Ref on No 21
South of 1895

From,

Herbert Bradley Esquire, Collector of Coimbatore,

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Ecclesiastical Department,
Madras,

Sir,

In reply to your reminder, dated January 25, 1895, referring to memo, No 2361, dated November 28th, 1894, I have the honor to state that the list of European tombs in this district is not yet complete.
During the course of my tours I have already found two small outlying cemeteries omitted from the list as originally prepared and I now find that the Wesleyan and Roman Catholic cemeteries in Coimbatore are also omitted. The list originally prepared was sent up before I joined the district and was returned for correction of the typographical errors.

errors. It did not occur to me that any cemeteries were likely to be omitted entirely from it until quite recently, when I came to examine it more carefully with the result just stated.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
