Read the following papers:—

No. 11. From E. J. SINKINSON, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, 19th June 1878, No. 980.

In reply to your letter, No. 126, dated 2nd May 1878, received in the Home Department, I am desirous to convey the sanction of the Government of India to the grant of a lump assignment of Rupees 100 a month, with effect from the beginning of the official year 1878-79, for the establishment of St. Andrew's Church, Madras, effecting thereby a saving of Rupees 30-8-0 a month. Before approving of the proposed revised scale of establishments for the Presbyterian Churches at Bangalore and Secunderabad, I am to request that you will be good enough to state whether these Churches satisfy the conditions of "First-class Military Churches." It is noticed that the revised scale proceeds on the assumption that they do.

No. 12. From the Rev. A. WALKER, Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 10th July 1878.

With reference to the letter from the Government of India, dated 19th June 1878 (herewith returned), and forwarded to me for report, I have the honor to state that the Scotch Church at Bangalore is seated for five hundred; it is the property of Government, and it is situated in a Military Station, thus satisfying all the conditions of a first-class Church.

2. With regard to Secunderabad, the Chaplain conducts divine service in the morning at Trimulghery in a Chapel School seated for about three hundred, and in the evening at Secunderabad in St. Andrew's Church, which was enlarged at the joint expense of the Government and the Church of Scotland (see G.O., 21st March 1873, No. 61, and G.O., 26th January 1874, No. 18,) on the condition that Presbyterian troops should have the use of it, the Government thus saving Rupees (30) thirty a month, the sum formerly paid for the use of the public rooms for Divine Service. The Church is seated for about two hundred. At present the members of the Church of Scotland at Secunderabad and Trimulgherry, including women and children, amount to between four and five hundred, almost all Military. With the sanction of the Comptroller-General's Department (3rd November 1877, No. 4795,) the Chaplain now draws from the Hyderabad Treasury for a first-class Church Establishment Rupees (47) forty-seven a month; and, considering that the actual expenses connected with his two Churches amount to upwards of Rupees (100) one hundred a month, I trust the Government will be pleased to sanction the continuance of the amount now drawn.

No. 13. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Ootacamund, 16th July 1878, No. 183.

With reference to your letter, dated the 19th June 1878, No. 980, I am directed to forward copy of a report* from the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland in this Presidency, from which it will be seen that the Presbyterian Churches at Bangalore and Secunderabad fulfil the conditions of first-class Military Churches, and to request that the scale of establishments proposed for these Churches may receive the sanction of the Government of India.

* Dated 10th July 1878.
