GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From C. H. A. HILL, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 6th May 1896, No. 149.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letters marginally noted, and to say that it has been observed that the list of tombs and monuments in the Madras Presidency, possessing historical or archaeological interest, which was

No. 14, dated 16th Feb. 1895.
" 34 " 21st May "
" 62 " 7th Sept. "
received with your communication, dated 16th February 1895, does not contain any information regarding the monument in St. George's Cathedral, Madras, to the memory of Bishop Heber. The Governor-General in Council considers that this monument is deserving of notice, notwithstanding the fact that the list contains an entry relating to the tomb in St. John's Church at Trichinopoly in which the remains of the bishop were interred. I am therefore to request that, with the permission of the Governor in Council, the necessary particulars of the monument referred to may be furnished for inclusion in the list.

2. I am to take the opportunity of stating that the Government of India also propose to print and publish, in a separate volume, lists of the statues, monuments and busts which have been erected in public places in the three Presidency towns in honour of distinguished servants of the State, both Civil and Military. I am accordingly to ask that, with the permission of His Excellency in Council, a list of such monuments in the town of Madras may be prepared and forwarded.

ORDER—No. 37, Ecclesiastical, dated 30th June 1896.

The Collector of Madras will, in communication with the Public Works Department, the President, Municipal Commission, the Commissioner of Police and the various Ecclesiastical authorities concerned, arrange for the complete and careful re-examination and verification of the lists * of tombs and monuments in the Madras City already compiled, and for the early submission of revised copies to Government for transmission to the Government of India.

* (i) Tombs and monuments possessing historical and archaeological interest (throughout the Presidency).
(ii) Tombs and monuments of Europeans, &c., in the town of Madras.

2. He will also prepare a separate list of statues, monuments and busts erected in public places in honour of distinguished servants of the State, as required by the Government of India, embodying therein all the information available with regard to them and in every case giving a transcript of any inscription appearing thereon.

The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry, D.D., of St. Catherine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years, first as Chaplain in the H. E. I. C. S. and Archdeacon of Calcutta and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work in the 66th year of his age and the 12th of his Episcopate. Bishop of Madras. "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me and I unto the world." With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honorable East India Company and from them he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See. By the grace of the Holy Ghost his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of Missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten His kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras. ...	Sacred to the memory of William Griffith, Esq., F.L.S., Madras Medical Service, born at Ilam in the county of Surrey, March 1810. He had attained to the highest eminence in the scientific world and was one of the most distinguished botanists of the age. He acquired his knowledge by personal investigation in the different provinces of British India, and in the neighbouring kingdoms from the banks of the Helmund and Oxus to the Straits of Malacca, where in the capacity of Civil Assistant Surgeon he died in the 35th year of his age and the 13th year of his public service in India. His early death is deeply deplored by numerous private friends and his loss to the cause of science elicited a public and emphatic expression of regret from the Governor-General of India. This tablet is erected as an humble tribute to his memory by a few of his medical brethren of the medical service—(9th February 1845)	...
...	Sacred to the memory of Major George Broadfoot, C.B., 34th Madras Light Infantry of Kirkwall, in the Orkneys and of London. His valour, foresight and science, mainly contributed to the success of the glorious defences of Jellalabad, and in the ensuing Afghan Campaign, he with his brave corps of Mountain Sappers acquired enduring renown. His diplomatic and military services as Commissioner of the Tennesseim Provinces and as Governor-General's Agent on the North-West frontier at a most important crisis of our Indian Empire, called forth the eloquent eulogy of Sir H. Hardinge, that he was as brave "as he was able and second to none in all the great qualities of an accomplished officer." He fell at the battle of Feroeshar in his 39th year, acting as Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General. "Though severely wounded, he continued heroically to lead and animate the troops in the assault until mortally wounded in the Sikh Camp at the moment of victory," the last of three brothers who died for their country on the battle-fields of Asia—Raised by public subscription throughout the Presidency of Madras—(21st December 1845).	...
...	Sacred to the memory of Major-General Sir Robert Henry Dick, K.C.B., K.C.H., of Tullymet. N.B.—One of the heroes of the Peninsular War, who, after distinguished services in Her Majesty's 42nd Regiment, Royal Highlanders, which regiment he brought out of action at Quatre Bras, closed a long and brilliant military career on the memorable field of Sobraon. Raised in grateful admiration by the public of the Presidency of Madras, where, for some time, he held the Chief Military Command—(10th February 1846).	...
...	Sacred to the memory of Henry Valentine Conolly, Esq., of the Madras Civil Service, Collector and Magistrate of Malabar and Provisional Member of Council, who, after nearly 12 years, devoted to the improvement of the province committed to his charge fell by the hands of a band of fanatics on the 11th September 1855, aged 49 years. .....	"In memoriam" ...	A granite slab with a cross and the inscription "In memoriam" was placed, by order of the Government of Madras, over a grave and lead-encased coffin which were discovered while digging the grave for the late Lord Hobart in the church. It is supposed to be the coffin with the mortal remains of the late Lord Pigot, Governor of Madras, who died while a prisoner in the hands of his Council. As no plate or any inscription was found on the coffin, the slab referred to was placed to mark the spot.

Beneath are laid the mortal remains of Sir Samuel Hood. Near this place are laid the remains of Vice-Admiral Sir Samuel Hood, Knight of the Bath and Commander-in-Chief of Her Britannic Majesty's Ships in the East Indies, an officer of distinguished merit, whose great public services will live for ever in the annals of his country, but in the affectionate memory of his friends were lost in the recollection of his private virtues.

Here are deposited the remains of General Sir Alexander Campbell, Bart and K.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of the Madras Army. Died 11th December 1824, aged 64 years. Also of Olympia, his first wife, daughter of Sir John Morehead, Bart., of Trennent Park, Cornwall, who died 24th December 1794, aged 38 years.

Near this stone are deposited the remains of Major-General Sir Thomas Munro, Bart, K.C.B., Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George, who, after 47 years of distinguished civil and military services, seven of which he passed at the head of that Government under which he first served as a Cadet, was suddenly called from his labours on the 6th of July 1827 at "a moment" "when," in the language of the Honorable Court of Directors, "he was on the point of returning to his native land in the enjoyment of well-earned honours from his sovereign and from the Company, having recently manifested a new proof of his zeal and devotion in retaining charge of the Government of Madras after he had intimated his wish to retire therefrom and at a period when the political state of India rendered the discharge of the duties of that high and honorable station 'peculiarly arduous and important.'" Aetat 65. Sir Thomas Munro was from the earliest period of his career remarkable amongst other men. All those who were associated with him at the commencement of his service, many of whom have since become illustrious in the annals of India and of their country, yielded to him with common consent that pre-eminence which belonged to the ascendancy of his character. The resources of his mind rose superior to every emergency of civil government or military enterprise and he united to these great qualities an unpretending modesty (that exalted sign of innate worth) which courted no applause and which would have obstructed his advancement had not his transcendent merits in the cabinet and in the field forced him into public notice and elevated him to the highest office of this Presidency.

1818	14th March. Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Major T. F. de Havilland of Engineers, and daughter of T. de Sanomarez of Guernesey, Esq., Attorney General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind, was an ornament to society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of events bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the inscrutable ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.
1819	31st August. Johannes Mousley Hujus Ecclesie Archidiaconus Primus, aged 48.
1820	8th October. Richard Yeldham , Esq., late Treasurer and Secretary to the Government Bank, aged 68 years. This monument was erected by his friends in India as a last tribute of their affectionate regard.
1821	— May. The remains of Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel Dalrymple , C.B., of the Madras Artillery, are interred here. The memorial of his worth is inscribed on a cenotaph erected by his brother officers at the Artillery Cantonment at St. Thomas' Mount, in testimony of their sense of his public services and private virtues.
1821	30th August. The Hon'ble Sir George Cooper , Kt., Senior Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, aged 44 years.
1821	19th November. Sir Samuel Toller , Kt., late Advocate-General of this Presidency, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by his disconsolate family with many tears.
1822	10th August. Henry Harris , M.D., First Member of the Medical Board, who was taken from this life in the 54th year of his age. His superior abilities, his almost unequalled skill, and extreme kindness and humanity in his professional capacity are too well known to need any eulogium here. This humble tribute is erected by his afflicted wife who can never cease to lament the irreparable loss herself and children have sustained or to remember his many virtues and good qualities and whose greatest consolation is the hope of being re-united in another and better world.
1824	24th May. Catherine, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Miles , of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, C.B., K.T.S., daughter and co-heiress of the Ven. Dr. Falconer, Dean of Litchfield, aged 44 years.
1824	31st May. Sir Willingham Franklin , Kt., one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras and formerly fellow of Oriel College, Oxford, aged 44 years.
1827	16th July. Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble , C.B., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras Establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.
1827 and 1849.	21st August. Lieutenant-Colonel William Read , Deputy Quartermaster-General of the King's Troops, Madras, aged 45 years. Here also are deposited the mortal remains of his daughter Elizabeth Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of Brigadier-General S. W. Steel , C.B., Commanding the Ceded Districts Division of the Madras Army, who died of spasmodic cholera at Palsamoodrum on the route to Bellary on 15th February 1849, aged 41. Her remains having been brought to Madras were buried in this her father's grave on 10th April 1849. Truly amiable and affectionate in all the relations of life, she was a thorough Christian in faith and practice, admired and respected by all to whom she was known, and adored by her dependents. She was the pride of her devoted husband's heart, the ornament of his home, and the light of his life. "O Lord Omnipotent — All Beneficent—All Wise Inscrutable—Thy will be done."

1828	2nd July. Ebenezer Brown , M.D., Inspector of Hospitals and Principal Medical Officer of the King's Troops in the Madras Presidency—erected by the officers of the Department.
1828	29th September. Harriet, wife of J. Dalmahoy , Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tomb stone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body reposes here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.
1830	9th October. Henry Byrne , Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Master of the Supreme Court at Madras.
1833	10th October. John Monckton Coombs , Lieutenant-Colonel of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who after an honourable career of 33 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, but on the general staff and confidentially under General McDowell, Commander-in-Chief, and the Honourable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales Island, was mortally wounded at the cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from Ball practice with his brigade by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal.
1835	15th May. Sir Andrew McDowell , K.C.B., late Major-General in the Honourable Company's Service on the Madras Establishment, aged 72 years.
1835	21st May. Major Henry White , of the 7th Regiment, Native Infantry, and Deputy Military Secretary to Government, aged 45 years.
1836	3rd December. Major-General Sir George Elder , K.C.B., who after a long career of distinguished service as a soldier in various parts of the world, lost his life by accident at Madras, aged 57 years.
1836	21st December. Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Corrie , First Bishop of Madras; she was married to him while Chaplain at Agra, 16th November 1812; she departed in the Lord on ———. Aged 47 years. "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in their death they were not divided."
1837	5th February. The Right Reverend Father in Christ, Daniel Corrie , LL.D., First Bishop of Madras, formerly Archdeacon of Calcutta and Chaplain on the Bengal establishment. He entered on the work of the ministry in India, 21st September 1806, on his Episcopal duties in this Diocese, 28th October 1835, and followed his beloved wife to his eternal rest. Aged 59 years. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, yea saith the spirit that they may rest from their labours and their works do follow them."
1837	1st November. Major Henry Peach , Keighly, Idlicot, in Warwickshire, Judge Advocate-General of the Madras Army, aged 45 years.
1839	2nd March. James Henry Frith , Lieutenant-Colonel in the Madras Artillery and Companion of the Order of the Bath, aged 52 years. This monument is erected by his only child and her husband in grateful and affectionate regard to his memory and many virtues.
1839	20th July. Ashmead William Pruen , Esq., late Coroner of Madras, aged 24 years. He was destined for the medical profession, but his health gave way under the prosecution of his studies in London and Paris and compelled him to seek a warmer climate. The change, however, was ineffectual and he expired about two years after his arrival in this country, in which he had lived long enough to gain the goodwill, esteem and affection of all who knew him.

1841	2nd February. Kenneth Macaulay , Esq., First Member of the Madras Medical Board, who, after nearly 40 years' service in India, departed this life, aged 61.
1841	17th December. James Cuddy , Esq., First Member of the Medical Board, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by few of his more intimate friends in testimony of the high estimation in which his public character as a Medical officer and his private worth as a member of society, were held during a protracted service of nearly 37 years in India.
1844	26th September. Thomas Moore Lane , Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to Honourable East India Company on the Medical establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawab and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale , Kt. and C.B., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honourable labours. Aged 47 years. This tomb is erected as a memorial of affection by his disconsolate widow and children.
1847	26th April. Thomas Green , Esq., A.B., late of Catherine Hall, Cambridge, and Headmaster of the Native Education Society School, Madras, aged 31 years. "O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."
1849	7th August. Mary Louisa Duff , who died at Hoonsoor, aged 1 year 4 months and 13 days.
1852	24th July. Leonard Cooper , Esq., Solicitor and late Sheriff of Madras, aged 46 years 4 months and 14 days. "Blessed are the pure in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." This tomb is erected as a tribute of deep affection by his afflicted widow and children.
1852	19th November. Francisco Marques DeSouza Lisboa , second son of the Chevalier Joze Marques Lisboa, ex Envoy-Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil to Her Britannic Majesty and of Dona Johanna Marques DeSouza Lisboa . He was born at Brussels on 21st September 1834. Belonged to the Imperial Navy of Brazil and was admitted as a Midshipman into the Royal Navy of England where he served with honour and distinction from the 1st June 1848 until his death.
1853	20th June. Charles George Duff , who died at Hoonsoor, aged 4 years 2 months and 14 days.
1859	5th March. The Right Rev. Thomas Dealtry , D.D., of St. Catharine's Hall, Cambridge, third Bishop of Madras. Having laboured in India with singular fidelity and unsparing devotion for more than 30 years first as Chaplain in the H.E.C.S. and Archdeacon of Calcutta, and subsequently as Bishop of the Diocese, he entered into rest in the midst of his work, in the 66th year of his age, and the twelfth of his Episcopate. "Preaching Peace by Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all."—Acts x., 36.
1859	7th June. Sarah, the much loved wife of Lieutenant-Colonel W. G. Woods , 6th Light Cavalry, Adjutant-General of the Army. "Alive unto God through Jesus Christ." She fell asleep in Him at Madras. Aged 42.
1862	13th February. Anne Drummond Murray Duff , who died at Edinburgh, aged 5 years 11 months and 24 days.
1862	19th April. Louisa Stewart Murray Duff , who died at Edinburgh, aged 7 years 7 months and 24 days. "He shall gather the lambs in His arms and carry them in His bosom." "In Thy presence is fulness of joy."
1863	3rd February. John Athole William Duff , aged 1 year 11 months and 17 days.
1866	8th June. Mary Helen Simpson , born 19th June 1817, daughter of the late George Meikle, Superintending Surgeon, H. S. Force, and for 30 years the beloved wife of Colonel G. W. T. Simpson, R.A. The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. This tablet is erected by a loving husband and daughter.
1869	8th November. Filice Carissimæ Sophie Ashe, King Nate, 25th January 1867. Hunc Lapid. Parentes Miserrimi Posuimus Parum Stetit Apud Nos.
1874	— Helen Roza, wife of Boyd Horsbrugh , Esq., of the Madras Civil Service, and youngest daughter of James Dorward, Esq., of the Madras Civil Service, born at Ootacamund, 13th July 1848, died at Madras, 30th August 1874. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

1878	15th October. The Rev. David Fenn, M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, son of the late Rev. Joseph Fenn , Minister of Blackheath Park Church, England, born at Cottayam, 29th June 1826. For 26 years a missionary of the Church Missionary Society, 17 years itinerant in North Tinnevely, in Ceylon and around Madras, and the last 9, Secretary of the Madras Corresponding Committee. His self-forgotten love, his all-embracing sympathy, his constant joyfulness, his devotion to his Master's service, gained for him the high esteem and warm affection of his European and Native brethren. "Into Thine hands I commit my spirit, Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of Truth," One family we dwell in Him, One church, above, beneath, though now divided by the stream—the narrow stream of death.
1879	19th April. I.H.S.—I believe in the Communion of Saints; in loving memory of my dear husband George Hardinge , M.A., M.I.C.E., Resident Engineer of the Madras Railway Company, born in Dublin, 20th January 1831. Amavimus, Amamus, Amabimus.

1824	18th July. Sacred to the memory of Charles Harwood Higginson , Esq., Senior Judge of the Court of Appeal and Circuit for the Southern Division of this Presidency, who departed this life at Trichinopoly. Aged 40 years. Impressed with a deep sense of duty to his Creator, he discharged it in the true spirit of Christianity with meekness and humility. A pious and dutiful son, an attached and affectionate husband, a kind and generous master, a warm and sincere friend;—these were his virtues in private life; in the discharge of his public duties, he evinced a sound judgment, diligent and unwearied attention, a just but merciful consideration of the merits and demerits of those whom it was his duty to judge, pure and incorruptible integrity. His surviving friends have raised this monument in testimony of their love, esteem and respect for one of the best of men.
1825	29th March. Sacred to the memory of Captain Andrew French , Captain John Spottiswoode Trotter , Captain Thomas Howell , Captain John Randall , Lieutenant Phillip Cook , and John Cochrane , Esq., M.D., of the 16th Regiment, Native Infantry. The former was killed on the—in the attack on the fortified heights of Arracan, the others fell victims to the fever which in 1824 and 1825 proved so fatal to His Majesty's and the Honourable Company's Troops, employed during the war against the Burmese. This slab has been erected by their brother-officers in testimony of their esteem and regard.

1832	12th September. Sacred to the memory of James Stephen Lushington , Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, who died at the early age of 28 years, second son of the Right Honourable S. R. Lushington, M.P., late Governor of Madras, and of Anne Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Lord George Harris, late Governor of Madras. Distinguished on his first arrival in India by superior talents and acquirements and passing with rapid success through his studies in the College of Fort William, he gave early promise of that intellectual and moral worth which is recorded with admiring friendship by the pious and accomplished Heber and which his short but brilliant career in this Presidency developed and matured as the Private Secretary of the Governor. He acquired by his impartial courtesy the esteem of every branch of the public service, while his many virtues and endearing qualities secured the approbation and realized the hopes of his affectionate and bereaved father. This monument is erected by the society which adorned as a just tribute to his departed excellence.
1833	— Viro optimo integerrimo Parentibus Consanguineis, amicis, sociis, dilectissimo. De patriâ bene merito Canaræ primum deinde Maduræ, in Hæc Regione Orientali, Præfecto, Neville Somerville Cameron , Morte Heu! immatura Surrepto, non uxorsed desponsata virgo, non vidua tametsi viduata nimis P. C. Flens Fidens, Sperans, Vixit Annos XLI, Obiit. A.D. MDCCCXXXIII.
1833	2nd November. Sacred to the memory of Amelia, the beloved wife of Captain C. L. Boileau of Her Majesty's Rifle Brigade and only child of Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Adam, K.C.B., Governor of Madras; she died at Bangalore after a few days' illness. Aged 21 years.
1836	2nd September and 2nd October. This simple tablet recordeth the names of an affectionate husband and of a dutiful son, Lieutenant-Colonel William Garrard and Lieutenant William Garrard , late of the Madras Engineers, who died at the Neilgherry Hills, the former on—, aged 56, the latter on—, aged 26. Colonel Garrard, through a course of 40 years, gallantly, zealously and with fidelity served his king and country and rose to the honorable station of Chief Engineer, but while thus discharging the duties thereof, the Almighty Ruler of events was pleased to change his earthly abode for a better mansion. His virtuous son was emulating the father's bright example as a faithful servant when his days were likewise numbered. The afflicted widowed mother finds relief in this brief record.

Tablets in St. George's Cathedral—cont.
1837	5th February. Sacred to the memory of the Right Reverend Daniel Corrie , LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. "God forbid that I should glory save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world." With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honourable East India Company and from thence he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See—By the Grace of the Holy Ghost, his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of Salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten to kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.
1840	31st July. Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Maclean , of the Madras Army, late Resident at the Court of Travancore, who died at Coimbatore in the 59th year of his age, after a long and painful illness borne with much submission and terminated in a calm but settled hope of a glorious resurrection in Jesus Christ. The value of his services as a public officer and the manly, generous and attractive qualities of his moral character were well known and extremely appreciated while the retiring simplicity of his religious feelings was his peculiar characteristic as a Christian. This tablet is erected by his children in token of their love to the memory of a most tender and indulgent father and of their gratitude for the devotion with which for their sakes he sacrificed his health, and as it ultimately proved, his life, by an uninterrupted residence in India of more than 37 years. His remains are interred at Ootacamund, in the same grave with those of his beloved wife, whom he lost after a happy union of 30 years, and whom he mourned with a sorrow which time only rendered more touching and sincere.
1842	21st July. Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel James Drever , of the 6th Regiment, Madras Infantry, who died from the effects of a coup de soleil whilst gallantly leading his regiment at the storming of the fortress of Chinkeang-foo in China, aged 43 years, and was buried on its ramparts. Also to the memory of Lieutenant and Adjutant James Forsyth of the same regiment, who died of cholera on the expedition to China on board the Honourable Company's Transport Walmer Castle at sea, 12th April 1842, aged 31 years. As a token of esteem and regard this tablet is erected by their brother-officers.
1843	20th September. This marble tablet is dedicated by his eldest son to the memory of the Honourable Sir John David Norton , Kt., who was appointed Her Majesty's Puisne Justice at Madras, 1841, and who died and was buried at sea on the—in the 56th year of his age, after having won universal respect and esteem during his brief tenure of office. He was a man exemplary in every relation of life, a lover of all that is good and beautiful and true. His last words were witness to the purity of his whole life—"God's will be done, I have nothing to fear."
1844	26th September. Sacred to the memory of Thomas Moore Lane , Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to the East India Company, on the Madras establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawab and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale, Kt., and C.B., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honourable labours on—, aged 47 years. This tablet is erected as a memorial of affection and respect for a beloved friend, who being dead yet speaketh both in the example of his life and the blessed testimony he has left of the ground of his faith and hope:— "I desire on this solemn occasion to record my hopes of a joyful resurrection through faith in the atoning blood of my dear Redeemer being justified by faith, I have peace with God, before whom I shall stand on the judgment day not in my own righteousness, which is indeed as filthy rags; but in the perfect and imputed righteousness of Christ Jesus, my Lord and my God. This is the anchor of my soul. "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith."—Heb. 12, 1-2.

1845	17th January. Sacred to the memory of John Dent , Esq., Civil Servant and Provisional Member of Council of this Presidency. He died at Calcutta in the 50th year of his age. Lamented in his public capacity as one who in the course of 30 years' uninterrupted service had gained the complete confidence and respect of those officially connected with him and the distinguished approbation of both the Home and Indian Governments. In private life by his amiable and generous disposition, his overflowing kindness, his untiring zeal for the good of all classes and his high integrity of character he won the hearts of all who knew him. This monument is erected by the numerous European and Native friends to whom he was thus endeared, in testimony of their affection and esteem and as a memorial of his public and private virtues— "Whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things."—Phil. iv—8.
1845	9th February. Sacred to the memory of William Griffith , Esq., F.R.S., Madras Medical Service, born at Ilam in the county of Surrey, March 1810. He had attained to the highest eminence in the scientific world and was one of the most distinguished Botanists of the age. He acquired his knowledge by personal investigation in the different provinces of British India, and in the neighbouring kingdoms from the banks of the Helmund and Oxus to the Straits of Malacca, where in the capacity of Civil Assistant Surgeon he died in the 35th year of his age and the 13th year of his public service in India. His early death is deeply deplored by numerous private friends, and his loss to the cause of science elicited a public and emphatic expression of regret from the Governor-General of India. This tablet is erected as an humble tribute to his memory by a few of his medical brethren of the Medical Service.
1845	21st December. Sacred to the memory of Major George Broadfoot , C.B., 34th Madras Light Infantry, of Kirkwall in the Orkneys, and of London. His valour, foresight and science mainly contributed to the success of the glorious defence of Jellalabad, and in the ensuing Affghan Campaign, he with his brave Corps of Mountain Sappers acquired enduring renown. His diplomatic and military services as Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces and as Governor-General's Agent on the North-West Frontier at a most important crisis of our Indian Empire called forth the eloquent eulogy of Sir H. Hardinge, that he was as brave "as he was able and second to none in all the great qualities of an accomplished officer." He fell at the battle of Feroseshahar in his 39th year, acting as Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General. "Though severely wounded, he continued heroically to lead and animate the troops in the assault until mortally wounded in the Sikh camp at the moment of victory," the last of three brothers who died for their country on the battlefields of Asia—Raised by public subscription throughout the Presidency of Madras.
1846	10th February. Sacred to the memory of Major-General Sir Robert Henry Dick , K.C.B., K.C.H., of Tullymet, N.B., one of the heroes of the Peninsular war, who after distinguished services in H.M.'s 42nd Regiment Royal Highlanders, which regiment he brought out of action at Quatre Bras, closed a long and brilliant military career on the memorable field of Sobraon.—Raised in grateful admiration by the public of the Presidency of Madras where, for some time, he held the Chief Military Command.
1854	16th May. Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel John Johnston , Lieutenant and Adjutant Henry Daly , Lieutenant E. J. Bamford , Assistant Surgeon M. The list has to be thoroughly recast and printed according to the order followed in the N. Arcob list. I have noted in pencil the Native names. The list in each ceremony should be arranged Chronologically and not alphabetically and the Surnames should be printed in Capital letters.
A Christian clerk will perhaps be better able to distinguish the surnames from the Christian names. A copy of the N. Arcob list is put up

No. 36, ECCLESIASTICAL, 30th JUNE 1896.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From C. H. A. HILL, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 6th May 1896, No. 149.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letters marginally noted, and to say that it has been observed that the list of tombs and monuments in the Madras Presidency, possessing historical or archaeological interest, which was received with your communication, dated 16th February 1895, does not contain any information regarding the monument in St. George's Cathedral, Madras, to the memory of Bishop Heber. The Governor-General in Council considers that this monument is deserving of notice, notwithstanding the fact that the list contains an entry relating to the tomb in St. John's Church at Trichinopoly in which the remains of the bishop were interred. I am therefore to request that, with the permission of the Governor in Council, the necessary particulars of the monument referred to may be furnished for inclusion in the list.

2. I am to take the opportunity of stating that the Government of India also propose to print and publish, in a separate volume, lists of the statues, monuments and busts which have been erected in public places in the three Presidency towns in honour of distinguished servants of the State, both Civil and Military. I am accordingly to ask that, with the permission of His Excellency in Council, a list of such monuments in the town of Madras may be prepared and forwarded.

ORDER—No. 36, Ecclesiastical, dated 30th June 1896.

The Collector of Madras will, in communication with the Public Works Department, the President, Municipal Commission, the Commissioner of Police and the various Ecclesiastical authorities concerned, arrange for the careful re-examination and verification of the lists * of tombs and monuments in the Madras City already compiled, and for the early submission of revised copies to Government for transmission to the Government of India.

2. He will also compile a separate list of statues, monuments and busts erected in public places in honour of distinguished servants of the State, as required by the Government of India, embodying therein all the information he can collect regarding them (i) origin, (ii) locality, (iii) surroundings, (iv) inscriptions, (v) dates of erection, &c., together with sketches on one simple and uniform scale.

(True Extract.)

To the Collector of Madras,
President, Municipal Commission, Madras,
Commissioner of Police,
Public Works Department,
Right Rev. the Bishop of Madras,
Venerable the Archdeacon,
Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland,
H. Reed da Silva, D.D.,
Secretaries of Missionary Societies, with copies of list.
