CURRENT No. 181

St. Andrews Church

Bangalore

17th July 1896

From
The Acting Union Chaplain
Church of Scotland
Madras

To The Honble,
The Chief Secretary
To The Government of Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will kindly submit the following representation for the favorable consideration of His Excellency, The Governor in Council.

2. For some time past the congregation of St. Andrews Church, Bangalore, with a view to enhancing the beauty of the Church, have endeavored to raise funds sufficient to fill the large Chancel Windows with stained glass; and as the result of local effort, aided by the generosity of friends at home, the first instalment of the glass required has now reached Bangalore.

The cost of the glass thus received is £140 (or about Rs 2500), and this when placed in the windows will become the property of the Government.

3. In passing through the Customs House at Madras, dues were levied to the amount of Rs (125) One Hundred and Twenty Five - which forms a heavy extra charge for the congregation to pay.

4. In consideration of the large amount already raised, and of the fact that the glass is to beautify a Government Church, I would respectfully request that H.E. The Governor in Council may be pleased to grant a refund of this sum.

5. I may add that the window has been designed and executed by Messrs Ballantyne & Gardiner, the well known glass workers of Edinburgh.

Trusting that His Excellency the Governor ^{in Council} may be pleased to grant the favour now asked

I have the honor to be Your most obt. Servt.
J. N. Ogilvie
Ad. Churchlain

stating that the congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Bangalore, aided by friends at home,
have raised a sum of £140 for a stained glass for the chancel window of the church, and that the glass has arrived from Scotland; and requesting the payment of the charge import charge amounting to Rs 125 in view of the fact that the glass ^{having} ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~imported~~ ^{become} the property of Govt.
