LINK THE WORLD'S RESOURCES - - -

Time and space are no obstacles to the co-ordination of human activity in exploiting the world's resources, for they are readily conquered by modern Strowger telecommunications. Equipment has been evolved to serve the needs of the smallest community or the entire world with equal facility. Sparsely populated rural areas are provided with the same standard of day and night service as is considered essential for metropolitan and city areas where multi-exchange working, long distance calling and acute "busy-hour" periods complicate the problem.

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual size is as follows:—

For use on shore	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.
For use on shore when specially ordered	4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet.
For use on boats	12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet.
For use on board ship	3 breadths, i.e., 4 feet 6 inches by 2 feet 3 inches.
	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must in boats be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign. The Consular flag is hoisted in boats only and not in ships except when a salute is being given to the Consular Officer concerned, when it is hoisted at the fore.

The distinguishing Flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when afloat were approved by Order in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES. AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz.:—

"The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all Colonies and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorized to use the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

"A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval."

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTE.—British Subjects resident abroad are at liberty to fly their National flag, the Union Jack, on land, unless the Municipal law of the foreign State in which they reside prohibits the use of foreign flags.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and OFFICERS of the FIGHTING SERVICES.

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in His Majesty's Fighting Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, art. 98, Clause (a).)

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Major-Generals, Air Vice-Marshals.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., Colonels, and Group Captains in the Air Force.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders, Majors, and Squadron Leaders in the Air Force.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants R.N., Captains in the Army and Flight Lieutenants.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between DIPLOMATIC and COMMERCIAL DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS and NAVAL, MILITARY and AIR OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(i) Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies and Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after the Diplomatic Counsellor, or at posts where the Staff does not include a Diplomatic Counsellor, next in succession after Diplomatic 1st Secretaries.

(ii) Assistant Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after Diplomatic 2nd Secretaries, excepting at posts where such Assistant Attachés are the only resident Naval, Military or Air representatives, in which case their Place and Precedence will be governed by the provisions of paragraph (i) above as though they held substantive appointments.

(iii) For the purposes of the local diplomatic list, seniority amongst officers of the Foreign Service depends on the date of promotion to the same or equivalent substantive grade (for grades, see under "SALARIES"). Order of precedence in the local list will not affect the general arrangement whereby the officer who takes charge in the absence of the Head of the Mission is the senior officer handling political work.

* No longer applicable to Egypt and Zanzibar.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.
(Embassies and Legations.)

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE OCCUPATION OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

The following Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furnishings, &c., held by His Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of Diplomatic Officers, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Works.

GENERAL.

Definition of "Officer-in-Charge."

1. For the purpose of these Regulations the description "Officer-in-Charge" is used to denote an Ambassador, a Minister, a Chargé d'Affaires, or any other occupant of an official residence.

The Officer-in-Charge to sign an undertaking.

2. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Regulations and, on entering into occupation he shall be required to sign an undertaking in the form shown in the Appendix.

Disputes.

3. The Minister of Works shall, after consultation with the Officer-in-Charge when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and preservation of Government property and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from public funds. If, however, the Officer-in-Charge should be dissatisfied with the decision of the Minister, it shall be open to him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur in the decision of the Minister, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the Minister, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lord Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Inventories.

4. At each residence shall be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to His Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and regulations relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Ministry of Works.

Unauthorised alterations or additions to buildings, furnishings, &c.

5. The residence and its fittings and furnishings shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings, or furnishings nor any additional hiring shall be paid for from public funds, unless such alteration, addition or additional hiring shall have been previously approved by the Ministry of Works. Should the Officer-in-Charge be held responsible not only for the expense of the alteration or additions, but also for the expense of restoring such buildings, fittings, or furnishings to their original state.

Inspections by the Ministry of Works.

6. From time to time, the Minister shall cause a survey of the buildings, fittings, and furnishings to be made by one of his representatives. Note will be made of any deficiency, misuse, or damage in respect of Government property, and the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use will be recovered from the Officer-in-Charge.

Care of buildings, furnishings, &c., during absence on leave.

7. Proper arrangements shall be made by the Officer-in-Charge for the safe custody and care of the buildings, furnishings, &c., and for the upkeep of the garden during his absence on leave, and he shall be responsible for the cost of measures taken to this end.

Change of occupation.

8. On change of occupation, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date of his departure and shall leave the premises in a clean and habitable condition. The incoming Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date on which he will take up occupation and, on arrival, he or his representative shall at once check the inventories and certify that the fittings and furnishings are in good condition (fair wear and tear excepted) and complete; or alternatively, report to the Ministry of Works at once any deficiencies or damage so that, if arising from neglect or unfair or improper use the cost may be recovered from the outgoing Officer-in-Charge. In the absence of such a report, the incoming Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for any damage or deficiencies noted at a later date.

To facilitate the checking of the inventories, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall cause all articles temporarily moved from room to room to be returned to the positions indicated in the inventories and all keys to be attached to their respective articles.

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., pending arrival of new Officer-in-Charge.

9. During the interval between the departure of the outgoing Officer-in-Charge and the arrival of the incoming Officer-in-Charge, or on the death of the Officer-in-Charge, the Officer-in-Charge of the post for the time being shall be responsible for the proper custody of the buildings, fittings and furnishings. The arrangements made to this end shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works who will authorise any necessary expenditure pending the arrival of the new Officer-in-Charge, such as the cost of caretaking, heating, lighting and the upkeep of the garden, &c.

(Embassies and Legations.)

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., where there are two residences.

10. At posts where there are two official residences for the use of the Officer-in-Charge, the care of the residence which is unoccupied as well as the residence which is occupied, together with the fittings and furnishings shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge, but the caretaker's wages shall be a charge upon public funds.

Precautions against fire, damage by storm, flood, &c.

11. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for the safe custody of the buildings, fittings, furnishings, &c. He shall take all reasonable precautions against fire and damage by storm or flood and he shall be held responsible for the care and periodical testing of the fire-fighting equipment supplied by the Ministry of Works. A certificate as to the condition of the fire-fighting equipment shall be forwarded annually to the Ministry of Works.

In the interests of safety he shall consult the Ministry of Works before installing any electric lighting fittings involving additional wiring or any additional electrical appliances, and in no case shall wiring "flex" be permitted to run along skirtings or picture mouldings.

Incinerators provided by the Ministry of Works shall be used for the destruction of old papers, &c., in quantity.

Loss or damage by fire, storm, flood, theft, &c., shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works.

Contagious or infectious diseases: vermin.

12. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of a contagious or infectious disease in the household of an Officer-in-Charge, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and, if requested, for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the eradication of vermin, and for seeing that the residence is kept free from vermin.

Interference with rights appertaining to Government properties.

13. The Officer-in-Charge shall take all steps to protect the rights and amenities appertaining to the property of His Majesty's Government and shall report to the Ministry of Works at once any proposals affecting the same.

Occupation by unauthorised persons.

14. In no circumstances shall the buildings or land or any portion thereof be lent or sublet to or occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to accommodation at Government expense without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works.

Hirings.

15. New premises shall not be hired or existing hirings renewed without the prior sanction of the Ministry of Works.

Auctions.

16. The holding of auctions of private effects in or upon the premises is strictly forbidden.

Requisitions and annual requirements: minor redecorations and repairs.

17. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, for alterations to buildings or for maintenance services (see paragraphs 20 and 23), or for the purchase or hiring of property, or for the supply or maintenance of fittings and furnishings (see paragraphs 30 and 32), shall be sent to the Ministry of Works accompanied by full particulars of the requirements and their estimated cost in local currency and the sterling equivalent. So far as possible such requirements shall be communicated to the Ministry of Works in reply to the enquiry issued by that Department annually in June as to the requirements of the post for the following year, so that, if approved, provision may be made in the annual Estimates; for in the absence of the necessary provision in the Estimates, it will not be possible to grant requests involving any but the smallest expenditure, except on grounds of urgency.

Where there is a local representative of the Ministry of Works (e.g., at Shanghai for the Far East, except Siam; at Istanbul for South-East Europe and the Middle East; at Tehran for Iran; and local Architects at the majority of the posts elsewhere), such officer shall be consulted by the Officer-in-Charge before submitting requisitions to the Ministry of Works.

The local representative has delegated authority to order ordinary minor redecorations and repairs to both buildings and furnishings. At posts where there is no local representative, the Officer-in-Charge will be given such delegated authority.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should submit their requirements through the Head of Mission.

Shipping arrangements.

18. Goods sent by the Ministry of Works should be unpacked at once and any damage or loss should be reported immediately to the local agent of the shipper and to the Ministry of Works. Should it be necessary for bills of lading to be endorsed before the goods can be examined, the endorsement should be qualified by a note explaining the circumstances, e.g., "signed in order to obtain delivery." The advice note (sent independently of the goods) states to what point delivery is to be made by the shipper, and care should be taken to avoid paying any charges properly payable by him. Usually the shipper bears all dues and outgoings (except customs duty) to the point shown in the advice note.

Addresses for correspondence.

19. Communications to the Ministry of Works should be addressed as follows:—

(a) If they are in reply to communications from that Office, in accordance with the directions given at the head of the Ministry of Works notepaper.

(b) By Officers-in-Charge at all posts (including Siam) elsewhere than in the Far East if they refer—

20. The fabric of all Government buildings (including Chancery offices) together with the fixtures and fittings, boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, shall be kept in repair by the Ministry of Works who shall be responsible also for periodical painting, papering and distemping, and for the repair and renewal of the sanitary, water, heating, lighting, refrigerating and cooking installations, except that, where cabinet and refrigerators are concerned, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the costs of cleaning, adjustments and minor repairs, including the replacement of small parts. 21. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys and the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, tanks and cisterns. He shall defray also the cost of fuel and stoking, gas, water, oil and electric current.

Where water is supplied from wells or waterworks controlled by His Majesty's Government the cost of raising or otherwise handling the water for all purposes shall, except where other arrangements have been authorised, be borne by him.

22. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official fixtures and fittings and for the cost of repair of

23. The sanction of the Ministry of Works shall be obtained before redecorations, repairs or renewals are effected (see paragraph 17), but when these are urgently necessary, the Officer-in-Charge may have the work done, subject to the covering approval of the Ministry of Works. The Officer-in-Charge shall, however, report the circumstances immediately and be prepared to prove the urgency and necessity of the work.

Frequency of redecorations.

24. External painting or colour washing shall not as a rule be done more frequently than once in every three or four years, nor internal redecoration more frequently than once in every six or seven years, but any necessary redecoration will be done on each change of occupation. Such work at other times than these shall not be paid for from public funds unless specially authorised beforehand by the Ministry of Works, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by storm, fire, &c.

25. "Uniform & Equipment at its best"

Regd. Trade Mark

In times of peace

Burberrys carry on their tradition for quality and perfection of Officers' Uniforms and Equipment—for the Navy, Army, R.A.F., Consular and Civil occasions.

Burberry materials—perfection of cut and precision to the exactitude demanded by Service Dress, Diplomatic and Levee Uniforms are embodied in the Burberry service.

For leisure moments the name implies the Burberry Weatherproofs, and the best Overcoatings and Suitings—Scottish—Yorkshire and West of England, that are manufactured.
