motion by Mr. LEAVITT to reconsider the vote whereby said bill was passed was, on his motion and by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

By unanimous consent, the bill H. R. 15021, a similar House bill, was laid on the table.

A motion by Mr. DENISON to reconsider the vote whereby said bill was passed was, on his motion and by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

By unanimous consent, the bill H. R. 16734, a similar House bill, was laid on the table.

Strike out all after the enacting clause and in lieu thereof insert the following:

That the consent of Congress is hereby granted to the Mount Hope Bridge Company, a corporation of the State of Rhode Island, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain, and operate a bridge and approaches thereto across Mount Hope Bay, at a point suitable to the interests of navigation, between the town of Bristol, in Bristol County, Rhode Island, and the town of Portsmouth, in Newport County, Rhode Island, in accordance with the provisions of the act entitled "An act to regulate the construction of bridges over navigable waters," approved March 23, 1906, and subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this act.

Sec. 2. After the completion of such bridge, as determined by the Secretary of War, either the State of Rhode Island, any political subdivision thereof within or adjoining which any part of such bridge is located, or any two or more of them jointly, may at any time acquire and take over all right, title, and interest in such bridge and its approaches, and any interests in real property necessary therefor, by purchase or condemnation in accordance with the laws of such State governing the acquisition of private property for public purposes by condemnation. If at any time after the expiration of twenty-five years after the completion of such bridge the same is acquired by condemnation, the amount of damages or compensation to be allowed shall not include good will, going value, or prospective revenues or profits, but shall be limited to the sum of (1) the actual cost of constructing such bridge and its approaches, less a reasonable deduction for actual depreciation in value, (2) the actual cost of acquiring such interests in real property, (3) actual financing and promotion cost, not to exceed 10 per centum of the sum of the cost of constructing the bridge and its approaches and acquiring such interest in real property, and (4) actual expenditures for necessary improvements.

Sec. 3. If such bridge shall at any time be taken over or acquired by any municipality or other political subdivision or subdivisions of the State of Rhode Island under the provisions of section 2 of this act, and if tolls are charged for the use thereof, the rates of toll shall be so adjusted as to provide a fund sufficient to pay for the cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the bridge and its approaches, and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to amortize the amount paid for such bridge and its approaches as soon as possible under reasonable charges, but within a period of not to exceed twenty-five years from the date of acquiring the same. After a sinking fund sufficient to amortize the cost of acquiring the bridge and its approaches shall have been provided, such bridge shall thereafter be maintained and operated free of tolls, or the rates of tolls shall thereafter be so adjusted as to provide a fund of not to exceed the amount necessary for the proper care, repair, maintenance, and operation of the bridge and its approaches. An accurate record of the amount paid for the bridge and its approaches, the expenditures for operating, repairing, and maintaining the same, and of daily tolls collected shall be kept and shall be available for the information of all persons interested.

Sec. 4. The Mount Hope Bridge Company, its successors, and assigns shall within ninety days after the completion of such bridge file with the Secretary of War a sworn itemized statement showing the actual original cost of constructing such bridge and its approaches, the actual cost of acquiring any interest in real property necessary therefor, and the actual financing and promotion cost. The Secretary of War may at any time within three years after the completion of such bridge investigate the actual cost of constructing the same, and for such purpose the said Mount Hope Bridge Company, its successors, and assigns shall make available all of its records in connection with the financing and the construction thereof. The findings of the Secretary of War as to the actual original cost of the bridge shall be conclusive, subject only to review in a court of equity for fraud or gross mistake.

Sec. 5. The right to sell, assign, transfer, and mortgage all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred by this act is hereby granted to the Mount Hope Bridge Company, its successors and assigns, and any corporation to which or any person to whom such rights, powers, and privileges may be sold, assigned, or transferred, or who shall acquire the same by mortgage foreclosure or otherwise, is hereby authorized and empowered to exercise the same as fully as though conferred herein directly upon such corporation or person.

Sec. 6. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this act is hereby expressly reserved.

If the report of such physician shows that the estimate of the physician has not been impartial from the standpoint of such employee, the deputy commissioner shall have the power in his discretion to charge the cost of such examination to the employer, if he is a self-insurer, or to the insurance company which is carrying the risk.

(c) All fees and other charges for such treatment or service shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of like standard of living, and shall be subject to regulation by the deputy commissioner.

(e) Temporary partial disability: In case of temporary partial disability resulting in decrease of earning capacity the compensation shall be two-thirds of the difference between the injured employee's average weekly wages before the injury and his wage earning capacity after the injury in the same or another employment, to be paid during the continuance of such disability, but shall not be paid for a period exceeding five years.

(f) Injury increasing disability: (1) If an employee receive an injury which of itself would only cause permanent partial disability, but which combined with a previous disability does in fact cause permanent total disability, the employer shall provide compensation only for the disability caused by the subsequent injury: Provided, however, That in addition to compensation for such permanent partial disability, and after the cessation of the payments for the prescribed period of weeks the employee shall be paid the remainder of the compensation that would be due for permanent total disability. Such additional compensation shall be paid out of the special fund established in section 44.

(2) In all other cases in which, following a previous disability, an employee receives an injury which is not covered by (1) of this subdivision, the employer shall provide compensation only for the disability caused by the subsequent injury. In determining compensation for the subsequent injury or for death resulting therefrom, the average weekly wages shall be such sum as will reasonably represent the earning capacity of the employee at the time of the subsequent injury.

(g) Maintenance for employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation: An employee who as a result of injury is or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for a remunerative occupation and who under the direction of the commission, as provided by section 39 (c) of this act, is being rendered fit to engage in a remunerative occupation, shall receive additional compensation necessary for his maintenance, but such additional compensation shall not exceed $10 a week. The expense shall be paid out of the special fund established in section 44.

Compensation for death

Sec. 9. If the injury causes death, the compensation shall be known as a death benefit and shall be payable in the amount and to or for the benefit of the persons following:

(a) Reasonable funeral expenses not exceeding $200.

(b) If there be a surviving wife or dependent husband and no child of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, to such wife or dependent husband 35 per centum of the average wages of the deceased, during widowhood or dependent widowhood, with two years' compensation in one sum upon remarriage; and if there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, the additional amount of 10 per centum of such wages for each such child until the age of eighteen years; in case of the death or remarriage of such surviving wife or dependent husband any surviving child of the deceased employee, at the time under eighteen years of age, shall have his compensation increased to 15 per centum of such wage, and the same shall be payable until he shall reach the age of eighteen years: Provided, That the total amount payable shall in no case exceed 66⅔ per centum of such wages. The deputy commissioner having jurisdiction over the claim may, in his discretion, require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of a minor child. In the absence of such a requirement the appointment of a guardian for such purposes shall not be necessary.

(c) If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, but no surviving wife or dependent husband, then for the support of each such child under the age of eighteen years, 15 per centum of the wages of the deceased: Provided, That the aggregate shall in no case exceed 66⅔ per centum of such wages.

(d) If there be no surviving wife or dependent husband or child under the age of eighteen years or if the amount payable to a surviving wife or dependent husband and to children under the age of eighteen years shall be less in the aggregate than

66⅔ per centum of the average wages of the deceased; then for the support of grandchildren or brothers and sisters under the age of eighteen years, if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the injury, 15 per centum of such wages for the support of each such person until the age of eighteen years and for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if dependent upon him at the time of the injury, 25 per centum of such wages during such dependency. But in no case shall the aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed the difference between 66⅔ per centum of such wages and the amount payable as hereinbefore provided to surviving wife or dependent husband and for the support of surviving child or children.

(e) In computing death benefits the average weekly wages of the deceased shall be considered to have been not more than $37.50, nor less than $12, but the total weekly compensation shall not exceed the weekly wages of the deceased.

(f) All questions of dependency shall be determined as of the time of the injury.

(g) Aliens: Compensation under this chapter to aliens not residents (or about to become nonresidents) of the United States or Canada shall be the same in amount as provided for residents, except that dependents in any foreign country shall be limited to surviving wife and child or children, or if there be no surviving wife or child or children, to surviving father or mother whom the employee has supported, either wholly or in part, for the period of one year prior to the date of the injury, and except that the commission may, at its option or upon the application of the insurance carrier shall, commute all future installments of compensation to be paid to such aliens by paying or causing to be paid to them one-half of the commuted amount of such future installments of compensation as determined by the commission.

Determination of pay

Sec. 14. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the average weekly wage of the injured employee at the time of the injury shall be taken as the basis upon which to compute compensation and shall be determined as follows:

(a) If the injured employee shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, whether for the same or another employer, during substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding his injury, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

(b) If the injured employee shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of such year, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employee of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or in similar employment in the same or a neighboring place shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

(c) If either of the foregoing methods of arriving at the annual average earnings of an injured employee can not reasonably and fairly be applied, such annual earnings shall be such sum as, having regard to the previous earnings of the injured employee and of other employees of the same or most similar class, working in the same or most similar employment in the same or neighboring locality, shall reasonably represent the annual earning capacity of the injured employee in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury.

(d) The average weekly wages of an employee shall be one fifty-second part of his average annual earnings.

(e) If it be established that the injured employee was a minor when injured, and that under normal conditions his wages should be expected to increase during the period of disability, the fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages.

Guardian for minor or incompetent

Sec. 11. The deputy commissioner may require the appointment by a court of competent jurisdiction, for any person who is mentally incompetent or a minor, of a guardian or other representative to receive compensation payable to such person under this act and to exercise the powers granted to or to perform the duties required of such person under this act.

Notice of injury or death

Sec. 12. (a) Notice of an injury or death in respect of which compensation is payable under this act shall be given within thirty days after the date of such injury or death (1) to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury occurred and (2) to the employer.

(b) Such notice shall be in writing, shall contain the name and address of the employee and a statement of the time, place, nature, and cause of the injury or death, and shall be signed by the employee or by some person on his behalf, or in case of death by any person claiming to be entitled to compensation for such death or by a person on his behalf.

(c) Notice shall be given to the deputy commissioner by delivering it to him or sending it by mail addressed to his office, and to the employer by delivering it to him or by sending it by mail addressed to him at his last-known place of business. If the employer is a partnership such notice may be given to any partner, or if a corporation such notice may be given to any agent or officer thereof upon whom legal process may be served or who is in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred.

(d) Failure to give such notice shall not bar any claim under this act (1) if the employer (or his agent in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred) or the carrier had knowledge of the injury or death and the deputy commissioner determines that the employer or carrier has not been prejudiced by failure to give such notice, or (2) if the deputy commissioner excuses such failure on the ground that for some satisfactory reason such notice could not be given; nor unless objection to such failure is raised before the deputy commissioner at the first hearing of a claim for compensation in respect of such injury or death.

Time for filing of claims

Sec. 13. (a) The right to compensation for disability under this act shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the injury, and the right to compensation for death shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the death, except that if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such injury or death a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment. Such claim shall be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury or such death occurred.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subdivision shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

(c) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this act is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subdivision (a) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(d) Where recovery is denied to any person, in a suit brought at law or in admiralty to recover damages in respect of injury or death, on the ground that such person was an employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this act and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this act, the limitation of time prescribed in subdivision (a) shall begin to run only from the date of termination of such suit.

Payment of compensation

Sec. 14. (a) Compensation under this act shall be paid periodically, promptly, and directly to the person entitled thereto, without an award, except where liability to pay compensation is controverted by the employer.

(b) The first installment of compensation shall become due on the fourteenth day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments, semi-monthly, except where the deputy commissioner determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(c) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the deputy commissioner, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(d) If the employer controverts the right to compensation he shall file with the deputy commissioner on or before the fourteenth day after he has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that the right to compensation is controverted, the name of the claimant, the name of the employer, the date of the alleged injury or death, and the grounds upon which the right to compensation is controverted.

(e) If any installment of compensation payable without an award is not paid within 14 days after it becomes due, as provided in this act, the right to compensation shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the death, except that if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such injury or death a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment. Such claim shall be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury or such death occurred.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subdivision shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

(g) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this act is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subdivision (a) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(d) Where recovery is denied to any person, in a suit brought at law or in admiralty to recover damages in respect of injury or death, on the ground that such person was an employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this act and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this act, the limitation of time prescribed in subdivision (a) shall begin to run only from the date of termination of such suit.

Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments, semi-monthly, except where the deputy commissioner determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(c) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the deputy commissioner, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(d) If the employer controverts the right to compensation he shall file with the deputy commissioner on or before the fourteenth day after he has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that the right to compensation is controverted, the name of the claimant, the name of the employer, the date of the alleged injury or death, and the grounds upon which the right to compensation is controverted.

(e) If any installment of compensation payable without an award is not paid within 14 days after it becomes due, as provided in this act, the right to compensation shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the death, except that if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such injury or death a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment. Such claim shall be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury or such death occurred.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subdivision shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

(g) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this act is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subdivision (a) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

Sec. 14. (a) Compensation under this act shall be paid periodically, promptly, and directly to the person entitled thereto, without an award, except where liability to pay compensation is controverted by the employer.

(b) The first installment of compensation shall become due on the fourteenth day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments, semi-monthly, except where the deputy commissioner determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(c) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the deputy commissioner, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(d) If the employer controverts the right to compensation he shall file with the deputy commissioner on or before the fourteenth day after he has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that the right to compensation is controverted, the name of the claimant, the name of the employer, the date of the alleged injury or death, and the grounds upon which the right to compensation is controverted.

vided in this act, the right to compensation shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the death, except that if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such injury or death a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment. Such claim shall be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury or such death occurred.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subdivision shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

(g) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this act is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subdivision (a) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(d) Where recovery is denied to any person, in a suit brought at law or in admiralty to recover damages in respect of injury or death, on the ground that such person was an employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this act and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this act, the limitation of time prescribed in subdivision (a) shall begin to run only from the date of termination of such suit.

Payment of compensation

Sec. 14. (a) Compensation under this act shall be paid periodically, promptly, and directly to the person entitled thereto, without an award, except where liability to pay compensation is controverted by the employer.

(b) The first installment of compensation shall become due on the fourteenth day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments, semi-monthly, except where the deputy commissioner determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

vided in subdivision (b) of this section, there shall be added to such unpaid installment an amount equal to 10 per cent thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment, unless notice is filed under subdivision (d) of this section, or unless such nonpayment is excused by the deputy commissioner after a showing by the employer that owing to conditions over which he had no control such installment could not be paid within the period prescribed for the payment.

(f) If any compensation, payable under the terms of an award, is not paid within 10 days after it becomes due, there shall be added to such unpaid compensation an amount equal to 20 per cent thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as but in addition to such compensation, unless review of the compensation order making such award is had as provided in section 21.

(g) Within 16 days after final payment of compensation has been made, the employer shall send to the deputy commissioner a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that such final payment has been made, the total amount of compensation paid, the name of the employee and of any other person to whom compensation has been paid, the date of the injury or death, and the date to which compensation has been paid. If the employer fails to so notify the deputy commissioner within such time the commission shall assess against such employer a civil penalty in the amount of $100.

(h) The deputy commissioner (1) may upon his own initiative at any time in a case in which payments are being made without an award, and (2) shall in any case where right to compensation is controverted, or where payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, upon receipt of notice from any person entitled to compensation, or from the employer, that the right to compensation is controverted, or that payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, make such investigations, cause such medical examinations to be made, or hold such hearings, and take such further action as he considers will properly protect the rights of all parties.

(i) Whenever the deputy commissioner deems it advisable he may require any employer to make a deposit with the Treasurer of the United States to secure the prompt and convenient payment of such compensation, and payments therefrom upon any awards shall be made upon order of the deputy commissioner.

(j) Whenever the deputy commissioner determines that it is for the best interests of a person entitled to compensation, the liability of the employer for such compensation may be discharged by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of all future payments of compensation computed at 4 per centum true discount compounded annually. The probability of the death of the injured employee or other person entitled to compensation before the expiration of the period during which he is entitled to compensation shall be determined in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality. The probability of the happening of any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation shall be disregarded.

(k) If the employer has made advance payments of compensation, he shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of any unpaid installment or installments of compensation due.

(l) An injured employee, or in case of death his dependents or personal representative, shall give receipts for payment of compensation to the employer paying the same and such employer shall produce the same for inspection by the deputy commissioner whenever required.

(m) The total of compensation payable under this act for injury or death shall in no event exceed the sum of $7,500.

Invalid agreements

Sec. 15. (a) No agreement by an employee to pay any portion of premium paid by his employer to a carrier or to contribute to a benefit fund or department maintained by such employer for the purpose of providing compensation or medical services and supplies as required by this act shall be valid, and any employer who makes a deduction for such purpose from the pay of any employee entitled to the benefits of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000.

(b) No agreement by an employee to waive his right to compensation under this act shall be valid.

Assignment and exemption from claims of creditors

Sec. 16. No assignment, release, or commutation of compensation or benefits due or payable under this act, except as provided by this act, shall be valid, and such compensation and benefits shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy, execution, and attachment or other remedy for recovery or collection of a debt, which exemption may not be waived,

Compensation a lien against assets

Sec. 17. Compensation shall have the same preference of lien against the assets of a carrier or employer without limit of amount as is now or may hereafter be allowed by law to the claimant for unpaid wages or otherwise.

Collection of defaulted payments

Sec. 18. In case of default by the employer in the payment of compensation due under any award of compensation for a period of thirty days after the compensation is due and payable, the person to whom such compensation is payable may, within one year after such default, make application to the deputy commissioner making the compensation order or a supplementary order declaring the amount of the default. After investigation, notice, and hearing, as provided in section 19, the deputy commissioner shall make a supplementary order, declaring the amount of the default, which shall be filed in the same manner as the compensation order. In case the payment in default is an installment of the award, the deputy commissioner may, in his discretion, declare the whole of the award as the amount in default. The applicant may file a certified copy of such supplementary order with the clerk of the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the employer has his principal place of business or maintains an office, or for the judicial district in which the injury occurred. In case such principal place of business or office or place where the injury occurred is in the District of Columbia, a copy of such supplementary order may be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Such supplementary order of the deputy commissioner shall be final, and the court shall upon the filing of the copy enter judgment for the amount declared in default by the supplementary order if such supplementary order is in accordance with law. Review of the judgment so entered may be had as in civil suits for damages at common law. Final proceedings to execute the judgment may be had by writ of execution in the form used by the court in suits at common law in actions of assumpsit. No fee shall be required for filing the supplementary order nor for entry of judgment thereon, and the applicant shall not be liable for costs in a proceeding for review of the judgment unless the court shall otherwise direct. The court shall modify such judgment to conform to any later compensation order upon presentation of a certified copy thereof to the court.

Procedure in respect of claims

Sec. 19. (a) Subject to the provisions of section 13 a claim for compensation may be filed with the deputy commissioner in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commission at any time after the first seven days of disability following any injury, or at any time after death, and the deputy commissioner shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all questions in respect of such claim.

(b) Within ten days after such claim is filed the deputy commissioner, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commission, shall notify the employer and any other person (other than the claimant), whom the deputy commissioner considers an interested party, that a claim has been filed. Such notice may be served personally upon the employer or other person, or sent to such employer or person by registered mail.

(c) The deputy commissioner shall make or cause to be made such investigations as he considers necessary in respect of the claim, and upon application of any interested party shall order a hearing thereon. If a hearing on such claim is ordered, the deputy commissioner shall give the claimant and other interested parties at least ten days' notice of such hearing, served personally upon the claimant and other interested parties or sent to such claimant and other interested parties by registered mail, and shall within twenty days after such hearing is had, by order, reject the claim or make an award in respect of the claim. If no hearing is ordered within twenty days after notice is given as provided in subdivision (b), the deputy commissioner shall, by order, reject the claim or make an award in respect of the claim.

(d) At such hearing the claimant and the employer may each present evidence in respect of such claim and may be represented by any person authorized in writing for such purpose.

(e) The order rejecting the claim or making the award (referred to in this act as a compensation order) shall be filed in the office of the deputy commissioner, and a copy thereof shall be sent by registered mail to the claimant and to the employer at the last known address of each.

(f) An award of compensation for disability may be made after the death of an injured employee.

(g) After a compensation order has issued in any case the deputy commissioner may transfer such case to any other deputy commissioner for the purpose of taking testimony or making physical examinations.

(h) An injured employee claiming or entitled to compensation shall submit to such physical examination by a medical officer of the United States or by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the commission as the deputy commissioner may require. The place or places shall be reasonably convenient for the employee. Such physician or physicians as the employee, employer, or carrier may select and pay for may participate in an examination if the employee, employer, or carrier so requests. Proceedings shall be suspended and no compensation be payable for any period during which the employee may refuse to submit to examination.

Presumptions

Sec. 20. In any proceeding for the enforcement of a claim for compensation under this act it shall be presumed, in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary—

(a) That the claim comes within the provision of this act.

(b) That sufficient notice of such claim has been given.

(c) That the injury was not occasioned solely by the intoxication of the injured employee.

(d) That the injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to injure or kill himself or another.

Review of compensation orders

Sec. 21. (a) A compensation order shall become effective when filed in the office of the deputy commissioner as provided in section 19, and, unless proceedings for the suspension or setting aside of such order are instituted as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, shall become final at the expiration of the thirtieth day thereafter.

(b) If not in accordance with law, a compensation order may be suspended or set aside, in whole or in part, through injunction proceedings, mandatory or otherwise, brought by any party in interest against the deputy commissioner making the order, and instituted in the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the injury occurred (or in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia if the injury occurred in the District). The orders, writs, and processes of the court in such proceedings may run, be served, and be returnable anywhere in the United States. The payment of the amounts required by an award shall not be stayed pending final decision in any such proceeding unless upon application for an interlocutory injunction the court, on hearing, after not less than three days' notice to the parties in interest and the deputy commissioner, allows the stay of such payments, in whole or in part, where irreparable damage would otherwise ensue to the employer. The order of the court allowing any such stay shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the court and identified by reference thereto, that such irreparable damage would result to the employer, and specifying the nature of the damage.

(c) If any employer or his officers or agents fails to comply with a compensation order making an award, that has become final, any beneficiary of such award or the deputy commissioner making the order, may apply for the enforcement of the order to the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the injury occurred (or to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia if the injury occurred in the District). If the court determines that the order was made and served in accordance with law, and that such employer or his officers or agents have failed to comply therewith, the court shall enforce obedience to the order by writ of injunction or by other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to enjoin upon such person and his officers and agents compliance with the order.

(d) Proceedings for suspending, setting aside, or enforcing a compensation order, whether rejecting a claim or making an award, shall not be instituted otherwise than as provided in this section and section 18.

Modification of awards

Sec. 22. Upon his own initiative, or upon application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in conditions, the deputy commissioner may at any time during the term of an award and after the compensation order in respect of such award has become final, review such order in accordance with the procedure prescribed in respect of claims in section 19, and in accordance with such section issue a new compensation order which may terminate, continue, increase, or decrease such compensation. Such new order shall not affect any compensation paid under authority of the prior order.

Procedure before the deputy commissioner

Sec. 23. (a) In making an investigation or inquiry or conducting a hearing the deputy commissioner shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of procedure, except as provided by this act;

but may make such investigation or inquiry or conduct such hearings in such manner as to best ascertain the rights of the parties. Declarations of a deceased employee concerning the injury in respect of which the investigation or inquiry is being made or the hearing conducted shall be received in evidence and shall, if corroborated by other evidence, be sufficient to establish the injury.

(b) Hearings before a deputy commissioner shall be open to the public and shall be stenographically reported, and the deputy commissioners, subject to the approval of the commission, are authorized to contract for the reporting of such hearings. The commission shall by regulation provide for the preparation of a record of the hearings and other proceedings before the deputy commissioners.

Witnesses

Sec. 24. No person shall be required to attend as a witness in any proceeding before a deputy commissioner at a place outside of the State of his residence and more than one hundred miles from his place of residence, unless his lawful mileage and fee for one day's attendance shall be first paid or tendered to him; but the testimony of any witness may be taken by deposition or interrogatories according to the rules of practice of the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the case is pending (or of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia if the case is pending in the District).

Witness fees

Sec. 25. Witnesses summoned in a proceeding before a deputy commissioner or whose depositions are taken shall receive the same fees and mileage as witness in courts of the United States.

Costs in proceedings brought without reasonable grounds

Sec. 26. If the court having jurisdiction of proceedings in respect of any claim or compensation order determines that the proceedings in respect of such claim or order have been instituted or continued without reasonable ground, the costs of such proceedings shall be assessed against the party who has so instituted or continued such proceedings.

Powers of deputy commissioners

Sec. 27. (a) The deputy commissioner shall have power to preserve and enforce order during any such proceedings; to issue subpoenas for, to administer oaths to, and to compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths; to examine witnesses; and to do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable him effectively to discharge the duties of his office.

(b) If any person in proceedings before a deputy commissioner disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent book, paper, or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take the oath as a witness, or after having taken the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the deputy commissioner shall certify the facts to the district court having jurisdiction in the place in which he is sitting (or to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia if he is sitting in such District), which shall thereupon in a summary manner hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process of or in the presence of the court.

Fees for services

Sec. 28. (a) No claim for legal services or for any other services rendered in respect of a claim or award for compensation to or on account of any person shall be valid unless approved by the deputy commissioner, or if proceedings for review of the order of the deputy commissioner in respect of such claim or award are had before any court, unless approved by such court. Any claim so approved shall, in the manner and to the extent fixed by the deputy commissioner or such court, be a lien upon such compensation.

(b) Any person (1) who receives any fee, other consideration, or any gratuity on account of services so rendered, unless such consideration or gratuity is approved by the deputy commissioner or such court, or (2) who makes it a business to solicit employment for a lawyer or for himself in respect of any claim or award for compensation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Record of injury or death

Sec. 29. Every employer shall keep a record in respect of any injury to an employee. Such record shall contain such information of disease, other disability, or death in respect of such injury as the commission may by regulation require, and shall be available to inspection by the commission or by any State authority at such times and under such conditions as the commission may by regulation prescribe.

Reports

Sec. 30. (a) Within 10 days from the date of any injury or death or from the date that the employer has knowledge of a disease or infection in respect of such injury, the employer shall send to the commission a report setting forth (1) the name, address, and business of the employer; (2) the name, address, and occupation of the employee; (3) the cause and nature of the injury or death; (4) the year, month, day, and hour when and the particular locality where the injury or death occurred; and (5) such other information as the commission may require. A copy of such report shall be sent at the same time to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which the injury occurred.

(b) Additional reports in respect of such injury and of the condition of such employee shall be sent by the employer to the commission and to such deputy commissioner at such times and in such manner as the commission may prescribe.

(c) Any report provided for in subdivision (a) or (b) shall not be evidence of any fact stated in such report in any proceeding in respect of such injury or death on account of which the report is made.

(d) The mailing of any such report and copy in a stamped envelope, within the time prescribed in subdivisions (a) or (b), to the commission and deputy commissioner, respectively, shall be a compliance with this section.

(e) Any employer who fails or refuses to send any report required of him by this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for each such failure or refusal.

Penalty for misrepresentation

Sec. 31. Any person who willfully makes any false or misleading statement or representation for the purpose of obtaining any benefit or payment under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment of not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Security for compensation

Sec. 32. (a) Every employer shall secure the payment of compensation under this act—

(1) By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation with any stock company or mutual company or association, or with any other person or fund, while such person or fund is authorized (A) under the laws of the United States or of any State, to insure workmen's compensation, and (B) by the commission, to insure payment of compensation under this act; or

(2) By furnishing satisfactory proof to the commission of his financial ability to pay such compensation and receiving an authorization from the commission to pay such compensation directly. The commission may, as a condition to such authorization, require such employer to deposit in a depository designated by the commission either an indemnity bond or securities (at the option of the employer) of a kind and in an amount determined by the commission, and subject to such conditions as the commission may prescribe, which shall include authorization to the commission in case of default to sell any such securities sufficient to pay compensation awards or to bring suit upon such bonds, to procure prompt payment of compensation under this act. Any employer securing compensation in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall be known as a self-insurer.

(b) In granting authorization to any carrier to insure payment of compensation under this act the commission may take into consideration the recommendation of any State authority having supervision over carriers or over workmen's compensation, and may authorize any carrier to insure the payment of compensation under this act in a limited territory. Any marine vessel and indemnity mutual insurance corporation or association authorized to write insurance against liability for loss or damage from personal injury and death, and for other losses and damages incidental to or in respect of the ownership, operation, or chartering of vessels on a mutual assessment plan, shall be deemed a qualified carrier to insure compensation under this act. The commission may suspend or revoke any such authorization for good cause shown after a hearing at which the carrier shall be entitled to be heard in person or by counsel and to present evidence. No suspension or revocation shall affect the liability of any carrier already incurred.

Compensation for injuries where third persons are liable

Sec. 33. (a) If on account of a disability or death for which compensation is payable under this act the person entitled to such compensation determines that some person other than the employer is liable in damages, he may elect, by giving notice to the deputy commissioner in such manner as the commission may provide, to receive such compensation or to recover damages against such third person.

(b) Acceptance of such compensation shall operate as an assignment to the employer of all right of the person entitled to compensation to recover damages against such third person, whether or not the person entitled to compensation has notified the deputy commissioner of his election.

(c) The payment of such compensation into the fund established in section 44 shall operate as an assignment to the employer of all right of the legal representative of the deceased (hereinafter referred to as "representative") to recover damages against such third person, whether or not the representative has notified the deputy commissioner of his election.

(d) Such employer on account of such assignment may either institute proceedings for the recovery of such damages or may compromise with such third person either without or after instituting such proceeding.

(e) Any amount recovered by such employer on account of such assignment, whether or not as the result of a compromise, shall be distributed as follows:

(1) The employer shall retain an amount equal to—

(A) The expenses incurred by him in respect of such proceedings or compromise (including a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the deputy commissioner);

(B) The cost of all benefits actually furnished by him to the employee under section 7.

(C) All amounts paid as compensation, and the present value of all amounts payable as compensation, such present value to be computed in accordance with a schedule prepared by the commission, and the amounts so computed to be retained by the employer as a trust fund to pay such compensation as it becomes due and to pay any sum, in excess of such compensation, to the person entitled to compensation or to the representative; and

(2) The employer shall pay any excess to the person entitled to compensation or to the representative.

(f) If the person entitled to compensation or the representative elects to recover damages against such third person and notifies the commission of his election and institutes proceedings within the period prescribed in section 13, the employer shall be required to pay as compensation under this act a sum equal to the excess of the amount which the commission determines is payable on account of such injury or death over the amount recovered against such third person.

(g) If a compromise with such third person is made by the person entitled to compensation or such representative of an amount less than the compensation to which such person or representative would be entitled to under this act, the employer shall be liable for compensation as determined in subdivision (c) only if such compromise is made with his written approval.

(h) The deputy commissioner may, if the person entitled to compensation under this act is a minor, make any election required under subdivision (a) of this section, or may authorize the parent or guardian of the minor to make such election.

Compensation notice

Sec. 34. Every employer who has secured compensation under the provisions of this act shall keep posted in a conspicuous place or places in and about his place or places of business typewritten or printed notices, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that such employer has secured the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act. Such notices shall contain the name and address of the carrier, if any, with whom the employer has secured payment of compensation and the date of the expiration of the policy.

Substitution of carrier for employer

Sec. 35. In any case where the employer is not a self-insurer, in order that the liability for compensation imposed by this act may be most effectively discharged by the employer, and in order that the administration of this act in respect of such liability may be facilitated, the commission shall by regulation provide for the discharge, by the carrier for such employer, of such obligations and duties of the employer in respect of such liability, imposed by this act upon the employer, as it considers proper in order to effectuate the provisions of this act. For such purposes (1) notice to or knowledge of an employer of the occurrence of the injury shall be notice to or knowledge of the carrier, (2) jurisdiction of the employer by a deputy commissioner, the commission, or any court under this act shall be jurisdiction of the carrier, and (3) any requirement by a deputy commissioner, the commission, or any court under any compensation order, finding, or decision shall be binding upon the carrier in the same manner and to the same extent as upon the employer.

Insurance policies

Sec. 36. (a) Every policy or contract of insurance issued under authority of this act shall contain (1) a provision to carry out the provisions of section 35, and (2) a provision that insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and/or discharge therein shall not relieve the carrier from payment of compensation for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of such policy or contract.

(b) No contract or policy of insurance issued by a carrier under this act shall be canceled prior to the date specified in such contract or policy for its expiration until at least thirty days have elapsed after a notice of cancellation has been sent to the deputy commissioner and to the employer in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 12.

Certificate of compliance with this act

Sec. 37. No stevedoring firm shall be employed in any compensation district by a vessel or by hull owners until it presents to such vessel or hull owners a certificate issued by a deputy commissioner assigned to such district that it has complied with the provisions of this act requiring the securing of compensation to its employees. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for failure to secure payment of compensation

Sec. 38. Any employer required to secure the payment of compensation under this act who fails to secure such compensation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. This section shall not affect any other liability of the employer under this act.

Administration

Sec. 39. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the United States Employees' Compensation Commission shall administer the provisions of this act, and for such purpose the commission is authorized (1) to make such rules and regulations; (2) to appoint and fix the compensation of such temporary technical assistants and medical advisers, and, subject to the provisions of the civil service laws, to appoint, and, in accordance with the classification act of 1923, to fix the compensation of such deputy commissioners (except deputy commissioners appointed under subdivision (a) of section 40) and other officers and employees; and (3) to make such expenditures (including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books, books of reference, periodicals, and for printing and binding) as may be necessary in the administration of this act. All expenditures of the commission in the administration of this act shall be allowed and paid as provided in section 45 upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the commission.

(b) The commission shall establish compensation districts, to include the high seas and the areas within the United States to which this act applies, and shall assign to each such district one or more deputy commissioners, as the commission deems advisable. Judicial proceedings under sections 18 and 21 of this act in respect of any injury or death occurring on the high seas shall be instituted in the district court within whose territorial jurisdiction is located the office of the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction in respect of such injury or death (or in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia if such office is located in such District).

(c) The commission shall direct the vocational rehabilitation of permanently disabled employees and shall arrange with the appropriate public or private agencies in States or Territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia for such education. The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall cooperate with the commission in such educational work. The commission may in its discretion furnish such prosthetic appliances or other apparatus made necessary by an injury upon which an award has been made under this act to render a disabled employee fit to engage in a remunerative occupation. If any surplus is left in any fiscal year in the fund provided for in section 44, such surplus may be used in subsequent fiscal years for the purposes of this section except for the purposes of administration and investigation.

Deputy commissioners

Sec. 40. (a) The commission may appoint as deputy commissioners any member of any board, commission, or other agency of a State to act as deputy commissioner for any compensation district or part thereof in such State, and may make arrangements with such board, commission, or other agency for the use of the personnel and facilities thereof in the administration of this act. The commission may make such arrangements as may be deemed advisable by it for the payment of expenses of such board, commission, or other agency, incurred in the administration of this act pursuant to this section, and for the payment of salaries to such board, commission, or other agency, or the members thereof, and may pay any amounts agreed upon to the proper officers of the State, upon vouchers approved by the commission.

(b) In any Territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia a person holding an office under the United States may be appointed deputy commissioner and for services rendered as deputy commissioner may be paid compensation, in addition to that he is receiving from the United States, in an amount fixed by the commission in accordance with the classification act of 1923.

(c) Deputy commissioners (except deputy commissioners appointed under subdivision (a) of this section) may be transferred from one compensation district to another and may be temporarily detailed from one compensation district for service in another in the discretion of the commission.

(d) Each deputy commissioner shall maintain and keep open during reasonable business hours an office, at a place designated by the commission, for the transaction of business under this act, at which office he shall keep his official records and papers. Such office shall be furnished and equipped by the commission, who shall also furnish the deputy commissioner with all necessary clerical and other assistants, records, books, blanks, and supplies. Wherever practicable such office shall be located in a building owned or leased by the United States; otherwise the commission shall rent suitable quarters.

(e) If any deputy commissioner is removed from office, or for any reason ceases to act as such deputy commissioner, all of his official records and papers and office equipment shall be transferred to his successor in office or, if there be no successor, then to the commission or to a deputy commissioner designated by the commission.

(f) Neither a deputy commissioner nor any business associate of a deputy commissioner shall appear as attorney in any proceeding under this act, and no deputy commissioner shall act in any such case in which he is interested, or when he is employed by any party in interest or related to any party in interest by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, as determined by the common law.

Investigations by the commission

Sec. 41. (a) The commission shall make studies and investigations with respect to safety provisions and the causes of injuries in employments covered by this act, and shall from time to time make to Congress and to employers and carriers such recommendations as it may deem proper as to the best means of preventing such injuries.

(b) In making such studies and investigations the commission is authorized (1) to cooperate with any agency of the United States charged with the duty of enforcing any law securing safety against injury in any employment covered by this act, or with any State agency, engaged in enforcing any laws to assure safety for employees, and (2) to permit any such agency to have access to the records of the commission. In carrying out the provisions of this section the commission or any officer or employee of the commission is authorized to enter at any reasonable time upon any premises, tracks, wharf, dock, or other landing place, or upon any vessel, or to enter any building, where an employment covered by this act is being carried on, and to examine any tool, appliance, or machinery used in such employment.

Traveling expenses

Sec. 42. The commissioners, deputy commissioners, and other employees of the commission shall be entitled to receive their necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on official business and away from their designated stations, as provided by the subsistence expense act of 1926.

Annual report

Sec. 43. The commission shall make to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a report of the administration of this act for the preceding fiscal year, including a detailed statement of receipts of and expenditures from the funds established in sections 44 and 45, together with such recommendations as the commission deems advisable.

Special fund

Sec. 44. (a) There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a special fund for the purpose of making payments in accordance with the provisions of subsections (f) and (g) of section 8 of this act. Such fund shall be administered by the commission. The Treasurer of the United States shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be money or property of the United States.

(b) The Treasurer is authorized to disburse moneys from such fund only upon order of the commission. He shall be required to give bond in an amount to be fixed and with securities to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duty as custodian of such fund.

(c) Payments into such fund shall be made as follows:

(1) Each employer shall pay $1,000 as compensation for the death of an employee of such employer resulting from injury where the deputy commissioner determines that there is no person entitled under this act to compensation for such death. Fifty per centum of each such payment shall be available for the payments under subdivision (f) of section 8, and 50 per centum shall be available for payments under subdivision (g) of section 8.

(2) All amounts collected as fines and penalties under the provisions of this act shall be paid into such fund.

(d) The Treasurer of the United States shall deposit any moneys paid into such fund into such depository banks as the commission may designate and may invest any portion of the funds which, in the opinion of the commission, is not needed for current requirements, in bonds or notes of the United States or of any Federal land bank.

(e) Neither the United States nor the commission shall be liable in respect of payments authorized under section 8 in an amount greater than the money or property deposited in or belonging to such fund.

(f) The Comptroller General of the United States shall audit the account for such fund, but the action of the commission in making payments from such fund shall be final and not subject to review, and the Comptroller General is authorized and directed to allow credit in the accounts of any disbursing officer of the commission for payments made from such fund authorized by the commission.

(g) All civil penalties provided for in this act shall be collected by civil suit brought by the commission.

Administration fund

Sec. 45. (a) There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a special fund for the purpose of providing for the payment of all expenses in respect of the administration of this act. Such fund shall be administered by the commission. The Treasurer of the United States shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be the money or property of the United States.

(b) The provisions of subdivisions (b), (d), and (f) of section 44 shall be applicable to the fund hereby established.

Appropriation

Sec. 46. (a) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $250,000, which shall be covered into the administration fund established in section 45 and shall be available for expenses incurred in the administration of this act during the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, and during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928. All unexpended balances of any appropriations made under authority of this section remaining in such fund on July 1, 1928, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

Availability of appropriations

Sec. 47. The expenses incurred for salaries and contingent expenses by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission in the administration (1) of the act entitled "An act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes," approved September 7, 1916, as amended, and (2) of this act, may be paid from the appropriations for salaries and contingent expenses for the administration of such act of September 7, 1916, and from the fund established in section 45 of this act, in such proportion as the commission, with the approval of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, determines to be fairly attributable to the cost of administration of the respective acts, but the total amount paid from such appropriations and such fund in any fiscal year on account of the administration of such act of September 7, 1916, shall not exceed the amounts appropriated for salaries and contingent expenses for the administration of such act for such year.

Laws inapplicable

Sec. 48. Nothing in sections 4283, 4284, 4285, 4286, or 4289 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, nor in section 18 of the act entitled "An act to remove certain burdens on the American merchant marine and encourage the American foreign carrying trade, and for other purposes," approved June 26, 1884, as amended, shall be held to limit the amount for which recovery may be had (1) in any suit at law or in admiralty where an employer has failed to secure compensation as required by this act, or (2) in any proceeding for compensation, any addition to compensation, or any civil penalty.

Effect of unconstitutionality

Sec. 49. If any part of this act is adjudged unconstitutional by the courts, and such adjudication has the effect of invalidating any payment of compensation under this act, the period intervening between the time the injury was sustained and the time of such adjudication shall not be computed as a part of the time prescribed by law for the commencement of any action against the employer in respect of such injury; but the amount of any compensation paid under this act on account of such injury shall be deducted from the amount of damages awarded in such action in respect of such injury.

Separability provision

Sec. 50. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the act and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Effective date

Sec. 51. Sections 39 to 51, inclusive, shall become effective upon the passage of this act, and the remainder of this act shall become effective on July 1, 1927.

Mr. BLAND demanded a second.

On motion of Mr. MICHENER, by unanimous consent, a second was considered as ordered.

After debate,

The question being put,

Will the House suspend the rules and pass said bill as amended?

On a division there appeared—yeas 265, nays 7.

So, two-thirds having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said bill was passed.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof and request the concurrence of the Senate in said amendments.

By unanimous consent, the resolution (H. Res. 426) was laid on the table.

REPRESENTATIVE APPORTIONMENT

Mr. FENN moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H. R. 17378) for the apportionment of Representatives in Congress, amended to read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That after the 3d day of March, 1933, the House of Representatives shall be composed of four hundred and thirty-five Members, and these Members shall be apportioned among the several States in the manner directed in the next section of this act.

Sec. 2. That as soon after the next and each subsequent decennial census of the United States as the aggregate population of each State and of the United States shall have been ascertained and duly certified by the Director of the Census, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce, on the basis of these results, to apportion four hundred and thirty-five Representatives among the several States by the method known as the method of equal proportions, based on the principle that the ratios of population to Representatives shall be as nearly as possible the same in all States; Provided, That each State shall have at least one Representative.

Sec. 3. That when the Secretary of Commerce shall have apportioned the Representatives in the manner directed in the preceding section of this act among the several States under the fifteenth or any subsequent decennial census of the inhabitants of the United States he shall, as soon as practicable, make and transmit under the seal of his office to the Clerk of the House of Representatives a certificate of the number of Representatives apportioned to each State under the then last decennial census.

Sec. 4. That the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall forthwith send to the executive of each State a certificate of the number of Representatives apportioned to such State under the then last decennial census.

Sec. 5. That in each State entitled under this act to more than one Representative the Representatives to which said State may be entitled in the Seventy-third and each subsequent Congress shall be elected by districts, composed of contiguous and compact territory and containing as nearly as practicable an equal number of individuals, and in number equal to the number of Representatives to which such State may be entitled in Congress, no one district electing more than one Representative; Provided, however, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed as preventing the legislature of any State by concurrent resolution redistricting the State in accordance with the provisions of this act for the purpose of electing Representatives to any Congress prior to the Seventy-third Congress, and subsequent to the passage of this act, and nothing herein contained shall be so construed to prevent redistricting to elect Representatives to the Seventy-third or any subsequent Congress, and upon any such redistricting the Representatives to the Seventy-third Congress, or any Congress prior or subsequent thereto, shall be elected from the new district so formed.

Sec. 6. That in the election of Representatives to the Seventy-third or any subsequent Congress in any State which under the apportionment provided for in section 2 of this act is given an increased number of Representatives, the additional Representative or Representatives apportioned to such State shall be elected by the State at large, and the other Representatives to which the State is entitled shall be elected by districts until the legislature of the said State shall redistrict it according to the provisions of section 5 of this act.

Sec. 7. That in the election of Representatives to the Seventy-third or any subsequent Congress in any State which under the apportionment provided for in section 2 of this act is given a decreased number of Representatives, the whole number of Representatives to which such State is entitled shall be elected by the State at large until the legislature of said State shall redistrict it in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of this act.

Sec. 8. That candidates for Representatives at large shall be nominated, unless the State concerned shall provide otherwise, in the same manner in which candidates for governor in that State are nominated.

Mr. RANKIN demanded a second.

Mr. BANKHEAD demanded a second.

The SPEAKER appointed Mr. KELLY and Mr. BANKHEAD tellers, and the tellers reported that 37 Members had voted in the affirmative and 74 in the negative.

Whereupon Mr. KELLY made objection that a quorum was not present and not voting, and demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER said:

"The question of a quorum would be determined by a count now, and not by the vote. The Chair is clearly of the opinion that there is a quorum present. He has counted several times, and there are nearly 300 Members present. * * *

"The Chair is prepared to rule. The Chair has before him a precedent directly in line with this. Section 3602, volume 4. Hinds' Precedents—

"The constitutional right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist as to the vote to second a motion when such second is required by the rules. On June 20, 1898, Mr. Thaddeus M. Mahon of Pennsylvania, moved that the rules be suspended and that the amendments of the Senate to the "omnibus claims bill" be nonconcurrent in and a committee of conference be asked.

"Mr. Eugene F. Loud, of California, demanded a second.

"The House divided and the tellers reported—yeas 90, nays 2.

"Mr. Loud made the point of no quorum.

"Mr. Mahon demanded the yeas and nays.

"The Speaker (Mr. REED) said:

"This can not be taken by yeas and nays. It is taken by tellers only. This is not a motion. It is the seconding of a motion, and the constitutional right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist as to a second." * * *

"But this is not a question of no quorum. The precedent cited by the gentleman from New York was where a quorum was not present, but where a quorum is present the Chair thinks that the right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist. * * *

"In that case the point of no quorum was made. In this case it was not made. It is simply a question of whether the yeas and nays can be demanded as a right. The Chair thinks not. * * *

"The Chair is prepared to count if anybody wants the Chair to count, but the Chair is convinced that there are not less than 250 Members present."

So, a second was refused.

So, the joint resolution was passed.

A motion by Mr. JOHNSON of Washington to reconsider the vote whereby said joint resolution was passed was, on his motion and by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

REDUCED FREIGHT RATES

On motion of Mr. NEWTON of Minnesota, by unanimous consent, the bill of the Senate (S. 3286) to authorize reduced freight rates in cases of emergency was considered and read twice.

The following amendment recommended by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce was agreed to:

After line 3, page 2, insert:

That paragraph (2) of section 3 of the interstate commerce act, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

"(2) No carrier by railroad subject to the provisions of this act shall deliver or relinquish possession at destination of any freight transported by it until all tariff rates and charges thereon have been paid, except under such rules and regulations as the commission may from time to time prescribe to govern the settlement of all such rates and charges and to prevent unjust discrimination: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to prohibit any carrier from extending credit in connection with rates and charges on freight transported for the United States, for any department, bureau, or agency thereof, or for any State or Territory or political subdivision thereof, or for the District of Columbia. Where carriers by railroad are instructed by a shipper or consignee to deliver property transported by such carriers to a consignee other than the shipper or consignee, such consignee shall not be legally liable for transportation charges in respect of the transportation of such property (beyond those billed against him at the time of delivery for which he is otherwise liable) which may be found to be due after the property has been delivered to him, if the consignee (a) is an agent only and has no beneficial title in the property and (b) prior to delivery of the property has notified the delivering carrier in writing of the fact of such agency and absence of beneficial title, and, in the case of a shipment reconsigned or diverted to a point other than that specified in the original bill of lading, has also notified the delivering carrier in writing of the name and address of the beneficial owner of the property. In such cases the shipper or consignee, or, in the case of a shipment so reconsigned or diverted, the beneficial owner, shall be liable for such additional charges, irrespective of any provisions to the contrary in the bill of lading or in the contract under which the shipment was made. An action for the enforcement of such liability may be begun within the period provided in paragraph (3) of section 16 or before the expiration of six months after final judgment against the carrier in an action against the consignee begun within the period provided in paragraph (3) of section 16. If the consignee has given to the carrier erroneous information as to whom the beneficial owner is, such consignee shall himself be liable for such additional charges, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph. An action for the enforcement of such liability may be begun within the period provided in paragraph (3) of section 16 or before the expiration of six months after final judgment against the carrier in an action against the beneficial owner named by the consignee begun within the period provided in paragraph (3) of section 16."

Sec. 2, Paragraph (7) of section 15 of the interstate commerce act, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

"(7) Whenever there shall be filed with the commission any schedule stating a new individual or joint rate, fare, or charge, or any new individual or joint classification, or any new individual or joint regulation or practice affecting any rate, fare, or charge, the commission shall have, and it is hereby given, authority, either upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, at once, and if it so orders without answer or other formal pleading by the interested carrier or carriers, but upon reasonable notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of such rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice; and pending such hearing and the decision thereon the commission, upon filing with such schedule and delivering to the carrier or carriers affected thereby a statement in writing of its reasons for such suspension on, may from time to time suspend the operation of such schedule and defer the use of such rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice, but not for a longer period than seven months beyond the time when it would otherwise go into effect; and after full hearing, whether completed before or after the rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice goes into effect, the commission may make such order with reference thereto as would be proper in a proceeding initiated after it had become effective. If the proceeding has not been concluded and an order made within the period of suspension, the proposed change of rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice shall go into effect at the end of such period; but in case of a proposed increased rate or charge for or in respect to the transportation of property, the commission may by order require the interested carrier or carriers to keep accurate account in detail of all amounts received by reason of such increase, specifying by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid, and upon completion of the hearing and decision may by further order require the interested carrier or carriers to refund, with interest, to the persons in whose behalf such amounts were paid, such portion of such increased rates or charges as by its decision shall be found not justified. At any hearing involving a rate, fare, or charge increased after January 1, 1910, or of a rate, fare, or charge sought to be increased after the passage of this act, the burden of proof to show that the increased rate, fare, or charge, or proposed increased rate, fare, or charge, is just and reasonable shall be upon the carrier, and the commission shall give to the hearing and decision of such questions preference over all other questions pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible."

Sec. 3, Paragraphs (11) and (12) of section 20 of the interstate commerce act, as amended, are amended to read as follows:

"(11) That any common carrier, railroad, or transportation company subject to the provisions of this act receiving property for transportation from a point in one State or Territory or the District of Columbia to a point in another State, Territory, District of Columbia, or from any point in the United States to a point in an adjacent foreign country shall issue a receipt or bill of lading therefor and shall be liable to the lawful holder thereof for any loss, damage, or injury to such property caused by it or by any common carrier, railroad, or transportation company to which such property may be delivered or over whose line or lines such property may pass within the United States or within an adjacent foreign country when transported on a through bill of lading, and no contract, receipt, rule, regulation, or other limitation of any character whatsoever, shall exempt such common carrier, railroad, or transportation company from the liability hereby imposed; and any such common carrier, railroad, or transportation company so receiving property for transportation from a point in one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia to a point in another State or Territory, or from a point in a State or Territory to a point in the District of Columbia, or from any point in the United States to a point in an adjacent foreign country, or for transportation wholly within a Territory, or any common carrier, railroad, or transportation company delivering said property so received and transported, shall be liable to the lawful holder of said receipt or bill of lading or to any party entitled to recover thereon, whether such receipt or bill of lading has been issued or not, for the full actual loss, damage, or injury to such property caused by it or by any such common carrier, railroad, or transportation company to which such property may be delivered or over whose line or lines such property may pass within the United States or within an adjacent foreign country when transported on a through bill of lading, notwithstanding any limitation of liability or limitation of the amount of recovery or representation or agreement as to value in any such receipt or bill of lading or in any contract, rule, regulation, or in any tariff filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission; and any such limitation, without respect to the manner or form in which it is sought to be made, is hereby declared to be unlawful and void: Provided, That if the loss, damage, or injury occurs while the property is in the custody of a carrier by water the liability of such carrier shall be determined by and under the laws and regulations applicable to transportation by water, and the liability of the initial or delivering carrier shall be the same as that of such carrier by water: Provided, however, That the provisions hereof respecting liability for full actual loss, damage, or injury, notwithstanding any limitation of liability or recovery or representation or agreement or release as to value, and declaring any such limitation to be unlawful and void, shall not apply, first to baggage carried on passenger trains or boats, or trains or boats carrying passengers; second, to property, except ordinary livestock, received for transportation concerning which the carrier shall have been or shall hereafter be expressly authorized or required by order of the Interstate Commerce Commission to establish and maintain rates dependent upon the value declared in writing by the shipper or agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property, in which case such declaration or agreement shall have no other effect than to limit liability and recovery to an amount not exceeding the value so declared or released, and shall not, so far as relates to value, be held to be a violation of section 10 of this act to regulate commerce, as amended; and any tariff schedule which may be filed with the commission pursuant to such order shall contain specific reference thereto and may establish rates varying with the value so declared or agreed upon; and the commission is hereby empowered to make such order in cases where rates dependent upon and varying with declared or agreed values would, in its opinion, be just and reasonable under the circumstances and conditions surrounding the transportation. The term 'ordinary livestock' shall include all cattle, swine, sheep, goats, horses, and mules, except such as are chiefly valuable for breeding, racing, show purposes, or other special uses: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall deprive any holder of such receipt or bill of lading of any remedy or right of action which he has under the existing law: Provided further, That all actions brought under and by virtue of this paragraph against the delivering carrier shall be brought, and may be maintained, if in a district court of the United States, only in a district, and if in a State court, only in a State, through or into which the defendant carrier operates a line of railroad: Provided further, That it shall be unlawful for any such receiving or delivering common carrier to provide by rule, contract, regulation, or otherwise a shorter period for giving notice of claims than ninety days, for the filing of claims than four months, and for the institution of suits than two years, such period for institution of suits to be computed from the day when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof specified in the notice: Provided, however, That if the loss, damage, or injury complained of was due to carelessness or negligence while the property was in transit, or while the property was being loaded or unloaded, or was due to unreasonable delay in transit or in loading or unloading, then no notice of claim or filing of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to recovery, but in no case under this proviso shall suit be instituted after three years from the time such cause of action accrued: And provided further, That for the purposes of this paragraph and of paragraph (12) the delivering carrier shall be construed to be the carrier performing the line-haul service nearest to the point of destination and not a carrier performing merely a switching service at the point of destination: And provided further, That the liability imposed by this paragraph shall also apply in the case of property reloaded or diverted in accordance with the applicable tariffs filed as in this act provided.

"(12) That the common carrier, railroad, or transportation company issuing such receipt or bill of lading, or delivering such property so received and transported, shall be entitled to recover from the common carrier, railroad, or transportation company on whose line the loss, damage, or injury shall have been sustained, the amount of such loss, damage, or injury as may be required to pay to the owners of such property as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof."

Sec. 4. Section 204 of the transportation act, 1920, is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subdivision to read as follows:

"(h) This section shall not be applicable to any carrier which has not, on or before the expiration of sixty days after this subdivision takes effect, filed with the commission a statement, compiled substantially in the manner prescribed in this section, showing the amount to be due such carrier under this section."

Sec. 5. Section 206 of the transportation act, 1920, as amended is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subdivision to read as follows:

"(j) All actions at law and claims by or on behalf of the United States for the recovery of any charges, or any part thereof, for services rendered during the period of Federal control by any railroad or system of transportation possessed, used, or operated by the President under the provisions of the Federal control act, or the act of August 29, 1916, shall be begun or made before the expiration of ninety days after this subdivision takes effect, and not after."

Sec. 6. Section 22 of the act entitled "An act relating to bills of lading in interstate and foreign commerce," approved August 29, 1916, is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 22. That if a bill of lading has been issued by a carrier or on his behalf by an agent or employee the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the receiving of goods and issuing bills of lading therefor for transportation in commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, the carrier shall be liable to (a) the owner of goods covered by a straight bill subject to existing right of stoppage in transitu or (b) the holder of an order bill, who has given value in good faith, relying upon the description therein of the goods, or upon the shipment being made upon the date therein shown, for damages caused by the nonreceipt by the carrier of all or part of the goods upon or prior to the date therein shown, or their failure to correspond with the description thereof in the bill at the time of its issue."

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be read a third time, was read a third time by title, and passed.

A motion by Mr. NEWTON of Minnesota to reconsider the vote whereby said bill was passed was, on his motion and by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof and request the concurrence of the Senate in said amendment.

On the first Monday of each month immediately after the approval of the Journal, and on the third Monday of each month immediately after the disposition of motions to instruct committees which may be called up, the Speaker shall direct the Clerk to call the bills which have been for three days upon the "Consent Calendar." Should objection be made to the consideration of any bill so called, it shall immediately be stricken from such calendar, but such bill may be restored to the calendar at the instance of the Member, and if again objected to by three or more Members, it shall be immediately stricken from such calendar, and shall not thereafter be placed thereon: Provided, That the same bill shall not be called twice on the same legislative day.

"Mr. Speaker," and, on being recognized, may address the House from any place on the floor or from the Clerk's desk, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding personality.

2. When two or more Members rise at once, the Speaker shall name the Member who is first to speak; and no Member shall occupy more than one hour in debate on any question in the House or in committee, except as further provided in this rule.

3. The Member reporting the measure under consideration from a committee may open and close, where general debate has been had thereon, and if it shall extend beyond one day, he shall be entitled to one hour to close, notwithstanding he may have used an hour in opening.

4. If any Member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any Member may, call him to order; in which case he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted, on motion of another Member, to explain, and the House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case without debate; if the decision is in favor of the Member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed, but not otherwise; and, if the case require it, he shall be liable to censure or such punishment as the House may deem proper.

5. If a Member is called to order for words spoken in debate, the Member calling him to order shall indicate the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's desk and read aloud to the House; but he shall not be held to answer, nor be subject to the censure of the House therefor, if further debate or other business has intervened.

6. No Member shall speak more than once to the same question without leave of the House, unless he be the mover, proposer, or introducer of the matter pending, in which case he shall be permitted to speak in reply, but not until every Member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

7. While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House no Member shall walk out of or across the hall, nor, when a Member is speaking, pass between him and the Chair; and during the session of the House no Member shall wear his hat, or remain by the Clerk's desk during the call of the roll or the counting of ballots, or smoke upon the floor of the House; and the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper are charged with the strict enforcement of this clause. Neither shall any person be allowed to smoke upon the floor of the House at any time.

XX

ON CALLS OF THE ROLL AND HOUSE

1. Upon every roll call the names of the Members shall be called alphabetically by surname, except when two or more have the same surname, in which case the name of the State shall be added; and if there be two such Members from the same State, the whole name shall be called; and after the roll has been once called, the Clerk shall call in their alphabetical order the names of those not voting; and thereafter the Speaker shall not entertain a request to record a vote or announce a pair unless the Member's name has been noted under clause 3 of this rule.

2. In the absence of a quorum, 15 Members, including the Speaker, if there is one, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent Members, and in all calls of the House the doors shall be closed, the names of the Members shall be called by the Clerk, and the absentees noted; and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by order of a majority of those present, be sent for and arrested, wherever they may be found, by officers to be appointed by the Sergeant at Arms for that purpose; and their attendance secured and retained; and the House shall determine upon what condition they shall be discharged. Members who voluntarily appear shall, unless the House otherwise directs, be immediately admitted to the Hall of the House, and they shall report their names to the Clerk to be entered upon the Journal as present.

3. On the demand of any Member, or at the suggestion of the Speaker, the names of Members sufficient to make a quorum in the Hall of the House who do not vote shall be noted by the Clerk and recorded in the Journal and reported to the Speaker with the names of the Members voting, and be counted and announced in determining the presence of a quorum to do business.

4. Whenever a quorum fails to vote on any question, and a quorum is not present and objection is made for that cause, unless the House shall adjourn, there shall be a call of the House and the Sergeant at Arms shall forthwith proceed to bring in absent Members, and the yeas and nays on the pending question shall at the same time be considered as ordered. The Clerk shall call the roll, and each Member as he answers to his name may vote on the pending question, and, after the roll call is completed, each Member arrested shall be brought by the Sergeant at Arms before the House, whereupon he shall be noted as present, discharged from arrest, and given an opportunity to vote, and his vote shall be recorded. If those voting on the question and those who are present and decline to vote shall together make a majority of the House, the Speaker shall declare that a quorum is constituted, and the pending question shall be decided as the majority of those voting shall appear. And thereupon further proceedings under the call shall be considered as dispensed with. At any time after the roll call has been completed, the Speaker may entertain a motion to adjourn, if seconded by a majority of those present, to be ascertained by actual count by the Speaker; and if the House adjourns, all proceedings under this section shall be vacated.

RULE XVI

ON MOTIONS, THEIR PRECEDENCE, ETC.

1. Every motion made to the House and entertained by the Speaker shall be reduced to writing on the demand of any Member, and shall be entered on the Journal with the name of the Member making it, unless it is withdrawn the same day.

2. When a motion has been made, the Speaker shall state it or (if it be in writing) cause it to be read aloud by the Clerk before being debated, and it shall then be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

3. When any motion or proposition is made, the question, Will the House now consider it? shall not be put unless demanded by a Member.

4. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question (which motions shall be decided without debate), to postpone to a day certain, to refer, or to amend, or postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to refer, or to postpone indefinitely being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day at the same stage of the question. After the previous question shall have been ordered on the passage of a bill or joint resolution, one motion to recommit shall be in order, and the Speaker shall give preference in recognition for such purpose to a Member who is opposed to the bill or joint resolution.

5. The hour at which the House adjourns shall be entered on the Journal.

6. On the demand of any Member before the question is put, a question shall be divided if it include propositions so distinct in substance that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain: Provided, That any motion or resolution to elect the members or any portion of the members of the standing committee of the House and the joint standing committees shall not be divisible.

7. A motion to strike out and insert is indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost shall neither preclude amendment nor motion to strike out and insert; and no motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

8. Pending a motion to suspend the rules, the Speaker may entertain one motion that the House adjourn; but after the result thereon is announced he shall not entertain any other motion till the vote is taken on suspension.

9. At any time after the reading of the Journal it shall be in order, by direction of the appropriate committees, to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the purpose of considering bills raising revenue, or general appropriation bills.

10. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

RULE XVII

PREVIOUS QUESTION

1. There shall be a motion for the previous question, which, being ordered by a majority of Members voting, if a quorum be present, shall have the effect to cut off all debate and bring the House to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions on which it has been asked and ordered. The previous question may be asked and ordered upon a single motion, a series of motions allowable under the rules, or an amendment or amendments, or may be made to embrace all authorized motions or amendments, and include the bill to its passage or rejection. It shall be in order pending the motion for, or after the previous question shall have been ordered on its passage, for the Speaker to entertain and submit a motion to commit, with or without instructions, to a standing or select committee.

2. A call of the House shall not be in order after the previous question is ordered, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the Speaker that a quorum is not present.

3. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

RULE XVIII RECONSIDERATION

1. When a motion has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any Member of the majority, on the same or succeeding day, to move for the reconsideration thereof, and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except the consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn, and shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any Member may call it up for consideration: Provided, That such motion, if made during the last six days of a session, shall be disposed of when made.

2. No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported therefrom for printing and recommitment, shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider; and all bills, petitions, memorials, or resolutions reported from a committee shall be accompanied by reports in writing, which shall be printed.

RULE XIX OF AMENDMENTS

When a motion or proposition is under consideration a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute, to which one amendment may be offered, but which shall not be voted on until the original matter is perfected, but either may be withdrawn before amendment or decision is had thereon. Amendments to the title of a bill or resolution shall not be in order until after its passage, and shall be decided without debate.

RULE XX

OF AMENDMENTS OF THE SENATE

1. Any amendment of the Senate to any House bill shall be subject to the point of order that it shall first be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union if, originating in the House, it would be subject to that point.

2. No amendment of the Senate to a general appropriation bill which would be in violation of the provisions of clause 2 of Rule XXI, if said amendment had originated in the House, nor any amendment of the Senate providing for an appropriation upon any bill other than a general appropriation bill, shall be agreed to by the managers on the part of the House unless specific authority to agree to such amendment shall be first given by the House by a separate vote on every such amendment.

RULE XXI ON BILLS

1. Bills and joint resolutions on their passage shall be read the first time by title and the second time in full, when, if the previous question is ordered, the Speaker shall state the question to be, Shall the bill be engrossed and read a third time? and, if decided in the affirmative, it shall be read the third time by title, unless the reading in full is demanded by a Member, and the question shall then be put upon its passage.

2. No appropriation shall be reported in any general appropriation bill, or be in order as an amendment thereto, for any expenditure not previously authorized by law, unless in continuation of appropriations for such public works and objects as are already in progress. 5. No bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations; nor shall an amendment proposing an appropriation be in order during the consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee not having that jurisdiction. A question of order on an appropriation in any such bill, joint resolution, or amendment thereto may be raised at any time.

RULE XXII

OF PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, BILLS, AND RESOLUTIONS

1. Members having petitions or memorials or bills of a private nature to present may deliver them to the Clerk, indorsing their names and the reference or disposition to be made thereof; and said petitions and memorials and bills of a private nature except such as in the judgment of the Speaker are of an obscene or insulting character shall be entered on the Journal with the names of the Members presenting them, and the Clerk shall furnish a transcript of such entry to the official reporters of debates for publication in the Record.

2. Any petition or memorial or private bill excluded under this rule shall be returned to the Member from whom it was received, and petitions and private bills which have been inappropriately referred may, by the direction of the committee having possession of the same, be properly referred in the manner originally presented; and an erroneous reference of a petition or private bill under this clause shall not confer jurisdiction upon the committee to consider or report the same.

3. All other bills, memorials, and resolutions may in like manner be delivered, indorsed with the names of Members introducing them, to the Speaker, to be by him referred; and the titles and references thereof, and of all bills, resolutions, and documents referred under the rules shall be entered on the Journal and printed in the Record of the next day, and correction in case of error of reference may be made by the House, without debate, in accordance with Rule XI, on any day immediately after the reading of the Journal, by unanimous consent, or on motion of a committee claiming jurisdiction, or on the report of the committee to which the bill has been erroneously referred.

4. When a bill, resolution, or memorial is introduced "by request," these words shall be entered upon the Journal and printed in the Record.

5. All resolutions of inquiry addressed to the heads of executive departments shall be reported to the House within one week after presentation.

RULE XXIII

OF COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

1. In all cases, in forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair after appointing a Chairman to preside, who shall, in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobby, have power to cause the same to be cleared.

2. Whenever a Committee of the Whole House or of the Whole House on the state of the Union finds itself without a quorum, which shall consist of 100 Members, the Chairman shall cause the roll to be called, and thereupon the Committee shall rise, and the Chairman shall report the names of the absentees to the House, which shall be entered on the Journal; but if on such call a quorum shall appear, the Committee shall thereupon resume its sitting without further order of the House.

3. All motions or propositions involving a tax or charge upon the people; all proceedings touching appropriations of money, or bills making appropriations of money or property, or requiring such appropriations to be made, or authorizing payments out of appropriations already made, or releasing any liability to the United States for money or property, or referring any claim to the Court of Claims, shall be first considered in a Committee of the Whole, and a point of order under this rule shall be good at any time before the consideration of a bill has commenced.

4. In Committees of the Whole House business on their calendars may be taken up in regular order, or in such order as the Committee may determine, unless the bill to be considered was determined by the House at the time of going into Committee, but bills for raising revenue, general appropriation bills, and bills for the improvement of rivers and harbors shall have precedence.

5. When general debate is closed by order of the House, any Member shall be allowed five minutes to explain any amendment he may offer, after which the Member who shall first obtain the floor shall be allowed to speak five minutes in opposition to it, and there shall be no further debate thereon, but the same privilege of debate shall be allowed in favor of and against any amendment that may be offered to an amendment; and neither an amendment nor an amendment to an amendment shall be withdrawn by the mover thereof unless by the unanimous consent of the Committee.

6. The Committee may, by the vote of a majority of the Members present, at any time after the five minutes' debate has begun upon proposed amendments to any section or paragraph of a bill, close all debate upon such section or paragraph, or, at its election, upon the pending amendments only (which motion shall be decided without debate), but this shall not preclude further amendment, to be decided without debate.

7. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection. Whenever a bill is reported from a Committee of the Whole with an adverse recommendation and such recommendation is disagreed to by the House, the bill shall stand recommitted to the said Committee without further action by the House; but before the question of concurrence is submitted, it is in order to entertain a motion to refer the bill to any committee, with or without instructions, and when the same is again reported to the House it shall be referred to the Committee of the Whole without debate.

8. The rules of proceeding in the House shall be observed in Committees of the Whole House so far as they may be applicable.

Seventh. Motions to go into Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Eighth. Orders of the day.

2. Business on the Speaker's table shall be disposed of as follows:

Messages from the President shall be referred to the appropriate committees without debate. Reports and communications from heads of departments, and other communications addressed to the House, and bills, resolutions, and messages from the Senate may be referred to the appropriate committees in the same manner and with the same right of correction as public bills presented by Members; but House bills with Senate amendments which do not require consideration in a Committee of the Whole may be at once disposed of as the House may determine, as may also Senate bills substantially the same as House bills already favorably reported by a committee of the House, and not required to be considered in Committee of the Whole, be disposed of in the same manner on motion directed to be made by such committee.

3. The consideration of the unfinished business, in which the House may be engaged at an adjournment, except business in the morning hour, shall be resumed as soon as the business on the Speaker's table is finished, and at the same time each day thereafter until disposed of, and the consideration of all other unfinished business shall be resumed whenever the class of business to which it belongs shall be in order under the rules.

4. After the unfinished business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall call each standing committee in regular order, and then select committees, and each committee when named may call up for consideration any bill reported by it on a previous day and on the House Calendar, and if the Speaker shall not complete the call of the committees before the House passes to other business, he shall resume the next call where he left off, giving preference to the last bill under consideration: Provided, That whenever any committee shall have occupied the morning hour on two days, it shall not be in order to call up any other bill until the other committees have been called in their turn.

5. After one hour shall have been devoted to the consideration of bills called up by committees, it shall be in order, pending consideration or discussion thereof, to entertain a motion to go into Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union; or, when authorized by a committee, to go into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union to consider a particular bill, to which motion one amendment only, designating another bill, may be made; and if either motion be determined in the negative, it shall not be in order to make either motion again until the disposal of the matter under consideration or discussion.

6. On Friday of each week, after the disposal of such business on the Speaker's table as requires reference only, it shall be in order to entertain a motion for the House to resolve itself into Committee of the Whole House to consider business on the Private Calendar in the following order: On the second and fourth Fridays of each month preference shall be given to the consideration of private pension claims and bills removing political disabilities and bills removing the charge of desertion. On every Friday except the second and fourth Fridays the House shall give preference to the consideration of bills reported from the Committee on Claims and the Committee on War Claims, alternating between the two committees.

7. On Wednesday of each week no business shall be in order except as provided by paragraph 4 of this rule unless the House by a two-thirds vote on motion to dispense therewith shall otherwise determine. On such a motion there may be debate not to exceed five minutes for and against. On a call of committees under this rule bills may be called up from either the House or the Union Calendar, excepting bills which are privileged under the rules; but bills called up from the Union Calendar shall be considered in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union. This rule shall not apply during the last two weeks of the session. It shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a motion for a recess on any Wednesday except during the last two weeks of the session.

Provided, That not more than two hours of general debate shall be permitted on any measure called up on Calendar Wednesday, and all debate must be confined to the subject matter of the bill, the time to be equally divided between those for and against the bill: Provided further, That whenever any committee shall have occupied two Wednesdays it shall not be in order, unless the House by a two-thirds vote shall otherwise determine, to consider any unfinished business previously called up by such committee, unless the previous question had been ordered thereon, upon any succeeding Wednesday until the other committees have been called in their turn under this rule.

8. The second and fourth Mondays in each month, after the disposal of such business on the Speaker's table as requires reference only, shall, when claimed by the Committee on the District of Columbia, be set apart for the consideration of such business as may be presented by said committee.

RULE XXV

PRIORITY OF BUSINESS

All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided by a majority without debate.

RULE XXVI

UNFINISHED BUSINESS OF THE SESSION

All business before committees of the House at the end of one session shall be resumed at the commencement of the next session of the same Congress in the same manner as if no adjournment had taken place.

RULE XXVII

CHANGE OR SUSPENSION OF RULES

1. No rule shall be suspended except by a vote of two-thirds of the Members voting, a quorum being present; nor shall the Speaker entertain a motion to suspend the rules except on the first and third Mondays of each month, preference being given on the first Monday to individuals and on the third Monday to committees, and during the last six days of a session.

2. All motions to suspend the rules shall, before being submitted to the House, be seconded by a majority by tellers, if demanded.

3. When a motion to suspend the rules has been seconded, it shall be in order, before the final vote is taken thereon, to debate the proposition to be voted upon for 40 minutes, one-half of such time to be given to debate in favor of, and one-half to debate in opposition to, such proposition; and the same right of debate shall be allowed whenever the previous question has been ordered on any proposition on which there has been no debate.

4. A Member may present to the Clerk a motion in writing to instruct a committee to report within 15 days a public bill or resolution which has been referred to it 30 days prior thereto (but only one motion may be presented for each bill or resolution). The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. When a majority of the membership of the House shall have signed the motion it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signature thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Instruct Committees.

On the third Monday of each month, immediately after the approval of the Journal, and Member who has signed a motion to instruct which has been on the calendar at least seven days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion, and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided, without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn. Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered.

When the motion shall be called up, the bill or resolution shall be read by title only prior to a second being ordered by tellers. After the reading of the bill by title the motion shall not be submitted to the House unless seconded by a majority of the membership of the House, to be determined by tellers, and clause 4 of Rule XV shall not apply to such second; if such motion fails of a second, it shall immediately be stricken from the calendar and shall not be thereafter placed thereon.

If a second be ordered, debate on such motion shall be limited to 40 minutes, one-half thereof in favor of the proposition and one-half in opposition thereto. Such motions shall require for their adoption an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of the House. Whenever such motion shall prevail the committee shall report said bill or resolution to the House within 15 days thereafter and said bill or resolution shall be referred to its appropriate calendar.

RULE XXVIII

CONFERENCE REPORTS

1. The presentation of reports of committees of conference shall always be in order, except when the Journal is being read, while the roll is being called, or the House is dividing on any proposition. And there shall accompany every such report a detailed statement sufficiently explicit to inform the House what effect such amendments or propositions will have upon the measures to which they relate.

2. It shall not be in order to consider the report of a committee of conference until such report and the accompanying statement shall have been printed in the Record, except on either of the six days preceding the end of a session.

RULE XXIX

SECRET SESSION

Whenever confidential communications are received from the President of the United States, or whenever the Speaker or any Member shall inform the House that he has communications which he believes ought to be kept secret for the present, the House shall be cleared of all persons except the Members and officers thereof, and so continue during the reading of such communications, the debates, and proceedings thereon, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

RULE XXX

READING OF PAPERS

When the reading of a paper other than one upon which the House is called to give a final vote is demanded, and the same is objected to by any Member, it shall be determined without debate by a vote of the House.

RULE XXXI¹

DRAWING OF SEATS

1. At the commencement of each Congress, immediately after the Members and Delegates are sworn in, the Clerk shall place in a box, prepared for that purpose, a number of small balls, of marble or other material, equal to the number of Members and Delegates, which balls shall be consecutively numbered and thoroughly intermingled, and at such hour as shall be fixed by the House for that purpose, by the hands of a page, draw said balls one by one from the box and announce the number as it is drawn, upon which announcement the Member or Delegate whose name on a numbered alphabetical list shall correspond with the number on the ball shall advance and choose his seat for the term for which he is elected.

2. Before said drawing shall commence each seat shall be vacated and so remain until selected under this rule, and any seat having been selected shall be deemed forfeited if left unoccupied before the call of the roll is finished; and whenever the seats of Members and Delegates shall have been drawn, no proposition for a second drawing shall be in order during that Congress.

RULE XXXII

HALL OF THE HOUSE

The Hall of the House shall be used only for the legislative business of the House and for the caucus meetings of its Members, except upon occasions where the House by resolution agree to take part in any ceremonies to be observed therein; and the Speaker shall not entertain a motion for the suspension of this rule.

¹ Repealed by H. Res. 8, Sixty-third Congress.

RULE XXXIII

OF ADMISSION TO THE FLOOR

1. The persons hereinafter named, and none other, shall be admitted to the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto, viz: The President and Vice President of the United States and their private secretaries, judges of the Supreme Court, Members of Congress and Members elect, contestants in election cases during the pendency of their cases in the House, the Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, heads of departments, foreign ministers, governors of States, the Architect of the Capitol, the Librarian of Congress and his assistant in charge of the Law Library, the Resident Commissioner to the United States from Porto Rico, the Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands, such persons as have by name received the thanks of Congress, ex-Members of the House of Representatives who are not interested in any claim or directly in any bill pending before Congress, and clerks of committees, when business from their committee is under consideration; and it shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a request for the suspension of this rule or to present from the chair the request of any Member for unanimous consent.

2. There shall be excluded at all times from the Hall of the House of Representatives and the cloakrooms all persons not entitled to the privilege of the floor during the session, except that until 15 minutes of the hour of the meeting of the House persons employed in its service, accredited members of the press entitled to admission to the press gallery, and other persons on request of Members, by card or in writing, may be admitted.

RULE XXXIV

OF ADMISSION TO THE GALLERIES

The Speaker shall set aside a portion of the west gallery for the use of the President of the United States, the members of his Cabinet, justices of the Supreme Court, foreign ministers and suites and the members of their respective families, and shall also set aside another portion of the same gallery for the accommodation of persons to be admitted on the card of Members. The southerly half of the east gallery shall be assigned exclusively for the use of the families of Members of Congress, in which the Speaker shall control one bench, and on request of a Member the Speaker shall issue a card of admission to his family, which shall include their visitors, and no other persons shall be admitted to this section.

RULE XXXV

OFFICIAL AND OTHER REPORTERS

1. The appointment and removal, for cause, of the Official Reporters of the House, including stenographers of committees, and the manner of the execution of their duties, shall be vested in the Speaker.

2. Such portion of the gallery over the Speaker's chair as may be necessary to accommodate representatives of the press wishing to report the debates and proceedings shall be set aside for their use, and reputable reporters and correspondents shall be admitted thereto under such regulations as the Speaker may from time to time prescribe; and the supervision of such gallery, including the designation of its employees, shall be vested in the standing committee of correspondents, subject to the direction and control of the Speaker; and the Speaker may assign one seat on the floor to Associated Press reporters, one to the Sun Press Association, one to the United Press Association, one to the National News Association, one to the Central News Association of America, and one to the New York Herald Syndicate, and regulate the occupation of the same. And the Speaker may admit to the floor, under such regulations as he may prescribe, one additional representative of each press association.

RULE XXXVI

PAY OF WITNESSES

The rule for paying witnesses subpoenaed to appear before the House or either of its committees shall be as follows: For each day a witness shall attend, the sum of $2; for each mile he shall travel in coming to or going from the place of examination, the sum of 5 cents each way; but nothing shall be paid for traveling when the witness has been summoned at the place of trial.

RULE XXXVII

PAPERS

The clerks of the several committees of the House shall, within three days after the final adjournment of a Congress, deliver to the Clerk of the House all bills, joint resolutions, petitions, and other papers referred to the committee; together with all evidence taken by such committee under the order of the House during the said Congress and not reported to the House, and in the event of the failure or neglect of any clerk of a committee to comply with this rule the Clerk of the House shall, within three days thereafter, take into his keeping all such papers and testimony.

RULE XXXVIII

WITHDRAWAL OF PAPERS

No memorial or other paper presented to the House shall be withdrawn from its files without its leave, and if withdrawn therefrom certified copies thereof shall be left in the office of the Clerk; but when an act may pass for the settlement of a claim the Clerk is authorized to transmit to the officer charged with the settlement thereof the papers on file in his office relating to such claim, or may loan temporarily to an officer or bureau of the executive departments any papers on file in his office relating to any matter pending before such officer or bureau, taking proper receipt therefor.

RULE XXXIX

BALLOT

In all cases of ballot a majority of the votes given shall be necessary to an election, and where there shall not be such a majority on the first ballot the ballots shall be repeated until a majority be obtained; and in all balloting blanks shall be rejected and not taken into the count in enumeration of votes or reported by the tellers.

RULE XL

MESSAGES

Messages received from the Senate and the President of the United States giving notice of bills passed or approved shall be entered in the Journal and published in the Record of that day's proceedings.

RULE XLI

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

Estimates of appropriations, and all other communications from the executive departments, intended for the consideration of any committee of the House, shall be addressed to the Speaker, and by him referred as provided by clause 2 of Rule XXIV.

RULE XLII

QUALIFICATIONS OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

No person shall be an officer of the House, or continue in its employment, who shall be an agent for the prosecution of any claim against the Government, or be interested in such claim otherwise than as an original claimant; and it shall be the duty of the Committee on Accounts to inquire into and report to the House any violation of this rule.

RULE XLIII

JEFFERSON'S MANUAL

The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House and joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

QUESTIONS OF ORDER

DECIDED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE SIXTY-NINTH CONGRESS

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH, OF OHIO, SPEAKER; WILLIAM TYLER PAGE, OF MARYLAND, CLERK

LIMITATION

A PROVISION DENYING THE USE OF AN APPROPRIATION FOR A CERTAIN DESIGNATED PURPOSE THE DESCRIPTION OF WHICH GOES TO THE EXTENT OF IMPOSING NEW DUTIES INDIRECTLY ON OFFICERS CHARGED WITH THE EXPENDITURE AND THOSE CHARGED WITH PASSING UPON THE VALIDITY OF SUCH EXPENDITURE IS NOT A PROPER LIMITATION. (DECEMBER 14, 1926.)

On December 14, 1926, Mr. TOM D. McKEOWN moved to recommit the bill H. R. 14827 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back forthwith with the following amendment:

On page 86, after line 25, insert a new paragraph to read as follows:

None of the appropriations contained in the acts for the National Park Service shall be available for any expenditures in the collection of charges in excess of $2 for issuing of automobile permits which permit the holder to enter any national parks.

Mr. JOSEPH W. BYRNS, of Tennessee, made the point of order that the amendment proposed legislation upon an appropriation bill.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order, and said: "The Chair thinks this goes further than a mere limitation, and prescribes a duty by limiting the amount of the charge to automobiles. The Chair is clearly of the opinion that it is legislation."

GERMANENESS

TO A PARAGRAPH IN AN APPROPRIATION BILL RELATING TO THE DIFFUSION OF INFORMATION, AN AMENDMENT PROVIDING FOR AN INVESTIGATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE DIFFUSION OF SUCH INFORMATION WAS HELD GERMANE. (DECEMBER 21, 1926.)

On December 21, 1926, Mr. TOM CONNALLY of Texas moved to recommit the bill H. R. 15008 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 54, line 9, after the word "world," insert including scientific and technical research into American-grown cotton and its by-products and their present and potential uses, with a view to discovering new and additional commercial and scientific uses for cotton and its by-products.

Mr. WALTER W. MAGEE made the point of order that the amendment was not germane and proposed legislation.

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order and said: "In view of the fact that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union ruled that the amendment was in order, the Chair would not feel justified in ruling it out of order."

GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT

A SO-CALLED "GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT" ONCE MADE SHOULD NOT BE SUBSEQUENTLY MODIFIED.

THE SPEAKER REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE A MEMBER TO PRESENT A REQUEST WHICH IN HIS JUDGMENT VIOLATED A GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT.

UNDER A GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT THAT A SESSION SHOULD BE MERELY FORMAL IT WAS HELD IN ORDER TO ASK THAT A BILL BE SENT TO CONFERENCE BUT NOT IN ORDER TO ASK THAT SENATE AMENDMENTS TO A BILL OF MAJOR IMPORTANCE BE AGREED TO. (DECEMBER 22, 1926.)

On December 20, 1926, the following colloquy occurred: Mr. TILSON. Mr. Speaker, I should like to have a further understanding, a gentleman's agreement we sometimes call it, that in case the Department of Agriculture appropriation bill should be finished to-morrow the session on Wednesday will be only merely a formal one.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I think an announcement upon the part of the gentleman from Connecticut that if the agricultural bill be finished to-morrow he will move to adjourn after the reading of the Journal and the disposition of business on the Speaker's table on Wednesday will be sufficient to meet the purpose. If an agreement is desired, I am sure we can enter into an agreement.

Mr. TILSON. I shall take it as an agreement if no one objects.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will permit, in a private conversation I had with the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. TILSON] a few moments ago I mentioned one subject matter that has been the occasion of a number of inquiries of me this morning. I refer to the river and harbor bill, concerning which there is some hope of passage in the other body to-morrow. I take it that if that bill should pass to-morrow there is no possibility of its being messaged here in time for any action to be taken upon it to-morrow.

Mr. TILSON. As to that I do not know. With the understanding that we have just had, if that bill should come to the House later than to-morrow, I should not feel inclined to ask that any action be taken upon it until after the holidays, unless the action were of a merely formal character.

Subsequently the following occurred: Mr. TILSON. Mr. Speaker, before we went into Committee of the Whole, in a colloquy between the gentleman from Tennessee and myself, reference was made to what action might be taken in case the river and harbor bill were passed and messaged over at a late hour. As I recall, what I said to the gentleman from Tennessee was to the effect that if that bill came over later than to-morrow, owing to the agreement we had to take up nothing but routine or formal business on Wednesday, I should not feel inclined to call up for action a bill of that importance. What I meant by that statement was that I should not feel warranted in calling up a contested matter. If that bill or any other bill came over on Wednesday and proved to be only a formal matter, I see no reason why it might not be properly disposed of.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, in order that Members may understand, there is a possibility that if the river and harbor bill passes the Senate to-morrow some action might be taken. Several gentlemen are interested very much in the river and harbor bill and have spoken to me, as I have no doubt they have spoken to the gentleman from Connecticut, and they are anxious that the question be left open until Wednesday, that there be no fixed determination this afternoon that nothing should be done. I understand the attitude of the gentleman from Connecticut is to leave the question open so that there may be possible action if the bill comes over.

Mr. TILSON. That is correct. On December 22, 1926, Mr. S. WALLACE DEMPSEY, of New York, asked unanimous consent that the bill H. R. 11616, the river and harbor bill, be taken from the Speaker's table for consideration of the Senate amendments.

The Speaker refused to entertain the request and said: "The Chair does not think he ought to recognize the gentleman for that purpose. The Chair thinks there was a very definite understanding based on the remarks of the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. TILSON] that no action would be taken with regard to the river and harbor bill specifically or any other bill except of a purely formal character. The Chair thinks such action as this would be far from a mere formal procedure, and whether or not there may be some Member present who desires to object, there are a number of Members who have gone away with this understanding in mind, and the Chair feels he ought not to recognize the gentleman for the purpose he indicates."

"The Chair thinks, regardless of whether the gentleman is going to object or not, it is his duty to carry out what, in his opinion, is the express understanding of the House.

"It seems to the Chair that if the matter was laid before the House there might be a motion to concur in the Senate amendments.

"The Chair was present when the understanding was reached and has read very carefully the Record.

"The Chair thinks this matter of sufficient importance, perhaps, to read some of the colloquy. When the matter was originally brought up, the gentleman from Connecticut replying to the inquiry of the minority leader as to whether the river and harbor bill would be taken up to-day if it came over and as to whether there was a possibility of its being messaged over in time for action, said:

"As to that I do not know. With the understanding that we have just had, if that bill should come to the House later than to-morrow, I should not feel inclined to ask that any action be taken upon it until after the holidays, unless the action were of a merely formal character."

"The Chair thinks that agreeing to the Senate amendments is by no means a purely formal matter, as they involve matters of great importance and controversy. Furthermore, I doubt if any gentleman has been able to read all the amendments adopted by the Senate at a rather late hour last evening. The Chair thinks this would clearly go beyond the understanding of the House."

Mr. TILSON inquired:

"Will the Speaker also read the modification to which the gentleman from New York refers, which, in my judgment, does not substantially change the original statement?"

The SPEAKER said:

"The Chair thinks not. The Chair thinks that the remarks made by the gentleman from Connecticut and the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. GARRETT] later in the afternoon do not change the spirit of the understanding, and, by the way, that was at a time just before adjournment when there were hardly any Members in the Chamber at all, whereas the original agreement was had when there was at least a quorum present. The Chair thinks that many gentlemen may have gone away with the understanding that no such action, so important as agreeing to the Senate amendments to the river and harbor bill, would be taken up to-day, and the Chair feels he must protect them.

"The Chair will state that he will not recognize any Member to-day to ask unanimous consent to take up a matter that is at all controversial, a matter which is in any degree controversial. He will recognize a request to send a bill to conference, for he thinks that is purely a formal matter.

"The Chair thinks he would recognize a Member to ask unanimous consent to send the bill to conference. The Chair draws a distinction between asking to send the bill to conference and asking to concur in the Senate amendments."

RESOLUTION OF INQUIRY

FOR THE PURPOSE OF COMPUTING A WEEK THE PERIOD DURING WHICH CONGRESS STANDS ADJOURNED FOR MORE THAN THREE DAYS IS NOT COUNTED IN RELATION TO THE REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS OF INQUIRY

THE PERIOD DURING WHICH CONGRESS STANDS ADJOURNED FOR MORE THAN THREE DAYS IS TREATED AS DIES NON. (JANUARY 3, 1927.)

On January 3, 1927, Mr. FIORELLA H. LA GUARDIA moved to discharge the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of House Resolution 351, which had been referred to said committee on December 22, 1926.

Mr. B. H. SNELL made the point of order that the motion was not in order because in contemplation of the rules the resolution had not been referred to the committee more than a week.

After debate, the Speaker sustained the point of order, and said:

"The Chair is prepared to rule.

"The Chair will first decide the point originally raised by the gentleman from New York [Mr. SNELL] as to whether the seven-day rule applies in this case, and how. The Chair is very certain that this precise point has never arisen before in his service of the House and is unable to find any precedent for it since the beginning.

"The Chair does not think the precedent cited by the gentleman from New York [Mr. LA GUARDIA] is in point here, that precedent occurring while the House was in session; the failure of a committee to receive a resolution within the prescribed seven days did not vitiate the privilege of moving to discharge the committee from its consideration. This is a different question. This question has involved in it, as it seems to the Chair, whether during the holidays of the House adjournment sine die or adjournment for some specific time by concurrent resolution when both the Senate and the House act there is involved the duty of every committee of the House to remain here and take up any resolutions that may be referred to it.

"The gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. GARRETT], as the Chair understood, admitted that if this resolution had been introduced on the 3d of July last it could not have been called up on the 6th of December, so that the question raised by the gentleman from Tennessee was that there was at least a technical difference between an adjournment sine die and an adjournment by concurrent resolution.

"The Chair appreciates that there might be a technical difference, but in making a precedent, as we do here to-day, the Chair thinks that this matter should be construed in a broad way and one particularly in the interest of the House and the machinery through which the House functions, namely, its committees. The Chair does not think that the question raised with respect to an adjournment of three days by the House would affect this case.

"The question here involves a resolution that was introduced on the last day of the second session of this Congress. It is called up on the first day after we meet, under a concurrent resolution, providing for an adjournment over the holidays. Clearly seven days have elapsed, but should those seven days be taken into consideration as prescribing whether a motion to discharge the committee from further consideration of this resolution is privileged in the sense that the rule provides? The Chair thinks not, and the Chair has less hesitation in ruling, as he expects to rule from the fact that the gentleman from New York [Mr. LA GUARDIA] is not prejudiced in his rights, assuming that this is in fact a privileged motion. The gentleman can call it up after seven working days have elapsed, in the contemplation of the rule, from the date of its introduction.

"The Chair thinks it would be extremely unfortunate if the Chair should hold or if the House should decide that the seven days under this rule should be construed as being a part of a period fixed by the House and Senate acting jointly for these two bodies to be in recess. Any other construction, it seems to the Chair, would be a highly technical one, and, further, would impose upon chairmen of committees and on committees themselves duties which ought not to be imposed on them. The Chair is very clear that in the ruling which he is about to make he is establishing a precedent which will be for the best interests of the House in future. The Chair therefore sustains the point of order made by the gentleman from New York [Mr. SNELL]."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

THE FACT THAT ONE MEMBER HAS CHARACTERIZED THE STATEMENT OF ANOTHER MEMBER AS "AN ABSOLUTE AND UNQUALIFIED FALSEHOOD" DOES NOT PERMIT THE LATTER TO TAKE THE FLOOR ON A QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE, ALTHOUGH THE QUESTION MIGHT BE RAISED BY A MOTION TO STRIKE THE LANGUAGE FROM THE RECORD WHICH INVOLVES A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF THE HOUSE. (JANUARY 6, 1927.) SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE TILSON.

On January 6, 1927, Mr. EMANUEL CELLER rose to a question of personal privilege and quoted a statement made by Mr. CHARLES L. UNDERHILL on a preceding day characterizing a statement made by Mr. CELLER as "an absolute and unqualified falsehood."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. JOHN Q. TILSON, refused to recognize Mr. CELLER on a question of personal privilege, and said:

"The Chair does not recognize in the gentleman's statement a question of personal privilege. The gentleman can ask to have the language stricken from the Record, but it seems to the Chair that if, when one gentleman says another has told a falsehood, the other replies that he has told another, there would be no end to the discussion of questions of personal privilege. It seems to the Chair that the gentleman has not stated a question of personal privilege."

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

TO REQUIRE CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE A BILL MUST SHOW ON ITS FACE THAT IT WILL REQUIRE AN EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY.

A BILL PROVIDING UNDER A CERTAIN CONTINGENCY FOR A HEARING TO BE CONDUCTED BY THE SECRETARIES OF WAR, COMMERCE, AND AGRICULTURE, AND FOR AN INVESTIGATION WITHIN THREE YEARS AFTER THE CONSTRUCTION OF A CERTAIN BRIDGE CONCERNING ITS VALUE WAS HELD BY THE HOUSE NOT TO REQUIRE CONSIDERATION IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

THE GRANTING OF CONSENT TO CONSTRUCT A BRIDGE OVER A NAVIGABLE STREAM IS A MATTER OF REGULATION OF COMMERCE AND NOT THE GRANTING OF AN EASEMENT OVER PROPERTY OF THE UNITED STATES.

IN DETERMINING WHETHER A BILL INVOLVES AN EXPENDITURE THE CHAIR IS CONFINED TO THE FACE OF THE BILL ITSELF AND NOT TO FACTS WHICH MAY HAVE COME TO HIS KNOWLEDGE FROM ANOTHER SOURCE, NO MATTER HOW AUTHENTIC. (JANUARY 6, 1927.)

On January 6, 1927, Mr. NICHOLAS J. SINNOTT made the point of order that Senate bill 3804 should be referred from the Speaker's table to the appropriate committee and that H. R. 11608 was improperly on the House Calendar.

After debate, the Speaker sustained the point of order and said:

"The gentleman from Oregon has made several points of order, the first being against the Senate bill because it is improperly upon the Speaker's table, the second against the House bill on the ground that it appropriates public property, and the third against the House bill in that it necessarily involves a charge upon the Treasury.

"In regard to the first point of order, the point of order being that the bill is improperly upon the Speaker's table, and should be referred to the committee, the Chair thinks that that matter is within the discretion of the Chair. As a matter of fact, in this instance the Chair was requested to hold that bill upon the Speaker's table by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. JOHNSON], representing his delegation, and the Chair held it with knowledge that a similar House bill had been reported by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, but that such bill was reported without instructions to any Member to bring it up. The Chair thinks that even without such instructions, a bill similar to a Senate bill being on the calendar, it is entirely within the discretion of the Chair, at the request of gentlemen interested, to retain the bill upon the table.

"With regard to the second point, that the House bill appropriates public property, the Chair is in entire accord with the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. GARRETT]. To hold otherwise, would unquestionably be to hold that every bridge bill should be referred to the Union Calendar. The Chair would not so hold. The Chair thinks that bridge bills in general—in fact, practically every bridge bill he has ever seen—should be referred, as the custom is, to the House Calendar.

"The only question in the Chair's mind is whether this bill does not so greatly differ from all other bridge bills that an exception must be made in this case, and the Chair thinks that, in view of the suggestion of the gentleman from Illinois that the committee, with his approval, will never report out another bill like this one, it is perfectly safe for the Chair to say that all future bridge bills reported from that committee will be referred to the House Calendar and not to the Union Calendar.

"The Chair is in very grave doubt as to how he ought to decide the third point of order. He has been much interested in and instructed by the arguments made by gentlemen on both sides of this question. To the mind of the Chair, it comes down simply to one point, and that is whether or not the provision that public hearings are to be held and other provisions also do not necessarily involve or predicate a charge upon the Treasury. We know that in the case of this particular bill there is a great diversity of opinion as to whether or not it ought to pass. Of course, the Chair is not concerned with that; but we all know that one great State is practically unanimously in favor of the construction of this bridge, while another great State, in so far as we can judge by the opinion and actions of its Representatives here, is equally opposed to it. Thus on the face of the facts it seems to the Chair evident that there will be public hearings upon this bill, probably protracted and probably demanding the summoning of witnesses from different and distant points. Does that on the face of it show that a charge will be laid upon the Public Treasury? The gentleman from Oregon has read two letters which show conclusively that this bill will in fact be a charge on the Public Treasury. He has read a letter from the Secretary of Commerce saying that the three Secretaries have agreed to the demand for public hearings, and he has read a letter from the Secretary of War showing that the cost of the investigation will be considerable.

"The Chair is in very grave doubt about this question. The Chair would be loath to set any precedent which would go further than the general precedent that a bill must show on its face that it will involve a charge. Of course, there is the precedent referred to by the gentleman from Illinois, that 'where a bill sets in motion a train of circumstances destined ultimately to involve certain expenditures it must be considered in Committee of the Whole,' and the Chair would be very loath to render a decision which would broaden that in any sense.

"Do these provisions in this bill, unlike any other bridge bill, show conclusively upon their face that a public charge will be necessarily involved and that the bill should be on the Union Calendar? That is the question.

"The Chair agrees with the gentleman from Tennessee, that knowledge of facts previously acquired should not be a factor in determining this parliamentary question.

"The Chair, however, makes the distinction there that this is to be a public hearing which is to be held away from home and by a new organization, and will not come under a regular organization like the Committee on Rules, so it would involve expense.

"The Chair is not relying on the definite statement of the Secretary of War that it will involve expense, though he happens to know that now. The only question in the Chair's mind is whether he should dismiss from his mind entirely knowledge of a definite fact which seemed very patent to him when he read the bill that public hearings held by three Secretaries thousands of miles away would necessarily involve expense. That is the only question in the Chair's mind.

"The Chair, with very grave doubt as to the wisdom of his decision, but with knowledge that it will not create a precedent which will affect any other bridge bills or a precedent which will generally affect reference of bills to the House or Union Calendar, will overrule the first point of order made against the Senate bill and the first point of order made against the House bill in that it involves the appropriation of public property, and will sustain the third point of order against the bill in that it shows on its face it would create a charge on the Public Treasury."

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee appealed from the decision of the Chair. The question was taken viva voce, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House? and the Speaker announced that the yeas had it. So the decision of the Chair was not sustained.

PRIVILEGED BUSINESS

IF THE MAJOR FEATURE OF A BILL REPORTED FROM THE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS RELATES TO THE REVENUE OTHER MATTERS IN THE BILL NOT RELATING TO THE REVENUE BUT INCIDENTAL TO ITS MAIN PURPOSE DO NOT DESTROY THE PRIVILEGE.

IN ORDER TO COME WITHIN THE PRIVILEGE THE BILL MUST SHOW ON ITS FACE THAT IT RELATES TO THE REVENUE.

A BILL PROVIDING FOR THE ADMISSION OF CIGARS AND CIGARETTES UNDER PARCEL-POST REGULATIONS IN SMALLER PACKAGES DOES NOT SO RELATE TO THE REVENUE AS TO BE PRIVILEGED. (JANUARY 22, 1927.)

On January 22, 1927, Mr. WILLIAM R. GREEN of Iowa, by direction of the Committee on Ways and Means, moved that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of H. R. 8997.

Mr. JOHN N. GARNER made the point of order that the bill did not relate to the revenue and was not privileged.

After debate the Speaker sustained the point of order and said:

"The Chair is prepared to rule. The Chair was advised yesterday that this point of order would be raised, and he has given some time to the consideration of the precedents. The Chair is compelled to confess that the more precedents he found the more confused he became in his own mind, because apparently one could rule fairly either way on this bill by following one precedent or another. If the Chair should follow the precedent of Mr. Speaker Cannon, clearly this bill would not be privileged, whereas, if he should follow the precedent of Mr. Speaker Reed, it would be privileged.

"The Committee on Ways and Means has larger authority in the reporting of bills than any other committee. It is given leave to report at any time bills raising revenue while other committees given leave to report at any time are confined strictly to the subjects which they may report as privileged. The privilege of the Committee on Ways and Means has been broadly construed to apply to bills relating to the revenue. As has been stated, this privilege has been extended to a bill to provide for reciprocal trade relations with Cuba and to a bill to repeal the joint resolution in reference to the free zone on the Mexican frontier, which involves the transportation of dutiable goods and its relation to smuggling. But a bill providing for the consolidation and reorganization of customs collection districts, which involved a question affecting the revenue and also commerce and shipping, was held by Speaker Cannon not to be privileged on the ground that, while the matter affecting the revenue was privileged, the matter affecting commerce was not privileged and thereby destroyed the privilege of the bill as a whole.

"The Chair thinks that a broad summation of all the precedents would lead to about this statement of the rule:

"If a major feature of a bill reported from the Ways and Means Committee relates to revenue, the bill is privileged, and matters accompanying the bill not strictly raising revenue but incidental to its main purpose do not destroy this privilege.

"In this case it seems fairly obvious, if one is permitted to go outside of the face of the bill itself, that this bill will raise revenue. It seems to the Chair that the cutting down of the limitation necessarily would enable more people to import cigars than now import them.

"But the question is, Does that appear on the face of the bill? Now the Chair has had a little inkling of the fact that some Members of the House did not approve his ruling recently on a question which involved the proper calendar for a bill to be placed upon. The objection made was that the bill did not show on its face that it would create a charge on the Treasury. This bill, while relating to an entirely different question, raises indirectly the question as to whether, by virtue of his knowledge of what will happen in all probability as a result of the passage of the bill, the Chair should allow his decision to be influenced by that knowledge. The Chair regards this as one of the closest questions he has had to rule on either as Speaker or formerly as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union. The Chair is very anxious, while giving full leeway to the privileges of the Committee on Ways and Means, also to safeguard the House. The Chair, after considerable thought, thinks that he ought not to allow his knowledge of probabilities to affect his judgment of the bill as it appears on its face. The Chair does not think that the bill on its face shows that it necessarily will raise revenue or directly affect revenue. Therefore, the point of order made by the gentleman from Texas is sustained."

SENATE AMENDMENTS

AFTER THE STAGE OF DISAGREEMENT IS REACHED A MOTION TO RECEDE AND CONCUR IN CERTAIN SENATE AMENDMENTS WITH AMENDMENTS TAKES PRECEDENCE OVER A MOTION TO LAY CERTAIN SENATE AMENDMENTS ON THE TABLE. (JANUARY 24, 1927.)

On January 24, 1927, Mr. LOUIS T. McFADDEN called up the conference report on H. R. 2. The report was read, and Mr. McFADDEN moved that the House recede and concur in certain Senate amendments, recede and concur in certain Senate amendments with amendments, and insist on the disagreement of the House to certain amendments.

Mr. TOM D. McKEOWN moved to lay certain Senate amendments on the table. The Speaker refused to entertain the motion of Mr. McKEOWN. Mr. McKEOWN made the point of order that his motion took precedence over the motion presented by Mr. McFADDEN.

After debate, the Speaker overruled the point of order and said:

"The Chair thinks the motion of the gentleman from Pennsylvania takes precedence over the motion of the gentleman from Oklahoma. As the Chair understands the situation it is this: The question before the House is the disposition of a House bill with Senate amendments. Any motion which tends to bring the two Houses together under the rules of the House takes precedence over any other motion. In the view of the Chair, the motion of highest privilege would be a motion to concur in all the Senate amendments; after that, the next motion of highest privilege would be a motion to recede and concur in certain Senate amendments, which the motion made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania does. The motion of the gentleman from Oklahoma is to table certain Senate amendments, the effect of which will be to drive the two Houses further and further apart. The Chair rules that the motion of the gentleman from Pennsylvania takes precedence over the motion made by the gentleman from Oklahoma."

IMPEACHMENT

IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESENTATION OF CHARGES OF IMPEACHMENT BEFORE PROCEEDING IN DEBATE A MEMBER MUST FORMALLY PRESENT SUCH CHARGES TO THE HOUSE.

CHARGES OF IMPEACHMENT HAVING BEEN PRESENTED SOME MOTION OR RESOLUTION RELATING THERETO MUST BE PRESENTED BEFORE DEBATE PROCEEDS.

TIME CONSUMED IN PRESENTING CHARGES OF IMPEACHMENT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN COMPUTING THE TIME CONSUMED BY A MEMBER ON A MOTION RELATING TO SUCH CHARGES.

A MOTION TO REFER IS DEBATABLE WITHIN NARROW LIMITS. (JANUARY 28, 1927.)

On January 28, 1927, Mr. FIORELLA H. LAGUARDIA rose to a question of privilege, stating that he desired to impeach Judge

Frank Cooper, United States district judge for the northern district of the State of New York, of high crimes and misdemeanors, and proceeded in debate.

When, Mr. THOMAS L. BLANTON made the point of order that formal charges should be presented prior to debating the question of conduct of said officer.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order, and said: "The Chair thinks the gentleman from New York should make his charges. The Chair understood he was simply leading up to the charges. But if a point of order is made, the gentleman is bound to state his charges."

Thereupon Mr. LAGUARDIA presented the charges, and proceeded in debate.

When, Mr. L. C. DYER made the point of order that the charges were not subject to debate; that in order to present a question of privilege of the House a resolution must be presented, and no motion or resolution having been presented the gentleman from New York [Mr. LAGUARDIA] was not entitled to the floor.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order, and said: "The Chair would think that the proper procedure would be to introduce the motion or resolution and then it would be proper to debate the question."

Thereupon Mr. LAGUARDIA moved that the charges be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and sought recognition to debate said motion.

Mr. DYER made the point of order that the charges of impeachment were not subject to debate, but should be referred by the Speaker as a matter of course to the proper committee without argument.

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order, and said: "The Chair thinks the usual way is to present a written resolution, but he sees no reason why the gentleman from New York can not move to refer these charges, and that on a motion to refer the gentleman is entitled to an hour, during which he can discuss the question as to the reference.

"The Chair thinks that under the motion to refer the gentleman from New York would be limited to a discussion of the reasons why these charges should or should not be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. It would be a question, perhaps, as to whether the gentleman could enter upon a discussion of the merits of the question, but on the question of his motion as to whether or not the resolution should be referred, the Chair thinks the gentleman from New York could discuss his motion.

"The Chair thinks that anything properly pertaining to the motion to refer could be discussed by the gentleman. The precedent to which the Chair will call attention is this:

"The simple motion to refer is debatable within narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate."

"Under that the Chair would think the gentleman from New York would be confined to a discussion of the reasons why the resolution should be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary."

Mr. CRANTON made the point of order that the time consumed in the presentation of the charges should be included in computing the hour to which Mr. LAGUARDIA was entitled on the motion to refer.

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order, and said:

"The Chair thinks there is this weakness in the argument of the gentleman from Michigan. The time taken to read the charges was simply time taken to inform the House of the matter before it, such as time taken by the clerk to read a bill. Now, the gentleman from New York makes a motion to refer, and under the rules of the House a motion to refer is debatable for one hour.

"The gentleman did not present his case by way of argument. The gentleman read a series of charges, obtaining the floor as a matter of privilege. The reading of those charges was simply to give the House information—not argument, but information. The Chair held, in ruling on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. BLANTON], that the gentleman from New York must read his charges before making any argument. Having now read his charges, the gentleman from New York moves to refer the charges to the Committee on the Judiciary, and under the rules of the House the gentleman is entitled to one hour.

"The Chair can not understand how, under the rules of the House, he could go back of the time when the motion to refer was made. Under the rules of the House a gentleman making a motion to refer is entitled to one hour.

"The Chair thinks that the gentleman from New York, having presented the charges and his motion and read the charges, that that should not be taken out of his time. The Chair overrules the point of order."

LEGISLATION

AN AMENDMENT REQUIRING CERTAIN FUNDS APPROPRIATED FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE TO BE HANDLED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE PROPOSES LEGISLATION ON AN APPROPRIATION BILL AND IS NOT IN ORDER. (JANUARY 28, 1927.)

On January 28, 1927, Mr. MARVIN JONES moved to recommit the bill H. R. 16576 to the Committee on Appropriations, with instructions to that committee to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 79, line 21, after the word "Columbia," insert the following: Which funds shall be handled and the work done by the appropriate division or divisions of the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. FREDERICK R. LEHLBACH made the point of order that the amendment was not germane to the paragraph and proposed legislation on an appropriation bill.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order, and said: "The Chair is prepared to rule. Here is a bill making appropriations for the Department of Commerce, and to an item carrying an appropriation on a certain subject the gentleman from Texas offers a motion to recommit and amend by transferring the appropriation to an entirely different department. The Chair doubts very much whether the amendment is germane, in the first place, but whether it is germane or not, he is of the opinion that it is legislation and therefore sustains the point of order."

SENATE AMENDMENT

TO A SENATE AMENDMENT WHICH DOES NOT PROPOSE LEGISLATION OR AN APPROPRIATION UNAUTHORIZED BY LAW, AN AMENDMENT PROPOSING LEGISLATION IS NOT IN ORDER. (JANUARY 28, 1927.)

On January 28, 1927, Mr. WILL R. WOOD moved that the House recede from its disagreement to the amendments of the Senate No. 3 as follows:

Senate amendment No. 3: Page 10, in line 1, after the figures "1926," strike out "or renewal of existing contracts, or otherwise," and insert including personal services and stenographic reporting services.

and concur therein with the following amendment:

In lieu of the matter inserted by said amendment, insert the following: Personal services (including from the date of approval of this act, 12 employees at rates of compensation to be fixed by the board, not in excess of $7,500 each per annum), stenographic reporting services to be obtained on and after the passage of this act by the board, in its discretion, through the civil service or by contract, or renewal of existing contract, or otherwise.

Mr. EUGENE BLACK made the point of order that the amendment proposed legislation.

After debate, The SPEAKER sustained the point of order.

POWER OF CONFEREES

WHERE A SENATE AMENDMENT STRIKES OUT ALL AFTER THE ENACTING CLAUSE OF A HOUSE BILL CONFEREES MAY EXERCISE BROAD DISCRETION AS TO DETAILS AND MAY ELIMINATE LANGUAGE CONTAINED IN BOTH THE HOUSE BILL AND THE SENATE AMENDMENT. (JANUARY 29, 1927.)

On January 29, 1927, Mr. FRANK D. SCOTT called up the conference report on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill H. R. 9971.

Mr. TOM D. McKEOWN made the point of order that the managers on the part of the House at the conference had exceeded their authority in agreeing to recommend the elimination of language contained in both the House bill and the Senate amendment.

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order and said: "The Chair thinks he can simplify this situation by ruling with reference to the points of order that inasmuch as the Senate struck out the entire House bill and inserted a bill of its own, any amendment which was germane is in order. The Chair will quote the precedent from Hinds' Precedents, Volume V, section 6421, as follows:

"The Chair understands that the Senate adopted a substitute for the House bill. If the two Houses had agreed upon any particular language, or any part of a section, the committee of conference could not change that; but the Senate having stricken out the bill of the House and inserted another one, the committee of conference have the right to strike out that and report a substitute in its stead. Two separate bills have been referred to the committee, and they can take either one of them, or a new bill entirely, or a bill embracing parts of either. They have a right to report any bill that is germane to the bills referred to them."

"The Chair thinks that is the better practice, and it has been universally followed in the House, that where the Senate strikes out the entire House bill and substitutes one of its own, it is in order for the conferees to recommend the adoption of any provision that is germane. Leaving out the language, even though it passed both Houses.

"This is not a question involving a change of the text to which both Houses have agreed."

RETURN OF A BILL

OBJECTION HAVING BEEN MADE TO A UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO COMPLY WITH THE REQUEST OF THE SENATE FOR THE RETURN OF A BILL, IT IS NOT THE DUTY OF THE SPEAKER OR CLERK TO RETURN SUCH BILL TO THE SENATE WITH A MESSAGE ANNOUNCING THAT THE REQUEST HAS BEEN DENIED WITHOUT A DIRECTION FROM THE HOUSE TO THAT EFFECT. (FEBRUARY 7, 1927.)

On February 7, 1927, Mr. FINIS J. GARRETT, of Tennessee, made the point of order that it was the duty of the Speaker to return to the Senate the bill (S. 4480) providing for the extension of the time limitations under which patents were issued in the case of persons who served in the armed forces of the United States during the World War, and said:

"I make the point of order that it is the duty of the Chair to return the bill to the Senate in the form in which it now is. Now, I do not propose to deal in any way with the merits or demerits of the legislation. I am presenting simply a parliamentary question. The duty of transmitting this bill is, of course, a part of the Clerk's duty, as I understand it, but the Chair necessarily exercises a certain control over these measures. This is a bill that passed the Senate and the House in the regular way, and has received the signature of the presiding officer of the House, the Speaker of the House, in accordance with the law and the rules of the House, and the Senate returns the bill to us from that body with the request that we take certain action concerning it. That action the House declines to take. There is nothing further that the House can do about the matter, and I respectfully submit, Mr. Speaker, that since the duty of the Chair in signing a measure is purely clerical, that the Chair in holding the bill upon the Speaker's table is exceeding the authority of the Chair."

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order, and said:

"The Chair is ready to rule. The resolution here to be sent to the Senate is that the Speaker have authorization to sign the enrolled bill. The Speaker does not deem it his duty in the absence of an order from the House to do this. So far as the question of privilege is concerned, there is no privilege attached to this matter.

"The Chair has before him a precedent to which he wishes to refer:

"A request to the Senate that the House vacate the signature of the Speaker to an enrolled bill, was denied by the House, unanimous consent being refused. On June 23, 1902, in the Senate, Mr. James K. Jones, of Arkansas, by unanimous consent, presented and the Senate agreed to the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to return to the House of Representatives the enrolled copy of the bill (S. 5718) providing for the sale of sites for manufacturing plants or industrial plants in the Indian Territory, and request the House of Representatives to vacate the action of the Speaker in signing said enrolled bill, and to return said enrolled bill and the message of the Senate agreeing to the amendment of the House of Representatives to said bill, to the Senate."

"Mr. Jones at the same time entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the amendment of the House to the bill."

"On June 26, the resolution of the Senate was read, and the Speaker, Speaker Henderson, said:

"This being a request for the erasing of name of Speaker from a bill, and there being no allegation that the request is for the purpose of correcting an error, the Chair feels that this should be done by unanimous consent."

"In other words, the Chair does not feel that he is authorized to take the action requested unless ordered to do so by the House, and that question is not a matter of privilege. It can only be done by unanimous consent or a rule."

APPROPRIATION

A QUESTION OF ORDER THAT A BILL CONTAINS AN APPROPRIATION MAY BE MADE AGAINST A SENATE BILL AND AT ANY TIME. (SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE TILSON, FEBRUARY 7, 1927.)

On February 7, 1927, Mr. LOUIS C. CRAMTON presented an amendment to sect on 2 of the bill (S. 4727) to provide for the widening of Nichols Avenue between Good Hope Road and S Street SE.

Mr. CRAMTON then made a point of order against certain language contained in the section proposing an appropriation.

Mr. THOMAS L. BLANTON made the point of order that the point of order came too late.

The SPEAKER pro tempore overruled the point of order made by Mr. BLANTON and sustained the point of order made by Mr. CRAMTON.

SENATE AMENDMENTS

TO REQUIRE CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE A SENATE AMENDMENT MUST SHOW ON ITS FACE THAT IT INVOLVES AN EXPENDITURE. (FEBRUARY 11, 1927.)

On February 11, 1927, Mr. G. N. HAUGEN moved to take from the Speaker's table the bill (H. R. 11768) to regulate the importation of milk and cream into the United States, etc., with Senate amendments thereto, and concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. LORING M. BLACK Jr., made the point of order against the motion on the ground that the amendments required consideration in Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER overruled the point of order and said: "The Chair is ready to rule. A very recent decision of the House itself holds that if any amendment or provision makes a charge upon the Treasury it must appear upon the face of the bill itself. The House went so far even as to hold that the Speaker might not make use of any knowledge he might possess that a charge on the Treasury would necessarily follow. The effect of the decision of the House is that any provision must show on its face beyond any possibility of speculation or doubt that a charge upon the Treasury is in fact created. The Chair is unable to see language in these amendments on their face which would cause the Chair to be certain of there being a charge on the Treasury and overrules the point of order."

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

UNALLOTTED INDIAN LANDS WITHIN EXECUTIVE-ORDER RESERVATIONS ARE NOT PROPERTY OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF THE RULE REQUIRING CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

A REQUIREMENT THAT CERTAIN FUNDS HELD IN THE TREASURY IN TRUST SHALL DRAW INTEREST AT A SPECIFIED RATE DOES NOT CREATE SUCH A CHARGE ON THE TREASURY AS TO REQUIRE CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. (FEBRUARY 23, 1927.)

On February 23, 1927, Mr. CARL HAYDEN, by direction of the Committee on Indian Affairs, called up the bill of the Senate (S. 4893) to authorize oil and gas mining leases upon unallotted lands within Executive-order Indian reservations from the Speaker's table.

Mr. SPROUL of Kansas made the point of order that the bill should be considered in the Committee of the Whole on the ground, first, that the bill provides for the disposal of Government property; and, second, that section 2 of the bill proposes a charge against the Treasury.

After debate,

The SPEAKER overruled the points of order, and said:

"The Chair is prepared to rule. This motion presents a very interesting question. It has been very ably argued, the Chair thinks, on both sides, by the gentleman from Arizona and others on the one side, and by the gentleman from Kansas on the other.

"The question presented is this: Is the House bill properly on the Union Calendar or might it not be properly on the House Calendar? If it could be properly on the House Calendar the motion of the gentleman from Arizona is in order, but if it should be properly on the Union Calendar it is not in order. The gentleman from Kansas makes the point of order that the bill should be on the Union Calendar or that it should be considered in the Committee of the Whole under paragraph 3, of Rule XXIII, which provides:

"All motions or propositions involving a tax or charge upon the people; all proceedings touching appropriations of money, or bills making appropriations of money or property, or requiring such appropriation to be made, or authorizing payments out of appropriations already made, or releasing any liability to the United States for money or property, or referring any claim to the Court of Claims, shall be first considered in a Committee of the Whole, and a point of order under this rule shall be good at any time before the consideration of a bill has commenced."

"The gentleman from Kansas makes the point of order on two grounds. First, that the bill disposes of property owned by the United States and not owned by the Indians; and, second, that section 2 of the bill provides for an appropriation of money.

"Section 2 of the bill provides that the proceeds from rentals, and so forth, of this property—

"Shall draw interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum and be available for appropriation by Congress."

"Query: Is this an appropriation?"

"The Chair will put it in another way. Does section 2 on its face provide a charge on the Treasury?"

"The Chair thinks it is a little doubtful on its face, but in view of the statement made by the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MADDEN], who knows more about practical questions relating to appropriations than any other living man, that under the rules and procedure of his committee this is not an appropriation, the Chair will so hold. As the Chair understands it, this is not a direct charge on the Treasury, but is a fund which is kept to the credit of the Indians and available for all sorts of uses by the Treasury. A mere book account is kept, and 2 per cent semiannually is credited to this fund, and the fund is available for any proper use by the Treasury and probably draws interest at the rate of 4 per cent or perhaps more than 4 per cent. Under these conditions the Chair does not think that section 2 of this bill of itself and on its face creates a charge on the Treasury.

"As to the question whether this is public land or Indian land, the Chair listened attentively to the argument of the gentleman from Kansas; but if it was doubtful in the past as to whether there is a distinction between lands given to the Indians by treaty or by Executive order, all doubt is removed by the opinion of the Attorney General, as follows:

"When by an Executive order public lands are set aside, either as a new Indian reservation or an addition to an old one, without further language indicating that the action is a mere temporary expedient, such lands are thereafter properly known and designated as an Indian reservation; and so long, at least, as the order continues in force the Indians have the right of occupancy and use and the United States has the title in fee."

"The following statement also occurs in his opinion:

"The important matter here, however, is that neither the courts nor Congress have made any distinction as to the character or extent of the Indian rights as between Executive-order reservations and reservations established by treaty or act of Congress."

"Furthermore—

"In Spalding v. Chandler, which involved an Executive-order Indian reservation, the Supreme Court said (pp. 402, 403):

"It has been settled by repeated adjudications of this court that the fee of the lands in this country in the original occupation of the Indian tribes was from the time of the formation of this Government vested in the United States. The Indian title as against the United States was merely a title and right to the perpetual occupancy of the land, with the privilege of using it in such mode as they saw fit until such right of occupation had been surrendered to the Government. When Indian reservations were created, either by treaty or Executive order, the Indians held the land by the same character of title, to wit, the right to possess and occupy the lands for the uses and purposes designated."

"Under these circumstances the Chair thinks, first, that this bill does not create, on its face, a charge on the Treasury; second, that it disposes of lands which are held in trust for the Indians; and being convinced about these two propositions, the Chair thinks the bill does not require consideration in Committee of the Whole.

"This being the case, the motion of the gentleman from Arizona is in order, and the Chair overrules the point of order made by the gentleman from Kansas."

PRIVATE BILL

IN THE EVENT THE HOUSE ITSELF REFERS A PRIVATE BILL TO A COMMITTEE NOT ORDINARILY HAVING JURISDICTION OVER ITS SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION IS THEREBY CONFERRED ON SUCH COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER AND REPORT SUCH BILL. (SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE CHINDBLOM FEBRUARY 24, 1927.)

On February 24, 1927, Mr. EUGENE BLACK made the point of order that the joint resolution (S. J. Res. 112) for the relief of Katherine Imbrie was improperly referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and that said committee did not have jurisdiction to consider and report such joint resolution.

After debate the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. CHINDBLOM) overruled the point of order and said:

"The Chair has ascertained the facts with reference to Calendar No. 738, and suggests that the Clerk again report Senate Joint Resolution 112.

"The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

"The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair finds that on February 8, 1927, on page 3375 of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, occurs the following proceeding:

"The SPEAKER. On February 2 the Senate passed Senate Joint Resolution 112 for the relief of Katherine Imbrie. The chairman of the Committee on Claims advises the Chair that in view of the fact that the Committee on Foreign Affairs has had extended hearings on this matter he prefers that the joint resolution be referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. The chairman of the latter committee also agrees to this reference. Therefore without objection the resolution will be referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

"There was no objection."

"The Chair construes that as the unanimous consent which is required under section 3 of Rule XXI, and therefore overrules the point of order."

SENATE AMENDMENT

A SENATE AMENDMENT WHICH IN EFFECT MERELY PROPOSES A MODIFICATION OF AN EXPENDITURE PROPOSED IN THE HOUSE BILL DOES NOT REQUIRE CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. (MARCH 3, 1927.)

On March 3, 1927, Mr. WILLIAM R. GREEN moved to take from the Speaker's table the bill (H. R. 10729) to create a bureau of customs and a bureau of prohibition in the Department of the Treasury, with the Senate amendments.

Mr. F. H. LAGUARDIA made the point of order that the amendments required consideration in Committee of the Whole and that the motion was therefore not in order.

After debate the Speaker overruled the point of order, and said:

"The question, of course, depends upon whether the amendments would require consideration in the Committee of the Whole. The Chair has listened very attentively to the reading of the amendments and does not see where in any respect those amendments would create a charge upon the Treasury. The provision which authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to employ persons is a part of the original bill also. The Chair overrules the point of order."

VOTING

THE YEAS AND NAYS MAY NOT BE HAD ON SECONDING A MOTION TO SUSPEND THE RULES. (MARCH 3, 1927)

On March 3, 1927, Mr. M. CLYDE KELLY moved to suspend the rules and pass H. R. 4475, to provide for steel cars in the Railway Post Office Service. The House divided, and the tellers reported that there were 37 yeas and 74 noes, so a second was refused. Mr. KELLY thereupon demanded the yeas and nays.

Mr. THOMAS L. BLANTON made the point of order that the yeas and nays could not be demanded.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order and said:

"The Chair is prepared to rule. The Chair has before him a precedent directly in line with this. Section 3602, volume 4, Hinds' Precedents—

"The constitutional right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist as to the vote to second a motion when such second is required by the rules. On June 20, 1898, Mr. Thaddeus M. Mahon, of Pennsylvania, moved that the rules be suspended and that the amendments of the Senate to the 'omnibus claims bill' be nonconcurrent in and a committee of conference be asked.

"Mr. Eugene F. Loud, of California, demanded a second. "The House divided, and the tellers reported—yeas 90, noes 2.

"Mr. Loud made the point of no quorum.

"Mr. Mahon demanded the yeas and nays.

"The SPEAKER (Mr. Reed) said:

"This can not be taken by yeas and nays. It is taken by tellers only. This is not a motion. It is the seconding of a motion, and the constitutional right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist as to a second." * * *

"But this is not a question of no quorum. The precedent cited by the gentleman from New York was where a quorum was not present, but where a quorum is present the Chair thinks that the right to demand the yeas and nays does not exist. * * *

"In that case the point of no quorum was made. In this case it was not made. It is simply a question of whether the yeas and nays can be demanded as a right. The Chair thinks not. * * *

"The Chair is prepared to count if anybody wants the Chair to count, but the Chair is convinced that there are not less than 250 Members present."

VOTING

AFTER THE DEMAND FOR THE YEAS AND NAYS HAS BEEN REFUSED IT IS IN ORDER TO DEMAND TELLERS OR A DIVISION. (MARCH 3, 1927.)

On March 3, 1927, the question recurred on dispensing with further proceedings under a call of the House, when Mr. FINIS J. GARRETT, of Tennessee, demanded the yeas and nays. The Speaker, after counting, announced that 41 Members, not a sufficient number, seconded the demand for the yeas and nays. Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee thereupon demanded a division.

Mr. B. H. SNELL made the point of order that the demand came too late. The Speaker overruled the point of order and said:

"The Chair thinks that a division can be demanded even though the yeas and nays have been refused. * * * The Chair simply announced that not a sufficient number had risen to order the yeas and nays. The Chair thinks that in the absence of any rule stating the order in which division on various questions may be called for, it would still be in order to demand a division. * * * There is no prohibition against it."

The House divided; and there were—yeas 110, noes 42.

Thereupon Mr. CHARLES R. CRISP demanded tellers.

Mr. SNELL made the point of order that the demand was dilatory and came too late.

The SPEAKER said:

"The Chair thinks that even at this stage one-fifth of a quorum can demand tellers."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

THE STATEMENT BY A MEMBER THAT "I WOULD NEED A CROOKED AND WEAK SPINE TO WALK IN ALL THE CROOKED PATHS IN WHICH HE (ANOTHER MEMBER) WOULD LEAD ME" DOES NOT PERMIT THE OTHER MEMBER TO RISE TO A QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE. (MARCH 3, 1927.)

On March 3, 1927, Mr. ALBERT JOHNSON of Washington rose to a question of personal privilege and submitted the following extract from the Record of the preceding day:

"I would hate to be a sheep and have the gentleman from Washington for a shepherd. I would need a crooked and weak spine to walk in all the crooked paths in which he would lead me."

Mr. TOM CONNALLY of Texas made the point of order that no question of personal privilege was involved.

The SPEAKER sustained the point of order and said:

"The gentleman from Texas raises a point of order. The Chair has read this language carefully several times. The Chair does not think that it raises a question of privilege. He does not think there is any imputation upon the standing of the gentleman from Washington as a Member. It occurs to the Chair that the word 'crooked' there simply refers to a path, and not to the gentleman from Washington.

"The Chair sustains the point of order."

Appropriation: A question of order that a bill contains an appropriation may be made against a Senate bill and at any time.	436
Bill, private: In the event the House itself refers a private bill to a committee not ordinarily having jurisdiction over its subject matter, jurisdiction is thereby conferred on such committee to consider and report such bill.	436
Bill, return of: Objection having been made to a unanimous consent requires to comply with the request of the Senate for the return of a bill, it is not the duty of the Speaker or Clerk to return such bill to the Senate with a message announcing that the request has been denied without a direction from the House to that effect.	435
Committee of the Whole:
To require consideration in Committee of the Whole a bill must show on its face that it will require an expenditure of public money.	432
A bill providing under a certain contingency for a hearing to be conducted by the Secretaries of War, Commerce, and Agriculture and for an investigation within three years after the construction of a certain bridge concerning its value was held by the House not to require consideration in the Committee of the Whole.	432
Unallotted Indian lands within Executive-order reservations are not property of the United States within the meaning of the rule requiring consideration in Committee of the Whole.	436
A requirement that certain funds held in the Treasury in trust shall draw interest does not create such a charge as to require consideration in Committee of the Whole.	436
To require consideration in Committee of the Whole a Senate amendment must show on its face that it involves an expenditure.	436
A Senate amendment which in effect merely proposes a modification of an expenditure proposed in the House bill does not require consideration in Committee of the Whole.	437
Committee on Ways and Means: If the major feature of a bill reported from the Committee on Ways and Means relates to the revenue, other matters in the bill not relating to the revenue but incidental to its main purpose do not destroy the privilege.	433
Conference report: Where a Senate amendment strikes out all after the enacting clause of a House bill conferees may exercise broad discretion as to details and may eliminate language contained in both the House bill and the Senate amendment.	435
Gentleman's agreement:
A so-called "gentleman's agreement" once made should not be subsequently modified.	431
Under a "gentleman's agreement" that a session should be merely formal it was held in order to ask that a bill be sent to conference but not in order to ask that Senate amendments to a bill of major importance be agreed to.	431
Germaneness: To a paragraph in an appropriation bill relating to the diffusion of information, an amendment providing for an investigation in connection with the diffusion of such information was held germane.	431
Impeachment: In connection with the presentation of charges of impeachment before proceeding in debate a Member must prefer specific charges.	434
Legislation: An amendment requiring certain funds appropriated for the Department of Commerce to be handled by the Department of Agriculture proposes legislation on an appropriation bill and is not in order.	43
Limitation: A provision denying the use of an appropriation for certain designated purposes the description of which goes to the extent of imposing new duties indirectly on officers charged with the expenditure and those charged with passing upon the validity of such expenditure is not a proper limitation.	43
Private bill: In the event the House itself refers a private bill to a committee not ordinarily having jurisdiction over its subject-matter jurisdiction is thereby conferred on such committee to consider and report such bill.	43
Privilege, personal:
The fact that one Member has characterized the statement of another Member as "an absolute and unqualified falsehood" does not permit the latter to take the floor on a question of personal privilege, although the question might be raised by a motion to strike the language from the record, which involves a question of privilege of the House.	43
The statement by a Member that "I would need a crooked and weak spine to walk in all the crooked paths in which he (another Member) would lead me" does not permit the other Member to rise to a question of personal privilege.	43
Privileged business: If the major feature of a bill reported from the Committee on Ways and Means relates to the revenue other matters in the bill not relating to the revenue but incidental to its main purpose do not destroy the privilege.	43
Resolution of inquiry: For the purpose of computing a week the period during which Congress stands adjourned for more than three days is not counted in relation to the report of resolutions of inquiry.	432
Return of a bill: Objection having been made to a unanimous consent requires to comply with the request of the Senate for the return of a bill, it is not the duty of the Speaker or Clerk to return such bill to the Senate with a message announcing that the request has been denied without a direction from the House to that effect.	437
Second: The yeas and nays may not be had on seconding a motion to suspend the rules.	437
Senate amendments:
After the stage of disagreement is reached a motion to recede and concur in certain Senate amendments with amendments takes precedence over a motion to lay certain Senate amendments on the table.	434
To a Senate amendment which does not propose legislation or an appropriation unauthorized by law, an amendment proposing legislation is not in order.	435
To require consideration in Committee of the Whole a Senate amendment must show on its face that it involves an expenditure.	436
A Senate amendment which in effect merely proposes a modification of an expenditure proposed in the House bill does not require consideration in Committee of the Whole.	437
Voting:
After the demand for the yeas and nays has been refused it is in order to demand tellers or a division.	437
The yeas and nays may not be had on seconding a motion to suspend the rules.	437
