Extract from G.O., 12th April 1883, No. 71, Ecclesiastical.

"Provided with these facilities (a Cash Book and Ledger, approved by the Accountant-General, with full and clear instructions as to the mode of using them, circulated to the several Chaplains in April 1882), the Chaplains should have little difficulty in keeping their accounts accurately made up to date. They will accordingly be impressed with their responsibility in this matter, as well as with the importance which the Government attach to their rendering these accounts punctually."

COONNOOR, 30th JUNE 1896.

The accompanying summary exhibits the following general results:—

|                                                                   | RS.      | A. | P. |

| 1892 .. .. . | 1,23,209 | 2  | 0½ | 1894 .. .. . | 1,51,523 | 12 | 7  |
| 1893 .. .. . | 1,40,464 | 3  | 8½ | 1895 .. .. . | 1,52,584 | 14 | 9½ |

Though the amount for 1895-96 thus falls short of that for 1894-95 by Rupees 3,872, it exceeds the average of the last three years by Rupees 521.

3. The whole amount spent on parochial objects, as shown in the first five expenditure columns, is Rupees 1,84,933-0-3. But as all grants, fees, interest, &c., are, no doubt, spent on parochial objects, and these amount together to Rupees 76,689-12-5, it follows that the amount of voluntary contributions spent on parochial objects is Rupees 1,08,243-3-10 (last year Rupees 1,25,581-9-9).

4. The amount spent on non-parochial objects, as shown in the next five columns, is Rupees 30,637-11-10 (last year Rupees 23,227-9-10), or twenty per cent. of the whole amount of voluntary contributions spent. This general result is very satisfactory: but there are a few stations which have not contributed to this result.

5. The amounts returned as spent in each station on non-parochial objects (as nearly as can be ascertained) are subjoined side by side with the amounts of voluntary contributions raised in each:—

| Stations.                               | Voluntary Contributions. | Spent on non-parochial objects. | Stations.                  | Voluntary Contributions. | Spent on non-parochial objects. |

8. Remittances have been sent from fourteen congregations (last year twenty) to both the Missionary Societies; fourteen others (last year ten) to the S.P.G. only; fourteen (last year eleven) to the Church Missionary Society only. Twelve others have contributed for local mission work. Fifteen (besides a few minor out-stations) have contributed nothing.

I regret to observe that some stations, including even important ones, have contributed far less than might be reasonably expected. It is a duty which every Clergyman owes to his people, whether they be many or few, whether at head-station or at out-station, and a means of edifying them, to set before them the subject of missions and to invite their sympathy, aid, and prayers.

It is very gratifying that as many as thirty-five congregations have contributed to one or other (a few of them to two) of the Agencies for the conversion of the Jews.

Twenty-two sent aid, before the end of the official year, for the relief of the Christian sufferers in Armenia.

9. Forty-three stations (forty last year) have contributed to the Additional Clergy Fund, and four (last year two) to the Colonial and Continental Church Society. The amounts contributed in the three years have been—

The Clergy, especially the Chaplains, are earnestly requested to ask the help of their congregations for the very important work of providing as far as possible due ministrations for such communities of our fellow-churchmen as are not entitled to have a Resident Chaplain.
