ECCLIASTICAL DEPARTMENT,

No. 1709.

Madras 10th November 1897.

From

C. H. Pelly,

THE REV. ~~S. MORLEY~~, M.A.,

BISHOP'S CHAPLAIN,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Fort Saint George
Madras.

SIR,

With reference to the accompanying recommendations, I have the honor, by desire of the Right Reverend the Bishop of Madras, to state that Reverend A. A. Sharp, Acting Chaplain of Wellington, has informed him that the station is almost empty, the Staffordshire Regiment having left for Burmah, and that no Regiment is likely to come in its place till the end of February, that there are very few men in the Depot and that these are decreasing in number week by week. In these circumstances, and as the number of Chaplains for other places in the Diocese is at present insufficient, the Bishop makes the accompanying recommendations.

2. It is proposed that Mr. Jones shall hold one service at Wellington each Sunday, and to visit the station on two other days in each week and be responsible for funerals and other occasional duty.

3. This arrangement is recommended only until March when it is expected that the Troops will return; and the vacancy caused by the death of the late Reverend E. J. Beatty will then be filled up.

4. Should His Excellency the Governor approve of this proposal, it seems reasonable that some allowance should be made to Mr. Jones for the extra work, I have therefore the honor by desire of the Right Reverend the Bishop to request that Government will consider the amount of such allowance, and under what head it should be made.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. H. Kelly.

Bishop's Chaplain.

My doubt as to the fact that the pay being personal precludes the grant of an extra allowance has now been replied to. Please explain this. If it is so, I think the Govt. should be asked to give the conveyance allowance.
I calculate that the

note for the Asst Secy
Please see H's note below. The fact that the pay of a chaplain
is personal precludes
him (it is thought)
from obtaining any extra allowance
without special sanction: and this sanction must be obt'd. from India.

This was stated in the note for the H's.

A chaplain for example whose pay is Rs 500 would get no more than that.
Even if sent

an extra allowance were specially

Please see article 640. C. S. R., the rules for the calculation of extra allowance in other parts of the code are based on the "pay of the appointee". In case of Chaplain this is nil. Their pay being personal, moreover the ordinary rules do not apply to Chaplain, who are under rules of their own.
