On his rejoining the India office in Sep. 1917 he was at first employed in the Judicial and Public Depts. chiefly in connexion with Emigration questions, the Reforms schemes and the Inter-departmental Conference regarding Foreign Missionaries in India and Colonies. Later on, he was employed in the Department in connexion with propaganda work in addition to which he took charge, under the supervision of the Military Secretary (Sir H. Cox) of all questions relating to prisoners of War. His services were of very great help to the Judicial and Public Depts. and to the Military Dept. at the time when many of the regular staff were on military service and pressure was very great. His deputation terminated on the 12th Feb. 1919 after which date he was placed on furlough until his return to India—vide India office letter No. J. and P. 2341-19, dated the 16th Apr. 1919, recorded in G.O. No. 294, Public, dated the 20th May 1919.
