III.—Ingredients and instructions.

1. Half an ounce of sugar and half the daily supply of milk are to be issued for the tea at breakfast.
2. For supper, 1 ounce of sugar may be issued with the remaining half of the milk ration. Part of the sugar for this meal can be used with the suji gruel, if desired.
3. On five days of the week, all the articles issued for dinner can be made into a curry.
4. On the remaining two days (1 fish and 1 meat day), the meat is to be issued in hash with the potatoes, and the fish is to be fried and given with boiled potatoes; the remaining articles are to be made into a curry.
5. A pint of tea is to be made from each quarter of an ounce of dry tea and it is not to be infused for more than four minutes.
6. The allowance of meat is to be exclusive of bone, and that of fish exclusive of heads and fins.
7. The best brown bread is to be issued.

† 2 oz. of dhal may be replaced thrice a week by 2 oz. of smoked or dried fish or 4 oz. of fresh fish.

- (1) All prisoners of whatever class who, prior to admission to jail, were accustomed to eat rice to the exclusion of other grains, and all convict warders shall be given rice in lieu of an equal weight of ragi.

B.—DIET SCALE FOR INDIAN PRISONERS—concluded.

- (2) Indian prisoners shall receive three meals daily, the food being distributed as follows:—

|         | Males sentenced to labour. | Other prisoners. |
|---------|----------------------------|------------------|
| Morning | 4                          | 4                |
| Midday  | 9                          | 7                |
| Evening | 7                          | 7                |

- (3) The morning meal of ragi, or rice in the case of exclusive rice-eaters, shall be issued immediately after unlocking. The ragi may be given in cake or gruel and the rice either boiled or as a rice hopper.

- (4) The midday meal shall be at 11 a.m. and in the case of those on mixed diet shall be of ragi.

- (5) The evening meal shall be given on completion of the day's work; those on mixed diet will receive 7 oz. of rice on five days and 7 oz. of ragi on two days of the week.

- (6) Europeans and Anglo-Indians shall receive the usual three meals, viz., breakfast, dinner and supper, at the hours at which food is distributed to Indian prisoners.

INDIAN SANDHURST COMMITTEE.

REPORT.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY.

1. Our Committee, known as the Indian Sandhurst Committee or otherwise as the Skeen Committee, was appointed in June, 1927. The official communiqué announcing its constitution was as follows :—

“ In the Legislative Assembly on the 14th March last, in the course of the general discussion on the budget the Hon'ble Sir Alexander Muddiman gave an undertaking that the Government of India would consider the appointment of a Committee to examine the means of attracting the best qualified Indian youths to a military career and of giving them a suitable military education. With the concurrence of the Secretary of State, the Government of India have now definitely decided to appoint such a Committee. The Chairman will be Lieutenant-General Sir Andrew Skeen, K.C.B., K.C.I.E., C.M.G., Chief of the General Staff in India. The Government of India are not yet in a position to announce further details, but the Committee will include non-official members representing both the military classes of the population and Indian political opinion.”

2. Terms of Reference.—The terms of reference to the Committee, as finally framed by the Government of India, are as follows :—

“ To enquire and report :—

- (a) By what means it may be possible to improve upon the present supply of Indian candidates for the King's Commission both in regard to number and quality.
- (b) Whether it is desirable and practicable to establish a Military College in India to train Indians for the commissioned ranks of the Indian Army.
- (c) If the answer to (b) is in the affirmative, how soon should the scheme be initiated and what steps should be taken to carry it out.

FOREWORD BY THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

In issuing the report of the Indian Sandhurst Committee, the Government consider it necessary to emphasise that neither they nor His Majesty's Government have yet formed their conclusions on it, and that those conclusions must necessarily take account of certain factors of which it was not within the province of the Committee to undertake a complete survey. For example, although the Committee's recommendations in themselves are designed primarily with a view to Indian conditions, the problems of recruitment and training of King's commissioned officers for whatever service are essentially an Imperial concern, and any proposals reacting on them will require close scrutiny by His Majesty's Government and their Military Advisers. Again, the Government when called upon to deal with any scheme of increasing Indianisation extending over a number of years must leave themselves free to consider whether the basis of that scheme offers the sure stable line of advance towards the creation of a Dominion Army, or whether alternative methods which did not fall within the Committee's terms of reference might not more profitably be explored. The Committee's report will thus be used as a starting point for discussions with His Majesty's Government to whom the Government of India will in due course forward their considered views on it.

G. M. YOUNG,

Secretary to the Government of India.

ARMY DEPARTMENT,

SIMLA ;

April 1st, 1927.

- (d) Whether, if a Military College is established in India, it should supersede or be supplemented by Sandhurst and Woolwich so far as the training of Indians for the commissioned ranks of the Indian Army is concerned."

3. Composition of the Committee.—The Committee, as finally constituted, was composed as follows :—

Chairman :

Lieut.-General Sir Andrew Skeen, K.C.B., K.C.I.E., C.M.G.,
Chief of the General Staff.

Members :

Sardar Bahadur, late 18th Lancers.

Major Bala Sahib Daffé, 7th Rajput Regiment.

Mr. E. Burdon, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India in the Army Department.

Pandit Motilal Nehru tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee on March 11th, 1926.

4. The proceedings of the Committee.—The Committee held their first meeting at Simla on August 12th, 1925 and between that date and August 22nd a series of preliminary discussions took place for the purpose of settling their future course of action. Opinions were exchanged upon various matters arising out of the terms of reference, and a decision was arrived at as to the form which the Committee's questionnaires should take and as to what further measures should be adopted for the purpose of collecting evidence. In order to give the members an opportunity of acquainting themselves with the various implications of the problems set and to ensure also that as far as possible the questionnaires would be complete, a number of specially chosen experts, both military and civil, were asked to give oral evidence of a preliminary character between August 28th and September 12th. These included the Commandant and Headmaster of the Prince of Wales' Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, Lieut.-General Sir John Shea, Adjutant-General in India, Mr. E. Littlehales, Officiating Educational Commissioner with the Government of India, Sir Sivaswamy Aiyer, and Mr. F. A. Leslie Jones, Principal of the Mayo College, Ajmer. After hearing these witnesses the Committee completed and issued their questionnaires, after which they adjourned until December by which time it was expected that all replies would be received. Separate questionnaires numbering ten in all were framed for the Governors of Provinces and Local Governments, the General Public, Educational Authorities, Indian States, Commanding Officers of Indian King's Commissioned officers trained at Sandhurst, Parents of Indian King's Commissioned officers trained at Sandhurst, Indian King's Commissioned officers trained at Indore, Indian King's Commissioned officers trained at Sandhurst, and Viceroy's Commissioned officers. A special questionnaire was also sent to all Indian Universities with regard to the possibility of their recognising the course of training at the Prince of Wales' Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, as conferring an educational qualification equivalent to some University standard. Of necessity, certain of the questionnaires and the replies received have been treated as confidential.

The Committee met again in Delhi on December 14th, 1925 and proceeded to consider the replies received to their questionnaires and to take the oral evidence of further specially expert witnesses, of military witnesses of all categories and of others who appeared from their replies to the questionnaires to be able to supply further information of value. Meetings were held daily for this purpose from December 14th to 23rd, and again later between January 8th and 16th, January 29th and February 6th, and February 18th and 27th. On February 28th at the kind invitation of Dr. Ziauddin Ahmad a visit was paid by the Committee to Aligarh and there the evidence of three members of the University staff was taken. In all the following witnesses were examined orally :—

|                                          |    |
|------------------------------------------|----|

| Representatives of Indian States .. .. . | 4  |

|                                                                    |    |

| Indian King's Commissioned officers trained at Sandhurst .. .. .   | 20 |
| Viceroy's Commissioned officers .. .. .                            | 5  |

The civilian witnesses examined represented all shades of thought and all parts of India and included gentlemen well known in the public life of India such as Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, Dr. Paranjpye and Sir Purshotamdas Thakurdas from Bombay, Mr. Venkataswami Raju, Dr. Meston, Mr. S. Satyamurti from Madras, Col. Nawab Malik Sir Umar Hayat Khan, Sir George Anderson and Captain Ajah Khan from the Punjab, Dr. Sir Hari Singh Gour from Delhi, Dr. Chakravarti from the United Provinces, Mr. T. C. Goswami from Bengal, and U Tok Kyi from Burma. Among those representing Indian States was Sir Prabhaskar Pattani, formerly a member of the Executive Council of Bombay and of the India Council, while Lieut.-Colonel H. A. J. Gidney spoke on behalf of the Anglo-Indian Community.

At an early stage in the Committee's proceedings it was decided that it would be advisable that a Sub-Committee should be sent to England, and possibly also to other countries, to study at first hand the military training institutions there and also the system of education which usually precedes admission to a purely military college. It was originally proposed that this Sub-Committee should consist of five members, and the Committee selected for the purpose Pandit Motilal Nehru, Mr. Jinnah, Nawab Sir Sahibzada Abdul Qaiyum, the Hon'ble Sir Phiroze Sethna and Major Thakur Zorawar Singh. All of these agreed in the first instance to undertake the mission, but later Pandit Motilal Nehru resigned from the main Committee and Nawab Sir Sahibzada Abdul Qaiyum was unable for personal reasons to leave India. Their places were not filled since it had been recognised from the beginning that the Sub-Committee could not and need not be representative of different interests to the same extent as the main Committee and it was felt in the end that a smaller deputation would be able to carry out more expeditiously and effectively the duties delegated to them. Accordingly the Sub-Committee, as finally constituted, consisted of Mr. Jinnah, Sir Phiroze Sethna, and Major Zorawar Singh. Leaving India about the beginning of April, 1926, the members first met in London at the end of April. They visited educational institutions of all kinds in England and also toured in France, Canada and the United States. They were provided before they left India with a complete list of all points on which the main Committee desired them to obtain information in the various countries they visited. They returned to India on August 13th, 1926.

Meanwhile a second Sub-Committee consisting of Lieut.-General Sir Andrew Skeen, Dr. Ziauddin Ahmad and Major Bala Sahib Daffé, had set out on August 8th on a tour of Indian Universities for the purpose of studying on the spot the extent to which suitable candidates for an Army career are to be found in these institutions. This Sub-Committee visited Bombay, Poona, Madras, Calcutta, Benares and Allahabad. The Punjab and Aligarh Universities were omitted because at the time they were closed for the summer vacation.

The main Committee met again in Simla between August 22nd and 28th, 1926, and after considering the evidence previously collected and the further information supplied by the two Sub-Committees formulated their conclusions and gave instructions for the drafting of their report. The report was considered and passed at two final sessions held at Delhi and Bombay from the 23rd October to the 4th November, 1926.

CHAPTER II.

THE FIRST TERM OF REFERENCE.

(a) "By what means it may be possible to improve upon the present supply of Indian candidates for the King's Commission both in regard to number and quality".

5. Introductory.—Our first term of reference, reproduced above, implies that the number of Indian candidates who seek the King's Commission in the Indian Army, and possess the requisite qualifications for service in that capacity, is at present conspicuously small. The proposition so stated reflects a condition of affairs far from satisfactory, which might have been avoided, but which for the moment actually exists. We will review briefly the facts upon which the proposition is based and will then proceed to examine the causes of the deficiency as revealed by the evidence which we have heard. But it will be convenient, in the first place, to give a short historical account of the steps which have so far been taken to attract Indians to the career in question.

6. Historical retrospect.—Before 1918, Indians were not eligible to hold the King's Commission, that is to say, the Commission which is held by the British officers of the British and Indian Armies. For more than forty years the exponents of the political and national aspirations of the Indian people had demanded insistently on the platform of the Indian National Congress and elsewhere that Indians should be given opportunities of service in the Indian Army equal to those enjoyed by their British fellow subjects. But this demand has so far met with no substantial response from Government. It is true that in 1905 a special form of King's Commission in His Majesty's Native Indian Land Forces had been instituted for those Indian gentlemen who passed successfully through the full course of the Imperial Cadet Corps. But this commission carried only the power of command over Indian troops, and the holders of it, as they could not rise above the position of company officer in a regimental unit, had no effective military career open to them. Again, in 1918 the honourable part played by India in the Great War and the invaluable service which India then rendered to the Empire brought to Indians the realisation in some measure of the privilege which they had long claimed to be theirs as of right. Indians were declared eligible on equal terms with British youths to receive the King's Commission in His Majesty's Land Forces, which carries with it the power of command over British as well as Indian troops. In pursuance of the decision last mentioned, the Great War being still in progress, a cadet school with accommodation for 50 cadets was opened at Indore in October, 1918, for the purpose of providing Indian cadets with the necessary military training, while in addition ten vacancies per annum were allotted to Indians at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. The Indore school, which was only opened as a temporary expedient to meet the special needs of the war, was closed after one year's existence. 49 cadets were admitted to Indore and 39 were granted King's Commissions. Since then King's Commissions are granted only to those Indian boys who are trained and qualify at Sandhurst.

The Montague-Chelmsford report on Indian constitutional reforms contains a reference to the problem of the Indianisation of the higher ranks of the Indian Army which may appropriately be here repeated :—

"There remains one item the importance of which in the eyes of India outweighs all others. British commissions have for the first time been granted to Indian officers. . . . The services of the Indian Army in the war and the great increase in its size make it necessary that a considerable number of commissions should now be given."

The view of Lord Chelmsford and Mr. Montague, as expressed in the first sentence of the above quotation, was amply confirmed by the result of discussions which took place in the Legislative Assembly in the years 1921, 1923 and 1925, in the last of which the genesis of this Committee is to be found.* But the fact remains that there

*NOTE.—The following resolutions on the subject have been adopted by the Legislative Assembly :—

(i) Resolution 7 of March 28th, 1921 :—"This Assembly recommends to the Governor-General in Council :—

(a) That the King Emperor's Indian subjects should be freely admitted to all arms of His Majesty's military, naval, and air forces in India and the ancillary services and the auxiliary forces, that every encouragement should be given to Indians—including the educated middle classes—subject to the prescribed standards of fitness, to enter the commissioned ranks of the Army and that, in nominating candidates for the entrance examination, unofficial Indians should be associated with the nominating authority, and in granting King's Commissions, after giving full regard to the claims to promotion of officers of the Indian Army who already hold the commission of His Excellency the Viceroy, the rest of the commissions granted should be given to the cadets trained at Sandhurst. The general rule in selecting candidates for this training should be that the large majority of the selections should be from the communities which furnish recruits, and as far as possible in proportion to the numbers in which they furnish such recruits.

(b) That not less than 25 per cent. of the King's commissions granted every year should be given to His Majesty's Indian subjects to start with." (Legislative Assembly Debates, 1921, Vol. I, No. 15, page 1753).

(ii) Resolution 8 of March 28th, 1921 :—"This Assembly recommends to the Governor-General in Council :—

has in the meantime been no advance upon the ten vacancies at Sandhurst originally allotted : and moreover, Indian King's Commissioned officers are still only eligible for employment in the cavalry and infantry arms, and they are not employed as King's Commissioned officers in the Artillery, Engineer, Signal, Tank and Air arms of the Army in India.

In the circumstances described it was realised that the profession thus opened to Indians by the decision of 1918 would be unfamiliar and arduous, and that some special concessions would be necessary, at any rate in the first instance, to induce suitable candidates to come forward. From the first it had been laid down that Indian boys should merely have to compete among themselves for the ten reserved vacancies at Sandhurst and should not have to compete for admission with British boys ; the standard adopted for the entrance examination in India was, as it still is, lower than that demanded in England ; the age limit was raised by one year in order to compensate for the later educational development of the average Indian boy, due largely to his having to learn his lessons in a foreign language ; and, although at this time the examination for entrance to the Indian Civil Service was held only in England, it was arranged

- (a) That adequate facilities should be provided in India for the preliminary training of Indians to fit them to enter the Royal Military College, Sandhurst.
- (b) That as soon as funds be available, steps should be taken to establish in India a Military College, such as Sandhurst and the desirability of establishing in India training and educational institutions for other branches of the Army should be steadily kept in view". (Legislative Assembly Debates, 1921, Vol. I, No. 15, page 1754).

(Legislative Assembly Debates, 1923, Vol. III, No. 69, page 4301).
- (iv) Resolution passed on February 19th, 1925 :—" This Assembly recommends to the Governor General in Council that a Committee including Indian Members of the Legislature be immediately appointed to investigate and report :
  - (a) what steps should be taken to establish a military college in India to train Indian officers for the commissioned ranks of the Indian Army ;
  - (b) whether, when a military college is established in India, it should supersede or be supplemented by Sandhurst and Woolwich so far as the training of Indian officers is concerned ; and that the Army entrance examination for Indian boys, resident in India, should be held in India. The passages of successful candidates to and from the United Kingdom are paid from public funds. Indian boys were made eligible for King's India Cadetships at Sandhurst on the same terms as British boys. Finally, in order to reduce the educational handicap, the Prince of Wales' Royal Indian Military College was opened at Dehra Dun in March, 1922 with a capacity of 70 cadets for the purpose of giving prospective candidates for the army an education, commencing from an early age and on English public school lines, such as would fit them not only for the entrance examination but also for the subsequent ordeal of the Sandhurst course of training, and for their future association in the Army with British comrades.
  - (c) to advise at what rate Indianisation of the Army shall be accelerated for the purpose of attracting educated Indians to a military career." (Legislative Assembly Debates, 1925, Vol. V, No. 19, page 1273).

7. The present method of selecting candidates.—Candidates for the Army entrance examination held in India are selected, that is to say, the system at present in force is not one of open competitive examination. The procedure laid down is, briefly, as follows. Some months beforehand the Government of India inform Local Governments and Administrations of the date fixed for the examination, and issue a communiqué to the press to the same effect. On receipt of this information the Local Governments publish a notification in the Local Government Gazette, issue a notice to the press of the Province, and address local officials and in some cases educational authorities announcing the date of the examination and calling for the names of would-be candidates. The procedure according to which applications to sit at the examination have to be submitted varies from Province to Province, but as a general rule it is necessary for the applicant to send his name in the first instance to the Deputy Commissioner of his district, who forwards the application, if approved by him, to the Commissioner, who in his turn forwards it to the Local Government, if approved by him. Either the Deputy Commissioner or the Commissioner may reject the application of a candidate whom these authorities consider to be unsuitable. In some cases educational authorities are permitted to send in names direct to the Local Government. All these authorities are instructed expressly to select candidates as a general rule from communities which furnish recruits for the Army. It is at the same time laid down in the regulations that the claims of candidates from the educated middle classes should receive consideration.* A candidate whose applica-

*NOTE.—Paragraph 4 of the "Provisional Regulations respecting Admission of Indian Gentlemen to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, England, 1925" lays down that :—"The general rule in selecting candidates should be that selections should be made from the communities which furnish recruits, in proportion to the numbers in which they furnish such recruits. Regard should also be had to the claims to consideration of candidates from the educated middle classes."

tion reaches the Local Government is summoned in due course to appear before a Provincial selection board presided over as a rule by His Excellency the Governor and including usually one or more non-official Indian gentlemen of standing in the Province. Should the candidate be considered suitable by this board, his name is forwarded to the Government of India and he is permitted to sit for the competitive entrance examination. This examination consists of a written test, a medical test, and an oral examination by a board consisting of two senior military officers who have held command of Indian regiments, and an educational officer nominated by His Excellency the Viceroy. On the combined results of these three tests the final selection of candidates is made by His Excellency the Viceroy, who recommends those selected to the Secretary of State for India for admission to Sandhurst.

8. The Indianisation of eight units of the Indian Army.—While, as has been stated, no increase has been made in the number of vacancies for which Indian candidates are eligible and there has consequently been no acceleration of the pace of Indianisation, the method of Indianisation was in 1923 altered to a special form under what is known as the "eight units scheme" designed to test the practicability of successful Indianisation in the Army. The scheme can best be described in the words of the announcement made in the Legislative Assembly by the late Lord Rawlinson, then Commander-in-Chief in India, on the 17th February, 1923 :—

"Speaking in this Assembly on the 24th January last, I expressed the hope that it would be possible to announce at no very distant date what measures are to be adopted in regard to the Indianisation of the Indian Army. In the short interval that has elapsed the correspondence which I then said was proceeding has been concluded, and I am able to announce to the House the following decision. The Government consider that a start should be made at once so as to give Indians a fair opportunity of proving that units officered by Indians will be efficient in every way. Accordingly it has been decided that eight units of cavalry or infantry be selected to be officered by Indians. This scheme will be put into force immediately. The eight units to be wholly Indianised will be mainly infantry units, but there will be a proportion of cavalry. They will be chosen judiciously so as to include as many representative types as possible of Indian battalions and cavalry regiments of the Indian Army. Indian Officers holding commissions

Cf. also paragraph 8 of "Information respecting conditions of admission to the Prince of Wales' Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun (Revised 1924) " :—"In selecting the candidates whom they desire to recommend, the local authorities referred to in rule 12 will give special consideration to the sons of Indian officers of good service : and their recommendations will always include a proportion of candidates of this class, if available and suitable."

in the Indian Army will be gradually transferred to Indianising units so as to fill up the appointments for which they are qualified by their rank and by their length of service, and the process of Indianising these units will then continue uninterruptedly as the officers gain seniority and fitness in other respects, which will qualify them for the senior posts. I have given the House these few details because I think they will be of interest as revealing some of the practical aspects of the change. There is one other point, however, which it is necessary for me to explain. It is that, simultaneously with the Indianisation of these selected eight units, Indians who qualify for the King's Commission will continue as at present to be posted to the other units of the Indian Army. The number of Indian cadets now sent to Sandhurst each year, if all pass out successfully, is more than sufficient to replace the normal wastage in the eight units alone."

9. Results achieved.—Since 1918, there have been all told 83 vacancies at Sandhurst exclusively reserved for Indian cadets, three extra vacancies having been allotted at different times for the purpose of replacing boys who, having secured admission to Sandhurst, failed to proceed there or who were removed shortly after admission. For these vacancies only 243 boys have competed in India. 16 Indian boys educated in England have been passed by the Selection Board at the India Office : and, these being included, the total number of Indian boys who have gained admission to Sandhurst has coincided with the number of vacancies allotted, i.e., 83. Of these, 18 boys are still at Sandhurst, having not yet completed the prescribed course of training : 44 have passed out successfully : 2 died and 19 failed to qualify. The percentage of failure among the boys who have to date completed the Sandhurst course has been approximately 30 : the corresponding percentage of failure among British boys at Sandhurst is approximately 3.

Of the 44 Indian boys who have passed successfully out of Sandhurst, 42 now remain in the Indian Army. The other two have, for different reasons, resigned their commissions.

Of the 83 boys who passed the Sandhurst entrance examination 35 were residents of the Punjab, 12 belonged to Bombay, 9 each to the United Provinces and Bengal, 5 to the North-West Frontier Province 3 each to Rajputana and Hyderabad, 2 each to Burma and Coorg and 1 each to Behar, Assam and the Central India Agency.

These figures speak for themselves and require little comment from us. But we are bound to add that the simple inference which the statistics suggest is confirmed by the reports of the various Boards of Examiners which have conducted the entrance examination in India and by most of the reports submitted by the Sandhurst authorities on the earlier contingents of Indian cadets. Recently, since the products of Dehra Dun have appeared at Sandhurst, there have been more encouraging results. But even so the system which exists to-day in regard to the recruitment of Indians as King's Commissioned officers has resulted in failure. The number of candidates who appear is insignificant, and the few vacancies allotted at Sandhurst are filled with the greatest difficulty. Yet it is hard to believe, and we do not believe, that among the 300 million inhabitants of India, there does not exist a supply of potentially valuable material sufficient to provide competent Indian King's Commissioned officers in much larger numbers than are at present forthcoming. The system of recruitment is defective, and it is this system which must be attacked. From the national point of view and from a wider standpoint also it is imperative that the best material wherever it exists should be sought for and encouraged. His Excellency Sir Malcolm Hailey, Governor of the Punjab, has said in his evidence—

“The matter is in my opinion one of supreme importance. India is gradually losing the somewhat isolated position it has occupied for the last two generations in the politics of Asia, and will have to meet complications of a different character than the purely frontier disturbances with which it has been familiar of late years. It is a point on which I need not enlarge; the facts are too well known; but it appears to me of supreme importance to secure the best possible material for Indian officers of the Army.”

Sir Prabhaskar Pattani in his evidence has stated the other and wider aspect of the matter—

“My point of view is not from the point of view of Indianisation against Europeanisation. I am only treating it as an Imperial question. It is in the interest of the Empire itself that every component part, every limb of the Empire, should be equally strong so that no weak link or organ, no weak part of the body, should be so weak as to hamper the whole of the body in the event of a great danger.”

With these opinions and sentiments we wholly agree. The view of Government must, we take it, be the same and further argument or exposition on our part would therefore be superfluous.

CAUSES OF THE PRESENT FAILURE.

10. The past policy of Government.—Many and various reasons have been assigned for the unsatisfactory state of affairs described above. The root cause is plain to see. It consists in the fact that until 8 years ago Indians were wholly excluded from positions of high responsibility in the army, all military appointments carrying the King's Commission being held by Europeans alone. The potency of this cause will be at once appreciated when it is remembered that in the United Kingdom the great majority of army officers are drawn from families with traditions of military service and military distinction extending through many generations. In India, and so far as Indians are concerned, the position is entirely different. As is well known, there are classes of the population with whom the profession of arms is hereditary, and prima facie these should readily produce good material of the kind required: but their experience of military service is confined to service in the ranks, or service as Viceroy's Commissioned officers whose authority and responsibilities are narrowly limited. The King's Commission is now open to those Indians also who do not belong to the so-called martial classes, that is to say, to Indians of classes which, owing to the comparative smallness of the Indian Army and on the principle of the survival of the militarily fittest, are not enlisted in the Indian Army at all. These have no recent tradition of military service of any kind. It is in fact not too much to say that until quite recently the educated middle classes have been definitely debarred from a career as military officers in the army of their country.

In addition to the other factors which have been mentioned, sections of Indian political opinion charge Government with having increased unnecessarily the difficulties in the path through the restrictions of the Arms Act, or, as political opinion expresses it, the disarmament of the people.

In these circumstances it is not surprising that there should be on the part of the generality of Indians great and widespread ignorance of the possibilities of a career in the higher ranks of the army and a corresponding lack of impulse to seek out that career and adopt it. We have in the course of our inquiries heard doubts expressed whether a strong and genuine military spirit, such as is essential to the training and command of troops, can be created or, it may be said, revived in the people of India as a whole. It is suggested that in certain parts of the country climatic influences and detachment from the immediate menace of any form of external aggression constitute a natural and perhaps insuperable obstacle. But even those who express such doubts and suggestions would not proceed to urge that the Government should refrain from attempting to build up a military tradition more comprehensive and more widely diffused than that which exists at present.

The task which the Government have laid upon themselves is not easy. In view of the past exclusion of Indians from the higher ranks of the army, in view also of the past history, in other respects, of India under British rule, of her past dependence upon others for the higher administration of the country, both civil and military, there are difficulties which it will require a special degree of patience, wisdom and sympathy to surmount. The remaining causes which have been represented to us are in the main particular manifestations of the general root cause which we have here described. It is important to examine them in some detail because the process not infrequently suggests the specific remedy required. But to see the problem as a whole in proper perspective, it is in our opinion essential constantly to bear in mind the primary facts and considerations set forth in this paragraph.

11. Defects in the educational system of India.—One of our most authoritative witnesses has said "It must be recognised that the system of education in India differs so widely from that in England that Indian boys are at a real disadvantage in complying with a test such as is required for entrance into Sandhurst". The truth of this statement is beyond question. The British officer of the Indian Army upon whose standards the test for entrance into Sandhurst is based is the product of a very highly organised system of education of which at present no counterpart exists in India, except in so far as some of the features of the English public school have been incorporated in the Prince of Wales' Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun. The English boy usually proceeds to a preparatory school at the age of 7—8 years, and thence at the age of 13—14 years to a public school where he remains until he passes into Sandhurst at the age of 18—19 years. In both types of school, he is as a rule away from his home. Apart from the literary education he receives, a great deal of attention is paid to the training of his character by means of games and the throwing of responsibility for much of the school discipline on the shoulders of the boys themselves. It is claimed that in this way the power of leadership and the spirit of initiative are strongly developed. Much attention is paid to physical training and in the public schools a measure of military training can be obtained in the Officers' Training Corps, membership of which is however not compulsory. The ordinary schools and colleges of India do not provide these special advantages, nor does the ordinary curriculum in these institutions cover the subjects of the army entrance examination. In addition, the Indian boy usually commences his real education at a later age than the English boy and is then further handicapped by having to imbibe his literary instruction through the medium of a foreign language. It must be frankly acknowledged therefore that the early education and training which the average Indian boy receives is much less complete than that which a boy enjoys in England, France or America : and consequently the Indian boy in present circumstances is handicapped in competition with British boys of equal age, especially in a sphere where physical considerations and general aptitude for dealing with and controlling men are of equal importance with purely intellectual attainments.

It follows that material reforms will be required in the matter of educational organisation and methods before Indian schools and colleges can hope to produce a regular flow of Indian boys fitted in every way to hold the King's Commission, and we make recommendations on this subject in another part of our report. At this point we wish to emphasise the fact that the present deficiencies in the Indian educational system have a necessary connexion with the past policy of Government in regard to the admission of Indians to the higher ranks of the Army. In England the educational system has been definitely adapted, in part at any rate, to the production of efficient leaders of men. In India the educational authorities have had no encouragement to adopt a similar policy : there have been no similar openings for which to train their boys.

12. The age limit.—At present an Indian boy is required to qualify for admission to Sandhurst before attaining the age of 20, this being higher by one year than the age limit prescribed in the case of British boys. It has been represented to us that the age limit for Indian boys should be raised still further as compensation for the handicaps of early education to which we have previously referred. But to raise the age limit for admission to Sandhurst and consequently the age at which the boy is commissioned would bring in its train disadvantages in the boy's subsequent military career. The proper solution for the disability with which we are here dealing is that education should be commenced at an earlier age than is usual at present and that the methods of education should be reformed. Ultimately we think it would be a desirable result if British and Indian boys were commissioned at the same age and entered the service together on an equal footing in regard to age as well as in other respects.

13. Lack of publicity and suitable propaganda.—We have already referred to the wide-spread ignorance which exists regarding a career in the Army, and we believe this to be due in part to lack of publicity. We find that witnesses from the Punjab alone are satisfied with the official information which is at present issued on the subject. Witnesses from other parts of India have stated almost unanimously that Government have not sufficiently studied or practised methods of publicity and that far more should be done to educate the people to a knowledge of the merits of a King's Commissioned officer's career, of the qualifications required by intending candidates or of the means by which such qualifications may be secured.

14. Defects in present method of selection.—There are certain features in the present method of selection which have been strongly and we think justifiably condemned by many of our witnesses. In the first place it is regarded as seriously objectionable that the channel of application should be so rigidly official and that the intending candidate should have so many official stages to traverse, the scrutiny by the Deputy Commissioner, the scrutiny by the Commissioner and finally the selection by the Governor and his advisers, before he gains the right to appear at the entrance examination. It is contended, correctly as we think, that the local officials are not in intimate contact with certain classes of the community capable of supplying suitable candidates and that candidates tend therefore to be drawn almost exclusively from the families of officials, serving and retired, and from the families generally of individuals who, for one reason or other, are concerned to maintain close relations with Government and Government officials. It is urged that in India as in England the educational authorities, who possess valuable knowledge of a boy's school character and educational qualifications, should be allowed to play a prominent part in the initial selection of candidates. In the second place, it is urged, and we agree, that it is undesirable that the power of rejecting a candidate altogether should be vested not only in the Local Government but also in the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner. It is probable, we think, that candidates, particularly those who have no official connexion, would be deterred from even approaching so formidable a series of tests. A third deterrent on which emphasis has been laid from the point of view of the general public is the fact that the instructions to the selecting authorities definitely imply that the sons of soldiers are to be given preference. Finally, it has been represented that while in England specific arrangements have been made to enable efficient non-commissioned officers to qualify for promotion to commissioned rank, no corresponding provision has been made in India to enable Viceroy's Commissioned officers to gain the King's Commission, though these as a class possess military traditions and military qualities of great value, and on their co-operation and good will the success of the Indianisation of the army must largely depend.

15. Objections to Sandhurst.—Another check upon the flow of candidates has undoubtedly been the necessity of proceeding to Sandhurst for military training. The average Indian parent has been and still is reluctant to send his son, at an impressionable age, to a distant foreign country of which very probably he has no personal knowledge himself. The idea of separation is in itself repugnant : but there has also been in the minds of many parents the natural fear that their sons would not be able to acquit themselves with credit in an atmosphere so utterly unfamiliar as that of a British military college, governed by a stern discipline, in which the Indian element is liable to be swamped by an overwhelming majority of British boys with whom the Indian cadets can as a rule have little in common. There has also been the fear of exposure to temptations which the Indian boy, from lack of experience alone, might not be able to resist. The problem of how the Indian boy should spend his holidays presents further difficulties : and we have also reason to believe that the arrangements which at present exist for the official guardianship of Indian cadets are not at all satisfactory. We are aware that many Indian parents of their own volition send their sons to European Universities in order to obtain some form of academic or professional training : and such boys have not the protection which is afforded to cadets at Sandhurst, at any rate during term-time. But the two matters are regarded differently, for two reasons. In the first place the Indian boy who goes to Oxford or Cambridge is generally older and better able to look after himself. Secondly, a very high percentage of the Indian boys first sent to Sandhurst failed to obtain commissions and parents came to know that the consequences of such failure are very serious. It must be a rare thing for an Indian boy to return at the end of his University training without some qualification which will enable him to enter some recognised walk of life. The Indian boy who fails at Sandhurst is thrown upon the world without any marketable qualifications.

We believe, however, that the weight of these difficulties is now diminishing. The best type of Indian boys who in recent years have been successful at Sandhurst say they enjoyed their life there and unhesitatingly acknowledge the great advantage they have derived from being trained there. The boys who have received their early education at Dehra Dun do not suffer from the same disabilities as the earlier batches of cadets and their impressions of life at Sandhurst are communicated to others. And indeed it was essential that in the first instance Indians should receive their military training at Sandhurst. An Indian King's Commissioned officer must like the British officer be capable of handling mixed bodies of men and for that purpose he should have the advantage of some period of association with the British cadets who are taking up commissions at the same time as himself. A common background of early training is of great importance in the army where esprit de corps is a supremely vitalising force. It was essential also that the first series of Indian cadets should benefit by the traditions of Sandhurst and by its high standard of efficiency, a standard which it may be difficult fully to reproduce in India. Finally, as our witnesses have generally acknowledged, a period of residence in a foreign country, undertaken at an early age, broadens the outlook and gives a knowledge of the world which is of inestimable value to a soldier as it is to others.

16. The cost of education and military training.—It has been estimated that for the eighteen months course at Sandhurst an Indian parent who is a military officer and as such is charged reduced fees has to pay approximately Rs. 7,000, while the cost to an Indian parent who receives no concession is approximately Rs. 11,000. If the cadet has received his early education at the Dehra Dun College, this adds another Rs. 5,000 in the case of the soldier parent and another Rs. 10,000 in the case of the civilian parent. It has been represented to us, and we believe it to be true, that expenditure on this scale is altogether beyond the capacity of the average Indian parent belonging to the middle classes : and there can be no doubt that the factor of expense has also deterred candidates from coming forward who would otherwise be suitable. India, it must be remembered, is a very much poorer country than England, and, as we shall show later, Indian candidates for the Army receive at present less pecuniary assistance than is given in many other countries.

17. Conditions within the Army. Scheme for the Indianisation of eight units.—When Indianisation in the Army first commenced, the average Indian boy must naturally have felt some apprehension at the prospect of invading a province previously reserved entirely for British military officers who as a type have the reputation of a certain exclusiveness. The evidence we have heard in regard to this matter reveals, however, a satisfactory state of affairs. The Indian King's Commissioned officers have been well received and have been treated on equal terms with British officers both in the British units to which they are attached for their first year of service and also in the Indian Army units to which they are subsequently transferred. But conditions within the service have altered for the worse, from the point of view of the Indian officer, by the introduction of the scheme for the Indianisation of eight units of the Indian army, which has been described in paragraph 8 of this report. Our Sub-Committee have been informed that the main reason for the adoption of this scheme was a desire to provide a means of testing the worth of the Indian King's Commissioned officers. In time of crisis, it is argued, it might be that if they were mixed in units with British officers any shortcomings they possessed might be concealed, while if they were put to the test by themselves they would have to stand or fall on their own merits, and would have an opportunity of demonstrating that complete reliance could be placed in them. The task thus formulated for the Indian officers of the eight selected units gives them a worthy enough ideal to strive for, but, for reasons which appear to us to be convincing, the scheme has been extremely unpopular almost from its inception not merely with the general public in India, but with the Indian officers whom it directly affects and with most of the commanding officers of Indianising units. The first and almost universal criticism provoked by the inquiries we have made is that to confine Indian officers to these units is an invidious form of segregation and that every Indian officer should be given the same chance of selecting the unit to which he wishes to be sent as a British officer. Several Indians who now qualify for the King's Commission have family connexions with particular units extending over many years, their fathers and grandfathers having held the Viceroy's Commission in them, and it is natural and laudable that they should wish to continue the family tradition. In the case of British officers such a tendency is, we believe, definitely encouraged. But there are objections to the scheme of a more concrete character. In the first place the test as formulated by the authorities is, we think, an unfair one and too severe to impose upon the first generation of Indian King's Commissioned officers who, as we have shown, already have sufficient disadvantages of other kinds to overcome. The scheme is also in conflict with the principle of co-operation between British and Indian which is applied in every other sphere of the Indian administration, for the purpose of securing harmonious work and to increase the efficiency of Indian personnel. Both for psychological and practical reasons the continuance of the scheme can, in our opinion, only conduce to failure. With Indianisation proceeding in the army in any measure, the only means of ensuring successful Indianisation and, concomitantly, the maximum degree attainable of military efficiency, is to allow Indian officers to serve shoulder to shoulder with British officers each learning from the other in every unit of the Indian Army. This was the original plan and, as we believe, the correct one. There is one other practical consideration to which we attach importance. The Indian King's Commissioned officer is still a new element in the Indian Army to which that most conservative body of men, the Indian rank and file, have not yet had time to become fully accustomed. By the method which we advocate this new element can be absorbed with the least degree of questioning and the least derangement of the existing system of the Indian Army taken as a whole.

In the course of hearing evidence, our attention was drawn to a lecture delivered some time ago at Sandhurst which we were told produced upon the minds of certain Indian cadets who heard it the impression that under the "eight units scheme" no British boy entering the Indian Army would ever be liable to serve under the command of an Indian, and that this was put forward as an argument to induce British boys to enter the Indian Army. Our Sub-Committee ascertained that the India Office authorities knew nothing of this lecture: but the Sandhurst authorities referred the Sub-Committee to the lecture reproduced in Appendix III to this report and added that the impression suggested was not left on the intelligent portion of the audience. We ourselves, however, are definitely of the opinion that certain passages in the lecture are open to no other interpretation than that originally placed upon them by the witnesses to whose evidence we have referred. We do not believe that it was the intention of Government that the "eight units scheme" should have the result claimed for it by the lecturer. The intention if it existed would be plainly mischievous. But we are constrained to observe that the tendency of thought which we find in the lecture is repeated in the following passage from Sir Valentine Chirol's recently published book* on India:—

"But the racial feeling provoked by the question of Indianising the Army is not confined to the Indians. Though the Army Department may wish now to approach it chiefly from the point of view of military efficiency, it has to reckon with the strong racial objections of British officers to being placed in the position of ever having to take orders from Indian officers. Nor can one ignore the danger of personal friction between British and Indian officers with their very different outlook and social habits if they are made to rub shoulders in a common messroom. But the feeling goes far deeper, and responsible and experienced British officers, not unnaturally proud of the confidence and even personal affection of their native officers as well as of their men, are found to declare that the Englishman's prestige with the native troops themselves will be gone if they are ever placed under other than British command. Indians whom education has trained to modern standards of self-respect resent deeply such a stigma of racial inferiority."

The idea that as a result of the introduction of the "eight units scheme" no British officer will ever have to take orders from an Indian officer, is, apart from everything else, fallacious. Before the "eight units scheme" was adopted, there were Indian King's Commissioned officers in other units and they remain there and will continue to be senior to all British officers who join these units subsequently. Moreover regimental units are not watertight compartments: and there are numerous occasions in army life when the officers of one unit come into contact with officers of other units: and on such occasions the senior officer, whoever he may be, takes precedence and command. But, however fallacious the idea may be, the mere fact that it is current is fatal to any prospect of success which the "eight units scheme" might otherwise have had. Suspicion and mistrust have been engendered which it will hardly be possible to remove without the scheme itself being abandoned.

18. Caste restrictions.—It has been suggested that suitable candidates may be deterred from entering the Army by the knowledge that the exigencies of army life are liable to interfere with caste obligations. From the evidence which we have heard, however, and from our own knowledge we are satisfied that in the present day conditions of India this is not a serious or wide-spread difficulty. On the contrary, the Indianisation of the Army as it is at present proceeding is likely to have the excellent result of further mitigating the differences of caste and creed. The difficulties arising out of caste restrictions and differences of religious belief have been overcome with marked success in the Dehra Dun College where the boys are specifically prepared for the social and commensal side of life in the army.

19. Insufficiency of pay and prospects.—In 1921 the Legislative Assembly adopted a resolution recommending that the pay of Indian King's Commissioned officers should be less than the pay of British officers of the Indian Army, the measure of difference being the amount of "Overseas allowance" drawn by the latter in consideration of their undertaking continuous service in a foreign country. The Government of India have not acted upon this recommendation and we have heard from a number of witnesses that even the existing scale of pay is insufficient for the needs of Indian King's Commissioned officers. We have also been told that boys who would be suitable for the army prefer to enter the civil services because of the greater pecuniary attractions of the latter. We have considered very carefully the representations made to us, but we do not feel that Government would be justified in increasing pay as a means to obtain a better supply of Indian cadets. Pecuniary aid from Government may more suitably take another shape as we shall explain when we make our recommendations regarding the incidence of the cost of cadets' education and their preliminary military training.

20. The narrow scope of the present scheme of Indianisation.—The difficulties and obstacles which we have discussed in the last few paragraphs, however real, are with certain obvious exceptions matters of subsidiary importance. The most substantial reason for the dearth of candidates and one which we believe, after very careful consideration, to be the governing factor in regard to future policy is the extremely narrow scope of the scheme for the Indianisation of the higher ranks of the Army in India which has so far been sanctioned. Recruitment of Indian King's Commissioned officers for infantry and cavalry units of the Indian Army is limited to a maximum of ten per annum for the whole of India: Indians are still not eligible to hold the King's Commission in artillery units, in the military engineer services or in the Royal Air Force: and even the scheme for the partial Indianisation of the Indian Army is avowedly experimental and provisional in character. We are aware that the official view hitherto expressed has been that the basis of the scheme of Indianisation cannot be broadened unless and until a larger number of fit candidates come forward to compete for the vacancies at present available. But we, regarding the matter from a human and practical standpoint and looking to what we believe must be the psychology of potential candidates, are convinced that there can be no hope of real progression so long as the prudent official view, which we have mentioned, is maintained. The enterprise of seeking the King's Commission is still a new and formidable one to the Indian boy, and with the few opportunities offered the risk of failure is very great. In such circumstances it is impracticable to expect material improvement in the quality of candidates or an adequate increase in competition.

We have already said that we believe good potential material to exist which the efforts of Government have not yet succeeded in reaching. This belief is based upon evidence of a substantial and credible character. There are a number of young King's Commissioned officers already in the Indian Army who are pronounced by their Commanding Officers to be efficient, according to the single standard of efficiency which the army recognises: and many of these have reached their present position in the face of far greater disadvantages and difficulties than a British boy has to overcome. The Royal Military College at Dehra Dun which has been in existence for only 4½ years has shown that even average Indian boys, given proper facilities, can pass with credit not only into Sandhurst but out of it. So far no Dehra Dun boy has failed at Sandhurst and the Dehra Dun boys, as a class, have earned the good opinion of the present Commandant of Sandhurst. Sir John Maynard, formerly member of the Executive Council of the Punjab, who served for forty years in India, has assured us that in the Punjab alone there are many boys who do not appear for the Sandhurst examination but are of better quality than accepted Sandhurst candidates whom he himself had seen. We have similar testimony from other witnesses and also from those of our colleagues who are well acquainted with the standard and type of qualifications required in a King's Commissioned officer.

But in order to attract to a military career the better material we believe to be available it will not suffice merely to remove the subsidiary obstacles which at present exist, it will not suffice to adopt better methods of publicity, to apply more effective propaganda, to introduce a system of open competition for entrance to Sandhurst, and to reduce the cost to the parent of his son's preliminary education and military training. It is also doubtful if it would be considered a practical proceeding to put forth so much effort for the sake of filling ten vacancies : and, above all things, it cannot be expected that the educational authorities in the schools and colleges of India will interest themselves in the special preparation of boys for the Army or will introduce the changes which are certainly necessary in the educational system of the country, so long as the prizes to be gained are limited to 10 vacancies at Sandhurst per annum for all India and so long as the prospects of an Indian boy in the Army are not set upon a more assured and progressive basis than exists at present. Another consideration of importance is that there is reason to believe that the superior attractions of a career in the civil services have already diverted potential candidates for the Army, and it is natural that the minds of parents and of the educational authorities should be impressed with the greater measure of liberality which the Government have recently accepted in regard to the Indianisation of the civil side of the Indian administration. It will be said, and we recognise, that the civil services and the Army cannot be regarded as being on exactly the same plane in the matter of Indianisation. But the difference of treatment which is at present accorded in the two departments of the administration is great and conspicuous : and the result must surely be that the average Indian parent is reluctant to destine his son to a military career, and feels that the Indianisation of the Army is, in the minds of the authorities, still suspect and uncertain.

It is not our purpose or desire that the number of Indian King's Commissioned officers in the Army should be increased without reference to considerations of efficiency. We recognise that in the army there can only be one standard of efficiency, namely the highest. We hold strongly, therefore, that the severity of the existing tests should not be relaxed in any way, and, if Indians capable of satisfying these tests are not forthcoming, then the pace of Indianisation must for the time lag behind the number of vacancies offered. But at the same time we contend that, in order to induce the best material to accept the admittedly arduous preparation for a military career and in order to induce the educational authorities in India to lend their active co-operation, it is necessary to widen the field of opportunity. Apart from reforms in matters of detail, which would not in themselves be sufficient, we can find no other satisfactory answer to our first term of reference.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

21. A substantial and progressive scheme of Indianisation.—Our primary recommendation is, therefore, that a substantial and progressive scheme for the Indianisation of the Indian Army be adopted without delay, and, subject to an important qualification on the part of some of our colleagues, which we mention later, we recommend the carrying out of the particular scheme which is described in detail in Appendix II to this report. The main features of this scheme are as follows :—

- (a) An immediate increase of 10 vacancies at Sandhurst, making a total of 20 vacancies reserved for Indians. We have assumed that this increase becomes effective in 1928.
- (b) A further increase of 4 vacancies at Sandhurst per annum up to 1933, making the total number of vacancies in that year 38.
- (c) The establishment in 1933 of an Indian Sandhurst with capacity for 100 cadets, to which in that year and each of the two following years, 33 cadets are admitted for a 3 years' course of training.
- (d) When the Indian Sandhurst is established, Indian boys, who prefer it, continue to be eligible for admission to Sandhurst, but the number of vacancies at Sandhurst reserved for Indians is then reduced to 20 per annum.
- (e) The number of Indian boys admitted annually to the Indian Sandhurst increases by 12 every 3 years, and, on the assumption that all cadets are successful, both at Sandhurst and the Indian Sandhurst, the number of Indians commissioned increases correspondingly until, in 1945, half the number of officers recruited annually for the Indian Army consists of Indians.

- (f) By 1952 half the total cadre of officers in the Indian Army are Indians.

Our reasons for recommending the creation of an Indian Sandhurst and the proposals we make in that connexion are contained in a later part of our report. At this point the Indian Sandhurst is mentioned incidentally in order to illustrate completely the suggested scheme of Indianisation.

By 1944 the senior of the Indian King's Commissioned officers now in the Army will have completed 26 years' service and will therefore be due to be considered for the command of regiments. This is the crucial test, and because of this it has been suggested (in the scheme described in Appendix II) that the number of Indians commissioned should not reach 50 per cent. until this stage has been passed. Our colleagues, the Hon'ble Sir Phiroze Sethna, Mr. M. A. Jinnah, Diwan Bahadur Ramachandra Rao, Major Zorawar Singh and Major Bala Sahib Daffé, while agreeing to the principles upon which the suggested scheme of Indianisation is founded, consider that the culminating point of the scheme, that is to say, the Indianisation of 50 per cent. of the cadre of officers in the Indian Army, should be reached at an earlier stage, viz., after 15 years in the case of Mr. Jinnah, Diwan Bahadur Ramachandra Rao and Major Zorawar Singh, and after 20 years in the case of the Hon'ble Sir Phiroze Sethna and Major Bala Sahib Daffé, and that the intermediate stages subsequent to the establishment of the Indian Sandhurst should be correspondingly accelerated. It is, however, unanimously agreed that, whether the slower or the more rapid rate of progression is ultimately adopted, the scheme actually in operation should be reviewed in 1938, that is to say, 5 years after the inauguration of the Indian Sandhurst, with a view to considering whether the success achieved is not sufficiently solid to warrant a further acceleration of the rate of progress.

We have not attempted to carry the scheme beyond the point at which 50 per cent. of the total cadre consists of Indians, and we make no recommendation as to what the ratio of recruitment of British and Indian officers respectively should be after that point has been reached. Again we do not attempt to forecast the time when it may be possible to dispense with the British element in the Indian Army. We also for the present assume, generally, the employment in India of a quota of British troops. We are fully alive to the fact that the progress of our scheme, as of any scheme, must be contingent upon success being secured at each stage and upon military efficiency being maintained throughout. We have given explicit recognition to the possibility that our scheme, if adopted, may itself require to be modified in the light of experience.

On the civil side of the administration the fear has often been expressed, and has to some extent been realised, that Indianisation will cause a falling off in the recruitment of British candidates for the services. The same phenomenon is liable to occur in connexion with the Indianisation of the Army. As we have indicated in our observations regarding the "eight units scheme", a continued supply of British officers, of the same high quality as those who have served India in the past, will, apart from everything else, be a great and valuable aid for the present and for some time to come to successful Indianisation. We should, therefore, regard it as specially important to maintain the proportion of British recruitment required.

22. Indianisation in other arms.—We also recommend that Indians should be made eligible to be employed as King's Commissioned officers in the Artillery, Engineer, Signal, Tank and Air arms of the Army in India and that for this purpose Indians should be admitted to Woolwich and Cranwell until such time as the occasion arises to create corresponding facilities for training in India. We would make it a condition that Indian boys seeking to enter Woolwich or Cranwell should be required to pass the same qualifying tests as British boys. If this condition is accepted, we can find no justification for the exclusion of Indians from the arms of the service which we have mentioned. To exclude them is in fact inconsistent with other recent developments of military policy in this country. The refusal of commissions in the Air Force is in our opinion singularly indefensible because a number of Indians were actually employed as officers in the Royal Flying Corps during the Great War. They rendered efficient service. One was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, and he and another of the officers referred to were killed in action. As regards the military engineer services, it may be observed that, in the civil administration, Indians hold, and achieve distinction in, engineering appointments of the most responsible nature.

We recommend therefore that in 1928 eight vacancies should be allotted to Indians at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and two at the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell, and that those numbers should be increased progressively, in due proportion.

23. Subsidiary recommendations.—If the measures described in the two preceding paragraphs are adopted, we believe there will then be sufficient inducement for Indian boys of the best and most suitable type to turn their minds in the direction of a military career and to qualify themselves for it by the most strenuous system of training that may be found to be necessary. It will then be worth while to expend both effort and money on removing the various disabilities of a subsidiary character on which we have commented earlier in this chapter. And it will be essential to do so; for our main scheme will ultimately stand or fall by the quality of the material which it succeeds in producing, and which has yet to be produced in the numbers constituting the basis of our primary proposals. Accordingly we make the following further recommendations.

24. Improvements in the system of early education.—We have already discussed the disadvantage imposed upon the average Indian boy by the defective educational system of India. As regards the remedy to be applied, we think we cannot do better than quote in the first instance the following passages from the Report made to us by our Sub-Committee :—

NAV 40 2 N27

“ Our observations also led us to realise that there are certain directions in which it is very necessary to improve the general standard of preliminary training of such candidates before they are admitted to the College lest during their course there they are handicapped by comparison with the British cadets who have undergone their earlier education at Public Schools. We make no mention here of character training or of the development of the less tangible qualities which are required in an officer, and refer only to such subjects as can form a definite part of the school curriculum. Under this heading there are three respects in which we gather either from the boys themselves or from their instructors that the average Indian cadet is at a disadvantage. These are English, military training and physical training.”

“ Whereas in France and the United States no attempt is made to emulate the English Public School system, and in Canada the attempt is a very small one at present, we have the evidence of the Headmaster of Rugby School that a number of headmasters of French Lycées were in favour of the adoption in France of the English prefect system which plays such an important part in the building up of character and the development of the power of leadership, while the importance of these features are not underrated in the United States where at West Point they are placed in the very forefront of the programme of training at the Academy. The length of the courses there and at Kingston make it possible to do in them much towards the training of character which in England is done in the school stage ”.

“ While we recognise that the Indian boy has not the same advantage as the British boy who is educated and trained up under the public school system, and is therefore deficient in certain matters to which reference has already been made, yet at the same time it cannot be forgotten that in countries like France, the United States and Canada there are with a few exceptions no public schools of the English model, but nevertheless they have been able to produce officers of great character who possessed great powers of leadership.”

“ Of all the Indian schools it is only at the Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, which is run as far as possible on the lines of an English Public School, that an avowed effort is made to supply the wants mentioned in the system of education. The success achieved at that institution in developing the qualities specially required in an aspirant to a commission is amply shown by the records of the Dehra Dun boys who have been at Sandhurst and by the reply of the Commandant of that institution when asked whether from his point of view any difference was apparent in the outturn of any particular type of institution in India—‘ Dehra Dun an easy first, the rest nowhere ’ ”.

“ It is not possible for Dehra Dun to supply all India’s ultimate requirements in cadets for the Army, nor would it be desirable, even if it were practicable, to rely for ever solely on an official institution like Dehra Dun for the earlier training of these cadets. On the other hand, India cannot afford to establish an elaborate system of preparatory and public schools on the English or any other fresh lines, and, even if such schools were established, there is not to be found in India a sufficient number of parents who would be ready or able to incur the high expenditure which the education of their sons at them would entail. We are convinced as a result that the ordinary Indian schools must continue, if they can, to supply, as at present, their quota of the Indian entrants to the officer ranks of the army. For this purpose it is most necessary that an attempt should be made to secure improvements in at least some of them in order to eliminate the shortcomings to which reference has been made. It is true that even with their present organization and system of training they have turned out boys who have succeeded in obtaining commissions through Sandhurst, but those who did so started on their course of training with an unfair handicap as compared with their British comrades, and that handicap must be removed as far as possible in order to obtain really first class material for India’s defence. We believe that, if the importance of the matter is brought to the notice of the educational authorities and their co-operation is enlisted, much can be done even in the existing schools in the direction of eliminating the weak points stated above, and we feel that it will enable a steady flow of really first class material to be obtained. It is, however, unlikely that it will be possible all at once to effect in them all that is required, and the solution of the problem which remains is to incorporate the remainder of the training in the missing essentials which the schools cannot sufficiently provide, in the training at the military college by lengthening the course at the latter ”.

In these views and recommendations we agree. The main responsibility must rest upon the educational authorities and experts to whom, however, it is imperative that Government should give a clear lead in emphasising the paramount national importance of reforming the educational system of India in the directions we have indicated. But the material success achieved by the Dehra Dun College has been so great that we consider it should be gradually expanded up to a total capacity of 250 to 300 cadets or whatever figure is regarded by educational experts as the most suitable limit for an institution of this character. And later, if circumstances demand it, another school on the same lines as the Dehra Dun College should be opened in some other part of India. We recommend that the first step should be the expansion of Dehra Dun rather than the establishment of other small schools of the same kind, because we find that the existing Dehra Dun College has rendered valuable service amongst other things in diminishing inter-Provincial differences and fostering unity of sentiment such as is indispensable in a national army.

The control of the Dehra Dun College should continue as at present to be in the hands of the military authorities. But while the main object of the College must always be borne in mind, viz., to produce boys for the Army and Navy, those responsible for its administration should be careful to adjust the curriculum and standard of teaching with a view to securing that the course of education given at the College confers a qualification recognised by the University authorities and by the authorities responsible for recruitment to the other Public Services. It might be advantageous to set up an advisory committee, which should include educational authorities of high reputation, to guide the military authorities in regard to the courses of study and the conduct of examinations.

25. Age limit.—For the reasons indicated in paragraph 12 preceding, we do not recommend any change in the existing practice and consider that the aim should be for Indian boys to enter the Army on an equality as regards age with British boys.

26. Publicity.—The existing methods of publicity may with advantage be continued, but they should be developed and greatly improved; and, just as we consider that the educational authorities should play a greater part than they do at present in the process of selecting candidates for an Army career, so we consider that they should be utilised to a much greater extent for the purpose of diffusing knowledge of an Army career and the means of entering upon it. We recommend that in the first instance the aid of the Registrars of Universities should be enlisted. They should be asked to start information bureaux in consultation with the military authorities and with the help of material supplied by the Army Department of the Government of India. It would be necessary for the Registrars to arrange with the authorities of all schools and colleges, affiliated to their Universities, for the periodical posting of notices in each institution, drawing attention briefly to the prospects of a career in the Army and to any new development connected therewith, and making known the existence of the main information bureaux as the agency to which to apply for detailed information on the subject.

The official information bureaux which already exist in the various Provinces are also in a position to render valuable assistance, by acting as the source from which information would be available to those who are not in a position to draw upon the University bureaux. It would be desirable, therefore, to secure their co-operation, and they, like the University bureaux, should receive a regular supply of the literature prepared from time to time by the Army Department.

27. Method of initial selection.—We have already recorded our conclusion that the present methods of selection are gravely defective and in certain respects open to serious objection. After careful consideration we recommend primarily as a general principle that the basis of selection should be wide and that the method of applying for permission to sit for the entrance examination should be as simple as possible. For this purpose it is desirable, subject to certain conditions, to allow applicants to deal direct with a single central authority at the headquarters of the Government of India. This authority alone should have power to refuse permission to attend the examination.

We recommend that in detail the procedure should be generally as follows. Any boy between the upper and lower age limits prescribed, who has passed the Matriculation or equivalent standard, should be eligible to apply to sit for the entrance examination. As a preliminary he should be required to fill up a form containing such information about himself as the central authority may prescribe. On this form should be recorded a certificate from the principal or headmaster of his college or school (in the case of a candidate educated privately, from his tutor) to the effect that he is educationally, socially, morally, and physically suitable to hold the King's Commission. Having obtained this certificate, the applicant should then forward the application form, together with his Matriculation or corresponding certificate, a medical certificate, and a certificate of birth, to the central authority, indicating at the same time as references two gentlemen of position and standing (other than his principal or headmaster) who have known him for at least three years. The central authority on receipt of this application would, as a rule, consult the two gentlemen cited as references by the candidate, and make such other enquiries as it might think fit. Should the result of these enquiries prove unsatisfactory, the central authority would have power to reject the candidate's application. If, on the other hand, the candidate was found to be prima facie suitable, he would be instructed to appear before a military medical board at some suitable centre in the vicinity of his own home, and, provided that the candidate was able to pass the medical test carried out by this board, he would be eligible to appear at the central Army entrance examination.

This examination should consist of two parts. (a) a written test on the model of the existing entrance examination to Sandhurst, (if our proposals for the establishment of an Indian Sandhurst are accepted this examination would require to be so modified as to suit boys who would be on an average one year younger than those who compete at the present entrance examination), and (b) an interview test before a board consisting of two senior military officers of the Indian Army who have held the command of Indian regiments, one educationalist, and one non-official Indian gentleman nominated by H. E. the Viceroy. The final nomination would be made by H. E. the Viceroy on the combined results of these two tests. The vacancies announced for competition should be allotted to the candidates standing highest in the order of merit. A certain number of vacancies at the College, not exceeding 20 per cent., should, however, be reserved for candidates to be nominated by H. E. the Commander-in-Chief from among those who have qualified in the two tests, but have not passed sufficiently high to secure one of the vacancies open to competition. We contemplate that the Commander-in-Chief should exercise the power of nomination sparingly and in conformity with the principles followed by the Army Council in their exercise of a corresponding power of nomination for Sandhurst and Woolwich.

In order to prevent unnecessary expense and disappointment to candidates and their parents, and in order also to prevent the examination from being swamped by obviously unsuitable competitors, every candidate should be required, as a preliminary, to appear before a local advisory board in the vicinity of his own home for the purpose of discovering in advance whether he is likely to succeed in the interview test at the entrance examination. Such an advisory board should be constituted in each area in which a military medical board is formed to examine candidates for that examination, and should sit at the same time and in the same place as the medical board, so that candidates when they are ordered to appear for medical examination can at the same time obtain the opinion of the advisory board. These advisory boards should consist of officials and non-officials and should include a proportion of military officers. They should have no power to reject a candidate, but would merely inform him, and the central authority also, in writing, whether they consider him suitable or unsuitable. The candidate should not be bound to abide by the opinion given: if he wishes to take his chance it would still be open to him to pursue his application before the central authority.*

*NOTE.—Dr. Ziauddin Ahmad considers it undesirable that the Local Governments should be replaced by these advisory boards, and would prefer that applications should, as at present, be dealt with in the first instance by Local Governments, who should continue to have the power to reject obviously unsuitable candidates. At the same time he contemplates that principals of colleges and headmasters of schools should be empowered to forward direct to the Local Governments the applications of suitable students, and that Local Governments should be assisted in the process of selection by non-official advisers and suitably qualified military officers.

Candidates should be required to pay all expenses incurred by them in proceeding either to attend the medical board or to sit at the entrance examination.

It may be found desirable in course of time to entrust the whole of the routine connected with the receipt of applications and the conduct of the examination to the Public Services Commission when that body has been fully organised.

In saying that the basis of selection should be wide, we mean inter alia that the preference for soldiers' sons, as a class, which is a feature of the present system of selection, should in future become the exception rather than the rule. This is a view which has been urged upon us by many witnesses. The opinion which His Excellency Sir Malcolm Hailey has expressed in regard to this matter is of such interest and importance that we quote it in full :—

"It may be asked whether it is advisable to continue to show any such preference to the military and land-owning classes, as would seem to imply a desire to exclude men whose families are mainly engaged in commerce or industry or literary pursuits. In one respect, the Punjab differs from other Provinces in the fact that we have here the military material ready at hand, and military traditions already formed; there is therefore naturally a tendency to draw on a source already known to exist, rather than to seek fresh material for recruitment. With the very rapid spread of education again, the difference between the land-owning and professional classes in point of intelligence is steadily narrowing. Again it must be recognised that we here have some very considerable knowledge of the mentality of those who comprise the great bulk of the subordinate ranks in the Army. Even if we ourselves had no preference at all for the selection of officers from the land-owning and military classes, most of us are convinced that the Sepoy and Sowar would prefer to serve under men who fall in this category. If the further question were asked whether it is advisable to make this preference a fixed item in our policy, I would myself answer in the negative. I have seen very many men among the professional classes who would, in my opinion, make good officers, and I do not doubt that after a time, the private soldier will himself prefer to be led by a good man, in whose guidance he can trust, whatever may have been his family origin. I think, in short, that the process of education among men who join the subordinate ranks, will have its inevitable result in reducing the preference they may now feel for men of the particular classes. For my part therefore, so far as I am concerned in the selection of candidates
