Musketry—Books.—Pending the promulgation of the new Musketry Regulations, the following list of alterations in the target practices are published. The alterations will take effect from the date on which the musketry course for 1887-88 is commenced:—

Table A.

300 yards, second 5 rounds to be fired "sitting" instead of "kneeling."

500 yards, second 5 rounds, to be fired "sitting" instead of "lying down."

Independent firing to be done with the "fixed" (rifle 200 yards, carbine 250 yards) sight.

Volley firing in extended order: the dress for this to be "drill order."

(This applies also to Table B.)

Hits in independent and volley firing to count one point, only, and their Figure of Merit as a percentage of hits, instead of as an average of points. This applies also to Table B and also to all Field Practices.

Points to pass into 2nd class, 95 instead of 100.

Table B.

First two distances (150 yards and 250 yards) to be fired with the sight "fixed" at 200 yards (carbine 250 yards).

At 300 yards, the 10 rounds are to be fired 5 sitting and 5 kneeling.

Independent firing to be done with the "fixed" sight, and at 300 instead of 400 yards.

Classification.

For Infantry deduct 5 points for all classes; for cavalry deduct 5 points from the number for passing into 2nd class.

Sights on rifle or carbine not to be altered in any way, but to be used exactly as issued. Recruits and trained men to adjust their sights themselves. Instructors to confine themselves to verbal assistance only.

The men to be warned that the shooting will be for prizes under the new system (Warrant will shortly be promulgated), and that consequently they will have no claim to prizes under the old regulations.

The method of conducting the following field practices has been altered, viz.:

Attack and Defence practice.—Volley instead of independent firing to be done with the last 5 rounds. The figure targets are not to be lowered.

Rapid volleys. Distances 300 and 400 yards. Target as for Independent firing. Hits on any part of the target to count one point. Time one minute.

The other field practices remain practically as they are.
