FORM OF LIFE ASSURANCE

SPECIALY SUITABLE FOR INDIAN RESIDENTS.

ATTENTION is directed to the following forms of Policies granted by the STANDARD LIFE OFFICE.

TERMINATED POLICIES.

These are Policies by a fixed number of premiums, each premium securing a proportionate part of the sum assured in the event of the Policy being discontinued. For example, a person who is assured for Rs. 10,000 with premiums ceasing in 10 years, and who desired to discontinue his payments at the end of 5 years, would receive a Policy for Rs. 5,000, on which no further ordinary premiums would require to be paid.

ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

These Policies are payable to the Life assured on his attaining the age of 45, 50, 55, 60, or 65 or to his representatives should he die before attaining the age agreed upon.

These two forms of Policies are specially suitable for Indian residents who are in a position to pay a moderate premium while in receipt of a good income in this country, and who do not wish to be troubled with the payment of premiums when they retire.

REDUCTION OF RATES.

The Company's Rates for India have been substantially reduced, and copies of the new Prospectus may be obtained on application.

WINE OF SAINT-RAPHAEL.

From VALENCE (Drome) FRANCE.

"Of all fermented liquids, Wine is the most useful and important. Although its effect upon the system differs widely from that of Spirits, there can be no doubt that Alcohol plays the principal part in the Physiological and Hygienic action of Wine; but its influence is modified by several of the other elements present. Of the chief among these, the tannin and colouring matters come from the skin of the grape, from the stalk and from the pip. Acids are always present, either in a free state, or as Salts with a strong acid reaction. Potash and Soda are also present in small quantities in the shape of Chlorides, as in the blood and muscles of man."

"In warm climates the choice of a Wine is by no means a matter of indifference. One class, the astringents, of which the SAINT-RAPHAEL must be reckoned the best, is particularly suited for these countries. Sweet tannic, astringent Wines, such as the SAINT-RAPHAEL, are far preferable from a hygienic and therapeutic point of view to those that are simply Alcoholic and sweet; for when taken in moderate quantities, they are much more adapted to the working of the digestive organs."

"SAINT-RAPHAEL WINE is infinitely more agreeable in taste than any QUININE WINE and is, therefore, much preferred by the patient. A large wine-glass of it should be taken at the end of every meal. Against anaemia under all its varied forms occurring in persons who live well and do not take sufficient exercise, the SAINT-RAPHAEL WINE renders signal service."

Price Rs. 24 per dozen demi litres.

GENERAL ORDERS.

*Head Quarters, Ootacamund,
6th July 1888.*

No. 40.—With the sanction of Government the following alterations are made in Army Regulations, India, Vol. XIV-B, (Native Army School Code):—

1. The whole of Section I, under heading “Military Normal School” is cancelled, and the following substituted—

Section I. Candidates for the situation of Native Army Schoolmaster.

1. Candidates for the situation of Native Army Schoolmaster should be smart, intelligent, of good moral character, and in all points such as are likely to command the respect of the men.

General qualifications required in candidates for Army Schoolmaster.

2. Such candidates will be required to obtain a first-class certificate of education in their own regiments, or to pass a special examination in reading writing and grammar in the English language.

Educational qualifications required in candidates.

3. Commanding officers should furnish to the Superintendent of Army Schools, on the 1st April in each year, a roll (Appendix I) giving the fullest and most particular information in the columns headed “Qualifications” and “Remarks.”

Manner of submitting names of candidates.

This roll must be accompanied by a declaration in the candidate's own hand writing to the effect that, should he qualify as Schoolmaster, he is willing to be posted to any regiment in which his services may be required should there not be, at the time, a vacancy for him in his own corps.

Should the candidate not be in possession of a first-class certificate of education, the Commanding officer should, with the roll, apply for the necessary examination papers in order that the candidate may be specially examined for Schoolmaster.

4. From the men thus recommended by Commanding officers, the eight best qualified will be selected by the Superintendent of Army Schools and directed to join the Schools of the “Queen's Own” Sappers and Miners at Bangalore by the 1st of June following for a year's training.

Number of candidates to be selected annually.

*Head Quarters, Ootacamund,
13th July 1888.*

No. 41.—Cooks and Cooking.—The reports on the instruction of soldiers in cooking, as directed in S.G.O. No. 49 of 1887, having been submitted, the Commander-in-Chief observes that the results are in several instances not altogether satisfactory.

2. The success or otherwise of the system is in proportion to the interest taken in it by Commanding officers, and His Excellency hopes that they will realize the importance of offering every facility for efficient instruction in view to rendering their men independent of native cooks, especially on service.

3. Soldier cooks should invariably be employed at Field Manœuvres, in camp, &c., and field cooking should therefore form part of squadron and company training and of examination by the Commanding officer.

4. It is not desired to interfere with the present system of the employment of native cooks by which much variety in messes is secured in quarters, but a strict supervision should always be exercised with a view of securing cleanliness and preventing speculation.

Erratum.—In S. G. O. No. 32 of 1888, at foot of page 76, dele the asterisk affixed to S.G.O. No. 37 of 1887, together with the corresponding foot-note.

*Head Quarters, Ootacamund,

No. 46.—The following general orders, by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, are republished :—

1st July 1888.

No. 56.

Army Regulations.—The following corrections are made in Army Regulations, India, Vol. II, “Discipline” :—

Para. 6.—In the table, above “Madras Light Cavalry” insert “Governor’s Body-Guard—Seetabuldee—Scarlet—Blue—Gold—Blue and Gold with Scarlet kula.”

Section I, chapter II, Erase the entries in column headed “Badges, Mottoes, Devices, and Distinctions” opposite “Sappers and Miners (Queen’s Own),” and substitute the following : “The Royal Cypher within the garter,” Seringapatam, Egypt (with the sphinx), Assaye, Java, Nagpore, Mahidpore, Ava, a dragon wearing an Imperial crown, with the word China, Meaneec, Hyderabad, Pegu, Persia, Lucknow, Central India, Taku Forts, Peking, Abyssinia, Afghanistan 1878-1880, Egypt 1882, Tel-el-Kebir, Suakin 1885, Tofrek.

Para. 108, expunge from the last clause the words “and whether he has passed a garrison course or is exempted therefrom.”

Section IV, Division V.—Dele paras. 164 and 165, and insert the following :—

164. The qualifications for promotion to the commissioned ranks will be as follows :—

- (a) Age not exceeding 40 years at date of vacancy, and less if possible.
- (b) Service not exceeding 24 years at date of vacancy.

Note.—On 1st January 1889, the limit of age will be reduced to 35 years, and the limit of service to 19 years.

- (c) Qualification in the examination laid down in para. 190, Army Regulations, India, Vol. II.

164 (a). In submitting their recommendations, Commanding Officers will observe the following rules as regards the maintenance of caste proportion in the commissioned ranks.

The proportion of Mussulman and Hindu Havildars should be the same as nearly as possible, as the proportion between these classes existing in the ranks, and when, from any cause the proportion is disturbed, it should be re-established gradually.

This proportion should also be maintained, as far as possible, amongst the non-commissioned officers in the selection of privates for promotion to the rank of Lance Naik.

The supersession of Havildars for promotion to the commissioned ranks on account of caste proportion will only be allowed when the disproportion would otherwise injuriously affect the representation in the commissioned ranks of either class.

164 B.—For promotion to Jemadar, the name of the Havildar considered best fitted for promotion will alone be submitted.

A Havildar who has been passed over for promotion to the commissioned grade will not ordinarily be eligible for subsequent promotion.

The promotion roll must, in every case, shew in the column of remarks of Form B., whether the non-commissioned officer whose name is submitted "has" or "has not" been passed over for promotion, and in the former case the reasons for the renewed recommendation must be fully explained. Unless there are valid grounds for such recommendation, they will not be accepted by the Commander-in-Chief.

164 C.—For promotion to the rank of Subadar, on the occurrence of a vacancy, the name of the senior qualified Jemadar should be submitted, provided he had not over 29 years' service at the date of the vacancy, and his conduct has been such, in all respects, as to warrant the recommendation.

164 D.—For promotion to the rank of Subadar Major, the most distinguished and deserving Subadar should be selected without respect to seniority, due weight, however, being given to length of service, exemplary conduct, and the power of exerting influence in the regiment.

It will not be necessary to enter the names of the seniors whom it is proposed to pass over, but the promotion roll should shew whether the Subadar whose name is submitted "has" or "has not" been previously passed over for promotion to Subadar Major.

164 E.—For the appointment of native adjutant, no further qualification will be required from native officers promoted to the commissioned ranks under para. 164.

165.—The responsibility for the efficiency of the native officers of Regiments is by the above rules entirely vested in Commanding Officers, but Squadron and Wing Commanders should be constantly consulted as to the merits of their non-commissioned officers, and due weight given to their opinion.

Para. 410.—For the words "in the next paragraph," in lines 4 and 5, read "in para. 411."

Para. 410 A. Add as new para., the following:—

Application for the transfer of a soldier joining a Department to fill an acting vacancy, will only be submitted on his succeeding to a full vacancy, when his transfer to the Unattached list will take effect from the original date of his joining the Department, but this will give him no claim to any advantages as regards pay, allowances, clothing, &c., for the period prior to the date of his permanent appointment in the Department, which would not have been admissible to him if his transfer had effect from the date of his permanent appointment under the rules of 1880. Previous to his transfer the soldier must sign a certificate to the effect that he is cognizant of the orders contained in this section, and that he is prepared to abide by them.

After para. 1631, add as 1631-A—

The privilege leave permissible to officers belonging or attached to the Military Works Department will be granted by the General Officers Commanding the Divisions or Districts in which the officers concerned are serving, on the application of their Superintending Engineers. Privilege leave to Superintending Engineers, and the leave allowed under existing Regulations to enable officers in the military Works Department to pass in the native languages, or to qualify for regimental promotion, will be granted, under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief, on the application of the Inspector General of Military Works. Leave granted under these rules will not be notified in General Orders.

Para. 1639.—Add the following:—

Para. 1639 A.—The grant of furlough and leave out of India holds good only for three months from the date of the general order notifying it; officers must therefore embark within that period or take up the first portion in India, otherwise the furlough or leave out of India will lapse and a fresh application must be submitted, which will be dealt with in all respects as the original application. Officers are forbidden to embark after the expiry of the three months, unless with the special sanction of the Government previously obtained. This period of three months is inclusive of all subsidiary leave.

1639 B.—The only exception to this ruling is in the case of an officer detained on public grounds, who in reporting his departure should attach a certificate signed by the head of his department, or other authority, to that effect, but officers, whose furlough or leave out of India has appeared in orders, are not, if it can be avoided, to be placed on duties which are likely to cause their detention in India beyond the above mentioned time.

Para. 1802 is amended as follows:—

“Commanding Officers of regiments and detachments under orders to march are to give previous intimation to the Commissariat Department of the quantity of rum that will be required on the road. For troops passing through a station where malt liquor is issued under contract, the contractor will, on ten days’ notice being given through the local commissariat representative, supply, free of all expense for carriage and delivery, any quantity of malt liquor that may be required for the time the troops are at the station, and, provided the contractor does not object to supply it at his contract rate, malt liquor may also be obtained for consumption on the march between stations. All expenses for carriage, &c., of malt liquor taken for the march will be borne by the “Canteen Fund.”

Para. 1968.—Expunge.

Para. 2228.—Dele the first two lines of foot-note.

Para. 2346, clause (g).—In line '2, for "38" read "1454"; and in the same line, for "section XIV" read "section XVII."

Telegraphs.—The Government of India having brought to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief the unnecessarily heavy charges devolving on the Military Estimates on account of the excessive use of the telegraph for service messages in the field or otherwise, His Excellency is pleased to enjoin on all officers the observance of the utmost care and economy as regards the use of telegrams in place of letters, the wording of such telegrams as may be required in dealing with matters of urgency, many messages being unduly prolix, and the classification of telegrams as "urgent" instead of ordinary or deferred, in cases where the latter methods of transmission would be sufficiently expeditious.

Transport.—The following alterations are made in Transport Regulations, Parts I and II:—

Transport Regulations, Part I.

Para. 4 is reconstructed as follows:—

4. On receipt of information from the Marine authorities regarding the vessels to be surveyed, the Officer Commanding the District will detail, one officer from the Quarter Master General's Department, and one Medical officer to accompany, on board such vessels, the Indian Marine officer detailed to survey and report on the fitness of the vessel as a transport for troops, animals, &c.

a. The duty of the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department will be to see that the vessel is generally calculated to accommodate troops with comfort, and in conjunction with the Marine officer to fix the position of the women's quarters and galleys.

b. The medical officer will see that the vessel is well ventilated, or capable of being made so, and is not infested with vermin. In conjunction with the Marine officer he will fix on the position of the sick bay and latrines.

Para. 5 is reconstructed as follows:—

5. As soon as possible after a vessel has been surveyed, a report, in triplicate, to be signed by all the officers concerned, is to be made out by the senior Indian Marine officer on the survey, and forwarded to the Director of the Indian Marine, a copy being furnished by that officer to the Quarter Master General's Office and to the Military Department of the Government of India. This report is to be termed the "Primary Survey Report."

a. As soon as the Marine authorities have reported that the arrangements ordered in the Primary Survey have been carried out, the Military officers specified in para. 4 with, if possible, the officer to command the troops on board of the vessel, and the medical officer to be in charge of the troops about to embark, will assemble on board the vessel at such times as the Director of Indian Marine may decide, and will ascertain that the medical stores and comforts, provisions, stores and water required for the voyage are good; that the full quantity has been put on board, that the accommodation and fittings for officers and others are complete and in a proper state for the reception of troops. The Indian Marine officer who may be detailed by the Director of the Indian Marine to attend the survey will ascertain whether the nautical requirements have been complied with. All provisions condemned on this occasion, if found absolutely unwholesome, are to be destroyed in the presence of the Military officers; those found to be of inferior quality or not up to muster should be returned to the Commissariat Department, to be exchanged for articles of better quality.

Tours of Service abroad.

The following regulation with regard to the tours of service abroad of officers of the Army Pay Department will take effect from the 1st April 1889 :—

The period of service abroad, reckoning from the date of embarkation at home of officers of the Army Pay Department, will (except in the case of Chief Paymasters, whose appointments will be governed by the rules applicable to the General Staff of the Army) be four years for stations in the West India, Bermuda, China, Ceylon, and Mauritius commands, and six years for all others (except those on the West Coast of Africa), unless such period should be incompatible with the interests of the public service.

Correspondence—Telegrams.—With reference to G.O.C.C.,* dated the 27th July 1888, page 286, the following instructions will be observed in filling in the body of telegraphic messages :—

I.—As a general rule a message will commence with its own number; if it is in reply to another message, the number of that message will then be quoted; the purport of the message will follow, expressed as succinctly as possible, auxiliary words which can be understood being omitted.

II.—When the station of despatch is also a telegraph station, it is superfluous to give the station and date in the body of the message.

III.—Where the station of despatch is not a telegraph station, the place and date of despatch will be added to the number of the message.

IV.—The number of a message, whether composed of figures, or figures and letters combined, should never exceed the compass of two words. Three figures or letters count as one word.

The number may be divided between the two groups if necessary.

V.—If another telegram is repeated, its text will be preceded by the word “begins” and followed by “ends.”

VI.—Where a date is of the essence of a message, such as in reporting arrival, assuming charge of an office, &c., it should be clearly set out in the body of the message, rule I notwithstanding.

Drill and Instruction.—The following Army Order, dated War Office, 1st July 1888, is republished for information and guidance :—

A. O. 304.—Cavalry Regulations—Commands.

The following will be substituted for sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d), paragraph 8, Section 3, Part III, of the Regulations for the Instruction and Movements of Cavalry, 1887 :—

- (a) "Advance," or "Forward,"—Arm swung from rear to front, along the side of the horse, finishing with the sword-hand pointing to the front.
- (b) "Trot,"—Clenched hand moved up or down between thigh and shoulder.
- (c) "Walk,"—Arm raised, elbow bent, wrist in line with the shoulder.
- (d) "Retire," "Troops, Right About Wheel," "Right Reverse,"—Arm circled above the head.
- (e) "Halt,"—Arm raised perpendicularly.
- (f) "Shoulders,"—Circular movement of extended arm in line with the shoulder in the required direction.
- (g) "Incline,"—Arm extended horizontally in the required direction.
- (h) "Dismount,"—Two or three slight movements of the open hand below the knee towards the ground.
- (i) "Gallop,"—Circular movement of hand below the shoulder.
- (j) "Troops," or "Heads of Squadrons, Right (or Left) Wheel,"—Arm waved from perpendicular to horizontal position in the required direction.
- (k) "Advance from Line in Squadron Columns,"—Cut "One" and "Two," and "Point."
- (l) "From Line from Squadron Columns,"—Same as (k).
- (m) "Dismounted practice,"—Arm raised as for "Halt," and then pointed to the ground.

In signalling, the signallers should, as far as possible, face the same way as those to whom the signals are made.

Signals of position, such as the "Halt," or "Incline," should be maintained.

Signals of movements, such as "Advance," or "Shoulders," should be repeated till it is clear that they are seen and understood.

To prevent signal (f) "Shoulders" being mistaken for signal (a) "Advance," it is most important that in the former the hand should be kept level with the shoulder.

When the signal "Shoulders" is made to a regiment in column, the leading squadron or troop will change direction; when made to a line, it will mean an entire change of front.

QUEEN'S REGULATIONS, SECTION IX.

(As revised by Army Orders 136 and 232 of 1888.)

V.—ARMY SCHOOLS.

78. Garrison schools, when necessary, are established for the education of adults and elder children in garrisons and stations, and Infant schools for the instruction of younger children in every regiment. The former schools will be under the direction of the General or other Officers commanding garrisons or stations, the latter will be under the control of the Officers commanding regiments. The General or other Officer commanding may, at his discretion, place each garrison school under the separate direction of the senior Officer of the corps attending the school, or he may distribute the control of the schools in his district in any other way, as may be expedient in the circumstances of the garrison or station. These schools afford to non-commissioned officers and soldiers and to the children enumerated in Article 940 of the Royal Warrant for Pay, &c., 1887, the opportunity of acquiring a sound and useful education. All Army schools are under the supervision of the Director-General of Military Education, who is directly responsible to the Commander-in-Chief that they are maintained in a due state of efficiency.

79. All directions relative to schoolmasters and schoolmistresses, and to the management, inspection and examination of Army schools, are contained in the "Army School Regulations," to which the attention of Officers commanding stations and corps is specially called.

80. It is important that the soldier should be able to read and write and keep his accounts. Without such acquirements he cannot look for promotion, and is deprived of the interest and improvement derivable from the libraries, which are placed at most stations for his special benefit and recreation. Commanding Officers will, therefore, use every means at their disposal to promote the attendance of men at school with a view to improving their education and obtaining the certificates necessary for promotion.

81. To maintain systematic instruction in the schools, it is necessary that when a soldier's name is placed upon the school books, he should attend regularly and continuously for a period of three months, or until he obtains a higher certificate of education. Men attending school should not be placed in any permanent employment which interferes with their regular attendance. "Regular attendance" is understood to mean, when a soldier is present and fit for duty, attendance at least three times in each week.

Attend- 82. At stations where adult schools are established, enlisted ance of boys will attend school until they obtain a second-class certi-of enlisted boys. ficate, or until they attain the age of 18, except in the case of boys enlisted in the Royal Engineers for training as fitters and blacksmiths, who will be exempted from attendance at school after they have obtained third-class certificates.

The amount of the compulsory weekly attendance of boys at school will be regulated by their Commanding officers, but it must not be less than five hours. Commanding Officers will give every encouragement to boys who have obtained a second-class certificate to attend school voluntarily for the purpose of obtaining a first-class certificate.

Attend- 83. In view of the importance of the education of non-com-ance of missioned officers, Commanding Officers should require the of non-com- attendance at school of every non-commissioned officer till he missioned obtains a second class certificate. The certificates laid down officers. in paragraph 126, Section VII., fix the minimum educational qualifications essential for the performance of the duties of the several ranks, and it is most desirable that all non-commissioned officers should be in possession of them.

Special 84. One great hindrance to advancement in the schools being classes. caused by infrequency of attendance, the formation of special classes is very desirable, provided it can be effected without interfering too much with military duties.

Inspection 85. Commanding Officers and others are to afford the Local of schools. Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors of Schools every facility for conducting the half-yearly examination enjoined by the Army School Regulations.

Inspectors 86. General Officers Commanding Districts will keep the to be in- Inspectors of Army Schools informed of the action taken, and formed of of the decision arrived at, with regard to any irregularities decisions. brought to their notice by these officers on visiting the schools within the district.

Certifi- 87. Commanding Officers at home will issue second-class cer- G. O. 24, cates of tificates of education, on the authority of the Director-General 1887.
education. of Military Education, under the conditions laid down in the Army School Regulations; and third-class certificates, on the recommendation of the Inspector of the district. At stations abroad, where there are no Local Inspectors of Army Schools, these examinations will be conducted under special instructions from the Director-General of Military Education, and Officers Commanding may issue certificates on the recommendation of the examining officer. All examinations for first-class certificates will be conducted under instructions from the Director-General of Military Education, who will also issue these certificates. No soldier on the School books will be permitted to present himself for examination for a certificate unless he is recommended by the schoolmaster.

88. Whenever soldiers are examined for certificates of education, a non-commissioned officer from each of the corps to which the soldiers belong, is to attend at the examination room, to identify the men, for the information of the Sub-Inspector of Army Schools, or other officer detailed to superintend the examination. This non-commissioned officer before proceeding with the men to the examination room, will satisfy himself of their identity, for which he will be held responsible.

89. The frequent and unnecessary withdrawal of soldier assistants from their duties at Army Schools being calculated to give rise to much inconvenience in carrying on the instruction, it is essential that a limit should be put to their absence, which is to be required only for the purpose of attendance during musketry drill, at one parade a week, and on occasions when they are absolutely wanted for some urgent regimental duty. The schoolmaster will record in his register every occasion on which a soldier assistant is absent from the school.

90. Soldiers married with leave, who are quartered at stations where there are Army schools, will be required to send their children to the school of the regiment or garrison. Soldiers of any denomination are, however, entitled to claim the right, on conscientious grounds, to send their children to a certified efficient or inspected denominational school, and they may also be permitted to send their children to a civil school, with a view to obtaining a higher class education for them, provided that the Commanding Officer recommends it, after satisfying himself that an education superior to that obtainable in Army schools will be secured thereby. In such cases the father will be required to pay the school fees.

G. O. 160, Oct. 1887. 91. When soldiers are permitted to withdraw their children from an Army School, and at stations where no Army School is established, Commanding Officers will satisfy themselves at the close of each quarter that the children have attended regularly. Attendance, to be regular, should not fall below 85 in every 100 times the school was open. In cases where school fees are authorized the number of attendances, in order to admit of their payment by the public, should not fall below an average of seven times a week at schools where there is a morning and afternoon attendance, and of four times a week at schools where there is only one attendance daily, and the number of attendances of each child should be vouched for by a certificate from the school manager. In all cases where attendances are less than the above average, special authority from the Secretary of State for War to charge the fees against the public is necessary. When sickness on the part of the children, or of the parents, is the cause, a medical certificate must accompany the application for the required special authority.

Where no Army schools exist. 92. When troops are stationed at places where no Army Schools exist, the children of soldiers married with leave will attend some certified efficient or inspected school authorized by the Secretary of State for War. Soldiers will be permitted to send their children to such schools of their own religious denomination. In such cases the school fees will, in accordance with Article 946a, Royal Warrant for Pay, &c., 1887, be defrayed by the public.

Denomi- 93. In the case of denominational schools, the children of national each denomination will be sent to one and the same school for school. each garrison.

C. O. to 94. It will be the duty of Commanding Officers, in all cases, see that to take care that the children of soldiers married with leave, children attend some school until they are 14 years of age.
attend.

Infant 95. In addition to the school where adults and more advanced school. children are taught, an infant and sewing school is to be established in every corps, under a trained Army schoolmistress or acting schoolmistress.

Court- 96. Before proceeding with the trial by court-martial of a martial schoolmaster at home stations, the facts and circumstances of on school the case are to be reported to the Adjutant-General. At stations masters. abroad the trial will be proceeded with, and the sentence carried into effect, under the orders of the General Officer Commanding.
A report of the result of every trial of a school master, whether at home or abroad, will be made without delay to the Director-General of Military Education by the Officer confirming the proceedings. All instances of drunkenness on the part of schoolmaster serving at home will also be reported to the Director-General of Military Education before the case is disposed of, and all offences of this or any other character will be entered on the back of the monthly school report in reply to query I.

School 97. The contents of all Army Orders having reference to mastersto Army Schools are to be made known to Army schoolmasters, have ac- who should have the opportunity given them of perusing the cess to or- same, and making such copies or extracts as may be necessary ders. for their guidance, affixing their initials to the originals, in proof of their having done so.

98. Chapel schools, whether consecrated or unconsecrated, Chapel are on no occasion to be used for any other purpose than those school of church service, lectures, and school work.

99. A permanent orderly is to be told off to keep the school School room and senior schoolmaster's quarters clean. In the Cavalry orderly.
he will attend mounted parade or riding drill once a week.

100. Competitions are held annually at home stations in Appoint-October, for pupil-teachers of the Royal Military Asylum and ment of Royal Hibernian Military School, and non-commissioned officers schooland men in possession of first-class certificates of education, masters.
desirous of becoming Army schoolmasters. The qualifications to be required of candidates are laid down in Appendix VII., Army School Regulations. The selected candidates will be appointed assistant schoolmasters, on probation, for a period of one year. If then confirmed in their appointment, non-commissioned officers and soldiers will be allowed to count previous service up to five years.
