(Quarter Master General.)

No. 56.—Drill and Instruction—Army Signalling.

In view to improving the efficiency both of officers and men in visual signalling, His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief desires that the following rules be carried into effect :—

1. General Officers will arrange that certificated Staff Officers and qualified officers attached to Native regiments not in possession of signalling equipment, when located at stations with British troops, shall attend signalling instruction more frequently. Vide para. 20, India Army Circulars, clause 141 of 1888.

2. Every possible opportunity should be given to certificated officers and non-commissioned officers of British corps to attend signalling instruction, and all such officers (below the rank of field officer) and non-commissioned officers should be compelled to attend instruction once or twice a week.

This course should also be followed in Native corps in possession of signalling equipment.

3. The regimental signalling staff should be struck off duties when employed with a class of instruction or on brigade practice, and the orders contained in para. 233, Section VII, "Queen's Regulations, &c., 1889," regarding signallers being excused all duties, as far as possible, during the three months previous to the annual inspection, should be interpreted in a liberal spirit.

The regimental signallers and supernumeraries should be kept together as far as possible, and should not be sent on detachment duty if it can be avoided.

Good results can only be obtained by constant instruction, and signalling should not be made subservient to every other duty.

Commanding Officers are held responsible for the efficiency of their signallers, for it mainly depends on the interest taken by them in signalling, and the consideration they show their signallers, whether the duty is popular or the reverse.

4. In future all certificated officers in British corps, and four qualified non-commissioned officers from each British corps, will be inspected by the Inspector of Army Signalling with the British signallers of the station.

Staff Officers and officers of Native regiments not in possession of signalling equipment, who hold certificates, will be inspected with the British regiment with which they have practised.

Other qualified non-commissioned officers will be inspected with the supernumeraries.

5. In the case of "supernumeraries" and "regimentally trained signallers" of corps and batteries, the regimental instructor, or in batteries of artillery the commanding officer, will in future be held responsible that no men are classed as "supernumeraries" or "trained" unless they are thoroughly efficient and qualified up to the requisite standard.

6. To ensure more extended instruction in combined practice and field work, General Officers should arrange, when camps of instruction are held in the command, for the attendance, as far as possible, of the signallers of British corps in the district, any equipment required being supplied by regiments.

No. 57.—Bounty Clothing.—In continuation of the orders marginally noted, it is notified

S.G.O. No. 79 of 1889. for information that the Government of India has ruled that all men and followers of Native troops and others, enlisted prior to 1st January 1890, who were hitherto entitled to bounty clothing, when proceeding on Foreign service, will in future receive compensation in lieu thereof at stock book rates, to be ascertained from the Examiner, Army Clothing Accounts, Madras, on publication of the order for service in Burma.

2. Claims on account of those now in Burma, who have not yet received bounty clothing, should be submitted for pre-audit on M. A. Form 129 to the Examiner, Army Clothing Accounts, Madras, at rates noted in the margin.

Native troops.

Para. 1545-B. Where bells-of-arms exist the ammunition of each troop or company will be kept in a wooden box inside the bell-of-arms. To facilitate distribution, each of these boxes will contain four smaller boxes for the ammunition of a section, and in cases of urgency the small boxes would be at once handed over to section commanders and the distribution thus be made with the least possible delay.

The large boxes will be kept locked, the key thereof being hung up in the Quarter Guard, and will only be given to a British or Native officer.

Keys of bells-of-arms will be kept as hitherto under regimental arrangements, but duplicate keys should be provided and be kept in the possession of the British orderly officer of the week.

In places where there are no bells-of-arms the ammunition must be kept in the magazine with the same precautions as above detailed, it being understood that no soldier is to have access to his ammunition except through the medium of a British or Native officer.

Issues of ball ammunition to be made as for British troops.

Applicable to both British and Native troops.

Para. 1545 C. Pouch ammunition will be made over to the men, and be carried in pouch and kept by them whenever they are in camp or on the line of march. Officers commanding corps will practise from time to time, and at uncertain intervals, the issue of pouch ammunition, in view of ensuring that the arrangements for its prompt distribution are in working order. Officers commanding stations are empowered to authorize the issue of pouch ammunition to the troops to be kept in their possession whenever the local circumstances render such a course desirable. In this case they will report their action by telegram to the General Officer Commanding the District.

On all occasions of the issue of ball ammunition for whatever purpose, a careful examination of pouches should invariably be made when the occasion of the issue is over.

Soldiers are prohibited from retaining ball ammunition in their possession in barracks or elsewhere, unless the possession is authorized by order, or in the ordinary course of duty.

Para. 1545-D. In standing camps the pouch ammunition should be withdrawn from the troops provided that proper arrangements can be made for its storage and safe custody, with due regard to prevention of any deterioration of the ammunition from damp or other causes, and also provided that arrangements can be made for immediate issue in case of any necessity.

No. 76.—With the sanction of Government, the following general order by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, is republished :—

1st October 1890.

No. 97.

Native Army—Special and Miscellaneous.—The Commander-in-Chief has had under consideration the question of the issue of rum to native troops, and the following rules are published for the information and guidance of Officers Commanding Native Corps, with reference to, and in amplification of, those contained in G.O. 14* of 1876.

I.—Rum is allowed on indent to the Goorkha regiments on the understanding that the State is put to no expense, and that the issue in cantonments gives the men no right to claim it in the field (Army Regulations, India, Vol. V, para. 825).

II.—As regards Sikhs, the Commander-in-Chief considers the issue of spirits permissible only so far as it may diminish the desire for opium and tend to prevent the men from going into the bazar in search of country liquor. Under these circumstances rum may be issued under the same conditions as to Goorkhas.

III.—As regards other classes, Commanding Officers are permitted to make arrangements for the supply to individuals of their corps of such liquors as they may deem desirable. The supply will in all cases be made through Native officers and will be limited to classes of soldiers who are not debarred by their religion from drinking spirits.

Add the following Appendix :—

APPENDIX VIII.

Rules regarding the grant of pensions or gratuities to departmental followers who may be injured on field service or to their families when they themselves are killed on such service.

When permanent or temporary followers not entitled to pensions are killed on field service, or so injured as to be unable to earn a livelihood, claims may be submitted for extraordinary pensions or gratuities to the families or to the injured men in the latter case. These claims will be considered by the Government of India on their merits, and under the subjoined conditions as amended from time to time.

I.—A pension or gratuity may be granted—

- (i) to a man so injured in the execution of public duty as to be incapacitated from earning a livelihood;
- (ii) to the family of a man killed in the execution of a public duty; whether he was permanently, temporarily, or even casually entertained in Government employ, and whether remunerated by fixed pay or for piece-work, or even though he receive no pay from the State.

II.—A wound or extraordinary pension is granted only when injury or death is met in the performance of a duty which is attended with extraordinary bodily risk. The Government recognises no claims on account of loss of life or bodily injury resulting from an ordinary accident.

III.—A pension is granted to the family of a man killed in the execution of his duty, only if he had a wife, legitimate child, father or mother dependent upon him for support.

IV.—The Government does not bind itself to grant pension in every case, or if it grants pension, to grant it for life.

V.—The amount of pension will be regulated by—

- (i) the character and service of the injured or killed;
- (ii) the nature of the risk undergone, and the conduct of the man in accepting it;
- (iii) the nature and extent of the injury received
- (iv) the pecuniary circumstances and prospects of the claimant.

VI.—Injuries are thus classified—

1st degree.—Men losing two limbs or both eyes from wounds; or being so severely wounded as to be totally incapable of earning a livelihood, and to require the care and assistance of some other person.

2nd degree.—Men losing one limb or one eye; or being so disabled as to be incapable of earning a livelihood though not requiring the care of another person.

G. O. 77—contd.

3rd degree.—Men not losing a limb or an eye who have received an injury equal to the loss of a limb, or who are otherwise so disabled as to be capable of contributing in only a small degree towards earning a livelihood.

4th degree.—Men able to contribute materially towards a livelihood, although unfit, from wounds, for the ordinary duties of the service.

VII.—A pension granted for injuries received on duty will, unless the pensioner is more than 60 years old (in which case it will be permanent), continue, in the first instance, for two years only.

VIII.—At the end of 18 months, the pensioner shall be examined afresh by a medical officer, upon whose report it will be decided whether the pension shall be continued or not for a further term, or permanently, and whether the pensioner shall be subjected, or not, to further medical examination.

IX.—If a pension is granted to a family, it is allotted for the support of the family to the eldest surviving son.

- (i) Failing sons, to the eldest widow, for the same purpose.
- (ii) Failing both sons and widows, to the eldest surviving unmarried daughter, for the same purpose.
- (iii) These failing, to the father, for the same purpose.
- (iv) And failing all others, to the mother, for the same purpose.

X.—To a male, pension is given as follows :—

- (i) If the pensioner is under 6 years of age, till he is 18 years old.
- (ii) If above 6 and under 50 years, for 12 years.
- (iii) If not under 50 years, for life.

XI.—The pension to a female is for life or until marriage; (*) but, on her suitable marriage, five years' pension may be granted as a dowry.

NOTE (*).—Pension to a female infant, native of Asia, shall, in the absence of special orders to the contrary, last until she leaves her own family to cohabit with a husband, or, being married, attains the age of sixteen years whichever event happens first.

XII.—A pension is given to only one member of each family, and no transfer of the pension to another member is permitted on its lapse either by the demise of the pensioner or for any other reason, or on its remaining in abeyance.

XIII.—Pensions or gratuities will not be given in any case when followers die from sickness or from accidents to which they would have been liable under ordinary circumstances, and which were not caused by the circumstance of their being on field service.

XIV.—Particulars of the circumstances under which the follower was killed or the injury received, accompanied by the follower's service book (and in the case of injury by a medical certificate also to the effect that the injury will partially or wholly incapacitate the follower from earning a livelihood) will be submitted with the application for pension or gratuity through the Controller of Military Accounts.

THE MADRAS EQUITABLE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

(SUCCESSOR TO THE MADRAS LAUDABLE SOCIETY, ESTABLISHED IN 1829.)

Regulated by Act No. VI of 1869 of the Legislative Council of Fort Saint George.

HEAD OFFICE IN MADRAS.

Agents in London—Messrs. Arbuthnot, Latham & Co.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

C. E. P. VANS AGNEW, Esq. (ARBUTHNOT & Co.) CHAIRMAN.

R. C. WALKER, Esq.
JOHN KYD, Esq., (NATIONAL BANK).

G. LOXDALE MURRAY, Esq., (MURRAY & Co.)
W. GORDON, Esq., (CHAR. MER. BANK).

Medical Examiner.

Surgeon Major A. M. BRANFOOT, M.B.

Actuary.

A. H. BAILEY, Esq., of the London Assurance Corporation.

The chief characteristics of this Society are:—

Mutual Assurance.

Policies for terms of years issued at largely reduced rates, without participation in Surpluses.

Premiums payable half yearly, on 1st January and 1st July.

Claims paid immediately after satisfactory proof of death. An official Notice of death in any of Her Majesty's Government Gazettes is a sufficient proof.

Claims can be adjusted, and premiums can be paid in London, if desired by the Policy-holders.

Surrender Values allowed for Life Policies issued at fixed rates of premium which have paid three years' premiums.

The Society's funds must be invested in Indian Government Securities, or in other guaranteed Indian Securities.

Quinquennial valuations, by a London Actuary, of Assets and Liabilities. The reduction of premiums for the Quinquennium 1886-90 is at the rate of 70 per cent. of original Annual premiums paid during 1881-85.

Assurances granted on the lives of Europeans, East Indians or Eurasians, and Parsees.

Past experience leads the Directors to anticipate that the retention of the "Mutual" principle and the Quinquennial distributions of Surpluses, will bring down the cost of Assurance by this Office, for Life, to the lowest possible point.

The Medical Examiner sees Applicants for Assurance at his residence, Pantheon Road, Egmore, on Wednesdays and Saturdays between 11 and 12 A.M.

For further particulars, Reports, Prospectuses, Forms of proposal, &c., apply to ARBUTHNOT & Co., Secretaries and Treasurers.
