CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL, MADRAS,
26th March 1879.

(Signed) S. FENNELLY.

No. 15. From the Rev. W. A. LISTON, Acting Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 31st March 1879.

I have the honor to forward the return of Presbyterian servants of the Queen at the Chaplaincies of Madras, Bangalore, Secunderabad, and out-stations. In doing so I have to state that the return from Bangalore, though called for, has not yet been received at this office. In order, however, to prevent further delay in forwarding the return, I have given the number of military servants of the Queen at Bangalore as they are shown in the year 1877; and, though perhaps varying more or less from the number of Presbyterians now present at that station, I believe the figures given for Bangalore may be accepted as fairly correct. I have again urged on the Chaplain to send in the return as soon as possible, and, when received, I will forward it immediately to you.

No. 16. From the Rev. W. A. LISTON, Acting Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 2nd April 1879.

In continuation of my letter of the 31st ultimo, I have now the honor to forward you a correct return of the Presbyterian servants of the Queen in the Madras Presidency. In doing so, however, I may be allowed to observe that the number of Presbyterian troops now at Madras and Bangalore do not come near to the usual average as one of the regiments from each of these stations is absent on field service, and the number of Presbyterians returned from Madras and Bangalore is therefore much smaller than it would be on ordinary occasions.
