The raison d'être of an advance at home is apparent: it is not so out here. If anything is given in this case I submit that it should be one month.

To

THE Venerable the Archdeacon of Madras
at Blair Athol, Coonoor.

SIR.

With reference to your letter No 1664 dated the 25 June 1897, I have the honour to state that, under Article 81 Civil Service Regulations, an officer appointed in England is entitled to an advance on arrival in India, but no provision exists for the grant of advance to officers appointed in India to join their first appointments.

Attention is invited to Article 137 (a) Civil Account code, under which the Government of Madras can sanction any advance it thinks fit.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

your most obedt. servt.,

THE VENERABLE W. WESTON ELWES, M.A.,

To

Archdeacon of Madras,

In charge of the Diocese.

The Honorable

The Chief Secretary

to Government.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction, under Article 134 a, Civil Account Code, an advance of pay to Reverends C. F. Brey and E. Bull, as no provision exists for the grant of advance to officers appointed in India to join their first appointments, in the Civil Service Regulations.

2. It seems clear that Clergymen joining the Establishment in India may need the advance as much as those who arrive from England.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Weston Elwes

Archdeacon of Madras

In charge of the Diocese.
