FLOR DE SUMATRA.

OUR NEW REGISTERED BRAND:

Experience has taught us that in the manufacture of Cigars, personal supervision only will prevent the admixture of inferior leaf, and with this fact in view we do not attach our name to any Brands but those manufactured in our Factory at Trichinopoly. Adherence to this rule, combined with the facilities we possess for buying our tobacco in the best markets in large quantities for cash, enables us to place before the public, Cigars which we have no hesitation in stating are unequalled by any in this country.

Adjutant General's Office, Ootacamund, 5th October 1888.

No. 60.—Veterinary Supervision of Transport Animals.—The following rules for the Veterinary Supervision of Commissariat (Transport) animals, having received the sanction of the Government of India, are published for general information, and will come into force from the date of the receipt of this order:—

1. The Inspecting Veterinary Surgeon, with the approval of General Officers Commanding will detail Veterinary Surgeons for the charge of hospitals.

(a) Veterinary Surgeons so appointed, will supervise the treatment of the sick and management of the hospitals, as occasion may require.

(b) Inspect all Transport animals in the station once a month or oftener when necessary, in accordance with paragraph 43, Army Regulations, India, Volume VIII, "Veterinary," submitting the reports therein laid down.

(c) Instruct the salootries so as to make them good practical men and trustworthy for detached duties.

(d) The Senior Veterinary Surgeon in charge of the chief hospital, will carry out each third monthly inspection in the station and on visiting out-stations, every alternate month, under the provisions of paragraph 44, Army Regulations, India, Volume VIII, "Veterinary," will inspect the Transport Animals in addition to horses of other Corps.

(e) During the above inspections, he will also visit stations, in which Transport may be quartered, but in which no mounted troops are stationed, which can be reached without extra travelling or at a less cost than would be entailed by a special visit from his head quarters.

(f) Will visit the head quarters of Transport Depôts, otherwise situated once in three months. Small numbers of Transport animals at out-stations will not be visited, unless it can be done without increased expenditure, or on special occasions, as in the case of outbreaks of disease.

(g) Reports on the above inspections will be made in accordance with paragraph 44, Army Regulations, India, Volume VIII, "Veterinary."

G. O. 60—concl'd.

- (h) When there is no Veterinary Surgeon resident in a station in which a serious outbreak of disease occurs among Transport animals, the General Officer Commanding the District will depute one to report on the nature of the malady, and suggest remedial measures.
- (i) Veterinary Surgeons when inspecting Transport Depôts will invariably bring to the notice of officers concerned any measures they may consider advisable for the improvement of the condition and efficiency of the animals, and will note on these inspection reports that this has been done.
2. Veterinary Surgeons travelling on inspection duty will receive travelling and out-station allowances under existing regulations.
3. Correspondence will be carried on in accordance with paragraphs 47 and 48, Army Regulations, India, Volume VIII, "Veterinary."

Salutes.—With the sanction of Government the following rules are promulgated regulating the position of high civil functionaries at military parades or reviews.

Parades may be classed in two divisions:—

I.—Reviews held in honor of Her Majesty.

II.—Other Reviews.

1.—The regulations for reviews held in honor of Her Majesty are contained in the General Orders 337, dated 26th December 1874, and 328,* dated 20th December 1877. On these occasions no salute is given at the commencement of the review, nor are the troops inspected by the reviewing officer, passing down the line. The Officer Commanding the troops falls in, in front of the line, and himself takes part in the Royal salute. No person present (the Viceroy alone excepted) is entitled to stand at the flag staff during the parade, or to receive the Royal salute. The subsequent march past, if held, is not part of the parade in honor of Her Majesty, and the acknowledgment of the salutes of officers should follow the rule prescribed for other reviews.

* S.G.O. No. 94 of 1878; page 199.

II.—In the case of other reviews, at which a civil functionary may be present, the following rules will be observed.—

(a) A Governor, or a Lieutenant Governor within his own province is entitled to be received, on his arrival on parade, by a general salute; the General or other Officer Commanding heading the troops and taking part in the salute. On very special occasions a Commander-in-Chief would take command of the troops; but usually he would meet the Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, and accompany him to the ground.

In passing down the line, the Governor or Lieutenant Governor would be on the left of the General Officer; and during the march past he would be next the flag staff and receive the salutes of the officers, the General being on his right. In the advance in review order, the same order would be observed, and the Governor or Lieutenant Governor would receive the salute of the troops.

Throughout the parade a distinct precedence will be given to the Governor or Lieutenant Governor.

V. These rules will not apply to men proceeding to join appointments in departments involving transfer to the Unattached List, nor will men who are detached to Alipore* for the tailoring class, or to Cawnpore for instruction in boot-making, or elsewhere for other similar objects, take their arms and accoutrements with them, but the rules will apply to soldier signallers not on the Unattached List employed in the Telegraph Department.

VI. When a soldier signaller not on the Unattached List is transferred from one division of the Telegraph Department to another, and at the time of his transfer his exact destination is not known, the documents referred to in para. II should be sent to the Superintendent of Telegraphs of his new division, with the request that he will transfer them to the officer commanding the corps to which the man is to be attached.

Medical Department.—The following rules proposed by the Surgeon General, Her Majesty's Forces, for the training of soldiers in nursing duties have been approved by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and are published for guidance:—

1. A certain number of men, who may voluntarily present themselves, and who as orderlies in attendance upon serious cases of illness have shown an aptitude for this work, shall be trained in nursing duties, so that they may be available for assisting in the care of sick comrades when required, and for duty in time of war in hospitals in the field.
2. The course of study, which is entirely distinct from the training of stretcher bearers, to comprise the subjects contained in part II of the Manual of the Medical Staff Corps.
3. Each course to consist of twelve lectures, and to extend over a period of three months; the theoretical portion being supplemented by practical instruction in the hospitals. Two courses of lectures to be given in the year, in such British Garrisons as the General Officers Commanding Districts, in consultation with Deputy Surgeons General may decide, the number of men attending each class being limited to fifteen.
4. The instructor to be an officer of the Medical Staff, nominated by the Deputy Surgeon General of the Circle, and assisted in this duty by one of the medical subordinates attached to the Station Hospital, and a steady non-commissioned officer to be detailed by the military authorities.
5. At the termination of the course an examination should be held, and certificates of proficiency given to those members of the class who have been regular in their attendance, and whose knowledge of the subjects is satisfactory.

(b) When a civil or military officer administering the government or acting as the representative of 'Government' at any place, not being below the rank of a Chief Commissioner, is present at a review in his official capacity, he may, if not inferior in relative rank to the senior military officer present, be invited by the latter to receive the salute of the troops on his arrival on parade. In such case the military officer would meet the civil functionary and accompany him to the ground.

The distinction should also be granted in all cases under this rule where the senior military officer is below the rank of a General Officer. If the senior military officer is superior in relative rank to the civil officer, he will take precedence and receive all salutes.

Where the invitation to the civil officer is optional, it should be accorded at all reviews held in pursuance of the orders of the Government of India, or of the Governments of Madras and Bombay.

When a civil functionary receives a salute, the procedure during the remainder of the review will be the same as in Rule (a). When he does not receive the salute, the procedure will be the same as in Rule (c).

The military officer will take precedence, and will receive all salutes. The civil officer will be placed on the right of the military officer, who will be next the flag-staff.

Advertisements about "Specifics" generally state what good will be derived from their use. Notices regarding Stolberg's Specifics deviate from this rule as they show what good actually has been done.

Stolberg's Specifics cure the diseases they profess to eradicate or heal. They give instantaneous relief to the sufferer and cause ingrafted and long-standing ailments to succumb. Those who have derived benefit from their use testify that Stolberg's Specifics have proved efficacious in the following complaints, viz.:—

Asthma; Bronchitis; Carbuncles; Convulsions; Constipation (obstinate); Colds; Croup; Dysmenorrhœa; Erysipelas; Ear-ache; Ghastly Wounds; Gout (Rheumatic); Head-aches; Indigestion; Lumbago; Liver Complaints; Neuralgia; Paralysis; Pains, (severe); Rheumatism with contraction of the joints; Ringworm; Sciatica; Sores (old); Sorethroat; Spinal Sclerosis; Swellings; Scorpion Stings; Tumours; Tooth-ache; &c., &c.

One trial of the A B C Ointment, Balsam, or Syrup as the case may be, will ensure its becoming ever after a Household medicine.

Testimonials have been received and are daily received from all parts of India and other countries; they show the growth of Public Opinion regarding Stolberg's Specifics. A comparison is invited between the former Pamphlet with the present one—which can be had free on application.

STOLBERG'S

Stimulating

Balsam.

It relieves the worst Nervous Head-ache, Tooth-ache, Neuralgia, Sneezing, &c., in less than five minutes, after the affected parts are rubbed in with the Balsam, and the fume of the Balsam inhaled. It is very fragrant, and its composition is purely vegetable, and in use perfectly harmless.

In the cases of Epileptic Fits, rub the Balsam well over the head and neck and down the spine—In less than half an hour the sufferer will revive without the painful working usual in those cases.

In future Head-aches have no harm
Nor Tooth-aches have their sway

A B C BALSAM acts like charm

This, TESTIMONIALS say—

"Stolberg's Specifics" are sold with "Directions" for use as follows:—

• A B C {	Ointment	. . .	Rs. 2 4 per tin.
	Balsam	. . .	" 1 0 per phal.

JANUARY 1889.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND ASSURANCE INSTITUTION,

ESTABLISHED 1840.

HEAD OFFICE—KING STREET, CHEAPSIDE, LONDON:

EMPOWERED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

Subscribed Capital £1,000,000.

“Short Term” and “Whole Life” Assurances are granted.

In addition to ordinary Assurances this Company issues Policies by which the sums assured are made payable to the Policy-holder himself on his attaining a specified age or to his representatives in the event of his previous death. By this means Officers and others may both provide for their families and secure Retiring Provision for themselves.

Also “FREE” Policies are granted which can never altogether lapse in consequence of the non-payment of Premium.

Special allowances made from the Proprietors' fund in aid of Premium on assurances effected by Clergymen and Schoolmasters.

Premium may be paid annually, half-yearly, quarterly or monthly as desired.

Thirty days' grace are allowed for the payment of annual, half-yearly and quarterly premium, and fifteen days for monthly premium. The validity of the Policy will, in every case, be maintained by payment of the Premium within the stipulated period, notwithstanding the death of the Assured may have occurred before such premium shall have been received.

No extra rate is charged for sea-passages, and on arrival in Europe a reduction is made in the premium without the assured being required to pass any Medical examination.

Policies effected by parties on their own lives, and assigned as a bonâ fide security to others, will not be rendered void in the event of death by suicide, duelling, or the hands of justice. Claims will become payable within three months after satisfactory proof of death.

Policies issued in Sterling or Rupees.

The Medical Officer, Dr. E. F. Drake-Brockman, sees applicants for Assurance at his residence Pycroft's Gardens, Nungumbaukum on Wednesdays at 11 A.M.

Detailed Prospectuses, with the names of the Directors, Full Tables of Life Premium, and the necessary Forms of Proposal, may be obtained on application to

A. H. BAILEY, Esq., of the London Assurance Corporation.

The chief characteristics of this Society are:—

Mutual Assurance.

Policies for terms of years issued at largely reduced rates, without participation in Surpluses.

Premiums payable half yearly, on 1st January and 1st July.

Claims paid immediately after satisfactory proof of death. An official Notice of death in any of Her Majesty's Government Gazettes is a sufficient proof.

Claims can be adjusted, and premiums can be paid in London, if desired by the Policy-holders.

Surrender Values allowed for Life Policies issued at fixed rates of premium which have paid three years' premiums.

The Society's funds must be invested in Indian Government Securities, or in other guaranteed Indian Securities.

Quinquennial valuations, by a London Actuary, of Assets and Liabilities. The reduction of premiums for the Quinquennium 1886-90 is at the rate of 70 per cent. of original Annual premiums paid during 1881-85.

Assurances granted on the lives of Europeans, East Indians or Eurasians, and Parsees.

Past experience leads the Directors to anticipate that the retention of the "Mutual" principle and the Quinquennial distributions of Surpluses, will bring down the cost of Assurance by this Office, for Life, to the lowest possible point.

The Medical Examiner sees Applicants for Assurance at his residence, Pantheon Road, Egmore, on Wednesdays and Saturdays between 11 and 12 A.M.
