SIGNALS

for Ships or Vessels in the Offing.

SIGNALS respecting Ships or Vessels in the Offing, whether Men of War, or Merchantmen, are made from the top of the Fort Square of Fort St. George, on which there are three Signal Staffs. One consisting of an upright Mast, representing the East point of the Compass with a Vane flying by the Middle across, the Arms of which pointing to the North and South points of the Compass.

Three Classes or Vessels are expressed by these Signals; Vessels of three Masts, of two Masts and of one Mast.

An Eagle, or Square National Flag, represents a Ship of three Masts; a National Flag with two points or swallow Tail, represents a Brig or Schooner; or one Mast; and a broad National Pendant terminating in one point, represents a Sloop or Cutter of one Mast.

If either of these Flags are hoisted to the top of the upright Staff, the Vessels are in the East Quarter of the Compass; if hoisted to the North or South arms of the cross yard, the vessels are in the North or South Quarter of the compass.

The number of Ships that appear in the Offing, are expressed by Pendants. A white Pendant signifies one Ship or Vessel; a red and white Pendant, two vessels; a red Pendant pierced with white, three vessels; and a Yellow Pendant pierced with blue, four vessels: when the number of Vessels exceed four, they are to be considered as a Fleet; on which is flown a long blue and yellow Pendant and be hoisted.

If the Vessels in the Offing are Men of War in the East Quarter, one of the three Signal Pendants, which from the National Flag of the upright Staff, then the North or South Quarter, the Pendants will fly at the extremity of the Yard Arm over the National Flag, hoisted on the stay of the North or South Arm of the Cross Yard.

If Merchantmen are seen in the North, South or East Quarters, the Commercial Pendant will fly under the National Flag. If the Ships are Indianmen, a blue Pendant will be displayed as usual under the Union Flag of the Fort.

Clause 60. No person to be appointed either a writer or cadet under the age of 15, or above 21. Persons who have been commissioned officers in his Majesty's service may be appointed cadets at 25 years of age.

Clause 70. No civil servant under the degree of a member of council to return to India after five years absence, without the sanction of three parts in four of the Court of Directors, and three parts in four of a General Court of Proprietors; nor any military servant, under the rank of Commander in Chief, who shall have been absent five years, unless it shall be satisfactorily proved to the Directors and Board of Control, that such absence was occasioned by sickness, or some inevitable cause.

REGULATIONS

RESPECTING MILITARY OFFICERS RETIRING FROM THE COMPANY'S SERVICE.

EVERY Officer after twenty five years service in India, three years for one furlough being included, is allowed to retire with the pay of the rank to which he has attained; but such pay is to be the same only, as that allowed to officers of Infantry.

A member of the Medical Board, who has been in that station not less than five years, and not less than twenty years in India, including three years for one furlough, is permitted to retire from the service, and allowed £. 500 per annum.

A Surgeon of a General Hospital, who has been in that station not less than five years, and whose period of service has been not less than twenty years, including three years for one furlough, as above, is permitted to retire from the service, and allowed £. 300 per annum for life.

All other Surgeons and Assistant Surgeons attached to the Military, are permitted to retire from the service on the pay of their rank, after having served in India not less than twenty years, including three for one furlough.

A Chaplain after eighteen years service, ten years at a Military station, and including three years for one furlough, is allowed to retire with the pay of his rank.

Every Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, or Captain Lieutenant, is allowed to retire with the half pay of the rank to which he has attained, in case his health shall not permit him to serve in India.

A Lieutenant having served thirteen, or an Ensign nine years in India, including three years for a furlough, may retire on the half pay of his rank, in case his health shall not permit him to serve in India.

A Lieutenant is permitted to retire on the half pay of Ensign, if his constitution should be so impaired as to prevent the possibility of his continuing in India.

Every

Every officer returning on furlough, and wishing to retire from the service, must make a declaration to that effect, within twelve months after his arrival in England, and in case of his neglecting so to do, he must, at the expiration of his furlough, either return to India, or be held to have relinquished the service, and not to be entitled to retire on pay, unless he has continued to serve in India, from his first arrival for the space of twenty two years, without having a furlough; in that case he is allowed two years before he shall be called upon to signify his intention of retiring, but he can only be allowed the pay of the rank he held at the expiration of twelve months from his arrival in Europe.

Promotion in consequence of Officers retiring in England, takes place from the time when such Officers are permitted by the Court to retire.

FURLOUGH.

Subalterns must be ten years in India, before they can be entitled (except in case of certified sickness) to their rotation to be absent on furlough, and the same rule is applicable to Assistant Military Surgeons. The furlough to be granted by the Commander in Chief at each Presidency, with the approbation, of the respective Governments.

Chaplains must have been seven years in India before they can be allowed furlough, (except in the case of sickness) with the pay of their corresponding rank, viz. Captain.

The period of furlough is three years, reckoning from its date to the day of the return of the Officer to his presidency.

No officer on furlough can receive pay for more than two years and a half from the period of his quitting India.

*Extract of an Act of the Thirty-third of His present Majesty George III. respecting

AND be it further enacted, that no person shall be capable of acting or being appointed, or sent to India in the capacity of a Writer or Cadet, whose age shall be under fifteen years, or shall exceed Twenty-two Years; nor until the person proposed or intended to be so appointed shall have delivered to the said Court of Directors, a Certificate of his age under the hand of the Minister of the Parish in which he was baptized, or keeper of the Register of baptism of such Parish; and if no such Register can be found, an affidavit of that circumstance shall be made by the party himself, with his information and belief that his age is not under Fifteen Years, and doth not exceed Twenty-two Years; provided nevertheless, that the said restriction shall not extend to prevent the said Court of Directors from appointing any person to be a Cadet, who shall have been for the space of one Year at least a Commissioned Officer in his Majesty's service, or in the Militia, or Fencible Men, when embodied, and have been called into actual service or from the company of Cadets in the Royal Regiment of Artillery, and whose age shall not exceed Twenty-two Years.

Light House.

THE Light House on the Exchange in Fort St. George was erected by the Exchange Committee, with the sanction of Government in December 1796, and is of essential service to Ships coaling into the Roads in the Night.

The Light is 90 feet above the level of the Sea at high Water: it can be seen from the decks of the Honorable Company's Ships about 17 Miles and from their Mast heads near 26 Miles.

The South part of Pollcut Shoal bears from the Light House, N. by E. 4 E. distant 12 Miles; and to keep clear of the Shoal, the Light should always bear to the Westward of S. S. W. 4 W.
