PREFACE.

The following are amongst the most important changes which have taken place in the personnel of the Foreign Service since the edition of 1944 was issued.

Appointments at Home.

Mr. Spencer Summers, M.P., has been appointed Parliamentary Secretary to the Department of Overseas Trade.

Sir David Scott has been promoted to be Deputy Under Secretary of State.

Sir George Rendel is temporarily employed in the Foreign Office.

Mr. F. Ashton-Gwatkin has been promoted to be Senior Inspector of H.M. Missions with rank of Minister.

Mr. N. M. Butler, Mr. E. L. Hall Patch and Mr. V. Cavendish Bentinck have been appointed to be Assistant Under-Secretaries of State, and Mr. J. I. C. Crombie to be Chief Clerk with similar rank.

Mr. R. A. Gallop has been promoted to be Acting Counsellor.

Mr. R. S. Toseland has been appointed Principal Assistant Secretary in the Overseas Division of the Department of Overseas Trade and Lord Farrer, Assistant Secretary in that Division.

Appointments Abroad.

The Rt. Hon. A. Duff Cooper, M.P. has been appointed Ambassador at Paris. Sir H. Knatchbull Hugessen has been appointed Ambassador at Brussels and has been succeeded at Angora by Sir Maurice Peterson. Sir Noel Charles has been appointed High Commissioner at Rome. Sir Donald Gainer has been promoted to be Ambassador at Rio de Janeiro, and Sir Hugh Stonehewer-Bird to be Ambassador at Bagdad.

Sir V. Forbes, Mr. T. M. Snow, Sir R. Bullard, Mr. J. G. M. Vereker, Sir G. Ogilvie Forbes and Mr. C. H. Bateman have been promoted to be Ambassadors at Lima, Bogota, Teheran, Montevideo, Caracas and Mexico City respectively.

Mr. T. I. Rees has been promoted to be Minister at La Paz, Mr. T. A. Shone to be Minister at Beirut, and Mr. L. B. Graftey-Smith to be Minister at Jedda.

Mr. W. E. Houstoun Boswall has been appointed British Representative in Bulgaria. Mr. I. A. Kirkpatrick to be Deputy Commissioner (Civil) on the Control Commission for Germany, Mr. J. H. Le Rougetel to be British Representative in Roumania, Mr. W. H. B. Mack to be Deputy Commissioner (Civil) on the Control Commission for Austria, Mr. F. M. Shepherd to be British Representative in Finland, and Mr. A. D. F. Gascoigne to be British Representative in Hungary, all with promotion to the rank of Minister.

Lieutenant Colonel G. A. Falconer and Mr. N. O. W. Stewart have been appointed Ministers at Kathmandu and Asuncion respectively.

The following officers have been appointed Ministers (Commercial):

Mr. A. R. Fraser at Paris and Mr. R. L. Nosworthy at Rome.

Mr. H. Ashley Clarke has been promoted to be Counsellor and Mr. R. J. Bowker, Mr. M. R. Wright, Mr. P. Broad, Mr. H. Caccia, Mr. J. D. Greenway and Sir A. Noble to be Acting Counsellors.

The following officers have been promoted to be Consuls-General:—

Retirements.

Lord Templewood and Sir E. Spears, M.P. have relinquished their appointments at Madrid and Beirut respectively.

The retirements include Sir R. Craigie, Sir L. Oliphant, Mr. E. A. Keeling, Mr. C. E. S. Dodd, Sir A. Blackburn, Sir G. Haggard, Sir G. Havard, Mr. W. W. Coultas, Mr. J. Morgan, Mr. D. F. S. Pilliter, Mr. H. S. London, Mr. R. T. Smallbones, Mr. W. Hough and Mr. A. A. Adams.

Obituary.

The obituary includes the following names:—

Sir Harry Eyres, formerly Minister at Durazzo; Sir A. H. George, Consul-General at Boston; Lord Hardinge of Penhurst, formerly Ambassador at Paris; Sir W. Hewlett, formerly Consul-General at Hankow; The Rt. Hon. Harcourt Johnstone, M.P., Parliamentary Secretary to the Department of Overseas Trade; Sir James MacLeod formerly Consul-General at Tunis; Sir Eric Teichman, Chinese Adviser to H.M. Embassy in China; Mr. B. G. Tours, formerly Consul-General at Mukden; Mr. A. F. Yencken, Counsellor at Madrid and Sir C. Alban Young, formerly Envoy to the King of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

Mr. P. N. Loxley, Mr. A. R. Dew and Mr. J. Chaplin, of the Foreign Office, died while employed on a Special Mission.

The editors are much indebted to correspondents who have pointed out inaccuracies and also to those who have suggested amendments. The necessary amendments have been made wherever possible. Corrections for the 1946 Edition should reach the editors not later than August 31st, 1945.

FOREIGN SERVICE.

By the Foreign Service Order in Council of May 20, 1943, the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service, the Commercial Diplomatic Service, and the Consular Service have been amalgamated into a single Service, known as "H.M. Foreign Service," and this is composed of all established members of the three former Services. Pending the completion of a joint seniority list, officers continue to be shown in the separate Service to which they formerly belonged.

(FORMER) CONSULAR SERVICE.

(See note on page 1 regarding the incorporation of the Consular Service in the Foreign Service.)

Note.—With the exception of China, the various branches of the Consular Service were amalgamated as from January 1, 1934; China was included as from the autumn of 1935.

Salaried Officers appointed to the Consular Service prior to November, 1934, continue to be shown (with few exceptions) in that Section to which they were originally assigned. Those appointed since that date are shown in the Section headed "Amalgamated Service" (page 37), irrespective of the particular post to which they are appointed.

When the name of a post is enclosed in brackets, it is indicated that the officer is to be transferred there but has not yet proceeded.

EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES.

WITH THEIR RESPECTIVE STAFFS, AND SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES.

NOTE.—The Salaries and Allowances of Officers of H.M. former Diplomatic, Commercial Diplomatic and Consular Services (now incorporated in H.M. Foreign Service) are fixed generally in accordance with the scales shown on page 126 and 127.

For Inspectors-General of Consulates, see page 32.

NOTE.—As from October, 1924, all salaried Vice-Consuls have been appointed by Royal Commission as was hitherto the case in regard to Vice-Consuls in the Levant and the Far East Services.

The letter (L) denotes that the Officer has authority to register lex loci marriages; the letter (M) that he has a Marriage Warrant, and the letter (S) that he has authority, granted under Article 13 of the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1913, to accept notice of a marriage which is intended to be solemnized under the Foreign Marriages Act in another district.

NOTE.—An allowance for office expenses is granted at Commercial Diplomatic posts, at all salaried Consular posts, and at most unsalaried Consular posts. At the other unsalaried Consular posts, a fee allowance based on consular fee receipts is granted.

REGULATIONS FOR HIS MAJESTY'S (FORMER) DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(See note on page 1 regarding the incorporation of H.M. Diplomatic Service in H.M. Foreign Service. Regulations for the Foreign Service have not yet been issued.)

Admission to Diplomatic Service and Foreign Office.

1. Admission to the Diplomatic Service and the Foreign Office is by open competition. The examination is the same as that for Class I of the (general) Civil Service, with special arrangements to ensure a thorough knowledge of French and German and some other modern language. Candidates desiring to be appointed to the combined Service will first be required to appear before a Board of Selection, appointed by the Secretary of State, which will decide whether they possess suitable qualifications for entry into the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service. No assurance as to the possession of private means will be required of candidates. All members of the combined Service will be liable for service abroad.

Period of Service of Third Secretaries.

2. Commissions will be granted to Third Secretaries in the Diplomatic Service or Foreign Office on the receipt of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and their services will be considered as probationary for two years from the date of the Commission. The Secretary of State may extend the probationary period when he considers it desirable.

At the conclusion of the probationary period the services of a Third Secretary will not be retained unless his official superiors certify that he is suitable for permanent employment.

All Third Secretaries, after completing five years' service in that rank, including the probationary period, will, if recommended by their official superiors, be eligible for Commissions as Second Secretaries wherever they may be employed. This promotion will give them no claim to outfit allowances, or to any special rate of remuneration.

Promotion to the rank of First Secretary will depend on the occurrence of vacancies in the authorised numbers in that grade, and on the suitability for promotion of the officer concerned.

Promotion to the rank of Counsellor will, in addition to the above consideration, also depend on the suitability of the officer for the particular Counsellor's post which may be vacant.

Interchange of Employment between Counsellors and Secretaries at Home and Abroad.

3. Counsellors, First, Second and Third Secretaries employed in the Foreign Office will, on transfer abroad, receive the same salaries as they would have received if they had been promoted to their respective ranks while serving abroad.

Counsellors, First, Second and Third Secretaries employed abroad will, on transfer to the Foreign Office, receive the same salaries as they would have received if they had been promoted to their respective ranks while serving in the Foreign Office.

Members of the Service may be called upon at any stage in their career to exchange home for foreign employment or vice versa.

Salaries and Allowances.

4. The personal salaries of members of the Diplomatic Service serving at home and abroad respectively are fixed on the basis shown in next column.

	At Home.	Abroad.

Officers serving abroad receive Foreign Allowances to include entertainment and representation allowance, varying in amount according to the necessities of individual posts. They are also provided with adequate houses or apartments, or with Rent Allowances sufficient in the opinion of the Heads of the Missions in which they are serving and of the Secretary of State to provide suitable accommodation. Officers must themselves defray any additional expenditure on rent which may be caused by maintaining larger establishments than are necessary, having regard to their rank and requirements. Rent allowances must be actually expended.

If an officer, on transfer to another post, can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his house, he will be allowed to claim rent allowance within the authorised limits for a period not exceeding three months from the date of his departure.

Rent and foreign allowances are non-pensionable and are not subject to Income Tax or Super-Tax.

Salaries Payable on Appointment, Transfer, or Retirement.

5.—(a) Heads of Missions will, on retirement from the service, or on transfer from one post to another, receive during the period of leave of absence due to them in this country their personal salary in full.

(b) On the expiration of this period of regulation leave of absence Heads of Missions who are due for retirement will receive the diplomatic pension for which they may be eligible. Other cases will be dealt with under paragraph 6 (b).

(c) Successors to Heads of Missions will continue to receive their existing personal salary for so long as their predecessors continue to draw full pay, after which date they will be paid the salary of their new post, e.g., a Counsellor promoted to the rank of Minister will not draw Minister's salary until the date of expiry of the retiring Minister's earned leave of absence.

Payments to Heads of Missions on departure from their Posts and Allowances to Chargé d'Affaires.

(a) On Leave and Public Service.

6. Provided that the expenses of the upkeep of the Mission are defrayed by Heads of Missions during their absence on public service or on regulation leave, including the time occupied on the journey from and to their posts in connection with such leave, no deduction will be made from their emoluments and no allowance will ordinarily be made to the Chargé d'Affaires during the period. On the expiry of the regulation leave of Heads of Missions, their leave may be extended on half salary, and during such extension a part of the allowance for "frais de représentation" will be assigned to the Chargé d'Affaires (see scale for allowances for Chargés d'Affaires appended hereto). It will rest with the Secretary of State to decide in each individual case whether, and, if so, to what extent, the expenses which continue during extensions of leave to fall on the Heads of Missions justify the continuance of the allowance for "frais de représentation" without further deduction.

(b) On Transfer or Termination of Appointment.

The allowance for "frais de représentation" will cease to be paid to Heads of Missions on their departure from their posts, but arrangements will be made to relieve the Chargés d'Affaires of the necessary expenses of upkeep of the Mission. If a Head of Mission being under the age of 60 is recalled from his post on the rupture of diplomatic relations or in other special circumstances, and if he is not appointed to a new post, he may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State and, provided that it is intended to re-employ him, continue to receive the full salary attaching to the post which he has just vacated for a period not exceeding six months, after which the position will be reviewed. During this period of six months, or any extended period, he will be required to perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State.

Nothing in this regulation shall affect the provisions of paragraphs 14 and 15 below.

* In these cases the Chargé d'Affaires receives an allowance calculated at the rate of one-fourth of the Minister's salary.

Special Allowance of £100 a Year for Languages.

7. Any Counsellor, or Secretary, who shall be reported by the Head of the Mission in which he is employed to have passed an examination in and to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, Chinese, Amharic, Polish, Czech, Finnish, Serb, Roumanian, Hungarian, Bulgarian, or Modern Greek language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of £100 a year, on the conditions laid down in Foreign Office Circular of the 17th September, 1921.

Leave of Absence.

8. The grant of leave is in all cases subject to the exigencies of the public service. Members of the Diplomatic Service serving abroad are eligible for sixty days' ordinary leave in each year, exclusive of journeys from and back to their posts. This leave may be taken either consecutively or at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st January and ending on the 31st December. The balance of annual leave not taken during one year shall not, except in cases in which an officer is prevented by the exigencies of the public service from taking his full leave, or as provided below, be carried forward to the following year. Those who remain uninterruptedly on duty during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for may accumulate their leave up to 120 days. Officers serving in Central and South America, the Far East and Iran who remain on duty during the two years preceding that in which leave is applied for may accumulate their leave up to 180 days, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State. The time required for the journey both ways will not be reckoned as leave, provided that the direct route be chosen and due expedition used.

Heads of Missions should understand that leave of absence will normally only be granted to them when the Counsellor of Embassy, or where there is no Counsellor, the Senior Secretary, is at his post, or, if absent, is prepared to return and assume the position of Chargé d'Affaires. In applying for leave Heads of Missions should state whom they propose to leave in charge during their absence.

Sick Leave.

9. In the case of sick leave, medically certified to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, Heads of Missions may receive their personal salaries for a period not exceeding six months and half their personal salaries for a further period not exceeding six months. During such sick leave their allowances for "frais de représentation" will be subjected to the usual deduction for the Chargé d'Affaires and further restricted to such amount as is required to cover their actual outgoings on the upkeep of the Mission and on their travelling expenses from and back to their post.

In the case of sick leave similarly certified officers serving abroad below the rank of Head of Mission may receive, for a period not exceeding six months, salaries at the rate payable to officers of the same seniority serving in the Foreign Office. On the expiry of six months officers may receive one-half of these emoluments for a further period not exceeding six months. Their foreign allowances will cease during these periods. Ordinary leave will not further accumulate during periods of sick leave.

After sick leave extending to twelve months a medical certificate will be required, which shall satisfy the Secretary of State that a member of the Diplomatic Service is likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period without the prospect of their further interruption. If he is unable to produce such a certificate he will be called upon to retire from the Service.

Outfit Allowances.

10. On first appointment abroad, Counsellors, First, Second, or Third Secretaries will receive an allowance not exceeding £100 for the purchase of a diplomatic uniform.

On promotion to the rank of Counsellor abroad officers will receive an allowance of £100 towards the cost of china, glass, and plate.

On first appointment Heads of Missions will receive the following allowances towards the cost of linen, blankets, china, glass, and plate, viz. :—

Ambassadors	500
Ambassadors appointed from outside the Diplomatic Service or on first appointment abroad from the Foreign Office .. .	800
Ministers	300
Ministers appointed from outside the Diplomatic Service	400
Ministers appointed from the Foreign Office .. .	400

On transfer Ambassadors and Ministers will receive a further allowance of £100 on this account. An allowance of £100 for uniform will be made on appointment to Heads of Missions who have received no previous allowance for this purpose in a lower rank.

An additional allowance not exceeding £40 will be granted to Ministers, Counsellors, and Secretaries on first appointment to posts where abnormal climatic conditions prevail.

Motor Cars for Heads of Missions.

1. The initial cost of motor cars for the use of Heads of Missions abroad will in future be borne by public funds, all subsequent expenditure on maintenance and repair being borne by the Head of Mission concerned. The motor cars must be standard cars of moderate horse-power, and the purchase in each case must be approved by the Foreign Office beforehand. Such cars will remain the property of His Majesty's Government, and in the case of a change of Head of Mission the car will be taken over by the incoming Ambassador or Minister.

One-half of the cost of the insurance premium on Government-owned cars will be paid from public funds, subject to a maximum annual charge to public funds of £12.

Travelling Expenses.

12. Heads of Missions, Counsellors, and First, Second and Third Secretaries will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, retirement or other public reason, be allowed their travelling expenses in accordance with the conditions laid down in the separate regulations on the subject.

No allowance will be made to Heads of Missions in respect of journeys undertaken in pursuance of leave of absence or for any other private reason.

Counsellors and Secretaries serving at posts outside Europe whose transfer to a fresh post is not contemplated after three years' service thereat will normally be eligible for payment of half travelling expenses (exclusive of subsistence and ship allowances) on leave of absence after the completion of twenty-four months' actual residence at their posts.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

13. As a general rule Secretaries will not be employed for more than three years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Officers placed "en disponibilité."

14. Members of the Diplomatic Service may be placed en disponibilité for a period not exceeding one year for any reason which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient. This period may be extended for a further period of one year, at the expiry of which the officer concerned will have to return to duty provided there is a vacancy available for the purpose. Such periods of disponibilité will not count for pension.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

15. It should be distinctly understood that all members of the Diplomatic Service, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Carriage of Despatches.

16. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Counsellors and Secretaries will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without interruption on the road.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

17. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the King the name of any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it; and generally, in regard to all appointments whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority, or membership of the Service, from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions.

18. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years. At the expiration of five years, the question of an extension of the appointment for a specified term, not exceeding five years, of transfer to another Mission, or of retirement, will be considered by the Secretary of State. An appointment may be renewed more than once, if this appears to the Secretary of State to be desirable on public grounds.

Pensions.

19. With the exception of those members of the Diplomatic Service who exercised their option to remain under the Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, of 1869, all members of the Diplomatic Service are subject, for pension purposes, to the Superannuation (Diplomatic Service) Act, 1929. This Act applies to the members of the Diplomatic Service the provisions of the Superannuation Acts which govern the pensions of Civil Servants, subject to the following modifications :—

(a) In the case of officers serving abroad pension is calculated by reference to the salary and emoluments of officers of corresponding rank serving in the Foreign Office, as shown in the following table, except as regards certain Embassies created since the War at which the Ambassador's salary is £2,250, calculated for pension purposes at £2,500 :—

(a) Diplomatic Grade Abroad.	(b) Corresponding Foreign Office Grade.	(c) Existing Salaries and Emoluments of (b).
Ambassador ..	Under-Secretary of State	£ 3,000
Minister ..	Deputy Under-Secretary of State	2,200
Counsellor ..	Counsellor	1,150-50-1,500
1st Secretary	1st Secretary	800-30-1,100
2nd and 3rd Secretaries	2nd and 3rd Secretaries	275-25-325-30-625

(b) An Ambassador or Minister may be pensioned before attaining the age of 60 if he has been recalled in the interest of diplomatic relations and cannot be employed elsewhere.

(c) A temporary pension may be awarded on the rupture of diplomatic relations, but without a lump-sum additional allowance.

Obligation of Secrecy.

20. Members of the Diplomatic Service must not, without the express permission of the Secretary of State, publish observations on, or accounts of, their experiences in the countries in which they are, or have been, officially employed, or any information obtained by them in their official capacity. The obligation of secrecy in regard to official experiences and information continues equally after their retirement from active service, and in the event of its being disregarded the Secretary of State will consider himself justified in bringing the circumstances to the notice of Parliament when the estimate providing for the officer's pension is before the House of Commons. The disclosure of information acquired in an official capacity, when such disclosure is contrary to the public interest, is, moreover, punishable under "The Official Secrets Act, 1911 and 1920," by fine and imprisonment.

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service.

21. All applications for leave of absence should be accompanied by an address at which letters will reach the applicant while on leave. Any change of address during the period of leave should be notified in writing to the Under-Secretary of State. Members of the Diplomatic Service, if spending their leave in England, should similarly give notice of the time of their intended departure for their posts. The addresses and other records will be kept by the Registrar.

Candidates for Seats in House of Commons to resign Office.

22. Any officer seeking a seat in the House of Commons shall resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

Management of Societies, Companies, &c.

23. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, industrial or financial firm or company except by the special permission of the Secretary of State.

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual size is as follows :—
 For use on shore 8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.
 For use on shore when specially ordered .. { 4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet.
 12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet.
 For use on boats 3 breadths, i.e., 4 feet 6 inches by 2 feet 3 inches.
 For use on board ship 8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must in boats be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign. The Consular flag is hoisted in boats only and not in ships except when a salute is being given to the Consular Officer concerned, when it is hoisted at the fore.

The distinguishing flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when afloat were approved by Order, in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES. AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz. :—

"The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in future the Union Jack to be displayed by the military branch of your Majesty's Service on such occasions shall bear in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, and surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers and Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all ranks and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorized to fly the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

"A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval."

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTE.—British Subjects resident abroad are at liberty to fly their National flag, the Union Jack, on land, unless the Municipal law of the foreign State in which they reside prohibits the use of foreign flags.

OUTFITS [Consular (except China)].—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions.
(For Diplomatic Outfits see page 112.)

Outfit allowances are granted on the following scale:—

- (a) On first appointment, 1/4th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (b) On transfer, with promotion in rank, 1/4th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (c) On transfer, without promotion in rank, 1/4th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (d) On promotion in rank, without transfer, 1/4th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (e) On first appointment in the Consular service at a place where officer already resides, 1/4th of annual salary only.

Promotion in rank is promotion to the rank of Consul-General, Consul, or Consul (Grade II).

The 5*l.* unit is adopted in the calculation of the total outfit allowance. When the fraction does not amount to so much as 2*l.* 10*s.*, it is abated from the allowance; and when it amounts to 2*l.* 10*s.*, or more, it is reckoned as 5*l.*, and so included in the allowance.

The mean salary is taken as the basis of calculation in all cases in fixing the amount of the outfit allowance.

In the case of new appointments and of transfers and promotions the outfit allowance is not payable until shortly before departure on a direct journey to the new post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).

Countries other than China, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 7 of General Consular Instructions.

Travelling allowances, as specified below, are paid to salaried Consular officers.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to travelling allowances. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

- (a) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant.† In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, for himself and for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed allowance of 5*s.* a night, or of 7*s.* 6*d.* if accompanied by his wife, to cover gratuities to stewards, &c.

† On attaining the age of 16 years, sons of Consular officers cease to be considered as members of the Consul's family as regards the payment of travelling expenses (Circular, July 15, 1918).

An officer transferred while on leave of absence is paid similar expenses from London, if he is in the United Kingdom, or from such place as he is in outside the United Kingdom, to his new post if, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the circumstances justify such a course.

No charges in connection with luggage will be admitted, except in districts where no railways are available, but, in order to defray the general cost of removal, in the case of land journeys an amount equal to one minimum first class fare each for an officer and his wife, and to one-half of the minimum fare payable for each other member of his family within the limit of four persons,† is granted as a luggage allowance. In the case of journeys by sea an amount equal to one-half of the minimum first-class fare payable on the ship by which the officer travels is granted for himself and for his wife, together with one-quarter of the minimum fare payable for each other member

- of his family within the above limit as to numbers.
- (b) In the case of certain journeys on leave as defined in paragraphs 5 and 6 of Foreign Office Circular of February 28, 1925, the officer is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, including the carriage of purely personal luggage, and one-half of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph;† and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence allowance on land.
 - (c) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate. The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.
 - (d) In the case of a voyage by sea formal application must be made to the steamship company for any reduction of fare which may be available for official passengers.
 - (e) Consular officers employed on special duty under the authority of the Secretary of State will receive payment of their travelling expenses, which may include either the actual cost of their maintenance or an allowance of 1*l.* a night, according to circumstances, as the Secretary of State may determine.
 - (f) If conveyed in a British man-of-war the Consular officer must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently. A Consul-General or Consul is entertained at the Captain's table at the rate of 1*l.* 1*s.* a day for the first fourteen days, and of 1*s.* subsequently. A Vice-Consul is entertained at the ward-room mess at the rate of 7*s.* 6*d.* a day. No gratuities to the crews of His Majesty's ships or to any Government servants can be charged to public funds.
 - (g) A detailed statement of expenses on account of journeys, accompanied by the necessary vouchers stating separately the amounts paid on the officer's own account and on that of his family, must be forwarded in duplicate to the Secretary of State in an unnumbered despatch of the Consular series, on receipt of which the amount, if found correct, will be paid to his agent in England. If he has no agent he will receive authority to charge it in his account current. Charges for luggage on journeys on leave and other miscellaneous expenditure which cannot be strictly apportioned between the officer and his family must be divided as follows:—one-half for the officer and the other half for his family. Vice-Consuls forward their claims through their superintending Consuls.
 - (h) Government is not responsible for loss or damage of baggage or effects of Consular officers, even while travelling on duty.

† See note † on page 116.

Consular Officers serving in China, Japan and Siam.—Ch. XXXVI of General Consular Instructions.

1. An officer on a first appointment to China, Japan, or Siam, shall be paid the whole of the expense of his passage.
2. On returning home on regulation leave of absence an officer shall be paid a proportion of the expenses of his own passage, and of that of his family, the number being limited to five persons beside himself, of whom one may be a female servant.

A similar indulgence shall be granted in cases of leave of absence obtained at any time on sick certificate.

This arrangement will also be applied to all cases of officers returning from England to the Far East.

3. A person removed from one post to another for the public convenience, and a person directed to proceed from one post to another on the public service, or for the purpose of supplying temporarily the place of an absent person, will be allowed such amount of expenses of going and returning as His Majesty's Diplomatic Representative on presentation of an account accompanied by vouchers, shall deem reasonable. The expense of the entertainment of Consular officers on board ships of war should, when practicable, be paid for at once by the officer to whom it is afforded, and the Diplomatic Representative will authorize the repayment of such expense from Consular funds in any case in which the officer so entertained has been received on board on public grounds.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and OFFICERS of the FIGHTING SERVICES.

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in His Majesty's Fighting Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Art. 98, Clause (a).)

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Major-Generals, Air Vice-Marsals.

shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., Colonels, and Group Captains in the Air Force.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders, Majors, and Squadron Leaders in the Air Force.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants R.N., Captains in the Army and Flight Lieutenants.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between DIPLOMATIC and COMMERCIAL DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS and NAVAL, MILITARY and AIR OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(i) Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies and Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after the Diplomatic Counsellor, but before the Commercial Counsellor, or at posts where the Staff does not include a Diplomatic or a Commercial Counsellor, next in succession after Diplomatic 1st Secretaries, but before Commercial Secretaries, 1st Grade.

(ii) Assistant Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after Diplomatic 2nd Secretaries, but before Commercial Secretaries, 2nd Grade, excepting at posts where such Assistant Attachés are the only resident Naval, Military or Air representatives, in which case their Place and Precedence will be governed by the provisions of paragraph (i) above as though they held substantive appointments.

(iii) Excepting in the cases provided for above, Commercial Counsellors and 1st, 2nd and 3rd Grade Secretaries in His Majesty's Commercial Diplomatic Service will rank respectively with, but after, Diplomatic Counsellors and Diplomatic 1st, 2nd and 3rd Secretaries.

(iv) It is to be clearly noted, however, that, notwithstanding the above provisions, the charge of any of His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad will invariably devolve upon the Senior Diplomatic Member of the Staff, unless other arrangements are specially authorized by the Secretary of State.

* No longer applicable to Egypt and Zanzibar.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.
(Embassies and Legations.)

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE OCCUPATION OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

The following Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furnishings, &c., held by His Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of Diplomatic Officers, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Works and Planning.

GENERAL.

Definition of "Officer-in-Charge."

1. For the purpose of these Regulations the description "Officer-in-Charge" is used to denote an Ambassador, a Minister, a Chargé d'Affaires, or any other occupant of an official residence.

The Officer-in-Charge to sign an undertaking.

2. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Regulations and, on entering into occupation he shall be required to sign an undertaking in the form shown in the Appendix.

Disputes.

3. The Minister of Works and Planning shall, after consultation with the Officer-in-Charge, when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and preservation of Government property and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from public funds. If, however, the Officer-in-Charge should be dissatisfied with the decision of the Minister, it shall be open to him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur in the decision of the Minister, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the Minister, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Inventories.

4. At each residence shall be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to His Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and regulations relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Unauthorised alterations or additions to buildings, furnishings, &c.

5. The residence and its fittings and furnishings shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings, or furnishings nor any additional hiring shall be paid for from public funds, unless such alteration, addition or additional hiring shall have been previously approved by the Ministry of Works and Planning. Should alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for the expense of restoring such buildings, fittings, or furnishings, to their original state.

Inspections by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

6. From time to time, the Minister shall cause a survey of the buildings, fittings, and furnishings to be made by one of his representatives. Note will be made of any deficiency, misuse, or damage in respect of Government property, and the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use will be recovered from the Officer-in-Charge.

Care of buildings, furnishings, &c., during absence on leave.

7. Proper arrangements shall be made by the Officer-in-Charge for the safe custody and care of the buildings, furnishings, &c., and for the upkeep of the garden during his absence on leave, and he shall be responsible for the cost of measures taken to this end.

Change of occupation.

8. On change of occupation, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works and Planning of the probable date of his departure and shall leave the premises in a clean and habitable condition. The incoming Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works and Planning of the probable date on which he will take up occupation and, on arrival, he or his representative shall at once check the inventories and certify that the fittings and furnishings are in good condition (fair wear and tear excepted) and complete; or alternatively, report to the Ministry of Works and Planning at once any deficiencies or damage so that, if arising from neglect or unfair or improper use the cost may be recovered from the outgoing Officer-in-Charge. In the absence of such a report, the incoming Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for any damage or deficiencies noted at a later date.

To facilitate the checking of the inventories, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall cause all articles temporarily moved from room to room to be returned to the positions indicated in the inventories and all keys to be attached to their respective articles.

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., pending arrival of new Officer-in-Charge.

9. During the interval between the departure of the outgoing Officer-in-Charge and the arrival of the incoming Officer-in-Charge, or on the death of the Officer-in-Charge, the Officer-in-Charge of the post for the time being shall be responsible for the proper custody of the buildings, fittings and furnishings. The arrangements made to this end shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works and Planning who will authorise any necessary expenditure pending the arrival of the new Officer-in-Charge, such as the cost of caretaking, heating, lighting and the upkeep of the garden, &c.

(Embassies and Legations.)

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., where there are two residences.

10. At posts where there are two official residences for the use of the Officer-in-Charge, the care of the residence which is unoccupied as well as the residence which is occupied, together with the fittings and furnishings shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge, but the caretaker's wages shall be a charge upon public funds.

Precautions against fire, damage by storm, flood, &c.

11. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for the safe custody of the buildings, fittings, furnishings, &c. He shall take all reasonable precautions against fire and damage by storm or flood and he shall be held responsible for the care and periodical testing of the fire-fighting equipment supplied by the Ministry of Works and Planning. A certificate as to the condition of the fire-fighting equipment shall be forwarded annually to the Ministry of Works and Planning.

In the interests of safety he shall consult the Ministry of Works and Planning before installing any electric lighting fittings involving additional wiring or any additional electrical appliances, and in no case shall wiring "flex" be permitted to run along skirtings or picture mouldings.

Incinerators provided by the Ministry of Works and Planning shall be used for the destruction of old papers, &c., in quantity.

Loss or damage by fire, storm, flood, theft, &c., shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Contagious or infectious diseases: vermin.

12. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of a contagious or infectious disease in the household of an Officer-in-Charge, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and, if requested, for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the eradication of vermin and for seeing that the residence is kept free from vermin.

Interference with rights appertaining to Government properties.

13. The Officer-in-Charge shall take all steps to protect the rights and amenities appertaining to the property of His Majesty's Government and shall report to the Ministry of Works and Planning at once any proposals affecting the same.

Occupation by unauthorised persons.

14. In no circumstances shall the buildings or land or any portion thereof be lent or sublet to or occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to accommodation at Government expense without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Hirings.

15. New premises shall not be hired or existing hirings renewed without the prior sanction of the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Auctions.

16. The holding of auctions of private effects in upon the premises is strictly forbidden.

Requisitions and annual requirements: minor redecorations and repairs.

17. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, for alterations to buildings or for maintenance services (see paragraphs 20 and 23), or for the purchase or hiring of property, or for the supply or maintenance of fittings and furnishings (see paragraphs 30 and 32), shall be sent to the Ministry of Works and Planning accompanied by full particulars of the requirements and their estimated cost in local currency and the sterling equivalent. So far as possible such requirements shall be communicated to the Ministry of Works and Planning in reply to the enquiry issued by that Department annually in June as to the requirements of the post for the following year, so that, if approved, provision may be made in the annual Estimates; for in the absence of the necessary provision in the Estimates, it will not be possible to grant requests involving any but the smallest expenditure except on grounds of urgency.

Where there is a local representative of the Ministry of Works and Planning (e.g., at Shanghai for the Far East, except Siam; at Istanbul for South-East Europe and the Middle East; at Tehran for Iran; and local Architects at the majority of the posts elsewhere), such officer shall be consulted by the Officer-in-Charge before submitting requisitions to the Ministry of Works and Planning.

The local representative has delegated authority to order ordinary minor redecorations and repairs to both buildings and furnishings. At posts where there is no local representative, the Officer-in-Charge will be given such delegated authority.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should submit their requirements through the Head of Mission.

Shipping arrangements.

18. Goods sent by the Ministry of Works and Planning should be unpacked at once and any damage or loss should be reported immediately to the local agent of the shipper and to the Ministry of Works and Planning. Should it be necessary for bills of lading to be endorsed before the goods can be examined, the endorsement should be qualified by a note explaining the circumstances, e.g., "signed in order to obtain delivery." The advice note (sent independently of the goods) states to what point delivery is to be made by the shipper, and care should be taken to avoid paying any charges properly payable by him. Usually the shipper bears all dues and outgoings (except customs duty) to the point shown in the advice note.

Addresses for correspondence.

19. Communications to the Ministry of Works and Planning should be addressed as follows:—

(a) If they are in reply to communications from that Office, in accordance with the directions given at the head of the Ministry of Works and Planning notepaper.

(b) By Officers-in-Charge at all posts (including Siam) elsewhere than in the Far East if they refer—

(Embassies and Legations.)

(1) To MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE:

The Secretary,
Ministry of Works and Planning,
Lambeth Bridge House,
Albert Embankment,
London, S.E.1.

(2) To MINOR matters concerning the maintenance of buildings or grounds (including electric light fittings):

The Director of Works,
Ministry of Works and Planning,
Lambeth Bridge House,
Albert Embankment,
London, S.E.1.

(3) To MINOR matters concerning furniture (exclusive of electric light fittings):

The Controller of Supplies,
Ministry of Works and Planning,
Lambeth Bridge House,
Albert Embankment,
London, S.E.1.

(c) By Officers-in-Charge in the Far East (except Siam) on all subjects:

The Divisional Architect,
H.B.M. Ministry of Works and Planning,
British Consulate-General,
Shanghai.

BUILDINGS.

Upkeep of buildings, &c., by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

20. The fabric of all Government buildings (including Chancery offices) together with the fixtures and fittings, boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, shall be kept in repair by the Ministry of Works and Planning who shall be responsible also for periodical painting, papering and distemping, and for the repair and renewal of the sanitary, water, heating, lighting, refrigerating and cooking installations, except that, where cabinet refrigerators are concerned, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the costs of cleaning, adjustments and minor repairs, including the replacement of small parts. In the case of hired buildings, the Ministry of Works and Planning shall be responsible for such of the foregoing services as are not the landlord's responsibility.

Cleaning; cost of heating, lighting, water, &c.

21. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys and the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, tanks and cisterns. He shall defray also the cost of fuel and stoking, gas, water, oil and electric current.

Where water is supplied from wells or waterworks controlled by His Majesty's Government the cost of raising or otherwise handling the water for all purposes shall, except where other arrangements have been authorised, be borne by him.

Where an independent electric lighting plant has been provided, the Ministry of Works and Planning will bear the cost of running the plant subject to the payment by the residents of a fixed charge per unit for current consumed as may be decided upon from time to time.

Responsibility for repair of defects arising from neglect, &c.

22. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official fixtures and fittings and for the cost of repair of defects arising from carelessness, neglect or unfair or improper use on the part of the members of his household or his guests or from the keeping of animals and birds.

Sanction for repairs, &c.; urgent repairs.

23. The sanction of the Ministry of Works and Planning shall be obtained before redecorations, repairs or renewals are effected (see paragraph 17), but when these are urgently necessary, the Officer-in-Charge may have the work done, subject to the covering approval of the Ministry of Works and Planning. The Officer-in-Charge shall, however, report the circumstances immediately and be prepared to prove the urgency and necessity of the work.

Frequency of redecorations.

24. External painting or colour washing shall not as a rule be done more frequently than once in every three or four years, nor internal redecoration more frequently than once in every six or seven years, but any necessary redecoration will be done on each change of occupation. Such work at other times than these shall not be paid for from public funds unless specially authorised beforehand by the Ministry of Works and Planning, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by storm, fire, &c.

25. In case of damage by storm, fire, or other casualty, the Officer-in-Charge may order urgent repairs to be executed at once, bearing in mind the landlord's responsibility in the case of hired buildings; but where the damage is extensive he shall obtain the approval of the Ministry of Works and Planning before ordering any but the most indispensable repairs.

Preparation of schemes involving payment of a fee.

26. The Officer-in-Charge shall obtain the approval of the Ministry of Works and Planning before giving any instructions for the preparation of schemes or estimates involving the payment of a fee if the work is not proceeded with.

Mosquito proofing.

27. Buildings will not be mosquito-proofed except at posts where malaria is prevalent. A medical certificate shall accompany all requisitions for mosquito-proofing.

GROUND.

Responsibility for upkeep of gardens, grounds and tennis courts.

28. The Officer-in-Charge shall defray all expenditure necessary for the care and maintenance in good order of the garden and grounds, including the cost of water, the provision of tools, &c., except where, owing to exceptional circumstances, special arrangements are in force. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the upkeep of the tennis court where one has been provided exceptionally.

Alterations.

29. The approval of the Ministry of Works and Planning shall be obtained before any trees (except such as are of small size and value) are cut down or removed, and before any alterations are made in the garden lay-out which are likely to increase the cost of upkeep.

FURNISHINGS.

Furnishing of residences.

30. Each residence shall be provided, at public expense, with the necessary furnishings, such as reception room and bedroom furniture, curtains, carpets, loose covers, table and standard lamps and other lighting fittings, fans and refrigerators, but not articles of a decorative character, such as pictures (other than portraits of Their Majesties and other portraits or pictures exceptionally), clocks, ornaments, &c., nor pianos, wireless sets or billiard-tables. Table linen, bed linen, &c., blankets, bedspreads and valances, &c., crockery, china and glassware, cutlery and other table-ware except silver in some places, kitchen utensils, vacuum cleaners, laundry appliances and other articles of domestic equipment shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge as also the provision of garden furniture and of additional tables, chairs and hat and coat racks, awnings, &c., required on the occasion of large receptions, &c. Chancery furniture is provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Upkeep of official furnishings; cleaning, &c.

31. The official furnishings shall be maintained by the Ministry of Works and Planning, but the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning and polishing, the beating of carpets and the cleaning or washing of curtains, loose covers, &c.

Sanction for repairs and renewals.

32. The sanction of the Ministry of Works and Planning shall be obtained before repairs or renewals are put in hand; but small repairs arising from fair wear and tear may be ordered by the Officer-in-Charge up to a maximum of £2 in any one case and a limit of £5 in any one year (see paragraph 17).

Responsibility for repair of defects arising from neglect, &c.

33. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official furnishings and for the cost of repair of defects arising from carelessness, neglect or unfair or improper use on the part of members of his household or his guests or from the keeping of animals and birds.

Removal or storage of official furnishings.

34. The Officer-in-Charge shall be required to use the official furnishings as part of the equipment of the post, and such furnishings shall not be removed from the residence nor stored without the consent of the Ministry of Works and Planning. In any event the cost of making good defects arising from storage exposure to the attacks of moth or vermin, &c., shall be borne by the Officer-in-Charge.

Damage to silk, &c., wall coverings.

35. Pictures shall not be hung nor brackets, &c., fixed on walls covered with silk or similar material. Should this rule be disregarded the Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for making good any damage caused thereby.

Furnishings hired with premises.

36. In the case of hired buildings the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible equally for the due preservation of any furnishings hired with the premises, whether such furnishings are of the kind ordinarily provided or not.

Existing non-official furnishings.

37. Existing articles not now provided at public expense shall be withdrawn. Alternatively the cost of repair shall be borne by the Officer-in-Charge.

Identification marks.

38. The various items of official furniture, &c., shall be numbered or otherwise marked to enable such items to be identified in the inventory and the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for seeing that these identification marks are maintained, and that the copy of the inventory at the Post is kept up-to-date.

Payment of a rent for use of official furnishings by officer of a rank below that of Head of a Mission.

39. Use of official furnishings (including refrigerators) by an officer of a rank below that of Head of Mission shall be subject to the payment of a rent of 7½ per cent. per annum calculated on the cost of the furnishings exclusive of freight. The rent (including that for periods of ordinary absence on leave) is to be deducted quarterly from salary.

Service of plate.

40. Where an official service of plate has been provided the Officer-in-Charge shall be considered personally responsible for seeing that it is properly safeguarded at all times and kept in good condition and intact. The cost of maintaining it shall be borne by the Ministry of Works and Planning, but any losses or injuries due to neglect, negligence or unfair or improper use, shall be made good at once by the Officer-in-Charge. The plate shall frequently be checked with the inventory and a certificate as to its completeness and condition shall be sent to the Ministry of Works and Planning immediately after the 1st January in each year.

Disposal of surplus or worn-out articles.

41. Worn-out or surplus articles shall not be discarded or otherwise disposed of without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works and Planning.

ACCOUNTS.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should not defray or account for expenditure direct, but through the Head of Mission.

Officer-in-Charge to defray local expenditure; funds.

42. The Officer-in-Charge shall defray, on behalf of the Ministry of Works and Planning, all expenditure incurred locally in accordance with these Regulations. For this purpose he shall obtain funds from time to time, as required, by one of the following methods:—

(1) By drawing a bill on the Ministry of Works and Planning at three days' sight, the balance in hand to be kept as low as possible, consistent with immediate requirements. On the day the bill is drawn, he shall notify the Ministry of Works and Planning on the form provided for the purpose, and at the same time forward a certificate, by a banker or a merchant, of the rate of exchange at which the bill has been drawn.

(Embassies and Legations.)

(2) By the use of Foreign Office funds in approved cases. The transfer of such funds to meet Ministry of Works and Planning expenditure shall be recorded in the accounts rendered to each Department.

(3) By application to the Ministry of Works and Planning for telegraphic transfer where it is not possible to obtain funds as described in (1) or (2) above.

Accounting procedure.

43. The Officer-in-Charge shall account to the Ministry of Works and Planning for all receipts obtained and payments made in accordance with the preceding paragraph. This shall be done quarterly, in the form prescribed, immediately following the 30th June, the 30th September, the 31st December and the 31st March.

Each quarterly account shall be a complete statement of all receipts and payments made during the quarter and all payments shall be fully supported by receipted bills, estimates, &c., which shall relate solely to the items in question.

Receipted bills for freightage, customs and other duties should state the date when the consignment was received, the number of packages forming the consignment and the numbers and marks on the packages.

The various receipts and payments shall be shown in local currency, but in the case of a Bill of Exchange the sterling amount also shall be given, together with the rate at which the Bill was negotiated.

A brief translation shall be given of any item appearing in the account in a language other than English or French.

The inventory number should be quoted in the case of furniture.

Should no transaction have taken place during the quarter an account shall be rendered, nevertheless, stating that fact.

The Officer-in-Charge shall, so far as possible, ensure that tradesmen's bills are rendered and paid promptly; and that every advantage is taken of discounts for prompt payment.

In no case may funds be entrusted to a third party for the payment of tradesmen's accounts. These should be paid direct by the Chancery, on the certificate where applicable of the local representative of the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Receipts from sale of land, &c.

44. Receipts arising from the sale of land, buildings, &c., shall be disposed of as directed by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Payments on account.

45. In order to meet the requirements of the Comptroller and Auditor-General, the following conditions of payment shall be strictly adhered to:—

(a) When a payment on account is made in connection with any service for which a contract has not been concluded, the receipt shall invariably be accompanied by a certificate to the effect that, at the date of payment, work had been completed, or materials delivered, to the full value of the amount of the advance.

(b) In the case of contracts which provide for definite payments to be made at certain progressive stages of the work (e.g., so much on the completion of foundations, a further sum on completion of walls, &c.), these payments shall be supported by certificates stating that the work has been executed in accordance with the terms of contract, and that the contractor is entitled to payment of the specified amount.

(c) When a contract does not provide for definite payments as the work proceeds, certificates shall be furnished as detailed at (a).

(d) When a contract provides for an advance payment on signing, or whenever a payment is made before commencement of work in accordance with local custom, the next payment shall be supported by a certificate to the effect that, at the date of payment, work has been executed, or material delivered, to the full value of the two payments.

Examination of accounts by Ministry of Works and Planning.

46. In the event of an account requiring amendment, the Officer-in-Charge will be informed as soon as possible, and subject to his observations (which must be made at once) the amendments shall stand; but should the Officer-in-Charge be dissatisfied with the decision of the Ministry of Works and Planning, he shall have the right of appeal as provided in paragraph 3 above.

January 1, 1940.

APPENDIX.Undertaking to be Signed by Officers-in-Charge in Accordance with Paragraph 2.

I have received a copy of the "Regulations Relating to the Occupation of Embassy and Legation Houses the Property of, or Leased by, His Majesty's Government," dated the

I have read the said Regulations and I undertake to recognise as a legal claim on me, or on my estate, the liability to repay to the Ministry of Works and Planning the cost of making good such deficiencies or damage as may be decided to be properly chargeable to me under the said Regulations.

(Consular Houses.)

REGULATIONS AS TO THE MAINTENANCE OF CONSULAR RESIDENCES AND FURNITURE, THE PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, OR LEASED BY THE MINISTRY OF WORKS AND PLANNING, IN COUNTRIES OTHER THAN CHINA, JAPAN AND SIAM.

(For the full regulations see Chapter V, paragraph 28, of General Consular Instructions.)

Maintenance of houses is undertaken by the Ministry of Works and Planning on the understanding that contributions to the cost of internal repairs are made by the occupying officers at the following rates:—

Consul-General	20 per annum.
Consul	12 " "
Vice-Consul	6 " "

Officers will be held liable for any extra expenditure directly attributable to negligence or misuse.

On removal from the post, the officer will make satisfactory arrangements for the care of the house pending the arrival of his successor. The cost of caretaking will be borne by the substantive officer, or, so long as the post is actually vacant, by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Certain heavy articles of residential furniture are provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works and Planning at certain posts. The incumbents of such posts are required to pay as rental 7½ per cent. annually of the cost price of the furniture.

Office furniture at all salaried posts is provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works and Planning.

Officers will be held responsible for the due preservation of all Government furniture, and will be liable to make good, at their own expense, loss or damage arising from neglect or carelessness. On change of incumbents, the incoming officer will certify the existing inventory, or report variations therein.

The Civil Uniform is worn only during tenure of office, or, on retirement, by special permission of the Sovereign. Note.—Members of the Staff at the Foreign Office wear the class of Uniform of the Diplomatic rank which corresponds to the rank which they hold at home. The present Legal Adviser and the Second Legal Adviser are entitled to wear Uniforms of the 2nd class and 3rd class, respectively.

CIVIL UNIFORM.

FULL DRESS.

Coat for 1st and 2nd classes.—Blue cloth, single-breasted, stand collar. The collar and gauntlet cuffs are of black velvet and the pocket flaps of blue cloth. Nine buttons up the front, showing between the two embroidered edges (which are made to hook), two at the waist behind, and two at the bottom of the back skirts. White silk linings. A white collar may be worn inside the collar of the coat.

Gold oak-leaf embroidery on the front, as follows:—1st Class, not more than 4½ inches wide at the base of each front; and the 2nd Class, not more than 4 inches wide, but to spread across the chest according to figure.

The embroidery on the cuffs should not exceed the following widths:—

1st Class, 4½ inches; 2nd Class, 4 inches. The 1st Class has a wavy edging worked with rough curls and the 2nd Class a saw edge. The collar, pocket flaps, back, skirts, back skirts and side edges are also embroidered.

The wearing of the Full Dress coat is optional. The Levée coat may be substituted for it, at the option of the wearer, on all occasions when Full Dress is prescribed.

Buttons.—Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms with supporters.

Coatee.—For 3rd, 4th and 5th Classes (see Levée Dress) † Breeches.—White Kerseymer, with three covered buttons at the knees.

Hose.—White silk.

Shoes.—Black patent leather.

Hat.—Black beaver cocked hat, with black silk cockade.

Sword-knot.—Gold lace strap with bullion tassel.

Sword Belt.—White web, with white cloth frog.

Buckles.—(Knee and shoe) Gilt, Rose, Shamrock and Thistle pattern.

Gloves.—White.

† Note.—White knee-breeches are worn with Full Dress uniform in this country at His Majesty's Courts, State Banquets and Balls, and on certain other State occasions; but at Embassies and Legations abroad it is more usual for trousers to be worn with the Full Dress coat.

LEVÉE DRESS.

Coat.—Blue cloth, single-breasted stand collar. The collar and gauntlet cuffs are of black velvet, and pocket flaps of blue cloth. Nine buttons up the front (to button), two at the waist behind and two at the bottom of the back skirts. Black silk linings. A white collar may be worn inside the coat.

The 1st and 2nd Classes have gold embroidery on the collar, cuffs, pocket flaps and between the buttons at the waist behind, as on the Full Dress coat. The 3rd, 4th and 5th Classes have embroidery on the collar, cuffs, back and pocket flaps. The gold oak-leaf embroidery for the three Classes is the same on cuffs and pocket flaps, 1 inch wide within a saw edge. The back embroidery is also identical in all Classes. The collar of the 3rd Class has a saw edge and front embroidery 4½ inches long, that of the 4th Class a saw edge and a front embroidery 3 inches long, and that of the 5th Class a saw edge only.

Buttons.—Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms (without supporters) surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Trousers.—Blue cloth, with gold oak-leaf lace on side seams.

The width of lace is as follows:—

1st and 2nd Classes, 2½ inches.

3rd, 4th and 5th Classes, 1½ inches.

Boots.—Plain patent, with military fronts and elastic sides.

Hat, Sword, Sword-knot.—Same as Full Dress.

Sword Belt.—White web with blue cloth frog.

Persons in possession of uniforms made in accordance with previous regulations are permitted to continue to wear them as heretofore.

Great Coat or Cloak.—Blue cloth of any substance; double-breasted, two rows of buttons with six buttons in each row and six inches apart across; stand and fall collar of black silk velvet. The coat to reach within a foot of the ground, made with a back seam and slit. Blue cloth back strap with a large button at each end. Two cross pockets at the sides and one inside the breast, and a slit six inches deep on the left side for the hilt of sword to pass through. The coat lined with scarlet Italian or rattinet. There are no shoulder straps or sword flaps on the coat. Loose round cuffs six inches deep. Gilt buttons of the pattern worn with the Levée Dress. Cape of blue cloth, to reach to the knuckles. Lined black. Four small gilt buttons down front to button through and a gilt hook and chain at the neck. The cape should button on to the collar of the coat, but the coat and cape may be worn together or separately.

Cap (Military shape)—Blue cloth, with a peak of blue cloth. Black oak-leaf mohair band 1½ inches wide, with narrow gold braid at the top and bottom of the band, and also in the crown seams. A small button on each side.

Gloves.—White.

NAVAL ATTACHÉS at Foreign Courts wear the Uniform of the Royal Navy.

MILITARY ATTACHÉS wear Military Uniform as prescribed by "Dress Regulations for the Army."

AIR ATTACHÉS wear the Uniform of the Royal Air Force as prescribed by the Dress Regulations; in addition, Alouillettes are worn with Full Dress.

DIPLOMATIC.

EVENING DRESS.

Evening Dress Coat of blue cloth with black velvet collar (the collar cut with notched ends). Black silk linings. Four buttons on each front, two at the waist behind and one on each tail; also two small buttons on a 3-inch cuff and one above. The facings are of the same material as the body of the coat.

Buttons.—Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms with supporters.

Dress Waistcoat.—Single-breasted of white marcella, with small gilt buttons to match.

Trousers.—Plain black evening dress material.

This dress is worn abroad by His Majesty's Diplomatic officers at the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister; it is worn at official dinners and parties (a) in the presence of members of the British Royal Family who are Royal Highnesses and may also be worn, if in accordance with local custom, (b) in the presence of members of the Royal Family of the Court to which the Ambassador or Minister is accredited. This dress is never worn in this country.

CONSULAR.

REGULATIONS IN FORCE FROM JUNE 4, 1924.

The Full Dress uniform is worn only at His Majesty's Balls and Courts, and on important State occasions when ordered.

The Levée Dress is worn at His Majesty's levées; on State occasions abroad; on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war; and at Naval Courts.

A white drill uniform may be worn at any post where the use of such uniforms by officials is customary.

FULL DRESS.

Coat.—Blue cloth; stand collar; single-breasted; to be buttoned with nine buttons placed at equal distances; and to be embroidered with laurel and oak leaf in silver and saw edge in gold; two buttons on the back at the waist and one on each tail.

The coat of a CONSUL-GENERAL and CONSUL is embroidered on the collar, cuffs, pocket flaps and back. The embroidery on the collar and back is the same for both grades, that on the cuffs is two and a-half inches wide for a Consul-General and two inches wide for a Consul.

The coat of a VICE-CONSUL is embroidered on the collar and cuffs only; the embroidery on the cuffs is one and a-half inches wide.

The collar and cuffs are of blue-black velvet and the pocket-flaps and back-piece of cloth are similar to the body of the coat.

Buttons.—Gilt, convex, frosted; having the Royal Arms without supporters; the same pattern of button to be used in each rank.

Hat.—CONSUL-GENERAL:—Black, cocked, regulation pattern, without binding; the left side six and a-quarter inches high, right side five and three-quarter inches high, each corner four and three-quarter inches long; two black ribbons on the right side; black cockade and treble bullion loop of silver, also on the right side, plain gold bullion tassels, and edging of black ostrich feather.

CONSUL:—The same as the Consul-General, but without the feather, and with a double bullion loop.

VICE-CONSUL:—The same as the Consul, but with only a single bullion loop.

Sword.—French hilt, gilt wire grip, and helmet top; blade of thirty inches; black leather scabbard with gilt mountings; gold lace guard sword-knot with worked head, and tassels of small dead and bright gold bullions; white silk web belt, to be worn under the coat, with blue cloth frog. The same pattern of sword to be used in each rank.

Breeches.—White kerseymer to be worn with white silk stockings, shoes and gilt buckles. [See note at foot of page 130.]

Gloves.—White.

LEVÉE DRESS.

Coat.—Buttons, hat, sword and gloves are the same as those worn with the full dress.

Trousers.—Blue cloth; with a stripe of silver lace down the outward seam. The lace for Consuls-General is the oak-leaf pattern scalloped, two and a-quarter inches wide; for Consuls and Vice-Consuls, the same pattern, one and three-quarter inches wide.

Black Wellington boots or plain patent leather boots with military fronts and elastic sides should be worn with this uniform.

CLOAK AND CAPE.

Cloak—Blue cloth of any substance; double-breasted; lined scarlet; to reach within a foot of the ground; stand and full black velvet collar; two rows of buttons in front, six in each row, and six inches apart across; blue cloth strap behind, with a large button at each end; slit on left side to allow access to sword-hilt.

Cape—Blue cloth, lined black, with four small buttons down front, and to button on to collar of cloak; gilt hook and chain.

The buttons are to be of the pattern described in section 3.

The cloak and cape may be worn together or separately.

WHITE UNIFORM.

Coat—Tunic of white drill; single breasted, to be buttoned with six buttons; stand collar one and a half inches high, with small gilt detachable Tudor crown on each side of front opening; two small breast pockets, each buttoned with one small button; one, two or three small buttons along the outer seam of each cuff for Vice-Consuls, Consuls and Consuls-General respectively; detachable shoulder-straps with a twisted gold cord design surrounded by two outer loops; a Consul having only one outer loop and a Vice-Consul none.

Buttons—As described for full dress.

Trousers—White drill without lace.

Helmet—White service regulation pattern without chin-strap, bearing on the front a gilt badge consisting of the Royal Arms with supporters. A blue cap with a white cover, may, if preferred, be worn instead of the helmet. The cap is similar to that worn by officers of the Royal Navy, except that it bears in front a badge consisting of the letters G.R. surmounted by a crown, and that the black leather peak is always plain.

DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS.

WHITE UNIFORM TO BE WORN IN HOT CLIMATES.

The uniform is to be made of white drill, with embroidery on the cuffs and collar of the same width and material as that now worn by Diplomatic Officers, but worked on white cloth and detachable; two breast pockets, each buttoned with a small gilt button;

NOTE (A).—The sword should be worn on paying or returning official visits and on other occasions of ceremony. It should be carried in a white frog, projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat, and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat. On these occasions a spike should be worn on the helmet.

DRESS TO BE WORN BY HIS MAJESTY'S REPRESENTATIVES ON OFFICIAL NAVAL VISITS.

(a) Levée dress (or alternatively white uniform in countries where such uniform is worn in lieu of Levée dress) should be worn by His Majesty's Representatives when calling officially upon (i) Flag Officers and Commodores on their first visit when newly appointed, or when their ship or squadron is paying a formal visit; and (ii) Captains when in command of a single ship or squadron paying a formal visit.

On receiving visits from Flag Officers or Officers Commanding H.M. Ships, however, H.M. Representa-

Boots—Black or white boots or shoes may be worn at the discretion of the officer.

Gloves—White.

Sword—As prescribed for use with the blue uniform. It should be carried in a white frog so that the hilt projects through a vertical slit on the left side of the coat, which thus conceals the upper part of the scabbard, and should be attached to a white belt, which should be worn under the coat. The sword and shoulder-straps should only be worn on ceremonial occasions, including visits to His Majesty's ships.

Evening Dress—An officer may, should he so desire, wear on suitable occasions evening dress composed as follows: white drill mess jacket with three small gilt buttons on each side of the front and one, two or three small gilt buttons for Vice-Consuls, Consuls and Consuls-General respectively along the outer seam of each cuff; white waistcoat with three small gilt buttons, white trousers.

CONSULAR AGENTS wear the uniform of Vice-Consuls.

No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

CANCELLIERS attached to British Consulates in the Levant wear the dress of Vice-Consuls, without the embroidery on the cuffs, or, in the case of white uniform, without the buttons on the cuffs.

A Consular officer who does not hold a diplomatic appointment must not, without permission, wear any other than the Consular uniform; should he hold an appointment entitling him to wear another uniform he is not allowed, during his Consular employment to wear such other uniform without special permission from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Orders should be worn with full or levée dress, and miniatures may be worn with ordinary evening dress on official occasions.

In the case of mourning Consular officers should wear a black band around the left sleeve.

buttons full dress or undress; white drill trousers without lace; white gloves and black boots. It will be worn with a white helmet, bearing on the front a gilt badge with the Royal Arms with supporters.

tives may use their discretion as to the dress to be worn, but if they do not wear uniform they should wear a frock coat or Morning coat, with Star, in cases where the representative has received the 1st or 2nd class of one of the British Orders of Knighthood.

(b) An Ambassador or Minister accompanying a Naval Commander-in-Chief on a visit to pay his respects to the Head of a State should wear Levée Dress or, where circumstances render such an alternative appropriate, white diplomatic uniform.

KING'S FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.

Uniform and Badge.

The Messengers are permitted to wear the Civil Service uniform of the 4th Class*, and are furnished by the Foreign Office with a Badge for use when travelling, which may also be worn with the Civil uniform. The Badge must be returned to the Chief Clerk in good condition on the retirement of the Messenger from the service.

* See page 130.

REGULATION GOVERNING THE WEARING OF UNIFORM BY RETIRED OFFICIALS.

1. An Officer belonging to H.M. Civil Service, H.M. Foreign Service, H.M. Indian Service, and H.M. FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES
IN THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR PRESERVING THE PRIVILEGES OF AMBASSADORS AND OTHER PUBLIC MINISTERS OF FOREIGN PRINCES AND STATES.*

(7 Ann, cap 12, 1708.)

Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly persons having in a most outrageous manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matucof, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesties good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him in custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorised and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable. . . .

[Ss. 1, 2, repealed 30 and 31 Vict. c. 59.]

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorised and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing Such Process.

Punishment.

4. And . . . in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and solicitors prosecuting and soliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or process, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said†] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trade.

5. [† Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

7. . . . all Sheriffs, Bailiffs and other officers and ministers of justice, concerned in the execution of process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their peril.

* Extracted from The Statutes Second Revised Edition, 1888. (Inserted by permission of H.M. Stationery Office.)
† Interlined on the roll. ‡ Annexed to the original Act in two separate schedules.

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH EMPIRE

The King's Exequatur is granted to Foreign Consular Officers holding a Commission signed by the Sovereign Supreme Authority of the State appointing them. In other cases a formal recognition is accorded.

Regd Trade Mark

Burberrys carry on their tradition for quality and perfection of Officers' Uniforms and Equipment—for the Navy, Army, R.A.F., Consular and Civil occasions.

Burberry materials—perfection of cut and precision to the exactitude demanded by Service Dress, Diplomatic and Levee Uniforms are embodied in the Burberry service.

For leisure moments the name implies the Burberry Weatherproofs, and the best Overcoatings and Suitings—Scottish—Yorkshire and West of England, that are manufactured.
