NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, the 5th January 1883.

No. 57.

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, and in supersession of the orders noted on the margin, the Governor General in Council is pleased to authorise the undermentioned officers to cut or break coin under that section :—

Financial Resolution No. 3299, dated 4th October 1872, and Notification of the same date.
Financial Notification No. 1909, dated 29th March 1877.
Financial Resolution No. 3356, dated 1st November 1880.
Financial Notification No. 2840, dated 25th November 1882.

1. Every officer in charge of a District Treasury.
2. Every Assistant Collector, Deputy Collector, Assistant Commissioner, or Extra Assistant Commissioner in charge of a Sub-Treasury.
3. Every Commissioner, Deputy or Assistant Commissioner of the Department of Paper Currency.
4. The Mint Masters, Calcutta and Bombay.
5. The Secretary and Treasurer of each of the Presidency Banks, and every Agent in charge of a branch of any of the said Banks.

6. The Secretary, Manager, or other principal officer of the several offices and agencies in India of each of the following Banks:—

Agra Bank, Limited; Chartered Mercantile Bank; Chartered Bank of India; Comptoir D'Escompte de Paris; Delhi and London Bank, Limited; National Bank of India, Limited; Oriental Bank Corporation; Alliance Bank of Simla, Limited; Simla Bank Corporation, Limited.

7. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman, or the Secretary of the Calcutta Port Improvement Commissioners, Bombay Port Trustees, Rangoon Port Commissioners.

8. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman, President, Vice-President, or Secretary of the Presidency Municipalities.

9. And any officer of any other Municipality authorised by the Local Government or Administration.

And in exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the same Act, the Governor General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules:—

1. When any silver coin purporting to be coined and issued under the authority of the Government of India is tendered to any of the officers authorised by this Notification to act under section 16* of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, who has reason to believe it to be counterfeit, or to have been reduced in weight otherwise than by reasonable wearing, he shall cut or break such coin, and, under section 16 of the said Act, return the pieces to the person tendering the coin. In cutting or breaking coins, officers should avoid completely dividing them, as it is often convenient to identify the parts of a particular coin. Such identification becomes impossible if the pieces are wholly separated. Care should, however, be taken that the destruction is complete.

Extract from Act No. XXIII of 1870—India.

*16. When any silver coin purporting to be coined and issued under the authority of the Government of India is tendered to any officer authorised by the Governor General in Council or the Local Government to act under this section, who has reason to believe it to have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight, or to be counterfeit,
or to have been reduced in weight otherwise than by reasonable wearing, or to be called in by any proclamation,
he may, by himself or another,
(subject to the rules which the Governor General in Council prescribes in this behalf), cut or break such coin.

Cutting certain silver coin.

2. When any rupee or half-rupee purporting to be coined and issued under the authority of the Government of India is tendered to any such officer, who has reason to believe it to have lost by reasonable wearing more than two per cent. in weight, he shall cut or break such coin, and, at the option of the person tendering the coin, return to him the pieces, or retain them and give credit for them at the rate of one rupee for one hundred and eighty grains troy weight.

3. A quarter-rupee or an eighth of a rupee tendered to such an officer must, under section 13† of the Act, be accepted as legal tender for a fraction of a rupee, even though it have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight.

Extract from Act No. XXIII of 1870—India.

† 13. The said rupee and half-rupee shall be a legal tender in payment or on account:
Provided that the coin has not lost more than two per cent. in weight:
Provided also that it has not been clipped or filed, or defaced or diminished, otherwise than by use.
The quarter-rupee and eighth of a rupee shall be legal tender only for the fractions of a rupee, subject to the second proviso contained in this section.

Rupees and half-rupees a legal tender.

Four-anna and two-anna pieces.

4. If, by reason of the obliteration of the device upon it, or for any other cause, any quarter-rupee or eighth of a rupee coined and issued after the 1st September 1835 that shall come into the possession of such an officer, shall appear to him to be unfit for further circulation, it shall not be cut or broken, but shall, whatever be its weight, be withdrawn from circulation and dealt with in the manner prescribed in Rules 5 and 6. But quarter-rupees and eighths of a rupee shall not be withdrawn from circulation, if they appear to be otherwise fit to circulate, only because they have lost by reasonable wearing more than two per cent. in weight. Such coins, if coined and issued before 1st September 1835, must, however, be dealt with under section 16 of the Act.

5. In the case of coin tendered to officers of Government, the pieces of coin cut or broken and received under Rule 2, and the coin withdrawn from circulation under Rule 4, shall be sent, by the first convenient opportunity, to the Master of the Mint at Bombay or Calcutta or any principal treasury appointed by the local Accountant General to receive them for remittance to the Mint. Meanwhile, the actual amount at which the cut or broken pieces have been received and the nominal value of the coin withdrawn shall be entered in the statement of the cash balance of the officer who has received them as "uncurrent coin." Upon their receipt at the Mint, the Master of the Mint shall give credit for them at the rate mentioned in Rule 2, in the case of coin cut or broken, and at the nominal value in the case of coin withdrawn under Rule 4, and any loss incurred in their re-coinage shall be a charge of the Mint.

6. If the coin be cut or broken and received under these rules by any of the officers enumerated under headings 5 to 9 above, the pieces should be sent to the nearest Government Treasury (and in Presidency Towns to the Reserve Treasury) where the actual sum paid for them and the nominal value of the coin withdrawn shall be paid, and thereafter the pieces will be dealt with in the manner prescribed in Rule 5.

These rules apply to all silver coin of the same weight and value as British Indian Currency, coined by the Government of India on behalf of the Government of Portuguese India, or coined under the Native Coinage Act, IX of 1876, on behalf of Native States. They do not affect the orders contained in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 2432, dated 17th August 1881, under which, for the present, all genuine coin which has not been diminished by fraudulent means or has been diminished only by what are ordinarily known as shroff marks, shall be received at its nominal value; accordingly, in so far as regards such coin, the second rule of those now prescribed is suspended, except that coin which has been reduced more than two per cent. in weight by reasonable wearing shall be cut or broken as heretofore, although it be received at full value.

For testing rupees and half rupees under these rules, minimum weights, 176·4 and 88·2 grains troy respectively, shall be obtainable on application through the Comptroller General or the Accountant General, Bombay, as the case may be, to the Mint Masters at Calcutta and Bombay. These weights being already two per cent. below the standard weight for rupees and half rupees respectively show the exact weight below which the coin has to be destroyed. The weights will be supplied in all cases at Government expense, but as the scales ordinarily used by native jewellers are sufficient for these tests, scales will not be supplied by the Mint Masters.

ORDERED, that this Notification be published in the Gazette of India for general information, and that it be communicated to the several Local Governments and Administrations and the Comptroller General for information.

OBSERVATIONS.—In consequence of an application having been received from the Bombay Steam Soap and Candle Works Company, praying for the remission of the duty on the salt used by it in the manufacture of soap, the question of issuing salt, free of duty, for the manufacture of soap and alkali has recently engaged the attention of the Government of India. In the circular letter of the 23rd February 1882, read in the preamble, the Government of India expressed its opinion that the remission of duty on salt used for industrial and agricultural purposes was desirable in itself if it could be allowed without danger to the revenue, and observed that various methods of denaturalising salt had from time to time been suggested, but that hitherto no satisfactory process which exactly met the requirements of the case had been discovered. It was accordingly proposed in view to the issue of duty-free salt to soap manufactories, that a preventive establishment should be placed at the works to see that the free salt is actually mixed with the prepared lye, the cost of the establishment being borne by the manufacturers. It was at the same time suggested that it should be first ascertained, by actual experiment, whether the salt after being mixed with the lye could be separated from it and again rendered fit for human consumption, as, in that case, it would not be a sufficient safeguard to provide an establishment merely to see that the salt was actually mixed with the lye.

2. From the reports received from the Local Governments consulted it appears that salt is used at two stages in the manufacture of soap; first, for supplying the soda which contributes to the formation of the soapy matter, and, secondly, for separating the soap from the lye. In the former case, decomposition takes place, and it would therefore seem to be feasible to arrange for the issue of duty-free salt by simply ensuring the mixture of the salt with the lye in the course of manufacture. In the case of salt used in the process of separation, the Chemical Examiners consulted are unanimously of opinion that it would always be possible to recover the salt from the 'spent lye' remaining after the separation of the soap, but it also appears that the process of extraction would be neither easy nor cheap. As a precaution against such extraction, the Collector of Salt Revenue, Bombay, recommends that all spent lye, or salt charged liquor, leaving the soap-works should be run to waste, and the Chemical Examiner, Madras, suggests that manufacturers may be required to discharge the spent lye into the sea or a large river or other suitable channel.

3. In Bombay, the Collector of Salt Revenue does not recommend the grant of free salt to the Bombay Steam Soap and Candle Works Company for the manufacture of soap, except on condition that the Company should agree to allow the spent lye to run to waste, that its premises should be open at all times to the Preventive Officers of the Salt Department, that notice of each boiling should be duly given to those officers, that the Company should use fully taxed salt in the first instance, and that after ascertaining the actual quantity of salt required in the preparation of a given quantity of soap, a refund of the duty should be made to the Company, proportionate to the amount of soap sold as shown by its books and vouchers. The Government of Bombay, however, considers it inexpedient to grant the concession, as in its opinion it would be difficult to prevent loss of revenue from the subsequent illicit use of the salt, unless a preventive establishment is maintained at a strength and cost which would counterbalance any pecuniary gain to be derived by the Company from the use of free salt.

4. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the only factory using salt in the manufacture of soap is the North-West Soap Company at Meerut. In order to avail itself of the privilege of using duty-free salt for soap-making, this Company is willing to give a pecuniary guarantee, to conform to all reasonable requirements of the Salt Department as to the safe custody and issue of the salt, and to allow inspection of its books, &c., but hopes that no expensive preventive establishment will be insisted upon. The Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue, on the other hand, considers that a preventive establishment cannot be safely dispensed with. He does not apprehend any danger to the revenue from the separation of salt from the spent lye, but considers that the real risk of loss lies in the fact that a portion of the free salt may never be added to the lye at all, and to guard against this contingency, the location at the works of a preventive establishment is necessary in order to supervise the use of the salt and the disposal of the refuse. The Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh thinks that a preventive establishment should not be insisted upon, as the grant of free salt would probably be neutralised by the cost of such establishment and the inconvenience which it would cause to the manufacturers. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor accordingly suggests that the Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue should draw up rules for the safe custody and issue of the salt and for keeping up registers by the manufacturers which should be open at all times for inspection, showing how the salt is disposed of. He also suggests that the Company might further be required to execute a bond in a reasonable amount pledging itself to abide by these rules and to guarantee that all duty-free salt supplied to it should be used bonâ fide in the manufacture of soap and for no other purpose, and power might be reserved in the bond to impose a preventive establishment if there be reason to suppose that the concession is being abused.

5. The Chemical Examiner to the Bengal Government is of opinion that the salt mixed with the lye in the manufacture of soap can afterwards be separated from the lye by repeated re-crystallizations, but that the process would be an expensive one, and could only be profitably carried out on a large scale. The Government of Bengal therefore believes that there would be no danger to the revenue from this source, and that the abuse of the privilege of using duty-free salt might be sufficiently guarded against by the deputation of an officer to the soap-works, whenever required, in order to supervise the mixing of the salt with the lye. It adds that under such an arrangement it would not be necessary to require the manufacturers to pay the cost of a fixed preventive establishment. The Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, suggests an alternative proposal, viz., that if it can be ascertained approximately what minimum quantity of salt must be used for the manufacture of a certain quantity of soap, an officer might be sent from time to time to examine the outturn of soap manufactured and to note the quantity of salt expended for the purpose, and then a refund of the duty on the recorded quantity of salt might be granted. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor considers that this procedure might be introduced with advantage if the conditions of soap manufacture admit of a calculation of this nature.

6. The Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Madras, is of opinion that if duty-free salt for the manufacture of soap be issued only to firms of respectability and under adequate guarantees, there should not be any such danger to the revenue as to render it advisable to withhold a concession which might encourage a useful industry. The Board of Revenue, Madras, considers that the difficulties attending the supply of free salt for the purpose of soap-making are not of such a nature as to be insurmountable, and it proposes that, as a tentative measure, the concession may at first be limited to well-known firms, a preventive establishment being maintained to check illicit practices. The Madras Government approves of this proposal subject to the precaution suggested by the Chemical Examiner, viz., that the manufacturers should be required to discharge the refuse salted lye into the sea, or a river, or other suitable channel, and observes that as the manufacturers must bear the cost of the necessary preventive establishment, the arrangement would be practicable only where the works are conducted on a scale sufficiently large to earn a profit after defraying all incidental charges. It also forwards a letter from Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., of Madras, applying for the supply of duty-free salt for the manufacture of alkali and suggesting two alternative courses in which the concession might safely be granted, viz., (1) that salt at usual selling rates, minus the charge for duty, may be issued to the firm and a trustworthy official retained at the alkali works to see that the salt is not used for any other purpose than that of manufacture, or (2) that the firm may at first buy salt at the ordinary rates inclusive of duty, and afterwards receive a refund or drawback of the duty, on production of a certificate from some Government official retained at the works in order to watch that the specified quantity of salt has been actually employed in the manufacture.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that the question of the issue of salt, free of duty, to be used in the manufacture of soap and alkali is becoming one of some importance, and on a consideration of the views and proposals set forth in the preceding paragraphs, His Excellency in Council is strongly in favour of an attempt being made to issue duty-free salt for these purposes under proper restrictions and with suitable precautions. His Excellency in Council believes that precautions which will sufficiently protect the revenue can be taken at a moderate cost. Each Local Government is accordingly empowered to make such arrangements as it may deem necessary for the purpose indicated. The arrangements should be made subject to the final decision of the Government of India, to whom they should be reported. In all provinces to which the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue extends, the arrangements should be made by the Local Government in communication with the Commissioner. It must be understood that the manufacturer is to bear any extra cost for preventive establishments, &c., which the grant of the concession may necessitate, and that the privilege is liable to be withdrawn if experience shows that it is being abused or that the revenue is suffering.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the above Resolution be communicated to the several Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance, and to the Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue.

Ordered also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.

READ—

Letter from the Master of the Mint, Calcutta, No. 790, dated 10th October 1882, forwarding the Administration Reports of the Mints at Calcutta and Bombay for the year 1881-82.

RESOLUTION.—The amount of silver coined during the year under review was smaller than in any year since 1871-72, and, as compared with 1880-81, shows a decrease of about 206 lakhs of rupees; there was, however, an increase of nearly 149 lakhs in the net imports of silver as compared with 1880-81, and the comparatively small coinage is partly due to the fact that a great part of the silver imported was tendered to the Mint in the course of the last month of the year of report, and could not be taken up for coinage till after the close of the year. The following figures show the value in lakhs of rupees, of the net imports of silver and of the coinage for the last ten years :—

	Net Imports. Lakhs.	Coinage. Lakhs.
1872-73	72	398
1873-74	249	237
1874-75	464	490
1875-76	155	255
1876-77	720	627
1877-78	1,468	1,618
1878-79	397	721
1879-80	787	1,025
1880-81	389	425
1881-82	538	219

2. The value of the silver received in the Mints for coinage during the year under review, was as follows :—

	R
Imported silver	2,09,66,730
Old silver for recoinage	63,91,897
Old Portuguese Indian coin	9,97,034
TOTAL	2,83,55,661

These figures, however, do not represent the actual amount of imported silver tendered to tne Mints during the year, inasmuch as a large quantity of bullion, about 84 lakhs, was held in the Mints at the close of the year on account of the Currency Department; the proportion of imports tendered for coinage was, however, small, and a large quantity of the imported silver must have found its way to Native States and Districts, chiefly in Bombay and Madras, from which the precious metals had been to some extent drained by famine: this view is supported by the fact that during the year there has been a further reduction in the receipts at the Mint of silver ornaments.

The following figures show the receipts in lakhs of rupees, of bullion of this description and of Native coin, tendered for coinage during the last five years :—

	Native Silver Ornaments. Lakhs.	Native Coin. Lakhs.
1877-78	124	...
1878-79	116	67
1879-80	92	45
1880-81	10	25½
1881-82	4	1

3. Of British coin tendered for recoinage rather more than 44 lakhs were received in the Calcutta Mint and nearly 20 lakhs in the Bombay Mint; this coin consisted for the most part of shroff marked rupees collected in the District Treasuries throughout the country and remitted to the Mints for recoinage. The old Portuguese Indian coin valued at Rs. 9,97,034 was received at the Bombay Mint for coinage under the monetary convention with the Government of Portuguese India, and the value of the silver coin struck for the Goa Government during the year was Rs. 9,61,786, which is included in the total coinage of the Bombay Mint.

4. The total coinage of gold, silver and copper at each Mint is shown separately for the last three years in the following table :—

	CALCUTTA.			BOMBAY.
	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
COINAGE.
Tale of pieces of all kinds	74,181,243	24,408,796	17,785,150	81,215,596	31,986,936	22,207,320
VALUE.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Gold	1,46,040	1,33,545	3,39,705	1,255	...	...
Silver	2,13,54,164	1,05,09,825	84,77,510	8,12,15,511	3,19,86,936	1,33,85,242
Copper	7,07,900	1,85,600	39,950	...	...	50,009
TOTAL	2,22,08,104	1,08,28,970	88,57,165	8,12,16,766	3,19,86,936	1,34,35,251

5. The increase in the coinage of gold at Calcutta is attributed by the Mint Master to a larger influx of gold than in the previous year, and to a desire to increase the balance in the bank in order to avoid the necessity of a further coinage till repairs could be done. It is observed, however, that the quantity of gold tendered to the Mints is quite insignificant in comparison with the net imports, which show a remarkable increase, as will be seen from the following figures :—

	Net Imports. Lakhs.
1879-80	175
1880-81	365
1881-82	484

Gold is extensively used for ornaments and the increase in the imports, coupled with the large reduction, already noticed, in the value of silver ornaments tendered for coinage, may be taken as an indication of increasing wealth.

6. The falling off in the coinage of silver has taken place in both Mints, but is largest at Bombay where the greater quantity of silver is imported. The coinage at the Calcutta Mint includes Rs. 18,16,353 in small silver, chiefly one-fourth and one-eighth rupees, while that at Bombay includes Rs. 11,59,804 in British small coin, principally half-rupees, and Rs. 3,02,663 in the New Portuguese Indian small silver coin. The copper coinage during the year was comparatively insignificant, that at Calcutta consisting of single pice to the amount of Rs. 39,950 and that at Bombay of the new Portuguese Indian quarter tangas and one-eighth tangas to the amount of Rs. 50,009.

7. The Mint Masters furnish, with the report for 1881-82, an account showing the whole Revenue and Expenditure of each of the Mints for the year. This account is prepared in accordance with the instructions contained in Resolution by the Government of India in this Department, No. 3234, dated 5th October 1878. Similar accounts have already been received for each of the three preceding years, and Government is now in a position to review the financial results of the working of the Mints for a period of four years, and to consider whether any modification is required in the instructions for preparing the yearly accounts. The Resolution of 5th October 1878, already quoted, makes provision for the credit of revenue of all kinds to the Mints, and for the debit of all expenditure, direct and indirect. In these respects no change is called for, but the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the charge for interest on Capital sunk in the Mint may fairly be reduced from 4½ to 4 per cent., as that is the rate at which money can be borrowed by Government.

8. It is observed that in each year interest has been charged on a working balance of 30 lakhs of rupees for each Mint; this sum may fairly represent the minimum amount of silver which must be under treatment in the Mint, in order that the process of coining may be carried on with economy, but it is very much less than the average amount of bullion which is actually locked up in the Mints and in exchange for which Government has already given rupees. The charge for interest should not, therefore, be calculated on an assumed minimum working balance, but on the value of the silver which has actually been locked up in the Mints during the years for which the account is prepared.

9. If the corrections indicated be made, the accounts of the Mints will stand as follows:—

	Revenue.		Expenditure.
	Calcutta.	Bombay.	Calcutta.	Bombay.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1878-79	5,41,985	11,59,614	11,42,489	9,80,356
1879-80	5,17,277	18,51,834	10,60,646	11,06,806
1880-81	2,32,366	6,41,704	8,61,901	7,74,325
1881-82	2,11,295	3,83,528	8,90,413	6,45,716
Total .	15,02,923	40,36,680	39,55,449	35,07,203

The total revenue of both Mints during the last four years has been Rs. 55,39,603, and the expenditure Rs. 74,62,652, showing a loss of Rs. 19,23,049, giving an average loss of Rs. 4,80,762 per annum. The revenue of the Mints is chiefly derived from the seignorage charge of 2 per cent. on silver coined.

10. In drawing up the account for the year under review, the Mint Master, Bombay, has omitted to make any charge for working balance, while the Mint Master, Calcutta, has charged interest on a working balance of Rs. 39,29,997. In future, the charge for interest should be calculated on the average balance of silver actually locked up in the Mint, and not available for other purposes, during the year, whether such silver be held on behalf of the General Treasury or of the Paper Currency Department.

11. In calculating the indirect charges, the land occupied by the Mints is valued at Rs. 12,62,200 in Bombay, and at Rs. 1,41,335 only in Calcutta. The valuation of the land in the case of the Calcutta Mint appears to be too low, as the area of the land covered by the Calcutta Mint is considerable, and the site is valuable. The Mint Master is accordingly requested to obtain and furnish the explanation called for on this point in the Resolution by this Department reviewing the Mint Administration Reports for 1880-81; a careful estimate should be made of the value of the Calcutta site.

12. The increase in the operative losses in the Calcutta Mint is due to the large quantity of old coin withdrawn during the year. Excluding the loss on withdrawal and recoinage of worn-out and uncurrent coins, the percentage of operative losses is reported to have been as follows in each of the last four years:—

	Calcutta.	Bombay.
	(Pies per cent.)
In Melting—
1878-79	18	5
1879-80	9·8	5
1880-81	9·2	5
1881-82	6·7	7
In Coinage—
1878-79	22	11
1879-80	17	13
1880-81	15·5	14
1881-82	9	7

13. The decrease which has been effected in the percentages both of melting and coinage losses at the Calcutta Mint is satisfactory. The increase in the melting losses at the Bombay Mint is reported by the Mint Master to be in some measure due to the newly laid floor in the Melting Department of the Mint absorbing at first more silver than the old floor. The loss on coinage in the Bombay Mint, though stated by the Mint Master to be 7 pies per cent., appears, if calculated on tale of coinage, as is done in the Calcutta Mint, to amount to 11 pies per cent.; but even this figure shows a satisfactory reduction on the loss in the previous year. The Governor General in Council is glad to observe that the Mint Masters have continued, during the year under review, to give special attention to the reduction of the operative losses.

14. Under the head of salaries and establishments there is a satisfactory saving in the operative establishment at Bombay consequent on the falling-off in the coinage; but, on the other hand, the establishment charges of the Calcutta Mint continue to increase from year to year, notwithstanding the reduced coinage. The increase in the charges of the Calcutta Mint in the past year as compared with 1880-81 is, however, mainly due to the absence of the Mint Master during the year on three months' privilege leave, and to the allowances paid to his locum tenens having been included in the charges for direction and establishment; considering the small amount coined, it is not satisfactory that such a heavy charge as Rs. 49,197 should have been incurred for extra operative establishment, this charge being nearly three times as great as the expenditure incurred in the Bombay Mint on the same account, although the coinage at Bombay was much larger than at Calcutta. It is observed that the increase in the permanent operative establishment at Calcutta appears to be mainly due to the cost of work undertaken for the Ordnance Department.

15. The sum of Rs. 1,68,074 was added during the year to the Capital expenditure on the Bombay Mint, Rs. 1,40,870 being for additional plant and Rs. 27,204 on account of construction charges. Among other improvements effected during the year are the completion of the new roof of the melting room and the erection of the new Mint boundary wall, which clearly demarcates the entire Mint property and leaves a clear open space of ground between the buildings and the boundary wall, thus affording facilities for the detection of theft on the part of the labourers. The Capital expenditure on the Calcutta Mint during the year was Rs. 80,252, of which Rs. 77,334 were expended in placing iron roofing on the silver Mint.

16. The saving effected in the Bombay Mint during the year by the adoption of the electro-plating process of adjusting coins amounted to Rs. 2,378.

17. The amount of miscellaneous work done in the Calcutta Mint continues to be much larger than that done in the Mint at Bombay; it consists chiefly of the manufacture of stars and medals, of passes for the railways, seals for courts, and scales and weights for Government Departments.

18. A considerable quantity of cartridge metal, &c., was supplied by the Calcutta Mint to the Ordnance Department during the year, and the Governor General in Council observes with satisfaction that the Inspector General of Ordnance has reported a saving of Rs. 16·73 per cent. on the year's supply, as compared with the prices from England. His Excellency in Council also notices with pleasure the testimony borne by the Mint Master to the valuable services rendered by Messrs. Clark, Purchase and Wareham, of the Engineering Establishment of the Calcutta Mint, in connection with experimental manufacture of cartridge metal, which, except in minor points, is reported to have proved entirely satisfactory.

ORDERED, that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India and communicated to the Mint Masters, Calcutta and Bombay.

RESOLUTION.—The opinions of Local Governments and Heads of Departments on the Draft Travelling Allowance Code, issued in May last, have now been received and considered by the Government of India.

The authorities consulted agree almost without exception in the necessity for consolidating the various orders relating to Travelling Allowances, and approve of the general plan on which the Code has been framed.

The criticisms on points of detail are numerous; but it seems unnecessary to refer to them in detail, or to state at length the reasons which have led the Governor General in Council to the decision arrived at in each case. All objections to, and criticisms of, the rules as originally drafted have, however, been fully considered by the Governor General in Council, and such alterations and modifications as seemed requisite have been introduced into the copy of the Code appended to this Resolution, which embodies the final orders of Government on the subject.

The Code is issued in supersession of all existing orders relating to the Travelling Allowance of officers employed in the Civil Department; it will come into force from the 1st April next, and from that date no other authority should be quoted or referred to in deciding questions relating to such allowances. If any orders, which it is necessary to maintain in force, have, through oversight, not been embodied in the Code, any officer, who is of opinion that such orders should be revived, may refer the question to the Government of India through the proper channel. Without the special authority of the Government of India no such order can be held to be in force after 1st April 1883; but to prevent the inconvenience which might arise from changes unintentionally wrought in the rules, the Governor General in Council authorises Local Governments to maintain in force by a provisional order, pending a reference to the Government of India, any local or special order which appears to have been unintentionally omitted from the Code. The power thus delegated to Local Governments should be sparingly used; no order should be even provisionally maintained in force, unless it is practically certain that the order has really been overlooked, and that it was not the intention to supersede it by one of the general rules of the Code.

ORDERED, that a copy of the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

Ordered also, that a copy of the Resolution with a copy of the Code be forwarded to the several Departments of the Government of India, Local Governments and Administrations, all Accountants General, and to the Heads of Departments under the Financial Department.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read the following:—

No. 233, dated 15th February 1883.

From—The Comptroller General,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

I HAVE the honour to submit my report on Savings Banks in India for the year 1881-82, and regret that I have not been able to compile it earlier, but the delay is due to the great expansion of the business of the Banks as shown in the following tables.

2. During the year under review various changes were introduced in the management of these Banks, the most important being the orders reducing the rate of interest from 4⅛ to 3¾ per cent. per annum, the rate at which it stood before the resolution of 20th December 1879. Another measure of the same character was the application to security deposits of contractors of the money limit of ₹500 prescribed for a single depositor within one year, whereas formerly they were exempted from this rule. On the other hand, the benefits of the Savings Bank system were extended to persons who had not previously enjoyed them. The scheme of Post Office Savings Banks was completed during this year, and was put into operation on the 1st April 1882. The privilege of purchasing Government Promissory Notes through the Comptroller General was granted to persons who, though not Savings Bank depositors, are of moderate income and belong to a class who do not ordinarily have transactions with Bankers. Finally, the Provident Institutions of State Railways were thrown open to the superior officers of the Public Works Department employed on those Railways.

3. Some matters of detail in the management of Savings Banks were settled and explained by rules formulated under Financial Department orders No. 487, dated 24th January 1882. As regards private deposits, any person may now open one account, either in his own name or in the name of some other named person dependant upon him, whose relationship to him should be stated, as son, wife, nephew, ward, &c. In these cases no questions will be asked. A wife may open an account notwithstanding that her husband already has one, if the money deposited is her own property, and lastly a person who already has an account may open another or others on behalf of any named persons who are minors. Withdrawals from these accounts can be made only by the father or other legal guardian of the minor. With reference to accounts of officers of Government who hold money for public or quasi-public purposes, it has been ruled that they shall not be admitted in the Savings Banks established in Presidency towns. They will, however, be received in District Banks provided they do not include funds which belong to Government, or are held by a public officer or court in accordance with any law, and are not of a private or personal nature. Similar funds, if managed by persons who are not Government servants, will only be received if there is no respectable private Bank of deposit in the place.

4. The Secretary of State remarked in his despatch No. 144, dated 28th April 1881, that he would be glad to be furnished with a report on the effect of the modifications of the rules sanctioned in the orders of 9th May 1881. I accordingly submit the following figures, which show that the amount of deposits has alone diminished, but in other respects the Savings Banks have made the usual progress:—

5. No additions were made to the number of District and Railway Banks during the year. On the other hand the District Bank at Mergui did no business during the year, two Railway Banks were amalgamated with others, and a third was removed from my list as it was connected with the Nizam's State Railway, which is not under the Government of India. The number of Regimental Savings Banks was reduced by 13, owing apparently to a reduction in the number of European Regiments serving in India. In consequence of these changes, the total number of Savings Banks in India, including the three Presidency Banks, amounted to 372 at the end of the past year against 388 on 31st March 1881, as shown in the margin.

6. In the District and Railway Banks there was a net increase of 4,514 accounts, 11,339 having been opened and 6,825 closed during the year. In the Presidency Banks there was an increase of 7,250 accounts, but in the Regimental Banks the number of accounts decreased by 4,600; and this is attributable to the circumstance mentioned in the preceding paragraph. There was thus a net increase of 7,164 accounts at the end of 1881-82, as will be observed from the following table, from which I have omitted the dead accounts numbering 1,725 on the 31st March last. These dead accounts consist of small sums lying unclaimed in the Banks for certain specified periods, after which they are removed to a separate ledger, but are returned on application of the depositors or their representatives.

12. The progress which the District Savings Banks and Railway Provident Institutions have made since they were opened will appear from the accompanying table.

13. Mr. Kellner, Deputy Comptroller General, has been in charge of the Savings Bank work throughout the year, as it is practically a separate branch of my office. The very numerous and somewhat complex accounts have been accurately watched and correctly maintained, and the strictest correspondence is carefully secured between the accounts of Government and those of the Savings Banks. The vastness, in point of number, of the transactions makes this a work of very great labour, and it is satisfactory to be able to report that it is efficiently performed.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

I.—Preliminary.

Preliminary.

1. No legislation will be undertaken in connection with the financial arrangements for the year 1883-84. Under these circumstances the law does not permit of the Financial Statement being made in the Legislative Council. That Statement must take the form of a written Minute which will be published in the Gazette of India.

Law bearing on Financial Statement.

2. It may perhaps be as well that, at the risk of repeating what has often been said before, I should explain the precise condition of the law bearing upon the present issue.

3. Section 19 of 24 & 25 Vic. Cap. 67 (the Indian Councils Act, 1861) is conceived in the following terms :—

"No business shall be transacted at any meeting for the purpose of making "Laws and Regulations" (with the exception of the amendments of the Rules for the conduct of Business) "other than the consideration and enactment of "measures introduced into the Council for the purpose of such enactment."

It results, therefore, that as no legislation is proposed in connection with the financial arrangements for the year 1883-84, the Financial Statement cannot be made in the Legislative Council without a contravention of the law which governs the proceedings of that Council. This, as was explained by Lord Northbrook in 1873,* "is not a mere technical or "formal difficulty, for not only are the words of the "Act in themselves explicit, but in order to prevent any possible misconception, "it was explained by the Secretary of State, in the Despatch No. 14 of the 9th "of August 1861, with which the Act was transmitted to India, that one object "of the nineteenth Section of that Act was that this (i.e., the Legislative) "Council should not 'interfere with the functions of the Executive Government, "and occupy its time with matters which are not directly and immediately "connected with the special duties assigned to it'—that is to say, the con-"sideration and enactment of Laws and Regulations."

* Legislative Council Proceedings of March 5th, 1873.

4. I regret that the condition of the law precludes the possibility of any discussion on the existing financial situation in the Legislative Council. The law on the subject is, however, explicit and must of course be obeyed. The Government has no discretionary power in the matter.

Figures in conventional sterling.

5. Except in cases where the words "true sterling" are entered in a parenthesis after any figure, all the figures in this Statement are, as usual, given in "conventional sterling," that is to say, £1 = Rs. 10. On the occasion of the last Financial Statement (para. 1) I explained the reasons which render the continuance of this system, for the present at all events, desirable.

6. The explanations in this Statement are given upon the figures as arranged in Appendix I.

II.—Changes in the forms of the Accounts and Estimates.

Changes in the forms of the Accounts and Estimates.

7. Judging from the remarks which are frequently made both in and out of Parliament, it would appear that the Accounts and Estimates of the Government of India are regarded by many people as a financial puzzle, which none but experts can hope to understand. It not unfrequently happens that those who cannot understand them rush to the conclusion that the figures, in the form in which they are presented to the public, are wrong and misleading; that there is something radically unsound in Indian financial affairs; that the surpluses are no surpluses at all, but that they would, were the figures properly presented, be turned into deficits; in fact, that an Indian Financial Statement is merely a more or less dexterous manipulation of figures, and not an accurate indication of the financial situation of the Government of India.

Present system is scientifically sound.

8. I should be the last to wish to under-rate the difficulties connected with the administration of the Indian finances. Our standard of value is unstable. Our Opium revenue is precarious. The tax-paying community is poor and incapable of bearing any heavy burthens. War and famine are constantly recurring evils. The comparative absence of private capital throws upon the State many onerous duties which in other countries can be more advantageously performed through the agency of private enterprise. All this is true enough. But it is wholly erroneous to suppose that the difficulties of Indian financial administration, considerable though they be, are in any way connected with questions of technical finance. The issue is, in fact, a false one. The machinery for the conduct of our technical finance is remarkably good. I believe it may challenge comparison with that of any other Government in the world. The Accounts and Estimates represent truly and accurately the money received and spent by the Government. The surpluses are real surpluses, and the deficits are real deficits. The figures present neither an optimist nor a pessimist view of the financial situation. They give the bald and true facts of the situation as they stand, without exaggeration in one direction or another.

But is not generally understood.

9. But however scientifically sound and accurate may be our system of Accounts, nothing is more certain than that the public finds great difficulty in understanding the figures which are published on the occasion of the annual Financial Statement. In proof of this assertion I need only mention that a leading London newspaper, in reviewing the Budget last year, made a mistake of about £2,000,000, owing to a misapprehension of the true meaning of the Estimates as they were presented to the public.

Some reforms are desirable.

10. It is manifestly the duty of the Government to do all that it can to ensure a comprehension of its Accounts and Estimates. At the same time it is to be remembered that the financial transactions of the Government of India are very large and complicated. Those of the English Treasury are, relatively speaking, much more simple. No one can hope to gain a thorough insight into the true meaning of the Indian Accounts and Estimates unless he is prepared to devote a certain amount of time and trouble to the task. The most that the Government can do is to facilitate their comprehension to the utmost by arranging the figures in the most simple and concise form of which the circumstances admit.

And also possible.

11. The whole of this question has been fully considered within the last few months, and it has been found possible to re-arrange the figures in such a manner as to maintain intact our present system, which, as I have already said, is everything that can be desired from a departmental point of view, whilst at the same time I trust that the Accounts and Estimates in their new form will be more easily comprehensible to the public than appears heretofore to have been the case.

Description of existing system.

12. Before proceeding any further, it will be desirable that I should describe the forms in which the Accounts and Estimates have heretofore been presented to the public.

Documents heretofore attached to the Financial Statement.

13. Up to the present time the ten following documents have been appended to the Financial Statement :—

Statement I.—Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of India in India and in England.—This Statement gives the whole of the Revenue, whether Imperial, Provincial, or Local, under 29 major heads, and the whole of the Expenditure, whether Imperial, Provincial, or Local, under 37 major heads of Account.

Statement II.—Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of India in India and England.—The only difference between this Statement and Statement I is that the Revenue from Productive Public Works is shown separately, instead of being amalgamated with other Revenue connected with Public Works as is done in Statement I. A corresponding separation is made on the Expenditure side of the Account. It is on the figures, as arranged in this Statement, that the explanations given at the time of the Budget by the Financial Member of Council have heretofore been based.

Statement III.—Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of India in India and in England in the three Divisions, Imperial, Provincial, and Local.—This Statement gives the same figures as in Statements I and II, but arranged so as to show to what extent the Revenue and Expenditure are respectively Imperial, Provincial, and Local.

Statement IV.—Receipts and Disbursements of the Government of India in India and England.—This Statement gives the joint cash account of the Home and Indian Treasuries.

Statement V.—Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of India in India.—This Statement gives in detail the Revenue and Expenditure exclusive of all transactions in England.

Statement VI.—Revenue and Expenditure of the Home Treasury of the Government of India.—This Statement gives the detail of the Revenue and Expenditure in England.

Statement VII.—Receipts and Disbursements at the Treasuries of the Government of India in India.—This Statement shows what portion of the total sums given in Statement IV are received and disbursed in India.

Statement VIII.—Receipts and Disbursements at the Home Treasury of the Government of India.—This Statement shows what portion of the total sums given in Statement IV are received and disbursed in England.

Statement IX.—Closing Balances of the Provincial Governments.—Statement VII gives the closing balance of the Imperial and Provincial Governments collectively. Statement IX shows how much of this amount is reckoned at the credit of each Provincial Government.

Statement X.—Statement showing the net Revenue and Expenditure of India.—This Statement was published for the first time in March 1882.

Reasons why the Accounts are difficult to understand.

14. The difficulty of understanding the Indian Accounts and Estimates seems to arise mainly from two causes. In the first place they are too bulky. In the second place, the development of Provincial and Local Finance has given rise to the necessity of adjusting entries, which to those who are not fully acquainted with the somewhat complicated detail of the arrangements made between the Imperial and Provincial Governments are, without doubt, rather difficult to understand.

Bulkiness of Accounts and Estimates.

15. As regards the bulkiness of the published Statements, it is to be observed that under Mr. Wilson's classification in 1861 the Revenue was shown under 15, and the Expenditure under 23 major heads of Account. The Commissioners in their report of 1864 somewhat expanded this classification, and in 1866 Mr. Massey, adopting generally the proposals of the Commissioners, showed the Revenue under 20, and the Expenditure under 32 heads.

16. Since 1866 new administrative wants have sprung up, with the result that, in order to keep pace with those wants, it has from time to time been necessary to open new heads of Account. The passing of the Registration Acts led to the opening of a new head, entitled Registration, on both sides of the Account. The policy of financial decentralisation and the incorporation into the General Accounts of Local Revenue and Expenditure necessitated a new head of Account under the title of Provincial Rates. In 1870 the heading Minor Departments first made its appearance. The expenditure under this head had formerly appeared under Administration. With the adoption of the policy of lending Officers to Native States, the necessity arose of opening a new head of Account, entitled Civil Furlough Allowances. The major head of Famine Relief and Insurance, which is now divided into three sub-heads, viz., Relief, Protective Works, and Reduction of Debt, was opened as a necessary result of the famine policy of 1877 and 1881. It was also, from time to time, found necessary to add new heads of Revenue under the titles of Medical, Stationery, and Superannuation Contributions. But it is under Public Works that the greatest development has occurred. The single head Public Works on either side of the Account was all that was required in 1861. Exclusive of Capital Expenditure on Productive Public Works, which stands outside the Ordinary Account, and exclusive of the grants for Protective Works under Famine Relief and Insurance, we have now in Statement II no less than 9 figures on the Revenue, and 11 figures on the Expenditure side of the Account, representing Public Works transactions.

17. In all, Mr. Massey's 20 figures on the Revenue side of the Account had increased in March 1882 to 36, and his 32 figures on the Expenditure side of the Account had increased to 49.

Requirements of the public.

18. There is not one detail which is at present given in our Statements of Account, which, for departmental purposes, could be spared. On the other hand, it is impossible not to recognise that the Statements give more detail than is generally required by the public. What I conceive is mainly required by Parliament and by the public is to present the Accounts and Estimates in a form sufficiently concise and simple to be easily understood by those who do not make a special study of Indian Finance, but whose general knowledge of financial subjects enables them readily to understand an Account presented in a clear form. Full details should indeed, as at present, be published, but in a separate form.

How they may be met.

19. The only way in which we can attain the conciseness and simplicity required by the public, and at the same time meet the necessities of administrative and departmental convenience, will be to push the grouping of the heads one stage further than the "major heads" which have heretofore been shown in the documents appended to the Financial Statement. To make any material alteration in our major heads would either render an accurate comparison with the figures of past years impossible, which would be very objectionable, or it would involve the re-compilation of the Accounts of past years, which would be a very laborious process. With one exception, of slight importance, no such alteration is either desirable or necessary.

Division of one major head only.

20. The exception to which I allude, is in respect to the heading on the Expenditure side of the Account, which has up to the present time been entitled 27. Allowances and Assignments under Treaties and Engagements. In the classification adopted from 1861 to 1866, the charges under this head were treated along with refunds, and charges for the collection of Revenue, as direct charges against Revenue. This is also where they are placed in the existing General Account (No. 2 of the Finance and Revenue Accounts); and their close connection with this group is shown in two recent instances, namely, the Excise compensations paid in Bombay, and the payments under the Salt Treaties. Both of these are payments on account of Revenue, and are productive of a corresponding increase of Revenue. They are, therefore, not properly accounted for unless they are grouped as direct charges against Revenue. But such a payment as the yearly allowance of the Ex-King of Oudh, which also goes under this head, cannot properly be considered as a charge against Revenue. It may be more properly regarded as a purely political charge. We propose, therefore, in the future to break up the existing major head into two portions. One of these portions, entitled Assignments and Compensations, will be grouped under Direct Demands on the Revenue. The other, entitled Territorial and Political Pensions, will be grouped under Miscellaneous Civil Charges. With this exception no change will be made in the existing units of Account.

New classification.

21. I now invite attention to Appendix I attached to this Minute. This Appendix contains the six following documents:—

(1) General Statement of Accounts and Estimates.
(2) Abstract A, Details of Revenue.
(3) Abstract B, Details of Expenditure.
(4) Abstract C, Details of Receipts and Disbursements other than Revenue and Expenditure.
(5) Abstract D, Provincial and Local Balances.
(6) Abstract E, Net Revenue and Expenditure.

For the future these six Statements will take the place of the ten Statements heretofore published.

The General Statement.

22. Any one who wishes to see at a glance the nature of the whole of the financial transactions of the Government of India for the years under review need only look at the General Statement. He will there see the total Revenue and Expenditure,—whether Imperial, Provincial, or Local, and whether in India or in England,—grouped under a few main heads. He will also see the whole of the cash transactions, which stand outside the Revenue and Expenditure Account. He will also see the opening and closing balances of the Government, whether in England or in India. Thus, for instance, looking to the Accounts for the year 1881-82, it will be seen that the Revenue amounted to £73,695,806, and the total Expenditure charged against Revenue to £71,113,079, thus leaving a surplus of £2,582,727; that the total Receipts, including not only Revenue, but the net receipts on account of Debt, Deposits, and Advances, and the gross receipts of the Secretary of State on account of Bills drawn on India, amounted to £93,516,749; that the total Disbursements, including not only Expenditure charged against Revenue, but also Capital Expenditure on Productive Public Works and Disbursements on account of Debt, Deposits, and Advances and of Council Bills, amounted to £93,871,777; that the opening cash balance in England on April 1st, 1881, amounted to £4,127,749; that the opening cash balance in India on April 1st, 1881, amounted to £13,371,101; that the Secretary of State drew Bills on the Indian Treasury amounting to £18,412,429 between April 1st, 1881, and March 31st, 1882, and that Bills amounting to £18,336,997 were paid during the same period; that the closing cash balance in England on March 31st, 1882, amounted to £2,620,909; and that the closing cash balance in India on March 31st, 1882, amounted to £14,522,913. These are the leading financial features of the year.

Details in General Statement.

23. We have carefully considered the extent to which it will be desirable to give details in the General Statement. I may observe that in the main Statement attached to the Finance Accounts of the United Kingdom, the Revenue is shown under ten heads, and the Expenditure, excluding Interest on Debt, which for special reasons has eight heads to itself, is shown under fourteen heads. We have roughly taken the Statement issued by the English Treasury, which is an admirable composition of its kind, as a model for our guidance.

Principal Heads of Revenue.

24. The first entry in the General Statement on the Receipt side of the Account is Principal Heads of Revenue. This group contains eleven items (vide Abstract A), of which five only are shown separately in the General Statement. These are—

Land Revenue.
Opium.
Salt.
Stamps.
Excise.

25. These are the main heads of Indian Revenue. They have, following the English system, been arranged in what may approximately be considered the order of their relative importance. The remaining items grouped under Principal Heads of Revenue are classed in the General Statement under Other Heads. This entry includes the following heads :—

Provincial Rates.
Customs.
Assessed Taxes.
Forest.
Registration.
Tributes from Native States.

Any one who wishes to see the detail under these heads has only to turn over the page and look at Abstract A, to which he is referred in the first column of the General Statement.

Post Office, &c.

26. The next item is Post Office, Telegraph, and Mint. These are given in one figure in the General Statement, but are separated in Abstract A.

Receipts by Civil Departments.

27. The next entry in the General Statement is Receipts by Civil Departments, a term borrowed from the English Finance and Revenue Accounts. On turning to Abstract A it will be seen that this group includes the following heads of Account :—

Law and Justice.
Police.
Marine.
Education.
Medical.
Scientific and other Minor Departments.

Miscellaneous.

28. The entry Miscellaneous in the General Statement includes—

Interest.
Receipts in aid of Superannuations, &c.
Stationery and Printing.
Miscellaneous.

The details of each item are given in Abstract A.

Productive Public Works.

29. It will be borne in mind that in Statement II, under the old classification which is now to be superseded, the Revenue from Productive Public Works was shown separately from other Public Works Revenue, and that an analogous separation was made on the Expenditure side of the Account. It is very desirable to maintain this distinction. It has, therefore, been maintained in the General Statement. It is, of course, to be borne in mind that the word "Productive" has, for the purposes of the present argument, a technical signification. It is not to be inferred that a work not classed as Productive is entirely unremunerative. What is meant is that only Capital Expenditure on works classed as Productive is allowed to stand outside the Ordinary Account. Borrowing in respect to the construction of these works is permissible. Expenditure on all works not classed as Productive is charged to Revenue.

Revenue from Productive Public Works.

30. It will be seen on referring to Abstract A that the entry in the General Statement entitled Revenue from Productive Public Works, includes the following items :—

State Railways (Gross Earnings).
Guaranteed and Subsidized Railways (net Traffic Receipts).
East Indian Railway (net Traffic Receipts).
Irrigation and Navigation (Direct Receipts).
Madras Irrigation and Canal Company (net Traffic Receipts).
Portion of Land Revenue due to Irrigation.

Receipts on account of Public Works not classed as Productive.

31. The entry in the General Statement entitled Receipts on account of Public Works not classed as Productive, includes the following items :—

State Railways.
Subsidized Railways.
Irrigation and Navigation.
Military Works.
Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services.

Other Public Works.

32. Up to the present time the receipts and expenditure connected with Military Works and Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services, have appeared under the head 34. Other Public Works. This heading was first adopted in February 1880. The entry does not carry its own meaning with it, and on that account appears to be objectionable. As a matter of fact the money is spent partly on Military Works, which receive a fixed annual grant of £1,000,000, and partly on Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services. Under these circumstances the most simple plan appears to be to adopt a nomenclature in the Accounts which carries its own signification with it.

Receipts by Military Departments.

33. The next item in the General Statement, namely, Receipts by Military Departments, is divided, in Abstract A, into three heads, viz. :—

Army.
Military Operations in Afghanistan.
Military Operations in Egypt.

The two last items are, of course, exceptional, and only appear in the Accounts and Estimates of the years when Military Operations were conducted in Afghanistan and Egypt respectively.

Expenditure.

34. I now turn to the Disbursement side of the Account. Here again the Expenditure has been grouped under a few main heads, the detail being given in Abstract B, to which a reference is made in the first column of the General Statement.

Interest.

35. The first entry is Interest. It is to be borne in mind that this entry only gives the Interest charged to Ordinary Debt, that is to say, it is exclusive of the amount of Interest charged to Productive Public Works. This latter charge appears lower down in the General Statement, being included in the group entitled Expenditure on Productive Public Works (Revenue Account). The single head of Interest in the General Statement is, in Abstract A, divided into two heads, viz. :—

Direct Demands on the Revenue.

Interest on Ordinary Debt (excluding that charged to Productive Public Works), Interest on Deposits.

36. The next entry is Direct demands on the Revenues. This entry, as will be seen by reference to Abstract B, includes the following items :—

Refunds and Drawbacks.
Assignments and Compensations.
Charges in respect of Collection, viz. :—
Land Revenue.
Opium (including cost of production).
Salt (including cost of production).
Stamps.
Excise.
Provincial Rates.
Customs.
Assessed Taxes.
Forest:
Registration.

The whole of these items are payments on account of Revenue, that is to say, they are, to a greater or less degree, productive of a corresponding increase of Revenue. They are, therefore, properly grouped under Direct demands on the Revenues.

Post Office, &c.

37. The next entry is Post Office, Telegraph, and Mint. Following the course adopted on the Revenue side of the Account, the Expenditure under these three heads is shown in one figure in the General Statement. The detail is given in Abstract B.

Salaries and Expenses of Civil Departments.

38. The next entry in the General Statement is Salaries and Expenses of Civil Departments. A reference to Abstract B will show that this entry includes the following items:—

General Administration.
Law and Justice.
Police.
Marine (including River Navigation).
Education.
Ecclesiastical.
Medical.
Political.
Scientific and other Minor Departments.

Miscellaneous Civil Charges.

39. The next entry is Miscellaneous Civil Charges. A reference to Abstract B will show that this entry includes the following items:—

Territorial and Political Compensations.
Civil Furlough and Absentee Allowances.
Superannuation Allowances and Pensions.
Stationery and Printing.
Miscellaneous.

Famine Relief and Insurance.

40. The next entry is Famine Relief and Insurance. Up to the present time the expenditure on Protective Works, whether on Railways or Canals, has been shown in one figure. In future it is proposed to show the expenditure on Railways and that on Irrigation separately. The entry Famine Relief and Insurance in the General Statement, is, therefore, in Abstract B divided into the following sub-heads:—

Famine Relief.
Protective Works, Railways.
Protective Works, Irrigation.
Reduction of Debt.

Productive Public Works (Revenue Account).

41. The next entry is Expenditure on Productive Public Works (Revenue Account). This answers to the entry Revenue from Productive Public Works on the Revenue side of the Account. A reference to Abstract B will show that the details are given under the following heads:—

State Railways (Working and Maintenance).
Guaranteed and Subsidized Railways (Interest and Profits).
East Indian Railway (Interest and Profits).
Irrigation and Navigation (Working and Maintenance).
Madras Irrigation and Canal Company (Interest, &c.).
Interest on Debt incurred for Productive Public Works:— Railways.
Irrigation.
Miscellaneous Public Improvements.

42. The next entry is Expenditure on Public Works not classed as Productive. This answers to the entry Receipts on account of Public Works not classed as Productive on the Revenue side of the Account. A reference to Abstract B will show that the details are given under the following heads:—

State Railways (Capital Account).
State Railways (Working and Maintenance).
Subsidized Railways.
Southern Mahratta Railway.
Frontier Railways.
Irrigation and Navigation.
Military Works.
Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services.

Army Services.

43. The next entry, Army Services, is divided into three heads in Abstract B, viz.:—

Army.
Military Operations in Afghanistan.
Military Operations in Egypt.

The last two items are, of course, exceptional.

Gain by Exchange.

44. The next entry is Exchange on Transactions with London. Up to the present time one item, entitled Gain by Exchange, has been entered on the Revenue, and another item, entitled Loss by Exchange, has been entered on the Expenditure side of the Account. As regards the item Gain by Exchange, I beg to refer those who wish to gain a thorough knowledge of what this entry means to the Report of the Comptroller-General on the Accounts of 1880-81, which was published in the Gazette of India of March 4th, 1882. For my present purposes it will perhaps be sufficient to say that every rupee entered under Gain by Exchange represents merely the recovery of an amount which has been already charged under Loss by Exchange, and which has, therefore, to be written back. There is, I need hardly say, no real gain, using the term in its ordinary signification.

Loss by Exchange.

45. The true meaning of the entry Loss by Exchange has been very frequently explained (see especially para. 80 of the Financial Statement for 1881-82). But so long as we continue to employ the words heretofore used, so long will a large body of the public continue to think that the whole amount of this adjustment is really money lost to the tax-payers. To describe fully what this entry means would involve an amount of writing which would be quite inconsistent with the brevity necessarily required in an item of Account. But if we cannot describe what is meant in the body of the Accounts, we can, at all events, avoid the use of words which are misleading. To speak of the total amount entered under Loss by Exchange as money lost, is, of course, wholly erroneous, for under any reasonable hypothesis in respect to the relative value of gold and silver, only a portion of the amount can be considered as a real loss. We propose, therefore, for the future, in so far as the published Accounts are concerned, to get rid of the item Gain by Exchange on the Revenue side of the Account altogether, to discontinue the use of the word "Loss," and to insert a net figure on the Expenditure side of the Account, under the head of Exchange on Transactions with London.

Provincial Surpluses and Deficits.

46. Following the order of entries on the Disbursement side of the General Statement, the next items are the two adjusting entries, namely, Provincial Surpluses, that is, Allotments to Provincial Governments unspent by them, and Provincial Deficits, that is, Portion of Provincial Expenditure defrayed from Provincial Balances. For the moment I postpone my observations in respect to these two entries.

Total Expenditure charged against Revenue.

47. After these entries the Total Expenditure charged against Revenue is given.

Productive Public Works, Capital Account.

48. Immediately under this item comes the Expenditure on Productive Public Works (Capital Account). This is the same entry which has formerly figured in Statement II, under the head of 37. Productive Public Works. The detail of this entry is given at the end of Abstract B under the following heads:—

State Railways.
East Indian Railway.
Irrigation and Navigation.
Madras Irrigation and Canal Company's Undertakings.
Miscellaneous Public Improvements.

Debt Heads.

49. I have, so far, dealt only with the Revenue and Expenditure portions of the General Statement. I now proceed to deal with the Debt heads.

Receipts.

50. The Receipts under Debt, Deposits, and Advances are given under the following heads:—

Permanent Debt (net Incurred).
Unfunded Debt (net Incurred).
Deposits and Advances (net).
Loans to Municipalities, Native States, &c. (net Recoveries).
Capital of Guaranteed and Subsidized Companies (net Receipts).
Remittances (net).
Secretary of State's Bills drawn.

Disbursements.

51. Analogous entries are given in respect to the Disbursements on the other side of the Account. Full details in respect to the Debt, Deposit, and Advance Accounts will be found in Abstract C, which contains, indeed, more detailed information than has heretofore been given in Statements IV, VII, and VIII of the old classification.

Opening and Closing Balances.

52. The General Statement closes, on the Receipt side of the Account, with the balance at the commencement of the year in England and in India, and on the Disbursement side of the Account, with the balance at the close of the year in England and in India.

Provincial and Local Balances.

53. Abstract D gives the Provincial and Local Balances. This Account contains, in a somewhat condensed form, the same information as was given in Statement IX, Closing Balances of the Provincial Governments under the old classification.

Net Revenue and Expenditure.

54. Abstract E gives the Net Revenue and Expenditure. It contains the same information as was given in Statement X of the old classification, but arranged in a somewhat more precise form.

Adjusting entries.

55. I have so far stated what it is proposed to do with a view to making the Accounts and Estimates more simple and concise. I now propose to deal with the question of the adjusting entries entitled Provincial and Local Surpluses and Deficits, which, as I have already mentioned (para. 14) do not appear to be readily understood.

Explanation of entries.

56. The nature of these entries has frequently been explained before, but it will perhaps be as well that I should endeavour to explain them again. Under the Provincial system of Finance, the Government of India either makes allotments to Provincial Governments, or else hands over to them, in whole or in part, certain branches of the Revenue. If in any one year a Provincial Government spends less than its income, the amount by which it under-spends its income constitutes virtually a debt due by the Government of India to that Provincial Government. If, on the other hand, a Provincial Government, having a balance at its credit, spends in any one year, in addition to the income of that year, a portion of the accumulated balances of former years, then the debt due by the Government of India to that Provincial Government is by so much reduced. It would, of course, be very easy to present an Account which should show nothing but Imperial Revenue and Expenditure, and such an Account would, no doubt, be much more readily understood by the public than one which embodies Imperial, Provincial, and Local Revenue and Expenditure. But it has been held, and I venture to think rightly held, that the adoption of this course is open to very great objection. It would not present an accurate picture of the sums received and spent by the Government in India. Thus, to take a single instance, under this system the Stamp Revenue for the year 1881-82 would appear as amounting only to £576,252 (see Appendix I. Abstract A), but, as a matter of fact, the Revenue derived from Stamps amounted to £3,381,372, of which £576,252 was Imperial and £2,805,120 was Provincial and Local. If, therefore, we want to show the total amount received and spent by the Government in India, and if at the same time we want to show in the same Account the net result of the year's finance to the Imperial Government only, it is absolutely necessary to make use of two adjusting entries. The Provincial Surpluses, that is to say the amounts by which the Provincial Governments have underspent their income and which, as I have already said, constitute a debt due from the Government of India to the Provincial Governments, must be added to the total expenditure. On the other hand, the Provincial Deficits, that is to say the portion of Provincial expenditure which has been defrayed from the accumulated Provincial balances of past years, and which, by so much, diminishes the debt due from the Government of India to the Provincial Governments, must be deducted from the total expenditure. This is done in the two adjusting entries which appear on the Disbursement side of the Account in the General Statement.

57. It is very possible, however, even with this explanation, and in spite of the explanatory language now employed for the first time in the General Statement,—to which I invite a reference,—that the matter will not be very readily understood. I have, therefore, appended to this Minute a memorandum (Appendix IV) which deals with the question at greater length, and which may possibly serve to render it more clear to the few people who are interested in the subject. Further, it will be seen on reference to Abstracts A and B of Appendix I that a separation is made between the Imperial Revenue and Expenditure on the one hand, and the Provincial and Local Revenue and Expenditure on the other hand. It will be seen that the Imperial Revenue and Expenditure in England and in India are shown separately, as was the case in Statements V and VI heretofore published. The whole of the Provincial and Local Revenue and Expenditure is in India, at least the few English items are brought on the Indian part of the Accounts. No such separation is, therefore, necessary. In Statement III, formerly published, the Provincial Revenue and Expenditure was shown separately from the Local Revenue and Expenditure. It has been thought, however, unnecessary to continue this separation so far as the Accounts and Estimates attached to the Financial Statement are concerned. It will be seen that in Abstracts A and B no such separation is made. A reference to the columns showing Imperial Revenue and Expenditure alone in Abstracts A and B will show, that although, of course, the several items are different to those shown in the General Statement—Provincial and Local Revenue and Expenditure being included in the latter,—the net result is the same as that given in the General Statement after the adjusting entries have been made. Thus, looking at the Accounts for the year 1881-82, the Total Revenue is given in the General Statement as £73,695,806, and the Total Expenditure charged against Revenue is given as £71,113,079, leaving a surplus of £2,582,727. In Abstract A the Imperial Revenue only is given as £54,618,853, and in Abstract B the Imperial Expenditure charged against Revenue is given at £52,036,126, thus leaving, as in the General Statement, a surplus of £2,582,727.

Adjustments in former Statement III.

58. A further change has been made which will, I trust, help towards the ready comprehension of this subject. If reference be made to Statement III, published on the occasion of former Financial Statements, in which a distinction is made between Imperial, Provincial, and Local Revenue and Expenditure, it will be seen that the following entries appear on the Expenditure side of the Account :—

Add—

Contributions to Imperial.
,, ,, Provincial.
,, ,, Local.

Deduct—

Imperial Allotment.
Contributions from Imperial.
,, ,, Provincial.
,, ,, Local.

To be discontinued.

59. These adjustments are, without doubt, somewhat complicated and difficult to understand. For the future we propose to get rid of them altogether by passing all adjustments between Imperial and Provincial through the Land Revenue head, that is to say, they will be treated as additions to or subtractions from the Provincial share of the Land Revenue. It will be seen, on referring to the end of Abstract B, that no such entries appear as those which I have quoted from Statement III of the old classification.

Fallacy of leaving Adjusting Entries out of account.

60. I am aware that it may,—and by those who are resolved to take an ultra-pessimist view of the financial position of India, very probably will,—be said that the surplus of £59,800 shown, for instance, in the Revised Estimates for 1882-83, is fictitious, and that the correct view of the situation is to take no account of the adjusting Entries and thus show a deficit of £1,465,600. I can only say that any such statement would be wholly incorrect. As I have already said (para. 8), I am very far from wishing to under-rate the difficulties connected with the administration of the Indian Finances. It is not the duty of the Government, nor is it my duty, to take either an optimist or a pessimist view of the situation, but to lay before the public the facts of the situation as they stand, without exaggeration either in one direction or the other. But I may say that, whatever be the real difficulties connected with the financial administration of India, nothing could be more incorrect than to say, that because the Imperial and Provincial Revenue, taken together, falls short of the Imperial and Provincial Expenditure, taken together, in 1882-83 by £1,465,600, that, therefore, there is anything unsound in the financial situation, or that the surplus on Imperial Account does not in reality exist. On the contrary, so far as this particular argument is concerned, the fact that the Provincial Governments have been able to accumulate considerable sums in past years, and are now able to spend those sums, to a certain extent, on works of public utility, is in itself exceedingly satisfactory. The fallacy of this argument will perhaps become apparent if we look at the converse case presented in the Accounts of 1881-82. The true Imperial Surplus in that year, as appears from the General Statement and from Abstract B, is £2,582,727. But, under the assumption that the adjusting entries should be left out of account, the Surplus would be £4,102,519, that is to say £2,582,727 on Imperial and £1,519,792 on Provincial and Local Accounts. So, again, if we look at the Accounts for the last eleven years, that is to say; from 1871-72 to 1881-82, both inclusive (see Appendix III), it will be seen that there

Revenue	67,913,900
Expenditure	69,379,500
Deficit . .	1,465,600

Revenue (Abstract A) . .	73,695,806
Expenditure (Abstract B) .	69,593,287
Surplus . .	4,102,519

have been six years in which the Revenue exceeded the Expenditure, the combined surpluses amounting to £11,494,784. Further, that there have been five years in which the Expenditure exceeded the Revenue, the combined deficits amounting to £12,760,621. The net result of the eleven years is, therefore, a deficit of £1,265,837, a result which, I may observe, cannot be considered as otherwise than satisfactory when it is remembered that during these years two severe famines and one costly war took place, and that the Expenditure includes nearly £1,500,000 as an insurance against future famines. But if we exclude the adjusting entries, we should arrive at a wholly different result. The eleven years would then show a net surplus of £2,041,494, that is to say, this incorrect mode of treatment would show a result of £3,307,331 better than the reality (see the end of Abstract B in Appendix III).

Conclusion.

61. Such, therefore, are the steps we propose to take with a view to facilitate the comprehension of the Indian Accounts and Estimates. It will be seen that the bulk of the published Statements is very considerably diminished, and yet I venture to think that all the details that are really necessary have been given. I need hardly say that for those who require to go into further detail, the Finance and Revenue Accounts (generally known as the Yellow Book), which have always been published, will be available, as well as the Appropriation Audit Report of the Comptroller General, which is published for the first time this year (see Gazette of India of March 17th, 1883).

62. The discussions which will, without doubt, ensue in connection with the Financial Statement now published, will probably show whether the object we have had in view has been attained. It is very possible that neither the officers of the Financial Department nor myself are good judges of what will and what will not be readily understood by the public. It is not impossible that our own familiarity with the subject, and the fact that it is our special business to be constantly dealing with these figures, leads us to suppose that the whole subject is more easy of comprehension than is really the case.

Old classification published.

63. With a view to enabling the nature of the changes now made to be more readily understood, I have annexed to this Minute (Appendix II) the Accounts for the year 1881-82 as well as the Estimates for the years 1882-83 and 1883-84 in the forms heretofore published.

Accounts of former years.

64. With a view, also, to enabling comparisons to be more easily made with former years, I annex to this Minute the Accounts from the year 1871-72 arranged according to the new classification (Appendix III).

Appendices.

65. It has heretofore been the custom to publish as Appendices to the Financial Statement, a series of commercial and statistical tables. These will, as heretofore, be published, (see Gazette of India of March 17th, 1883) but they will not be appended to the Financial Statement. They will be published separately. In future years the only Statements which will ordinarily be annexed to the Financial Statement will be—

(1) The General Statement.
(2) Abstract A, Details of Revenue.
(3) Abstract B, Details of Expenditure.
(4) Abstract C, Details of Receipts and Disbursements other than Revenue and Expenditure.
(5) Abstract D, Provincial and Local Balances.
(6) Abstract E, Net Revenue and Expenditure.

Services rendered by various officers.

66. I cannot close these remarks without expressing my cordial thanks, on behalf of the Government of India, for the assistance rendered by Mr. Cave

Browne and Mr. Waterfield at the India Office, and by Mr. Westland and Mr. Barbour in India, in dealing with this complicated subject. Should the object we have in view be attained, and the Accounts and Estimates of the future be more readily comprehensible to the public than heretofore, the credit will be mainly due to the labours of these gentlemen.

III.—Accounts for 1881-82.

Accounts, 1881-82.

67. The Accounts of the year 1881-82 show the following result:—

Revenue	73,695,806
Expenditure	71,113,079
Surplus .	2,582,727

Remarks on the Accounts.

68. The year 1881-82 was in every respect one of remarkable prosperity. Almost every branch of Revenue yielded a sum largely in excess of the Estimates. The net Opium Estimate (£6,500,000) was exceeded by £1,305,000, of which £1,099,400 was due to excess Revenue and £205,600 to relatively low Expenditure consequent on a rather short Opium crop in Behar. Salt gave (net) £164,400 in excess of the Budget, and £220,400 in excess of the Revised Estimate. Excise gave £398,400 (net) in excess of the Budget Estimate. The import duties were abolished on March 10th, and allowance was made in the Revised Estimates for a falling off in Customs Revenue during the last three weeks of the year on that account. This falling off was, however, more than counterbalanced by the excess receipts from the export duty on rice, which yielded £104,100 more than the Budget Estimate. Owing to a large demand for timber, Forests gave (net) £117,800 in excess of the Budget Estimate. A large premium (£155,300) was realised on the Government loan of £3,000,000, which was taken up at an exceptionally high figure (105$\frac{3}{16}$). State Railways yielded (net) £119,100 in excess of the Budget, and £101,100 in excess of the Revised Estimates. Guaranteed and Subsidised Railways (net Traffic Receipts, after deduction of Interest and Profits) yielded no less than £722,700 in excess of the Budget, and £136,700 in excess of the Revised Estimates. The East Indian Railway (net Traffic Receipts) gave £461,900 in excess of the Budget, and £151,900 in excess of the Revised Estimates.

Extraordinary Receipts and Expenditure.

69. It is true that the surplus of the year was swelled by some extraordinary receipts. The portion, which remained to be brought to account during the year, of the English Contribution for the Afghan War, exceeded the net War expenditure of the year by £380,600 (see para. 70 of the Financial Statement for 1882-83 and para. 196 of the Appropriation Audit Report for 1881-82). Also the Salt Revenue during the last three weeks of the year was exceptionally high. I shall presently allude more specifically to this subject (see paras. 112—115). On the other hand, some very heavy extraordinary payments were made and the Expenditure under Exchange was largely in excess of the Estimates. The amount (£670,000) contributed by the Provincial Governments to the Afghan War Expenditure was repaid to those Governments by the Government of India. Special payments, amounting in all to £360,000, were made in connection with the renewal of the Provincial contracts (see paras. 64 and 70 of the Financial Statement for 1882-83). The Expenditure under Exchange exceeded the Estimate by no less than £493,700. This excess was mainly due (1) to the fact that a large demand for bills sprung up at the end of the year, which enabled the Secretary of State to draw £1,212,400 (true sterling) in excess of his requirements for 1881-82, and (2) to the fact that the average rate obtained on the whole of the remittances (£18,412,429, true sterling), was 1*s.* 7·895*d.* against an Estimate of 1*s.* 8*d.*

70. On the whole, it may be said that, if the exceptional expenditure as well as the extraordinary items of Revenue be excluded from the account, the surplus would appear largely in excess even of the high figure (£2,582,727) which it actually attained.

71. For further details in connection with the Accounts of 1881-82, I beg to refer to the Comptroller General's Appropriation Audit Report published in the Gazette of India of March 17th, 1883.

IV.—Effect of abolishing the Import Duties.

Effect of abolishing the Import Duties.

72. It is of course too early yet to gauge the full measure of the advantage which India will ultimately derive from the abolition of the import duties, but the figures annexed to this Minute (Appendix V) are of some interest.

73. Exclusive of Government stores the imports of merchandise in the ten months from April 1st, 1882, to January 31st, 1883, amounted to £41,945,202, being £2,775,718 in excess of the imports for the corresponding period of 1881-82 (£39,169,484). The exports amounted to £65,770,066, being £1,324,783 in excess of the corresponding period of the year 1881-82 (£64,445,283).

Import of articles exempted from duty.

74. I append also (Appendix V) a Statement showing the quantities and values of those articles imported into British India, which were exempted from Customs duty last March, during the ten months ending January 31st, 1883, compared with the corresponding period of the year 1881-82.

Increase of Imports.

75. The articles in which an increase is shown in both quantity and value are 40 in number, the most important being Twist and Yarn, which have increased 11·59 per cent. in quantity and 7·5 per cent. in value; Grey Piece-goods, which have increased 1·92 per cent. in quantity and 2·0 per cent. in value; Coloured Piece-goods, which have increased 29·43 per cent. in quantity and 29·47 in value; Hardware and Cutlery, which have increased 22·88 in value; Copper, which has increased 32·07 in quantity and 31·01 in value; Iron, which has increased 34·12 in quantity and 37·59 in value; and Raw Silk, which has increased 43·80 per cent. in quantity and 52·28 per cent. in value. The increase in some minor articles of trade, such as Corals, Jewellery, Brass, Paints and Colours, Shells and Cowries, and Umbrellas are satisfactory indications of general prosperity.

Decrease of Imports.

76. The articles of trade in which a decrease is shown are 14 in number, the most important being White Piece-goods, which have decreased 18·35 per cent. in quantity and 10·88 in value; Silk Piece-goods, which have decreased 25·26 in quantity and 24·89 per cent. in value; and Tea, which has decreased 15·30 per cent. in quantity and 12·72 per cent. in value.

77. The total value of the articles of trade in which there has been an increase is £28,517,941, and of those in which there has been a decrease, £5,499,360; so that, of all articles affected by the remission of the duties, those in which the trade has increased represent a value of more than five times as great as that of the articles in which there has been a decrease. If we balance one set against the other, the total increase in the value of merchandise imported during the ten months is 7·26 per cent. It is, of course, impossible to say with accuracy how far this increase is due to the abolition of the duties and how far it would have taken place had the duties been maintained. All that can be said with certainty on this subject is that the abolition of the duties must have contributed to increase the volume of trade.

General result.

78. Considering the low rate of exchange, which has, of course, operated unfavourably to imports, and considering the Egyptian complications, which not only for some time interrupted trade but, by creating a demand for Government transport, kept freights during part of the year at a higher level than they otherwise would have been, the result may be considered as satisfactory. In a slow-moving country such as India, it was not to be expected that the full advantage to be derived from the abolition of the import duties would be immediately obtained, or that consumption would increase at once in the ratio known to European countries.

79. The relief afforded to trade in general owing to the cessation of all the embarrassment and delay consequent on the levy of duties at the custom-house, cannot be represented in any arithmetical form It is, however, a very important factor in the consideration of the question. The complaints on various petty matters, which were so frequently addressed to the Government whilst the duties were levied, have now almost entirely ceased.

Effect on Indian goods.

80. Independently of the question of the effect of the abolition of the import duties on the volume of the trade, it is desirable to examine whether the abolition has exercised any appreciable effect upon the import trade in those articles which compete with Indian-made goods of similar kinds.

Cotton goods.

81. Of such articles the most important are Cotton Twist and Cotton Piece-goods. In respect to these articles there has been a general increase, both in the quantity and the value of the imports, except under the head of White Piece-goods.

Twist.

82. The Twist which is imported from Europe does not compete with Indian Twist. For years past the great bulk of the Twist imported has been of counts much higher than any that can as yet be made in the Indian mills, which limit themselves to the production of Twist of counts not exceeding 32 (Mule) and 20 (Water). All such kinds of English Twist were freed from duty in March 1878.

Piece-goods.

83. Of the Grey Piece-goods imported, those classes which compete with Indian-made goods were also exempted from duty in March 1879.

84. White Piece-goods are hardly produced at all as yet in India, except experimentally in one or two of the Bombay mills. As I have already mentioned, there has been a large decline in the imports of this class of goods.

85. The Piece-goods classed as "Other sorts" are not made in India.

86. The remission of the customs duties last year did not, therefore, in any way affect Indian mills, which have had to work without the protection of 3½ per cent. on Twist since March 1878 and of 5 per cent. on Grey Piece-goods of counts below 30*s*, since March 1879. As was pointed out in the Financial Statement of last year (paras. 210 and 211), the duty which was abolished last March really protected one class of Manchester goods against another, and even to some slight extent protected English goods against those manufactured in India. The duty forced trade into an artificial channel by stimulating the consumption of the coarser kinds of goods and discouraging the use of medium and finer classes to the extent of a differential rate of 5 per cent. I believe I am correct in stating that since the remission of the duty consumers have everywhere shown a tendency to go back to the old styles of cloth.

Export of Cotton goods.

87. The export of Indian-made Cotton Twist and Piece-goods has increased very largely as compared with the corresponding period of 1881-82. The export of Twist has increased by 44·9 per cent., namely, from 26,346,556 lbs. to 38,179,998 lbs., the increase in the China trade being especially remarkable. Piece-goods have increased to the extent of 31·3 per cent., namely, from 25,484,391 yds. to 33,454,359 yds. I am informed that eight new mills are in course of erection in Bombay, and will commence work during the current year. The prosperity of the mill-owners depends of course to a large extent upon the course of prices. Prices have fallen during the year, with the result that if we look not at the quantities, but at the values, we find that the value of Twist exported has only increased by 29 per cent. and that of Piece-goods by 20 per cent. It is, however, abundantly clear that the Indian cotton trade has in no way been detrimentally affected by the measures taken last March.

Raw Silk.

88. The import of Raw Silk has very largely increased as compared with the corresponding period of last year, although prices have been fully maintained. It is to a great extent of Chinese origin imported into Bombay for the silk mills and for hand-loom weaving, and into Burma for hand-loom weaving only. Bengal is the only Province of India where the silk-producing industry is conducted on any extensive scale. For many years past it has been in a declining condition. China silk competes with it not only in the European market but in India itself. Bengal has never been able to send any considerable quantity of silk to Bombay, which is supplied almost wholly from sources external to India. But with Madras, Bengal has formerly done a considerable trade, and this trade appears to be declining. On the other hand, the export of raw silk from Bengal to foreign countries has again given some signs of returning vigour, having increased from 281,966 lbs. to 372,072 lbs., which is, however, still below the figure of the corresponding ten months of 1880-81 (398,323 lbs.).

Sugar.

89. Last year, when the import duties were abolished, some apprehension was expressed lest their abolition should injuriously affect the sugar industry of India, and it was urged that that industry stood in need of protection. Without going into the question of the principle involved in this argument, it will be sufficient for me to say that the experience of ten months has shown that no injury to the sugar industry of India has resulted from the abolition of the duties. For all practical purposes it may be said that all the sugar imported into India is refined or crystallized sugar, which is brought from Mauritius and China to Bombay. Refined sugar is only produced to a very small extent in Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and Madras. It is almost all used for local consumption by Europeans. In the places where such sugar is consumed no sugar has as yet been imported from abroad. The Indian export trade in sugar is carried on mostly from Madras. By far the greater portion is unrefined sugar, that is to say, molasses, jaggery, etc. The removal of the duty, therefore, did not affect Indian sugar at all, and in fact could not have done so. It appears also from the Trade Returns that, whilst the import of refined sugar has decreased from 666,587 cwt. to 519,367 cwt., that is to say by 22 per cent., the export from India of unrefined sugar has increased from 758,054 cwt. to 1,069,509 cwt., that is to say by 41 per cent. Further, the export of refined sugar, which was only 15,580 cwt. in 1880-81 and 29,008 cwt. in 1881-82, increased in 1882-83 to 98,273 cwt. Again, if we look at the internal trade of India, the exports of refined sugar from Bengal to Bombay have increased from 29,465 cwt. in the whole of the year 1881-82 to 61,682 cwt. in the ten months ending January 31st, 1883.

Tea.

90. Tea is one of the articles which was relieved from duty last March. The imports, however, have not increased, but have, on the contrary, fallen off from 2,393,413 lbs. to 2,027,119 lbs., a reduction of 15¼ per cent. Much of the tea imported into India is intended for trans-frontier consumption in Central Asia. The import trade has, without doubt, been a good deal checked by the heavy duties which are imposed by the Russian Government.

Tobacco.

91. The import of Tobacco has increased from 1,146,803 lbs. to 1,316,350 lbs., an increase of 14¾ per cent., which is very possibly due to the reduction of the duty. This increase of imports has not, however, resulted in any reduction in the consumption of Indian tobacco, the demand for Indian cigars being not only undiminished but increasing.

Importations of silver.

92. A very noticeable feature in the transactions of the year is the large amount of treasure imported (vide Appendix V). During the ten months ending January 31st, 1883, the value of the exports of merchandise exceeded that of the imports by £22,153,355. The debt thus due from Europe to India was paid (1) by the net importation of treasure to the extent of £11,193,922, of which £4,394,651 was gold and £6,799,271 silver, and (2) by drafts of the Secretary of State on the Indian Treasury to the extent of £12,804,500, thus leaving a balance of £1,845,067 remitted to India in apparent excess of the trade requirements of the ten months.

93. During the corresponding period of 1881-82 the excess of exports over imports was £23,524,590, the net imports of treasure amounted to only £7,061,635, of which £4,214,855 was gold and £2,846,780 silver, and the amount of Secretary of State's Bills paid was £17,381,100, leaving a balance of £918,145 remitted to India in apparent excess of the trade requirements of the ten months.

94. Attached to Appendix V will be found a few observations upon the progress made in the policy of purchasing Government Stores in India instead of in England. As I have before pointed out it will not be possible to make any very serious impression on the amount of stores imported from England until iron work and machinery, equal in quality and not superior in price to that manufactured in England, can be made in India.

V.—Effect of reducing the Duty on Salt.

Effect of reducing the Duty on Salt.

95. It will be remembered that prior to March 10th, 1882, the duty levied on Salt in Bengal was R2-14 a maund. Elsewhere, except in Burma and the trans-Indus districts of the Punjab, duty was levied at the rate of R2-8 a maund. On March 10th, 1882, the duty was reduced to an uniform rate of R2 a maund all over India, except in Burma and the trans-Indus districts of the Punjab, where no change was made.

96. The main points to be considered in connection with the reduction of the duty are (1) whether the retail price of Salt has fallen, and (2) whether consumption has increased.

Fall of retailed price.

97. As regards the first point, there can be no doubt whatever that, generally speaking, the reduction has, to a greater or less extent according to the circumstances of each locality, reached the consumer. The following table shows the retail price per maund of Salt (1) in the second half of February 1882, that is to say, immediately before the reduction of the duty; (2) in the first half of June 1882, that is to say, about three months after the reduction; and (3) in the first half of January 1883, that is to say, about 10 months after the reduction.

The figures give the average price struck on the totals for all the districts in each province.

Average fall of price.

Official reports.

99. The testimony of official reports confirms the conclusion to be drawn from the price lists. Thus, to quote one of many such reports, the Deputy Commissioner of the Sonthal Pergunnahs, writing very shortly after the reduction of duty says—

"The most important change is that in the retail price of common eating Salt. The "reduction of duty reached the masses to a certain extent before the close of the year "under report (1881-82). It has since reached them even more perceptibly. This reduc- "tion in cost may have an important effect upon this district, for it may lead to a very "considerable expansion of the fishing industries, and thus provide occupation for the "surplus population and for the agricultural population when work on the land is slack. "One consignment of coarse salt has, I hear, been already sent to Sahibgunge for fish- "curing purposes. * * * * Salt-fish, properly prepared, "would be an important and valuable addition to the food-supply of this district."

"A large future," the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal observes in reviewing this report, "lies before this (the fish-curing) industry."

Publicity.

100. It will be remembered that some special measures were adopted with a view to ensuring publicity being given to the reduction of the duty. These measures appear to have been generally attended with success. In Behar, especially, a recent report says "the news that the Salt Tax had been reduced " * * * is said to have spread with unexampled quickness."

Increased consumption.

101. I now turn to the question of increased consumption. The following table shows the consumption during the eleven months from March 1st, 1882, to January 31st, 1883, compared with the corresponding period of the year 1881-82. The figures for Burma are excluded, as no change was made last March in the rate of duty levied in that province. I may remark, however, that the consumption in Burma has up to the present time been less in 1882-83 than it was in 1881-82.

,, 1882	,,	1883		+1,603,000

Difficulty of making accurate comparisons.

103. So many changes have been made since 1873 that it is difficult, by any comparison with past years, to arrive at a thoroughly accurate conclusion as to the extent to which consumption has been stimulated by the reduction of the duty. Of course, under normal circumstances, as the population grows the consumption of Salt will also increase, if no disturbing elements, such as a change in the rate of duty or a famine, intervene. This normal growth of consumption has generally been taken at rather less than 1 per cent. It is, however, to be observed that the large increase in 1879-80 (1,724,000 maunds) followed on a year of relatively low consumption and was again followed by a year of relatively low consumption. On the other hand, 1881-82 was a year of high consumption, the increase being 1,016,000 maunds over 1880-81. It is, therefore, especially satisfactory to note that, in spite of the high consumption in 1881-82, the year 1882-83 shows an increase of no less than 1,603,000 maunds. There can be no doubt that a very considerable portion of this increase is due to the reduction in the duty.

104. If we turn to the details of each province, some remarkable differences in the rate of increase are observable.

Madras.

105. The largest increase (14·29 per cent.) is shown in Madras. This was to be expected. As I mentioned in the last Financial Statement (para. 199) the people of Southern India require more Salt than the more Northern populations, whose principal food consists of wheat and pulses. Moreover, the people in Madras have, in quite recent times, been accustomed to a lower rate of duty. In view to the abolition of the Customs Line the duty in Southern India was raised in December 1877 from Re. 1-13 to R2-8 a maund. In consequence, consumption was, without doubt, curtailed. It was to be expected that, so soon as the duty was reduced, the people would readily go back to their old rate of consumption.

106. The reduction of duty is not, however, the sole reason why the increase is so large in Madras. In the first place a great deal has been done within the last year or so to improve the organisation of the Salt Department in the Madras Presidency, with the result that illicit consumption has probably been to some extent checked. And, in the second place, Madras Salt has been for some years displacing the Salt supplied from Pooree. The figures given in the margin show that the quantity of Salt supplied from the Pooree warehouses has been steadily falling off for the last four years, and that the falling off in 1882 has been especially remarkable.

	Maunds.
1879-80	308,384
1880-81	241,559
1881-82	163,932
1882-83 (ten months)	90,722

Sind.

107. The increase in consumption in Sind has been nearly as great as in Madras, viz., 12·16 per cent. The total consumption in this province is, however, small. A portion of the increase is probably due to Sind Salt having to some extent taken the place of Rock Salt in the Lower Punjab.

Bombay.

108. The increase in Bombay, though considerable (7·66 per cent.) falls far short of that in Madras and Sind. A portion of this increase is, without doubt, due to Bombay Salt having to some extent displaced Sambhur Lake Salt in Northern and Central India.

Bengal.

109. Bengal shows an increase of 6·29 per cent. I have already mentioned (para. 106) that the territorial area supplied from Bengal has, in one quarter, been restricted, owing to Madras having, to some extent, taken the place of Pooree Salt. On the other hand, the abolition of the differential rate of duty on sea-borne Salt has, of course, placed that Salt in a better position to compete with Sambhur Lake Salt in the North-West Provinces and Oudh. An indication of the extent to which this displacement has taken place is given in the following figures, which show the quantity of Cheshire Salt imported by rail into the North-West Provinces and Oudh during the last four years:—

	Maunds.
1879-80	32,306
1880-81	27,405
1881 82	31,957
1882-83 (six months only)	107,589

There was also during the year, for the first time, an importation of Cheshire Salt,—to the extent of about 10,000 maunds,—into the Central Provinces.

Inland Customs.

110. The only quarter where a decrease is shown is under the head of "Inland Customs." This is mainly Sambhur Lake Salt, which supplies Northern India. The territorial area heretofore supplied from this source has been much restricted. As I have already mentioned (paras. 108-109) Bombay Salt from the west, and Cheshire Salt from the east, have both pushed their way into the territory heretofore supplied mainly from the Sambhur Lake. Under these circumstances, the fact that there has only been a decrease of 1·07 per cent. on the Salt sold by the Inland Customs Department shows that the people, within the more limited area now supplied by that Department, have increased their consumption. This was to be expected, for it is certain that the abolition of the Customs Line in 1878 resulted in a great rise of price in the Native States of Rajputana, and that the people of those States, in consequence of the enhanced price, curtailed both their own personal consumption and that of their cattle. It was, therefore, to be expected that, with a reduction of duty, a tendency would be shown to revert to the old rate of consumption. The Governor-General's Agent reports that "there is no doubt whatever that the "late reduction has reached the consumer and, generally speaking, I may say "that he has benefited exactly to the extent of the reduction made in the duty."

Financial effect of reduction.

111. Turning to the financial effect of the measure, it is to be observed that an increase of consumption to the extent of 1,603,000 maunds represents, at Rs. 2 a maund, an additional revenue of £320,600. To the extent of this sum, therefore, it may be said that the loss of revenue consequent on the reduction of duty (£1,400,000) has been recouped by the increased consumption of eleven months.

Comparison with Estimate.

112. Regarding the matter from the point of view of the anticipations framed last March, it is to be observed that, in order to arrive at a proper appreciation of the facts of the case, it is necessary to consider the figures for the years 1881-82 and 1882-83 together. The duty, it will be remembered, was lowered on March 10th, 1882. The immediate effect of the reduction was to give a great stimulus to clearances of Salt in Bengal, and, although to a less degree, to wholesale purchases elsewhere. The market became over-stocked, and consequently during the early months of the current financial year, the revenue suffered. It follows, therefore, that the revenue of 1881-82 was disproportionately increased, and that of 1882-83 disproportionately diminished, by the course of trade during the last three weeks of March 1882.

113. The gross revenue for 1881-82, after making what was at the time considered a reasonable allowance for a reduction of the revenue during the last three weeks of the year, was, in framing the Revised Estimates, taken at £7,213,000. The actual receipts were £7,375,620, being £162,620 in excess of the estimate.

114. The gross Revenue for 1882-83 was estimated last March at £6,049,000. It is now estimated at £6,128,700, being £79,700 in excess of the Budget Estimate. This figure does not, however, accurately represent the full amount by which the Revised exceeds the Budget Estimate of Revenue. The Expenditure under Salt is now taken at £139,600 less than the Budget Estimate. To the extent of £59,000 this large decrease of Expenditure is due to the following cause. At the commencement of the financial year a system prevailed in Northern India under which Salt was conveyed by the Government from the Salt sources to certain depôts. The charges likely to be incurred on account of transport from the sources to the depôts appeared on the Expenditure side of the Estimates of 1882-83, and, inasmuch as the cost of transport was added to the selling price of Salt at the depôts, an analogous amount appeared on the Revenue side of the Estimates. During the year the depôt system was abandoned, with the result that both the Revenue and Expenditure under Salt were reduced to the extent of £59,000. The real excess of Revenue over the Budget Estimate is, therefore, not £79,700, but (£79,700 + £59,000) £138,700.

115. Taking the two years together, therefore, the result is that the Estimate of gross Revenue framed last March stood at £13,262,000, and that the Estimate now stands at £13,504,320, being £242,320 in excess of the Original Estimate. To this figure, however, it is, as I have already explained, necessary to add a sum of £59,000, thus bringing up to £301,320, the true figure by which the Salt Revenue has exceeded the Estimate framed last March.

Results satisfactory.

116. Very rapid advance in this, or in any other matter, is not to be expected in India. But on the whole it may be said that the results obtained so far in connection with the reduction in the duty on Salt are satisfactory. The progress in the direction of increased consumption has been greater than was anticipated at the time the Budget Estimate was framed last March. Should the same rate of increase continue the Revenue, at the reduced rate of duty, will in less than three years from the present time stand at the same figure as it did prior to the reduction of the duty.

VI.—Revised Estimates for 1882-83.

Revised Estimates for 1882-83.

117. Up to the present time the Estimates for the year about to expire, which are presented at the time the Financial Statement is made, have been termed the Regular Estimates. I have been unable to discover how or why the word "Regular" came to be adopted. It was used by Mr. Laing in 1861. It was not used on the occasion of the Financial Statement of 1862, but it reappeared in 1863, and its meaning was explained by Sir Charles Trevelyan in a foot-note. Since 1863 the word has always been used.

118. There does not appear to be any reason for continuing the use of a word, which can only be understood by those who know the technical meaning attached to it, when another word, which any one can understand, is available. For the future, therefore, the word "Revised" will be used instead of "Regular."

119. I proceed to deal with the Revised Estimates for the year 1882-83.

General Situation in March 1882.

120. The financial year which is about to close has presented many remarkable features. At the commencement of the year the salient points of the financial situation were as follows. The country had at length recovered from the disastrous effects of the famine of 1877-78. The return of peace enabled the Government to turn its attention to those fiscal and domestic reforms, the consideration of which had necessarily been postponed during the continuance of the Afghan war. A large surplus was available. A favourable opportunity presented itself, therefore, for the execution of certain fiscal reforms, the desirability of which had long been recognised. With the exception of the duty on wine, spirits, malt liquor, arms, ammunition, opium, and salt, the whole of the import duties were abolished. A large reduction was effected in the duty on salt. Some substantial relief was afforded to the agricultural classes in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

Dangers peculiar to Indian finance.

121. Hardly had effect been given to these important and beneficial reforms, when it became apparent that three out of the four peculiar dangers to which the finances of India are exposed would, to a greater or less degree, have to be encountered in the immediate future. These dangers are war, a diminution of the Opium revenue, an increase of expenditure on account of charges payable in sterling, and famine. In respect to every one of these dangers,—including, in the particular instance in point, war,—it may be said that their occurrence is governed by causes over which the Government of India can exercise little or no control. On the other hand, the entire brunt of bearing three out of four of these risks falls on the Imperial Government of India.

The Provincial system.

122. In connection with this last remark I wish for one moment to digress, in order to show the bearing of the Provincial system of finance upon the points immediately under discussion.

Its many advantages,

123. The policy of financial decentralisation, which was not the least of the numerous benefits conferred by Lord Mayo and Sir John Strachey on India, has been productive of the most beneficial results. In the remarks I am about to make I wish it to be clearly understood that I am very far from wishing to say anything in the slightest degree condemnatory of that policy. On the contrary it is, as is well known, a policy which commands the entire approval of the present Government, and with which, I may perhaps be permitted to say, I heartily sympathise. The advantages of the system far outweigh any of its disadvantages. On the other hand it cannot be denied that this very desirable reform has been unavoidably accompanied with one disadvantage, and it is to this disadvantage that, for reasons which I will presently specify, I now wish to allude.

Developments of the policy.

124. It will be remembered that the original policy of decentralisation has received further development on the two occasions,—first in 1877, and again in 1882,—when the quinquennial contracts between the Imperial and Provincial Governments terminated.

Arrangements under contracts of 1882.

125. On the occasion of the last Financial Statement (paras. 38—64) I explained fully the precise terms of the new Provincial contracts. It may, however, be convenient that I should again explain the general nature of the arrangements resulting from those contracts.

126. The Provincial Governments now receive the whole of the Revenue under heads which produce about £4,000,000 a year, half of the Revenue under heads which produce about £8,000,000, a larger or smaller percentage on heads (chiefly Land Revenue) which produce about £23,000,000, and an almost nominal share in Revenues which produce about £7,600,000. On the other hand, the Provincial Governments administer the Expenditure wholly under heads for which the grants amount to about £15,000,000, and to a very small extent under heads for which the grants amount to about £4,000,000 a year. In other words, about three-fifths of the Revenue of British India, amounting roughly to £42,000,000, and about one-fourth of the Expenditure, amounting roughly to about £19,000,000 a year, have, under the contract of 1882, been provincialised; that is to say, the Provincial Governments have to a greater or less extent, according to the circumstances of each head, an interest in and responsibility for their administration.

Stability is essential to the system.

127. It is essential to the proper working of the Provincial system of finance that an element of stability should, to as great an extent as possible, be imported into the arrangements between the Imperial and Provincial Governments. Unless the latter are assured that any increase of revenue consequent on improved management, or any savings which may accrue from economical administration, will remain at their own disposal, but slight inducement will be offered to them to improve the management of their resources or to exercise economy in their administration. Accordingly, in concluding the contracts of 1882, the assurances previously given to the effect that the Imperial Government would not call on the Provincial Governments for any pecuniary assistance, save on occasions of very great and extraordinary emergency, were ratified and to some extent emphasised. The money (£670,000) contributed by the Provincial Government towards the expenses of the Afghan war was at the same time repaid.

Famine the only danger to which Provincial finance is exposed.

128. It thus happens that, of the four dangers to which I have alluded above, one only,—famine,—can, save under very extraordinary circumstances, affect Provincial finances. I am far from condemning this arrangement. On the contrary, I think it is, on the whole, the best of which the circumstances of the case admit. It is the Provincial Governments, and not the Government of India, who are brought in immediate contact with the people. They supervise the whole of the ordinary administrative work of the country. Through their instrumentality, or through agency working in close connection with their officers, most of the smaller, and some of the larger, public works are executed. It is a distinct advantage that, should any sudden emergency arise, such as war, a diminution of the Opium Revenue, or a further depreciation in the value of silver, the Provincial Governments should be able to feel that the progress of any administrative reforms they may have undertaken, or the execution of any public works for which Provincial funds are available, will not be checked. On the other hand, it cannot be denied that, whilst the probability of any such emergency arising has in no degree diminished since the adoption of the Provincial system of finance, the power of the Government of India to cope with an emergency is to some extent impaired by reason of the pledges taken towards the Provincial Governments.

No further imperial grants can be made.

129. I make these remarks for the following reasons. All the new contracts have now been finally concluded. I mentioned in the last Financial Statement (para. 45) that some questions still remained outstanding with the Madras Government. These have now been settled. Under these circumstances it is very desirable that it should be fully understood that no further changes can be made in the terms of the several contracts. The Government of India, on its side, will adhere strictly to the principles laid down in the Resolution of September 30th, 1881. On the other hand, it must call upon the Provincial Governments to abide with equal strictness to their portion of the contracts. The contracts have not been made in any illiberal spirit. Each Provincial Government starts with a balance at its credit and with a normal revenue in excess of its normal expenditure. Under these circumstances the Provincial Governments must look solely to the gradual development of their own resources, and to economy in their own administration, to provide whatever further funds may be required for services classed as Provincial. The Government of India cannot entertain any further proposals for increased Imperial grants on account of those services. It may be, and probably is, the case that in almost every Province of India the funds available are not commensurate with the work which sooner or later will require to be done. That is the normal condition of a country whose necessities are great, whilst the tax-paying power of its population is small. Under these circumstances, progress in many directions will possibly be comparatively slow, and it is inevitable, under all the conditions of Indian Government, that it should be slow. But what I particularly wish to point out is that the Government of India cannot at present make any further grants from Imperial funds in order to ensure more rapid progress. Indeed, in some respects it may be said that the Provincial Governments are in a better position to provide whatever funds may be required than is the case with the Imperial Government. For the reasons which I have already given an element of stability is imported into Provincial finance which Imperial finance cannot at present possess. Not only do the three points to which I have alluded constitute dangers which are wholly borne by the Imperial Government of India,—not only does the fourth danger (famine) materially affect Imperial as well as Provincial finance,—but if any further fiscal reforms are to be made,—and there are several which it would be very desirable to make,—any loss of money which may accrue from their execution must be borne by the Imperial Treasury.

Altered situation during the year.

130. To return from this digression. I have said (para. 121) that hardly had the large fiscal reforms of last year been carried out when it became apparent that three out of the four dangers to which the finances of India are specially exposed would have to be encountered in the immediate future.

Egyptian Expedition.

131. In the first place, we have had a war. The cost of the Indian Contingent which was sent to Egypt is now estimated at £1,297,000. Her Majesty's Government has intimated its intention of repaying £500,000 (true sterling) of this amount to the Government of India. This sum of £500,000 will be brought to credit at once. A corresponding reduction will take place in the Secretary of State's drawings for 1883-84. The net cost of the Egyptian Expedition to the Indian Treasury will, therefore, be £797,000.*

* This is the net figure which appears in the Revised Estimates for 1882-83, but in 1883-84 there will be a diminished charge under Exchange by reason of the reduction of £500,000 (true sterling) in the amount of the Secretary of State's drawings. The diminution of expenditure under this head may at present rates be calculated at about £115,000. It may be said, therefore, that the ultimate net charge which will fall on the Indian Revenues by reason of the Egyptian Expedition is £682,000 (R68,20,000).

Opium.

132. Turning to Opium, I give below the net Revenue for the last four years:—

1878-79	7,701,000
1879-80	8,252,000
1880-81	8,451,000
1881-82 (Revised Estimate)	7,838,000
1881-82 (Actuals)	7,805,000

Competition of the Chinese drug.

134. It will be seen, therefore, that the estimated net Revenue from Opium for the current financial year is less by £1,234,000 than the actual receipts of 1880-81, less by £621,000 than the Revised Estimate for 1881-82, and less by £588,000 than the Actuals of 1881-82. There can be little doubt that the main cause of this progressive diminution is to be found in the increased competition of the indigenous Chinese drug, to which I alluded in the last Financial Statement (paras. 143—145). The falling-off in the Opium Revenue has not seriously disturbed the finances of the year. The net Budget Estimate will probably be nearly realised. What, however, I wish to point out is, that in former years Opium has very often yielded a large sum in excess of the Estimate, and has thus enabled the Government to meet any unforeseen demands which might be thrown upon it during the course of the year. Nothing of this kind has occurred during the current year. On the contrary, the Opium Revenue is, as I have already mentioned, likely to fall below the Budget Estimate of £7,250,000 by £33,000. I shall presently revert to this question in dealing with the Budget Estimate for the year 1883-84 (paras. 195—207).

Exchange.

135. Turning to the question of Exchange, it is to be observed that the Budget Estimate provided for the sum of £15,342,000 (true sterling) being remitted to England, and that the rupee was taken at 1*s.* 8*d.* During the last three weeks of March 1882 bills to the extent of £908,000 (true sterling) in excess of the requirements of the year 1881-82 were placed on the market. This amount was taken in deduction of the drawings for the current year, which were thus, so far as this transaction only is concerned, reduced to £14,434,000 (true sterling).

Serious inconvenience due to instability in the value of the rupee.

136. At no period has the inconvenience to India of having to make a large annual payment in sterling been more apparent than during the current year. I will not now attempt to discuss whether it is to the advantage of India that the value of the rupee expressed in sterling should be low, that is to say lower than it used to be when the relative values of gold to silver were as 1 to 15½. That is a subject on which a great deal might be said. But it is not the fact that the value of the rupee is, comparatively speaking, low that causes inconvenience. It would be possible, although it might be exceedingly troublesome, to adjust the Indian fiscal system to a rupee of any value. What causes inconvenience alike to Government and to trade is that the value of the rupee is unstable. It is impossible to state accurately in Indian currency what the annual liabilities of the Government of India are. Those liabilities have to be calculated afresh every year according to the variations which take place in the relative value of gold and silver, and a calculation which will hold good for even one year is exceedingly difficult to make. In March 1882 the value of the rupee was taken at 1*s.* 8*d.*; and at the time this estimate was made it was a reasonable one, based on the facts of the past and present. The value of silver was then about 52*d.* an ounce, which corresponds with a value of 1*s.* $8\frac{9}{16}d.$ to the rupee. But since then the value of the rupee has been as high as 1*s.* $8\frac{5}{16}d.$, and as low as 1*s.* $7\frac{1}{16}d.$ The average price obtained for the bills, amounting to £14,184,000 (true sterling), placed on the market up to March 9th, 1883, has been 1-$7\frac{3}{8}d.$ When the Budget was framed it was thought that a debt of £14,184,000 (true sterling) would be liquidated by a payment of R17,02,03,000. It has actually cost R17,43,81,000 to liquidate that debt. It is sufficient to state these facts in order to show the grave inconvenience to the Government which results from the unstable value of the rupee.

Southern Mahratta Railway and Famine Insurance.

137. It will be desirable that I should explain in this place two financial transactions of the year which are intimately connected with each other and with the Expenditure under Exchange. The first relates to the transactions of the Southern Mahratta Railway Company. The second to the application of the annual grant of £1,500,000 under Famine Relief and Insurance.

138. The Southern Mahratta Railway was commenced by the Government as a famine work in April 1879, and work was afterwards recommenced by Government in November 1881. Up to the end of 1881-82 £394,000 had been spent on it, of which £291,000 had been charged to the Protective grant. A further sum of £369,800 was provided in the Budget Estimates for 1882-83 from the Protective grant for expenditure on this line.

139. In the summer of 1882 the line was handed over to a private Company. Capital to the extent of £1,724,600 (true sterling) has already been raised in London and paid to the Home Treasury of the Government of India. Of this amount about £550,000 is due to the Government for work already done, the remainder being intended to provide funds for the continuation of the works. The amount to be re-credited to the Protective grant during the present year is estimated to be £270,000, besides the expenditure incurred this year, and whatever is repaid will be credited to the head of Famine Relief and Insurance and become available for the construction of Protective Works, in addition to the annual grant of £750,000. Further, the original allotment of £369,800 made in the Budget from the Protective grant for expenditure on the Southern Mahratta Railway became available for expenditure on other Protective Works. The Public Works Department was, however, unable to spend the large sum of money which thus became available on Protective Works during the year. Their total net expenditure on these works in 1882-83 is now estimated at only £144,200. It was thought undesirable not to utilise at once the large sum of money belonging to the Famine Insurance grant which was thus available. A transfer of £605,800 will, therefore, be made to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of Debt, thus increasing the amount available during the year for reducing debt to £1,330,200. A demand for money having recently sprung up, and the Secretary of State having already drawn the total sum required for the annual expenditure in England, it is contemplated to remit home an additional sum of about £1,000,000 (true sterling) during 1882-83, to invest this sum, and to apply it, as opportunity may offer, to the reduction of sterling debt in England. The Commissioners have been consulted on the subject, and approve of this arrangement. A separate account of the transaction will be rendered to them. The cost of the bills drawn in order to carry out this transaction will be debited to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of Debt. In 1883-84 a reduction will be made in the amount available for Reduction of Debt, and a corresponding increase in the amount available for Protective Works, that is to say, the former having, in 1882-83, been increased to £1,330,200 will, in 1883-84, be reduced to £131,700 and the latter having, in 1882-83, been reduced to £144,200, will, in 1883-84, be increased to £1,355,800. It is estimated that the direct expenditure on Famine Relief in 1882-83 and 1883-84 will be £25,600 and £12,500, and consequently the aggregate expenditure on Famine Relief, Protective Works, and Reduction of Debt will be £1,500,000 in each of the years 1882-83 and 1883-84.

140. So far I have only dealt with the transactions of the Southern Mahratta Railway Company mainly in so far as they affect the Revenue and Expenditure of the year. I now turn to the consideration of the transactions in so far as they have affected the Ways and Means of 1882-83.

141. As the capital of the Company was paid to the Home Treasury of the Government of India, it was necessary, in order to enable the Company to proceed with its works, to provide funds for the Company from the Treasuries of the Government of India. A sum estimated at £480,000 (£400,000, true sterling) had to be so provided. For this, of course, no provision had been made in the Estimate of Ways and Means for the year. The Secretary of State, therefore, undertook to reduce his drawings during 1882-83 by an amount of £400,000 (true sterling), but he did not reduce his drawings by the total amount of the paid up capital of the Company. The balance of the money paid by the Company to the Secretary of State in excess of £400,000 (true sterling) was used to strengthen the Home cash balance, and thus enable the Secretary of State to purchase the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company's undertaking. It results, therefore, that, inasmuch as the Government of India has to supply funds for the Company in India at a rate of exchange of 1*s.* 8*d.*, every £1 paid to the Company in India involves a payment of R12, of which R2 appears as expenditure under Exchange. As a matter of fact the total expenditure under Exchange is, on this account, increased by £126,500 in 1883-84.

Result of these Operations.

142. I trust that I have made these operations clear. They are somewhat complicated. The general result, so far as the drawings and the expenditure under Exchange of the year 1882-83 are concerned, is as follows: (1) The Secretary of State's drawings for the year 1882-83 are now estimated at £15,042,000 (true sterling), of which £14,184,000 (true sterling) had been drawn up to March 9th; (2) the expenditure under Exchange on Transactions with London is now estimated at £3,116,000, being £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate; (3) a further sum, estimated at £227,000, representing Exchange on the remittance home of the sum of £1,000,000 (true sterling) will be charged against Appropriation for the Reduction of Debt (vide Abstract C).

Budget Estimates, 1882-83.

143. The Budget Estimates for 1882-83 were as follows:—

Revenue	66,078,000
Expenditure	65,793,000
Surplus	285,000

Revised Estimates, 1882-83.

144. I have already mentioned (para. 131) that net Expenditure to the extent of £797,000, for which no provision was made in the Budget, was incurred during the year on account of the Egyptian Expedition. Also that the Expenditure under Exchange is now estimated at £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate to be calculated afresh every year according to the variations which take place in the relative value of gold and silver, and a calculation which will hold good for even one year is exceedingly difficult to make. In March 1882 the value of the rupee was taken at 1*s.* 8*d.*, and at the time this estimate was made it was a reasonable one, based on the facts of the past and present. The value of silver was then about 52*d.* an ounce, which corresponds with a value of 1*s.* $8\frac{9}{16}$d. to the rupee. But since then the value of the rupee has been as high as 1*s.* $8\frac{5}{16}$d., and as low as 1*s.* $7\frac{1}{16}$d. The average price obtained for the bills, amounting to £14,184,000 (true sterling), placed on the market up to March 9th, 1883, has been 1-$7\frac{13}{16}$d. When the Budget was framed it was thought that a debt of £14,184,000 (true sterling) would be liquidated by a payment of R17,02,03,000. It has actually cost R17,43,81,000 to liquidate that debt. It is sufficient to state these facts in order to show the grave inconvenience to the Government which results from the unstable value of the rupee.

Southern Mahratta Railway and Famine Insurance.

137. It will be desirable that I should explain in this place two financial transactions of the year which are intimately connected with each other and with the Expenditure under Exchange. The first relates to the transactions of the Southern Mahratta Railway Company. The second to the application of the annual grant of £1,500,000 under Famine Relief and Insurance.

138. The Southern Mahratta Railway was commenced by the Government as a famine work in April 1879, and work was afterwards recommenced by Government in November 1881. Up to the end of 1881-82 £394,000 had been spent on it, of which £291,000 had been charged to the Protective grant. A further sum of £369,800 was provided in the Budget Estimates for 1882-83 from the Protective grant for expenditure on this line.

139. In the summer of 1882 the line was handed over to a private Company. Capital to the extent of £1,724,600 (true sterling) has already been raised in London and paid to the Home Treasury of the Government of India. Of this amount about £559,000 is due to the Government for work already done, the remainder being intended to provide funds for the continuation of the works. The amount to be re-credited to the Protective grant during the present year is estimated to be £270,000, besides the expenditure incurred this year, and whatever is repaid will be credited to the head of Famine Relief and Insurance and become available for the construction of Protective Works, in addition to the annual grant of £750,000. Further, the original allotment of £369,800 made in the Budget from the Protective grant for expenditure on the Southern Mahratta Railway became available for expenditure on other Protective Works. The Public Works Department was, however, unable to spend the large sum of money which thus became available on Protective Works during the year. Their total net expenditure on these works in 1882-83 is now estimated at only £144,200. It was thought undesirable not to utilise at once the large sum of money belonging to the Famine Insurance grant which was thus available. A transfer of £605,800 will, therefore, be made to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of Debt, thus increasing the amount available during the year for reducing debt to £1,330,200. A demand for money having recently sprung up, and the Secretary of State having already drawn the total sum required for the annual expenditure in England, it is contemplated to remit home an additional sum of about £1,000,000 (true sterling) during 1882-83, to invest this sum, and to apply it, as opportunity may offer, to the reduction of sterling debt in England. The Commissioners have been consulted on the subject, and approve of this arrangement. A separate account of the transaction will be rendered to them. The cost of the bills drawn in order to carry out this transaction will be debited to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of Debt. In 1883-84 a reduction will be made in the amount available for Reduction of Debt, and a corresponding increase in the amount available for Protective Works, that is to say, the former having, in 1882-83, been increased to £1,330,200 will, in 1884-85, be reduced to £131,700 and the latter having, in 1882-83, been reduced to £144,200, will, in 1884-85, be increased to £1,355,800. It is estimated that the direct expenditure on Famine Relief in 1882-83 and 1883-84 will be £25,600 and £12,500, and consequently the aggregate expenditure on Famine Relief, Protective Works, and Reduction of Debt will be £1,500,000 in each of the years 1882-83 and 1883-84.

140. So far I have only dealt with the transactions of the Southern Mahratta Railway Company mainly in so far as they affect the Revenue and Expenditure of the year. I now turn to the consideration of the transactions in so far as they have affected the Ways and Means of 1882-83.

141. As the capital of the Company was paid to the Home Treasury of the Government of India, it was necessary, in order to enable the Company to proceed with its works, to provide funds for the Company from the Treasuries of the Government of India. A sum estimated at £480,000 (£400,000, true sterling) had to be so provided. For this, of course, no provision had been made in the Estimate of Ways and Means for the year. The Secretary of State, therefore, undertook to reduce his drawings during 1882-83 by an amount of £400,000 (true sterling), but he did not reduce his drawings by the total amount of the paid up capital of the Company. The balance of the money paid by the Company to the Secretary of State in excess of £400,000 (true sterling) was used to strengthen the Home cash balance, and thus enable the Secretary of State to purchase the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company's undertaking. It results, therefore, that, inasmuch as the Government of India has to supply funds for the Company in India at a rate of exchange of 1*s.* 8*d.*, every £1 paid to the Company in India involves a payment of R12, of which R2 appears as expenditure under Exchange. As a matter of fact the total expenditure under Exchange is, on this account, increased by £126,500 in 1883-84.

Result of these Operations.

142. I trust that I have made these operations clear. They are somewhat complicated. The general result, so far as the drawings and the expenditure under Exchange of the year 1882-83 are concerned, is as follows: (1) The Secretary of State's drawings for the year 1882-83 are now estimated at £15,042,000 (true sterling), of which £14,184,000 (true sterling) had been drawn up to March 9th; (2) the expenditure under Exchange on Transactions with London is now estimated at £3,116,000, being £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate; (3) a further sum, estimated at £227,000, representing Exchange on the remittance home of the sum of £1,000,000 (true sterling) will be charged against Appropriation for the Reduction of Debt (vide Abstract C).

Budget Estimates, 1882-83.

143. The Budget Estimates for 1882-83 was as follows:—

Revenue	66,078,000
Expenditure	65,793,000
Surplus	285,000

Revised Estimates, 1882-83.

144. I have already mentioned (para. 131) that net Expenditure to the extent of £797,000, for which no provision was made in the Budget, was incurred during the year on account of the Egyptian Expedition. Also that the Expenditure under Exchange is now estimated at £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate

(para. 142). In spite, however, of the Egyptian expenditure, of the heavy charge for Exchange, and in spite of the fact that the net Opium Revenue is expected barely to come up to the Estimate (para. 133), the Revised Estimate shows a small surplus of Revenue over Expenditure. It is as follows:—

Revenue	67,914,000
Expenditure	67,854,000
Surplus	60,000

Reasons of surplus.

145. This satisfactory result is mainly due to two causes. In the first place the harvests were everywhere good, and the country has generally been in a prosperous condition. In the second place, in view of the large fiscal reforms which were carried out last year, it was thought advisable to frame all the Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure with even more than the usual caution. Otherwise it would not have been prudent to have undertaken those reforms.

Increases of Revenue.

146. Almost every branch of Revenue shows an increase over the Budget Estimate, whilst many branches of Expenditure show a diminution as compared with the Budget.* Thus the net Land Revenue (including Portion of Land Revenue due to Irrigation) shows an improvement of £172,000, of which £60,000 is on account of increased Revenue, and £112,000 on account of a diminution in Expenditure. Forests (net) show an improvement of £107,000; Excise (net) of £288,000; Customs (net) of £91,000; Salt (net) of £219,000, of which £80,000 is for excess Revenue, and £139,000 for diminished Expenditure; Stamps (net) of £68,000; Railways including those classed as Productive Lines (State, Guaranteed and East Indian) of £225,000, net; and Irrigation and Navigation (net) of £58,000 on the Ordinary and £17,000 on the Productive Account. The Marine Expenditure (net) is £104,000, the Army Expenditure (net) £74,000, and the Expenditure (net) under Law and Justice £121,000, less than the Budget Estimate.

Diminutions of Expenditure.

Exceptional receipts.

147. The Revenue of the year has been swelled by two exceptional receipts. In the first place, certain remissions of Land Revenue were contemplated in the Bombay Presidency last year, and in order to meet the loss on Imperial account involved in those remissions, a sum of £251,000 was credited to the Bombay Government in the Accounts of 1881-82. The amount remitted has, however, turned out to be less by £101,000 than was anticipated. This amount has, therefore, been again brought to the credit of the Imperial Government.

Patwari Fund.

148. In the second place, the balance of the Patwari Fund in the North-West Provinces, amounting to £199,000, has been brought to the credit of the Imperial Government. Under the arrangements made last year in connection with the abolition of the Patwari cess (see Financial Statement for 1882-83, paras. 59—

* In considering these figures it is to be borne in mind that the total amount by which the Revised Estimate, whether of an item of Revenue or of Expenditure, differs from the Budget Estimate, does not necessarily go to swell or diminish the Imperial surplus. Thus, to take a single example, an excess in gross Revenue of £284,900 under Excise means that the Imperial Government expects to receive £142,450 and the Provincial Governments £142,450, more than was originally estimated. So also, to take an example on the Expenditure side of the Account, almost the whole of the amount by which the Expenditure under Land Revenue falls short of the Estimate, benefits the Provincial Governments only. The figures given above, therefore, must only be taken as a general indication of the reasons why the Imperial Revenue has more than balanced the Imperial Expenditure. I have not thought it necessary to state in detail to what extent the excess of Revenue or diminution of Expenditure benefits the Imperial and Provincial Governments respectively.

I may mention in connection with this point that the Increase and Decrease columns, which formerly appeared in Statements I and II under the old classification of the Accounts and Estimates (see Appendix II, pages 68 to 71) are not given in Abstracts A and B of the new classification (see Appendix I, pages 54 to 59). It will be readily seen that they could not conveniently be given. This is, without doubt, a disadvantage, but the new classification is so superior to the old classification in all other respects as to make its adoption desirable. As both the old and new classifications are published this year (see para. 63 of Financial Statement), the inconvenience will not be felt immediately.

63), the Imperial Government has to bear the charges formerly paid from the Patwari Fund. The balance of the Fund was devoted to meeting charges connected with Surveys and the preparation of a Record of Rights in permanently-settled districts, and the charges on these accounts are being met at the cost of Imperial Revenues, which are recouped by receiving a credit of the balance of the Fund.

149. Both of these are extraordinary items of Revenue which will not recur in future years.

Increases of Expenditure.

150. On the other hand, the Expenditure under a few heads has exceeded the Budget Estimate, and some extraordinary expenditure has been borne which will not recur in future years.

151. The Expenditure under Interest on Debt is now calculated at an increase in all of £119,000, the increase being partly due to an arrear payment to the Maharaja of Patiala and partly to the charge for temporary loans in England in excess of the Budget Estimate; of this increase £71,000 appear in the Ordinary and £48,000 in the Productive Account. Stationery and Printing, owing mainly to unusually heavy purchases of stock, has cost £56,000 (net) more than was anticipated. The cost of Administration has exceeded the Estimate by £74,000, and that of Superannuations (net) by £79,000.

152. It was thought desirable to complete the Frontier Railways as soon as possible. An additional grant of £60,000 in excess of the Budget allowance was, therefore, made under this head during the year. The Southern Mahratta Railway has cost £33,000 (interest charge), and Subsidized Railways have cost £21,000, in excess of the Estimate. Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services are now estimated at £51,000 in excess of the Estimates. The excess is mainly due to additional grants having been made during the year for the extension of the Salt works at Uru in the Bombay Presidency, and for the erection of Government offices and clerks quarters at Simla. The construction of these buildings will lead to a diminution in the present annual charge on account of rent for the houses now hired.

VII.—The Wheat Trade.

The Wheat Trade.

153. The principal feature of the financial situation of the moment is that during the past year there has been a still further fall in the value of the rupee. The highest price obtained by the Secretary of State during the year 1882-83 for his Bills was 1*s.* $8\frac{3}{16}$d. on April 5th. The lowest price was 1*s.* $7\frac{1}{16}$d. on December 20th and 27th. The balance of trade between Europe and India was to an unusual extent settled by importations of silver, especially during the early months of the financial year. (See Appendix V.)

Value of Silver.

154. Some temporary and adventitious causes may possibly have tended to depreciate exchange during the year. But, in the main, the value of the rupee expressed in sterling must, of course, depend on the relative value of gold and silver. The highest price realised for silver in the London market during the year 1882 was $52\frac{7}{16}$d. per oz. corresponding to a rupee of 20·289*d.*; the lowest 50*d.* corresponding to a rupee of 19·3467*d.*; the average was $51\frac{5}{8}$d. per oz. corresponding to a rupee of 19·9755*d. On the whole the general tendency has been downwards.

* The Statist. Financial and Commercial History of 1882.

Importance of removing obstacles from trade.

155. The only way in which it is within the power of the Government of India to meet the difficulties attendant on a depreciation in the value of the rupee is to free trade so far as is possible from all obstacles, and especially to do all in its power to develop the export trade.

The Wheat Trade.

156. A great deal has already been done in this direction. The import duties have been almost entirely abolished. The export duty on rice remains. It would be most desirable that this duty should be removed. The financial situation does not, however, for the present permit of its abolition. Something, however, may be done in the way of encouraging the export trade in food grains, and especially in wheat.

Its recent development.

157. This trade may, for all practical purposes, be said to date from the year 1873, when the export duty was removed. In 1881-82 nearly a million tons (19,863,520 cwt.) were exported. The export during the current year (1882-83) will probably be about 14,000,000 cwt.,—a figure which, although below the exceptionally large export of 1881-82, is still 100 per cent. in excess of that of 1880-81. The great strides made in this trade during the last few years are to a great extent due to railway extensions in India and, so far as the great exports of 1881-82 are concerned, to deficient crops in the United States.

Markets for Indian Wheat.

158. For all practical purposes it may be said that the whole of the Indian wheat trade is with Europe. In 1881-82 only 310,000 cwt. out of 19,863,000 cwt. were shipped to other than European markets. The largest market for Indian wheat—as for most of the other staple products of India—is England. Out of the total quantity exported in 1881-82, England took nearly one-half, and has taken about the same proportion during the current year. France took 5,308,000 cwt. last year (1881-82) and has this year (1882-83) taken over 3,000,000 cwt. out of the 11,828,000 cwt. already exported. Indian wheat also goes to Belgium, Holland, Italy, and Egypt. But shipments to Egypt are only nominally for that country. Ships go to Port Said "for orders," and the exports recorded in our trade returns as going to Egypt are mostly intended for some Continental market.

Production of wheat in England.

159. The total production of wheat in the United Kingdom is estimated by Sir James Caird at 12,000,000 quarters, or rather over 53,000,000 cwt. (2,650,000 tons). The yield is said by Sir James Caird to be decreasing. He estimates that from 1873 to 1877 the average yield was $2\frac{1}{2}$ quarters to the acre, and in 1879 not more than 2 quarters. In former years the yield has reached $3\frac{1}{4}$ quarters and more to the acre. He thinks that there is a decrease in fertility. The area under wheat is also diminishing and land is being used for more profitable crops, for dairy-farming, for grazing, and for market-gardening. Looking to the increase of population and to the general tendency to devote land to other uses than the growth of wheat, it may be anticipated that the demand for wheat in England from other countries will increase in the future.

Imports into England from Foreign countries.

160. During the calendar year 1882, the English market was supplied with wheat from abroad to the extent shown in the following table :—

	Cwt.
Russia	9,571,021
Germany	3,083,921
Turkey and Roumania	721,030
Chili	1,656,361
Australia	2,475,127
B. N. America	2,684,828
United States	35,059,623
Egypt*	174,862
India	8,477,479
Other Countries	267,370
TOTAL	64,171,622

161. In addition to this amount of wheat, wheat-flour to the extent of 13,028,705 cwt. was supplied to the English market from foreign countries during the year 1882, of which the United States furnished 7,777,262 cwt.

The United States.

162. The total imports of wheat and wheat-flour were, therefore, 77,200,327

* The low imports from Egypt were due to the war. The average imports from that country to England are considerably higher than the figure given above.

cwt., of which the United States supplied nearly 43,000,000 cwt., or about 56 per cent. of the whole. It is clear, therefore, that the United States is the most formidable rival with which India has to compete in the supply of wheat to the English market. Wheat flour has not as yet been exported from India.

Its advantages.

163. In this competition the United States possesses many natural advantages over India, which are, however, to some extent counterbalanced by one important disadvantage.

Relative production of the two countries.

164. Looking first to the advantages, it is certain that the United States can supply a much larger total quantity of wheat for export than can be supplied by India. Sir James Caird, addressing the Statistical Society on November 15th, 1881, said :—

"In a single year the United States increased their acreage by an extent equal to our (the English) total growth. In the 20 years from 1840 to 1860 their wheat production rose from 10 to 20 million quarters. In the 20 years from 1860 to 1880 it grew from 20 to 60 million quarters, and their extent of good wheat land is practically unlimited. The two great corn products of that country are wheat and Indian corn, in regard to the first of which this country, and Western Europe generally, will become increasingly dependent on America, and the price of wheat here will be chiefly ruled by the production there."

Acreage under cultivation in India.

165. In the Statistical Abstract of the United States for 1881, it is stated that in 1880 the area under wheat was 37,986,717 acres, the total production amounting to 271,531,624 cwt. or over 62 million quarters (over 13½ million tons).

Outturn per acre.

167. The outturn per acre varies enormously according to the province and soil, and according to whether the field is irrigated or not. It is difficult to attain accuracy on this point, but it would seem that for all India the average yield cannot be taken, on a liberal estimate, at more than 700 lbs. to the acre, which is less than half the produce of English (from 1,500 to 1,600 lbs.) and considerably less than that of the American wheat fields (850 lbs.).* At this rate of yield the total outturn would be about 6½ million tons, of which it may roughly be said that about one million tons are available for export.

Capability of increased production.

168. The question of the extent to which the amount of wheat available for export could be increased without trenching on the food supply of the people or materially enhancing prices is one of great difficulty. Some remarks bearing on the subject will be found in the Report of the Famine Commissioners, Part I, para. 158. Some high authorities are of opinion that, under favourable conditions as regards the prospect of a market, it would be possible within a few years to double the amount of wheat available for export, that is to say, to increase it to about 40,000,000 cwt. There can be no doubt that very large quantities of land are awaiting cultivation, especially in the Punjab, Burma, Assam, and the Central Provinces, but of course a good deal of this land is not suitable for

* In some places in America 25 bushels to the acre and more have been taken off an acre, but this quantity is greatly in excess of the average yield. The average outturn in 1880 for all the United States was 799 lbs. to the acre, but this was a small yield. In 1877 it was 848 lbs. A yield of 850 lbs. to the acre is probably a fair general average.

As regards the figure given above for India (700 lbs.), it is to be borne in mind that it purports to give the average yield per acre. In some districts the yield is certainly in excess of this figure, and on all irrigated land the yield is largely in excess of 700 lbs.

the cultivation of wheat. In the eastern districts of the Central Provinces the new lines of railway will now open out a very large tract of wheat-producing country, which up to the present time has been unable to find a market for its surplus produce owing to defective means of communication.

Ocean freights.

170. A further advantage possessed by the United States over India is in the matter of ocean freight. This advantage is not so great as might be the case under different conditions as regards the fiscal laws of the United States. The heavy duties levied by the United States Government on imported foreign goods naturally check the imports into America from Europe, with the result that, in the comparative absence of a demand for freight from Europe to America, shipowners are obliged to recoup themselves by charging relatively high freights from America to Europe. The disadvantage under which America labours by reason of this condition of things is artificial and not natural. It is imposed by the fiscal law and would be removed were that law changed. In spite, however, of the present condition of the United States Customs Tariff, proximity to the English market, together with the fact that Indian shipping has to pay Canal dues, is sufficient to turn the scale in favour of the United States. The distance from New York to Liverpool is 3,073 miles. The distance from Calcutta to London by sea is 8,083 miles; from Bombay to London 6,274 miles; from Kurrachee to London 6,080 miles. Dues are levied on passing through the Suez Canal at the rate of 10*fcs.* 50*c.* per registered ton.

Comparative freights.

171. The charge for steamer freight from New York to Liverpool is very variable. The rates in 1881 and 1882 were, on an average for the year:

	1881.	1882.
To Liverpool	15*s.* 2*d.*	12*s.* 2*d.*

172. In January of the present year the rates were, to Liverpool 21*s.* 9*d.*, and to London 22*s.* 9*d.* per ton. Freights seem generally to rule high in January. Comparing the rates from New York to Liverpool for 1882 with Indian rates, we find that during the year 1882 the average charge from Kurrachee to London was £1-18-9 a ton; from Bombay to London £1-15-2¼; from Calcutta to London £2-2-11.* Taking the average American rates of 1882 as the basis of comparison, New York may be said to possess an advantage over Kurrachee to the extent of about 26*s.* 7*d.* or 22*s.* 9*d.* a ton, over Bombay of 23*s.* 0¼*d.* or 19*s.* 2¼*d.*, and over Calcutta of 30*s.* 9*d.* or 26*s.* 11*d.*, accordingly as the Indian rates are compared with the New York rates to Liverpool or to London. On the other hand, Indian rates compare favourably with freight from San Francisco to the United Kingdom, which in 1881 averaged £3-3-11½ a ton. Last year, of the whole import of wheat into the United Kingdom from the United States, 42 per cent. was shipped from the Pacific seaboard; in 1881 it was 31 per cent.; in 1880 only 18 per cent.

Railway communication.

173. The United States possess a further advantage in facility of inland communication. The American railway system has been very rapidly extended during the last few years. No less than 105,000 miles of railway are now open. This rapid progress is due to the vigorous commercial enterprise of the people of America, and to the large amount of capital seeking investment in American undertakings. It is in this respect more than in any other that India presents a remarkable contrast. Local capital is either not available or seeks, generally speaking, for more profitable investments than Indian Railways afford. English capital has only recently begun to turn its attention to Indian Railways, and can as yet scarcely be persuaded to dispense with Government assistance. The development of the country has up to the present time mainly devolved on Government, and, as a necessary result of this state of things, progress has been relatively slow.

Railway rates in the United States;

174. In the matter of railway rates also American is at a great advantage as compared to Indian wheat. So far back as 1876 the rate from Chicago to New York, a distance of 960 miles, was on an average 17 cents a bushel, or £1-5-6 per ton for the whole distance. In 1878 and 1879, the published tariff rate was 20 cents per 100 lbs. (18*s.* 4*d.* per ton) for the whole distance, but under stress of competition wheat was carried from time to time in 1879 to New York at 18, 15, and even as low as 10 cents per 100 lbs., or 9*s.* 2*d.* per ton for the whole distance. Sir James Caird in his evidence before the Royal Agricultural Commission in December 1881, said that the rate had been reduced as low as ¼*d.* per ton per mile. This rate is equal to £1 per ton for the whole distance. The writer of an interesting pamphlet recently published in India* gives 14·5 cents a bushel as the latest rate he has seen quoted. This is equal to £1-1-9 per ton for the whole distance. In the official Report on the Foreign Commerce of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1882, by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, the following figures are given as the average through rates in 1881 from Chicago to New York:—

* Indian Wheat versus American Protection; or, The influence on English Trade and American Protection of the Development of India.

	Cents per bushel.	In sterling per ton.
By lake and canal	8·6	12*s.* 11*d.*
By lake and rail	10·4	15*s.* 7*d.*
By rail entirely:
(1) During the season of navigation only	11·7	17*s.* 6*d.*
(2) During the year . . .	14·4	21*s.* 7*d.*

175. The competition of water carriage has evidently a marked effect on rail rates in America. In India, although about 20 per cent. of the wheat brought to Calcutta is still brought down the river in boats, this traffic does not in the least regulate the railway rates.

176. I have been informed on good authority that wheat is now carried from St. Louis, down the Mississippi, all the way through to Liverpool, for 14 cents a bushel, which is equal to 4*s.* 7¼*d.* per quarter or £1-1-1½ per ton. Mr. Leyland, owner of the Leyland line of steamers trading between Boston and Liverpool, told the Royal Commission on Agriculture that the custom is to take the wheat at Chicago (about 1,500 miles from Boston) and deliver it at Liverpool at a through rate, including everything. This rate in 1881 averaged 10*d.* a bushel of 60 lbs. or £1-11-1⅓ per ton, of which two-fifths went to the ship and three-fifths to the railway, the division being made by arrangement.

and in India.

177. Turning to India, we find that the rate charged in March 1883 by the East Indian Railway from Delhi to Howrah, a distance of 954 miles, is Rs. 71 per 100 maunds, which, at an exchange of 1*s.* 7½*d.*, is equal to £1-11-5 per ton.

178. From Lahore to Kurrachee, a distance of 821 miles, the rate is 12 annas 3 pie per maund, equal to £1-13-11¾ per ton for the whole distance.

179. From Delhi to Bombay, over the Rajputana Railway, a distance of 889 miles, the rate until very recently was 13 annas 6 pie per maund, equal to £1-17-5¼ per ton for the whole distance.

180. From Jubbulpore to Bombay, a distance of 616 miles, the rate is 10 annas 5 pie per maund, equal to £1-9-8½ per ton for the whole distance; that is to say, it costs considerably more to carry a ton of wheat 616 miles over the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, than it does to carry the same quantity 960 miles over the American line.

181. A comparison of rates from other stations would produce similar results. But it is unnecessary to go further. It is abundantly clear that the Indian are much higher than the American rates.

Management of the trade.

182. In the detailed management of the trade also America has the advantage over India. There is far less handling of the wheat between the field and the hold of the ship in the former than in the latter country. The wheat is brought from the field into store-houses, and thence shot in bulk into the wagons, which are either brought alongside the ship or to warehouses which lie close to the ship. In India, on the other hand, wheat is brought from the field to a central station, say Cawnpore, is there bought by one trader (perhaps the agent of the shipping firm, perhaps another intermediary) from another trader, who has bought it from the cultivator. It is stored and bagged, then carted to the railway station, unloaded, stacked at the station, and again unstacked to be loaded into the wagons. On arrival at the port of shipment it is unloaded, stored, perhaps bought and sold once more, then carted to the shore and put on board either from a jetty or from a boat.

Price of Indian wheat.

183. Indian wheat is quoted in the London market at a lower price than American or Australian wheat. The average comparative prices during the year 1882 were as follows:—

	Per Quarter. s.	d.
American, best	48	9
Calcutta, Club No. 1	43	1
Australian, best	50	5

Mixture with dirt and other grains.

184. I am informed that the relatively low price of Indian wheat is not so much due to its quality, which is generally very good, but to its admixture with dirt and other inferior grains. At present shippers pay for the conveyance of about 5 per cent. of dirt to England.

185. The admixture of inferior grains with the wheat is, I believe, due to the fact that cultivators often grow other grains in the same field as wheat as a resource in the event of the failure of the wheat crop. This practice tends to keep down the price of Indian wheat.

Advantages of India over America.

186. Against this long list of disadvantages under which the Indian agriculturist labours as compared with his American competitor, must be balanced one advantage, which is very considerable. India enjoys free trade, whilst America labours under all the disadvantages of a Tariff designed to protect indigenous manufactures.

American protection.

187. The disadvantage under which America labours by reason of its protective Tariff is very great. The fiscal laws of the United States oblige the American agriculturist to sell in the cheapest and to buy in the dearest market. For all woollen,* cotton, linen and silk manufactures, for iron and steel, for leather, for earthenware and crockery, for tin plates and ware, for hemp and jute fabrics, and for window glass, the American agriculturist has to pay from 20 to 77 per cent. extra—the average being 43 per cent.,—as the cost of protecting indigenous manufactures. An able writer on economic subjects* has estimated that the agriculturists of the United States paid $400,000,000 (£82,192,000) a year as the cost of protection, and ten years ago it was stated on high authority (Mr. D. Wells) that the average purchasing power of labour in the United States had been depreciated to the extent of 19½ per cent. between 1860 and 1873.

* The Western Farmer of America. Mr. A. Mongredien.

Free trade in India.

188. India on the other hand labours, for the purposes of the present argument, under no artificial disadvantages imposed by fiscal legislation. The Indian producer of wheat is absolutely free to exchange his exportable produce to the best possible advantage with the products of foreign countries.

Importance of the subject.

189. I have dwelt at some length on this subject not only on account of its intrinsic importance, but because I shall be glad if I succeed in drawing the attention of those who have a more intimate practical acquaintance both with the trade and the conditions of Indian agriculture than any to which I can pretend, to the necessity of exertion with a view to strengthening by all possible means the position of Indian wheat in the English market. I have not discussed the question of the relative cost of production in India and in the United States, because, independently of the somewhat difficult economic issues involved in this question, it is very difficult to obtain facts of a sufficiently reliable nature to permit of any very accurate general conclusion being drawn from them. I may say, however, that there is reason to suppose that the prime cost of production in India is less than in the United States.

Reduction of Railway Rates.

190. It remains for me to state the measures which have been adopted by the Government with a view to facilitating the export of wheat to Europe. In the first place the through rate for wheat conveyed from Delhi or Agra to Bombay has, in communication with the Agent of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, been reduced from 13 annas 6 pie to 11 annas a maund, and for other grains and seeds of the same class to 11½ annas a maund. The reduction in the case of wheat will, therefore, be 18·5 per cent. on the present rates. It will, no doubt, be followed by a corresponding reduction on the East Indian line. For the future it will be possible to lay down wheat coming from about Delhi or Agra to Calcutta or Bombay at a price of Rs. 4-4-3, or, at an exchange of 1*s.* 7½*d.*, £0-6-11¼ per ton less than has heretofore been the case. To state the case in another way, the lowering of the rates is equivalent to a reduction in price of slightly over 1*s.* 6*d.* per quarter of wheat in the London market.

Minimum loads.

191. In the second place, the restriction as regards minimum loads has been abolished on the Rajputana and Bombay, Baroda and Central India Lines.

Facilities at Stations and Ports.

192. In a letter recently issued from the Public Works Department, giving effect to this decision, the following passage occurs:—

"In conclusion, I am to draw general attention to the fact that every expansion of the "export trade will bring to bear a heavier strain upon the facilities for handling, warehousing, "removing, and shipping produce at the Railway Stations and Ports. These facilities are "believed to be even now in many cases inadequate, and their improvement will, His

* The duty on Wool has within the last few weeks been reduced, and that on Cotton Goods and Metals has been increased.

"Excellency the Governor General in Council trusts, engage the serious attention of the "several local authorities at an early date."

I trust that this very important branch of the subject will receive the serious attention which it deserves.

Improved communications.

193. Turning to the question of improved communications, it is to be observed that during the last two years the Railway policy of the Government of India has been unsettled. I do not think that is any matter for surprise or for regret. In inaugurating a policy under which Railways were, to some extent at all events, to be constructed through the agency of private enterprise, it was almost inevitable that there should be a period of transition during which it would be exceedingly difficult to adhere to any fixed policy. It was easy to declare beforehand the broad aim which the Government sought to attain, namely, the construction of Railways through the agency of unaided private enterprise, but experience alone could show how far that aim was attainable. We have now had two years' experience of the private enterprise policy. During that time a certain number of facts have been accumulated, which, we think, are sufficient to enable us to lay down a definite policy, at all events for the immediate future, say, for five years. We have, therefore, very recently addressed the Secretary of State on the subject, but I am not as yet in a position to state what the final decision of the Government will be.

Progress in the construction of Railways.

194. In the meanwhile I may as well state very briefly what have been the main facts as regards Railway construction during the last two years. At the commencement of the year 1881-82 there were 9,619 miles. of Railway open to traffic, and 646 miles under construction, making a grand total of work either completed or in hand of 10,265 miles. At the commencement of the year 1882-83 there were 9,961 miles of line open for traffic and 1,302 under construction, making a grand total of 11,263 miles either completed or in hand. During the year 1882-83, 290 miles were opened to traffic, and the commencement of 1,194 miles of new line was authorised. The present position, therefore, is that we have 10,251 miles of line open to traffic, and 2,332 miles either under construction or sanctioned for commencement in 1883-84. It is expected that 719 miles will be opened for public use during the year 1883-84, leaving 1,613 miles for completion in 1884-85 and subsequent years. Comparing, therefore, the commencement of the year 1881-82 with the commencement of 1883-84, it will be found that the amount of line either open or under construction has in two years been increased by 2,318 miles. An immense deal, of course, remains to be done, and I trust it may be possible in the future to push forward the construction of Railways at a more rapid pace than in the past. At the same time it may be held that the progress during the last two years has, on the whole, been fairly satisfactory.

VIII.—Budget Estimates, 1883-84.

Budget Estimates, 1883-84.

195. I have already mentioned (para. 133) that the net Opium Revenue for 1882-83 is now estimated at £7,217,000. I pointed out on the occasion of the last Financial Statement (paras. 139 and 140) that during the four years 1878-79, 1879-80, 1880-81, and 1881-82, the annual sales of Bengal Opium had been in excess of the annual production, and, further, that these large sales had only been possible by reason of the exceptionally good crops of 1875-76 and 1876-77, which had enabled a very strong reserve to be constituted. I alluded to the fact that since 1878 the reserve had been steadily diminishing in quantity. I added—

Opium.

"This process of depletion cannot continue indefinitely. An exceptionally good crop "may, indeed, again replenish the reserve. But we cannot rely on a fortuitous circum-

"stance of this sort. An average crop, or, at all events, a succession of average crops, "will oblige us to resort to one of two alternatives. We shall be forced either to in- "crease the production, or to diminish the amount offered for sale."

Notification of June 28th, 1882.

196. The final result of the Opium crop is known about the month of June or July. The outturn of "provision" Opium—that is to say, Opium for export to China—in 1881-82 was 54,039 chests. The number of chests offered for sale in 1881-82 was 56,400. It was, therefore, thought desirable to reduce the number of chests to be offered for sale in 1883-84. Accordingly, on June 28th, 1882, the year's notice required by custom was given to the effect that from August 1883 (inclusive), the number of chests offered for sale would be reduced from 4,700 to 4,450 a month—a reduction at the rate of 3,000 chests in the year. It follows that during the year 1883-84 there will be four monthly sales of 4,700 chests each, and eight monthly sales of 4,450 chests each. In all 54,400 chests will be offered for sale in 1883-84, being 2,000 chests less than in 1882-83.

Reduction of duty on Malwa Opium.

197. Turning to Malwa Opium, it will be remembered that on June 28th, 1882, the duty was reduced by Rs. 50 a chest.

198. It is under these circumstances that we have to consider the Opium Estimate for the coming year.

Opium Estimate for 1883-84.

199. It is to be remembered that a reduction in the number of chests of Bengal Opium offered for sale should, all other things being equal, enhance the price which is realised on the diminished number of chests which are sold. But the reduction in quantity during 1883-84 (2,000 chests) may not be sufficient to exercise any appreciable effect on prices. It would not, therefore, be prudent to rely on a rise of price.

200. Also it is to be remembered that a diminution in the export of Bengal Opium to China will probably lead to a corresponding increase in the export of Malwa Opium. But here again it would not be prudent to rely on any compensating action of this sort in framing the Estimate for the coming year.

Revenue.

201. After a full consideration of the details of the question it has, therefore, been decided to take the gross Opium Revenue for 1883-84 at £9,200,000, being £362,000 less than the figure shown in the Revised Estimates for 1882-83.

Expenditure.

202. I turn now to the question of Expenditure. The expenditure under this head depends almost entirely on the yield of the poppy crop in Bengal and the North-West Provinces. As I have already mentioned (para. 133), the expenditure during the current year has been, relatively speaking, somewhat high (£2,345,000), owing partly to the fact that the outturn of both the Patna and Benares Agencies was somewhat above the average of past years, and partly to the fact that 2,000 maunds of Malwa Opium were purchased during the year to be manufactured into Opium for sale in India, thus allowing the reserve of Bengal Opium, which has heretofore been exclusively supplied for sale in India, to be strengthened to a corresponding extent.

Crop of 1882-83.

Estimate of Expenditure.

204. The bad consequences of a short poppy crop do not make themselves felt immediately. The immediate effect of a partial failure of the crop is to strengthen the financial position by diminishing Expenditure. The ultimate effect is, probably, to weaken the financial position by diminishing the Revenue. It is probable that the Expenditure in 1883-84 will fall short of that in 1882-83 by £270,000, but, in framing the Estimates, it has not been thought prudent to rely on so large a reduction of Expenditure. The Expenditure has, therefore, been taken at £2,165,000, being £180,000 less than that shown in the Revised Estimate for 1882-83.

Net Revenue.

205. The net Opium Revenue has, therefore, been taken at £7,035,000, being £182,000 less than the Revised and £215,000 less than the Budget Estimate of 1882-83.

Revenue	9,200,000
Expenditure	2,165,000
Net Revenue	7,035,000

Number of chests for sale.

206. In recent years it has been the custom to give a full year's notice of any change which is contemplated in the number of chests of Bengal Opium offered for sale. The necessity of giving so long a notice is inconvenient from the point of view of the Government. It will also be possible to abridge the period without causing any inconvenience to the trade. But we are pledged not to make any change in the existing system without giving a full year's notice. The present system will, therefore, remain in force until the end of March 1884. For the future the following plan will be adopted: The yield of the Opium crop is always known accurately about the month of June or July. When it is known, the number of chests to be offered for sale during the next calendar year will be publicly notified. A formal notification giving effect to this change of system will issue immediately.

Summary of position.

207. It may be convenient to those who are interested in the Bengal Opium trade that I should summarise the main facts of the present situation. They are as follows:—

(1) 4,700 chests of Opium will be offered for sale each month from April to July 1883 (both months inclusive).

(2) 4,450 chests will be offered for sale each month from August 1883, to March 1884 (both months inclusive).

(3) For the future the system of giving a full year's notice of any change in the number of chests to be offered for sale will be abandoned. The quantity to be sold in one calendar year will be publicly notified about the month of June or July of the preceding year.

(4) It is the intention of Government to reduce the number of chests, which will be offered for sale in 1884-85, below the quantity fixed by the notification of June 28th, 1882 (4,450 chests a month), but I am unable at present to state the precise amount of the reduction. A notification giving this information will issue so soon as the final results of the present Opium season are known, that is to say, about the beginning of July 1883.

(5) It is at present estimated that the total outturn of the Patna and Benares Agencies for the current year will be not more than 47,000 chests of "provision" Opium, that is to say, Opium for export to China. But any estimate which can at present be framed must necessarily be very unreliable.

(6) The Opium reserve will, on December 31st, 1883, stand at 13,859 chests.

Exchange.

208. I now turn to the question of Exchange. There is at present every reason to suppose that there will be a considerable demand for money during the early months of 1883-84. The export of wheat will, not improbably, be stimulated by the reduction in the Railway rates to which I have already alluded (Part VII). Under these circumstances it is quite possible that a higher average rate for Bills may be realised in 1883-84 than has been realised in 1882-83 (1*s.* 7·52*d.*). On the other hand, the Secretary of State's drawings for 1883-84 are now estimated at £16,300,000 (true sterling), being £958,000 (true sterling) in excess of the Budget Estimate for 1882-83 £15,342,000 (true sterling). The future of silver is also uncertain. Under these circumstances it would not be prudent to take a higher figure than 1*s.* 7½*d.* as the value of the Rupee. Taking the Rupee, therefore, at 1*s.* 7½*d.*, the Expenditure under Exchange on Transactions with London for 1883-84 is estimated at £ 3,548,000, being £ 773,000 in excess of the Budget, and £ 432,000 in excess of the Revised Estimates for 1882-83.

Other Estimates of Revenue.

209. The other Estimates have been cautiously framed. Land Revenue (net) is taken at £50,000, and Forests (net) at £76,000 less than in the Revised Estimates of 1882-83. Excise (net) is taken at a figure (£9,000) very slightly in excess of the Revised Estimate for the current year. Customs (net) are also taken very slightly (£3,000) in excess of the Revised Estimates, although owing to a reduction of establishment consequent on the abolition of the import duties, the expenditure will be £13,000 less than in 1882-83. Salt (net) is taken at £9,000 less than during the current year, an increase of expenditure to the extent of £47,000 being anticipated. This is a very low estimate and will probably be exceeded. Stamps (net) are taken at £34,000 more than the Revised Estimate, which allows for less than the normal growth of Revenue. The Mint receipts (net) are taken at £37,000 less than the Revised Estimate in order to allow for a probable diminution in the imports of silver, on which the receipts under this head mainly depend. Railways (State, Guaranteed and East Indian, net) have been taken at £209,000 over the Revised Estimates. The Estimate is a moderate one. Railways (Ordinary) have been taken at £40,000 less than the Revised Estimate.

Expenditure.

210. On the Expenditure side of the Account, full provision has been made for all wants that can now be foreseen. The extension of the Railway system necessitates heavy Expenditure under Telegraphs. An increase of £85,000 over the Revised Estimates for the current year is allowed under this head. Allowance is also made for increased Expenditure under Scientific and other Minor Departments (£44,000 net), Law and Justice (£91,000 net), Police (£78,000 net), Education (£61,000 net), Medical (£24,000 net), Territorial and Political Pensions (£55,000), Miscellaneous (£84,000 net), Subsidized Railways (£30,000), and Southern Mahratta Railway (£52,000).*

211. On the other hand, in respect to three large items, the Expenditure of 1883-84 will fall below that of 1882-83. There is a diminution of £188,000 under Refunds and Drawbacks. This is due to the cessation of the large remissions of Land Revenue in Bombay and to the fact that the refunds under Customs will be much less in 1883-84 than they were in 1882-83. The Expenditure on Frontier Railways has now nearly ceased, thus reducing the Expenditure by £214,000 as compared with the Revised Estimates of 1882-83. The Expenditure under Irrigation and Navigation (Ordinary) is taken at £116,000 less, and that on the Productive account at £23,000 more than the Revised Estimate. The reduction under Irrigation and Navigation (Ordinary) is principally in Provincial Expenditure and but slightly affects the Imperial Surplus or Deficit. Under this head also the charge of £50,000 for payment of interest to the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, which is shown in the Budget Estimate of 1882-83, disappears now that the works of the Company have become the property of the Government. Under Civil Buildings, Roads, and Services there is a reduction of £119,000 below the Revised Estimate for 1882-83. Marine also shows a reduction of £30,000; Stationery and Printing of £32,000; Political of £69,000.

212. I append to this Statement (Appendix VI) a minute by my hon'ble colleague, General Wilson, which gives full explanations as regards the Military Expenditure of the year.

* See note to para. 146 of this Statement. It is to be borne in mind that in some cases the increase of Expenditure does not affect Imperial Finance, as the charges are Provincial.

Opium.

213. It will be remembered that when, in 1880-81, the net Revenue derived from Opium amounted to £8,451,000—the largest sum ever realised—and when, in spite of this fact, the net Revenue for 1881-82 was taken in the Budget Estimates at only £6,500,000, this latter Estimate was severely criticised, both in and out of Parliament, as being too low. At the time when the Estimate was framed, I freely admit that it was almost certain that the net Revenue for 1881-82 would amount to more than £6,500,000. As a matter of fact, it amounted to £7,805,000. Further, as a matter of technical finance, it may very fairly be said that it is not right to deliberately under-estimate any item of Revenue. But that was not the really important point of issue. It makes little practical difference whether the Estimates are framed on the basis of a surplus of £500,000 and on an estimated net Revenue from Opium of £6,500,000, or whether they are framed on the basis of a surplus of, say, £1,500,000, and a net Revenue from Opium of £7,500,000. The really important question to decide, in March 1882, was this,—to what extent was it safe to take off taxes in reliance on a higher net Revenue than £6,500,000 from Opium?

Connection between Opium and Salt.

214. In the Financial Statement of last year (para. 192) I gave the following answer to this question :—

"If we abandon a source of Revenue which involves a permanent and absolute loss "of money, and which, moreover, from whatsoever reason, it would be difficult, in the "event of the Opium Revenue failing, to restore to its former position, then the course "would be open to great objection. If, on the other hand, we reduce a duty with a fair "hope that the reduction will increase consumption, and thus, after a while, recoup us for "any loss, and if, moreover, the duty can, without any great fiscal disturbance, be re-im-"posed in the event of the Opium Revenue falling off, then the reduction of taxation "would be unobjectionable. The Salt Duty falls within the latter of these two categories.

"It has been decided, therefore, to estimate the net Opium Revenue in 1882-83 at "£ 7,250,000, and simultaneously to afford some substantial relief to the tax-payers in the "shape of a reduction of the Salt Duty. * * * * * If any unfore-"seen circumstance, such as a heavy fall in the value of silver, takes place, and if at the "same time the reduction of the Salt Duty does not result in any considerable increase "in the consumption of salt, it would be open to us to return temporarily to a higher rate "of duty."

Salt a fiscal reserve.

215. It will be seen, therefore, that the intention, under certain contingencies, of using the Salt Duty as a fiscal reserve was distinctly indicated.

216. The loss of Revenue involved in reducing the Salt Duty (£1,400,000 a year) has, as I have already mentioned (para. 111), been already recouped by increased consumption to the extent of £320,600, a result more satisfactory by £302,000 than that which was anticipated last March. But in view of the facts (1) that the net Opium Revenue of 1883-84 is taken at £215,000 less than that of 1882-83 (Budget Estimate); (2) that the Expenditure under Exchange is estimated at £773,000 more than in 1882-83 (Budget Estimate); and (3) that, as is pointed out by General Wilson (see his Minute in Appendix VI), the savings in Military Expenditure in India have been to a great extent swallowed up by an increase of £100,000 (true sterling) on account of non-effective charges in England,—it would have been no matter for surprise if the Government had been obliged to resort to an enhancement of the rate of duty on Salt in order to balance the Revenue and Expenditure of the year 1883-84.

No increase of taxation necessary.

217. We are, however, fortunately under no such necessity. Not only are we able to balance our Revenue and Expenditure, but we are able, without any increase of taxation and without in any way starving the public services or checking the progress of Public Works of utility, to provide an adequate surplus in order to meet any of the numerous unforeseen contingencies which so frequently arise in India.

Budget Estimates, 1883-84.

218. The Budget Estimates for the year 1883-84 are as follows—

Revenue	67,274,000
Expenditure	66,817,000
Surplus .	457,000

Reasons of Surplus.

Postponement of further fiscal reforms.

220. On the other hand, the high Expenditure under Exchange and the diminution of the Opium Revenue have rendered it necessary to postpone the execution of those further fiscal reforms which, under more favourable conditions in respect to these two important points, might otherwise have been feasible. We have not thought it desirable to adhere, on grounds of financial necessity, to the high rates hitherto charged on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway for the conveyance of food-grains. We are fortunately in a position to give effect to a very salutary measure of reform in reducing those rates. But the consideration of any further measures of fiscal reform must be postponed. Last year a favourable opportunity presented itself for the execution of some very large and beneficial improvements in the fiscal system. This year the state of the case is different. The financial position is perfectly sound, but the situation is one in which great caution is required. We have to look, not only to the circumstances of the immediate moment, but also to the contingencies which may arise in future years.

Famine.

221. Against one, and perhaps the most serious, of these contingencies—I mean famine—we are insured to the extent of £1,500,000 a year.

Exchange.

222. As regards the possibility of any further fall in the value of silver, all that can be said is that financial equilibrium has been more than secured on the basis of an estimated value to the rupee (1s. 7½*d*), which cannot be considered as erring on the side of optimism.

Opium.

223. Opium constitutes the chief danger of the immediate future. I have for a long time past been inclined to take a somewhat desponding view of the future of the Opium Revenue, and recent events have confirmed the views which I had heretofore held. Considering (1) that the crop is singularly precarious, (2) that the indigenous drug of China is daily becoming a more serious competitor to Indian Opium, and (3) that the Indian Revenue depends in no slight degree on the domestic legislation of a foreign country (China),—it can scarcely, in my opinion, be doubted that the yearly Revenue which India derives from Opium will, in all probability, show a tendency to fall off in the future. For reasons which I have already stated (paras. 203-204), it is almost certain that, although the Opium Estimate of 1883-84 has been taken at £215,000 below the Budget and at £182,000 below the Revised Estimate for 1882-83, the Estimate for 1884-85 will have to be taken at a still lower figure.

Financial situation, 1884-85.

224. I will not venture to predict what may be the financial situation at the commencement of the year 1884-85. All that can now be said on this subject is that we commence the year 1883-84 with a surplus of £457,000 in hand; that the Estimates for 1883-84 have been very cautiously framed; that the material prosperity of the country is increasing, and, unless famine should intervene, will continue to increase, with the result that the Revenue from Excise, Salt, Stamps, Railways, &c., is steadily growing; and, lastly, that by the reduction of the Salt Duty, the financial position has been much strengthened, and a fiscal reserve constituted which, should the occasion unfortunately arise, can be used in case of necessity. So long as the value of the rupee and the Opium Revenue continue liable to such fluctuations as those which we have recently witnessed, the financial situation of India must always contain some special elements of instability; but I see no reasons for taking any desponding view of that situation at present. On the contrary, there is every reason to believe that the country will be well able to cope with whatever financial difficulties the future may have in store.

IX.—The License Tax.

The License Tax.

225. In making the Financial Statement last March, I summed up the attitude of the Government in respect to the License Tax in the following words (para. 251):—

Situation of the Government.

226. I quote these words now in order to show that the hands of the Government are perfectly free in dealing with this question. We have recognised that the tax is objectionable, and that it cannot in its present form be incorporated into the permanent fiscal system of the country. But beyond this we have given no pledges whatever, whether in respect to the nature of the changes which will eventually be made in the existing laws regulating this subject, or in respect to the time when they shall be made.

No present change.

227. In the Financial Statement last year (para. 245) I alluded to the defects in the existing system under which the License Tax is levied. I need not, therefore, repeat what I then said. I will only say that, after full consideration, the Government has decided not to propose any change in the existing system for the present.

228. Nothing can be more undesirable in India than to introduce frequent changes in the fiscal system. The evils arising from the present system under which the License Tax is levied are emphatically such as it would be preferable to endure, rather than to remedy, unless some remedy can be applied with a reasonable confidence that no further change will in the immediate future be necessary. There are, moreover, some special considerations which point to the desirability of making no changes in the fiscal system at present. The financial year which is about to close has presented features which are altogether abnormal, and, even if this had not been the case, the experience of a year is not sufficient to enable any very correct judgment to be formed as to the ultimate effect of the large fiscal reforms which were carried out in March 1882. The future of Silver and of Opium is also very uncertain. On every ground, therefore, the present moment is a time when great caution should be exercised. Under these circumstances the Government, after full consideration, is of opinion that the wisest course to adopt will be to make no changes in the existing fiscal system, but to allow more time to elapse with a view to watching the effect of those reforms which have been already effected.

Government reserves its freedom of action.

229. It will, of course, be clearly understood that, in dealing with the License Tax, the Government reserves to itself complete liberty of action in the future, and that I can give no definite pledge as to the course which will be eventually pursued.

X.—Stock Notes and Post Office Savings Banks.

Stock Notes and Post Office Savings Banks.

230. It will be remembered that about a year ago two schemes were introduced with a view to affording safe investments to the poorer classes. The first was the issue of Stock Notes. The second the establishment of Post Office Savings Banks.

Stock Notes.

231. Projects analogous to that of the Stock Note scheme had frequently been discussed in previous years, and various opinions, both official and unofficial, had been expressed on the subject. It was thought that the experiment was worth trying. In one District of the Central Provinces, in a portion of the North-West Provinces and Oudh, and in the whole of the Punjab, the right of selling Stock Notes was in the first instance temporarily reserved to monopolists. In the remaining provinces sales were effected only through the Civil Treasuries. More recently, in addition to the Civil Treasuries, the agency of the Post Office has been employed in the sale of the Notes. The result has been that Stock Notes to the value of £162,900 have been sold during the year. It is no matter for surprise that sales to a larger amount should not have been effected. The idea was a novel one, and it was not to be expected that, in a country like India, it would readily take root. Although more than 20 years have elapsed since Currency Notes were introduced into India, a very large part of the population still fails to appreciate their utility. Moreover, although the original plan was very carefully elaborated, experience alone could show whether all the details of the scheme were suitable to the circumstances of the country. Shortly after the issue of the Notes, many useful criticisms were made in connection with the scheme. It was, however, not thought desirable to effect any immediate changes in the plan which was originally adopted. A year has now nearly elapsed since the first issue of the Notes. The various suggestions and criticisms which have been made will, therefore, shortly be considered with a view to deciding whether any modifications in the details of the existing scheme are necessary or desirable.

232. Prolonged experience can alone show whether the scheme will ultimately take root in the country. In the meanwhile all that can be said is that it is worth while to continue the experiment.

Post Office Savings Banks.

233. Post Office Savings Banks were opened over a portion of India on April 1st, 1882. Owing to the vested rights of the Bank of Bombay, it was not possible to introduce the scheme in the Bombay Presidency, and in the Madras Presidency it was only introduced in the rural districts, to the exclusion of the large towns. Nor was the scheme introduced in the Presidency town of Calcutta. Arrangements have now been made with the Bank of Bengal and with the Bank of Bombay, which will allow of the introduction of the scheme into Calcutta and into the Bombay Presidency.

234. The results attained over the limited area in which Post Office Savings Banks have been opened are as follows. In the nine months ending December 31st, 1882, 31,698 accounts were opened, of which 2,928 were by Europeans and Eurasians and 28,770 by Natives of India. The balance in deposit on December 31st was £207,876.* It is worthy of observation that 91 per cent. of the depositors were Natives and only 9 per cent. Europeans and Eurasians. In the case of District and Presidency Savings Banks the proportion, taking the figures of the year 1881-82, was 62 per cent. of Native, and 38 per cent. of European and Eurasian depositors.

235. It is satisfactory to note that the establishment of Post Office Savings Banks has not led to any diminution in the deposits heretofore made in the District and Presidency Banks. The net operations of those Banks during the nine months ending with December 31st, 1882, show an increase of the balance in deposit of £60,500 over the balance on April 1st, 1882.

236. If we add together the amount of Stock Notes issued during the first nine months of the current financial year and the amount deposited in the Savings Banks, we arrive at a total of £431,300. From the point of view of comparison with some European countries, this amount is no doubt small in proportion to the population. But I do not think that any one acquainted with the condition of society in India would have expected more rapid progress.

Stock Notes	162,900
Post Office Saving Banks	207,900
District and Presidency Saving Banks	60,500
TOTAL	431,300

XI.—Ways and Means.

Ways and Means.

237. In the Financial Statement of last year (para. 267) I stated that if no loan for Productive Public Works were raised during the year, the balance on March 31st, 1883, would probably be £10,848,000.

Drawings of 1882-83.

238. This estimate was based on the assumption that the Secretary of State would draw Bills to the extent of £15,342,000 (true sterling) on the Indian Treasury in the course of the year 1882-83.

239. I have already explained (para. 142) that, on the one hand, the Secretary of State's drawings were diminished by £1,300,000 (true sterling), owing to the large drawings in March 1882, and owing to the transactions connected with the Southern Mahratta Railway Company, and that, on the other hand, it is proposed to draw an additional £1,000,000 (true sterling), in order to reduce sterling debt in England. Thus the total amount of Secretary of State's drawings during the year 1882-83 will, it is estimated, be £15,042,000 (true sterling).

240. The balances have been increased during the year by the excess of revenue over expenditure beyond the amount for which credit was taken in the Budget, and also by a loan of £2,500,000 (nominal) which, as it was taken up at an average price of Rs. 98-14·7, yielded £2,472,979.

241. On the other hand, the balances have been diminished by the abnormal expenditure on account of the Egyptian expedition amounting, in India, to £1,179,200 and by the high expenditure under Exchange due to the fall in the value of the rupee.

Balance on March 31st, 1883.

242. The net result of all these operations is that the balance on March 31st, 1883, is now estimated at £13,840,000.

Ways and Means, 1883-84.

243. I now turn to the question of the Ways and Means for the year 1883-84.

* On March 3rd, 1883, the balance in deposit in the Post Office Savings Banks amounted to £248,000. Information as regards the classification of depositors is not at present available for any date later than December 31st, 1882.

Publicity as regards Loan operations.

244. Complaints are occasionally made in India on the ground that the Government does not keep the public sufficiently informed in respect to its intentions in the matter of loan operations. I beg to assure those who are interested in this subject that the Government is fully alive to the desirability on every ground of announcing its intentions on this subject at as early a date as possible. We have no wish whatever to keep the public in suspense in this matter a day longer than is necessary. On the other hand, I must again draw attention to the remarks I made on the occasion of the last Financial Statement (para. 271). The operations of the Government of India are so large and varied, and so many unforeseen circumstances are liable to arise during the year, that to estimate in advance the cash requirements of the Government for twelve months must always be a matter of very great difficulty. Indeed, I may go further and say that, even under normal circumstances, it is quite impossible for the best-informed person to say how far the Estimates of the Revenue and Expenditure of the year are likely to be realised until about the end of the month of September, by which time it may be said that the general result of the harvest, which depends mainly on the south-west monsoon, can be stated with some sort of accuracy. I conceive that nothing would be more calculated to exercise a disturbing influence on the market than that any premature announcement should be made of the intentions of the Government, and that subsequently there should be a change in those intentions. I may add that the uncertainty in connection with the probable cost of the Egyptian Expedition, which, of course, depended largely on the course of events in Egypt, rendered any early announcement of the final intentions of the Government last year especially difficult.

Statements published in the Gazette.

Loan in 1883-84.

246. It will be necessary to raise the usual loan for Productive Public Works in the course of the year. The present intention of the Government is to borrow £2,500,000 in India. The rate of interest will, as usual, be 4 per cent. Full particulars as regards the date on which tenders will be accepted, &c., &c., will be issued on or about July 16th.

247. In dealing with the amount of the Secretary of State's drawings (para. 208) and with the loan operations, which are contemplated during 1883-84 (para. 246) I speak subject to the usual reserve, that is to say, that the announcements I now make—

"are subject to modification as the year goes on; the Government must not be understood to pledge itself that the Secretary of State will raise by Bills the exact amount stated; or that the amount stated will be borrowed during the year; or that it will be borrowed in India or England, as the case may be."

248. Whilst making this reserve, I may add that it is absolutely certain that the loan of £2,500,000, to which I have already alluded, will be contracted.

The only possible modification is, that in the event of any unforeseen contingency arising, such as war or famine, it might be necessary to borrow more. I have at present no reason whatever to believe that it will be necessary to borrow more than £2,500,000. But it must be clearly understood that the Government reserves complete liberty of action to itself in the event of any contingency arising which cannot now be foreseen.

Balance on March 31st, 1884.

249. The balance on March 31st, 1884, is estimated at £11,697,000, but this is a very low Estimate and, unless anything unforeseen occurs, it will probably be exceeded.

XII.—Conclusion.

Summary of Financial Statement

250. It may be convenient that I should summarize the main features of the present Financial Statement. They are as follows:—

Forms of Account.

(1) The forms in which the Accounts and Estimates are now presented to the public have been revised and simplified (paras. 7—66).

Accounts of 1881-82.

(2) The Accounts of 1881-82 show a surplus of £2,582,727 (paras. 67—71).

Trade of 1882-83.

(3) The volume of the import trade in those articles relieved from duty in March 1882 has in the ten months, from April 1st, 1882, to January 31st, 1883, increased by about 7¼ per cent. (paras. 72—94).

Price of Salt.

(4) There has been a general fall in the retail price of Salt since the duty was reduced. The amount of the fall in the different provinces ranges generally from about 13 to 23 per cent. (paras. 95—100).

Consumption of Salt.

(5) The consumption of Salt since the reduction of the duty has increased by about 6½ per cent., representing a revenue of about £320,000 (paras. 95—116).

Egyptian Expedition.

(6) The net cost of the Egyptian Expedition during the year 1882-83, after deducting the £500,000 (true sterling) contributed by the English Government, is estimated at £797,000 (para. 131).

Opium, 1882-83.

(7) The net Opium Revenue of 1882-83 is now estimated at £7,217,000, being £33,000 less than the Budget Estimate (para. 133).

Exchange, 1882-83.

(8) The Expenditure under Exchange during 1882-83 is now estimated at £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate (para. 142).

Reduction of Debt.

(9) A sum of £1,000,000 (true sterling) will be remitted home during the year 1882-83 and will be applied to the reduction of Sterling debt in England (para. 139).

Surplus, 1882-83.

(10) The Revised Estimates for 1882-83 show a surplus of £60,000 (para. 144).

Railway rates.

(11) With a view to stimulating the export trade, the through railway rates on wheat and other grains and seeds from Delhi and Agra and Bombay have been reduced by 18½ per cent., equivalent, so far as wheat is concerned, to a reduction of 1*s.* 6*d.* per quarter in the London market. This step will no doubt be followed by corresponding reduction of rates on the East Indian Line (paras. 153—194).

License Tax.

(12) No further fiscal changes are proposed in connection with the financial arrangements of the year 1883-84. The License Tax remains unchanged (paras. 225—229).

Opium, 1883-84.

(13) The net Opium Revenue for 1883-84 has been taken at £7,035,000, being £215,000 less than the Budget Estimate of 1882-83 (para. 205).

Bengal Opium.

(14) The amount of Bengal Opium which will be offered for sale up to the end of March 1884 will be regulated by the terms of the Notification of June 28th, 1882. The amount which will be offered for sale from April to December 1884, both months inclusive, will be notified about the beginning of July 1883 (paras. 206—207).

Exchange, 1883-84. (15) In the Estimates for 1883-84 the value of the rupee has been taken at 1*s.* 7½*d.*, and the Expenditure under Exchange at £773,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate for 1882-83 (para. 208).

Surplus, 1883-84. (16) The Budget Estimates for 1883-84, which have been very cautiously framed, show a surplus of £457,000 (para. 218).

Drawings, 1882-83. (17) The Secretary of State's drawings during 1882-83 are now estimated at £15,042,000 (true sterling) (paras. 142 and 239), of which £14,184,000 (true sterling) had been drawn up to March 9th, 1883.

Drawings, 1883-84. (18) The Secretary of State's drawings during 1883-84 are estimated at £16,300,000 (true sterling) (see para. 208).

Loan of 1883-84. (19) The usual loan for Productive Public Works will be contracted in India during the year 1883-84. The amount, unless any unforeseen contingency should arise, will be £2,500,000. The rate of interest will be 4 per cent. Further particulars in connection with the loan will be issued on or about July 16th, 1883 (paras. 246—248).

Cash Balance, March 31st, 1883. (20) The cash balance on March 31st, 1883, is estimated at £13,840,000 (para. 242).

Cash Balance, March 31st, 1884. (21) The cash balance on March 31st, 1884, is estimated at £11,697,000 (para. 249), but this is a very moderate Estimate, and it will probably be exceeded.

Opium prospects, 1884-85. (22) The accounts of the Opium crop in Bengal and North-West Provinces are unsatisfactory, and it is probable that in 1884-85 the Opium Estimate will have to be taken at a lower figure than that shown in the Budget Estimates for 1883-84 (para. 223).

APPENDIX IV.

MEMORANDUM ON PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL SURPLUSES AND DEFICITS.

APPENDIX IV.

Memorandum on Provincial and Local Surpluses and Deficits.

I observe, both from the debate in the House of Commons on the Indian Financial Statement, and from the comments in the English and Indian Press, that some difficulty is experienced in fully understanding the adjusting entries which appear in the Indian Accounts and Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure under the head of "Provincial and Local Surpluses and Deficits." This is no matter for surprise, for the entries represent, in fact, transactions which are somewhat complicated, and which it is, not unnaturally, difficult for any one not thoroughly conversant with all the details of the Indian financial system to understand fully.

The following illustration may perhaps serve to place the matter in a clear and intelligible light:—

A has three sons, B, C, and D. A, B, C, and D keep their balances at one banker, and the whole are merged in one account standing in A's name. On January 1st, 1882, the total balance standing to A's credit was £200,000, which was divided thus:—

Belonging to A	100,000
,, B	50,000
,, C	30,000
,, D	20,000
TOTAL	200,000

A estimates his total income for 1882 at £120,000. His expenditure he estimates as follows:—

A's personal expenditure	50,000
Allowance granted by A to B	25,000
Ditto A to C	15,000
Ditto A to D	10,000
Leaving a surplus belonging to A of	20,000
TOTAL	120,000

On January 1st, 1882, B gives A notice that, besides spending his allowance for the year (£25,000), he wishes to draw on his balance of £50,000 to the extent of £10,000.

C at the same times gives notice that during the year he will spend exactly the amount of his allowance, and will neither draw on his balance of £30,000, nor increase it during the year.

D at the same time gives notice that during the year he will only spend £9,000, out of his allowance of £10,000, thus increasing his balance, which stood on January 1st, 1882, at £20,000, by £1,000.

The joint Revenue and Expenditure Account of A, B, C, and D for the year will, therefore, stand thus:—

REVENUE.	£	EXPENDITURE.	£	£
A's income	120,000	A's personal expenditure		50,000
		B's expenditure—
		Allowance for the year	25,000
		Add drawn from balance	10,000
				35,000
		C's expenditure		15,000
		D's expenditure—
		Allowance for the year	10,000
		Deduct saving during the year	1,000
				9,000
		Surplus		11,000
				120,000

And the joint Cash Account of A, B, C, and D will stand thus:—

Cr.

	£		£	£
Balance on January 1st, 1882 . .	200,000	Expenditure during 1882—
A's income for 1882	120,000		£
		A . .	50,000
	320,000	B . .	35,000
		C . .	15,000
		D . .	9,000
				109,000
		Balance on December 31st, 1882		211,000
				320,000

It is clear that the Revenue and Expenditure Account given above does not accurately represent the result of the year's finance to A considered by himself. A is to receive altogether £120,000 during the year, of which he has alienated £50,000 to B, C, and D, leaving £70,000 for his own expenditure. As a matter of fact, he only intends to spend £50,000 during the year, thus leaving himself a surplus of £20,000, and not of £11,000, as shown above. The difference of £9,000 arises from the following facts:—(1) That on the Expenditure side of the Account a sum of £10,000 appears, being the amount in excess of his allowance (£25,000), which B proposes to expend in the year; and (2) that on the Revenue side of the Account full provision is made for the annual grant of £10,000 to D, whereas on the Expenditure side of the Account provision is only made for an expenditure of £9,000 on the part of D. If, therefore, we wish to arrive at a knowledge of A's surplus for the year, we must add to the £11,000 given above the amount of £10,000 by which B has drawn on his balance, and we must deduct £1,000, being the amount by which D's expenditure (£9,000) for the year is less than his annual income (£10,000). This sum of £1,000 really constitutes a debt due by A to D. When these adjustments have been made, we arrive at A's true surplus, thus:—

Surplus as shown above		11,000
Add expenditure of B in excess of annual grant	10,000
Deduct amount by which D's revenue is in excess of his annual income	1,000
Total addition . . .		9,000
A's surplus . . .		20,000

Turning to the Cash Account given above, it is clear that, regarding the joint accounts of A, B, C, and D together, the balance during the year has been increased by £11,000, viz., from £200,000 to £211,000. But the distribution of the balance at the close of the year between A, B, C, and D will be different to what it was at the commencement. A's and D's balances will have increased, as they will have spent, the former £20,000 and the latter £1,000 less than their income for the year. B's balance will be reduced, as he will have spent £10,000 more than his annual income. C's balance will have remained unchanged, as he will have spent the exact amount of his annual income. I will presently show how the balance of each will stand.

Now, A is under an obligation to produce a Revenue and Expenditure Account for the year, which shall show (1) the total amount he receives, including the grants made, or, which is the same thing, the revenues alienated, to B, C, and D; and (2) the total amount of expenditure incurred by A, B, C, and D. It is also necessary to show in this Account the net result of the year's finance to A only, who is the most important partner in the concern, leaving the net results of the year's finance to B, C, and D to be shown in separate accounts.

This object is effected by compiling the account in the following manner:—

Revenue.	£	£	Expenditure.	£	£
A . .	70,000		A . .	50,000
B . .	25,000		B . .	35,000
C . .	15,000		C . .	15,000
D . .	10,000		D . .	9,000
		120,000			109,000
Deduct the amount by which B has exceeded his income for the year, i.e., B's deficit				10,000
Add the amount by which D's income for the year has exceeded his expenditure, i.e., D's surplus				1,000
Total deduction . . .					9,000
Leaving A's expenditure, inclusive of the grants made during the year to B, C, and D					100,000
A's surplus is, therefore, ...					20,000
					120,000

Turning to the Cash Account, the joint balance will, as I have already shown, be increased during the year from £200,000 to £211,000. The separate Accounts will stand thus:—

A's Cash Account.

If A be regarded as the Government of India, B, C, and D as the Provincial Governments, B's deficit of £10,000 as the entry "Provincial and Local Deficits," and D's surplus of £1,000 as the entry "Provincial and Local Surpluses," a correct idea will be gained of the precise nature of the adjusting entries which appear in the Accounts and Estimates of the Government of India under the head of "Provincial and Local Surpluses and Deficits."

*Memorandum on the Import of Government Stores from Europe.

1. As regards Government stores, the returns for the ten months ending January 31st, 1883, compared with the corresponding period of the year 1881-82, show reductions, to a greater or less extent, in the following articles:—

Apparel.
Carriages and carts.
Drugs and medicines.
Hardware and cutlery.
Instruments and apparatus.
Leather and leather-goods (boots, shoes, &c.)
Malt liquor.
Machinery and mill-work.
Railway plant and rolling-stock.
Parts of ships.
Woollen piece-goods.

In malt liquor and leather and woollen-goods the reductions are particularly noticeable. In these cases and of all the others above mentioned, except machinery and railway material, the reductions are certainly due to the substitution of Indian goods of similar kinds for articles heretofore imported from Europe.

2. On the other hand, there have been increases, more or less large, in the following articles:—

Arms and Ammunition and Military Stores.
Chemical products.
Coal.
Cotton piece-goods.
Flax goods (canvas, &c.)
Spirits and wines.
Metals of all kinds.
Paper and stationery.
Telegraph materials.

With the exception of paper and stationery these are either goods of a class not now made in the country, or they are required at places where Indian goods cannot be laid down as cheaply as imported goods. For instance, English coal is cheaper at Kurrachee than Indian coal. The cotton piece-goods imported are generally of a kind not yet made in India.

3. The increase in paper and stationery is more apparent than real. The Superintendent of Stationery for two or three years bought his paper and stationery in the market under orders from the Government of India, and his purchases appeared during that time under the head of General Trade, not under Government Stores. This practice having been stopped and, paper and stationery now coming from the Store Department of the India Office, the European supplies of the Stationery Office now appear under Government Stores. Some progress is being made in the manufacture of paper in India, but it has as yet unfortunately been only found possible to make the coarser kinds of paper used by the Government.

4. The total of the whole imports of Government Stores for the ten months compared with the corresponding period of 1881-82 show a reduction of from £1,806,552 to £1,744,747, or £61,805. Some gradual progress is thus being made in the direction of substituting Indian-made articles for those of English manufacture; but it will not be possible to make any very sensible impression upon the total amount of stores imported from England until iron work and machinery, equal in quality and not superior in price to the English articles, can be manufactured in India.

THE MILITARY BUDGET ESTIMATES, 1883-84.

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL THE HON'BLE F. T. WILSON, C.B.

APPENDIX VI.

The Military Budget Estimates, 1883-84.

Minute by Lieutenant-General the Hon'ble T. F. Wilson, C.B.

The estimated net cost of the army in India for the financial year 1883-84 is £11,194,000, being £95,700 less than what it was for the current year.

In the face of the reductions carried out in the native army last year, this result may at first appear disappointing, but examination of the different items will remove this idea, and show that there is no cause for other feeling than that of satisfaction with the accounts generally.

In considering the subject, it must be kept prominently in view that, although a large reduction in the number of regiments was made during the past year, still no reduction in the total number of fighting men was effected. On the contrary, the reverse is the case; for, while the number of corps was reduced, the strength of those to be maintained was increased:—infantry from 712 to 832 of all ranks in each of the corps, other than the five Goorkha regiments, which, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, are maintained at an extra strength of 912 of all ranks:—and cavalry from 457 to 550, with the exception of the Madras Cavalry, which remains unchanged.

Thus the total establishment of the three native armies in India is 111,411, or 436 men in excess of what it was before the reduction of the regiments took place.

The previously existing total number of British officers has been maintained much as before by the addition of one to each regiment of cavalry and infantry, whereby only ten regimental officers, excluding medical officers, have been reduced.

Thus the changes have resulted in a very small reduction in the strength of officers, and a material increase in the aggregate numbers of the rank and file of the regiments retained, while a large saving, estimated altogether at £103,183, has been effected. As foretold last year, however, a considerable portion of these savings has been absorbed by the payment of gratuities, compensation, and pensions to officers and men of the corps reduced. The compensation and gratuities have been paid, and there will be no further claims to meet on this account; but the pensionary charges have been largely increased. This abnormal charge will gradually be reduced as the pensioners decrease; still for some years to come there will undoubtedly be a large sum needed to meet the item No. 18, "Military Pensions."

The economical effects of the reforms carried out would have been more apparent but for two accidental and not to be foreseen circumstances.

The first refers to the settlement between the India Office and the War Office for non-effective charges which have gradually fallen into large arrears, with the result that the Secretary of State has now decided to pay off the amount due by spreading the payment of it over a number of years, commencing with an instalment of £100,000 as a first annual payment.

Secondly, a large increase has been required to Grant No. 10, consequent upon the unpleasant discovery that for some time past the ammunition factory at Kirkee has been turning out imperfect ammunition, large quantities of which have been condemned, and to meet the loss we have had to materially increase the outturn of the ammunition factories in order to complete the reserves.

Thus, had it not been for the arrears due to the War Office, and the defects discovered in the ammunition manufactured at Kirkee, a much larger saving would have been exhibited,—a saving which has been effected in conjunction with changes resulting in increased efficiency and strength.

There has been no change in the number of regiments and batteries on the establishment of the British troops in India, but there is a trifling increase in the total strength of men.

Going further into detail, I would observe that in Grant No. 5, "Remount and cattle supplies and service," there is an increase of £59,196. This is due to the unusually large number of horses required to meet annual waste and complete the reserve, an exceptionally small number of remounts having been purchased during the current financial year. We were too sanguine last year, and should have bought more horses, but it was a fault on the right side, and the keep of these extra horses for the better part of a year has been saved.

There is also an increase in Grant No. 6, "Clothing." This is caused by the provision of a large sum (£16,300) which will become due to Messrs. Cooper and Allen, local contractors, for their first supply of country-made boots for the army. This payment will, however, cause a corresponding decrease in the home charges.

Grants 3 and 9, "Regimental pay, allowances and charges" and "Medical establishment, service and supplies," must be considered together, because, while the former shows a decrease of very nearly £255,000 lakhs, the latter records an increase of £70,467, the saving on both Grants combined being £184,519,— a result mainly due to the reduction of regiments and establishments and the Army Medical Department. The complete introduction of the station hospitals in place of the regimental hospitals has also contributed to this very large decrease in military expenditure.

Under the head of Grant 10, "Ordnance establishment, stores and camp equipage," there is an increase which is accounted for by the necessity for replacing the faulty ammunition manufactured at Kirkee, and to which reference has already been made. There is also an increase of £11,000 for camp equipage in Bengal and Madras. In Madras, however, the increased charges for camp equipage are counterbalanced by the abolition of the depot at Nagpore, and reductions in the Gunpowder Factory at Madras and the depot at the Mount. The increase includes £5,800 provided for the purchase, in the local market, of canvas for the Ordnance Department, Bombay. There will be a corresponding decrease in the home indent.

The excess over last year's budget estimate in Grant 13, "Sea transport charges," is chiefly due to an increase of £5,800 in the charges for the Indian trooping service, the estimate for 1882-83 having proved too low.

The saving in Grant 4, "Miscellaneous Services," would have been larger but for the necessity which has arisen for providing for a camp of exercise at Bangalore,—a measure which has been strongly urged upon the Government of India by the local Commander-in-Chief and the Commander-in-Chief in India, it being considered very desirable to give the Madras army the advantage of instruction in field duties and some of the more important operations which would devolve upon officers, soldiers, and departments under the conditions of war.

In Grant No. 15, "Volunteers," provision is made for the additional sum of £3,362. This increase is a welcome one, being rendered necessary by the considerable increase to the number of volunteers in India which has taken place during the past year.

Under the head of Grant 17, "Retired Officers," there is a small increase made in order to provide for the possible payment to officers in India of commuted pensions. But it must be remembered that, whilst this increases expenditure in India, it proportionably decreases home charges.

Grant No. 18, "Military Pensions," exhibits increased expenditure. This is on account of pensions due to the Afghan war, and the recent large reductions in the native army.

Such briefly are the principal variations in the items of military expenditure in India, the net decrease on the whole being, as compared with the estimates of last year, £95,700.

Efforts to reduce military expenditure in India have not been confined to the native army. The number of siege guns to be maintained has been reduced by 45 pieces, with a corresponding reduction of 179 bullocks required for their transport. The ordnance depots at Peshawar, Belgaum and Nagpore have been abolished, while large reductions have been effected in the depot at St. Thomas' Mount, Madras.

In the explanation relative to military expenditure in India, which I gave last year, I referred to the intention to immediately extend to the other presidencies the station hospital system, by means of which one British hospital takes the place of several in a cantonment. This measure, which has been found to work admirably, has, during the past year, been further developed, with the result that the Army Medical Department has been further reduced, the strength in officers being now 300 as compared with the old establishment of 373 officers exclusive, in both cases, of the administrative grades.

The Subordinate Medical Department has also been reduced by ten assistant apothecaries, and there are other contemplated changes which are calculated to further reduce expenditure; but their financial effects cannot, at present, be estimated. Reductions in the same direction will follow in the Bombay and Madras establishments.

The married establishment of British soldiers has been fixed at—

Warrant officers	All.
Non-commissioned officers	All.
Royal Artillery	8 per cent. for 5 years, then 6 per cent.
Infantry	4 per cent.

A considerable portion of the reduction on this account has already taken place.

The estimate provides for the following sanctioned changes:—

(a.)—Increase in the establishment of non-commissioned officers in heavy and field batteries.

(b.)—Grant to quartermasters and riding-masters of British troops of the increased allowance due to the changes in their relative rank.

(c.)—Improvement in the position of the native non-commissioned officers by the grant to them of good-conduct pay.

(d.)—Formation of two army hospital corps for Madras and Bombay, similar to the one adopted in Bengal; and the appointment of an apothecary to supervise the detailed administration of the Bengal army hospital corps.

(e.)—A considerable increase in the amount of practice ammunition for all the troops, European and native.

In addition to the above, the new transport scheme, which has been fairly started in all three presidencies, has been provided for.

The late war in Afghanistan forcibly brought to light many imperfections in our old system of transport, with its attendant enormous expenditure consequent on the want of a proper organisation during a period of peace, and incapability of rapid expansion when war took place. For some time past this subject has been under the consideration of the Government, and during the past summer the Secretary of State has sanctioned proposals which provide for the equipment of the troops protecting the various frontiers with half transport on service scale, also for certain forces which will be held ready for local service or despatch to a distinct point, the approximate numbers of which are in all 46,000 men.

Under this scheme the country is divided into circles, each with a depot centre, where a certain amount of transport is to be kept on a peace footing, capable of expansion in time of war. Training depots are provided for at the largest stations in India, where detachments will be sent, so that officers and men may go through a course of transport training.

Power is given to mobilise forces as follows within the provincial areas:—

	Men.
Punjab	10,000
Bengal	10,000
Bombay	8,000
Madras	5,000

Arrangements are being made by which the resources of the country in transport will be known, so that it will be easy, at short notice, to supplement the transport in time of need to meet the requirements of war.

The total approximate amount of transport to be maintained in India will be as follows:—

Elephants	600
Camels, Government	396
„ hired	2,500
Mules, Government	8,100
Pack bullocks	1,000
Army transport carts	1,300

Equivalent to a maundage of 51,000 maunds.

A permanent staff for the supervision of the above is provided as follows:—

Bengal.

1 Deputy Commissary-General, Transport.
1 Assistant Commissary-General, Transport.
2 Deputy Assistant Commissaries-General, Transport.
2 Deputy Assistant Commissaries-General, Transport, 2nd class.
5 Sub-Assistant Commissaries-General.

11 Commissioned officers.

Madras.

1 Assistant Commissary-General.
2 Deputy Assistant Commissaries-General.
2 Sub-Assistant Commissaries-General.

5 Commissioned officers.

Bombay.

1 Assistant Commissary-General.
1 Deputy Assistant Commissary-General
2 Sub-Assistant Commissaries-General.

4 Commissioned officers.

The following subordinate establishment has also been provided:—

Bengal.

1 Deputy Assistant Commissary.
5 Conductors.
7 Sub-Conductors.
10 Sergeants.

23 Total.

Madras.

2 Conductors.
3 Sub-Conductors.
5 Sergeants.

10 Total.

Bombay.

1 Conductor.
1 Sub-Conductor.
3 Sergeants.

5 Total

Provision has been made for the cost of this establishment, for equipment, repairs to buildings, allowances to regimental transport staff, pension to inferior servants, &c. The total cost will be about £280,000 per annum.

The old movable column system has been abolished, as it was found an expensive and comparatively useless arrangement. The carriage kept up under that system could not be readily mobilised, and the new transport service will be much more efficient and less expensive.

Consequent on there having been a surplus of mules over requirements, the transport service has been started (since the conclusion of the Egypt war) with selected animals throughout, and both they and their equipment are in first rate order.

An efficient ambulance service in connection with the transport service is being organised in each of the presidencies, which will, it is hoped, provide the army with a percentage of sick transport and equipment on a sounder footing than hitherto and at no additional cost to the State.

The introduction of the new transport service into the Madras and Bombay presidencies has been rendered an easy matter owing to the cordial co-operation of the local authorities in meeting the wishes of the Government of India.

The new scheme, though not at the time nearly completed, has had full trial during the late war in Egypt, for while only in course of formation, it was called upon suddenly to supply carriage for 13,201 fighting men and followers and 5,915 animals, with officers and drivers complete. These proceeded to Suez at the worst period of the monsoon weather, in August and September of last year; and whilst in Egypt the entire success of the new pattern saddle, the completeness of the supervision provided, the advantage of trained attendants, and of regiments being instructed in loading and packing were fully exemplified.

For some time past the Government of India has recognised the need of applying a remedy to the stagnation in promotion which existed in the cavalry cadres of the three presidencies, and the consequent supersession in substantive rank of the local cavalry officers by the staff corps and general lists. To this end the Secretary of State has recently sanctioned measures for ameliorating the position of the cadre officers of the local cavalry lists suffering from retarded promotion, especially in the junior grades, by allowing all the option of receiving staff corps rates of promotion with staff corps rates of pay on their waiving their claims to the higher cavalry pay when unemployed; those who accepted the above condition being also allowed to attain to colonel's allowances after 38 years' service. These measures have been recently introduced, and have removed all legitimate grounds of complaint, but the additional cost will hardly fall short of £7,000 yearly.

For this change, and all other changes enumerated above, full provision has been made in the estimate.

The fact that next year is leap year calls for a passing remark. The increase on this account for the extra day's pay and rations for British troops, and for the extra forage for horses, &c., is estimated roughly at about £6,000.

Turning to the home charges—

The estimate provides for £195,800 on account of changes which have been made under the orders of the home authorities. This sum is in excess of the budget estimate for 1882-83; the increase, however, being largely met by reductions aggregating £175,600, leaves a net increase of £20,200 as compared with the budget estimate of 1882-83.

The large decrease in the home charges which it was anticipated would result from the policy of substituting, as far as possible, local stores and supplies for articles hitherto imported, has been fully realised. The saving on this account is £124,100. In this direction of late years much has been done. The expenditure for home stores, including freight, which was in 1877-78 £1,154,460, is now estimated for the coming financial year at £504,800. Within the past five years reduction has been effected in this one account to the extent of £649,660.

The economy effected in the above item is, however, nearly all absorbed by the arrangement made at home to commence to liquidate the large arrears due to the War Office for non-effective charges, and £100,000 has this year been set aside as a first annual instalment of the debt.

Last year I pointed out that the charges for retired pay for officers of the Indian army would annually increase until the year 1897 is reached, and this year's estimate makes increased provision on this account. Indeed, these non-effective home charges and their annually increasing cost forcibly remind us of what was said by the Secretary of State for War in the House of Commons on the 24th June 1881, that it would not be before 1893 that the heavy dead weight which was due to that service would begin to diminish, and that meanwhile it would increase, and the automatic increase of pensions would continue whatever economies might be effected.

Such briefly are the remarks I desire to make on the Military Budget Estimate for the year 1883-84. Fully recognizing my responsibility for military expenditure, I have not accepted them without much criticism and examination, and they have caused me anxiety. But on the whole I am satisfied with them, because they maintain the British army at its normal strength in batteries and regiments, and they provide for an addition to the aggregate strength of the army, have provided each regiment with an additional British officer, and have effected a change in organisation which has brought about the elimination from the ranks of the Bengal army of the non-fighting classes, while adding to the establishment of the regiments retained men of the warlike classes. This has been done, and improvement in establishments has been gained at a considerable reduction of expenditure, while, consequent on the liberal concessions sanctioned by the Secretary of State to the men discharged, and the care exhibited by the military authorities, the changes have been carried into effect without difficulty, and have been accepted by the army without a murmur, and without any of the disquieting effects which were by some anticipated.

Finally, I would say that, if Government are asked what proof they have that the efficiency of the army has been improved, and that the reduction of cadres has not gone too far, and too much reduced our military establishment, I reply, that, while we have reduced the number of our regiments, selecting in Bengal some of those which were almost wholly recruited from the least warlike of the classes in India, we have materially added to the strength of those maintained, have increased the European element in each, and made them capable of proceeding on service without extraneous aid from transfers to them; and that although the demand for Native troops for Egypt came to us at quite the most inconvenient moment it could have done, in July last, just as the reductions sanctioned by the Secretary of State had been carried out and the Government were some 7,000 men short of establishment, no difficulty was found in furnishing the required number of troops, and within eleven days of the receipt of the order directing sea transport to be engaged, the first detachment had sailed from Bombay, and was quickly followed by forty-six transports with troops, horses, followers, and land transport fully complete; and if another 5,000 men had been needed, the Government of India could without difficulty have provided them. This, I think, furnishes a satisfactory reply to those who have asserted that the reductions carried out last year went too far, and dangerously weakened our military strength in India.

(Sd.) T. F. WILSON.

The 10th March 1883.

Summary of Financial Statement.

AS no legislation is to be undertaken in connection with the financial arrangements of 1883-84, the Financial Statement takes the form of a Minute, written by Major Baring, which is to-day published in the Gazette.

The Accounts and Estimates are presented in a new and simplified form. The figures are in conventional sterling, that is, £1 equals R10. The Accounts of 1881-82 show the following result:—

Revenue	73,696,000
Expenditure	71,113,000
Surplus	2,583,000

The value of the import trade in those articles which were exempted from duty last March has increased by about 7 per cent. in 10 months. There has been a general fall in the retailed price of Salt in all the provinces since the reduction of the duty, ranging from 12 per cent. in Oudh to 23 per cent. in Bengal. The consumption of Salt since March 1st, 1882, has increased by 6½ per cent., representing a Revenue of £320,000 a year, or about £302,000 in excess of the anticipations formed last March. Of this increase £163,000 falls to the year 1881-82, a very large amount of Salt having paid duty in the last three weeks of March 1882, and £139,000 falls to 1882-83. It is estimated that should the same rate of increase continue, the Revenue at the reduced rate of duty will in less than three years from the present time stand at the same figure as it did prior to the reduction.

Turning to the Revised, formerly called the Regular, Estimates for 1882-83, it is to be observed that the net Opium Revenue is estimated at £7,217,000, being £33,000 less than the Budget Estimate and £588,000 less than the actuals of 1881-82. The falling off is attributed to the increased competition of the indigenous Chinese drug. The charge under Exchange is estimated at £341,000 in excess of the Budget Estimate. The net cost of the Egyptian Expedition, after deducting the English contribution of £500,000 true sterling, is stated to be £797,000. In spite of these additional charges the Revised Estimate shows the following result:—

Revenue	67,914,000
Expenditure	67,854,000
Surplus	60,000

This satisfactory result is attributed mainly to two causes. First, that the harvests have been good and the country prosperous; and secondly, that in view of the large fiscal reforms undertaken last year the Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure were framed with even more than usual caution. It is also said that the Indian Revenue is more elastic than is often supposed. All the main branches of Revenue for 1882-83 show an excess over the Estimate, and some items of Expenditure are less than Estimate. A sum of £1,000,000 (true sterling) will, with the approval of the Debt Commissioners, be remitted to England before March 31st, 1883, for the reduction of sterling debt, the loss by exchange on this transaction being debited to the Account of the Commissioners. This is in addition to the ordinary requirements of the Secretary of State for the year which have already been remitted home.

It is pointed out that the only way India can meet the continued depreciation of silver is by developing trade, and especially exports. The uncertainty as regards the future of opium and silver necessitates the postponement of further fiscal reforms. Regret is expressed that the financial position does not permit of the export duty on rice being abolished. The question of Indian competing with American wheat in the London market is fully discussed, and it is shown that India, though labouring under great disadvantages as regards internal communications and other points, has the great advantage of Free Trade. The Railway rates on wheat from Northern India to Bombay are to be immediately reduced by 18½ per cent., equivalent to a reduction of 1*s.* 6*d.* a quarter in the London market. A corresponding reduction will, without doubt, be made on the East Indian line. Also the restriction giving lower rates only to large consignments is to be abolished on the Rajputana and Bombay, Baroda and Central India Lines.

Turning to the Budget Estimates of 1883-84, it is observed that the net Opium Revenue is taken at £7,035,000, being £215,000 less than the Budget Estimate of 1882-83. The value of the rupee is taken at 1*s.* 7½*d.*, and the Expenditure under Exchange at £773,000 more than Budget Estimates of 1882-83. All the other Estimates are very cautiously framed. The result is as follows :—

Revenue	67,274,000
Expenditure	66,817,000
Surplus .	457,000

The reports on the Opium crop of the present season in Bengal are unsatisfactory, which will affect the finances of 1884-85, by necessitating a still further reduction in the sales of Bengal Opium, and, therefore, probably in the Opium Estimate. On this subjeet Major Baring makes the following remarks :—

"I will not venture to predict what may be the financial situation at the commence-"ment of the year 1884-85. All that can now be said on this subject is that we commence "the year 1883-84 with a surplus of £ 457,000 in hand ; that the Estimates for 1883-84 have "been very cautiously framed ; that the material prosperity of the country is increasing "and, unless famine should intervene, will continue to increase, with the result that the "Revenue from Excise, Salt, Stamps, Railways, &c., is steadily growing ; and lastly, that by "the reduction of the Salt Duty, the financial position has been much strengthened, and "a fiscal reserve constituted, which, should the occasion unfortunately arise, can be used in "case of necessity. So long as the value of the rupee and the Opium Revenue continue "liable to such fluctuations as those which we have recently witnessed, the financial situa-"tion of India must always contain some special elements of instability, but I see no "reason for taking a desponding view of that situation at present. On the contrary there "is every reason to believe that the country will be well able to cope with whatever "financial difficulties the future may have in store."

As regards the License Tax, it is said that no change is at present proposed, and that the Government, whilst recognising the inequalities in the incidence of the present tax, reserves full liberty of action in the future as to the method of its treatment. Stock Notes to the extent of only £163,000 have been taken up in the year, but prolonged experience can alone show whether the scheme will ultimately take root in the country. It is worth while to continue the experiment. Some modifications will possibly be made in the details. Post Office Savings Banks were opened on April 1st, 1882. The amount at present in deposit is £248,000. The number of depositors on December 31st, 1882, was 31,698, of whom 28,770 were natives, being a far larger proportion than in the case of the District and Presidency Savings Banks. The cash balance in India on March 31st, 1883, after allowing for payment of Secretary of State's Bills during the year amounting to £15,042,000 true sterling, is estimated at £13,840,000. The usual 4 per cent. loan for Productive Public Works will be contracted during the coming year. The amount will be £2,500,000. Full details will be notified on or about July 15th. The cash balance in India on March 31st, 1884, is estimated at £11,697,000, but this is a very moderate estimate and will probably be exceeded.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read again—

Resolution in this Department, No. 59, dated the 11th January 1882, relating to the issue of duplicates of Government Promissory Notes alleged to have been lost or destroyed.

Proceedings in this Department (Accounts and Finance) for the month of November 1882, Nos. 1644 to 1650, relating to the extension to Madras and Bombay of the scale of fees authorised for the Government Solicitor, Calcutta, for the preparation of Bonds of Indemnity in cases of issue of duplicates of lost Government Promissory Notes.

Read also—

Letter from the Comptroller General, No. 478D., dated the 30th September 1882, forwarding copy of correspondence with the Government Solicitor, in which certain questions are raised in connection with the payment of interest on and issue of duplicates of lost Government Promissory Notes.

RESOLUTION.—Certain new rules on the subject of indemnity bonds having been prescribed by the Government of India, it is desirable that, as suggested by the Comptroller General, all the orders of Government relating to claims to lost Promissory Notes should be consolidated for the sake of convenience. The following rules are accordingly prescribed in supersession of the orders cited in the preamble:—

(1) Claims to draw interest in respect of a promissory note of which either one-half or the whole has been lost, or for the issue of a duplicate in lieu of such note, should be made to the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, as the case may be, by which the necessary preliminary enquiries will be made, and under whose directions an advertisement will be issued three times in the Government Gazette of the province in which the loss is alleged to have occurred, and three times in the Gazette of India.

(2) If one-half of the note is produced, the case should be submitted by the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, to the Comptroller General for orders six months after the date of the last advertisement, and if he considers the claim to be sufficiently proved, he may direct the issue of a duplicate, in lieu of the lost note, after execution of a bond of indemnity, with or without sureties.

(3) Every claim to the issue of a duplicate note in lieu of one alleged to be wholly lost will be submitted by the Public Debt Office to be provisionally decided by the Comptroller General after at least two years have elapsed from the date of the last correct advertisement.

(4) If there appears to be no objection to the issue of a duplicate note to the claimant, the Comptroller General will record his opinion to that effect, and will direct that interest upon the note be paid to the claimant after execution of a bond of indemnity with two sufficient sureties.

(5) The indemnity given for payment of interest should be for twice the amount of interest payable under it, but not exceeding the amount of the principal of the lost notes, and all indemnity bonds should contain the condition that the payment of interest shall cease when the time has come when the applicant may under Rules 6 and 7 receive a duplicate note.

(6) If the note is payable after notice given in the Gazette, the Comptroller General will give that notice and will (unless any reason to the contrary appears) issue a duplicate note, on indemnity bond, six years after the date of payment fixed in such notice. The applicant should execute a fresh bond of indemnity at the time of receiving a duplicate note.

(8) The Comptroller General will publish notices under Rule 6 twice a year, about January and again about July, and will to each such notice append a list showing the numbers of notes already, within the last six years, advertised for payment under this Resolution. Notes of which duplicates have been issued under Rule 2, and also any notes of which the Comptroller General may, under the advice of the Law Officers of Government, have sanctioned renewal under bond of indemnity, should be included in these notices.

(9) These orders will apply to all notes on which, under existing rules, interest has been ordered to be paid, but of which duplicates have not yet been issued.

(10) No lost note of a loan which has been ordered for discharge may be paid until a duplicate note has been issued under the above procedure.

GENERAL.

The 8th May 1883.

No. 901 E.—The following Rules for the guidance of travellers visiting the dominions of His Highness the Maharaja of Jummoo and Kashmir, having received the sanction of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, are published for general information :—

1. The Punjab Government no longer issues passes for visitors to Kashmir.

The number of Military Officers in Kashmir at one time is restricted to 200. The disposal of passes for this number, less a certain number reserved for the Punjab Frontier Force, is with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. Frontier Force Officers desiring to visit Kashmir must apply to the Brigadier-General Commanding.

Civilians and Military Officers in civil employ, but a small proportion of whom under the Leave Rules can visit Kashmir the same season, do not require any passes ; but they should report their intention to travel in Kashmir to the Officer on Special Duty in Kashmir, from whom they can obtain a copy of the Rules to which they must conform.

2. There are four authorised routes for European visitors to Kashmir—

1st.—The principal road from the plains by Bhimbar and Rajaori over the Pir Panjal Range. This route may be varied by leaving the main road at Thana Mandi and proceeding viâ Punch and over the Haji Pir Pass to Uri.

2nd.—The road from the plains by Kotli, Punch, Uri and Baramula.

3rd.—The road from Murree by Kohala and Baramula.

4th.—The road from Abbottabad by Muzaffarabad and Baramula.

Information regarding the above routes will be found in Appendix A.

The special permission of the Officer on Special Duty in Kashmir must be obtained by travellers proposing to travel from Kashmir to Simla (or vice versâ) by Kishtwar, Bhadrawar and Chamba. British Officers are prohibited from making application on behalf of themselves or their friends direct to His Highness the Maharaja, or his officers, for permission to proceed to or from Kashmir by any but the authorised routes.

All other routes are positively forbidden.

3. Carriage and coolies.

The rates payable per stage in Kashmir territory are—

Per cooly	...	4 annas.
„ kahar	...	6 „
„ pony or mule (baggage)	...	8 „
„ pony, riding	...	1 rupee.

A cooly's load shall not exceed 25 seers, nor that of a pony or mule exceed two maunds. Travellers are particularly required to be careful that their servants do not overload coolies or cattle. A pair of scales will be kept at each stage, and when objection is taken to the weight of a load, travellers are bound to comply with a request that such load should be weighed.

Coolies must be paid daily, and travellers should see payment made in their own presence.

4. In returning from Kashmir coolies or carriages are not to be taken beyond the Maharaja's frontier, or the first stage beyond the frontier.

5. Unless travellers encamp at the fixed stages and encamping grounds, there is no certainty that supplies will be available. They should not encamp within villages.

[NOTE.—Throughout Chamba territory rest-houses and supplies for travellers will be found.]

6. A book, in the form annexed, will be presented at each stage in which every traveller is required to write legibly his name, rank and station, the date of his arrival and departure, and the amount of carriage taken by him :—

Name, rank and station of visitor.	Date and hour of arrival.	Date and hour of departure.	Stage to which proceeding.	Amount of carriage taken.		Remarks.
				Coolies.	Mules or ponies.

7. When going on shooting excursions, visitors must take carriage and supplies with them, and are not to demand them in places where no provision is made for supplying them. They are not to press into their service the people of the country as beaters for game.

8. Travellers must not interfere with any Kashmir officials, and no calls are to be made on them except in real emergencies. All payments are to be made at the rates demanded, which, if exorbitant, can be reported to the Officer on Duty at Srinagar.

9. Should travellers have reason to consider that they or their servants have been ill-treated or affronted, they are strictly forbidden to adopt any other means of obtaining redress than by making complaint to the officials of the Maharaja on the spot, and immediately reporting the circumstances to the British Officer on Duty at Srinagar.

At Srinagar complaints are to be preferred direct to the Officer on Special Duty, and are not to be preferred in any Kashmir Court.

10. Visitors are forbidden to take away with them from Kashmir, on any pretext whatever, any subjects of the Maharaja without obtaining permission and a passport from the Kashmir authorities.

11. Travellers are strictly required to settle all accounts before they leave Kashmir, and are responsible that the debts of their servants are similarly discharged. Should any officer of Government leave Kashmir without discharging his debts, he will not be permitted ever to re-visit it.

12. Visitors are prohibited from receiving any presents whatever during their stay from the Kashmir Darbar or officials.

13. Visitors are required to take care that the customs and regulations of His Highness the Maharaja are in no way violated by themselves or their servants.

14. Military Officers invited by His Highness the Maharaja to evening entertainments at the palace are required to appear in uniform. Civil Officers and other visitors in ordinary evening dress.

At all the stages between Saidabad and Thana Mandi, both inclusive, ordinary Europe liquors and stores are procurable, but travellers are recommended not to depend on this source of supply.

PUNJAB NORTHERN STATE RAILWAY.

Opening of the Attock Bridge over the River Indus.

The Governor General in Council having formally authorized the opening for public traffic on the 24th May 1883 of the railway bridge across the river Indus near Attock, desires to record his great satisfaction at the masterly and expeditious manner in which this important engineering work has been brought to completion.

2. The following is a brief description of the bridge which has been constructed on a design prepared by Mr. G. L. Molesworth, Consulting Engineer to the Government of India for State Railways: the total length over all is 1,651 feet, comprising two spans of 314 feet and three of 264 feet each, with two short abutment spans; and the height of rail level above the low water level of the river is 142 feet. The girders are of steel with open bracing, and are carried on strongly braced steel piers, founded in rock. The railway track is on the top of the girder, and a roadway for ordinary traffic is provided on the bottom boom.

3. Work was commenced on the abutment and pier foundations towards the end of 1881, the piers were completed and erection of girders commenced by July 1882, and the first engine passed over the completed structure on the 5th May 1883.

4. The rapid construction of a work of such magnitude reflects the greatest credit on the officers concerned, to whose unremitting exertions and forethought it is due that the work has been carried through from beginning to end without any check; and His Excellency the Governor General in Council has much pleasure in according the thanks of the Government of India to Mr. F. L. O'Callaghan, who has throughout been in charge of the work as Engineer-in-Chief, as well as to the whole of his staff, amongst whom Mr. H. Johnson, the Executive Engineer in immediate charge of the work, and Mr. S. M. Hecquet, Honorary Assistant Engineer, the senior member of the Upper Subordinate Establishment, deserve special mention.

5. The opening of this fine bridge completes the Punjab Northern State Railway, and supplies the last link in a continuous chain of railway communication from Calcutta to Peshawar, a distance of 1,560 miles. The construction of a railway from Lahore to Peshawar presented many physical difficulties; it had to cross the great rivers Ravee, Chenab and Jhelum, and from Jhelum to Peshawar it had to pass through an exceedingly wild and difficult country, intersected by numerous streams and ranges of hills, besides the river Indus, the opening of the bridge over which has now brought the whole to completion.

6. The bridge over the Chenab river is the longest in the world, being 9,300 feet or over $1\frac{3}{4}$ miles in length; this bridge was opened on the 22nd January 1876, and named the Alexandra Bridge, by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

7. This railway has passed through several changes since its construction was first determined on. It was originally intended to be carried along the Grand Trunk Road in itself a magnificent work constructed shortly after the annexation of the Punjab under Lord Napier of Magdala, and General Sir Alexander Taylor), and was commenced as a broad gauge railway in November 1869.

8. In April 1870, however, it was decided as a measure of economy to change the gauge, and the railway on the metre gauge was opened to Wazirabad, 62 miles, in April 1875, and to Jhelum Cantonment, 103 miles, in September 1876. Meanwhile, during Lord Northbrook's viceroyalty, on more mature consideration of the evils attendant on a break of gauge, on an essentially military line of communication, it was again decided in August 1874 that the railway from Lahore to Peshawar, in continuation of the line from Calcutta to Lahore, should be a broad gauge line; and, looking to the importance of maintaining the Grand Trunk Road intact as a road, it was deemed best that the broad gauge line should be constructed on an entirely new alignment.

9. The construction of the new broad gauge line was commenced early in 1875, and it was opened to Jhelum in October 1878, when the metre gauge line was removed from the Grand Trunk Road, and the latter work restored to its full usefulness. The wisdom of the final decision to make this railway on the broad gauge was abundantly verified during the recent Afghan war, for—

1,23,000 men,
19,500 horses, ponies and mules,
2,500 carts,
21,500 tons of military material, were transported by it, although open only as far as Jhelum until 1st January 1880, when the short extension to Rahtial was opened. As soon as it was seen that war with Afghanistan was imminent, orders were issued to press on the work through the very difficult country between Jhelum and Rawal Pindi and on to the Indus at Attock, and by very great exertions (work being carried on by night as well as by day at several of the bridges by means of the electric light) the railway was opened to Rawal Pindi in October 1880, and to Attock in January 1881.

10. A large number of officers have been employed, from time to time, on this great work, from the commencement of the surveys under Mr. Lee Smith in 1865 to the completion of the railway in 1883. To each and all including the subordinate staff His Excellency the Viceroy offers his hearty congratulations on the completion of a railway which, in its importance to the country, and in the varied difficulties of construction which have been so successfully overcome, is second to none in India.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Ordered, that the following Despatch, and the Agreement between the Governments of Great Britain and Siam for regulating the traffic in spirituous liquors, be published in the Gazette of India for general information :—

STATS. AND COM. No. 67. INDIA OFFICE, London, 26th April 1883.

To His Excellency the Most Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS,—I forward herewith, for the information of your Government and for such action as may be necessary, two copies of an Agreement which has been concluded with the Government of Siam for regulating the traffic in spirituous liquors.

I have, &c.,
(Sd.) KIMBERLEY.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND SIAM FOR REGULATING THE TRAFFIC IN SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.

Signed at London, April 6, 1883.

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Government of His Majesty the King of Siam, being desirous of making satisfactory arrangements for the regulation of the traffic in spirituous liquors in Siam, the Undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, have agreed as follows :—

ARTICLE I.

Spirits of all kinds not exceeding in alcoholic strength those permitted to be manufactured by the Siamese Government in Siam may be imported and sold by British subjects on payment of the same duty as that levied by the Siamese excise laws upon spirits manufactured in Siam; and spirits exceeding in alcoholic strength spirits manufactured in Siam as aforesaid may be imported and sold upon payment of such duty and of a proportionate additional duty for the excess of alcoholic strength above the Siamese Government standard.

Beer and wines may be imported and sold by British subjects on payment of the same duty as that levied by the Siamese excise laws upon similar articles manufactured in Siam, but the duty on imported beer and wines shall in no case exceed 10 per cent. ad valorem.

The said duty on imported spirits, beer, and wines shall be in substitution of, and not in addition to, the import duty of 3 per cent. leviable under the existing Treaties; and no further duty, tax, or imposition whatever shall be imposed on imported spirits, beer, and wines.

The scale of excise duty to be levied upon spirits, beer, and wines manufactured in Siam shall be communicated by the Siamese Government to Her Majesty's Agent and Consul General at Bangkok, and no change in the excise duties shall affect British subjects until after the expiration of six months from the date at which such notice shall have been communicated by the Siamese Government to Her Majesty's Representative at Bangkok.

ARTICLE II.

The testing of spirits imported into the kingdom of Siam by British subjects shall be carried out by European officials nominated by the Siamese authorities, and by an equal number of experts nominated by Her Majesty's Consul. In case of difference the parties shall nominate a third person, who shall act as umpire.

ARTICLE III.

The Siamese Government may stop the importation by British subjects into Siam of any spirits which, on examination, shall be proved to be deleterious to the public health; and they may give notice to the importers, consignees, or holders thereof to export the same within three months from the date of such notice, and if this is not done the Siamese Government may seize the said spirits and may destroy them, provided always that in all such cases the Siamese Government shall be bound to refund any duty which may have been already paid thereon.

The testing of spirits imported by British subjects, and which may be alleged to be deleterious, shall be carried out in the manner provided by Article II.

The Siamese Government engage to take all necessary measures to prohibit and prevent the sale of spirits manufactured in Siam which may be deleterious to the public health.

ARTICLE IV.

Any British subject who desires to retail spirituous liquors, beer, or wines in Siam must take out a special license for that purpose from the Siamese Government, which shall not be refused without just and reasonable cause.

This license may be granted upon conditions to be agreed upon from time to time between the two Governments.

ARTICLE V.

British subjects shall at all times enjoy the same rights and privileges in regard to the importation and sale of spirits, beer, wines, and spirituous liquors in Siam as the subjects of the most favoured nation; and spirits, beer, wines, and spirituous liquors coming from any part of Her Britannic Majesty's dominions shall enjoy the same privileges in all respects as similar articles coming from any other country the most favoured in this respect.

It is therefore clearly understood that British subjects are not bound to conform to the provisions of the present Agreement to any greater extent than the subjects of other nations are so bound.

ARTICLE VI.

Subject to the provisions of Article V, the present Agreement shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by mutual consent between the two Governments, and shall remain in force until the expiration of six months' notice given by either party to determine the same.

The existing Treaty engagements between Great Britain and Siam shall continue in full force until the present Agreement comes into operation—and after that date, except in so far as they are modified hereby.

Should the present Agreement be terminated, the Treaty engagements between Great Britain and Siam shall revive, and remain as they existed previously to the signature hereof.

ARTICLE VII.

In this Agreement the words "British subject" shall include any naturalized or protected subject of Her Britannic Majesty; and the words "Her Majesty's Consul" shall include any Consular officer of Her Britannic Majesty in Siam.

In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed the same in duplicate, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at London the sixth day of April, 1883, corresponding to the fourteenth day of the waning moon of the month Phagunamas, of the year Horse, Fourth Decade, 1244, of the Siamese Astronomical Era.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Simla, the 27th June 1883.

No. 190 A.G.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Net transactions of the Public Works Department for the years 1873-74 to 1883-84 inclusive.

Read the following Statements prepared by the Accountant General in the Public Works Department :—

Statement A—showing outlay (other than from Loans) on Public Works of all kinds, and the net charge on the Revenue of the year, from 1873-74 to 1883-84.

Statement B—showing additions to the liabilities of the State on account of Productive Public Works of all descriptions, from 1873-74 to 1883-84.

OBSERVATIONS.—Statement A exhibits the annual outlay (other than from Loans) under the three main divisions of Famine, Ordinary, and Productive Works.

2. Under the division of Famine, the outlay actually incurred on Famine Relief Works in the years 1873-74 to 1879-80 is entered, because it is indispensable for a fair comparison of those years with the years 1881-82 to 1883-84, in which a portion of surplus revenue has been set aside and expended on works providing a protection against famine. The annual average of outlay on Relief Works during the first eight years of the series was £808,664, and that in the last three £750,000.

3. Under the division of Ordinary, the Imperial, Provincial, and Local transactions are shown separately, because the constitution of the three is essentially different, and their amalgamation would vitiate any comparison of progressive expenditure.

With respect to the Imperial transactions, it will be observed that there has been scarcely any increase during the eleven years under review. Such increase as now exists is mainly due to the new charge* for subsidised Railways, of which the Bengal Central Railway is the principal example.

* 1881-82 ...	... 15,237
1882-83 ...	... 105,000
1883-84 ...	... 174,700

In the Provincial transactions, a considerable increase will be observed in the last three years of the series. This, however, is mostly not an increase of actual charge, but is merely due to the expenditure by the Provincial Governments of balances which they had accumulated during previous years, in which their outlay will be seen to have been correspondingly low. These accumulations were mainly caused by the orders curtailing all outlay under Provincial and Local, as well as under Imperial heads, during the Afghan war. The average of the eight years 1876-77 to 1883-84 is only £1,684,726, which is less than even the outlay in the first year of the series, 1873-74. In any examination of Provincial transactions it must be distinctly remembered that, under the decentralisation system established during Lord Mayo's Government, the Provincial Governments administer resources assigned to them periodically, and that the Imperial Government has no control over them during the term of the contract. In 1882-83 the periodical revision took place, and new contracts for five years were entered into, the net financial result of which was an improvement in Imperial resources of about £387,000 per annum. It may, however, be noted that the Provincial system imparts considerable extra security to the Imperial finances, by the guarantees it comprises of the interest on Imperial loans for Productive Public Works. The amount of debt thus guaranteed at present is about 19¼ millions (conventional) sterling.

Local transactions, that is to say, those of the various Committees and Boards administering funds assigned, or levied by law, for strictly local objects, are entirely beyond Imperial control, and in a very great measure beyond that of the Provincial Governments. Such increase in outlay as is observable may be ascribed partly to the expenditure of accumulated balances, and partly to the normal growth of the assigned funds themselves.

Taking the division of Ordinary as a whole, it may be said with general accuracy that, during the last eleven years, the Imperial expenditure has been stationary, except as augmented by the subsidised Railways, and that the Provincial and Local transactions have not outstepped, and in fact have in some cases fallen within, the normal increment of the revenues upon which they are based. The outlay under the two latter heads will be less in 1884-85 and subsequent years, owing to the depletion of the balances already referred to.

4. The Productive division of the Statement presents two totals, exclusive and inclusive of the Guaranteed Railway Companies. Under every separate column in this division (except Madras Harbour) a material diminution of outlay has occurred of late years. Grouping only the Madras Harbour, Irrigation and State Railways proper, the charge of £303,267 in 1873-74 has been reduced to £144,024 in 1883-84. The addition of the East Indian Railway, acquired by the State in 1879-80, converts this charge of £144,024 into a receipt of £864,700. But if the Guaranteed Railways are also brought in, as is indispensable for fair comparison of the position of the State in respect of Productive Works at successive periods, then the result is even more remarkable, a charge of £1,602,416 in 1873-74 being replaced by a receipt in 1883-84 of £519,200. In other words, the increase in Productive Public Works revenue, after paying all charges for interest, has been £2,121,616 in eleven years.

5. Statement B shows the formal additions to the liabilities of the State during the period under review—a factor which cannot be omitted without creating erroneous impressions regarding the financial results of Public Works administration.

The total amount of new liabilities is stated to be £60,824,538, but this amount includes £6,281,336 which was originally outlay from Ordinary revenues, but was subsequently transferred, for greater accuracy of account, to the head of Productive Public Works. The actual liabilities of the State have consequently increased by only £54,543,202. At the same time, the Productive Public Works account has been debited with increase on the full sum of £60,824,538 in calculating the enhanced revenue of £2,121,616, shown in paragraph 4.

6. Reverting to Statement A, the fourth division shows the net charge on the revenue of the year. Taking the Imperial transactions as a whole, and excluding Famine Works (which are, as shown in paragraph 2, a nearly constant quantity throughout), the net charge in 1883-84 amounts to only £1,637,800, against £3,531,071 in 1873-74. The net charge in the former year is less than that in any year of the series except 1881-82, when the railway traffic in grain and seeds was exceptionally good. By excluding Relief Works and Guaranteed Railways, while including Protective Works and the East Indian Railway, and also ignoring the fact of expenditure of accumulated balances of Provincial and Local Funds in the last three years, a result less favourable may be attained, as shown in column 21 of the Statement, but the unsoundness of this method of calculation will be apparent from the remarks in the preceding paragraphs.

7. To sum up the results of the eleven years' Public Works administration, the net Imperial expenditure, excluding Famine, has been reduced by £1,893,271, and the revenue from Productive Works has been increased by £2,121,616, notwithstanding that £54,543,202 have been added to the "Productive" debt, and that 4,505 miles of new railway have been opened up to this date, while 1,602 miles more are under construction.

As regards Railways, it may be added that, as shown at page 44 of the Preliminary Administration Report of the Director General of Railways for 1882-83, the total capital cost of all lines open to traffic was £143,171,856 on the 31st of December last, and that the net earnings, including interest, were 5·37 on this amount. The State Railways alone earned 3·03 per cent., or 4·12 per cent. if the Punjab Northern, Indus Valley, and Kandahar lines be excluded.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the foregoing observations be communicated to the Governments and Administrations marginally noted, and the Director General of Railways; also that it be published in the Gazette of India and all local official Gazettes.

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab, in the Public Works Department.
The Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces, British Burma, Assam, and Coorg.
The Agents to the Governor General for Central India and Rajputana.

Rewards are granted only for examinations passed at a Presidency town under the rules prescribed for the Civil and Military services.

In case an officer elects to pass the examination in Arabic or Persian before a local Committee, the papers will be set by the Calcutta Board of Examiners. The local Committee will see that the answers are written under such conditions as to time, &c., as may be prescribed, and the answers will then be sent to the Board of Examiners for report. The Committee will examine in the colloquial test, and will take care that the officer's qualifications in this respect are thoroughly satisfactory.

XIII.—Officers failing to pass the examination under (B), within the prescribed period, will forfeit their appointments, notwithstanding that they may have passed the examination under (A).

ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE.

Simla, the 13th July 1883.

No. 2050.

The Governor General in Council has determined to borrow Two Hundred and Fifty Lakhs of Rupees, being the amount required for the public service. The following Notification is therefore published:—

FOUR PER CENT. LOAN.

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council has resolved to borrow Two Hundred and Fifty Lakhs of Rupees for the public service in the following manner.

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount in Form A annexed to this Notification, being the form of the notes of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1865, of which Loan the notes to be now issued will form a part. All the conditions which apply to notes of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1865 will apply to the notes to be now issued.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of Two Hundred and Fifty Lakhs of Rupees will be received by the Comptroller General from this date to noon of Tuesday, the 14th August 1883. Tenders must be in sums of 500 Rupees or multiples of 500 Rupees.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller General, Calcutta, and enclosed in a closed cover, superscribed "Tender for the Four Per Cent. Loan, 1883." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom a letter of allotment may be issued if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a receipt from one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an Officer in charge of some public Treasury, or by a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or by* Government Promissory Notes, standing in the name of or endorsed to the tenderer or the person making the deposit, for not less than one-hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. If the allotment is not fully taken up, this deposit of one or two per centum will be forfeited; and if one or more Government Promissory Notes have been deposited, such note or notes will be appropriated by the Government and cancelled; otherwise, if the deposit is in cash, it will be either refunded to the tenderer after his tender has been completely paid up, or, on his application, taken in part payment, completing the amount due upon his tender. A cash deposit may, after acceptance of the tender in support of which it is made, be replaced by a Government Promissory Note, as aforesaid.

* It is particularly requested that such Promissory Notes may NOT be endorsed to the Comptroller General.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

7. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms, as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders, will be rejected as null and void.

8. The minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

9. Tenders will be opened, publicly, by the Comptroller General at the Currency Office, No. 1, Dalhousie Square, Calcutta, at noon on Tuesday, the 14th August 1883; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 11.

10. Tenders at the recorded minimum rate, and at rates above the recorded minimum rate, will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate; the amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted, will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders: provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than R350.

12. If the allotment made on any tender is less than ₹3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates will be made payable upon Tuesday, September 25th, 1883.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments, as follows:—

Instalment I—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon Tuesday, August 28th, 1883:

Instalment II—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon Tuesday, September 25th, 1883:

Instalment III—The balance, payable upon Saturday, October 20th, 1883

and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of ₹500.

13. Any allotment certificate will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations, provided that if any payment is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

14. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the Officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made, by enfacement upon the relative certificate.

15. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, Promissory Notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than ₹500), bearing interest from November 1st, 1883, and he will also receive interest at four per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the last day of October 1883.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 1st May 1883, to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain Promissory Notes as above, bearing interest from 1st May 1883.

16. The holder of a paid-up allotment-certificate may also, on special application, obtain, on the same terms and conditions as are mentioned in section 15, clause (a), Promissory Notes with coupons attached, or stock certificates (Form B) with coupons attached, and payable to bearer, in accordance with the Loan Notification of this Department, dated 27th June 1881 (i.e., The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1881, forming part of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1st May 1865). In such cases the first coupon issued will be that which falls due on 1st May 1884.

By Order,

D. M. BARBOUR,

Secretary to the Government of India,
Department of Finance and Commerce.

The following Notification is therefore published:—

FOUR PER CENT. LOAN.

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council has resolved to borrow Two Hundred and Fifty Lakhs of Rupees for the public service in the following manner.

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount in Form A annexed to this Notification, being the form of the notes of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1865, of which Loan the notes to be now issued will form a part. All the conditions which apply to notes of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1865 will apply to the notes to be now issued.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of Two Hundred and Fifty Lakhs of Rupees will be received by the Comptroller General from this date to noon of Tuesday, the 14th August 1883. Tenders must be in sums of 500 Rupees or multiples of 500 Rupees.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller General, Calcutta, and enclosed in a closed cover, superscribed "Tender for the Four Per Cent. Loan, 1883." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom a letter of allotment may be issued if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a receipt from one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an Officer in charge of some public Treasury, or by a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or by* Government Promissory Notes, standing in the name of or endorsed to the tenderer or the person making the deposit, for not less than one-hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. If the allotment is not fully taken up, this deposit of one or two per centum will be forfeited; and if one or more Government Promissory Notes have been deposited, such note or notes will be appropriated by the Government and cancelled; otherwise, if the deposit is in cash, it will be either refunded to the tenderer after his tender has been completely paid up, or, on his application, taken in part payment, completing the amount due upon his tender. A cash deposit may, after acceptance of the tender in support of which it is made, be replaced by a Government Promissory note, as aforesaid.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

7. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms, as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders, will be rejected as null and void.

8. The minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

9. Tenders will be opened, publicly, by the Comptroller General at the Currency Office, No. 1, Dalhousie Square, Calcutta, at noon on Tuesday, the

* It is particularly requested that such Promissory Notes may NOT be endorsed to the Comptroller General.

14th August 1883; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 11.

10. Tenders at the recorded minimum rate, and at rates above the recorded minimum rate, will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate; the amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted, will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders: provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than R350.

12. If the allotment made on any tender is less than R3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates will be made payable upon Tuesday, September 25th, 1883.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments, as follows:—

Instalment I—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon Tuesday, August 28th, 1883:

Instalment II—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon Tuesday, September 25th, 1883:

Instalment III—The balance, payable upon Saturday, October 20th, 1883:

and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of R500.

13. Any allotment-certificate will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations, provided that if any payment is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

14. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the Officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made, by enfacement upon the relative certificate.

15. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, Promissory Notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than R500), bearing interest from November 1st, 1883, and he will also receive interest at four per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the last day of October 1883.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 1st May 1883, to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain Promissory Notes as above, bearing interest from 1st May 1883.

16. The holder of a paid-up allotment-certificate may also, on special application, obtain, on the same terms and conditions as are mentioned in section 15, clause (a), Promissory Notes with coupons attached, or stock certificates (Form B) with coupons attached, and payable to bearer, in accordance with the Loan Notification of this Department, dated 27th June 1881 (i.e., The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1881, forming part of The Four Per Cent. Loan of 1st May 1865). In such cases the first coupon issued will be that which falls due on 1st May 1884.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a receipt from one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an Officer in charge of some public Treasury, or by a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or by* Government Promissory Notes, standing in the name of or endorsed to the tenderer or the person making the deposit, for not less than one-hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. If the allotment is not fully taken up, this deposit of one or two per centum will be forfeited; and if one or more Government Promissory Notes have been deposited, such note or notes will be appropriated by the Government and cancelled; otherwise, if the deposit is in cash, it will be either refunded to the tenderer after his tender has been completely paid up, or, on his application, taken in part payment, completing the amount due upon his tender. A cash deposit may, after acceptance of the tender in support of which it is made, be replaced by a Government Promissory note, as aforesaid.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

* It is particularly requested that such Promissory Notes may NOT be endorsed to the Comptroller General.

7. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms, as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders, will be rejected as null and void.

8. 9. Tenders will be opened, publicly, by the Comptroller General at the Currency Office, No. 1, Dalhousie Square, Calcutta, at noon on Tuesday, the 14th August 1883; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 11.

10. Tenders at the recorded minimum rate, and at rates above the recorded minimum rate, will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate; the amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted, will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders: provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than R350.

11. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him, will be issued as soon as possible after the 14th August 1883; and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted, for general information, at the Head Offices of Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.

SANITARY.

The 26th July 1883.

No. 226.—The following quarantine Regulations and Rules, applicable to the pilgrimage of 1883 [illegible], received, through the Government of Bombay, from Her Majesty's Consuls at Jeddah and Alexandria are published for general information:—

Quarantine Special Regulations applicable to the Pilgrimage of the year 1883.

Art. 1.—Every pilgrim vessel arriving from below the latitude of Bab-el-Mandeb, whatever may be the condition of its bill of health, must proceed direct to the island of Camaran, without calling at any port of the Ottoman littoral of the Red Sea.

Art. 2.—A pilgrim vessel is one exclusively chartered for the transport of pilgrims to Mecca.*

Art. 3.—On the arrival of vessels of this category in the roads of Camaran, all the pilgrims will be landed and subjected to the regulated medical visit. If the arrival have a clean bill of health and without any suspicious incidents during the voyage, they will be subjected to a quarantine of five full days, clothing and personal effects will be disinfected as well as the vessel, which will again take its pilgrims and convey them to their destination.

Art. 4.—Vessels arriving with foul bills of health, or which have had choleraic incidents or suspected cases during the voyage, will be subjected, both vessels and pilgrims, to the regulated quarantine, the minimum of duration of which is from [illegible] 15 days.

Art. 5.—In such cases all the orders contained in the general Regulation for cholera will be applicable thereto, without exception.

Art. 6.—No pilgrim vessel will be allowed to leave Camaran without taking again on board, after completion of quarantine, all the pilgrims who [illegible] thither.†

* It must be well understood that article 2 is applicable to every pilgrim ship which at the same time carries goods, whatever may be their quantity, nature and destination, and that no exception will be made except for pilgrims in small numbers taking passage accidentally in steamers that are not engaged in the special trade of the pilgrimage.

† N.B.—The administration is in a fair way to establishing a line of vessels for regular service between Camaran and Jeddah, which will carry on, at fixed and reasonable conditions, the transport of pilgrims who have undergone, according to each case, a longer or shorter term of quarantine.

This arrangement, which is all to the advantage of navigation, and which partly modifies article 6 and the last sentence of article 3 of the present regulation, is designed to liberate the vessels which may have brought these pilgrims to Camaran from the obligation to take them again, at the end of their quarantine, for conveyance to their destination.

Art. 7.—Sambuks (native craft) arriving from the Arabian Coast from below the Cape of Bab-el-Mandeb with pilgrims are treated in all points similarly to vessels engaged in this special trade. They will have to proceed direct to the anchorage of Camaran and will be repelled from every other port of the Arabian littoral.

Art. 8.—Vessels arriving from Bussora with pilgrims on board destined for the Hedjaz must also proceed exclusively to Camaran. They will be treated according to the tenor of their bills of health in accordance with the general regulation.

Art. 9.—Clothes, personal effects and merchandise, if any, as well as the vessels, will be subjected to the special régime of the Regulation for cholera.

Art. 10.—Arrivals from India in general are treated according to the Cholera Regulations of 1867.

Read at the Superior Council of Health and adopted at the sitting of 1st May 1883.

RULES.

ARTICLE I.

On and after the 1st January 1884 pilgrims arriving from countries situated beyond the Straits of Bab-el-Mandeb and going to the Hedjaz shall not be permitted to land at Suez or at any other Egyptian port in the Red Sea, although the country from which they come may be free from cholera, unless they have previously performed at Camaran, or at any other place appointed by the Ottoman authorities, the quarantine prescribed by the Constantinople Sanitary Rules.

However the present measure will only be applicable when the Egyptian Sanitary, Maritime and Quarantine Council shall know for certain that there is a service of steamers between Camaran and Jeddah, and that the quarantine establishment at Camaran has been completed on the basis specified in the Constantinople report on the pilgrimage of 1883.

ARTICLE II.

All vessels which after having left their pilgrims at Camaran may arrive at an Egyptian port, without having themselves undergone quarantine and disinfection, shall only be allowed pratique after favourable medical visit and disinfection. They may, if they prefer, pass the Canal in quarantine under the conditions prescribed by the rules for passing the Canal.

ARTICLE III.

Pilgrims arriving at an Egyptian port without having undergone the said quarantine at Camaran shall repair to the encampment of Tor, there to undergo a five days' quarantine with disinfection. The vessels which carried them shall follow the conditions of the pilgrims, and will be bound to take them to their destination.

Temporary Arrangement.

As a temporary arrangement, and for the year 1883 only, the pilgrims referred to in the foregoing articles shall undergo at Moses' Wells a five days' quarantine with disinfection.

The vessels which may have carried them will be allowed pratique after landing the pilgrims, if the medical visit is favourable and after disinfection.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The following Resolution, together with the Abstracts A and B and the general Statement of Accounts and Estimates, is published for general information:—

Simla, the 25th July 1883.

No. 2238.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Up to the commencement of the current year, the Accounts and Estimates which accompany the Annual Financial Statement were presented to the public in a form which enabled columns to be inserted showing—

(1) the increase and decrease of Revenue and Expenditure under each head in the Revised as compared with the Budget Estimate of the year about to close;

(2) the increase and decrease of Revenue and Expenditure under each head in the Budget Estimate of the year about to commence as compared with the Revised Estimate of the year about to close.

2. In the new forms, which were adopted for the first time on the occasion of the last Financial Statement, the Increase and Decrease columns were omitted. In Abstract A (Details of Revenue) and Abstract B (Details of Expenditure) columns are inserted showing separately (1) the Imperial, (2) the Provincial and Local, Revenue and Expenditure. The Revenue and Expenditure in England is also shown separately from that in India. It was thought that no further information could be given on the same pages without unduly crowding the figures, and possibly rendering them more difficult to understand.

3. In a note to paragraph 146 to the Financial Statement it was recognised that the new classification of the figures, though superior to that heretofore adopted in other respects, was defective in so far as the omission of the Increase and Decrease columns was concerned. The question of whether it would not be possible to give this information in Abstracts A and B, in addition to the information they already contain, has been reconsidered since the issue of the last Financial Statement. By combining the Increases and Decreases in one column with the sign + prefixed to the former and that of — to the latter, it is thought that the information may be furnished without unduly crowding the figures. This system will, therefore, in future be adopted.

4. The figures given in Appendix I to the last Financial Statement are republished with the addition of the Increase and Decrease columns in Abstracts A and B.

MY LORD MARQUIS,—In continuation of my Despatch of the 19th April last, No. 60, I forward 95 copies, received from the Board of Trade, of an Order in Council fixing the dues payable in respect of the Great Basses, the Little Basses, and the Minicoy Lighthouses.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,

The 22nd day of May 1883.

PRESENT :

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," it was enacted that in any case in which any Light, house, buoy, or beacon had been or should be thereafter erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British Possession by or with the consent of the Legislative Authority of such Possession, Her Majesty might by Order in Council fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty might deem reasonable, and might in like manner from time to time increase, diminish, or repeal such dues, and that from the time specified in such Order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished, the same should be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner thereinafter mentioned :

And whereas Lighthouses have, by and with the consent of the Legislative Authority of the Colony of Ceylon, been constructed and placed on the Great Basses Rock, and on the Little Basses Rock, in the said Colony, and a light has been exhibited from each of such Lighthouses :

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 11th day of November, 1869, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the dues to be paid in respect of ships passing and deriving benefit from the lights exhibited from the said Great Basses Rock and the said Little Basses Rock, as in the said Order in Council appearing, should be one due of one penny halfpenny per ton in respect of both of the said Lights :

And whereas it is proposed to construct a Lighthouse on the Island of Minicoy between the Maldive and Laccadive Islands, and to exhibit a Light therefrom :

And whereas the Legislative Authorities of India, Ceylon, the Straits Settlements, and Mauritius, have given such consents as are necessary either to the erection of the Lighthouse or to the collection of dues in respect thereof :

And whereas by Section 10 of "The Public Works Loans Act, 1881," the Public Works Loan Commissioners are empowered, in the event of provision being made by Order in Council and otherwise for the levy of dues in respect of any Lighthouse to be erected on the said Island of Minicoy, to advance a sum or sums not exceeding £20,000 for the purpose of constructing the said Lighthouse :

And whereas by the same section of the said Act provision is made for the application of any dues levied in respect of the said Lighthouse to the fund formed by the dues levied in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse therein referred to as the Basses Lights Fund, and it is provided that such Fund shall be applicable to the maintenance of the said Great Basses Lighthouse, Little Basses Lighthouse, and Minicoy Lighthouse :

And whereas by the same section of the said Act it is further provided that so long as any money is due to the Public Works Loan Commissioners on account of any Loan under that section, the dues payable in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse, or the Minicoy Lighthouse, shall be altered only with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury :

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for the payment of such of the said dues as may be payable in India, Ceylon, the Straits Settlements, and Mauritius, including the Seychelles Islands, in the currency of the respective countries in which they are payable :

And whereas the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have signified their consent to the dues specified in the Two Schedules hereto annexed :

And whereas the several classes of ships following, that is to say,—

The following Resolution is published for general information :—

The 27th July 1883.

No. 2313.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Porous cells are largely imported from England for the Telegraph Department in India. With a view to substitute locally made porous cells for the imported article, enquiries were instituted for the purpose of ascertaining whether they could be procured of Indian manufacture. From the reports received it appears that porous cells of fair quality are at present made only at the Madras School of Art, and that the price is much in excess of that at which similar articles could be imported. The Government of India will be prepared to engage with any local manufacturing establishments to take for a term of years the whole number of porous cells required for the Telegraph Department in India, if they can be supplied of equally good quality and at a price not exceeding the cost of the imported article.

Acknowledgment of the services rendered to Government by Colonel R. Murray, B.S.C.

RESOLUTION.—Colonel Murray having succeeded to Colonel's allowances has vacated the office of Director General of Telegraphs in India.

Colonel Murray was permanently appointed Director General of Telegraphs in January 1878. He had, however, previously officiated in the appointment for various periods amounting in the aggregate to 4½ years. He has consequently been the administrative head of this important Department for nearly 10 years. During this long term of office, which included the period of the Afghan War, he conducted the multifarious and constantly increasing operations of the Department most successfully and received the special acknowledgment of Government for the services rendered by him during the campaigns in Afghanistan. The present very satisfactory state of the Department is due in a great measure to the unremitting efforts of Colonel Murray, and His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to place on record the high appreciation the Government of India entertain of his very able and successful administration.

It will be a matter of great satisfaction to His Excellency the Viceroy to bring Colonel Murray's services to the notice of Her Majesty's Government.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to Colonel Murray; also that it be published in the Gazette of India, and that a copy be forwarded to the Secretary of State for the information of Her Majesty's Government.

The following Resolution is published for general information:—

No. 2599.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

In the Financial Statement for 1882-83 (paragraphs 258-264) it was stated that the question of whether it would not be possible to devise some means for borrowing from bonâ fide local investors the amount required annually for Productive Public Works had for long occupied the attention of Government. Conflicting opinions, both official and non-official, had at various times been expressed as to the feasibility of adopting any such project. The Government was of opinion that the only satisfactory way of solving the question was to bring it to the test of actual experiment. Stock Notes were, therefore, issued under conditions which were set forth in the Government Resolution of March 8th, 1882. Up to the present time, the sale of these notes has not been large; the people have not as a rule become familiar with them; they complain of the difficulty which they must experience in attempting to recover the value of lost notes; there is no ready sale when a holder of stock notes wishes to dispose of them; and they can only be got rid of at a sacrifice.

2. Since the introduction of the scheme, the Governor General in Council has had under consideration, from time to time, various objections to, and suggestions regarding, stock notes (see Financial Statement for 1883-84 paragraph 231). Some of these objections and suggestions of minor importance have already been dealt with. There are still several matters which require consideration.

3. One of the chief objections to stock notes is that the holder of them can only find a purchaser at a discount when he wishes to sell. This is admittedly a great drawback to their popularity, and it becomes necessary to consider whether anything can be done to enable the holder to obtain the full value of a stock note promptly when he requires money.

4. It has been suggested that stock notes should be receivable in payment of Government demands. This suggestion cannot however be adopted as Government could not run the risk of having a large portion of the total issue of stock notes returned upon its hands at any moment, the cash balance of the public Treasury being proportionately reduced. If this course were adopted stock notes would not essentially differ from Savings Banks deposits.

5. It is possible that in time stock notes will be freely bought and sold in the interior of the country, but for the present it has been suggested that a market might be created by authorising the sale of stock notes to the public at the Presidency towns, and by making the interest payable there. Capitalists might then find it worth their while to deal in them, and in time of pressure the holder of a stock note would find a ready market for them at a trifling discount; and although it may be said that stock notes were intended for the people, and not for speculators, the course suggested would not impede in any way their circulation among the people, but would probably have a contrary effect.

6. If a market for stock notes were created at the Presidency towns, it is possible that there might be interference with the ordinary promissory notes of Government. Stock notes, however, are at a considerable disadvantage as compared with promissory notes The interest coupons cannot be enfaced for payment in England, the denominations of the notes are small, and the interest is payable only once a year. It is believed by some that these disadvantages are sufficient to prevent the competition of stock notes with the ordinary 4 per cent. stock of Government.

7. If, however, by authorising the sale of stock notes in Presidency towns a market should be established, in anything approaching the same sense in which there is a market for Government promissory notes, it is possible that there would be interference with the ordinary stock of Government; there are many purposes of temporary investment which would then be served by stock notes equally as well as by promissory notes and so long as Government offered to persons entrusted with the sale of stock notes a discount of one per cent., part at least of the demand for promissory notes would be removed. Any market thus established must necessarily be a market for buyers as well as for sellers; and as the selling price must always necessarily be below the Treasury price, the inevitable result would be that there would be fewer demands upon the public treasuries than if no such market were in existence. It would follow from these arguments that the creation of a market for stock notes at the Presidency towns might not be desirable in the interest of Government Loans or of the stock note scheme itself.

8. It has been also suggested that a limit might be placed on the total issue of stock notes from year to year. This suggestion is of doubtful value.

9. Another objection to stock notes is that the interest payable on a note of one Circle is not payable in another Circle; the Governor General in Council is of opinion that this objection can be easily overcome by ruling that on payment of a trifling fee the holder of a note of Circle A may obtain a note of Circle B in exchange on presenting the A Circle note at any Treasury in Circle B.

10. It has also been objected that stock notes are liable to be lost or destroyed and that their value can then be obtained only with great difficulty, and after a long time has elapsed.

To meet this objection it has been suggested that Government might undertake the custody of the notes: thus, a note might be received from A B and registered as belonging to him, a non-transferable receipt being given in exchange. This procedure would, however, in all probability impose a considerable amount of additional work on Treasury officers, and, so far as the holder of the note is concerned, it would be better for him to have recourse to the ordinary Savings Bank. It could, however, be ruled that notes aggregating less than Rs. 250 should not be deposited in this way, while the existing rules which govern the case of lost or destroyed stock notes might be somewhat relaxed in the case of notes of small value.

11. Stock notes are payable to bearer, and there are many objections to a relaxation in the case of stock notes of the rules regarding the repayment of lost or destroyed currency notes. It has, however, been urged that should Government be prepared to accept a small amount of risk, the rules might be relaxed, (1) when the amount at stake is small; and (2) when satisfactory evidence is given to show that the note has been destroyed. For instance, if the amount of the claim did not exceed Rs. 250, and the District Officer and the Comptroller General were satisfied from the evidence produced that the note had been destroyed, payment might be made at once, a bond being given by the claimant with two sureties. It has also been suggested that if the note were lost under circumstances which rendered it improbable that it would ever be presented for payment, and if its amount did not exceed Rs. 100, the value of the note might be paid after the lapse of one year; if the amount of the claim exceeded Rs. 100 but did not exceed Rs. 250, the amount might be paid after the lapse of two or three years; and if the amount lay between Rs. 250 and Rs. 500, payment might be made after the lapse of three or five years. In all other cases the ordinary procedure would be followed. Appendix A to the Resolution shows the rules now in force.

12. Government however cannot overlook the fact that there is considerable danger in relaxing the rules regarding the repayment of lost or destroyed stock notes. It has been urged that an indemnity is really worthless; that every attempt to realise it would cost ten times as much as allowing it to drop; and that there will not be in ordinary cases the least chance of recovering anything from the debtor. It is also said that the holder of a stock note who has lost it has no more moral claim against the State than the holder of a rupee who has lost it; that he is responsible for taking care of his own property and should bear his own loss; and that the only ground on which the State undertakes to make good losses in some cases is, that the holder of the lost note has borne the loss, while the State has made a gain, and can therefore afford to make up his loss, provided, of course, absolute or practical immunity can be secured. It is further argued that the people who will have to be chiefly dealt with in the matter of stock notes lost or destroyed are people to whom the holding of a small sum as a permanent investment is a matter of importance and who presumably occupy a humble position in life,—people who cannot probably write, and who in all probability cannot keep anything in the way of accounts, and who can, therefore, never be in a position to produce satisfactory evidence to prove the absolute destruction of a particular stock note during the time it has been in their possession; that it is the tax-payer's not the loser's interest which the State should consult; and that no terms on which the State can offer to make good losses will be the slightest encouragement to purchasers, unless they are such as to lay it open to easy frauds, and involve it in losses which it ought not to bear.

13. The Governor General in Council cannot but admit that a person who loses a stock note has no claim on Government; but the ultimate object of Government is not to remedy the effects of carelessness or accident by an individual holder, but to introduce such rules as, without causing loss to the State, will not prove a bar to persons who wish to invest money in stock notes. If Government can satisfy the public that they have a good chance of getting their money back in case of loss, it will have gained its object; and when it is said that the money could never be recovered from the sureties or the debtor, the great collateral advantage which Government obtains by insisting on sureties is apparently overlooked. The bond of the two sureties is the strongest possible evidence to the fact that the claim is made in good faith. What Government has to fear is fraud; and if two respectable men who know the claimant will put their names to a bond agreeing to pay in case the note said to have been lost is found, Government obtains a very good guarantee that the note has really been lost.

14. A fourth objection to stock notes is, that interest is not payable on a divided note; the Governor General in Council is of opinion that there could be no objection to pay interest on a divided note, provided that the pieces making up the whole note were produced.

15. It is also worth considering whether private individuals might not be licensed as vendors of stock notes.

16. Before arriving at any final decision on the various questions referred to in this Resolution, the Governor General in Council would be glad to be favoured with the views of the several Local Governments and Administrations.

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, and Bengal are particularly requested, before submitting their final report, to consult the local Chambers of Commerce and the principal local Banks with reference to the points discussed in this Resolution.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Formation of a Committee to consider certain proposals for the reorganisation of the Public Works Department.

Read—

1. Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 50, dated 8th September 1881.
„ to „ „ „ No. 50, dated 16th December 1881.
„ to „ „ „ No. 8, dated 20th February 1882.

2. Despatch No. 18P. W., dated 22nd March 1883, from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, conveying orders on the proposals submitted by the Government of India for the reorganisation of the Engineer Establishment of the Public Works Department on an improved footing in regard to promotion and pensions on retirement.

3. Notes and statements prepared in the Public Works Secretariat, shewing the probable effect the above orders would have on the rate of promotion for the next 33 years, and submitting alternative suggestions for securing in the future an accelerated and even rate of promotion in all grades.

OBSERVATIONS.—The questions referred to in the preamble have been long under the consideration of the Government of India. Attempts have been made from time to time to deal with the matter, and measures have been adopted on various occasions which have afforded temporary relief to the stagnation of promotion in the establishment.

In December 1881, proposals were forwarded to the Secretary of State, with the view of affording a large measure of relief in the way of accelerated promotion and improved pensions. His Lordship has now provisionally approved certain modified proposals having the same object. These proposals have been examined in the Public Works Department from an actuarial point of view, and certain modifications are suggested in the notes and statements quoted in the heading, the object of which is to secure for the future a more fair and equal rate of promotion in all grades. The Governor General in Council considers it advisable before taking further action to ascertain by reference to a representative committee what measures would, in their opinion, be adequate for the purpose in view, and would satisfy the reasonable claims of the officers of the Department. Advantage will also be taken of this opportunity to elicit representative opinions on the other proposals which have received the provisional sanction of the Secretary of State.

RESOLUTION.—With this view the Governor General in Council has resolved to refer the question to a Committee composed of the following officers:—

President.

Mr. G. L. Molesworth, C.I.E., Consulting Engineer, to the Government of India for State Railways.

Members.

Mr. A. C. Cregeen, M.I.C.E. ("Stanley" Engineer), Engineer-in-Chief, Vizagapatam-Raipur Railway Survey.

Major G. F. L. Marshall, R.E., Under Secretary to the Government of India.

Secretary.

Mr. W. Harvey.

The subjects to be considered by the Committee and upon which its opinion is requested are stated in the following summary of the objects of the reorganisation scheme as enumerated in paragraph 2 of the despatch quoted in section 1 of the preamble:—

(a) The reduction of the numerical strength of the Department to such proportions as will suffice for the work to be done.

(b) The readjustment of the grades so as to make promotion more rapid.

(c) The offer of terms of retirement which will have the effect of accelerating promotion and providing members with a superannuation allowance justified by their service and age.

(d) The determination of the proportions in which the establishment shall be recruited by Royal Engineer officers, by Civil Engineers from England, and by passed students from the colleges in India.

The Committee will assemble at Simla on Monday, 3rd September next.

Letter from Lieutenant F. Pogson, dated 27th January 1883.

Letter from the Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue, No. 67C., dated 13th July 1883, and enclosures.

RESOLUTION.—A frequent objection to the salt-tax in this country is that it makes salt so dear that the people cannot afford to give it to cattle in quantities sufficient for the health of their stock. In several European countries where salt is subject to a heavy duty means have been found for supplying owners of stock with cheap salt for the use of their cattle and sheep. Without attempting to prejudge the case in any way, and without committing the Government beforehand to any pledges which it may be found impossible or inexpedient to fulfil, it may be admitted that in India, where the bulk of the population is dependent on agriculture, it would be a distinct gain to be able to issue cheap salt for cattle, and the question of meeting this necessity in a way compatible with the safety of the salt revenue has more than once engaged the attention of the Government of India. On the last occasion on which the question was taken into consideration, it was suggested that the object aimed at would be secured if a process could be discovered by which salt could be rendered so unfit for human consumption that its restoration to an edible condition would be neither easy nor cheap, while it would still remain suitable for use by cattle. This suggestion commended itself to the Government of India, for, if this could be done, salt could safely be issued for stock at a comparatively cheap rate without coming into competition with salt intended for human consumption.

2. Experiments for denaturalising salt were accordingly undertaken in Bengal and the Punjab, details of the processes used in Germany and France having been obtained through the Secretary of State. The experiments were a failure, in so far that they did not satisfy the main condition that the restoration of the medicated salt could not be cheaply and easily effected, while the German and other processes were found either unsuitable or otherwise objectionable in this country. The problem of issuing salt for cattle in a form which will not endanger the public revenue, therefore, still remains unsolved.

3. The Governor General in Council has again had the question under his consideration, in connection with a process devised by a private individual and submitted for trial to the Commissioner of Northern India Salt Revenue. This process, like those previously tested by Government officers, has not given satisfactory results in practice. But His Excellency in Council is inclined to think, on perusal of the papers read in the preamble, that the experiments as yet made have not been as wide or exhaustive as the importance of the subject demands. If any satisfactory method could be devised which fully met the requirements of the case, a great boon would be conferred on the country, and it is hoped that a process may yet be discovered which, if not satisfying all the conditions hitherto prescribed, may yet be sufficient for all practical purposes. His Excellency in Council accordingly requests that the Local Governments will be good enough to arrange with their chemical analysers, or with any other thoroughly skilled and competent officer, for the commencement of systematic and careful experiments in the direction indicated. The officer selected should be furnished with a complete copy of the papers containing the details and results of all the attempts already made, and the results of the experiments made under these instructions should be communicated to the Government of India. If any private person should wish to take up the enquiry, the Government will be glad to furnish him, on application, with copies of the correspondence read in the preamble to this Resolution.

The 24th August 1883.

No. 2796.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 8 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1879, the Governor General in Council is pleased to remit the stamp duty payable on receipts given by or on behalf of depositors in District Savings Banks for sums of money withdrawn from such Banks in all cases in which, but for this exemption, such receipts would be liable to stamp duty.

Statement of Progress.

A.—The outlay was confined to the Rewari-Hissar Section, as the rest of the line was not sanctioned at the close of 1881-82. This section is 89 miles long, and passes through Kali Dadri, Bhiwain, Hansi, and Hissar. No engineering difficulties were met with; about 86 of the 89 miles are on the straight; the sharpest curve has a radius of 1,432 feet; 60 miles of the line are on the level, and no gradients are steeper than 1 in 200. There are no large streams crossed. The estimate for these 89 miles of line on the metre gauge, including rolling stock, amounted to Rs. 40,00,000, giving a mileage rate of Rs. 45,000. This was sanctioned by the Secretary of State, and the works were actively pushed on during the cold season of 1881-82. The permanent-way was drawn from the surplus material obtained from England for frontier railways, which were soon at site. Plate-laying had commenced before the close of the financial year, and it is expected that the whole line into Hissar will be ready by the end of 1882-83.

B.—As the construction of the Southern Mahratta Railway has now been made over to a Company, the amount charged off against the grant of 1881-82 will be credited to that head as soon as the accounts between the Company and the Government are finally adjusted.

C.—In accordance with the orders of the Government of India, a book transfer debit was raised against the Famine Relief Protective Works grant to the extent of Rs. 16,22,882 by credit to "37—Productive Public Works" on account of reserve railway stores in stock. No actual separation of the stores has been made, nor indeed would this be feasible, as it is impossible to say that any particular reserve stores will be used upon any particular railway. But stores to the value of the amount transferred will doubtless be issued to Railways classed as Protective at no distant date.

D.—Levels and detailed surveys completed. Main canal and branches aligned and staked out on ground. Buildings at head-works and sundry inspection-houses completed.

E.—Excavation of canal channel nearly completed. Most of the masonry works completed, and materials for remainder collected. Head-works not commenced, but materials being collected. One distributary commenced during 1881-82, and good progress made.

F.—Preliminary report submitted on proposed canal from Ganjam to Gopalpore. Estimates "of the Baroor" project revised and recaste, and levels and surveys in full progress for other schemes.

G.—Bhatghar reservoir marked out, land taken up, and foundations of reserveir dam excavated. Good progress made with the masonry of Main and Vir Nala weirs. Piers of head sluices completed and arches turned. Earthwork or canal nearly completed for length of 35 miles. Masonry works in full progress along this length also. Shelter houses erected.

Land required for works nearly all taken up and paid for. Surveys for distributaries in progress.

H.—About one-fourth of earth-work of dam completed. Foundations of regulating sluice excavated. Some excavation of canal channel done in the first two miles and in the 7th mile.

K.—Fair progress made with the rock cutting in first 2½ miles. Excavation of foundation and collection of materials for main weir commenced. Canal line marked out on ground.

No. 2877.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 8 of the Obstructions in Fairways Act, 1881 (Act XVI of 1881), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the fairways leading to the ports of False Point, Balasore, and Chittagong, respectively:—

1. No person shall, without permission of the Port Officer, do any of the following acts in a fairway leading to any of the said ports:—

(a) Fix any apparatus or part of any apparatus for fishing.
(b) Lay pieces of wood as floats.
(c) Spread or fix fishing nets.
(d) Raise an embankment.
(e) Cast or throw ballast or rubbish.
(f) Sink, strand, or abandon a vessel.
(g) Throw in or abandon any tree or trees, log of wood, spar, or any other thing which would be likely to form into a snag, or to cause an accumulation of silt, or in any way to alter the conformation of the bottom of the fairway.

2. The owner or master of a vessel desiring to cast or throw ballast or rubbish in a fairway leading to any of the said ports, may apply to the Port Officer for permission to do so, and he shall not, if the permission is granted, cast or throw the ballast or rubbish except at a place selected by the Port Officer for the purpose.

3. Any person desiring to place any apparatus for fishing, or spread any net, or to use any float, or to raise any embankment in a fairway leading to any of the said ports, may apply to the Port Officer for permission to do so. On receipt of such application, the Port Officer shall examine the site fixed upon by the applicant, and if satisfied that the placing of fishing apparatus, or the doing of any other act for permission to do which application has been made, will not cause or be likely to cause obstruction or danger to navigation, he shall report the matter to the Collector for orders, and the Collector, if similarly satisfied, shall grant permission. It shall be in the discretion of the Collector at any time to withdraw such permission, and to call upon the owner to remove the apparatus, nets, floats or embankments within a reasonable time, and on failure on the part of the owner to do so, to remove them at the cost of the owner.

No. 1146 G.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Appointment of Upper Subordinates to fill temporary Engineerships.

RESOLUTION.—The Government of India from time to time sanctions the appointment of temporary Engineers and Assistant Engineers for the execution of work which cannot be undertaken by the ordinary staff of the Public Works Department. These posts have hitherto been filled up by the appointment of outsiders; but as there are in the Department Upper Subordinates who are fitted, by the engineering experience they possess, to conduct the duties required, His Excellency the Governor General in Council considers that men of this class, who are eligible and qualified for temporary Engineerships, should be appointed in preference to outsiders. Their transfer to the establishment of temporary engineers will not cause a break in the continuity of their service for pension, as under section 71 of the Civil Pension Code their temporary detached service qualifies.

2. To facilitate the selection of competent Upper Subordinates in this manner for the post of temporary Engineers, Local Governments and Administrations and the Director General of Railways will furnish the Government of India from time to time with the names of Upper Subordinates recommended for such posts, accompanied by a short confidential report on each. One general list will then be compiled and copies will be furnished to local authorities requiring temporary Engineers, in order that they may select suitable persons for the work to be carried out.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be forwarded to the Local Governments, Administrations and Officers marginally noted for information and guidance, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

No. 489 of 1881, paragraph 8, and under the orders of the Secretary of State for India, His Excellency the Governor General in Council notifies that the following arrangements will take effect with respect to the numbers of Colonel's allowances to be allotted to Classes III and IV therein referred to, viz., officers of the General Lists, and those who entered the several Staff Corps after the 12th September, 1866, and before the 1st July, 1881, respectively.

2. For the purpose of regulating the succession to the Colonel's allowance, officers of the General Lists of Cavalry and Infantry of the three presidencies will be placed on an amalgamated list according to seniority.

3. The numbers of the General List officers forming Class III, excluding those who have joined the Staff Corps, line regiments, and new line regiments, stood as follows on the 4th March, 1862:—

Bengal	...	...	...	...	222
Madras	...	...	...	...	108
Bombay	...	...	...	...	68
			Total	...	398

and calculated in the proportion of 1 in 30 officers, with an allowance of one in addition when the remainder exceeds ten, the fixed establishment of Colonel's allowances for the amalgamated list of officers of Class III will be 13.

4. As soon as the senior of these officers then remaining on the amalgamated list completes 12 years' service as substantive Lieutenant-Colonel, he will succeed to the Colonel's allowance; the next to him will succeed likewise on the same condition, and so on, until the 13 seniors then remaining in the service attain to the Colonel's allowance. Thereafter the fixed number of 13 Colonel's allowances will be maintained, the officers succeeding to vacancies occurring therein in order of seniority without reference to qualifying service, so long as there are any of the officers of the General Lists remaining.

5. For the officers of Class IV, viz., officers who entered the Staff Corps after the 12th September, 1866, and before the 1st July, 1881, there will be a separate list of officers of this class for each presidency, arranged according to seniority by substantive rank. The numbers of these officers as they stood on the 30th June, 1881 were—

Bengal	...	...	...	...	591
Madras	...	...	...	...	175
Bombay	...	...	...	...	207

and calculating by the rule above mentioned, the number of Colonel's allowances for the officers of Class IV of the three presidencies, respectively, will be :—

Bengal	...	...	...	...	20
Madras	...	...	...	...	6
Bombay	...	...	...	...	7

6. When the senior of each separate list has completed 12 years' service as substantive Lieutenant-Colonel, he will succeed to the Colonel's allowance on the list to which he belongs, and the next to him in succession in the same way, until the above establishment of Colonel's allowances fixed for each list, respectively, is complete. Thenceforward these numbers of Colonel's allowances will be maintained so long as any officers belonging to Class IV remain in the Bengal, Madras, or Bombay army, vacancies in each list being filled by the seniors without reference to qualifying service.

The 31st August, 1883.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Amalgamation of the Consulting and Deputy Consulting Engineers of Madras and Bombay with the establishment of the Railway Branch under the Government of India.

Read again—

Letter No. 2308, dated 14th September 1881, from the Government of Bombay.
P. W. D. letter No. 830R.E., dated 20th October 1881, to the Government of Bombay.
P. W. D. letter No. 833R.E., dated 20th October 1881, to the Government of Madras.
Letter No. 2763, dated 5th November 1881, from the Government of Bombay.
Letter No. 747R., dated 15th November 1881, from the Government of Madras.

OBSERVATIONS.—In the papers now read again, proposals were discussed for the amalgamation of the officers of the Consulting Engineer's Departments of Madras and Bombay with the Railway Branch of the Government of India. It was recorded, in the event of such amalgamation being carried out, that no officer would be withdrawn from or sent to either Local Government without their previous concurrence, and that the arrangement would in no way interfere with the present system of control over the railways under the administrative charge of the Local Governments. The Governments of Madras and Bombay assented to these proposals.

RESOLUTION.—On a review of these proceedings, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is now pleased to direct that the officers of the several Consulting Engineer's Departments in India be brought on the roster of the Railway Branch of the Government of India, Public Works Department.

2. In order to give effect to this decision, the officers of the Madras and Bombay lists named below will be transferred to the Railway list, and they will carry the appointments in the graded list they now hold, from their own list, to the Railway list. As regards promotion, the officers now brought on to the Government of India list will be promoted pari passu with officers immediately below them on the Government of India list, and will be treated as supernumeraries in their grade or class for a period not to exceed 2½ years from the 1st January 1884. After the 1st July 1886 those of them who remain will be absorbed into the sanctioned scale as vacancies occur :—

MADRAS.

Colonel J. H. M. Shaw-Stewart, R.E., Chief Engineer, 3rd Class, Consulting Engineer.

Lieutenant-Colonel C. J. Smith, R. E., Executive Engineer, 1st Grade Deputy Consulting Engineer.

Captain W. H. Coaker, R. E., Executive Engineer, 2nd Grade, Deputy Consulting Engineer.

BOMBAY.

Colonel H. F. Hancock, R.E., Chief Engineer, 2nd Class, Consulting Engineer.

Colonel J. Bonus, R.E., Chief Engineer, 3rd Class, temporary rank, and Officiating Consulting Engineer.

Major R. T. Frere, R.E., Executive Engineer, 2nd Grade, sub. pro tem. Deputy Consulting Engineer.

Captain H. Pilkington, R.E., Executive Engineer, 4th Grade.

3. Colonel Shaw-Stewart holds the personal rank of Chief Engineer, Class III, his post on the Madras Establishment being that of a Superintending Engineer. He will continue on the same footing on the Railway list; that is to say, until he is eventually absorbed in the Chief Engineer class, the Superintending Engineer's post will be kept vacant.

4. According to the above arrangements, the several scales will be respectively reduced and increased, as shown below :—

	Madras.	Bombay.	Railway.
Chief Engineer, Class II ...	...	— 1	+ 1
Superintending Engineers ...	— 1	...	+ 1
Executive Engineer, 1st Grade ...	— 1	...	+ 1
Ditto, 2nd Grade ...	...	— 1	+ 1
Ditto, 2nd Grade, sub. pro tem. ...	— 1	...	+ 1
Ditto, 4th Grade ...	...	— 1	+ 1

5. With a view to compensate for the loss of the post of Chief Engineer, Class II, transferred from Bombay to the Government of India list, the second Chief Engineer on the Bombay Establishment will be eligible for promotion to Class II when he is senior to the senior Class III Chief Engineer on the Government of India list; the scale of Chief Engineers on the Government of India list being increased by one Class III, and reduced by one Class II, appointment, whenever under this rule the second Chief Engineer, Bombay, holds the rank of Class II. But the rule will not come into effect until the retirement of Colonel Hancock, or until the date on which the Class III Chief Engineer now on the Bombay list would, in the ordinary course, have been promoted to Class II.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be circulated to Local Governments and Administrations and heads of Departments noted on the margin for information, and that it be published in the Gazette of India.

TELEGRAPH.

The 10th October 1883.

No. 227.—The following is published for general information:—

No. 287T., dated 9th October 1883.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Utilisation of Postal agency in the operations of the Telegraph Department.

Read—

Paragraph 6 of Public Works Department Resolution No. 169-90T., dated 31st May 1881.

Letter from Director General of Telegraphs, No. 454, dated 14th July 1883.

Public Works Department letter No. 253T., dated 22nd August 1883, to the Director General of Telegraphs.

Letter from Director General of Telegraphs, No. 480T., dated 29th August 1883.

OBSERVATIONS.—In pursuance of the orders of the Government of India, the Director General of Telegraphs now submits a scheme, drawn up in consultation with the Director General of the Post Office, for utilising the agency of the Post Office in extending the operations of the Telegraph Department. The following are the main heads of this scheme, which has the cordial approval of the Government of India :—

1. To constitute every Post Office in the empire a receiving office or depôt for the receipt of "Inland" telegrams from the public, whence "Inland" telegrams will be despatched by post to the nearest telegraph station, whether such station be a Government office or an office of a licensed telegraph system.

The charge to the public for a telegram received at a Post Office to be the same as the charge for a telegram received at a Telegraph Office.

2. To train a number of Post Office officials in telegraph duties (their pay while under training and all connected expenses being borne by the Telegraph Department) for the purpose—

(a) of combining telegraph with postal work at telegraph stations where the work can be done efficiently and cheaper by using the agency of the Post Office ; and

(b) of working branch telegraph stations, off the present main routes, which it is proposed to establish in Post Offices.

3. To erect short lines of telegraph inexpensively constructed, connecting the existing telegraph system with the Post Offices in towns in the vicinity, with the object of bringing the advantages of the telegraph within the reach of people off the main routes, thus providing a large extension of its sphere of usefulness at the least possible expense to the State.

The extent of these connections must be limited by financial considerations, but it is hoped that Local Governments and Administrations will be ready to contribute towards the expense involved, when it is known that this expense under the arrangements now sanctioned will be reduced to a minimum.

4. It has also been proposed by the two Directors General that, in order to remove friction and to facilitate the combined working, the Postal Department shall make no charge for postage, registration, &c., of articles on Telegraph service, and that all telegrams sent by the Post Office shall be considered as "on the service" "of the Telegraph Department," and transmitted without charge over the lines of the Telegraph Department, and of all licensed telegraph systems. This proposal is approved by the Government of India, and may be carried into effect from such date as may be arranged by the two Departments.

5. Detailed rules for the guidance of Postal telegraph receiving offices will be drawn up by the heads of the two Departments concerned, but it may be generally stated that inland telegrams tendered at such offices may be paid for either in cash or in postage labels, while in the case of branch telegraph stations established in Post Offices payment may be made in telegraph stamps also.

6. As regards the adjustment of accounts between the Postal and Telegraph Departments, the former will debit the latter with the usual discount on the sale of postage stamps used in payment for telegrams, and with the actual extra expenditure incurred in working Postal telegraph offices.

7. The Government of India is unwilling to bind either Department by the issue of further precise instructions, and confidently leaves the development of the scheme in the hands of the two Directors General, subject to their submitting from time to time such of their proposals as may require the sanction of higher authority.

The desired economical extension of the telegraph will depend largely on cautious tentative measures adopted, with the consent of both Departments, in the light of experience gained by actual working.

8. In conclusion, His Excellency the Viceroy in Council desires to express his recognition of the spirit in which the two Directors General have taken up this scheme for the development of telegraphic communication in India, and his appreciation of the liberal and ready manner in which the Director General of the Post Office has met the proposals of the Director General of Telegraphs.

ORDER.—Ordered, that copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations noted on the margin, to the Department of Finance and Commerce and to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for information ; also that copy be forwarded to the Director General of Telegraphs for information and guidance and to the Publisher of the Gazette of India for publication in the Gazette.

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab, Public Works Department.
The Chief Commissioners, Central Provinces, British Burma, Assam, and Coorg.
The Resident at Hyderabad.
The Agents to the Governor General for Central India, Rajputana, and Biluchistan.
The Accountant General, Public Works Department.
The Director General of Railways.
The Director General of Telegraphs in India.

No. 228.—With reference to the above Resolution, the Governor General in Council is pleased under the provisions of Section 8 of Act I of 1876, entitled an Act to amend the law relating to Telegraphs in India, to prescribe the following revision of Rule 12 of the "General Rules relating to the conduct of all Electric Telegraphs licensed under the Telegraph Act to transmit paid messages for the public," issued under Government of India, Public Works Department, Civil Works Resolution No. 203-35T., dated Simla, May 2nd, 1882, viz. :—

12. Messages on the service of the Government Telegraph Department shall be transmitted without charge to or from all licensed Telegraph Offices. Messages on the service of the Government Telegraph Department shall include messages on the service of the Postal Department.

No. 47 C. & I.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Warora Colliery and Wardah Coal Railway.

Read—

Report by the Chief Engineer, Central Provinces, on the working of the Warora Coal Mines, dated 2nd May 1882.

Public Works Department letter to the Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces, No. 322 R.A., dated 16th April 1883, calling for a detailed statement of expenditure on works connected with the Warora Colliery.

Letter from Central Provinces, No. 3618, dated 18th June 1883, submitting the statement.

RESOLUTION.—Coal was first raised from the Warora Colliery to any considerable extent in 1876-77, when the output was 10,700 tons. In 1877-78 the output was increased to nearly 41,000 tons, and in 1878-79 to 43,000 tons. These quantities were obtained from the pits known as Nos. (1) and (2), of which No. (1) was merely a pumping shaft, the coal being raised from No. (2); and as the demand for coal increased, it became necessary to sink another pumping shaft, known as No. (3), to the south and to the dip of Nos. (1) and (2), as well as another pit, No. (4), to the west and rise of No. (3). No. 3 shaft was commenced first, and had been sunk to a depth of 48 feet, when the pumping machinery broke down (in the beginning of 1879), and the sinking of this shaft had to be stopped until October 1879. It was then recommenced, and by December of that year had reached a depth of 148 feet, when further accidents to the pumping machinery and the necessity for thorough examination and repairs delayed work until December 1880. No. 3 shaft was then completed and connected with the main workings, and in February 1881 No. 4 pit was finished. In consequence of these arrangements the output of coal rose to 7,000 tons a month in the beginning of 1882, when a fifth pit was commenced to the south of Nos. 3 and 4, with the aid of which it is calculated that the output can be raised to 12,000 tons a month. Of this amount it is estimated that about 9,000 tons would be large coal—a quantity sufficient to meet all demands likely to arise during the next few years.

2. The total quantity of Warora coal consumed on Indian Railways during the year 1882 was 47,892 tons. The consumption per train mile was 104 lbs. on the Wardah Railway and 67 lbs. on the Nagpur-Chhattisgarh. This coal is inferior to Bengal coal in quality. At its best 3 tons of Warora coal may be taken as capable of doing the work of 2 tons of Karharbali coal, which is nearly equal to English coal. The inferior quality must necessarily somewhat restrict the demand for locomotive purposes; the consumption might, however, be greatly increased during the next few years if the price at the pit's mouth could be reduced.

Great Indian Peninsula Railway	...	38,813
Nagpur-Chhattisgarh ...	...	5,488
Wardah Coal State Railway	...	3,591
Total	...	47,892

3. The actual cost of cutting and raising the coal is about Rs. 1-4 per ton, but the price at present charged is Rs. 5 per ton, which would appear more than sufficient to cover all expenses and give a fair return on the capital which has been expended on the works.

4. If the price at the pit's mouth can be reduced to Rs. 3 per ton, there is every reason to believe that the area of demand would be greatly increased and that more than double the present quantity would be sold.

It may also be fairly assumed that the quality will improve as the collieries are more developed and the coal is worked to the dip.

The Rajputana Railway could probably consume some 20,000 tons per annum on the Khandwa-Neemuch section of that line; the Great Indian Peninsula might profitably take another 20,000 tons or more in addition to their present demand for use on the Dhond-Manmad, and on the section of their main line between Bhusawal and Nandgaon; and the quantity consumed on the Wardha Coal line would be largely increased by the extra traffic.

The Nagpur-Chhattisgarh line will in any case consume a much larger quantity than it has done in previous years, owing to its extension being now completed and open for traffic.

5. On the whole, the total annual consumption of coal from these collieries on Railways during the next few years will doubtless (if the above reduction in its price can be effected) fall but little short of 1,00,000 tons, distributed roughly as follows:—

	Tons.
By the Great Indian Peninsula Railway	60,000
„ Rajputana	20,000
„ Nagpur-Chhattisgarh	12,000
„ Wardha State Railway	6,000
	98,000

In the event of the Nagpur-Bengal Railway being constructed, another 10,000 tons per annum might possibly be consumed.

6. The capacity of the coal-field was estimated by Mr. Walter Ness, after trial borings, to amount to 20 million tons of easily workable coal, and this estimate is considered to be rather under than over the mark. The field will therefore suffice for the supply of all demands likely to be made upon it during the next 150 years. The existing arrangements provide for working an area of 191 acres, from which it is calculated that 1,600,000 tons can be raised without any difficulty, so that no large expenditure on new works is likely to be necessary for another 10 or 12 years at least.

7. Up to the close of the year 1878-79, the Warora Colliery was treated as a separate undertaking, the accounts being separately recorded. For various reasons, the Government of India considered it advisable that the colliery and the Wardah Valley State Railway should be combined and placed under one common management. This arrangement was carried into effect from the 1st April 1879, the combined undertaking being designated the Wardah Coal State Railway. The Capital Account of the colliery was closed on 31st March 1879, when it was ruled that all future expenditure of whatever nature connected with the collieries should be charged to Revenue.

8. The Capital Account of the Colliery, as now shown by the accounts, stands at Rs. 7,04,710, viz.:—

	Rs.
Works	3,40,031
Tools, Plant and Machinery	2,03,960
Establishment	1,62,525
	7,06,516
Less—Refunds on Capital Account	1,806
	7,04,710

but in addition there has been expended on new minor works to close of the year 1882-83 a sum of Rs. 2,67,112, which under the special orders issued in connection with the colliery has been charged to Revenue, but which would ordinarily have been charged to Capital.

The Revenue Accounts, as they now stand, show a net loss to end of 1882-83 of Rs. 62,724; and if to this be added the interest on capital sunk in the undertaking, the loss to the State will stand at Rs. 3,44,569.

9. The following table shows in detail the capital expended, the interest thereon, the net revenue realised, and the net profit or loss to the State to close of the year 1882-83, according to the accounts as they now stand:—

Year.	Amount of Capital expended.	Interest on Capital.	Total.	Net Revenue realised.	Interest more than Revenue realised.	Revenue realised more than Interest.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs	Rs.	Rs.
1871-72	69,852	1,081	70,933	...	1,081	...
1872-73	1,01,234	5,164	1,06,398	...	5,164	...
1873-74	2,16,318	12,357	2,28,675	...	12,357	...
1874-75	1,66,583	21,101	1,87,684	...	21,101	...

1876-77	41,539	30,573	72,112	—26,569	57,142	...
1877-78	1[illegible],290	31,634	47,924	63,952	...	32,318
1878-79	13,703	32,311	46,014	43,555	...	11,244
1879-80	—20,155	32,165	12,010	—42,003	74,169	...
1880-81	...	31,712	31,712	—2,03,906	2,35,618	...
1881-82	...	28,189	28,189	13,812	14,377	...
1882-83	...	28,189	28,189	89,822	...	61,633
Total ...	7,04,710	2,81,845	9,86,555	—62,724	3,44,569	...

10. Although the financial results as given in the above table appear far from satisfactory, the Government of India is satisfied that the colliery has been successfully worked, at least during later years. Drawbacks have occurred from various causes beyond the control of officers connected with the management, due chiefly to the absence of new and suitable machinery—a want which has now been supplied,—and the results appear the more unfavorable owing to the heavy charges for new works which during the past few years have been made against the Revenue Account. The charges for new works debited to Revenue amount, as stated above, to Rs. 2,67,112, and the account has also been burdened with an excessive charge on account of certain machinery supplied, on which account a rebate of Rs. 23,756 has just been allowed. Excluding these charges, the net receipts to the close of 1882-83 would stand at Rs. 2,28,144.

11. After a careful review of the working of the colliery, the Government of India has determined to revise its accounts since its amalgamation with the Railway, and to reclassify the expenditure on the following general principles, which will in future govern the incidence of charge between Capital and Revenue :—

I.—The cost of executing all workings (including borings, shafts, adits, and drains) shall be treated as working expenses, except that, whenever the total outlay in respect of sinking any shaft shall exceed Rs. 10,000, the whole cost of sinking such shaft shall be charged to Capital, and no part thereof shall be treated as working expenses of the colliery, nor be charged to Revenue.

II.—Capital shall bear the cost of new works, additional rolling stock, plant and machinery, and substantial additions to, and improvements of, old works, stock, plant and machinery.

III.—The cost of repairs, restorations, renewals, replacements, or substitutions shall be borne by Revenue.

IV.—Provided nevertheless that the cost of any item of expenditure properly chargeable to Capital in accordance with the above rule, but not exceeding Rs. 2,000, be charged to Revenue.

In accordance with this decision, a sum of Rs. 2,67,112 will now be written back from Revenue to Capital in the accounts of the year 1883-84. Allowing for the necessary adjustments to be made in the accounts, the financial results of the past few years will stand approximately as follows :—

Year.	Amount of Capital expended.	Interest on Capital.	Total.	Net Revenue realised.	Interest more than Revenue realised.	Revenue realised more than Interest.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
To end of 1878-79 ...	7,24,865	1,61,590	8,86,455	79,552	82,038	...
1879-80 ...	5,856	32,750	38,606	—15,993	48,743	...
1880-81 ...	1,31,773	35,847	1,67,620	—48,377	84,224	...
1881-82 ...	72,860	35,958	1,08,818	86,672	...	50,714
1882-83 ...	36,468	38,144	74,612	1,26,290	...	88,146
Total ...	9,71,822	3,04,289	12,76,111	2,28,144	76,145	...

12. The net revenue for the years 1881-82 and 1882-83, according to the accounts as amended, amounts to Rs. 86,672 and Rs. 1,26,290, equivalent to a return on the capital expended to the close of each year of 9·2 per cent. and 12·9 per cent. respectively. The net revenue from the starting of the works down to the close of the year 1882-83 fell short of the total interest charges by Rs. 76,145 only.

13. As a considerable portion of the outlay standing at the debit of the Capital Account, which has been expended in sinking shafts, erecting engine houses and the like, as well as the Capital charges on account of establishment in superintending these works, will cease to have any value when the coal which can be won by their means has been exhausted, it becomes necessary to establish a sinking fund in order to recoup the Capital Account. For the present it has been determined that a sum of 5 annas a ton for large coal and 2 annas a ton for small coal raised and sold shall be set aside to form a sinking fund for the redemption of the capital sunk on works which will in time cease to be remunerative.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Simla, the 19th October, 1883.

No. 17.—His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General has been pleased to accept the resignation by the Hon'ble D. G. Barkley of his office of Additional Member of the Council of the Governor General for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

No. 18.—The following Statute is published for general information:—

46 VICT., CHAPTER 6.

An Act to provide, during twelve months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army.

[26th April, 1883.]

Whereas the raising or keeping a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law:

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and thirty-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-two men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions:

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid:

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's forces by sea:

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the beforementioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

44 & 45 Vict., c. 58. And whereas the Army Act, 1881, will expire—

(a) In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three ; and

(b) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty three ; and

(c) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1883.

Army Act (44 & 45 Vict., c. 58) to be in force for specified times. 2. (1) The Army Act, 1881, shall be and remain in force during the periods hereinafter mentioned, and no longer, unless otherwise provided by Parliament ; that is to say,

(a) Within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, both inclusive ; and

(b) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three to the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eight-four, both inclusive ; and

(c) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, both inclusive;

[illegible] day from which the Army Act, 1881, is [illegible] in any place by this Act is in relation [illegible] place referred to in this Act as the [illegible] of this Act.

44 & 45 Vict., c. 58. The Army Act, 1881, while in force shall apply to persons subject to military law, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions.

44 & 45 Vict., c. 58. (2) A person subject to military law shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number hereinbefore mentioned.

Prices in respect of billeting. 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58. 3. There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation provided by him in pursuance of the Army Act, 1881, the prices specified the schedule to this Act.

Amendments of Army Act, 1881.

Amendment of s. 46 (3) of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to power of commanding officer. 4. Whereas the words hereinafter mentioned in section forty-six of the Army Act, 1881, are superfluous, inasmuch as the offence therein mentioned is an aggravated offence of drunkenness, and it is expedient to omit the same : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

In section forty-six of the Army Act, 1881, the words "was guilty of drunkenness after being warned for duty, or unless he" shall be omitted from the third sub-section.

Amendment of s. 80 (1) of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to attestation paper. 5. Whereas by section eighty of the Army Act, 1881, provision is made with respect to the recording of the answers of a recruit in an attestation paper to the questions put to him, and with respect to the signing and attesting of the attestation paper, and doubts have arisen with respect to the application of the said section to duplicates of such paper if duplicates are required by the regulations of a Secretary of State under Part II of the said Act, and it is expedient to remove such doubts : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

There shall be added to section eighty of the Army Act, 1881, after the sixth sub-section the following enactment :—

(7.) Where the regulations of a Secretary of State under this part of this Act require duplicate attestation papers to be signed and attested, this section shall apply to both such duplicates, and in the event of any amendment of an attestation paper the amendment shall be made in both of the duplicate attestation papers.

Amendment of s. 94 of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58 as to justices of the peace for the purpose of enlistment. 6. Whereas by the second sub-section of section ninety-four of the Army Act, 1881, it is enacted that an officer while subject to military law shall not act as a justice of the peace for the purpose of the attestation of soldiers :

And whereas militiamen can be attested before any officer as well as before a justice of the peace, and it is expedient to make provision for the attestation of soldiers before officers : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

In section ninety-four of the Army Act, 1881, the words "an officer in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, if authorised in that behalf under the regulations of a Secretary of State also," shall be inserted before the words "every person exercising the office of a Magistrate" in the first sub-section ; and the second sub-section shall be omitted.

Amendment of s. 145 (2) of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as regards the liability of a soldier to maintain his wife and children. 7. Whereas under section one hundred and forty-five of the Army Act, 1881, it is provided that in the case either (a) of an order or decree made for payment by a soldier either of the cost of the maintenance of his wife or child, or of any bastard child, or of the cost of any relief given to his wife or child, by way of loan, being sent to a Secretary of State, or (b) of it appearing to the satisfaction of a Secretary of State that a soldier has deserted or left in destitute circumstances, without reasonable cause, his wife or any of his legitimate children under fourteen years of age, the Secretary of State may order a sum therein mentioned to be deducted from the daily pay of such soldier, and to be appropriated in the first case in liquidation of the sum adjudged to be paid by such order or decree, and in the second case towards the maintenance of such wife or children :

And whereas it is expedient to make it obligatory on the Secretary of State to make the order in such cases : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

In section one hundred and forty-five of the Army Act, 1881, the words "Secretary of State shall order" shall be substituted for the words "Secretary of State may order" in the second sub-section.

Amendment of s 172 of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, respecting provisions as to warrants and orders of military authorities. 8. Whereas it is expedient to make further provision respecting the validity of orders of military authorities for the detention in custody of persons subject to military law when on boardship : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

There shall be added to section one hundred and seventy-two of the Army Act, 1881, after the fourth sub-section the following enactment :—

(5.) Where a military convict, or a military prisoner, or a person who is subject to military [illegible] and charged with an offence, is a prisoner in [illegible] custody, and for the purpose of conveyance by sea is delivered on board a ship to the person in command of the ship or to any other person on board the ship acting under the authority of the commander, the order of the military authority which authorises the prisoner to be conveyed by sea shall be a sufficient authority to such person, and to the person for the time being in command of the ship, to keep the said prisoner in custody and convey him in accordance with the order, and the prisoner while so kept shall be deemed to be kept in military custody.

Amendment of s. 175 (1) of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to officers subject to military law. 9. Whereas in section one hundred and seventy-five of the Army Act, 1881, which declares what persons shall be subject to military law as officers, the first sub-section is as follows :—

"The Officers of the regular forces on full pay, and not otherwise subject to military law, officers of the staff of the army, and officers employed on military service under the orders of an officer of the regular forces :"

And whereas, having regard to the terms of the Royal Warrant regulating the pay and promotion of the army, doubts have arisen with respect to the construction of the above enactment, and it is expedient to remove such doubts : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

In section one hundred and seventy-five of the Army Act, 1881, the words "officers of the regular forces on the active list, within the meaning of any Royal Warrant for regulating the pay and promotion of the regular forces, and officers not on such active list who are employed on military service under the orders of an officer of the regular forces, who is subject to military law" shall be substituted for the first sub-section (above recited).

Amendment of s. 182 of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to warrant officers. 10. Whereas by section one hundred and eighty-two of the Army Act, 1881, power is given to a court-martial to sentence a warrant officer to be suspended from rank, pay and allowances, or any of them, and injustice may arise if a warrant officer is sentenced to a suspension in any one of such cases, and not in all of them, and it is expedient to prevent the same ;

And whereas by the same section power is given to a court-martial to sentence a warrant officer to be transferred to a corps in the same arm or branch of the service, and in the same regimental rank as that in which he served immediately before his transfer to be warrant officer, and such power is unnecessary, as the power to order such transfer is by section eighty-three of the same Act vested in the competent military authority : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

In section one hundred and eighty-two of the Army Act, 1881, the words "or any of them" shall be omitted after the words "rank and pay and allowances" in the second sub-section.

In section one hundred and eighty-two of the Army Act, 1881, the words "or to be transferred to a corps in the same arm or branch of the service and in the same rank as that in which he served immediately before his transfer to be warrant officer" shall be omitted from the second sub-section.

Printing of amendments. 11. In all copies of the Army Act, 1881, which may be printed after the commencement of this Act the words by this Act directed to be substituted for other words shall be printed therein in lieu of the latter words, and the words directed by this Act to be added shall be added thereto, and the words directed by this Act to be omitted shall be omitted therefrom.

TELEGRAPH.

The 31st October 1883.

No. [illegible]—Mr. R. Boteler, Superintendent, 4th Grade, Indian Telegraph Department, is appointed to officiate as Superintendent, 3rd Grade, with effect from the 6th October 1883, and until further orders.

The 1st November 1883.

No. 265.—The following Revised Rules and Rates for Inland Telegrams are published for general information :—

Rules and Tariff for Inland Messages.

Rules and Tariff, relating to the transmission of Telegraph Messages in India, sanctioned by the Governor General of India in Council, with effect from the 1st December 1883.

GENERAL.

Rule 1.—The accuracy of messages is not guaranteed, and the Sender and Receiver must accept all risks arising from non-delivery, errors or delays.

Rule 2.—Telegraph Stations are divided into three classes, viz. :—

Class of office.	General working hours (local time).	Special working hours (local time) on Sunday, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday.
I.	Day and night ...	Day and night.
II.	7 A.M. to 9 P.M.*	7 to 9 A.M., and 4 to 9 P.M.
III.	10 A.M. to 5 P.M.*	7 to 9 A.M., and 4 to 6 P.M.

* These hours are subject to modification to suit local requirements.

In cases of life and death, or of extraordinary emergency, a message countersigned by the Chief Civil or Military Authority at a Station, or by any of the Authorities empowered to "clear the line" (see Rule 40), can be sent from any Office at any time.

Exception in favor of emergent telegrams signed by competent authority.

Rule 3.—Senders of messages are advised to write their messages in an unmistakable and distinct hand.

Messages should be legibly written.

ACCEPTANCE OF MESSAGES FOR TRANSMISSION.

Rule 4.—Messages are accepted at all Post Offices. Where the Post Office is unconnected by wire, the messages are despatched by first post "registered" to the nearest Telegraph Station without extra charge. Post Offices which accept and despatch messages by wire are called "Combined" Offices: Post Offices unconnected by wire are called "Receiving Offices."

Acceptance of messages at Post Offices.

Rule 5.—No message or messages of more than five hundred words can be sent at any one time by any private individual or firm, and no second messages by the same individual or firm till after the lapse of three hours, unless the lines be free and not required by any one else.

Limit to length of messages.

Rule 6.—All messages must be legibly written in the Roman character or in Arabic figures: subject to the above limitation, messages may be sent in the vernacular, or any foreign language, or in cipher, if written in Arabic numerals.

Messages must be in the Roman character or Arabic figures.

At Telegraph and Post Offices in Stations other than the Presidency Towns, every assistance possible is afforded to natives in the translation of messages into English, and vice versâ.

Messages translated for natives.

Rule 7.—The body of the message must be preceded by the address (as defined in Rule 18). The true signature and address of the Sender must always be written at the foot of the message.

Form to be followed.

The Sender of a private message can always be called upon to prove that the signature attached to it is genuine.

Verification of signature to private messages may be insisted upon.

Rule 8.—The address must contain all the information necessary to ensure the delivery of the message at its destination, and the Sender in all cases supports the consequences of insufficiency of address. After the message is once despatched, it can neither be cancelled, completed, nor rectified, except by the despatch of a fresh paid message.

Full address necessary.

Rule 9.—Every interlineation, reference, erasure, or alteration of words must be authenticated by the Sender of the message, or by his representative.

Authentication of corrections necessary.

Rule 10.—Messages from places where there is no Telegraph Station should be tendered at the local Post Office with cash or with postage stamps, in which case the Post Master will grant a receipt for the amount, or they may at the option of the Sender be addressed to the nearest Government Telegraph Office by post registered, together with Telegraph or Postage stamps sufficient for their payment, in which case a Receipt for the amount will be posted free to the Sender.

Messages sent by post to telegraph stations for transmission.

In the case of a message sent by Post to a Telegraph Station with an insufficient number of stamps, the excess charge will be recovered from the addressee.

Treatment of messages received by post for transmission insufficiently stamped.

Rule 11.—Messages can be addressed to places where there are no Telegraph Stations. In such cases, the Sender must state (free) from what Telegraph Office delivery is to be effected.

Messages addressed to non-telegraph stations.

Example.—"To Sherghotty, Post Burhee."

No charge will be made for ordinary Inland postage, or for registration, but postal registration is compulsory in the case of messages which have to be posted in India to places beyond Indian limits, and in such cases both the postage and registration fees* must be prepaid by the Sender.

Rule 12.—With the following exception, all charges for messages must be prepaid in cash or in stamps:—

"Bearing" messages.

Messages are sent "bearing" from Sea-ports when received for despatch by mail steamers or other vessels, but no such message, whether "prepaid" or "bearing," will be received for transmission until the name of the vessel has been made known. Bearing messages will not be delivered to the Addressees until after payment has been obtained.

Rule 13.—All charges on telegrams tendered at Government Telegraph Offices are prepaid in Telegraph Stamps, which are procurable at every Treasury and every Government Telegraph Station.

Use of Stamps.

Telegraph stamps are double-headed, the object being that the upper half shall be returned on the Receipt (whereby the Sender receives a guarantee that his message has not been suppressed for the sake of the stamps), and the lower half shall be affixed to the message as voucher to Government that it has been prepaid.

Form of stamp provides a guarantee to the Sender and to Government.

The Senders of messages should be careful to affix their Telegraph stamps on the spaces left blank for the purpose on the message forms, the upper half on the Receipt, the lower half on the message, and to see that the stamps are defaced with the office stamp which bears the name of the station and the date.

Stamps to be properly affixed to the forms.

Telegraph stamps cut in two, before being sent into a Telegraph Office, or which are in any way defaced, discolored, or damaged, cannot be accepted.

Cut or defaced stamps cannot be received.

Application for the refund of the value of such stamps, accompanied by particulars of the way in which the stamps became damaged, may, however, be made to the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, which will ordinarily comply with the application when no doubt exists that the damaged stamps are genuine, and that the damage was not caused intentionally.

* 8 annas.

At "combined offices" (see Rule 4) telegrams can be prepayed in postage stamps.

Proper forms on which to write messages are available gratis at all Telegraph Stations and Post Offices, and Senders are requested to use these forms only.

Forms obtainable gratis at all stations.

Rule 14.—State messages from all Public Functionaries must be paid for in cash or in stamps prior to despatch; the rates are the same for State messages as those charged to private individuals. This Rule will be relaxed in case of great emergency: whenever an 'urgent' State message is tendered for despatch under this permission, the Sender must take the necessary steps to ascertain the charges on it, and pay them into the Telegraph Office within 24 hours.

Charges on State messages.

Rule 15.—State messages not marked "urgent" will be treated as "deferred" (see Rule 19): they take their turn for despatch with "urgent" and "deferred" private messages according to the order in which they were tendered.

State messages take their turn for despatch with private, urgent or deferred messages.

Rule 16.—No unpaid messages, except those specified in the Departmental Regulations, shall, on any account, be transmitted. A violation of this rule will subject the Signaller or Telegraph Master in charge of the station from which a message is improperly despatched to dismissal from the public service.

No unpaid messages to be despatched under penalty.

Rule 17.—Telegraph Masters are required to refuse to transmit a message which may be of a decidedly objectionable or alarming character. Should the character of a message be open to doubt, the matter shall be referred to a Secretary to Government, if the message be tendered at the seat of Government, or the Chief Civil or Military Officer, if at a provincial station.

Objectionable messages to be refused acceptance.

CHARGES.

Rule 18.—No charge is made for the transmission of the Address.

The "Address" includes names of stations from and to which the message is to be despatched, the bonâ fide names or designations* of the Sender and Addressee, and the latter's address. No other words can be transmitted unless paid for as part of the body of the message, and the officers of the Telegraph Department are authorised to omit from the address any words which are not essential to the correct delivery of the message.

Free address.

If the Sender of a message desire his own address to be telegraphed, it must be included in the body of the message, and paid for.

Rule 19.—The following are the rates of charges for a message:—

Charge for a message.

(No charge is made for the transmission of the address.)

	Local messages,—i.e., those tendered during the working hours of a Telegraph Office for transmission in ordinary course within a radius of six miles of a Central Government Telegraph Office.		Deferred messages,—i.e., those tendered during the working hours of a Telegraph Office for transmission at night and to be delivered at destination early on the following morning.		Ordinary messages,—i.e., those tendered during the working hours of a Telegraph Office for transmission and delivery in ordinary course.		Urgent messages,—i.e., those tendered during the working hours of a Telegraph Office for immediate transmission with precedence over ordinary messages.

Rule 20.—A message can be sent from any Station of the Government Telegraph Department to any Railway Telegraph Station, or vice versâ, without additional charge.

Messages despatched to and from railway stations without extra charge.

APPLICATION OF CHARGES.

Rule 21.—The maximum length of a word is fixed at six syllables; the excess is counted as a word.

Rule 22.—Messages must not contain any unusual combinations, abbreviations, or constructions. Any word in common use, which, although requiring two words to express it, is generally recognised as one word, is charged as one word when so written; when the two parts are not joined by a hyphen or apostrophe, and when of, or less than, six syllables. "Halfpenny," "Twopence," "Threepence," &c., up to "Elevenpence," when written as a single word, count as one word only. "F. O. B.," "C. F. I.," "A. M.," and "P.M.," when written as separate letters, are each counted as two and three words, respectively, but when written "Fob," "Cfi," "Am," "Pm," as one word.

No unusual abbreviations or combinations permitted.

Rule 23.—Words joined by a hyphen are counted as so many separate words.

Words joined by a hyphen.

* Name and designation cannot both be admitted, unless it would otherwise be obviously impossible for the Addressee to identify the Sender.

A message can only be sent in the name of one individual or firm.

Rule 24.—Words separated by an apostrophe are counted as so many separate words. (This rule does not apply to nouns in the possessive case, as "General's," "Charles'," "Brother's.")

Words separated by an apostrophe.

Rule 25.—Proper names of towns and persons, names of places, streets, ships, titles, Christian names, prefixes, and qualifications, are counted for the number of words employed by the Sender to express them.

Proper names, titles, &c.

Rule 26.—Every isolated character, whether letter or figure, is counted as a word. The same applies to an underline.

Every separate character, including an underline, charged as a word.

Rule 27.—Signs of punctuation, hyphens, apostrophes, inverted commas, parentheses, fresh paragraphs, are not counted or signalled, but decimal points, commas, bars of division, &c., used with figures, are each counted as a figure and signalled.

Signs of punctuation.

Rule 28.—When numbers are expressed in figures, all the characters, figures, letters, or signs in each group are added together, the total divided by three, and the quotient, plus one for the remainder, if there be any, gives the number of words the group represents. Signs used to separate groups and letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted each as a figure or letter; groups of letters not forming words (letter cipher) cannot be transmitted.

Charges for figures.

Method of counting figures.

Rule 29.—All that the Sender writes in his message to be transmitted to be included in the cost, but the Address of a message, as defined in Rule 18, will be transmitted without charge.

All words to be transmitted charged for.

The day, hour and minute (Madras time) of receipt of a message into a Telegraph Office for despatch are in every instance added by the Department and telegraphed free of charge. Senders may, however, date their messages if they think fit, but the Sender's date, if given, will be charged for.

Date and time of receipt added by the Department and transmitted free.

Rule 30.—A message addressed to several persons, or to the same person in localities where delivery is to be effected by different offices, is charged for as so many separate messages.

Multiple messages charged as separate messages.

Rule 31.—A message addressed to several persons in one locality, or to the same person at several places of residence in one locality, with or without transmission by post, is charged for as a single message; but a copying fee of four annas, independently of postage, if any, is charged for each destination after the first.

Multiple messages charged as one message.

REPETITION OF MESSAGES.

Rule 32.—The Sender of any message can require that it be repeated. In this case the different stations employed in its transmission collate it as it passes, repeating it to each other integrally.

Collation of message.

Rule 33.—The charge for repeating is equal to half the charge for the message. A repeated message is indicated by the word "collated," which, to ensure the greatest accuracy, is telegraphed (free) both in the official instructions and as the first word of the text of the message.

Charge for collation.

ADVICE OF DELIVERY.

Rule 34.—Any Sender can require that a notice of the time at which his message is delivered be transmitted to him by telegraph. This advice of delivery may be addressed to him at any Station he may name.

Advice of delivery.

Rule 35.—If the message cannot be delivered, the return-telegram indicates the circumstances which prevented delivery, and, if possible, gives the information necessary to enable the Sender to cause his message to reach its destination.

Case of non-delivery.

Priority of return-message.

The return-message has priority in transmission over "ordinary" messages.

Charge for advice of delivery.

Rule 36.—The charge for an advice of delivery or non-delivery is one rupee.

PREPAYMENT OF REPLY.*

Rule 37.—The Sender of a message can prepay a reply, depositing for this purpose a sum not exceeding ten times the cost of his original telegram; but the message to which a reply is prepaid must not be addressed to more than one person. On depositing the corresponding sum, the Sender can add (free) the words "Reply paid" or "Answer paid" and the amount to which he wishes the reply to be limited. The Terminal Station pays to the Receiver, in Telegraph or Postage stamps, or in money, the amount prepaid, leaving it to him to send his answer how, and when, and to what address he pleases, or not to send one at all. The reply, if sent, is considered in every respect as a fresh message.

In the case of a message to which a reply is prepaid addressed to a station where there is no Telegraph Office, the amount is forwarded to destination from the nearest Government Telegraph Office, not in Telegraph stamps, but by currency notes and Postage stamps in an insured cover, the Sender must accordingly prepay the postal insurance fees.

Reply deposits exceeding Rs. 2 in value cannot be received at or delivered from any Railway Telegraph Office, or received at any Postal Receiving Office (see Rule 4). Messages addressed to Stations on Railways to which replies exceeding Rs. 2 in value are prepaid are posted with currency notes and Postage stamps enclosed from the nearest Government Telegraph Office, direct to the addressee. In the case of such messages also, the postal insurance fees are payable by the Sender.

Should it be impossible to effect delivery of a "Reply paid" message, the Terminal Station sends a Service telegram to that effect to the Sender, and the amount deposited will be refunded on application being made to the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta. The words "Reply paid" or "Answer paid" entitle the Addressee to receive the equivalent of the minimum charge only.

* The Sender of a State message addressed to a Government official may not prepay a reply. And in the case of a State message addressed to other than a Government Official, any sum deposited by the Sender under this rule must be intended for no other purpose than to cover the cost of a return telegram.

It should be distinctly understood that it is not compulsory on the Addressee to send a reply. The duty of the Terminal Station consists simply in paying to him, in Telegraph stamps or in money, the amount prepaid, leaving him at liberty to do what he pleases with it.

DELIVERY.

Rule 38.—"Local" messages will be delivered free of charge within one mile, and other messages within five miles of a Telegraph Station. Beyond this distance messages will be sent by post without charge or by such other means as the Sender may arrange and pay for. Should the addressee of a message (other than a "local" message) have left the Station to which it is addressed, it will, if returned unopened with definite instructions as to the new address, be retransmitted without extra charge.

Free delivery radius.

If the Sender requests it, messages will be delivered open. In this case the words Deliver open must be included free in the body of the message.

The Telegraph Department may deliver "deferred" messages through the Post Office of the place of destination.

The messenger who delivers a message may be entrusted with the reply, provided he be not detained for this purpose more than five minutes. The fact of the reply having been given to the messenger, and the amount paid to him, should be mentioned on the receipt given for the original message.

Rule 39.—Any Firm or Individual expecting to receive Inland or Foreign messages can register an abbreviated address at the Government Telegraph Office from which such messages have to be delivered.

Rules for registration of abbreviated addresses.

No abbreviated address can be accepted which has already been registered locally by another Firm or Individual.

The fee for registration of each abbreviated address is Rs. 10 per annum, payable in advance on the 1st January in each year or Rs. 50 for all time, with a fine of Rs. 5 for every change of address. Abbreviated addresses are considered confidential.

The Department accepts no responsibility in respect of the delivery of any telegram having an abbreviated address if such address has not been registered.

CLEAR LINE MESSAGES.

Rule 40.—On emergent occasions of great importance, the public functionaries named below have the power to "clear the line," that is, to suspend the receipt and despatch of all messages until the one for which the line is "cleared" is passed on:—

(1)—The Governor General of India.
(2)—The Governors of Madras and Bombay.
(3)—Commanders-in-Chief, India, Madras and Bombay.
(4)—Lieutenant-Governors of Bengal, North-Western Provinces and the Punjab.
(5)—Secretaries to the Government of India.
(6)—Secretaries to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces, and Punjab.
(7)—Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, British Burma, and Assam.
(8)—Agents to the Governor General, Rajputana, Central India and Biluchistan.
(9)—Commissioners of Sind and Peshawar.
(10)—The Residents at Hyderabad (Deccan) and Mysore.
(11)—Director General of Telegraphs in India.
(12)—The Maharaja of Patiala; from the Patiala Office only.

The messages so sent are, however, to be paid for, in cash or in stamps, as other State messages.

REFUNDS.

Rule 41.—No refund will under any circumstances be made for a State message of any class or for a "local" or "deferred" private message; and no refund will be made for an "ordinary" or "urgent" private message delivered wholly or partially in an unintelligible state, unless the extra charge for repetition has been paid by the Sender.

No refund given for State messages or for "local" or "deferred" private messages or for errors in uncollated "ordinary" or "urgent" private messages.

Rule 42.—If an "ordinary" or "urgent" private message be not delivered, or be subjected to serious delay through the fault of the Telegraph Department, the whole charge made for it will be returned to the Sender.

Conditions of refund in the case of non-delivery or delay" of private messages.

Rule 43.—Applications for refunds, as also all complaints respecting messages, should be addressed to the TELEGRAPH CHECK OFFICE, CALCUTTA. Such claims for refund should be made, under penalty of rejection, within two months from the date of the message; but this period is extended to six months in the case of a repeated message, or of a message for which a Reply or an Advice of Delivery has been prepaid. (When an overcharge has been made on an inland message through the neglect of the Telegraph employés, and when there exists no doubt whatever as to the justice of the claim, the amount overcharged will be repaid at once by the Telegraph Master.)

CANCELLATION OF MESSAGES.

Rule 44.—If the Sender of an inland message wishes to cancel it before transmission has commenced he can do so, but the charges upon it will not be returned when once the stamps are obliterated. If the message is in course of transmission, or has already been despatched, it can only be cancelled by a paid message from the Sender to the Telegraph Master of the Terminal Station. If in addition the Sender wishes to be informed by telegraph in what manner his request has been acted upon, he must deposit the cost of the return telegram.

Refund not admissible when a message is cancelled at the Sender's request.

OBLIGATION OF SECRECY.

Rule 45.—To secure secrecy as much as possible, all persons (including officers of the Department) not actually on duty are strictly prohibited from entering the Signal-room. Breach of this regulation renders an offender liable to a fine of Rs. 500 under Act I of 1876.

Rule 46.—Violation of secrecy on the part of any person in the Department will be punished by dismissal from office, forfeiture of arrears of pay, and a declaration in the official Gazette of the incapacity of the delinquent to serve the Government in any capacity. He will also be liable to the further punishment of fine, or to imprisonment (with or without labor) not exceeding three years, or to both.

It is a violation of secrecy to mention the fact that a message has been received or despatched by any particular person or firm.

COPIES OF MESSAGES.

Certified copies of messages obtainable by Sender and Receiver.

Rule 47.—The Sender and Receiver have a right to be furnished with certified true copies of any message sent or received by them; a fixed charge of four annas is made for every copy furnished. As no Telegraph Office keeps copies of messages longer than three days, applications for copies required after that time has elapsed should be made to the TELEGRAPH CHECK OFFICE, CALCUTTA.

Applications for copies must be made within six months of the date of the message. At the expiration of that period all message drafts are destroyed.

One anna must be enclosed for postage of the reply—failing which, it will be sent "bearing."

Application may be made, as above, by an interested party for the preservation of specified telegrams exchanged between other persons on the ground of pending or contemplated judicial proceedings. Such telegrams will be preserved for a further period of six months, at the expiration of which they will, in default of a renewed application, be destroyed.

Should the particulars furnished be insufficient to enable the Check Office to trace the telegrams at once, the estimated cost of the required search must be deposited by the applicant. It must be understood that the duty of the Telegraph Department in the matter is confined to making the search and preserving the telegrams if found. No information as to the result of the search will be furnished, and any telegrams answering the description given which may be found will only be produced on the order of a competent court of law or other competent authority.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Establishment of Telephonic Exchanges, and private Telephone lines, by the Agency of Telephone Companies in India.

Read—

Proceedings of the Government of India, dated February 1882, Nos. 1—97A.

Letter No. 309T., dated 13th June 1882, from the Government of India, to the Director General of Telegraphs.

Despatch No. 12T., dated 7th November 1882, from the Government of India, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Despatch No. 16T., dated 5th December 1882, from the Government of India, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Despatch No. 7T., dated 22nd February 1883, from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India.

Despatch No. 9T., dated 15th March 1883, from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India.

OBSERVATIONS.—In November 1881, licenses were granted by His Excellency the Governor General in Council to the Oriental Telephone Company, under which Telephone Exchanges have been established in Madras, Bombay, Calcutta and Rangoon. Permission was also given to the Oriental Telephone Company to establish and work, under separate licenses in each case, private telephone lines within the areas defined in the Telephone exchange licenses held by the Company. During the past year, various questions have arisen with regard to the further development of this class of enterprise; and His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to lay down the following general rules under which licenses for similar purposes will be granted in future.

I.—Competition between the State Telegraph Department and the Company or between Rival Companies.

In its letter No. 404T., dated 10th November 1881, the Government of India addressed the Manager of the Oriental Telephone Company in the following terms:—

"The Government of India have expressly laid down that they will not give to any Company a monopoly for Telephone Exchanges. They reserve to themselves full power to erect one for themselves anywhere or for the public in any place for which no license has been granted to a private Company; as also to grant licenses to more than one Company on due application."

And again in its letter No. 465T., dated 9th December 1881, the Government of India wrote:—

"That in the event of any private Company wishing to work Telephone Exchanges in any city, in which the Government has already established such an institution, the Government of India will be willing to treat with any private Company, capable of working it properly, for a transfer of the exchange.

"While the Government of India has no desire to compete with private enterprise in the matter of Telephone Exchanges in this country, it reserves to itself the right to undertake such business in places where private agency is not prepared to take it up."

So far as the operations of the Oriental Telephone Company are concerned, the Government of India is by the wording of these letters to a certain extent debarred from a full exercise of the right of State competition in the exchange business. So long as the business is conducted satisfactorily and on sufficiently advantageous terms to the public, there will be no necessity for departing from the practice hitherto followed in this matter; but in view of the desirability of securing adequate protection of the public interests, it is necessary that full discretion should be reserved to the Government to step in and undertake the carrying on of telephonic communication in the event of failure, overcharge, or other misconduct on the part of a Company, or of other circumstances which appear to render such a course desirable. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is therefore pleased to rule that all future licenses will be granted, subject to a full reservation of the rights of Government in this respect.

The right of the Government to license more than one Company in any town has been maintained from the first, and is now reaffirmed.

The construction, maintenance, and working of all [illegible] and lines between, Government offices will be undertaken in all cases by the Government Telegraph Department. The instructions contained in Public Works Department letter No. 309T., dated 13th June 1882, to the address of the Director General of Telegraphs are therefore cancelled.

II.—Connection between the companies exchanges and lines, and the Government system will be permitted under rules to be hereafter laid down, and on payment of a certain fee.

When such connections have been established the receipt and delivery at Telephone Exchanges of written messages for transmission over the Government wires will be permitted under rules hereafter to be laid down.

III.—Ultra-radial connections. Telephone Companies holding licenses for an exchange within certain defined limits may be permitted to connect with their exchange, isolated subscribers living beyond the limits defined subject to the payment of an extra royalty.

When connections are desired between towns each possessing a licensed exchange, the trunk line of communication will, in all cases, be erected, maintained, and owned by the Government Telegraph Department, and let to the Company at an annual rental.

But it must be understood that no Company has a right to claim the erection of a trunk line, and that the State is free to approve or decline in each individual case.

IV.—Royalties. The royalty fixed in the licenses to the Oriental Telephone Company is at the rate of 10 per cent. With a view to encouraging the development of telephone enterprise, Companies obtaining licenses in future under the conditions now laid down will be required to pay a royalty of 5 per cent., with an additional royalty of 1 per cent. on ultra-radial connections.

V.—Good-will. In all future licenses, it will be expressly stipulated in accordance with the English system, that, in case of purchase of the Company's property by the Government, nothing will be paid for the "good-will" of the business.

VI.—On points not specially dealt with above the licenses will be based on the form already adopted and in force.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for public information, and that a copy of it be forwarded to the Director General of Telegraphs for information and guidance.

An Act to make provision for the transfer of the Assets and Liabilities of the Provident Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund and other Funds to the Secretary of State for India in Council. [18th August 1882.]

WHEREAS an institution known as the Provident Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund (founded on the Bombay Civil Fund of earlier date) was established in Bombay under the authority given by the Court of Directors of the East India Company in a public despatch to the Governor in Council at Bombay, dated the thirty-first of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the said Provident Branch having a separate capital for making provision for such of the civil servants of the said company as should be obliged by ill-health to leave India either temporarily or permanently, and for the granting of annuities to the widows and children of its members and of portions for the children of members, and the said fund was supported by the subscriptions of the civil servants of the said company and by certain contributions from the said company:

And whereas in a Financial despatch to the Government of India, dated the twenty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, certain changes respecting the grant of annuities to widows were authorised by the Secretary of State for India in Council, and certain terms were stated on which the Secretary of State for India in Council was willing to take over the assets, liabilities, and management of the said institution:

And whereas in accordance with the instructions contained in the aforesaid despatch the Government of India caused the inquiry to be made, whether upon the terms offered by the Secretary of State for India in Council in the said despatch the subscribers to the said fund were willing to surrender the accumulated fund to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and the proposition so to make over the accumulated fund on the terms offered by the Secretary of State for India in Council was carried in the affirmative by the subscribers by a large majority of votes:

And whereas in order to avoid any doubt that may arise in regard to the legality of such transfer it is necessary to make provision by law for enabling the trustees of the said fund to transfer the assets and liabilities thereof to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and for enabling the Secretary of State for India in Council to accept the same:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Assets, &c., of Provident Branch of Bombay Civil Fund transferred to Secretary of State.

1. It shall be lawful for the trustees of the Provident Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund to transfer to the Secretary of State for India in Council the assets and liabilities of the fund, including any assets and liabilities to which the said trustees may have succeeded as representing the trustees of the earlier fund at Bombay, and for the Secretary of State for India in Council to accept the same.

Payments charged on said fund to be payable from revenues of India.

2. As soon as the assets and liabilities of the said fund, including as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and the acceptance thereof by the Secretary of State for India in Council notified by the Government of India, all existing liabilities of the said fund shall be deemed to be liabilities of the revenues of India, and all such liabilities may be enforced against the Secretary of State for India in Council in like manner as they might have been enforced against the trustees of the said fund if this Act had not been passed; and every civil servant, or widow or child of a civil servant, who shall at the date of such notification be an incumbent of an annuity from the said fund or from any earlier fund, the assets and liabilities of which shall have been transferred as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive from time to time the amount of such annuity from the revenues of India; and every civil servant, and every widow or child of a civil servant, who shall be a subscriber to the said fund, or shall be an incumbent annuitant of the said fund at or after the date of such notification, shall be entitled to the benefits to which they are entitled under the existing rules at the date of the passing of this Act, with the additional benefit in the case of widows of a pension of sixty pounds per annum, such additional benefit to take effect as from the first of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to preclude the Secretary of State for India in Council from assigning to the incumbents on and subscribers to the said fund, or to any such widow or child as aforesaid, any benefits in addition to those secured to them by this Act, if on considering the assets and liabilities of the said fund the Secretary of State for India in Council shall deem it reasonable so to do.

How notifications, &c., to be given.

3. All notifications or applications on the part of the subscribers to or beneficiaries under the said fund which are required or prescribed by the rules of the said fund as existing at the date of this Act shall be given and made in such manner and to such person or persons as the Secretary of State for India in Council shall from time to time appoint.

Powers of trustees of fund vested in Secretary of State.

4. From and after the passing of this Act there shall vest in the Secretary of State for India in Council all powers and authorities, discretionary or otherwise, which were prior to the date of this Act vested in the trustees of the said fund, or the subscribers thereto in general meeting: Provided always, that notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Secretary of State for India in Council shall, as far as may be practicable, conform to and adopt the practice heretofore followed in the management of the said fund.

Saving for subscribers' claims.

5. Provided that nothing in this Act shall prejudice any claim which may be made by any subscriber to or beneficiary under the said fund, or by the representatives of any such subscriber or beneficiary upon the funds so transferred, and in case any question shall arise between any such subscriber, or the representatives of any deceased subscriber, or the widow or a child of any such subscriber, or the representatives of any such widow or child on the one hand, and the Secretary of State for India in Council on the other, as to any liability or alleged liability of the said fund, such question shall be determined by Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in such manner as may be provided by any General Orders, or as the said Court may on special application think fit to prescribe, anything in the Statute of Limitations to the contrary notwithstanding.

Assets, &c., of Bengal and Madras Funds may be transferred to Secretary of State, after vote.

6. And whereas it may be expedient that the Secretary of State for India in Council should have authority in like manner to accept the transfer of the assets, liabilities, and management of other institutions, known as the Bengal Civil Fund and the Madras Civil Fund, with the consent of the subscribers to the said institutions respectively: It shall be lawful for the managers or trustees to make over the assets, liabilities, and management of both or either of the said funds, and for the Secretary of State for India in Council to take and assume the same upon such terms as the Secretary of State for India in Council may approve, if at any time hereafter it shall appear by a vote, specially taken for the purpose, that a majority of not less than three-fourths of the subscribers to those institutions who may vote upon the question are in favour of such transfer.

45 & 46 VICT. CHAPTER 79.

An Act to make provision for the arrangement of Accounts between the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Secretary of State in Council of India in respect of certain Home Charges for Her Majesty's Forces serving in India. [18th August 1882.]

WHEREAS certain home charges of Her Majesty's forces serving in India payable out of the revenues of India are defrayed in the first instance out of the Exchequer, and under an arrangement in force since the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy advances were from time to time made out of the revenues of India to the Exchequer by way of repayment of those charges, and the actual expenditure was to be subsequently ascertained and adjusted:

And whereas differences have been pending between the Secretary of State for the War Department and the Secretary of State in Council of India which prevented such adjustment, and in consequence the accounts of the said actual expenditure fell into arrear; so that while the claim on the part of the Exchequer for the period from the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy to the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven amounted to three million three hundred and two thousand two hundred and forty-six pounds eleven shillings and eight pence the total amount advanced by way of repayment to the Exchequer out of the revenues of India amounted only to two million eight hundred and ninety thousand pounds, and the balance claimed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as due to the Exchequer, but disputed in part by the Secretary of State in Council of India, amounted to four hundred and twelve thousand two hundred and forty-six pounds eleven shillings and eight pence, which balance was reduced by a subsequent settlement of twenty-one thousand six hundred and thirty-five pounds to a net claim of three hundred and ninety thousand six hundred and eleven pounds eleven shillings and eight pence as due to the Exchequer but in part disputed as before mentioned:

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a Minute dated the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, proposed as an arrangement of the said differences and accounts that the sums actually advanced out of the revenues of India to the Exchequer by way of repayment of the said charges during the years abovementioned should be taken in full discharge of all the claims of the Exchequer upon the revenues of India in respect of the aforesaid charges:

And whereas it is expedient to sanction the said arrangement:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the India (Home Charges Arrears) Act, 1882.

Sanction of arrangement of Treasury Minute of 2nd July, 1878.

2. The arrangement of the above-recited differences and accounts proposed in the said Minute of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, is hereby sanctioned.

46 & 47 VICT. CHAPTER 30.

An Act to authorise Companies registered under the Companies Act, 1862, to keep Local Registers of their Members in British Colonies. [20th August 1883.]

WHEREAS many companies registered under the Companies Act, 1862, carry on business in British colonies, and dealings in their shares are frequent in such colonies, but delay, inconvenience, and expense are occasioned by reason of the absence of any legal provision for keeping local registers of members, and it is expedient that such provisions as this Act contains be made in that behalf:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883; and this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, and the said Acts and this Act may be referred to as the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1883.

Definitions.

2. In this Act the term "company" means a company registered under the Companies Act, 1862, and having a capital divided into shares; the term "shares" includes stock; the term "colony" does not include any place within the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, but includes such territories as may for the time being be vested in Her Majesty by virtue of an Act of Parliament for the Government of India, and any plantation, territory, or settlement situate elsewhere within Her Majesty's dominions.

Power for companies to keep colonial registers.

3. (1) Any company whose objects comprise the transaction of business in a colony may, if authorised so to do by its regulations, as originally framed or as altered by special resolution, cause to be kept in any colony in which it transacts business a branch register or registers of members resident in such colony.

(2) The company shall give to the registrar of joint stock companies notice of the situation of the office where any such branch register (in this Act called a colonial register) is kept, and of any change therein, and of the discontinuance of any such office in the event of the same being discontinued.

(3) A colonial register shall, as regards the particulars entered therein, be deemed to be a part of the company's register of members, and shall be primâ facie evidence of all particulars entered therein. Any such register shall be kept in the manner provided by the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, with this qualification, that the advertisement mentioned in section thirty-three of the Companies Act, 1862, shall be inserted in some newspaper circulating in the district wherein the register to be closed is kept, and that any competent court in the colony where such register is kept shall be entitled to exercise the same jurisdiction of rectifying the same as is by section thirty-five of the Companies Act, 1862, vested, as respects a register, in England and Ireland in Her Majesty's superior courts of law or equity, and that all offences under section thirty-two of the Companies Act, 1862, may, as regards a colonial register, be prosecuted summarily before any tribunal in the colony where such register is kept having summary criminal jurisdiction.

25 & 26 Vict. c. 89.

(4) The company shall transmit to its registered office a copy of every entry in its colonial register or registers as soon as may be after such entry is made, and the company shall cause to be kept at its registered office, duly entered up from time to time, a duplicate or duplicates of its colonial register or registers. The provisions of section thirty-two of the Companies Act, 1862, shall apply to every such duplicate, and every such duplicate shall, for all the purposes of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, be deemed to be part of the register of members of the company.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the duplicate register, the shares registered in a colonial register shall be distinguished from the shares registered in the principal register, and no transaction with respect to any shares registered in a colonial register shall, during the continuance of the registration of such shares in such colonial register, be registered in any other register.

(6) The company may discontinue to keep any colonial register, and thereupon all entries in that register shall be transferred to some other colonial register kept by the company in the same colony, or to the register of members kept at the registered office of the company.

(7) In relation to stamp duties the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a) An instrument of transfer of a share registered in a colonial register under this Act shall be deemed to be a transfer of property situated out of the United Kingdom, and unless executed in any part of the United Kingdom shall be exempt from British stamp duty.

(b) Upon the death of a member registered in a colonial register under this Act, the share or other interest of the deceased member shall for the purposes of this Act so far as relates to British duties be deemed to be part of his estate and effects situated in the United Kingdom for or in respect of which probate or letters of administration is or are to be granted, or whereof an inventory is to be exhibited and recorded in like manner as if he were registered in the register of members kept at the registered office of the company.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any company may, by its regulations as originally framed, or as altered by special resolution, make such provisions as it may think fit respecting the keeping of colonial registers.

46 & 47 VICT. CHAPTER 58.

An Act to amend the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 and 1880, and extend the same to Her Majesty's Dominions out of the United Kingdom. [25th August 1883.]

43 & 44 Vict. c. 33.

WHEREAS by the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, it is provided that, subject to the Post Office regulations as defined by that Act, the Postmaster General, with the consent of the Treasury, may authorise his officers to issue orders in the form set forth in the schedule to that Act, subject to the proviso that the order shall be for one of the amounts therein named, and in respect thereof the poundage therein named shall be taken for the use of Her Majesty:

And whereas it is expedient to make such further provision respecting the same as hereinafter appears:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Alteration of form of orders.

1. Notwithstanding anything in the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, any of the orders issued in pursuance of that Act shall, in lieu of the form specified in that Act, be in the form set forth in the Schedule to this Act with such modifications as may be prescribed.

Alteration of amounts of orders.

2. An order issued in pursuance of the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, shall be for the prescribed amount not exceeding twenty shillings, and there shall be taken in respect thereof, for the use of Her Majesty, the prescribed poundage not exceeding two pence.

3. The Postmaster General may, if the post office regulations so provide, authorise any person holding office under the Crown to issue an order in pursuance of the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, and a person so authorised shall be deemed for the purpose of the issue and payment of such order, to be an officer of the Postmaster General and of the Post Office within the meaning of the said Act.

Extension of 43 & 44 Vict. c. 33, respecting money orders to British possessions.

4. (1) Whereas by reason of the form of the order issued under the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, and of the provisions of that Act authorising the issue thereof by officers of the Postmaster General only, doubts have arisen with respect to the application of the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, to orders issued in pursuance of arrangements made with the governments of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

Where an arrangement is made with the Government of any British possession for the transmission of small sums through the post offices of the United Kingdom and such British possession by means of money orders, of a like character to those issued under the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, as amended by this Act, the said Act, as amended by this Act, shall, so far as is consistent with the tenour thereof, and subject to the prescribed modifications, apply in like manner as if an order issued in pursuance of such arrangement, whether by an officer of the Post Office or of such British possession, was an order under the said Act, as amended by this Act, and such portions of the said Act as enact punishments shall apply accordingly.

Provided that—

(a) Any Post Office regulations in relation to any money orders issued in pursuance of any such arrangement as aforesaid may differ from the regulations respecting any other money orders; and

(b) Any money orders issued in pursuance of any such arrangement as aforesaid may be of such amount not exceeding the maximum amount in this Act mentioned and in such form and subject to such conditions respecting poundage, commission, the periods during which they are payable and other matters, as the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Postmaster General, may direct.

(2) In this section the expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, and the expression "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

Commencement of Act.

RESOLUTION,—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

Read—

Letter from the Mint Master, Calcutta, No. 858, dated 27th September 1883, forwarding the Administration Reports of the Mints at Calcutta and Bombay for the year 1882-83.

RESOLUTION.—The value of gold received in the Calcutta Mint from private persons during 1882-83 amounted to Rs. 1,88,216 against Rs. 2,30,390 in the previous year, thus showing a decrease of Rs. 42,174. The net imports of gold into India during the year amounted to Rs. 4,93,08,715, so that, as in former years, but a fraction of the large quantity of gold imported into the country found its way into the Mints. Silver amounting to Rs. 81,00,533 was received from private persons in the year under review. That received in 1881-82 was Rs. 61,11,750. The amount transferred for coinage from the Paper Currency Department was Rs. 88,58,710 against Rs. 55,60,066 in the previous year.

2. In the Bombay Mint the sum transferred by the Paper Currency Department for coinage in 1882-83 was Rs. 4,25,82,408 against Rs. 1,54,06,664 in 1881-82. Uncurrent coin to the value of Rs. 23,14,549 was received against Rs. 19,71,168 in the previous year. Old Portuguese coin, amounting to Rs. 8,61,564, was also received at that Mint for recoinage, the amount so received in 1881-82 having been Rs. 9,97,034. The total coinage of gold, silver, and copper at each Mint is shown separately for the last four years in the following table:—

	Calcutta.				Bombay.

4. Gold was coined in the Calcutta Mint to the value of Rs. 1,74,945 against Rs. 3,39,705 in 1881-82. The increase in the coinage in 1881-82 is attributed by the Mint Master to a larger influx of gold and to a desire to increase the balance in the Bank, in order to avoid the necessity of further coinage until after repairs to the Mint could be effected. In the Bombay Mint 1,050 medallions were struck for the Travancore Government (350 of the value of sovereigns and 700 of half sovereigns), but the value was not brought to account in the year under review, as the amount of the bill was paid by the State during the current official year. No gold was coined either in 1880-81 or 1881-82.

5. The coinage of silver at both Mints during 1882-83 largely exceeded that of the previous year, amounting in value to Rs. 6,50,84,570 against Rs. 2,18,62,752 in 1881-82. The Calcutta Mint struck a larger number of coins than the Mint at Bombay, but the value of the total coinage in Bombay was greater, more rupees having been coined than at Calcutta. The increased coinage of silver is due chiefly to short sales of bills by the Secretary of State during a portion of the year. As bills were not offered for sale below a certain rate, it was found more profitable to import silver than to buy bills.

6. The copper coinage of the Calcutta Mint amounted to Rs. 8,62,580 against Rs. 2,14,214 at Bombay. The coinage in Bombay includes Rs. 8,10,561 and Rs. 4,941 worth of silver and copper coins struck for the Portuguese Government. The copper coins were struck in 1881-82, but issued to the copper coin depôt during the year under review.

7. The net imports of silver and the coinage in each year from 1872-73 are—

	Net imports. Lakhs.	Coinage. Lakhs.
1872-73	72	398
1873-74	249	237
1874-75	464	490
1875-76	155	255
1876-77	720	627
1877-78	1,468	1,618
1878-79	397	721
1879-80	787	1,025
1880-81	389	425
1881-82	538	219
1882-83	748	651

8. Besides imported silver, bullion in the form of native coin and ornaments was received for coinage in the Bombay Mint as follows—

	Native silver ornaments. Lakhs.	Native coin. Lakhs.
1877-78	124	...
1878-79	116	67
1879-80	92	45
1880-81	10	25½
1881-82	4	1
1882-83	½	15½

The native coins tendered in 1882-83 were more by 14½ lakhs than in the previous year.

9. The operative losses during the year 1881-82 and 1882-83 were respectively,—in Calcutta Rs. 61,103 and 1,05,258, and in Bombay Rs. 36,908 and 94,289. These sums include losses on account of the withdrawal of old coins to the extent of Rs. 48,883 and 68,455 in the Calcutta Mint, and Rs.15,184 and 29,694 in the Bombay Mint.

10. The proportion of loss in the melting of silver in Calcutta during 1882-83 is stated to be Rs. 40·9 per lakh of tolahs against Rs. 39·8 in Bombay. The loss in both Mints is slightly in excess of that for the year 1881-82.

11. The proportion of loss in the coining of silver in the number of pieces of coins coined at Calcutta during 1882-83 was Rs. 44·1 per lakh against Rs. 53·3 at Bombay. If calculated on the value of the coinage for the year, the rate per lakh would be for Calcutta Rs. 99·2, while at Bombay the proportion is taken, after making certain adjustments, at Rs. 61·2.

12. In accordance with instructions conveyed in the Resolution in this Department, No. 401, dated 22nd January 1883, the charge for interest on capital sunk in the Mints has been reduced from 4½ to 4 per cent., and interest has been calculated on the average balance of silver actually locked up in the Mints and not available for other purposes during the year, whether such silver is held on behalf of the General Treasury or of the Paper Currency Department.

13. The total revenue of each of the Mints and the total charges to be made against them from 1878-79 to 1882-83, according to the new classification, are shown below:—

	Revenue.		Expenditure.
	Calcutta.	Bombay.	Calcutta.	Bombay.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1878-79 . . .	5,41,985	11,59,614	11,42,489	9,80,356
1879-80 . . .	5,17,277	18,51,834	10,60,646	11,06,806
1880-81 . . .	2,32,366	6,41,704	8,61,901	7,74,325
1881-82 . . .	2,11,295	3,83,528	8,90,413	6,45,716
1882-83 . . .	2,70,213	11,57,658	10,51,988	9,42,708
TOTAL .	17,73,136	51,94,338	50,07,437	44,49,911

The total revenue of both Mints during the last five years has been Rs. 69,67,474, and the total charges Rs. 94,57,348, showing a total loss for this period of Rs. 24,89,874, or an average annual loss of Rs. 4,97,975. The chief item under receipts is the seignorage duty of 2 per cent. on silver coined.

14. The expenditure on account of salaries and establishments in the two Mints was as follows:—

	Calcutta.		Bombay.
	1881-82.	1882-83.	1881-82.	1882-83.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Fixed establishment .	2,13,319	2,19,700	2,10,577	2,21,041
Extra establishment .	47,955	67,632	17,295	48,607
Total .	2,61,274	2,87,332	2,27,872	2,69,648

The increase in 1882-83 over 1881-82 is mainly due to additional establishments required on account of heavier coinage.

The expenditure on stores was Rs. 54,931 and 63,594 in the Calcutta Mint, and Rs. 45,574 and 87,650 in Bombay. The increase in the two Mints during the year under review is due to larger coinage. The increase of expenditure in the Bombay Mint over that in Calcutta is on account of heavier silver coinage.

15. The capital expenditure in 1882-83 amounted to Rs. 4,673 in the Calcutta Mint against Rs. 9,408 in Bombay.

The total at debit of the Capital Accounts to end of 1882-83 was Rs. 74,08,988 in Calcutta against Rs. 34,24,238 in Bombay. A sum of Rs. 18,67,865 has been added in the year under review on account of a revised and more accurate valuation of land, buildings, and plant of the Calcutta Mint.

16. The saving effected in the Bombay Mint by the adoption of the electro-plating process was Rs. 3,553 against Rs. 2,378 in 1881-82.

17. In the Bombay accounts a sum of Rs. 1,34,223 is shown as gain on copper coinage. Such gain is taken credit for in the accounts of Government only as the coin passes from the Mint and Depôts into actual circulation; and its amount depends upon many other circumstances besides the quantity of coin manufactured at the Mints. It is in fact not specifically separable between the two Mints, and the entry in the Bombay Mint accounts appears to arise merely from the fact that that Mint has not adopted the same method of stating its figures as is adopted in the Calcutta Mint and in the accounts of Government. The attention of the Comptroller General is directed to the point, and he is requested to report the gain on copper coinage for each of the past few years, and to report it in future years in time for inclusion in the annual Resolution on the reports of the Mints.

ORDERED, that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and communicated to the Mint Masters, Calcutta and Bombay, and, with special reference to paragraph 11 to the Comptroller General.

RESOLUTION,—By the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

READ again the following Proceedings recorded in this Department on the subject of the best means of obtaining early information regarding the monthly receipts and disbursements at the Civil Treasuries in India, in anticipation of the audited and final accounts :—

Account Proceedings, July 1881, Nos. 1152—1161.
" " November 1881, Nos. 2007—17.

RESOLUTION.—In July 1880 the Secretary of State appointed a Committee to enquire into the system of military account and estimate in India, to ascertain the relations between the Military Account Department and the Comptroller General, and to report whether any defects existed in the system, and the best mode of remedying those defects. This Committee, among other conclusions, decided that for purposes of current finance it was necessary to establish a system by which the Government of India should be informed of the receipts and issues of the Civil Treasuries of the country at a much earlier period than that at which the accounts of audited expenditure could under any circumstances be rendered. In accordance with this decision, the Comptroller General was directed to report to the Department of Finance and Commerce on the 9th of each month the receipts into, and issues from, Civil Treasuries in the preceding month under certain heads; and he was also directed to publish the information in the Gazette of India, in order to give the public an approximate idea of the extent to which, as the year goes on, the estimates of revenue and expenditure were being realised. It is not known that the published statements have attracted much attention up to the present time, and as this result may be due to the fact that the account as published is not in such form and detail as to be readily intelligible to the public, the Governor General in Council has now decided to postpone the publication of this information from the 9th to the 16th of the month following that to which the figures relate, because on the latter date the distribution of the revenue under each of the eleven principal heads is known, and the expenditure under Interest on Ordinary Debt and that charged on Productive Public Works, Opium, and Exchange is ascertained and can be supplied. The form has also been simplified with a view to public convenience.

A copy of the revised form is appended, and an explanatory memorandum of the figures is added.

ORDERED, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Comptroller General, with the request that, commencing with the preliminary accounts for November 1883, the revised form may be adopted, and copies regularly supplied to the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce. The statement will henceforth be published in Part I of the Gazette of India under the signature of the Secretary to Government, instead of in Part II as heretofore.

Ordered also, that the foregoing Resolution, and the revised form of account, with explanations, be published in the Gazette of India for general information; and also that copies be forwarded to the Press Commissioner for communication to the Public Press.

Explanatory Memorandum.

The receipts in India of the Government of India are as a rule paid into the Civil Treasuries and Presidency Banks, and all outgoings of the Government are disbursed from the same Treasuries and Banks. It is only in the case of a few Departments, and with regard to receipts of no great magnitude, that a Department is allowed to appropriate receipts before they have reached the Treasury and to devote them to meeting the obligations of Government.

2. But a simple account of the receipts and disbursements of the various Civil Treasuries does not correspond, with even the slightest approach to accuracy, to the Revenue and Expenditure account of the Government of India. This is due to the fact that the transactions at the Treasuries include Debt, Deposit, Advance and Remittance transactions, as well as Revenue and Expenditure. Thus, among the receipts and disbursements of the Civil Treasuries are necessarily shown such transactions as those on account of the Public Debt, Judicial, Departmental and Savings Bank Deposits, Money Orders, Remittances, &c.

3. Although the receipts and issues at the Civil Treasuries do not represent even approximately the Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of India, it is manifest that they must always stand in a certain relation to the Revenue and Expenditure, and that the transactions at the Civil Treasuries are the outcome of the receipts of Revenue and disbursements of Expenditure coupled with the Debt and Remittance transactions of the Government of India.

Moreover, it is possible as regards certain heads of Revenue and Expenditure to distinguish at the Treasury between transactions dealing with Revenue or Expenditure and receipts and disbursements which merely represent Debt or Remittance transactions.

It is possible, for instance, to draw this distinction in the case of Land Revenue, Opium, Salt, &c., and generally as regards branches of what is technically called the Civil Department, namely, those branches of the Administration which do not appertain to Departments having a separate organisation for purposes of account and audit. Thus the receipts in connection with the Land Revenue are known to be Revenue, and the disbursements in connection with it are known to be Expenditure; but the receipts from, and issues to, the Post Office deal, for example, with money on account of Money Orders and Savings Banks and cannot be taken as Revenue and Expenditure. The same holds good in the case of the Marine Department, the Public Works Department, the Forest Department (other than in Bombay and Madras), and the Military Department.

4. It is therefore possible to prepare at the Treasuries a monthly account which will show—

(1) the Revenue and Expenditure under certain heads;
(2) the receipts from, and issues to, certain Departments which have a separate system of audit and account.

The Preliminary Statement of Receipts and Payments at Treasuries in India to which this memorandum is attached has been prepared on this principle.

The Revenue, as distinguished from the receipts, under certain heads, which are called Civil Heads, is shown separately, and in the same way the expenditure under certain heads, which are called Heads of Civil Expenditure, is also separately shown.

In the case of the Departments referred to in the preceding portion of this memorandum, which have a separate organisation for purposes of account and audit, the receipts and issues at the Treasuries are shown without any attempt being made to discriminate between Revenue and Expenditure on the one hand and Debt and Remittance transactions on the other.

In the case of the Post Office, the Forest, Telegraph, and Marine Departments, and of the Guaranteed and Subsidized Railways, a net figure is given, i.e., the figure entered in the account is the difference between the receipts and the issues. In the case of the Military Department and the Public Works Department, the transactions of which are heavy, both receipts and issues are given.

In a separate section are shown the Civil Debt and Remittance transactions, namely, the Debt and Remittance transactions not included in the transactions of the Departments for which receipts and issues are shown.

The account necessarily works from the opening to the closing balance of the Treasuries and Banks concerned.

5. An explanation will now be given in detail of the figures included in the four sections of the account. These sections are—

I.—Civil Revenue.
II.—Civil Expenditure.
III.—Receipts into and issues from the Civil Treasuries in the case of Departments which audit and make up their own accounts.
IV.—Debt and remittance transactions other than those of the Departments referred to under III.

6. Civil Revenue.—The figures under the heads Land Revenue, Opium, Salt, Stamps, Excise, Provincial Rates, Customs, Assessed Taxes, Registration, and Tributes represent the entire revenue received in India under those heads. The figures against Forest represent the realisations in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies only, together with some very small "Local" transactions in the India section of the accounts. The following table shows the several heads which are included under the head "Other Civil Revenue," and the extent to which the actual Revenue under these heads is shown.

Other Civil Revenue, viz.:—

XII.—Post Office	(Local only.)	XXI.—Interest	(The whole.)

XVIII.—Education	(The whole.)
XIX.—Medical	"
XX.—Scientific and other Minor Departments	"	XXXV.—Civil Buildings, Roads and Services.	(The portion in charge of Civil Officers.)

In cases in which only a portion of the revenue under any head is shown under "Civil Revenue," the balance appears under the appropriate head in "Receipts into Civil Treasuries from, and issues from those Treasuries to, Non-Civil Departments.

7. Civil Expenditure.—Under Interest on Ordinary Debt and that charged on Productive Public Works, and under Opium, and Exchange is shown the whole expenditure brought to account in India under these heads; nearly the whole of the net exchange figure represents exchange on Secretary of State's bills drawn. The annexed table gives details of the combined head, Other Civil Expenditure, and shows the portion of expenditure taken directly under each head. As in the case of Other Civil Revenue, any portion of the expenditure under the Heads included in Other Civil Expenditure which is not shown under Other Civil Expenditure appears under "Receipts into Civil Treasuries from, and issues from those Treasuries to, Non-Civil Departments."

8. Receipts into Civil Treasuries, &c.—These figures simply represent Treasury receipts from, and issues to, the several Non-Civil Departments on all the accounts on which they pay in, and draw out, money. In other words, the figures comprise Revenue and Expenditure proper, and Debt and Remittance transactions. It is only when the accounts are made up, by the several Non-Civil Departments having dealings with the Civil Treasuries, i.e., between three and four months after occurrence of the transactions, that it can be stated how much of the receipts and issues represents Revenue and Expenditure. For information on this point, the final account of each month published in the Gazette of India must be referred to.

9. Civil Debt and Remittance transactions.—The collective head "Other Debt Heads Nett" comprises the following :—

1. Temporary Loans.
2. Special Loans.
3. Treasury Notes.
4. Deposits of Service Funds.
5. Savings Bank Deposits.
6. Balances of Provincial Savings.

22. Local Bills.
23. Foreign Bills.
24. Foreign Remittances.
25. Accounts between Civil and Civil.
26. Remittance Account between England and India, excluding Council Bills.

10. Finally, the figures shown in the present account as the Budget of 1883-84 and Accounts of 1882-83 represent the Estimates and Accounts of payments into, and issues from, Civil Treasuries, and are not the Estimates and Accounts attached to the Budget Statement as Estimates and Accounts of Revenue and Expenditure only, including transactions both in India and in England. As already explained, the figures in some cases represent Revenue and Expenditure, while in other cases they represent Revenue and Expenditure combined with Debt and Remittance transactions.
