Note.—It is an advantage to Military men to effect Assurances in time of Peace, as the small Military Extra covers the Risk of War in any part of the Globe. Should Officers delay effecting Assurances until time of War, they are then liable to pay a heavy War Extra.

STANDARD LIFE OFFICE.

Invested Funds, upwards of Six Million Pounds Sterling

The monthly payment to secure a sum of FIVE THOUSAND RUPEES at age 55 (the same sum to be paid at death if it occurs previous to that age) is about SEVENTEEN Rupees at age 20. If delayed until age 40, the monthly payment for exactly the same provision is more than doubled.

Payments may be made monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, or yearly, and the conditions are very liberal in regard to payments falling into arrear, &c.

This form of Provision (a sum payable at age 55 or at death if previous) is particularly suitable to Officers in India in many ways. Prospectuses and every information may be obtained on application.

THOMAS LANG,
Secretary, Bombay Branch.

BINNY & CO.,
Chief Agents, Madras Presidency.

Pensions.—Rs. 500 per annum to commence from age 50 may be secured by a payment of about Eight rupees a month if commenced at age 20; if commenced at age 30 the rate is about Seventeen rupees; and if at 40 about Forty-nine Rupees. Prospectuses, &c., on application. Applicants for information are particularly requested to state date of birth.

OUR SHERRIES.

Are not to be surpassed in this Presidency, and from the large orders we receive for them from various parts of the Bombay Presidency, it is only natural to assume that better Sherries at our prices are not even obtainable there.

The first three Wines at Rs. 24 per dozen are certainly without their equal in Madras.

These are Medium Dry—Dry—and Extra Dry.

We may here state that, excepting Montilla and Manzanilla, our Xerez House confines itself exclusively to Wines of Genuine Xerez growth, which it ships pure and guarantees free from those admixtures of the low price products from outlying districts which, shipped as Sherry, have done so much to bring discredit upon Genuine Xerez Wine.

The Pale Standard Dinner Sherries.

Spencer & Co., continue to make a speciality of this particular Sherry, which they have no hesitation in recommending as a Dinner Wine, hitherto unequalled in this market at the Price. It is a genuine, light, pale and delicate Wine, and is well worthy the attention of consumers who desire a good, wholesome, and inexpensive Wine.

HER MAJESTY'S COVENANTED CIVIL SERVANTS.

Column 3.—Maj. Rew.=Major Reward; Min. Rew.=Minor Reward; High Profy.=High Proficiency.

Column 4.—The names printed in Italics denote that the Officers are on Furlough or Special leave.

Minimum guaranteed allowances have been sanctioned for the Members of the Madras Civil Service for 5 years, from 1st April 1882, by the Secretary of State's despatch No. 31, dated 9th March 1882, at the following rates:—

Depots.—The following Horse Guards' G.O., dated 1st January 1884, is republished :—

G.O. 3, —Depôts. (Specially issued 22nd December 1883.)

I. In order to ensure greater uniformity of system at regimental depôts, the depôt companies of line battalions will, from 1st January 1884, be lettered A, B, C, D; and all officers, non-commissioned officers, and men then with, or who may join the depôt, will be posted to companies irrespective of the battalions from which they came, so as to form only one depôt.

II. It is essential that all officers and non-commissioned officers detailed for duty at the depôt should be selected for their special qualifications for dealing with recruits and young soldiers, and no trained soldiers of bad or indifferent characters are to be sent to duty at the depôt.

III. Officers commanding must live at the head quarters of the regimental district, and will be held strictly responsible for everything connected with the discipline, and interior economy of the regimental depôt.

IV. For purposes of promotion one general roll will be kept of all non-commissioned officers serving with the regimental depôt noted, and the Commander-in-Chief again directs that on no account is a convict or prisoner to be removed from his place of confinement for dispatch to England, until all the documents required in each case can be made over complete to the officer or non-commissioned officer in charge of the party with which he is proceeding.

2. Cases have also occurred of the non-removal of prisoners (ordered to be discharged,) for embarkation in sufficient time to admit of their arrival in England before their sentences of imprisonment have expired as required by G.O.* 14 of 1883, and care must be taken that this order is strictly carried out in future.

3. Warrants for re-committal in England of convicts and prisoners, are necessary in every case, and care is to be taken that they are applied for in time, and the following rules will therefore be observed:—

A. Warrants should be applied for immediately on the promulgation of a sentence—

I. In cases of sentences of penal servitude.

II. In cases of sentences of imprisonment over one year not ordered to be undergone out of the United Kingdom.

III. During the trooping season, in cases of prisoners sentenced to be discharged with ignominy, or ordered to be discharged as incorrigible and worthless, who have to be sent to England the same season.

B. Warrants for other prisoners sentenced to be discharged with ignominy, or ordered to be discharged as incorrigible and worthless, should be applied for about the month of September previous to the trooping season in which they have to embark for England.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS, OOTACAMUND,
17th April 1884.

No. 23.—Madras Army Regulations.—The following alterations are made in the Madras Army Regulations:—

In line 4 of para. 17 of revised Section 5 (General Officers and Inspections) as reconstructed by S.G.O. 81 of 1883, for "Section V, paras. 20—40, 1881, inclusive of the Queen's Regulations," read "Section V, paras. 25—48 inclusive of the Queen's Regulations, 1883."

Revised Section 5 (S.G.O. No. 81 of 1883), para. 27, clause II, in regard to confidential reports on Royal Engineer officers, is reconstructed as follows:—

Officers of the Royal Engineers employed with the corps of Sappers and Miners are likewise to be similarly reported on. The report (Army Form B 194) is to be prepared in triplicate, two copies being sent to the Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief direct and the other to the Adjutant-General, Ootacamund, with the annual inspection report of the corps of Sappers and Miners.

In the last line of para. 13, revised Section 9 (S.G.O. No. 91 of 1883) for S.G.O. 47 of 1878 substitute S.G.O. 115 of 1883.

Para. 817 is cancelled and the following substituted:—

Para. 817. The married establishment for troops in India is laid down in the Pay Code, and the regulations relating to the qualifications for admission thereto, &c., in the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army.

Para. 818, as amended by S.G.O. 32 of 1883, is cancelled.

Para. 820A. (S.G.O. 12 of 1882) for "para. 164, Section 7 of the Queen's Regulations, 1881," substitute "para. 250, Section 7, Queen's Regulations, 1883."

Para. 1823 (as reconstructed by S.G.O. 14 of 1883.)

Add the following:—

"When a soldier is sent to the United Kingdom, under circumstances which will entail his committal to a military prison on arrival, Army Form C 355 will accompany the warrant of committal (Army Form C 386.)" and home battalion. On the dépôt roll the names of all non-commissioned officers with the home battalion according to their seniority will be entered in red ink; and similarly all dépôt non-commissioned officers will be inserted in red ink on the home battalion roll. The interests of the dépôt and home battalion non-commissioned officers will be thus protected, as well as the efficiency of the service; for no dépôt or battalion non-commissioned officer will be promoted or passed over without the mutual concurrence of the officers commanding the regimental dépôt and the home battalion. Should any difference of opinion arise between these officers, the question will be referred by the officer commanding the dépôt to the general officer commanding the district, whose decision will be final. This will not prevent commanding officers appointing unpaid lance sergeants and lance corporals, without referring to each other.

V.* When promotions are made above the rank of sergeant the interests of non-commissioned officers serving with the foreign battalion must be considered, so that they may have a fair share of promotion to the higher grades at the dépôt. With this view officers commanding battalions abroad will, at the end of each quarter, transmit to the officer commanding the regimental dépôt the names of any non-commissioned officers whom they may wish to recommend for promotion to vacancies existing in the establishment of the dépôt for color sergeant, quartermaster sergeant, or warrant rank.

When both battalions of a regiment are abroad, the officers commanding and the officer commanding the regimental district must exercise their discretion in respect to the promotion of non-commissioned officers, taking care that the establishment is in no way exceeded.

VI. Non-commissioned officers sent home from the foreign battalion for discharge or transfer to the Reserve will remain on the establishment of the foreign battalion until so discharged or transferred. Non-commissioned officers sent home as invalids and not discharged will be absorbed on the establishment of the dépôt or home battalion, and the vacancy in the foreign battalion will not be filled up until such absorption takes place.

VII. All recruits, except those enlisted at battalion head quarters, will be sent to the dépôt, to be trained; and, when accommodation admits, they will be kept there for three months and then sent in batches to join the home battalion in accordance with G.O. 50 of 1883.

VIII. During the recruit's stay at the dépôt he is to be thoroughly instructed in Part I. of the Field Exercises, in the * Para. XII of the special issue is now embodied in para. V.

Manual and Firing Exercises, and, where facilities admit, he must go through the recruit's course of musketry. But where there are no rifle ranges available, the recruits should, after ten weeks' training, be sent to the home battalion, where, as soon as practicable, their course of musketry practice must be carried out.

IX. Dépôt recruits, on joining the home battalion, should be sufficiently advanced in drill to take their places with their companies for instruction under the company officer. Whenever, after the prescribed period, a recruit, from sickness, absence or any other cause, is not sufficiently instructed to join the home battalion, he will be retained at the dépôt. A special report of all recruits so retained over three months will be forwarded to the Adjutant-General with the monthly returns.

X. As a general rule, sergeants of long service should be selected for duty at regimental dépôts.

XI. Invalids sent home from the foreign battalion who are reported fit for service will join the home battalion. Invalids for discharge, and soldiers sent home on completion of their period of service with the colors, will be disposed of as may be directed by the Adjutant-General.

XII. Paras. 10, 11, 13, and the last seven lines in para. 14 of Section XVIII, of "The Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1883," are hereby cancelled, and in para. 8 of that section the last two lines will be amended as follows:—

"when it happens that both the Major and Captain at the dépôt are married."

Return of men recommended for restoration of forfeited service (Cavalry and Infantry.)	Adjut. Genl. Horse Gds.	1st Jany.	Army Form B 219.

Para. 2719, clause 1 (S.G.O. 19 of 1882), is reconstructed as follows:—

Warrant officers, desirous of re-engaging or of extending their army service, will, if serving under a military officer, be medically examined under arrangements to be made by that officer, and required to make in his presence the necessary declaration on Army Form O 1724 or B 221, as the case may be. This officer will then sign the declaration as recommending officer, and submit it, when completed, to the general officer commanding the division or district by whom the application will be dealt with as competent military authority, and forwarded if confirmed to the Adjutant-General, Ootacamund, for record, and for transmission of a copy to the head of the warrant officer's department. But in the case of warrant officers who may be serving under departmental officers, who are not commissioned military officers, they will proceed to the nearest military station and report themselves to the station staff officer who will arrange for their being medically examined, and making the required declaration in his presence. He will then sign the declaration and dispose of it as above.

Para. 2719, line 22, for "Horse Guards G.O. 80 of 1881 (S.G.O. 98 of 1881)," substitute "the Queen's Regulations and orders for the Army."

Para. 1044 is reconstructed as follows:—

Para. 1044. A donation not exceeding 2 rupees yearly per man may, at the discretion of the general officer commanding the division or district in which the corps is serving, be allotted from the canteen fund of any regiment or battery sending men to a convalescent dépôt, to be expended in furthering their comforts and amusements (para. 2350) under the orders of the commandant.

Para. 601 to 615 are cancelled and the following substituted:—

Para. 601. There are three classes of armorer sergeants, viz.:—

Staff armorer sergeant, armorer sergeant, first class, armorer sergeant, second class, promotions to which shall depend on service, efficiency and character; armorer sergeants of the second class shall be eligible for promotion to the first class, after five years' service in the class; and those of the first class for promotion to staff armorer sergeant after five years' service in the first class.

Para. 602. In order to supply armorer sergeants to British regiments serving in India, a reserve of four armorer sergeants is maintained, and they are employed in the several arsenals under the orders of the Inspector-General of Ordnance. Commanding officers of corps in which a vacancy occurs will apply to the Adjutant-General's Office, for the transfer of an armorer from this reserve.

Casualties among armorer sergeants or armorer privates, whether serving with regiments or in arsenals, will also be reported in view to the necessary notification being made to Horse Guards.

Para. 603. When an armorer sergeant, enlisted for the Corps of Armourers, is reduced to the ranks, a copy of the charge, finding and sentence is to be forwarded to the office of the Adjutant-General, who will issue the necessary instructions either for his being sent to an arsenal to qualify for re-promotion, or for his retention with his own or any other regiment, whilst awaiting passage to England, in view to his being discharged from the army. Should the Commander-in-Chief sanction his being allowed to qualify for re-promotion, he will be eligible for promotion to the rank of armorer sergeant, second class, and re-employment with a regiment, should the officer under whom he may be serving consider him deserving of such, after one year's service from date of reduction.

Para. 604. Whenever an armorer sergeant becomes non-effective or is transferred, or is proceeding on leave, the state of the forge, tools, shop, and fittings is to be ascertained by a board, and anything found deficient, unserviceable or repairable, is to be charged to him, or in the case of his death, to his estate.

Para. 605. General officers commanding divisions and districts are, on the application of officers commanding regiments, empowered to order the armorer sergeant of a corps a free passage by railway or bullock train, to detached troops or companies, and back to head quarters, for the purpose of examining and repairing the arms.

Para. 606. Armorer sergeants requiring change to the hills on account of ill health will be sent to hill dépôts under the same regulations as other soldiers. Should it be impracticable to make proper arrangements, regimentally, for the repair of arms during the absence at a dépôt of the armorer sergeant, application should be made, through the general officer commanding, to army head quarters for the temporary services of an armorer sergeant belonging to the reserve.

Para. 607. In order that there may be always soldiers in a regiment accustomed to repair arms, all assistance is to be supplied from the ranks; the employment of native workmen in the armorers' shop of a British regiment being strictly prohibited. When two or more troops or companies are sent to an out-station, the assistant armorer, provided with a few of the most necessary tools and a proportion of component parts, will proceed with the detachment.

Para. 608. In every troop or company, two non-commissioned officers and at least four intelligent soldiers, who can be entrusted with the necessary implements for that purpose, are to be instructed by the armorer sergeant in the mechanism and construction of breech-loading firearms, so as to be able to take them to pieces when necessary. These men, together with the assistant armorer, are to attend the inspections of civil chief master armorers, and aid in stripping the required percentage of rifles, in order that the quality of the instruction they have received may be reported on by the civil chief master armorer.

Para. 609. The attestations of all armorer sergeants serving in India are kept at the depôt of the Corps of Armorers, Birmingham, and duplicates, together with the men's register sheets, are kept, in the case of men attached to arsenals, in the Adjutant-General's Office, and in the case of men attached to regiments, at regimental head quarters.

Para. 610. Armorer sergeants are not allowed (except in special cases) to accompany the regiment to which they are attached when proceeding home, unless they have completed three years service in India. In the event of an armorer sergeant desiring to remain in India, the matter may be specially referred in view to an exchange being effected.

Para. 611. The appointment of armorer sergeant is open to soldiers of good character, who can pass the necessary examination, and assistant armorers, if recommended by their commanding officers and by a civil chief master armorer, will be sent to arsenals under instructions from army head quarters, in view to their undergoing a course of practical instruction. During this period they will be attached to the British regiment stationed there for the purposes of accommodation, rations, discipline, &c.

Para. 612. On passing a satisfactory examination, they will, whenever a vacancy in the establishment exists, be appointed armorer sergeants, second class, on probation, and after twelve months service, if recommended by the officer under whom they may be serving, be transferred to the Corps of Armorers. These men are however liable, should they be reduced for misconduct, to be ordered to serve in the ranks, in place of being allowed to qualify for re-promotion, &c., as in the case of men enlisted for the Corps of Armorers. They will, if reduced, be posted to their original regiment or, in the event of it having left India, be allowed to elect to serve in any other corps of the same branch of the service serving in the presidency.

Para. 613. On the transfer of a probationary armorer sergeant to the Corps of Armorers, the officer commanding the regiment on the rolls of which he is borne, will, under orders from head quarters, instruct the officer commanding the regimental district to close the attestation up to the date of transfer, and transmit it to the officer commanding the depôt Corps of Armorers, Birmingham. The duplicate attestation in the possession of the regiment will also be similarly closed, and dealt with in accordance with instructions which will be furnished from head quarters.

For paras. 656 to 663 (S.G.O. No. 66 of 1878) substitute

656. An enlisted head armorer in every regiment of native cavalry and infantry, with the lance rank of a non-commissioned officer, to be styled the armorer havildar, is sanctioned. He must have received a first-class certificate of having qualified at an arsenal as an armorer, countersigned by the Inspector-General of Ordnance and the Assistant Adjutant-General for Musketry. He must be physically fitted for the ranks, a trained soldier, though excused duty, and borne on the rolls as a private only.

656a. All correspondence regarding the enlistment of armorers or applications for permission to send them for instruction to arsenals, should be made to the Adjutant-General, and not direct to the Ordnance Department. Armorers' certificates will also be sent to regiments through head quarters; but commanding officers must make their own arrangements for obtaining proper men to fill the appointments of head and assistant armorers, as there are no means at head quarters to permit of assistance being afforded them on this head.

656b. Before being sent to an arsenal for instruction, he is to be required to execute an agreement on stamped paper to serve for ten years, that he holds himself pecuniarily liable for all damages to the regimental arms, shop, appliances and tools, proved before a regimental board of investigation to have been caused by his carelessness or neglect, and that he is similarly responsible for any charges which wing or squadron commanders may, under the regulations, become liable for in consequence of his having failed, when opportunity to make a proper examination was afforded him, to report the existence of the damages to the arms which has given rise to such charges.

656c. Men so sent to an arsenal for instruction are not to be withdrawn by commandants without having previously obtained authority from army head quarters to do so.

is to examine all the arms of his regiment quarterly, to his entire attention to their marking according to cleanliness, adjustment, browning and repair: and in addition of which he is responsible to squadron and commanders.

In addition to regimental pay as a soldier, he is to be squadron and wing commanders a minimum staff pay of five rupees per mensem; and when the price of the forge and tools, as supplied from arsenals is not paid squadron and wing commanders direct, he will receive a minimum staff pay of thirty rupees per mensem. He will pay for all tools. The above allowances will be charges for the repair of arms, but not of accoutrements or component parts, &c., supplied free.

In infantry regiments only, a second enlisted armorer, called "assistant," is sanctioned. He is to be a fully qualified, physically fitted for the service, and he will be on the same agreements as the havildar armorer as regards of service, &c., &c., which will be in force. He has an independent charge.

He is to be excused duty, when necessary, to permit of his attending under the havildar armorer in the armorer's shop.

He must have at least obtained a second-class armorer's certificate from an arsenal, countersigned by the Inspector-General of Ordnance and the Assistant Adjutant-General for the district.

He will receive from wing commanders, in addition to regimental pay, a minimum staff allowance of ten rupees per mensem.

He will accompany detachments of two or more companies out-stations, and be in such cases always provided with the most necessary tools, and a suitable proportion of the most necessary tools, and a suitable proportion of free material, oil and component parts.

Every troop or company two non-commissioned officers, and four intelligent soldiers, that can be entrusted with the implements for that purpose, are to be instructed by the havildar armorer of the regiment, in the mechanism and use of fire-arms, so as to be able to take them to pieces and put them together. The men so specially instructed will be, when required, being stripped for inspection either by the regimental board or by the civil chief master armorer, in fatigue duty to assist the regimental armorers; and will be noted in the report to accompany the annual board on arms.

661. General officers commanding divisions and districts are, on the application of officers commanding regiments, empowered to order the head armorer of a native corps a free passage by railway or bullock train to detached squadrons, wings or companies, and back to head quarters, for the purpose of examining and repairing the arms. The contingent charges of the armorer on these occasions, such as those incurred by armorers proceeding to railway or bullock train termini, which cannot be covered by the usual passage warrants, are to be met by squadron and wing commanders.

661a. The commanding officer is responsible that the cost of the tools, &c., is recovered from the armorer havildar by instalments of not less than Rs. 10 a month. Should he, however, be discharged or become non-effective, his successor will pay the balance due.

661b. Should the armorer havildar have paid from his contract more than Rs. 5 a month for the use of the tools, for the period of his service since the tools were obtained, he will recover from his successor the difference between that sum and the total amount actually paid by him for the tools in question.

662. In order to provide a reserve of armorers for the native army, officers commanding regiments, when stationed at Madras, Secunderabad, or Rangoon, are directed, in communication with the Inspector-General of Ordnance, to send to the arsenal at each of these stations two selected sepoys of their respective regiments, who may be desirous of qualifying for the appointments of armorer havildar and assistant armorer.

662a. The reserve armorers are not required to sign the agreement until appointed as armorers.

662b. The travelling expenses to their corps of reserve armorers, and of men who fail to qualify, whose regiments have been moved from the stations named in the preceding paragraph before the completion of their training, are to be defrayed by wing commanders.

663. An armorer havildar when on leave extending over three days is only to retain a moiety of his staff salary (Rs. 25) allowed by wing commanders, the remainder being apportioned as follows:—

To the assistant armorer while acting as armorer havildar, Rs. 10 plus half his own staff salary.

To the sepoy acting as assistant, Rs. 2-8-0 plus half staff salary of assistant armorer.

Thus, during the absence of the armorer havildar, the assistant and acting assistant armorers would draw staff allowance at the rate of Rs. 15 and Rs. 7-8-0 respectively per month in addition to their regimental pay.

663*a*. Armourer havildars are always, when in uniform, to wear the distinguishing chevrons of their rank.

663*b*. In all regiments the armourer's establishment is to be under the immediate charge of the Quartermaster subject to the commanding officer, who is held responsible that the forge and tools are kept in serviceable condition by wing commanders, and they will, when necessary, provide carriage for the same; as also an efficient chuckler and bellows-boy with all the required tools and appliances.

663*c*. On the relief of wing commanders, and when the forge, tools, &c., are their property, a regimental committee of valuation will be assembled to determine the amount to be paid therefor, less fair wear and tear, by the relieving to the relieved officers.

No. 45.

Drill and Instruction.—The following Horse Guards' general orders, dated 1st March 1884, are republished for information and guidance:—

G.O. 36,—Field Exercise.

The following will be substituted for para. 1, section XXIII, part II, "Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, 1877":—

I. Reinforcing.—When an extended line has become thin through losses in action, or when it is desired to strengthen the fighting line against a counter attack, or with a view to deliver an attack, or to hold a position that has been seized, any part of this front line may be reinforced by throwing forward the support, or any part of it.

This reinforcement will as a rule insert itself as a body into any gaps that may at the time exist in the fighting line, or into the intervals between companies, or it may take its position on either flank of that line.

In either case the troops composing this reinforcement will be kept as much as possible together under their own officers. This will be more easy if the men of the fighting line have, during the advance, closed into the centres of companies as they become thinned by loss.

This is a point that must be carefully attended to by the officers and section leaders in the fighting line and those commanding the reinforcements. Troops out of hand in a straggling line are of little use for either attack or defence. Opportunities for closing up gaps occasioned by losses, and getting the men in hand will frequently occur when any portion of the line is temporarily under cover, or protected by an undulation of the ground from the enemy's fire, or even during an advance, and they must be taken advantage of immediately. This closing will create intervals between companies and battalions, of which the reinforcements, as they reach the fighting line, must avail themselves.

If two or more companies or battalions do, however, become mixed, the senior officer present will command all officers and men in his vicinity; but he will take immediate advantage of any opportunity that may offer to separate the companies or battalions temporarily mixed up.

Men may at times become separated from their own company and be unable to rejoin it; they will, in that case, consider themselves under the command of the nearest officer, and take their place as he may direct, and all officers will take under their command any stray men near them.

G.O. 37,—Field Exercise.

The following alterations will be made in the "Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, 1877":—

Part II, sec. XX, page 92. Omit the paragraph headed "Whistle sounds" and insert—

"Whistle sounds.—Whistles are to be used only to attract the attention of troops to orders about to be given, or to preconcerted signals. Whistle sounds are not to be repeated."

So much of G.O. 37 of 1881 as is inconsistent with the above is cancelled.

Part VI, sec. VII, page 321. In place of the last paragraph of the page insert—

"Signals (see page 93) should be established and repeated by connecting sentries."

No. 46.

“The above, however, in no way affects the manner in which these men should be shown in returns, as laid down in para. 32, section XXI, ‘Queen’s Regulations, 1883.’ All non-commissioned officers and men sent home from abroad, whether for discharge, transfer to Reserve, or as invalids, will be shown as on the strength of the depot until discharged, transferred, or passed to the Home Battalion.”

Musketry.—In continuation of G.O. 42,† dated the 7th May 1884, the following instructions, extracted from the revised "Regulations for Musketry Instruction, 1884," (issued provisionally under Horse Guards' G.O. 55, of the 1st April last,) are promulgated for the guidance of officers commanding regiments of British cavalry and battalions of infantry, serving in India, and are to be strictly observed in executing the annual musketry course for the season of 1884-85:—

First Part of the Annual Course.

The first part of the trained soldier's course is to be executed as laid down in G.O. 80 of 1883.‡

In Volley and Independent firing, hits and ricochet hits on the target, but not hits by fragments of bullets, are to count three points.

Head and shoulders target ("b" practice).

No change in this practice has been made.

* S.G.O. No. 47 of 1883.

† S.G.O. No. 42 of 1884.

‡ S.G.O. No. 68 of 1883.

The shape of the figure remains as at present, with the exception of the shoulders, which have been made square, i.e., they commence 12 inches from the top of, and extend the whole breadth of the target.

Practice is to be executed between 250 (235 cavalry) and 140 yards. Sights are not to be adjusted. Aim to be taken at the breast.

Eight men can practice at the same time, or any less number at the discretion of the superintending officer; they should be placed opposite their targets at 250 yards (235 for carbine), between which distance and 140 yards, ten short advances of not less than two or more than thirteen paces each, should be made, one round being fired at each halt.

No shot will be signalled.

At the end of the practice, the men will be marched up to the targets, and the number of hits on each figure will be taken off.

Hits and ricochet hits, but not hits by fragments of bullets, will count three points.

Men who are firing to qualify for prizes, having previously obtained the necessary number of points in the other qualifications, will fire in squads by themselves, the targets being placed as far apart as possible.

Firing at the "figure" target will be executed in the kneeling position.

CLASSIFICATION.

The classification of soldiers will be determined as follows:—

Range practice, (i.e. Individual firing of the 1st part of the course.)	Field practice (b and c.)	Will be classified as

Those who qualify as marksmen, but who may be in excess of the percentage to whom prizes are allowed, will be permitted to wear the distinctive badge of "marksmen."

The prizes for the best shots and second best shots will be issued as heretofore, but all prize holders must have qualified as marksmen.

No two prizes will be held by the same soldier. The next in order of merit will in each case succeed to the prize vacated by the winner of a higher prize.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS, OOTACANOND,
26th June 1884.

No. 49.—Madras Army Regulations.—The following alterations are made in the Madras Army Regulations :—

Para. 1659 is reconstructed as follows :—

1659. The Proceedings of Courts Martial will be promulgated in such manner as may be deemed desirable according to the circumstances of the case, but the promulgation is always to include communication to the prisoner of the charge, finding, sentence and confirmation which, when practicable should be read to him on parade in front of the regiment. The date of promulgation of all Courts Martial except general, should be recorded on both original and duplicate Proceedings in form as follows :—

Promulgated.—Charge, finding, sentence and confirmation communicated to the Prisoner on the Commanding Regiment or Battery.

1659A. The date on which the charge, finding, sentence and confirmation in the case of general Courts Martial are communicated to the prisoner, is to be reported to the Adjutant-General.

To para. 2861c add—

Possession of less than four good conduct badges does not disqualify when the 18 years' service includes boy-service, provided the man's character would have entitled him to four good conduct badges, had the boy-service been allowed to reckon towards these rewards.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

HEAD OFFICE—KING STREET, CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

EMPOWERED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

"Short Term" and "Whole Life" Assurances are granted.

In addition to ordinary Assurances this Company issues Policies by which the sums assured are made payable to the Policy-holder himself on his attaining a specified age or to his representatives in the event of his previous death. By this means Officers and others may both provide for their families and secure Retiring Provision for themselves.

Also "Free" Policies are granted which can never altogether lapse in consequence of the non-payment of Premiums.

Premiums may be paid annually, half-yearly, quarterly or monthly as desired.

Thirty days' grace are allowed for the payment of annual, half-yearly and quarterly premiums, and fifteen days for monthly premiums. The validity of the Policy will, in every case, be maintained by payment of the Premiums within the stipulated period, notwithstanding the death of the Assured may have occurred before such premiums shall have been received.

No extra rate is charged for sea-passages, and on arrival in Europe a reduction is made in the premium without the assured being required to pass any Medical examination.

Policies effected by parties on their own lives, and assigned as a bond fide security to others, will not be rendered void in the event of death by suicide, duelling, or the hands of justice. Claims will become payable within three months after satisfactory proof of death.

The Acting Medical Officer Dr. W. S. Fox, sees applicants for Assurance at his residence, Pantheon Road, Egmore, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 12 noon.

Surgeon A. M. BRANFOOT, M.B.—(Europe.)

Surgeon A. J. Sturmer.—(Acting.)

Actuary.

A. H. BAILEY, Esq., of the London Assurance Corporation.

The chief characteristics of this Society are:—

Mutual Assurance.

Policies for terms of years issued at largely reduced rates without participation in Surpluses.

Premiums payable half yearly, on 1st January and 1st July.

Claims paid immediately after satisfactory proof of death. An official Notice of death in any of Her Majesty's Government Gazettes is a sufficient proof.

Claims can be adjusted, and premiums can be paid in London, if desired by the Policy-holders.

Surrender Values allowed for Life Policies issued at fixed rates of premium which have paid three years' premiums.

The Society's funds must be invested in Indian Government Securities or in other guaranteed Indian Securities.

Quinquennial valuations, by a London Actuary, of Assets and Liabilities. The reduction of premiums for the Quinquennium 1881-85 is at the rate of 70 per cent. of original Annual premiums paid during 1876-80.

Assurances granted on the lives of Europeans, East Indians or Eurasians, and Parsees.

Past experience leads the Directors to anticipate that the retention of the "Mutual" principle and the Quinquennial distributions of Surpluses, will bring down the cost of Assurance by this Office, for Life, to the lowest possible point.

The Medical Examiner sees Applicants for Assurance at his residence, Pantheon Road, Egmore, on Wednesdays and Saturdays between 11 and 12 A.M.

Do H do ... do ...		1 6	The anti-Stylograph is a self-feeding reservoir pen, and differs from all Stylographs in the fact of its not being a writing point, but a true pen, changeable at pleasure, and, being nibbed in the ordinary way, it maintains the characteristics of the hand writing, which depend on thick and thin strokes. This is an important point for the signature of cheques or other documents. It can also be used by Shorthand Writers. It is ready for instant use WITHOUT ADJUSTMENT, and only requires to be refilled after several days' use. It may be carried in any position without risk of breakage. Any ink may be used.
