G.O. No. 4234, 20th December 1957

Acts—Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926—Report on its working during 1956-57—Recorded.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter from the Commissioner of Labour and Registrar of Trade Unions to the Secretary to Government, Industries, Labour and Co-operation Department, dated Madras, the 5th August 1957, No. Pdl. 103/57.

I send herewith the Annual Report on the working of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, for the year ending 31st March 1957.

The report has been prepared in three parts in accordance with the instructions contained in letter Nos. LBS.-1 (50) 12/57 and LBS.-5 (9)/55-56 received from the Director, Labour Bureau, Simla, dated 1st April 1956 and 6th May 1957. The first part relates to the period from 1st April to 31st October 1956 in respect of the trade unions functioning in the Composite State of Madras. The second part relates to the period from 1st November 1956 to 31st March 1957 in respect of the trade unions transferred to the Kerala and Mysore States on 1st November 1956. The third part relates to the period 1st November 1956 to 31st March 1957 in respect of the trade unions belonging to the erstwhile Travancore Cochin State transferred to the Madras State on 1st November 1956, consequent on the re-organisation of States.

Report on the working of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, in the State of Madras during the period 1st April 1956 to 31st October 1956.

1. Personnel.—Sri V. Balasundram, I.A.S., Commissioner of Labour, continued to be the Registrar of Trade Unions for the State of Madras during the period. In the administration of the provisions of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, he was assisted by the Personal Assistant to the Commissioner of Labour.

2. Registration of trade unions.—Any seven or more members of a trade union may apply to the Registrar of Trade Unions for registration of their union under this Act. After satisfying himself that the trade union has complied with all the requirements of the Act in regard to registration, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration. There were 758 trade unions on the registers at the beginning of the year under report and 128 trade unions were registered during the period up to 31st October 1956.

3. Cancellation of registration of trade unions.—The Registrar of Trade Unions is empowered under section 10 of the Indian Trade Unions Act to withdraw or cancel the registration of a trade union after giving two months' notice in writing specifying the ground for the withdrawal or cancellation of the registration, if the certificate of registration has been obtained by fraud or mistake, or the trade union has ceased to exist, or if it has contravened any of the provisions of the Act, after receipt of the notice from the Registrar or on an application made by the trade union concerned for cancellation of its registration. During the period under report, the registration of 57 trade unions was cancelled for failure to submit the annual returns, as required under section 28 of the Act.

4. Change of address.—The trade unions are required under section 12 of the Act to give notice in writing of any change in the address of their head office, within 14 days of such change and on receipt of the said notice, the change of address is recorded in the register of trade unions maintained by the Registrar.

5. Change of name of trade union.—The name of a trade union can be changed with the consent of not less than two-thirds of the total number of its members, and in such cases the union is required to send to the Registrar, a notice in writing of such change of name signed by the Secretary and seven members of the trade union as required under section 25 of the Act.

6. Amalgamation of trade unions.—Two or more trade unions can apply for registration of the amalgamation of the unions, under section 24 of the Act, if half the number of members of each of the trade unions meet and 60 per cent of those present at the meeting are in favour of the proposed amalgamation. The unions desiring to register the amalgamation are required to send a notice to the Registrar in writing, signed by the Secretary and seven members of each of such trade unions and, on receipt of the said notice, the Registrar shall register it, if he is satisfied that the unions have complied with the provisions of the Act.

7. Dissolution of trade unions.—The Registrar of Trade Unions is empowered under section 27 of the Act to register the dissolution of a trade union on receipt of a notice signed by the Secretary and seven members of the union, which has to be sent to the Registrar, within 14 days of the dissolution provided the dissolution has been effected in accordance with the rules of the union. He is also empowered to divide the funds of the union, where its rules do not provide for the distribution of funds, on dissolution.

8. Prosecutions.—No prosecution was taken against any of the trade unions during the period.

9. Appeals.—Under section 11 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, any person aggrieved with the order of the Registrar, cancelling or withdrawing the registration of trade unions or refusing to register them, may appeal to the High Court, if the head office of the union is in the city of Madras and to the District Courts, if in the mufassal. The unions in the mufassal have got a further right of appeal to the High Court against the order of the District Court. There were no appeals against the orders of the Registrar of Trade Unions during the period under report.

10. Number of organisations and their membership.—(a) Workers organisations.—There were 771 workers organisations functioning in the Madras State with a membership of 202,158 on 31st October 1956 of whom 23,966 were women workers. The closing balance in their general fund account on 31st October 1956 was Rs. 6,96,491-1-11. The number of workers organisations functioning in more than one State, with headquarters in the Madras State was 47 with a total membership of 20,188 including 285 women workers. The closing balance in their general fund account on 31st October 1956 was Rs. 1,06,881-12-3.

(b) Employers organisations.—There were seven employers organisations functioning in the State of Madras and one employers organisation functioning in more than one State with headquarters at Madras. Their respective membership during the period was 351 and 18, respectively. The closing balance in their general fund account on 31st October 1956 was Rs. 3,588-2-4 and 57,243-4-1, respectively.

(c) Federations.—During the period 1st April 1956 to 31st October 1956, there were three federations functioning in the State of Madras with a total membership of 51 unions, having a sum of Rs. 1,447-15-8 in the general fund account at the end of the period.

Details are appended in Part I-A of the statement attached. Particulars relating to selected manufacturing industries are appended in Part I-B of the statement attached. Particulars regarding the income of the trade unions analysed according to their sources, the distribution of the expenditure of the unions and the assets and liabilities of the trade unions during the period under report are appended in Part I-C, D and E, respectively.

PART II.

Report on the working of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, in the State of Madras excluding the areas transferred to and from the Travancore-Cochin State on 1st November 1956 consequent on the reorganisation of States, for the period 1st November 1956 to 31st March 1957.

1. Personnel.—Sri V. Balasundram, I.A.S., Commissioner of Labour, continued to be the Registrar of Trade Unions for the State of Madras during the period. In the administration of the provisions of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, he was assisted by the Personal Assistant to the Commissioner of Labour.

2. Registration of trade unions.—Of the 829 trade unions in the State of Madras on 31st October 1956, 159 trade unions were in the areas transferred to the Kerala State and 32 trade unions were in the areas transferred to the Mysore State on 1st November 1956 consequent on the reorganisation of States. There were 638 trade unions in the Madras State on 1st November 1956. During the period under report, 62 trade unions were registered under section 8 of the Indian Trade Unions Act.

3. Cancellation of trade unions.—The registration of six unions was cancelled during this period.

4. Dissolution of trade unions.—The dissolution of three unions was registered during the period. There were consequently 691 trade unions functioning on 31st March 1957 in the Madras State, excluding the areas transferred from the erstwhile Travancore-Cochin State.

5. Amalgamations.—No amalgamations were registered during the period.

6. Prosecutions.—No prosecutions were taken against any of the trade unions during the period.

7. Appeals.—There were no appeals against the orders of the Registrar of Trade Unions during the period.

8. Number of organisations and their membership.—(a) Workers organisations.—The number of workers unions functioning in the Madras State excluding the unions in the areas transferred to the Kerala and Mysore States on 1st November 1956 was 632 with a membership of 209,493 including 24,308 females. The amount in their general fund on 31st March 1957 was Rs. 7,00,880-15-8. There were also 48 central unions functioning in the Madras State with a membership of 20,217 including 285 females. The closing balance in their general fund account on 31st March 1957 was Rs. 1,06,960-2-3.

(b) Employers organisations.—There were seven employers organisations functioning in the State of Madras and one employers organisation functioning in more than one State with headquarters at Madras. Their respective membership during the period was 351 and 18, respectively. The balance in their general fund account on 31st March 1957 was Rs. 3,588-2-4 and Rs. 57,243-4-1, respectively.

(c) Federations.—There were three federations functioning in the State with headquarters at Madras, during the period 1st November 1956 to 31st March 1957 with a membership of 51 unions and having a balance of Rs. 1,447-15-8 in the general fund account at the end of the period.

Details are appended in Part II-A of the statement attached. Particulars relating to selected manufacturing industries are appended in Part II-B. Particulars regarding the income of the trade unions analysed according to their sources, the distribution of expenditure of the unions and the assets and liabilities of the trade unions during the period under report are attached in Part II-C, D and E, respectively.

9. Trade unions of agricultural workers and their membership.—There were seven unions of agricultural workers at the end of the period with a total membership of 486.

10. Annual returns.—All the registered trade unions are required under section 28 of the Indian Trade Unions Act to send to the Registrar of Trade Unions annually a general audited statement of all receipts and expenditure during the year, all their assets and liabilities together with a statement of the changes of all office-bearers of the union during the year, and an up-to-date copy of their rules.

Five hundred and eight trade unions out of 691, submitted the annual returns for 1956-57 before the due date as against 546 unions out of 758 in the previous year. Notices in Form 'D' of the Madras Trade Unions Regulations, 1927, have been issued to 183 trade unions for contravention of section 28 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, after notice from the Registrar of Trade Unions. The number of members of the 508 trade unions who have submitted their return in time was 230,061 as against the membership of 225,359 of 546 unions during the previous year. It is also gratifying to note that about 74 per cent of the registered trade unions submitted their returns on the due date this year, which may be attributed to the realisation on the part of the trade unions of their responsibilities in the submission of the annual returns as required under the Indian Trade Unions Act.

PART III.

Report on the working of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, in the areas of the erstwhile Travancore-Cochin State transferred to the Madras State on 1st November 1956 consequent on the reorganisation of States, for the period 1st November 1956 to 31st March 1957.

1. Personnel.—In G.O. Ms. No. 4658, Industries, Labour and Co-operation, dated 31st October 1956, the Government of Madras notified the Commissioner of Labour, Madras, to exercise the powers of Registrar of Trade Unions in respect of the areas of the Travancore-Cochin State transferred to Madras State. Sri V. Balasundram, I.A.S., Commissioner of Labour and Registrar of Trade Unions, Madras, was therefore the Registrar of Trade Unions in respect of the transferred areas, during the period under report.

2. Number of trade unions in the transferred areas and their membership.—Consequent on the reorganisation of States on 1st November 1956, the Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district which formerly belonged to the Travancore-Cochin State were transferred to the Madras State. There were 37 trade unions functioning in those areas on 1st November 1956, with a total membership of 4,245 on that date.

3. Registration of trade unions.—Two unions were registered during the period.

4. Cancellation of trade unions.—No cancellation of trade unions were made during the period.

5. Amalgamation of trade unions.—No amalgamations were registered during the period.

6. Dissolution of trade unions.—No unions applied for registration of their dissolution during the period.

7. Prosecution.—No prosecutions were taken against any of the trade unions during the period.

8. Appeals.—There were no appeals against the orders of the Registrar of Trade Unions during the period.

9. Number of organisations and their membership.—The total number of workers unions functioning in the Kanyakumari district and their membership on 31st March 1957 were 39 and 4,832 (including 194 women), respectively. The amount in their general fund account on 31st March 1957 was Rs. 2,881-3-5. There were no employers organisations or federations in this area.

Details of the statement are appended in Part III-A attached. Particulars relating to selected manufacturing industries are appended in Part III-B of the statement attached. Particulars regarding the income of the trade unions analysed according to their sources, the distribution of the expenditure of the unions and the assets and liabilities of the trade unions during the period under report are appended in Part III, C, D and E, respectively.

10. Agricultural unions and their membership.—There were no unions of agricultural workers in the Kanyakumari district.

11. Annual return.—All the registered trade unions are required under section 28 of the Indian Trade Unions Act to send to the Registrar of Trade Unions annually a general audited statement of all receipts and expenditure during the year and all their assets and liabilities together with a statement of the changes of all office-bearers of the union during the year and an up-to-date copy of the rules of the unions.

Eighteen trade unions out of 39 unions submitted the annual returns for 1956-57 before the due date. Notices in Form 'E' of the Travancore-Cochin Trade Unions Regulations, 1952, have been issued to 21 trade unions for contravention of section 28 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, after notice from the Registrar of Trade Unions. The number of members of 18 trade unions who have submitted their return in time was 4,832.
