PREFACE.

The combined list of officers in the Senior Branch of the Foreign Service on pages 1 to 11 replaces the separate lists of officers in the Services to which they belonged before the creation of the Foreign Service. The new list has been compiled as far as possible with regard to the seniority of grades, but alterations will be made if necessary when further information is available. EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES.

WITH THEIR RESPECTIVE STAFFS, AND SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES.

NOTE.—The Salaries and Allowances of Officers of H.M. Foreign Service are fixed generally in accordance with the scales shown on pages 121 and 124.

NOTE.—As from October, 1924, all salaried Vice-Consuls have been appointed by Royal Commission as was hitherto the case in regard to Vice-Consuls in the Levant and the Far East Services.

The letter (L) denotes that the Officer has authority to register lex loci marriages; the letter (M) that he has a Marriage Warrant, and the letter (S) that he has authority, granted under Article 13 of the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1913, to accept notice of a marriage which is intended to be solemnized under the Foreign Marriages Act in another district.

NOTE.—An allowance for office expenses is granted at Commercial Diplomatic posts, at all salaried Consular posts, and at most unsalaried Consular posts. At the other unsalaried Consular posts, a fee allowance based on consular fee receipts is granted.

REGULATIONS FOR HIS MAJESTY'S (FORMER) DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

See note on page 1 regarding the incorporation of H.M. Diplomatic Service in H.M. Foreign Service. Regulations for the Foreign Service have not yet been issued.)

Admission to Diplomatic Service and Foreign Office.

1. Admission to the Diplomatic Service and the Foreign Office is by open competition. The examination is the same as that for Class I of the (general) Civil Service, with special arrangements to ensure a thorough knowledge of French and German and some other modern language. Candidates desiring to be appointed to the combined Service will first be required to appear before a Board of Selection, appointed by the Secretary of State, which will decide whether they possess suitable qualifications for entry into the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service. No assurance as to the possession of private means will be required of candidates. All members of the combined Service will be liable for service abroad.

Period of Service of Third Secretaries.

2. Commissions will be granted to Third Secretaries in the Diplomatic Service or Foreign Office on the receipt of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and their services will be considered as probationary for two years from the date of the Commission. The Secretary of State may extend the probationary period when he considers it desirable.

At the conclusion of the probationary period the services of a Third Secretary will not be retained unless his official superiors certify that he is suitable for permanent employment.

All Third Secretaries, after completing five years' service in that rank, including the probationary period, will, if recommended by their official superiors, be eligible for Commissions as Second Secretaries wherever they may be employed. This promotion will give them no claim to outfit allowances, or to any special rate of remuneration.

Promotion to the rank of First Secretary will depend on the occurrence of vacancies in the authorised numbers in that grade, and on the suitability for promotion of the officer concerned.

Promotion to the rank of Counsellor will, in addition to the above consideration, also depend on the suitability of the officer for the particular Counsellor's post which may be vacant.

Interchange of Employment between Counsellors and Secretaries at Home and Abroad.

3. Counsellors, First, Second and Third Secretaries employed in the Foreign Office will, on transfer abroad, receive the same salaries as they would have received if they had been promoted to their respective ranks while serving abroad.

Counsellors, First, Second and Third Secretaries employed abroad will, on transfer to the Foreign Office, receive the same salaries as they would have received if they had been promoted to their respective ranks while serving in the Foreign Office.

Members of the Service may be called upon at any stage in their career to exchange home for foreign employment or vice versa.

Officers serving abroad receive Foreign Allowances to include entertainment and representation allowance, varying in amount according to the necessities of individual posts. They are also provided with adequate houses or apartments, or with Rent Allowances sufficient in the opinion of the Heads of the Missions in which they are serving and of the Secretary of State to provide suitable accommodation. Officers must themselves defray any additional expenditure on rent which may be caused by maintaining larger establishments than are necessary, having regard to their rank and requirements. Rent allowances must be actually expended.

If an officer, on transfer to another post, can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his house, he will be allowed to claim rent allowance within the authorised limits for a period not exceeding three months from the date of his departure.

Rent and foreign allowances are non-pensionable and are not subject to Income Tax or Super-Tax.

Salaries Payable on Appointment, Transfer, or Retirement.

5.—(a) Heads of Missions will, on retirement from the service, or on transfer from one post to another, receive during the period of leave of absence due to them in this country their personal salary in full.

(b) On the expiration of this period of regulation leave of absence Heads of Missions who are due for retirement will receive the diplomatic pension for which they may be eligible. Other cases will be dealt with under paragraph 6 (b).

(c) Successors to Heads of Missions will continue to receive their existing personal salary for so long as their predecessors continue to draw full pay, after which date they will be paid the salary of their new post, e.g., a Counsellor promoted to the rank of Minister will not draw Minister's salary until the date of expiry of the retiring Minister's earned leave of absence.

Payments to Heads of Missions on departure from their Posts and Allowances to Chargés d'Affaires.

(a) On Leave and Public Service.

6. Provided that the expenses of the upkeep of the Mission are defrayed by Heads of Missions during their absence on public service or on regulation leave, including the time occupied on the journey from and to their posts in connection with such leave, no deduction will be made from their emoluments and no allowance will ordinarily be made to the Chargé d'Affaires during the period. On the expiry of the regulation leave of Heads of Missions, their leave may be extended on half salary, and during such extension a part of the allowance for "frais de représentation" will be assigned to the Chargé d'Affaires (see scale for allowances for Chargés d'Affaires appended hereto). It will rest with the Secretary of State to decide in each individual case whether, and, if so, to what extent, the expenses which continue during extensions of leave to fall on the Heads of Missions justify the continuance of the allowance for "frais de représentation" without further deduction.

(b) On Transfer or Termination of Appointment.

The allowance for "frais de représentation" will cease to be paid to Heads of Missions on their departure from their posts, but arrangements will be made to relieve the Chargés d'Affaires of the necessary expenses of upkeep of the Mission. If a Head of Mission being under the age of 60 is recalled from his post on the rupture of diplomatic relations or in other special circumstances, and if he is not appointed to a new post, he may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State and, provided that it is intended to re-employ him, continue to receive the full salary attaching to the post which he has just vacated for a period not exceeding six months, after which the position will be reviewed. During this period of six months, or any extended period, he will be required to perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State.

Nothing in this regulation shall affect the provisions of paragraphs 14 and 15 below.

Special Allowance of £100 a Year for Languages.

7. Any Counsellor, or Secretary, who shall be reported by the Head of the Mission in which he is employed to have passed an examination in and to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, Chinese, Amharic, Polish, Czech, Finnish, Serb, Roumanian, Hungarian, Bulgarian, or Modern Greek language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of £100 a year, on the conditions laid down in Foreign Office Circular of the 17th September, 1921.

Leave of Absence.

8. The grant of leave is in all cases subject to the exigencies of the public service. Members of the Diplomatic Service serving abroad are eligible for sixty days' ordinary leave in each year, exclusive of journeys from and back to their posts. This leave may be taken either consecutively or at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st January and ending on the 31st December. The balance of annual leave not taken during one year shall not, except in cases in which an officer is prevented by the exigencies of the public service from taking his full leave, or as provided below, be carried forward to the following year. Those who remain uninterruptedly on duty during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for may accumulate their leave up to 120 days. Officers serving in Central and South America, the Far East and Iran who remain on duty during the two years preceding that in which leave is applied for may accumulate their leave up to 180 days, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State. The time required for the journey both ways will not be reckoned as leave, provided that the direct route be chosen and due expedition used.

Heads of Missions should understand that leave of absence will normally only be granted to them when the Counsellor of Embassy, or where there is no Counsellor, the Senior Secretary, is at his post, or, if absent, is prepared to return and assume the position of Chargé d'Affaires. In applying for leave Heads of Missions should state whom they propose to leave in charge during their absence.

Sick Leave.

9. In the case of sick leave, medically certified to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, Heads of Missions may receive their personal salaries for a period not exceeding six months and half their personal salaries for a further period not exceeding six months. During such sick leave their allowances for "frais de représentation" will be subjected to the usual deduction for the Chargé d'Affaires and further restricted to such amount as is required to cover their actual outgoings on the upkeep of the Mission and on their travelling expenses from and back to their post.

In the case of sick leave similarly certified officers serving abroad below the rank of Head of Mission may receive, for a period not exceeding six months, salaries at the rate payable to officers of the same seniority serving in the Foreign Office. On the expiry of six months officers may receive one-half of these emoluments for a further period not exceeding six months. Their foreign allowances will cease during these periods. Ordinary leave will not further accumulate during periods of sick leave.

After sick leave extending to twelve months a medical certificate will be required, which shall satisfy the Secretary of State that a member of the Diplomatic Service is likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period without the prospect of their further interruption. If he is unable to produce such a certificate he will be called upon to retire from the Service.

Outfit Allowances.

10. On first appointment abroad, Counsellors, First Second, or Third Secretaries will receive an allowance not exceeding £100 for the purchase of a diplomatic uniform.

On promotion to the rank of Counsellor abroad officers will receive an allowance of £100 towards the cost of china, glass, and plate.

On first appointment Heads of Missions will receive the following allowances towards the cost of linen, blankets, china, glass, and plate, viz. :—

Ambassadors	500
Ambassadors appointed from outside the Diplomatic Service or on first appointment abroad from the Foreign Office .. .	800
Ministers	300
Ministers appointed from outside the Diplomatic Service .. .	400
Ministers appointed from the Foreign Office .. .	400

On transfer Ambassadors and Ministers will receive a further allowance of £100 on this account. An allowance of £100 for uniform will be made on appointment to Heads of Missions who have received no previous allowance for this purpose in a lower rank.

An additional allowance not exceeding £40 will be granted to Ministers, Counsellors, and Secretaries on first appointment to posts where abnormal climatic conditions prevail.

Motor Cars for Heads of Missions.

1. The initial cost of motor cars for the use of Heads of Missions abroad will in future be borne by public funds, all subsequent expenditure on maintenance and repair being borne by the Head of Mission concerned. The motor cars must be standard cars of moderate horse-power, and the purchase in each case must be approved by the Foreign Office beforehand. Such cars will remain the property of His Majesty's Government, and in the case of a change of Head of Mission the car will be taken over by the incoming Ambassador or Minister.

One-half of the cost of the insurance premium on Government-owned cars will be paid from public funds, subject to a maximum annual charge to public funds of £12.

Travelling Expenses.

12. Heads of Missions, Counsellors, and First, Second and Third Secretaries will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, retirement or other public reason, be allowed their travelling expenses in accordance with the conditions laid down in the separate regulations on the subject.

No allowance will be made to Heads of Missions in respect of journeys undertaken in pursuance of leave of absence or for any other private reason.

Counsellors and Secretaries serving at posts outside Europe whose transfer to a fresh post is not contemplated after three years' service thereat will normally be eligible for payment of half travelling expenses (exclusive of subsistence and ship allowances) on leave of absence after the completion of twenty-four months' actual residence at their posts.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

13. As a general rule Secretaries will not be employed for more than three years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Officers placed "en disponibilité."

14. Members of the Diplomatic Service may be placed en disponibilité for a period not exceeding one year for any reason which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient. This period may be extended for a further period of one year, at the expiry of which the officer concerned will have to return to duty provided there is a vacancy available for the purpose. Such periods of disponibilité will not count for pension.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

15. It should be distinctly understood that all members of the Diplomatic Service, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Carriage of Despatches.

16. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Counsellors and Secretaries will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without interruption on the road.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

17. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the King the name of any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it; and generally, in regard to all appointments whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority, or membership of the Service, from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions.

18. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years. At the expiration of five years, the question of an extension of the appointment for a specified term, not exceeding five years, of transfer to another Mission, or of retirement, will be considered by the Secretary of State. An appointment may be renewed more than once, if this appears to the Secretary of State to be desirable on public grounds.

Pensions.

19. With the exception of those members of the Diplomatic Service who exercised their option to remain under the Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, of 1889, all members of the Diplomatic Service are subject, for pension purposes, to the Superannuation (Diplomatic Service) Act, 1929. This Act applies to the members of the Diplomatic Service the provisions of the Superannuation Acts which govern the pensions of Civil Servants, subject to the following modifications :—

(a) In the case of officers serving abroad pension is calculated by reference to the salary and emoluments of officers of corresponding rank serving in the Foreign Office, as shown in the following table, except as regards certain Embassies created since the War at which the Ambassador's salary is £2,250, calculated for pension purposes at £2,500 :—

(a) Diplomatic Grade Abroad.	(b) Corresponding Foreign Office Grade.	(c) Existing Salaries and Emoluments of (b).
Ambassador ..	Under-Secretary of State	£ 3,000
Minister ..	Deputy Under-Secretary of State	2,200
Counsellor ..	Counsellor ..	1,150-50-1,500
1st Secretary	1st Secretary ..	800-30-1,100
2nd and 3rd Secretaries	2nd and 3rd Secretaries	275-25-325-30-625

(b) An Ambassador or Minister may be pensioned before attaining the age of 60 if he has been recalled in the interest of diplomatic relations and cannot be employed elsewhere.

(c) A temporary pension may be awarded on the rupture of diplomatic relations, but without a lump-sum additional allowance.

Obligation of Secrecy.

20. Members of the Diplomatic Service must not, without the express permission of the Secretary of State, publish observations on, or accounts of, their experiences in the countries in which they are, or have been, officially employed, or any information obtained by them in their official capacity. The obligation of secrecy in regard to official experiences and information continues equally after their retirement from active service, and in the event of its being disregarded the Secretary of State will consider himself justified in bringing the circumstances to the notice of Parliament when the estimate providing for the officer's pension is before the House of Commons. The disclosure of information acquired in an official capacity, when such disclosure is contrary to the public interest, is, moreover, punishable under "The Official Secrets Act, 1911 and 1920," by fine and imprisonment.

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service.

21. All applications for leave of absence should be accompanied by an address at which letters will reach the applicant while on leave. Any change of address during the period of leave should be notified in writing to the Under-Secretary of State. Members of the Diplomatic Service, if spending their leave in England, should similarly give notice of the time of their intended departure for their posts. The addresses and other records will be kept by the Registrar.

Candidates for Seats in House of Commons to resign Office.

22. Any officer seeking a seat in the House of Commons shall resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

Management of Societies, Companies, &c.

23. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, industrial or financial firm or company except by the special permission of the Secretary of State.

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual size is as follows:—

For use on shore	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.
For use on shore when specially ordered	4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet.
For use on boats	12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet.
For use on board ship	3 breadths, i.e., 4 feet 6 inches by 2 feet 3 inches.
For use on board ship	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must in boats be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign. The Consular flag is hoisted in boats only and not in ships except when a salute is being given to the Consular Officer concerned, when it is hoisted at the fore.

The distinguishing Flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when ad afloat were approved by Order in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES.

AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz.:—

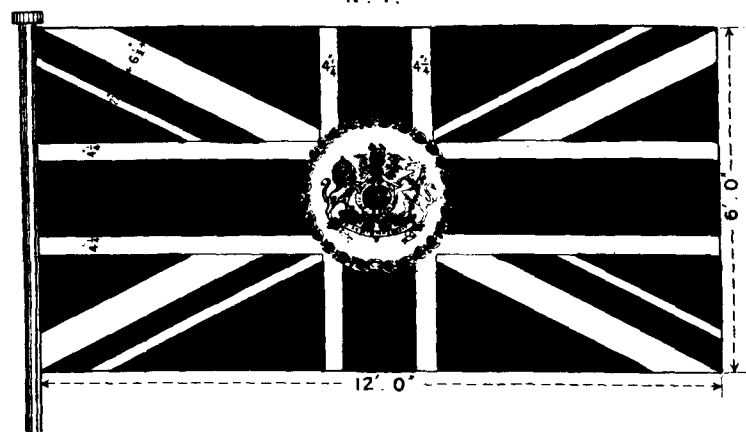

"The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in future the Union Jack to be displayed by the military branch of your Majesty's Service on such occasions shall bear in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, and surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall bear the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield; whilst Consuls and Consular Agents, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all ranks and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorized to fly the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

"A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval."

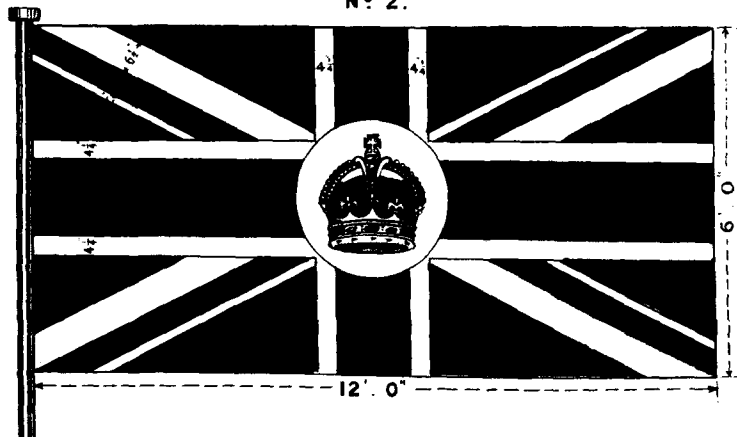

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTE.—British Subjects resident abroad are at liberty to fly their National flag, the Union Jack, on land, unless the Municipal law of the foreign State in which they reside prohibits the use of foreign flags.

OUTFITS [Consular (except China)].—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions.*
(For Diplomatic Outfits see page 108.)

Outfit allowances are granted on the following scale:—

- (a) On first appointment, $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (b) On transfer, with promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (c) On transfer, without promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (d) On promotion in rank, without transfer, $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (e) On first appointment in the Consular service at a place where officer already resides, $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary only.

Promotion in rank is promotion to the rank of Consul-General, Consul, or Consul (Grade II).

The $\$1$ unit is adopted in the calculation of the total outfit allowance. When the fraction does not amount to so much as $2\frac{1}{2}$ 10s., it is abated from the allowance; and when it amounts to $2\frac{1}{2}$ 10s., or more, it is reckoned as $\$1$, and so included in the allowance.

The mean salary is taken as the basis of calculation in all cases in fixing the amount of the outfit allowance.

In the case of new appointments and of transfers and promotions the outfit allowance is not payable until shortly before departure on a direct journey to the new post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).Countries other than China, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 7 of General Consular Instructions.*

Travelling allowances, as specified below, are paid to salaried Consular officers.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to travelling allowances. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

- (a) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant.† In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, for himself and for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed allowance of $5s.$ a night, or of $7s. 6d.$ if accompanied by his wife, to cover gratuities to stewards, &c.

An officer transferred while on leave of absence is paid similar expenses from London, if he is in the United Kingdom, or from such place as he is in outside the United Kingdom, to his new post if, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the circumstances justify such a course.

No charges in connection with luggage will be admitted, except in districts where no railways are available, but, in order to defray the general cost of removal, in the case of land journeys an amount equal to one minimum first class fare each for an officer and his wife, and to one-half of the minimum fare payable for each other member of his family within the limit of four persons,† is granted as a luggage allowance. In the case of journeys by sea an amount equal to one-half of the minimum first-class fare payable on the ship by which the officer travels is granted for himself and for his wife, together with one-quarter of the minimum fare payable for each other member of his family within the above limit as to numbers.

- (b) In the case of certain journeys on leave as defined in paragraphs 5 and 6 of Foreign Office Circular of February 22, 1925, the officer is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, including the carriage of purely personal luggage, and one-half of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph;† and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence allowance on land.

- (c) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate. The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.

- (d) In the case of a voyage by sea formal application must be made to the steamship company for any reduction of fare which may be available for official passengers.

- (e) Consular officers employed on special duty under the authority of the Secretary of State will receive payment of their travelling expenses, which may include either the actual cost of their maintenance or an allowance of $1l.$ a night, according to circumstances, as the Secretary of State may determine.

- (f) If conveyed in a British man-of-war the Consular officer must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and OFFICERS of the FIGHTING SERVICES.

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in

His Majesty's Fighting Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Art. 98, Clause (a).)

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., Colonels, and Group Captains in the Air Force.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders, Majors, and Squadron Leaders in the Air Force.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants R.N., Captains in the Army and Flight Lieutenants.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Major-Generals, Air Vice-Marshal.

PRECEDENCE between DIPLOMATIC and COMMERCIAL DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS and NAVAL, MILITARY and AIR OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(i) Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies and Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after the Diplomatic Counsellor, or at posts where the Staff does not include a Diplomatic Counsellor, next in succession after Diplomatic 1st Secretaries.

(ii) Assistant Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after Diplomatic 2nd Secretaries, excepting at posts where such Assistant Attachés are the only resident Naval, Military or Air representatives, in which case their Place and Precedence will be governed by the provisions of paragraph (i) above as though they held substantive appointments.

(iii) For the purposes of the local diplomatic list, seniority amongst officers of the Foreign Service depends on the date of promotion to the same or equivalent substantive grade (for grades, see under "SALARIES"). Order of precedence in the local list will not affect the general arrangement whereby the officer who takes charge in the absence of the Head of the Mission is the senior officer handling political work.

* No longer applicable to Egypt and Zanzibar.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.
(Embassies and Legations.)

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE OCCUPATION OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

The following Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furnishings, &c., held by His Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of Diplomatic Officers, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Works.

GENERAL.

Definition of "Officer-in-Charge."

1. For the purpose of these Regulations the description "Officer-in-Charge" is used to denote an Ambassador, a Minister, a Chargé d'Affaires, or any other occupant of an official residence.

The Officer-in-Charge to sign an undertaking.

2. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Regulations and, on entering into occupation he shall be required to sign an undertaking in the form shown in the Appendix.

Disputes.

3. The Minister of Works shall, after consultation with the Officer-in-Charge when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and preservation of Government property and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from public funds. If, however, the Officer-in-Charge should be dissatisfied with the decision of the Minister, it shall be open to him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur in the decision of the Minister, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the Minister, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Inventories.

4. At each residence shall be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to His Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and regulations relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Ministry of Works.

Unauthorised alterations or additions to buildings, furnishings, &c.

5. The residence and its fittings and furnishings shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings, or furnishings nor any additional hiring shall be paid for from public funds, unless such alteration, addition or additional hiring shall have been previously approved by the Ministry of Works. Should alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for the expense of restoring such buildings, fittings, or furnishings to their original state.

Inspections by the Ministry of Works.

6. From time to time, the Minister shall cause a survey of the buildings, fittings, and furnishings to be made by one of his representatives. Note will be made of any deficiency, misuse, or damage in respect of Government property, and the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use will be recovered from the Officer-in-Charge.

Care of buildings, furnishings, &c., during absence on leave.

7. Proper arrangements shall be made by the Officer-in-Charge for the safe custody and care of the buildings, furnishings, &c., and for the upkeep of the garden during his absence on leave, and he shall be responsible for the cost of measures taken to this end.

Change of occupation.

8. On change of occupation, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date of his departure and shall leave the premises in a clean and habitable condition. The incoming Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date on which he will take up occupation and, on arrival, he or his representative shall at once check the inventories and certify that the fittings and furnishings are in good condition (fair wear and tear excepted) and complete; or alternatively, report to the Ministry of Works at once any deficiencies or damage so that, if arising from neglect or unfair or improper use the cost may be recovered from the outgoing Officer-in-Charge. In the absence of such a report, the incoming Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for any damage or deficiencies noted at a later date.

To facilitate the checking of the inventories, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall cause all articles temporarily moved from room to room to be returned to the positions indicated in the inventories and all keys to be attached to their respective articles.

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., pending arrival of new Officer-in-Charge.

9. During the interval between the departure of the outgoing Officer-in-Charge and the arrival of the incoming Officer-in-Charge, or on the death of the Officer-in-Charge, the Officer-in-Charge of the post for the time being shall be responsible for the proper custody of the buildings, fittings and furnishings. The arrangements made to this end shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works who will authorise any necessary expenditure pending the arrival of the new Officer-in-Charge, such as the cost of caretaking, heating, lighting and the upkeep of the garden, &c.

(Embassies and Legations.)

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., where there are two residences.

10. At posts where there are two official residences for the use of the Officer-in-Charge, the care of the residence which is unoccupied as well as the residence which is occupied, together with the fittings and furnishings shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge, but the caretaker's wages shall be a charge upon public funds.

Precautions against fire, damage by storm, flood, &c.

11. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for the safe custody of the buildings, fittings, furnishings, &c. He shall take all reasonable precautions against fire and damage by storm or flood and he shall be held responsible for the care and periodical testing of the fire-fighting equipment supplied by the Ministry of Works and Planning. A certificate as to the condition of the fire-fighting equipment shall be forwarded annually to the Ministry of Works.

In the interests of safety he shall consult the Ministry of Works before installing any electric lighting fittings involving additional wiring or any additional electrical appliances, and in no case shall wiring "flex" be permitted to run along skirtings or picture mouldings.

Incinerators provided by the Ministry of Works shall be used for the destruction of old papers, &c., in quantity.

Loss or damage by fire, storm, flood, theft, &c., shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works.

12. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of a contagious or infectious disease in the household of an Officer-in-Charge, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and, if requested, for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the eradication of vermin and for seeing that the residence is kept free from vermin.

Interference with rights appertaining to Government properties.

13. The Officer-in-Charge shall take all steps to protect the rights and amenities appertaining to the property of His Majesty's Government and shall report to the Ministry of Works at once any proposals affecting the same.

Occupation by unauthorised persons.

14. In no circumstances shall the buildings or land or any portion thereof be lent or sublet to or occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to accommodation at Government expense without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works.

17. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, for alterations to buildings or for maintenance services (see paragraphs 20 and 23), or for the purchase or hiring of property, or for the supply or maintenance of fittings and furnishings (see paragraphs 30 and 32), shall be sent to the Ministry of Works accompanied by full particulars of the requirements and their estimated cost in local currency and the sterling equivalent. So far as possible such requirements shall be communicated to the Ministry of Works in reply to the enquiry issued by that Department annually in June as to the requirements of the post for the following year, so that, if approved, provision may be made in the annual Estimates; for in the absence of the necessary provision in the Estimates, it will not be possible to grant requests involving any but the smallest expenditure, except on grounds of urgency.

Where there is a local representative of the Ministry of Works (e.g., at Shanghai for the Far East, except Siam; at Istanbul for South-East Europe and the Middle East; at Tehran for Iran; and local Architects at the majority of the posts elsewhere), such officer shall be consulted by the Officer-in-Charge before submitting requisitions to the Ministry of Works.

The local representative has delegated authority to order ordinary minor redecorations and repairs to both buildings and furnishings. At posts where there is no local representative, the Officer-in-Charge will be given such delegated authority.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should submit their requirements through the Head of Mission.

Shipping arrangements.

18. Goods sent by the Ministry of Works should be unpacked at once and any damage or loss should be reported immediately to the local agent of the shipper and to the Ministry of Works. Should it be necessary for bills of lading to be endorsed before the goods can be examined, the endorsement should be qualified by a note explaining the circumstances, e.g., "signed in order to obtain delivery." The advice note (sent independently of the goods) states to what point delivery is to be made by the shipper, and care should be taken to avoid paying any charges properly payable by him. Usually the shipper bears all dues and outgoings (except customs duty) to the point shown in the advice note.

19. Communications to the Ministry of Works should be addressed as follows:—

Burberrys carry on their tradition for quality and perfection of Officers' Uniforms and Equipment—for the Navy, Army, R.A.F., Consular and Civil occasions.

Burberry materials—perfection of cut and precision to the exactitude demanded by Service Dress, Diplomatic and Levee Uniforms are embodied in the Burberry service.

For leisure moments the name implies the Burberry Weatherproofs, and the best Overcoatings and Suitings—Scottish—Yorkshire and West of England, that are manufactured.
