MOST HONORABLE MILITARY ORDER OF THE BATH.Instituted 1839; Revised 1725; Extended 1815.Motto; Tria Juncti in Uno.—Riband Red.

By statute Jan. 2, 1815, it is ordained "for the purpose of commemorating the auspicious termination of the long and arduous contest in which this Empire has been engaged," that the order shall be composed of three classes, viz

1st CLASS.—To consist of Knights Grand Crosses, number not to exceed seventy two, exclusive of the Sovereign and Princes of the Blood Royal; twelve of the number may be appointed from the Civil and Diplomatic Services. This dignity not to be conferred upon any Officer (except the above twelve) who shall not have attained the rank of Major General in the Army, or Rear Admiral in the Navy, and must have been previously appointed to the second Class.

2d CLASS.—Knights Commanders, number not to exceed upon the first Institution, one hundred and eighty, exclusive of Foreign Officers holding British Commissions, of whom not exceeding ten may be admitted as Honorary Knights Commanders; in the event of action of signal distinction, or of future wars, the number of this class may be increased. To be entitled to the distinctive appellation of Knighthood: to have the same rights and privileges as Knights Bachelors, but to take precedence of them, to wear the badge, &c., pendant by a red riband round the neck, the Star embroidered on the left side. No person is now eligible to this class under the rank of Major General in the Army, or Rear Admiral in the Navy.

3d CLASS.—Companions of the Order not limited in number, they are to take precedence of Esquires, but not entitled to the appellation, style, &c. of Knights Bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the third class, pendant by a narrow riband to the button hole. No Officer can be nominated unless he shall have received a medal or other badge of honour, or shall have been specially mentioned in dispatches in the Gazette, as having distinguished himself in action.

The new badge for the Military Classes of the Order, is a gold Maltese Cross of eight points, enamelled argent in the four angles a lion passant guardant, or, in the centre, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuant from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, within the circle, gules—thereon the motto of the Order surrounded by two branches of laurel proper issuing from an escrol azure inscribed Ich Dien in letters of gold, worn by the Grand Crosses pendant from a red riband across the right shoulder. The collar is of gold, weighing thirty ounces of Troy weight, and is composed of nine imperial crowns and eight roses, thistle and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, tied, or linked together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the order pendant thereto. The Star of the Military Grand Crosses is formed of rays or flames of silver, thereon a gold Maltese Cross, and in the centre, within the motto branches of laurel, issuant as above described three imperial crowns of gold and is worn on the left side.

The Civil Knights Grand Crosses retain the old badge and Star of the Order.

No Knight can wear the collar before his installation.

The Star of the Commanders is in the form of a Cross patee of silver having the same centre as the Grand Crosses, but no gold Maltese Cross thereon.

RETIRING PENSION REGULATIONS

Fort St. George, 19th January 1838.

No. 13 of 1835—The following General Order by the Honorable the President in Council, under date the 29th December 1837, No. 258, is published for the information of the Army.

GENERAL ORDERS by the Honorable the President in Council.

Fort William, 29th December 1837.

No. 258 of 1837—The Honorable the President in Council has much pleasure in publishing to the Army, the following Extract (Paragraphs 2 to 5) of a letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors, to the Government of India, No. 5, dated 20th September 1837, announcing the grant of additional advantages to the Senior Officers of the Army in respect of Retiring Pension.

"Para. 2. In our Letter of the 23d December 1835, we announced to you that as we considered it hopeless to expect that any Military Retiring Fund could be successfully formed, we have thought it right so far as we could feel justified in doing so to provide for the object contemplated in schemes of that nature by an enlargement of the Retiring Regulations, and that we had in consequence resolved to grant the full pay of Captain to every Officer who should have served in India 23 years, (3 years furlough included) whether he had attained that rank Regimentally or not, and the full pay of each of the superior ranks of Major, Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel after the completion of an additional period of 5 years service for each of those ranks in succession, viz.

For Major's pay.	23 years service, including 3 years for a furlough.
For Lieut. Colonel's pay	33.....do.....do.....do.....do
For Colonel's pay	38.....do.....do.....do.....do

3. Being now of opinion that some additional advantage in respect to the period of retirement may properly be granted to the Senior Officers who would have been more especially the immediate objects of benefit from a Retiring Fund, had such a Fund been established, we have resolved that the period of service, to qualify an Officer for the pay of each advanced rank after that of Captain, shall be reduced from five to four years, the periods of service in India required for each rank being consequently hereafter as follows, viz.

Every Officer who shall have served 23 years (3 years furlough included) shall be allowed to retire on the pay of a Captain whether he shall have attained that rank Regimentally or not.

Every Officer who shall have served 27 years (3 years furlough included) shall be allowed to retire on the pay of a Major whether he shall have attained that rank or not.

Every Officer who shall have served 31 years (3 years furlough included) shall be allowed to retire on the pay of a Lieutenant Colonel whether he shall have attained that rank or not.

Every Officer who shall have served 35 years (3 years furlough included) shall be allowed to retire on the full pay of a Colonel whether he shall have attained that rank or not.

4. These arrangements to have effect without prejudice to any claims arising out of the Retiring Regulations as established in the year 1796.

5. We desire that it may be distinctly understood that the present is a final measure. You will accordingly decline to forward to us any application which may have in view a further extension of the Regulations now established with regard to the retirement of our Military Servants."

(Signed) J. STUART, Lieut. Colonel,
Offg. Secy. to Govt. of India, Mty. Dept.

THE MADRAS ALMANAC

AND

Compendium of Intelligence

FOR 1839.

Compiled from the most authentic sources, and published for the benefit of the Military Male Orphan Asylum.

Price per copy, stitched.....	6	Rups.
do. half bound.....	7	do.
do. do. in morocco.....	8	do.

In preparing, and passing through the Press, the Almanac for the present year, the Compiler has taken the utmost pains to preserve it from errors, and to make it, in all its Departments, as perfect as possible. Nearly every page has undergone his closest personal examination and revision, after receiving the Printer's final corrections, the advantage of which, he trusts, will be apparent to those who may honor him by an inspection of the work. Considerable additional expense has been incurred in the getting up of the compilation, to meet which a small increase in price is made:—it is hoped, however, that, as heretofore, the Asylum Press Almanac will be considered the cheapest publication of its kind, issued from the Indian Press.

Early applications are respectfully solicited, addressed to Mr. MARSDEN, Superintendent of the Asylum Press.

TESTIMONIES OF THE LOCAL JOURNALS.

The Madras Almanac and Compendium of Intelligence from the Asylum Press has had obviously much attentive pains bestowed upon its compilation this year, and it embraces a great variety of interesting and useful information, made the more acceptable through a clear fine type, correct printing, and a generally neat getting up of the work. Several well executed lithographs embellish the Almanac,—a Map of India, a Plan of the Town of Madras, and one of Steam Navigation between England and India,—while a Gardener's Calendar, short but instructive, and a Stranger's Guide to the principal buildings and public offices about the place form two prominent amongst other useful addenda to the local information this volume before conveyed.—SPECTATOR.

The Male Asylum Almanac.—We have been favoured with a copy of the above useful, cheap, and well got up publication, and can safely recommend it to public notice as a very great improvement on its predecessors. The limits of this article preclude our attempting even a summary of its contents, but we are satisfied that our readers will admit after inspection that it merits even more than we have said of it, and is highly creditable to its compiler.—HERALD.

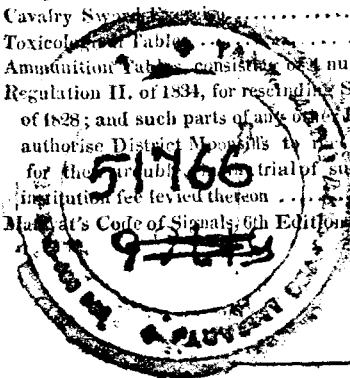

We have been politely favoured with a copy of the Almanac for the present year, got up at the Male Asylum Press; and are decidedly of opinion that it is a very great improvement on the editions of former years. It contains 3 Maps,—one of Madras, one of India, and one descriptive of the line of Steam Navigation from India to England. It is further embellished with Maps detailing the Tract of the Moon's shadow upon the surface of the earth during the Solar Eclipses of the year, and with plates illustrative of Marryatt's Code of Signals for Merchant Vessels, and of the Flags of all nations.

The varied information which the Almanac contains has evidently been got up with much care, and reflects the highest credit on the diligence and judgment of the respectable compiler. To give a summary of its contents would occupy more time and space than we can well afford: suffice it on this point to say, that nothing adapted to the pages of such a work appears to have been omitted, due regard being had to its local character. The authenticity and correctness of its information is guaranteed by the official sources whence much of it has been derived, and by the careful revision of the compiler to which every part of it has been subjected. The paper is good and the typography neat, while its price, considering the extent and variety of its contents, is certainly moderate. Comparing it with the editions of former years, it furnishes a striking example of the progress and value of REFORM.—CIRCULATOR.

As respects the Almanac issued from the [Asylum] Press it cannot be denied much improvement has been effected as compared with previous publications of a like kind; much interesting and useful information has been introduced, and also in its passage through the Press great care and pains have been bestowed.—EXAMINER.
