Dear Archdeacon,

I am writing in reference to the proposed transfer of a Chaplain from your establishment to the staff of this diocese. I do not know what stage has been reached in Madras, but the other day I received from the Government of Bombay a Notification that the Rev. Cyril Mayhew would be assigned to Lahore on his approaching return from leave. Mr. Mayhew was desirous of coming to this Diocese as he needs a dry climate and I was no less desirous to have him.

I would now ask you whether, if the transfer of a Chaplain from Madras is agreed to, I might hope to have my old friend Nugent as the Chaplain transferred. As you know he began his Indian work in this Diocese first in the C. M. S. and then he joined our A. C. I. I know he has an affection for the Punjab and believe he would not be averse to the transfer if the authorities of your Diocese assented. From my side, there is not only the advantage of knowing him well, but his acquaintance with Hindustani would be of service as we have some small native flocks to whom the Chaplains minister at some of our most important stations like Ambala, Rawal Pindi and Sialkot.

I should be very much obliged if you could tell me whether there is any hope of Mr. Nugent's transfer being sanctioned, if a Chaplain is given to this Diocese, and also when it is likely that that sanction to the transfer of a Chaplain may be granted by the Government of Madras.

Believe me &c.
(Signed) Henry J. Lahore.

From

THE VENERABLE W. WESTON ELWES, M.A.,

Archdeacon of Madras,

To

In charge of the Diocese.

The Honorable
The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

I have the honor to state in continuation of my Letter No 1662, 24th June 1897, that I have received a letter from the Right Reverend the Bishop of Lahore, of which I enclose an extract, expressing a wish that the Reverend C. P. C. Nugent, Senior Chaplain Madras Establishment, should be transferred to the Lahore Diocese.

2. Mr. Nugent was at work in the Lahore Diocese for some years before he was appointed a Chaplain on the Madras Establishment, and he has written to me expressing a decided wish to return to the Diocese of Lahore, if he may be permitted to do so.

3. Mr. Nugent is a valuable Chaplain and has done very good work in this Diocese, but I am not prepared under the circumstances to raise any objection to his transfer should the Government approve of its taking place.

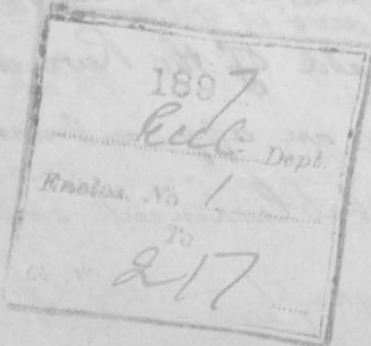

4. Should however this transfer be decided on, the vacancy caused by the death of the Reverend A. Bird will have to be filled by an appointment to the Madras Ecclesiastical Establishment and not as suggested by me in paragraph 3 of my letter
