To

The Venerable
The Archdeacon of Madras.

Sir,

The Cemetery at Lovedale, which covers an acre of ground, is without any protection whatever, and cattle are constantly straying into it. At one time it was surrounded by a trench, which is now filled up.

2. I have the honor, therefore, to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for a grant of Rs 2000/- for the erection of a masonry wall, 900' x 7' x 1 1/2'.
