GENERAL REMARKS AND CONCLUSION.

The Stanley Medical College has completed 27 fruitful years. The University examination results continued to be on the whole satisfactory and in order to further strengthen the teaching, all possible efforts were taken during the year under report, such as Tutorial classes, conducting symposia and seminars, etc. It is gratifying to note that the students of this College have maintained the best Stanleyan tradition and a commendable standard of discipline and decorum in the class room, in the playfields, in the Hostel and elsewhere. The spirit of willing co-operation has been continued both among students and staff of the College and affiliated and constituent hospitals.
