GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Most Reverend Archbishop J. COLGAN, D.D., to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 10th February 1896.

As I am, in fulfilment of my obligations as a Catholic Bishop, obliged to proceed to Rome and will be absent from Madras from the 1st of March till the end of September 1896, my duties in reference to the spiritual and temporal charge of the Archdiocese of Madras will devolve on the Right Reverend Theophilus Mayer. I have, therefore, the honour to request that the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council will be pleased to allow the duty of furnishing returns of sacred offices and all other duties now performed by me in connection with Government to be carried on by the Right Reverend T. Mayer, and that he may, with the sanction of Government, draw from the 1st of March till the end of September next the allowance of Rs. 500 a month paid to me and also the Chaplaincy allowance for ministering to the Catholic soldiers in the garrison of Fort St. George, as is now drawn on my receipt. The arrangement which I now propose, and for which I solicit the sanction of Government, was in similar circumstances sanctioned by Government on the 9th May 1867, on the 19th October 1869, and on the 13th January 1875.

ORDER—No. 7, Ecclesiastical, dated 17th February 1896.

His Excellency the Governor in Council approves of and sanctions the arrangements proposed by the Most Reverend Dr. Colgan as regards the duty of furnishing returns of sacred offices and all other duties now performed by him in connection with this Government, but the question connected with the allowance for ministering to the Roman Catholic soldiers in the garrison of Fort St. George will be remitted to the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces for disposal.
