8. Nearly every Officer of these branches retiring hereafter will, no doubt, if health permits, arrange his retirement so as to obtain the benefit of the pensions given in Column III, and these it will be perceived are higher by from nearly 60 to 120 per cent. than the old rates, with the additional advantage that time passed out of India on duty, and all leave of absence, now counts as service for pension.

9. The number of Colonel's allowances is the same as in 1860, and privilege of retirement on the pay of rank after 22 years' service has not been interfered with, but has practically become inoperative since the introduction of more advantageous rates of pension.

10. It has to be observed that the scale of pensions contained in Column III, as laid down in 1878, was sanctioned in order to encourage retirement, and in some measure to hasten promotion, an object secured in the old Royal Artillery and Engineers by compulsory retirement. It was, therefore, not extended to those Officers who remained in the Service after promotion to the rank of General Officer, except as a temporary measure open to all General Officers in 1878.

11. The next class to which I shall refer is that of Officers who voluntarily joined the 19th, 20th, or 21st Hussars, or the regiments lately known as the 101st to 109th Foot. These Officers have been able to retire under the old pension rules, as detailed in paragraph 5, including the two higher rates given in 1866. They would also be entitled to the benefits of the pensions specified in Column 2 of paragraph 7, or they can retire under the following conditions after 20 years in the Service :—

| | Per Annum. | |
|---|---|---|
| | Cavalry. | Infantry. |
| | £ | £ |
| If Senior Lieutenant-Colonel in a regiment of Cavalry or battalion of Infantry . . . | 600 | 575 |
| If 2nd Lieutenant-Colonel in Cavalry, or 2nd Lieutenant-Colonel or senior Major in a battalion of Infantry . . . . | 500 | 475 |
| If of lower rank . . . . | 350 | 350 |

12. All leave of absence taken by these Officers counts as service for pension, and if they succeed to the establishment of General Officers they are eligible for the higher rates of half pay and retired pay given under the Royal Warrant of 25th June 1881, that is:—

Half pay,—

Retired pay,—From 600*l.* to 1,000*l.* per annum according to grade and age.

13. The next class of Officers are those who entered the Staff Corps on its formation, or at any period up to the 12th September 1866. These Officers entered subject to the pension rules specified in paragraph 5 of this despatch, but Sir Charles Wood ruled that they could not claim retirement on the pension of their rank, after 22 years' service, under the Regulation of 1796. As some Officers represented that they entered the Staff Corps under the belief that they should have the benefit of this rule of 1796, permission was given to all Officers who alleged that they had entered the Staff Corps under a misapprehension on this point to withdraw from it, and to revert to the local service, the Officers of which still retained the privilege.

14. In addition to pensions, it was notified that eventually Colonel's allowances would be allotted to the Staff Corps in the proportion of one Colonel's allowance to every 30 Officers, but in 1866 the Marquis of Salisbury, in Despatch No. 159, published in your General Order, No. 808 of that year, sanctioned the grant of Colonel's allowances to substantive Lieutenant-Colonels of the Staff Corps who entered it on or before the 12th September 1866, after 12 years' service in that grade, irrespective of numbers. Taking this latter valuable privilege into account, it seemed essential, if retirement prior to succession to Colonel's allowances was to be facilitated, to give to Officers of this class the estimated value of their absolute title to those allowances, in addition to the pensions previously granted, and this was sanctioned in my Despatch, No. 258, of 4th August last.

15. The result of these regulations is, that th retiring allowances of Officers of this cl now, as compared with what was claimal 1860, are as follows, exactly the same of leave of absence being allowed to service for pension in 1881 as in the additions made in 1872, as mentioned in paragraph 5 of this Despatch :—

| | Rates in 1860. | Rates from 1st July 1881. |

| 38 „ „ . . . | 456 5 0 | 1,124 17 5 |

16. It is true that in 1860 an Officer who happened to be a Major or a Lieutenant-Colonel could at any time, after 22 years' service, retire on what is called the pension of his rank, or 292*l.*, if he was a Major, and 365*l.* if he was a Lieutenant-Colonel, but as promotion was usually slow, this rarely gave an Officer any advantage, and the retirements under the rule were few, while every Officer in the class referred to voluntarily relinquished the prospect of benefiting by it.

The general result is that up to 32 years' service inclusive there has been an increase of from 47 to 71 per cent., according to periods of service, while 1,124*l.* is insured after a service of 38 years, instead of 456*l.* with a prospect of succeeding to 1,124*l.* at an uncertain period, as was the case in 1860.

17. The next class to refer to is that of Officers on the cadres of Cavalry and Infantry of the three Presidencies. They have been granted the same retiring pensions as Officers whose pensions were detailed in the foregoing paragraph, although their date of succession to Colonel's allowances is not fixed in exactly the manner prescribed for Officers who entered the Staff Corps up to 1866. Hence any Officer of these cadres who takes pension has exactly the same advantages as Staff Corps Officers, with the addition that he can retire on the pension of his rank after 22 years. With respect to Colonel's allowances, succession is secured after 12 years as Lieutenant-Colonel, but as succession to the grade of Lieutenant-Colonel depends upon vacancies, the period of succession must vary. Indeed it was not intended to do more than arrange as far as possible that these Officers, who all had the option of joining the Staff Corps under the conditions of September 1866, should not be in a worse position than previously in this respect. In point of fact, while some of these Officers have suffered by slow promotion in years gone by in their cadres, their actual succession to Colonel's allowances has been greatly hastened by the measures adopted, and a large proportion of Officers since 1866 have succeeded to these allowances in less than 38 years, and some even in less than 30 years.

18. The next class is composed of Officers on what are called the General lists of Cavalry and Infantry of the three Presidencies, all of whom were appointed to the Service between the month of February 1859 and February 1862, and whose nominations were made subject to any alterations that might be subsequently ordered in the conditions of service. There was no pledge given to these Officers as to Colonel's allowances, but it was no understood that they came under the pension regulations of the day.

As explained in my Despatch of the 4th August 1881, No. 258, I have conceded to them the right of succession to Colonel's allowances in the proportion of one to every thirty Officers in the manner described in paragraph 17 of that despatch, and I have fixed the rates of pension as follows :—

| | Old Rate. | New Rate. |
|---|---|---|
| | £ s. d. | £ s. d. |
| 20 years . . . . | 191 12 6 | 250 0 0 |
| 24 „ . . . . | 292 0 0 | 365 0 0 |
| 28 „ . . . . | 365 0 0 | 500 0 0 |
| 32 „ . . . . | 456 5 0 | 700 0 0 |
| 38 „ . . . . | 456 5 0 | 750 0 0 |

19. The last class of Officers already serving are those who have entered the Staff Corps at their own request since the 12th September 1866. These Officers presumably knew all the conditions as to pension and retirement when they entered, and the only change in the rates made since that period has been to admit them to the increased rates shown in the table given in the preceding paragraph.

20. As respects the Medical Department, the following statement shows the pension rates in force in 1860, the revised rates introduced in 1864, and the present rate of pensions.

Rates of Pension for the Medical Service per annum.

* With the option of 700*l.* to Officers who entered before 1864, and did not receive the higher additional pensions of Deputy Surgeon-General or Surgeon-General. Medical Officers compulsorily retired at the age of 55 were granted the pension next above that to which their service entitled them.

Besides this, since 1864 an additional 250*l.* or 350*l.* a year is given to every Officer who, on retirement, has rendered five years' service in the office of Deputy Surgeon-General or Surgeon-General respectively.

21. From this table it will be seen that the pensions of Medical Officers who have not served in the higher appointments have been raised since 1860 by amounts varying from 37 to 91 per cent. in the case of Officers who have served under or up to 30 years; while the highest pension formerly allowed, namely, 700*l.*, which was only obtainable after 35 years, can now be obtained after 30 years' service. Further, those Medical Officers who serve as Deputy Surgeons-General and Surgeons-General can now on completion of 30 years' service and five years in the grad obtain pensions of 950*l.* and 1,050*l.* a yea respectively, as against the 365*l.* and 700 obtainable after 30 and 35 years under t old rules, and as against 800*l.* and 900*l.* o tainable by them under the rules of 1864. In

22. Medical Officers, it must be recollected, have of late years been granted higher relative rank, a privilege which carries with it a higher rate of pension for widows, a higher rate of wound pension, and a higher rate of retirement if an Officer is compelled to leave the Service from ill health before completion of 17 years' service in India. By these rules Medical Officers on joining from probation at once rank as Captains, a rank only gained by a Staff Corps Officer after 12 years' service, while the relative rank of Major is obtained eight years earlier than in the Staff Corps, and that of Lieutenant-Colonel in six years' less service than in the Staff Corps.

23. The Veterinary Department of the Indian Army has long since ceased to be recruited, and the junior Officer in that branch in the three Presidencies was appointed in 1859. It has been therefore unnecessary to discuss the propriety of a general revision of the pension rules of the Department, but in my Despatch, No. 260, of 4th August 1881, I authorized the pension of 250*l.* a year, hitherto granted to Veterinary Surgeons of 25 years' service, to be increased to 350*l.*, and that of 350*l.* after 30 years' service to be increased to 450*l.* a year.

24. An examination of the foregoing details shows how greatly all classes of Officers in the Indian Army have benefited by the alterations in the pension regulations, while very sufficient rates of pension have been fixed for those Officers who henceforward enter the Service. There are, however, some particular conditions which I think may advantageously be modified; but, before I refer to these points, I desire to advert to a complaint which has been made, that all leave of absence does not count as service for pension. The rules on this subject are not new rules, but rules that have been in existence for 27 years, which rules were again more liberal than those in force prior to 1854. These rules were not interfered with by the recent regulations, which simply augmented rates of pension all round, and they apply to no Officer who has entered the service since the year 1875. I cannot admit that the continuance of the long existing rule, which only admits leave to a certain extent to count as service for pension, constitutes any grievance whatever.

25. The position of Officers under the regulations referred to is as follows :—

The whole of the following descriptions of leave of absence count as service for pension without any deduction whatever :—

I. Recreation or regimental leave, to the extent of three days at a time within musters, and in the district, and to an aggregate of ten days in each six months.

II. Temporary or station leave, extending to ten days' absence within the Presidency in which the Officer is serving, and limited to 20 days in six months.

III. Privilege leave, irrespective of musters, to the extent of 60 days in each year, with liberty to proceed anywhere, provided the Officer taking it shall ensure return within the term of his leave. To Officers of certain local corps privilege leave is allowed for 90 days in each year, while to military Officers in civil employ it is limited to 30 days annually, but with the privilege of accumulating the leave for two or three years and then taking 60 or 90 days.

(Officers availing themselves of any of the foregoing descriptions of leave retain their full salary and emoluments).

IV. Leave rendered necessary in consequence of wounds or from ill health due to exposure on field service, to an extent not exceeding 18 months in each case.

V. Leave not exceeding 30 days preparatory to embarking on furlough, and again on return from furlough to enable an Officer to rejoin his corps or appointment.

VI. Leave granted to enable an Officer to study the Native languages at one of the Presidency towns, provided he passes the prescribed tests within the following periods :—

Higher standard in Hindustani, six months.

Examination in other languages than Hindustani, a further period of six months.

On obtaining a certificate of high proficiency, a period of 18 months in the aggregate.

On obtaining a degree of honour in Arabic, Sanscrit, or Persian, a period of two years.

26. In addition to leave taken under any of the circumstances just stated, two years leave in 20, three years in 25, four years in 30, five years in 35, and six years in 38 years' service, are allowed to count as service for pension.

27. Not only are these regulations liberal, but Officers of the Indian Service have had the further advantage of drawing furlough pay when on leave, varying from 250*l.* to 1,000*l.* a year, and of retaining staff and other situations when on leave, while in nearly all cases where leave on medical certificate has been granted, it has been allowed for a fixed term of two years, instead of being limited to the actual necessities of the case. It is impossible to consider these rules as anything but liberal in the extreme, and I believe that, in several of those cases where leave has been taken in excess of the time allowed to count as service for pension, a more strict attention on the part of superior authorities would have led to the removal from the active list of the Army of Officers who have passed a considerable portion of their service on leave on sick certificate. I must also observe that there is no analogy between the case of these Officers and that of Officers under the British service rules, who ordinarily only obtain leave for limited periods and on lower rates of pay, with the disadvantage of compulsory retirements and smaller pensions. Certain considerations have rendered it desirable to cease to deduct leave from the service for pension in the case of Officers of the late Indian Artillery and Engineers and Line Regiments who are under [illegible] sion rules, but those considerat[illegible] apply to Officers of the Staff Corps or Indian Army.

28. I have, therefore, no intention of abrogating rules which I consider to be just, and the operation of which has always been well known to the Officers concerned; but as respects the actual periods to count as service, when the leave has been taken under regulations prior to those of 1875, I have determined to sanction some small modifications, as in some cases the periods in which a certain amount of leave is allowed to count as service for pension do not correspond with the periods at which higher rates of pension are claimable. Thus, after 24 years' service the second rate of pension for combatant Officers is claimable, but the second period of leave allowed to count requires 25 years' service before it can be reckoned. I am induced, therefore, to sanction an alteration in the periods of leave to be allowed to count, so as to make each period correspond with a period of service at which a pension can now be earned. Under this view, I will allow three years' leave to count in 24 years, four years in 28, five years in 32 and six in 38 years, instead of, as at present, three years in 25, four years in 30, five years in 35, and six in 38. As respects the Medical Department, the Officers of which can claim pensions at periods different from the foregoing, and who enter the Service at a later period of life than the combatant Officers, the periods allowed will be two years in 17 years' service, three years in 20 years' service, four years in 25 years, and five years in 30 years, at which last period the highest rate of pension is claimable. This latter scale can be applied also to the Veterinary Department.

29. In making this concession, however, I must desire that no furlough on medical certificate for Officers under any furlough regulations shall be given in future for more than one year in the first instance, and it will only be renewable on satisfactory evidence that more leave is necessary. Officers at home will have to appear before a Medical Board to obtain an extension.

30. I have further determined on the two following modifications of existing rules as to length of service for pension:—

I. In my despatch, No. 258, of the 4th August last, I informed your Excellency that I had sanctioned certain higher rates of pension for all Officers of the Staff Corps and Indian Service who were entitled to Colonel's allowances after 12 years as Lieutenant-Colonel. The estimated value of the right of succession to Colonel's allowances was added to the ordinary rates of pension then in force, up to and including the pension of 456*l.* 5*s.* claimable after 32 years' service, including four years' leave of absence. These increments, however, only accrued on the attainment of the several rates of pension dependent on specifi periods of actual service. But, as the right of succession of these Officers to Colonel's allowances is not affected by leave of absence, I now sanction, in substitution of my previous order, the following addition to the old ordinary rate of ension to these Officers after each year of service from 20 to 32 inclusive; and, in fixing the pension of such Officers on retirement you will, therefore, add the following sums to the ordinary pensions to which they are entitled under regulations issued previously to August 1881, but with any benefit to which they may be entitled under the terms of paragraph 28 of this letter. For the extra pension no deduction will be made for leave of absence.

II. Officers who have entered the Staff Corps from the British Service are allowed to count all service in India for pension under Indian retiring regulations, provided half their service has been in the Staff Corps; but service out of India previous to joining the Staff Corps is not allowed to count for pension. As I recognize the value to India of the training of Officers in the British Army before joining the Staff Corps, I have determined to allow service out of India before joining the Staff Corps to count for Indian pension to an extent not exceeding two years in any case.

31. I have also had under consideration the circumstance that General Officers of the British Army may, by recent regulations, on relinquishing their claim to paid Colonelcies of regiments, receive higher half pay and special rates of pension. In the Staff Corps and Local Service nearly every General Officer has already succeeded to Colonel's allowances, and for these no alteration is requisite; but in any case where an Officer obtains early promotion to the rank of General in any branch of the Service, including Artillery and Engineers, I am prepared to allow him, on relinquishment of any title to succeed to Colonel's allowances, to claim the benefit of the rates of half pay and retiring pay, as allowed in my Despatches, Nos. 372 and 392, of 10th and 24th November 1881,* for Officers who enter after the 1st July 1881, but subject to exactly similar conditions as to removal from the effective list. The name of any Officer of the general list, or who entered the Staff Corps after the 12th September 1866, and who may elect this privilege when he becomes a General Officer, will continue to be reckoned in calculating the number of Colonel's allowances due to Officers who have not taken this privilege.

32. Finally, I have decided to allow General Officers of Artillery and Engineers to retire at any time under the conditions temporarily allowed to those Officers by the Royal Warrant of 6th September 1878.

There seems to me to be now no good reason to limit this retirement to the rank of Colonel, while the limitation of the rule may operate hardly upon Colonels who, under exceptional circumstances, may obtain promotion to the rank of Major-General before they have served five years as Colonel. Under the rule I now sanction, a General Officer, who has completed five years' service in the rank of Colonel and Major-General combined, will be entitled to retire with the extra annuity.

33. Having now completed my review of the pension regulations of the various classes of Military and Medical Officers under Indian regulations, I must express my conviction that the rules as they now stand are not, with due regard to the public interest, susceptible of further extension. I have no doubt whatever that the benefits of these regulations, combined with the other advantages of service in India, will continue to attract candidates to the Indian Service, well qualified to maintain the deservedly high reputation already acquired by the Officers of that Service.

34. I request you will cause this Despatch to be published in your General Orders, and to intimate that any benefits conferred by it will take effect from the 1st July 1881.

I have, &c.,
( Signed ) HARTINGTON.

* (Despatch 372.) "9. Those Officers will come under the compulsory retirement clauses of the Royal Warrant, on attaining the age of 55 years in the rank of Colonel, of 62 years in the rank of Major-General, and 67 years in the rank of Lieutenant-General or General. Up to the age of 55, there will be no compulsory retirement on account of age from the Staff Corps. Non-employment for five years in the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel or Colonel, and non-employment as a General Officer for five years continuously since his promotion to Major-General, or non-employment for seven years continuously from the time of his last employment as Colonel, will involve compulsory retirement on the pensions elsewhere laid down, or in the grade of—"Major-General, at 62, on 800*l.* a year.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, the 11th January 1882.

No. 59.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read the undermentioned papers relating to the issue of duplicates of Government Promissory Notes alleged to have been lost or destroyed:—

For the second time—

Proceedings in the Financial Department for the month of September 1873, Accounts, Nos. 6—12, deciding that, as a general rule, duplicate notes should not be issued till after ten years from the last correct advertisement of loss, and then only under direct orders received from the Government of India.

Proceedings in the Financial Department for October 1878, Nos. 772—773, authorising the Comptroller General to issue duplicates under the rules, taking orders of Government only in exceptional cases.

For the first time—

| Letter from | Comptroller General, | No. 733, | dated the | 23rd April | 1880. |
| ,, to | ,, ,, | No. 664, | ,, | 19th May | ,, |
| ,, from | ,, ,, | No. 2614, | ,, | 28th June | ,, |
| ,, ,, | ,, ,, | No. 2241D., | ,, | 15th ,, | ,, |

| ,, ,, | ,, ,, | No. 2468, | ,, | 27th August | ,, |
| ,, from | ,, ,, | No. 4478D., | ,, | 9th September | ,, |

OBSERVATIONS.—By existing practice, when the applicant for a duplicate note has given evidence of the loss of the original, and has established, by strong primâ facie evidence, his title to the note, and has taken the prescribed measures preliminary to the application, a duplicate is issued after the lapse of ten years from the date of the last correct advertisement of the loss on a bond being executed by the claimant and two sureties, indemnifying Government against loss. Meanwhile, interest is allowed to be drawn also under a bond of indemnity.

2. It is found that, as the law at present stands, these measures do not give the Government sufficient protection from loss, as the period of limitation against the possible holder of the original note runs only from the date on which the note becomes payable; and the date may be many years after the bond of indemnity under which the duplicates have been issued has ceased to be of any practical value.

RESOLUTION.—To protect the State from such double liability, the Governor General in Council has resolved to modify the procedure as follows:—

(1) Every claim to the issue of a duplicate note, in lieu of one alleged to be lost, will be submitted by the Public Debt Office to be provisionally decided by the Comptroller General after at least two years have elapsed from the date of the last correct advertisement.

(2) If there appears to be no objection to the issue of a duplicate note to the claimant, the Comptroller General will record his opinion to that effect, and will direct that interest upon the note be paid to the claimant after execution of a bond of indemnity with two sufficient sureties.

(3) If the note is payable after notice given in the Gazette, the Comptroller General will give that notice, and will (unless any reason to the contrary appears) issue a duplicate note, on indemnity bond as above, six years after the date of payment fixed in such notice.

(4) But if the note is of a loan of which such notice of payment cannot immediately be given, then no further steps can be taken, until notice of payment can be given in accordance with the terms of the loan.

(5) The Comptroller General will publish these notices twice a year, about January and again about July, and will to each such notice append a list showing the numbers of notes already, within the last six years, advertised for payment under this Resolution.

(6) These orders will apply to all notes on which, under existing rules, interest has been ordered to be paid, but of which duplicates have not yet been issued.

(7) No lost note of a loan, which has been ordered for discharge, may be paid until a duplicate note has been issued under the above procedure.

These orders do not apply to stock certificates payable to bearer, of which duplicates may not be issued without special orders of Government in each case.

ORDERED, that this Resolution be communicated to the Comptroller General for information and guidance, and published in the Gazette of India.

RESOLUTION.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes with satisfaction that the Local Governments and Administrations, without exception, cordially accept the scheme for the extension of the system of Provincial finance and local self-Government put forth in the Resolution of the 30th September last.

2. With reference to paragraph 9 of that Resolution, His Excellency in Council is glad now to be able to announce definitively that the contributions made to the Imperial by the Provincial Governments in the years 1879-80 and 1880-81 will be restored to them. The Comptroller General will place the amounts specified in the margin to the credit of the several Provincial Governments before the 31st March next. These amounts will, it is understood, be applied to Productive Public Works in all cases where the whole, or a portion, may not be indispensable in order to raise the Provincial working balance to a proper level.

| TOTAL | 67 |

3. In the course of the correspondence which has taken place, various questions have been asked by one Government or another, to which it may be convenient to give replies for the information of all.

4. With reference to paragraph 12 of the Resolution of 30th September, it may be explained that the figures contained in the statement were merely illustrative of the scheme as contained in the schedule, and intended to facilitate a comprehension of it by showing, as stated in the paragraph, what would be its actual operation if applied to the estimates of 1881-82. Final calculations of this nature, however, should always be based on the latest and most accurate estimate obtainable at the time of settlement; otherwise the Imperial or the Local Government, as the case might be, would be deprived of any advantage which the recent information might afford. It is intended to take the Regular Estimate of the current year as the basis for final settlement, which will be effected after careful consideration of the circumstances of each Province.

5. The allusion in the latter portion of the same paragraph to the possibility of modification being required in the schedule and statement had reference merely to the indication of transfers and exchanges made between Provincial and Local heads and of the amounts or items retained in the former, which alone constitute the resources of the Provincial Government available for general purposes. The administrative and financial arrangements thus made in pursuance of the policy of "de-provincialisation" will not, however, affect the assignment to be made from Imperial revenue.

6. The settlements now about to be effected will in all cases be for a term of five years commencing from the 1st April next. It is to be distinctly understood that the Imperial Government reserves to itself on the expiration of the term the power to revise the settlements, and to withdraw from any Local Government such portion of its grant as cannot then be continued without injustice to other Provinces whose means are straitened, or limitation of Imperial undertakings which need early development. To the Local Governments such revision will afford no cause of complaint, because the inducements now offered for entering into an agreement are the freedom to administer their own resources, and to apply at will (subject to the general standing orders) any increase reaped during the term of settlement alone. On the other hand, while the Local Governments will undertake, for the term of the settlement, all ordinary fluctuations in their revenues and expenditure, and to make such increases in the latter as may be necessary on the existing basis of administration, due allowance will be made, by modification of the fixed percentage of land revenue or otherwise, for any material alterations in the nature of their income, resulting from legislation or organic change of financial system effected for Imperial reasons.

7. In explanation of paragraph 20 of the Resolution, it may be added that the intention is to allow the Local Governments the same rights over divided revenues, and the same power to sanction new expenditure under divided heads, as they now possess in the case of the heads exclusively Provincial. It is not, however, in contemplation to disturb the existing powers of the Provincial Governments in respect of the Land Revenue, or their relations with special Departments having a distinct organisation such, for instance, as the Forest Department in Provinces other than Madras and Bombay.

8. The new terms on the subject of famine relief, contained in the Resolution, supersede any obligations which may have been imposed upon the Governments of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Punjab, and the Central Provinces of setting aside such amount as the Governor General in Council may direct for the purpose of increasing the revenues available for defraying expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine in their respective territories. Any amounts hitherto so set aside will hereafter be at the disposal of the Local Governments for ordinary Provincial expenditure. Moreover, as a consequence of the new principles laid down in the Resolution of 30th September last, and of the separate provision in the Imperial Budget of a permanent annual allotment of one crore and a half of rupees for "Famine Relief and Insurance," the Local Governments, while always needing a moderate reserve, over and above the mere "working balance," of sufficient amount to meet scarcity and distress not indisputably amounting to severe famine, or other temporary exigencies, will no longer find it necessary to accumulate a great Provincial reserve fund, out of which the demands of severe famine could in future be largely met. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that, subject to the moderate reserve just referred to, the Provincial Resources can be best utilised by being invested to the full, from year to year, in works of a Productive or Protective character.

9. The arrangements with the several Local Governments have now so far advanced that there will be no difficulty in applying the new scheme in all cases from the commencement of 1882-83. The separate communications, now in course of issue to each Local Government, will, it is believed, enable it promptly to communicate to the Local Accountant General or Controller any modifications which, in consequence of the settlement arrived at, it may desire to make in its Budget proposals for Provincial expenditure. On receipt of these by the Comptroller General, the Budget, which will have been already sent in on the 20th instant, will be recast to meet the altered circumstances, the exact percentage of Land Revenue assignment will be calculated, and a copy will be sent to the Local Government in time, when possible, to allow of special corrections being made by telegraph.

10. Regarding the measures to be adopted for extending local self-Government, detailed proposals have as yet been received from one Government only. His Excellency in Council trusts that the matter may receive as early disposal as its comprehensive nature will allow, and that, in any case, transfers and exchanges of revenues or charges will be arranged in time to come into effect with the new financial year.

ORDERED, that this Resolution be communicated to the Home, Foreign, Military, and Public Works Departments, as also to the Comptroller General and Accountants General, and the several Local Governments, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

RESOLUTION.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council has had under careful consideration the reports upon the subject of the price of salt sold at Government Works, and the practical operation of the various systems in force, which have been submitted by the Local Governments and the Commissioner of Inland Customs.

2. His Excellency in Council is satisfied that, owing to the differences of system which of necessity prevail in different parts of India, the proposal to fix a uniform price, at which salt should be sold at all Government Works throughout India, is impracticable. In order, however, to ensure that the price, in such instances as it lies in the power of Government to fix it, is calculated upon sound principles and not in such a manner as to compete at an unfair advantage with salt supplied to the market by private enterprise, the issue of definite instructions appears to be required.

3. The systems under which the Government connection with the salt trade is carried into effect are three—

(1) Charging a customs duty on all salt imported into British India.

(2) Charging an excise duty on all salt manufactured in British India by private persons on their own account.

(3) Manufacturing salt by Government on its own account, either by hired or contract labour, and selling it at a price sufficient to cover the cost of so doing, together with a fixed duty equal to the customs or excise duty.

Under the first two systems Government confines itself to taxation; under the third it undertakes the functions of a private manufacturer in addition. In former days the Government was not only a manufacturer but an absolute monopolist; but in 1836 it so far abandoned this position, on the recommendation of a Committee of the House of Commons, as to throw open the salt import trade to private enterprise, retaining a monopoly of local manufacture only. From that date onwards, it has been gradually relinquishing direct manufacture in all cases where the necessary supply of salt to the public could be ensured under either the customs duty or the excise duty systems.

4. The three systems at present prevail in the localities described below:—

(1) Customs duty.—Bengal (including Behar), Assam, and British Burma.

(2) Excise duty.—Western India, from the Tapti river south to Cape Comorin, Berar, and the south-west portion of the Central Provinces; also a few spots in Bengal and Orissa, and to a limited extent in Burma.

(3) Manufacture and monopoly.—The east coast of the Madras Presidency, the rest of the Central Provinces, Bombay north of the Tapti, Sind, the Punjab, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, Rajputana and Central India.

This classification is, of course, in very general terms; the different salts compete with each other on the boundaries, and interlace in their areas, according to local taste and preference and not price alone; but it may be considered substantially correct.

5. The charges of all kinds which fall on Government from its connection with salt may be described and classified as follows:—

|---|---|
| 1. Cost of administration ... | Charges common to all systems, and arising out of the Government taxation of salt. |
| 2. " collection ... | |
| 3. " preventive establishments | |
| 4. " production[1] ... | These charges appertain to all systems under which Government either produces salt by hired labour, or buys the salt from the actual producer for resale to the public. |
| 5. " conveyance to store-house | |
| 6. " storage ... | |
| 7. " wastage ... | |
| 8. " interest on capital, fixed or floating. | |
| 9. Treaty payments ... ... | These appertain to the same systems as the preceding. Treaty payments are not always of the same nature; in some instances they correspond with rent which might be paid by a private manufacturer for mines or salt works; in others they are payments to secure the suppression of manufacture in Foreign States, or the right to charge duty on salt consumed in such States. |
| 10. Rent of salt sources... ... | |
| 11. Cost of supervision of production | Found only when Government produces the salt by hired labour. |
| 12. Commission to agents and contractors on sales. | An exceptional charge, sometimes indispensable. |

It will be observed that cost of conveyance from store-house to market is not mentioned, because it is outside the purposes of our calculations, and necessarily falls on the consumer in proportion to his distance from the salt source from which he draws his supplies. In some cases, moreover, where the depôts are at a distance from the market, the cost of conveyance to them may be advanced by Government, and recovered in ordinary course.

6. On a scrutiny of the charges enumerated in the preceding paragraph, it will be seen that the first three only, viz., administration, collection, and prevention, are incidental to the interference of Government, for taxation purposes, in the matter of salt. The remainder are all borne alike by Government and private individuals whenever either of them undertakes the trade of producing and selling salt. From this, and economic principles which are so evident that it seems superfluous to set them forth, it follows that whenever Government and the private trader meet, they do not do so on fair terms, and the latter is unjustly weighted, unless the former scrupulously includes in its selling price (exclusive of duty) whatever items the latter has ordinarily to bear. To be more specific, the first three items of charge just mentioned should be paid out of the receipts for duty, the rate being fixed accordingly, if necessary; the remainder should all come into the calculation of the selling price with the exception of such Treaty payments as are made for the prevention of smuggling, or in order to secure for the British Government the right of charging duty on salt consumed in Foreign States. If the selling price is less than it should be, in order to cover all the proper items, a particular locality benefits at the expense of the general tax-payer; if the reverse, the Government is really levying more than the tax allowed by law, excepting of course in the case of salts which, from superior quality and limitation of supply, have an adventitious market value not dependent upon the cost of production. The price may also, in special cases, be affected by the place in which the salt is sold, the quantity included in any transaction, the sum paid by the Government for its purchase, or other peculiar circumstances affecting the sale.

7. To apply the test of these principles to every salt work or group of works with which Government is more or less connected, would in this place be a tedious and unnecessary task. It is sufficient to state that a very careful review of the Indian salt system which has been made shows that in Bengal, Bombay, Sind, and the Punjab mines, Government makes no attempt to impose any charge on salt other than the fixed duty, and, in any case where Government holds a monopoly of salt, a selling price which is calculated to cover the cost of manufacture. The price of salt in Madras is found to be fixed in conformity with the provisions of sections 8, 9, and 10 of Act XVIII of 1877.

8. At the Rajputana salt sources likewise, the price just amounts to what it ought to be under the principles already enumerated, but, as the question is in this instance complicated by large payments made under treaty with various Native States, some further explanation appears desirable. The payments by Government to Native States in Upper India fall under one or other of three heads, being in consideration of their—

(1) leasing certain salt sources to Government;
(2) taking certain measures which rendered it possible to abolish the Inland Customs line; or
(3) transferring to the British Government the right to levy duty on salt consumed by the subjects of their States.

As to the first-named payments, there can be no doubt that they should be covered by the selling price of salt. Rent of a salt source, and any payment, whether by way of royalty or otherwise, for permission to work it are as much a portion of the legitimate trade costs of manufacture as storage, wastage, or any other of the unquestioned items. If there were no Government monopoly, or even no duty, a private individual embarking in the salt business of these localities would have to pay them, just as a trader may have to purchase a predecessor's good-will, or the right to a patent, or to rent a petroleum spring or a gold-washing before he can work them. On the other hand, payments under the second and third heads are obviously incidental to the levy of a duty upon salt under any system; if the monopoly system were abolished they must be paid by Government, and they should, therefore, be met out of the proceeds of the duty and not included in the selling prices. As to the second, it may be explained that when the abolition of the Inland Customs line was contemplated, it became necessary to arrange with the bordering Native States that they should adopt such measures as would render its continuance unnecessary. The Customs line levied duty on sugar exported from British territory, and on salt imported into British territory, and it prevented the smuggling into British territory of articles, such as spirits, on which the British Government levied an excise duty. The Native States were induced, in consideration of certain payments,—(a) to close their salt works; (b) to prevent the export to British territory of salt, spirits, bhang, &c., &c.; (c) to undertake not to render the abolition of the duty on sugar nugatory by levying a transit duty on it.

As the expenditure on the Customs line, so far as regards salt, was an expenditure coming under the head of "Prevention and collection," the payments to Native States for exactly the same purposes which replaced it should also be classed under "Prevention and collection." A careful scrutiny of the treaties with the Rajputana States, under which about 28½ lakhs of rupees are paid to the latter, shows that the amount to be included on all accounts in the selling price of salt under the foregoing principles is Rs. 12,78,740. The balance is chargeable to the duty. Treating the Rajputana sources as one commercial group or concern, which is indispensable in order to prevent unreasonable differences of price within adjacent areas, it has also been ascertained that the average selling price should be 5·2 annas per maund. It actually amounted to 4·95 annas during the past year, and as the difference is inconsiderable and will almost immediately disappear owing to the increasing consumption of Sambhar salt, no change is at present called for.

9. His Excellency the Governor General in Council has considered it to be necessary, in view of the discussions which have arisen, and the uncertainty which has prevailed, to lay down the principles upon which the selling price of salt should be regulated in all parts of British India in which it is fixed by the Government. Though no change is, as far as His Excellency in Council is aware, called for immediately, it will rest with the Local Governments, and the Commissioner of Inland Customs, within their respective jurisdictions to scrutinise periodically the price from time to time in force, and to take into consideration such adjustments as an increase of sales, or of expenditure, or otherwise, may be found to demand.

RESOLUTION.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council has had under consideration the question of the administration of district treasuries throughout India, and the system for their management and periodical inspection which is at present in force under the orders quoted above.

2. The information which has already been received shows that fraudulent transactions, considerable in number and in some cases of no mean importance, have taken place within the last few years in almost every province in India. It is also difficult to resist the inference that, if so many frauds are discovered, there must be others which escape detection. It may be that the number and amount of these frauds are not greater than might be expected, considering the large number of district and subordinate treasuries (some 1,300), and the other peculiar conditions of financial administration in India. But whether frauds are more or less prevalent than might be expected, it is abundantly proved that a system of rigorous financial control over the treasuries is necessary.

3. The principal causes which lead to inefficient treasury administration appear to be the following:—

(a) Frequent changes of the officers in charge of treasuries.
(b) The placing of young and inexperienced officers in charge of treasuries.
(c) Insufficient acquaintance with the system of treasury accounts on the part of Revenue Officers.
(d) Absence of professional inspection of treasuries.
(e) Inadequate treasury establishments.

Some of these causes are specially observable in one province, others in another; but, with the view of their removal wherever they may prevail, some special regulations appear now to be indispensable.

4. It is impossible for treasury administration to be satisfactory unless it is permanently conducted by officers who have some considerable experience of and familiarity with the subject. At the same time it is not a function which requires officers of a very high grade for its efficient performance. The frequent changes of officers in charge, which occur in some provinces, appear to be attributable to (1) undue prevalence of the system by which work is distributed, as it turns up, by the Collector or Deputy Commissioner amongst his Assistant or Deputy Collectors, instead of a definite, territorial, or other specific charge being assigned to each; (2) tendency of superior officers to remain at head-quarters in preference to going into camp, and consequent delegation to them of duties comparatively trivial, or which could be equally well performed by officers of a lower grade; (3) special allowances for registration or other duties, which, being, in some provinces, coupled with the charge of a treasury, render the latter an object of desire and an incident of promotion; (4) the disposition to pass on to every new-comer the irksome, yet responsible, duty of charge of a treasury in districts where it carries no pecuniary advantage. With reference to these causes of change, it is sufficient to remark that the employment of superior officers on treasury or other comparatively routine duty is contrary to the policy which has been laid down by the highest authorities; that the system of definite, territorial, or other charges, and frequent residence in camp, as recommended by the Famine Commission (Report, pages 104-5), has received the entire approval of the Government of India; and that the inducement of special emoluments in order to secure the performance of ordinary duties is objectionable in the case of members of the covenanted and superior uncovenanted services, and has been for the most part abandoned throughout India.

5. His Excellency the Governor General in Council upon the foregoing considerations is pleased to direct—

1st.—That no covenanted civil servant (including military and uncovenanted officers in the Commissions of Non-Regulation Provinces) shall be placed in charge of a district treasury, except for the purpose of training as provided in paragraph 7 of this Resolution, or as a strictly temporary measure, pending the arrival of a Deputy Collector (or Extra Assistant Commissioner) appointed to the post.

2nd.—That all special emoluments accompanying in any locality the charge of a treasury shall cease from April 1st 1882. If the amount of these should, in any province, be considerable, it may be specially reported by the local Government when replying on the subject of revision of salaries to the letters from the Department of Finance and Commerce, dated 28th December 1881.

3rd.—That the charge of district treasuries shall be entrusted to Deputy Collectors, but may be combined with such definite charge of magisterial, revenue, municipal, or other work as may not be incompatible with the efficient performance of the primary duty of treasury administration.

4th.—That the Deputy Collectors entrusted with the charge of treasuries shall be, as far as possible, officers selected from among the whole body of Deputy Collectors for acquaintance with, or aptitude for, accounts which they may have evinced, and that, though rising in the general graded list of Deputy Collectors, they shall ordinarily be employed on treasury duty at one station or another, and thus gradually become the trained and experienced agency which is desired. Sub-divisional treasuries,[1] which are peculiar to the Lower Provinces, may, under the same general principles, be placed in charge of Deputy Collectors or of officers of the Sub-Deputy class, as to the local authorities may in each case seem expedient. It will be distinctly understood that officers in charge of treasuries should not be in any inferior position, as regards prospects of promotion, to others in the graded list who may be differently employed, and that efficiency in treasury management shall not be overlooked.

6. The appointment of young civilians, and of supernumerary and probationary Deputy Collectors, who have not passed all or any of their examinations, appears to have been a fruitful source of laxity and irregularities on the part of subordinate officials. His Excellency the Governor General in Council directs that this practice may be discontinued, and that (except as provided in paragraph 7) no Deputy or Sub-Deputy Collector remain hereafter in charge of a district or sub-divisional treasury unless he has passed the departmental examination according to the higher standard, and has also been not less than three years in the service of Government.

[1] This term is used in the local sense, and does not mean the Treasury of a Tehsildar or similar office, to which it is applied in other provinces.

7. In order to ensure a better acquaintance with the system of treasury accounts, and of the revenue accounts which in some provinces are an important contributory to the accuracy of the latter, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct—

1st.—That examination in treasury and local fund accounts, and in departmental revenue accounts, shall form a part of the test obligatory on all Assistant and Deputy Collectors or other officers at the departmental examinations according to both the lower and higher standards. The scope of the questions at the former will necessarily be somewhat elementary, but at the latter the candidate should be required to exhibit a satisfactory general acquaintance with the whole system of accounts as prevailing in the province in which he is employed. A paper of questions on treasury and local fund accounts, set by the local Accountant General or Comptroller, should form a part of the examination under each standard.

2nd.—That every "covenanted" officer, or Deputy Collector, shall, until he has passed the higher departmental examination, be placed, for purposes of training, in charge of a district treasury, under the general supervision of the Deputy Collector ordinarily in charge, or some other competent officer on the spot, for a period not less than six weeks or more than two months in each year. A certificate from the Collector of the District, that the officer in training has, under these provisions, duly attended to, and satisfactorily discharged, the duties of treasury officer shall be indispensable to the examinee being declared to have passed any departmental examination.

8. With reference to the inspection of treasuries, His Excellency the Governor General in Council trusts that, under the provisions of the last preceding paragraph, executive officers of all grades will gradually become more competent to perform the duty of inspecting treasuries. This duty is of the utmost importance, and is clearly defined in the Resolution No. 1796, dated 24th July 1880, which is to be considered as still in full force. Collectors of Districts are not to consider that by the improvement of the arrangements for the immediate charge of treasuries their own responsibility is in any sense diminished. If any Local Government, in pursuance of paragraph 5 of that Resolution, should desire to make special provision for inspection of a more professional nature, in addition to that which the local executive officers perform, His Excellency in Council will be ready to view favourably any proposals, involving increased provincial expenditure, which may be submitted, with this object. The question of whether any higher supervision and audit, by the Comptroller General or other officer of the Financial Department of the Government of India, should be superadded to the local precautions above referred to, is under separate consideration.

9. Another point worthy of attention is the large expansion of treasury transactions, which has in some provinces followed the establishment of local funds and municipalities, and the necessity of providing treasury establishments adequate, in both strength and emoluments, to the increased labour and responsibility which have thus arisen. It rests with the Local Governments and Administrations to keep a careful watch in this respect, so that a colourable excuse for laxity and irregularities may not be afforded, or a door opened to actual fraud.

10. In conclusion, His Excellency in Council would invite the special consideration of the Local Governments and Administrations to the necessity, which has been made plain by the nature of some of the frauds which have occurred, that the Revenue Department, in its various branches, should systematically ascertain that the whole of its demands are satisfactorily accounted for by collection or otherwise, and that amounts realised invariably reach the regular treasuries, where alone the responsibility of the account department begins. The Revenue and other Departmental authorities should distinctly understand that it is their duty to see that the statements which they receive, or the accounts which they keep, are in absolute accordance with the figures which appear in the financial accounts.

ORDERED, that this Resolution be communicated to the several Local Governments and Administrations for guidance, and to the Home and Revenue Departments, as also to the Comptroller General and the Accountants General and Comptrollers, for information, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

RETIREMENTS.

No. 34.—With reference to G. G. Orders Nos. 279 and 489 of 1881, the following despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 432, dated the 22nd December, 1881, is published for general information :—

Para. 1. In your Military Letter No. 210, of the 23rd June 1879, on the subject of the amelioration of the scale of pensions of the Indian Army, you make certain proposals with regard to the rates of half pay.

2. In my Military Despatch, No. 258, of the 4th August last, in which I sanctioned a revision of the then existing scale, I did not deal with the question of half pay.

3. As regards the rates, it appears to me to be sufficient to declare that combatant Officers placed on half pay shall receive the same rates as Officers of the same rank in the British Service. Medical Officers, you were informed in my Despatch, No. 112, of the 14th April last, are to receive the British rate of half pay of their relative ranks.

4. I have decided that Officers placed on temporary half pay at the recommendation of the Medical Board of the India Office shall be examined by the same Board as to their fitness to return to duty every two years, and if still reported unfit at the third examination, that is, after being six years on the temporary half pay list, that they shall be transferred to the retired list on permanent half pay. An Officer reported to be unfit at the commencement of the second period, i.e., after two years on half pay, may, however, be permitted voluntarily to retire on permanent half pay.

5. Officers unable to appear before the Medical Board at the stated times will be required to furnish a certificate, signed by two medical men, as to their inability. An Officer who is continuously unable to appear will be retired permanently after six years without further report.

6. Officers who, in view to being restored to the active list, may wish to appear before the Board at other times than those specified, may be permitted to do so. Officers ordered periodically to appear before the Board will receive their travelling expenses and lodging allowance on the Home scale, but those appearing at other times, at their own wish, must do so at their own expense.

7. Officers who have now been more than six years on the half pay list of the Staff Corps will, unless prior to the 1st July 1882 they voluntarily appear before the Board, and are then reported fit for duty, and permitted by the Secretary of State to return to India, be permanently placed on the retired list on half pay.

8. It will be understood that these provisions do not in any way abrogate the existing power vested in the Secretary of State for India to recommend to Her Majesty the removal of an Officer from the effective list of the Staff Corps to permanent retired half pay for inefficiency or misconduct, or on the report of the Medical Board at this Office that he is permanently unfit for further service.

No. 35.—With reference to para. 11 of G. G. O. No. 489 of 1881, the following despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 431, dated the 22nd December, 1881, and enclosure, is published for general information :—

Para. 1. In paragraph 22 of my Military Despatch, No. 258, of 4th August 1881, your Government were informed that I had directed the preparation of rules under which Officers retiring on and after 1st July 1881 will be allowed to commute a portion, not exceeding one-third, of their pensions at any time, either on retirement or subsequently.

2. I now forward the rules, and request that the necessary instructions may be given for carrying the system into effect throughout India.

3. Under no circumstances will an Officer serving in India be permitted to commute his pension without the report of a Medical Board at the Presidency towns, which, in conformity with the principle followed at home, should be either presided over or have as a member a Civil Medical Administrative Officer.

Regulations for the commutation of Pensions of Officers of the Indian Service.

1. These Regulations shall be applicable only to Officers retired on or after the 1st July 1881.

2. An Officer may be allowed to commute a portion, not exceeding one-third, of his pension, which commutation may take place on retirement, or at any time subsequent thereto.

3. An Officer in Europe desirous of commuting, must make application, in writing, to the Under Secretary of State for India, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, rank, and the amount of his pension.

4. If the Secretary of State for India in Council shall approve the commutation, the Officer will be so informed, and his application will be forwarded to the Standing Medical Board at the India Office.

5. The Board will require the Officer to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination by the Board at the India Office.

6. An Officer in India desirous of commuting, must address the authorities of his Presidency. He will be required to go through similar forms, Boards, which will, when practicable, be presided over by the chief Civil Medical Administrative Officer of the Government, being formed in the Presidency towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, under orders of the respective Governments.

7. The basis of commutation, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives, shall be the following table, the age of the Officer being reckoned at the age he will attain on the birthday next succeeding the date of the receipt of his application for commutation :—

RESOLUTION.—In the Financial Statement of the current year, it was announced that the sum of £1,500,000, to be provided annually as an insurance against famine, instead of being considered, as heretofore, to be a surplus receipt for subsequent appropriation, would be treated as a fixed portion of the normal expenditure of each year. At the same time, the Government of India reaffirmed its applicability to the extinction of debt, the relief of famine, or the construction of protective works, not necessarily remunerative, but obviously protective in the sense of guarding against a probable future outlay in the relief of the population, and declared their intention to nominate a "Commission for the reduction of debt," with a view to the more effectual execution of the famine insurance policy. It was also pointed out that the amount to be provided as an insurance against famine was only so far dependent upon the receipts from the License Tax and the Public Works cesses that those receipts go to swell the general revenue and by so much facilitate the execution of the policy under discussion, that the policy of the Government was to apply annually a specified sum from the general revenue in order to provide an insurance against famine, that there was no special connection between the amount so provided and the amount received from the License Tax or the Public Works cesses, and that those taxes had never yielded so large a sum as £1,500,000 in any one year.

2. In pursuance of the policy thus briefly explained, it has been decided, that the heading in the Budget and the Public Accounts shall be amended and divided into three sub-heads, as shown in the margin. The first sub-head will comprise all actual relief; the other two will represent Famine Insurance under the two forms in which it is provided. The relief of actual famine will be a first charge upon the whole million and a half annually provided as expenditure; protective works will be the next charge, but only to the extent of three-quarters of a million, or such portion of that sum (if any) as may remain after all necessary relief of actual famine has been afforded; to reduction of debt the remaining three-quarters of a million will be assigned, except so far as all or any portion of it may be needed for relief of actual famine. In the event of any portion of the allotment for Protective Public Works not being actually expended in the course of the year, it will be carried forward for expenditure in the year following, in addition to any fresh allotment appertaining to the latter.

31. Famine Relief and Insurance.
1. Relief.
2. Protective Works.
3. Reduction of Debt.

3. With reference to the disposal of the amount thus appropriated to the reduction of debt, His Excellency the Governor General in Council has little to add to the information which has already been afforded to the public in paragraphs 59 to 66 of the Financial Statement for the current year, and on previous occasions. Whether the sum available shall be appropriated to the actual discharge of existing rupee debt or sterling debt, or whether it shall be temporarily invested in Government securities, or whether it shall be re-transferred from the Commissioners to the Government treasury with a view to the avoidance pro tanto of new debt which might otherwise be incurred for the construction of Productive Public Works, is a question which must be considered and determined from year to year, in view of the condition of the money market in India and England, and other circumstances. It may, however, be explained that Her Majesty's Government is precluded by the provision of the 41st clause of the Act 21 and 22 Vic., cap. 106, that "the expenditure of the revenues of India, both in India and elsewhere, shall be subject to the control of the Secretary of State in Council," from entrusting the final decision of this important question to any independent authority.

4. The "Commission for the reduction of debt" will consist of three members, namely, one high Government official, holding the post ex-officio, together with one European and one Native member of the non-official community. They will be appointed from time to time by His Excellency the Governor General in Council, and the non-official members will ordinarily hold office for a term of two years. Although His Excellency in Council is unable, for the reason above stated, to invest the Commission with independent authority, he trusts that it will be able to perform consultative and auditing functions of high value to both the State and the public.

5. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules with reference to the Famine Insurance appropriation for the reduction of debt:—

1st.—On a certain date in every official year, not earlier than the 15th February, or later than the 31st of March or any subsequent date previous to which it may not have been possible, owing to expenditure on actual famine, to ascertain the actual state of the account, the Government of India shall, by a Resolution to be published in the Gazette of India, make known to the public the manner in which the famine allotment of one million and a half has been, or is being, appropriated during the year, under the general policy above explained.

2nd.—On the receipt of such Resolution, the Comptroller General shall forthwith transfer to a separate deposit head in the public accounts, called the "Account of the Commission for the reduction of debt," the amount, if any, set forth in the Resolution as available for the reduction of debt.

3rd.—The Commissioners for the reduction of debt shall, on the receipt of the said Resolution, or as soon after as may be, submit to the Government of India their recommendations for the disposal of any amount so available.

The Government of India shall, after full consultation with the Commissioners, issue to the Comptroller General such instructions for the disposal of the amount in the reduction of debt as it may think fit.

5th.—The Comptroller General shall thereupon, without any unnecessary delay, carry such instructions into effect, and shall furnish the Commissioners whatever evidence, in the form of Appropriation Accounts or otherwise, they may require for the purpose of satisfying themselves that the amount has been disposed of in the manner prescribed. On being so satisfied, the Commission shall give to the Comptroller General an authority in writing for clearing the amount disposed of to their account, constituted under Rule 2.

The Commissioners shall, as soon after the close of each official year as it may be in a position to do so, convey to the public, by a notification to be published in the Gazette of India, the manner in which the whole Famine allotment of one million and a half for that year has been disposed of.

7th.—The Commission shall be entitled to free access to the recorded correspondence, and the accounts of the Government of India, so far as the same may be necessary, for the purpose of enabling it duly to perform the functions hereby assigned to it.

8th.—The Commission may submit for the consideration of the Government of India any remarks or suggestions on matters within the scope of its duties, which it may deem expedient, and the Government of India may similarly consult the Commission on such matters, at any time other than that specified in Rule 3rd. All recommendations of the Commission shall be fully considered by the Government of India, and the reasons for not in any instance carrying any such recommendations into effect shall be communicated to the Commission.

9th.—All business in connection with the Commission will be conducted by the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce.

6. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to nominate the following gentlemen to be members of the Commission for the reduction of debt :—

The Head Commissioner of Paper Currency (ex-officio).
Mr. J. J. J. Keswick.
The Hon'ble Durga Churn Law.

The action of the Commission under the 3rd and 4th Rules has for the current year been unavoidably anticipated by the Notifications in the Department of Finance quoted in the margin, under which about Rs. 84,00,000 of the Indian 5 and 4 per cent. rupee debt will be discharged by an appropriation of the Famine allotment; but in other respects the Rules will be fully brought into effect from this date.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General observes that black writing ink of Indian manufacture, and of good quality as regards colour and durability, is procurable at a price much cheaper than that paid for the imported article.

2. In pursuance of the policy of the Government of India to substitute articles of Indian manufacture for European stores, His Excellency in Council directs that the use of Morrell's black registration ink shall be discontinued, and that Stephen's blue-black and black ink shall be issued in small quantities, sufficient only for the use of the few high functionaries who may prefer it to Indian-made ink.

3. Red registration ink apparently must still be imported, as a permanent and useful red ink has not yet been prepared in the country.

ORDERED, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, as well as to the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta, and the several Departments of the Government of India for information and guidance.

And also, that the Resolution and the letter from the Superintendent of Stationery, No. 4806 of 16th January 1882, be published in the Gazette of India.

No. 4806, dated 16th January 1882.

From—W. H. RYLAND, Esq., Offg. Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta,
To—The Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of India, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

With reference to your letters Nos. 3134 and 3201, dated the 20th and 26th September last, I have the honour to report as follows.

2. On receipt of your letters I collected all the samples of ink in issue from this store, and also obtained others from Dr. Waldie and Mr. John Thomson, another well-known local manufacturer of writing ink, and placed myself in communication with the Government Chemical Examiner, Dr. Warden, whose report on the subject I beg to forward in original, with the accompanying abstract compiled from it.

3. Ten samples of inks, distinguished on the margin, were sent to the Chemical Examiner for report as to their durability and relative merits. Of these descriptions of ink, Nos. 1, 3, and 4 (black ink) and Nos. 2 and 9 (red ink) are of European make, and the rest are locally manufactured.

Black Ink (Fluid).
No. 1, Morrell's black registration.
3, Stephen's black ink.
4, " blue-black ink.
5, Dr. Waldie's black.
(Powder.)
8, Amritolal Roy's black.
Red Ink.
2, Morrell's red registration.
6, Dr. Waldie's brilliant red.
7, " crimson.
9, Fuchsine aniline crystals.
10, Thomson's roseate.

4. From the result of the experiments made by the Chemical Examiner, there does not appear to exist any appreciable difference between Morrell's black registration ink (No. 1), Stephen's ink Nos. 3 and 4, and Dr. Waldie's No. 5, so as to make it advisable to use ink No. 1 for registration purposes. In comparing the relative cost of these inks it will be found that Dr. Waldie's ink No. 5 is the cheapest, and is lower in price than Morrell's No. 1 by Rs. 8-4-0 per dozen quarts, while at the same time it is reported to have most resisted the action of the reagents used. An objection to it is that the quality is not always uniform, but this may be overcome.

The relative cost of the three inks is as follows, being largely in favour of Dr. Waldie's :—

| | Per qt. Rs. | A. | P. |
|---|---|---|---|
| No. 1, Morrell's black, at ... ... ... ... | 0 | 14 | 0 |
| No. 3, } Stephen's black, at ... ... ... ... | { 0 | 13 | 4 |
| No. 4, } | { 1 | 6 | 8 |
| No. 5, Waldie's black, at ... ... ... ... | 0 | 3 | 0 |

5. I am therefore of opinion that Morrell's black registration ink No. 1 and Stephen's black No. 3 may be replaced by Dr. Waldie's black ink No. 5. It must, however, be left to Government to decide whether the use of Stephen's inks Nos. 3 and 4 should altogether be discontinued, as certain officers demur to the use of Dr. Waldie's ink, and the consumption of Stephen's ink is about 500 bottles a year, which is issued only to the special officers noted on the margin.

His Excellency the Viceroy.
" " the Commander-in-Chief.
Lieutenant-Governors.
Secretariat offices under the Government of India and Bengal.
Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces.

6. The bulk of the ink supply to offices in the interior is in the shape of powder, and this is a necessity not only to avoid the risks of breakage, but on account of the compactness and comparative cheapness of transit, and these considerations must largely affect the question both as to black and red inks. The quantity of each issued in a fluid and in a dry state in one year is as follows :—

| | Black Ink. | Red Ink. |
|---|---|---|
| Quarts (fluid) ... ... ... ... | 10,887 | 1,157 |
| Packets equal to quarts (dry) ... ... ... | 40,009 | 10,767 |

7. English ink powder was formerly used, but during the last eight years the article manufactured in this country has been substituted. The sample No. 8 by Amritolal Roy is being tried for the first time during the current official year. It is cheap, and appears to me to be good enough for general purposes. During the last nine months that it has been issued, I have received only three complaints as to its quality; but most objections made to the ink arise from want of care and cleanliness in the preparation of the ink.

8. The Chemical Examiner reports that the ink produced from No. 8 was "the only one that showed marked signs of fading on exposure to the action of light," but the signs were on the whole very faint, and the test was a severe one, such as in ordinary use writing ink is never subjected to. In other respects it is said not to differ materially from the other samples. "All flow well and produce a good colour on paper." Sample No. 8 is also decidedly the cheapest, the price per bottle of 18 ounces, the product of two packets of powder according to the results given by the Chemical Examiner, being 1 anna 3 pie against 1 anna 11 pie for the same volume of Dr. Waldie's No. 5, which is the next cheapest. Dr. Warden has made a mistake in reckoning the cost at Re. 1 per dozen instead of 4 annas per dozen packets of the powder. I consider, therefore, that it is not necessary to discard the present mode of supplying Mofussil offices with ink in powder. Any existing defect in quality will probably be removed in time by competition, the contract being made yearly.

9. With respect to red ink, the use of No. 9 (Fuchsine aniline crystals), which has the advantage of all the others in point of cheapness, was approved in your letter No. 3649, dated 12th November 1880. All the samples are said to be aniline inks, with the exception of No. 2 Morrell's, which is composed of vegetable colouring materials. The Chemical Examiner reports: "The only red ink which resisted the action of sun-light was Morrell's No. 2, but, on the other hand, its colour was discharged more or less completely by three of the reagents used," and that "the certainty of aniline inks fading after a comparatively short period renders them unfit for work in which anything like permanency is requisite."

10. It would therefore appear that Morrell's ink is best suited for the registration work, for which it is required, being the most durable as respects sun-light and washing out in boiling water, but for all other general purposes the ink from Fuchsine crystals seems to me sufficiently well-adapted, if carefully prepared. As regards liability to fade in common with the other aniline samples, I beg to submit a specimen sheet written upon in 1877 with Fuchsine ink, which exhibits no apparent sign of decay, and greater permanency is scarcely requisite for ordinary records. Its extreme cheapness and portability are greatly in its favour, and I would therefore recommend its continued adoption for the general stock.

11. I beg to submit herewith as further directed a memorandum of the cost of despatching a dozen quart bottles of ink to the stations named, but I would mention that ink in powder being generally supplied to those stations, the heavy cost of transit in bottles here given is not incurred.

12. The ten samples of ink examined by the Chemical Examiner are herewith forwarded.

P. S.—If the Chemical Examiner's report be not required, its return is requested.

In other respects the inks do not differ materially. All flow well and produce a good colour on paper. Regarding the chemical composition of the inks, all the black are essentially gall inks. The only experiment which bears on the question of permanency was the exposure to sun-light, and it is very probable that under ordinary circumstances inks Nos. 1, 3, 4, and 5 will keep their colour equally well. While Dr. Waldie's No. 5 resisted the action of re-agents. |

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read the undermentioned papers regarding the supply of leather belting for driving machines :—

Letter from Messrs. Foy, Brothers & Co., Cawnpore, dated the 27th December 1881.
„ to the Mint Master, Calcutta, No. 276, dated the 17th January 1882.
„ „ Military Department, „ 277, „ „ „
„ from Mint Master, Calcutta, „ 34, „ „ „

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General observes that leather belting, suitable for all ordinary driving purposes, and quite equal to the average of imported belting, is being made of Indian leather by Messrs. Foy, Brothers & Co., of Cawnpore, amongst others. His Excellency in Council requests that when belting is required for the public service in India, the Local Governments and Departments concerned will make careful enquiry of local manufacturers of leather before indenting upon the India Office. Whenever such Indian-made belting is obtainable of quality suited to the work required and at a price not higher than that of imported belting, it should be purchased, and no indents for this article on the India Office should be allowed.

ORDERED, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, to the Military and Public Works Departments, and to Messrs. Foy, Brothers & Co.

Ordered also, that it be published in the Gazette of India.

The Hon'ble Maharaja Jotendro Mohan Tagore, C S.I.
Lepel Henry Griffin, Esq., C.S.I.
Sirdar Bikrama Singh, Ahluwalia, C.S.I.

The seats of Members of the Order were placed on either side of the Dais, right and left, in alternate order, according to seniority.

There being no Knights Grand Commanders present, the Knights Commanders and the Companions of the Order assembled in the Council Chamber. A procession was formed of the Members of the Order according to ancient custom, and proceeded to the Throne Room, the Junior preceding the Senior Members of the Order.* All present rose and remained standing till the GRAND MASTER took his seat.

* NOTE.—As the Chapter was held at night, the GRAND MASTER determined that no Salutes were to be fired on the occasion.

The following was the order of the procession:—

Spears.
Maces.
The Marshal of the Procession.
The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department.
The Secretary of the Order.
Companions of the Star of India.
Knights Commanders of the Star of India.

| The Military Secretary to the Viceroy. | The Private Secretary to the Viceroy. |

Officer bearing the Banner of the GRAND MASTER.

His Excellency the Grand Master, G.M.S.I.

Pages and Personal Staff of His Excellency the GRAND MASTER.

On entering the Throne Room, each Member of the Order filed off, right and left, to the seat allotted to him, and made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER as His Excellency passed.

The Band played the National Anthem. At its conclusion, His Excellency the GRAND MASTER ordered the Secretary to call the roll of those summoned to attend the Chapter. Each Member of the Order who was present bowed to the Grand Master as his name was called, and took his seat.

When the roll-call was over, the Secretary, by command of the GRAND MASTER, declared the Chapter open.

The Secretary then reported that the business before the Chapter was the investiture of His Highness the Nawab of Bahawulpur as a Knight Grand Commander, and of Sirdar Dewa Singh of Patiala, James Davidson Gordon, Esq., C.S.I., and Lepel Henry Griffin, Esq., C.S.I., as Knights Commanders; and the decoration of Sirdar Bakshi Ganda Singh of Patiala, Dewan Ram Jas of Kapurthalla, Lieutenant-Colonel William Tweedie, Henry Mortimer Durand, Esq., Wazirzada Muhammad Afzal Khan, Horace, Abel Cockerell, Esq., and Charles Grant, Esq., with the Badge of the Third Class of the Order under the Sovereign's Grants.

The Secretary then delivered to His Excellency the GRAND MASTER the Sovereign's Grant of the dignity of Knight Grand Commander.

The Secretary of the Order with the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department and the two Junior Knights Commanders then withdrew from the Chapter in order to conduct His Highness the Nawab of Bahawulpur into the presence of the GRAND MASTER.

A procession was then formed of—Spears.

Maces.
The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, bearing the Insignia of the Order.
The Secretary of the Order.
The two Junior Knights Commanders present.
Officer bearing the furled Banner of His Highness.
His Highness the NAWAB OF BAHAWULPUR.
Pages and Attendants of His Highness.

The Guard of Honor presented arms as His Highness passed. All Members of the Second and Third Classes of the Order rose and remained standing until the proclamation, hereinafter mentioned, was made.

His Highness, with the two Knights Commanders, advanced to within a few paces from the Dais, and the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department placed the Insignia on the table.

The Secretary, having received from the GRAND MASTER and read the Sovereign's Grant in favor of the NAWAB OF BAHAWULPUR, conducted His Highness to the table, and the Junior Knight Commander, receiving the Riband and Badge from the Secretary, decorated the Nawab therewith, and the next Junior Knight, receiving the Star of the Order from the Secretary, attached it in its proper place.

The two Knights Commanders next robed His Highness with the Mantle of the Order.

This done, His Highness was conducted by the Secretary to the front of the Dais, and made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER.

Meanwhile the two Junior Knights withdrew to their places and remained standing.

The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department took from the table the Collar of the Knight Grand Commander, and, with due reverence, delivered it to the GRAND MASTER.

The GRAND MASTER, remaining seated, then invested His Highness with the Collar, and addressed the following admonition :

"In the name of the Queen and Empress of India and by Her Majesty's Command, I hereby invest you with the Honorable Insignia of the Star of India, of which Most Exalted Order Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint you to be a Knight Grand Commander."

When the admonition had been given, the newly-invested Knight made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER, and was then conducted by the Secretary to his seat, in front of which he remained standing. The Officer bearing His Highness' Banner then unfurled it, the Guard of Honor presented arms, and the Secretary of the Order proclaimed the full titles of His Highness, that is to say —

His Highness Rukn-ud-Daula, Nasrat Jang, Hafiz-ul-Mulk, Mukhlis-ud-Daula, Nawab Sadik Muhammad Khan Bahadur, Knight Grand Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India.

The proclamation being ended, all resumed their seats.

The investiture of the Knight Grand Commander having been accomplished, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department and the two Junior Knights Commanders conducted SIRDAR DEWA SINGH from his seat to the Dais. Members of the Third Class of the Order present rose from their seats.

After SIRDAR DEWA SINGH had made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER, he was conducted by the Secretary to the table. The two Junior Knights Commanders, by desire of the GRAND MASTER, on receiving the Star of the Order from the Secretary, attached it in the proper place. This done, SIRDAR DEWA SINGH was conducted by the Secretary to the front of the Dais, and made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER.

Meanwhile the two Junior Knights Commanders withdrew to their places and resumed their seats.

The Under-Secretary then, with due reverence, delivered the Riband and Badge of the Order to the GRAND MASTER.

The GRAND MASTER next invested SIRDAR DEWA SINGH with the Riband and Badge, addressing him as follows :—

"In the name of the Queen and Empress of India and by Her Majesty's Command, I hereby invest you with the Honorable Insignia of the Star of India, of which Most Exalted Order Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint you to be a Knight Commander."

The newly-invested Knight then made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER, and was led by the Secretary to the seat appointed for him: those standing resumed their seats.

Similar ceremonies were observed on the investiture of James Davidson Gordon, Esq., C.S.I., and Lepel Henry Griffin, Esq., C.S.I., as Knights Commanders, with this exception that, after each had been led to the Dais and had made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER, the GRAND MASTER conferred upon him the Title, Degree, and Honor of a Knight Bachelor of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after which each in turn was conducted by the Secretary to the table.

The investiture of the Knights Commanders having been finished, the Secretary presented to the GRAND MASTER the Badges of the Third Class of the Order for the Companions to be decorated.

The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department then conducted SIRDAR BAKSHI GANDA SINGH of Patiala to the front of the Dais, where he made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER.

The GRAND MASTER then handed the Badge of the Third Class of the Order for SIRDAR BAKSHI GANDA SINGH to the Secretary, who attached it in its proper place. Thereafter SIRDAR BAKSHI GANDA SINGH made his reverence to the GRAND MASTER, and was conducted by the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department to the seat appointed for him.

Similar ceremonies were observed in conferring the Badges of the Third Class on Dewan Ram Jas of Kapurthalla, Lieutenant-Colonel William Tweedie, Henry Mortimer Durand, Esq., Wazirzada Muhammad Afzal Khan, Horace Abel Cockerell, Esq., and Charles Grant, Esq., with this exception as regards the last named Companion, that His Excellency the GRAND MASTER himself attached the Badge.

The Secretary then represented that there was no further business before the Chapter, and the GRAND MASTER, rising, commanded him to declare the Chapter dissolved.

A procession of Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India, Knights Commanders of the Star of India, and Companions of the Star of India was thereupon formed and left the Marble Hall and returned to the Council Room in the reverse order to that in which it entered, a Grand March being performed and the Guard of Honor presenting arms.

The Secretary of the Order and the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department conducted the Knight Grand Commander to his carriage.

Full dress was worn by all Officers on this occasion, and evening dress by all Gentlemen who were not entitled to wear uniform.

By Command of His Excellency the GRAND MASTER,

C. GRANT,

Secretary to the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, the 21st February 1882.

No. 1065.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read again—

Financial Resolution No. 3780, dated 21st October 1881.

Read also the undermentioned papers:—

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Government of Bombay, No. 13, dated the 22nd September 1881.

Letter to the Government of Bombay, No. 3809, dated the 25th October 1881.

„ from „ „ „ 7521, „ 14th November 1881, and enclosures.

„ to the Governments of the North-Western Provinces and Punjab, No. 1806, dated the 6th December 1881.

„ from the Government of the Punjab, No. 15, dated the 21st January 1882.

RESOLUTION.—In the Resolution No. 3780 of 21st October the Chief Commissioner of Assam was told that swords required for the Police should be obtained of Indian manufacture instead of being procured from England. He was at the same time informed that swords of better quality than those ordinarily made for trade purposes in England were manufactured by native armourers in the Punjab and the North-Western Provinces.

2. The Government of Bombay having about the same time sent to the Secretary of State for India an indent for swords required for the Bombay Police, the Secretary of State enquired whether suitable swords for such services could not be purchased in India at a cost equivalent to the estimate given in the indents. The Government of Bombay reported that good country-made swords could not be procured at the price mentioned. The Secretary of State accordingly sanctioned the supply of swords from England.

3. A copy of this correspondence having been obtained from the Government of Bombay, enquiry was made of the Governments of the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab as to the sources whence swords for the Police in those Provinces were obtained. From the answer received from the Government of the Punjab it appears that all sergeants and men of the local Police are armed exclusively with Indian-made swords, that good weapons can be made in almost any district of the Province, and that skilled workmen are to be found in the Districts of Gujrat and Gujranwala.

4. The Governor General in Council accordingly requests that, in future, swords required for the Police and other Departments may be procured of Indian manufacture in communication with the Inspector General of Police in the Punjab, if they cannot be made within the local limits of the Presidency or Province concerned.

ORDERED, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

Also, to the Military Department for consideration, with reference to the supply of swords to native troops.

The 24th February 1882.

No. 1153.—Mr. A. D. Carey, Bombay Civil Service, received charge of the Office of Commissioner of Inland Customs, before noon, on the 20th February 1882.

No. 1174.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read the following:—

No. 29, dated 26th January 1882.

From—The Secretary of State for India,
To—The Government of India.

With reference to my despatch of the 31st of August last, No. 256, and to your letter of the 5th of August 1881, No. 56 (Separate Revenue, Post Office), relative to the date of departure of the mails from India, I forward herewith, for your information, a copy of the correspondence noted in the margin, from which it will be seen that the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have desired the Post Master General to carry into effect the proposals of the Committee which reported on the question on the 24th of December last.

To Post Office, dated 22nd September 1881.
From ditto, dated 25th October 1881.
To ditto, dated 10th November 1881.
From ditto, dated 28th November 1881.
To ditto, dated 28th November 1881.
From Treasury, dated 27th December 1881, with Report of Committee.
To ditto, dated 31st December 1881.
From ditto, dated 5th January 1882.

2. The result will be that the mails will leave Calcutta on Saturday during the monsoon, and on Tuesday during the fair weather, the steamers quitting Bombay on the afternoon of Tuesday and Friday respectively.

3. I trust that this arrangement will prove acceptable to your Government and to the community in India.

Dated 22nd September 1881.

From—SIR LOUIS MALLET, Under-Secretary of State for India,
To—The Secretary, General Post Office, London.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to forward herewith, for any observations which Her Majesty's Postmaster General may wish to make thereon, a copy of a letter* from the Government of India, with its enclosures, relative to the inconvenience stated to be occasioned in that country by the present date of departure of the mails from Bombay.

A copy of a despatch† addressed to the Government of India, on the 31st of August, is also forwarded herewith.

* Dated 5th August 1881, No. 56.

† No. 256.

No. 369G., dated 25th October 1881.

From—S. A. BLACKWOOD, Esq., Secretary, General Post Office, London,
To—The Under-Secretary of State for India.

I am directed by the Postmaster General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 22nd of last month, No. F. 2920, in which you forwarded, for his observations, a copy of a letter from the Government of India, with its enclosures, relative to the day of departure of the mails from Bombay.

Mr. Fawcett has also received a letter from the Postmaster General of Victoria, dealing with the cognate question of the day of departure from Melbourne during the monsoon period.

The Government of India proposes that, from the beginning of next year, the departure from Bombay should take place at 10-30 on Friday morning all the year round, or, if that cannot be arranged, that that day and hour shall be fixed for the departure during the fair weather season, and that 10-30 on Tuesday morning shall be substituted during the monsoon.

The Victorian Post Office, on the other hand, proposes that, during the period of the south-west monsoon, the departure from Melbourne may be fixed for 1 P.M. on Tuesday.

Without at present going into details, I am to point out, for the information of the Marquis of Hartington, that, while either proposal is at variance with the requirements of this country as hitherto conceived, the two proposals are in themselves incompatible.

In these circumstances, Mr. Fawcett would suggest that the whole question should be discussed by a Committee of representatives from the India Office, the Colonial Office, the Treasury, and the Post Office, who would have the opportunity of receiving any representations which the Contractors and the Agents General of the Australian Colonies might desire to make.

Dated 10th November 1881.

From—SIR LOUIS MALLET, Under-Secretary of State for India,
To—The Secretary, General Post Office, London.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th ultimo, No. 369G., relative to the date of departure of the mails from Bombay.

In reply, I am to acquaint you that the Marquis of Hartington concurs in Mr. Fawcett's suggestion that the whole question should be considered by a Committee of representatives from this Office, the Colonial Office, the Treasury, and the Post Office, and will be prepared to nominate a representative of this Office on learning that Mr. Fawcett's proposal has been generally accepted.

No. 403G., dated 28th November 1881.

From—S. A. BLACKWOOD, Esq., Secretary, General Post Office, London,
To—The Under-Secretary of State for India.

With reference to your letter of the 10th instant, No. F 3269, I am directed by the Postmaster General to state to you, for the information of the Marquis of Hartington, that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have approved of the proposed Departmental Committee to consider the question of the dates to be fixed for the Indian and Australian Mail Services, and have appointed Mr. John Holms, M.P., to represent the Treasury.

Subject to the convenience of the other members of the Committee, Mr. Holms has named Wednesday next, at 11-30 A.M., at the General Post Office, for the first meeting of the Committee, and Mr. Fawcett hopes that it will be convenient to the representative of the India Office to attend on that day.

Dated 28th November 1881.

From—SIR LOUIS MALLET, Under-Secretary of State for India,
To—The Secretary, General Post Office, London.

In reply to your letter of this day's date, stating that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have approved of the proposed Departmental Committee to consider the question of the dates to be fixed for the Indian and Australian Mail Services, and have appointed Mr. John Holms, M.P., to represent the Treasury, I am directed to inform you that the Marquis of Hartington has nominated Mr. Henry Waterfield, the Financial Secretary of the India Office, to represent this Department on the Committee, and he will accordingly attend at the General Post Office, at 11-30 A.M., on Wednesday next.

I am to add that Lord Hartington understands from your letter of the 25th of October that the object of the Committee is to discuss the question of the dates which it is most desirable to fix, after receiving any representations which the Contractors and the Agents General of the Australian Colonies may desire to make; and that the action of the Secretary of State in Council will not be fettered by any recommendations which the Committee may make.

No. 21731, dated 27th December 1881.

From—R. R. W. LINGEN, Esq., Secretary to the Lords Commissioners, H. M.'s Treasury,
To—The Under Secretary of State for India.

In transmitting to you the enclosed copy of a Report, dated the 24th instant, from the Committee which has recently been sitting on the question of the days of departure and arrival of the India, China, and Australian mails, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request that you will move the Marquis of Hartington to cause my Lords to be informed, at his earliest convenience, whether he approves of the arrangements proposed by the Committee, in order that the necessary steps may be taken for carrying the new time-table into effect.

Report by the Committee appointed to consider the dates to be fixed for the Indian, China, and Australian Mail Services,—dated 24th December 1881.

Your Committee have considered the question referred to them, of the dates which it is desirable to fix in the time-tables for 1882, as those on which the mails should leave Australia and India. They have had before them the representations made by the Victorian Government regarding the inconvenience of a departure from Melbourne at midday on Monday in the monsoons, as well as those of the Government of India, respecting the disadvantage under which Calcutta labours in consequence of the mail leaving that place on Saturday in the monsoon, and on Monday in the fair season. They have also discussed the question of the Melbourne mails with Major-General Pasley, the Acting Agent General for Victoria.

Under the time-tables for the present year the mails should during the monsoon leave Melbourne on Monday, Adelaide on Wednesday, King George's Sound on Sunday, and Galle on Sunday, and should arrive at Suez on Tuesday. The corresponding mails would leave Calcutta on Saturday, and Bombay on Tuesday, arriving at Suez also on Tuesday. The combined mails are due in London on Monday afternoon. In practice, the Government of Victoria has, during the present year, on all occasions except one, detained the vessel at Melbourne till 1 P.M. on Tuesday; but, notwithstanding the departure being later by 24 hours, the mails have not, on the whole, arrived in London after the contract time.

To sanction the delay of the departure of the mail from Melbourne for a whole day would involve the corresponding mail being fixed to leave Calcutta on Sunday, which would not be accepted by the Government of India. Your Committee, however, learn that the Peninsular and Oriental Company would be willing so far to meet the views of the Victorian Government as to delay the departure of the packet till daylight on Tuesday, with the understanding that six hours can be made up in the run to Galle, and that, under the concession offered in May last by the Postmaster General, a further delay of 12 hours may take place at Galle if requisite.

Your Committee therefore recommend that as regards the monsoon season no alteration should be made in the time-table of the India and China mails, the Victorian Government carrying the suggested alteration at Melbourne into effect, if they desire it. A note should, however, be made in the China time-table, that in the event of the packet from Australia being late in arriving at Point de Galle, the China packet may be detained for 12 hours at that port.

During the fair season the mails, under the existing time-tables, leave Melbourne on Wednesday, Adelaide on Friday, King George's Sound on Tuesday, and Galle on Tuesday, and are timed to arrive at Suez on Tuesday. The corresponding mails leave Calcutta on Monday, and Bombay on Thursday, arriving in London nominally on Monday afternoon. In practice, however, they are generally received about 24 hours sooner.

Your Committee think that the difficulty felt in this case by Calcutta may be removed by allowing the whole service to take place one day later, so that the mails would be timed to leave Calcutta on Tuesday, Bombay on Friday, Melbourne on Thursday, and Galle on Wednesday, arriving at Suez on Wednesday, and being delivered in London nominally on Tuesday afternoon, but probably, judging from past experience, in most cases in time for despatch from London on Monday evening.

Your Committee admit that, as the contracts with Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company allow them a certain number of hours within which to deliver the mails, the time-tables must be arranged on that basis, but they see no reason why advantage should not be taken of the greater rapidity with which the mails are usually conveyed to meet the wishes of the communities of Calcutta and Melbourne, with small risk of inconvenience to the Scotch centres of industry. If your Committee's proposals are accepted, the nominal time for the arrival of the mails in London will be Monday afternoon during the monsoon, and Tuesday afternoon in the fair season; but if the experience of the past year is repeated, the actual time of arrival will be 24 hours earlier, and it will be seen that whenever they arrive in time for despatch to the North on Tuesday evening by the mail train at 10 minutes to 9 P.M., the letters will be delivered in Scotland in the course of Wednesday morning. The mail train out would leave Aberdeen at 12-30, Dundeee at 3-30, and Glasgow at 6 on Thursday afternoon, thus giving to the most distant place 24 hours for reply.

It may no doubt occasionally happen that a delay in the arrival of the vessel may shorten this interval, but, weighing this possible risk against the certainty of great inconvenience at Melbourne and Calcutta if no change be effected, your Committee recommend that an endeavour be made to meet the wishes of those cities in the manner suggested.

Dated 31st December 1881.

From—HENRY WATERFIELD, Esq., Financial Secretary, India Office,
To—The Secretary to the Lords Commissioners, H. M.'s Treasury.

In reply to your letter of the 27th instant, I am directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to acquaint you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that he is prepared to accept, as regards India, the proposals made by the Committee, which has recently reported on the question of the days of departure of the India, China, and Australia mails; and that, on learning that they have been approved by Her Majesty's Government, he will communicate the decision to the Government of India.

Dated 5th January 1882.

From—J. H. COLE, Esq., Secy. to the Lords Commissioners, H. M.'s Treasury,
To—The Under-Secretary of State for India.

I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in reply to Mr. Waterfield's letter of the 31st ultimo, stating that, as regards India, the Secretary of State in Council approves of the recommendations made in their Report of the 24th ultimo by the Committee on the India, China, and Australia Mails, to request that you will inform the Secretary of State that my Lords have desired the Postmaster General to carry the proposals of the Committee into effect.

Dated 27th January 1882.

From—HENRY WATERFIELD, Esq., Financial Secretary, India Office,
To—The Secretary to the Government of India, DEPT. OF FINANCE.

With reference to the Financial despatch to the Government of India dated the 26th instant, No. 29, relative to the date of departure of the mails from India, I forward herewith a copy of a further letter from the Post Office dated the 25th instant, from which it will be seen that the change of day, as regards the mails from India during the fair season, will commence with the mail leaving Bombay on the 10th of March next.

A copy of the Financial despatch No. 29 is also enclosed.

P.S.—A copy of the pro formâ time-table, which has been received since the above was written, is enclosed.

No. 21H., dated 25th January 1882.

From—S. A. BLACKWOOD, Esq., Secretary, General Post Office, London,
To—The Under-Secretary of State for India.

I have to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State for India in Council, that a time-table for the India and China Mail Packet Services has been approved by the Postmaster General based upon the arrangements recently authorised by the Treasury, and that the change of day, as regards the mails from India during the fair season, will commence with the mail leaving Bombay on the 10th of March next.

As soon as the new time-table, which is now in the press, is printed, a supply shall be forwarded to the India office.

In the meantime the Marquis of Hartington will no doubt wish to communicate to the Government of India the date fixed for the commencement of the new arrangement.

ORDERED, that the foregoing papers be published in the Gazette of India for general information, and copies be communicated to the Chambers of Commerce, Bengal, Madras, and Bombay; to the Trades Association, Calcutta, Bombay, Madras, and Rangoon; and to the Director General of the Post Office.

Read also—

Letter No. 2551P., dated 18th February 1882, from Messrs. Burn & Co., Managing Agents of the Indian Portland Cement Company, Limited.

RESOLUTION.—In the Resolution read above, the Governor General in Council directed that whenever Portland cement was required for the public service in India, it should be obtained of Indian manufacture. The Managing Agents of the Indian Portland Cement Company, Limited, now say that the Company has determined to erect, at a cost of Rs. 4,50,000, new works to enable them to meet the increasing Government demand. They represent that they "would like to have their hands strengthened by contracts from Local Governments as authorised by the Supreme Government," and they request that the attention of the various Departments and local authorities interested may be called to the establishment of the additional works at Raniganj, "with the view of entering into contracts for a supply of the cement for a period of five years." His Excellency the Governor General in Council has no objection to making known the information communicated by Messrs. Burn & Co., in order that Local Governments and Administrations or Public Departments may contract for a term of years not exceeding five if they find that they can rely on obtaining cement of good quality and at prices not higher than the market prices ruling at the time of delivery for imported cement of equal quality.

ORDERED, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations and to the Public Works Department for consideration, and to Messrs. Burn & Co. for information.

Also, that it be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read—

Financial Statement for 1881-82, paragraph 29.

Memorandum from this Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, No. 24, dated 18th January 1881, forwarding the Appropriation Audit Statement for the year 1880-81, submitted by the Accountant General, Military Department.

Report by the Comptroller General on the Accounts of the Government of India for 1880-81, dated 22nd February 1882.

RESOLUTION.—In the Financial Statement for 1881-82 it was announced that the Comptroller General would, in future, submit annually to the Government of India a report in which the final accounts of the year preceding would be compared with the Budget Estimate of that year, as also with the accounts of previous years, and explanations of increases and decreases apparent therefrom would be afforded.

2. The first report due under this arrangement, which relates to the final accounts or "Actuals" of 1880-81, has now been received, and the Governor General in Council has much pleasure in recognising the thoroughness and ability with which Mr. Westland has dealt with the subject, and carried out the intentions of the Government of India.

3. These accounts, very briefly summarised, show the following results :—

| | £ |
|---|---|
| Revenue ... ... ... ... ... | 72,560,000 |
| Expenditure ... ... ... ... | 76,604,000 |
| Deficit ... | 4,044,000 |

Excluding revenue and expenditure on account of the war, the deficit would be turned into a surplus of £6,320,000. The estimated deficit was £6,219,000. The accounts, therefore, show a result better than the Regular Estimate by £2,175,000.

4. The greater part of this difference, however, does not in reality represent any improvement of the revenue or diminution of the expenditure during 1880-81, the main reasons of this are as follows :—

(1) According to the arrangement made last year, the English war contribution was redistributed in the autumn. The result was that £695,000 was transferred from 1881-82 to 1880-81, thus increasing the English war credit in the latter year to £2,695,000.

(2) Under instructions from the Secretary of State the capital outlay on the Punjab Northern State Railway is to appear under the head "38, Productive Public Works." The result, so far as the accounts of 1880-81 are concerned, is to increase the surplus, nominally, by £601,000.

(3) Consequent on the Nizamut Stipend Fund having been wound up, there has been an exceptional credit of £294,000 during the year. The details of the transaction are to be found at page 9 of the Comptroller General's report, under the head of "Miscellaneous."

(4) The collection of the land revenue was not retarded by the census operations to so great an extent as had been anticipated, and £157,000 were recovered in the year which, it had been thought, would stand over till 1881-82.

5. The above items account for £1,747,000 out of the difference of £2,175,000, shown in paragraph 3. The other principal items are as shown in the margin. This improvement, in contradistinction to the above, is almost entirely real, and not nominal.

I have separated in the above statement the abnormal receipts and expenditure arising out of the war in Afghanistan, so as to be able to review the features of the year, in the first place, without reference to it. The following remarks therefore have regard only to the revenue and expenditure under the normal heads.

REVENUE.

The revenue has turned out better than the Original Estimate by 2,763,3, of which increase the greater part was anticipated at the time of passing the Regular Estimate. The following abstract shows further details, and explains that Revenue proper was improved by 1,380,0, Miscellaneous receipts by 619,0, and Public Works by 450,0.

I.—Land Revenue.—The normal Land Revenue of a year is put down at 22,050,0, but the last two completed years brought in 22,450,8 and 22,463,5 respectively, as they included collection of arrears due from the time of the Madras famine. The Budget Estimate for 1880-81 was for almost exactly a year's revenue, 22,062,0; but towards the end of the year, it was known that there would have to be remissions in the North-West on account of local scarcity, and that the employment of the Subordinate Revenue officials upon census work in February and March would delay much of the collections till April, that is, till the next financial year. Allowing for these, the Regular Estimate was 21,753,0; but the event showed that the postponement was not so much as anticipated, and the realizations came to 21,910,3.

II.—Tributes.—The tributes are necessarily fixed yearly amounts, and the annual collection varies according as the various States are punctual or not in their payments. The principal part of the excess of the Regular Estimate 751,0 and the Actuals 742,2 over the Budget was a payment of 30,0 by the Dhar State in redemption of an annual contribution of 1,2.

Madras contributes the largest share of these tributes, as the Mysore Subsidy is 245,0; but by far the greatest number of them is from the Rajputana and Central India States, and we have lately been making arrangements for their more systematic record and recovery.

III.—Forests.—The Estimates were very accurately realized. The largest items of the revenue are:—

| | Operations by Government. | Operations by Contractors and Consumers. |
|---|---|---|
| Timber ... ... ... | 231,9 | 89,9 |
| Firewood and Charcoal ... ... | 53,1 | 56,4 |
| Bamboos and other Produce ... | 10,4 | 78,8 |
| Grass ... ... ... | 8,4 | 81,6 |

The small English item under this head is due to fees from Forestry students.

IV.—Excise.—The revenue under this head has been rapidly increasing; the figures of the past five years being 2,523,0, 2,457,1 (famine), 2,619,3, 2,838,0, 3,135,2; and Madras is the only province which does not share this rapid increase. The Budget was taken at a safe figure 2,782,0; but by the time the Regular Estimate was made up, it was already apparent that there would be an increase of 400,0 on the Estimate.

V.—Assessed Taxes.—The revenue under this head is chiefly the License Tax on trades. It first appears in the Accounts of 1877-78, but in that year it was levied only in the North-Western Provinces, and produced 86,0. Next year it was levied in the five larger provinces and brought in 869,8, less refunds 25,8, net 844,0; besides 30,8 of the old Pandhari Tax of the Central Provinces. Next year, 1879-80, all incomes below Rs. 500 were exempted from the tax,—a change which was estimated to reduce its produce by 340,0. The income of this year, including Pandhari, was 785,3, less refunds 58,8, or net 726,5, as the reduction did not take effect till near the end of the year. The Estimate for 1880-81, allowing for the full reduction, was 535,0, and in the result it was a little more than covered.

VI.—Provincial Rates.—This head made its appearance in the accounts only in 1877-78, when the general accounts incorporated what were formerly the separate Provincial and Local ones. The revenue under it is about 2,800,0, of which about 477,0 represents additional cesses imposed by the Famine legislation of 1877-78. The mass of it represents cesses upon lands for Roads and other local Public Works, and for Education. There are also smaller cesses for expenditure on District Postal Service, Patwaris, and Village Servants.

The revenue of the last three years has been 2,638,8, 2,882,1 and 2,776,4. The diminution in 1880-81, as compared with 1879-80, is due to the same reasons as apply to the Land Revenues, along with which, for the most part, the Provincial Rates are collected. The revenue a little more than covered the Budget, but the Regular anticipated somewhat too great an improvement.

VII.—Customs.—The following are the details of the Customs Revenues, deducting refunds, for the last four years:—

| | 1877-78. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| IMPORTS. | | | | |
| Cotton Goods ... | 920,3 | 748,2 | 662,4 | 717,2 |
| Liquors ... ... | 358,9 | 363,5 | 387,3 | 378,9 |
| Metals ... ... | 128,3 | 118,4 | 122,1 | 133,6 |
| Provisions ... ... | 42,1 | 28,0 | 27,2 | 25,5 |
| Silk ... ... | 67,2 | 62,4 | 65,1 | 103.0 |
| Woollen manufactures ... | 39,2 | 41,9 | 45,0 | 59,5 |
| Apparel ... ... | 27,5 | 25,3 | 26,1 | 32,1 |
| Sugar ... ... | 30,4 | 57,9 | 45,3 | 75,3 |
| Other Goods ... | 224,9 | 163,5 | 179.3 | 209,7 |
| | 1,838,8 | 1,669,1 | 1,559,8 | 1,734,8 |
| EXPORTS. | | | | |
| Rice ... ... | 483,9 | 563,7 | 592,6 | 715,5 |
| Indigo .. ... | 49,9 | 43,5 | 41,4 | —2 |
| Other Goods ... | 18,6 | 12,3 | 7,2 | 2 |
| | 552,4 | 619,5 | 641,2 | 715,5 |
| Land Customs on Sugar... | 134,9 | 3,2 | 1 | 0 |
| Miscellaneous ... | 29,9 | 33,6 | 27,4 | 28,3 |
| TOTAL ... | 2,556,0 | 2,265,4 | 2,228,5 | 2,478,6 |

It will be seen that by the partial abolition of the cotton duties the loss in the first year was about 172,1 and next year about 257,9. Since then the revenue has partly recovered itself, as the returning prosperity of the country is indicated by increased importations of cotton and woollen goods. Silk imports have greatly increased this last year to the detriment of local manufacture.

The sugar import is chiefly for the Bombay side, and is a somewhat fluctuating item.

The Export Duty on rice is bringing in an increased revenue.

The above table also sets forth the effect of the abolition of the Export Duty on Indigo and of the Land Customs Duty on Sugar.

The year 1880-81 turned out much better than the Budget Estimate. In Bombay especially trade had been very active, and the Regular Estimate anticipated an improvement of 210,3 at that port.

VIII.—Salt.—The Salt Revenue is divided into two principal portions,—the Inland Customs Department of Northern India, which produces and sells salt from the indigenous sources; and the Sea Customs, and Sea-board manufacture, in the maritime Provinces. The revenue of past years has been as follows:—

| | 1876-77. | 1877-78. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Inland Customs ... ... | 1,473,2 | 1,487,4 | 1,533,2 | 1,718,0 | 1,625,1 |
| Maritime Provinces ... | 4,833,2 | 4,974,8 | 5,308,0 | 5,519,7 | 5,486,2 |
| TOTAL ... | 6,306,4 | 6,462,2 | 6,841,2 | 7,267,7 | 7,111,3 |
| Duty in Upper India ... | Rs. 3 | Rs. 3 | Rs. 2-8 | Rs 2-8 | Rs. 2 8 |
| „ Bengal ... | „ 3-4 | „ 3-4 | „ 2-14 | „ 2-14 | „ 2-14 |
| „ Southern India ... | „ 1-13 | „ 1-13 | „ 2-8 | „ 2-8 | „ 2-8 |

From December 1877 to July 1878, the rates of duty, in Upper India, and in Bengal were 2-12 and 3-2 respectively.

These figures will not be found to agree with the accounts of the several years, as for the greater part of the time which they cover the accounts were unfortunately kept on what may be called the departmental system, that is, the department gave its own account of its receipts, and these receipts were afterwards tallied with the treasury figures. The accounts thus framed were found incorrect and we accordingly altered the system in December 1880, bringing to account what was actually received in the treasuries and letting the department work back from them. When we did this we found we had to adjust the accounts by a write-back of 99,5, under Refunds, as follows:—

| | Accounts. | Actual Receipts. |
|---|---|---|
| 1876-77 ... ... ... ... | 6,304,7 | 6,306,4 |
| 1877-78 ... ... .. ... | 6,460,1 | 6,462,2 |
| 1878-79 ... .. ... ... | 6,941,1 | 6,841,2 |
| 1879-80 ... ... ... ... | 7,266,4 | 7,267,7 |
| 1880-81 ... ... ... ... | 7,116,0 | 7,111,3 |
| | 34,088,3 | 33,988,8 |
| Written back in 1880-81 ... ... | 99,5 | |
| | 33,988,8 | |

It will be seen that, as compared with Budget, there was a very considerable failing of revenue under this head. Two causes contributed to the overestimate; first, the progress of the revenue, in the last completed year of account, was shown as 6,460,0 to 6,940,0, whereas as the above comparison shows it was really only 6,460,0 to 6,840,0. The rise in the revenue maintained itself till December 1879, on the account of which the estimate of 1880-81 was framed. But thereafter appeared a sudden collapse. It was due partly to the fact that the stock of inferior salt having been exhausted, superior salt was sold in the end of 1879, at the Sambhar Lake, at the inferior prices, causing an unusually rapid sale; which naturally showed itself in lower figures in succeeding months. The Department also had been largely introducing a system of depôts; that is, to make salt more accessible to the people, it ceased to sell at the sources only, and conveyed its salt to central depôts, whence the local merchants could purchase. The first effect of this measure was that for a short time the consumption was maintained out of the stocks which the merchants had laid in under the system of sale at the salt sources.

These facts were patent at the time of the Regular Estimate, in which the revenue was shown at the reduced figure of 7,053,0. It really produced 7,116,0.

IX.—Opium.—Of recent years it has been the policy of Government to make a very safe estimate of the Opium Revenues, that is to say, not to count upon its continuance at a high figure. The actual figures of five years have been—

| | BENGAL OPIUM SOLD BY GOVERNMENT AT CALCUTTA. | | MALWA OPIUM PAID DUTY AT BOMBAY. | | Other Revenue. | TOTAL. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Chests. | Amount. | Chests. | Amount. | | |
| 1876-77 ... ... | 47,240 | 6,000,0 | 49,136 | 2,948,2 | 174,3 | 9,122,5 |
| 1877-78 ... ... | 49,500 | 6,269,3 | 45,830 | 2,749,8 | 163,6 | 9,182,7 |
| 1878-79 ... ... | 55,500 | 6,798,6 | 36,807 | 2,393,0 | 207,8 | 9,399,4 |
| 1879-80 ... ... | 59,100 | 6,914,2 | 46,211½ | 3,141,1 | 263,9 | 10,319,2 |
| 1880-81 ... ... | 56,400 | 7,683,6 | 36,069½ | 2,526,2 | 270,3 | 10,480,1 |

The other revenue is chiefly the calculated cost price, Rs. 7-4, of opium issued for consumption in India, the rest of the realized sale price passing under excise.

The following figures also bear upon the Opium Revenue:—

| | Average price, Bengal Opium. | Duty on Malwa Opium.* | Added to Stock.† | Stock of Bengal Opium, March 31.† |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | Chests. | Chests. |
| 1876-77 ... | 1,270 | 600 | 68,051 | 71,315 |
| 1877-78 ... | 1,266 | 600 & 650 | 67,167 | 88,982 |
| 1878-79 ... | 1,225 | 650 | 43,140 | 76,622 |
| 1879-80 ... | 1,170 | 650 & 700 | 49,961 | 67,483 |
| 1880-81 ... | 1,362 | 700 | 52,969 | 64,052 |

* Ajmere opium is 25 rupees additional.

† These figures refer to stock for export only, and exclude about 3,000 and 4,000 chests produced annually for consumption in India.

It will be seen from these figures that the last two years have produced an unprecedented revenue, but that the production has hardly kept pace with the sales. Recent years have not been favourable to opium cultivation, and the sales have been maintained at their high figure out of the bumper crops added to stock in 1876-77 and 1877-78.

X.—Stamps.—This is a steadily progressive revenue as may be seen from the figures of the last five years, 2,838,6, 2,993,5, 3,110,5, 3,193,7, 3,250,6. The Budget Estimate was practically a repetition of the figure for 1879-80, and the actuals exceed it by what has, of late years, been the annual increase of revenue.

The revenue is composed of about 2,200,0 court-fee stamps (i. e., fees on judicial proceedings) and 1,000,0 general stamps, (i. e., stamp duty on documents).

XI.—Registration.—This small head of revenue calls for no remark; it exhibits a slight tendency to improvement. About two-thirds of the revenue is expended upon the establishments employed in registration of documents, or more correctly speaking, the revenue represents a payment for a service that costs the State only about two-thirds of the fees charged.

CIVIL DEPARTMENTS.

For want of a better name, I group under this head three Departments which the State maintains for performing public services, at a charge which is supposed to represent the outlay involved; that is to say, the Departments in question are not maintained in the first place for the realization of revenue.

The detail of them is as follows:—

XII.—Mint.—The revenue under Mint is extremely irregular, being mainly seignorage on silver; it depends upon the amount of silver imported for coinage. The statistics of the past five years are—

| | Net Import of Silver. | Mint Revenues. | Coinage of Silver. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1876-77 ... ... ... | 7,198,9 | 258,8 | 6,271,1 |
| 1877-78 ... ... ... | 14,676,3 | 443.9 | 16,180,3 |

| 1879-80 ... ... ... | 7,8?9,7 | 230,6 | 10,257,0 |
| 1880-81 ... ... ... | 3,892,6 | 89,6 | 4,249,6 |

The Budget Estimate anticipated revenue 196,0, but even less silver than expected was imported, and the Regular Estimate was 89,0, which was very accurately realized.

XIII.—Post Office.—The actual revenue, 1,018,7, does not greatly differ from either the Budget Estimate or the Regular.

The last four years show a fair increase of revenue, 847,7, 911,8, 1,004,4, 1,018,7. The collections for postage in the four years were 780,4, 799,8, 839,2, and 837,6.

XIV.—Telegraph.—Here also the revenue is progressive, the figures of the last four years being 358,4, 426,7, 505,6, and 539,1. The Budget Estimate was 486,0, as it included the expectation of a falling-off in message-revenue owing to the cessation of the Afghan War, but the event showed no diminution in the operations of the Department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RECEIPTS.

The next group of heads exhibits the receipts of Government in the various Departments of Civil Administration. Their detail is as follows:—

Abstract of Revenue, 1880-81.

| | India. | | | England. | | | Total. | | | Total, 1879-80. |

XV.—Minor Departments.—The revenue under this head is chiefly composed of sale proceeds of cinchona grown in Government plantations, 32,5; fees levied in connection with the administration of the Emigration Acts in Bengal, 9,5; examination fees in Madras and Bombay (chiefly for qualification for the Public Service) 6,8; realizations of the Mathematical Instrument Department of the Survey, 6,3.

The English item belongs to the first of these.

XVI.—Law and Justice.—Escheats, fees, and fines account for nearly half of the revenue under this head, 321,7; and Jail receipts, that is, the produce of manufactures in jails, nearly account for the other half. The revenue, though in some respects casual, is fairly steady; the last four years showing 609,0, 647,1, 658,9 and 687,8. The Estimates were fairly realized, although a slight falling-off was anticipated at the time of the Regular Estimate.

XVII.—Police.—About half of the revenue under this head is from Cattle Pounds; and of the rest a considerable share comes from Contributions of Municipalities, Cantonment Funds and Railways, to the maintenance of the Police Forces employed in connection with them. The revenue more than covered the Estimate.

XVIII.—Marine.—There are two entirely different parts of this head; namely, the Provincial and Imperial Marine. The figures of these are as follow:—

| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Provincial ... ... | 135,9 | 145,0 | 152,0 |
| Imperial ... ... | 90,1 | 65,0 | 94,5 |
| | 226,0 | 210,0 | 246,5 |

The Coast dues in Burma, 16,7, and the Pilotage and other receipts in connection with the Calcutta Port, 119,7, account for nearly the whole of the Provincial items.

Sea-going Vessels and the Dockyards in Calcutta and Bombay are the chief parts of the Imperial Marine Department. The receipts are chiefly for Dockyard services, and it was in respect of such services, charged to other Departments that the Actuals exceeded the Regular Estimate.

XIX.—Education.—The receipts of the last four years have been—

| | 1877-78. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| From fees ... ... | 68,4 | 97,8 | 100,1 | 107,6 |
| From other sources ... | 40,6 | 49,6 | 39,3 | 62,6 |
| | 109,0 | 147,4 | 139,4 | 170,2 |

The increase between 1877-78 and 1878-79 was due to the fact that in the latter year a part of the Madras accounts was corrected by bringing the receipts and charges to account in gross.

The increase in the figures of 1880-81 is due to exceptional receipts in Bombay and in the North-Western Provinces.

In the latter Rs. 40,000 of investment was realized to meet expenditure of the Muir College.

XX.—Medical.—The ordinary receipts (chiefly from Hospitals and Lunatic Asylums) may be put down at 4 to 4½ lakhs. In 1879-80 they were abnormally high, mainly because the figures included a large arrear contribution due by the Calcutta Municipality.

XXI.—Stationery.—The increase in Regular and Actuals, as compared with Budget, is largely due to earnings of Jail Presses.

MISCELLANEOUS RECEIPTS.

The Miscellaneous class of receipts is in three parts as follows :—

Abstract of Revenue, 1880-81.

| | India. | | | England. | | | Total. | | | Total, 1879-80, |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Budget. | Regular | Actual. | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Actual. |
| MISCELLANEOUS RECEIPTS. | | | | | | | | | | |
| XXII.—Interest ... | 641,0 | 647,3 | 678,1 | 10,0 | 197,6 | 197,6 | 651,0 | 844,9 | 875,7 | 748,0 |
| XXIII.—Superannuations... | 291,7 | 220,4 | 212,5 | 94,3 | 103,4 | 103,5 | 386,0 | 323,8 | 316,0 | 525,1 |
| XXIV.—Miscellaneous ... | 262.0 | 293.4 | 636,3 | 6,0 | 95,4 | 95,4 | 268,0 | 388,8 | 731,7 | 337,4 |
| TOTAL ... | 1,194,7 | 1,161,1 | 1,526,9 | 110,3 | 396,4 | 396,5 | 1,305,0 | 1,557,5 | 1,923,4 | 1,610,5 |

XXII.—Interest.—There are three principal items under this head :—

The first is the interest upon the investment of the reserve held against the Currency circulation. During the year 1880-81 the investment amounted to 6,246,3, (par value) on which a year's interest was 249,9, but as a matterof fact a little more, or 250,6, was paid into the treasury on this account during the year.

The next part of the head is the premium realized upon loans. During the year there was a considerable premium both in India and England. In India, the premium on the 4½ per cent. loan of 3,130,0 was 99,8; but as the practice in former years had been to take these items to a Debt head and the Debt head showed an outstanding balance of discount on earlier loans, this premium of 99,8 was required to clear the account and was not brought to account as revenue. In England, the premium realized was 171,9, chiefly on the 3½ per cent. loan of 3½ millions, and this item accounts for the excess of the actual realizations in the English Account over the Budget Estimate.

The third part of the head represents chiefly the interest upon loans of Imperial Funds to Municipal and other corporations or to zemindars or to Native States. There are also some miscellaneous items, as for example, interest upon arrears of revenue and advances to ryots. The Provincial and Local Funds also possess endowments and investments, of which the interest comes under this head.

The improvement over the Estimates in the Indian portion of the account was in respect of these items, and it occurred chiefly in the North-Western Provinces (due to recovery of arrears), in the Punjab (owing to a loan being taken up more rapidly than was anticipated), and in Bombay (owing to an arrear recovery).

The following figures compare the principals of the loans with the interest realized during the year on them :—

| | April 1. | March 31. | Average. | Interest. | Per cent. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Presidency Corporations | 5,381,8 | 5,640,8 | 5,511,3 | 215,8 | 3·9 |
| Mofussil Municipalities | 309,2 | 349,9 | 329,5 | 15,1 | 4·6 |
| Local Fund Committees | 146,1 | 140,3 | 143,2 | 3,7 | 2·6 |
| Land-holders ... | 676,0 | 655,8 | 665,9 | 42,7 | 6·4* |
| Native States ... | 1,572,1 | 1,472,9 | 1,522,5 | 77,1 | 5·1 |
| TOTAL ... | 8,085,2 | 8,259,7 | 8,172,4 | 354,4 | 4·3 |

* High, owing to the arrears in the North-West and Bombay.

XXIII.—Superannuations.—The receipts under this head are mainly connected with the old Military Funds. The Government many years ago took over the liabilities and assets of these funds, becoming responsible for the pensions with which they were chargeable, and appropriating the capital. The subscriptions continued to be paid to credit of Government, and are now taken to this head of account. The deficit in the yearly transactions, that is, the excess of pensions paid over subscriptions received, was appropriated year by year from the capital of the funds by a credit under this head.

As the funds did not get any credit on account of interest upon their capital, the capital was gradually exhausted in this process. The Bengal Military and Medical Funds were exhausted in 1874-75 and 1875-76, respectively. The Bombay Medical Retiring Fund was exhausted in 1878-79, and that of Madras in 1879-80. The Military Fund of Madras was also exhausted by the debit of 1879-80, and there now remains only the Military Orphan Fund of Bengal, which will probably bear its debits for ten years more.

The now exhausted funds contributed 328,9 of revenue in 1878-79, and 200,4 in 1879-80, so that there has been a considerable diminution in the receipts of recent years, the four years' figures being, in fact, 597,2, 667,5, 525,1, and 316,0.

The subscriptions to the old Military Funds continue, and bring in a diminishing income, which in 1880-81 was 117,0. The new Military Fund (Indian Service Family Pension Fund), which has taken the place of the older funds, appears in the Military Accounts.

Other considerable realizations under this head come in from the contributions towards pension, &c., made by officers of Indian services lent by Government for employment in Native States. The last four years show 27,2, 37,7, 36,6, 37,8 receipts of this kind, nearly half of which is in Bombay, the practice being much in vogue in the petty States subordinate to that Government.

The Budget Estimate under this head was greatly in excess, as it included a contribution from the Bombay Military Fund, which, as above stated, had been exhausted. This was corrected in the Regular Estimate, which was nearly realized.

XXIV.—Miscellaneous.—The numerous items brought to credit under this head hardly require separate specification. Two very large items came in,—one in England and one in India,—to produce a considerable excess over Budget. The English one was the sale of land adjoining the India Office, for 68,6; the Indian one arose in this way.

For many years past a charge has appeared in the Bengal Accounts of 16 lakhs Sicca rupees, that is, 170,7, on account of an assignment to the Nizamat Stipend Fund; in other words, a contribution to a fund, from which the stipend and other charges connected with the family of the Nawab Nazim of Moorshedabad were met. This fund was kept, partly in deposit-account on the books of Government, and partly in investment in Government paper, but the point has for many years been undecided how far the Nawab Nazim and his family had any rights in it. In November 1880 an arrangement was come to between the Secretary of State and the Nawab Nazim, by which the Nawab Nazim obtained ten lakhs at present and some future yearly allowances, and gave up all claims as regards the Stipend Fund. It was now definitely settled that the liability of Government was only the payments which were made out of the fund, say about 120,0, and not the annual contribution of 170,7 to the fund. The fund was, therefore, wound up, and its assets disposed of as follows :—

|---|---|---|
| Payment to the Nawab Nazim, above mentioned ... | | 100,0 |
| Other personal claims ... ... ... ... | | 6,0 |
| Credited to "Miscellaneous," being recovery of the excess charge made to Government since 1st May 1865 by paying yearly 170,7 instead of the actual liabilities only ... | ... | 294,2 |
| Credited to Government outside the Budget Account | ... | 302,1 |
| TOTAL | ... | 702,3 |

The explanation of the last two entries is that we take 1st May 1865 as the starting point of our present accounts; a recovery of a charge made since that date is, therefore, taken as revenue, but a recovery of a charge made before that date is adjusted through the books only.

The exceptional credit of 294,2 was not known at the time of the Regular Estimate.

PUBLIC WORKS.

The Public Works heads, as they appear in the Budget Account, are as follow :—

| PUBLIC WORKS. | INDIA. | | | ENGLAND. | | | TOTAL. | | | TOTAL, 1879-80. |

This arrangement, however, is far too meagre for the present widely extended operations of the Department, and the same figures are more clearly arranged as follow :—

a No separation of the receipts in England can be made between Military and other Services.
b The East Indian Railway figures, 2,146,2, are for facility of comparison transferred from Guaranteed Railways under which they appeared in the actual accounts of 1879-80.

Under the unproductive heads the receipts follow very closely both last year's Actuals and the Estimates of the current year. "Other Public Works," both Departmental and Civil, show an improvement. In the first case it is composed of numerous petty improvements; in the latter case it occurred chiefly in Madras, where the receipts from tolls, ferries, &c., exceeded the Estimates.

The productive heads are of more interest than the above.

6.—State Railways.—These figures show the gross receipts, the working expenses being taken as expenditure on the other side. They exhibit a great improvement over the figures of last year and the Budget Estimate. The figures necessarily increase with the extension of the lines, but greater increase than was expected was realized on the Sindia Railway (which was opened through to Gwalior), the Rajputana Railway (in which through communication to Bombay was established), the Irrawaddy Valley Railway, the Indus Valley Railway (due to the war), and more than all the Punjab Northern Railway, where more traffic offered than any one had anticipated.

7.—Guaranteed Railways.—The figures under this head and under East Indian Railway are net earnings, that is gross earnings less working expenses. The figures show an improvement both on the Estimate and on the figures of last year. The Regular Estimate anticipated a falling-off in the traffic on the Madras Railway, and on the Great Indian Peninsula, partly made up for by the war traffic on the Sind, Punjab and Delhi. The Actuals, however, showed a recovery of the whole amount and more, but it was less a recovery of traffic than a diminution of working expenses.

The Revenue Account of the Guaranteed Railways and of the East Indian Railway was as follows :—

| | 1879-80. | | | 1880-81 | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Earnings | Working Expenses. | Per Cent. | Earnings. | Working Expenses | Per Cent. |
| Bombay Baroda ... ... ... | 777,2 | 448,2 | 57·7 | 888,8 | 511,8 | 57·6 |

| East Indian ... ... ... | 4.611,9 | 1,516,5 | 32·9 | 4.252,9 | 1,482,3 | 34·8 |

8.—East Indian Railway.—The present is the first complete year of the new contract, but the effect of the new contract is to be seen in the expenditure side and not in the net revenue figures. The traffic somewhat fell off, being partly affected by the opening of the Rajputana State Railway through to Bombay. The Budget and Regular Estimates were not quite realized.

9.—Irrigation.—The falling-off under this head is principally a matter of account; being caused by the transfer to Land Revenue of water-advantage rates in the Punjab.

11.—Madras Irrigation Company.—The working expenses run away with the whole of the earnings and usually a little more.

ARMY.

XXIX.—Army.—The Regular Estimate added a little to the Budget, chiefly on account of the higher price of the issue of malt liquor, of certain sales of clothing, and of one or two considerable recoveries from the Imperial Government,—one for horses which the 14th Hussars took with them to the Cape, and one in England for stores taken home by the troops. The excess was, however, not fully realized.

The figures of 1879-80 were higher than usual, and included considerable sales of Commissariat stores; it has also to be noted that, in 1880-81, a new rule of account was applied, by which issues of stores to the Civil Departments were taken in the Military Accounts, not as revenue, but as deductions from expenditure. The receipts of 1880-81, on these accounts, fall short of those of 1879-80 by 105,4.

EXCHANGE.

XXX.—Exchange.—My remarks on this head had better be postponed till the expenditure under the same head is taken up.

EXPENDITURE.

The following is an abstract of the expenditure :—

INTEREST.

Under the first head, Interest, we have two accounts.

| INTEREST. | INDIA. | | | ENGLAND. | | | TOTAL. | | | TOTAL, 1879-80. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Budget. | Regular | Actual. | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Actual. |
| 1.—INTEREST ON DEBT . | 3,369,1 | 3,411,0 | 3,365,9 | 2,525,9 | 2,685,2 | 2,685,2 | 5,895,0 | 6,096,2 | 6,051,1 | 6,207,0 |
| 2.—INTEREST, OTHER ACCOUNTS . . . | 398,4 | 400,3 | 413,1 | 1,6 | 6 | 6 | 400,0 | 400,9 | 414,0 | 382,5 |
| TOTAL . | 3,767,5 | 3,811,3 | 3,779,3 | 2,527,5 | 2,685,8 | 2,685.8 | 6,295,0 | 6,497,1 | 6,465,1 | 6,589,5 |

1.—Interest on Debt.—The annual amount of interest payable in India was, on April 1st, 3,372,9 and on March 31st, 3,513,8. Of this latter sum we may state—

864,9, payable on bills issued by the Bank of England.
140,5, payable on coupons.

The only difficulty in estimating the interest lies in the consideration that half of the interest on the 4½ per cent. Loans, namely, 463,3, falls due on March 15th of each year, and no inconsiderable part of it may remain over for payment till April; all that portion which is drawn by bills from England must so remain over, but the coupon part need not. Now the payment of interest on the 4½ per cent. Loan was, in April and May 1880, 179,1, and in the same months of 1881, 258,8, giving a difference of eight lakhs, much more than is accounted for by the additional amount of the loan enfaced for London. In fact, 53,6 out of the total of 70,4 of coupons payable on March 15th, were presented and paid in April and May.

It was for these reasons that the payments in India fell short of the Regular Estimate.

In the English Account the excess of the Actuals over the Budget Estimate is mainly a question of classification. The East Indian Railway purchase gives rise to three heads of payments:—

A. The annuity to the proprietors.
B. The interest on the debentures of the Company.
C. The interest on stock issued in redemption of the annuities.

A is charged as outlay on the East Indian Railway.
B is charged as interest on debt incurred for Productive Public Works.
C is charged in the same way.

But in the Budget Estimates, B was charged as outlay on the East Indian Railway.

2.—Interest other Accounts.—There is no difficulty in calculating these payments and they agree fairly with the Estimates. The Civil and Uncovenanted Service Funds absorb the greater part of the payment, 199,1; deposits in Savings Banks involve a demand for interest of about 95,3. After them comes a group of special loans received from the late King of Oudh, under certain stipulations involving payments to his family and dependents of 78,5, and a number of smaller accounts add 41,1.

3.—Refunds is an item which by its nature is very difficult of estimate. The estimate in fact is taken at a round sum, which used to be 300,0 and is now 350,0, as experience has shown that demands, year after year, came up to this last amount. The figures of 1880-81 were unusually large, being swelled by the special item of 99,5 mentioned under VIII Salt and by another of 20,0 which will be referred to under 14 Mint. No other special item of importance appears to have entered the account. Land Revenue 4,68, Assessed Taxes 30,6, Stamps 34,2, Customs 62,4, Law and Justice 46,1, contribute the largest shares, as the necessity for making refunds, or rather of collecting revenue which may afterwards have to be refunded, is part of the system of administration in each of these cases except the first.

The next series of heads, 4 to 13, may shortly be described as the charges for the collection and realization of ten out of eleven heads of revenue. (Tributes, the eleventh head, involves no special charge). The first six (Land Revenue, Forest, Excise, Assessed Taxes, Provincial Rates and Customs) and the last (Registration) mean for the most part the cost of permanent establishments employed by the Government. On these heads no remark appears necessary, as the expenditure which in its nature is stationary followed the figures of last year, except for a slight increase under Land Revenue due to increased establishment in Burma, and Cadastral Survey operations, also in that province.

10.—Salt.—The figures of this head include considerable outlay in purchase and manufacture of salt, besides the regular establishments, Madras alone contributing, on account of purchases, about 100,0. The expenditure on the whole has been shrinking of recent years, owing to the abolition of the Inland Customs Line. The Financial Statement of February 1880 anticipated a saving on this account of 100,0, and the figures of the last five years appear to justify this estimate. They are 488,5, 539,8 (of which about 46,0 was special expenditure connected with the change of policy), 404,7, 340,7, very low owing to failure of manufacture in Madras, and 363,5.

The figures will now again, no doubt, begin to increase, as the Salt Department of Northern India is incurring new expenditure, chiefly in connection with the depôt system alluded to under VIII Salt above. The charges of conveyance to depôt are now departmental charges, though they will be recovered in connection with the sale of the salt.

11.—Opium.—The principal part of the charges under this head are the payment to cultivators and the manufacturing charges. These vary with the size of the crop, the last five years' figures being—

| | Manufacture charges. | Chests of Export opium added to stock. | Other charges. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1876-77 ... ... ... | 2,714,5 | 68,051 | 127,1 |
| 1877-78 ... ... ... | 2,526,8 | 67,167 | 134,5 |
| 1878-79 ... ... ... | 1,585,1 | 43,140 | 113,6 |
| 1879-80 ... ... ... | 1,950,8 | 49,961 | 116,7 |
| 1880-81 ... ... ... | 1,909,2 | 52,969 | 119,6 |

Taking the "other charges" against the manufacture of about 4,000 chests of excise opium, which is not included in the above figures, we may compare the first two columns, and obtain from the proportion of "manufacture charges" to "chests added to stock" in the five years, Rupees 398, 376, 367, 390, 360 per chest.

This is sufficiently accurate as a general comparison of expenditure, though necessarily liable to many corrections as a statement of the cost price of a chest of opium, as the outlay of one year is largely represented by additions to stock made in the next.

The Budget Estimate in the case of opium is taken at an average figure, as the prospects of the crop cannot be known at the time when it is framed. The Regular Estimate was very accurate.

12.—Stamps.—The English charges represent payments for manufacture of stamps; the rest is discount upon their sale and a few establishment and contingent charges.

The Budget figures were very accurately followed. A lakh of diminution was made in the Regular in connection with the adjustment for the value of stamps supplied to Madras, but it appears to have been a mistake.

14.—Mint.—The charges under this head for the past five years may conveniently be grouped under three heads:—

| | 1876-77. | 1877-78. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Charges connected with copper coinage . . | 16,9 | 13,5 | 8,6 | 9,4 | 20,1 |
| Loss of weight on coinage | 7,9 | 10,8 | 14,2 | 5,5 | 5,3 |
| Other charges ... | 66,1 | 81,5 | 71,8 | 71,4 | 63,8 |
| English charges, mostly stores and machinery ... | 39,7 | 26,2 | 9,4 | 8,3 | 3,4 |

The method of dealing with copper coinage has of late years been somewhat irregular, and when small coin depôts for the reception of small coin not required for circulation were established, it soon became evident from the large surplus of copper coin that was being transferred into them, that more copper had recently been coined than was required for circulation. As the practice had been to take credit for the increase of nominal over actual value as the coin was issued from the Mint into the treasuries, it was clear that an excess of gain upon copper coinage had been brought to account in former years. We have now arranged that this gain shall come into the accounts only when the coin, being required for circulation, passes out of the depôts; and we also arrange to take against this gain, first the loss by sale of old copper coin, and second the remittance charges on the copper to the place where it is required.

In the past year, the amount of circulation continued to decrease, as the copper coin continued to flow from the treasuries into the depôts, and it was considered advisable, upon a report to Government, to write back 20,0 of what had in former years been taken as gain on copper coinage. This amount is taken under Refunds, and Mint is charged with the loss on demonetized coin and the charges of remittance. Our copper coinage account is now, as we believe, so adjusted that we have not as yet brought to Revenue any of the gain on coin not yet issued; and the excess charges of the past year really arise out of our revision of the system.

The figures under the head "Loss of weight on coinage" are necessarily higher when large amounts are being coined (see under XII Mint), and it is part of the charge which is covered by the seignorage we levy. The same explanation applies to the yearly differences under the other charges, i. e., establishment and current working charges, as, when silver is being coined, both there is a larger outlay on stores, and extra establishments are required.

The Budget provided for these establishment and other charges 63,3, and was very accurately followed by the Actuals. The Budget under other heads is necessarily liable to much alteration, as the progress of the year alone can determine the amount of coinage likely to be required.

15.—Post Office.—The Post Office charges of the last three years have been 1,033,3, 1,145,5, 1,175,5; but to make a fair comparison with the revenue we should deduct the cost of district post establishments 88,4, 87,7 and 91,0. These establishments are maintained for the most part out of a cess upon land, and represent a duty attaching to landholders of carrying the official correspondence within the districts. The figures thus altered give the following comparison of revenue and expenditure, the casual collections of district post being also excluded from the revenue:—

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Revenue | ... | ... | 908,8 | 1,001,4 | 1,014,8 |
| Expenditure | ... | ... | 944,9 | 1,057,8 | 1,084,5 |

16.—Telegraphs.—The Telegraph charges are divided between two accounts,—the Capital and the Revenue Accounts. The last four years have shown the following figures:—

| | 1877-78. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Capital Account | 70,0 | 59,7 | 42,0 | 99,8 |
| Revenue Account | 391,1 | 411,1 | 409,1 | 398,0 |
| TOTAL ... | 461,1 | 470,8 | 451,1 | 497,8 |

This arrangement of the figures shows that the variation in the outlay is chiefly in respect of the Capital Account, that is, the construction of lines. The Regular and the Actual showed a slight increase over the Budget, due chiefly to a charge for the value of military stores received from England.

The revenue of the Department has latterly much more than covered the outlay upon Revenue Account.

ADMINISTRATION.

The next group of heads is an important one and means the Civil administration of the country. The total is divided as follows:—

| TOTAL . | 10,628,0 | 10,455,9 | 10,460,0 | 511,0 | 592,6 | 592,6 | 11,139,0 | 11,048,5 | 11,052,6 | 10,797,8 |

17.—Administration includes the India Office, the Governments and the Secretariats, Boards of Revenue and Commissioners, and the Account and Currency Departments. Being composed for the most part of monthly salaries, it is not liable to much alteration; the five past years giving 1,492,6, 1,492,7, 1,487,8, 1,492,3 and 1,532,1. The greater part of the last year's increase is a matter of account. Nearly two lakhs of rupees are advanced in March to the various Secretariat Offices as pay, travelling allowances and cost of transit from Calcutta to Simla; and a few years ago, the transfer being made in the beginning of April, it was customary to charge these as advances, and adjust as expenditure of April. Of late years the move has become expenditure of March, and it was therefore determined to take the advances of March as expenditure of that month, and not leave its adjustment till April.

Another change, which added 4,8 to the expenditure under this head, was a direction issued to Assam to follow the practice of other Governments in charging to this head, and not to Law and Justice, the cost of the Revenue and Judicial Commissioner.

If these two alterations be excepted, the other items may be said to differ from the former years only according as officers proceed on leave or remain on duty. The Budget was exceeded only in respect of the two items specially explained.

18.—Minor Departments.—The charges under this head may be divided into the following groups:—

(a) Scientific.—Including the Survey of India, 114,7, the Geological Survey, 19,3, the Meteorological Department, 14,1, and some smaller charges.

(b) Agricultural.—Including experimental farms, 10,7, Cinchona Plantations, 20,3, Public Fairs, 12,7, Bull and Stallion charges 26,7, Botanical &c. Gardens, 34,1, and some others.

(c) Emigration.—10,4 chiefly in Bengal.

(d) Statistics.—This head included, this year, the charges for the Census, 30,2. As the Census was taken in February, this charge represents only the preparation, and the actual enumeration. The compilation has to follow, and the Estimates of 1881-82 put it down at 73,0. There is also a yearly charge of about 20,0 for collection of statistics.

(e) Miscellaneous.—Made up almost entirely of examination charges, chiefly a Madras item, 12,4, and of the general management of Local Funds, 9,7.

The English charges are chiefly the Indian Museum, 7,6, and the Compilation of the Gazetteer of India, 3,2.

The Budget Estimate was under-spent, chiefly because the cost of the Census was estimated at 60,0, whereas we see it amounted only to 30,3. There were also considerable savings under Survey, partly due to the transfer to war-charges of expenditure incurred beyond the frontier.

19.—Law and Justice includes the cost of Law Officers, Courts and Jails. The figures, like those of Administration, exhibit little difference from year to year, those of 1878-79 being 3,297,1 and of 1879-80 3,280,8.

The Estimate for 1880-81 provided 3,353,0, the Regular was 3,222,0, and the total 3,203,6. The saving was chiefly in the North-West, but also in Bengal, Madras and Bombay. Much of it was due to the cheapness of provisions, reducing the cost of jails; but in the North-West the Budget provided for certain proposed judicial reforms which were not carried out during the year.

20.—Police.—No remark is necessary. The expenditure is very steady at about 2,500,0.

21.—Marine.—This is hardly an Administration head, though its place in our catalogue is among them. Like the "Marine" receipts, the expenditure is divided between the Provincial (the charge for port offices, lighthouses and light vessels) and the Imperial Marine Department, including the two dockyards and sea-going vessels.

Of the former the Budget Estimate was 168,0, the Regular 148,3, and the Actuals 149,5. Burma and Bengal divide nearly all these charges between them, and there was a saving in the first, in a large item 10,0 estimated under Purchase of vessels, and in the second in connection with the approaches to the port of Calcutta, estimated at 36,9, but costing only 31,7.

The Imperial Marine expenditure in India was estimated at 251,0; and it was almost exactly spent. It consists mainly of the expenditure at the two Dockyards, Calcutta and Bombay, and expenditure in various sea-going vessels. A small part is for Marine Survey.

The Home charges consist of 40,1 Pensions; 62,5, the contribution towards the expenses of Her Majesty's ships employed in Indian seas; 46,7 for stores and 3,4 Miscellaneous.

22.—Education.—
23.—Ecclesiastical.—
24.—Medical.—
These three heads call for no remark. In each of them the Estimates were fairly followed.

The following figures afford a comparison between the fees and contributions received and the expenditure upon Government Colleges and higher and middle class schools:—

| | Fees, &c. | Colleges and Higher Schools. |
|---|---|---|
| India ... ... ... ... | 1,6 | 2,2 |
| Central Provinces ... ... ... | 4,6 | 14,7 |
| Burma ... ... ... ... | 1,8 | 10,5 |
| Assam ... ... ... ... | 2,2 | ? (a) |
| Bengal ... ... ... ... | 46,2 | 96,4 |
| North-Western Provinces ... ... ... | 8,2 | 48,1 |
| Punjab ... ... ... ... | 3,0 | 5,5 |
| Madras ... ... ... ... | 19,3 | 26,2 |
| Bombay ... ... ... ... | 40,0 | 50,7 |

(a) The item is not distinguished from lower class schools.

The following figures are the results of two different policies in the matter of primary education. Bengal largely upholds the system of grants-in-aid, while other Governments maintain the lower class schools as Government institutions:—

| | Lower Class Schools. | Grant-in-aid. |
|---|---|---|
| Bengal ... ... ... ... | 3 | 83,2 |
| North-Western Provinces ... ... ... | 58,4 | 19,2 |
| Punjab ... ... ... ... | 41,1 | 23,3 |
| Madras ... ... ... ... | 20,0(a) | 40,7 |
| Bombay ... ... ... ... | 100,0 | 12,7 |

(a) So taken by estimate out of the gross charge of 35,5 for higher, middle, and lower class.

Under "Medical" it is to be noted that the Medical Establishment (Civil Surgeons and other Principal Medical Officers) includes about one-third of the whole grant, and Lunatic Asylums nearly another third. The outlay on Hospitals and Dispensaries is largely made from local and municipal sources, and thus in the Government Accounts it shows only the comparatively small figure 42,2.

25.—Stationery and Printing.—The variation in the last two or three years under this head has been due to changes in the policy of Government as regards the purchase of stationery in England or in India.

The following figures show that the temporary diminution of charge in 1879-80 was that, having adopted the policy of local purchases, we were eating up our English stock before having to go into the market for more:—

| | Total charge. | Purchase in England. | Purchase in Bengal. | Total. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1878-79 ... ... | 471,5 | 180,7 | 22,7 | 203,4 |
| 1879-80 ... ... | 418,4 | 94,9 | 45,0 | 139,9 |
| 1880-81 ... ... | 485,0 | 69,5 | 134,0 | 203,5 |

The Government has now again reverted to the English market for English stationery; but considerable local purchases must continue to figure in the accounts.

The mass of the Indian expenditure under this head is, however, for printing, the figures of the last two years being—

| | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|
| India ... ... ... ... | 76,3 | 84,1 |
| Central Provinces ... ... ... | 5,3 | 5,7 |
| Burma ... ... ... ... | 12,0 | 8,4 |
| Assam ... ... ... ... | 1,9 | 2,1 |
| Bengal ... ... ... ... | 28,1 | 29,2 |
| North-Western Provinces... ... ... | 27,5 | 27,8 |
| Punjab ... ... ... ... | 20,9 | 21,4 |
| Madras ... ... ... ... | 27,5 | 24,4 |
| Bombay ... ... ... ... | 24,1 | 24,5 |
| TOTAL | 223,6 | 227,6 |

26.—Political.—This year has shown a considerable increase in the charges under this head. The Budget Estimate was for 436,0, nearly the same as the Actuals of 1879-80, but the expenditure has come up to 531,2. Of this increase 43,3 was in the Home Accounts and was mainly due to the discharge of the claims of the English Government in respect of the Persian and Chinese Embassies, which had been under settlement for two or three years past.

In India the increase over the Estimate was 51,9. The principal items involved are, under India, Durbar Presents, Allowances to Vakeels, and Miscellaneous; and in the Punjab, Political Agents and Allowance to the Khyber tribes. In short, the increase may be said to be a consequence of the Afghan war. The large political expenditure beyond the frontier (both salaries of Agents, and subsidies to the Ameer, and other miscellaneous charges of all sorts) is reckoned as part of the war expenditure, and does not come into this part of the accounts.

NON-EFFECTIVE CHARGES.

The next group of charges is divided under three heads.

| NON-EFFECTIVE CHARGES. | INDIA. | | | ENGLAND. | | | TOTAL. | | | TOTAL, 1879-80. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Budget. | Regular | Actual. | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Actual. |
| 27.—ALLOWANCES AND ASSIGNMENTS . . | 1,824,9 | 1,883,1 | 1,873,9 | 21,1 | 24,9 | 24,9 | 1,846,0 | 1,908,0 | 1,898,8 | 1,814,6 |
| 28.—CIVIL FURLOUGH ALLOWANCES . . | 3.0 | 6,0 | 6,2 | 230,0 | 217,6 | 217,5 | 233,0 | 223,6 | 223,7 | 215,1 |
| 29.—SUPERANNUATIONS . | 646,3 | 790,0 | 779,6 | 1,335,7 | 1,370,9 | 1,371,0 | 1,982,0 | 2,160,9 | 2,150,6 | 2,196,6 |
| TOTAL . | 2,474,2 | 2,679.1 | 2,659,7 | 1,586,8 | 1,613,4 | 1,613,4 | 4,061,0 | 4,292,5 | 4,273,1 | 4,226,3 |

27.—Allowances and Assignments contains the following heads of charges:—

(1) Allowances to Native Chiefs and their dependents, consequent for the most part upon treaty engagements, or at least upon obligations incurred at the time of conquests of their territories.

(2) Allowances on account of resumed land and other revenues, including mosque and pagoda allowances.

(3) Compensations for abolished rights to transit duties, or other revenues.

The following show the details:—

| | Territorial. | Jagirdars, Mosques, and Temples. | Compensations. |
|---|---|---|---|
| India ... ... ... | 156,5 | 4,1 | 278,6 |
| Central Provinces ... ... | 55,0 | ... | ... |
| Assam ... ... ... | 6,1 | ... | 1,1 |
| Bengal ... ... ... | 106,2 | ... | 5,8 |
| North-Western Provinces ... ... | 112,0 | ... | 3,2 |
| Punjab ... ... ... | 66 0 | ... | 4,1 |
| Madras ... ... ... | 111,4 | 76,3 | 63,9 |
| Bombay ... ... ... | 132,6 | 639,6 | 51,4 |
| | 745,8 | 720,0 | 408,1 |
| TOTAL IN INDIA ... | | ... | 1,873,9 |

As regards the first column, the principal part of the India payment is the 120,0 of the ex-King of Oudh. In Bengal, about 90.0 are paid on account of Nizamat (Moorshedabad) stipends. In Madras, the Tanjore stipends absorbed 28,2 and the Carnatic stipends 56,2. In Bombay, the payment to the Goa Government, under the recent treaty, was 49,1, being for the most part compensations for suppressed salt-pans.

The second column applies chiefly to Madras and Bombay, and the India item, being on account of the district of Coorg, also belongs to Southern India. The items are deductions from the Land Revenue, and, in fact, the greater amount is brought in by book adjustment, crediting Land Revenue, and debiting Assignments, the Land Revenue being really received net.

In the third column, the India figure is composed of the payments under the salt treaties,—partly for the lease of the salt sources from the Native States, partly on account of duty levied by India, on account of consumption in Native States; in short, the share of the Native States in the general farm, by the Government of India, of the salt revenue. The payment against Madras is a payment of the same kind, being a treaty payment of four lakhs sicca (42,6) a year to the French Government.

The payments of this year were considerably in excess, both of last year's payments and of the Budget Estimate. This was due (1) to the new payment under the Goa Convention; (2) to the arrear payment of 21,3 for the French salt compensation, as the French Government is not very regular in applying for the payment. There were also over three lakhs (30,0) of excise compensations in Bombay which at the time of the Estimate were charged under Excise, but in the accounts were more correctly taken under the head of Allowances and Assignments.

28.—Civil Furlough Allowances is chiefly an English head, as these allowances, when paid in India, are charged to the same head to which the officer's salary would be charged were he on duty.

29.—Superannuations.—This is necessarily an increasing head, the figures of the last five years being 1,798,6, 1,858,7, 1,997,3, 2,196,5, 2,150,6. The large increase in the latter years includes the cost of the reduction of Public Works Establishments. The amount of payments to be made under these arrangements was under-estimated, and for this reason the Actuals very considerably exceeded the Budget Estimate.

MISCELLANEOUS.

30.—Miscellaneous.—The principal parts of these charges are—Remittance of Treasure, 35,8; Petty Establishments, 73,0; Rents and Rates, 19,6; and Charitable Donations, 24,9.

FAMINE.

31.—Famine Relief.—The expenditure under this head is necessarily incapable of estimate at the time of the Budget. A small payment of 5,0 was estimated for. The actual expenditure of the year was only 8 or 9 in Northern India, but some outstandings in Madras, amounting to 32,2 (debits not brought to account), had also to be adjusted.

PUBLIC WORKS.

The Public Works heads as they appear in our accounts are—

1.—State Railways, Capital.—As the accounts were first made up, the chief part of the figures, both Actuals and Estimates (Budget 247,6, Regular 654,4, Actuals 601,0) was on account of the Punjab Northern State Railway. The continuance of the Afghan war rendered it necessary to push on the construction at all possible speed, and notwithstanding the heavy rates that were ruling in the Punjab, but the Regular somewhat overestimated the excess outlay. At the last moment the Secretary of State directed this work to be ranked as a productive work, and its removal to the Productive head 38, left only the small figure 77,0 under the Actuals.

The Regular also included 22,4 on account of the Sonapur-Mugra project of the Bengal Government.

2.—Irrigation, Departmental.—The increase of 75,0 over Budget occurs in nearly equal parts in Burma, Bengal and Bombay. In the first case, it is merely the transfer to this head of a grant sanctioned under "Other Public Works"; in Bengal it was owing to the necessity of some additional outlay on repairs; and in Bombay it was owing to additional grants for two or three small works.

4.—Military Works.—The expenditure was nearly the same as last year, but contained a little less for new works, and a little more for repairs. There was a small saving on the Estimates.

5 and 6.—Other Public Works, Departmental and Civil.—Some thirty lakhs of works chargeable to Local Funds in Madras were, at the time of the Budget Estimate, shown as departmental, but were afterwards made over to Civil Officers. This accounts for part of the large variations between Budget and Regular. The totals, Departmental and Civil taken together, give—Budget 3,272,7, Regular 3,537,4, Actuals 3,343,8.

Bengal estimated in the Regular for an increase of nearly 100,0 under Departmental and another 100,0 under Local, which was for the most part for expenditure over and above what had been at first undertaken; and these amounts were duly spent. The North-West and still more Bombay failed to work up to their Estimates, and in Madras there was also a saving, as the Civil Officers, in taking over charge of the local fund works, were unable to make complete arrangements for all the intended outlay.

7.—State Railways.—The figures against this head are the working expenses. The Regular Estimate showed a large increase over the Budget, which was for the most part due to increased traffic on the Punjab Northern and on the Indus Valley Railways, and to some extensions completed at an earlier date than expected. It was therefore exactly parallel with the increase of receipts. The excess on the two Railways just mentioned exceeded what had been taken in the Regular Estimates. In other Railways the figures fairly followed the Budget. The Regular Estimate noted a decrease in the working expenses of the Northern Bengal.

The following figures show for two years the revenue and expenditure of the State Railways:—

8.—Guaranteed Railways.—The Indian figures against this head represent the payment of surplus profits, and the English ones the guaranteed interest: a small amount of guaranteed interest is, however, included in the Indian payments.

The following figures compare the Estimates on account of payment of surplus profits:—

| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. |

The Bombay-Baroda Line usually has a charge on this account also, but by agreement with the Secretary of State the amount has for some years been appropriated for construction of the new Nerbudda Bridge.

The following figures show the net result to Government by the working of the Guaranteed Railways: our adjustment for exchange being taken into account by taking the interest paid in England at Rs. 12 per £:—

10.—East Indian Railway.—The East Indian Railway worked under the new contract from 1st January 1880; but as the payments are made in respect of each completed half-year, the accounts of 1880-81 contain part of the old arrangement and part of the new.

The last payment of guaranteed interest under the old contract, viz., for the half-year ending December 31, 1879, fell within the year 1879-80, but the moiety of surplus profits for the same half-year was not paid till a month or two of 1880-81 had passed and is the 266,6 which appears in the statement under "Guaranteed Railways."

Now the payments to be made under the new Contract are—

The payments made during the present year 1880-81 have been as follows:—

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|

| and charged under Interest the two items marked (e) | | | ... | 344,0 |
| | | | | 1,460,2 |

It will be seen that the two items which reckon as interest, are paid for the whole year, that is, for the two half-years ending June 30th and December 31st. Those which go by the annuity-year are paid only for nine months, namely, for the three months ending March 31st (the year of account being altered to correspond with the official one) and for the six months ending September. The payment of profits was for the half-year ending June 30th, 1880.

The difference between the Estimate and the Actuals, in the case of the East Indian Railway, was due to the decision of the India Office, made after the Estimates, to include the abovementioned £188,000 under Interest, and not under East Indian Railway.

11.—Irrigation.—The addition in the Regular Estimates was due to the necessity of increased outlay in maintaining and clearing works in Bengal, to repairs to flood damages in the North-West, and to additional outlay on the Kistna and Cauvery systems in Madras. The actual outlay in Madras was greater than the Estimate, but the excess was balanced by savings in the Punjab.

12.—Madras Irrigation Company.—The outlay is the payment of guaranteed interest on capital.

PRODUCTIVE PUBLIC WORKS REVENUE ACCOUNT.

The Productive Works Account for the year is in the following figures compared with that of the last year:—

| | 1879-80. | 1880-81. | | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Revenue from Productive Public Works, see page 10 ... | 7,844,3 | 8,584,4 | Expenditure on Productive Public Works, maintenance, &c., see page 19 ... | 7,107,9 | 6,877,5 |
| Land Revenue due to Productive Works... | 602,4 | 797,3 | Interest on debt incurred for Productive Public Works ... | 1,616,5 | 2,381,9 |
| TOTAL ... | 8,446,7 | 9,381,7 | | 8,724,4 | 9,259,4 |
| Gain ... ... | 122,4 | | Loss ... | 277,7 | ... |

The features of this comparison then are an increased revenue on the one side and an increased charge for interest, indicating additional capital outlay, on the other.

The direct Revenue and Expenditure of the two years have been compared, in detail, under the head of "Public Works," the chief part being as follows:—

| | Revenue. | Expenditure. |
|---|---|---|
| State Railways ... ... ... | +720,4 | +392,3 |
| Guaranteed Railways ... ... | +436,9 | — 94,4 |
| East Indian Railway ... ... | —324,9 | —531,5 |

In the increased Revenue of Guaranteed Railways nearly every Railway participated; the diminished expenditure on the East Indian Railway is explained partly by the transfer of some of the charges to "Interest," (34,4 in the first year and 344,0 in the second) and partly by the fact that only nine months' annuity charges came within the year 1880-81.

The Land Revenue, which is chiefly a Madras item but partly also a Punjab and North-West one, is the part of the total of 21,910,3 under I, Land Revenue which is calculated to be due to Irrigation. The figure of the current year was swelled by an arrear of 100,9 in the Punjab Account.

The charges for interest have during the year received a great accession.

The interest charges here shown are not, except in the case of East Indian Railways debt, any specific interest upon any specific loans, but 4½ per cent. upon the total capital outlay upon the projects classed as Productive. The amount thus calculated is, for the purpose of this account, separated off from the mass of the charges under 1, Interest on Debt, and shown as interest on debt incurred for Productive Works. Now some very large sums have, from time to time, been spent out of the "ordinary heads" upon the works that are classed as Productive, and the practice hitherto has been to exclude these from the reckoning of capital expenditure, and include only what had been charged under 38, Productive Public Works Capital expenditure, outside the Budget Account. In February last the Secretary of State directed that both classes of capital expenditure should be reckoned and the amount added by this order to the capital was as follows:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| STATE RAILWAYS— | | |
| Calcutta and South-Eastern ... ... | 108,3 | |
| Punjab Northern ... ... | 489,0 | |
| Others ... ... ... | 318,4 | |
| | | 915,7 |
| IRRIGATION— | | |
| Ganges Canal ... ... ... | 2,004,1 | |
| Lower Ganges Canal ... ... | 362,3 | |
| Bari Doab Canal ... ... | 1,150,1 | |
| Godavery Delta ... ... | 511,0 | |
| Kistna Delta ... ... ... | 362,8 | |
| Others ... ... ... | 744,0 | |
| | | 5,134,3 |
| TOTAL ... ... | | 6,050,0 |

The Secretary of State at the same time allowed a set-off by excluding whatever sums, included in the capital expenditure, represented outlay upon works no longer classed as "Productive," but the permission operated to reduce the total by the following items only:—

|---|---|
| IRRIGATION— | |
| Various items of which the largest are the Swat River Canal 111,4, and the Sukkur and Shadadpur Canal 52,6 | 342,3 |
| STATE RAILWAYS— | |
| Hubli and Karwar ... ... ... ... | 55,2 |
| Punjab Northern Frontier Section ... ... | 11,8 |
| TOTAL ... | 409,3 |

On this account therefore we get a net increase of 5,640,7 to the capital; and a further increase of 3,238,1 comes in by the addition of another year's expenditure. The total debt is accordingly thus altered:—

On account of Productive Public Works—

| | 31st Mar. 1880. | 31st Mar. 1881. |
|---|---|---|
| Irrigation ... ... ... | 11,851,2 | 17,257,6 |
| State Railways ... ... ... | 24,644,7 | 28,047,0 |
| East Indian Railway ... ... | 9,730,9 | 10,149,3 |
| Miscellaneous Public Improvements ... | 344,4 | 414,4 |
| TOTAL ... | 46,571,2 | 55,868,3 |
| ADD—Ordinary ... ... ... | 105,156,9 | 101,539,3 |
| TOTAL ... | 151,728,1 | 157,407,6 |

And there is necessarily a corresponding increase in the charge against Productive Public Works on account of Interest.

The "Debt incurred for Productive Public Works" is not, except in the East India Railway case, any specific part of the general debt, but in the Finance and Revenue Accounts, an entry is made which maintains the distinction in the total debt account, of how much represents capital outlay on Productive Public Works and how much may be reckoned as ordinary debt.

ARMY.

36.—Army.—The Military Accounts were intended to show, under a separate head, the expenditure due to the war, but a perfect separation of this sort is not possible at the time of compiling the accounts. Accordingly a review of the figures now made shows that the charges taken under the ordinary heads of Army Service, either have been increased as a secondary consequence of the war, or actually include charges which fuller information would have shown as direct war-charges.

The main increases under the ordinary heads in India are—

|---|---|
| 1. Commissariat Services ... ... ... ... | 367,1 |
| 2. Clothing Services ... ... ... ... | 14,8 |
| 3. Barrack Services ... ... ... ... | 31,9 |
| 4. Medical Services* ... ... ... ... | 60,7 |
| 5. Ordnance* ... ... ... ... ... | 64,2 |
| 6. Sea Transport ... ... ... ... | 45,1 |
| 7. Miscellaneous Services ... ... ... ... | 36,9 |
| 8. Retired Officers ... ... ... ... | 12,2 |
| 9. Military Pensions ... ... ... ... | 14,3 |

* The excess against these has, in the actual accounts, been reduced by 53,6 and 31,8, by the operation of the rule for taking credits for stores supplied to other departments by deduction from charges.

Of these, No. 1 is explained as being due to high prices in Northern India, which was a direct consequence of the draining of the country by supplies for the war; but in addition to this, large charges are included, which should have been taken as war expenditure. This especially applies to the excess under Provisions for Europeans 112,1, and to that under Conveyance by railway 78,9, and by water 10,6.

The excesses under Clothing, Medical and Ordnance, are all explained as purchases necessary to replace consumption in the war; that under Barrack Services, to the movements of troops to and from the war; that under Sea Transport, to the activity of transport, also a consequence of the war; that under Military Pensions, to admissions to the Pension list in consequence of the war.

Thus, the only excesses not due to the Afghan war are that under "Retired Officers," which is only a transfer of certain capitalization payments from England to India; and that under Miscellaneous Services 36,9. This last figure is a net one; as the details show (1) a charge of 93,0, on account of the Naga Expedition, and one of 7,8 on account of the Waziri Expedition, neither of which were provided for in the Budget; (2) a saving of 81,3 in the Madras and Bombay allowances for compensation for dearness of provisions, due to the fact of the regiments being ordered on service and receiving free rations.

The English figure compared with Budget showed about an equal amount of increases (chiefly in Stores) and decreases.

The Receipts and Expenditure under the head of "Army" were, in the accounts of 1880-81, for the first time, adjusted in accordance with the orders of the India Office Committee so as to bring to account, under the Budget heads, all the money issued from Civil Treasuries and not definitely accounted for by the Military Account Department. This net debit is in three parts, namely—

(1) Issues of which the receipt is not yet acknowledged in the Military Accounts.
(2) Net charges in the Military Accounts, to "Advances Recoverable" which are mostly expenditure not yet completely audited.
(3) Net outstandings under transfers between Military Departments,—that is, debited by one to the other, but not yet adjusted by that other.

Of these adjustments, (1) and (3) are taken as belonging to the ordinary part of the Military Account, and gave net expenditure minus 33,8. No. 2 was taken as outstanding war expenditure, and will be noted in the account of it.

EXCHANGE.

37.—Loss by Exchange.—The per contra item of "gain by exchange" must be explained with reference to this head, as it has really no meaning apart from it.

The figures of the past five years bearing on this head are as follow:—

| | English charges. | Council Bills. | | | Exchange as shown in Accounts. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | Sterling. | Rupees. | Difference. | Loss. | Gain. |
| 1876-77 ... | { 13,467,8 / 619,2 } | 12,695,8 | 14,857,5 | 2,161,7 | 2,181,6 | 505,1 |
| 1877-78 ... | { 14,048,3 / 1,146,8 } | 10,134,5 | 11,698,5 | 1,564,0 | 1,653,4 | 561,2 |
| 1878-79 ... | { 13,849 2 / 692,9 } | 13,948,5 | 16,912,4 | 2,963,9 | 3,359,1 | 474,5 |
| 1879-80 ... | { 14,547,7 / 541,0 } | 15,748,8 | 18,957,2 | 3,208,4 | 3,247,0 | 320,6 |
| 1880-81 ... | { 14,420,2 / 570,7 } | 15,239,7 | 18,327,7 | 3,088,0 | 3,124,3 | 407,5 |

The second figures under English charges are the Productive Public Works Capital Expenditure.

The present state of things therefore is that the India Office has to meet, on account of India about 14 millions of ordinary charges, and half a million of Productive Works Capital charges. But in addition to this the India Office has to make payments on other accounts of varying amounts, which are usually somewhat over a million.

For all these payments it supplies itself by drawing on the Indian Treasuries, which have to pay about Rs. 12 for every £1, the extra Rs. 2 being charged off as Loss by Exchange. To the extent of sterling 14½ millions of bills, the loss is properly a charge of Government, that is, the English expenditure can be added to the Indian at the rate of £1 for every Rs. 10, only by making to the whole of it the addition of Rs. 2 for every £1 on account of Exchange. But, to pay our way at the India Office we have to remit one million extra, on other accounts than expenditure, and the exchange on this amount also necessarily comes into the accounts in the first place as a charge for "Loss by Exchange". It is however to a large extent recoverable, and the recoveries of it come into the account as Gain by Exchange.

The simplest transactions under Gain by Exchange are private remittances (chiefly by Military Officers) made through the Government, as these are paid for at the current rate, say Rs. 12. They are brought to account as Rs. 10 received on account of the Secretary of State, and Rs. 2, received as "Gain by Exchange," a mere set-off against the "Loss" which must be charged per contra, on the bills drawn by the India Office to cover them.

A small item of Gain by Exchange on the excess of Money Orders drawn on the United Kingdom belongs to this category; but Money Orders drawn on continental countries have no such accompaniment, as the accounts in these cases are adjusted, not by Council Bills, but by bills purchased in India by the Post Office Department.

More than half of the Gain-by-Exchange transactions are connected with the purchase, by funds advanced by the India Office, of stores required for Guaranteed Railway Companies in India, which stores are in the first place purchased and shipped on Capital Account. Our accounts, in India, of Capital transactions of the Railway Companies are based on the accounts rendered us by those companies. Now their accounts when they go to England are made up at the contract rate of exchange (usually 1*s.* 10*d.*), but our accounts, when they are brought on the India Office books, are taken at £1 for Rs. 10. We have therefore so to contrive that our figures converted at 2*s.* the Rupee, shall produce the same result as the Railway Accounts converted at 1*s.* 10*d.*

Accordingly, every item brought upon our accounts from those of the Railway must be accompanied by an exchange adjustment. When the Railway Accounts show an expenditure—Rs. 10,000, we know that the account of the Railway Company upon the India Office Books will be debited—£916-13-4, and we must give the India Office that debit by adjusting the Rs. 10,000, as—

|---|---|
| Debit Railway Accounts ... ... ... ... | 9,166 |
| Exchange ... ... ... ... ... | 833 |

and so with the credits.

Now Capital expenditure by the Guaranteed Companies in India has practically ceased, and the transactions on the Capital Accounts are mostly credits on account of Stores purchased and held on Capital Account, but required for use on other accounts; that is, there are more credits than debits and there is on the whole a net credit of nearly the value of the Stores, and of the two-pence exchange upon them.

But further, the Railway Companies, though they are entitled to spend the Stores, on Capital Account, by crediting the Store Account at 1 Re. for every 1*s.* 10*d.* have no such claim when they spend them on Revenue Account. They are accordingly required, in using stores for the Revenue Account, to pay to credit of Government the difference between 1 Re. for every 1*s.* 10*d.* (at which they hold them), and 1 Re. for every 1*s.* 8*d.* (or other exchange rate) which is the actual cost of them, that is, the equivalent in Rupees of the amount advanced by the Secretary of State for their purchase.

Through the medium, therefore, of these two heads "Gain by Exchange on Capital transactions of Guaranteed Companies" and "Gain by Exchange on Revenue Stores," the Companies repay the Secretary of State the "Loss by Exchange" upon his sterling outlay in London, and find themselves in the same position as if they had themselves remitted money from India to England, at the Council-Bills rate of Exchange, for the purchases of Stores required on Revenue Account.

The result therefore by the Exchange Account is for the most part this, that we bear, under Loss by Exchange, a charge for Exchange upon the whole of our remittances, but recover under Gain by Exchange so much of the Loss as is due to remittances made on other accounts than our own expenditure.

PROVINCIAL ADJUSTMENT.

This entry (1) adds to expenditure the excess of the amounts which under the provincial contracts are placed at the disposal of the Provincial Governments, over the amounts which actually come in course of expenditure by them; (2) deducts from expenditure the excess in the amounts which the Provincial Governments have expended over the amount at their disposal, which excess has been met out of their accrued surplus of previous years.

As the accounts have hitherto been made up, adjustment No. 2, the deduction from expenditure, has been shown as an addition upon the revenue side of the account. The Secretary of State, considering this a somewhat too technical form of exhibiting the figure, has directed that in future it be shown in the published accounts in the manner now described, that is by a "deduct" operation upon the Expenditure; both the "add" and the "deduct" adjustment being stated below the total of the ordinary heads. This altered arrangement does not affect the manner of bringing out the surplus or deficit of the whole account.

Up to 1st April 1880, the amount charged off the accounts by adjustment No. 1, and thus entering the account as expenditure, though still at the disposal of the Provincial Governments, was 1,740,4 Provincial and 1,259,7 Local, Total 3,000,1. Eight of the Governments during the year still farther under-spent their money by 336,7, and this amount, though charged as expenditure of 1880-81, really remains at the disposal of the said Governments for future expenditure. One Government, Bengal, over-spent its yearly assignment by 38,7, and this amount, being taken out of the past underspendings, is deducted from the charge of the year. The net adjustment is therefore 298,0, by addition to expenditure, and thus our accounts, up to date, have charged off as expenditure 3,000,1 + 298,0 more than has actually been spent, this amount being now at the disposal of Local Governments, to spend in future years, without charging the Revenues of the year.

WAR IN AFGHANISTAN.

The following two items have been shown under this head :—

| | INDIA. | | | ENGLAND. | | | TOTAL. | | | TOTAL, 1879-80. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | Budget. | Regular. | Actual. | |
| War charges ... | 2,070,0 | 11,316,4 | 11,298,0 | 20,( | 70,5 | 70,5 | 2,090,0 | 11,386,9 | 11,368,5 | 4,816,6 |
| Deduct war receipts | ... | 291,0 | 602,6 | ... | 2,000,0 | 2,695,0 | ... | 2,291,0 | 3,297,6 | 50,5 |
| Net ... | 2,070,0 | 11,025,4 | 10,695,4 | 20,0 | —1,929,5 | —2,624,5 | 2,090,0 | 9,095,9 | 8,070,9 | 4,766,1 |
| Frontier Railways ... | 970,0 | 1,505,0 | 1,598,9 | 1,070,0 | 694,7 | 694,7 | 2,040,0 | 2,199,7 | 2,293,6 | 1,834,4 |

The war charges were made to include all expenditure beyond the frontier, that is, expenditure in the hands of Political officers as well as directly Military expenditure; also all expenditure on this side the frontier which was directly referable to the war.

The Regular Estimate and the Actuals were both based upon the principle of bringing to account all the expenditure for which money had been issued from the Civil Treasuries up to date. The figures therefore include some three millions of expenditure, actually incurred before 1880-81, but not brought to account, owing to the Military Accounts having fallen into arrear. The Regular Estimate drawn up on this basis proved remarkably accurate, the comparison being as follows :—

Net expenditure on "Army" in India—

|---|---|
| Regular Estimate ... ... ... ... | 22,473,8 |
| Actual figures ... ... ... ... | 22,471,7 |

The war receipts in England were the contribution from the English Government towards the Afghan war. Properly speaking, the English Government makes actual payment as follows :—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1880-81 | By remission of repayable advance of 2,000,0 ... | 2,000,0 |
| „ | By an actual payment ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| 1881-82 | „ „ ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| 1882-83 | „ „ ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| 1883-84 | „ „ ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| 1884-85 | „ „ ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| 1885-86 | „ „ ... ... ... | 500,0 |
| | TOTAL ... | 5,000,0 |

It was considered inconvenient to mix up with the Indian accounts of Revenue and Expenditure of future years a receipt unconnected with the transactions of the years in which it would occur; and as the due receipt of the amount was practically certain, it was decided that it should be brought under the Revenue heads of receipt in the two years 1880-81 and 1881-82, by debiting a suspense head for the amounts which would be paid over in 1882-83, and future years. The division of the amount between 1880-81 and 1881-82 was determined by the same considerations,—namely, it was so arranged that the accounts of 1881-82 should present a normal comparison, unaffected by a large "casual" receipt, between Revenue and Expenditure; and we were to take :—

|---|---|
| In the accounts of 1881-82, an amount equal to the estimated war expenditure which would have to be met in 1881-82 ... | 3,000,0 |
| In 1880-81 as much as was not required for 1881-82 ... | 2,000,0 |
| TOTAL ... | 5,000,0 |

The 3,000,0 was intentionally taken as a high estimate of the amount required in 1881-82 for winding up the war expenditure, and by September it was evident that only about 2,305,0 would be required. Accordingly, upon the principle above explained, it was decided that 2,695,0 should be taken into the accounts of 1880-81, leaving the 2,305,0 to meet the war charges of 1881-82.

The following therefore compares the actual transactions, according to the time at which they occurred, with the manner in which they have been brought to account :—

| | ACTUAL TRANSACTION. | | | AS BROUGHT TO ACCOUNT. | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | DEBIT TO | | CREDIT TO | | DEBIT TO | | |
| | Credit to Revenue. | Cash. | Advance. | Revenue. | Suspense. | Cash. | Advance. | Suspense. |
| 1880-81 ... ... ... | 2,500,0 | 500,0 | 2,000,0 | 2,695,0 | ... | 500,0 | 2,000,0 | 195,0 |
| 1881-82 ... ... ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | 2,305,0 | ... | 500,0 | ... | 1,805,0 |
| 1882-83 ... ... ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... |
| 1883-84 ... ... ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... |
| 1884-85 ... ... ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... |
| 1885-86 ... ... ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... | 500,0 | 500,0 | ... | ... |
| | 5,000,0 | 5,000,0 | | 5,000,0 | 2,000,0 | 5,000,0 | | 2,000,0 |

So that no alteration is involved either to our cash account, or to the account of the advance of £2,000,0 received from the British Government in 1879. But we bring to credit of Revenue 195,0 in 1880-81 and 1,805,0 in 1881-82; by debiting a suspense account and clearing that account by the credit of the amounts when they actually come in course of receipt.

The Frontier Railway charges are those (1) of the Kandahar Railway, (2) of the Punjab Northern beyond Pindi.

The direct cost of the war, in 1879-80 and 1880 81, was—

| | In India. | | | In England. | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. | 1878-79. | 1879-80. | 1880-81. |
| Military Operations— | | | | | | |
| Charges ... | 600,3 | 4,642,1 | 11,298,0 | 76,1 | 174,5 | 70,5 |
| Receipts ... | —2 | —50,5 | —602,6 | ... | ... | —2,695,0 |
| Frontier Railways ... | ... | 1,089,9 | 1,598,9 | ... | 244,4 | 694,7 |
| | 600,1 | 5,681,5 | 12,294,8 | 76,1 | 418,9 | —1,929,8 |
| | | 18,575,9 | | | —1,434,8 (sterling) | |

It must be remembered that the "Frontier Railway" charges in England include 526,0 for stores which at the end of the year were still unused, and a great part of which will ultimately be disposed of either by use upon other works or in some other way. This disposal will bring in a credit to "Frontier Railways," or, in other words, will reduce the statement of "War Expenditure." Moreover, as the expenditure after the close of 1880-81 will not work up to the reserved credit of 2,305,0 on account of the English Contribution in the accounts of 1881-82, the direct cost, to India (over and above the five millions borne by England) of the Afghan War may be taken at something less than the total recorded to the end of 1880-81, that is, at something less than Rs 18,57,60,000, paid in India (Sterling £15,480,000) less £1,434,800 net recovery in England.

In the Budget Estimates, the Capital outlay on the East Indian Railway was taken in the English Account, whereas in the Regular and Actuals it was taken in the Indian Account.

Under the first head, the Regular Estimate anticipated increased expenditure in the North-West and in the Punjab, but the Actuals were hardly in excess of the Budget in these provinces, and there were savings elsewhere.

The principal charges are—

| | In 1880-81. | To end of 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|
| Lower Ganges Canal ... ... | 172,9 | 2,201,6 |
| Sirhind Canal (net) ... ... | 200,3 | 1,455,7 |

The Madras Harbour figure is that part of the expenditure which was sanctioned to be taken to the Productive head. The whole expenditure on the work to date is—

| | Before 1880-81. | In 1880-81. | TOTAL. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Charged to Revenue ... | 52,8 | 68,1 | 120,9 |
| Charged to P. P. W. Capital ... | 344,4 | 70,0 | 414,4 |
| | 397,2 | 138,1 | 535,3 |

During the year, orders were received to take the Productive Public Works part of this expenditure out of the accounts by the creation of a Port Trust, to which the amount would be charged as a loan. The cyclone of November, however, so much injured the works as to render this project, for the time, impossible, and the amount still remains in our accounts as above.

Under State Railways, the alteration in the figures is due to a change in the mode of charging the Jhelum-Pindi and Lala-Musa-Miani Sections of the Punjab Northern Railway. It was at first proposed to charge it to Revenue, but the point being specially referred to the Secretary of State, orders were received that the whole was to be treated as Productive. The outlay on these was 60,10 (see under 32, Railways), and accounts for the excess that comes under this head.

The principal works charged to the account during the year are—

| | During 1880-81. | Till end of 1880-81. |
|---|---|---|
| Rajputana ... ... ... | 277,3 | 3,659,4 |
| Western Rajputana ... ... | 458,7 | 1,648,2 |
| Neemuch-Sindia ... ... | 441,3 | 1,832,4 |
| Nagpore-Chattisgarh ... .. | 204,4 | 586,5 |
| Punjab Northern ... ... | 617,8 | 4,414,1 |
| Indus Valley ... ... | 280,3 | 6,408,6 |

The short expenditure on the East Indian Railway is chiefly on account of stores purchased in England. The Company very much over-estimated their requirements in this respect.

ORGANIZATION.

No. 8.—The following Resolution is published for general information:—

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Military (Marine) Department, No. 329, dated Fort William, the 27th February, 1882.

Read resolution of the Government of India in the Military (Marine) Department, No. 5-S, dated the 6th July, 1877, on the subject of the Organization of Her Majesty's Indian Marine.

Read also despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 291, dated the 31st August, 1881, sanctioning the appointment of a Director of the Indian Marine, as well as of a Deputy Director, and the abolition of the appointments of Superintendent of Marine at Calcutta and Bombay.

RESOLUTION.—The Secretary of State for India having approved of the appointment of a Director of the Indian Marine, as well as of a Deputy Director, and having intimated that Captain H. W. Brent, R.N., has been appointed as Director, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct, in pursuance of the instructions of Her Majesty's Government, that the whole of the establishments, afloat and ashore, appertaining to the Indian Marine on the Eastern and Western Divisions, as well as the Department of Marine Surveys, shall be placed under the Director of Marine, who will exercise administrative authority over such establishments under the orders of the Government of India in the Military (Marine) Department.

2. The head-quarters of the Director of Marine shall be established at Bombay, but he will visit and inspect the establishments at Calcutta and elsewhere whenever it may be necessary to do so.

3. The Deputy Director will have his permanent residence in the dockyard at Calcutta.

4. The appointments of Superintendent of Marine at Calcutta and Bombay will be abolished, as well as the appointment of Secretary to the Superintendent of Marine, Calcutta.

5. The office of Deputy Director of the Indian Marine will be conferred in the first instance upon one of the officers who at present hold the appointments of Superintendent of Marine. The Governor General in Council having taken into consideration the long and zealous services rendered by Captain W. L. Searle, late Indian Navy, and Captain G. O'B. Carew, late Indian Navy, the Superintendents of Marine at Calcutta and Bombay respectively, has been pleased to select Captain Carew for the appointment of Deputy Director.

6. The salary of the Director of the Indian Marine will be Rs. 2,500 per mensem, and that of the Deputy Director Rs. 1,800 per mensem. These officers will occupy the official residences provided in the dockyards at Bombay and Calcutta, respectively.

7. The office of Director of the Indian Marine will be tenable for five years.

8. The foregoing changes shall be carried into effect on the 1st April, 1882, except so far as that Captain Brent will assume charge of his office from the date of his arrival at Bombay.

---

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, and to all the Departments of the Government of India, for information.

Ordered also, that it be published in the Gazette of India.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Acknowledgment of the services rendered to Government by Major-General A. Fraser, C.B., R.E.

RESOLUTION.—Major-General Fraser, C.B., R.E., having succeeded to Colonel's allowances, vacates the office of Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department.

2. His Excellency the Governor General in Council cannot allow this distinguished officer to leave the country without placing on record the very high opinion the Government of India entertains of his long, able, and varied services.

3. Major-General Fraser served through the Sutlej, Punjab and Burmah Campaigns with credit to himself, but it is of his services in connection with the Public Works Department that Government more particularly wish to place on record its acknowledgments.

4. It has fallen to the lot of few officers to plan, superintend and carry out so many and such varied works,—from laying out new towns and cantonments in a conquered country, housing troops in several stations, but specially in Fort William, under considerable difficulties, but with marked success as regards their health and comfort, to planning and carrying out a system of lighthouses, thereby rendering the navigation of the coast of Burmah safe and improving that of the Red Sea, and specially erecting under great difficulties the lighthouse on the Alguada Reef, for the successful issue of which he was honored by the 3rd Class of the Civil Order of the Bath.

5. While Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, Major-General Fraser prepared a scheme for carrying out Sir John Strachey's wishes for the preservation of those beautiful works of art,—the royal buildings at Delhi, Agra and Fattehpore-Sikri,—the preservation of which required archæological knowledge and architectural taste.

6. In January 1879 Major-General Fraser was appointed Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, and since that date, save for a few months when he acted as Member of the Supreme Council during Sir A. Clarke's absence, he has had charge of a very heavily-worked office, the organization of which he has greatly improved, reducing its arrears and leaving it in a most satisfactory working condition.

7. Major-General Fraser has repeatedly received the thanks of the Government of India and also of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for his varied services, and in now bidding him farewell on his return to England, His Excellency the Governor General in Council once more tenders to him the best thanks of the Government of India, and trusts he may long be spared to enjoy that rest which he has so justly earned.

8. It will be a matter of great satisfaction to His Excellency the Viceroy to bring Major-General Fraser's services to the notice of the Home Government.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to Major-General A. Fraser, C.B., R.E.; also that a copy be forwarded to the Secretary of State for the information of Her Majesty's Government, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

SANITARY.

The 17th March 1882.

No. 85.—The following Rules have been sanctioned by the Governor General in Council under the provisions of Act I of 1870, as a temporary measure, to provide for quarantine against cholera in the port of Aden:—

I. The Commander of every vessel, including buggalows or other native craft arriving from the port of Bombay or from the Turkish Red Sea ports, shall, before entering the harbour, indicate by signal the port from which such vessel has come.

II. Such Commander shall not, except as hereinafter provided, allow any communication, either with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore, or with any other vessel or boat in the harbour.

III. Immediately on any such arrival being signalled, the Health Officer of the port shall go alongside the vessel and, if communication with the shore is desired, shall direct the Commander to take the vessel to the quarantine anchorage, duly appointed and notified in that behalf by the Resident, there to remain for a period of seven days from the date of arrival in the harbour, and undergo disinfection, which should apply as well to crew, passengers, effects and susceptible goods. The Health Officer shall also direct the Commander to prohibit, during the period for which the vessel remains at the quarantine anchorage as aforesaid, all communication, except such as is hereinafter provided for, between such vessel and the shore, or other vessels and boats in the harbour. If communication with the shore is not required the vessel shall not enter the inner harbour, and no communication in any way shall be allowed with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore or with any vessel or boat in the harbour.

IV. If during the period a vessel is at the quarantine anchorage aforesaid, any case or [illegible] of cholera should occur on board, the [illegible] vessel shall remain in quarantine for a [illegible] of seven days from the date of the [illegible] occurring, and be subject to all the [illegible] provided for in Rule III.

[illegible] any vessel has been placed in quarantine as aforesaid, the Health Officer may direct the removal of so man of the passengers and crew as may not be suffering from illness, and whose services may not be required on board the vessel, to such particular spots, as may from time to time be selected by the Resident as places of quarantine, there to remain for a period of seven days. If a case of cholera occurs among such passengers and crew during any such period, they shall remain in a place of quarantine for a period of fifteen days from the date of the occurrence of the last case of such illness.

VI. Any mails or cargo which may be brought by any vessel so arriving, shall be landed under such precautions as the Health Officer may deem necessary to prevent the spread of the disease.

VII. It will be the duty of the Port Officer to facilitate the conveyance to all vessels in quarantine of such supplies of provisions, stores and other articles, as may be required by those on board. Such supplies will be placed on the boats of the vessels in quarantine to be subsequently removed by members of their crews.

VIII. All vessels arriving at Aden which may have communicated with vessels coming from the port of Bombay or from the Turkish Red Sea ports shall be subjected to the same quarantine as vessels arriving at Aden from the port of Bombay or from the Turkish Red Sea ports.

IX. All vessels which have undergone quarantine in the manner above prescribed, should have the fact clearly stated on their Bills of Health.

RESOLUTION.—By Resolution of the Government of India in the Foreign Department (Political), No. 1195 of 9th June 1881, it was ordered that an inquiry should be held under Act XXXVII of 1850, into the conduct of Muhammad Hyat Khan, C.S.I., while in political employ at Kabul. The Resolution briefly noticed the circumstances which led to this order, and the preliminary action which had already been taken by the Government in connection with them; but in view of the present position of the case, it will be convenient to recapitulate the facts concerning the charges under consideration.

Muhammad Hyat Khan was employed as a political officer under General Roberts during the occupation of Kabul in the winter of 1879-80. He left Kabul early in the year 1880, and soon after his departure rumours became prevalent imputing to him corruption and extortion in the discharge of his duties in Afghanistan. In some cases written documents were submitted to the higher authorities there, containing explicit charges of that nature against him; but as there was no means of holding a judicial inquiry into the matter, and as, besides, Hyat Khan had already left Kabul, no investigation was held at the time, and the charges remained unrefuted. The Government felt that it was impossible to allow the matter to remain in this position. The rumours affecting Hyat Khan's reputation had been, and continued to be, persistent and reiterated, and charges of a distinct and definite nature had been made against him in writing. These charges involved a gross abuse of his position by an officer in the employment of the Government of India for purposes of extortion, and to have ignored them would have been alike prejudicial to the character of the public service, and unfair to the officer himself. The alleged offences were committed, it is true, in a foreign country occupied by British troops as the result of warlike operations; but this circumstance did not appear to the Government in any way to mitigate the gravity of such offences as those of which Muhammad Hyat Khan was accused, and they felt that the practice of intimidation and extortion in an enemy's country by a British officer was calculated to reflect grave discredit upon the Government which he served. The Government of India had therefore to determine in what way the charges against Muhammad Hyat Khan should be brought to a definite issue. It was clear that they could not be left to be dealt with by the ordinary processes of law, for the acts complained of, if committed, had been committed in a foreign country, in which we were carrying on warlike operations, and could not therefore be dealt with by the Criminal Courts of British India. It was, accordingly, necessary that any action that might be taken should be of a special character, and must originate with the Government as a measure of discipline. Looking at it from this point of view, the Government was confronted at the outset by the difficulty arising from the absence of formal and declared prosecutors, and the uncertainty in regard to the evidence which could be brought to bear upon the charges. It was therefore decided to hold a preliminary inquiry in the first instance for the purpose of ascertaining with some greater degree of precision what grounds there might be for proceeding against the accused; and secondly, in the event of its appearing that good grounds existed for further proceedings in order to enable the Government to determine what form those proceedings should take. This inquiry was entrusted to Mr. D. G. Barkley (at the time officiating as a Judge of the Chief Court of the Punjab), assisted by Messrs. Silcock and Anderson, Assistant Commissioners of the Punjab, and was held at Peshawar between 21st February and 7th April 1881. The report made to Government by these gentlemen is published herewith. From it it will be seen that they inquired into seven specific charges against Muhammad Hyat Khan, and that, although there was some difference of opinion, they were practically unanimous in considering that the innocence of the accused was not established on any of the seven charges, and that on some the evidence inclined them to pronounce an unfavourable verdict. Having regard to the importance of the issues, the Government did not feel justified in treating this report as conclusive. The evidence had not all been taken on oath, and in other respects it was admitted by the Commissioners themselves to be imperfect. The Commissioners differed among themselves upon important points; and it could not be said that upon any of the graver charges the finding of the Commission as a whole was conclusive against Muhammad Hyat Khan. Moreover, the accused officer represented that under the conditions of the inquiry—conditions that arose of necessity from its informal and departmental character—he had been prejudiced in his defence. With the view therefore, not only of making the investigation as thorough and complete as possible, but also for the purpose of affording the accused the fullest opportunity of defending himself in an open and public trial, the Government determined on the inquiry which was ordered to be undertaken by the Resolution of 9th June 1881.

That Resolution directed that the procedure prescribed in Act XXXVII of 1850 should be followed, and that 'the imputations made against Muhammad Hyat Khan should be drawn into distinct articles of charge, and a Commission should be appointed to make a regular inquiry into the truth of them.' In conformity with these directions, Mr. J. W. Smyth, a Judge of the Chief Court, Punjab, was selected as sole Commissioner for the purposes of the inquiry, and the Government Advocate, Punjab, was appointed to conduct the prosecution. All the papers in the case were accordingly sent to this latter officer in order that he might frame specific articles of charge. After a careful perusal of the papers he represented that in order to establish the charges it would be necessary to obtain the evidence of witnesses resident in Afghanistan. A list of persons, whose evidence he considered to be required was accordingly sent to the Amir of Afghanistan, and His Highness was invited to cause their attendance at Peshawur. In reply, His Highness expressed his inability to compel the attendance of the witnesses, but after some time forwarded certain depositions, which are annexed to this Resolution. Under these circumstances the Government submitted the whole of the papers connected with the case to the law officers of the Government of India, who were of opinion that, in the absence of witnesses from Afghanistan, no evidence is forthcoming which would establish any of the charges against the accused, except, perhaps, under one comparatively insignificant head. The Government of India has therefore determined to abandon the prosecution, and the Resolution of 9th June 1881 is accordingly rescinded, in so far as it directs a trial under Act XXXVII of 1850.

The Governor General in Council cannot conceal from himself that the position in which this case is left is not satisfactory. Charges of the gravest import have been brought against an officer who has passed a long and honorable career in the public service, and whose title to be regarded as worthy of confidence and respect has up to recent date not been questioned. By some these charges have been believed to be true, by others they have been regarded as the vilest calumnies. The Government has exhausted all the means at its command for the purpose of sifting those charges, and in the opinion of the law officers it would now be impossible to bring them to the test of a judicial examination. The result is that the charges against the accused have not been established. The suspension of Muhammad Hyat Khan is consequently removed.

INTELLIGENCE.

No. 132.—The Most Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following correspondence:—

No. 58, Field Operations—C, dated Army Hd.-Qrs., Fort Wm., 9th March, 1882.
From—Major-General Sir C. M. MACGREGOR, K.C.B., &c., Quartermaster-General in India,
To—Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Mily. Dept.

Dated 30th January, 1882, with annexures.

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying most valuable and exhaustive report by Brigadier-General Wilkinson on the route marched by the force under his command from Quetta to Dera Ghazi Khan in November, 1881.

2. This march has been a very interesting and a very valuable one; it sets at rest, as His Excellency thought it would, the question as to the best road from the Indus to Kandahár; it proves that detachments of British troops can march through the country of wild, untamed tribes without any collision arising; it establishes the fact that with due care long marches can be made through the roughest country without any material loss of transport, and it is an honorable evidence of the hardships which British and Native soldiers can endure, and of what the skill and intelligence of British officers rightly directed can accomplish.

3. These results, His Excellency considers, could not have been attained had the Commander not possessed, in a high degree, intelligence, energy, tact and power of organization; and Sir Donald Stewart therefore submits that Brigadier-General Wilkinson and the officers brought to notice by him have fairly earned the high approval of Government.

4. I am to request the early return of all the enclosures of this report in order that the valuable information recorded therein may without delay be transferred to the Intelligence Branch of this Department.

No. 201/B, dated 17th March, 1882.
From—Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
To—The Quartermaster-General in India.

Your letter No. 58, dated the 9th March, 1882, enclosing the report by Brigadier-General Wilkinson on the march by the force under his command from Quetta to Dera

Ghazi Khan in November and December, 1881, having been laid before the Governor General in Council, I am directed to say that His Excellency in Council fully concurs with the Commander-in-Chief in his high estimation of the qualities displayed by Brigadier-General Wilkinson, the Commander of the expedition, who, with the officers brought to notice by him, have well earned the approval of the Government of India.

2. This excellent report will be printed, and the plans, &c., executed by Major James of the Bombay Staff Corps and other officers of the force, will be reproduced, and copies will be forwarded to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

No. 84.—With reference to the rules for Foreign Telegraph Messages published in the Gazette of India of the 1st November 1879, the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following alteration, which will have effect from the 1st April 1882:—

Revised Foreign Telegraph Rule.

33. I.—Every rectifying or completing message and generally every communication exchanged between two Telegraph Offices, at the request of either the sender or receiver, relative to a message already transmitted, or in course of transmission, is classed, treated and charged for as a private telegram.

II.—The charges for a rectifying or completing telegram exchanged through two Telegraph Offices are refunded, on application to the Government Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, if the communication has been caused by an error of the service. This refund, in the case provided for by paragraph III of this rule, will apply both to the telegram demanding and that giving the rectification.

III.—A Telegraph Office which receives a communication of the above description (i.e., a demand for rectification or completion) attends to it, but replies only if the reply be prepaid and within the limits indicated in the preamble (vide Rule 21).

FOOT-NOTE.—Under this rule no refunds are made for any rectifying or completing messages exchanged direct between the sender and receiver.

W. S. TREVOR, Colonel, R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 1 of 1882.

MALACCA STRAIT.

PENANG, OR PRINCE OF WALES' ISLAND.

Fixed Red Light exhibited from Fort Point, Georgetown.

The Harbour Master, Penang, has notified that on and after the 1st of January 1882, a light would be exhibited from a light-house on Fort Point, Georgetown.

The light is a fixed red light, elevated 60 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather, through an arc of 202 degrees, or between the bearings of S. S. E. through west to north, from a distance of 10 miles; consequently, the light is not visible in the South Channel below Jerajah Island.

The light-house is situated on the north-east bastion of Fort Cornwallis. It is an iron structure, painted white, and has an overhanging gallery round the light-room.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the 4th order.

Position: Latitude 5° 24′ 30″ N.; Longitude 100° 20′ 10″ E. (Admiralty Chart).

[Bearings are Magnetic and from seaward. Variation 2° 35′ Easterly in 1882.)

By direction of the Government of India,

A. DUNDAS TAYLOR, Comdr. (late I.N.),

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

| | Without Postage. | With Postage. |
|---|---|---|

COMPTROLLER GENERAL'S OFFICE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Calcutta, the 19th January 1882.

With reference to the notifications of the Government of India, Financial Department, directing the discharge of the following Loans,

| NOTIFICATION. | LOAN. | DATE OF DISCHARGE. |
|---|---|---|
| No. 4034, of 3rd Nov. 1881, and revised No. 4185, of November 12th, 1881. | 4½ per cent. of 1871, now reduced 4 per cent. of 1881. | 13th February 1882. |
| No. 2122, of December 24th, 1881. | 4 per cent. Sicca Loan of 1824-25. | 27th March 1882. |
| Do. do. | Do. do. 1828-29. | Do. do. |

the undersigned has received instructions from the Government of India to arrange for the discharge of such notes as are enfaced for payment of interest at any Mofussil Treasury in India, at the Treasury to which they are enfaced.

Accordingly, if any holder desires to receive payment in this way, in preference to presenting his note for discharge at the Calcutta Public Debt Office (where alone payment is legally claimable), he is to receipt his note for discharge in the following form:—

"Received, through the Treasury Officer of Rupees (in words), in payment of this note, together with overdue interest up till the date of discharge (quoting above date), Rupees (in words).

(Signed) "

The Treasury Officer will forward the note so received to the Public Debt Office, Calcutta—from which, if the payment is passed, he will receive a special form of order, on his own Treasury, in favor of the holder of the note. This order will be paid on the holder's receipt.

The above directions apply also to notes of which the interest is paid at the Public Debt Offices of Madras and Bombay.

This arrangement ceases to have force six months after the date fixed for the discharge of each loan. After that interval, notes will be payable only at the Public Debt Office, Calcutta.

With reference to the notification of the Government of India, No. 4031 of the 3rd November 1881, corrected by No. 4185, of the 12th November 1881, directing the discharge of the 5 per cent. debentures of 1867, payable on 1st June 1882, the undersigned has received instructions from the Government of India to arrange for the discharge of the debentures at any treasury at which the interest on them may, in each case, have been payable before 1882.

Notes so presented for discharge should be receipted in the following form :—

"Received through the Treasury Officer of Rupees (in words) in discharge of this debenture."

The interest being first drawn under the usual procedure.

The Treasury Officer will forward the debentures thus receipted to the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, Madras or Bombay (according to the place of discharge mentioned in the body of the debenture)—from which, if the payment is passed, he will receive a special form of order on his own Treasury in favor of the holder. This order will be paid on the holder's receipt.

This arrangement ceases to have force on 1st December 1882, but does not affect the stipulation under which debentures are receivable during March, April, and May, at any Treasury, in satisfaction of any public revenue, dues or taxes.

Meteorological Reporter to Government of India.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set :

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

| | Without Postage. | With Postage. |
|---|---|---|

CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF COORG.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Bangalore, the 28th November 1881.

Under the provisions of Section 6 of Act VI of 1879, for the preservation of wild elephants, the following rules are prescribed by the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, with respect to the issue of licenses to kill wild elephants in Coorg :—

Rules.

1. Applications for the grant of licenses to kill elephants shall be made to the Commissioner of Coorg, and shall be accompanied by a stamp paper of the value of Rs. 15, on which the license, if issued, shall be engrossed.

2. Licenses shall remain in force for three months from date of issue, or, if renewed, from date of renewal.

3. All applications for renewal of licenses shall be made as provided for applications in Rule 1, and shall be accompanied by a stamp paper of like value.

4. The license-holder shall be permitted to shoot elephants only in such forests or in such locality as may be named in the license, and shall produce the same to the Forest, Police and Revenue Officials on demand.

5. Immediate report of elephants shot or wounded shall be made to the Commissioner and to the Subadar of the Taluk in which the killing or wounding has taken place.

6. The tusks of any elephant that may be shot shall be the property of the Government, but any person who has shot an elephant in accordance with the terms of a license granted under these rules has priority of purchase and may retain the tusks of the elephant which he has shot on payment of the price of the ivory contained in the tusks.

7. The license shall be liable to be withdrawn on infringement of any of the above rules.

Under the provisions of Section 6 of Act VI of 1879, for the preservation of wild elephants, the Chief Commissioner of Coorg is pleased to declare that, for the purpose of the said Act, all roads in Coorg which are maintained and repaired by the Department of Public Works, or at the expense of the District Funds, shall be deemed to be main public roads.

W. J. CUNINGHAM,
Secretary to the Chief Commr. of Coorg.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set :

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

| | Without Postage. | With Postage. |
|---|---|---|
| For the CALCUTTA SERIES ... | Rs. 35 | Rs. 37-8 |

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set :

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set :

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

| | Without Postage. | With Postage. |

HINDOSTAN—WEST COAST.

BOMBAY HARBOUR.

Light-House building on Sunk rock.

Information has been received from the Port Officer, Bombay, that a light-house is in course of construction on the Sunk rock, Bombay harbour. The building is a circular tower, and is intended to be 70 feet high above mean level of lowest ordinary spring tides. It is expected that the masonry will be finished about the middle of March next, but the fixed white light will continue to be shown, as hitherto, from the Inner Light-vessel, until further notice.

Particulars as to the description of the light to be exhibited from the Sunk rock light-house, and the simultaneous changes to be made in the Prongs and Kenery Island lights, will be notified hereafter.

SENATE HOUSE,
The 21st February 1882.

CHARLES H. TAWNEY,
Registrar.

ORDERS BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR AND SYNDICATE OF THE CALCUTTA UNIVERSITY.

The following changes in the Regulations in Arts and Medicine having been sanctioned by the Senate and approved by His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council, are published for general information.

For the Regulations for the First Examination in Arts, for the degree of Bachelor o Arts, for Honours in Arts, and for the degree of M.A., the following Regulations have been substituted, with effect, as regards the First Examination in Arts, from the 1st of January 1884, and as regards the B. A. and M. A. Examinations, from the 1st of January 1885.

FIRST EXAMINATION IN ARTS.

1. The First Examination in Arts shall commence annually at such time as the Syndicate shall determine (the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year), and shall be held in Calcutta and in such other places* as shall from time to time be appointed by the Syndicate.

2. Any undergraduate of the University may be admitted to this Examination, provided he has prosecuted a regular course of study in any affiliated institution for not less than two academical years after passing the Entrance Examination.†

3. Every candidate for admission shall send his application with a certificate in the form entered in Appendix A, either to the Registrar or to a local officer recognised by the Syndicate. Every such application must reach the office of the Registrar at least thirty days before the date fixed for the commencement of the Examination.

4. A fee of twenty rupees shall be payable by each candidate. No candidate shall be admitted, unless he shall have paid this fee to the Registrar or to the local officer recognised by the Syndicate. A candidate who fails to pass or to present himself for examination shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the fee. A candidate may be admitted to any one or more subsequent First Examinations in Arts on payment of a like fee of twenty rupees on each occasion, provided he produces a certificate from the head of an affiliated institution showing that he has prosecuted a regular course of study for six months since the date of the last examination to which he was admitted.

5. The First Examination in Arts shall be conducted by means of printed papers, the same papers being used at every place at which the Examination is held.

6. At such time as the Syndicate shall determine (the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year), the Syndicate shall publish a list of the candidates who have passed, arranged in three divisions, the first in order of merit, and the second and third in alphabetical order. Every candidate shall on passing receive a certificate in the form entered in Appendix A.

7. At the First Examination in Arts every candidate shall be examined in the following subjects, and the number of papers in each shall be as follows:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| I.—English | ... | Two papers. |
| II.—A Second Language | ... | " " |
| III.—Mathematics | ... | " " |
| IV.—Elementary Physics | ... | " " |
| V.—History | ... | One paper. |
| VI.—Logic | ... | " " |

I & II.—LANGUAGES.*

The Second language shall be one of the following languages:—

|---|---|
| Greek. | Arabic. |
| Latin. | Persian. |
| Sanskrit. | Pali. |
| Hebrew. | |

Any other classical language may be added to this list by the Syndicate. Sentences in each language in which the candidate is examined shall be given for translation into the other language.

The papers in each language shall include questions on Grammar and Idiom.

III.—MATHEMATICS.

(b) Algebra.—Quadratic equations; theory of quadratic equations and expressions; imaginary expressions; arithmetical, geometrical, and harmonical progressions; permutations and combinations; binomial and exponential theorems.

(c) Plane Geometry.—Simple problems in the geometry of the straight line, trangle, and circle, treated according to modern methods. The more important properties of the parabola and ellipse.

(d) Trigonometry.—Methods of measuring angles.
Trigonometrical ratios, and the simple relations connecting them.
Relations between trigonometrical ratios of angles differing by multiples of right angles.
Trigonometrical transformations.
Solution of triangles.
Properties of triangles.
Area of a circle.

(e) Logarithms.—The properties of logarithms.
Logarithmic series.
The use of logarithmic tables.
Proportional parts.

IV.—ELEMENTARY PHYSICS.

(a) General Ideas—
Units of measurement, and definitions of mass, force, motion.
Laws of motion.
Work and energy,—measurement of each.
Chief forces of nature.
General properties of solids, liquids, and gases.
Conditions of equilibrium of a mass acted on by forces.
Motions of translation and rotation.
Pressure of fluids and gases: measurement of pressure.
Equilibrium of floating bodies.
Specific gravity and its determination.
Motion of pendulum, and of the torsion pendulum or balance.

(b) Heat—
Laws of expansion of solids, liquids, and gases under heat.
Determination of co-efficients of expansion.
Measurement of temperature.
Maximum density of water.
Changes of molecular state, and latent heat of molecular changes of state.
Influence of change of pressure on the boiling point and melting point.
Regelation.
Laws of pressure of gases.
Elastic force of vapour; dew point, and its determination.
Formation of dew and clouds.
Radiation, conduction and convection of heat.
Phenomena of combustion.
Steam engines.

(c) Light—
Laws of transmission of light and of its intensity.
Shadows.
Images produced by small apertures.
Photometry.
Reflection of light.

* The following places have already been appointed:—Berhampore, Kishnaghur, Dacca, Patna, Benares, Agra, Delhi, Bareilly, Ajmere, Lahore, Lucknow, Calcutta, Mhow, Darjeeling, Sehore, Allahabad, Mussoorie, Cuttack, Chittagong, Jubbulpore, Batticaloa, Indore, Midnapore, Rampore, Delhi, Newgong, Rangoon, Nagpur.

† The Syndicate has power to make exceptions to this rule in favour of Deputy Inspectors of Schools and Schoolmasters.

* The text-books will be fixed from time to time by the Syndicate. See Appendix B.

Refraction of light.
Images by reflection and refraction, and their position.
Critical angle.
Properties of prisms and lenses.
Telescope, microscope, spectroscope, the human eye.
Decomposition of light.

(d) Frictional Electricity—
Electrical attractions and repulsions.
Properties of conductors and non-conductors.
Electrical induction.
Electrical force and density.
Electrical distribution on conductors.
Power of points.
Ramsden's and Armstrong's electrical machines.
Condenser: electrophorus; Leyden jar.
Electric discharges.
Atmospheric electricity.

(e) Dynamic Electricity—
Voltaic pile, its modifications.
Effects of the current.
Electro-dynamics.
Electro-magnetism.
Voltaic Induction.
Thermo-electricity.

V.—HISTORY.

The outlines of the History of Greece and Rome.

The historical questions shall include questions relating to the geography of the countries to which they refer.

The text books will be fixed from time to time by the Syndicate. (See Appendix B)

VI.—LOGIC.

Deductive Logic.

BACHELOR OF ARTS.

1. An Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts shall be held annually in Calcutta and Agra, and shall commence at such time as the Syndicate shall determine, the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year.

2. Any undergraduate of the University may be admitted to the Examination, provided he has prosecuted a regular course of study in any affiliated institution for not less than two academical years after passing the First Examination in Arts.*

3. Any candidate may be examined either for a pass or for honours in any branch. A candidate who desires to be examined for honours in any branch, must take up instead of the pass subject the corresponding honour subject. A candidate who obtains honours in any branch will be considered to have also passed in that branch. Should a candidate not have deserved honours in any branch, the examiners shall be authorized to declare that he has passed in that branch, if they consider that his attainments come up to the pass standard.

4. Every candidate shall send his application, with a certificate in the form entered in Appendix A, to the Registrar at least thirty days before the date fixed for the commencement of the Examination. If he desires to be examined for Honours, he shall state in his application the subject or subjects in which he desires to be so examined.

5. A fee of thirty rupees shall be payable by each candidate. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination, unless he shall have paid this fee to the Registrar. A candidate who fails to pass or to present himself for examination shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the fee. A candidate may be admitted to one or more subsequent examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Arts on payment of a like fee of thirty rupees on each occasion, provided he produces a certificate from the head of an affiliated institution showing that he has prosecuted a regular course of study for six months since the date of the last Examination to which he was admitted.

* The Syndicate has power to make exceptions to this rule in favour of Deputy Inspectors of Schools and Schoolmasters.

6. The Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts shall be conducted by means of printed papers.

7. At such time as the Syndicate shall determine, (the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year) the Syndicate shall publish a list of the candidates who have passed arranged in alphabetical order, together with a list of those who have obtained Honours in each branch, arranged in two divisions both in order of merit. At the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts every candidate shall be examined in one or other of the two following courses marked A and B:—

A.*

| Pass Subjects. | Corresponding Honour Subjects. |
|---|---|
| I.—English. | I.—In addition to the pass subjects, a further course in English and the history of the English language and literature. |
| II.—Mental and Moral Science, i. e., Psychology, including the Psychology of Ethics and the History of Moral Systems. | II.—In addition to the pass course, the History of Modern European Philosophy and either (a) Pure Logic or (b) Natural Theology. |
| III.—A second language (defined as in F. A. course). | III.—In addition to the pass course, Comparative Grammar and either a second course in the classical language or a second classical language. |
| IV.—History of England and History either of India or of Greece and Rome. Elements of Political Economy. | IV.—History of England, India, Greece and Rome, a fuller course of Political Economy than the pass course, and Arnold's Lectures on Modern History, or Mill on Representative Government, or History of the Jews. |
| V.—Mathematics as in the B Course. | V.—Mathematics as in the B. Honour Course. |

B.*

| Pass Subjects. | Corresponding Honour Subjects. |
|---|---|
| I.—English. | I.—In addition to the pass course, a course of prose works on scientific subjects. |
| II.—Mathematics.Statics.Dynamics.Hydrostatics. | II.—In addition to the pass course, Analytical Plane Geometry and the Differential and Integral Calculus as defined below. |
| III.—Physics and the Elements of Chemistry as defined below. | III.—The full course in Physics and Chemistry together with the Doctrine of Scientific Method. |
| IV.—Chemistry and the Elements of Physics as defined below. | IV.—The full course in Physics and Chemistry together with the Doctrine of Scientific Method. |
| V.—Physiology and either Botany or Zoology as defined below. | V.—Physiology, Botany and Zoology together with the Doctrine of Scientific Method. |
| VI.—Geology and either Mineralogy or Physical Geography as defined below. | VI.—Geology, Mineralogy and Physical Geography together with the Doctrine of Scientific Method. |

DEFINITION OF SUBJECTS.

II.—Mathematics.

The pass subjects shall include—

(a) Statics—
Parallelogram and triangle of forces.
Resultant of parallel forces.

* The text-books are fixed from time to time by the Syndicate. See Appendix B.

Couples.
Moments.
Equilibrium. Conditions of equilibrium of any forces acting on a particle or rigid body.
Centre of parallel forces.
Centre of gravity, or centroids.
Friction.
Simple cases of tension of strings.
Levers; pulley; wheel and axle; inclined plane; screw.
Virtual velocities.

(b) Dynamics—

Definition and measurement of mass, force, velocity, acceleration, momentum, work, and energy.
Laws of motion.
Uniform of motion.
Uniformly accelerated motion—
(1) In a straight line.
(2) In a parabola.
(3) In a circle.
Simple cases of impact.

(c) Hydrostatics—

The transmission and intensity of fluid pressure.
Determination of component and resultant fluid pressure in simple cases.
Centre of pressure.
Conditions of equilibrium of floating bodies.
Metacentre.
Properties of elastic fluids and determination of pressure.
Specific gravity, and the methods of determining it.
Measurement of heights by the barometer.
Mixture of gases.
Description of the barometer, air pump, common and force pumps, the diving-bell, the baloon, siphon, and Bramah's press, as applications of hydrostatical principles.

The Honour subjects shall include—

(a) Analytical Plane Geometry.
Rectangular and polar co-ordinates.
Transformation of co-ordinates.
The straight line.
The circle.
The parabola.
The ellipse.
The hyperbola.
The general equation of the second degree.

(b) Differential Calculus.
Definition of differential co-efficients.
Differentiation of functions of a single variable.
Successive differentiation.
Taylor's and Maclaurin's theorems, and their simpler applications.
Evaluation of functions which assume an indetermidate form.
Differentiation of functions and implicit functions.
Maxima and minima values of functions of one variable.
Tangents, normals, asymptotes, curvature, singular points, evolutes, involutes.
Tracing of curves.

(c) Integral Calculus.
Integration of simple functions of a single variable.
Integration of rational fractions.
Integration by formulæ of reduction.
Determination of lengths and areas of curves.

III, IV.—PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY.

The elements of Physics shall include the following considered with special reference to Chemistry :—

(a) Heat—

Heat of combustion, absolute thermal effects and pyrometric thormal effects of chemical combination, theory of flame, theories of the source of light in luminous flames.

(b) Light—

Reflection and refraction, dispersion, spectrum analysis, chemistry of light, photography, fluorescence, double refraction and polarization, saccharimeters.

(c) Magnetism—

Magnetism, magnetic polarity, natural and artificial magnets diamagnetism.

(d) Electricity—

Two kinds of electricity, insulators and conductors; sources of electricity, electricity developed by chemical action, voltaic electricity, various batteries, electrolysis, laws of electrolysis, electro-plating, electro-gilding.

Physics shall include—

(a) General Ideas—

1.—Wave motion :—
Measurement of simple or harmonic wave motions.
Combination of wave motions.
Resolution of complex wave motions into simple or harmonic wave motions.
2.—Potential :—
Definition of potential.
Calculation of potential in simple cases.
Determination of force from potential.
Fundamental propositions respecting lines of force, equipotential surfaces, and tubes of force.
3.—Elasticity :—
Definition of elasticity.
Measurement of elasticity in the cases of solids, liquids, and gases.
Distinction between, and determination of, elasticity of constant temperature and of constant entropy for gases.

(b) Heat—

In addition to a more thorough acquaintance with the subject than that required for the First Arts Examination and a greater power of working problems on heat, an elementary knowledge of the principles of thermo-dynamics will be required.

(c) Light—

In this subject, more difficult questions in the determination of foci, focal lengths, &c., will be required than for the First Arts Examination. Also the following :—
Spherical aberration.
Dispersion.
The formation of rainbows.

(d) Frictional Electricity—

This subject must now be taken up in connection with potential.

(e) Sound—

The laws of the production and propagation of sound determined experimentally.
Intensity, pitch, and quality of sounds.
The velocity of sound in air and other media: Doppler's principle.
Reflection and refraction of sound.
Measurement of sound vibrations and wave lengths of air.
Resonance.
Interference of sound waves. Beats.
Harmonic tones; their generation and function in sound.
Longitudinal vibration of rods and of columns of air.
Transverse vibration of strings.
Formation of Chladni's figures.
Vibrations of tuning-forks and bells.
Nature of musical sounds.
Vocal organs of man.

(f) Dynamical Electricity—

Voltaic batteries as sources of electric currents.
Action of currents on magnetic needles. Galvanometers.
Thermo-electric currents.
Definition and measurement of electric force, conductivity, resistance, and current.
Ohm's law, and its simpler applications.
Laws of action of currents on currents, and their simpler applications.
Solenoids. Ampère's theory of magnetism.
Electro-magnets.
Mechanical, chemical, and heating effects of currents. Electrolysis.
Induced currents, their modes of generation and laws of action.
Ruhmkorff's coil.
Electro-magnetic currents.
Electro-magnetic machines; the more important details of the working of telegraphs.
Theories of electricity.

(g) Magnetism—

Properties of permanent and artificial magnets.
Magnetic induction.
Phenomena of terrestrial magnetism.
Determination of declination, dip, and intensity of the magnetic force of the earth.
The compass needle.
Methods of magnetisation.
Determination of magnetic laws of action by the torsion balance.
Magnetic Potential.

(h) Polarization of Light—

Undulatory theory of light.
Reflection and refraction of light.
Prismatic analysis of light.
Achromatism.
Explanation of lines in the solar and other spectra.
Interference of light.
Diffraction of light.
Measurements of wave lengths of light.
Colours of thin plates.
Double refraction.
Polarization of light by reflection, refraction, and double refraction.
Interference of polarized light as shown by double refracting crystals. Polariscopes.
Elliptic and circular polarization.
Rotary polarization.

The Elements of Chemistry shall include :—

(a) The following general considerations :—
Definition of Chemistry; differences between chemical action and the action of the physical forces; simple and compound matter; different modes of chemical action; combining weights, volume weights; principles of chemical nomenclature, symbolic notation, graphic notation; chemical equations; atoms and molecules; general knowledge of atomicity of elements; simple and compound radicals; classification of elements.

(b) A fairly complete knowledge of the modes of occurrence, methods of preparation, properties, uses, and general characters of the following non-metallic elements, of their allotropic modifications, and of their principal and best known compounds :—
Hydrogen, fluorine, chlorine, bromine, iodine.
Oxygen (and ozone).
Boron.
Carbon, silicon.
Nitrogen, phosphorus, arsenic.
Sulphur.

(c) A general knowledge of :—
The distinctions between non-metals and metals.
Acids, bases, and salts.
The constitution of salts.
The principles of crystallography.

(d) A knowledge of the methods of preparation, properties, and uses of the following metals and their principal salts :—
Sodium, potassium, ammonium, silver.
Calcium (glass manufacture, &c.), magnesium, zinc, copper, mercury.
Gold.
Lead, tin, platinum, aluminium (porcelain, pottery, &c.).
Antimony, bismuth.
Chromium, manganese, iron.

Chemistry shall include, in addition to a fuller knowledge of the subjects specified under the head Elements of Chemistry—

Inorganic Chemistry—

(a) General considerations :—
Laws of chemical combination, equivalents, atomic weights, physical and chemical relations of atomic weights, specific or atomic volumes, a more complete knowledge of the subject of atomicity; or quantivalence, artiads, perissads, &c.; variations of atomicity; absolute, latent, and active atomicity; relations between atomic weight and quantivalence, chemical affinity, influence of pressure on chemical action, relations of heat to chemical affinity, &c., physical properties of metals, chemical relations of metals, alloys, general characters and general methods of preparation of compounds of metals with non-metals, theory of normal, acid and basic salts, isomorphism, the principles of qualitative analysis.

(b) Study of the following elements :—
Selenium, tellurium, lithium, cæsium, rubidium, barium, strontium, the earth metals, cadmium, indium, gallium, titanium, vanadium, uranium, tungsten, molybdinum, nickel, cobalt, and the platinum metals.

(c) A knowledge of the methods used in the preparation of the more important acids, salts, &c., employed in the arts and manufactures.

(d) A knowledge of metallurgical operations, such as are employed in the preparations of iron, zinc, copper, lead, tin, mercury, silver, and aluminium.

Organic Chemistry—

(a) The following general considerations :—
Definition of organic bodies, synthesis from inorganic materials, decompositions and transformations of organic compounds, analysis of organic bodies.
Determination of the specific gravity of gases and vapours.
Determination of empirical, rational, and constitutional formulæ; theory of types, classification of organic compounds, organic series, constitutional formulæ of organic compounds.

(b) Isomerism, metamarism, and polymerism, physical properties of organic compounds.
A knowledge of some few typical compounds in each of the different classes of organic compounds.

V. Physiology shall include :—

(1) A course of practical instruction in Elementary Biology.
(2) General Physiology.
(3) Special Physiology of the Vertebrata.
(4) Special Physiology of the Invertebrata.

Botany shall include :—

(a) The morphology and histology of flowering plants; the general principles of their classification on the systems of Linnæus and de Candolle, with a detailed acquaintance with the characters of the following natural orders :—

|---|---|
| Anonaceæ. | Apocyneæ. |
| Menispermaceæ. | Asclepiadaceæ. |
| Nymphæaceæ. | Convolvulaceæ. |
| Papaveraceæ. | Solanaceæ. |
| Cruciferæ. | Boragineæ. |
| Malvaceæ. | Acanthaceæ. |
| Sterculiaceæ. | Verbenaceæ. |
| Tiliaceæ. | Labiatæ. |
| Aurantiaceæ. | Amarantaceæ. |
| Ampelideæ. | Urticaceæ. |
| Anacardiaceæ. | Euphorbiaceæ. |
| Leguminosæ. | Palmeæ. |
| Myrtaceæ. | Aroideæ. |
| Combretaceæ. | Commelynaceæ. |
| Cucurbitaceæ. | Orchidaceæ. |
| Umbelliferæ. | Scitamineæ. |
| Rubiaceæ. | Cyperaceæ. |
| Compositæ. | Gramineæ. |

(b) A general acquaintance with the morphology, histology and classification of cryptogams.

(c) Vegetable physiology.

Zoology shall include :—

Embryonic development and comparative anatomy of the principal orders of animals, ordinal classification of the animal kingdom, and generic classification of one selected order of Vertebrata and one of Invertebrata, to be notified beforehand. The geographical distribution and habitats of animals. The species of the mammals of India, omitting the micro-mammalia, viz., Insectivora, Rodentia, and Chiroptera; and the Indian genera of one order of Reptilia and one of Aves, to be previously notified.

VI. Geology shall include :—

The classification, structure, and formation of rocks. The evidence of past changes afforded by their present condition, and a practical acquaintance with their mineral characteristics, to be tested by specimens. The generic determination of the most characteristic fossil forms, and the indication of age and habitat which they afford. A practical knowledge of fossil forms, to be tested by specimens. A general knowledge of the geology of Great Britain and Western Europe, and a more detailed knowledge of the geology of India. An acquaintance with geological maps, to be tested by the construction of a geological section from a given map.

Mineralogy shall include:—

(a) General characteristics of minerals.
(b) Crystallography of the structure of minerals, fundamental forms of crystals cleavage, secondary forms, compound crystals, dimorphism, irregularities of crystals, measuring angles of crystals, massive minerals columnar structure, lamellar and granular structure, pseudomorphous crystals.
(c) Physical properties of minerals; lustre, colour, diaphaneity, refractions and polarization, phosphorescence, electricity and magnetism, specific gravity, hardness, state of aggregation, fracture, taste, odour.
(d) Chemical properties of minerals; action of acids, &c., on minerals; blow-pipe reactions of minerals.
(e) Classification of minerals.
(f) Description and recognition of the more important minerals and rocks or mineral aggregates.
(g) Chemical composition and formulæ of minerals.

Physical Geography shall include:—

The form and density of the earth, and modes of ascertaining them. The distribution and characteristic geographical phenomena of land and water. Climate and its determining causes. The inorganic physical geography of India. Meteorology.

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF M. A.

1. An Examination for the degree of Master of Arts shall be held annually in Calcutta, commencing at such time as the Syndicate shall determine, the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year.

2. Any candidate who has passed the B. A. Examination may be examined for the degree of M. A. in one or more of the following branches:

(1) Languages.
(2) History.
(3) Mental and Moral Philosophy.
(4) Mathematics.
(5) Natural and Physical Science.

3. A fee of rupees fifty shall be payable by each candidate. No candidate shall be examined unless he shall have paid this fee to the Registrar. A candidate who fails to pass or to present himself for Examination shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the fee.

4. Every candidate shall intimate to the Registrar the branch or branches in which he desires to be examined. Such intimation must reach the office of the Registrar at such time as the Syndicate shall determine, the date to be approximately notified in the Calendar for the year.

5. The Examination in languages shall be in English for candidates whose vernacular is not English, or in any one of the following classical languages, viz., Greek, Latin, Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Hebrew and Pali.

The subjects in languages shall be selected by the Syndicate two years before the Examination.

The Examination shall include written answers in English to questions relating to the books selected for the Examination.

It shall also include questions on comparative grammar, with special reference to the language professed by the candidate.

Every candidate shall be required to write an Essay in English on a subject connected with the History or Literature of the Language professed by him.

The Examination in English shall include the elements of Anglo-Saxon grammar.

The Examination in the classical languages shall include translation into English from the language professed by the candidate, and into that language from English.

6. The Examination in History* shall be in the following subjects:—

(a) The History of England (including Scotland, Ireland and the British Colonies and Dependencies) to the accession of Queen Victoria.
(b) The Constitutional History of England.
(c) A selected period of History—Indian or European, Ancient, Mediæval, or Modern—to be studied with reference to original sources.
(d) Political Philosophy, General Jurisprudence, and International Law.
(e) Political Economy and Economic History.

Candidates shall also be required to write an Essay in English on some subject included in the foregoing course.

7. The Examination in Mental and Moral Philosophy shall be in the following subjects:—

Logic, Deductive and Inductive.
Psychology.
Ethics.
Natural Theology, or the Evidences of Christianity.

The above subjects shall be studied historically in the works of the principal authorities *

8. The Examination in Mathematics shall be in the following subjects:—

(1) Algebra.
(2) Plane Trigonometry.
(3) Theory of Equations and the Elements of Determinants.
(4) Analytical Plane Geometry.
(5) Analytical Solid Geometry.
(6) Differential Calculus.
(7) Integral Calculus, omitting elliptic integrals and the calculus of variations.
(8) Differential Equations.
(9) Statics.
(10) Dynamics of a Particle, omitting the more complicated problems of constrained motion upon surfaces, and also propositions involving the application of the calculus of variations.
(11) Hydromechanics, omitting the theory of sound.
(12) Geometrical Optics, omitting the formulæ for the calculation of spherical aberration, and reflection and refraction at surfaces in any manner.
(13) Spherical Trigonometry, omitting the parts which are not required in Astronomy.
(14) Practical and Spherical Astronomy.
(15) Newton's Principia, sections I to III.
(16) Rigid Dynamics, including the motion of Rigid Bodies in two dimensions.

9. Candidates in Natural and Physical Science shall be allowed to select alternatively two out of the following group of subjects:—

(A) Chemistry.
(B) Electricity and Magnetism.
(C) Heat and the elements of Molecular Physics.

Or two out of the following group:—

(D) Botany.
(E) Physiology and Zoology.
(F) Geology and Mineralogy.

(A) The course in chemistry shall be both theoretical and practical. In the practical Examination candidates ought to shew a good knowledge of chemical manipulation and ought to be able to qualitatively analyse complex inorganic substances. They should also be acquainted with the principles of quantitative analysis.*

(B) The course in Electricity and Magnetism shall include questions presupposing a moderate acquaintance with the principles and methods of the Differential Calculus, Integral Calculus and Differential Equations. The candidate shall be required to show that he has a competent practical knowledge of the instruments and apparatus employed in Magnetism and Electricity, and to execute experiments in the presence of the Examiner.*

(C) The course in Heat shall include questions presupposing acquaintance with the principles and methods of the Differential Calculus, Integral Calculus, and Differential Equations. The candidate should also show himself thoroughly acquainted with the various instruments and apparatus employed in Heat, and should be prepared to perform measurements and experiments in the presence of the Examiner.*

(D) Botany* shall include the following:—

(a) General and special Morphology and Physiology.
(b) Systematic Botany.
(c) Palæobotany.
(d) Practical knowledge of indigenous Indian plants, and identification of specimens of them by Roxburgh's Flora Indica (Clarke's edition).

(E) Zoology* shall include the subjects of (a) Comparative Anatomy and Physiology, (b) Distribution and (c) Evolution.

(F) Geology and Mineralogy* shall include the subjects of (a) Stratigraphical Geology, (b) Palæontology, (c) Mineralogy, (d) Crystallography, (e) Elementary Inorganic Chemistry.

10. As soon as possible after each Examination for the degree of M. A., the Syndicate shall publish a list of candidates who have passed, arranged in three classes, each in order of merit. Candidates shall be bracketed together, unless the Examiners are of opinion that there is clearly a difference in their merits. Each successful candidate shall receive with his degree of M. A. a certificate setting forth the subject in which he was examined, and the class in which he was placed.

11. The candidate who shall be placed first in the first class in each branch shall receive a Gold Medal and a prize of books to the value of one hundred rupees, and the second student of the first class in each branch shall receive a Silver Medal and a prize of books to the value of one hundred rupees.

12. Any Master of Arts may, on payment of a fee of fifty rupees, be admitted to the M. A. Examination in any branch other than that in which he was previously examined, and may, if his attainments come up to the standard prescribed for the degree of M. A., be granted a certificate to that effect, stating the class in which he has passed. A candidate who fails to pass, or to present himself for Examination, shall not be entitled to claim a refund of the fee.

In paragraph 15 of the Regulations for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine the word "two" has been substituted for the word "three," so that the paragraph will henceforth run as follows:—"Any Licentiate of two years' standing may be admitted to this degree, &c."

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF RAILWAYS.

NOTIFICATIONS.—ESTABLISHMENT.

Simla, the 2nd March 1882.

No. 17.—Mr. W. P. Johnson, Probationary Assistant Locomotive Superintendent, Punjab Northern State Railway, is attached temporarily to the Office of the Port Store-keeper at Karachi.

No. 18.—Mr. G. Moyle, Assistant Engineer, 1st Grade, Indus Valley State Railway, passed the Departmental Standard Examination in Hindustani on the 25th January 1882.

The 3rd March 1882.

No. 19.—With reference to Public Works Notification No. 67, dated the 24th February 1882, Mr. G. H. List, Executive Engineer, 2nd Grade, is posted to the Patna-Bahraich Railway Survey.

F. S. STANTON, Col., R.E.,
Director General of Railways.

Report of a Deserter from the 2nd Battalion, Royal Lanc. Regiment of Foot, dated at Colaba, Bombay, this 22nd day of February 1882.

Number, Rank, and Name,—No. 11—3337, Private Joseph Landers.
Age,—24 years.
Size,—5 feet $4\frac{6}{10}$ inches.
Colour of—
Complexion, fair; Hair, light brown; Eyes, blue.
Date of Desertion,—19th February 1882.
Place of Desertion,—Colaba, Bombay, E. I.
Date of Enlistment,—31st October 1876.

At what Place Enlisted,—Curragh Camp.
Parish and County in which Born,—Thurles Co., Tipperary.
Marks,—Tattooed on both arms.
Trade,—Servant.
Coat or Jacket,— } Regimentals.
Waistcoat,— ... } Regimentals.
Breeches or Trowsers,— ... } Regimentals.
REMARKS,—
Under 5 years' service.

C. P. STOKES, Lieut.-Colonel,

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

CHIEF AND FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER, AJMIR-MERWARA.

NOTIFICATION.

Mount Abu, the 18th March 1882.

No. 189.—The following rules already published in the Gazette of India, Part II, dated 15th June 1881, are again inserted for information, together with certain subsidiary rules in italics :—

I.—For the purposes of these rules stamps are divided into two classes—

Class 1.—Adhesive stamps sold to the public for use by them in the case of instrument mentioned in Section 10 of Act I of 1879.

Class 2.—All other stamps under Act I of 1879.

II.—Stamps in class 1 may be sold by any person, stamps in class 2 shall be sold by ex-officio and licensed vendors in accordance with these rules.

III.—The treasurer of each district and such ministerial officers at stations of any description as may be specially authorized by the Assistant Commissioner shall be ex-officio vendors; such persons as may be licensed by the Assistant Commissioner or any other officer empowered by the Local Government to grant licenses shall be licensed vendors.

The Assistant Commissioner or other officer so authorized shall make such arrangements for the appointment of licensed vendors as will insure that intending purchasers shall only have to apply to the treasury when the stamp they require is one for which licensed vendors do not get discount.

The Assistant Commissioner, Ajmere, will appoint the Tahsildar at each sub-treasury in the interior of the district to be an ex-officio vendor of stamps; an officer shall also be appointed at Kekri as an ex-officio vendor of general stamps.

Licenses for the vend of general stamps shall be given only by the Assistant Commissioner of Ajmere, care being taken to guard against monopolies of vend.

The Assistant Commissioner of Merwara shall nominate persons to be licensed vendors in Merwara, but the Assistant Commissioner, Ajmere, shall grant the licenses; any difference of opinion between the Assistant Commissioners on this point shall be referred to the Commissioner of Ajmere, whose decision shall be final.

IV.—Ex-officio vendors shall sell such stamps as they may be directed by the Local Government to sell. Licensed vendors shall sell such stamps as are indicated in their licenses. They should ordinarily be restricted to the sale of stamps of value not exceeding Rs. 10 each.

Ex-officio vendors shall supply the public and licensed vendors with stamps of either class mentioned in Rule I, and allow discount at the rates and under the conditions hereinafter prescribed for purchases made from Government.

The Collector is authorized to allow stamps of a higher denomination than Rs. 10 and not exceeding Rs. 25 to be sold by a licensed vendor at any place where, with reference to the requirements of the public, it may appear to him necessary.

No discount shall be given on purchases of stamps of class 2 when the stamp exceeds Rs. 50 in value, nor on stamps when less than the minimum quantity mentioned above is purchased at one time.

V.—Every license should be issued in the annexed form A, and renewed every year, and it may at any time be cancelled by the authority granting it.

VI.—Subject to Rule VIII every person who purchases from Government by payment of ready money stamps in class 1 shall receive the same at such discount, not exceeding the following rates, as may be prescribed by the Local Government :—

|---|---|
| Stamps not exceeding in value 8 annas each ... ... | 6¼ per cent. |
| Stamps exceeding in value 8 annas each, but not exceeding in value Rs. 5 each ... ... | 3½ per cent. |
| Stamps exceeding in value Rs. 5 each, but not exceeding in value Rs. 50 each ... ... | 1⅛ per cent. |

(A) When any instrument is to be written on an impressed sheet, if the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable does not exceed one hundred rupees, a single sheet shall be used, unless,— where the application for the required stamp is made at a treasury, the officer in charge of such treasury, or where such application is made to a stamp vendor, the vendor, certifies that he is unable to furnish a single stamp of the required value.

(B) When the amount of duty chargeable in respect of any instrument exceeds one hundred rupees, or a Treasury Officer or stamp vendor has certified under clause (A) that he is unable to furnish a single stamp of the required value, the number of sheets used for indicating the payment of duty shall not exceed the number which the Treasury Officer or the stamp vendor certifies in either case to be the smallest number which he can furnish so as to make up the required amount.

(C) No certificate shall be made under clause (A) or clause (B) by a stamp vendor in any case in which the stamp duty required exceeds the highest value of the stamps which such vendor is authorized to sell.

When an instrument has to be written on more than one impressed sheet owing to a sheet of proper value not being available and when more than one sheet is therefore furnished under the certificate of the Treasury Officer or stamp vendor as ordered in Rule VI, the instrument must be so written that each of such sheets shall contain a portion thereof.

The following rates of discount are prescribed as payable to any person purchasing from Government by payment of ready money.

Stamps in class 1 subject to the conditions attached to Rule VIII :—

| | Per cent. |
|---|---|
| Stamps not exceeding in value 8 annas each ... ... | Rs. 6 4 0 |
| Stamps exceeding in value 8 annas each, but not exceeding in value Rs. 5 each ... ... | „ 2 0 |
| Stamps exceeding in value Rs. 5 each, but not exceeding in value Rs. 50 each ... ... | „ 1 9 0 |

VII.—Subject to Rule VIII every licensed vendor who purchases from Government by payment of ready money stamps of class 1 shall receive the stamps at such discount not exceeding the following :—

|---|---|
| Vendors licensed at places where stamps are sold by Government ... | 3 per cent. |
| Vendors licensed at other places ... | 5 „ |

The following rates of discount are prescribed by the Chief Commissioner as payable to any licensed vendor who purchases from Government by payment of ready money, provided an aggregate value of not less than Rs. 10 is purchased at one time.

| | Per cent. |
|---|---|
| Vendors licensed at places where stamps are sold by Government | Rs. 3 2 0 |
| Vendors licensed at other places ... | „ 6 4 0 |

VIII.—No discount shall be given on account of the purchases of any stamp exceeding Rs. 50 in value, nor on any stamp applied on material furnished by the purchaser himself, nor if there be purchased at one time less than the quantity which may be prescribed by the Local Government in respect of any class or value of stamps.

When a licensed vendor is supplied with stamps without payment in ready money, the rate of discount shall be half the rates given in Rule VI.

Class 2 stamps—

In each case when stamps are supplied without payment, the sanction of the Assistant Commissioner shall be obtained by the Treasury Officer and security of double the value of stamps so given shall be taken from the licensed vendor.

IX.—The Local Government may authorize licensed vendors to be supplied with stamps of either class without requiring payment in ready money. Such licensed vendors may receive commission on these stamps sold by them at a rate to be prescribed by the Local Government not exceeding 2 per cent. In this case sufficient security shall be taken from the licensed vendors for the payment of any sum due by them to Government.

X.—Every licensed vendor shall at all times have affixed, in a conspicuous position outside the place of sale, a sign-board bearing the name of the vendor with the words "licensed vendor of stamps" in English and in the vernacular language of the district. He shall also have, in the place of vend, the Acts of the Legislature and their Schedules referring to the stamps sold by him, together with these rules in English and vernacular, placed so that they can readily be seen and read by purchasers.

XI.—Every ex-officio or licensed vendor shall write on the back of every stamp of class 2 which he sells a serial number, the date of sale, the name and residence of the purchaser, and the value of the stamp in words as well as figures. To this endorsement his own signature shall be attached. At the same time he shall make corresponding entries in a register to be kept by him in such form as the Local Government may prescribe. No such vendor shall knowingly make a false endorsement on the stamp sold, or a false entry in his register.

Every ex-officio or licensed vendor shall keep a register in the following form which shall be written up daily :—

REGISTER OF DAILY SALES OF STAMPS.

| Date of sale. | Description of stamps. | Serial No. of stamp. | Value of stamp in words. | Name of purchaser.—Father's name. | Residence of purchaser. | Purpose for which required. | REMARKS. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | | | | | |

The Treasury Officer will satisfy himself that this register is properly kept up by each licensed or ex-officio vendor.

XII.—Every licensed vendor shall, without delay, deliver any stamp which he has in his possession for sale on demand by any person tendering the value in any currency which would be accepted on behalf of Government by the Assistant Commissioner of the district.

A licensed vendor shall not demand or accept for any stamp any consideration exceeding the value of such stamp.

XIII.—No vendor shall sell any stamps the use of which has been ordered by competent authority to be discontinued.

XIV.—Every vendor shall keep and render such accounts as may be prescribed by the Local Government, and shall allow the Assistant Commissioner or any officer duly authorized by such Assistant Commissioner or by the Local Government at any time to inspect the accounts and register which he is required to keep under Rule XI, and to examine the store of stamps in his possession.

XV.—Every vendor shall, at any time on the demand of the Assistant Commissioner or other officer duly authorized by the Local Government, deliver up all stamps of class 2 remaining in his possession, and if such stamps have been paid for, shall receive back the value thereof, less any discount which may have been allowed.

The Assistant Commissioners of Ajmere and Merwara, Cantonment Magistrate, Nusseerabad, and Deputy Magistrate, Kekri, are authorized to call on any vendor to deliver up stamps of class 2.

FORM A.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, will appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and will comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court will be reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court will be reported in the Calcutta Series. The Parts of each Series can be had separately, or all four Parts can be had stitched into one wrapper at the option of subscribers and purchasers. It will be observed from the following statement of the terms of subscription and sale, that a considerable reduction is allowed to persons taking the complete set:

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

| | Without Postage. | With Postage. |
|---|---|---|

MADRAS MUNICIPALITY.

NOTIFICATION.

The Municipal Commissioners for the City of Madras are prepared, with the sanction of the Governor of Madras in Council conveyed in Order No. 2505, dated 23rd December 1881, under Section 208 of the City of Madras Municipal Act of 1878, to receive tenders for a Debenture Loan of (Rs. 3,50,000) three lakhs and fifty thousand rupees on the security of the rates and taxes levied under the said Act. Of the total amount of the loan, two and a half lakhs are to be expended in extending the water-supply of the city, and one lakh in carrying out the drainage project of Black Town.

2. Debentures will be issued for the said amount bearing interest at the rate of (5) five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly on the 15th March and the 15th September of each year and having a currency of thirty years.

3. The form of Debenture Bonds will be that given below. Each Debenture will be issued for the sum of Rs. 500, or some multiple of Rs. 500.

4. Tenders for the whole or any part of the abovenamed sum of (Rs. 3,50,000) three lakhs and fifty thousand rupees will be received by the President of the Municipal Commission up to noon on the 23rd February 1882.

5. Each tender should be in the form hereto annexed, and enclosed in a sealed cover, superscribed "Tender for Municipal Loan of 1882," and sent to the Municipal Office, addressed to "The President, Municipal Commission, Madras."

6. The tenders will be opened by the President at the Municipal Office on the 23rd February 1882, at noon, a minimum rate having first been fixed by the President.

7. Parties tendering must pay into the Bank of Madras to the credit of the Municipal Fund a sum equal to 2 per cent. of the amount tendered, and forward the Bank's receipt with the tender.

8. If the tender be accepted, the deposit will be taken in part payment, but it will be forfeited if, after the acceptance of the tender, the allotment is not fully paid up on or before the 15th March 1882.

9. Debentures will be issued as soon as possible after receipt of the amount of allotment.

10. The deposit on tenders which may not be accepted will be returned on application.

11. In the case of two or more tenders at the same rate (not being below the minimum) a pro rata allotment will, if necessary, be made.

12. The rate stated in a tender must not contain any fraction of an anna, if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out, and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

13. In order to avoid mistakes a separate tender must be made at each rate tendered, and a separate deposit must accompany each tender.

14. The annual income from the rates and taxes which are offered as security for the Loan amounts to Rs. 6,80,000. The charges for Loans which have already been raised on the same security are as follows :—

| | Annually. Rs. |
|---|---|
| Interest at 4 per cent. on Rs. 14,30,000 payable to Government ... ... | 57,200 |

NOTIFICATION.

The Municipal Commissioners for the City of Madras are prepared, with the sanction of the Governor of Madras in Council conveyed in Order No. 2505, dated 23rd December 1881, under Section 208 of the City of Madras Municipal Act of 1878, to receive tenders for a Debenture Loan of (Rs. 3,50,000) three lakhs and fifty thousand rupees on the security of the rates and taxes levied under the said Act. Of the total amount of the loan, two and a half lakhs are to be expended in extending the water-supply of the city, and one lakh in carrying out the drainage project of Black Town.

2. Debentures will be issued for the said amount bearing interest at the rate of (5) five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly on the 15th March and the 15th September of each year and having a currency of thirty years.

3. The form of Debenture Bonds will be that given below. Each Debenture will be issued for the sum of Rs. 500, or some multiple of Rs. 500.

4. Tenders for the whole or any part of the abovenamed sum of (Rs. 3,50,000) three lakhs and fifty thousand rupees will be received by the President of the Municipal Commission up to noon on the 23rd February 1882.

5. Each tender should be in the form hereto annexed, and enclosed in a sealed cover, superscribed "Tender for Municipal Loan of 1882," and sent to the Municipal Office, addressed to "The President, Municipal Commission, Madras."

6. The tenders will be opened by the President at the Municipal Office on the 23rd February 1882, at noon, a minimum rate having first been fixed by the President.

7. Parties tendering must pay into the Bank of Madras to the credit of the Municipal Fund a sum equal to 2 per cent. of the amount tendered, and forward the Bank's receipt with the tender.

8. If the tender be accepted, the deposit will be taken in part payment, but it will be forfeited if, after the acceptance of the tender, the allotment is not fully paid up on or before the 15th March 1882.

9. Debentures will be issued as soon as possible after receipt of the amount of allotment.

10. The deposit on tenders which may not be accepted will be returned on application.

11. In the case of two or more tenders at the same rate (not being below the minimum) a pro rata allotment will, if necessary, be made.

12. The rate stated in a tender must not contain any fraction of an anna, if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out, and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

13. In order to avoid mistakes a separate tender must be made at each rate tendered, and a separate deposit must accompany each tender.

14. The annual income from the rates and taxes which are offered as security for the Loan amounts to Rs. 6,80,000. The charges for Loans which have already been raised on the same security are as follows :—

THE HON'BLE L. R. TOTTENHAM in the chair.

The following report, which had been submitted by the Managers to the meeting of 27th January, was read:—

REPORT.

1. THE Managers submit the Proceedings for the past half-year for the consideration and sanction of the meeting.

2. Subject to the approval of the subscribers, they have admitted to the benefits of the Fund the following families:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Mrs. Halkett | £ | 300 |
| One daughter | ,, | 100 |
| Total | £ | 400 |

The widow and one daughter of the late Mr. H. Craigie Halkett (Annuitant of 1863), who died in England on the 13th June last.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Mrs. Moens | £ | 300 |
| Eight children | ,, | 620 |
| Total | £ | 920 |

The widow and eight children, six daughters and two sons, of the late Mr. S. M. Moens, who died at Aligarh on the 26th July last.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Mrs. Edgeworth | £ | 300 |

The widow of the late Mr. M. P. Edgeworth, Annuitant of 1859, who died in Scotland on the 30th July last.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Mrs. Cocks | £ | 300 |
| Four children | ,, | 550 |
| Total | £ | 850 |

The widow and four children, one daughter and three sons, of the late Mr. A. H. Cocks, C.B., Annuitant of 1863, who died in England on the 29th August last.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Mrs. Magrath | £ | 300 |

The widow of the late Mr. C. F. Magrath, who died on board the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Siam on the 13th October last.

3. The votes of the subscribers on the resolutions passed at the last General Meeting for the amendment of the Rules have been scrutinised with the following result:—

| | For. | Against. |
|---|---|---|
| Amendment of Article V ... .. .. .. | 130 | 0 |
| Ditto of Articles XXVIII, XXIX, and XXX | 129 | 1 |

4. Mr. W. Lambe has reported that he has obtained a divorce from his wife, and has applied to subscribe at reduced rates as a widower subscriber. The Managers have informed him that the date from which widower rates of subscription become payable is the date on which the "decree nisi" is made absolute, or six months after the date of the decree.

5. It was brought to the notice of the Managers that the Secretary of State, in his despatch dated 12th February 1880, had reduced the salaries of Civilian Members of Council and Judges of the High Court to a sum equal to their former salaries, minus the deduction of 4 per cent. on account of annuity. In taking into consideration the effect of this despatch, the Managers have decided that it is merely nominal, and that it has in no way altered the salaries of these officers for the purposes of the Fund. The pay of Members of Council has hitherto been Rs. 6,666-10-8 per mensem, but Civil Servants have drawn only the net amount (after the deduction of the 4 per cent.), or Rs. 6,400. Similarly Judges of the High Court have drawn, not Rs. 4,166 but Rs. 4,000. Deductions of subscriptions on account of the Fund are made, not from net, but gross pay. An officer lent to a Native State, municipality or the like contributes from his salary, plus the amount that he has to pay to Government on account of pension. Under these circumstances the Managers have required Members of Council and Judges of the High Court to continue to contribute on the original gross salary. To provide distinctly for cases of this nature the Managers have it in contemplation to propose an amendment of Article III of the Rules.

6. The Managers have pleasure in reporting that from a scrutiny now in progress it appears probable that they will be able to recommend the repeal of the resolution of the Special General Meeting of 22nd November 1880 and the final remission of annuitants' subscriptions to the Ordinary Branch with effect from 1st April next. The subscribers are aware that annuitants' subscriptions to the Additional Branch have already been remitted under the resolution of the General Meeting of 31st January 1880.

The accounts for 1880-81 are submitted.

Proposed by Mr. Chas. S. Bayley, seconded by the Hon'ble Alex. T. Maclean, and carried unanimously—

That the Managers' proceedings in admitting the families of the late Messrs. H. Craigie Halkett, S. M. Moens, M. P. Edgeworth, A. H. Cocks, C.B., and C. F. Magrath, to the benefits of the Fund be confirmed.

Proposed by the Hon'ble Alex. T. Maclean, seconded by Mr. D. R. Lyall, and carried unanimously—

That the accounts for the past year 1880-81 be approved.

Proposed by Mr. D. R. Lyall, seconded by Mr. W. D. Blyth, and carried unanimously—

That the following gentlemen be elected Managers for the ensuing year:—Hon'ble W. F. McDonell, V.C.; Hon'ble H. J. Reynolds; H. L. Harrison, Esq.; Hon'ble J. O'Kinealy, and H. J. S. Cotton, Esq.

The Secretary stated that since the Managers had submitted their report, they had received from the Government of India a copy of a despatch from the Secretary of State, containing the following proposal:—"I have therefore to request that you will inform the Managers of the Bengal Civil Fund that in consideration of the transfer of the Fund to the Government, and the continued payment of subscriptions, at the rates laid down in the rules which were in force up to the end of the year 1879, the Secretary of State for India in Council is willing to take over the assets, liabilities, and management of that institution, and to guarantee to the present members and their families, and to the incumbent annuitants on the Fund, the benefits to which they are entitled under those rules, with such addition to the benefits or reduction in the rates of subscription as may be agreed to by the subscribers, and the cost of which shall not exceed a sum of Rs. 22,00,000." The Managers would at once enter upon a consideration of the despatch, and submit copies to the subscribers with an expression of their own views on the course to be pursued.

A vote of thanks to the Chair was proposed by Mr. W. H. Grimley, seconded by Mr. H. M. Kisch, and carried unanimously.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the emigration of natives of India to the districts of Chittagong, the Chittagong Hill Tracts, Lakhimpúr, Sibságar, Naugong, Darrang, Kamrup, Goálpára, Khási Hills, Káchár and Silhat; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Inland Emigration Act, 1882."

Local extent.

It extends to the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governors of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh and Assam:

Commencement.

And it shall come into force at once.

Repeal of enactments.

2. Bengal Act No. VII of 1873 (to amend the law relating to the emigration of labourers to the districts of Assam, Cachar and Silhat and to regulate contract-labour and service), Bengal Act No. II of 1878 (to extend the provisions of Bengal Act VII of 1873 to the district of Chittagong and to the Chittagong Hill Tracts) and Regulation No. IV of 1877 (a Regulation for extending to the Chief Commissionership of Assam, Chapter 13 of Bengal Act VII of 1873) are hereby repealed.

All contracts entered into, rules and appointments made, orders and notifications published and licenses granted under the said Bengal Act No. VII of 1873, or any of the Acts thereby repealed, and now in force, shall be deemed to have been respectively entered into, made, published and granted under this Act.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Labour-districts":

The expression "the labour-districts" means the districts of Chittagong, the Chittagong Hill Tracts, Lakhimpúr, Sibságar, Naugong, Darrang, Kamrup, Goálpára, Khási Hills, Káchár and Silhat; and the expression "a labour-district" means any one of such districts:

"Magistrate" means a Magistrate of a district, Sub-divisional Magistrate, and any other person appointed, by name or by virtue of his office, by the Local Government to perform the functions of a Magistrate under this Act:

"Superintendent," "Registering officer," "Inspector" and "Assistant Inspector":

"Superintendent," "Registering officer," "Inspector" and "Assistant Inspector" mean respectively a Superintendent of Emigration, a Registering officer, an Inspector of Labourers and an Assistant Inspector of Labourers appointed under this Act:

"Contractor," "sub-contractor," "recruiter" and "local agent":

"Contractor," "sub-contractor," "recruiter" and "local agent" mean respectively a contractor, a sub-contractor, a recruiter and a local agent licensed under this Act:

"Labour-contract":

"Labour-contract" means a contract entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Act to labour for hire in a labour-district, otherwise than as a domestic servant:

"Labourer":

"Labourer" means any person bound by a contract under the provisions of the said Bengal Act No. VII of 1873 or by a labour-contract under the provisions of this Act. And it also includes any person registered under section thirty-two or section sixty-six as a labourer:

"Estate":

"Estate" means the land upon which any labourers or more than fifty other persons have been engaged to labour:

"Employer":

"Employer" means the chief person for the time being in charge of any estate upon which labourers or more than fifty other persons are employed:

"Emigrate":

"Emigrate" denotes the departure of any native of India of the age of sixteen years or upwards (other than a native of a labour-district) from any part of the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, not being a labour-district, or from the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioner of Oudh, for the purpose of labouring for hire in a labour-district otherwise than as a domestic servant:

"Dependent":

"Dependent" means any woman (not being a labourer), any child, and any aged or incapacitated relative or friend accompanying any labourer with the consent of a contractor, sub-contractor, recruiter, local agent or garden-sardár:

"Vessel":

"Vessel" includes anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or property:

"Master":

"Master" means the person for the time being in charge of a vessel:

"Writing" and "written":

"Writing" and "written" include "printing" and "lithography."

Words to be understood as defined in Contract Act.

And all words defined in the Indian Contract Act, 1872, and used in this Act, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them by that Act.

Power to exempt labour-district.

4. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that any labour-district within the territories administered by such Government shall, from a day specified in such notification, cease to be subject to all the provisions or any specified provision of this Act; and from such day such labour-district shall cease to be subject to the provisions of this Act or to the provision so specified, as the case may be.

Local Government may prohibit emigration to any labour-district or part thereof.

5. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, prohibit, from a day specified in such notification, all natives of India, or any specified class of such natives, from emigrating from the whole or any specified part of the territories under its administration, to any labour-district or to any specified portion of any such district.

The Local Government may with the like sanction in like manner vary or cancel any such notification.

Notification under sections 4 and 5 not to affect prior acts, &c.

6. The publication of a notification under section four or section five shall not affect any act done, offence committed or proceedings commenced before such publication.

Saving of free emigration and of ordinary contract law.

7. Save as provided by section five, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prohibit any native of India from emigrating to, or entering into a contract to labour in, a labour-district otherwise than under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of officers.

8. The Local Government may appoint, either by name or by virtue of their office, so many persons as it thinks necessary to be Superintendents of Emigration, Registering officers, Embarkation Agents, Debarkation Agents, Inspectors of Labourers, Assistant Inspectors of Labourers and Medical Inspectors under this Act respectively, and, with respect to any such officer, may, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, declare the local area situate in the territories subject to its administration within which he shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him by this Act or any rule made hereunder.

The Local Government may suspend or remove any persons whom it so appoints.

Every person so appointed shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

CHAPTER II.

LABOUR-CONTRACTS GENERALLY.

Essentials of labour-contract.

9. Every labour-contract shall be in writing, and shall be executed in duplicate on substantial paper. Every such contract shall specify—

(a) the names of the labourer and his [illegible]

(b) the term for which the labourer is [illegible]

(c) his monthly wages in money and the price at which rice is to be supplied to him;

(d) the labour-district in which, and, if the labourer so request, the estate on which, he is to labour.

Every such contract shall be in the form prescribed in the schedule hereto annexed.

No such contract shall be made for a term exceeding five years, commencing from the date of its execution; or shall stipulate for a less rate of monthly wages for a completed daily task regulated in accordance with the provisions of this Act than five rupees in the case of a man and four rupees in the case of a woman for the first three years of the term of the contract, or six rupees in the case of a man and five rupees in the case of a woman for the fourth and fifth years of such term.

No contract made in contravention of, or not in accordance with, the provisions of this section shall be enforceable under this Act as a labour-contract against the labourer entering into it.

10. Unless the labour-contract specifies the particular estate on which the labourer is to labour, the labourer shall be deemed to have contracted to labour on any estate in charge of the employer for whom he has contracted to labour, and situate in the labour-district specified in the contract:

If contract does not specify estate, labourer to be deemed to have contracted to labour on any estate in charge of employer and situate in labour-district.

Provided that no labourer shall, without his own consent, be separated from his dependents (if any) or from any other labourer who is the wife, husband, son or daughter of such labourer.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Indian Contract Act, 1872, it shall be lawful for any person of the age of sixteen years or upwards to enter into a labour-contract.

Persons of sixteen years of age may contract to emigrate.

CHAPTER III.

RECRUITING BY CONTRACTORS, SUB-CONTRACTORS AND RECRUITERS.

A.—Contractors and Sub-contractors.

12. Any Superintendent specially empowered in this behalf by the Local Government may grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be contractors within the whole or any part of the local area for which such Superintendent has been appointed. He may also, on the application of any contractor, grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be sub-contractors on behalf of such contractor, within the whole or any part of the local area for which such contractor is licensed.

Superintendent may license contractors.

Superintendent may license sub-contractors.

13. Every license to a contractor or sub-contractor shall be in such form, and subject to the payment of such fee, not exceeding, in the case of a contractor, one hundred rupees, and in the case of a sub-contractor, fifty rupees, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Form of, and fee for, contractor's and sub-contractor's license.

14. No such license shall be granted for a longer period than one year from the date thereof, and, if the licensee fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any such license may at any time be cancelled by the Superintendent who granted the same.

Period for which contractor's and sub-contractor's license to remain in force.

A contractor or sub-contractor may, within one month from the date of any order of a Superintendent cancelling his license, appeal against such order to the Local Government.

Appeal against order cancelling license.

The order of the Local Government on such appeal shall be final.

15. Every contractor, in addition to the special duties herein assigned to him, shall afford such information to the Superintendent and furnish him with such returns and reports as he may, subject to any rules which may be framed by the Local Government in this behalf, require.

Duties of contractors.

16. A sub-contractor may be licensed to act on behalf of more than one contractor:

Sub-contractor may be licensed to represent more than one contractor.

Provided that he obtains a separate license in the case of each contractor for whom he desires to act.

17. A contractor or sub-contractor may act as a recruiter, and shall, when so acting, be subject to all the provisions hereinafter contained relating to recruiters.

Contractor or sub-contractor may act as recruiter.

18. Every contractor shall be liable for the acts and defaults as a sub-contractor or recruiter of any person licensed to be a sub-contractor or recruiter on his behalf, and shall be bound to make good all payments which, under this Act or any rule made hereunder, any such person is ordered to make.

Liability of contractors for sub-contractors' and recruiters' acts and defaults.

The Superintendent may cancel the license of any contractor whenever the license of any person so licensed on his behalf is liable to be cancelled under this Act.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to render a contractor criminally liable for any act or default on the part of any person licensed to be a sub-contractor or recruiter on his behalf.

19. Every contractor shall establish and maintain, at such places as the Local Government may direct, suitable depôts for the reception and lodging, previous to their despatch to the labour-districts, of labourers engaged by him or by sub-contractors or recruiters licensed to act on his behalf, and shall provide at his own expense all necessary food, clothing and medical treatment for such labourers during their stay at such depôts.

Contractor to establish depôts.

20. No such depôt shall be used for the reception and lodging of labourers until it has been inspected and approved of by the Superintendent and the Medical Inspector. Every such depôt shall be under the supervision of the Superintendent, the Magistrate of the district or such other officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf, and shall be open at all times to inspection by the Superintendent, the Magistrate of the district or such officer, and by the Medical Inspector.

Inspection and supervision of depôts.

Whenever the Superintendent considers that any such depôt is unhealthy, or has become unsuitable for the purpose for which it was established, he may by order in writing prohibit the using of such depôt for the reception and lodging of labourers.

21. In addition to the depôts hereinbefore provided for, the Local Government may establish a separate hospital-depôt for the reception of labourers suffering from any dangerously infectious or contagious disease.

Establishment of hospital-depôts.

22. Whenever any such hospital-depôt is established by any Local Government, such Government may require any contractor having a depôt in the neighbourhood of such hospital-depôt to contribute to the expense of the establishment and maintenance of such hospital-depot such reasonable sum as it may direct. Such sum may be recovered as an arrear of land-revenue due from any contractor so required.

Contractor to contribute towards establishment and maintenance of hospital-depôt.

Every hospital-depôt so established shall be under the charge of a medical officer appointed by the Local Government. Any Medical Inspector may direct the transfer of any labourer from a depôt established within the local limits of his jurisdiction to a hospital-depôt established within such local limits.

B.—Recruiters.

23. Any Superintendent empowered in this behalf by the Local Government may, on the application of any contractor or of any sub-contractor acting on behalf of a contractor, grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be recruiters on behalf of such contractor within the whole or any specified part of the local area for which such contractor has been licensed.

Superintendent may license recruiters.

24. Every license to a recruiter shall be in such form and subject to the payment of such fee, not exceeding sixteen rupees, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Form of, and fee for, recruiter's license.

25. No such license shall be granted for a longer period than one year from the date thereof; and if the licensee fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any such license may be cancelled by the Superintendent who granted the same.

Period for which license is granted.

26. Every recruiter shall hold a certificate in writing authorizing him to act as such and signed by the contractor or sub-contractor on whose application he was licensed.

Recruiter must hold a certificate.

27. No recruiter shall in any local area engage or attempt to engage any person as a labourer unless such recruiter's license bears the countersignature of a Magistrate having jurisdiction throughout such local area.

Countersignature of recruiter's license.

No such Magistrate shall countersign a recruiter's license unless and until he has satisfied himself by such enquiry as he thinks fit that the licensee is not by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a recruiter under this Act, that he holds the certificate mentioned in section twenty-six, and that sufficient and proper accommodation has been provided in a suitable place and is available for such labourers, or persons intending to become labourers, as may be collected by such recruiter pending their removal to a depôt.

28. Every Magistrate shall have, for the supervision, inspection and regulation of the place situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction where such accommodation is provided, the same powers as are by this Act conferred on the Superintendent in respect of depôts.

Magistrate to supervise accommodation.

Any Magistrate of a district or division of a district may authorize any Magistrate subordinate to him, or any officer of police above the rank of sub-inspector, to visit and inspect such place at any time; and all recruiters or other persons in charge of such place shall afford to subordinate Magistrates and officers of police so authorized every facility for making such visits and inspections.

29. If any Magistrate who has countersigned a recruiter's license afterwards finds reason to think that the licensee is by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a recruiter under this Act, or that the accommodation provided under section twenty-seven has become insufficient or improper or has ceased to be available, or that the place in which it is provided has become unsuitable, he may require the licensee to produce his license and may cancel his countersignature thereon, or he may impound the license and send it for cancellation to the Superintendent who granted the same.

Magistrate may cancel countersignature in certain cases.

Every Magistrate refusing to countersign a recruiter's license or cancelling his countersignature thereon shall at once report such refusal or cancellation and the grounds thereof to the Superintendent who granted such license.

Notice to Superintendent of refusal to countersign or cancellation.

C.—Procedure before Arrival at Depôt.

30. Every recruiter who desires to engage any person as a labourer shall appear with such person before such medical officer as the Local Government may appoint to examine such persons within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate by whom such recruiter's license was countersigned, or, if no such officer has been appointed, before such medical officer as the Registering officer, before whom such person is taken for registration as hereinafter provided, may direct.

Intending labourer to be taken for examination to medical officer.

The medical officer shall thereupon examine such person, and shall, if satisfied that he is in a fit state of health and able in point of physical condition to proceed to the labour-district in which he intends to labour, give him a certificate to that effect.

31. Every person who obtains a certificate under section thirty, together with any persons about to proceed to a labour-district as his dependents, shall thereupon be brought by the recruiter before the

If certified to be fit, intending labourer to be brought before Registering officer.

Registering officer having jurisdiction within the local area for which such recruiter is licensed. The recruiter shall at the same time produce and show his license to such Registering officer.

Intending labourer to be examined by Registering officer.

32. The Registering officer shall thereupon inspect the certificate given under section thirty, and the license of the recruiter, and, if he finds that such certificate has been duly given and that the recruiter is duly licensed, shall then examine such person, with reference to his intended labour-contract, and explain the same to him.

Intending labourer to be registered.

If it appears that such person is competent to enter into such contract, and understands the same as regards the locality, period and nature of the service, and the rate of wages and the price at which rice is to be supplied to him, that the terms thereof are in accordance with law, that he has not been induced to agree to enter thereinto by any coercion, undue influence, fraud, misrepresentation or mistake, and that he is willing to fulfil the same, the Registering officer shall register in a book to be kept for the purpose such particulars regarding him and the persons (if any) whom he wishes to have registered as his dependents as the Local Government may by rule prescribe; and the labourer and his dependents (if any) shall thereupon be deemed to be registered under this Act.

Copy of registration to be given to labourer.

33. The Registering officer shall furnish to the person so registered a certified copy of such particulars written on substantial paper.

Copy of registration and medical certificate to be sent to Superintendent.

34. Every officer registering any person under section thirty-two shall forthwith forward a certified copy of such particulars and the original certificate of the medical officer regarding him to the Superintendent having jurisdiction over the depôt to which such person is to proceed.

Fee for registration.

35. For every such person produced before a Registering officer for the purpose of being registered as a labourer the recruiter shall pay to the officer such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Recruiter when to remove person to depôt.

36. No recruiter shall remove or attempt to remove any person to a depôt, or induce or attempt to induce him to go to a depôt, or to leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Registering officer before whom such person ought to be brought under section thirty-one, or aid or attempt to aid him in going to a depôt, or leaving any such local limits, unless and until such person has been registered under section thirty-two.

Conveyance of labourer to depôt.

37. Every labourer shall, after he has been registered under section thirty-two, be conveyed with all convenient despatch by the recruiter by whom he has been engaged to the depôt established by the contractor on whose behalf such recruiter has been licensed.

Recruiter to accompany labourer or depute person approved by Registering officer.

All labourers shall, while proceeding to the depôt, be accompanied throughout the journey either by the recruiter himself, or by a competent person deputed by him with the approval of the Registering officer by whom such labourers have been registered. The Registering officer shall give to the person so deputed a certificate under his signature, stating that he has been deputed for the journey to the depôt.

Recruiter must provide food and lodging for labourer on journey.

38. Every recruiter or person deputed by him as aforesaid shall, throughout the journey to the depôt, provide such labourer and his dependents (if any) with proper and sufficient food and lodging.

D.—Procedure at Contractors' Depôts.

Contractor to report arrival of labourer.

39. Within twenty-four hours after a labourer arrives at a depôt, the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained, or the person in charge thereof, shall give to the Superintendent, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such depôt is situate, a notice in writing of such arrival, which notice shall be in such form, and shall contain such particulars, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Duties of Medical Inspector.

40. The Medical Inspector shall, as soon as may be after the labourer arrives at the depôt, examine such labourer and his dependents (if any) to ascertain that they are in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which they intend to proceed.

The Medical Inspector shall give a certificate to the Superintendent stating whether he is or is not satisfied of the fitness of the labourer and his dependents (if any) to undertake such journey.

If certificate of fitness granted, labourer to enter into labour-contract.

41. If the Medical Inspector gives a certificate of fitness under section forty with respect to any labourer, and in the opinion of the Superintendent there is no valid reason why such labourer should not enter into a labour-contract, such labourer and the employer with whom he intends to contract, or the agent of such employer, shall, within thirty days after the arrival of the labourer at the depôt, execute a labour-contract in the presence of the Superintendent.

Contract to be explained to labourer by Superintendent.

42. Before the labourer executes such contract, the Superintendent shall personally explain it to him, and shall, after the same has been executed by such labourer and his employer, or the agent of such employer, attest such contract and certify at the foot thereof that he has personally explained the same to the labourer.

Abstract to be made of contract, and copies of contract given to labourer and employer.

An abstract of every such contract shall be entered in a register to be kept by the Superintendent for the purpose; and after such abstract has been so entered, one copy of the contract shall be given to the labourer and the other to his employer or his employer's agent.

Power to cancel contract and order payment of expenses home of labourer in certain cases.

43. In the following cases (namely):—

(a) where the Medical Inspector, on making the examination required by section forty, or at any subsequent time during the stay at the depôt of any labourer, finds that such labourer is or has become unfit to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, and the Superintendent considers that such labourer has not dishonestly represented himself as fit to undertake such journey, or

(c) where the contractor on whose behalf or by whom the labourer has been registered does not within thirty days after the arrival of such labourer at the depôt tender to him a labour-contract for execution under section forty-one, or the employer or his agent refuses or neglects to execute such contract as required by that section, the Superintendent may cancel the labour-contract executed by such labourer, and in that case, or if no labour-contract has been executed, may order the contractor at once to pay such labourer such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him to return to the place at which he was registered, and such further sum by way of compensation as the Superintendent thinks reasonable; and may take any other steps he thinks necessary for the conveyance of such labourer to such place.

Labourer when to be lodged, &c., at depôt till he can return home.

44. Any labourer who from his state of health is, in the opinion of the Medical Inspector, unfit to undertake such return-journey, shall be entitled to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the depôt at the expense of the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained, until he is reported by the Medical Inspector to be fit to undertake such return-journey.

Contractor omitting to provide food, &c., for labourer.

If such contractor negligently or wilfully omits to provide food, lodging, clothing or medical treatment for such labourer, the Superintendent may order the contractor at once to pay such reasonable sum as is necessary to provide such food, lodging, clothing or medical treatment.

Like provisions in case of dependents and relatives.

45. When an order is made under section forty-three with reference to any labourer, any person registered as his dependent, or any labourer being the wife, husband, son or daughter of such labourer, may claim—

(a) to be conveyed at the expense of the contractor with such labourer to the place at which he was registered, and

(b) if such labourer is unable to travel, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated in the depôt at the expense of the contractor until such labourer is able to travel;

and the Superintendent may include such expenses in an order made under section forty-three or section forty-four with respect to such labourer.

Compensation to labourer for ill-treatment on the journey.

46. If, upon the arrival of any labourer at a depôt, it appears that during the journey to the depôt such labourer or any person registered as his dependent has suffered any ill-treatment at the hands of the recruiter or person deputed by him to accompany such labourer, or that such recruiter or such person has failed to provide the labourer or any person registered as his dependent with proper and sufficient food and lodging, the Superintendent may order the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained to pay such labourer a reasonable sum by way of compensation.

Procedure when dependent declared unfit to proceed to labour-district.

47. If the Medical Inspector has reason to think that any person registered as the dependent of a labourer is not in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which the labourer whose dependent he is intends to proceed, the Medical Inspector shall so certify to the Superintendent to whom notice of the arrival of such labourer was given. The provisions of sections forty-three and forty-four shall thereupon apply to such dependent as if he were a labourer, and the Superintendent may make such orders regarding him as he may make under those sections with regard to a labourer.

Labourer and relatives entitled to be returned with dependent.

Failure of contractor to pay sums ordered to be paid under section 43, 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48.

49. On failure of the contractor for twenty-four hours to comply with an order of the Superintendent to pay any sum ordered to be paid under section forty-three, section forty-four, section forty-five, section forty-six, section forty-seven or section forty-eight, the Superintendent may pay the same to or on behalf of the labourer or dependent.

Every sum so paid shall be recoverable from the contractor with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the date of payment.

No further proof shall be required by any Court in any such case than that the Superintendent gave the contractor an order to pay such sum, and that the contractor for twenty-four hours failed to comply with such order.

Provisions for way-bill.

50. All labourers despatched from a contractor's depôt to a labour-district shall during their journey be accompanied by a person appointed by such contractor. Such person shall take with him a way-bill in such form and containing such particulars and instructions as the Local Government may prescribe.

He shall also present such way-bill at all such places and to all such officers as may be thereupon indicated: and shall carry out all instructions contained therein for his guidance.

CHAPTER IV.

RECRUITING BY GARDEN-SARDÁRS AND LOCAL AGENTS.

Employer may grant certificate to garden-sardár.

51. Any employer may grant to any person a certificate authorizing him, within such local area as may be specified in such certificate, to enter into labour-contracts with persons desirous of becoming labourers upon any estate of which such employer is in charge.

Every person to whom such certificate has been granted is hereinafter called a garden-sardár.

If any labourer is granted a certificate under this section, his employment as a garden-sardár shall be deemed to be employment under his labour-contract.

Form and particulars to be contained in such certificate.

52. Every such certificate shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as the Local Government of the territories in which it is granted may prescribe in this behalf.

Any employer granting a certificate to a garden-sardár may, before such certificate is accepted and signed as hereinafter provided, specify therein the name of the local agent (if any) to whom such garden-sardár is to report himself for orders, and the time within which he is to return to such employer, and any other instructions for his conduct that he may think proper.

Certificate to be accepted and signed in presence of Inspector or Magistrate.

53. Every such certificate shall be accepted and signed by the garden-sardár in the presence of the Inspector or a Magistrate having jurisdiction over the place where the employer granting such certificate resides.

Inspector or Magistrate to countersign certificate.

54. Such Inspector or Magistrate shall inquire into the facts stated in such certificate; and upon being satisfied of the truth of the statement shall, unless it appears to him that the person so accepting and signing such certificate is by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a garden-sardár, countersign and date such certificate.

Provision for grant of fresh certificate.

55. On the application of the employer by whom any certificate so countersigned has been granted to a garden-sardár, such Inspector or Magistrate may, without requiring the appearance of the garden-sardár or making the inquiry prescribed by section fifty-four, countersign a fresh certificate to be granted by such employer to such garden-sardár in renewal of any existing certificate.

Such fresh certificate to be forwarded to Magistrate of district where garden-sardár is employed.

Every such fresh certificate shall be forwarded by the Inspector or Magistrate countersigning it to the Magistrate of the district in which the garden-sardár to whom it is granted is employed; and such sardár shall, on receiving notice from such Magistrate, appear before him and accept and sign such fresh certificate in his presence.

And to be accepted and signed by garden-sardár.

Certificate when to come into force.

56. No certificate granted to a garden-sardár shall come into force unless and until it has been accepted and signed by the garden-sardár and countersigned by the Inspector or Magistrate, and no such certificate shall continue in force for a longer period than one year from the date of its countersignature.

Accommodation to be provided by garden-sardár.

57. Every garden-sardár shall provide sufficient and proper accommodation in a suitable place for such labourers, or persons intending to become labourers, as may be collected by him pending their removal to a labour-district.

The Magistrate of a district or of a division of a district, or a Magistrate subordinate to him, or an officer of police above the rank of sub-inspector authorized by him in this behalf, shall visit and inspect such accommodation; and all garden-sardárs or other persons in charge of such places shall afford to such Magistrate, Subordinate Magistrate or officer of police every facility for making such visits and inspections.

In every such place the garden-sardár providing the accommodation shall make such sanitary arrangements as the Local Government may prescribe.

Certificate may be cancelled in certain cases.

58. Whenever a garden-sardár contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any Magistrate, Superintendent or Inspector, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such garden-sardár is employed, may cancel his certificate.

B.—Local Agents.

Local agents may be licensed.

59. Any Superintendent authorized in this behalf by the Local Government may, on the application of any employer, grant licenses to persons to be local agents for the purpose of representing such employer within such local area and for such period as such employer may desire: Provided that no contractor shall be licensed as a local agent.

Powers and duties of local agents.

60. A local agent may within such local area represent his employer in all matters connected with the engagement of labourers; and shall furnish such information and make such returns as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Local agent may represent more than one employer.

61. The Superintendent authorized as aforesaid may, on the application of any employer other than the employer on whose application a local agent has been licensed, make an order in writing permitting such agent to become the local agent of such additional employer within the local area for which he was licensed. The Superintendent making such order shall forthwith send a copy thereof to the Magistrate of the district in which such agent resides; and such Magistrate shall, on the agent's application, insert in his license the name of such additional employer.

Local agent may be specially licensed to contract direct with labourers.

62. Any Superintendent authorized as aforesaid may, with the consent of all the employers of a local agent, grant a special license to such agent, permitting him to engage on behalf of any employer specified in such special license, but without the intervention of a garden-sardár, persons to be labourers.

Every agent when so engaging persons to be labourers may, if he thinks fit, appear with them for registration before a Registering officer, and require them when so registered to execute a labour-contract, and in such case shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a garden-sardár.

Local agent may prosecute garden-sardár.

63. When any garden-sardár to whom a certificate has been granted under this Act by any employer commits any offence punishable under this Act, any local agent of such employer may prosecute the sardár for such offence.

On what grounds local agent's license may be cancelled.

64. The Magistrate of any district within which a local agent acts as such may by order cancel the license of such local agent if the employer so require, or if it is shown to the satisfaction of such Magistrate that such local agent has—

(a) employed any contractor's recruiter to engage on his behalf persons to be labourers; or

(b) permitted persons engaged as labourers by or on behalf of any contractor to use the accommodation provided for the persons engaged as labourers by any garden-sardár under such local agent's control; or

(c) allowed any garden-sardár under his control to transfer persons engaged as labourers by such sardár to contractors or to their recruiters or to any employer other than the employer by whom such sardár's certificate was granted; or

(d) himself taken over persons engaged as labourers by any garden-sardár with intent to despatch them to any employer other than the employer by whom such sardár's certificate was granted.

An appeal shall lie to the Local Government from any order made under this section, clause (a), (b), (c) or (d). Such appeal must be presented within three months next after the date of the order, and the decision of the Local Government thereon shall be final.

C.—Procedure to be followed by Garden-sardár.

Garden-sardár and labourer to appear before Registering officer for registration.

65. Every garden-sardár who desires to engage any person as a labourer shall appear with such person, together with any persons about to proceed to a labour-district as dependents of such person, before the Registering officer having jurisdiction within the local area specified in the certificate of such sardár.

Registration of persons engaged by garden-sardár.

66. The Registering officer shall thereupon inspect the certificate of the garden-sardár, and, if he finds that such certificate is in force, shall examine, with reference to the intended labour-contract, the person whom the sardár so desires to engage and explain the contract to such person.

Medical examination.

67. If it appears to such officer that any such person, or any dependent of such person, is not in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, the officer may, before registering any such person or dependent, if himself a medical man, medically examine such person or dependent, or, if not himself a medical man, send such person or dependent to a medical man for such examination. If upon such examination such person or dependent is declared unfit to undertake the journey to such place, the officer may refuse to register such person or dependent.

Fee to be paid for every labourer produced for registration.

68. For every person appearing before a Registering officer for the purpose of being registered as a labourer, the garden-sardár who appears with him shall pay to the officer such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Local Government may direct.

Labour-contract to be executed.

69. When any person has been registered under section sixty-six as a labourer he shall, within fifteen days from the day on which he was so registered, execute a labour-contract with the employer with whom he intends to contract. Such contract shall be signed in the presence of the Registering officer by such person and, on behalf of the employer, by the garden-sardár who appears with such person before such officer. The officer shall satisfy himself that the contract is in accordance with any instructions specified in the certificate of the garden-sardár. If the officer is so satisfied, he shall, before the labourer signs the contract, personally explain it to him, and shall, after the same has been executed as aforesaid, attest such contract and certify at the foot thereof that he has personally explained the same to the labourer.

An abstract of every such contract shall be entered in a register to be kept for the purpose by the Registering officer, and, of the two copies of the contract, one shall then be given to the labourer and the other to the garden-sardár or the local agent.

If any garden-sardár, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects to execute a contract with a labourer as required by this section within fifteen days from the day on which he was so registered, the Registering officer may order such sardár to pay to the labourer such reasonable compensation, not exceeding twenty rupees, as such officer thinks fit.

70. If the employer of a garden-sardár has in the instructions specified in the certificate of the sardár directed that all labourers engaged by him shall before registration be examined by a competent medical man and certified by him to be in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to, and labour in, the labour-districts to which they intend to proceed, no Registering officer shall register as a labourer any person appearing before him with such sardár until such certificate from such medical officer as aforesaid has been produced and shown to him.

Procedure when employer requires medical examination previous to registration.

71. If the employer has in the instructions specified in the certificate of the garden-sardár directed that such examination shall be made by any medical officer in the service of Government, such officer making the examination shall be entitled to receive from the local agent or sardár such a fee not exceeding eight annas for each labourer so examined as the Local Government may fix.

Medical officer entitled to fee.

72. Unless and until a person engaged as a labourer has been registered under section sixty-six no garden-sardár shall remove or attempt to remove him to a labour-district, or induce or attempt to induce him to go to a labour-district, or to leave the local area specified in the certificate of such sardár, or aid or attempt to aid him in proceeding to a labour-district, or in leaving any such local area.

Garden-sardár when to remove labourer to labour-district.

73. A garden-sardár shall either himself accompany labourers engaged by him throughout their journey from the place in which the labour-contract was entered into to the labour-district wherein they have contracted to labour, or shall send with them some competent person appointed by him with the approval of the local agent of his employer; or, if his employer has no local agent, with the approval of the officer by whom such labourers were registered.

Garden-sardár to accompany labourers or send competent person with them.

When the number of labourers (exclusive of dependents) proceeding on their journey to such labour-district is more than twenty, for every twenty labourers so in excess, or for any number of labourers less than twenty so in excess, one additional garden-sardár or person so appointed by him shall accompany the labourers so proceeding.

74. A garden-sardár may, subject to the instructions specified in his certificate, engage any number of persons as labourers; and, subject to the provisions of section seventy-three, any number of labourers may be despatched at the same time to the labour-districts.

No restriction on number of persons engaged by garden-sardár.

75. Any garden-sardár may, with the previous consent in writing of the local agent of the employer by whom his certificate was granted, or, if such employer has no local agent, with the previous consent in writing of such employer, be appointed under section seventy-three as a competent person to accompany labourers other than those engaged by him.

In certain cases garden-sardár may be appointed to accompany labourers not engaged by him.

76. Every garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid who accompanies labourers to the labour-districts shall present to the officer by whom such labourers have been registered a way-bill in such form and containing such particulars and instructions as the Local Government may prescribe. He shall also present such way-bill at all such places and to all such officers as may be thereupon indicated; and shall carry out all instructions contained therein for his guidance.

Provision for way-bill.

77. Every garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid who accompanies labourers to the labour-districts shall provide such labourers and their dependents (if any) with proper and sufficient food and lodging throughout the journey.

Garden-sardár must provide food and lodging for labourers and dependents on journey.

78. If it appears to any Magistrate, on the complaint of any such labourer at any place on the journey, that he or any person registered as his dependent has suffered any ill-treatment during the journey at the hands of the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying such labourer, or that such sardár or person has failed to provide such labourer or any of his dependents with proper and sufficient food and lodging, or has wilfully abandoned such labourer or any of his dependents, such Magistrate may either order the sardár or person so appointed to pay to such labourer a reasonable sum by way of compensation, or may cancel the labour-contract entered into by such labourer and order such sardár or person to pay to such labourer such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him with his dependents (if any) to return to the place at which he was registered.

If such not provided, Magistrate may award compensation or cancel contract.

79. On failure for twenty-four hours by any garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid to comply with an order under section seventy-eight to pay any sum, the Magistrate may pay the same to or on behalf of such labourer.

Procedure on failure of garden-sardár to comply with order.

Every sum so paid shall be recoverable from the employer by whom the certificate of such garden-sardár was granted, or from the local agent of such employer, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the date of payment.

No further proof shall be required by any Court in any such case than that the Magistrate gave such garden-sardár or person an order to pay such sum and that such garden-sardár or person has for twenty-four hours failed to comply with such order.

80. Any Magistrate or any Embarkation Agent may, if himself a medical man, examine, and if not himself a medical man, send for examination by a medical man, any labourer or dependent who, while on the journey to the district to which he intends to proceed, appears to such Magistrate or Agent not to be in a fit state of health to proceed thereto.

Medical inspection of labourers en route.

81. If such labourer or dependent is on such examination declared not to be in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent may order him to be detained at such place as he thinks fit until the labourer or dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake such journey, when he shall either be forwarded to such district or sent back to the place where he was registered, according as the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying such labourer or dependent, or the employer by whom the certificate of such sardár was granted, or his local agent, may direct.

Detention and return of labourer declared when en route to be unfit to travel.

While any labourer or dependent is so detained he shall be entitled to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer or the labourer to whom such dependent is attached has contracted to labour.

82. When an order under section eighty-one has been made with reference to any labourer, any person registered as his dependent and any labourer being the wife or husband of such labourer, shall be entitled,

Dependents of labourer when to be fed, &c.

(a) until such labourer is in a fit state of health to undertake such journey, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such labourer is detained and at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer has contracted to labour, and,

(b) if such labourer is sent back to the place where he was registered, to be sent back to such place.

When any such order has been made with reference to any dependent, the labourer to whom he is attached shall thereupon, until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district, be entitled, if the labourer so wishes, and, if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter of such dependent, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained and at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer has contracted to labour; and if such dependent is sent back to the place where he was registered, such labourer shall, if he or she so wishes, and if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter of such dependent, be sent back to such place.

Labourer to whom dependent is attached when to be fed, &c.

If such labourer is entitled and claims to be so fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated, or to be so sent back, any person registered as his or her dependent and any other labourer being the wife or husband of such labourer, shall be entitled, as the case may be,

(a) to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained and at the cost of such employer until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district, or

(b) to be sent back to the place where he or she was registered.

83. If the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying any labourer or dependent fails to provide such labourer or dependent with food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to send him back as required by section eighty-one or section eighty-two, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent may order such sardár or person to pay such sum as is necessary to provide such food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to defray the cost of the return-journey of such labourer or dependent, as the case may be, to the place where he was registered; and, on failure for twenty-four hours of such sardár or person to comply with such order, he may pay the sum specified in the order to or on behalf of such labourer or dependent.

Payment of expenses of detention and return-journey of labourer.

The provisions of section seventy-nine shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the recovery of sums paid by the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent under this section.

Agent in Calcutta may procure order from Superintendent cancelling the labour-contract on payment of expense of return.

85. When the Superintendent declares the labour-contract of any labourer to be cancelled, any other labourer who is the wife, husband, father, mother, son or daughter of such labourer, and who may have entered into a labour-contract at the same place with the same employer, may claim to have her or his labour-contract cancelled at the same time. On such claim being made, the Superintendent shall declare the labour-contract of the claimant to be cancelled, and shall order the agent or representative of the claimant's employer to pay to the claimant such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him and his dependents (if any) to return to the place at which he was registered.

In that case contracts of relatives to be cancelled.

On failure for twenty-four hours of the agent or representative to comply with such order, the Superintendent may pay the sum specified in the order to or on behalf of the claimant; and the provisions of section seventy-nine shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the recovery of any sum so paid.

CHAPTER V.

TRANSPORT BY RIVER.

A.—Passenger Vessels.

86. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to the transport by sea of natives of India to the labour-districts of Chittagong and the Chittagong Hill Tracts.

Transport by sea to Chittagong.

87. No master shall receive more than twenty passengers being natives of India on board his vessel for the purpose of transporting them to a labour-district unless a license to carry passengers in such vessel has been granted to him by an Embarkation Agent duly empowered in that behalf by the Local Government.

Vessels to carry more than 20 passengers must be licensed.

The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt from the provisions of this section any vessel or class of vessels.

Power to exempt vessels.

88. The master or owner of any vessel who desires to obtain a license under this Act to carry passengers in such vessel shall make a written application for a license to an Embarkation Agent empowered as aforesaid.

Application for license.

Every such application shall state such particulars respecting the vessel as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Contents of application.

89. If such Embarkation Agent is of opinion that the vessel is in all respects suitable for carrying passengers being natives of India to a labour-district, he shall give to the master of the vessel a license to carry passengers therein, specifying the number of passengers being natives of India which may be received on board.

Grant of license.

90. Such fee, not exceeding sixteen rupees, as the Local Government may with reference to the size of such vessel by rule direct shall be paid for every such license. No such license shall be in force for more than one voyage:

Fee for license.

Provided that the Embarkation Agent may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, grant a license to the master of any vessel for any term not exceeding one year, on payment of such fee not exceeding one hundred rupees, and on such conditions, as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Provision for annual licenses.

91. Any Embarkation Agent may, in accordance with such rules as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, direct by order in writing that, on any particular voyage or part of a voyage, any master licensed hereunder shall not receive on board his vessel more than a specified number of passengers being natives of India, which number shall be less than the number specified in the license granted to such master.

Embarkation Agent may limit number to be received on board on any particular voyage.

92. In computing the number of persons on board of any vessel, two children under the age of ten years shall for the purposes of this Act be reckoned as one person only.

Two children under ten to be counted as one person.

93. Every master to whom a license is granted hereunder shall keep such lists, submit such returns and make such reports in regard to the passengers carried in his vessel as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Master to make returns.

94. Every such master shall have on board his vessel carrying labourers and their dependents such supplies of provisions and clothing, and such medical and other officers, cooks and attendants, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Provisions, clothing, medical and other officers, cooks, &c.

95. No medical officer shall be appointed to any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder unless he holds a license granted by such authority as the Local Government may appoint in that behalf; and any medical officer so licensed shall be forthwith removed from his appointment on the requisition of any officer empowered by the Local Government to make such requisition.

Medical officer to be licensed.

B.—Departure of Passenger Vessels and Procedure during Voyage.

96. Whenever it appears to any Embarkation Agent that the departure of any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder is unduly delayed beyond the date fixed by order of a Superintendent or the Local Government, or notified by advertisement in the public press, for such departure, he may order the master of such vessel to proceed on his voyage at once.

Embarkation Agent may order departure of vessel if delay occurs.

97. No master licensed hereunder shall proceed on a voyage with his vessel carrying labourers until he has received from the Embarkation Agent the way-bills relating to all labourers on board. The Embarkation Agent and the master of the vessel shall together personally ascertain that the number of labourers on board corresponds with the number entered in such way-bills.

Master to receive way-bills from Embarkation Agent.

The Embarkation Agent shall send a copy of such way-bills to the Magistrate of the labour-district to which such labourers are proceeding.

98. No such master shall cause or permit any labourer finally to leave his vessel at any place other than that named in the way-bill as the destination of such labourer:

Labourers not allowed finally to leave vessel at any place other than that mentioned in way-bill.

Provided that this section shall not be deemed to prevent the master of any vessel from permitting such labourers to disembark at any place or places on the voyage so long as such disembarkation is not intended or known to be likely to be final; nor to prevent the final disembarkation of any such labourers, or the transfer of such labourers with their dependents to any other vessel in case of accident or other unavoidable necessity. Such accident or necessity shall be forthwith reported by the master to the Embarkation Agent by whom he was licensed, and to the nearest Magistrate in the district within which such accident has occurred or necessity has arisen.

99. Every master licensed hereunder shall stop his vessel carrying passengers being natives of India at such places, being places where a Magistrate is stationed, and shall, unless the Magistrate permits him to depart earlier, remain at each such place for such time, not exceeding six hours of daylight, as the Local Government may direct. Such master shall, on arriving at any such place, immediately report to the Magistrate the number of the crew and other persons on board, the general state of their health, and the number of deaths (if any) which have occurred among the persons who embarked on board his vessel.

Master to stop his vessel at certain places where there is a Magistrate.

100. A Magistrate may, while any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder is within the local limits of his jurisdiction, go on board such vessel and inspect the vessel and all persons being natives of India on board. The master and officers of such vessel shall afford to such Magistrate every facility for such inspection, and give him all such information as he may reasonably require respecting the labourers or other persons on board, the deaths, if any, which may have occurred on board, and any other facts which may affect the health of the passengers.

Magistrate may at any time inspect vessel.

Master bound to give all information required.

101. At any time while any such vessel is within the local limits of his jurisdiction, the Magistrate may regulate the communication between such vessel and the land, and may prohibit all persons from leaving such vessel and all persons on land from proceeding on board her.

Magistrate may regulate communication between vessel and land.

102. Any Magistrate may, if he has reason to believe that any passengers being natives of India on board any such vessel within the local limits of his jurisdiction are, or are likely to be, affected with any dangerously infectious or contagious disease, detain such vessel and require the civil medical officer of the district or other qualified medical officer to inspect such passengers and to report on their health, stating whether any or what measures are requisite for the removal or prevention of such disease. After the receipt of such report, the Magistrate may order any such passenger suffering from any such disease to be disembarked and detained for medical treatment. If in the opinion of the inspecting medical officer it is dangerous to the health of the general body of the passengers to allow such vessel to proceed until measures have been taken to cleanse and disinfect her, the Magistrate may detain the vessel for a further period, not exceeding three days, for the purpose of carrying out such measures.

Magistrate may detain vessel for inspection and for removal of disease, and may detain sick native passengers.

103. If, on receiving a report of a medical officer, it appears to a Magistrate that any labourer or any dependent of any labourer, though not suffering from any such disease as last aforesaid, is not in a fit state of health to proceed to the labour-district in which such labourer has contracted to labour, he may order such labourer or dependent to be detained, and shall cause all necessary arrangements to be made for the accommodation, support and medical treatment of the labourer or dependent so detained.

Magistrate may detain sick labourers; and shall arrange for their accommodation and treatment.

104. All expenses incurred under section one hundred and three by a Magistrate in respect of any labourer or dependent so detained shall be recoverable from the employer of such labourer together with interest at six per centum per annum.

Expenses how to be recovered.

105. Whenever it appears to a Magistrate making an inspection of any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder that the number of passengers on board being natives of India is larger than the number specified in such license or than the number specified in an order of an Embarkation Agent made under section ninety-one, he may remove the excess number and detain them until another opportunity of forwarding them to their destination is found. The necessary expense of maintaining such passengers while so detained and of forwarding them to their destination shall be paid by such Magistrate, and shall be recoverable from the master or owner of such vessel.

Measures to be taken if excess number of native passengers is found on board.

106. Whenever, on making an inspection of any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder, a Magistrate finds that any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule of the Local Government made hereunder have not been complied with in respect of such vessel, he shall report the same to the Embarkation Agent by whom such license was granted; and, if he considers it necessary to do so, he may detain the vessel until such provisions have been so complied with as to make it possible for the voyage to be further prosecuted with safety and reasonable comfort to the emigrants.

Infraction of the Act and rules to be reported.

Vessel may be detained.

107. The Local Government may make rules regulating—

Power to make rules regulating disembarkation and other matters.

(a) the disembarkation of labourers and their dependents, and their inspection and accommodation on arrival at their destination:

(b) the detention of such labourers or dependents at debarkation-depôts:

(c) the forwarding of labourers to their destination and the closing and return of way-bills by employers.

All expenses incurred by any Magistrate or Debarkation Agent in accordance with such rules shall be recoverable from the employers of such labourers together with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum.

108. The Magistrate of a district, or of a division of a district, may from time to time authorize any subordinate Magistrate, medical officer or officer of police above the rank of sub-inspector to exercise the powers and authorities conferred, and to perform the duties imposed, on a Magistrate under sections ninety-nine to one hundred and six, both inclusive.

Magistrate may depute a subordinate Magistrate to discharge the functions of the Magistrate.

CHAPTER VI.

PROVISIONS AS TO THE LABOUR-DISTRICTS.

A.—Annual Rate payable by Employers.

109. Every employer shall, on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, pay in respect of each labourer then in his employ such rate, not exceeding an annual sum of one rupee, as the Local Government may by notification in the official Gazette direct.

Annual rate payable by employer.

110. If any employer fails, for the space of one month after the receipt of a notice in such form and served in such manner as the Local Government may prescribe, to pay any sum due

Payment of rate how to be enforced.

by him under the provisions of the last preceding section, such sum shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due from such employer.

B.—Local Labour-contracts.

Labour-contracts made within labour-districts.

111. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, any employer may enter into a labour-contract with any native of India within a labour-district. When any employer has executed any such contract with any such native within a labour-district, he shall, within one month from the date of the execution of such contract, forward it in duplicate to the Inspector within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such employer resides. On receipt of the contract so forwarded, the Inspector shall enter an abstract thereof in a register to be kept by him for the purpose, and shall then give one copy of the contract to the labourer and the other copy to his employer.

Registration of such contracts.

When, for the first time after the registration of any such contract with a labourer, the Inspector visits the estate on which such labourer is employed, the employer shall cause such labourer to appear before the Inspector, and such labourer may thereupon apply to the Inspector to cancel the contract; and, if he shows cause sufficient in the opinion of the Inspector to justify the cancellation, the Inspector may cancel the contract, and shall thereupon endorse on the labourer's copy of the contract, or if such copy be not forthcoming, shall give to the labourer, a certificate of such cancellation.

When such contracts may be cancelled.

Execution of labour-contract before Inspector or Magistrate.

112. Any employer desirous of entering into a labour-contract with any native of India in a labour-district may, instead of executing such contract under section one hundred and eleven, appear either in person or by agent with such native before the Inspector or Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such employer resides.

Such Inspector or Magistrate shall thereupon explain the labour-contract to such native, and shall, if satisfied that he is competent to enter into and understands the same, call upon him and the employer or his agent to execute it in his presence; and, if they execute it, shall attest such execution with his signature.

An abstract of every such labour-contract shall be entered in a register to be kept by the Inspector or Magistrate for the purpose; and one copy of such contract shall then be given to the labourer and the other copy to his employer or his agent.

In respect of every labour-contract an abstract whereof is registered under section one hundred and eleven or under this section, the employer who executes such contract in person or by agent shall pay to the Inspector or Magistrate such fee, not exceeding one rupee, as the Local Government may direct.

C.—Employers' Returns and Magistrates' Inspections.

Registers to be kept and returns made by employers.

113. Every employer shall keep such registers of all labourers and other persons employed on the estate of which he is in charge, in such form, and shall make to the Inspector within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such estate is situate such periodical returns in writing, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe. The Inspector may examine such registers and muster all labourers and other persons employed on any estate within such local limits, and may verify the accuracy of the entries in such registers, or in any prescribed periodical return.

Inspector and Magistrate may at any time inspect lands, &c., used by labourers, &c.

114. Any Inspector or Magistrate, or any person authorized by either of them in writing in this behalf, may at any time enter and inspect all lands and houses wholly or partially used by or for labourers, or by or for any other natives of India employed on any estate who are not natives of the labour-district in which such estate is situate, and may require that any labourer or other such native shall be brought before him, and that a copy of the labour-contract of any labourer shall be produced, and may make any inquiries which he thinks proper touching the condition or treatment of any labourer or other such native.

D.—Regulation of Labour.

Schedule of task-work to be prepared.

115. Every employer shall prepare a schedule specifying the daily task to be executed by each labourer employed on the estate of which such employer is in charge, and may from time to time alter any schedule so prepared.

One copy of every such schedule shall be field in a book which shall be open to the examination of the Inspector, and another copy thereof in the Bengálí language shall be stuck up in some conspicuous place accessible to the labourers to whom such schedule relates.

The minimum payment for each daily task shall be the quotient resulting from dividing the monthly wage of the labourer concerned by the whole number of days in the current month.

Limitations and conditions of task-work.

Provisions for revision of schedule by Inspector subject to appeal to committee.

117. If the Inspector considers that any schedule of daily tasks, or any part thereof, is unreasonable, he may by order in writing direct that a reduction specified in such order be made of such tasks. The employer shall at once make such reduction, but may, if dissatisfied with the Inspector's order, by notice in writing require the Inspector to refer the schedule to a committee for consideration. Such committee shall consist—

(a) of the Inspector,

(b) of some person to be nominated by the employer whose schedule is to be considered, and

(c) if practicable, of a medical officer.

Where the employer fails to nominate a person within seven days after being thereunto requested in writing by the Inspector, the Inspector, instead of the employer so failing, may nominate a person.

When the committee consists only of the Inspector and of a person nominated by the employer or Inspector, the Inspector shall have the casting vote.

Committee to revise schedule.

118. If such committee, or a majority thereof, is of opinion that the daily tasks specified in such schedule or any of them are unreasonable, they shall modify and reduce them in such manner as they think fit. The employer shall thereupon alter his schedule accordingly, and copies of the schedule so altered shall be filed and stuck up in the manner directed in section one hundred and fifteen, and shall, as between him and the labourers concerned, take the place of the former schedule.

Provision for weakly labourers.

119. Notwithstanding anything contained in any such schedule, the Inspector may order that any specified labourer, who is in his opinion unable from weakness to earn by his labour the sum of one anna and a half per diem, according to the said schedule, shall receive, in lieu of such actual earnings, subsistence-allowance at the rate of one anna and a half per diem, or diet on a scale to be approved by such Inspector. Such subsistence-allowance shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of wages.

E.—Incapacity for Labour.

Inspector may suspend contract of any labourer temporarily unfitted for labour.

120. The Inspector within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any labourer is employed may release such labourer, for such period as he thinks fit, from performing his labour-contract, if he be, in the judgment of such Inspector, temporarily unfitted for the performance thereof by reason of sickness, or other sufficient cause.

Every such release shall be endorsed by the Inspector on the labour-contract, and the time during which the release continues shall not be reckoned as part of the term for which the labourer is bound to serve. Every such labourer shall, during such release, receive such subsistence-allowance from his employer as the Inspector thinks sufficient.

Labourer absent from sickness.

121. If any labourer is compelled to absent himself from work on account of sickness, he shall receive from his employer for each day of such absence subsistence-allowance of one anna and a half, or, if in hospital, sick diet on a scale to be approved by the Inspector.

If such absence exceeds the total number of thirty days in any one year, and the employer, as soon as such number is exceeded, gives the labourer a notice in writing to that effect, each day of absence in excess of such number shall be added to the term of the labour-contract, unless the labourer refunds to the employer the sum of one anna and a half for each day so in excess. The Inspector shall from time to time, when visiting the estate, endorse on the labourer's labour-contract, after such enquiry as may be necessary, the number of days so added to the term thereof.

Discharge of labourer permanently incapacitated.

122. If, in the opinion of the Inspector, any labourer is permanently incapacitated for the performance of his labour-contract or any material part thereof, the Inspector shall certify to that effect in writing and deliver such certificate to the employer of such labourer or his agent, and from the date of such certificate the labour-contract of such labourer shall wholly determine. Every labourer whose labour-contract so determines shall be entitled to receive from his employer such sum, not exceeding three months' wages, as the Inspector may award.

Such sum and any subsistence-allowance mentioned in sections one hundred and twenty and one hundred and twenty-one shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of wages.

F.—Accommodation for Labourers.

House-accommodation, water-supply and sanitary arrangements to be provided.

123. Every employer shall be bound to provide for the labourers employed on the estate of which he is in charge such house accommodation, water-supply and sanitary arrangements as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Supply of food-grain by employer.

124. When the food-grain commonly used by any class of labourers is not procurable by such labourers at reasonable prices in the local markets near the estate on which such labourers are employed, the employer of such labourers shall be bound to supply them with such grain at a reasonable price. The Local Government may by notification in the official Gazette determine, either generally or for each district or part of a district, what shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be a reasonable price.

Provisions for rationing.

125. Subject to any rules which may be made by the Local Government in this behalf, any Inspector may, by order in writing,

(a) direct that, on any specified estate within the local limits of his jurisdiction, all the labourers or any specified class of labourers shall be furnished by their employer with rations, cooked or uncooked, on such scale, for such period not exceeding three months from the date of their arrival on the estate, as may be specified in such order;

(b) exempt any specified labourer from the effect of any such general order if he is satisfied that such labourer is able to earn a full wage and desires to provide himself with proper and sufficient food;

(c) direct that any specified labourer shall be furnished with rations for any term not exceeding six months, and renew any such order for a like term.

The cost of each labourer's ration furnished to him in accordance with any order made under this section shall be calculated at current rates as determined by the Inspector, and shall be deducted from any wages earned by the labourer during the period for which such order is in force.

Provision for hospital-accommodation and medical attendance.

126. If any employer does not, in the opinion of the Inspector, provide such hospital-accommodation in a suitable place available to the labourers employed upon the estate of which he is in charge, or does not make such provision for the medical treatment of such labourers, as the Local Government may direct, the Local Government may require such employer to contribute to the support of a central hospital to be established, or to the pay of a medical officer to be appointed, for the medical treatment of such labourers, such sum, proportionate to the number of labourers so employed, as it thinks fit.

Inquiry whether employer has failed to provide accommodation, &c., as required by the rules.

127. Any Inspector or Assistant Inspector who is himself a Magistrate may, with respect to any estate situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction, institute an inquiry whether the employer in charge of such estate has provided for his labourers house-accommodation, water-supply, sanitary arrangements, food-grains and rations in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Local Government. At the instance of any Inspector or Assistant Inspector a similar inquiry may be made by a Magistrate. Every such inquiry shall be held at some place on the estate to which it relates, or within ten miles of such estate, and shall be conducted and dealt with as if it were an inquiry of a Magistrate under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

G.—Localities unfit for the Residence of Labourers.

Inspector to report.

128. If in the opinion of the Inspector any estate or portion of an estate situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction is at any time, by reason of climate, situation or condition, unfit for the residence of labourers, or of any particular class of labourers, he shall give notice in writing of such opinion to the Magistrate of the district; and such Magistrate shall forthwith, by order in writing, summon a Committee to inquire into the matter.

Magistrate to summon Committee.

Such Committee shall consist of the Magistrate, the Inspector, the medical officer of the district and one or more employers of labourers, when such employers are available.

If the Magistrate is unable to procure the service on such Committee of any employer of labourers, he may, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner of the division, appoint one or more persons qualified to serve on such Committee.

Proceedings of Committee.

129. Such Committee shall as soon as may be inquire into the healthiness of the estate or portion to which the order appointing the Committee relates, and shall hear and record such information on the subject as the owner of such estate or portion, or the employer in charge thereof or the Inspector, may desire to place before it.

If Committee finds estate unfit, labour-contract to be void as regards such estate.

If such Committee or the majority thereof is of opinion that such estate or portion, or any part of such estate or portion, is unfit for the residence of labourers generally, or of any particular class of labourers, it shall record a finding to that effect.

When such finding has been recorded, no labourer, or no labourer of the particular class to which such finding relates, as the case may be, shall be bound by any labour-contract to labour on the estate or portion, or part of such estate or portion, as the case may be, which is found unfit for the residence of such labourers.

Labourer bound to labour elsewhere.

When any labourer is released under this section from the performance of a labour-contract to labour on any estate, he shall be bound to labour on any other estate belonging to his employer and situate in the same labour-district; or, where the finding relates only to a portion or part of an estate, on any other portion or part of the same estate.

Local Government how to proceed if mortality in past year exceeds seven per cent., or if the average mortality for three years exceeds seven per cent.

Matters to be enquired into.

other qualified medical officer to inquire into and report on the following matters:—

(a) the cause or causes of such mortality;

(b) the want (if any) of due care or precaution, and of the adoption of proper and available sanitary measures, on the part of the owner of such estate or portion thereof, or the employer in charge of such estate or portion, causing or contributing to such mortality;

(c) the fitness or otherwise of such estate or portion for the residence of labourers.

Medical officer to report.

131. Such medical officer shall, as soon as may be, inquire into such matters, and shall hear and record such information relating thereto as the owner of such estate or portion, or the employer in charge of the same, or the Inspector, may place before him, and shall visit and inspect such estate or portion, and shall make a report expressing the reasons for his opinion, and transmit the same to the Local Government together with the information so recorded and the notes of his inspection of such estate or portion.

Local Government may declare estate unfit for residence.

132. If the Local Government, after perusal and consideration of the said report, information and notes, is of opinion that such mortality was caused by the want, on the part of the owner of such estate or portion, or the employer in charge of the same, of due care or precaution, or of the adoption of proper and available sanitary measures, and that such estate or portion is thereby rendered unfit for the residence of labourers, it may declare in writing that such estate or portion is unfit for the residence of labourers.

Effect of declaration.

Such declaration of the Local Government shall have the same effect as the finding of a Committee under section one hundred and twenty-nine.

Power to certify fitness of estate or portion found or declared to be unfit.

133. If it at any time appears to the Inspector that any estate or portion thereof, or any part of such portion, found under section one hundred and twenty-nine, or declared under section one hundred and thirty-two, to be unfit for the residence of labourers, or any particular class of labourers, has become fit for the residence of such labourers or such particular class of labourers, as the case may be, he shall, with the previous sanction of the Magistrate of the district in which such estate, portion or part is situate, give a certificate to that effect signed by him. Thereupon all labourers who have been released under section one hundred and twenty-nine or section one hundred and thirty-two from the performance of a contract to labour on such estate, portion or part, shall again be bound to labour on the estate, portion or part, as the case may be, to which the certificate relates.

H.—Complaints made by Labourers.

If labourer wishes to complain of personal ill-usage or breach of Act, employer to send him to Inspector or Magistrate.

134. If any labourer states to his employer, or any person acting on behalf of his employer, that he desires to make a complaint to the Inspector or to any Magistrate of personal ill-usage or breach, on the part of his employer or such person, of any provisions of this Act or of any rule of the Local Government made hereunder, the person to whom such statement is made shall forthwith send such labourer to the Inspector or Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the estate wherein he is employed is situate: Provided that, if more than ten labourers at any one time so state their desire to make such a complaint, the person to whom the statement is made may, instead of sending such labourers to such Inspector or Magistrate, give him notice in writing of their complaint.

Inspector or Magistrate how to proceed if complaint is made to him,

135. Whenever any such complaint is made to an Inspector or Magistrate, or whenever any Inspector or Magistrate receives notice in writing of any such complaint, or if he has reason to believe that there is ground for a complaint.

or has other reasonable grounds for believing that any employer or person acting on his behalf has personally ill-used, or committed any breach mentioned in section one hundred and thirty-four in respect of, any labourer, such Inspector or Magistrate shall, as soon as may be, proceed to some place not more than ten miles from the principal place of business of such employer situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction, and inquire into the matter complained of:

Provided that, if the place in which an Inspector or Magistrate has reasonable grounds for believing that such ill-usage or breach has been committed is situate beyond the local limits of his jurisdiction, he shall, instead of inquiring into the matter himself, forthwith send information thereof in writing to the Inspector or Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such ill-usage or breach has been committed.

Power to summon witness.

For the purposes of an inquiry under this section, the Inspector or Magistrate may summon and examine any person as a witness.

If complaint is untrue or frivolous.

136. If, upon such inquiry made on the complaint of a labourer, the Inspector or Magistrate is of opinion that the complaint is untrue or frivolous or vexatious, he shall dismiss the complaint; and in such case shall endorse on the employer's copy of the complainant's labour-contract the number of days during which the complainant has been absent from work in consequence of the inquiry, and the number of days so endorsed shall be added to the period for which the complainant contracted to labour.

Every such endorsement shall be conclusive evidence that the complainant has absented himself from his labour voluntarily and without reasonable cause during the number of days so endorsed.

Award of compensation to employer.

137. When any complaint is dismissed under section one hundred and thirty-six, the Inspector or Magistrate may award to the employer any reasonable compensation on account of any expense incurred by him in connection with such complaint, and shall endorse the amount of such compensation on the complainant's copy of the labour-contract. The complainant shall be bound to pay the amount so awarded; and in default of such payment his labour-contract shall not be deemed to have determined until he has worked off such amount at the rate of one day's labour for each four annas of such amount.

If on inquiry there is sufficient ground for proceeding.

138. If, upon such inquiry by a Magistrate or by an Inspector who is a Magistrate, such Magistrate or Inspector is of opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding with the case, he shall dispose of the same according to law. If the Inspector is not a Magistrate and is of such opinion, he shall without delay send the complainant and his witnesses (if any) to the nearest Magistrate; and such Magistrate shall thereupon dispose of the case according to law.

Recovery of arrears of wages.

139. If, upon the complaint of any labourer, it is proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that the wages of such labourer are in arrear for two months, or if the wages of any person whose labour-contract has determined are proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate to have been withheld for any period after such determination, the Magistrate may award to such labourer or person the amount which appears to be then due to him;

Compensation may be given.

and also, by way of compensation, such further sum, not exceeding that amount, as to such Magistrate seems just; and, in case of default in payment of the amount so awarded, the Magistrate shall levy such amount by distress and sale of any moveable property belonging to the employer of such labourer or person.

Power to cancel contract on conviction of employer,

140. Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate—

(a) that any employer, or any person placed by him in authority over any labourer, has been convicted of any offence causing injury to the person, or loss or damage to the property, of such labourer and under the Code of Criminal Procedure triable exclusively by the Court of Session, or

(b) that any employer, or other person as aforesaid, has been twice convicted of any such offence against such labourer and under the said Code triable by a Magistrate, or or if wages are in arrear for more than four months,

(c) that the wages of any labourer are in arrear to an amount exceeding the whole of such labourer's wages for four months, or

(d) that any labourer has been compelled by his employer or by any person placed by his employer in authority over him to perform any labour while he was unfit for it, or has been subjected to ill-usage by his employer or any such person,

Or if ill-usage is proved.

such Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, on the application of the labourer aggrieved, cancel the labour-contract of such labourer, and award to him compensation not exceeding thirty rupees.

Every such cancelment shall be certified by the Magistrate on the back of the labourer's copy of the labour-contract, or, if the same be not forthcoming, by writing under the Magistrate's hand delivered to the labourer.

I.—Determination of Labour-contract.

141. Whenever a labour-contract determines, the employer shall endorse on the labourer's copy of the contract the fact of such determination, or, if such copy be not forthcoming, shall give to the labourer a certificate of such determination; and, if the employer refuses or neglects to do so, the Inspector may, on application by the labourer, make such endorsement or give such certificate.

Endorsement of determination on labour-contract.

The employer shall give to the Inspector notice in writing of such determination within one month from the date thereof.

142. If any labourer is able and desirous to redeem the unexpired term of his labour-contract or of the labour-contract of any member of his family, by payment of a sum equivalent to the value of such unexpired term, such labourer may require his employer to take him, or allow him to go, before the Inspector within the local limits of whose jurisdiction he may be employed; and, on his depositing such sum with such Inspector, the Inspector shall give notice to the employer that the labourer requires him, within one week, to show cause why the labourer, the unexpired term of whose contract is proposed to be redeemed, should not be released from his contract. If no sufficient cause is shown, the Inspector shall require such labourer's copy of the contract to be produced, and on production thereof shall endorse thereon a certificate that he has been released under this section from such contract, or, if such copy be not forthcoming, shall deliver to the labourer a certificate under his hand to that effect; and shall in either case hold the sum so deposited to the credit of the employer of such labourer.

Power to redeem labour-contract.

The value of the unexpired term of a labour-contract shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the aggregate amount of one rupee for every month of the unexpired portion of the first year, of three rupees for every such month of the second year, and of five rupees for every such month of the third, fourth and fifth years of the original term of the contract.

Value of unexpired term of labour-contract.

CHAPTER VII.

SUPPLEMENTARY POWERS.

143. The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act—

Power of the Local Government to make rules.

(a) to define and regulate the powers and duties of the several officers appointed by it under this Act;

(b) to prescribe what returns and reports shall be made under this Act by any such officers or by any contractors or local agents within the territories under its administration and the form in which they shall be respectively so made;

(c) to prescribe the forms of all registers, licenses, certificates and notices required under this Act with respect to the territories under its administration;

(d) to prescribe the particulars to be registered by a Registering officer in respect of each person who is brought before him in any district under its administration for registration as a labourer or dependent;

(e) to prescribe the fees to be paid for any license granted under this Act by any officer appointed by it and for the registration of labourers or dependents in any district under its administration;

(f) to prescribe the conditions upon which any officer appointed by it may grant licenses to masters of vessels carrying passengers to any labour-district; to provide for the ventilation, cleanliness and water-supply of such vessels in respect of which licenses are granted hereunder by any such officer; and to prescribe the lists, returns and reports to be kept and submitted by the masters of such vessels;

(g) to prescribe the description, quantity and quality of provisions, medical drugs and other stores to be taken on board such vessels carrying labourers when such vessels are within the territories under its administration, and the daily allowance to be issued to each labourer and dependent during the journey through such territories; to prescribe the number of officers, cooks and other servants to be carried on board such vessels, and to provide generally for the accommodation of labourers and their dependents on such vessels;

(h) to provide for the accommodation, food, clothing and medical treatment of all labourers and dependents detained on account of sickness by order of a Magistrate at any place within any district under its administration;

(i) to declare the routes through the territories under its administration by which labourers and their dependents shall not travel to the labour-districts;

(j) to prescribe the house-accommodation, water-supply, sanitary arrangements and amount and kind of food-grains to be provided by employers for their labourers, and to regulate the rations to be supplied to labourers under this Act in the labour-districts under its administration;

(k) to provide for the hospital-accommodation and medical treatment of labourers in such labour-districts, and to prescribe the nature, quality and quantity of medical drugs and other stores to be provided for such labourers;

(l) to provide for the management and regulation of contractors' depôts and of hospital-depôts situate within the territories under its administration, and for the support and medical treatment of labourers and their dependents passing through such depôts;

(m) to prescribe the clothing to be supplied to labourers and their dependents while proceeding to the labour-districts through the territories under its administration; and, generally,

(n) to give effect to the provisions of this Act within the districts subject to its administration.

144. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal and the Chief Commissioner of Assam may further respectively make rules consistent with this Act to provide for the detention and inspection of vessels in respect of which licenses are granted hereunder and passengers being natives of India carried thereon while in transit through the territories respectively administered by them.

Special power of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal and Chief Commissioner of Assam.

145. The Local Government may, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, by rule prescribe as a penalty for the infringement of any rule made by it hereunder, or of any provision of this Act for a breach of which a penalty is not expressly provided, a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Power to prescribe penalties.

All rules made under this Act by the Local Government shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Publication of rules.

CHAPTER VIII.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

146. Whoever knowingly induces or assists, or attempts to induce or assist, any native of India to emigrate in contravention of a notification published under section five shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every such native whom he so induces or assists, or attempts to induce or assist.

Inducing native to emigrate in contravention of a notification under section 5.

147. Whoever, being a recruiter,

Recruiter removing, &c., unregistered persons.

removes, or attempts to remove, any person to a depôt before he has been registered under section thirty-two, or induces or attempts to induce him to go to a depôt or to leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Registering officer before whom such person ought to be brought under section thirty-one, or aids or attempts to aid such person in going to a depôt or in leaving any such local limits, before he has been so registered, or induces or attempts to induce any person who has been so registered to proceed to any place other than the depôt which has been established by the contractor on whose behalf such recruiter is licensed, or conveys or attempts to convey him to such place, shall be punished in respect of every such person with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

148. Whoever, being a recruiter or a person deputed by him to accompany labourers to a depôt, fails to provide any labourer or any dependent whom he accompanies on the journey to the depôt with proper and sufficient food and lodging, or otherwise ill-treats such labourer or dependent on such journey, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees; and, in default of payment of such fine within twenty-four hours, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

Recruiter not supplying proper food, &c.

The convicting Magistrate may award the whole or any portion of any fine levied under this section as compensation to the labourer in respect of whom, or of whose dependent, such failure or ill-treatment has occurred.

149. Any labourer engaged by a recruiter and who, having been registered under section thirty-two, without reasonable cause refuses or neglects when at the depôt to execute, within thirty days after his arrival at such depôt, a labour-contract in conformity with the terms made known to him when he was registered, shall be punished with fine which may extend to the amount of the expense incurred in registering him and conveying him to the depôt and maintaining him therein; and, in default of payment of such fine, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

Labourer refusing without reasonable cause to execute contract at depôt.

Any labourer so punished may be forthwith discharged from the depôt.

Every fine levied under this section shall be paid to the contractor, sub-contractor or recruiter by whom such expense was incurred.

150. Any labourer registered under section sixty-six who, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects to execute, within fifteen days from the day on which he was so registered, a labour-contract in conformity with the terms made known to him when he was registered, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees or to the amount of the expense reasonably incurred by the garden-sardár in procuring his registration, whichever amount is least.

Labourer refusing to execute contract with garden-sardár.

Every fine levied under this section shall be paid to the garden-sardár by whom such expense was incurred.

151. Whoever, being a garden-sardár,

Garden-sardár failing to report himself, &c.

fails, within fourteen days after his arrival in the local area within which he is authorized to enter into contracts under this Act, to report himself to the local agent (if any) specified in his certificate, or removes or attempts to remove any person to a labour-district before he has been registered as provided by section sixty-six, or induces or attempts to induce any person to go to a labour-district or to leave the local area specified in the certificate of such sardár before he has been so registered, or aids or attempts to aid him in proceeding to a labour-district or in leaving any such local area before he has been so registered, or fails without sufficient cause to return to his employer within the time specified in his certificate, or fails to account for the money advanced to him by his employer for the purpose of engaging labourers, and whoever being a garden-sardár or a person appointed under section fifty or section seventy-three to accompany labourers to a labour-district wilfully abandons any labourer or his dependent on the way to such district, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

152. Any garden-sardár who makes over to any contractor, sub-contractor or recruiter, or to the garden-sardár or local agent of any employer other than the employer by whom his certificate was granted, any persons engaged as labourers by him, or Garden-sardár making over labourers to contractors, &c.

allows any persons engaged as labourers by any other contractor or sub-contractor or recruiter to share the accommodation provided by him under section fifty-seven, or places any person engaged as a labourer by him in a contractor's depôt or in the place of accommodation provided by a recruiter in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-seven, shall be punished with fine which may extend to ten rupees; and his certificate may be impounded by the convicting Magistrate.

Any Magistrate impounding a certificate under this section shall send it for cancellation to the Magistrate by whom it was countersigned.

153. Any garden-sardár or person appointed by him as provided by section seventy-three, who accompanies labourers to the labour-districts, and fails to present a way-bill as required by section seventy-six or to carry out any of the instructions entered in such way-bill, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Garden-sardár failing to comply with instructions indorsed on way-bill.

154. Any master not licensed under section eighty-nine who, in contravention of section eighty-seven, knowingly receives on board his vessel more than twenty passengers being natives of India, and Master receiving native passengers on board in contravention of Act.

any master licensed as aforesaid who knowingly receives on board his vessel any such passengers in excess of the number specified in his license or in any order of an Embarkation Agent under section ninety-one, for the purpose of transporting them to a labour-district, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for each passenger so received.

Nothing in this section applies to the master of a vessel exempted under section eighty-seven.

155. Any master licensed under section eighty-nine who with intent to defraud does or suffers to be done any act or thing whereby the state of his vessel is altered, so that such vessel is unfit for the accommodation of the number of passengers specified in his license or in any order made under section ninety-one by an Embarkation Agent, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Fraudulent alteration of vessel after grant of license.

156. Any master licensed as aforesaid who proceeds on his voyage with his vessel carrying labourers without having complied with the provisions of section ninety-four shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months.

Master not complying with section 94.

157. Any master licensed as aforesaid who fails to comply with an order of an Embarkation Agent made under section ninety-six shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for each day during which he fails to comply with such order after the day on which the order was received by him.

Master not complying with order under section 96.

158. Any master licensed as aforesaid causing or permitting a labourer finally to leave his vessel contrary to the provisions of section ninety-eight shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for each labourer so leaving his vessel.

Master permitting labourer to leave vessel contrary to section 98.

159. Any master licensed as aforesaid who wilfully omits to comply with the provisions of section ninety-nine shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Master or officer wilfully omitting to stop vessel at certain places.

160. Any person who disobeys any order made under section one hundred and one by a Magistrate shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Person disobeying Magistrate's order as to communication between vessel and land.

161. Any master licensed as aforesaid, or any medical officer in charge of his vessel, who wilfully omits or neglects to obey or enforce on board of such vessel any provision of this Act or any rule made hereunder, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Master or medical officer disobeying or neglecting to enforce rules.

162. Any labourer who, having been registered under section thirty-two or section sixty-six, deserts while on his journey from the district in which he has been so registered to a labour-district, or without reasonable cause refuses or neglects to proceed from the district in which he has been so registered, or to embark in any vessel when called upon to do so by an Embarkation Agent, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months.

Labourer deserting, &c., after registration.

163. Any employer who refuses or wilfully omits to keep such registers, or to make such periodical returns in writing to the Inspector, as may be prescribed by any rule made hereunder, or who knowingly keeps an incorrect register or makes an incorrect return, or who wilfully omits to prepare, file or stick up a schedule as required by section one hundred and fifteen, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer refusing or omitting to keep registers, &c.

164. Any employer, or any person acting under his orders or on his behalf, who wilfully obstructs any entry, inspection or inquiry made under section one hundred and fourteen shall for every such offence be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer or other person obstructing inspection under section 114.

165. Any employer, or any person acting under his orders or on his behalf, who compels any labourer to perform any labour, knowing that he is at the time unfit to perform such labour, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer or other person compelling labourer to perform labour for which he is unfit.

166. Any person who buys the rations which have been furnished under section one hundred and twenty-five to any labourer, and any labourer who sells any such rations, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

Persons buying labourer's rations.

167. Any employer who wilfully omits to provide house-accommodation, water-supply, sanitary arrangements, food-grains or rations in accordance with the provisions of this Act or any rule made hereunder, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees; and the convicting Magistrate may order him to comply with such provisions within a reasonable time to be fixed in the order.

If the employer wilfully omits to comply with such order within the time so fixed, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which such omission continues.

If the employer fails to pay the last-mentioned fine, the person on whose account he has been acting shall be liable to pay such fine.

Employer omitting to provide house-accommodation, &c.

168. Any employer who fails to provide such hospital-accommodation for, or to make such provision for the medical care and treatment of, labourers, as is required by any rule made under this Act, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for each week during which such default continues.

Employer neglecting to provide hospital-accommodation.

169. Where any estate or portion thereof has been found under section one hundred and twenty-nine, or declared under section one hundred and thirty-two, unfit for the residence of labourers or any class of labourers, as the case may be, every employer who, until a certificate has been given under section one hundred and thirty-three, causes or permits such labourers or class of labourers to reside or labour upon such estate or portion, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer causing labourer to reside on estate declared unfit.

170. Every employer may, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, send to the Inspector a statement in writing containing the names of all or any of his labourers who, voluntarily and without reasonable cause, absented themselves from labour during the preceding month, and specifying the periods of such absence. When any employer sends any such statement in writing, he shall at the same time notify to each labourer concerned the fact that he has done so.

Any Inspector who receives any such statement shall, when next visiting the estate on which the labourers to whom such statement relates are employed, inquire into each such case of absence, in the presence of the labourer concerned, and, if satisfied that the labourer has voluntarily and without reasonable cause absented himself, shall, unless the labourer consents to forfeit to his employer the sum of four annas for each such day of absence, endorse such days of absence on the labour-contract of such labourer, and add them to the term of such contract.

Unlawful absence from work.

171. Any labourer who, voluntarily and without reasonable cause, absents himself from his labour for more than seven consecutive days, or for more than seven days in any one month, shall be liable to forfeit his wages for the period of such absence, and to pay to his employer a sum not exceeding four annas for each such day of absence, and shall also be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen days; and in case such absence has extended to twenty days in any two consecutive months, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

Explanation.—Ill-treatment of such labourer by his employer, or failure of the employer to fulfil any condition of the labour-contract binding on the employer, is reasonable cause within the meaning of section one hundred and seventy and this section.

Labourer absent without cause.

172. If any labourer deserts from his employer's service, such employer, or any person acting on his behalf, may, without a warrant and without the assistance of any police-officer, arrest such labourer wherever he may be found: Provided that, if such labourer be found within five miles of the place where a Magistrate resides or in the service of another employer, he shall not be arrested without warrant.

Every police-officer shall assist in arresting any such labourer if so required by the employer or person acting on his behalf.

Whoever arrests a labourer under this section shall without delay take him to the police-station nearest to the place of the arrest; and if he fails to do so shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Deserter may be apprehended without warrant.

173. The police-officer in charge of such station shall on the appearance of the parties take down in writing the statement of the person arresting the labourer, and shall then forthwith send the labourer to the nearest Magistrate.

Such Magistrate shall either inquire into and dispose of the case himself, or, if the estate of the employer from whose service the labourer deserted is not situate within the local limits of such Magistrate's jurisdiction, he shall forward the labourer to the Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such estate is situate.

The Magistrate to whom the labourer is forwarded shall dispose of the case according to law.

Procedure at police-station.

174. Whenever an employer or a person acting on his behalf complains to a Magistrate that a labourer has deserted from his employer's service, such Magistrate may, without previously examining the complainant, issue a summons for the attendance of such labourer, or a warrant for his arrest, and fix a day for hearing the complaint.

Procedure on complaint of desertion.

175. Every labourer who deserts from his employer's service shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month. For a second conviction for a like offence he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months. For a third and every subsequent conviction for a like offence he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months.

Punishment for desertion.

176. If it appears to the Magistrate trying a labourer for deserting from his employer's service that such labourer was arrested without sufficient cause, such Magistrate may impose a fine, which may extend to fifty rupees, on the employer or person acting on his behalf by whom, or at whose instance, such labourer was arrested. The Magistrate may in his sentence direct that the whole or any part of such fine be paid by way of compensation to the labourer so arrested.

Compensation for wrongful arrest.

177. Whenever any labourer has actually suffered imprisonment for terms amounting in the whole to six months for desertion from his employer's service, the Inspector shall cancel the labour-contract of such labourer, and shall endorse on his copy of the contract a certificate of such cancellation; or, if such copy be not forthcoming, he shall give to the labourer a written certificate of such cancellation.

Cancellation of contract by desertion.

178. Any labourer guilty of habitual drunkenness, or wilfully disregarding any sanitary regulation approved by the Inspector and duly notified for the guidance of the labourers on the estate on which such labourer is employed, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five rupees or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one week.

Penalty for drunkenness or neglect of sanitary regulations.

179. The employer of any labourer sentenced to imprisonment for any offence under this Act, or any person authorized to act in this behalf for such employer, may apply to the Magistrate, at any time previous to the expiry of such sentence, that such labourer be made over to him for the purpose of completing his labour-contract. On such application being made, the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, order that such labourer be made over or forwarded to his employer; and in that case such Magistrate shall cancel the remainder of the sentence passed on the labourer, and shall endorse on his copy of the labour-contract a certificate of such cancellation, or, if such copy be not forthcoming, shall give him a written certificate of such cancellation.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of section one hundred and seventy-seven.

Portion of sentence may be cancelled on application of employer.

180. Every employer who obtains an order of a Magistrate for the making over or forwarding of any labourer shall be liable to defray the expense (if any) incurred in such making over or forwarding; and shall, before the order is issued, deposit with the Magistrate a sum sufficient in the Magistrate's opinion to defray such expense.

Expense of forwarding labourer to be paid by employer.

181. On the expiry of any sentence of imprisonment for any offence under this Act, the Magistrate shall, subject to the provisions of section one hundred and seventy-seven, make over such labourer to any person appointed on the part of his employer to take charge of him; and no conviction under this Act, or imprisonment under such conviction, shall, save as aforesaid, operate as a release to any labourer from the terms of his labour-contract:

Conviction not to operate as a release.

If no person is present on the part of the employer to take charge of the labourer at the expiry of his sentence, the Magistrate shall forward such labourer to the principal place of business of his employer situate within the local limits of such Magistrate's jurisdiction, and the expense of such forwarding shall be recoverable from such employer as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

182. When any labourer is convicted under section one hundred and seventy-one of absence from labour or is sentenced to imprisonment for an offence under this Act, the Magistrate so convicting or sentencing him shall endorse on the employer's copy of the labour-contract the period during which such labourer is convicted of being absent from his labour, or the term for which he is sentenced to imprisonment, or both, as the case may be.

Time of unlawful absence or imprisonment to be excluded from contract period.

The period so endorsed shall be added to the term for which such labourer contracted to serve; and such labourer shall not be deemed to have performed his labour-contract till he has served for the term specified therein in addition to the period so endorsed.

183. Whoever, knowing that any labourer is bound by his labour-contract to labour for any employer, voluntarily entices or attempts to entice such labourer to leave such employer, or harbours or employs any such labourer who has, in contravention of the terms of his labour-contract, left his employer, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both.

Other person enticing away, harbouring or employing labourer under labour-contract.

The convicting Magistrate may in his discretion award to the employer with whom such labourer has contracted the whole or any part of any fine levied under this section.

184. Whoever, being bound by section one hundred and thirty-four to send any labourer before, or to give notice of any complaint to, an Inspector or Magistrate, refuses or neglects so to send such labourer, or to give such notice, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer or other person neglecting to send labourer before Magistrate as provided by section 134.

185. Any employer who—

Employer refusing to endorse labour-contract, &c., as required by section 141.

refuses or wilfully neglects to endorse the labourer's copy of his contract as required by section one hundred and forty-one, or detains a labourer after the determination of his labour-contract, or fails to give to the Inspector notice in writing of such determination within one month of the date thereof, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

186. Any employer or person acting for an employer who refuses or neglects to comply with the request of a labourer made under section one hundred and forty-two shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Employer or other person neglecting to comply with request of labourer wishing to redeem unexpired term.

187. Whoever abets within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code any offence against this Act or any rule made hereunder shall be punished with the punishment provided for such offence.

Abetment.

188. Whoever commits any offence against this Act or any rule made hereunder shall be triable for such offence in any place in which he may be found as well as in any other place in which he might be tried under any law for the time being in force.

Place of trial for offences.

189. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence against this Act or the rules made hereunder, or from being liable under any other law to any penalty higher than that provided by this Act for such offence: Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Saving of prosecutions under other laws.

CHAPTER IX.

MISCELLANEOUS.

190. All arrears of wages due under any labour-contract shall be a charge upon the estate upon which the labourer to whom such labour-contract relates has been engaged to labour; or if he has engaged to labour upon any one of several estates managed by the same employer, shall be a charge upon that one of such estates upon which such labourer for the time being actually labours.

Wages due under labour-contract a charge upon estate.

191. Whenever an estate on which any labourer has under this Act contracted to labour is transferred by act of parties or operation of law, or devolves, the person to whom it is so transferred or on whom it devolves shall be bound by the labour-contract of such labourer in the same manner and to the same extent as the person by or from whom it is transferred or devolves would have been bound by such contract, and shall have the same rights and remedies under such contract as such person would have had thereunder, if the estate had not been transferred or had not devolved.

Owner of estate for time being has all rights and remedies in respect of labour-contracts charged on it.

No person who has ceased to be the owner of the estate upon which any labourer has under this Act contracted to labour shall be liable in respect of any breach of the labour-contract of such labourer which occurs after he has ceased to be such owner.

Determination of ownership determines liability.

192. Subject to the power of a Magistrate under this Act or the Code of Criminal Procedure to award fines in whole or in part as compensation to or for the benefit of any complainant or other person, the Local Government shall credit all fines, fees and rates levied and paid under this Act in the territories under its administration to a fund which shall be called the "Inland Labour Transport Fund;" and such fund shall be at the disposal of such Local Government, in such manner as the Government of India may direct, for paying the salaries and allowances of all officers and establishments appointed under this Act by such Local Government and their pensionary and leave allowances, and generally for defraying the expenses of carrying out the purposes of this Act and the rules of the Local Government made hereunder. The annual surplus accruing in such fund shall be applied to reducing the annual rate or the registration-fees leviable under this Act, and not otherwise.

Fines, fees and rates to be credited to "Inland Labour Transport Fund."

193. All sums heretofore expended on roads or other communications by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal out of the Inland Labour Transport Fund constituted by the said Bengal Act No. VII of 1873 shall be deemed to have been expended in accordance with law.

Expenditure on roads legalized.

194. An Assistant Inspector shall perform all such duties and exercise all such powers of an Inspector as he is authorized in writing by the Inspector to perform or exercise.

Duty of Assistant Inspector.

195. All powers conferred by this Act on the Local Government or on any Superintendent, Medical Inspector, Emigration Agent or other officer may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Powers of Local Government and officers exercisable from time to time.

"Labour-contract": "Labour-contract" means a contract entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Act to labour for hire in a labour-district, otherwise than as a domestic servant:

"Labourer": "Labourer" means any person bound by a contract under the provisions of the said Bengal Act No. VII of 1873 or by a labour-contract under the provisions of this Act. And it also includes any person registered under section thirty-two or section sixty-six as a labourer:

"Estate": "Estate" means the land upon which any labourers or more than fifty other persons have been engaged to labour:

"Employer": "Employer" means the chief person for the time being in charge of any estate upon which labourers or more than fifty other persons are employed:

"Emigrate": "Emigrate" denotes the departure of any native of India of the age of sixteen years or upwards (other than a native of a labour-district) from any part of the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, not being a labour-district, or from the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioner of Oudh, for the purpose of labouring for hire in a labour-district otherwise than as a domestic servant:

"Dependent": "Dependent" means any woman (not being a labourer), any child, and any aged or incapacitated relative or friend accompanying any labourer with the consent of a contractor, sub-contractor, recruiter, local agent or garden-sardár:

"Vessel": "Vessel" includes anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or property:

"Master": "Master" means the person for the time being in charge of a vessel:

"Writing" and "written": "Writing" and "written" include "printing" and "lithography."

Words to be understood as defined in Contract Act: And all words defined in the Indian Contract Act, 1872, and used in this Act, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them by that Act.

Power to exempt labour-district: 4. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that any labour-district within the territories administered by such Government shall, from a day specified in such notification, cease to be subject to all the provisions or any specified provision of this Act; and from such day such labour-district shall cease to be subject to the provisions of this Act or to the provision so specified, as the case may be.

Local Government may prohibit emigration to any labour-district or part thereof: 5. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, prohibit, from a day specified in such notification, all natives of India, or any specified class of such natives, from emigrating from the whole or any specified part of the territories under its administration, to any labour-district or to any specified portion of any such district.

The Local Government may with the like sanction in like manner vary or cancel any such notification.

Notification under sections 4 and 5 not to affect prior acts, &c.: 6. The publication of a notification under section four or section five shall not affect any act done, offence committed or proceedings commenced before such publication.

Saving of free emigration and of ordinary contract law: 7. Save as provided by section five, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prohibit any native of India from emigrating to, or entering into a contract to labour in, a labour-district otherwise than under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of officers: 8. The Local Government may appoint, either by name or by virtue of their office, so many persons as it thinks necessary to be Superintendents of Emigration, Registering officers, Embarkation Agents, Debarkation Agents, Inspectors of Labourers, Assistant Inspectors of Labourers and Medical Inspectors under this Act respectively, and, with respect to any such officer, may, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, declare the local area situate in the territories subject to its administration within which he shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him by this Act or any rule made hereunder.

The Local Government may suspend or remove any persons whom it so appoints.

Every person so appointed shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

CHAPTER II.

LABOUR-CONTRACTS GENERALLY.

Essentials of labour-contract: 9. Every labour-contract shall be in writing, and shall be executed in duplicate on substantial paper. Every such contract shall specify—

(a) the names of the labourer and his employer;

(b) the term for which the labourer is to labour;

(c) his monthly wages in money and the price at which rice is to be supplied to him;

(d) the labour-district in which, and, if the labourer so request, the estate on which, he is to labour.

Every such contract shall be in the form prescribed in the schedule hereto annexed.

No such contract shall be made for a term exceeding five years, commencing from the date of its execution; or shall stipulate for a less rate of monthly wages for a completed daily task regulated in accordance with the provisions of this Act than five rupees in the case of a man and four rupees in the case of a woman for the first three years of the term of the contract, or six rupees in the case of a man and five rupees in the case of a woman for the fourth and fifth years of such term.

No contract made in contravention of, or not in accordance with, the provisions of this section shall be enforceable under this Act as a labour-contract against the labourer entering into it.

If contract does not specify estate, labourer to be deemed to have contracted to labour on any estate in charge of employer and situate in labour-district.

10. Unless the labour-contract specifies the particular estate on which the labourer is to labour, the labourer shall be deemed to have contracted to labour on any estate in charge of the employer for whom he has contracted to labour, and situate in the labour-district specified in the contract:

Provided that no labourer shall, without his own consent, be separated from his dependents (if any) or from any other labourer who is the wife, husband, son or daughter of such labourer.

Persons of sixteen years of age may contract to emigrate.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Indian Contract Act, 1872, it shall be lawful for any person of the age of sixteen years or upwards to enter into a labour-contract.

CHAPTER III.

RECRUITING BY CONTRACTORS, SUB-CONTRACTORS AND RECRUITERS.

A.—Contractors and Sub-contractors.

Superintendent may license contractors.

12. Any Superintendent specially empowered in this behalf by the Local Government may grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be contractors within the whole or any part of the local area for which such Superintendent has been appointed. He may also, on the application of any contractor, grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be sub-contractors on behalf of such contractor, within the whole or any part of the local area for which such contractor is licensed.

Superintendent may license sub-contractors.

Form of, and fee for, contractor's and sub-contractor's licenses.

13. Every license to a contractor or sub-contractor shall be in such form, and subject to the payment of such fee, not exceeding, in the case of a contractor, one hundred rupees, and in the case of a sub-contractor, fifty rupees, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Period for which contractor's and sub-contractor's license to remain in force.

14. No such license shall be granted for a longer period than one year from the date thereof, and, if the licensee fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any such license may at any time be cancelled by the Superintendent who granted the same.

Appeal against order cancelling license.

A contractor or sub-contractor may, within one month from the date of any order of a Superintendent cancelling his license, appeal against such order to the Local Government.

The order of the Local Government on such appeal shall be final.

Duties of contractors.

15. Every contractor, in addition to the special duties herein assigned to him, shall afford such information to the Superintendent and furnish him with such returns and reports as he may, subject to any rules which may be framed by the Local Government in this behalf, require.

Sub-contractor may be licensed to represent more than one contractor.

16. A sub-contractor may be licensed to act on behalf of more than one contractor:

Provided that he obtains a separate license in the case of each contractor for whom he desires to act.

Contractor or sub-contractor may act as recruiter.

17. A contractor or sub-contractor may act as a recruiter, and shall, when so acting, be subject to all the provisions hereinafter contained relating to recruiters.

Liability of contractors for sub-contractors' and recruiters' acts and defaults.

18. Every contractor shall be liable for the acts and defaults as a sub-contractor or recruiter of any person licensed to be a sub-contractor or recruiter on his behalf, and shall be bound to make good all payments which, under this Act or any rule made hereunder, any such person is ordered to make.

The Superintendent may cancel the license of any contractor whenever the license of any person so licensed on his behalf is liable to be cancelled under this Act.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to render a contractor criminally liable for any act or default on the part of any person licensed to be a sub-contractor or recruiter on his behalf.

Contractor to establish depôts.

19. Every contractor shall establish and maintain, at such places as the Local Government may direct, suitable depôts for the reception and lodging, previous to their despatch to the labour-districts, of labourers engaged by him or by sub-contractors or recruiters licensed to act on his behalf, and shall provide at his own expense all necessary food, clothing and medical treatment for such labourers during their stay at such depôts.

Inspection and supervision of depôts.

20. No such depôt shall be used for the reception and lodging of labourers until it has been inspected and approved of by the Superintendent and the Medical Inspector. Every such depôt shall be under the supervision of the Superintendent, the Magistrate of the district or such other officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf, and shall be open at all times to inspection by the Superintendent, the Magistrate of the district or such officer, and by the Medical Inspector.

Whenever the Superintendent considers that any such depôt is unhealthy, or has become unsuitable for the purpose for which it was established, he may by order in writing prohibit the using of such depôt for the reception and lodging of labourers.

Establishment of hospital-depôts.

21. In addition to the depôts hereinbefore provided for, the Local Government may establish a separate hospital-depôt for the reception of labourers suffering from any dangerously infectious or contagious disease.

Contractor to contribute towards establishment and maintenance of hospital-depôt.

22. Whenever any such hospital-depôt is established by any Local Government, such Government may require any contractor having a depôt in the neighbourhood of such hospital-depôt to contribute to the expense of the establishment and maintenance of such hospital-depot such reasonable sum as it may direct. Such sum may be recovered as an arrear of land-revenue due from any contractor so required.

Every hospital-depôt so established shall be under the charge of a medical officer appointed by the Local Government. Any Medical Inspector may direct the transfer of any labourer from a depôt established within the local limits of his jurisdiction to a hospital-depôt established within such local limits.

B.—Recruiters.

Superintendent may license recruiters.

23. Any Superintendent empowered in this behalf by the Local Government may, on the application of any contractor or of any sub-contractor acting on behalf of a contractor, grant to such persons as he thinks fit licenses to be recruiters on behalf of such contractor within the whole or any specified part of the local area for which such contractor has been licensed.

Form of, and fee for, recruiter's license.

24. Every license to a recruiter shall be in such form and subject to the payment of such fee, not exceeding sixteen rupees, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Period for which license is granted.

25. No such license shall be granted for a longer period than one year from the date thereof; and if the licensee fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any such license may be cancelled by the Superintendent who granted the same.

Recruiter must hold a certificate.

26. Every recruiter shall hold a certificate in writing authorizing him to act as such and signed by the contractor or sub-contractor on whose application he was licensed.

Countersignature of recruiter's license.

27. No recruiter shall in any local area engage or attempt to engage any person as a labourer unless such recruiter's license bears the countersignature of a Magistrate having jurisdiction throughout such local area.

No such Magistrate shall countersign a recruiter's license unless and until he has satisfied himself by such enquiry as he thinks fit that the licensee is not by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a recruiter under this Act, that he holds the certificate mentioned in section twenty-six, and that sufficient and proper accommodation has been provided in a suitable place and is available for such labourers, or persons intending to become labourers, as may be collected by such recruiter pending their removal to a depôt.

Magistrate to supervise accommodation.

28. Every Magistrate shall have, for the supervision, inspection and regulation of the place situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction where such accommodation is provided, the same powers as are by this Act conferred on the Superintendent in respect of depôts.

Any Magistrate of a district or division of a district may authorize any Magistrate subordinate to him, or any officer of police above the rank of sub-inspector, to visit and inspect such place at any time; and all recruiters or other persons in charge of such place shall afford to subordinate Magistrates and officers of police so authorized every facility for making such visits and inspections.

Magistrate may cancel countersignature in certain cases.

29. If any Magistrate who has countersigned a recruiter's license afterwards finds reason to think that the licensee is by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a recruiter under this Act, or that the accommodation provided under section twenty-seven has become insufficient or improper or has ceased to be available, or that the place in which it is provided has become unsuitable, he may require the licensee to produce his license and may cancel his countersignature thereon, or he may impound the license and report it for cancellation to the Superintendent who granted the same.

Notice to Superintendent of refusal to counterSign or cancelation.

Every Magistrate refusing to countersign a recruiter's license or cancelling his countersignature or cancelation thereon shall at once report such refusal or cancelation and the grounds thereof to the Superintendent who granted such license.

C.—Procedure before Arrival at Depôt.

Intending labourer to be taken for examination to medical officer.

30. Every recruiter who desires to engage any person as a labourer shall cause such person to appear with such person before such medical officer as the Local Government may appoint to examine such persons within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate by whom such recruiter's license was countersigned, or, if no such officer has been appointed, before such medical officer as the Registering officer, before whom such person is to be taken for registration as hereinafter provided, may direct.

The medical officer shall thereupon examine such person, and shall, if satisfied that he is in a fit state of health and able in point of physical condition to proceed to the labour-district in which he intends to labour, give him a certificate to that effect.

If certified to be fit, intending labourer to be brought before Registering officer.

31. Every person who obtains a certificate under section thirty, together with such persons about to proceed to a labour-district as his dependents, shall thereupon be brought by the recruiter before the Registering officer having jurisdiction within the local area for which such recruiter is licensed. The recruiter shall at the same time produce and show his license to such Registering officer.

Intending labourer to be examined by Registering officer.

32. The Registering officer shall thereupon inspect the certificate given under section thirty, and the license of the recruiter, and, if he finds that such certificate has been duly given and that the recruiter is duly licensed, shall then examine such person, with reference to his intended labour-contract, and explain the same to him.

Intending labourer to be registered.

If it appears that such person is competent to enter into such contract, and understands the same as regards the locality, period and nature of the service, and the rate of wages and the price at which rice is to be supplied to him, that the terms thereof are in accordance with law, that he has not been induced to agree to enter thereinto by any coercion, undue influence, fraud, misrepresentation or mistake, and that he is willing to fulfil the same, the Registering officer shall register in a book to be kept for the purpose such particulars regarding him and the persons (if any) whom he wishes to have registered as his dependents as the Local Government may by rule prescribe; and the labourer and his dependents (if any) shall thereupon be deemed to be registered under this Act.

Copy of registration to be given to labourer.

33. The Registering officer shall furnish to the person so registered a certified copy of such particulars written on substantial paper.

Copy of registration and medical certificate to be sent to Superintendent.

34. Every officer registering any person under section thirty-two shall forthwith forward a certified copy of such particulars and the original certificate of the medical officer regarding him to the Superintendent having jurisdiction over the depôt to which such person is to proceed.

Fee for registration.

35. For every such person produced before a Registering officer for the purpose of being registered as a labourer the recruiter shall pay to the officer such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Recruiter when to remove person to depôt.

36. No recruiter shall remove or attempt to remove any person to a depôt, or induce or attempt to induce him to go to a depôt, or to leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Registering officer before whom such person ought to be brought under section thirty-one, or aid or attempt to aid him in going to a depôt, or leaving any such local limits, unless and until such person has been registered under section thirty-two.

Conveyance of labourer to depôt.

37. Every labourer shall, after he has been registered under section thirty-two, be conveyed with all convenient despatch by the recruiter by whom he has been engaged to the depôt established by the contractor on whose behalf such recruiter has been licensed.

Recruiter to accompany labourer or depute person approved by Registering officer.

All labourers shall, while proceeding to the depôt, be accompanied throughout the journey either by the recruiter himself, or by a competent person deputed by him with the approval of the Registering officer by whom such labourers have been registered. The Registering officer shall give to the person so deputed a certificate under his signature, stating that he has been deputed for the journey to the depôt.

Recruiter must provide food and lodging for labourer on journey.

38. Every recruiter or person deputed by him as aforesaid shall, throughout the journey to the depôt, provide such labourer and his dependents (if any) with proper and sufficient food and lodging.

D.—Procedure at Contractors' Depôts.

Contractor to report arrival of labourer.

39. Within twenty-four hours after a labourer arrives at a depôt, the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained, or the person in charge thereof, shall give to the Superintendent, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such depôt is situate, a notice in writing of such arrival, which notice shall be in such form, and shall contain such particulars, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Duties of Medical Inspector.

40. The Medical Inspector shall, as soon as may be after the labourer arrives at the depôt, examine such labourer and his dependents (if any) to ascertain that they are in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which they intend to proceed.

The Medical Inspector shall give a certificate to the Superintendent stating whether he is or is not satisfied of the fitness of the labourer and his dependents (if any) to undertake such journey.

If certificate of fitness granted, labourer to enter into labour-contract.

41. If the Medical Inspector gives a certificate of fitness under section forty with respect to any labourer, and in the opinion of the Superintendent there is no valid reason why such labourer should not enter into a labour-contract, such labourer and the employer with whom he intends to contract, or the agent of such employer, shall, within thirty days after the arrival of the labourer at the depôt, execute a labour-contract in the presence of the Superintendent.

Contract to be explained to labourer by Superintendent.

42. Before the labourer executes such contract, the Superintendent shall personally explain it to him, and shall, after the same has been executed by such labourer and his employer, or the agent of such employer, attest such contract and certify at the foot thereof that he has personally explained the same to the labourer.

Abstract to be made of contract, and copies of contract given to labourer and employer.

An abstract of every such contract shall be entered in a register to be kept by the Superintendent for the purpose; and after such abstract has been so entered, one copy of the contract shall be given to the labourer and the other to his employer or his employer's agent.

Power to cancel contract and order payment of expenses home of labourer in certain cases.

43. In the following cases (namely) :—

(a) where the Medical Inspector, on making the examination required by section forty, or at any subsequent time during the stay at the depôt of any labourer, finds that such labourer is or has become unfit to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, and the Superintendent considers that such labourer has not dishonestly represented himself as fit to undertake such journey, or

(b) where the Superintendent finds that any such irregularity has occurred in the recruitment or treatment by the recruiter of any such labourer as makes it just to refuse to permit a labour-contract to be executed or to rescind such contract if executed, or

(c) where the contractor on whose behalf or by whom the labourer has been registered does not within thirty days after the arrival of such labourer at the depôt tender to him a labour-contract for execution under section forty-one, or the employer or his agent refuses or neglects to execute such contract as required by that section, the Superintendent may cancel the labour-contract executed by such labourer, and in that case, or if no labour-contract has been executed, may order the contractor at once to pay such labourer such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him to return to the place at which he was registered, and such further sum by way of compensation as the Superintendent thinks reasonable; and may take any other steps he thinks necessary for the conveyance of such labourer to such place.

Labourer when to be lodged, &c., at depôt till he can return home.

44. Any labourer who from his state of health is, in the opinion of the Medical Inspector, unfit to undertake such return-journey, shall be entitled to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the depôt at the expense of the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained, until he is reported by the Medical Inspector to be fit to undertake such return-journey.

Contractor omitting to provide food, &c., for labourer.

If such contractor negligently or wilfully omits to provide food, lodging, clothing or medical treatment for such labourer, the Superintendent may order the contractor at once to pay such reasonable sum as is necessary to provide such food, lodging, clothing or medical treatment.

Like provisions in case of dependents and relatives.

45. When an order is made under section forty-three with reference to any labourer, any person registered as his dependent, or any labourer being the wife, husband, son or daughter of such labourer, may claim—

(a) to be conveyed at the expense of the contractor with such labourer to the place at which he was registered, and

(b) if such labourer is unable to travel, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated in the depôt at the expense of the contractor until such labourer is able to travel;

and the Superintendent may include such expenses in an order made under section forty-three or section forty-four with respect to such labourer.

Compensation to labourer for ill-treatment on the journey.

46. If, upon the arrival of any labourer at a depôt, it appears that during the journey to the depôt such labourer or any person registered as his dependent has suffered any ill-treatment at the hands of the recruiter or person deputed by him to accompany such labourer, or that such recruiter or such person has failed to provide the labourer or any person registered as his dependent with proper and sufficient food and lodging, the Superintendent may order the contractor by whom such depôt is maintained to pay such labourer a reasonable sum by way of compensation.

Procedure when dependent declared unfit to proceed to labour-district.

47. If the Medical Inspector has reason to think that any person registered as the dependent of a labourer is not in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which the labourer whose dependent he is intends to proceed, the Medical Inspector shall so certify to the Superintendent to whom notice of the arrival of such labourer was given. The provisions of sections forty-three and forty-four shall thereupon apply to such dependent as if he were a labourer, and the Superintendent may make such orders regarding him as he may make under those sections with regard to a labourer.

Labourer and relatives entitled to be returned with dependent.

Failure of contractor to pay sums ordered to be paid under section 43, 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48.

49. On failure of the contractor for twenty-four hours to comply with an order of the Superintendent to pay any sum ordered to be paid under section forty-three, section forty-four, section forty-five, section forty-six, section forty-seven or section forty-eight, the Superintendent may pay the same to or on behalf of the labourer or dependent.

Every sum so paid shall be recoverable from the contractor with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the date of payment.

No further proof shall be required by any Court in any such case than that the Superintendent gave the contractor an order to pay such sum, and that the contractor for twenty-four hours failed to comply with such order.

Provisions for way-bill.

50. All labourers despatched from a contractor's depôt to a labour-district shall during their journey be accompanied by a person appointed by such contractor. Such person shall take with him a way-bill in such form and containing such particulars and instructions as the Local Government may prescribe.

He shall also present such way-bill at all such places and to all such officers as may be thereupon indicated: and shall carry out all instructions contained therein for his guidance.

CHAPTER IV.

RECRUITING BY GARDEN-SARDÁRS AND LOCAL AGENTS.

51. Any employer may grant to any person a certificate authorizing him, within such local area as may be specified in such certificate, to enter into labour-contracts with persons desirous of becoming labourers upon any estate of which such employer is in charge.

Employer may grant certificate to garden-sardár.

Every person to whom such certificate has been granted is hereinafter called a garden-sardár.

If any labourer is granted a certificate under this section, his employment as a garden-sardár shall be deemed to be employment under his labour-contract.

52. Every such certificate shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as the Local Government of the territories in which it is granted may prescribe in this behalf.

Form and particulars to be contained in such certificate.

Any employer granting a certificate to a garden-sardár may, before such certificate is accepted and signed as hereinafter provided, specify therein the name of the local agent (if any) to whom such garden-sardár is to report himself for orders, and the time within which he is to return to such employer, and any other instructions for his conduct that he may think proper.

53. Every such certificate shall be accepted and signed by the garden-sardár in the presence of the Inspector or a Magistrate having jurisdiction over the place where the employer granting such certificate resides.

Certificate to be accepted and signed in presence of Inspector or Magistrate.

54. Such Inspector or Magistrate shall inquire into the facts stated in such certificate; and upon being satisfied of the truth of the statement shall, unless it appears to him that the person so accepting and signing such certificate is by character or from any other cause unfitted to be a garden-sardár, countersign and date such certificate.

Inspector or Magistrate to countersign certificate.

55. On the application of the employer by whom any certificate so countersigned has been granted to a garden-sardár, such Inspector or Magistrate may, without requiring the appearance of the garden-sardár or making the inquiry prescribed by section fifty-four, countersign a fresh certificate to be granted by such employer to such garden-sardár in renewal of any existing certificate.

Provision for grant of fresh certificate.

Every such fresh certificate shall be forwarded by the Inspector or Magistrate countersigning it to the Magistrate of the district in which the garden-sardár to whom it is granted is employed; and such sardár shall, on receiving notice from such Magistrate, appear before him and accept and sign such fresh certificate in his presence.

Such fresh certificate to be forwarded to Magistrate of district where garden-sardár is employed.

and to be accepted and signed by garden-sardár.

56. No certificate granted to a garden-sardár shall come into force unless and until it has been accepted and signed by the garden-sardár and countersigned by the Inspector or Magistrate, and no such certificate shall continue in force for a longer period than one year from the date of its countersignature.

Certificate when to come into force.

57. Every garden-sardár shall provide sufficient and proper accommodation in a suitable place for such labourers, or persons intending to become labourers, as may be collected by him pending their removal to a labour-district.

Accommodation to be provided by garden-sardár.

The Magistrate of a district or of a division of a district, or a Magistrate subordinate to him, or an officer of police above the rank of sub-inspector authorized by him in this behalf, shall visit and inspect such accommodation; and all garden-sardárs or other persons in charge of such places shall afford to such Magistrate, Subordinate Magistrate or officer of police every facility for making such visits and inspections.

In every such place the garden-sardár providing the accommodation shall make such sanitary arrangements as the Local Government may prescribe.

58. Whenever a garden-sardár contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder, or is guilty of any other misconduct, any Magistrate, Superintendent or Inspector, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such garden-sardár is employed, may cancel his certificate.

Certificate may be cancelled in certain cases.

B.—Local Agents.

59. Any Superintendent authorized in this behalf by the Local Government may, on the application of any employer, grant licenses to persons to be local agents for the purpose of representing such employer within such local area and for such period as such employer may desire: Provided that no contractor shall be licensed as a local agent.

Local agents may be licensed.

60. A local agent may within such local area represent his employer in all matters connected with the engagement of labourers; and shall furnish such information and make such returns as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Powers and duties of local agents.

61. The Superintendent authorized as aforesaid may, on the application of any employer other than the employer on whose application a local agent has been licensed, make an order in writing permitting such agent to become the local agent of such additional employer within the local area for which he was licensed. The Superintendent making such order shall forthwith send a copy thereof to the Magistrate of the district in which such agent resides; and such Magistrate shall, on the agent's application, insert in his license the name of such additional employer.

Local agent may represent more than one employer.

62. Any Superintendent authorized as aforesaid may, with the consent of all the employers of a local agent, grant a special license to such agent, permitting him to engage on behalf of any employer specified in such special license, but without the intervention of a garden-sardár, persons to be labourers.

Local agent may be specially licensed to contract direct with labourers.

Every agent when so engaging persons to be labourers may, if he thinks fit, appear with them for registration before a Registering officer, and require them when so registered to execute a labour-contract, and in such case shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a garden-sardár.

63. When any garden-sardár to whom a certificate has been granted under this Act by any employer commits any offence punishable under this Act, any local agent of such employer may prosecute the sardár for such offence.

Local agent may prosecute garden-sardár.

64. The Magistrate of any district within which a local agent acts as such may by order cancel the license of such local agent if the employer so require, or if it is shown to the satisfaction of such Magistrate that such local agent has—

On what grounds local agent's license may be cancelled.

(a) employed any contractor's recruiter to engage on his behalf persons to be labourers; or

(b) permitted persons engaged as labourers by or on behalf of any contractor to use the accommodation provided for the persons engaged as labourers by any garden-sardár under such local agent's control; or

(c) allowed any garden-sardár under his control to transfer persons engaged as labourers by such sardár to contractors or to their recruiters or to any employer other than the employer by whom such sardár's certificate was granted; or

(d) himself taken over persons engaged as labourers by any garden-sardár with intent to despatch them to any employer other than the employer by whom such sardár's certificate was granted.

An appeal shall lie to the Local Government from any order made under this section, clause (a), (b), (c) or (d). Such appeal must be presented within three months next after the date of the order, and the decision of the Local Government thereon shall be final.

C.—Procedure to be followed by Garden-sardár.

65. Every garden-sardár who desires to engage any person as a labourer shall appear with such person, together with any persons about to proceed to a labour-district as dependents of such person, before the Registering officer having jurisdiction within the local area specified in the certificate of such sardár.

Garden-sardár and labourer to appear before Registering officer for registration.

66. The Registering officer shall thereupon inspect the certificate of the garden-sardár, and, if he finds that such certificate is in force, shall examine, with reference to the intended labour-contract, the person whom the sardár so desires to engage and explain the contract to such person.

Registration of persons engaged by garden-sardár.

If it appears that such person is competent to enter into such contract, and understands the nature of the same, as regards the locality, period and nature of the service, and the rate of wages and the price at which rice is to be supplied to him, that the terms thereof are in accordance with law, that he has not been induced to agree to enter thereinto by any coercion, undue influence, fraud, misrepresentation or mistake, and that he is willing to fulfil the same, the Registering officer shall register in a book to be kept for the purpose such particulars regarding him and his dependents (if any) as the Local Government may by rule prescribe; and the labourer and his dependents (if any) shall thereupon be deemed to be registered under this Act.

67. If it appears to such officer that any such person, or any dependent of such person, is not in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, the officer may, before registering any such person or dependent, if himself a medical man, medically examine such person or dependent, or, if not himself a medical man, send such person or dependent to a medical man for such examination. If upon such examination such person or dependent is declared unfit to undertake the journey to such place, the officer may refuse to register such person or dependent.

Medical examination.

68. For every person appearing before a Registering officer for the purpose of being registered as a labourer, the garden-sardár who appears with him shall pay to the officer such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Local Government may direct.

Fee to be paid for every labourer produced for registration.

69. When any person has been registered under section sixty-six as a labourer he shall, within fifteen days from the day on which he was so registered, execute a labour-contract with the employer with whom he intends to contract. Such contract shall be signed in the presence of the Registering officer by such person and, on behalf of the employer, by the garden-sardár who appears with such person before such officer. The officer shall satisfy himself that the contract is in accordance with any instructions specified in the certificate of the garden-sardár. If the officer is so satisfied, he shall, before the labourer signs the contract, personally explain it to him, and shall, after the same has been executed as aforesaid, attest such contract and certify at the foot thereof that he has personally explained the same to the labourer.

Labour-contract to be executed.

An abstract of every such contract shall be entered in a register to be kept for the purpose by the Registering officer, and, of the two copies of the contract, one shall then be given to the labourer and the other to the garden-sardár or the local agent.

If any garden-sardár, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects to execute a contract with a labourer as required by this section within fifteen days from the day on which he was so registered, the Registering officer may order such sardár to pay to the labourer such reasonable compensation, not exceeding twenty rupees, as such officer thinks fit.

70. If the employer of a garden-sardár has in the instructions specified in the certificate of the sardár directed that all labourers engaged by him shall before registration be examined by a competent medical man and certified by him to be in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to, and labour in, the labour-districts to which they intend to proceed, no Registering officer shall register as a labourer any person appearing before him with such sardár until such certificate from such medical officer as aforesaid has been produced and shown to him.

Procedure when employer requires medical examination previous to registration.

71. If the employer has in the instructions specified in the certificate of the garden-sardár directed that such examination shall be made by any medical officer in the service of Government, such officer making the examination shall be entitled to receive from the local agent or sardár such a fee not exceeding eight annas for each labourer so examined as the Local Government may fix.

Medical officer entitled to fee.

72. Unless and until a person engaged as a labourer has been registered under section sixty-six no garden-sardár shall remove or attempt to remove him to a labour-district, or induce or attempt to induce him to go to a labour-district, or to leave the local area specified in the certificate of such sardár, or aid or attempt to aid him in proceeding to a labour-district, or in leaving any such local area.

Garden-sardár when to remove labourer to labour-district.

73. A garden-sardár shall either himself accompany labourers engaged by him throughout their journey from the place in which the labour-contract was entered into to the labour-district wherein they have contracted to labour, or shall send with them some competent person appointed by him with the approval of the local agent of his employer; or, if his employer has no local agent, with the approval of the officer by whom such labourers were registered.

Garden-sardár to accompany labourers or send competent person with them.

When the number of labourers (exclusive of dependents) proceeding on their journey to such labour-district is more than twenty, for every twenty labourers so in excess, or for any number of labourers less than twenty so in excess, one additional garden-sardár or person so appointed by him shall accompany the labourers so proceeding.

74. A garden-sardár may, subject to the instructions specified in his certificate, engage any number of persons as labourers; and, subject to the provisions of section seventy-three, any number of labourers may be despatched at the same time to the labour-districts.

No restriction on number of persons engaged by garden-sardár.

75. Any garden-sardár may, with the previous consent in writing of the local agent of the employer by whom his certificate was granted, or, if such employer has no local agent, with the previous consent in writing of such employer, be appointed under section seventy-three as a competent person to accompany labourers other than those engaged by him.

In certain cases garden-sardár may be appointed to accompany labourers not engaged by him.

76. Every garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid who accompanies labourers to the labour-districts shall present to the officer by whom such labourers have been registered a way-bill in such form and containing such particulars and instructions as the Local Government may prescribe. He shall also present such way-bill at all such places and to all such officers as may be thereupon indicated; and shall carry out all instructions contained therein for his guidance.

Provision for way-bill.

77. Every garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid who accompanies labourers to the labour-districts shall provide such labourers and their dependents (if any) with proper and sufficient food and lodging throughout the journey.

Garden-sardár must provide food and lodging for labourers and dependents on journey.

78. If it appears to any Magistrate, on the complaint of any such labourer at any place on the journey, that he or any person registered as his dependent has suffered any ill-treatment during the journey at the hands of the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying such labourer, or that such sardár or person has failed to provide such labourer or any of his dependents with proper and sufficient food and lodging, or has wilfully abandoned such labourer or any of his dependents, such Magistrate may either order the sardár or person so appointed to pay to such labourer a reasonable sum by way of compensation, or may cancel the labour-contract entered into by such labourer and order such sardár or person to pay to such labourer such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him with his dependents (if any) to return to the place at which he was registered.

If such not provided, Magistrate may award compensation or cancel contract.

79. On failure for twenty-four hours by any garden-sardár or person appointed by him as aforesaid to comply with an order under section seventy-eight to pay any sum, the Magistrate may pay the same to or on behalf of such labourer.

Procedure on failure of garden-sardár to comply with order.

Every sum so paid shall be recoverable from the employer by whom the certificate of such garden-sardár was granted, or from the local agent of such employer, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the date of payment.

No further proof shall be required by any Court in any such case than that the Magistrate gave such garden-sardár or person an order to pay such sum and that such garden-sardár or person for twenty-four hours failed to comply with such order.

80. Any Magistrate or any Embarkation Agent may, if himself a medical man, examine, and if not himself a medical man, send for examination by a medical man, any labourer or dependent who, while on the journey to the district to which he intends to proceed, appears to such Magistrate or Agent not to be in a fit state of health to proceed thereto.

Medical inspection of labourers en route.

81. If such labourer or dependent is on such examination declared not to be in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district to which he intends to proceed, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent may order him to be detained at such place as he thinks fit until the labourer or dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake such journey, when he shall either be forwarded to such district or sent back to the place where he was registered, according as the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying such labourer or dependent, or the employer by whom the certificate of such sardár was granted, or his local agent, may direct.

Detention and return of labourer declared when en route to be unfit to travel.

While any labourer or dependent is so detained he shall be entitled to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer or the labourer to whom such dependent is attached has contracted to labour.

82. When an order under section eighty-one has been made with reference to any labourer, any person registered as his dependent and any labourer being the wife or husband of such labourer, shall be entitled,

Dependents of labourer when to be fed, &c.

(a) until such labourer is in a fit state of health to undertake such journey, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such labourer is detained and at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer has contracted to labour, and,

(b) if such labourer is sent back to the place where he was registered, to be sent back to such place.

When any such order has been made with reference to any dependent, the labourer to whom he is attached shall thereupon, until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district, be entitled, if the labourer so wishes, and, if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter of such dependent, to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained and at the cost of the employer with whom such labourer has contracted to labour; and if such dependent is sent back to the place where he was registered, such labourer shall, if he or she so wishes, and if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter of such dependent, be sent back to such place.

Labourer to whom dependent is attached when to be fed, &c.

If such labourer is entitled and claims to be so fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated, or to be so sent back, any person registered as his or her dependent and any other labourer being the wife or husband of such labourer, shall be entitled, as the case may be,

(a) to be fed, lodged, clothed and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained and at the cost of such employer until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour-district, or

(b) to be sent back to the place where he or she was registered.

83. If the garden-sardár or person appointed by him accompanying any labourer or dependent fails to provide such labourer or dependent with food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to send him back as required by section eighty-one or section eighty-two, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent may order such sardár or person to pay such sum as is necessary to provide such food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to defray the cost of the return-journey of such labourer or dependent, as the case may be, to the place where he was registered; and, on failure for twenty-four hours of such sardár or person to comply with such order, he may pay the sum specified in the order to or on behalf of such labourer or dependent.

Payment of expenses of detention and return-journey of labourer.

The provisions of section seventy-nine shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the recovery of sums paid by the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent under this section.

84. If any labourer whose labour-contract has been executed by a garden-sardár on behalf of his employer is brought to Calcutta on his way to the district in which he has contracted to labour, any person empowered to act as the agent or representative of such employer may require such labourer to appear before the Superintendent for the cancellation of such contract. If such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable such labourer and his dependents (if any) to return to the place at which he was registered be paid to such labourer in his presence, the Superintendent may declare the contract cancelled, and in that case shall make an endorsement to that effect on the labourer's copy of the contract, and attest it with his signature.

Agent in Calcutta may procure order from Superintendent cancelling the labour-contract on payment of expense of return.

85. When the Superintendent declares the labour-contract of any labourer to be cancelled, any other labourer who is the wife, husband, father, mother, son or daughter of such labourer, and who may have entered into a labour-contract at the same place with the same employer, may claim to have her or his labour-contract cancelled at the same time. On such claim being made, the Superintendent shall declare the labour-contract of the claimant to be cancelled, and shall order the agent or representative of the claimant's employer to pay to the claimant such reasonable sum as is necessary to enable him and his dependents (if any) to return to the place at which he was registered.

In that case contracts of relatives to be cancelled.

On failure for twenty-four hours of the agent or representative to comply with such order, the Superintendent may pay the sum specified in the order to or on behalf of the claimant; and the provisions of section seventy-nine shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the recovery of any sum so paid.

CHAPTER V.

TRANSPORT BY RIVER.

A.—Passenger Vessels.

86. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to the transport by sea of natives of India to the labour-districts of Chittagong and the Chittagong Hill Tracts.

Transport by sea to Chittagong.

87. No master shall receive more than twenty passengers being natives of India on board his vessel for the purpose of transporting them to a labour-district unless a license to carry passengers in such vessel has been granted to him by an Embarkation Agent duly empowered in that behalf by the Local Government.

Vessels to carry more than 20 passengers must be licensed.

The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt from the provisions of this section any vessel or class of vessels.

Power to exempt vessels.

88. The master or owner of any vessel who desires to obtain a license under this Act to carry passengers in such vessel shall make a written application for a license to an Embarkation Agent empowered as aforesaid.

Application for license.

Every such application shall state such particulars respecting the vessel as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Contents of application.

89. If such Embarkation Agent is of opinion that the vessel is in all respects suitable for carrying passengers being natives of India to a labour-district, he shall give to the master of the vessel a license to carry passengers therein, specifying the number of passengers being natives of India which may be received on board.

Grant of license.

90. Such fee, not exceeding sixteen rupees, as the Local Government may with reference to the size of such vessel by rule direct shall be paid for every such license. No such license shall be in force for more than one voyage:

Fee for license.

Provided that the Embarkation Agent may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, grant a license to the master of any vessel for any term not exceeding one year, on payment of such fee not exceeding one hundred rupees, and on such conditions, as the Local Government may by rule direct.

Provision for annual licenses.

91. Any Embarkation Agent may, in accordance with such rules as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, direct by order in writing that, on any particular voyage or part of a voyage, any master licensed hereunder shall not receive on board his vessel more than a specified number of passengers being natives of India, which number shall be less than the number specified in the license granted to such master.

Embarkation Agent may limit number to be received on board on any particular voyage.

92. In computing the number of persons on board of any vessel, two children under the age of ten years shall for the purposes of this Act be reckoned as one person only.

Two children under ten to be counted as one person.

93. Every master to whom a license is granted hereunder shall keep such lists, submit such returns and make such reports in regard to the passengers carried in his vessel as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Master to make returns.

94. Every such master shall have on board his vessel carrying labourers and their dependents such supplies of provisions and clothing, and such medical and other officers, cooks and attendants, as the Local Government may by rule prescribe.

Provisions, clothing, medical and other officers, cooks, &c.

95. No medical officer shall be appointed to any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder unless he holds a license granted by such authority as the Local Government may appoint in that behalf; and any medical officer so licensed shall be forthwith removed from his appointment on the requisition of any officer empowered by the Local Government to make such requisition.

Medical officer to be licensed.

B.—Departure of Passenger Vessels and Procedure during Voyage.

96. Whenever it appears to any Embarkation Agent that the departure of any vessel in respect of which a license is granted hereunder is unduly delayed beyond the date fixed by order of a Superintendent or the Local Government, or notified by advertisement in the public press, for such departure, he may order the master of such vessel to proceed on his voyage at once.

Embarkation Agent may order departure of vessel if delay occurs.

97. No master licensed hereunder shall proceed on a voyage with his vessel carrying labourers until he has received from the Embarkation Agent the way-bills relating to all labourers on board. The Embarkation Agent and the master of the vessel shall together personally ascertain that the number of labourers on board corresponds with the number entered in such way-bills.

Master to receive way-bills from Embarkation Agent.

The Embarkation Agent shall send a copy of such way-bills to the Magistrate of the labour-district to which such labourers are proceeding.

98. No such master shall cause or permit any labourer finally to leave his vessel at any place other than that named in the way-bill as the destination of such labourer:

Labourers not allowed finally to leave vessel at any place other than that mentioned in way-bill.

Provided that this section shall not be deemed to prevent the master of any vessel from permitting such labourers to disembark at any place or places on the voyage so long as such disembarkation is not intended or known to be likely to be final; nor to prevent the final disembarkation of any such labourers, or the transfer of such labourers with their dependents to any other vessel in case of accident or other unavoidable necessity. Such accident or necessity shall be forthwith reported by the master to the Embarkation Agent by whom he was licensed, and to the nearest Magistrate in the district within which such accident has occurred or necessity has arisen.
